The New Testament with Commentary

Third Edition

Dr. Wilbur Pickering, ThM, PhD

Both the translation and the notes are the responsibility of Wilbur N. Pickering, ThM, PhD, being based on his edition of the Greek New Testament, according to the only significant line of transmission, both ancient and independent, that has a demonstrable archetypal form in all 27 books. The Greek Text of which this is a translation, and articles explaining the preference, may be downloaded free from:

Foreword

Wilbur N. Pickering is a Christian missionary living in Brasília, Brazil. He has a ThM and a PhD in Linguistics. Of those actively involved in NT textual criticism, no one holds a more radical view in defense of the inerrancy and objective authority of the Sacred Text. This includes the position that the precise original wording has been preserved to our day and that we can know what it is.

Dr. Pickering joined Wycliffe Bible Translators in 1958. After three years of preparation for the field, he arrived in Brazil in 1961, where he and his wife began the translation work with the Apurinã people. In 1996 he resigned from Wycliffe to pursue other interests.

For some time Dr. Pickering has felt that among the many hundreds of Greek manuscripts known to exist today, surely God would have preserved the original wording. After years of searching and comparing Greek NT manuscripts, he has concluded that God used a certain line of transmission to preserve that wording. That line is by far the largest and most cohesive of all manuscript groups, or families. It is distinguished from all other groups by the high level of care with which it was copied (Dr. Pickering holds copies of perfect manuscripts for 22 of the 27 books). It is both ancient and independent, and is the only one that has a demonstrable archetypal form in all 27 books. That archetypal form has been empirically, objectively identified by a wide comparison of family representatives, and it is indeed error free. As he expected, that error-free text is not seriously different from some of the other “good” Greek texts. Nevertheless he has done an English translation based on it.

In the footnotes the reader will frequently encounter the description of certain Greek manuscripts as being “of objectively inferior quality”. The objective demonstration to which he refers may be found in Herman C. Hoskier's Codex B and Its Allies, a Study and an Indictment (London: Bernard Quaritch, 1914, 2 volumes). For a quick and easy introduction to the question, the reader may consult his article, “Copyist Care Quotient”, available from his site: www.prunch.org.

The Gospel According to MATTHEW

Abraham to Christ—1997 BC → 5 BC

- 1 <sup>1A</sup> genealogy<sup>a</sup> of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham:
- <sup>2</sup>Abraham begot Isaac, then Isaac begot Jacob, then Jacob begot Judah and his brothers;
  - <sup>3</sup>then Judah begot Perez and Zerah by Tamar, then Perez begot Hezron, then Hezron begot Ram;
  - <sup>4</sup>then Ram begot Amminadab, then Amminadab begot Nahshon, then Nahshon begot Salmon;
  - <sup>5</sup>then Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab, then Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, then Obed begot Jesse,
  - <sup>6</sup>then Jesse begot David the king. Then King David begot Solomon by her who was of Uriah,<sup>b</sup>
  - <sup>7</sup>then Solomon begot Rehoboam, then Rehoboam begot Abijah, then Abijah begot Asa;
  - <sup>8</sup>then Asa begot Jehoshaphat, then Jehoshaphat begot Joram, then Joram begot Uzziah;
  - <sup>9</sup>then Uzziah begot Jotham, then Jotham begot Ahaz, then Ahaz begot Hezekiah;
  - <sup>10</sup>then Hezekiah begot Manasseh, then Manasseh begot Amon, then Amon begot Josiah;
  - <sup>11</sup>then Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time of the Babylonian captivity.
  - <sup>12</sup>After the Babylonian captivity Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, then Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel;
  - <sup>13</sup>then Zerubbabel begot Abiud, then Abiud begot Eliakim, then Eliakim begot Azor;
  - <sup>14</sup>then Azor begot Zadok, then Zadok begot Achim, then Achim begot Eliud;
  - <sup>15</sup>then Eliud begot Eleazar, then Eleazar begot Matthan, then Matthan begot Jacob;
  - <sup>16</sup>then Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom<sup>c</sup> was begotten Jesus, who is called Christ.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>a</sup> There is no definite article in the Greek Text, as there should not be, since there is more than one genealogy; see Luke 3:23-38. For a discussion, please see “Mary’s genealogy” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> Sins may be forgiven, but your curriculum remains—3,000 years later we still read about David’s sin (Bathsheba is not named, she was Uriah’s wife). The only women included in the genealogy (Tamar, Rahab, Ruth [Deuteronomy 23:3], Bathsheba) represent some violation—perhaps to emphasize the grace of God.

Conception of Jesus—5 BC

<sup>a</sup> This is really Joseph’s genealogy. As foster father he confers the legal right to the throne of David on Jesus (which may be why David receives such emphasis, as being king). Since the throne of David has to do with the covenant people, this genealogy only goes back to Abraham. In contrast, Mary’s genealogy (Luke 3:23-38) goes back to Adam and God—Jesus was literally son of both Adam and God. It has been observed that from David to the captivity there were seventeen kings, but Ahaziah reigned only one year, Amon only two and Abijah only three, so they would not count as generations—Matthew is correct in saying there were fourteen ‘generations’. For further discussion of perceived difficulties in this genealogy, please see the Appendix: Some related anomalies in Matthew’s genealogy of the Christ.

<sup>d</sup> To whom does “His people” refer? To actually receive the salvation one must believe into Jesus, so the reference would appear to be to those who have identified with Him as their Savior.

<sup>e</sup> The quote is from Isaiah 7:14. Matthew uses the Greek ‘parthenos’, which unambiguously means ‘virgin’, to translate the Hebrew ‘alma’, which is ambiguous—it refers to a young woman who may be a virgin, but not necessarily. Isaiah did not use ‘bethulah’, which refers unambiguously to a virgin, because, I suppose, the context demands an immediate fulfillment, which was supplied by Isaiah’s wife, as the next chapter makes clear. It follows that translations of Isaiah 7:14 that render ‘young woman’ are not doing violence to the Hebrew Text.

<sup>g</sup> Apparently there was some urgency involved; it sounds like he did it that same night (Mary was at least three months pregnant)—at night there would not be any onlookers.

<sup>h</sup> The use of this conjunction implies that they had normal relations after Jesus’ birth, and in fact they had at least six children together. In the Bible the verb ‘to know’ is used to refer to sexual intercourse. Matthew is said to have ‘published’ his Gospel in 38 or 39 AD. By then Mary would be past the age when she could have children, even if she was still alive. So for Matthew to write ‘firstborn’ means there were others later; if Mary had had only one child Matthew would have written ‘only born’.

<sup>i</sup> Only 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “her” and “the firstborn” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). That is eight manuscripts against 1,454 that have been collated, but there are probably over 300 others yet to be collated that will swell the number against the eight. Why do so-called ‘evangelical’ scholars insist on damaging the Text based on such ridiculously inferior and inadequate ‘evidence’?

Jesus is born—4 BC

The ‘wise men’

2 <sup>1</sup>Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men [magi] from the East came into Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>saying: “Where is he who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the East and have come to worship him.” <sup>3</sup>When Herod the king heard it he became agitated, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup>And gathering all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>So they said to him: “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it stands written by the prophet:

are not at all the least among the rulers of Judah, for out of you will come a Ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod, calling the wise men secretly, determined from them the time when the star appeared. <sup>8</sup>And directing them to Bethlehem he said, “When you get there, search carefully for the young child; and should you find him, bring back word to me, so that I also may go and worship him.”<sup>c</sup>

The Star!

<sup>d</sup> It reappeared after two years. They had undertaken an expensive and dangerous journey in the dark, as it were. Now God confirms that they are on the right track. They are beside themselves with joy! It guided them to the very house.

<sup>e</sup> Joseph probably used the stable (Luke 2:7) for only one night; the next day he would look for more adequate quarters. That Jesus was born at night is clear from Luke 2:8-12. The angels appeared at night (verse 8) and said “this day” (verse 11)—the shepherds were Jews, and the Jewish day began at 6:00 p.m. Since the shepherds broadcasted the message delivered by the angel, any people in the town who loved God would want to help Joseph. The Text says ‘young child’, not ‘baby’—the visit to Jerusalem (Luke 2:22-38) is now well behind them.

<sup>f</sup> They may have arrived at night. All the events recorded in verses 1-8 presumably happened the same day. It is only some ten miles from Jerusalem to Bethlehem, but it may have been already dark when they started out. The Text says that they saw Jesus and Mary; Joseph is not mentioned. Perhaps he was sleeping in another room. If the magi took off immediately, as I suppose, then the angel roused Joseph as soon as they were out the door.

<sup>g</sup> Because the gifts were three, some have assumed that the magi were three, but nowhere does the Text specify the number. Now, as then, those who are wise still seek Him. The gifts were providential to meet their financial needs in Egypt and beyond, quite apart from any symbolism.

The flight to Egypt

<sup>13</sup>Now when they had departed, again, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream saying: “Get up, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt and stay there until I tell you; because Herod is about to seek the young Child to destroy Him!” <sup>14</sup>So he got up and took the young Child and His mother by night<sup>a</sup> and departed for Egypt. <sup>15</sup>And he was there until the death of Herod, so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet should be fulfilled, namely: “Out of Egypt I called my Son.”<sup>b</sup>

The massacre

<sup>16</sup>Then Herod, when he saw that he had been deceived by the wise men, became very angry, and he sent out and massacred all the boys who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, namely:

<sup>18</sup>“A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great mourning;
Rachel weeping for her children and not wanting to be comforted, because they are no more.”<sup>d</sup>

The return to Natsareth

<sup>a</sup> That same night, immediately. A suspicious man like Herod doubtless sent a spy to keep an eye on the magi. When they took off in the opposite direction Herod would have been informed within a few hours. If Joseph had waited until morning it would probably have been too late.

<sup>b</sup> The time spent in Egypt was possibly only a month or two. The quote is from Hosea 11:1, which in that context refers to Israel, but Jesus was/is literally God's Son—O. T. prophecies often have a dual reference/application.

<sup>d</sup> Ramah was a district of Bethlehem. The quote is from Jeremiah 31:15. The birth of the Savior resulted in the massacre of many infants; being the fulfillment of prophecy means it was part of the Plan. God's ways seem strange to us at times, but He is under no obligation to explain His actions. (However, based on Jeremiah 31:16 I wonder if God did not compensate the parents somehow.)

<sup>e</sup> The Text is plainly plural here, so who else besides Herod had died? That massacre would not be a nice thing to have on the record, and it may be that Herod had ordered the execution of others who were involved.

Ministry of John the baptizer—26 AD

3 <sup>1</sup>Now in those days John the Baptizer began preaching in the wilderness of Judea <sup>2</sup>and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near!”
<sup>3</sup>For this is he who was referred to by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

 ‘Prepare in the wilderness the way of the LORD, make His paths straight.’”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them: “Brood of vipers! Who tipped you off to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance, <sup>9</sup>and don’t even think to say within yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as father,’<sup>c</sup> for I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. <sup>10</sup>Indeed, already the ax is being laid to the root of the trees.<sup>d</sup> So every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup>“I baptize you with water unto repentance, but the One coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry.<sup>e</sup> He will baptize you into Hebrew people assumed the consonants נצ, replacing the correct tsadde with zayin. This technical information is necessary as background for the next footnote.

- <sup>a</sup> Neither ‘Nazareth’ nor ‘Nazarene’, spelled with a zayin, is to be found in the Old Testament, but there is a prophetic reference to Messiah as the Branch, netser—Isaiah 11:1—and several to the related word, tsemach—Isaiah 4:2, Jeremiah 23:5, 33:15; Zechariah 3:8, 6:12. So Matthew is quite right—the prophets (plural, being at least three) referred to Christ as the Branch. Since Jesus was a man, He would be the ‘Branch-man’, from ‘Branch-town’. Which brings us to the word ‘natsorean’. The familiar ‘Nazarene’ (Naζαρηνος) [Natsarene] occurs in Mark 1:24, 14:67, 16:6 and Luke 4:34, but here in Matthew 2:23 and in fourteen other places, including Acts 22:8 where the glorified Jesus calls Himself that, the word is ‘Natsorean’ (Naζοραιος), which is quite different. (Actually, in Acts 22:8 Jesus introduced Himself to Saul as ‘the Natsorean’, which Saul would understand as a reference to the Messiah.) To my surprise, Pilate put “the Natsorean” in the accusation above the cross—John 19:19. I have been given to understand that the Nazareth of Jesus’ day had been founded some 100 years before by a Branch family who called it Branch town; they were very much aware of the prophecies about the Branch and fully expected the Messiah to be born from among them—they called themselves Branch-people (Natsoreans). Of course everyone else thought it was a big joke and tended to look down on them. “Can anything good...?”
- <sup>b</sup> The reference is to Isaiah 40:3. Hebrew poetry, and prose, makes heavy use of parallel or synonymous statements. From the context in Isaiah it seems clear that “in the wilderness” goes with the verb ‘prepare’, not ‘call out’. But why a straight road in the wilderness? Any road facilitates the movement of people and goods, but a straight road through accidented terrain is a major asset. (Actually, Isaiah 40:3-4 describes the construction of a modern super highway.) John was the voice, but it was the people who had to make the road. So how about us? Are we supposed to be making such a road, and if so, how? At the very least we should be proclaiming biblical values to the world by every available means.
- <sup>c</sup> They had notions of spiritual privilege based on birth, but as someone has said, God has no grandchildren. Later on Jesus will make clear that they did in fact reject John’s message—they were not baptized.
- <sup>d</sup> The Messiah was already present, and He would condemn the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- <sup>e</sup> Mark 1:7 has “untie His sandal straps”. John doubtless repeated this many times, to different audiences, and varied the expression; there is no discrepancy.

with Holy Spirit.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>His winnowing shovel is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”<sup>b</sup>

Baptism of Jesus

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup>But John tried to dissuade Him saying, “I have need to be baptized by You, and You are coming to me?”<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup>But in answer Jesus said to him, “Permit it now, because thus it is appropriate to us to fulfill all righteousness.”<sup>d</sup> Then he permitted Him. <sup>16</sup>And having been baptized Jesus came up directly from the water, when wow, the heavens were opened to Him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove and alighting upon Him.<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>And wow, a Voice from the heavens saying, “This is my Son, the beloved, in whom I am always well pleased!”<sup>f</sup>

Jesus tested by Satan

4 <sup>1</sup>Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tested by the devil. <sup>2</sup>And having fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry.<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>And coming to Him the tempter said, “Since you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>4</sup>But in answer He said, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but by every word coming out of God’s mouth.’”<sup>i</sup> <sup>5</sup>Then the devil takes Him into the holy city<sup>j</sup> and sets Him upon the

<sup>a</sup> There is no article with ‘Holy Spirit’, so I take the phrase as a proper name. The ‘and fire’ we are used to is read by only 20% of the Greek manuscripts. The 80% includes the best line of transmission. However, Luke 3:16 has the ‘and fire’. Note that it is Jesus who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. For more on this subject, please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Our Lord’s statement here seems difficult to us. Since Mark 1:4 and Luke 3:3 state that it was “a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins” but Jesus had no sins to repent of, in what sense was He “fulfilling all righteousness”? Perhaps as Messiah and Great High Priest He needed to identify Himself with those of His people who were truly repentant.

<sup>e</sup> The episode is presented from John’s perspective, while in Mark 1:11 and Luke 3:22 it is presented from Jesus’ perspective. Just as at Pentecost the Holy Spirit translated into the ears of the foreigners, I take it that here Jesus heard one thing and John another. See also in the Appendix: “This is’, or ‘You are?’”

<sup>g</sup> This episode was ordained by the Holy Spirit. Jesus had to confront Satan when He was physically the weakest He would ever be (40 days without food!). When Satan failed to defeat this weakened Jesus he was probably filled with despair—he now knew that he could never defeat Him. (But he would still try to kill Him.)

<sup>i</sup> See Deuteronomy 8:3. In order for us to live by every word, He would have to preserve them, until our time!

<sup>j</sup> ‘The holy city’ was evidently Jerusalem. One is tempted to ask, what was ‘holy’ about it?

pinnacle of the temple,<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>and says to Him, “Since you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written:

‘He will give orders to His angels about you, and they will lift you up on their hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, “It is also written: ‘You shall not test the LORD your God!’”<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>Again the devil takes Him to a very high mountain and shows Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>And he says to Him, “All these things I will give to you, if You will fall down and worship me.” <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus says to him: “Get behind me, Satan!<sup>e</sup> Because it is written: ‘You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only shall you serve.’”<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>Then the devil leaves Him, and then, angels came and began ministering to Him.<sup>g</sup>

way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations!
<sup>16</sup>The people sitting in darkness saw a great light, and upon those sitting in the place and shadow of death light has dawned.”<sup>j</sup>

Jesus calls four fishermen

<sup>17</sup>From then on Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near.”<sup>k</sup> <sup>18</sup>And walking by the Sea of Galilee He saw two brothers, Simon (the one called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a circular net into the sea (for they were fishermen). <sup>19</sup>And He says to them, “Follow me and

<sup>a</sup> This is literal; Satan has the power to transport things. Matthew has the correct sequence, whereas Luke inverts the order of tests 2 and 3 (Matthew uses adverbs of sequence, but Luke does not). For a more detailed analysis, please see “Harmonizing the accounts of the ‘temptation’” in the Appendix.

<sup>c</sup> See Deuteronomy 6:16. The point is to not put God to the test, to not deliberately do something irresponsible with the intention of obliging God to work a miracle to save you.

<sup>d</sup> This also is literal and obviously supernatural (since the world is a sphere, even from a satellite one can only see half of it). We have here a masterstroke of Satan—Jehovah the Son took on human form in order to recover what the first Adam had lost, and Satan offers it to Him on a silver platter, with just one ‘small’ condition...

I will make you fishers of men.”<sup>20</sup> So leaving the nets immediately they followed Him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup> And going on from there He saw two other brothers, James (the one of Zebedee) and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. And He called them. <sup>22</sup> So leaving the boat and their father immediately they followed Him.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every illness among the people. <sup>24</sup> So His fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were sick—suffering with various diseases and torments, and being demonized,<sup>c</sup> also epileptics and paralytics—and He healed them. <sup>25</sup> So large crowds followed Him—from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and beyond the Jordan.<sup>d</sup>

The Sermon on the Mount

5 <sup>1</sup> Now seeing the crowds He went up on the mountain, and upon His sitting down His disciples<sup>e</sup> approached Him.

for they will be comforted.

for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>d</sup> Luke 5:1 says that this same crowd was hungry to hear the Word of God, and they did indeed hear the Sermon on the Mount, but Jesus used healing and deliverance to attract the crowd.

<sup>f</sup> The ‘beatitudes’, there are eight of them, have a general application, being a type of invitation; Jesus invites people to embrace the values of the Kingdom, stating the benefits they will receive if they do. The ‘beatitudes’ should be interpreted from Jesus’ point of view, not ours or anyone else’s. Remember also that no benefit of the shed blood of God’s Lamb is automatic—they are all potential. God’s promises must be claimed, but first there are prior conditions that must be met. God’s part is guaranteed, but ours is not; the level of benefit varies from person to person. Remember the parable of the sower, or the soils: the seed that fell on the good ground produced at different levels—100%, 60%, 30%.

<sup>h</sup> To be ‘poor in spirit’ means to have a humble spirit. It does not refer to money, but to attitude. Someone may not like the term ‘poor’, but that is what the Text says. It will be well to remember that the Sovereign Creator was not born in an English speaking country, but in Israel, speaking Hebrew. For a detailed discussion, please see “Poor in spirit—Matthew 5:3” in the Appendix.

<sup>i</sup> If the Kingdom is theirs, then they are part of the Kingdom. Nobody gets into that Kingdom without a humble spirit, but not everyone with a humble spirit enters the Kingdom; not necessarily.

<sup>j</sup> The ‘mourning’ here is not crying because you hurt; nor is it weeping because you lost a loved one. It is mourning because of evil and sin, and their consequences. For a detailed discussion, please see “Lament, not weep—Matthew 5:4” in the Appendix.

- <sup>6</sup>Blessed are those hungering and thirsting for righteousness,<sup>b</sup> for they will be filled.
for they will be shown mercy.<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>Blessed are the pure in heart,<sup>d</sup> for they will see God.
for they will be called sons of God.

<sup>a</sup> 'Meek' is not 'weak', it is power under control. It was said of Moses that he was the meekest man in his time, precisely because he was also the most powerful. Jesus said of Himself that He was 'meek', and He was also powerful. But in what practical way can the 'meek' 'inherit the earth', beginning with where they live? For a detailed discussion, please see "Meek is not weak" in the Appendix.

<sup>c</sup> It seems clear that the purpose of this 'beatitude' is to promote mercy. We need to understand the difference between grace and mercy. To receive grace is to receive a benefit that is not deserved (a deserved benefit is a salary). To receive mercy is to be spared deserved punishment (for something bad that was done). Part of the importance of this 'beatitude' derives from the circumstance that the opposite is also true: someone who is not merciful will also not receive mercy. For a detailed discussion, please see "Merciful receives mercy" in the Appendix.

In James 2:12-13 we read: "Speak and act as being those who are about to be judged by a law of liberty (the judgment will be without mercy to the one not showing mercy). That law exalts mercy over judgment." This accords with the description that Jehovah gave of Himself to Moses, on that rarest of occasions: "Jehovah, God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth; keeping mercy unto the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children unto the third and the fourth generation" (Exodus 34:6-7). He keeps mercy to the 1000th generation, He punishes to the 4th; the proportion is 250:1. That is why it is important that we show mercy.

<sup>d</sup> A pure substance, like honey, is without mixture, is 100% honey. A pure person is without dirt. A pure heart has both of those qualities. In 2 Chronicles 16:9 Jehovah is looking for people "whose heart is loyal to Him"; people with a pure heart, without a mixture of other gods. For a detailed discussion, please see "Pure in heart" in the Appendix.

<sup>e</sup> "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of god." We may begin with two questions: 1) they make peace between whom? and 2) they will be 'called' by whom? For the other seven 'beatitudes', the result is overtly stated, but here Jesus did not say, 'they will be sons of God', but rather, 'they will be called sons of God'. But I should begin with the first question: 'make peace between whom?'—it will have to be an activity that God can bless.

To begin, it is not peace with God, because "there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men—a man!—Christ Jesus" (1 Timothy 2:5). "He Himself is our peace" (Ephesians 2:14), precisely because He is the "Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6). So then, make peace between whom? It cannot be to make peace with evil or with those who have sold themselves to evil. God Himself hates "all workers of iniquity" (Psalm 5:4-6); and He commands us to hate evil (Psalm 97:10). Further, "There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked" (Isaiah 57:21). And we have the Lord's own example: He never tried to conciliate the Sadducees and Pharisees; He denounced them in violent terms.

Well then, peace between whom? I would say that it is peace between persons, when there is discord between brothers in the church, or between families, or even between regions and peoples. Since wars always cause suffering to 'innocents', attempts to avoid war should be encouraged. Well, that is to say, with the exception of ideologies that are committed to destroying the good—such ideologies should be exterminated. If you are dying with cancer, do you want a doctor who is dedicated to making peace with the cancer?

"They will be called sons of God"—by whom? Is it by making peace that a person can save his soul? How does one become a child of God, in fact? Is it by works? There are certainly people in the world who want to promote peace, but who have never been regenerated by the Holy Spirit—are they sons of God? Would making peace be a passport to Heaven? Sovereign Jesus said: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no one goes to the Father except through me!" (John 14:6). Making peace is not the way; Jesus is the way. Therefore, I take it that it would not be God who calls them 'sons of God'. It would be the people who received the benefit of the peacemaking. Being both grateful and relieved, they could

persecuted on account of righteousness,<sup>a</sup> for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>11</sup>“Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and speak all kinds of evil against you, lying, because of Me. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and exult, because your reward in the heavens is great, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt becomes insipid, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing except to be thrown out and trampled down by the people.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city located upon a hill cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Nor do they light a lamp and place it under the hamper, but on the lampstand, and it shines on everything in the house. <sup>16</sup>So also let your light shine before the people, so that they may see your good works and may glorify your Father, who is in the heavens.<sup>e</sup>

Jesus interprets the Law

<sup>17</sup>“Do not suppose that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup>For assuredly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one iota nor one tittle shall pass away from the Law until everything happens.<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>Therefore, whoever annuls one of the least of these command-easily say, “You are a son of God”. They will be blessed by people, and by God Himself, but not with eternal effect.

<sup>a</sup> This eighth ‘beatitude’ carries the same promise as the first: “theirs is the kingdom of the heavens”. If the kingdom is theirs, they are part of it. For someone to accept suffering for a given cause (even more, as the suffering increases), he must be convinced of the correctness and the importance of that cause, and be firmly committed to it. The Text says, “those who have been persecuted”, which means that they already remained firm under persecution—they did not waver, did not give up.

Actually, it is precisely because they did not back down that they could enter the Kingdom. Remember Revelation 21:8—“But as for the cowardly and unbelieving ... and all who are false, their portion is in the Lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death”. Sovereign Jesus was very clear in Matthew 10:33—“Whoever should deny me before the people, I will deny him before my Father who is in the heavens”. If Jesus denies you, you are dead!

There are various texts that speak of God’s faithfulness and of the certainty of our inheritance in Christ. I will just mention two of them. 2 Timothy 1:7—“God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and of love and of self-control”. Any spirit of fear is not from God and should be rejected. 1 Corinthians 10:13—“No testing has overtaken you except what is common to man, and God is competent, who will not allow you to be tested beyond what you can stand, but with the testing will also provide the way out, that you may be able to endure it”. So take courage!

<sup>b</sup> These ‘beatitudes’ are in the third person and so presumably of general application. From verse 11 on Jesus uses the second person and so the specific application is presumably to His disciples. The first and last of these ‘beatitudes’ say, “theirs is the kingdom of the heavens”. In Matthew 18:3 the Lord will say we have to become like little children to enter the Kingdom—that is being ‘poor in spirit’. To face persecution, you must be committed.

<sup>c</sup> The prophets were only persecuted when they spoke, and the people didn’t like it! But we also have an obligation to speak.

<sup>d</sup> ‘Christians’ who have caved in to the world’s values and life style are like insipid salt—good for nothing except to be thrown out. (Insipid salt was thrown on the road, where it helped to keep down the dust.) The implications of this have become increasingly serious in today’s world.

<sup>f</sup> The Lord here makes an impressively strong statement about the preservation through time of the precise form of the Sacred Text. Since our only access to the meaning is through the form, any alteration in the form will alter the meaning. One of the most effective ways of annulling a commandment is to ments and teaches that to the people will be called least in the kingdom of the heavens; but whoever does and teaches them, he will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>20</sup>For I say to you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees you will absolutely not enter the kingdom of the heavens!<sup>a</sup>

About respecting others, especially 'brothers'

<sup>21</sup>"You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not murder, so whoever murders will be liable to the judgment.'<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup>But I say to you that whoever gets angry with his brother without cause will be liable to the judgment.<sup>c</sup> And whoever says to his brother, 'Numbskull!' will be liable to the council.<sup>d</sup> But whoever says, 'You absolute idiot!' will be liable to hell fire.<sup>e</sup> <sup>23</sup>Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled with your brother and then, returning, offer your gift.<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>Be agreeable to your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest the adversary hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup>Assuredly I say to you, you will by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny.<sup>h</sup> corrupt the Text—something Satan understands quite well. [See 1 Chronicles 16:15, John 12:48 and Revelation 22:18-19.]

- <sup>a</sup> Did you get that? If you are like the scribes and Pharisees what are your chances?
- <sup>b</sup> The scribes had diluted the Text—the Law demands the death penalty (Exodus 21:12). Our Bibles generally have an inadequate translation of the sixth commandment. The Hebrew verb means 'to murder', not 'to kill'. 'To kill' is too generic, since God Himself commands to kill, in given situations.
- <sup>c</sup> God hates injustice and will judge it. Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit "without cause" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). NIV, NASB and LB favor us with a footnote informing us that "some manuscripts" add 'without cause'—by "some" they mean 98% of them!! More serious, the shorter text has the effect of forbidding anger, which would contradict other Scriptures (Ephesians 4:26, Psalm 4:4) and the Lord's own example (Mark 3:5).
- <sup>d</sup> The Greek text has a transliteration of the Aramaic term, raka. The idea seems to be that this was an offensive epithet that could lead to a court case, for defamation of character (or whatever).
- <sup>e</sup> This presumably involves an offense against God, denigrating His image, disparaging His work. However, note that the Lord is talking about saying this to a brother. He Himself applied this term to the scribes and Pharisees in chapter 23. Verses 22-24 deal with how we treat 'brothers'. Consider James 4:11-12: "Brothers, do not speak evil of one another. Because the one speaking against a brother and judging his brother speaks against a law and judges a law. So if you judge a law you are not a law-doer but a judge. The Lawgiver and Judge is One, the One who is able to save and to destroy. So who are you (sg) to be judging someone who is different?" I was surprised to find the Greek ετερος here, which usually refers to a different kind. I personally do not enjoy dealing with 'brothers' who are too different; I would rather question whether they are really 'brothers' at all! But James tells me not to do that. Each person is different (background, experiences, personality, training) and we must recognize that God can and will deal differently with different people. He uses one 'law' with me, another 'law' with you, and so on. A law is a set of rules or demands, so when I judge a brother I am questioning the way ('law') that God is working on him. As He is both Lawgiver and Judge, I will have to answer to Him for how I judged my 'brothers'. (For 'different one' the eclectic text currently in vogue has 'neighbor', following some 12% of the Greek manuscripts [as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.] )
- <sup>f</sup> Verse 23 is linked to 22; insult or injury is involved—an overt action, an unpleasant scene that will presumably be alive in your memory.
- <sup>g</sup> Verses 23-24 refer to moral debt, through abusive language.
- <sup>h</sup> Verses 25-26 refer to financial debt, through property damage, a loan, etc. There is no doubt about the fact of the debt, and the time limit has expired; and you are on the way to court—at that point the only way out is to humble yourself and throw yourself on the mercy of the creditor.

About sexual sin

About swearing

<sup>33</sup>“Again you have heard that it was said to the ancients: ‘You shall not swear falsely, but you shall perform your oaths to the Lord.’<sup>f</sup> <sup>34</sup>But I say to you not to swear at all: neither by heaven, because it is God’s throne; <sup>35</sup>nor by the earth, because it is a stool for His feet; nor by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup>Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup>But let your word be ‘yes yes’, ‘no no’;<sup>g</sup> for whatever is more than these is from the malignant one.<sup>h</sup> [!]

About retaliation

<sup>c</sup> This is literal, but mostly theoretical, since by the time people realize they are in trouble it is usually too late; they are already trapped. Perhaps this is why Hebrews 3:13 tells us to “exhort one another daily... lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin”. Sometimes others see that we are in trouble before we do. Please read Ezekiel 18:21-24 with care.

<sup>d</sup> Presumably a reference to pre-marital sex, where a groom discovers that his bride is no longer a virgin (like the situation that Joseph faced in 1:18-19)—see Matthew 19:3-12. ‘Fornication’ and ‘adultery’ have distinct semantic areas; the first does not include the second (see Matthew 15:19, Mark 7:21, 1 Corinthians 6:9 and Galatians 5:19).

<sup>i</sup> The reference is to Exodus 21:24, but verse 22 makes clear that it is “as the judges determine”—we are not to take the law into our own hands.

<sup>j</sup> Do not use physical violence to respond to physical violence—but we can use our spiritual authority (see Luke 10:19 and Ephesians 3:20-21). Animals must resort to force, but Adam was given dominion over the animals, which presumably was not exercised with physical force—we should not lower ourselves to the animal level; but Satan tries to trick us into doing so. If someone lashes out in anger, turning the other cheek should shame him.

<sup>k</sup> Do not use legal action to respond to legal action—but we can use our spiritual authority. If they are resorting to legal action they presumably do not want to talk it over, they are trying to impose something on us; so turning the other cheek could shame them.

How to treat enemies

<sup>43</sup>“You have heard that it was said: ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’<sup>c</sup> <sup>44</sup>But I say to you: love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you,<sup>d</sup> <sup>45</sup>that you may prove to be sons of your Father in the heavens; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and He sends rain on the just and the unjust. <sup>46</sup>For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup>And if you greet only your friends,<sup>e</sup> what are you doing extra? Do not even the tax collectors do so?<sup>f</sup> <sup>48</sup>Therefore, you be perfect just as your Father in the heavens is perfect.<sup>g</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> A Roman imposition on subjugated peoples—any Roman soldier could compel a local non-Roman citizen to carry his pack one mile. A cheerful response to this humiliating situation could at least deprive the soldier of sadistic satisfaction, and maybe even shame him into carrying his own pack.
- <sup>b</sup> Presumably this does not refer to professional beggars (2 Thessalonians 3:10), but to someone overtaken by adversity who needs temporary help, someone you know who is part of the community.
- <sup>c</sup> Leviticus 19:18 says to “love your neighbor”, but not “hate your enemy”. The scribes had added an unwarranted inference.
- <sup>d</sup> Less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, offer a truncated form of this verse (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). It is necessary to distinguish between things done against us personally, and things done against the Kingdom of God. See Deuteronomy 7:9-10 and Psalm 5:5-6.
- <sup>e</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘brothers’, as in many versions.
- <sup>f</sup> The reference to “reward” and “extra” suggests that the procedures previously enjoined are demonstrations of practical righteousness—we are to be examples, rise above the level of the surrounding society. Tax collectors were Jews, part of the community, but despised as traitors.
- <sup>g</sup> “Perfect”—the Father is our point of reference; we are to be like He is. A standard is a standard; it is not invalidated just because we may feel that it is unattainable. Comparing this passage with texts like Deuteronomy 7:10, “He repays those who hate Him to their face”, and Psalm 5:5-6, “You hate all workers of iniquity”, I take it that we must distinguish between personal enemies (those who oppose us for personal reasons) and enemies of God and His truth. To be like the Father we also must hate workers of iniquity (because of the consequences to others).
- <sup>h</sup> Note that the reward has more to do with the person’s motive than the charitable act itself.
- <sup>i</sup> Since hands do not think (so far as I know), I suppose that not even the recipient should know where the gift came from, although there may be times when the recipient needs to know.
- <sup>j</sup> This is amazing; the Father Himself will repay = a good investment! (“Himself” is omitted by 24% of the Greek manuscripts; “openly” is omitted by 6%.)

MATTHEW 6

pray, go into your room, and having shut the door pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you openly.<sup>a</sup>

How to pray

<sup>7</sup>“But when you pray do not babble like the heathen; for they think that they will be heard for their many words. <sup>8</sup>So do not be like them, because your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup>Therefore, you pray like this:

‘Our Father who is in the heavens,
let Your name be revered;

<sup>10</sup>let Your kingdom come,
let Your will be done, on the earth just as in heaven.

as we also forgive our debtors.

<sup>13</sup>And do not bring us into testing, but rescue us from the malignant one;<sup>d</sup>

because Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory into the ages. Amen.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>14</sup>For if you forgive people their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive people their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.<sup>f</sup>

How to fast

<sup>16</sup>“Also, whenever you fast do not become gloomy like the hypocrites, because they disfigure their faces so that people will notice that they are fasting. Assuredly I say to you that they already have their reward. <sup>17</sup>But when you fast anoint your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup>so that you do not appear to the people to be fasting, but to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup> We do need to ask, but we should do it simply, and without undue repetition (God is not deaf). Further, we should ask with confidence.

<sup>h</sup> Please read James 5:1-3 with care. The usable capital that God places in our hand should be invested so as to produce, not just stored away doing nothing.

<sup>i</sup> That is the crucial question: where is your heart? It should be obvious that the best place to have your savings account is in the Bank of Heaven. So how does one make deposits up there? You do it by investing in the Kingdom.

About world-view

<sup>22</sup>“The lamp of the body is the eye. So if your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light.<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>But if your eye is malignant, your whole body will be full of darkness.<sup>b</sup> So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

“You cannot serve God and money”

<sup>24</sup>“No one is able to serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>Therefore, I say to you not to worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds of the air, that they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth more than they are? <sup>27</sup>And which of you can add one cubit to his stature by worrying? <sup>28</sup>And why do you worry about clothes? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither labor nor spin, <sup>29</sup>and yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was arrayed like one of these. <sup>30</sup>Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, you little-faiths? <sup>31</sup>Therefore do not worry saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ <sup>32</sup>For the pagans seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need each of these things. <sup>33</sup>Rather, seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own affairs. Each day has enough trouble of its own.<sup>e</sup>

7 <sup>1</sup>“Do not judge, so that you be not judged.<sup>f</sup> <sup>2</sup>Because with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured

<sup>a</sup> Of course we have two eyes, but the Text has “eye” in the singular. I take it that the reference is to the way we interpret what we see (which is our real ‘eye’)—two people, one pure and one vile, observing the same scene will give very different interpretations to it. Unfortunately, some versions render “eyes” (plural), thereby condemning the reader to never understand what the Lord was teaching here.

<sup>b</sup> “Evil” here has the idea of malignant—aggressively evil. Someone with a malignant mind will give an evil interpretation to everything he sees, and in consequence his being will be filled with unrelenting darkness. Compare Titus 1:15; to someone who is defiled nothing is pure.

<sup>c</sup> The Text has “mammon”, which presumably includes more than just money; anyone who has materialistic values is serving mammon. But I fear that comparatively few speakers of English today know the word, so I put ‘money’ [but see Luke 16:13].

<sup>d</sup> “These things” refers to food, drink and clothes—the basics. Jesus does not promise luxury. Just how seeking first the Kingdom works out in practice will differ from person to person. It should be obvious that we are not being told to sit around doing nothing. See 2 Thessalonians 3:10 and 1 Timothy 6:6-10.

<sup>f</sup> The verb ‘to judge’ here has confused many people, because they don’t know how to interpret it. We may begin with what it does not mean. It does not mean ‘to evaluate’ things, because 1 Corinthians 2:15 affirms that the spiritual person has the obligation to evaluate everything. It does not refer to the attitude that those responsible for the wellbeing of a congregation must sometimes assume, disciplining, or even excluding, someone who is damaging the community. 1 Corinthians 5:1-5 offers a specific example. In Matthew 18:15-17, sovereign Jesus Himself taught that there can be times when someone should be excommunicated. It should also be obvious that it does not refer to the office of a judge, whose function is precisely to judge.

Verses 3-5 that follow make clear that it involves two people. Since none of us knows all the relevant factors in any given case (only God knows everything), we are not competent to pass judgment on the other person, ‘to judge’ in that sense. Only God is competent to do that kind of judging. It is necessary back to you.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>So why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye but do not consider the plank in your own eye? <sup>4</sup>Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye,' when hey, there is a plank in yours? <sup>5</sup>Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.<sup>b</sup>

Analyze your audience

Be persistent, yet considerate

<sup>7</sup>"Keep asking, and it will be given to you; keep seeking, and you will find; keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup>For each one asking, receives;<sup>d</sup> and the one seeking, finds; and to the one knocking it will be opened. <sup>9</sup>Or which man is among you who, if his son asks for bread will give him a stone? <sup>10</sup>Or if he asks for a fish will give him a snake? <sup>11</sup>If you then, being evil, know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in the heavens give good things to those who ask Him!<sup>e</sup> <sup>12</sup>So then, whatever you want people to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.<sup>f</sup>

Eternal destiny

<sup>13</sup>"Go in through the narrow gate; because wide is the gate and broad is the way which leads away into perdition, and those who are going in through it are many. <sup>14</sup>How narrow is the gate and confined the way which leads away into life, and those who are finding it are few!<sup>g</sup>

to note that the two people involved are "brothers". To conduct war against Satan, his subordinates and their works is a totally different subject.

<sup>a</sup> The use of the future tense probably points toward God. If we call for judgment, not mercy, on others, by so much we are calling for judgment, not mercy, on ourselves.

<sup>b</sup> Can you have a 'plank' in your eye without knowing it? (The tiniest bit of grit is an unbearable irritant.) Actually, to have a plank in your eye is the same as being blind. When a person does not want to admit or correct his own failures, it is standard defensive procedure to call attention to the failures of others. Jesus Himself calls such a person a 'hypocrite'.

<sup>c</sup> This verse may be a chiasmus, AB,BA. But just who are 'the dogs' and 'the pigs'? A pig will sniff the pearl and perhaps think it a stone—it not being edible the pig will ignore it and it will get trampled into the mud. So a 'pig' is someone who is incapable of recognizing or appreciating the 'pearl'—the reaction will be one of total indifference. So do not waste your time. In contrast a 'dog' reacts in an aggressively hostile manner against what is 'holy'. So a 'dog' is presumably someone who is committed to evil and will therefore attack what is holy. In general our media today are controlled by 'dogs'. So do not innocently offer what is holy to a 'dog'—you will get chewed up! We need to try to convert the 'dogs', but you need to understand what you are about. Anyone who has sold out to Satan will almost certainly have a resident demon, and we have the authority to bind such.

<sup>g</sup> Observe that the Lord Jesus Christ affirms that "few" find the way of life. He Himself makes clear that to travel the way of life requires commitment to the Owner of that 'way'. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts have the weaker "Because narrow...", as in KJV and NKJV.

A tree is known by its fruit

We have to do the Father’s will

<sup>21</sup>“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord’, will go into the kingdom of the heavens, but he who does the will of my Father who is in the heavens.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>Many will say to me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and cast out demons in Your name, and perform many mighty works in Your name?’ <sup>23</sup>And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me you practitioners of lawlessness!’<sup>e</sup>

All face adversity—foundation determines outcome

<sup>24</sup>“Therefore whoever hears these words of mine and does them, I will compare him to a prudent man who built his house on the bedrock; <sup>25</sup>and the rain fell, and the rivers rose, and the winds blew and attacked that house; and it did not fall, because it was founded on the bedrock. <sup>26</sup>But every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be compared to a foolish man who built his house on the sand; <sup>27</sup>and the rain fell, and the rivers rose, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall!”<sup>f</sup>

Editorial comment

<sup>28</sup>And so it was, when Jesus had ended these words, that the crowds were astonished at His teaching, <sup>29</sup>for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not like the scribes.<sup>g</sup>

The Messiah demonstrates His power

Jesus heals a leper

<sup>c</sup> The Lord is very clear about the eternal destiny of people who do not produce good fruit. Remember Ephesians 2:8-10—we are not saved by good works, but we are indeed saved for good works; if we do not produce, we are not saved.

<sup>e</sup> Evidently they did indeed cast out demons and perform mighty works—so if it was not by God’s power, by whose power was it? Could it be that Satan works with those who think they are serving the Lord but are really ‘lawless’, to confirm them in their error? When we do not do things God’s way we are being ‘lawless’. Forget not 2 Samuel 6:3-7!

<sup>f</sup> Here again, we have to do the words. Note that both houses had to face the same circumstances, but the verbs are different. Everyone faces adversity in this life—your foundation determines the outcome. Why do the adverse circumstances ‘attack’ one house, but only ‘beat on’ the other? The verb ‘attack’ implies an intelligence ordering the circumstances.

MATTHEW 8

You can make me clean.” <sup>3</sup>So reaching out His hand Jesus touched<sup>b</sup> him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed!”<sup>c</sup> And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus says to him: “See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a proof to them.”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus heals at a distance<sup>e</sup>

<sup>5</sup>As He entered Capernaum a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him <sup>6</sup>and saying, “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, being terribly tormented.” <sup>7</sup>And Jesus says to him, “I will go and heal him.” <sup>8</sup>But in answer the centurion said: “Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof; but only speak a word and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup>For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and he does.” <sup>10</sup>Upon hearing him Jesus marveled, and said to those who were following: “Assuredly I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith! <sup>11</sup>And I say to you that many will come from east and west and sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens; <sup>12</sup>but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the darkness farthest away. There, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; and let it be done for you just as you believed.” And his servant was healed in that very hour.<sup>g</sup>

Peter’s mother-in-law<sup>h</sup>

<sup>e</sup> It has often been assumed that this account is parallel to that in Luke 7:1-10, but I believe they were different occasions. For a detailed discussion, please see the Appendix: Did the centurion leave his house?

<sup>h</sup> It has often been assumed that Matthew’s account here is parallel to those in Mark 1:29-31 and Luke 4:38-39, but close attention to the contexts has convinced me that Matthew’s account took place some time after that in Mark and Luke. In that event, Jesus healed the woman twice, which means that just because God heals you one time, it does not mean that you will never get sick again. For a detailed explanation, please see “Peter’s mother-in-law” in the Appendix.

<sup>18</sup>Seeing large crowds around Him Jesus gave an order to depart for the opposite shore. <sup>19</sup>Then a certain scribe approaching said to Him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you may go.” <sup>20</sup>So Jesus says to him, “The foxes have dens and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of the Man does not have where He may lay His head.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>Then a different one of the disciples said to Him, “Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.” <sup>22</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Now when He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. <sup>24</sup>And then—a great tempest<sup>c</sup> arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. But He was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>So the disciples came and awakened Him saying, “Lord, save us! We are perishing!” <sup>26</sup>And He says to them, “Why are you cowardly, you little-faiths?” Then rising He rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup>So the men marveled, saying, “What sort of being is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus controls any number of demons

<sup>a</sup> That is what the Text says, “the Son of the Man”, which appears to be a phrase coined by the Lord Jesus to refer to Himself; the phrase doesn’t make very good sense in English, at first glance, but if “the man” refers to pristine Adam and “the son” to an only pristine descendent, it makes great sense. It seems to indicate a perfect human prototype, like Adam was before the fall—the human side of the God-man.

<sup>b</sup> When it comes to discipleship, Jesus is very demanding—ordinary physical comfort and normal human relationships must be held in abeyance. Since a physically dead person can’t do anything, it is the spiritually dead who are to do the burying. To wait for a father to die before doing God’s will could mean never doing it.

<sup>f</sup> Some 98% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘Gergesenes’, rather than ‘Gadarenes’. Gadara was the Roman capital of the province of Perara, located some six miles from the Sea of Galilee. For the swine-herds to run six miles to the city to report the incident and then walk back with the people would take quite a while. It seems more likely that there was a village named ‘Gergesa’ nearby, whose people came and asked Jesus to leave. For a more detailed discussion, please see the Appendix: The ‘Legion’ and the pigs; where was it?

<sup>g</sup> As a tax collector, numerical precision was important to Matthew. Where other Gospels may select an individual as sufficient for the narrative, Matthew specifies that there were actually two (also blind men and donkeys).

<sup>h</sup> The demons knew who Jesus really was, and also about their own destiny. The parallel accounts in Mark 5 and Luke 8 give added detail—their name was ‘Legion’, and there were about 2,000 pigs. In Luke 8:31 they kept imploring Him not to send them to the Abyss—they were really worried; they knew something we do not.

they went off into the herd of pigs. And then—the whole herd of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the sea and died in the water!<sup>a</sup> <sup>33</sup>So the swineherds ran away, and going into the town they told everything, including about the demonized men. <sup>34</sup>And then, the whole town went out to meet with Jesus; and upon seeing Him they begged Him to depart from their borders.<sup>b</sup>

Jesus forgives sins

9 <sup>1</sup>So getting into the boat He crossed over and came into His own city. <sup>2</sup>And then, they came to Him carrying a paralytic lying on a pallet.<sup>c</sup> And seeing their faith Jesus said to the paralytic, “Courage, son; your sins are forgiven you!” <sup>3</sup>But then, some of the scribes said within themselves, “This man blasphemes!” <sup>4</sup>So Jesus, knowing their thoughts,<sup>d</sup> said: “Why do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup>So which is easier, to say ‘Your sins are forgiven’, or to say ‘Get up and walk’?<sup>e</sup> <sup>6</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of the Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins”—then He says to the paralytic, “On your feet, pick up your pallet and go to your house!” <sup>7</sup>So he got up and went off to his house. <sup>8</sup>And seeing it the crowds marveled and glorified God, the one giving such authority to the people.<sup>f</sup>

Matthew called

<sup>9</sup>And going on from there Jesus saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office, and He says to him, “Follow me.” So getting up he followed Him. <sup>10</sup>Now it happened, as He was reclining at the table in the house,<sup>g</sup> that many tax collectors and sinners had also come and were reclining at the table with Jesus and His disciples! <sup>11</sup>Upon seeing this the Pharisees said to His disciples, “Why does your teacher eat and drink<sup>h</sup> with the tax collectors and sinners?” <sup>12</sup>But Jesus heard it, so He said to them: “Those who are strong do not need a physician, but those who are sick. <sup>13</sup>But go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice.’<sup>i</sup> For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”<sup>j</sup>

Fasting

<sup>14</sup>Then the disciples of John come to Him saying, “Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast about many things, but your disciples do not fast?” <sup>15</sup>So Jesus said

<sup>a</sup> I really doubt that the demons did it—why would they want to destroy their new ‘house’? Perhaps the pigs preferred death to demons (animals often show more common sense than people do). It is also possible that Jesus commanded the action.

<sup>b</sup> Apparently Jesus never went back there; they did not want Him and that was that (I doubt that the inhabitants were Jews). The dead pigs represented a big economic loss; the pigs were more important to them than the two men—what Jesus represented threatened their way of life.

<sup>f</sup> This way of putting it intrigues me. The people were getting the benefit from just one person who was using God’s authority. How many people do you know who use God’s authority on a regular basis? What would happen if a few appeared on the scene?

<sup>g</sup> Matthew’s; see Luke 5:27-29. Matthew prepared a special meal and invited all his colleagues. He would have to turn his responsibilities as tax collector over to them.

to them: "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Jesus raises the dead

<sup>18</sup>While He was saying these things to them, there he was; a certain ruler came and began to worship Him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her and she will live." <sup>19</sup>So Jesus got up and followed him, with His disciples. <sup>20</sup>And then—a woman who had been hemorrhaging for twelve years came from behind and touched the hem of His garment. <sup>21</sup>For she kept saying to herself, "If only I may touch His garment I will be healed."<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Take courage, daughter; your faith has made you well." And the woman was healed from that very hour.

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus came into the ruler's house and saw the flutists and the crowd making a commotion, <sup>24</sup>He says to them, "Go away, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." So they began to ridicule Him.<sup>d</sup> <sup>25</sup>But when the crowd had been put outside, He went in and grasped her hand, and the girl got up. <sup>26</sup>And the report of this went out into all that land.

<sup>27</sup>As Jesus went on from there two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" <sup>28</sup>And arriving in the house, the blind men approached Him; so He says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They say to Him, "Yes, Lord." <sup>29</sup>Then He touched their eyes saying, "According to your faith let it be to you." <sup>30</sup>And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them saying, "See to it that no one knows!" <sup>31</sup>But going out they spread the news about Him in all that country.

<sup>a</sup> They will be ruined for future use; since a wineskin would be of more value than the wine it could contain, it was a loss to be avoided.

<sup>b</sup> What are the implications here for established ecclesiastical structures? How many churches have been split by 'new wine'? But, so, how should we go about trying to renew a dead church? Or should we just pull out and 'leave the dead to bury their dead'?

<sup>c</sup> It is clear from Mark 5:27-30 that the woman was healed before Jesus turned around. (Matthew's account is quite limited; compare Mark 5:25-34 and Luke 8:43-48; and for a detailed analysis please see "A desperate woman" in the Appendix.) At other times contact with the shadow or a handkerchief brought healing. There is a principle at work here that we no longer understand, but satanists use all the time.

saying, “Never was it seen like this in Israel!”<sup>a</sup> <sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons.”<sup>b</sup>

The harvest needs workers

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus went around to all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every illness among the people. <sup>36</sup>Seeing the crowds He was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and prostrated, like sheep without a shepherd.<sup>c</sup> <sup>37</sup>Then He says to His disciples: “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the workers are few. <sup>38</sup>Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send out workers into His harvest.”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus commissions and orients the twelve disciples—28 AD

10 <sup>1</sup>So summoning His twelve disciples He gave them authority over unclean spirits so as to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every illness. <sup>2</sup>Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first Simon (the one called Peter) and Andrew his brother, James (the son of Zebedee) and John his brother, <sup>3</sup>Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew (the tax collector),<sup>e</sup> James (the son of Alphaeus) and Lebbaeus (who was surnamed<sup>f</sup> Thaddeus), <sup>4</sup>Simon (the Cananite) and Judas Iscariot (who also betrayed Him).

<sup>a</sup> I take it that the events recorded in verses 10-33 happened one right after the other, probably within two or three hours—the Lord had very little time to Himself; someone was clamoring for attention constantly. To be alone with the Father He had to slip away at night.

<sup>d</sup> Not everyone is supposed to go, and not everyone can give, but we can all pray—or can we? To pray that prayer honestly, we have to be prepared to be one of the workers He will send!

<sup>11</sup>“In whatever city or village you may enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there until you go out. <sup>12</sup>Upon entering the house, greet it; <sup>13</sup>and should the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it; but should it not be worthy, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup>And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, as you go out from that house or city shake off the dust from your feet.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>Assuredly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of judgment than for that city!

<sup>16</sup>“Now then, I am sending you out like sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be prudent like snakes and innocent like doves. <sup>17</sup>But beware of the people, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues. <sup>18</sup>And you will be brought before governors and even kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the nations. <sup>19</sup>But whenever they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you will speak, for it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak;<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks through you.<sup>c</sup>

Like master, like slave

<sup>a</sup> This is an instruction, an order. Paul did it at least once—Acts 13:51 (as have I). Jesus Himself declares this judgment upon Capernaum (Matthew 11:23-24), thereby setting the example.

<sup>b</sup> As one of my seminary professors once said, this instruction is for martyrs, not preachers. But would it not be nice if more preachers got their messages from the Holy Spirit?

<sup>27</sup>“What I tell you in the dark, say in the light; and what you hear in the ear, proclaim on the housetops.<sup>a</sup> <sup>28</sup>And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear the One who is able to destroy both soul and body in Hell.<sup>b</sup> <sup>29</sup>Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father’s will. <sup>30</sup>Why even the hairs of your head are all numbered! <sup>31</sup>Therefore do not be afraid; you differ by far from sparrows.

<sup>32</sup>“Now then, everyone who will confess me before the people, I will also confess him before my Father who is in the heavens. <sup>33</sup>But whoever should deny me before the people, I will also deny him before my Father who is in the heavens.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>34</sup>“Do not suppose that I came to bring peace on the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup>For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup>and a man’s enemies will be those of his own household.

<sup>37</sup>“The one who is more devoted to father or mother than to me is not worthy of me, and the one who is more devoted to son or daughter than to me is not worthy of me; <sup>38</sup>and he who does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.<sup>d</sup> <sup>39</sup>The one ‘finding’ his life will lose it, and the one ‘losing’ his life for my sake will find it.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>a</sup> This one bothers me; to do this is like painting a target on your back. But He goes on to say that it is better to fear God more than man, and that nothing can happen to you apart from the Father’s will. But how many of us really trust God that much? How many of us can say with Job, “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (Job 13:15)?

<sup>d</sup> Notice that it is Jesus who sets the parameters, not we. Rather than people ‘accepting’ Jesus, the question is whether He will accept us.

<sup>e</sup> I take it that the reference is to the potential that your life represents, potential in the interests of God’s Kingdom. To the extent that your life revolves around God’s will and Kingdom you will both find and save it—of course from the world’s perspective you will be throwing it away.

<sup>f</sup> I assume that the point here is identification: you are identifying with the prophet whose name you invoke; and if that prophet is in prison, you are taking a risk.

<sup>g</sup> Presumably the rewards mentioned here are received in this life, since the good deeds mentioned could be performed by an unbeliever. I suggest that God blesses anyone who takes sides with what is right, good, decent, honorable, just—but if that person does not belong to Christ the blessing is limited to this life.

The Pharisees reject Jesus as Messiah

11 <sup>1</sup>And so it was, when Jesus finished directing His twelve disciples, that He moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns.<sup>a</sup>

John needs reassuring

Jesus commends John the Baptizer

<sup>7</sup>So as they departed Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see, a reed shaken by the wind? <sup>8</sup>But what did you go out to see, a man clothed in soft garments? Actually, those who wear soft material are in kings’ houses. <sup>9</sup>But really, what did you go out to see, a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>For this is he of whom it is written:

‘Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way ahead of you.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Assuredly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen a greater than John the Baptizer; but he who is least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he.<sup>e</sup> <sup>12</sup>But from the days of John the Baptizer until now the kingdom of the heavens is being aggressive and aggressive people are seizing upon it.<sup>f</sup> <sup>13</sup>For all the prophets and the Law prophesied until John, <sup>14</sup>and if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come.<sup>g</sup> <sup>15</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

<sup>a</sup> “Their towns” probably refers to the towns to which the disciples had been sent, deliberately, and to which Jesus Himself would go.

<sup>b</sup> John was in prison, which was contrary to his expectations; like all the others he expected Jesus to set up the Kingdom right then. In answer the Lord says, in effect, that the Kingdom is not based on our expectations.

<sup>c</sup> Verse 6 was directed specifically at John. When Jesus went to John to be baptized, John knew perfectly well that he was looking at the Messiah, but now, because of his circumstances, he is in doubt. In effect, Jesus is saying, “Whatever you do, do not rebel!” And He is still saying so to us: when your circumstances are painful and unexplained, do not rebel!

<sup>e</sup> Evidently, as forerunner of the Kingdom John was not part of it—the Kingdom was rejected at that time; both forerunner and King were killed—those who participate in the actual future Kingdom will be more privileged. “Born of women” excludes Adam. Men like Noah, Abraham, Moses, Daniel would be of equal standing, just not “greater”. But those who live during the Messianic Kingdom (Millennium) will be more privileged than all except Adam, because the earth will return to conditions similar to Eden.

<sup>f</sup> Note that Jesus is referring to a period of about two years. With the King physically present and giving a living demonstration of the Kingdom, the Kingdom was being more aggressive in this world than it had been since the time of Moses. In the present tense of a Greek verb a single form serves for both the middle and passive voices—the verb βιάζεται has usually been translated as passive in our versions, ‘suffers violence’, but I think it makes much better sense to translate it as middle, as I have done. Given the hostility of the religious leaders, it would take someone with plenty of backbone to openly side with Jesus.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus declares that the real Elijah is still going to come. John fulfilled the role for Messiah’s first advent that Elijah will fill for the second. Please see “John is not Elijah” in the Appendix.

MATTHEW 12

<sup>16</sup>“But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in a marketplace and calling to their friends <sup>17</sup>and saying,

‘We played the flute for you and you did not dance;
we mourned for you and you did not lament.’

Jesus denounces three cities

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus began to reproach the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent. <sup>21</sup>“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! Because if the mighty works that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup>So I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the Day of judgment than for you! <sup>23</sup>And you, Capernaum, ‘the one having been exalted to heaven’, you will be brought down to Hades!<sup>b</sup> Because if the mighty works that were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup>So I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the Day of judgment than for you.”<sup>c</sup>

“I praise You, Father”

<sup>25</sup>At that time Jesus reacted and said: “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to ‘babes’. <sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, because thus it was good to You.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>27</sup>“All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one really knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone really know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son may will to reveal Him. <sup>28</sup>Come to me all you who are laboring and are loaded down, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls; <sup>30</sup>for my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath

12 <sup>1</sup>At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the Sabbath.<sup>f</sup> But His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup>And upon seeing it the Pharisees<sup>g</sup> said to Him, “Hey, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on a Sabbath!” <sup>3</sup>But He said to them: “Have you not read what David did when he became hungry, he and those who were with him, <sup>4</sup>how

<sup>e</sup> To be without a yoke is not an option in this world. It is either Jesus’ yoke or Satan’s—if you refuse Jesus’ yoke you remain under Satan’s yoke, which is always heavy. Being born with an inclination to sin, we are soon under Satan’s yoke—Jesus offers us a way out.

<sup>f</sup> The Text actually has ‘the Sabbaths’; the parallel passage in Luke 6:1 has ‘a second-first Sabbath’. This was evidently a special day, but we have lost the relevant cultural information.

he entered the house of God and ate the loaves of presentation, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the priests? <sup>5</sup>Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? <sup>6</sup>Yet I say to you that a greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup>If you had but known what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’<sup>a</sup> you would not have condemned the innocent. <sup>8</sup>Furthermore, the Son of the Man is Lord of the Sabbath!”<sup>b</sup>

Jesus heals on the Sabbath

<sup>9</sup>Now moving on from there He went into their synagogue. <sup>10</sup>And there was a man with a withered hand!<sup>c</sup> And they asked Him saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”—so that they might accuse Him. <sup>11</sup>So He said to them: “What man will there be among you who has one sheep, and should this one fall into a ditch on the Sabbath, will he not lay hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup>So then, by how much does a man differ from a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” <sup>13</sup>Then He says to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” And he stretched it out, and it was restored whole like the other. <sup>14</sup>But going out the Pharisees plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.<sup>d</sup>

A tactical withdrawal

<sup>18</sup>“Behold my Servant whom I chose, my Beloved in whom my soul is well pleased!
I will put my Spirit upon Him,<sup>f</sup> and He will declare justice to the nations.
<sup>19</sup>He will not quarrel nor cry-out, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
and a smoldering wick He will not quench, until He sends justice forth to victory.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup> Who but the Messiah, or God Himself, could be Lord of the Sabbath? Jesus was hitting the Pharisees where they lived (they used the Sabbath as an instrument of domination). He had also just said that He was greater than the temple.

<sup>g</sup> The quote in verses 18-21 (see Isaiah 42:1-4) is tied to verse 16. Since after His resurrection the Lord commanded them to go to the whole world and preach the Gospel to every person, I take it that the “until He sends justice forth to victory” was fulfilled at His death and resurrection. So the description in verses 19-20 is limited to His earthly ministry and is not an example for us to follow now—see Matthew 10:27, etc.

were amazed and said, “Might this not be the Christ,<sup>b</sup> the Son of David?” <sup>24</sup>But upon hearing it the Pharisees said, “This fellow does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, ruler of the demons.” <sup>25</sup>But knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them: “Every kingdom divided against itself becomes desolate, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. <sup>26</sup>So if Satan casts out Satan he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup>And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.<sup>c</sup> <sup>28</sup>But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>29</sup>Or how can anyone go into the house of the strong man and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then he can plunder the house.<sup>d</sup>

The unforgivable sin

<sup>c</sup> Jesus seems to be affirming that their sons did indeed cast out demons; the implication is that they were doing so by Satan’s power. Further, if they did not protest when their sons did it, why did they protest when He did it?

<sup>d</sup> The use of the definite article with “strong man” (its first occurrence) means that the entity has already been introduced in the previous context—the reference is to Satan. Here is biblical basis for binding him.

<sup>e</sup> There is no ‘neutrality’; you are either for or against. There are only two teams, two sides, two kingdoms in this world. Either God or Satan, light or darkness, truth or falsehood. Whose side are you on? Really.

<sup>j</sup> Jesus appears to be saying that a malignant person is incapable of speaking good. See Matthew 6:22-23 and Titus 1:15.

<sup>k</sup> “Every useless word whatever”—do we really believe that? This may be why certain orders of monks took an oath of silence (but how can you be ‘justified’ by your words if you never say anything?).

The sign of the prophet Jonah

<sup>38</sup>Then some of the scribes and Pharisees reacted saying, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>39</sup>But in answer He said to them: “A malignant and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup>For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the sea monster, so will the Son of the Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>41</sup>Ninevite men will arise with this generation at the judgment and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and really, a greater than that of Jonah is here.<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>The queen of the South<sup>d</sup> will be raised with this generation at the judgment and she will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and really, a greater than that of Solomon is here.<sup>e</sup>

An empty ‘house’ is bad

New relationships

<sup>46</sup>But then, while He was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. <sup>47</sup>So someone said to Him, “Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with you.” <sup>48</sup>But in answer He said to the one who told Him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?” <sup>49</sup>And stretching out His hand toward His disciples He said: “Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>50</sup>For whoever does the will of my Father in the heavens, he is my brother and sister and mother.”<sup>g</sup>

Parables of the Kingdom

13 <sup>1</sup>On the same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea. <sup>2</sup>And large crowds were gathered together to Him, so He got into a boat to sit down; and the whole crowd stood on the shore.

<sup>b</sup> “In the heart of the earth”—here we seem to have instruction from the Lord on the location of Hades—it is inside the earth, somehow. Compare 1 Samuel 28:13 where Samuel (literally), returning from Hades/Sheol, comes up from inside the earth.

<sup>e</sup> Jonah, and the sea monster, are just as historical as Solomon, the queen of Sheba, Nineveh—we have it on the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>f</sup> Jesus does not say why the demon left, but obviously a vacuum is dangerous. Jesus seems to be implying that the Pharisees are already demonized, but will become worse! Actually, in verse 34 He said they were malignant, poisonous snakes; to be malignant is to be aggressively evil, the term is regularly used of Satan. In fact, later on Jesus says they are sons of Satan.

Parable of the soils

<sup>3</sup>Then He started to speak many things to them in parables saying: “Listen, the sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, some seeds fell alongside the road, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup>Others fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; so they sprouted quickly because they had no depth of earth. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun came up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. <sup>7</sup>And others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and smothered them. <sup>8</sup>But others fell on the good ground and yielded a crop: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. <sup>9</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

<sup>10</sup>And the disciples approached and said to Him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>So in answer He said to them: “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to them it has not been given. <sup>12</sup>For whoever has, to him more will be given and he will have abundance;<sup>b</sup> but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables, that seeing they not see and hearing they not hear nor understand.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>Indeed, in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

‘By hearing you (ye) will hear and not understand, and seeing you will see and not perceive.

and their <sup>B</sup>ears hard of hearing, and their <sup>C</sup>eyes they have closed;
lest they should see with their <sup>C</sup>eyes
and understand with their <sup>A</sup>hearts, and turn around; and I would heal them.’<sup>e</sup>

<sup>17</sup>for assuredly I say to you that many prophets and righteous ones desired to see what you see and did not see it, and to hear what you hear and did not hear it.

Parable of the soils explained

<sup>a</sup> From Mark 4:10 it appears that this occurred later, probably after verse 33. Mark has two parables that Matthew does not—Mark 4:21-29.

<sup>c</sup> Spiritual growth is like going up an incline on a bicycle without brakes; if you stop pedaling you go backwards. We must keep learning and growing; if we stop, we start losing.

<sup>d</sup> This is in response to their choice, as verses 14-15 make clear. But Jesus only started using parables after the Pharisees blasphemed the Holy Spirit—they formally rejected Jesus as Messiah. Notice that the declared purpose of the parables is that the people not understand. It follows that doctrine should never be based on a parable, unless Jesus interprets it—the interpretation may be used, but not the parable itself.

<sup>24</sup>He put another parable to them, saying: “The kingdom of the heavens is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; <sup>25</sup>but while the people were sleeping his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went away. <sup>26</sup>But when the stalk sprouted and produced fruit, then the tares also appeared.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>27</sup>So the servants of the owner came and said to him, ‘Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? How then does it have tares?’ <sup>28</sup>He said to them, ‘An enemy did it.’ The servants said to him, ‘So do you want us to go and gather them up?’ <sup>29</sup>But he said: ‘No, lest gathering up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather up the tares and bind them into bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

---

<sup>a</sup> In sowing, the seed is scattered on top of the soil, not planted, and is therefore vulnerable—maybe that is why the great commission is to disciple. Observe that Jesus is teaching that the devil can invade a person’s mind.

MATTHEW 13

<sup>34</sup>All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and without a parable He did not speak to them, <sup>35</sup>so that what was spoken through the prophet should be fulfilled, namely:

“I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things kept secret from the foundation of the world.”<sup>a</sup>

“Wheat and tares” explained

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus dismissed the crowds and went into the house. And His disciples approached Him saying, “Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field.” <sup>37</sup>So He answered and said to them: “He who sows the good seed is the Son of the Man. <sup>38</sup>The field is the world; as for the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom, while the tares are the sons of the malignant one. <sup>39</sup>The enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. <sup>40</sup>Therefore just as the tares are gathered and burned with fire, so it will be at the end of this age. <sup>41</sup>The Son of the Man will send out His angels,<sup>b</sup> and they will collect out of His kingdom everything that causes to stumble, and those who perpetrate lawlessness;<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire. There there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

Treasure and pearl

<sup>47</sup>“Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a seine that was cast into the sea and gathered of every kind, <sup>48</sup>which, when it was full, they pulled upon the shore; and sitting down they collected the good into vessels, but threw out the bad. <sup>49</sup>So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth and will separate the malignant out from among the righteous, <sup>50</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire. There there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

<sup>51</sup>Jesus says to them, “Did you understand all these things?” They say to Him, “Yes, Lord.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>52</sup>So He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been dis-

cipld into the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a householder, who brings out of his reservoir things new and old.”<sup>a</sup>

A visit to Natsareth<sup>b</sup>

<sup>53</sup>Now it happened, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there. <sup>54</sup>And coming into His hometown He began to teach them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said: “Where did this man get this wisdom, and the mighty works? <sup>55</sup>Is this not the carpenter’s son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and Joses and Simon and Jude?<sup>c</sup> <sup>56</sup>And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?” <sup>57</sup>So they were offended at him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.” <sup>58</sup>And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

The death of John the Baptizer

14 <sup>1</sup>At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus <sup>2</sup>and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptizer; he has been raised from the dead, and therefore the powers are at work in him.” <sup>3</sup>For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife. <sup>4</sup>For John would say to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>And although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd,<sup>e</sup> because they counted him as a prophet. <sup>6</sup>But while Herod’s birthday was being celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and she pleased Herod. <sup>7</sup>So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. <sup>8</sup>So she, having been prompted by her mother, she says, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer!” <sup>9</sup>And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and those who were reclining at the table with him, he commanded it to be given. <sup>10</sup>So he sent and had John beheaded in prison. <sup>11</sup>And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>Then his disciples came forward and took the body and buried it,<sup>g</sup> and they went and told Jesus.

Food for 15,000

<sup>13</sup>Upon hearing it, Jesus departed from there by boat to a deserted place privately.<sup>h</sup> But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup>So when Jesus disembarked He saw a large crowd, and He had compassion on them and healed their sick.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> A ‘scribe’ was instructed in the Law and the prevailing interpretations of it (the ‘old’), but if he had also been discipled into the Kingdom, his thinking would be re-oriented about many things (the ‘new’).

<sup>c</sup> Here we have the names of Jesus’ four half-brothers, and the plural ‘sisters’ means there were at least two of them (the use of ‘all’ probably indicates more than two). Joseph and Mary had a normal family.

<sup>h</sup> From Mark we learn that Jesus and the disciples were under heavy pressure from the crowds—no time even to eat. So when He hears of John’s death, and under such ignominious circumstances, Jesus wants to get away so He can grieve and assimilate the news.

<sup>i</sup> In Mark it is even clearer that the people ran along the shore and got to the destination first, before the boat (please see the note at Mark 6:34). Naturally the faster runners were there first, but others

<sup>15</sup>Now with evening coming on His disciples approached Him saying: “The place is uninhabited and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food.” <sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to them: “They do not need to go away. You give them to eat.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>But they say to Him, “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish.” <sup>18</sup>So He said, “Bring them here to me.” <sup>19</sup>Then He commanded the crowds to recline on the grass. And taking the five loaves and two fish and looking up to heaven, He blessed; and breaking the loaves He gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. <sup>20</sup>So they all ate and were filled; and they took up the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full. <sup>21</sup>Now those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.<sup>b</sup>

Peter walks on water

<sup>22</sup>Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup>And having dismissed the crowds He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. So when night came He was alone there.<sup>c</sup> <sup>24</sup>But the boat was already in the middle of the sea,<sup>d</sup> being harassed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. <sup>25</sup>So in the fourth watch of the night<sup>e</sup> Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup>And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they became agitated saying, “It’s a ghost!” And they cried out for fear. <sup>27</sup>But immediately Jesus spoke to them saying: “Courage! It is I; don’t be afraid!” <sup>28</sup>So reacting Peter said, “Lord, since it’s you, command me to come to you on the water.” <sup>29</sup>So He said to him, “Come!” And stepping down from the boat Peter walked on the water to go to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But seeing the strong wind he became afraid, and beginning to sink<sup>f</sup> he cried out saying, “Lord, save me!” <sup>31</sup>And immediately Jesus reached out His hand and caught him and says to him: “You little-faith! Why did you doubt?” <sup>32</sup>And when they got into the boat the wind ceased.<sup>g</sup> <sup>33</sup>Then those who were in the boat came and worshipped Him saying, “Truly you are the Son of God!”<sup>h</sup>

At Genesaret

<sup>34</sup>When they had crossed over they came to the land of Genesaret.<sup>i</sup> <sup>35</sup>And when the men of that place recognized Him they sent messengers into all that surrounding region and they brought to Him all who were sick. <sup>36</sup>And they would beg kept arriving so that in the end there were thousands of people. In the town there was not space for everybody to get to Jesus, but out in the open—so when the news got around people came from all over.

<sup>a</sup> Really now, with what? Although Jesus had to take the initiative, the disciples did participate in the miracle. For more detail, please see “You feed them!” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> Since any large crowd is likely to have more women and children than men, there were probably at least 15,000 people there. “They were filled”—how much food does it take to ‘fill’ 15,000 hungry people? Notice the care not to waste anything—the fragments were collected.

<sup>e</sup> The fourth watch, using Roman time, was from 3 to 6 a.m.—the disciples had had a rough night!

<sup>f</sup> Peter knew how to swim (John 21:7), but he was walking on top of the water (a totally new experience) and then he was wading; and the storm was scary.

<sup>i</sup> The best line of transmission, along with some 30% of the Greek manuscripts (also the Targum), spells the name of the place with one ‘n’; 70% of the Greek manuscripts spell it with two.

Him that if only they might at least touch the hem of His garment; and as many as touched were completely healed.

Jesus antagonizes the Pharisees—29 AD

15 <sup>1</sup>Then the scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem approached Jesus saying: <sup>2</sup>“Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands whenever they eat bread.” <sup>3</sup>So in answer He said to them: “Why do you even transgress the commandment of God through your tradition? <sup>4</sup>For God commanded saying,<sup>a</sup> ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and ‘He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’ <sup>5</sup>But you say: ‘Whoever says to his father or mother, “Whatever you might be profited by me is a gift to God”—<sup>6</sup>then he must not honor his father or mother.’<sup>b</sup> Thus you have nullified the commandment of God through your tradition. <sup>7</sup>Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you saying: and honor Me with their lips,<sup>c</sup> but their heart is far away from Me.

teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Then summoning the crowd He said to them: “Hear and understand. <sup>11</sup>Not what goes into the mouth defiles the man, but what comes out of the mouth—this defiles the man.” <sup>12</sup>Then His disciples came and said to Him, “Do you know that upon hearing this saying the Pharisees were offended?” <sup>13</sup>But in answer He said: “Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup>Leave them alone.<sup>e</sup> They are blind guides of the blind; and if the blind guides the blind, both will fall into a ditch.”

<sup>d</sup> See Isaiah 29:13. Are there no such ‘doctrines’ in our churches? Sovereign Jesus declares that such worship is in vain—if it does you no good, you are wasting your time (and it may be doing you harm).

<sup>e</sup> Jesus makes no effort to conciliate or to convert the Pharisees. For all that, some did convert. (Remember the ‘dogs’ in Matthew 7:6.)

<sup>f</sup> This is one of a number of places where ‘adultery’ and ‘fornication’ both occur in a list of sins—it is clear that they are distinct in meaning, and so ‘fornication’ does not include ‘adultery’; and so to render ‘fornication’ as ‘sexual sin/immorality’ is misleading.

<sup>22</sup>And then, a Canaanite woman coming from those parts cried out to Him saying: “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demonized.”
<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to her: “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Food for 4,000 men

<sup>29</sup>Moving on from there, Jesus went alongside the Sea of Galilee,<sup>e</sup> and going up on the mountain He sat down there. <sup>30</sup>And large crowds approached Him, having with them lame, blind, mute, maimed and many others, and they placed them at Jesus’ feet, and He healed them. <sup>31</sup>So the crowds marveled—seeing mutes speaking, maimed made whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they kept glorifying the God of Israel.
<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus summoned His disciples and said: “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have already remained with me three days, and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way.”
<sup>33</sup>So His disciples say to Him, “Where could we get, in an uninhabited place, enough bread so as to satisfy such a great crowd?” <sup>34</sup>Jesus says to them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven, and a few small fish.” <sup>35</sup>So He commanded the crowds to recline on the ground. <sup>36</sup>And taking the seven loaves and the fish, He gave thanks, broke and gave to His disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. <sup>37</sup>So they all ate and were filled; and they took up seven hampers full of the fragments that remained.<sup>f</sup> <sup>38</sup>Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.<sup>g</sup> <sup>39</sup>And having dismissed the crowds He got into the boat and went to the region of Magdala.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> “Son of David”—as a Canaanite she appealed to the Jewish Messiah, upon whom she had no claim. But how did she know that? I suspect there is more to this story than meets the eye. For further discussion, please see “A ‘crumb’ for a ‘puppy’” in the Appendix.

<sup>h</sup> Magdala was Mary Magdalene’s hometown; perhaps this was when Jesus delivered her from the demons (Mark 16:9). Less than 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read “Magadan” instead of Magdala (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The parallel passage in Mark 8:10 has ‘the region of Dalmanutha’—I assume that Magdala was in that region.

16 <sup>1</sup>The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>But in answer He said to them: “When it is evening you say, ‘Fair weather, for the sky is red’; <sup>3</sup>and in the morning, ‘Today will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.’ Hypocrites!<sup>b</sup> You know how to discern the face of the sky, but cannot discern the signs of the times. <sup>4</sup>A malignant and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.”<sup>c</sup> And leaving them behind He went away.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Upon arriving at the other side His disciples had forgotten to take bread. <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Watch and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>So they reasoned among themselves saying, “It’s because we didn’t bring any bread.” <sup>8</sup>But Jesus, being aware, said to them: “You little-faiths! Why are you reasoning among yourselves because you didn’t bring any bread? <sup>9</sup>Do you not yet perceive nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? <sup>10</sup>Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many hampers you took up? <sup>11</sup>How come you don’t perceive that it wasn’t about bread that I told you to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees?” <sup>12</sup>Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Jesus openly declares His death and ministers on that basis

<sup>g</sup> There is a play on words here, petros VS petra—the bedrock was obviously not Peter. The bedrock presumably has to do with the fact that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God. To translate ‘Peter’ instead of “a stone” is an aberration.

<sup>21</sup>From then on Jesus began to show to His disciples that He had to go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised on the third day. <sup>22</sup>So taking Him aside Peter began to rebuke Him saying: “Mercy to you, Lord! This shall not happen to you!” <sup>23</sup>But turning He said to Peter: “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not mindful of God’s values, but of men’s values.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup> As is clear from Luke 9:20-22, verses 21-23 here form part of the same conversation. At this point Jesus changes the game plan—He declares that He is going to die and orders the disciples to stop presenting Him as the Messiah. Some 65% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Jesus, the Messiah’ (as in AV and NKJV); I follow the best line of transmission.

<sup>b</sup> Satan put those words in Peter’s mouth, but he agreed with them. Note that within 3-5 minutes Peter spoke twice, under inspiration; the first time inspired by God (verses 16-17) and the second by Satan (verses 22-23). It is God the Son who tells us what really happened. Since Sovereign Jesus said it was Satan, it was Satan, and if he could do it to Peter, he can do it to us. The almost total ignorance on the subject of biblical spiritual warfare that prevails in North America is having serious consequences.

<sup>e</sup> Many versions have ‘give in exchange for his soul’, but how does that work? If I say to you, “I will give you my horse in exchange for your car”, I have a horse and you have a car. If I say to you, “I will give you ??? in exchange for my soul”, you have my soul. In that event, I have already lost my soul, and I want to know if there is any way I can get it back. But in the context it is the life that is in play, not the soul. Does not verse 27 make that clear? It is talking about the final judgment, or accounting, and it will be about what we did during our lifetime. So it is the life that is lived that is in view, not the soul. Someone who spent his life serving Mammon, threw his life away, forever. Please see “Fire loves straw” in the Appendix.

<sup>f</sup> We will be judged on the basis of what we did with our potential.

<sup>g</sup> Presumably this was fulfilled at the transfiguration—a manifestation, in miniature, of the Kingdom (Jesus the King, Moses and Elijah representing glorified saints [who will participate in the administration] and the three disciples representing the normal inhabitants of the earth at that time).

<sup>h</sup> Instead of “let us”, perhaps 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have “I will” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>5</sup>While he was still speaking, wow, a brilliant cloud overshadowed them, and then, a Voice<sup>b</sup> came out of the cloud saying: “This is my beloved Son in whom I am always well pleased. Hear Him!” <sup>6</sup>As the disciples heard it they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid. <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up, don’t be afraid.” <sup>8</sup>So lifting up their eyes they saw no one but Jesus only.

Elijah and ‘Elijah’

A tough kind of demon

<sup>14</sup>As they came to the crowd a man approached Him and kneeling to Him said: <sup>15</sup>“Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is moonstruck and suffers badly! For he often falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup>So I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.” <sup>17</sup>Then in answer Jesus said: “O faithless and perverse generation,<sup>f</sup> how long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.” <sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that very hour.

<sup>19</sup>Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why were we not able to cast it out?” <sup>20</sup>So Jesus said to them: “Because of your unbelief; for assuredly I say to you, if you have faith like a mustard seed has, you (ye) will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>21</sup>However, this class does not go out except by prayer and fasting.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> So how did Peter know who they were? Photography had not yet been invented. Luke 9:37 makes clear that they spent the night on the mountain. Evidently what has been recorded here (and in Mark and Luke) gives but a thumbnail sketch of all that took place.

<sup>e</sup> At this point John is already dead, but in verse 11 the Lord declares that Elijah is still going to come—John performed the function for Christ’s first advent that Elijah (literally) will perform for the second advent. For further discussion, please see “John is not Elijah” in the Appendix.

<sup>f</sup> Why “perverse”? To reject the truth and the evidence is to be perverse. This word was presumably directed to the disciples, who should have known better by now. So how about us—are we living on the basis of the truth and the evidence? Really?

<sup>g</sup> What kind of ‘faith’ might a mustard seed have? Albeit so small, it reacts without question to the climactic circumstances, and grows to remarkable proportions. If we reacted similarly, without question, to the Holy Spirit’s promptings, our spiritual ‘climactic circumstances’, we should indeed move mountains, literally. Or to put it another way, a seed has the faith to die, like the Lord said in John 12:24: “unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone”. In 1 Corinthians 15:31 Paul said that he died daily. How so? Obviously he did not die physically; he died to himself, his own ideas and ambitions, so as to embrace God’s will. Dying to self is a prerequisite for moving mountains.

<sup>h</sup> Less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit this whole verse (as in NIV, [NASB], LB, [TEV], etc.). I take it that this was true up until the Lord’s victory on the cross and the <sup>22</sup>While they were staying<sup>a</sup> in Galilee Jesus said to them, “The Son of the Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup>and they will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised.” And they were seriously grieved.

Money from a fish

<sup>24</sup>When they entered Capernaum those who collected the temple tax approached Peter and said, “Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?” <sup>25</sup>He says, “Yes.” So when they entered the house Jesus anticipated him saying: “Simon, what do you think? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or poll tax, from their sons or from strangers?” <sup>26</sup>Peter says to Him, “From the strangers.” Jesus said to him: “Well then, the sons are free. <sup>27</sup>But, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And opening its mouth you will find a ‘stater’ [a coin]; take that and give it to them for me and you.”<sup>b</sup>

How to be ‘big’ in the Kingdom

18 <sup>1</sup>At that time the disciples approached Jesus saying, “Who then is greater in the kingdom of the heavens?” <sup>2</sup>So Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, <sup>3</sup>and said: “Assuredly I say to you, unless you change and become like little children, you will not enter the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>4</sup>Therefore whoever will humble himself like this little child, he is the greater in the kingdom of the heavens.

About offenses

<sup>8</sup>“If your hand or your foot is causing you to fall, cut them off and throw them away! It is better for you to enter into the life lame or maimed than to be thrown into the everlasting fire, having two hands or two feet. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye is resurrection. Now we are in Christ at the Father’s right hand, far above all principality and power, etc., which includes Satan and all classes below him in rank—Ephesians 1:19-21, 2:6. (There is nothing wrong with Christ’s victory and authority, but our spiritual condition does not always permit us to make full use of that victory.)

<sup>b</sup> The stater was the exact amount for two people. Presumably somebody had lost the coin in the water, but for the fish to deliver it to Peter was a miracle.

<sup>c</sup> ‘Into’ not ‘in’. The Lord Jesus always said “believe into [Greek eis] Me”, never “believe in [Greek en] Me”. (In John 3:15 a very few Greek manuscripts of inferior quality have “in”, against 99.5% that have “into”.) People believe in Santa Claus, the Easter bunny, the goodness of man, or whatever, but it does not change their lives. Similarly there are many who say they believe in Jesus, but it makes no difference in their lives. You have to believe into Him—commitment and identification are involved—it is a move from being outside to being inside.

<sup>d</sup> It is preferable to suffer an ignominious physical death than to destroy the faith of a child who believes into Jesus. What is worse than an ignominious physical death? Spiritual death—in verses 8-9 Jesus refers overtly to hell fire. If you send a child to hell, you go too! What about all the teachers who have dedicated themselves to destroying the faith of their students?

causing you to fall, tear it out and throw it away! It is better for you to enter into the life one eyed than to be thrown into the fiery Hell, having two eyes.<sup>a</sup>

God loves children

<sup>15</sup>“Now if your brother sins against you, go, confront him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have won your brother. <sup>16</sup>But should he not hear, take along with you one or two more, so that every word may be established by the mouth of two or three witnesses. <sup>17</sup>And should he refuse to hear them, tell it to the congregation. But should he refuse to hear even the congregation, let him be to you just like the heathen and the tax collector.<sup>f</sup>

Agreeing in prayer

<sup>18</sup>“Assuredly I say to you, whatever (pl.) you (pl.) may bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you may loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>Assuredly again, I say to you that if two of you should agree on earth about any subject whatever that they may ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven.<sup>h</sup> <sup>20</sup>Because where there are two or three gathered together into my name, there I am in their midst!”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I believe this is literal, but largely hypothetical—by the time someone realizes what is happening, it is usually too late. Maybe that is why we are supposed to exhort one another daily (Hebrews 3:13).

<sup>b</sup> “These little ones” refers to the literal children who were in the room. In verse 2 Jesus called one over, so it was obviously in the room, but the playmates would naturally stop to see what was going to happen, so there were several in the room. This verse suggests the existence of guardian angels.

<sup>g</sup> The tense of the Greek verb phrase here is a periphrastic future perfect, passive voice (so also in 16:18). Thus, “will have been bound/loosed” not “will be bound/loosed”. We are not telling God what to do; we are to apply down here that which He has already done in heaven. What had been just for Peter is now given to all the disciples. For more discussion, please see the Appendix: Do we command God? Matthew 18:18.

<sup>h</sup> If you are like I am, you have probably tried this, and it didn’t work! Why not? I suppose because verses 19 and 20 must be taken together. The ‘because’ that begins verse 20 gives the clue—if Jesus is part of the group that is asking, then His will limits the asking.

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter approached Him and said, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him; up to seven times?” <sup>22</sup>Jesus says to him: “Not, I tell you, up to seven, but up to seventy-seven times!<sup>a</sup>

<sup>23</sup>“Therefore the kingdom of the heavens is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. <sup>24</sup>And as he began to settle up, one debtor of ten thousand talents was brought to him. <sup>25</sup>But since he had nothing with which to repay, his lord commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and everything he had, so as to be repaid. <sup>26</sup>So then the servant fell down and did obeisance to him saying, ‘Lord, be patient with me and I will repay you all.’ <sup>27</sup>So the lord of that servant, having compassion, released him and forgave him the loan.

<sup>28</sup>“But when that servant went out he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and grabbing him he started choking him saying, ‘Pay me back what you owe!’ <sup>29</sup>So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and kept begging him saying, ‘Be patient with me and I will pay you back.’<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>But he would not; instead he went and threw him into prison until he should pay back what was owed. <sup>31</sup>But when his fellow servants saw what had happened they were really grieved, and they went and reported to their lord everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Then summoning him the lord says to him: ‘Malignant servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup>Were you also not obligated<sup>c</sup> to have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?’ <sup>34</sup>So in anger the lord handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed to him.

Jesus ministers in Perea—29/30 AD

19 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened, when Jesus had finished these words, that He departed from Galilee and went to the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. <sup>2</sup>And large crowds followed Him and there He healed them.

Jesus denies divorce

<sup>3</sup>The Pharisees also came to Him to test Him, saying to Him, “Is it permissible for a man to divorce his wife for just any cause?” <sup>4</sup>So in answer He said to them: “Have you never read that the Creator at the beginning made them a male and a female? <sup>5</sup>And He said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall be turned into one flesh.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>6</sup>So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what<sup>f</sup> God joined together

<sup>c</sup> Notice the verb ‘obligated’; verse 35 makes clear that this is the way God looks at it—His having forgiven me obligates me to forgive others. Observe that the king reversed his pardon—what might the implications of that be? “My heavenly Father will handle you just like that!”

<sup>e</sup> “Two”—not three, four, five, etc. “The two” refers to one man and one woman—not two men, a man and an animal, a woman and a demon, or whatever. The ‘one flesh’ is not just poetic language, it refers to a chemical reality.

let not man separate!" <sup>7</sup>They say to Him, "Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce and to dismiss her?"<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>He says to them: "Because of your hard-heartedness Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. <sup>9</sup>And I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for fornication, and marries another commits adultery; and whoever marries a divorcee commits adultery."<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>His disciples say to Him, "If that's the situation of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry!"<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>So He said to them: "Not all can assimilate this word, but those to whom it has been given."<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born that way, from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were castrated by men; and there are eunuchs who castrated themselves for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. He who is able to assimilate it, let him assimilate."<sup>e</sup>

Jesus blesses children

It is difficult for a rich person to enter the Kingdom

<sup>16</sup>And then, a certain one came and said to Him, "Good teacher, what good thing must I do so that I may have eternal life?" <sup>17</sup>But He said to him: "Why do you call me good? No one is good except One, God.<sup>g</sup> But if you want to enter into the life, keep the commandments." <sup>18</sup>He says to Him, "Which ones?"<sup>h</sup> So Jesus said: "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not give false witness,' <sup>19</sup>'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" <sup>20</sup>The young man says to Him: "I have kept all these things since my youth.<sup>i</sup> What do I still lack?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will

<sup>e</sup> What in the world do 'eunuchs' have to do with divorce and remarriage? Well, do eunuchs have sexual relations? A eunuch castrated by others was a victim of the actions of others. We also may be victimized by others, and be obliged to take the consequences. For more discussion, please see "Divorce and re-marriage" in the Appendix.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus is not denying that He is good. He is challenging the man's opinion about Himself. The man was not recognizing Jesus to be God—if he had, Jesus would not have objected. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit "Good" before "teacher" in verse 16 and have Jesus saying, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is One who is good" here in verse 17 (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The minority reading makes Matthew contradict Mark 10:18 and Luke 18:9; it probably originated in Egypt, that was dominated by Gnosticism.

have treasure in heaven; and come follow me.” <sup>22</sup>So upon hearing that word the young man went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to His disciples: “Assuredly I say to you that only with difficulty will a rich person enter into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>24</sup>And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>Upon hearing it His disciples were really flabbergasted saying, “Who then can be saved?” <sup>26</sup>So looking at them Jesus said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

It pays to serve Jesus

<sup>27</sup>Then Peter answered and said to Him: “See, we have left all and followed you. So what will we have?” <sup>28</sup>So Jesus said to them: “Assuredly I say to you that in the Regeneration,<sup>c</sup> when the Son of the Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>And, everyone who left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife<sup>e</sup> or children or fields for my name’s sake will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit life eternal. <sup>30</sup>But many ‘first’ will be last, and ‘last’ first.

20 <sup>1</sup>“For the kingdom of the heavens is like a certain landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>And agreeing with the workers for a denarius a day he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And going out about the third hour [9 a.m.] he saw others standing idle in the marketplace. <sup>4</sup>And he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard and I will give you whatever is right.’ So off they went. <sup>5</sup>He went out again about the sixth hour, and the ninth, and did the same. <sup>6</sup>Now about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and he says to them, ‘Why have you stood here idle all day?’<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>They say to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He says to them, ‘You also go into the vine-

<sup>a</sup> Jesus emphasized the commandment about loving one’s neighbor because that was precisely the one that the young man was not keeping. He went away sorrowful because Jesus made him see that he was not keeping it, and worse yet, was not prepared to keep it.

<sup>b</sup> This seemingly difficult statement has given rise to several attempts to avoid the literal meaning. However, since in verse 26 Jesus says it is “impossible” we may stay with the literal meaning. Jesus had already said that one cannot serve God and money, so someone who “trusts in riches” (Mark 10:24, as in 99.5% of the Greek manuscripts) simply cannot be saved (unless he abandons that trust).

<sup>c</sup> I take it that Jesus is referring to His millennial reign, the Messianic Kingdom, when the earth will be ‘regenerated’, being restored to conditions reminiscent of Eden. For instance, if He does not regenerate the magnetic field that surrounds it pretty soon, life on this planet will become less and less viable.

<sup>e</sup> Perhaps 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “or wife” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.)—the idea of having 100 wives was no doubt objectionable. Actually, the ‘hundredfold’ should presumably not be taken in a strictly literal sense. I take it that the Lord is saying that we will be abundantly recompensed, if not down here, certainly in heaven. In my own experience, in the absence of my real mother, whenever I needed one God provided one. If you only have one brother, that is all you can leave, obviously, so the plural nouns are also contingent on the facts in the case. ‘Eternal’ life is a quality of life, and it begins down here.

<sup>f</sup> How did he know they had been there all day? He had seen them, and had himself refused to hire them until the end. As his desperation level increased, he became less and less choosy about the quality of the workers [I take it that for some reason the grapes had to be collected that day; any that were left until later would be lost]. As the Church is in its eleventh hour, or later, it seems to me that we see God doing just like the landowner—He is using some rather ‘unusual’ workers.

yard, and you will receive whatever is right.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>So when evening had come the owner of the vineyard says to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wage, beginning at the last to the first.’<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup>The eleventh hour ones came and each received a denarius. <sup>10</sup>So when the first ones came they supposed that they would receive more; yet each of them also received a denarius. <sup>11</sup>When they received it they began grumbling against the landowner <sup>12</sup>saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden and the heat of the day!’ <sup>13</sup>But in answer he said to one of them: ‘Friend, I am not wronging you. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’ <sup>14</sup>Take what is yours and go. I wish to give to this last one just as to you. <sup>15</sup>Or is it not permissible for me to do what I want with what is mine? Is your eye evil because I am good?’ <sup>16</sup>Just so the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus alerts the disciples, again

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was on His way to Jerusalem He took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them privately: <sup>18</sup>“Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem and the Son of the Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, <sup>19</sup>and they will hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge and to crucify. And on the third day He will rise!”

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons approached Him, with her sons, and kneeling down she asked something from Him. <sup>21</sup>So He said to her, “What do you wish?” She says to Him, “State that these my two sons may sit one on Your right and one on Your left in Your kingdom.” <sup>22</sup>But in answer Jesus said: “You (pl.) do not know what you are asking.<sup>d</sup> Are you able to drink the cup which I am about to drink, or to be baptized with the baptism that I am being baptized with?”<sup>e</sup> They say to Him, “We are able.” <sup>23</sup>And He says to them: “You will indeed drink my cup, and you will be baptized with the baptism that I am being baptized with, but to sit on my right and on my left is not mine to give; rather it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>e</sup> Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “or be baptized with the baptism that I am being baptized with” and also the corresponding clause in verse 23 (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

of the Man—He did not come to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Two blind men<sup>a</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Now as they went on from Jericho a large crowd followed Him. <sup>30</sup>And then, two blind men sitting alongside the road and hearing, “Jesus is passing by!” cried out saying, “Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!” <sup>31</sup>So the crowd threatened them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more saying, “Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!!” <sup>32</sup>Jesus stopped, called them and said, “What do you want me to do for you?”<sup>b</sup> <sup>33</sup>They say to Him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened!” <sup>34</sup>So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

The last week

The triumphal entry—Sunday, 03/31/30AD

21 <sup>1</sup>Now when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethsphage, opposite the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them: “Go into the village opposite you and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose her and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says anything to you, just say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.” <sup>4</sup>Now all this happened so that what was spoken through the prophet should be fulfilled, namely:

‘Look, your King is coming to you, humble and mounted on a donkey,
in fact, a young donkey,
foal of a beast of burden.”<sup>c</sup>

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!<sup>e</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Comparing this account with the parallels in Mark and Luke, there appear to be several discrepancies. For a detailed discussion, please see the Appendix: Entering or leaving Jericho?

<sup>c</sup> The quote is from Zechariah 9:9. Unfortunately the KJV (corrected by the NKJV) mistranslates both the Hebrew and the Greek, making it appear that Jesus rode both animals, which was not the case; He rode only the colt. For a more complete discussion, please see the Appendix: How many animals?

<sup>d</sup> It must have been a curious sight—no one had ever seen anything like it. Mark 11:2 and Luke 19:30 make clear that no one had ever ridden the colt. It was so young it was still staying close to ‘mother’, so if she was tied he was too. Jesus was going to expose the colt to a frightening experience—be ridden for the first time, by a stranger, someone perhaps heavier than the colt, and in the middle of a noisy crowd! So He has them bring the mother along as moral support. The disciples put clothes on both animals (the clothes would be very strange to the young donkey, but seeing his mother take it patiently would help his peace of mind), but Jesus rode only the colt—maybe He had to lift His feet so they didn’t drag! It was probably comical, a strange way for a King to present Himself.

Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

<sup>12</sup>Jesus went into the temple of God and drove out all who were selling and buying in the temple, and He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>13</sup>And He says to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it 'a cave of bandits'."<sup>c</sup> <sup>14</sup>And the lame and the blind came to Him in the temple, and He healed them.

<sup>15</sup>But seeing the wonders that He did, and the children calling out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" the chief priests and the scribes became indignant <sup>16</sup>and said to Him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" So Jesus says to them: "Yes. Have you never read that 'Out of the mouth of babies and nursing infants

You have prepared praise for Yourself?"<sup>d</sup>

"If you have faith"—Monday, 04/01/30 AD

About John's baptism—Tuesday, 04/02/30 AD

<sup>23</sup>So He came into the temple, and as He was teaching the chief priests and the elders of the people approached Him saying, "By whose authority are you doing these things?" and "Who gave you this authority?" <sup>24</sup>But in answer Jesus said to them: "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I also will tell you by whose authority I do these things: <sup>25</sup>The baptism of John—where was it from; from heaven or from men?" So they reasoned among themselves saying: "If <sup>a</sup> Really and truly: can't you just see the hubbub! The crowd with Jesus was not from Jerusalem (John 12:12), so the locals were taken by surprise.

<sup>b</sup> Mark and Luke have the correct sequence of events for that Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—Matthew rearranges the material for stylistic reasons (presumably). For the correct sequence of events, read Matthew 21:1-11, 18-19, 12-17, 20-22, 23-46. Chapters 22-26 are in sequence.

we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>26</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the crowd, for all consider John as a prophet.” <sup>27</sup>So in answer to Jesus they said, “We do not know.” So He said to them: “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>28</sup>“But what do you think? A certain man had two sons, and going to the first he said, ‘Son, go work today in my vineyard.’ <sup>29</sup>But in answer he said, ‘I don’t want to’ (but later he changed his mind and went). <sup>30</sup>And going to the other he said likewise. And in answer he said, ‘I go, Sir’; yet he did not go. <sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of the father?” They say to Him, “The first.” Jesus says to them: “Assuredly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes will go into the kingdom of God before you do.” <sup>32</sup>For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him, yet when you saw it you did not afterward repent, so as to believe him.

<sup>33</sup>“Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner who planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to farmers and went on a journey. <sup>34</sup>When vintage-time drew near he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruits. <sup>35</sup>But the farmers took his servants—one they beat, one they killed, one they stoned. <sup>36</sup>Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did to them likewise. <sup>37</sup>So finally he sent his son to them saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ <sup>38</sup>But when the farmers saw the son they said among themselves: ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take possession of his inheritance.’ <sup>39</sup>And taking him they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?” <sup>41</sup>They say to Him: “He will miserably destroy those miserable men! And he will lease the vineyard to other farmers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.” <sup>42</sup>Jesus says to them: “Did you never read in the Scriptures:

this one became the cornerstone.
 This was the LORD’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?’<sup>b</sup>

<sup>43</sup>Therefore I say to you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing the fruits of it.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>44</sup>Also, whoever falls upon this stone will be broken to pieces; but upon whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.”<sup>d</sup>

22 <sup>1</sup>Jesus answered and spoke to them again in parables saying: <sup>2</sup>"The kingdom of the heavens is like a certain king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>And he sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, but they did not want to come. <sup>4</sup>Again he sent out other servants saying: 'Say to those who have been invited: "See, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatted cattle are butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!"' <sup>5</sup>Now the indifferent ones just took off—one to his own field, another to his business. <sup>6</sup>But the rest, seizing his servants mistreated and killed them! <sup>7</sup>So when that king heard about it he was furious; and sending his troops he destroyed those murderers and burned up their city.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>"Then he says to his servants: 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup>So go on the roads leading out of town, and as many as you may find invite to the wedding feast.' <sup>10</sup>And going out on the roads those servants gathered together everyone they found, both evil and good; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. <sup>11</sup>But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had not been clothed with a wedding garment.<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>So he says to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the servants, 'Tie him up hand and foot, take him away and throw him out into the darkness farthest away.'<sup>d</sup> There there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>14</sup>For many are called, but few chosen."

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might trap Him in some word. <sup>16</sup>So they send their disciples to Him, with the Herodians,<sup>e</sup> saying: "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth; and you are not impressed by anyone, for you do not look at people's faces.<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>So tell us, what do you think: is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar, or not?" <sup>18</sup>But perceiving their malignancy Jesus said: "Hypocrites! Why do you test me? <sup>19</sup>Show me the tax coin." So they brought Him a denarius. <sup>20</sup>And He says to them, "Whose image and inscrip-mean two against 1700—is that not a dishonest use of the English language? To join Jesus means you have to be broken (so you can be re-made), but to reject Him...

<sup>a</sup> They understood, so they were warned; but they did not pay attention to the warning. They went to hell with their eyes open. They would rather go to hell than acknowledge Jesus as Messiah. Today it is the same way—many would rather go to hell than acknowledge Jesus as Creator and Savior.

<sup>b</sup> There is a contrast between the indifferent (verse 5) and the malignant (verse 6)—the indifferent missed out on the feast, but the malignant were destroyed. In the kingdom of the heavens there is only one wedding feast for the King's Son, so far as I know, called "the marriage supper of the Lamb" in Revelation 19:9. So who might the 'indifferent' be?

<sup>d</sup> Someone tried to 'crash the party' and had even taken a place at a table, but it did not work. I suppose there may be those who think they can crash "the marriage supper of the Lamb", but if you are not dressed in the righteousness of the Bridegroom you will not make it.

tion is this?" <sup>21</sup>They say to Him, "Caesar's." Then He says to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's!" <sup>22</sup>And hearing it they marveled, and leaving Him they went away.

Jesus bests the Sadducees

<sup>23</sup>The same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him <sup>24</sup>saying: "Teacher, Moses said that if someone dies having no children his brother must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. <sup>25</sup>Now there were seven brothers among us. The first married and died, and having no offspring he left his widow to his brother. <sup>26</sup>So also the second, and the third, up to the seventh. <sup>27</sup>Last of all, the woman died too. <sup>28</sup>Therefore in the resurrection whose wife, of the seven, will she be? For they all had her."<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: "You are deceived,<sup>b</sup> not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God!<sup>c</sup> <sup>30</sup>For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage,<sup>d</sup> but are like angels of God in heaven.<sup>e</sup> <sup>31</sup>But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God saying, <sup>32</sup>'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?<sup>f</sup> God is not God of dead people but of living."<sup>g</sup> <sup>33</sup>Now as the crowds heard Him they were astonished at His teaching.

Jesus bests the Pharisees

David's Son and Lord

<sup>41</sup>While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them <sup>42</sup>saying, "What do you think about the Christ; whose Son is He?" They say to Him, "David's." <sup>43</sup>He says to them: "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord' saying,

<sup>d</sup> Since there will be no death in Heaven, there also will be no need to procreate, producing people to replace those who die.

<sup>e</sup> Jesus does not say that angels do not have sex/gender. Evidently no baby angels (good or fallen) are born, but if angels are of only one gender they cannot reproduce in kind. Whenever an angel takes on human form in the Bible, it is always the form of a man. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit "of God" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> Jesus argues on the basis of the present tense of the verb—if Abraham was simply eradicated it would have to be "was". Jesus implies that they should have figured it out for themselves.

<sup>44</sup>The LORD said to my Lord, “Sit at my right until I place your enemies as a footstool for your feet”<sup>7a</sup>

23 <sup>1</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples <sup>2</sup>saying: “The scribes and the Pharisees are seated upon Moses’ chair; <sup>3</sup>so whatever they may tell you to observe, you should observe and do; but do not do according to their deeds, for they say and do not do. <sup>4</sup>For they package loads that are heavy and hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of the people; but they themselves do not want to move them with one of their fingers.

We have only one Teacher and one Father

<sup>d</sup> Since the second person here is plural, the Lord is evidently referring to calling someone your spiritual father; He is not saying not to acknowledge your physical father. “Your (pl.) Father is one”—obviously they did not all have the same physical father.

<sup>e</sup> This may be why we have no record in Scripture of a Christian calling someone his disciple; even in 1 Corinthians 3:4 Paul evidently avoids using the term. I take it that our Lord is forbidding any effort by one Christian to control the spiritual life of another. He had already told the Samaritan woman that the Father must be worshipped “in spirit and truth” (John 4:23-24). Therefore, that worship may not be forced or imposed, or controlled by someone else.

<sup>f</sup> How did that work? I suppose that if the widow was in debt, they would just foreclose and put her out on the street.

<sup>g</sup> They are already condemned, but are making it worse. Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit this verse (as in NIV, [NASB], LB, [TEV], etc.). A very small minority, perhaps another 1%, reverse the order of verses 13 and 14 (as in KJV and NKJV).

MATTHEW 23

to enter to go in.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!!! Because you travel all over, land and sea, to make one convert, and when he joins up you make him twice as much a son of Hell<sup>b</sup> as yourselves.

<sup>16</sup>“Woe to you blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple is obligated.’ <sup>17</sup>Stupid and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold? <sup>18</sup>And, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it is obligated.’ <sup>19</sup>Stupid and blind!! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift?<sup>c</sup> <sup>20</sup>Therefore he who swears by the altar swears by it and by all the things on it. <sup>21</sup>And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by Him who used to dwell in it.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>And he who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>25</sup>“Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!! Because you cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside they are full of plunder and injustice.<sup>f</sup> <sup>26</sup>Blind Pharisee! First cleanse the inside of the cup and the dish, so that their outside may also be clean.

<sup>27</sup>“Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!!! Because you resemble whitewashed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly but inside are full of dead bones and of all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup>Just so, you also outwardly appear to be righteous to the people, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup>“Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!!!! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous; <sup>30</sup>yet you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup>Therefore you testify against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup>So fill up the measure of your fathers’ guilt!

Snakes!

<sup>c</sup> Wow, they really were stupid and blind! which raises the obvious question: How did they get that way? According to Ephesians 2:2, ‘sons of the disobedience’ suffer direct satanic influence.

<sup>g</sup> Would you say that Jesus is trying real hard not to hurt their poor little feelings? So are we supposed to avoid hurting people’s feelings? When and why?

<sup>h</sup> Jesus makes this statement knowing that He will die within a few days. Obviously He also knows that He will rise from the dead and return to the Father’s right hand—it is from that position that He will do the sending.

synagogues and persecute from city to city <sup>35</sup>—so that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel up to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah,<sup>a</sup> whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.<sup>b</sup> <sup>36</sup>Assuredly I say to you that all these things will come upon this generation.

Jesus laments over Jerusalem

The Olivet Discourse

24 <sup>1</sup>So as Jesus was going out, departing from the temple, His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>But Jesus said to them: “Do you not see all these things? Assuredly I say to you, absolutely not a single stone here will be left upon another, that will not be thrown down.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Now as He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately saying: “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming and of the completion of the age?”<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “Watch out, so that no one deceives you. <sup>5</sup>Because many will come in my name saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and they will deceive many. <sup>6</sup>You will be concerned when you hear<sup>f</sup> of wars and rumors of wars; see to it that you not get worked up; for all of it has to happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will be raised up against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and pestilences and earthquakes in various places; <sup>8</sup>but all these things are only a beginning of birth pains.”<sup>g</sup>

The increase of lawlessness

<sup>9</sup>“Then they will hand you over to oppression and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for my name’s sake. <sup>10</sup>And then many will be offended, and they will betray one another and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup>And many false pro-

<sup>a</sup> The only ‘Zechariah son of Berechiah’ recorded in the O. T. was the author of the book of prophecy that bears his name. The temple was rebuilt during his time, so it would be possible for him to have been killed there, but his death is not recorded. The Lord may have known something we do not, or He may have been referring to someone else.

<sup>d</sup> This was literally fulfilled in 70 AD. The Jews used the temple buildings as their last bastion of defense. They themselves set fire to some buildings and the Roman soldiers finished the job. Apparently the gold on the dome melted and ran down the cracks between the stones. So the looters literally tore stone from stone to make sure they got all the gold.

<sup>f</sup> I follow the best line of transmission, with 25% of the Greek manuscripts, in reading “You will be concerned when you hear”, instead of ‘you will be about to hear’ (more or less followed by most versions).

phets will be raised up and they will deceive many.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>And because of the increase of the lawlessness the love of the majority will grow cold. <sup>13</sup>So the one who perseveres to the end, he will be saved.<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in the whole inhabited earth as a witness to all the ethnic nations, and then the end will come.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>15</sup>“So then, when you (ye) see the ‘abomination of desolation’, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place”<sup>d</sup> (let the reader understand), <sup>16</sup>“then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>17</sup>Anyone on the housetop should not go down to take things out of his house, <sup>18</sup>and anyone in the field should not go back to get his cloak.<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing a baby in those days! <sup>20</sup>And pray that your flight may not happen in winter or on a Sabbath.<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>Because then there will be a great tribulation, such as has never been since the beginning of the world until now, and never again will be.<sup>g</sup> <sup>22</sup>And unless those days were cut short no flesh would be saved;<sup>h</sup> but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.<sup>i</sup> <sup>23</sup>Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, the Messiah is here!’ or ‘there!’ do not believe him. <sup>24</sup>Because false christs and false prophets will be raised up,<sup>j</sup> and they will give great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup>See, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup>So if they should say to you, ‘Look, He is in the wilderness!’ do not go out; ‘Look, in the secret rooms!’ do not believe it. <sup>27</sup>Because just as the lightning

<sup>c</sup> The ‘end’ of what? There are at least four possible relevant ends here—of the world, of the Millennium, of the Great Tribulation, of the Church Age. Just as this day, this week, this month, this year, etc. all have ends, but those ends are rarely coincidental, so the four ends above are not coincidental. So which ‘end’ is it? The immediately following context points to the Great Tribulation. In that event, any unreached ethnic nations in our day cannot impede the Rapture, since the angel in Revelation 14:6 will finish the job.

<sup>e</sup> Wait a minute! If you are on the housetop or in the field, how can you “see” the ‘abomination’ so you know it’s time to run? Well, how about wrist TVs, hand held computers, cell phones with internet access, etc.? So how did Jesus know about these gadgets 2,000 years ago? If you are still around when that happens, and if you do not want the ‘mark’, you had better disappear in a hurry.

<sup>f</sup> Well now, any such praying needs to be done before the fact to do any good. Do you know anyone who is praying like this?

<sup>g</sup> There has always been tribulation and distress in the world, and continues to be, but nothing to compare with the Great Tribulation, which has not yet happened.

<sup>h</sup> Adding up the percentages of destruction in Revelation, it appears that only one sixth of those who are alive at the beginning of the Great Tribulation will still be alive at its end. If six billion go in, only one billion will come out. So much for the overpopulation problem!

<sup>i</sup> Just who are the “elect” here (and in verse 31), if the Rapture has already taken place? I believe there will be many millions of conversions immediately after the Rapture—unsaved church members who are left behind. And if the Rapture is partial (Matthew 25:1-13), all the lukewarm Christians will all of a sudden get serious.

comes from east and shines to west, so also will be the coming of the Son of the Man; <sup>28</sup>for wherever the carcass may be there will be a gathering of vultures.<sup>a</sup>

The King's return to earth

<sup>29</sup>"Immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from the heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>And then the sign of the Son of the Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn<sup>c</sup>—they will see the Son of the Man coming on the clouds of the heaven with power and great glory.<sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup>And He will send out His angels with a great sound of a trumpet and they will collect His elect from the four winds, from one extreme of the heavens to the other.

Learn from the fig tree

<sup>32</sup>"Now learn this parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and it puts forth leaves, you know that the summer is near. <sup>33</sup>So you also, whenever you see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors! <sup>34</sup>Assuredly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen.<sup>e</sup> <sup>35</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.<sup>f</sup>

The Rapture

<sup>a</sup> The point of verses 26-28 seems to be that the Lord's return will be very obvious, like the lightning or the circle of buzzards above a carcass—so if someone says He has returned secretly, don't believe it (see verse 30). The word "then" in verse 23 makes clear that what is being described here is the Lord's return to the earth after the Great Tribulation, to set up the Millennial Kingdom.

<sup>b</sup> Possibly citing Isaiah 13:10. 'Stars' often refer to angels, in the Scriptures, and "the powers of the heavens" most probably refers to high ranking fallen angels. It is at this time that Satan will be confined in the Abyss (Revelation 20:1-3). (Just one literal star hitting the earth would reduce it to dust, so the reference cannot be to them.)

<sup>e</sup> "This generation" could refer to the Jewish race (render 'this race'), but I think it more probable that it refers to the generation that "sees all these things". To be more precise, I think that those who were alive on the planet in 1967 (when the city of Jerusalem returned to the political control of the nation Israel) are the generation in question.

<sup>g</sup> It is typical of Hebrew prose (Jesus is a Jew) to re-tell a sequence of events from different perspectives. He is still answering "What is the sign?" but here He starts over and comments upon something that will happen before the 'abomination' (see the footnote with verse 44).

ful, because you (pl) do not know in what hour<sup>a</sup> your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>Therefore you also be ready, because the Son of the Man is coming at an hour that you do not suppose.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>b</sup> I take it that for there to be the element of surprise the Rapture of the Church must occur before the “abomination of desolation”. When the Antichrist takes his place in the Holy of Holies and declares himself to be god there will be precisely 1,260 days until the return of Christ to the earth (see Revelation 12:6 and 13:5—42 months of 30 days each = 1260 days). “An hour that you do not suppose” presumably requires a pre-‘abomination’ rapture—if the rapture is pre-wrath but post-abomination, only a fool will be taken by surprise, unless the Rapture happens immediately after the ‘abomination’ (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4). For a fuller discussion of this question, please see the Appendix: Before or after?

<sup>c</sup> Notice that the Lord consigns hypocrites to hell. That servant pretended to be faithful while the owner was around, but as soon as he turned his back...

<sup>d</sup> This is a servant who had gained his master’s confidence, but then betrayed it—he winds up in hell. He was director of food services, and if he had been faithful there he would have been promoted to general director (verse 47), but...

<sup>e</sup> “Then”—this temporal adverb links the parable to the prior context, which is dealing with the Rapture (I think). Since the foolish ones are virgins, not prostitutes, and since they also had some oil (does the oil represent the Holy Spirit?), this parable may point to a partial rapture; only those who are ready are taken.

<sup>f</sup> From verse 8 it is clear that they all had oil in the lamp, but even with the wick down low their lamps were lit (they wouldn’t wait in total darkness) and were burning oil (4-5 hours). So the delay of the bridegroom meant that the oil in the lamps was used up—the wise ones had extra oil.

to you, I do not know you.<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>Therefore, keep alert, because you do not know the day nor the hour in which the Son of the Man is coming.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>“Because the kingdom is also like a man about to go on a long journey, who called his own slaves and entrusted his possessions to them. <sup>15</sup>To one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on the journey. <sup>16</sup>So the one who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. <sup>17</sup>So also the one who received the two gained another two as well. <sup>18</sup>But he who received the one went off and dug in the ground and hid his lord’s silver.

<sup>19</sup>“Then, after a long time, the lord of those servants comes and settles accounts with them. <sup>20</sup>So the one who had received the five talents approached and brought five more talents saying, ‘Lord, you entrusted five talents to me; see, I gained five more talents besides them!’ <sup>21</sup>His lord said to him: ‘Super, you good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things, I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.’ <sup>22</sup>So the one who had received the two talents also approached and said, ‘Lord, you entrusted two talents to me; see, I gained two more talents besides them!’ <sup>23</sup>His lord said to him: ‘Super, you good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things, I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.’<sup>c</sup>

<sup>24</sup>“Then he who had received the one talent also approached and said: ‘Lord, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter. <sup>25</sup>And being afraid I went off and hid your talent in the ground; here, take what is yours.’<sup>d</sup> <sup>26</sup>So in answer his lord said to him: ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>27</sup>Therefore you were obligated to deposit my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received what is mine with interest. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, take the talent away from him and give it to the one having the ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but the one who does not have, even what he thinks that he has<sup>f</sup> will be taken away from him.<sup>g</sup> <sup>30</sup>And throw out the useless slave,<sup>h</sup> into the darkness farthest out!’ There, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>c</sup> The two-talent man was just as faithful as the first one—he also doubled the principal—so he gets the same commendation. We are judged on the basis of what we do with our potential.

<sup>d</sup> Evidently the third man did not identify with his lord’s interests. He served out of fear or necessity, but his heart wasn’t in it. He has a negative opinion of his lord and is unrepentant: “here, take what is yours”. He winds up in hell. Are there not many ‘Christians’ today who have a low opinion of God? Who feel that He is hard, unfair, unjust—and who ‘serve’ out of fear or a sense of obligation? If you believe into Jesus you identify with Him.

<sup>f</sup> I follow the best line of transmission, with 30% of the Greek manuscripts, in reading “he thinks that he has”, rather than ‘he has’ (as in most versions).

<sup>41</sup>“Then He will also say to those on His left: ‘Go away from me, you accursed ones, into the eternal fire that was prepared for the devil and his angels.’<sup>g</sup> <sup>42</sup>For I was hungry and you did not give me food; I was thirsty and you did not give me drink; <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger and you did not take me in; I was naked and you did not clothe me; I was sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ <sup>44</sup>Then they also will answer saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not minister to you?’ <sup>45</sup>Then He will answer them saying, ‘Assuredly I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these,<sup>h</sup> neither did you do it to me.’<sup>i</sup> <sup>46</sup>And they will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

26 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened, when Jesus had finished these words, that He said to His disciples, <sup>2</sup>“You know that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of the Man will be handed over to be crucified.”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>g</sup> The Lake of fire was prepared for Lucifer (now Satan) and those angels that joined his rebellion (about a third of the angelic beings—Revelation 12:4). Human beings who side with Satan (there are various ways of doing that) will also share his destiny. The basic meaning of the word translated ‘angel’ is ‘messenger’; many human beings are Satan’s messengers.

<sup>i</sup> These people are basically selfish and self-centered, and self-centeredness is the essence of sin. That is why Lucifer rebelled against God, etc.

<sup>j</sup> Jesus knew just how He was going to die. I take it that our Lord’s statement here settles the question of the exact day of the crucifixion. It was late Tuesday afternoon, probably about 6:00 p.m.—adding two days takes us to 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, but the proceedings in the upper room began after 6:00 p.m. on that Thursday, which to the Jews was already Friday. Therefore Jesus died on a Friday [not Thurs-

Someone anoints Jesus' head

Judas offers to betray Jesus

<sup>14</sup>Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup>and said, “What are you willing to give me so that I deliver Him to you?”<sup>e</sup> So they counted out to him thirty silver coins. <sup>16</sup>From then on he kept looking for an opportunity to betray Him.

The last night—begins Thursday evening, 04/04/30, and ends the next morning

<sup>17</sup>Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus saying to Him, “Where do you want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?” <sup>18</sup>So He said: “Go into the city to ‘you know who’ and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, ‘My time is near, I will do the Passover with my disciples at your place.’”<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>And the disciples did as Jesus directed them and prepared the Passover.<sup>f</sup> day]. Our Lord's own statements have given rise to some confusion: referring to the time period between His death and resurrection He said—“on the third day”, “after three days” and “three days and three nights”. So some have argued that Jesus died on a Thursday, or even a Wednesday. Well, Wednesday won't work because that would make 3 days and 4 nights; but Thursday gives 3 nights and 2 full days, plus a part of a third day; while Friday gives 2 nights and 1 full day, plus a part of a second day. We take it that “3 days and 3 nights” was an idiomatic expression that could refer to three 24 hour days represented by some part of each, but in sequence—in this case: Friday, Saturday and Sunday. (See also Luke 23:54-24:1—Jesus was buried on Friday afternoon; then the women rested during the Sabbath [singular = just one day]; then early the first day of the week they went to the tomb.) See “How long was Jesus' body in the tomb?” in the Appendix.

<sup>a</sup> The real high priest was Annas, but in an effort to diminish the political power of the high priest the Romans obliged the Jews to name a different one every year, and that year it was Caiaphas.

<sup>b</sup> This incident must not be confused with the one in John 12:1-11. In John, Mary anoints His feet on Saturday (03/30/30), while in Matthew and Mark an unidentified woman anoints His head on Wednesday (04/03/30). The houses are also different. In the earlier incident only Judas ventured to criticize the hostess, but here a number of them chime in—He had already been anointed once, so why do it again?

<sup>e</sup> Apparently the ‘wasted’ perfume was the last straw for Judas. (If he also finally got the message that Jesus was about to be killed instead of setting up the Kingdom, he may have rebelled.)

<sup>20</sup>When it was evening He was reclining at the table with the twelve. <sup>21</sup>And as they were eating He said, “Assuredly I say to you that one of you will betray me.” <sup>22</sup>This really upset them and they each<sup>a</sup> began to say to Him, “It isn’t me, is it, Lord?” <sup>23</sup>In answer He said: “It is the one who dipped his hand in the bowl with me, he will betray me. <sup>24</sup>The Son of the Man is really going just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of the Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man not to have been born.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, “It isn’t me, is it, Rabbi?” He says to him, “You said it!”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus institutes the Lord’s Supper

<sup>26</sup>Now as they were eating,<sup>d</sup> after taking the bread and blessing it, Jesus broke it, gave it to the disciples and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.” <sup>27</sup>And taking the cup and giving thanks He gave it to them saying: “Drink of it, all of you; <sup>28</sup>for this is my blood, that of the new covenant,<sup>e</sup> that which is being shed on behalf of many for forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup>Furthermore, I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>30</sup>And after hymn-singing they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus predicts Peter’s denials<sup>g</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus says to them: “All of you will be caused to stumble because of me this night, for it is written:

‘I will strike the Shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’<sup>h</sup>

<sup>32</sup>But after I am raised I will go before you to Galilee.” <sup>33</sup>Peter answered and said to Him, “Even if everyone else is caused to stumble because of you, I will never be caused to stumble.” <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, “Assuredly I say to you that this night, <sup>a</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, have “one after another” (as in NIV, LB, TEV, etc.), as if it were an orderly proceeding, each one politely waiting for his turn. Not really—they were shocked; what Jesus had just said couldn’t be true! As a gut reaction each one started saying, “It cannot be me, can it?”, all at once. Apparently none of them suspected Judas.

<sup>c</sup> Judas phrases his question just like the others, only saying ‘Rabbi’ instead of ‘Lord’. The Lord’s answer confirms that it is Judas. Mark and Luke also record this incident, but the one recorded in John 13:21–30 happened later.

<sup>d</sup> In John 13:1 we read, “before the feast of the Passover”, and in 13:2, “supper being ended” [less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘during supper’—as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.]. They ate an ordinary meal before the Passover ritual. In John 13:4–11 Jesus washes their feet because they could not proceed with the ritual while ceremonially unclean. In Matthew 26:21 they were eating the ordinary meal. Here in verse 26 they are now into the ritual (I think)—the foot washing happened between verse 25 and verse 26.

before any rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>35</sup>Peter says to Him, “Even if I have to die with you, I will not deny you!” And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane—Jesus almost dies!

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He says to the disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” <sup>37</sup>And taking Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along He began to be troubled and distressed. <sup>38</sup>Then Jesus says to them: “My soul is in anguish, to the point of death.<sup>b</sup> Stay here and watch with me.” <sup>39</sup>And going a little farther He fell on His face and prayed saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by; nevertheless not as I wish, but as you do.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>40</sup>Then He comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and He says to Peter: “So, you (pl.) were not able to watch with me one hour! <sup>41</sup>Watch and pray, so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit on its part is willing, but the flesh is weak.” <sup>42</sup>And going away a second time He prayed saying, “My Father, if this cup cannot pass from me unless I drink it, let your will be done.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>43</sup>And coming He finds them sleeping again, because their eyes had been weighed down.<sup>e</sup> <sup>44</sup>So leaving them again, He went away and prayed a third time, saying the same thing. <sup>45</sup>Then He comes to His disciples and says to them: “Sleep some more and take your rest!<sup>f</sup> Actually, the hour is here and the Son of the Man is being betrayed into sinners’ hands. <sup>46</sup>Get up, let’s go; behold my betrayer!”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup> I take it that Jesus faced the full implications of the cross at this point—that He would be made sin, be separated from the Father—and the anguish of soul was so terrible that He almost died. Luke 22:44 records that Jesus sweat blood, “great drops” of it—a rare condition that is usually fatal. Verse 43 records that an angel from heaven strengthened Him. I believe Hebrews 5:7 refers to this moment; Jesus cried out to be delivered from a premature death in the Garden, He had to get to the cross, and the Father sent an angel to strengthen Him. [Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit Luke 22:43-44.]

<sup>c</sup> How did Matthew know what Jesus prayed? It is not clear whether the “stone’s throw” (Luke 22:41) refers to the nine, or the three, but even if the three were within earshot how much would they hear asleep? Did Jesus tell them after His resurrection? Or did the Holy Spirit simply reveal it? And how did they know about the blood if they were asleep?

<sup>f</sup> I take it that Jesus is reproving them with a bit of gentle sarcasm, since He goes on to say, “Get up”—although there could have been an interval between verses 45 and 46.

ings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him. <sup>50</sup>So Jesus said to him, "Friend, what brings you here?"<sup>a</sup> Then approaching they laid hands on Jesus and took Him. <sup>51</sup>And then, one of those with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and striking the servant of the high priest he cut off his ear!<sup>b</sup> <sup>52</sup>But Jesus says to him: "Put your sword back into its place, for all who take the sword will die by the sword. <sup>53</sup>Do you actually suppose that I cannot call upon my Father right now and He will place beside me more than twelve legions of angels?<sup>c</sup> <sup>54</sup>But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it has to happen this way?" <sup>55</sup>At that time Jesus said to the crowd: "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a bandit, to arrest me? I used to sit daily with you in the temple, teaching, and you did not seize me. <sup>56</sup>But all this has happened so that the Scriptures of the prophets should be fulfilled." Then all the disciples forsook Him and ran away.

<sup>57</sup>So those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. <sup>58</sup>Now Peter was following Him at a distance, up to the high priest's courtyard. And going inside he sat down with the attendants, to see the end.

Jesus tried by the Council

<sup>59</sup>The chief priests and the elders, in fact the whole Council, kept looking for false witnesses against Jesus so that they could put Him to death, <sup>60</sup>but did not find any. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they did not find any. But at last two false witnesses came forward <sup>61</sup>and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days.'"<sup>d</sup> <sup>62</sup>And standing up the high priest said to Him: "Do you answer nothing?<sup>e</sup> What is it that these men are testifying against you?" <sup>63</sup>But Jesus kept silent. So reacting the high priest said to Him, "I put you under oath by the Living God so that you tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God!"<sup>f</sup> <sup>64</sup>Jesus says to him: "You said it. Furthermore, I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of the Man sitting at the Power's right, and coming on the clouds of heaven."<sup>g</sup> <sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothes saying: "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? See, now you have heard His blasphemy! <sup>66</sup>What do you think?" So in answer they said, <sup>a</sup> Jesus knew perfectly well why Judas was there, so why did He call him "friend"? Perhaps to show that He held no personal animosity against him. Here read John 18:4-9. Jesus is clearly in control. They finally laid hands on Him only because He allowed it—it had to be; it was the Father's will.

<sup>b</sup> From John 18:10 we know that it was Peter, and that the servant was Malchus. The Text has 'the servant', so the high priest had probably put him in charge of the operation. Obviously Peter is not used to wielding a sword.

<sup>f</sup> What the priest did was cowardly and illegal. He had to come up with two witnesses on his own. Of course, under oath to the Living God Jesus had to answer, and of course He would tell the truth. And if He told the truth it wasn't blasphemy. During His ministry He had given more than enough evidence in support of His claim. They simply refused to acknowledge it. From the way Caiaphas framed the oath, I think he knew in his heart that Jesus was indeed the Messiah (just as Satan knows it) but had determined to rebel against Him.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus made it easy for him, gave him more than he asked. According to the Plan, He had to be condemned. But being in Hades (they were lost), how could they see Jesus at the Father's right? I don't know.

Peter denies Jesus

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a certain servant girl approached him saying, “You too were with Jesus the Galilean.” <sup>70</sup>But he denied before them all saying, “I don’t know what you are saying.” <sup>71</sup>And having gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and says to those who were there, “This fellow also was with Jesus the Natsorean.” <sup>72</sup>And he denied again, with an oath, “I do not know the man!” <sup>73</sup>But a little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Really, you too are one of them, because your very accent gives you away!” <sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse and to swear, “I do not know the man!!” And immediately a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered<sup>b</sup> the word that Jesus had said to him, “Before any rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” And going out he cried bitterly.

Crucifixion Day—Friday, 04/05/30

27 <sup>1</sup>When early morning came, all the chief priests and elders plotted against Jesus to kill Him. <sup>2</sup>And having bound Him they went and handed Him over to Pontius<sup>c</sup> Pilate, the governor.

<sup>3</sup>(Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, felt regret and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders <sup>4</sup>saying, “I sinned, by betraying innocent blood.” But they said: “What do we care? It’s your problem!” <sup>5</sup>So throwing the silver down in the sanctuary he left, and went and hanged himself.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>Then the chief priests took the coins and said, “It isn’t lawful to put them into the treasury, being blood money.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>So after consultation they bought the potter’s field with them, as a burial ground for strangers. <sup>8</sup>Therefore that field has been called ‘field of blood’ to this day. <sup>9</sup>Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet,<sup>f</sup> namely: “And they took the thirty silver coins, the value of the one who was priced, whom some of the children of Israel priced, <sup>10</sup>and they gave them for the potter’s field, just as the LORD directed me.”)

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>11</sup>So Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him saying, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus said to him, “As you say.” <sup>12</sup>But although

<sup>f</sup> The quote resembles Zechariah 11:12-13 (not a perfect fit) but really has no counterpart in the canonical Jeremiah. However, Daniel (9:2) refers to “the books” (plural) in connection with Jeremiah the prophet. Just as Jude (verse 14) had access to a prophecy by Enoch, of which no copy survives, Matthew may have had access to other writings of Jeremiah (Daniel 9:2), of which no copy survives. For further discussion of this, please see the Appendix: Jeremiah? Matthew 27:9-10.

the chief priests and elders kept accusing Him, He answered nothing. <sup>13</sup>Then Pilate says to Him, “Don’t you hear all that they are saying against you?” <sup>14</sup>But He did not answer him, not even one word, so that the governor was really amazed.

“We want Barabbas!”

<sup>15</sup>Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release one prisoner to the crowd, whomever they wanted. <sup>16</sup>Just then they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>So while they were assembled Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you, Barabbas or Jesus who is called Messiah?” <sup>18</sup>For he knew that they had handed Him over through envy.

<sup>19</sup>Now as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, because I suffered a great deal in a dream today because of Him.”

<sup>20</sup>But the chief priests and elders had persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Barabbas, but destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup>So the governor spoke up and said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” And they said, “Barabbas!” <sup>22</sup>Pilate says to them, “What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Messiah?” They all say to him, “Let Him be crucified!” <sup>23</sup>So the governor said, “But, what evil did He do?” But they kept yelling all the more saying, “Let Him be crucified!!” <sup>24</sup>When Pilate saw that nothing was being gained but rather a riot was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd saying: “I am innocent of the blood of this righteous man.<sup>a</sup> It’s your problem!” <sup>25</sup>So in answer all the people said, “His blood be upon us and upon our children!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas to them, but Jesus, after flogging Him,<sup>c</sup> he delivered to be crucified.

<sup>d</sup> They were really having fun! The soldiers were not Jews and presumably did not know anything about Jesus. They probably held a low opinion of Jews in general, and some ‘peasant’ who thought he was a king, well...

<sup>e</sup> Here they get nasty. The thorns were probably poisonous and the blows drove the points into His scalp down to the bone. His face began to swell from the poison; the blood oozing from the wounds was mixed with the spit. We assume from Isaiah 50:6 that the soldiers also yanked out parts of His beard, which would have torn away the skin as well. The total effect must have been horrible, leaving Jesus unrecognizable—Isaiah 52:14 was literally fulfilled.

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>a</sup> This was a small humanitarian gesture—gall is a crude anesthetic, and would deaden the pain. But Jesus refused it, so He remained fully alert on the cross and felt it all. For a discussion of the seeming discrepancy with Mark, please see the Appendix: ‘Gall’, or ‘myrrh’?

<sup>b</sup> If they divided up His clothes it means they were no longer on Him—one last bit of humiliation. Perhaps 95% of the Greek manuscripts do not have the rest of verse 35 as found in the KJV and NKJV, although it would make a nice addition.

<sup>c</sup> The Lord was alive on the cross for some six hours, and the soldiers had to stay there to make sure no one tried to interfere with ‘justice’. So naturally they sat down.

<sup>d</sup> The board must have been of fair size, because the full Accusation, in three languages (John 19:20), was: “This is Jesus the Natsorean, the king of the Jews”.

<sup>e</sup> This was a lie; they already knew that Jesus was the Messiah but had deliberately rejected Him. However, if Jesus had descended from the cross (as presumably He had the power to do) we would be without hope. The people were being satanically nasty, but Jesus was totally committed to the Father’s will and thus the redemptive program was not aborted.

<sup>f</sup> Evidently they both started out by reviling Him, but later one of them repented—they were on the cross about three hours before the supernatural darkness, so there was time to think.

<sup>g</sup> I take it that the Father turned His back on the Son during those three hours—to be separated from the Father is spiritual death. For Jesus to pay for my sin and yours He had to take our wages: “The wages of sin is death”—both physical and spiritual.

<sup>h</sup> Comparing this verse with Mark 15:36 we have an apparent discrepancy: Matthew records that others told the man to stop, while Mark records that the man told them to stop! So which is it? What I imagine is this: as both accounts state, a certain man [could it possibly have been John Mark himself?] decides to offer Jesus a drink of wine vinegar; several others, supposing that Jesus had just called on Elijah, tell him to stop; to which he retorts, “You (pl) stop!” and repeats their statement with sarcasm [anyone who really understood the language would have known that Jesus wasn’t calling Elijah at all]. However, it does appear that the man stopped his action before Jesus could drink, since a bit later Jesus says, “I’m thirsty” (John 19:28). For more, please see “Who said what” in the Appendix.

<sup>51</sup>And then, the veil of the temple was ripped in two from top to bottom!<sup>b</sup> And the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split, <sup>52</sup>and the graves were opened. (And many bodies, of the saints who had fallen asleep, were raised; <sup>53</sup>and coming forth out of the graves after His resurrection, they entered the holy city and were made visible to many.)<sup>c</sup> <sup>54</sup>Now when the centurion and those with him guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that happened they were scared stiff and said, “This Man really was the Son of God!”<sup>d</sup>

The burial

<sup>57</sup>Now at evening there appeared a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.<sup>f</sup> <sup>58</sup>This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered that the body be given. <sup>59</sup>So taking the body Joseph wrapped it in a clean linen cloth <sup>60</sup>and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb and left. <sup>61</sup>And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave.<sup>g</sup>

The tomb is guarded

<sup>62</sup>The next day, which is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees went together to Pilate <sup>63</sup>saying: “Sir, we remember that that deceiver, while still alive, said, ‘After three days I am going to rise.’ <sup>64</sup>Therefore command

<sup>a</sup> Oh praise God! Jesus dismissed His spirit (see also John 19:30)—it was not the cross that killed Him (for details see the note at 27:54 below). As He said in John 10:18, “no one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself”. I take it that John 19:30 gives the content of the shout—Τετέλεσται! = “Paid in full!” It was a shout of victory. For a fuller discussion, please see “Did the cross kill Jesus?” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> God Himself ripped the veil (or ordered it done). Access to God’s presence is no longer limited to one man once a year. See Hebrews 10:19-22.

<sup>d</sup> “All that happened” is better explained in Mark 15:39—the loud shout followed immediately by death convinced the centurion. He had seen many crucifixions and was doubtless hardened to it. He knew that a person on a cross dies from asphyxiation. The weight of the body pushes the diaphragm against the lungs and you cannot breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure that prolonged the agony—rather than die they would push against the nail to get a breath. Finally, when too weak to do that they would die for lack of air. (That is why they broke the legs of the two thieves; they then died within a few minutes.) Obviously, if you are dying without air you cannot shout! The centurion knew that the cross had not killed Jesus. But what mere human can just tell his spirit to leave?  $2 + 2 = 4$ . Jesus had to be the Son of God.

<sup>e</sup> “Ministering to Him”—here we may have a clue as to how Jesus was maintained financially during His ministry, since He presumably did not have time for carpentry.

<sup>f</sup> He “appeared”—he had been waiting in the wings. Just as with the owner of the donkey, and the owner of the upper room, who were doubtless advised in advance that their services would be needed, Joseph was prepared. He didn’t just “happen” to have a tomb he didn’t know what to do with, complete with a large stone just right for sealing. According to Isaiah 53:9 He was to have a rich man’s grave, not whatever the common criminals got (the Father did not allow the Son’s body to suffer that humiliation).

that the grave be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night and steal Him and say to the people, ‘He was raised from the dead,’ and the last deception will be worse than the first.” <sup>65</sup>So Pilate said to them, “You have a guard; go make it as secure as you can!”<sup>a</sup> <sup>66</sup>So they went and secured the grave with the guard, having sealed the stone.<sup>b</sup>

Resurrection Day—Sunday, 04/07/30

28 <sup>1</sup>Now after the Sabbath, at the dawning of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, came to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup>Now then, a big earthquake had occurred, because an angel of the Lord, descending out of heaven, had come and rolled back the stone from the door;<sup>c</sup> and sat on it!<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>And his appearance was like lightning and his clothing as white as snow. <sup>4</sup>So the guards were shaken for fear of him, and became like dead men.

<sup>9</sup>But as they were going to report to His disciples,<sup>h</sup> wow, Jesus met them saying, “Rejoice!” So approaching, they held His feet and worshipped Him. <sup>10</sup>Then

<sup>a</sup> Was Pilate happy? No he was not! And maybe, just maybe, he was not as stupid as some might like to think. From Mark 15:44-45 we know that he debriefed the centurion, who had to explain why Jesus died sooner than expected! “Make it as sure as you can.” Right. For a detailed analysis concerning Pilate, please see the Appendix: Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time.

<sup>b</sup> Ironically those great champions of the Sabbath had to violate the Sabbath to secure the tomb. They thought they were being shrewd, but only played into God’s hand. Their effort only made the evidence for the resurrection all the stronger. Consider: who removed the stone? (It was sealed with the seal of Rome.)

<sup>e</sup> Comparing this account with Mark 16:5-7 we conclude that the women did not see the angel outside on the stone—he only appeared to them inside the tomb. And if a shining angel had been on the stone Magdalene would not have assumed that the body had been stolen (John 20:2). If I had been one of those guards I think I would have converted on the spot—surely some of them believed and later they gave their eyewitness account to the Christian community. It has been common for people to think that the four Gospels contradict each other, with reference to the events surrounding the Resurrection. For a detailed analysis, please see “Harmonizing the accounts of the Resurrection” in the Appendix.

<sup>h</sup> Some 12% of the Greek manuscripts omit this first clause (as in NIV, NASB, [LB], TEV, etc.). Mark 16:9 makes clear that the first appearance was to Magdalene.

Jesus says to them: “Do not be afraid! Go report to my brothers<sup>a</sup> that they must go to Galilee, and there they will see me.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Now while they were going, get this, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened.<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>When they had met with the elders and consulted together, they gave plenty of money to the soldiers <sup>13</sup>saying: “Say that his disciples came at night and stole him while you were sleeping. <sup>14</sup>And should this get to the governor, we will persuade him and make you safe.” <sup>15</sup>So taking the money they did as they were instructed. Their tale is widely spread among the Jews until this day.

The Great Commission

<sup>16</sup>The eleven disciples went into Galilee to the mountain that Jesus had indicated to them. <sup>17</sup>When they saw Him they worshipped Him; but some doubted.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>And approaching Jesus asserted to them saying: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>As you go,<sup>e</sup> make disciples in all ethnic nations: baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit;<sup>f</sup> <sup>20</sup>teaching them to obey everything that I commanded you;<sup>g</sup> and take note, I am with you every day, until the end of the age!”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The angel said “disciples”, but Jesus said “brothers”. It may be that He was referring precisely to His half-brothers James, Jude, etc. They would not have been in the upper room with the Eleven, and so did not see Him at that time.

<sup>c</sup> “Some”—so where were the rest? Those who were converted, as I suppose, would not want to be part of the cover-up.

<sup>d</sup> It seems improbable that all of them would doubt (after all, they had seen Him at least twice already), so most translations render “some”. Although verse 16 refers specifically to the eleven, there may have been others (like His half-brothers, verse 10) along who had not seen Him yet.

<sup>f</sup> Our Lord defines the Trinity here. According to Greek grammar the use of ‘and’ plus the definite article with items in a series makes clear that the items are distinct entities. So “the Father” is different from “the Son” is different from “the Holy Spirit”. So we have three persons. But He also said, “into the name”, singular, not ‘names’. So we have only one name. God is one ‘name’ or essence subsisting in three persons.

This baptism is to be administred into the name of the Trinity, which represents a new revelation about the nature of God. It also represents a new ‘religion’, being different from what was known up to that time. In the OT there are veiled references, and looking back we can associate them with the Trinity, but here we have the first clear statement of it. But what does it mean to be baptized into the name of the Trinity?

A person’s name represents that person. To do something ‘in the name of the king’ means that the king gave the order; whoever said it represents the king (or claims that he does). So what does it mean to be baptized into the Trinity? Well, if you are within the Trinity, you are protected by them, since to reach you an attack must pass through them. That is tremendous! So then, the true meaning of this baptism should be this: it is a public declaration, taking a formal stand, whereby the candidate is formally renouncing Satan, and the world he controls, and is placing himself under the protection of the Triune God. It is to change sides, to change kingdoms. (Kind reader, do you know of any local church, anywhere, that teaches this meaning for this baptism? Alas!) For a fuller discussion, please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix.

<sup>g</sup> The ‘you’ here refers to the eleven (see verse 16), so they were to pass down all the commands that Jesus had given them. To be a disciple of Jesus you have to do everything that Jesus had commanded the eleven to do—this includes healing and casting out demons, as well as preaching the Gospel.

Amen.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Around 50% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, have a colophone that says, “published eight years after the Ascension of Christ”. For 50% of the manuscripts to have this probably means that the tradition is ancient. If this information is correct, Matthew’s Gospel was turned over to the public (‘published’) in 38/39 AD.

The Gospel According to

MARK

1 <sup>1</sup>A beginning<sup>a</sup> of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, Son of God!<sup>b</sup>

John the Baptizer

<sup>2</sup>As it is written in the prophets<sup>c</sup>

—“Take note, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.”<sup>d</sup>

make His paths straight!’<sup>e</sup>—

<sup>e</sup> See Isaiah 40:3. My rendering follows that of the translation of the Jewish Publication Society, which reflects normal Hebrew parallelism. Both Hebrew poetry and prose make constant use of parallel or synonymous expressions. Looking at the context in Isaiah, it seems clear that ‘in the wilderness’ modifies the verb ‘to prepare’, and not ‘to call out’. But what is the point of a straight road in the wilderness? Any highway facilitates the transportation of people and cargo, but a straight highway cutting through a stretch of accidented terrain is especially useful. (Indeed, Isaiah 40:3-4 appears to be describing the construction of a modern super hiway.) John was the voice, but it was the people who had to build the road. So how about us? Are we supposed to be preparing a similar hiway? If so, how? At the very least, we should be proclaiming biblical values to the world, using all available means.

<sup>g</sup> There are those who squirm at the plain meaning of the Text—John was offering forgiveness of sins. Well, throughout the Old Testament, if you brought an animal offering you were confessing to being a sinner, and expecting to be forgiven. As forerunner to the Lamb of God, who would provide the ultimate payment for sin, John represented a transition, from the old to the new.

<sup>j</sup> There is no definite article with Holy Spirit, so I take it that we should consider the phrase as a proper name. Two baptisms are here contrasted: 1) John the agent with water as the vehicle; 2) Jesus the agent with the Holy Spirit as the vehicle. A baptism where the Holy Spirit is the agent is distinct from these—for a more complete discussion, please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix. But how and when does Jesus baptize us with the Holy Spirit? He does so from His position at the Father’s right hand, when we believe into Him. From then on the Spirit indwells us, and is closely associated with our ‘new man’.

Jesus is baptized

Jesus is tested

Jesus ministers in Galilee

Peter, Andrew, James, John

<sup>16</sup>Then, as He was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother, of Simon,<sup>k</sup> casting a circular net onto the water,<sup>l</sup> for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup>So Jesus said to them: “Come, follow me and I will turn you into fish-

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘out of’ instead of ‘from’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> Here and in Luke 3:22 the episode is presented from Jesus’ perspective, while in Matthew 3:17 it is presented from John’s perspective. When the Holy Spirit ‘fell’ on the day of Pentecost, each foreigner heard the message in his own dialect. The situation here was similar: Jesus heard one thing and John another. For further discussion please see “This is’ or ‘You are’” in the Appendix.

<sup>c</sup> Here we have the three persons of the Godhead clearly represented: the Father by the Voice, the Holy Spirit by the dove, and Jesus was the Son. This was doubtless an important affirmation for Jesus.

<sup>d</sup> This episode was ordained by the Holy Spirit. Jesus had to face Satan when He was the weakest physically that He would ever be (after 40 days without food!). When Satan failed in his attempt to defeat this weakened Jesus, he must have been filled with despair—he then knew that he could never defeat Him. (But he would still try to kill Him.)

<sup>e</sup> Our ‘test’ and ‘tempt’ are translations of a single Greek word, the context determining the choice. To tempt is to test in the area of morals. In this context I consider that ‘tempt’ is too limited, but it is included in the wider meaning of ‘test’. Note that the Spirit impelled Him, which means that this was a necessary part of the Plan. The three specific tests recorded by Matthew and Luke presumably happened near the end of the forty days.

<sup>k</sup> Some 90% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘his brother, of Simon’—presumably a reference to their father. If Peter was the eldest son, he would have been named for his father.

<sup>l</sup> Fishing with a circular net is very common here in Brazil. You have to throw it with a circular motion so it spreads out and lands on the water as a full circle. The lead weights around the edges then start sinking and hopefully some fish will be caught in the middle.

ers of men.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>At once they left their nets<sup>b</sup> and followed Him. <sup>19</sup>And going on from there a little ways He saw James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John; they were in their boat mending their nets. <sup>20</sup>Right away He called them, and leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men they followed Him.

A demonized man

<sup>23</sup>Now there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, <sup>24</sup>saying: “Hey, what do you want with us, Jesus Natsarene?!”<sup>e</sup> Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” <sup>25</sup>So Jesus rebuked him saying: “Shut up and get out of him!”<sup>f</sup> <sup>26</sup>The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.<sup>g</sup> <sup>27</sup>And all were astounded, so that they questioned among themselves, saying: “What is this? What can this new doctrine be?”<sup>h</sup> Because with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!” <sup>28</sup>So His fame spread directly into the whole surrounding area of Galilee.

Peter’s mother-in-law

<sup>29</sup>Immediately upon exiting the synagogue they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup>Simon’s mother-in-law was lying

<sup>c</sup> By this time Jesus had been rejected in Natsareth (Luke 4:16-30) and had moved to Capernaum, which became His base of operations (Luke 4:31-32).

<sup>e</sup> The name of the town in Hebrew is based on the consonants נצר (resh, tsadde, nun), but since Hebrew is read from right to left, for us the order is reversed = n, ts, r. This word root means ‘branch’. Greek has the equivalent for ‘ps’ and ‘ks’, but not for ‘ts’, so the transliteration used a ζ (zeta) ‘dz’, which is the voiced counterpart of ‘ts’. But when the Greek was transliterated into English it came out as ‘z’! But Hebrew has a ‘z’, ז (zayin), so in transliterating back into Hebrew people assumed the consonants נזר, replacing the correct tsadde with zayin. Neither ‘Nazareth’ nor ‘Nazarene’, spelled with a zayin, is to be found in the Old Testament, but there is a prophetic reference to Messiah as the Branch, netser—Isaiah 11:1—and several to the related word, tsemach—Isaiah 4:2, Jeremiah 23:5, 33:15; Zechariah 3:8, 6:12. So Matthew (2:23) is quite right—the prophets (plural, being at least three) referred to Christ as the Branch. Since Jesus was a man, He would be the ‘Branch-man’, from ‘Branch-town’. Which brings us to the word ‘natsorean’. The familiar ‘Nazarene’ (Ναζαρηνος) [Natsarene] occurs in Mark 1:24, 14:67, 16:6 and Luke 4:34, but in Matthew 2:23 and in fourteen other places, including Acts 22:8 where the glorified Jesus calls Himself that, the word is ‘Natsorean’ (Ναζωραιος), which is quite different. I have been given to understand that the Natsareth of Jesus’ day had been founded some 100 years before by a Branch family, who called it Branch town; they were very much aware of the prophecies about the Branch and fully expected the Messiah to be born from among them—they called themselves Branch-people (Natsoreans). Of course everyone else thought it was a big joke and tended to look down on them. “Can anything good...?”

<sup>f</sup> The demon had no business piping up, and he did so without due respect, so the Lord did not waste any kind words on him. Since the speaker said ‘us’, there may have been more than one.

down with a fever,<sup>a</sup> so without delay they told Him about her. <sup>31</sup>So He went and grasping her hand lifted her up; immediately the fever left her and she began to serve them.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>32</sup>That evening, when the sun had set, they started bringing to Him all who were sick and the demonized. <sup>33</sup>So much so that the whole town was gathered at the door, <sup>34</sup>and He healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons; and He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew He was Messiah.<sup>c</sup>

Alone to pray

<sup>35</sup>Now very early, still night, He got up, slipped out, and went off to a solitary place, where He was praying. <sup>36</sup>Simon and those with him hunted for Him, <sup>37</sup>and upon finding Him they said to Him, “Everyone is looking for you.” <sup>38</sup>But He said to them: “Let us go to the neighboring towns, so I can preach there also; that is why I have come.”<sup>d</sup>

The hinge—proof, evaluation, rejection, blasphemy

A leper—the proof

<sup>40</sup>A leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling before Him and saying to Him, “If you want to, you are able to cleanse me.” <sup>41</sup>So being moved with compassion, Jesus stretched out His hand and touched him,<sup>f</sup> and said to him: “I want to; be cleansed!” <sup>42</sup>And when He said this, immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. <sup>43</sup>And He sent him away at once, sternly warning him, <sup>44</sup>by saying: “See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing the things that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>45</sup>However he went out and began to proclaim it freely, spreading the news,<sup>h</sup> so <sup>a</sup> The parallel passage in Luke 4:37 specifies that it was a high fever—she was burning. The case mentioned in Matthew 8:14-15 is probably different, happening some time later. For a fuller discussion please see “Peter’s mother-in-law” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> A high fever usually leaves a person weak, even after it passes, so we really have a double miracle here: Jesus dismissed the fever, but also reversed its effect.

<sup>e</sup> Was Galilee infested with demons? Beginning with Abraham, God declared a special interest in that area, so it is predictable that Satan would also devote special attention to it.

<sup>f</sup> Wow! In those days, no one would touch a leper, because of contamination. Notice that Jesus agreed with the leper: “I want to; be cleansed!” Beautiful!

<sup>g</sup> A ‘testimony’ that the Messiah was present—who else could heal leprosy? This would be the first case the priest had ever had of evaluating a cleansed leper, because only the Messiah could cure leprosy. By instructing the cleansed leper in this way, Jesus was serving notice to the priests that the Messiah had come.

<sup>h</sup> But he did go to the priest, which resulted in the following evaluation—Luke makes this point clearly in his parallel account. That said, however, I can sympathize with that leper—he had good reason to sound off! But it did increase the pressure on Jesus.

that He was no longer able to enter a town openly, but remained outside in deserted places; yet they kept coming to Him from all over.<sup>a</sup>

A paralytic—the evaluation

2 <sup>1</sup>Well a few days later, He again entered Capernaum, and it was heard that He was at home. <sup>2</sup>Without delay so many were gathered together that there was no more room, not even around the door, and He was speaking the Word to them. <sup>3</sup>Then four men came, carrying a paralytic to Him. <sup>4</sup>And not being able to get near Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where He was;<sup>b</sup> upon breaking through they lowered the pallet on which the paralytic was lying. <sup>5</sup>So seeing their faith Jesus says to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

<sup>6</sup>Now some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts: <sup>7</sup>“Why does this guy speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?” <sup>8</sup>Immediately Jesus perceived in His spirit what they were reasoning within themselves<sup>c</sup> and said to them: “Why are you reasoning these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier:<sup>d</sup> to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins have been forgiven’, or to say, ‘Get up, pick up your pallet and start walking!’? <sup>10</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of the Man<sup>e</sup> has authority on the earth to forgive sins”—He says to the paralytic: <sup>11</sup>“To you I say, get up, pick up your pallet and go to your house!” <sup>12</sup>So forthwith he got up, picked up his pallet and went out in front of them all; so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Then He went out again by the sea; and the whole crowd came to Him, and He began to teach them. <sup>14</sup>As He passed by,<sup>g</sup> He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow me!” So he got up and followed Him.

<sup>15</sup>Now it happened, as He was reclining at the table in his house,<sup>h</sup> that many tax collectors and sinners<sup>i</sup> joined Jesus and His disciples at the table; for there were many and they followed Him. <sup>16</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees, seeing Him

<sup>a</sup> There were an awful lot of sick people who all of a sudden had hope.

<sup>b</sup> The roof was presumably flat, with an outside staircase leading up to it. I suppose damaging someone else’s roof could be considered a crime, but they were determined. If Jesus was in His own house, there would be no problem.

<sup>c</sup> Time and again the Inspired Record will point out that Jesus could read people’s thoughts.

<sup>d</sup> I suppose the point to be that the first is easier to say, because no one can see whether it happened or not. But if you tell a paralytic to get up and he doesn’t, you get egg on the face. The Lord did it that way to help them believe that He could really forgive sin. There was nothing wrong with the scribes’ inference; indeed only God can forgive sin, so in fact Jesus was claiming to be God!

<sup>i</sup> ‘Tax collectors and sinners’ seems to have been almost a frozen idiom. A Jew who collected taxes for Rome was viewed as a traitor and held in very low esteem.

eating with the tax collectors and sinners, said to His disciples, “Why is it that He is eating and drinking with the tax collectors and sinners?” <sup>17</sup>Upon hearing it Jesus said to them: “It is not the healthy who have need of a doctor, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”<sup>a</sup>

Fasting

<sup>18</sup>Now John’s disciples and those of the Pharisees were fasting; and they came and said to Him, “Why do John’s disciples and those of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not?” <sup>19</sup>So Jesus said to them: “Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom to themselves they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup>But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast, in those days.”<sup>b</sup>

Cloth and wineskins

<sup>23</sup>Now it happened, on a Sabbath, that He was passing through some grain fields, and His disciples began to make a path, picking the heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>So the Pharisees said to Him, “Just look, why are they doing on a Sabbath that which is not permitted?” <sup>25</sup>And He said to them: “Did you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him? <sup>26</sup>How he entered the house of God (making Abiathar high priest)<sup>e</sup> and ate the consecrated bread, which only priests were permitted to eat, and shared it with those who were with him?” <sup>27</sup>Then He said to them: “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>28</sup>Therefore the Son of the Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”<sup>g</sup>

A Sabbath healing—the rejection

3 <sup>1</sup>Another time He went into the synagogue, and there was a man there with <sup>a</sup> Perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘to repentance’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>b</sup> Some 15% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘day’ instead of ‘days’ (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.), but presumably the fasting would take place on more than one day.

<sup>c</sup> There is no way of renewing an old wineskin. Whenever a church becomes an ‘old wineskin’, any introduction of new wine will always cause a split. Anyone who wants to obey the Holy Spirit will probably not be welcome in such a church. To be with Jesus it is often necessary to go ‘outside the camp’ (Hebrews 13:13). But what can a person, or a community, do to avoid becoming an ‘old wineskin’? I would say that it is necessary to always be sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and always be prepared to obey Him.

<sup>d</sup> Between verses 22 and 23 all of John chapter 5 takes place—that chapter revolves around the second Passover of His public ministry, in 28 A.D. A year and a half have passed since His baptism.

<sup>e</sup> My rendering is rather different than the ‘in the days of Abiathar the high priest’ of the AV. We are translating three Greek words that very literally would be ‘upon Abiathar high priest’. As a direct result of David’s visit, Abiathar became high priest. For a complete discussion please see the Appendix: Abiathar is not Ahimelech.

<sup>f</sup> This is a crucial point. The Pharisees, etc., had turned the Sabbath into an instrument of domination that they used to impose their authority on the people.

<sup>g</sup> The Lord of the Sabbath can change the rules, or even retire it! Jesus’ claim was totally unacceptable to the Pharisees; He was depriving them of their favorite instrument.

MARK 3

a withered hand. <sup>2</sup>So they watched Him closely, whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. <sup>3</sup>Well, He says to the man with the withered hand, “Come out in the middle!” <sup>4</sup>Then He says to them: “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they remained silent. <sup>5</sup>After looking around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardness of their hearts,<sup>a</sup> He says to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” So he stretched, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other!<sup>b</sup> <sup>6</sup>Then the Pharisees went straight out, and with the Herodians<sup>c</sup> started hatching a plot against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Healings by the sea

<sup>7</sup>Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea; and a large crowd from Galilee followed Him—also from Judea, <sup>8</sup>from Jerusalem, from Idumea and beyond Jordan; even those around Tyre and Sidon. A huge crowd came to Him, having heard the sorts of things He kept doing. <sup>9</sup>So He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the crowd, lest they should press in on Him. <sup>10</sup>Because He had healed many, so that as many as had afflictions were pushing toward Him so as to touch Him. <sup>11</sup>And the unclean spirits—whenever one saw Him, he would fall down before Him and cry out, saying, “You are the son of God!” <sup>12</sup>And He kept giving them strict orders that they should not make Him known.<sup>d</sup>

The Twelve chosen

<sup>13</sup>He went up on the mountain and summoned those whom He wanted, and they came to Him. <sup>14</sup>He appointed twelve,<sup>e</sup> that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach <sup>15</sup>—also to have authority to heal sicknesses and<sup>f</sup> to cast out demons: <sup>16</sup>namely Peter (a name He gave to Simon); <sup>17</sup>James son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (and a name He gave to them was Boanerges, that is, ‘Sons of thunder’); <sup>18</sup>Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Cananite; <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

<sup>20</sup>Then they went into a house;<sup>g</sup> and again a multitude gathered, so that they were not even able to eat bread. <sup>21</sup>Well upon hearing this His family came to apprehend Him, because they were saying, “He is out of his mind!”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>c</sup> Pharisees and Herodians were political opponents, so this was a strange alliance; evidently they perceived Jesus as a common enemy; such a serious enemy that He needed destroying.

<sup>d</sup> I wonder why the demons felt compelled to proclaim who Jesus was, evidently. I would say that He generally has the opposite problem with us!

<sup>f</sup> Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘to heal diseases and’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>g</sup> This may well have been His own house in Capernaum. If He were in someone else’s house, the hosts could have protected Him so He could at least eat.

<sup>28</sup>“Assuredly I say to you: all the sins of the sons of men can be forgiven, including whatever blasphemies they may utter; <sup>29</sup>but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation”<sup>d</sup> <sup>30</sup>—because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus goes on the offensiveNew relationships*

<sup>31</sup>Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him. <sup>32</sup>A crowd was sitting around Him; so they said to Him, “Look, your mother and your brothers and your sisters<sup>f</sup> are outside asking for you.” <sup>33</sup>He answered them saying, “Who is my mother or my brothers?” <sup>34</sup>And looking around at those seated in a circle around Him He said: “Behold my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup>Because whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, my sister, my mother.”<sup>g</sup>

Many parables

4 <sup>1</sup>Once again He began to teach beside the sea. And a large crowd was gathered to Him, so that He got into the boat and sat down, out on the water, while the whole crowd was on the land, at the water’s edge. <sup>2</sup>Then He began teaching them many things by parables and said to them in His teaching:

---

<sup>c</sup> Since the definite article occurs with ‘strong man’ the first time the phrase occurs, the entity has already been introduced, so the reference is to Satan. Here is a biblical basis for binding Satan, which is now possible because of Christ’s victory. Hebrews 2:14 informs us that Jehovah the Son took on human form to destroy the devil, while 1 John 3:8 affirms that He was manifested to undo the works of the devil. But in John 20:21 the resurrected Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so send I you”, and not long after that He returned to the Father. He defeated Satan alright, but it is up to us to ‘undo the works’.

<sup>e</sup> Those scribes committed the unpardonable sin. They said that the Holy Spirit was Satan; that His work was Satan’s. Are there not those in our day who have done the same thing?

<sup>f</sup> The reference to ‘sisters’ makes clear that the ‘brothers’ were indeed Mary’s sons. Some 30% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘and your sisters’ (as in TR, AV and NKJV).

<sup>g</sup> The claims of Christ’s Kingdom are more important than the claims of one’s family. Of course, if a true disciple’s family does not share his commitment, they are not going to like it.

Parable of the soils

The why of parables

<sup>10</sup>But when He was alone, those who were around Him, with the twelve,<sup>b</sup> asked Him about the parable. <sup>11</sup>So He said to them: “To you it has been given to know<sup>c</sup> the mystery of the Kingdom of God; but to those who are outside, everything is being given in parables, <sup>12</sup>so that:

‘Seeing they may see, and not perceive;
and hearing they may hear, and not understand;
so that they should not return and their sins be forgiven them.’”<sup>d</sup>

‘The soils’ explained

<sup>13</sup>Then He said to them: “Don’t you understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? <sup>14</sup>The sower sows the Word. <sup>15</sup>These are the ones where the Word is sown along the path: as soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the Word that was sown in their hearts.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>Similarly, these are the

<sup>d</sup> See Isaiah 6:9-10. Jesus only started using parables after He had been rejected by the religious leaders. As Jesus clearly states, He started using parables so the people would not understand. (Any claim that Jesus was a ‘great teacher’ based on His use of parables is just hot air.) If parables are not to be understood, then no doctrine should ever be based on one—but if the Lord interpreted it, the interpretation may be used. Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “their sins” (to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> This statement is really a continuation of that given in Mark 3:27. The Lord Jesus declares that it is impossible to steal Satan’s goods unless we bind him first. (From His use of “no one” it seems clear that the Lord is enunciating a general principle or truth.) And what might the nature of those ‘goods’ be? In the context (see Matthew 12:22-24) Jesus had delivered someone from a demon that caused blindness and dumbness, and in their comments the scribes and Pharisees include other instances where Jesus had expelled demons—it seems clear that the ‘goods’ are people who are subject to Satan’s power, in one way or another. Thus we have the same essential truth as that declared in Acts 26:18—we have to do something about Satan’s power over a person so that he or she can be saved! But what does Satan do to people that makes it necessary to “bind” him?

We find the answer in 2 Corinthians 4:4. Let us begin with verse 3: “If our gospel is veiled it is veiled to them who are perishing, in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers so that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not shine in them.” The Text clearly states that Satan, ‘the god of this age’, is in the business of blinding the minds of unbelievers when they hear the Gospel, so they will not understand, so they will not be convicted, so they will not repent and convert. This is a terrible truth, the most terrible truth in the world, at least as I see it. The enemy has access to our minds, access in the sense that he has the power or ability to invade them, whether by introducing thoughts or by jamming our reasoning.

ones sown on the rocky area: as soon as they hear the Word they receive it with joy, <sup>17</sup>but since they have no root in themselves they are temporary—when oppression or persecution comes because of the Word, they quickly fall away.<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>And these are the ones sown among the thorns: they hear the Word, <sup>19</sup>but the worries of this age, the deceitfulness of wealth, and the undue desires for other things come in and smother the Word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And these are the ones sown on the good ground: such people hear the Word, welcome it and produce fruit—thirty times as much, sixty times as much, even a hundred times as much.”<sup>b</sup>

The candlestick

<sup>21</sup>Also He said to them: “The lamp is not brought to be put under a box<sup>c</sup> or under a bed, is it? Is it not to be placed on its stand? <sup>22</sup>For there is no ‘hidden’ that may not be exposed, nor has anything been concealed but that it should come to light. <sup>23</sup>If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!” <sup>24</sup>Then He said to them: “Pay attention to what you hear. With the same measure you use it will be measured to you in return; and to you who hear,<sup>d</sup> more will be added. <sup>25</sup>Because whoever has, to him more will be given; whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”<sup>e</sup>

Spontaneous growth

<sup>26</sup>He also said: “The Kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter the seed on the ground <sup>27</sup>and should sleep and get up night and day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he himself does not know how. <sup>28</sup>All by itself the earth produces fruit: first a shoot, then a head of grain, then full grain in the head. <sup>29</sup>But as soon as the grain is ready, he sends in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”<sup>f</sup>

The mustard seed

<sup>30</sup>Again He said: “To what shall we compare the Kingdom of God, or with what sort of parable should we illustrate it? <sup>31</sup>It is like a mustard seed, that when Sovereign Jesus declared this truth when He explained the parable of the sower. “These are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown; but, as soon as they hear it Satan comes and takes away the Word that was planted in their hearts” (Mark 4:15). In the parallel passage in Luke 8:12 Jesus adds the following words: “lest they believe and be saved”. Note that the Word is already in the mind or heart of the person, but then Satan comes, invades the mind and “takes away” that Word. I am not sure just how this intrusion by the enemy works, perhaps he causes a mental block of some sort, but the practical effect is that the Word becomes ineffective, as if the person had not even heard it. Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, read ‘them’, instead of ‘their hearts’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> I link verse 20 to 1 Corinthians 3:11-15. Christians who do not live so as to contribute to God’s Kingdom are really building their lives with hay and straw—many will not save even 30% of their lives. See “Fire loves straw” in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘to you who hear’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. The phrase is relevant to verse 25.

<sup>e</sup> To stand still spiritually is not an available option. Either we grow, or we lose. Spiritual growth is like riding up an incline on a bicycle with no brakes—if you stop pedaling, you go backwards. ‘The same measure’ includes effort; ‘hearing’ implies doing something about it.

<sup>f</sup> We do not have to understand how God works; we just have to do our part, and the harvest will come.

it is sown on the ground is the smallest of all such seeds,<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden herbs and produces big branches, so that the birds of the air are able to rest in its shade.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>33</sup>It was with many such parables that He was speaking the word to them, as they were able to hear it. <sup>34</sup>But apart from a parable He did not speak to them; privately, however, He would explain everything to His disciples.

<sup>35</sup>On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” <sup>36</sup>Since He was already in the boat,<sup>c</sup> they took off with Him, leaving the crowd behind (other little boats were also with Him).<sup>d</sup> <sup>37</sup>Well a strong cyclonic wind came up, such that the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling up. <sup>38</sup>But He was on the poop deck, sleeping on the cushion;<sup>e</sup> so they awakened Him and said to Him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are perishing?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>39</sup>Then, having been awakened, He rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Shut up; be muzzled!” So the wind stopped and there was a complete calm.<sup>g</sup> <sup>40</sup>And He said to them: “Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?”<sup>h</sup> <sup>41</sup>They were terrified and started saying to one another, “Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!”<sup>i</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> The rendering ‘the smallest seed in the world/earth’ is unfortunate and misleading. The Text has ‘of those on the ground’, repeating the phrase above it, only eliding the verb. The Lord was not making a global botanical statement, as the next verse makes clear—He was referring to vegetables planted in a garden in His day and in that area, and of such herbs mustard had the smallest seed. To object that tobacco and orchid seeds are smaller is beside the point. See “The smallest seed” in the Appendix.
- <sup>b</sup> The verb I have rendered ‘to rest’ is a compound form. The noun root refers to a temporary shelter, like a tent or a hut. The verbal form means to make use of such a shelter. Here the preposition kata is prefixed to the verb, emphasizing, as I suppose, the temporariness. The Text says that the birds can use the shade, not the branches. But shade moves with the sun, and with the wind—how can you build a nest in something that keeps moving around (the Text actually says ‘under its shade’)?
- <sup>c</sup> Going back to 4:1, He was already in the boat. I would say that the explanations recorded in 4:10-20 actually happened later.
- <sup>d</sup> I do not know why Mark mentions the other boats—maybe some of the crowd had come in them. In any case, they evidently did not follow Him across the lake (they may have been dangerously small to attempt it).
- <sup>e</sup> In keeping with the size of the boat, the poop deck was probably just big enough for someone to lie down on it. Jesus was not down in the boat or He would already be covered with water. He was so worn out that not even the storm aroused Him—they probably had to shake Him.
- <sup>f</sup> There were professional fishermen in that boat, who had seen no end of storms on that lake, but this one was unusual. Satan saw where Jesus was heading and did not want to lose his prize victim, so he made a valiant effort to stop Him.
- <sup>g</sup> Jesus performed a double miracle here. First, He made the wind stop short. But once water is agitated, it takes a while to calm down, even if the cause is gone, so second, He smoothed out the water immediately.
- <sup>h</sup> Jesus is evidently saying that they should not have been afraid, and that they themselves could have solved the problem—if they had the faith. I imagine that the Lord would say something similar to us, when we fail to respond appropriately to difficult circumstances that take us by surprise.
- <sup>i</sup> Well really, what were the options?—human being, angelic being (good or bad), God. Who can turn water into wine, cleanse lepers, raise dead, feed 5,000 with five loaves, etc.?

The 'legion'

5 <sup>1</sup>Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gadarenes.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>And when He got out of the boat, right away a man with an unclean spirit met Him, coming from the tombs. <sup>3</sup>—He had his dwelling among the tombs. No one could bind him, not even with chains, <sup>4</sup>because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, only to have had the chains torn apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; no one had been strong enough to tame him. <sup>5</sup>Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones.<sup>b</sup>—<sup>6</sup>When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and knelt down to Him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>and with a loud cry he said: “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore you by God,<sup>d</sup> don’t torment me!” <sup>8</sup>Because He was saying to him, “You unclean spirit, come out of the man!” <sup>9</sup>Then He asked him, “What is your name?” And he answered, saying, “Legion<sup>e</sup> is my name, because we are many.” <sup>10</sup>He started begging Him repeatedly that He would not send them out of that region.<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hill-side. <sup>12</sup>So all the demons<sup>g</sup> begged Him saying, “Send us into the pigs, so that we may enter them.” <sup>13</sup>And forthwith Jesus gave them permission; and coming out the unclean spirits went into the pigs (there were about two thousand); but the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned by the sea.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>14</sup>So those who were tending the pigs ran off and reported it in the town and the country-side. And they went out to see what it was that had happened. <sup>15</sup>They came to Jesus and observed the man who had been demonized, who had the legion, sitting and clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup>Those who

<sup>a</sup> A very small handful (0.3%; 5 mss out of some 1,700) of objectively inferior Greek manuscripts have ‘Gerasenes’ instead of ‘Gadarenes’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Gadara being the Roman capital of the province of Perara, located some six miles from the Sea of Galilee, ‘the region of the Gadarenes’ is a perfectly reasonable description of the site, especially since Mark was writing for a Roman audience. For a more detailed discussion, please see the Appendix: The ‘Legion’ and the pigs; where was it?

<sup>c</sup> I find this to be curious: this was an unusually powerful demon, yet he knelted to Jesus, whereas many lesser ones evidently did not (although they all knew who Jesus really was).

<sup>d</sup> Now really, a demon appealing to God! Since he had recognized, correctly, that Jesus was ‘Son of the Most High God’, he was appealing to Him through His Father—pretty shrewd! (I assume that he had been informed that the attempt to destroy Jesus with the storm had failed.)

<sup>e</sup> A full Roman legion was 6,000 men, but many legions had only half that many. On the basis of verse 12, one wonders if there could have been 2,000 demons. This being the only recorded instance where Jesus asked a demon’s name, I wonder why He did. Since He presumably already knew, I take it that He did it so we would have a record of demonic infestation. I see no basis here for needing to know a demon’s name before you can cast it out.

<sup>f</sup> Demons are territorial. (See also Daniel 10.) The parallel passage in Luke records that they also begged not to be sent to the Abyss.

<sup>g</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘all the demons’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. (except that some supply ‘the demons’, but not ‘all’).

<sup>h</sup> For the demons to destroy the herd would be self-defeating; I take it that the pigs preferred death to demons (animals often show better sense than people do). Since the Law forbade eating pork, presumably Jesus was not particularly disturbed (and I suppose it is possible that He Himself stamped the pigs).

MARK 5

had seen it related to them how it happened to the demonized man, and about the pigs. <sup>17</sup>Then they began to implore Him to depart from their borders.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Well upon His getting into the boat, the man who had been demonized started begging Him that he might be with Him. <sup>19</sup>But Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, “Go home to your family and report to them how much the Lord<sup>b</sup> has done for you; and He had mercy on you.” <sup>20</sup>So he departed and began to proclaim in Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and all were marveling. <sup>21</sup>Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered to Him; and He was by the sea.

A hemorrhage and a dead girl

<sup>22</sup>And then, one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, comes, and upon seeing Him he falls at His feet <sup>23</sup>and pleads earnestly with Him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death; do come and lay your hands on her<sup>c</sup> so that she may be saved, and she will live.” <sup>24</sup>So He went with him. A large crowd was also following Him, and they were pressing around Him.

The hemorrhage

<sup>25</sup>Now a certain woman—who had been bleeding for twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things under many doctors, and had spent all that she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse—<sup>27</sup>when she heard about Jesus, she came from behind in the crowd and touched His garment. <sup>28</sup>(She had kept saying, “If I can just touch His clothes, I will be healed.”)<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was healed from the affliction. <sup>30</sup>And instantly Jesus perceived within Himself that some power had gone out of Him, and turning around in the crowd He said, “Who touched my clothes?” <sup>31</sup>So His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing around you, yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’?” <sup>32</sup>But He kept looking around to see who had done it. <sup>33</sup>So the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.<sup>e</sup> <sup>34</sup>And He said to her: “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go into peace<sup>f</sup> and be healed from your affliction.”

<sup>a</sup> So far as we know, Jesus never went back there. The loss of the pigs was a hard blow to the local economy, so Jesus was obviously a ‘dangerous’ person to have around. The pigs were more important to them than the man.

<sup>b</sup> Note that the Text has ‘the Lord’, not ‘God’—since Jesus presumably was speaking Hebrew, He probably used God’s personal name, Jehovah, to give that translation. In verse 20 the man credits ‘Jesus’.

<sup>d</sup> The street was packed with people; the crowd was on both sides of Jesus, as well as behind. So she had to push her way forward, and no doubt got plenty of dirty looks, and maybe a few elbows—it would have been easy to give up, but she kept repeating her expectation to herself to keep up her courage (and she was desperate). For a fuller discussion, please see “A desperate woman” in the Appendix.

<sup>f</sup> That is what the Text says, ‘into’ not ‘in’. To go in peace is to leave on good terms, no hard feelings. But what might going into peace be? I would say that you take the peace with you; you live within an atmosphere of peace. Now that is a proper ‘blessing’! (But only Jesus could give it.)

The dead girl

<sup>35</sup>While He was still speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler's house saying: "Your daughter died. Why trouble the teacher further?"<sup>a</sup> <sup>36</sup>But immediately upon hearing the spoken message Jesus said to the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid; just believe!" <sup>37</sup>He allowed no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.<sup>b</sup> <sup>38</sup>Then He came to the synagogue ruler's house and found a commotion—weeping and loud wailing. <sup>39</sup>So upon entering He said to them: "Why are you making such a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead, but is asleep." <sup>40</sup>But they started ridiculing Him.<sup>c</sup> After He put them all out, He took the child's father and mother, and those with Him,<sup>d</sup> and went in where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup>And taking the child by the hand He said to her, "Talitha koumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!" <sup>42</sup>Immediately the girl got up and started walking around (she was twelve years old). And they were overcome with great amazement. <sup>43</sup>He gave them strict orders that no one should know about it, and said to give her something to eat.<sup>e</sup>

A visit to Natsareth

6 <sup>1</sup>Then He went out from there and came to His hometown,<sup>f</sup> and His disciples followed Him. <sup>2</sup>And when the Sabbath came He began to teach in the synagogue. And many who heard were astonished, saying: "Where did this man get these things?" and "What wisdom is this that is given to him?" and "Such mighty works are being performed by his hands! <sup>3</sup>Isn't this the carpenter,<sup>g</sup> the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas and Simon? And aren't his sisters here with us?"<sup>h</sup> So they took offense at Him. <sup>4</sup>But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown, among his relatives, even in his own house."<sup>i</sup> <sup>5</sup>He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. <sup>6</sup>And He marveled at their unbelief. Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

The Twelve commissioned and sent

<sup>7</sup>Then He summoned the twelve and began to send them out, two by two, giving them authority over the unclean spirits as He did so. <sup>8</sup>And He commanded them to take nothing for the road, except just a staff—no knapsack, no bread, no coin in the belt—<sup>9</sup>but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup>And He said<sup>j</sup> to them: "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from that

<sup>b</sup> At this point He told the crowd to stop, so He could proceed at a brisk pace, accompanied only by the three disciples and the father (the messengers doubtless followed).

<sup>e</sup> Nothing like being practical! It had doubtless been a while since the last decent meal. Given the crowd that was there, it would be impossible to hide what had happened.

<sup>f</sup> It had probably been over a year since they tried to kill Him (Luke 4:28-30), and He now had a significant 'body guard'.

<sup>h</sup> I separated the statements since they probably came from different people. Four brothers are named, and 'sisters' is plural, so there were at least two of them (Matthew 13:56 has "all his sisters", so there were probably more than two). After Jesus, Joseph and Mary had a full family.

place.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>And whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet as a testimony against them.<sup>b</sup> Assuredly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah on Judgment Day than for that city.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>So they went out and started preaching that people should repent, <sup>13</sup>and they were casting out many demons, and anointing with oil and healing many who were sick.

<sup>14</sup>Now King Herod heard of Him, because His name had become well known, and he said, “John the Baptizer has been raised from the dead, and that is why the powers<sup>d</sup> are at work in him.” <sup>15</sup>Others said, “He is Elijah.” Still others said, “He is a prophet like one of the prophets.” <sup>16</sup>But when Herod heard, he said: “This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Then an opportune day came<sup>i</sup> when on his birthday Herod gave a banquet for his courtiers, the military commanders, and the chief men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup>When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those reclining with him, the king said to the girl, “Ask me whatever you want,

<sup>a</sup> Jesus was obliging the disciples to be dependent on others for food and lodging, since they were not to take money—if no one fed them, they would go hungry; if no one took them in, they would have to sleep under a tree. How many of us would follow such instructions?

<sup>b</sup> Note that this is a command. Paul did this at least once (Acts 13:51), and the Lord Jesus Himself gave the example (Matthew 11:23-24), except that He spoke the curse. (I have had occasion to do it, and the consequences were serious.)

<sup>g</sup> I suppose that Herodias was ambitious and figured that Herod offered more than did Phillip, so it was probably she who took the initiative; but she hadn’t counted on John being a persistent and vocal ‘conscience’.

<sup>h</sup> I here follow the best line of transmission, albeit representing only 20% of the Greek manuscripts, that has ‘consulting’ in the present tense; the rest, followed by all versions, have the verb in the past. But the immediately following ‘he would do many things’ is attested by over 99%—a mere handful (0.4%), of objectively inferior quality, have ‘greatly disturbed’ or ‘very perplexed’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). But why then did Herod hear John with pleasure, and why was he ‘very sorry’ (verse 26)? But what sorts of things would Herod take to John for his opinion? I suggest that Herod used John as a sounding board for administrative problems, and since he often followed his advice, he had an unusually good administration, there for a while. That is why he was genuinely sorry to lose John. For a fuller discussion, please see “Herod and John” in the Appendix.

and I will give it to you.” <sup>23</sup>He even swore to her, “Whatever you may ask me I will give you, up to half of my kingdom!”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>24</sup>So she went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptizer!” <sup>25</sup>Hurrying in directly to the king she requested, saying, “I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter!” <sup>26</sup>Though the king became very sorry, because of his oaths and of his guests he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded the head to be brought. So he went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup>brought the head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.<sup>b</sup> <sup>29</sup>Upon hearing of it, his disciples came, removed the corpse and placed it in a tomb.<sup>c</sup>

The Twelve return

<sup>30</sup>Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and reported all to Him, both what they had done and what they had taught. <sup>31</sup>Because so many were coming and going that they did not even have leisure to eat, He said to them, “Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile.”

Bread for 5,000 men

<sup>35</sup>When it was late in the day, His disciples came to Him and said: “This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. <sup>36</sup>Send them away so they may go to the surrounding farms and villages and buy themselves bread; for they have no-

<sup>a</sup> Herod had doubtless already drunk more than was good for him (he had probably started before the banquet), so his judgment was impaired. The girl's request sobered him up—too late.

<sup>c</sup> If I were one of those disciples, I probably would have been just a little dissatisfied with God—how could He permit His servant to suffer such a ridiculous and humiliating death? God is under no obligation to explain Himself. All accounts will be settled at the Judgment.

<sup>d</sup> There is an even split in the attestation; half the Greek manuscripts have ‘them’ and the other half ‘him’, but the best line of transmission has ‘them’. Consider: if the fishing boat were setting out to fish, there would not be 13 men in it; also, the boat was known and there was only one large group of men like that going around together; the people would not have to single out Jesus to know who they were. So ‘them’ is correct.

<sup>f</sup> Let us try to get the picture. There is a large bay between Capernaum and Tiberias, the ‘mouth’ being some ten miles across. Just from the direction the boat took, many people would have a pretty good idea where they were headed. Unless there was a good tail wind, and especially if they had to row, people on the shore could easily outrun the boat, even covering a greater distance. Much like a modern marathon, the people would be scattered out along the shore for several miles, and any stragglers could follow the action. The front runners got ahead of the boat, and the followers were strung out, so wherever the boat put in, there would be people waiting; any who had gone too far would just double back. But people kept arriving and the crowd kept getting bigger (by the end of the day there were 5,000 men, plus women and children). The crowd frustrated the plan, but instead of being angry, Jesus felt compassion. [I'm afraid I often do just the opposite.]

thing to eat.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>37</sup>But in reply He said to them, “You feed them!”<sup>b</sup> They say to Him, “Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and feed them?” <sup>38</sup>So He says to them: “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” When they knew they said, “Five, and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>Then He directed them all to recline in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>So they reclined in ‘plots’ of hundreds and of fifties. <sup>41</sup>And taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to His disciples to serve the people;<sup>c</sup> He also divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup>Well they all ate and were filled.<sup>d</sup> <sup>43</sup>And they<sup>e</sup> picked up twelve full baskets of broken pieces; also of the fish.<sup>f</sup> <sup>44</sup>There were five thousand men who ate the loaves.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> This was an obvious cop-out; the surrounding area would not have enough extra bread to feed 10,000 people (or more).

<sup>b</sup> They had no way of expecting such a response, since humanly speaking it was ridiculously impossible. In the end, the solution did pass through their hands, but unless Jesus was joking (which I doubt), He was telling them to perform the miracle, before they had seen it done. Wow!

<sup>c</sup> Let us pause and recall the scene. The Sacred Text affirms that there were about five thousand men, without counting the women and children. Now then, whenever you see a crowd of people, what is there usually the most of—isn’t it women and children? In other words, I suppose that crowd was made up of at least 15,000 people. Okay, now try to imagine that you are one of those twelve disciples and you have just heard the Master say: “You feed them!” Now what? Did the disciples have anything? As a matter of fact, no. They had neither money (which would not have helped much since they were a long way from town) nor food. Even the five loaves and two fish belonged to somebody else.

Can it be that Jesus was playing a joke on them, or was He serious? I don’t know, but I prefer to think that He would not make a joke out of such a situation. But if He was serious, how could the disciples obey? Only with a miracle. In fact, they could not see a solution and gave the problem back to Jesus to solve; which He did. But did Jesus Himself hand the bread and fish to the crowd? No. Let us think about that scene a little more and we will see that the disciples still had to exercise faith.

The Record affirms that they all ate until they were “full” or “satisfied”. It was not just a little something to tide them over. Have you ever considered how much bread and fish it would take to “fill” 15,000 people (who had gone without lunch)? It seems to me certain that when Jesus blessed and broke those loaves and fish there was not an instant multiplication, such that there was enough for everybody; the tremendous pile would have buried Jesus, the disciples and the closest of the people! Really. Just stop and think about it. It must not have been instantaneous. When Jesus placed some bread and fish in the hands of each disciple that was all there was, up to that moment.

Now then, try to imagine that you are one of those disciples with a handful of bread and fish, and you have to feed at least a thousand people (12 disciples and 15,000 people). Can you picture it? Wouldn’t you feel just a little ridiculous taking that first step toward the crowd? Somehow the disciples find the courage and approach the people. The first one helps himself and, wonder of wonders, the supply is undiminished! The second one helps himself and the supply is unchanged. It was never used up—as they went around distributing, the food kept multiplying (to have twelve bushels of leftovers, the people were also involved in passing it on). If they had tired and stopped in the middle, half the people would have stayed hungry. If the disciples had decided to eat first, I rather imagine that the miracle would have been frustrated and the crowd would have gone hungry. The disciples ate last, but they ate very well, thank you very much! (Have you ever tried eating a bushel of bread?)

<sup>g</sup> The term here refers exclusively to males, so with the women and children the crowd was doubtless over 10,000.

Jesus retires to pray

A walk on water

<sup>47</sup>Now when evening had passed, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>And He saw<sup>b</sup> them straining at rowing, because the wind was against them. Well about the fourth watch of the night<sup>c</sup> He comes to them walking on the water, and would have passed by them;<sup>d</sup> <sup>49</sup>but they saw Him walking on the water, supposed He was a ghost, and yelled! <sup>50</sup>Because they all saw Him and were terrified. Immediately He spoke with them and said: "Have courage! It is I; don't be afraid!" <sup>51</sup>Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. And they were totally astounded within themselves, and kept marveling. <sup>52</sup>Because they had not understood about the loaves—their hearts had been hardened.<sup>e</sup>

In Genesaret

<sup>53</sup>After they had crossed over,<sup>f</sup> they came to the land of Genesaret and anchored there. <sup>54</sup>When they came out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, <sup>55</sup>and running about that whole surrounding region they began to carry about on their pallets those who were sick to wherever they heard He was. <sup>56</sup>Wherever He entered—into villages, towns, or country-side—they would place the sick in the marketplaces, and they would beg Him that they might just touch the hem of His garment; and all who touched Him were healed.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup> It was night, and they were about eight miles away, so this was supernatural vision.

<sup>d</sup> They had been rowing for about nine hours, and when Jesus sent them off He presumably knew what was going to happen. (We should not be surprised if God does similar things with us.) He obviously intended for them to see Him, otherwise He would not have come near enough. But He did not go straight at the boat, but was walking off to one side. Just why He did it that way, the Text does not say, but from the parallel accounts we know that it gave Peter a chance to try a walk. As soon as He got in the boat it was transported several miles to the shore, immediately (John 6:21).

MARK 7

<sup>5</sup>Then the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, “Why don’t your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders,<sup>a</sup> but eat their bread with unwashed hands?” <sup>6</sup>So in answer He said to them: “Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites,<sup>b</sup> as it stands written:

“This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Because having left the commandment of God, you hold to the tradition of men—washings of pitchers and cups, and many other similar things that you do.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>Indeed He said to them: “You are very good at nullifying the commandment of God, so that you may keep your tradition. <sup>10</sup>For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’ and, ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>But you say that if a man should say to father or mother, ‘Whatever profit you might have received from me is Korban’ (that is, a gift to God),<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>you do not even allow him to do anything for his father or his mother any more, <sup>13</sup>making the Word of God of no effect by your tradition that you have handed down. Yes, you do many such things.”

That which really defiles

<sup>14</sup>Upon summoning the larger crowd He said to them: “Hear me, everyone, and understand: <sup>15</sup>There is nothing outside a man that can defile him by going into him;<sup>g</sup> rather, the things that come out of him, those are the ones that defile him. <sup>16</sup>If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>17</sup>When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples started to question Him about the parable. <sup>18</sup>So He said to them: “Can you really be without understanding? Don’t you perceive that nothing that enters a man from outside can defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it doesn’t go into his heart, but into his stomach, which then expels the impure aspects of the food?”<sup>i</sup> <sup>20</sup>He went on to say: “That which comes out of a man, that is what defiles him. <sup>21</sup>Because from within, out of men’s hearts, the evil designs proceed—adulteries, fornications, murders, <sup>22</sup>thefts,

<sup>f</sup> The inconvenient question begs to be asked, ‘Where did all the goods and money go?’ It went into the pockets of the leaders, presumably, so they were really stealing from the elderly.

<sup>h</sup> Just over 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit verse 16 entirely, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc.

<sup>i</sup> A literal rendering would be, ‘then into the latrine, thus making all foods clean’. I take it that Jesus was referring to the process in the stomach having a ‘purifying’ effect, since the sewer does just the opposite. Perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts end the quote after ‘latrine’, and have Jesus declaring all foods clean.

covetings, malignancies; deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, arrogance, foolishness—<sup>23</sup>all these malignant things proceed from within and defile the man.”

<sup>24</sup>Then He got ready and went from there into the region of Tyre and Sidon. He went into a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not escape notice. <sup>25</sup>In fact, as soon as she heard about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit came and fell at His feet.<sup>b</sup> <sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenecian by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said to her, “Let the children be filled first; it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>So she answered and said to Him, “Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children’s crumbs.” <sup>29</sup>So He said to her, “Because of this saying you may go; the demon has gone out of your daughter.” <sup>30</sup>She went away to her house and found that the demon was gone and the daughter had been placed on the bed.<sup>e</sup>

a) In explaining His lack of response to the woman’s pleading, Jesus affirms that He was only sent to “the lost sheep of the house of Israel” (Matthew 15:24)—so what is He doing in Gentile territory?

b) The Text says He tried to get into a house without being seen; it follows that the group had kept a low profile, trying to avoid attention; and yet the woman intercepted Him well before He got there, and followed, crying out repeatedly (thereby blowing His ‘cover’)—so how did the woman learn of His presence, how did she know when and where to go, and how did she know to address Him as ‘Son of David’?

c) Although He may have done more than is recorded, and we do not know how long He stayed, expelling that demon is all that is recorded—so why did He undertake that journey, apparently the only side trip to that region?

I suspect that this was a special case, similar to Cornelius, or the Ethiopian treasurer—she had gotten God’s attention, somehow. I imagine that an angel told her where to go, and when, and to call Him, ‘Son of David’ (Messiah). Of course she gave us an unusual example of faith, humility and perseverance, but I wonder if God is not telling us something more: it is possible to get a ‘crumb’ (a real need), even when it is not the proper time-frame (kairos). For a detailed discussion, please see “A ‘crumb’ for a ‘puppy’” in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Big dogs would not be in the house, so these would be little house pets, or perhaps puppies. This episode always moves me. In effect, Jesus called the woman a ‘dog’ (that is what Jews called Gentiles), and she accepted the classification. She was determined to get her ‘crumb’, and she did! And she left us a great example of humility and faith!

<sup>g</sup> We learn to speak by imitating what we hear, so a deaf person will not speak correctly, even if there is nothing wrong with the tongue. In this case, the following verses indicate that there was also a problem with the tongue. If the man had never learned to speak correctly, this would be a further miracle.

MARK 8

tongue was released, and he began to speak clearly. <sup>36</sup>Then He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He would command them, so much the more they would proclaim it.<sup>a</sup> <sup>37</sup>People were astonished beyond measure, saying: "He has done everything well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Food for 4,000 men

8 <sup>1</sup>In those days, the multitude being very large and not having anything to eat, Jesus called His disciples and said to them: <sup>2</sup>"I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me three days now and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup>If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will give out on the way, because some of them have come a long distance." <sup>4</sup>His disciples answered Him, "From what source could anyone satisfy these people with bread here in a wilderness?"<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." <sup>6</sup>So He told the crowd to sit down on the ground; then taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before the crowd, and they did. <sup>7</sup>They also had a few small fish; so blessing them He said to distribute them as well. <sup>8</sup>Well they ate and were filled; they even took up seven hampers of broken pieces that were left over. <sup>9</sup>Now those who had eaten were about four thousand; and He sent them away. <sup>10</sup>Then He got right into the boat with His disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.<sup>c</sup>

Bad leaven

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, requesting of Him a sign from heaven, by way of testing Him. <sup>12</sup>But He sighed deeply in His spirit and said: "Why does this generation seek a sign? I tell you emphatically, no sign shall be given to this generation!" <sup>13</sup>Turning His back on them, He got back into the boat<sup>d</sup> and went off to the other side.

did you take up?" And they said, "Seven." <sup>21</sup>So He said to them, "How is it that you still don't understand?"<sup>a</sup>

A blind man

<sup>22</sup>Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man to Him and begged Him to touch him. <sup>23</sup>So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; then spitting into his eyes<sup>b</sup> and laying hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything. <sup>24</sup>And looking up he said, "I do see men, only they look like walking trees."<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>Then He put His hands on his eyes again, and made him look up; and he was restored and saw everyone clearly. <sup>26</sup>Then He sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the village nor tell anyone in the village."<sup>d</sup>

Jesus declares His death, and ministers on that basis

Peter is inspired

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus and His disciples set out for the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He questioned His disciples, saying to them, "Who are people saying that I am?" <sup>28</sup>So they answered, "John the Baptist; others Elijah; still others one of the prophets." <sup>29</sup>He said to them, "And who do you say that I am?" So Peter answered and said to Him, "You are the Christ!" <sup>30</sup>Then He charged them that they should tell no one about Him.

<sup>31</sup>He then began to teach them that the Son of the Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup>He said these things quite plainly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. <sup>33</sup>But He turned, looked at His disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying: "Get behind me, Satan!<sup>e</sup> You have in mind men's values, not God's values."

<sup>34</sup>He summoned the crowd, along with His disciples, and said to them: "Whoever wants to follow along behind me must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>35</sup>Because whoever may resolve to 'save' his life will waste it; but <sup>a</sup> It is easy to criticize those disciples as slow learners, and indeed the Lord was evidently unhappy with them, but I wonder if we would have done any better.

<sup>b</sup> Dear me, how unsanitary! Jesus used a variety of procedures to heal people, and here He used two stages.

<sup>d</sup> Evidently he did not live in that village. A small handful (0.5%) of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit 'nor tell anyone in the village', to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>e</sup> From the parallel passage in Luke 9:18-22, where we have three present participles—'answering', 'warning' and 'saying'—it is clear that Peter's two efforts form part of a single conversation. Well that scares me; that sends shivers up my spine. Within three minutes, or five at the most (we can see in Luke that this was a single conversation), Peter spoke two times. The first time it was God who put the words in Peter's mouth. It was Jesus Christ, God the Son on earth, who explained the true nature of the transaction—Peter did not speak on his own but moved by the Father. So far so good; that God can do something like that comes as no surprise. It is the second time that is bothersome, because this time it was Satan who put the words in Peter's mouth! Again, it is Jesus Christ, God the Son on earth, who explains the true nature of the transaction. When He uses the enemy's proper name, Satan, His meaning is inescapable. It really was Satan. Once again we are face to face with the most terrible truth that there is in this life, at least as I see it. The enemy has access to our minds, he can put words in our mouths. I wish in the worst way that it was not true, but my wishes do not change reality. For more about this, please go to my website, prunch.org, and see the articles under "Biblical spiritual warfare". They are also in my book, Essays, 2nd edition.

whoever may ‘waste’ his life for my sake and the Gospel’s, he will save it.<sup>a</sup> <sup>36</sup>Well, what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? <sup>37</sup>Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup>Yes, whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of the Man will also be ashamed of him whenever He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy Angels.”<sup>b</sup>

A miniature of the Kingdom

9 <sup>1</sup>And He said to them, “I tell you assuredly: there are some standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the Kingdom of God present with power.” <sup>2</sup>After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John and led them up on a high mountain alone by themselves. Then He was transfigured in front of them; <sup>3</sup>His clothing became shining, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth is able to whiten. <sup>4</sup>And Elijah appeared to them, along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Well Peter reacted by saying to Je<sup>a</sup> What does the Lord mean when He speaks of saving or losing one’s ‘life’? One does not lose one’s soul for love of Christ. Nor is the reference to being killed. Rather, Jesus has in mind the life we live, the accumulated results of our living. All that I have done up to this moment plus all that I will yet do until overtaken by death or the rapture of the Church, whichever happens first—that is the ‘life’ that is at risk (in my own case).

Let us look at our Lord’s words a little more closely. There seems to be a contradiction here—if you lose, you save; if you want to save, you lose. How can it work? The parallel passage, Matthew 16:27, gives more context. “For the Son of the Man is going to come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he will repay each according to his deeds.” Christ was thinking of the day of reckoning. In other words, “we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Romans 14:10) and “each of us will give account of himself to God” (Romans 14:12). “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive his due according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10). I understand that 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 is referring to the same occasion, the day of reckoning. After declaring that Jesus Christ is the only foundation, Paul speaks of different materials that one might use in building on it: “gold, silver, precious stones” or “wood, hay, straw”. (Although the primary interpretation of this passage presumably has to do with the performance of teachers and leaders in the church, I believe it clearly applies to the daily life of each believer as well.) The point is, our deeds will be tested by fire. If fire has any effect upon gold or silver it is only to purify them, but its effect on hay and straw is devastating! Okay, so what?

Let us go back to the beginning. God created the human being for His glory; to reflect it and contribute to it. I suppose we may understand Psalm 19:1 and Isaiah 43:7 in this way, at least by extension. But Adam lost this capacity when he rebelled against God. For this reason the sentence that weighs against our race is that we “fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). But the Son came into the world to restore our lost potential. Ephesians 1:12 and 14 tell us that the object of the plan of salvation is “the praise of His glory” (see also 2 Corinthians 1:20). And 1 Corinthians 10:31 puts it into a command: “Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” Now then, the point of all this is not to ‘ruin’ our lives, to take all the ‘fun’ out of them (as many seem to think). God isn’t being arrogant, unreasonable, too demanding. Quite the contrary—He is just trying to save us from throwing away our lives. Surely, because the glory of God is eternal (Psalm 104:31), and when I do something for His glory that something is transformed and acquires eternal value—it becomes ‘gold, silver, precious stones’. Works done for the glory of God will go through the fire without harm. On the other hand, what is done with a view to our own ambitions and ideas is ‘straw’. We all know what fire does to straw! To be a slave of Christ means to live with reference to the Kingdom; it means to do everything for the glory of God. In this way the slave ‘saves’ his life because he will be building it with ‘gold and silver’, which will pass through the fire at the judgment seat of Christ without loss. In contrast, the believer who refuses to be a slave of Jesus builds his life with ‘hay and straw’, which will be consumed by the fire—and so he ‘loses’ his life; he lived in vain; the potential that his life represented was wasted, thrown away. What a tragedy!

<sup>b</sup> The world in which we live is no longer ‘post-modern’, it is becoming increasingly anti Christian. In North America and Europe people have already been put in prison for preaching what the Bible says. To spend eternity in the Lake of Fire is the price you will pay for being ‘politically correct’ in today’s world.

sus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three shelters: one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup>(Because they were terrified, he didn’t know what to say.)<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>With that a cloud was covering them and a Voice<sup>b</sup> came out of the cloud: “This is my Son, the beloved. Listen to Him!” <sup>8</sup>And then, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

<sup>d</sup> The translation of this clause is not transparent, and it has given rise to a variety of ‘efforts’. We should go back to the disciples’ question: Why do the scribes...? The underlying reason was that it was written; that is why Jesus reaffirmed that Elijah would still come. If the Text says that he will come, he will come. Then Jesus transferred the question to His own person, also referring to the Text: it is written.

<sup>e</sup> Besides the question of whether John is, or is not, Elijah, verse 13 presents us with another difficulty: where does Jesus’ statement end? Most of the versions I have seen include the whole verse in His statement. The final clause is: “as it is written about him”; and it refers to the way that John died. But there is no mention of this in the OT; so did Jesus make a mistake? How could He say ‘it is written’ if it wasn’t? My solution is to end His statement at “they wished”, making the final clause a parenthetical aside by the author of the book, Mark. When Mark wrote, Matthew’s Gospel was already in circulation, and it contains an account of John’s death. For that matter, Mark himself had already written down the episode in his chapter six. I understand that as soon as the Gospels were turned over to the public they were recognized as Scripture, inspired writings. As for the question of whether John was, or was not, Elijah, please see “John is not Elijah” in the Appendix.

<sup>f</sup> Here was a desperate father who considered that his problem was more important than a theological discussion. So he interrupts (although the discussion may have been about the demon and their failure).

<sup>g</sup> In the parallel passage in Matthew 17:17 we find, “Oh faithless and perverse generation!” But why would Jesus use such a strong term as ‘perverse’? To reject the truth and the evidences is to be perverse. I take it that the term was directed to the disciples, who, because of all that they had witnessed and experienced, should have made more progress than that. But how about us—are we living and doing according to the truth and the evidence? Really?

ing, foaming at the mouth. <sup>21</sup>Then He asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said: “From childhood. <sup>22</sup>Really, it has often thrown him both into fire and into water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” <sup>23</sup>Jesus said to him, “It’s ‘if you can believe’;<sup>a</sup> all things are possible to the one who believes.” <sup>24</sup>Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, with tears, “Lord,<sup>b</sup> I believe; help my unbelief!”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that the crowd was running up, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit,<sup>d</sup> I am commanding you, get out of him and never enter him again!”<sup>e</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then it yelled, convulsed him violently, and came out. Well he looked to be dead; so much so that many said, “He’s dead.” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he stayed on his feet. <sup>28</sup>Well upon His entering a house His disciples asked Him privately, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?” <sup>29</sup>He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing except prayer and fasting.”<sup>f</sup>

Jesus predicts His death again

<sup>30</sup>Having gone out from there they were passing through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know; <sup>31</sup>because He was teaching His disciples and saying to them, “The Son of the Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men, and

<sup>c</sup> I can sympathize with this father. When I consider all the things that the Lord Jesus said could be done with faith, and that I have yet to do, I too must say, “Help my unbelief!”

<sup>d</sup> The father had said it was a mute spirit; Jesus adds that it is also deaf—the two often go together.

<sup>e</sup> Note that Jesus forbade any return. Demons will do anything to deceive, confuse or demoralize us. If you resist a spirit, he leaves, but another may immediately take the place of the first and produce the same effect, making you think that nothing happened, so that you feel demoralized. If you resist but do not forbid a return, he leaves but may come back, in an hour, a day or a week. If I have to rebuke the enemy I now rebuke not only the spirit actually at work but any and all others that might wish to attack the person in the same way. I used to forbid any repetition of the attack, but now I send them to the Abyss.

I believe Luke 8:31 give us basis for consigning demons to the Abyss, thereby reducing the number of the enemy’s forces (against us). There we read that the demons begged Jesus “not to order them to go into the Abyss” (“the Abyss” is the same phrase that the AV renders as “the bottomless pit” in Revelation 20:1). That means that He could have—I conclude that He refrained from doing so because He had not yet won the victory, at that time. But now it is different. In John 14:12 the Lord Jesus said to His disciples: “Most assuredly I say to you, he who believes into me, the works that I do he will do also; even greater works than these he will do, because I go to my Father.” What does “because I go to my Father” imply? I conclude that it must be His victory—could He have returned if He had failed, if He had not succeeded in destroying the devil (Hebrews 2:14)? That is why we are supposed to be doing “greater” works—like ordering demons into the Abyss, for instance.

C. Fred Dickason, who has personally ministered to over 400 demonized believers, says that his experience indicates that once a demon is ordered into the Abyss it does not come back (Demon Possession & the Christian, Moody Press, 1987). Paul E. Billheimer says much the same in Destined to Overcome (Bethany House Publishers, 1982, p. 46). Can you imagine if God’s people really got a hold on this? We could continuously reduce the number of demons opposing us! Hallelujah! So then, why not order all recalcitrant demons into the Abyss? In fact, why not do the same for any and all that intrude upon our notice?

they will kill him; and once killed<sup>a</sup> he will rise on the third day.”<sup>32</sup> But they were not understanding this information, yet were afraid to ask Him.

About humility

<sup>33</sup>Then He came to Capernaum; and once in the house He asked them, “What were you debating among yourselves on the road?”<sup>34</sup> But they kept silent, because on the road they had debated among themselves who was greater.<sup>35</sup> So He sat down, called the twelve and said to them, “If anyone desires to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.”<sup>36</sup> Then He took a child and stood him in their midst, and embracing him said to them,<sup>37</sup> “Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives not only me, but the One who sent me.”

Either for, or against <sup>38</sup>So John answered Him saying, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, one who doesn’t follow us;<sup>b</sup> and we forbade him, because he doesn’t follow us.”<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said: “Do not forbid him, because no one who works a miracle in my name can soon afterward speak evil of me.<sup>40</sup> For he who is not against you is for you.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>41</sup>Further, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ’s, I tell you with certainty, he will by no means lose his reward.<sup>d</sup>

About offenses

<sup>e</sup> It is clear from the context that the verb ‘fall’ throughout this paragraph refers to a spiritual fall with eternal consequences. I believe that the Lord was being perfectly serious and literal here. I suppose most deadly temptations come at us through the eye. Obviously it would be better to pluck out an eye, literally, if it would stop you in time, than to fall from the Faith and wind up in the Lake. In the first place, most people are not prepared to take such drastic measures, and in the second, by the time they wake up to what is happening, they have already crossed the line. That is why Hebrews 3:12-14 is precisely to the point: “Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; but exhort one another daily, while it is called ‘Today’, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of the Endeavor steadfast to the end.”

MARK 10

better for you to enter into the Life lame than having both feet to be thrown into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire—<sup>46</sup>where ‘their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>47</sup>And if your eye is causing you to fall, pluck it out; it is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God with one eye than having both eyes to be thrown into the Gehenna of fire—<sup>48</sup>where ‘the<sup>a</sup> worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’

Down with divorce!

10 <sup>1</sup>Then He set out from there and came into the borders of Judea, by way of the other side of the Jordan. Again, crowds gathered to Him, and as was His custom, He began to teach them once more. <sup>2</sup>Then some Pharisees approached to test Him and asked Him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce a wife?” <sup>3</sup>So in answer He said to them, “What did Moses command you?” <sup>4</sup>They said, “Moses permitted one to write a certificate of divorce and to put away.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered and said to them: “It was due to your hardness of heart that he wrote you this precept. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of creation, God made them a male and a female.<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, <sup>8</sup>and the two will be turned into one flesh.<sup>g</sup> So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.”

<sup>10</sup>When they were in the house, His disciples asked Him again about the same subject. <sup>11</sup>So He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; <sup>12</sup>and if a woman divorces her husband and gets married to another, she commits adultery.”<sup>h</sup>

that most keep ‘into the unquenchable fire’ in verse 43 (but not in verse 45). I find the figure of an immortal worm to be rather daunting—always chewing on you, but never finishing you off! (Evidently there were those who thought that saying it once was quite enough.) For a complete discussion, please see “Hades is not Hell” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> Now what might this mean? Well, according to Isaiah 48:19, God refines His people in the furnace of affliction, and Zachariah 13:9 and Malachi 3:3 compare God to a refiner purifying gold and silver with fire. “Whom the LORD loves He chastens, yes scourges every son whom He accepts” (Hebrews 12:6 and Proverbs 3:12). We all receive the ‘fire’ of trial.

<sup>c</sup> Some 7% of the Greek manuscripts omit the second clause of this verse, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. But just what might this mean? Well, Romans 12:1 speaks of a ‘living sacrifice’ and in Matthew 5:13 Jesus calls His followers ‘the salt of the earth’. If you present yourself as a living sacrifice to Jesus, He will make you salty.

<sup>h</sup> Note that Jesus recognizes that the woman may take the initiative. Whoever takes the initiative commits adultery.

it He was indignant and said to them: “Let the little children come to me; do not hinder them, because the Kingdom of God is made up of such. <sup>15</sup>I tell you assuredly, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child does<sup>a</sup> will certainly not enter it.” <sup>16</sup>And taking them in His arms and laying His hands on them, He blessed them.<sup>b</sup>

A rich young man

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus set out on the road, someone came running up, knelt before Him and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do that I may inherit eternal life?” <sup>18</sup>So Jesus said to Him: “Why do you call me ‘good’?<sup>c</sup> No one is good except one—God. <sup>19</sup>You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not give false testimony,’ ‘Do not defraud,’ ‘Honor your father and mother.’”<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>In answer he said to Him, “Teacher,<sup>e</sup> I have kept all these since I was young.” <sup>21</sup>Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him,<sup>f</sup> and said to him: “One thing you lack; go, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, take up the cross,<sup>g</sup> and follow me.” <sup>22</sup>But he was dismayed at the suggestion and went away sorrowing, because he had many possessions.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it is for those who have riches to get into the Kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup>But the disciples were astounded at His words. So Jesus tried again and said to them: “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches<sup>i</sup> to enter the Kingdom of God. <sup>25</sup>It is actually easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God.”<sup>j</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then they were totally astonished, saying to each other, “Who then can be saved?” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus looked at them and said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; because all things are possible with God.”

<sup>c</sup> Jesus was not denying that He was good; the trouble was that the man called him good without recognizing Him as God. Had the man recognized Him as God, He would not have objected.

<sup>i</sup> Five Greek manuscripts (all of objectively inferior quality), against 1650, omit ‘for those who trust in riches’, producing an obviously inferior text, but even so they are followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. NIV favors us with a footnote: “Some manuscripts is for those who trust in riches”. They use ‘some’ to refer to the 1,650, against only five. Is that not a dishonest use of the English language? (There are probably hundreds of such footnotes.)

<sup>j</sup> Ouch! In the Old Testament it was expected that godly living would be accompanied by material blessing. The trouble is that we tend to get more attached to the blessing than to the Blessor. Our Lord’s words in Matthew 6:24 are to the point: “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.” Anyone who serves ‘mammon’ is not serving God, and therefore is not in the Kingdom. As for the ‘camel’ and the ‘needle’, there have been attempts to explain this away, but since Jesus went on to say it was “impossible”, we may take them literally.

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter began to say to Him, “So, we have left all and followed you.”
<sup>29</sup>In answer Jesus said: “I tell you assuredly, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife<sup>a</sup> or children or fields, for my sake and for that of the Gospel, <sup>30</sup>who will not receive a hundred times more,<sup>b</sup> now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and father and mother<sup>c</sup> and children and fields (with persecutions)—and in the age to come, eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many first will be last, and last first.”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus predicts His death a third time

<sup>32</sup>Now they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them; this surprised them,<sup>e</sup> and as they followed they started to be afraid. Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that were about to happen to Him: <sup>33</sup>“Take note, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of the Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him over to the Gentiles; <sup>34</sup>and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And on the third day He will rise again.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Him and said, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we may ask.” <sup>36</sup>So He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?” <sup>37</sup>They said to Him, “Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right and one at your left, in your glory.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them: “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am drinking, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am being baptized with?”
<sup>39</sup>They said to Him, “We are able.”<sup>h</sup> So Jesus said to them: “You will indeed drink the cup that I am drinking, and you will be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; <sup>40</sup>but to sit at my right and at my left is not mine to grant, but is for whom it has been prepared.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘or wife’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> Actually, the ‘hundredfold’ should presumably not be taken in a strictly literal sense. I take it that the Lord is saying that we will be abundantly recompensed, if not down here, certainly in heaven. In my own experience, in the absence of my real mother, whenever I needed one God provided one. If you only have one brother, that’s all you can leave, obviously, so the plural nouns are also contingent on the facts in the case. ‘Eternal’ life is a quality of life, and it begins down here.

<sup>c</sup> I follow 40% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in reading ‘father and mother’. 55% have ‘mothers’, as in most versions. Note that Jesus does not promise more wives!

<sup>f</sup> Jesus knew perfectly well that this was His last trip to Jerusalem, and He had detailed knowledge of what would happen. (He had been given the word by Moses and Elijah—Luke 9:31.)

Blind Bartimaeus

<sup>46</sup>They came to Jericho. Then as He was going out from Jericho,<sup>c</sup> with His disciples and a large crowd, the blind Bartimaeus<sup>d</sup> (son of Timaeus) was sitting by the roadside begging. <sup>47</sup>And when he heard that it was Jesus the Natsorean,<sup>e</sup> he began to call out and say, “O Son of David,<sup>f</sup> Jesus, have mercy on me!” <sup>48</sup>Many started telling him to shut up, but he started calling out even louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” <sup>49</sup>So Jesus stood still and said to call him. Then they called the blind man, saying to him: “Courage! Get up! He’s calling you!” <sup>50</sup>Tossing off his cloak,<sup>g</sup> he got up and went to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>Jesus reacted by saying to him, “What do you want me to do for you?”<sup>h</sup> The blind man said to Him, “Rabouni,<sup>i</sup> that I may see again!” <sup>52</sup>So Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has healed you.” And immediately he could see, and followed Jesus on the road.

The last week

The ‘triumphal’ entry—Sunday, 03/31/30 AD

11 <sup>1</sup>Now when they were drawing near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them: “Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you enter it you will find a foal tied, on which no man has sat. Untie and bring it. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord has need of it,’ and thereupon he will send it here.”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>c</sup> The parallel account in Luke has Jesus entering Jericho, not leaving it. At that time, there were two Jerichos, about a kilometer apart. What better place for an enterprising beggar than between the two towns? For a detailed discussion of the three accounts (also Matthew), please see the Appendix: Entering, or leaving Jericho?

<sup>e</sup> The Text has ‘Natsorean’, not ‘Nazarene (Natsarene)’. Natsorean is presumably a reference to Isaiah 11:1, the Branch—Jesus was the Branch-man. Natsarene just means that He came from Natsareth. For further discussion, please see “The Natsorean” in the Appendix.

<sup>g</sup> Now why did he abandon his cloak? He expected to be healed—being able to see he could easily find it (and who else would want a beggar’s cloak?).

<sup>h</sup> Does God ever take anything for granted from us? He knows what we need before we ask, but we must ask.

<sup>i</sup> Some 65% of the Greek manuscripts spell the word with two ‘b’s; I follow the best line of transmission, but there is no difference in meaning: ‘my teacher/master’.

<sup>4</sup>So they went and found the foal tied at the door, out in the street, and they loosed it. <sup>5</sup>Some of those who stood there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the foal?” <sup>6</sup>So they answered them just as Jesus had instructed, and they let them go. <sup>7</sup>Then they brought the foal to Jesus, and they placed their clothes on it, and He sat on it. <sup>8</sup>And many spread their clothes on the road, while others were cutting leafy branches from the trees<sup>a</sup> and spreading them on the road. <sup>9</sup>Both those who went in front and those who followed started calling out, saying:

“Hosanna!”

“Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!”<sup>b</sup>

that is coming in the name of the Lord!”<sup>c</sup>

“Hosanna in the highest!”

<sup>11</sup>So Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. And when He had looked around at everything,<sup>d</sup> the hour being late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

A barren fig tree

<sup>12</sup>Now the next day, as they were leaving Bethany, He was hungry. <sup>13</sup>And seeing from a distance a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it He found nothing but leaves, because it was not fig season.<sup>e</sup> <sup>14</sup>So Jesus reacted by saying to it, “Let no one ever eat fruit from you again!”<sup>f</sup> And His disciples were listening.

Jesus ‘purifies’ the temple (2nd time)—Monday, 04/01/30 AD

<sup>15</sup>So they came to Jerusalem, and entering the temple Jesus began to drive out those who sold and bought in the temple, and He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of the dove sellers. <sup>16</sup>And He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. <sup>17</sup>And He kept teaching them by saying: “Is it not written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations’?<sup>g</sup> but you have made it ‘a den of robbers’!”<sup>a</sup> preceding ‘anyone’, and the owner of the animal may have been among the bystanders (verses 5 & 6). In any case, the owner evidently knew who ‘the Lord’ was, and had presumably been forewarned—why else was the foal already tied outside? For a harmonization of the parallel accounts, please see “How many animals” in the Appendix.

<sup>c</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘in the name of the Lord’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Different people were saying different things and Mark records some of the variety (he may well have been there; in fact I suspect that he probably was).

<sup>d</sup> He knew what He had to do the next day (clean out the commerce), but there wasn’t enough time to do a proper job just then.

<sup>e</sup> Even though it was no longer fig season, sometimes an occasional fig would dry on the tree, and of course a dried fig is edible. Had the leaves all fallen, He could have seen from a distance that there were not any figs (any fig that was visible would have been eaten long before). For a harmonization of the parallel accounts, please see “The cursed fig tree” in the Appendix.

<sup>f</sup> Dear me; it would seem to be unreasonable to curse a tree out of season—it was not the tree’s fault that it had no figs! First, being the Creator, Jesus had the right to do as He did; but second, it was probably a prophetic act wherein the fig tree represented Israel; and third, He wanted to teach His disciples about faith.

<sup>20</sup>Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And Peter, remembering, said to Him: “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has dried up!” <sup>22</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “Have faith in God.<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup>Because I tell you assuredly, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be picked up and be thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes that the things he says will happen, he will have whatever he says.<sup>d</sup> <sup>24</sup>That is why I say to you, whatever things you ask for in prayer, believe that you receive, and you will have them.

<sup>25</sup>“And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your trespasses. <sup>26</sup>But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus’ authority questioned—Tuesday, 04/02/30 AD

<sup>27</sup>Then they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes and the elders came to Him. <sup>28</sup>And they said to Him, “By what authority are you doing these things?” and “Who gave you this authority to do these things?” <sup>29</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “I also will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>30</sup>The baptism of John: was it from heaven or from men?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>31</sup>They considered among themselves, saying: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘So why did you not believe him?’ <sup>32</sup>But if we say, ‘From men’...”—they feared the people, for everyone held John to really be a prophet. <sup>33</sup>So they answered Jesus by saying, “We don’t know.”<sup>g</sup> And in answer Jesus said to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Parable of wicked tenants

<sup>c</sup> I wonder if the intended meaning might not be, ‘have the faith of a god’ (‘god’ is in the genitive case and without an article)—a god giving an order would expect to be obeyed.

<sup>e</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit verse 26 entire, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc. The last three words of verses 25 and 26 are identical (in the Greek Text), giving rise to a common transcriptional error—after writing the first, the copyist’s eye returns to the second and he continues, having omitted what was in between. Verse 26 reinforces and emphasizes the need for forgiveness—the reference is to things done against us personally (attacks against the Kingdom are different).

<sup>f</sup> Some 80% of the Greek manuscripts continue with ‘answer me’, as in most (if not all) versions; I follow the best line of transmission, albeit representing only 20% of the manuscripts. ‘Answer me’ is already in verse 29.

<sup>g</sup> Of course they did know, and they also knew who Jesus was, and the source of His authority, but they had chosen to rebel.

they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>4</sup>Again he sent another slave to them, and that one they wounded in the head by stoning,<sup>a</sup> and sent him away shamefully treated. <sup>5</sup>Again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, beating some and killing some. <sup>6</sup>Finally, still having his one beloved son, he even sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ <sup>7</sup>But those farmers said to one another: ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and the inheritance will be ours.’ <sup>8</sup>So they took him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>9</sup>“What therefore will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those farmers, and give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup>Have you not even read this Scripture:

‘The stone that the builders rejected, is the very one that became the cornerstone;
<sup>11</sup>this was the LORD’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?’”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>12</sup>So they started looking for a way to arrest Him, because they knew He had spoken the parable against them, but they were in fear of the crowd. Then they left Him and went away.

Render to Caesar

A hypothetical situation<sup>h</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Then some Sadducees came to Him—they say there is no resurrection—and asked Him, saying: <sup>19</sup>“Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves behind a wife, but no children, then his brother should take that wife

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘by stoning’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> The details of this particular parable strike me as improbable. Most owners would take punitive measures after the second slave, if not the first. But the parable was a picture of how Israel had treated God, over the centuries, culminating in the death of His Son.

<sup>d</sup> The reference is presumably to the leaders mentioned in 11:27. They were hoping to be able to denounce Jesus to the Governor, who was Caesar’s representative.

<sup>h</sup> If you ever have to deal with someone who wants to argue on the basis of a hypothetical situation—be careful! Like these Sadducees, they will have a hidden agenda.

and raise up offspring for his brother. <sup>20</sup>Well there were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. <sup>21</sup>So the second one took her, and died; and neither did he leave any offspring. The third likewise. <sup>22</sup>In fact, all seven took her, and left no offspring. Last of all the woman also died. <sup>23</sup>In the resurrection, whenever they may rise, whose wife will she be?—because all seven had her as wife.”

<sup>32</sup>So the scribe said to Him: “Well said, teacher; you said truly that He is one, and there is no other except He. <sup>33</sup>And to love Him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the soul<sup>i</sup> and with all the strength, and to love the neighbor as oneself, is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.” <sup>34</sup>Now when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, “You are

<sup>a</sup> What a sad commentary! But is it not true of most religious leaders today, as well?

<sup>b</sup> Jesus does not say that angels do not have gender. Angels are always treated as male, not female—without females there could never be baby angels. That may be why they are evidently fascinated by the female of our species (1 Corinthians 11:10). Because of death, on this planet we must reproduce, or the race will die out. Since there is no death in Heaven, there will be no need to reproduce; it follows that ‘marriage’ and ‘family’ will be irrelevant up there.

<sup>f</sup> See Deuteronomy 6:4-5. The ‘love’ here cannot be limited to emotion, obviously. We are to love God with our whole being, all we have. But how does that work? Love for God is demonstrated by obedience, so all we do is to be oriented by God’s will. When we check Deuteronomy, we find ‘heart’, ‘soul’ and ‘strength’, but not ‘mind’; there are only three prepositional phrases, not four. I would say that the Hebrew word rendered as ‘strength’ covers a wider semantic area, so the Holy Spirit had Mark add a phrase to make the translation more complete.

MARK 13

not far from the Kingdom of God.”<sup>a</sup> And after that no one dared ask Him any question.

Is the Christ David's son?

<sup>35</sup>Then, teaching in the temple, Jesus reacted by saying: “How is it that the scribes say that the Messiah is David’s son? <sup>36</sup>Because David himself said by the Holy Spirit:

“The LORD said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet.””<sup>b</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus sat down opposite the offering chest and started watching how the people were depositing money into the chest. Many rich people put in large amounts. <sup>42</sup>A certain poor widow also came and put in two ‘lepta’, which equal a ‘quadrans’.<sup>d</sup> <sup>43</sup>So summoning His disciples He said to them: “I tell you assuredly that this poor widow has put more in the chest than all these contributors; <sup>44</sup>because they all gave out of their excess, but she, out of her lack, put in all that she had, her whole livelihood.”<sup>e</sup>

The temple will be destroyed

13 <sup>1</sup>Then as He was going out from the temple, one of His disciples said to Him: “Teacher, just look! Such stones, such buildings!” <sup>2</sup>In answer Jesus said to him: “Do you see these great buildings? Here not a single stone will be left upon another; each one will be thrown down.”<sup>f</sup>

The Olivet Discourse

The end of the age

<sup>c</sup> Presumably, when the man died the widow no longer had the means to clear any debt; so they would just take over the house and put the widow out in the street.

be? And what will be the sign whenever all these things are about to be fulfilled?"<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>So by way of an answer to them Jesus began by saying: "Take care that no one deceives you. <sup>6</sup>Because many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and will deceive many. <sup>7</sup>But whenever you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not let it distress you; because happen they must, but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup>Because nation will be raised against nation,<sup>c</sup> and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and tumults.<sup>d</sup> These things are the beginning of birth pains.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>12</sup>"Further, brother will betray brother to death and a father his child, and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup>And you will be hated by all for my name's sake,<sup>h</sup> yet he who endures to the end, he will be saved.<sup>i</sup>

The Great Tribulation

<sup>14</sup>"Now whenever you see the 'abomination of desolation', the one spoken of by Daniel the prophet,<sup>j</sup> standing where he should not"—let the reader understand—"then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>15</sup>Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house.<sup>k</sup> <sup>16</sup>Let him who is in the field not return to his things to get his cloak. <sup>17</sup>But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! <sup>18</sup>And pray that your flight not take place in winter,<sup>l</sup> <sup>19</sup>because those will be days of affliction such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation

<sup>d</sup> In our day we have seen violence and looting in the wake of earthquakes and food shortages. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit 'and tumults' (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> In Seminary I was taught that this instruction is for martyrs, not preachers! But churches today would be better off if their pastors got their messages from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>h</sup> It is already the case in many places that anyone who takes a public stand in defense of biblical values is vituperated by the media—some have gone to prison in what once were 'Christian' countries.

<sup>i</sup> We must endure persecution, without denying the Lord—if you deny Him, He will deny you.

<sup>j</sup> Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit 'the one spoken of by Daniel the prophet', to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>k</sup> I confess that I cannot imagine a situation where a few seconds would make any difference. Evidently the attack will be sudden.

<sup>l</sup> I find this instruction to be curious. Is the Lord really saying that by praying we can influence the time of year when the 'abomination' will take place? I wonder.

that God created until now,<sup>a</sup> and never again shall be.<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>If the Lord did not cut those days short, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He did shorten the days.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>“Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ ‘Look, there!’ do not believe it; <sup>22</sup>because false christs and false prophets will be raised up,<sup>d</sup> and they will show signs and wonders so as to even mislead the elect, if that were possible. <sup>23</sup>So you watch out! See, I have told you everything in advance.

The return of Christ

<sup>24</sup>“But in those days, after that tribulation, ‘the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; <sup>25</sup>the stars of heaven will be falling, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>26</sup>And then they will see the Son of the Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.<sup>f</sup> <sup>27</sup>And then He will send His angels and gather together His elect from the four winds, from earth’s extreme point to heaven’s extreme point.<sup>g</sup>

Example of the fig tree

Watch!

<sup>e</sup> See Isaiah 13:10 and 34:4, but this is not said to be a quotation; it is more like an allusion. The reference is presumably to angelic beings, not literal stars (just one would demolish the planet).

<sup>g</sup> I have difficulty understanding this statement, if it is to be taken literally. That the elect will be collected from all over the world, no problem, but from all over heaven? However, since resurrected saints will participate in the administration of the Messianic Kingdom (1 Corinthians 6:2, 2 Timothy 2:12, Revelation 5:10, 20:6), perhaps they are included in this statement.

<sup>h</sup> “This generation” could refer to the Jewish race (render ‘this race’), but I think it more probable that it refers to the generation that “sees all these things”. To be more precise, I think that those who were alive on the planet in 1967 (when the city of Jerusalem returned to the political control of the nation Israel) are the generation in question.

<sup>k</sup> Since the Return draws ever closer, of necessity, we, of all people, should be doing this. A mere handful (0.6%) of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘pray’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

cause you do not know when the master of the house is coming—at evening or at midnight or at cockcrow or early morning—<sup>36</sup>lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. <sup>37</sup>The things I say to you, I say to all: Watch!”<sup>a</sup>

The Sanhedrin make plans

14 <sup>1</sup>It was two days before the Passover and the Unleavened Bread.<sup>b</sup> The chief priests and the scribes were looking for an underhanded way to seize and kill Him. <sup>2</sup>But they said, “Not during the feast, or the people may riot.”

An anointing in Simon’s house

<sup>3</sup>Being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He was reclining at a meal, a woman came having an alabaster vase of very costly perfume of pure nard. Then she broke the vase and began to pour it over His head. <sup>4</sup>But there were some who were expressing indignation to one another and saying: “To what purpose was this perfume wasted? <sup>5</sup>It could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor!” And they started censuring her.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>But Jesus said: “Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done something useful to me. <sup>7</sup>You will always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you can do them good; but you will not always have me. <sup>8</sup>She did what she could.<sup>d</sup> She has perfumed my body for the burying before the fact. <sup>9</sup>Assuredly I tell you, wherever this Gospel may be proclaimed throughout the whole world, what she has done will also be told as a memorial to her.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>b</sup> I take it that this statement settles the question of the exact day of the crucifixion. It was late Tuesday afternoon, probably about 6:00 p.m.—adding two days takes us to 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, but the proceedings in the upper room began after 6:00 p.m. on that Thursday, which to the Jews was already Friday. Therefore Jesus died on a Friday [not Thursday]. (See also Luke 23:54-24:1—Jesus was buried on Friday afternoon; then the women rested during the Sabbath [singular = just one day]; then early the first day of the week they went to the tomb.) For further discussion, please see the Appendix: “How long was Jesus’ body in the tomb?”

<sup>d</sup> She did what was in her power to do. I would be happy to have that epitaph on my tombstone (if I ever have one) —“he did what he could”.

<sup>f</sup> It was too much for Judas. On Saturday (03-30-30) Mary of Bethany had anointed His feet with 300 denarii worth of the same perfume, and now four days later (Wed., 04-03-30) another woman anoints His head with another 300 denarii worth of perfume (that was a lot of money, and he liked money). In both cases Jesus affirms they are anointing Him for burial (and He had repeatedly told them He was going to be killed). Judas figured out that his expectation of an immediate kingdom was unfounded, and he rebelled. (He might even have convinced himself that Jesus had deceived him when He called him to be a disciple.)

The upper room is made ready

<sup>12</sup>Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they would sacrifice the Paschal lamb, His disciples said to Him, “Where do you want us to go and prepare, so that you may eat the Passover?” <sup>13</sup>So He sent two of His disciples, saying to them: “Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a clay jar of water; follow him. <sup>14</sup>Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, ‘The teacher says, “Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ <sup>15</sup>He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready; there prepare for us.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>So His disciples set out and came into the city and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

The last night—begins Thursday evening, 04/04/30, and ends the next morning

<sup>18</sup>Now as they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, “Assuredly I tell you, one of you who is eating with me will betray me.” <sup>19</sup>So they began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?” And another, “Surely not I?”<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>He answered and said to them: “It is one of the twelve, the one dipping with me in the bowl. <sup>21</sup>The Son of the Man is indeed going just as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of the Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man not to have been born.”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper

<sup>22</sup>As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to them and said, “Take, eat;<sup>d</sup> this is my body.” <sup>23</sup>Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank it. <sup>24</sup>And He said to them: “This is my blood, that of the new<sup>e</sup> covenant, that is being shed for many. <sup>25</sup>I tell you assuredly that I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>26</sup>And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter will deny Him

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus said to them: “All of you will be caused to stumble because of me this night,<sup>g</sup> because it is written:

<sup>b</sup> Some 8% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘and another, surely not I’ (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). It would appear that no one thought of Judas (which surprises me).

<sup>c</sup> Praying to His Father, Jesus said: “Those whom you gave me I have kept; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled” (John 17:12). Judas was lost. But what are the implications of ‘better not to have been born’? I suppose it means that it is better to have never existed, than to spend eternity in the Lake. I find this line of reasoning to be uncomfortable.

<sup>g</sup> Some 30% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘because of me this night’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'<sup>a</sup>

<sup>28</sup>But after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee." <sup>29</sup>But Peter said to Him, "Even if all are caused to stumble, yet not I." <sup>30</sup>Jesus said to him, "I tell you assuredly that you, today, this very night, before a rooster crows twice,<sup>b</sup> you will deny me three times." <sup>31</sup>But he insisted even more vehemently, "If I have to die with you, I will absolutely not deny you!" And all the others said the same.

The agony in Gethsemane

<sup>32</sup>Then they came to a place that was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray." <sup>33</sup>But He took with Him Peter, James and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. <sup>34</sup>And He said to them: "My soul is overwhelmed with grief, to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch." <sup>35</sup>Going on a little, He fell to the ground and started praying that if it were possible the hour might pass from Him. <sup>36</sup>And He said: "Abba (Father), all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me; yet not what I will, but what you will." <sup>37</sup>Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter: "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you keep watch for even one hour? <sup>38</sup>Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." <sup>39</sup>Again He went away and prayed, saying the same thing. <sup>40</sup>And when He returned He found them sleeping again, because their eyes were being weighed down;<sup>c</sup> and they did not know how to answer Him. <sup>41</sup>Then He came the third time and said to them: "You are still sleeping and resting! It is enough, the hour has come; yes, the Son of the Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup>Get up, let's be going. See, my betrayer has approached."<sup>d</sup>

The betrayal and arrest

<sup>b</sup> For a full discussion of Peter's denials, harmonizing all four accounts, please see the Appendix: How often did Jesus say Peter would deny Him? I argue that this is the fourth warning, and since Peter became increasingly belligerent and disrespectful, Jesus added a second crowing preceded by another three denials.

<sup>c</sup> The verb is in the passive voice, so the necessary question is, by whom? I follow some 35% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in reading 'were being weighed down', rather than 'had been weighed down', as in the rest.

<sup>e</sup> John 18:12 informs us that there was a 'chiliarch' present (a commander of 1,000 soldiers). An officer of such high rank could only be there by the Governor's order (Pilate). Subsequent events make clear that Pilate had been consulted, and had agreed to play along.

<sup>f</sup> Why the 'securely'? Judas had seen so many manifestations of Jesus' power that he should have known better, but of course he was under Satan's control at that time. However, it appears that they expected resistance.

MARK 14

priest, and cut off his ear.<sup>a</sup> <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus reacted by saying to them: “You have come out with swords and clubs to arrest me, as if I were a bandit. <sup>49</sup>I was with you daily in the temple, teaching, and you did not seize me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.” <sup>50</sup>Then they all deserted Him and ran away.<sup>b</sup>

A curious case

At Caiaphas' house

<sup>53</sup>They led Jesus away to the high priest; and with him were assembled all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes. <sup>54</sup>Well Peter had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the operatives and warming himself at the fire.

A farcical trial

<sup>55</sup>Now the chief priests and the whole council were seeking testimony against Jesus so as to kill Him, but were not finding any. <sup>56</sup>To be sure, many were testifying falsely against Him, but their statements did not agree. <sup>57</sup>Then some stood up and started testifying falsely against Him, saying, <sup>58</sup>“We heard him saying: ‘I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” <sup>59</sup>But not even then did their testimony agree.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>60</sup>Then the high priest stood up in the center and questioned Jesus, saying: “Are you not going to answer? What are these testifying against you?” <sup>61</sup>But He remained silent and answered nothing.<sup>e</sup> Again the high priest questioned Him and said to Him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>62</sup>So Jesus said: “I am, and you will see the Son of the Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of the heaven!”<sup>g</sup> <sup>63</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothes and said: “What further need do we have of witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You heard the blasphemy!<sup>h</sup> What do you think?” They all condemned Him to be deserving of death. <sup>65</sup>Then some began to spit on Him, to cover His face, punch Him and say to Him, “Prophecy!”<sup>i</sup> And the operatives started slapping Him.

<sup>c</sup> Now why would Mark want to include an incident like this in his account? (None of the others do.) I rather imagine that he was that young man. Although not invited to the Passover, he probably waited outside and followed them to Gethsemane. In effect he is saying, “I was there.”

<sup>d</sup> It was indeed false testimony, since that was not what Jesus said. But even if He had said that, it would just be stupid, not criminal. They were desperate.

<sup>f</sup> This was an illegal proceeding on the part of the priest: he was asking Jesus to testify against Himself. The priest was desperate.

<sup>g</sup> Wow! Jesus gave him more than he asked for! But how and when will those men, certainly lost, “see the Son of the Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of the heaven”? They will still be in Hades when Christ returns. Will those in Hades be able to see what goes on outside? I don’t have an answer.

<sup>i</sup> They wanted Him to say who had hit Him. What they were doing was really cowardly, but they were probably under demonic influence.

Crucifixion Day—Friday, 04/05/30 AD

15 <sup>1</sup>As soon as it was early morning, having already formed a plan, the chief priests with the elders and scribes, indeed the whole council, bound Jesus, led Him away and handed Him over to Pilate.<sup>d</sup>

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>2</sup>Pilate asked Him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" So in answer He said to him, "You stated a fact!" <sup>3</sup>But the chief priests kept accusing Him of many things. <sup>4</sup>So Pilate asked Him again, saying: "Are you not going to answer? See how many things they are testifying against you!" <sup>5</sup>But Jesus still gave no answer, so that Pilate marveled.<sup>e</sup>

Barabbas

<sup>6</sup>Now at the feast he would release to them one prisoner, whomever they would request. <sup>7</sup>Well there was one called Barabbas, who had been bound with his fellow insurrectionists, who in the insurrection had committed murder. <sup>8</sup>Then the crowd began to call out<sup>f</sup> and request that he do just as he always did for them. <sup>9</sup>So Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?" <sup>10</sup>(He knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.) <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>12</sup>Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do to him you call 'king of the Jews'?" <sup>13</sup>Again they shouted, "Crucify him!" <sup>14</sup>But Pilate said to them, "But what evil did he do?" They just yelled all

<sup>d</sup> And just why was Pilate dressed and waiting for them at 5:30 in the morning? Obviously this was a put up job. Pilate knew it was a farce, but he soon found himself in over his head. For a detailed analysis concerning Pilate, please see the Appendix: Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time.

the louder, “Crucify him!” <sup>15</sup>So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them, and Jesus, after a flogging, he handed over to be crucified.<sup>a</sup>

Soldiers have a little ‘fun’

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>29</sup>Those who passed by kept ridiculing Him, wagging their heads and saying, “Hey! You who can destroy the temple and build it in three days, <sup>30</sup>save yourself and come down from the cross!” <sup>31</sup>Similarly, the chief priests, with the scribes, kept mocking among themselves saying: “He saved others; he can’t save himself”<sup>h</sup> <sup>32</sup>Let the Christ, the king of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe him.”<sup>i</sup> Those who were crucified with Him insulted Him as well.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>g</sup> See Isaiah 53:12. Around 11% of the Greek manuscripts omit verse 28 entire, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc.

<sup>h</sup> This was precisely true, but not in the sense they intended. To save us, He could not save Himself.

<sup>k</sup> The darkness could not have been a solar eclipse, as some have ignorantly argued. The Passover always occurs at full moon, and a solar eclipse only occurs at new moon. Further, even a total eclipse only lasts for a few minutes, not three hours.

“Eloi, Eloi, lima sabachthani?” which is translated, “O God, my God, why have You forsaken me?”<sup>a</sup> <sup>35</sup>When some of the bystanders heard it they said, “Listen, he’s calling Elijah.” <sup>36</sup>Then someone ran, filled a sponge with wine vinegar, put it on a reed and started offering it to Him to drink, saying: “You let him be! ‘Let’s see if Elijah is coming to take him down!’”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>40</sup>There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome<sup>41</sup>—they used to follow Him and minister to Him when He was in Galilee—and many other women who had come up with Him to Jerusalem.

The burial

<sup>42</sup>Now when evening had come, because it was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member who also himself was waiting for the Kingdom of God, came and boldly went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>Well Pilate was surprised that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion he asked him when He had died.<sup>g</sup> <sup>45</sup>Upon the centurion’s confirmation he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup>Having

<sup>b</sup> To understand Mark’s turn of phrase, we need Matthew’s account (27:47-49). “Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, ‘This man is calling for Elijah!’ Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink. The rest said, ‘Let him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save him’.” The ‘let him’ is 2nd person singular. But in Mark’s account, the ‘let him’ is 2nd person plural! How do we reconcile the two accounts? I suggest the following: First, the man was quite possibly Mark himself; next, anyone who really understood the language would know that Jesus had not called Elijah; so, he responds sarcastically to their erroneous interpretation and therefore unreasonable demand that he stop; he retorts, “You stop!” and repeats their interpretation in disgust.

<sup>c</sup> Both Matthew 27:50 and John 19:30 plainly state that Jesus dismissed His spirit. It was not the cross that killed Him [see the third note down]. As He Himself said in John 10:18, “No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again.” He chose to die so that we might live. Thank you, Lord!

<sup>d</sup> That veil represented the barrier between sinful man and a Holy God. For it to be ripped in two from top to bottom was obviously a supernatural event, and it followed immediately upon Jesus’ death—which means that the Father considered that Jesus had solved the problem. Hebrews 10:20 makes the connection. Because of Jesus’ death we can now have access to the Father.

<sup>f</sup> Any centurion would be a hardened soldier, who had seen no end of crucifixions. He knew that a cross killed by asphyxiation. Hanging from the hands, with the arms stretched out, pushes the diaphragm against the lungs so you can’t breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure to prolong the agony—even though painful, the victim would push up so he could get a breath, until finally too worn out to do so. Breaking the legs would put an end to that expedient, and the person died within a few minutes, asphyxiated. Someone who is dying asphyxiated does not shout. Since Jesus gave a loud shout, but then immediately died, the centurion knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that the cross had not killed Jesus (later, when Joseph asks for the body, Pilate is surprised that Jesus could already be dead). But who can just tell his spirit to leave? Putting two and two together, the centurion concluded that Jesus was a supernatural being. Just so!

<sup>g</sup> As soon as Jesus died, the centurion most probably had left the scene, going back to headquarters. He probably felt he should inform Pilate about the unusual events, but somehow Joseph got ahead of him. Well, Joseph was evidently primed for action; watching from a distance, as soon as Jesus dismissed His spirit Joseph headed for Pilate.

bought linen, he took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen and laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of rock; then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.<sup>a</sup> <sup>47</sup>Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed where He was placed.<sup>b</sup>

Women go to sepulcher

<sup>2</sup>Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>And they were saying among themselves, “Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?” <sup>4</sup>(because it was very large), but when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away! <sup>5</sup>Upon entering the tomb they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. <sup>6</sup>But he said to them: “Don’t be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Natsarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He isn’t here! See, the place where they laid Him. <sup>7</sup>But go, tell His disciples, also Peter:<sup>g</sup> ‘He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, as He said to you.’” <sup>8</sup>Trembling and bewildered they went out and fled from the tomb; and they said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.<sup>h</sup>

Jesus appears to the Magdalene, first

<sup>9</sup>Having risen early on the first day of the week, Jesus<sup>i</sup> appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went and reported to those who had been with Him, as they were mourning and weeping. <sup>11</sup>When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

<sup>a</sup> If he rolled it, it was in the form of a wheel; there would be a track in which it rolled, with a bit of incline, so that he and Nicodemus could roll it down into place, where it would stop; but it would take several men to roll it back up and away (16:3-4). Obviously all of this had been planned and prepared in advance—the donkey owner, the upper room owner, the sepulcher owner all knew in advance just what part they were to play.

<sup>b</sup> They had seen where Jesus was placed, but obviously had not looked in the tomb—there were 100 pounds of spices in there, with enough linen to tie it all in.

<sup>f</sup> The several accounts say that it was dawning, early dawn, still dark, but by the time they reached the tomb the sun had risen. There is no discrepancy; that garden is on the west side of a mountain, and so the tomb would be in shade, besides the shade of the trees. The women left the house while it was still dark, but by the time they reached the tomb, it was already day in the valley—but the tomb would still be in the shade.

<sup>g</sup> Here we have a nice ‘touch’: Peter would be in the dumps, because he had denied Jesus, and might have wondered what his future in the group would be. That word from the angel would encourage him.

<sup>h</sup> That is, they said nothing to the guards or anyone else on the way, until Jesus appeared to them (Matthew 28:9-10). After that they weren’t afraid any more. [See the final footnote, at 16:20.]

<sup>12</sup>After these things He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking, going into the country. <sup>13</sup>So they returned and reported to the rest; neither did they believe them.<sup>b</sup>

Jesus appears to the 'Eleven', fifth

<sup>14</sup>Later He appeared to the eleven<sup>c</sup> as they were reclining at the table; and He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. <sup>15</sup>Then He said to them: "Go to the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to all creation. <sup>16</sup>He who believed and was baptized will be saved;<sup>d</sup> but he who did not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; <sup>18</sup>they will remove 'snakes';<sup>e</sup> and if

<sup>a</sup> We have no objective way to know if this was before or after the appearance to Peter—the second was to the women (Matthew 28:9-10).

<sup>c</sup> Strictly speaking, there were only ten disciples there, Thomas being absent. Apparently 'the eleven' came to be used as a title for the group.

<sup>d</sup> The only baptism that can save is when Jesus baptizes someone with the Holy Spirit (Matthew 3:11 and Luke 3:16). But how and when does Jesus baptize us with the Holy Spirit? He does it from His position at the Father's right hand, when we believe into Him. At that point the Holy Spirit begins to dwell in us, and has a great deal to do with our 'new man' or 'new nature'. For a fuller discussion, please see "Baptisms in the Bible" in the Appendix.

Returning to Luke 10:19, the Lord gives us the authority to "trample snakes and scorpions". Well now, to smash the literal insect, a scorpion, you don't need power from on High, just a slipper (if you're fast you can do it barefoot). To trample a snake I prefer a boot, but we can kill literal snakes without supernatural help. It becomes obvious that Jesus was referring to something other than reptiles and insects. I understand Mark 16:18 to be referring to the same reality—Jesus declares that certain signs will accompany the believers (the turn of phrase virtually has the effect of commands): they will expel demons, they will speak strange languages, they will remove 'snakes', they will place hands on the sick. ("If they drink..." is not a command; it refers to an eventuality.) But what did the Lord Jesus mean by 'snakes'?

In a list of distinct activities Jesus has already referred to demons, so the 'snakes' must be something else. In Matthew 12:34 Jesus called the Pharisees a 'brood of vipers', and in 23:33, 'snakes, brood of vipers'. In John 8:44, after they claimed God as their father, Jesus said, "You are of your father the devil". And 1 John 3:10 makes clear that Satan has many other 'sons'. In Revelation 20:2 we read: "He seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is a slanderer, even Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years." If Satan is a snake, then his children are also snakes. So then, I take it that our 'snakes' are human beings who chose to serve Satan, who sold themselves to evil. I conclude that the 'snakes' in Luke 10:19 are the same as those in Mark 16:18, but what of the 'scorpions'? Since they also are of the enemy, they may be demons, in which case the term may well in-

The Ascension

<sup>19</sup>So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven and sat down at God’s right. <sup>20</sup>And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the message by the accompanying signs. Amen.<sup>c</sup> clude their offspring, the humanoids [see my paper, “In the Days of Noah”]. I am still working on the question of just how the removal is done.

<sup>a</sup> All the other ‘signs’ involve volitional participation on the part of a believer, but this one presumably refers to an enemy taking advantage of one’s trust or good faith and putting poison in one’s drink. I suggest that the Lord was enunciating a principle here that we can claim. Whenever we feel that someone has tried / is trying to harm us, taking advantage of our confidence, we can claim the nullifying of the attempt, based on this promise.

<sup>b</sup> Jesus did not say that each believer will do all these things, but any Christian community should be able to do them all.

<sup>c</sup> For well over a hundred years, there has been an ongoing campaign to discredit the last twelve verses of Mark (16:9-20). I wonder where people get the motivation to expend so much time and energy on such an enterprise. Only three known Greek manuscripts omit the verses, and one of them is a falsification at this point [there would be no point in a falsification unless the first hand in fact contained the verses]. For a full discussion of this variant, please see “Mark 16:9-20 and the doctrine of Inspiration” in the Appendix.

The Gospel according to

LUKE

Dedicatory

The birth of John the Baptizer foretold

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod, the king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah.<sup>g</sup> His wife was of the daughters of Aaron and her name was Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup>They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. <sup>7</sup>But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren; and they both were well advanced in years.

The setting

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened, as he was officiating as priest before God in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priesthood, that his lot was to burn incense, upon entering the sanctuary of the Lord; <sup>10</sup>and the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense; <sup>12</sup>and upon seeing him Zacharias was shaken, and a fear fell upon him.

Gabriel delivers

<sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him: “Do not be afraid, Zacharias, because your prayer was heard,<sup>h</sup> and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. <sup>14</sup>And you will have joy and exultation, and many will rejoice over his

---

<sup>a</sup> Upon reflection it seems obvious that anyone who knew how to write would likely jot down salient points about Jesus, but Luke affirms that there were ‘many’ who attempted a serious account. Such records may well have furnished material, presumably factual, for spurious ‘improvements’ added to the four inspired accounts in the early decades of copying.

<sup>c</sup> ‘Theophilus’ means ‘God-lover’; although Luke is evidently addressing a specific person, I would like to think that the account is also addressed to all lovers of God.

<sup>d</sup> The normal meaning of the Greek word here, avovθev, is precisely ‘from above’, and I see no reason to reject that meaning (although the secondary meaning ‘from the beginning’ is possible). The more so since in the prior verse he already used the normal phrase, avv avxvης, that means ‘from the beginning’. I take it that Luke is claiming divine inspiration, up front.

<sup>g</sup> See 1 Chronicles 24:10. There were 24 divisions, so each division could only serve for two weeks in a year. The members of a division would take turns.

<sup>h</sup> Given his expression of doubt this evidently was not a recent prayer. Zacharias had given up hope (since having a child was now a physical impossibility), and may well have been unhappy with God for not having answered. He was not even impressed with the tremendous things the angel said, but continued to doubt.

birth. <sup>15</sup>For he will be great in the sight of the Lord; he must not drink either wine or strong drink;<sup>a</sup> indeed, he will be filled with Holy Spirit<sup>b</sup> already from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God; <sup>17</sup>in fact he himself will go before Him<sup>c</sup> in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of fathers to children'<sup>d</sup> and the disobedient to the mind-set of the righteous,<sup>e</sup> to prepare a people made ready for the Lord."

<sup>18</sup>But Zacharias said to the angel: "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>So in answer the angel said to him: "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God;<sup>g</sup> I was sent to speak to you and bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup>Now look, you will be silent and not able to speak until the day in which these things happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

<sup>21</sup>Now the people were waiting for Zacharias and wondering at his delay in the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup>But when he came out he was unable to speak to them, and they understood that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary—he kept gesturing to them while remaining mute. <sup>23</sup>And so, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he took off for home.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>c</sup> The antecedent of "Him" is "the Lord their God"; in effect Gabriel is affirming that the Messiah, Jesus, is God—since he was speaking Hebrew, he may well have said 'Jehovah their God'.

<sup>e</sup> The righteous have one mind-set; the disobedient have a different one. To change someone's conduct you need to change his mind-set.

<sup>h</sup> We know the time frame when it was the division of Abijah's turn to serve (for only two weeks). Assuming that Elizabeth became pregnant as soon as Zacharias got home, we may deduce that Jesus was born in September/October (six months after John).

<sup>j</sup> Her menopause was ancient history, so what was happening was 'impossible'; besides, even if she was pregnant the likelihood of a miscarriage would be high; so she kept quiet. But after five months she would begin to 'show', and the prospect of success was good.

<sup>k</sup> A pregnancy involves a fair number of days, and divine intervention was necessary all the time to enable her to carry the baby to term.

The birth of Jesus foretold—5 BC

<sup>34</sup>So Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, since I do not know a man?"<sup>l</sup> <sup>35</sup>In answer the angel said to her: "Holy Spirit<sup>m</sup> will come upon you and the power of the Most High will hover over you; precisely for this reason the holy One who is to be born will be called 'Son of God'!<sup>n</sup> <sup>36</sup>Furthermore, your relative Elizabeth, she has actually conceived a son in her old age and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren; <sup>37</sup>because any word spoken by God

<sup>c</sup> This involved a signed legal document, so much so that the couple were then called husband and wife, so 'engaged' (at least in contemporary society) is not an adequate rendering.

<sup>e</sup> To be the mother of the Messiah was a blessing granted to only one woman in the whole history of this world (see Genesis 3:15). Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit 'blessed are you among women' (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> In Zacharias the angel inspired fear, but Mary sensed immediately that the angel did not represent a menace or threat and concentrated on his astounding words. In typical female fashion, she was trying to figure out the hidden agenda.

<sup>g</sup> He is not telling her not to be afraid of himself, because she wasn't; I take it that he is telling her not to fear the future and the implications of his message.

<sup>h</sup> Although the angel presumably addressed Mary in Hebrew, when it came to pronouncing the name, he may well have used the Greek name as we know it. The precise sequence of sounds can be written and pronounced in Hebrew.

<sup>j</sup> The 'house of Jacob' is not the Church, but the unending Kingdom will include much more than just that 'house'.

<sup>k</sup> This world will come to an end, but not Christ's Kingdom. What the angel said to Mary was even more tremendous than what he said to Zacharias.

<sup>l</sup> Zacharias expressed doubt, but Mary simply requests some necessary information. She has understood that God wants her to be the Messiah's mother—she was doubtless highly intelligent and perceptive. (In the Bible the verb 'to know' is used to refer to sexual intercourse.)

will be possible.” <sup>38</sup>So Mary said: “Yes, I am the Lord’s slave! Let it happen to me according to your word.”<sup>a</sup> And the angel departed from her.

Mary visits Elizabeth

<sup>46</sup>So Mary said:

“My soul magnifies the Lord,

to the humble station of His slave (f).

Yes indeed, because from now on all generations will declare me to be highly favored,<sup>h</sup>

and Holy is His name.

to those fearing Him.

<sup>51</sup>He has done mighty deeds with His arm;
He has dispersed the arrogant in the reasoning of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup>He has dethroned rulers and exalted the lowly.

and sent the rich away empty.<sup>i</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Mary had to understand the proposal and be in full agreement, or she would not have been a good mother.

<sup>c</sup> To cry or call out suggests unusual volume by itself, so why add ‘with a great/loud voice’? Since she spoke under the Holy Spirit’s control, there was probably an unusual quality to the voice, and the neighbors heard it.

<sup>d</sup> What Elizabeth is saying, inspired by the Holy Spirit, is that the Messiah is already in Mary’s womb, as witnessed by baby John’s reaction. There was no human way that Elizabeth could know of the angel’s conversation with Mary. Her prophecy served as a tremendous confirmation and encouragement to Mary—I imagine that the Holy Spirit had fertilized her as soon as she said, “Yes”.

- <sup>54</sup>He has taken the part of His servant Israel, in remembrance of mercy,
<sup>55</sup>just as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed while there is an age.”<sup>a</sup>

The birth of John

- <sup>57</sup>Now the time for Elizabeth to give birth was completed and she bore a son.
<sup>58</sup>Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had used His great mercy with her, and they rejoiced with her.

John is named

- <sup>59</sup>So it was, on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child,<sup>c</sup> and they started calling him by the name of his father, Zacharias. <sup>60</sup>His mother reacted and said, “Absolutely not;<sup>d</sup> he shall be called John!” <sup>61</sup>So they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” <sup>62</sup>So they started motioning to his father, as to what he would have him called. <sup>63</sup>Asking for a writing tablet he wrote this: “His name is to be John!” They all marveled. <sup>64</sup>Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed and he started to speak, blessing God. <sup>65</sup>(Well a fear came on all who lived around them; and all these sayings kept being talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup>All who heard kept them in their hearts saying, “What then will this child be?” And the hand of the Lord was with him.)<sup>e</sup>

Zacharias prophesies

- <sup>67</sup>Now his father Zacharias was filled with Holy Spirit and prophesied saying:
<sup>68</sup>“Blessed be the LORD,<sup>f</sup> the God of Israel, because He has visited and provided redemption for His people; <sup>69</sup>and has raised up a horn of deliverance for us in the house of His servant David <sup>70</sup>—just as He spoke through the mouth of His holy prophets from antiquity—
<sup>71</sup>deliverance from our enemies and out of the hand of all who hate us;”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I follow the best line of transmission, as I believe, albeit representing only 35% of the Greek manuscripts, in this case. I take the point to be that the things mentioned are pertinent to this world, not the next.

<sup>b</sup> Those three months in the home of a priest were doubtless filled with relevant instruction from the Scriptures (of course Zacharias was mute, so he would have to write everything), part of Mary’s preparation for her role. Note that Mary evidently took off before John was born [I wonder why]. On the other hand, being three months pregnant it was high time that she go home and face the situation that awaited her. Although Joseph evidently took her to his house immediately, at God’s direction, after only six months a full size baby would be born.

<sup>c</sup> “The eighth day”—two different blood clotting agents, vitamin K and prothrombin, are at their highest level (110% of normal) on the eighth day of a person’s life, so it is the best of all days for minor surgery. Who but the Creator knew that 4000 years ago, when He told Abraham to do it?

 even to remember His Holy covenant,
<sup>73</sup>the oath that He swore to our father Abraham; <sup>74</sup>to grant to us (having been rescued from the hand of our enemies) to serve Him without fear, <sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness<sup>b</sup> before Him all the days of our life.
<sup>76</sup>“And you, child, will be called Prophet of the Most High, because you will go before the face of the Lord<sup>c</sup> to prepare His ways, <sup>77</sup>to give a knowledge of salvation to His people by the forgiveness of their sins,<sup>d</sup> <sup>78</sup>through the merciful compassions of our God, with which the divine Dawn has contemplated us,<sup>e</sup> <sup>79</sup>to give light to those who are sitting in darkness and the shadow of death,
 to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

 in uninhabited areas until the day of his manifestation to Israel.<sup>g</sup>

The birth of Jesus—4 BC

2 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole inhabited world should be enrolled.<sup>h</sup> <sup>2</sup>This first census took place while Quirinius was governing Syria.<sup>i</sup> <sup>3</sup>So everyone was traveling, each to his own town, to enroll himself.

At night, in Bethlehem, the Savior is born

<sup>4</sup>So Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of Natsareth town, into Judea to the city of David, that is called Bethlehem, because he was of David's ‘house’, that is, line of descent, <sup>5</sup>to enroll himself with Mary, the woman who had been be-

<sup>a</sup> Zacharias knew that the Messiah would soon be born, but was evidently expecting a physical, political kingdom that would deliver them from Roman domination. For that matter, Jesus' own disciples evidently shared the same expectation.

<sup>b</sup> ‘To serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness’—that is what life is supposed to be about, but is only possible because the Messiah came.

<sup>e</sup> Without doubt, the coming of the Messiah, with all that involved, represented the dawning of a new Day for this world. Instead of “has contemplated us”, less than 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have “will contemplate us” (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The difference may appear to be small, but I take the point to be that the Messiah was already in the virgin Mary's womb—the incarnation was irreversibly underway.

<sup>g</sup> Because of their advanced age, his parents may well have died by the time he was a teenager. Although as Zacharias' son he was in line to become a priest, he could not begin to serve until he was thirty, which was when he began his public ministry. He evidently spent the interval as a recluse.

<sup>i</sup> Quirinius served two terms: the best known was in A.D. 6-10, but there is good evidence for a prior term in 4-1 B.C.

trothed to him,<sup>a</sup> who was pregnant. <sup>6</sup>So it happened that when they got there the days for her to give birth were completed; <sup>7</sup>and she gave birth to her firstborn<sup>b</sup> Son, wrapped Him in pieces of cloth and laid Him in the manger,<sup>c</sup> because there was no room for them in the lodging place.

and on earth peace, good will toward mankind!”<sup>g</sup>

Shepherds go and report

<sup>15</sup>So when the angels went away from them into the sky the men, the shepherds, said to one another, “Hey, let’s go to Bethlehem and see this event that has taken place, that the Lord made known to us!” <sup>16</sup>So they went in a hurry and located both Mary and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>And having seen they spread an exact account of the saying that had been spoken to them concerning this Child. <sup>18</sup>All who heard marveled at the things told them by the shepherds.<sup>h</sup> <sup>19</sup>As for Mary, she treasured all these sayings, pondering them in her

<sup>a</sup> That is what the Text says. We know from Matthew 1:24-25 that Joseph had already received her as his wife, but still had not had sexual relations with her—obviously an atypical situation. He had taken responsibility for her as his wife, but as far as sex was concerned she was still ‘pledged’—thus Luke’s unusual turn of phrase.

<sup>b</sup> Luke’s use of the term ‘firstborn’, writing after Mary had passed the age that she could bear children, clearly implies that she had other children after the first; otherwise Luke would have used ‘only’ rather than ‘first’.

<sup>c</sup> Some 95% of the Greek manuscripts have the definite article with ‘manger’, so there was only one in the place, which implies that it was a stable. Since Bethlehem stands on a limestone ridge, there were probably natural caves that would make excellent stables. Actually, mother and baby were probably better off there than in the crowded lodging.

<sup>e</sup> The shepherds were Jews, and their ‘day’ began at 6 p.m. The angel’s use of ‘today’ indicates that Jesus was born at night, since the angel delivered his message at night.

<sup>f</sup> This may not seem like much of a ‘sign’ to us, but doubtless there was only one newborn baby in the whole area who met those conditions.

<sup>g</sup> “Good will toward mankind”—what greater proof of God’s good will could there be than the whole plan of salvation, the center piece of which was the incarnation! “Good will toward mankind” reflects some 1700 Greek manuscripts; only six known Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read “among those with whom He is pleased” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.; the New Living Translation favors us with a footnote: “Some manuscripts read... goodwill among people”—by ‘some’ they mean ± 1700 against six! [how could the editors be so perverse?]).

<sup>h</sup> Since the shepherds lived in that town, presumably, they would certainly tell their families and friends; in short order the whole town had heard the news. In all probability, the very next day someone offered Joseph a house to use.

heart. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God over all that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

Jesus is named

<sup>21</sup>When eight days were completed so as to circumcise Him, His name was indeed called JESUS, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

Jesus is presented to God

<sup>22</sup>And when the days of their<sup>a</sup> purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they took Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup>(just as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male who opens a womb shall be called holy to the LORD”<sup>b</sup>), <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to what was specified in the Lord’s Law, “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons”.<sup>c</sup>

Simeon

<sup>25</sup>Well now, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, expectantly waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>(It had been revealed to him repeatedly by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he saw the Lord’s Messiah.<sup>d</sup>) <sup>27</sup>So by the Spirit he came into the temple; and when the parents brought the Child Jesus in, to do concerning Him according to the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup>Simeon took Him into his arms and blessed God and said:

according to Your word,

<sup>30</sup>because my eyes have seen Your salvation,

and the glory of Your people Israel.”

<sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother: “Listen, this One is appointed to bring about the fall and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign

---

<sup>c</sup> See Leviticus 12:8. The prescribed sacrifice was a lamb; only if the couple was too poor to bring a lamb could they substitute the birds (since they could be caught in the wild, the poorest of the poor could meet this requirement). Evidently Joseph and Mary could not afford a lamb, which indicates that they had not yet received the gifts from the magi.

<sup>d</sup> The Greek Text has ‘Christ’, but the Holy Spirit presumably used Hebrew to communicate with Simeon. The man evidently lived in communion with God, and thus the Holy Spirit could guide him at any time—here He sends him into the temple at just the right moment.

<sup>e</sup> Simon actually used the term from which we get ‘despot’, but in English this term has a negative flavor, unless one adds ‘benevolent’; but ‘benevolent despot’ does not work very well in direct address—so I render ‘Sovereign’. [When I myself address God, I habitually follow Simeon’s example—I also am His slave.]

<sup>g</sup> Simeon may have actually said more than is here recorded; in fact, I rather imagine that he did.

that is spoken against, <sup>35</sup>so that the reasonings of many hearts may be revealed (furthermore, a sword will pass through your own soul also).<sup>a</sup>

Anna

<sup>36</sup>Also there was a prophetess Anna, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher—she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity <sup>37</sup>and having been a widow for about eighty-four years<sup>b</sup>—who did not depart from the temple, serving God with fastings and petitions night and day. <sup>38</sup>Well she, having come up at that very moment, started praising the Lord,<sup>c</sup> and kept on speaking of Him to all those in Jerusalem who were looking for redemption.<sup>d</sup>

Back to Natsareth

<sup>41</sup>Now every year His parents would go to Jerusalem to the feast of the Pass-over; <sup>42</sup>so when He was twelve years old they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. <sup>43</sup>When they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but Joseph and His mother<sup>h</sup> did not know it. <sup>44</sup>Supposing Him to be in the caravan, they went a day's journey and then started looking for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup>Not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem seeking Him. <sup>46</sup>So it happened that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>(All who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers.<sup>i</sup>)

<sup>48</sup>So upon seeing Him they were amazed, and His mother said to Him: "Son, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in distress."<sup>j</sup> <sup>49</sup>So He said to them: "Why were you seeking me? Didn't you <sup>a</sup> Watching her Son suffer, Mary would also suffer. Jesus obliged the people, especially the leaders, to take sides, and so the reasonings of their hearts were exposed.

<sup>b</sup> If she married at 15 she would have been about 105 at the time. Instead of "for about eighty-four", perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read 'until eighty-four' (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> We know from Matthew that there was a detour through Egypt, that began from Bethlehem, so from Jerusalem they went back to Bethlehem.

<sup>j</sup> They evidently thought that Jesus had met with foul play; they were afraid for His life. In contrast, Jesus never worried about suffering harm (see next note).

know that I must be about my Father's concerns?"<sup>a</sup> <sup>50</sup>But they did not understand the statement that He made to them.<sup>b</sup>

Enter John the Baptizer—26 AD

"A voice calling out:

'Prepare the way of the Lord in the wilderness, make His paths straight.'<sup>i</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Every ravine will be filled up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled;<sup>j</sup>
the crooked parts of the roads will be straightened out, and the rough parts will be smoothed out;

<sup>a</sup> At twelve Jesus knew precisely who He was—"my father" cannot refer to Joseph because Jesus was not discussing carpentry with the doctors of the Law—He was consciously about God's business. Notice that Jesus does not even come close to apologizing; in fact He rebukes them for worrying—after all, they also knew just who He was. (Jesus was no doubt unusually mature for His age, and may have just had His bar mitzvah.) The only time Jesus feared for His life was in Gethsemane—Matthew 26:38, Mark 14:34, Luke 22:44, Hebrews 5:7-8 (compare by contrast Luke 4:28-30, Mark 4:35-41, John 8:59, 10:39, 18:6). He left us an example to be followed—Luke 10:19.

<sup>b</sup> Perhaps they should have, knowing who He really was, but by now they probably had at least four children and each day was filled with very ordinary concerns—do the concerns of life not cause us also to forget spiritual realities?

<sup>f</sup> Annas was the real high priest, which office was for life. But in an effort to diminish the political influence of the high priest (presumably) the Roman government obliged the Jews to name a different high priest each year, and the governor dealt with him—so that particular year it was Caiaphas. Notice how Luke emphasizes historicity.

<sup>h</sup> There are those who squirm at the plain meaning of the Text—John was offering forgiveness of sins. Well, throughout the Old Testament, if you brought an animal offering you were confessing to being a sinner, and expecting to be forgiven. As forerunner to the Lamb of God, who would provide the ultimate payment for sin, John represented a transition, from the old to the new.

<sup>k</sup> That's what the Text says. I resist the temptation to limit the reference to people, because the animals will also see it (Isaiah 11:6-9). In Genesis 6:17 "all flesh" clearly includes the animals.

"Brood of vipers!"

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to the crowds that were coming out to be baptized by him: "You sons of poisonous snakes!<sup>b</sup> Who tipped you off to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Well then, produce fruits befitting repentance, and don't even begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham as father,' because I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>But even now the axe is being laid to the root of the trees;<sup>d</sup> so then, every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

"What shall we do?"

<sup>10</sup>So the people<sup>e</sup> started asking him, "What then must we do?" <sup>11</sup>In answer he said to them, "He who has two coats,<sup>f</sup> let him share with him who has none; and he who has food should do likewise."<sup>g</sup> <sup>12</sup>Well even tax collectors came to be baptized by him and said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?" <sup>13</sup>So he said to them, "Don't charge more than what was determined to you."<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>So the soldiers started asking him too: "What about us? What must we do?" He said to them, "Don't extort or harass anyone, and be content with your wages."<sup>i</sup>

"A greater One is coming"

<sup>15</sup>Now as the people were expectant and all were reasoning in their hearts concerning John, whether he just might be the Messiah, <sup>16</sup>John anticipated them all saying: "I indeed am baptizing you with water, but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal straps I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with Holy Spirit and fire;<sup>j</sup> <sup>17</sup>whose winnowing shovel is in His hand, and He will thoroughly

<sup>b</sup> We don't know the precise type of snake, except that it was presumably poisonous. The Text has 'off-springs', plural, which doesn't make very good English, so I put 'sons'. From Matthew 3:7 we may conclude that he was mainly referring to Pharisees and Sadducees (who had come to evaluate what was happening, but did not themselves submit to the baptism; they would not want to admit that they had sin to confess).

<sup>c</sup> To be born into a Christian family is certainly an advantage, but does not guarantee your eternal destiny. God has no 'grandchildren'; you must believe into the Lord Jesus Christ to become God's child.

<sup>j</sup> John the Baptizer said that Jesus would baptize "with Holy Spirit and fire". There has been no lack of interpretations for that statement, but I would say that the next verse gives the correct answer. "Whose winnowing shovel is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." See also Matthew 3:11-12. Well now, the unquenchable fire can only refer to the Lake of fire and brimstone, the second death, and in that case the "chaff" refers to people who are lost—it is the lost who will be baptized with fire. It follows that the "wheat" refers to people who are saved—it is the genuinely saved who will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. But how and when does Jesus baptize us with the Holy Spirit? He does it from His position at the Father's right hand, when we believe into Him. At that point the Holy Spirit begins to dwell in us, and has a great deal to do with our 'new man' or 'new nature'. I understand that Acts 1:5 refers to this baptism, and Acts 11:16 as well, and that it began at Pentecost. Acts clean out His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”<sup>a</sup>

John is imprisoned—an historical aside

Jesus is baptized

<sup>21</sup>Now when all the people were baptized,<sup>c</sup> Jesus, having been baptized also, was praying, when the heaven was opened <sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove and rested upon Him, and a Voice came out of heaven saying, “You are my beloved Son; in you I am always well pleased.”<sup>d</sup>

Mary’s genealogy<sup>e</sup>

10:47 teaches us that they were baptized with water after they were baptized with the Holy Spirit—first Holy Spirit, then water. For a fuller discussion, please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix.

<sup>a</sup> “Unquenchable fire” is a clear reference to the Lake; recall that there is always more chaff than grain, but the chaff is also part of the wheat plant. I suspect that most churches have more chaff than grain.

But then, why write ως ενομιζετο? It seems to me that the normal meaning of “as was supposed” is to affirm that Jesus was in fact Joseph’s son; but that is precisely what Jesus was not. Luke has already made clear that Jesus’ real Father was the Holy Spirit—1:34-35, 43, 45; 2:49. So what Luke is really saying is that although the people supposed Jesus to be Joseph’s son, He actually had a different lineage—we should translate “so it was supposed”. (Recall that a faithful and loyal translation seeks to transmit correctly the meaning intended by the author.)

The verb ην is the only independent one in the whole paragraph, verses 23-38. Is it working with the participle αρχομενος in a periphrastic construction? That appears to be the tendency of the eclectic text that places the participle right after ‘Jesus’ (following about 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality), which makes Jesus out to be in fact Joseph’s son. It seems to me to be far more natural to take the participial clauses as being circumstantial: “beginning at about thirty years of age” and “being (so it was supposed) a son of Joseph”. Setting those two clauses aside, the independent clause that remains is ην ο Ιησους του Ηλει, “Jesus was of Eli”.

The participle ‘beginning’ requires an object, that the Text leaves implicit; from the context it seems clear that we may supply ‘His ministry’, or some such thing, which is why most versions do so. I suggest the following rendering: “Beginning His ministry at about thirty years of age, being (so it was supposed) a son of Joseph, Jesus was actually of Eli, of Mathan, of Levi...” I take it that the emphatic pronoun αυτος heightens the contrast between what the people imagined and the reality. Jesus was a grandson of Eli, Mary’s father—Luke gives the genealogy of Jesus through His mother, while Matthew gives it through His stepfather.

The eclectic text gives our verse a different wording: και αυτος ην Ιησους αρχομενος ωσει ετων τριακοντα, ων υιος, ως ενομιζετο, Ιωσηφ του Ηλι του Μαθθαι του Λευι του Μελκι... The RSV translates it like this: “Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, the son of Matthat,...” Is not the normal meaning of this rendering that Jesus was in fact the son of Joseph? However, every version that I recall seeing has “Joseph, the son of Heli”, which directly contradicts Matthew, “Jacob begot Joseph”. The word ‘son’ (without the article) occurs only with Joseph, although most versions supply it on down the genealogy. But Luke is precisely correct in not using it, because it would not hold for the first and last names in the list—Eli did not beget Jesus (nor Joseph) and God did not beget Adam.

So then, properly understood Luke does not contradict Matthew (with reference to Joseph’s father), nor does he affirm an error of fact (with reference to Jesus’ father).

- <sup>a</sup> All published Bibles that I have seen add ‘son’ or ‘the son’ to each prepositional phrase in the genealogy, but Luke did not write that—from ‘Eli’ to ‘God’ there is no ‘son’. Why not? I do not know, I was not there, but with both Eli and God the word would have a different meaning than with the rest of the names in the list. Adam could be called a ‘son’ of God by creation, but not procreation. I take it that Eli was Mary’s father, and thus the maternal grandfather of Jesus, so here also ‘son’ would have a different meaning. For all that, through Mary and Eli Jesus received some of David’s genes, so He was literally a descendent of David, through his son Nathan.
- <sup>b</sup> There is considerable confusion among the Greek manuscripts as to the spelling of all these names. I have generally just followed the spelling we are used to (since the meaning is not affected), but not always.
- <sup>c</sup> For more on this man see the whole book of Haggai and Zechariah 4:6.
- <sup>d</sup> The Greek form is actually ‘Salathiel’.
- <sup>e</sup> Rather than “of Aram”, a variety of modern versions have ‘the son of Admin, the son of Arni’, and they do so following the eclectic text that has been in vogue for several generations (UBS/N-A). As is their habit, the editors of that text follow the so-called ‘Alexandrian’ witnesses, but at this point those witnesses are scattered all over the back side of the desert—almost no two agree. One would have thought that this would give the UBS editors pause, but not at all. They were so intent on doing despite to Christ’s genealogy that they actually concocted a ‘patchwork quilt’ and intruded the fictitious Admin and Arni into that genealogy. UBS has presented the evidence in their apparatus in such a way as to obscure the fact that no Greek MS has the precise text they have printed (the same holds for N-A). In Bruce Metzger’s presentation of the UBS Committee’s reasoning in this case he wrote, “the Committee adopted what seems to be the least unsatisfactory form of text”. Is this not a good candidate for ‘chut-zpah’ of the year? The UBS editors concoct their own reading and proclaim it “the least unsatisfactory”! And just what might be “unsatisfactory” about the reading of 95% of the Greek manuscripts except that it does not introduce any difficulties?

There is complete confusion in the Egyptian camp. That confusion may have commenced in the second century, resulting from several easy transcriptional errors, simple copying mistakes. The total confusion in Egypt does not surprise us, but how shall we account for the text and apparatus of UBS<sup>3</sup>/N-A<sup>26</sup>

in this instance? And whatever possessed the editors of NASB, NRSV, TEV, LB, Berkeley, etc. to embrace such an egregious error? 'Admin' and 'Arni' have no more place in Christ's genealogy than does Idi Amin, although he at least is not a fiction.

<sup>a</sup> 'Joram'—Luke 3:33 X Matthew 1:3, Ruth 4:19, 1 Chronicles 2:9. I follow 80% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in placing Joram between Aram and Hezron. However, since both the Textus Receptus and the eclectic text currently in vogue follow the 20%, mine is the first version that I have seen that includes Joram. The obvious difficulty with this proceeding is that it goes against Matthew 1:3, Ruth 4:19 and 1 Chronicles 2:9, that have no 'Joram'. The apparent disagreement with Matthew, Ruth and Chronicles would be an obvious inducement to omit 'Joram'. But what possible motivation would there be to invent and insert an unknown name? And if someone did, how could it come to dominate the stream of transmission, to the tune of 80%? But wherever could Luke have come up with 'Joram'? I understand that Luke obtained the information about Joram from records existing in his day, and being correct information was led by the Holy Spirit to include it in his Gospel. Just like Jude, who quoted Enoch—Enoch's prophecy must have been in existence in Jude's day, but we have no copy in Hebrew today (though Jews are reported to have used one so recently as the 13th century A.D.); similarly we have no copy of Luke's source. Recall Luke's stated purpose in writing: "It seemed good to me also, most excellent Theophilus, having taken careful note of everything from Above, to write to you with precision and in sequence, so that you may know the certainty of the things in which you were instructed" (Luke 1:3-4). Given his stated purpose in writing, Luke's account needs to be historically accurate (cf. 2:2 and 3:1). So then, I take it that the Holy Spirit guided Luke to include Joram. So then, Aram (Ram) was actually a grandson of Hezron; Hezron fathered Joram, who fathered Aram. While I am on this tack, my solution to the 'Jeremiah' problem in Matthew 27:9-10 is similar. Daniel (9:2) refers to "the books" (plural) in connection with Jeremiah the prophet. So I assume that Matthew had access to other writings of Jeremiah, of which no copy survives.

But where did Luke get this information? The LXX contains Cainan in Genesis 11:12, but is so different from the Massoretic text here that it looks like fiction. Recall that the LXX we know is based on codices Vaticanus, Sinaiticus and Alexandrinus, produced centuries after Luke. It is more likely that our LXX is based on Luke than vice versa. Where then did Luke get it? I understand that Luke obtained the information about this Cainan from records existing in his day, and being correct information was led by the Holy Spirit to include it in his Gospel (see my discussion of 'Joram' above).

This brief note was inspired by the discussion of the subject given by Dr. Floyd N. Jones in Chronology of the Old Testament (which book comes close to solving all the alleged numerical discrepancies in the OT, at least as I see it). However, the explanation that follows is original with me (if anyone else has proposed it, I am unaware). Consider the exact wording of Genesis 11:12-13. "Arphaxad lived thirty-five years and begot Salah; after he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters." The verb 'begot' requires that Salah be a blood descendent of Arphaxad, not adopted. He could be a grandson, the son of a son of Arphaxad, or even a great-grandson, etc., except that in this case the time frame only has room for one intervening generation. The plain meaning of the formula in the Text, 'W lived X years and begot Y; after W begot Y he lived Z years,' is that W was X years old when Y was born, is it not (and Y was Z years old when W died)? It follows that this formula destroys the 'accordion' gambit. There were precisely 130 years between Adam and Seth, 105 between Seth and Enosh, 90 between Enosh and Cainan<sup>1</sup>, etc., etc. (To argue that the years were based on lunar months will not save the gambit.) I take the clear meaning of the Hebrew Text to be that Arphaxad was 35 years old when Salah was born, whatever we may decide to do about 'Cainan'.

Let us try to imagine the situation in the years immediately following the Flood. After the Flood the 'name of the game' was to replenish the earth. Indeed, the divine command was: "Be fruitful and multiply" (Gen. 9:1). So, whom could Noah's grandsons marry? Obviously their cousins, Noah's granddaughters. There would be an urgency to reproduce—thus, the girls would be married off at puberty,

Jesus tested by Satan

4 <sup>1</sup>Then Jesus, full of Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, <sup>2</sup>where He was tested for forty days by the devil.<sup>a</sup> He ate nothing at all during those days, so after they were completed He was hungry.<sup>b</sup> <sup>3</sup>So the devil said to Him, “Since you are Son of God,<sup>c</sup> tell this stone to become bread!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered him saying, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.’”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>5</sup>And taking Him up on a high mountain,<sup>f</sup> the devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>The devil said to Him: “To you I will give all this authority, and their glory, because it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I want to. <sup>7</sup>So you, if you would worship before me, all will be yours.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>8</sup>In answer Jesus said to him: “Get behind me, Satan!<sup>a</sup> It is written, ‘You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only shall you serve!’”<sup>b</sup>

and the boys would not be wasting around either. The women would be giving birth as often as they possibly could. Really, the absolute top priority would be to increase the number of people. Arphaxad was born two years after the flood, but his wife could have been born a year or two earlier. (The Sacred Text is clear to the effect that only eight souls entered the ark, but some of the women could have conceived during the Flood, since they were in the ark for a full year.) Thus, Arphaxad could have fathered “Cainan” when he was 17/18. Similarly, Cainan could have fathered Salah when he was 17/18. In this way Arphaxad could be said to have “begotten” Salah when he was 35. Cainan could have died early or been passed over in Genesis because the time span did not constitute a ‘generation’, or both. Or, as things got back to normal, culturally speaking, the haste with which Arphaxad and Cainan procreated might have been viewed as unseemly. The expedient of omitting Cainan would make the account more ‘normal’ while preserving precision as to the elapsed time. But Luke would be correct in saying that Salah was “of” Cainan who was “of” Arphaxad. Salah was Arphaxad’s grandson. In any case, the Messianic line was passed on by Salah. Without Luke’s record I, for one, would never have stopped to consider what must have happened immediately following the Flood—the absolute priority must have been to increase the number of people.

<sup>b</sup> This episode was ordained by the Holy Spirit. Jesus had to confront Satan when He was physically the weakest He would ever be (40 days without food!). When Satan failed to defeat this weakened Jesus, he was probably filled with despair—he now knew that he could never defeat Him (but he would still try to kill Him). Hebrews 2:18 and 4:15-16 give at least part of the reason why Jesus had to undergo this experience.

<sup>c</sup> There are several kinds of conditional clause in Greek, among them ‘of doubt’, ‘of fact’ and ‘contrary to fact’—Satan was not so crude as to express doubt about Christ’s identity, ‘if’, he was more subtle; he granted the fact, ‘since’, and appealed to His pride.

<sup>d</sup> Matthew 4:3 has “these stones”, instead of “this stone”. I gather that Satan said both: he started with ‘these stones’ and then picked out a specific one.

<sup>e</sup> See Deuteronomy 8:3. Less than half a percent of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “but by every word of God” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). If we are to live by ‘every’ word, then every word must be kept available. Since Deuteronomy 8:3 says, “every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD”, the translation into Greek uses πᾶν instead of λογος.

<sup>h</sup> This was a master-stroke. Jehovah the Son entered this world as the second/last Adam precisely to recover what the first Adam had lost, and Satan was evidently well aware of what was going on. So he offers it to Jesus on a ‘silver platter’, with just one small condition... Note that Jesus does not deny Satan’s right to make the offer.

<sup>9</sup>He also took Him to Jerusalem and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple,<sup>c</sup> and said to Him: “Since you are Son of God, throw yourself down from here; <sup>10</sup>because it is written, ‘He will give His angels orders concerning you, to protect you,’ <sup>11</sup>and, ‘They will carry you along on their hands, so you do not stub your foot on a stone.’”<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>In answer Jesus said to him: “The statement stands, ‘You shall not test the LORD your God!’”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about Him spread throughout the whole surrounding area; <sup>15</sup>yes, He started teaching in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

His hometown rejects Him

<sup>16</sup>So He came to Natsareth, where He had been brought up; as was His custom He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup>The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him, so unrolling the scroll He found the place where it was written:

<sup>18</sup>“The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, because He has anointed me to evangelize poor people.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,<sup>i</sup> to proclaim release to captives and recovery of sight to blind people, to send those who are oppressed out in freedom,

“Today this Scripture is fulfilled”

<sup>20</sup>Then, having rolled up the scroll and returned it to the attendant, He sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on Him, <sup>21</sup>and He be-

<sup>c</sup> Matthew’s report has the temple before the mountain; since he employs adverbs of time (sequence) while Luke does not, I take it that Matthew gives the correct sequence (which is also the logical progression). Luke handles the temple event almost as an afterthought. For further discussion, please see “Harmonizing the accounts of the Temptation” in the Appendix.

<sup>e</sup> See Deuteronomy 6:16. To do something irresponsible to try to oblige God to perform a miracle to save you from the consequences is forbidden. It would be a kind of ‘blackmail’.

<sup>f</sup> Jesus was tested in the three areas: “the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life” (1 John 2:16). Hebrews 2:18 and 4:15-16 give at least part of the reason why Jesus had to go through this experience.

<sup>g</sup> “Resist the devil and he will flee from you” (James 4:7), but he is in the business of returning and renewing the attack—constant vigilance is required.

<sup>i</sup> Perhaps 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “to heal the brokenhearted” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> Jesus interrupted the reading of Isaiah 61:2 at a comma—‘the great parenthesis’. The part that He read pertained to His first coming, but “the day of vengeance of our God” pertains to His second coming—the ‘parenthesis’ is closing in on 2,000 years.

gan by saying to them, “Today, this Scripture in your ears has been fulfilled.”<sup>22</sup>(All were bearing witness to Him and were marveling at the gracious words that were coming out of His mouth;<sup>a</sup> and they started saying, “Isn’t this the son of Joseph?”) <sup>23</sup>He said to them: “Doubtless you will quote this parable to me: ‘Physician, heal yourself!’—do here in your hometown the things we have heard were done in Capernaum.”

Jesus treads on their toes

<sup>24</sup>Then He said: “Assuredly I say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown. <sup>25</sup>Further, I can assure you that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut for three years and six months and a severe famine came over all the land; <sup>26</sup>yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow woman in Sarepta, near Sidon. <sup>27</sup>And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, yet not one of them was cleansed—just Naaman the Syrian.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup> He doubtless spoke for a reasonable length of time and was producing a favorable impression, but at the end He got offensive; verses 23-27 presumably contain the conclusion of His discourse.

<sup>b</sup> It appears that Jesus antagonized them on purpose. Why? I see two possible answers: to remove any claim to special privilege that they might harbor because of being His home town; to be personally free from possible pressure arising from such a claim. In fact He moved out, choosing Capernaum as His base of operations.

<sup>e</sup> “Passing through the middle of them, He went on His way”—now how did that happen? To throw Him down, someone would have to be holding Him, probably a man on each arm, and they had gotten Him there by force, and He was surrounded. Obviously the Lord made use of supernatural power to free Himself from that situation—He had come to this world to die, all right, but not then and not in that way.

<sup>f</sup> After an episode like that, Jesus would not want to keep on living there. I take it that He moved all His effects to Capernaum; its locale was far more strategic for His ongoing ministry. James would take over as head of the household in Natsareth.

<sup>g</sup> Evidently the Lord’s mere presence was enough to make the demons feel threatened. Based on John 14:12, I wonder if the same thing should not be true of us.

the unclean spirits, and they come out!” <sup>37</sup>And the news about Him started going out to every place of the surrounding region.

Peter's mother-in-law

Healings at sunset

<sup>42</sup>Now at daybreak He departed and went to a deserted place; so the crowds started looking for Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them. <sup>43</sup>But He said to them, “I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God to the other towns also, because for this purpose I have been sent.” <sup>44</sup>So He went preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.<sup>e</sup>

By the sea

5 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened, as He had come along the Lake of Genesaret, that the multitude crowded Him to hear the Word of God; <sup>2</sup>He saw two boats standing by the lake (the fishermen were out of them, washing their nets). <sup>3</sup>So He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land.<sup>f</sup> Sitting down He began to teach the crowds from the boat.

A miraculous catch

<sup>4</sup>When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.” <sup>5</sup>And in answer Simon said to Him, “Master, we have worked hard the whole night and caught nothing, but based on your <sup>a</sup> Normally a high fever leaves one weak, so the Lord reversed the consequences of the fever as well. I take it that Matthew 8:14-15 records a different occasion (see “Peter's mother-in-law” in the Appendix). Just because God heals you once does not mean you will not get sick again.

<sup>b</sup> On this occasion Jesus placed a hand on each one, but that would not always be the case. It would appear that He deliberately used a variety of procedures to heal.

<sup>d</sup> I find this to be curious: the demons kept telling the truth about Jesus, but He evidently did not want testimony from that quarter. But it seems that the demons felt compelled to identify Him—I wonder why.

<sup>e</sup> Around 4% of the Greek manuscripts read Judea rather than Galilee, possibly influenced by Lectionaries. There is confusion among the 4% such that the prepositional phrase as given in UBS is read by less than 1%. However, Jesus was in Galilee (and continued there), not in Judea, as the context makes clear. In the parallel passage, Mark 1:35-39, all texts agree that Jesus was in Galilee. Thus UBS<sup>3</sup> contradicts itself by reading Judea in Luke 4:44. Bruce Metzger makes clear that the UBS editors did this on purpose when he explains that their reading “is obviously the more difficult, and copyists have corrected it...in accord with the parallels in Mt 4.23 and Mk 1.39.” Thus the UBS editors introduce a contradiction into their text which is also an error of fact. This error in the eclectic text is reproduced by LB, NIV, NASB, NEB, RSV, etc. NRSV adds insult to injury: “So he continued proclaiming the message in the synagogues of Judea.”

word I will let down the net.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>When they had done this, they caught such a large number of fish that their net began to tear. <sup>7</sup>So they signaled to their partners who were in the other boat to come help them; they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>Upon experiencing this Simon Peter fell at Jesus’ knees,<sup>b</sup> saying, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>Because astonishment gripped him and all who were with him at the haul of fish which they had caught; <sup>10</sup>yes, this included James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” <sup>11</sup>Pulling the boats up on the shore, they left it all<sup>d</sup> and followed Him.

A leper—the proof

<sup>12</sup>Now it happened, while He was in one of the towns—a man full of leprosy! Upon seeing Jesus he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, “Lord, if you want to, you can cleanse me!” <sup>13</sup>So He extended His hand and touched him, saying, “I want to; be cleansed!”<sup>e</sup> Immediately the leprosy left him. <sup>14</sup>Then He ordered him to tell no one, “But go and show yourself to the priest and make an offering for your cleansing just as Moses prescribed, as a testimony to them.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>15</sup>However the news about Him spread all the more, and large crowds kept gathering to hear and to be healed by Him of their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup>So He Himself would withdraw into deserted places and pray.<sup>g</sup>

An examining council—the evaluation

<sup>17</sup>Now it happened on a certain day that He was teaching, and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law, who had come from every village of Galilee, and from Judea and Jerusalem, sitting there—and the power of the Lord was there to heal them.<sup>h</sup>

“Your sins are forgiven”

<sup>18</sup>And then, some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a cot, and tried to take him in and place him before Him. <sup>19</sup>When they could not find how to do it,

<sup>a</sup> Peter was the professional here, and figured he knew better than Jesus, but he does obey. However, Jesus had said to let down ‘nets’ (pl), but Peter let down only one. 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read ‘nets’, to be followed by most modern versions. (Actually, Jesus put ‘let down’ in the plural, so there was at least one other in the boat, unless it was really His intention that both boats should go out.)

<sup>f</sup> As a testimony about what? This would be the first time in the life of the priest that anyone had done this, because lepers did not get better. Who but the Messiah could heal leprosy? That they got the point is indicated by the examining council that is described in verse 17 below.

<sup>h</sup> The eclectic text currently in vogue makes a mess of this statement by changing ‘them’ to ‘him’, following about 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality. ‘Him’ is in the accusative case, as is ‘them’, and is thus the direct object of the verb ‘to heal’. The modern versions that follow the 1% render ‘present with Him to heal’, or some such thing, which the text does not say.

because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him with the cot through the tiling into the center, in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Seeing their faith He said to him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you!”<sup>a</sup>

A ‘discussion’ ensues

God is glorified

<sup>25</sup>Immediately he stood up in front of them, took up what he had been lying on, and set out to his own house glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>Amazement gripped them all and they kept glorifying God; they were also filled with fear, saying, “We have seen strange things today!”<sup>e</sup>

Enter Levi (Matthew)

<sup>27</sup>After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office; and He said to him, “Follow me!” <sup>28</sup>So leaving everything he got up and followed Him.<sup>f</sup> <sup>29</sup>Then Levi made a great banquet for Him at his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them.

The Pharisees have a problem

<sup>30</sup>Well the scribes and Pharisees complained about them to His disciples, saying, “How can you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?!” <sup>31</sup>So Jesus reacted and said to them: “Those who are healthy have no need of a physician, just those who are sick. <sup>32</sup>I have not come to call righteous people to repentance, just sinners.”

<sup>33</sup>Then they said to Him, “Why do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but yours keep eating and drinking?” <sup>34</sup>So He said to them: “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup>But days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; then, in those days, they will fast.”

<sup>c</sup> “Your sins are forgiven” is easier to say, because no one can see if it happened or not. If you say, “Get up and walk!” and he does not, it makes you look stupid.

<sup>d</sup> That is what the Text says, “the Son of the Man”, which appears to be a phrase coined by the Lord Jesus to refer to Himself; the phrase does not make very good sense in English, at first glance, but if “the man” refers to pristine Adam and “the son” to an only pristine descendent, it makes great sense. It seems to indicate a perfect human prototype, like Adam was before the fall—the human side of the God-man.

<sup>e</sup> Their initial reaction was favorable, but then Jesus went and ate with tax collectors, and that was too much for them.

<sup>f</sup> Wow! Evidently he really did, turning his responsibilities over to his colleagues. Because tax collectors were ostracized by the people, they probably wanted to join the crowds following Jesus, but felt excluded. So a direct invitation to Matthew was all he wanted.

New wine X old wineskins

Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath

6 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened on a second-first<sup>b</sup> Sabbath that He was passing through the grain fields, and His disciples began to pick and eat the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said to them,<sup>c</sup> “Why are you doing that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?” <sup>3</sup>So in answer to them Jesus said: “Have you not even read this, what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and even gave it to those with him—that which only the priests are allowed to eat?” <sup>5</sup>Then He said to them, “The Son of the Man is Lord even of the Sabbath!”<sup>d</sup>

He heals on the Sabbath

<sup>6</sup>Now it happened on a different Sabbath that He entered the synagogue and began to teach. Well there was a man there whose right hand was shriveled; <sup>7</sup>so the scribes and the Pharisees started watching, to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against Him. <sup>8</sup>But He knew their thoughts and said to the man with the shriveled hand, “Get up and stand in the center.” So he got up and stood. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them: “I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?”<sup>e</sup> <sup>10</sup>And when He had looked around at them all, He said to him, “Stretch out your hand!” So he did that, and his hand was restored, as sound as the other.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says. No doubt everyone at that time knew just what was intended, but in the meantime we have lost the necessary cultural information. Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “second-first”, to be followed by most modern versions.

<sup>d</sup> Now that was something that they were not prepared to assimilate. They used the Sabbath as an instrument to dominate the people, and Jesus was threatening to deprive them of that instrument. Mark 2:27 preserves an added comment: “The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath”. Man needs one day of rest in seven, but it is not intended as a ‘straitjacket’. See Romans 14:5.

<sup>e</sup> Instead of “to kill”, perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘to destroy’, as in almost all versions, since both the TR and the eclectic text follow the 10%.

<sup>f</sup> Perhaps 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “as sound as the other” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>11</sup>But they were filled with rage,<sup>a</sup> and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Choosing the Twelve

A sermon on a level place<sup>e</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Then He came down with them and stood on a level place, with a crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, also from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, <sup>18</sup>as well as those who were being harassed by unclean spirits—and they were being healed! <sup>19</sup>So the whole crowd kept trying to touch Him, because power was going out from Him and was healing all.<sup>f</sup>

Blessings

<sup>20</sup>Then He raised His eyes toward His disciples and said:

“Blessed are you poor,
because the Kingdom of God is yours.<sup>g</sup>

because you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now, because you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup>Blessed are you whenever men hate you, and whenever they exclude you and heap insults on you and trash your name as ‘malignant’,<sup>h</sup> for the Son of the Man’s sake.

<sup>a</sup> Filled by whom, or what? Only someone controlled by Satan could become furious over a good deed like that.

<sup>b</sup> Presumably He was making sure that He made the correct selection of twelve, taken from a larger group of followers. He certainly knew why He was including the Iscariot.

<sup>d</sup> Note the ‘became’—Judas was doubtless just as sincere as the others when he joined up, and won everyone’s confidence to the extent that he was made treasurer. It was only toward the end that he ‘became’ a traitor.

<sup>g</sup> Note that Jesus said this to His disciples, so these blessings may not be claimed by anyone else.

<sup>h</sup> As someone has said, ‘A man is known by his enemies’. Well, how can a true follower of Jesus, surrounded by a culture dominated by Satan, remain without enemies?

Woes

- <sup>24</sup>“But woe to you who are rich!
because you have already received your comfort.
<sup>25</sup>Woe to you who are full!
because you will go hungry.
Woe to you who are presently laughing!
because you will mourn and weep.
<sup>26</sup>Woe, when all men speak well of you;
for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets!

Instructions

<sup>29</sup>To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other;<sup>d</sup> and from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold the tunic as well. <sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks of you;<sup>e</sup> and from him who takes away your things, do not demand them back. <sup>31</sup>Yes, like you want people to treat you, that is just how you must treat them.<sup>f</sup> <sup>32</sup>Also, if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>And if you do good to those doing good to you, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ do the same. <sup>34</sup>And if you lend to those from whom you expect to get it back, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ lend to ‘sinners’, to receive an equal value back.

Be compassionate

<sup>35</sup>“So, love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High;<sup>g</sup> because He is kind toward the ungrateful and wicked. <sup>36</sup>So be compassionate, even as your Father is compassionate.<sup>h</sup>

We get what we give

<sup>37</sup>“Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup>Give and it will be given to you: a good measure—pressed down and shaken together and running over—will

<sup>c</sup> People who do these things are being used by Satan; they need to be delivered, and this is done in the spiritual realm.

<sup>d</sup> Do not use physical violence to respond to physical violence—but we can use our spiritual authority. Animals must resort to force, but Adam was given dominion over the animals, which presumably was not exercised with physical force—we should not lower ourselves to the animal level; but Satan tries to trick us into doing so. If someone lashes out in anger, turning the other cheek should shame him.

<sup>e</sup> Presumably this does not refer to professional beggars (2 Thessalonians 3:10), but to someone overtaken by adversity who needs temporary help, someone you know who is part of the community.

<sup>g</sup> I take the point to be that the behavior described indicates that the person already is a ‘son’ of the Most High. As it says in Ephesians 2:8-10, we do good works because we are saved, not in order to become so.

<sup>h</sup> Only if you have the Holy Spirit can you even come close to following the Father’s example. See Matthew 5:48.

they deposit in your lap.<sup>a</sup> Because with the same measure that you use it will be measured back to you.”

Two foundations

The faith of a centurion

7 <sup>1</sup>Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. <sup>2</sup>Well a certain centurion’s slave, who was valuable to him, was sick and about to die. <sup>3</sup>So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, asking Him to come and rescue his slave. <sup>4</sup>And when they came to Jesus they started pleading earnestly with Him, saying that the one for whom

<sup>f</sup> Perhaps 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read “because it was built well”, instead of “because it was founded on the bedrock” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). If the bedrock refers to the Lord Jesus and His teaching, then this alteration is bad.

<sup>g</sup> Notice the change in tense: ‘hears and does’ changes to ‘heard and did nothing’. The second person heard the Truth, but rejected it, and so is without excuse.

He would do this was worthy, <sup>5</sup>“Because he loves our nation, and he himself built our synagogue.” <sup>6</sup>So Jesus went with them.

But when He was no longer far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him: “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy that you should come under my roof. <sup>7</sup>In fact I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you.<sup>a</sup> Just say a word and my servant will be healed; <sup>8</sup>because I also am a man placed under authority,<sup>b</sup> having soldiers under me. I say to one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does.”

<sup>9</sup>Well upon hearing these things Jesus marveled at him, and turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>10</sup>When those who were sent returned to the house they found that the slave who had been sick was well.

A widow's son raised

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened on the next day that He went to a town called Nain, and many of His disciples went with Him, also a large crowd. <sup>12</sup>But as He approached the town gate, mercy, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; a large crowd from the town was with her. <sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her He had compassion on her<sup>d</sup> and said to her, “Don’t cry!” <sup>14</sup>And advancing He took hold of the bier<sup>e</sup> and the bearers stood still. Then He said, “Young man, to you I say, get up!”<sup>f</sup> <sup>15</sup>So the dead man sat up and began to talk! Yes, He gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Fear took hold of all, and they began glorifying God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and, “God has visited His people!” <sup>17</sup>And this report about Him went throughout Judea, as well as all the surrounding region.<sup>g</sup>

Messengers from John

<sup>18</sup>Then the disciples of John informed him about all these things. <sup>19</sup>And summoning a certain two of his disciples, John sent them to Jesus, saying, “Are you the Coming One, or should we look for another?”<sup>h</sup> <sup>20</sup>When the men had come to Him, they said: “John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, ‘Are you the Coming One, or should we look for another?’” <sup>21</sup>Well in that very hour He healed many from diseases and torments and malignant spirits, and to many blind He granted sight. <sup>22</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “Go and report to John the things you

<sup>a</sup> This event is not the same as that recorded in Matthew 8:5-13. For a discussion please see the Appendix: “Did the centurion leave his house?”.

<sup>b</sup> He was part of a chain of command, with people both above and beneath him. Whereas he had military authority, he understood that Jesus had spiritual authority—all He had to do was speak. So how about us?

<sup>c</sup> If Jesus were physically present here today, He could say the same thing about almost all churches.

<sup>e</sup> The “bier” was not a casket, it was a type of platform, with the body lying on top. When Jesus commanded him to get up, he did so without difficulty.

<sup>f</sup> Jesus was always specific when He brought someone back from the dead, so as not to empty the graveyard.

<sup>g</sup> Nain is in Galilee, but besides the surrounding region the report of this particular miracle made it to Judea as well.

<sup>h</sup> John was puzzled and disillusioned. If Jesus was the Messiah, why was he, John, in prison? Why didn’t Jesus set up His Kingdom and deliver John? Everyone was looking for the Messianic Kingdom to be set up forthwith (see 19:11).

have seen and heard: that the blind regain sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, dead are raised, the poor are evangelized.<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>And, blessed is he who does not take offense at me!”<sup>b</sup>

Jesus praises John

<sup>24</sup>Now when John’s messengers had departed, He began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to observe, a reed being shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see, a man clothed in soft garments? Really, those with gorgeous apparel and living in luxury are in palaces. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see, a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he about whom it is written:

‘Take note, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.’<sup>c</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Further, I tell you that among those born of women there is no greater prophet<sup>d</sup> than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he.”<sup>e</sup>

Inconsistency of the Pharisees

<sup>31</sup>“To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and to what are they similar? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying,

‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance;
we mourned to you, and you did not cry.’

A lesson in forgiveness

<sup>36</sup>Then one of the Pharisees invited Him to eat with him,<sup>h</sup> so He entered the Pharisee’s house and reclined. <sup>37</sup>But then, a woman in the town who was a sinner, when she found out that He was reclining in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an

---

<sup>a</sup> “The poor are evangelized”—what the poor (and everyone else) need most is salvation and a new life, not a free distribution of wealth.

<sup>b</sup> Jesus was not meeting John’s expectations, and the same thing happens to us, from time to time, but we had better keep the proper perspective.

alabaster flask of perfume, <sup>38</sup>and as she stood behind Him at His feet weeping,<sup>a</sup> she began to wet His feet with her tears and kept wiping them with the hair of her head; and she kept kissing His feet<sup>b</sup> and anointing them with the perfume.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>39</sup>Now as the Pharisee who had invited Him observed this, he was saying to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him, including what sort of woman she is—because she is a sinner!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>40</sup>So Jesus reacted by saying to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he said, “Teacher, say on.” <sup>41</sup>“A certain creditor had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup>And when they had no way to repay, he freely forgave them both. Now tell me, which of them will love him more?” <sup>43</sup>So Simon answered and said, “I suppose the one to whom he forgave more.” And He said to him, “You have judged correctly.”

<sup>44</sup>Then He turned toward the woman and said to Simon: “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. <sup>45</sup>You gave me no kiss, but she has not stopped kissing my feet since the time I came in. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfume. <sup>47</sup>For this reason, I say to you, her many sins have been forgiven, because she loved much; but to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.”

<sup>48</sup>Then He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” <sup>49</sup>The other recliners began to say within themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” <sup>50</sup>Then He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go into peace.”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus takes the offensive

Women provide for Jesus

8 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened after this that He started going around town by town, village by village, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God, and the twelve were with Him; <sup>2</sup>also certain women who had been healed of malignant spirits and infirmities: Mary (the one called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had gone out; <sup>3</sup>and Joanna the wife of Chuza, an official of Herod; and Susanna, and many others—these were providing for Him<sup>f</sup> from their substance.

Parable of the soils

<sup>a</sup> He was reclining on a ‘couch’ with His head in toward the table, so His feet were ‘available’.

<sup>b</sup> To do all of this she would have to be kneeling. She started by standing, and probably waited a minute to see if anyone would object.

<sup>c</sup> This is a moving picture. She was ashamed and distressed, because of what she was, but she desperately wanted to change, and she saw in Jesus the way out.

<sup>f</sup> The Greek manuscripts are divided between ‘him’ and ‘them’ (I follow the best line of transmission), which in practice would amount to the same thing—since He would not eat alone, any providing would have to include the twelve.

the thorns choked it. <sup>8</sup>The rest fell into the good ground, and growing up it produced fruit a hundredfold.” Upon saying these things He called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

<sup>9</sup>Then His disciples asked Him saying, “What does this parable mean?” <sup>10</sup>So He said: “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest only in parables, so that ‘seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’<sup>a</sup>

The parable of the soils explained

All will be exposed

<sup>16</sup>Upon saying these things He called out: “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!<sup>d</sup> No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but he sets it on a lamp stand, so that those who come in may see the light. <sup>17</sup>Further, there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything concealed that will not be made known and come into the open. <sup>18</sup>So be careful how you hear:<sup>e</sup> Because whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”

Relationships redefined

<sup>19</sup>Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and they could not get near Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>And it was told Him by some saying, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you.” <sup>21</sup>But in answer He said to them, “My mother and my brothers are these, the ones who hear the word of God and do it!”<sup>f</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> See Isaiah 6:9. The Lord plainly states that He used parables so that people would not understand. It follows that doctrine should never be based on a parable—however, if the parable is explained, the explanation may be used.

<sup>d</sup> Most (if not all) versions omit “Upon saying these things He called out: He who has ears to hear let him hear!” following 45% of the Greek manuscripts. I follow the best line of transmission, which is part of the 55% here. Jesus was calling attention to what He was about to say.

<sup>e</sup> Spiritual growth is like going up an incline on a bicycle with no brakes; if you stop pedaling, you start going backwards. Either we grow, or we start losing what we have. There is no standing still. So be careful how you hear!

<sup>f</sup> Our primary commitment should be to Christ and His Kingdom, not to our physical family. There are times when the Kingdom ‘trumps’ family.

Jesus stills a storm

<sup>22</sup>Now it happened on one of those days that He got into a boat with His disciples; and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. <sup>23</sup>But as they sailed He fell asleep. A windstorm descended on the lake, and they were being swamped and were in jeopardy. <sup>24</sup>So they came and awakened Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" Then He got up and rebuked the wind and the waves of water—and they stopped, and there was a calm!<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>So He said to them, "Where is your faith?"<sup>b</sup> But being terrified they marveled, saying to each other: "Who can this be?<sup>c</sup> Because He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"

Jesus handles demon infestation

<sup>26</sup>Then they sailed to the district of the Gadarenes,<sup>d</sup> which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>Well when He stepped out on the land, a certain man of that town met Him, who had had demons for a long time—he wore no clothes, nor did he live in a house, but among the tombs. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus he gave a yell, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice he said: "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God?<sup>e</sup> I beg you, don't torment me!" <sup>29</sup>because He had commanded the unclean spirit to get out of the man (it had seized him many times—he would be bound with chains and shackles, being kept under guard; then bursting the bonds he would be driven by the demon into deserted places). <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"<sup>f</sup> And he said, "Legion" (because many demons had gone into him). <sup>31</sup>And he<sup>g</sup> kept imploring Him that He would not order them to go away into the Abyss.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Now a herd of many pigs was feeding there on the hillside; and they started begging Him that He would allow them to go into those; so He gave them permission. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons exited the man and entered the pigs—and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned!<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Agitated water does not calm down immediately, even if the cause stops, so there was a double miracle here—Jesus undid the consequences of the wind (1 John 3:8).

<sup>b</sup> In other words, He is telling them that they could, and should, have done something about it themselves. Had we been there, would we have done any better?

<sup>c</sup> This puzzles me; after all the miracles they had seen, they still wonder who Jesus is! Well, maybe controlling nature is in a 'higher league' than controlling sickness and demons. Still, what were the options: human, angel (good or bad), or God.

<sup>f</sup> I assume that Jesus knew the demon's name without asking, so why did He ask? I would say that He wanted it to be part of the Record, to teach us that demon infestation can and does occur.

<sup>i</sup> I very much doubt that the demons engineered that reaction; it would have been counterproductive, leaving them without a 'home'. Animals often show more good sense than do humans, and they may have preferred death to demons. (And I suppose it is possible that Jesus Himself commanded the action, since pork was proscribed for God's people.) Moreover, pigs can swim, so it is strange that all of them died.

pened, and came to Jesus; they found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.<sup>a</sup> <sup>36</sup>Also, the eyewitnesses reported to them how the demonized man was healed.
<sup>37</sup>Then the whole multitude from the surrounding region of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, because they were overcome by fear.<sup>b</sup> So He got into the boat and returned.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>38</sup>Now the man from whom the demons had gone out had started begging Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>"Return to your house and recount how much God has done for you." So he went his way and proclaimed all over town how much Jesus had done for him.<sup>d</sup>

A desperate father

<sup>40</sup>Now it happened, when Jesus returned, that the crowd welcomed Him, because they were all waiting for Him.<sup>e</sup> <sup>41</sup>And then, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; he fell down at Jesus' feet and started begging Him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup>because he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying.

A desperate woman

Now as He was going, the crowds were pressing against Him. <sup>43</sup>And a woman—suffering with a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent her whole livelihood on physicians, but could not be healed by any—<sup>44</sup>approaching from behind touched the border of His garment; and immediately the flow of her blood stopped! <sup>45</sup>So Jesus said, "Who touched me?"<sup>f</sup> When all denied it, Peter and those with him said: "Master, the people are pressing against you and crowding in, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"<sup>g</sup> <sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, because I noticed power going out from me." <sup>47</sup>Now when the woman saw that she could not hide, she came trembling, and falling down before Him she told Him in the presence of all the people<sup>h</sup> the reason why she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup>So He said: "Courage, daughter, your faith has healed you. Go into peace."<sup>i</sup>

Jesus raises a dead girl

<sup>49</sup>While He was still speaking, here came someone from the synagogue ruler's house, saying to him: "Your daughter has died. Don't bother the teacher." <sup>50</sup>But upon hearing it Jesus reacted by saying to him, "Don't be afraid; just believe and she will be healed." <sup>51</sup>When He arrived at the house, He allowed no one

<sup>i</sup> Again, 'into' not 'in'. Her life was now going to be different. For more detail, please see "A desperate woman" in the Appendix. Perhaps 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit "courage" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

to go in except Peter, John, James, the father of the child, and her mother. <sup>52</sup>Now all were weeping and mourning for her; but He said, “Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping.” <sup>53</sup>They started ridiculing Him, knowing that she had died. <sup>54</sup>So He put them all outside, and<sup>a</sup> grasping her hand He called, saying, “Child, arise!” <sup>55</sup>Then her spirit returned, and she got right up! And He directed that she be given something to eat.<sup>b</sup> <sup>56</sup>Her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.<sup>c</sup>

Jesus sends out the Twelve

9 <sup>1</sup>Then He called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons,<sup>d</sup> and to cure diseases; <sup>2</sup>and He sent them to proclaim the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>And He said to them: “Take nothing for the journey—neither staffs<sup>e</sup> nor knapsack nor bread nor money, neither have two tunics apiece. <sup>4</sup>Whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. <sup>5</sup>But as many as do not receive you, when you depart from that town, shake off even the dust from your feet as a testimony against them.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>So they set out and went around, village by village, evangelizing and healing everywhere.

Herod is troubled

<sup>7</sup>Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things being done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the ancient prophets had arisen. <sup>9</sup>But Herod said, “John I beheaded; so who is this about whom I hear such things?” And he started trying to see Him.<sup>g</sup>

Jesus feeds about 5,000 men

<sup>10</sup>When the Apostles returned they reported to Him all that they had done. Then He took them and withdrew privately to a deserted place belonging to a town called Bethsaida.<sup>h</sup> <sup>11</sup>But the crowds, being aware, followed Him. So He re-

<sup>e</sup> Perhaps 15% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘staffs’ as singular, to be followed by most modern versions. In Matthew 10:10 it is 5%. But to put the singular here and in Matthew contradicts Mark 6:8, where all texts have “only a staff”. In Luke and Matthew the vast majority of the Greek manuscripts read “neither staffs”, which does not contradict Mark—the case of the staffs is analogous to that of the tunics; they were to take only one, not several.

<sup>f</sup> We can do it too; I have. See Matthew 10:14-15, Mark 6:11 and Acts 13:51. In Matthew 11:23-24 Jesus Himself gives the example.

<sup>g</sup> But apparently he never succeeded until the very end, and even then only thanks to Pilate (Luke 23:6-12).

<sup>h</sup> Instead of “a deserted place belonging to a town called Bethsaida”, 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have “a town called Bethsaida” (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Problem: the eclectic text currently in vogue, along with the modern versions that follow it, has Jesus and company going into the town of Bethsaida, but in verse 12 the disciples say they are in a deserted area; thus a contradiction is introduced. The eclectic text here is also at variance with itself in the parallel passages. In Matthew 14:13 all texts have Jesus going to a deserted place, and in verse 15 the disciples say, “the place is deserted... send the crowd away to the towns.” In Mark 6:31-32 all texts have Him going to a deserted place, and in verse 35 the disciples say it is a deserted place, etc. So the ceived them and started speaking to them about the Kingdom of God, and He cured those who needed healing.

<sup>12</sup>Now when the day began to decline, the Twelve approached and said to Him, "Dismiss the crowd, so that they may go to the surrounding villages and their farms, lodge and find food; because we are in a deserted place here." <sup>13</sup>But He said to them, "You feed them!"<sup>a</sup> So they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd" <sup>14</sup>(there were about five thousand men).<sup>b</sup> But He said to His disciples, "Make them recline in groups of fifty!" <sup>15</sup>They did so, making them all recline. <sup>16</sup>Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven He blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>17</sup>So they all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of the pieces they left were taken up.<sup>c</sup>

Jesus ministers on the basis of His impending death

"You are the Christ!"

<sup>18</sup>Now it happened, as He was alone praying, that the disciples joined Him, and He questioned them, saying, "Who do the crowds say I am?" <sup>19</sup>In answer they said, "John the Baptizer, but others say 'Elijah,' while others that one of the ancient prophets has arisen." <sup>20</sup>Then He said to them, "But you, who do you say that I am?" In answer Peter said, "The Christ<sup>d</sup> of God!" <sup>21</sup>But He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup>saying, "The Son of the Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

eclectic text not only makes Luke contradict himself, but sets him against Matthew and Mark—and this on the basis of only half a percent of the manuscripts!

But there is more to the story. From the parallel accounts it appears that He embarked at Capernaum. From John 6:23 we learn that the destination was near Tiberias. Capernaum and Tiberias are both on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, but there is a large bay between them; so they went over several miles of water. The crowd was not about to let Jesus get away. Mark makes clear that they ran along the shore—the faster runners stayed even with the boat and were waiting on the shore when the boat put in. The others were spread out behind for several miles (like in a marathon) and kept arriving. Any late starters would see the stragglers and could easily follow the action. Apparently He immediately started to heal the sick and went on to teach (Matthew 14:14, Mark 6:34). But just where was it? John says it was near Tiberias, but Luke 9:10 says it was "a deserted place belonging to a town called Bethsaida". I assume that the place was indeed near Tiberias but did indeed belong to Bethsaida—either it had been deeded to the town somehow or the family that owned it was based in Bethsaida. Any near neighbors could not use it, so it was basically untouched—a great place for a picnic. After the feeding, Mark 6:45 says that "He made His disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida". So why did Jesus send the disciples to Bethsaida? Perhaps it was to give an accounting to the owner of the place where the multitude was fed—15,000 people can make quite a mess. (I suspect that Jesus had permission to use the place when He wanted to get away, but no one had foreseen such a crowd as that.) From Matthew and Mark I gather that from Bethsaida Jesus went directly to Genesaret, spending the minimum time necessary in Bethsaida.

<sup>a</sup> Please, with what?! The only way the disciples could have obeyed this command would be by a miracle similar to what Jesus proceeded to perform. But they were not up to it. Are we?

<sup>c</sup> The collecting was probably done by others, and in any case that leftover bread was used by others. (There was an interval of several months between verses 17 and 18 here. Matthew 15:1 - 16:12, Mark 7:1 - 8:26 and John 6:16-71 record some of what happened during that interval.)

To gain is to lose, to lose is to gain

<sup>23</sup>Then He said to everyone: "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross,<sup>a</sup> and follow me. <sup>24</sup>Because whoever desires to 'save' his life will waste it, but whoever 'wastes' his life for my sake, he will save it.<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>Further, what is a man profited if he gains the whole world, yet wastes or forfeits his very self? <sup>26</sup>Yes, whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of the Man will be ashamed of Him, whenever He comes in the glory—His, and the Father's, and of the holy angels.<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>However, I tell you truly: there are some standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the Kingdom of God!"

Peter, John and James see the 'Kingdom'

<sup>28</sup>Now about eight days after these words, it happened that He took along Peter and John and James and went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And as He prayed, the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing dazzling white. <sup>30</sup>And then, two men started talking with Him, who were Moses and Elijah; <sup>31</sup>they appeared in glory and were explaining His 'departure', that He was about to bring to fruition in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Now Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep; but becoming fully awake, they saw His glory, and the two men who stood with Him. <sup>33</sup>Then it happened: as they were parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus: "Master, it is good for us to be here" and "Should we make three shelters: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah?"<sup>e</sup>—not knowing what he was saying. <sup>34</sup>But as he was saying this a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they became afraid as they entered the cloud. <sup>35</sup>And a Voice<sup>f</sup> came out of the cloud, saying: "This is my beloved<sup>g</sup> Son. Listen to Him!" <sup>36</sup>When the Voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. (They kept quiet and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.)<sup>h</sup>

<sup>37</sup>Now it happened on the next day, when they came down from the mountain,<sup>i</sup> that a large crowd met Him. <sup>38</sup>And then, a man from the crowd called out, saying: "Teacher, I beg you, look upon my son, for he is my only begotten. <sup>39</sup>And oh, a spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams, and it convulses him with foaming, and it hardly departs from him, destroying him! <sup>40</sup>And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." <sup>41</sup>Then in answer Jesus said: "O unbelieving

---

<sup>a</sup> Some 13% of the Greek manuscripts add 'daily', as in most versions, but if you take it up, you have it. It sounds like being without a cross is not an option for those who follow Jesus.

<sup>b</sup> What the Lord is talking about is the potential one's life represents. The only way not to throw away or waste your life is to live for the Kingdom. See 1 Corinthians 3:11-15.

<sup>c</sup> Revelation 21:8 says that a coward does not enter the Kingdom. In Matthew 10:33 Jesus said that He will deny before the Father whoever denies Him before men. To cave in under pressure is definitely not to be recommended.

and perverse<sup>a</sup> generation, how long shall I be with you and put up with you (pl)? Bring your (sg) son here!”<sup>42</sup> But while he was still coming the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.<sup>43</sup> Everyone was amazed at the majesty<sup>b</sup> of God.

Jesus foretells His death, again

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples,<sup>44</sup> “Let these words sink into your ears, because the Son of the Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this saying; indeed it was concealed from them,<sup>d</sup> in order that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

He who is least will be great

<sup>46</sup> Then an argument started among them as to which of them would be the greatest. <sup>47</sup> So Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their heart, took a little child and had him stand beside Him, <sup>48</sup> and said to them: “Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me; and whoever receives me receives Him who sent me. Further, he who is least among all of you, he will be great.”

John changes the subject

<sup>49</sup> Then John reacted by saying, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us.” <sup>50</sup> So Jesus said to him, “Do not forbid, because he who is not against us is for us.”<sup>e</sup>

A Samaritan village

<sup>a</sup> Why “perverse”? To reject the truth and the evidence is to be perverse. This word was presumably directed to the disciples, who should have known better by now. So how about us—are we living on the basis of the truth and the evidence? Really?

<sup>f</sup> Why did Luke put “ascension” rather than ‘death’ or ‘resurrection’? I don’t know, but I find it interesting. Hebrews 12:2 says that He endured the cross because of the joy that was set before Him. The ascension represented the culmination of the program that the Son had to complete in order to get that joy.

<sup>h</sup> Some 27% of the Greek manuscripts omit “saying: ‘You do not know of what sort of spirit you are. Further, the Son of the Man did not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save’”, to be followed by most modern versions. The 73% includes the best line of transmission, which I follow.

<sup>57</sup>Now as they journeyed on the road, it happened that someone said to Him, "Lord,<sup>a</sup> I will follow you wherever you go." <sup>58</sup>So Jesus said to him, "The foxes have dens and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of the Man has no place to lay His head."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>59</sup>Then He said to another, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father." <sup>60</sup>Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>61</sup>And another also said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first allow me to bid farewell to those who are at my house."<sup>d</sup> <sup>62</sup>But Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to 'the plow' and looks back is suitable for the Kingdom of God."<sup>e</sup>

Jesus sends out the Seventy<sup>f</sup>

10 <sup>1</sup>Now after these things, the Lord appointed seventy<sup>g</sup> others also, and sent them two by two ahead of Him to every town and place where He Himself was about to go. <sup>2</sup>Then He said to them: "The harvest is indeed great, but the workers are few; therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send out workers into His harvest.

<sup>8</sup>"And into whatever town you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. <sup>9</sup>Heal the sick therein and say to them, 'The Kingdom of God has come near to you.' <sup>10</sup>But into whatever town you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say: <sup>11</sup>'Even the dust of your town that clings to us we wipe off against you. Nonetheless know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near to you.' <sup>12</sup>I say to you that it will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that town.

<sup>c</sup> Dear me, how unfeeling! Those who are not committed to Christ and His Kingdom are as good as dead, and a true disciple of Jesus must not allow himself to be held back by such. Of course such an attitude will not be understood by the 'dead', but the disciple needs to side with the Kingdom. What if that father had lived for another ten years? If you put off doing God's will for things like that, you may wind up never doing it.

<sup>d</sup> If you go back to say goodbye, they will cry and carry on and do all they can to make you change your mind.

<sup>h</sup> I assume that the Lord assigned a specific town to each pair, and they were instructed to get there as fast as they could.

<sup>i</sup> Now why would anyone think of moving around? Presumably they would be thinking of better food or more comfort. Such an attitude would certainly detract from the Message.

Jesus gives the example

<sup>13</sup>“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! Because if the mighty works that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum, who are ‘exalted to heaven’, will be brought down to Hades.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>16</sup>“He who listens to you listens to me, and he who rejects you rejects me;<sup>b</sup> but he who rejects me rejects Him who sent me!”

The Seventy return and report

<sup>d</sup> Instead of ‘am giving’, perhaps 2.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘have given’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.)—a serious error. Jesus said this perhaps five months before His death and resurrection, addressing the seventy (not just the twelve). The Lord is talking about the future, not the past; a future that includes us!

In a list of distinct activities Jesus has already referred to demons, so the ‘snakes’ must be something else. In Matthew 12:34 Jesus called the Pharisees a ‘brood of vipers’, and in 23:33, ‘snakes, brood of vipers’. In John 8:44, after they claimed God as their father, Jesus said, “You are of your father the devil”. And 1 John 3:10 makes clear that Satan has many other ‘sons’. In Revelation 20:2 we read: “He seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is a slanderer, even Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years.” If Satan is a snake, then his children are also snakes. So then, I take it that our ‘snakes’ are human beings who chose to serve Satan, who sold themselves to evil. I conclude that the ‘snakes’ in Luke 10:19 are the same as those in Mark 16:18, but what of the ‘scorpions’? Since they also are of the enemy, they may be demons, in which case the term may well include their offspring, the humanoids see my paper, “In the Days of Noah”, available from [prunch.org]. I am still working on the question of just how the removal is done.

<sup>f</sup> In Matthew 28:18 Sovereign Jesus affirms that He holds “all authority in heaven and on earth”, so He is clearly competent to delegate some of that authority to us. Now then, just how does “authority over all the power of the enemy” work, in practice? Authority controls power, but since we have access to God’s limitless power (Ephesians 3:20), we should not give Satan the satisfaction of our using his (and he could easily deceive us into doing things we shouldn’t). We should use our authority to forbid the use of Satan’s power, with reference to specific situations—in my experience, we must be specific. (I have tried binding Satan once for all until the end of the world, but it does not work; presumably because God’s plan calls for the enemy’s continued activity in this world. We can limit what the enemy does, but not put him completely out of business, or so I deem.) But just how should we go about it?

In the armor described in Ephesians 6 we find “the sword of the Spirit” (verse 17). A sword is a weapon for offense, although it is also used for defense. The Text tells us that this sword is “the ρημα of God”—ρημα, not λογος. It is God’s Word spoken, or applied. Really, what good is a sword left in its sheath? However marvelous our Sword may be (Hebrews 4:12), to produce effect it must come out of the scabbard. The Word needs to be spoken, or written—applied in a specific way.

may harm you. <sup>20</sup>However, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”<sup>a</sup>

Jesus worships His Father

<sup>21</sup>In that same hour Jesus exulted in His spirit<sup>b</sup> and said: “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to ‘infants’. Yes, Father, because it pleased you to do so.”

<sup>22</sup>And turning to the disciples He said:<sup>c</sup> “All things have been entrusted to me by my Father; also, no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and to whomever the Son may choose to reveal Him.” <sup>23</sup>Then turning to His disciples<sup>d</sup> privately He said: “Blessed are the eyes that are seeing the things that you see; <sup>24</sup>for I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you are seeing but did not, and to hear what you are hearing but did not.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>25</sup>And then, a certain lawyer stood up to test Him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” <sup>26</sup>So He said to him: “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” <sup>27</sup>In answer he said: “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind, and, your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>28</sup>So He said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this and you will live!” <sup>29</sup>But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”<sup>g</sup>

The good Samaritan

<sup>30</sup>By way of reply Jesus said: “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he ran into robbers, who after having stripped and wounded him, departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>Now by coincidence a certain priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>So

In the Bible we have many examples where people brought the power of God into action by speaking. Our world began with a creative word from God—spoken (Genesis, 1:3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 20, 24, 26; and see Hebrews 11:3). Moses did a lot of speaking. Elijah spoke (1 Kings 17:1, 18:36, 2 Kings 1:10). Elisha spoke (2 Kings 2:14, 21, 24; 4:16, 43; 6:19). Jesus did a great deal of speaking. Ananias spoke (Acts 9:17). Peter spoke (Acts 9:34, 40). Paul spoke (Acts 13:11; 14:3, 10; 16:18; 20:10; 28:8). In short, we need to speak!

<sup>b</sup> Most versions capitalize ‘Spirit’ and just over 3% of the Greek manuscripts state overtly, ‘the Holy Spirit’, but I take it that Jesus exulted in His own spirit.

<sup>c</sup> Some 10% of the Greek manuscripts omit “And turning to the disciples He said” (as in most versions), which confuses the quote. Jesus changes from addressing His Father to addressing the disciples. The clause is repeated at the beginning of verse 23, but ‘privately’ is added.

<sup>d</sup> Should we understand this as referring to the Twelve, or does it include the Seventy? I don’t know, but there were probably others as well who were following along.

<sup>e</sup> Yes indeed, the Twelve had a privilege not shared by anyone before or since, although ‘disciples’ may include more than the twelve.

<sup>f</sup> See Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18—to include the ‘neighbor’ he had to quote from a different book. Notice that Jesus agreed with him. If you check Deuteronomy 6:5, it mentions only three components of the person, while here in Luke 10:27 there are four. The explanation I give is that the third Hebrew word has such a broad semantic area that in Greek it was considered necessary to use two words to cover that semantic area.

too, a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked,<sup>a</sup> and passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan,<sup>b</sup> as he traveled, came by there, and upon seeing him was moved with compassion; <sup>34</sup>and going to him he bound up his wounds, applying oil and wine. Then he placed him on his own mount, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, ‘Take care of him; and should you spend more, I will repay you when I return.’ <sup>36</sup>So which of these three, would you say, was ‘neighbor’ to him who ran into the robbers?” <sup>37</sup>He said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” So Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise!”<sup>c</sup>

Martha and Mary

A model prayer

11 <sup>1</sup>Then it happened, when He finished praying in a certain place, that one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.” <sup>2</sup>So He said to them: “Whenever you pray, say:

Our Father who is in the heavens,
 your name must be revered.<sup>g</sup>
 Your Kingdom must come.
 Your will must be done on earth as it is in heaven.<sup>h</sup>
<sup>3</sup>Give us day by day our daily bread.
<sup>4</sup>Also, forgive us our sins, because we also forgive everyone indebted to us.
And, do not lead us into testing,<sup>i</sup> but deliver us from the malignant one.”<sup>j</sup>

---

<sup>h</sup> Why ‘must’? I take the point to be that we are not trying to overcome any reluctance on God’s part; we are declaring our personal commitment to these things. When I declare that God’s Kingdom must come, I am agreeing to whatever part I am supposed to have in bringing it about.

<sup>j</sup> Most modern versions, following a mere 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, seriously truncate this prayer by omitting: “Our ... who is in the heavens ... Your will must be done on earth as it is in heaven ... but deliver us from the malignant one.” Some versions, like NIV and NASB, <sup>5</sup>Then He said to them: “Who among you will have a friend and go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves, <sup>6</sup>because a friend has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him’; <sup>7</sup>and he will answer from within and say, ‘Don’t bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give to you?’ <sup>8</sup>I say to you, even if he will not get up and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

A request at midnight

<sup>9</sup>“So I say to you: ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup>Because everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>And which father among you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if<sup>b</sup> a fish, will he give him a snake instead of a fish? <sup>12</sup>Or if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give a holy spirit to those who ask Him!”<sup>c</sup>

A divided house

<sup>14</sup>Then He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. As a result, when the demon had gone out the mute spoke! And the crowds marveled. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, “It’s by Beelzebul,<sup>d</sup> the ruler of the demons, that he casts out demons.” <sup>16</sup>While others kept asking Him for a sign from heaven, testing.

<sup>17</sup>But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against itself falls. <sup>18</sup>So if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?—since you say I cast out demons by Beelzebul! <sup>19</sup>Further, if I am casting out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out?<sup>e</sup> Therefore they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup>But if I cast out demons by the finger of God, surely the Kingdom of God has come upon you.

have a footnote saying that “some manuscripts” add this material. How can any honest person use ‘some’ to refer to 99% (1,600 X 16)? ‘The malignant one’ refers to Satan.

<sup>b</sup> Just four known Greek manuscripts (0.2%), of objectively inferior quality, demonstrably so, omit “bread will give him a stone? Or if” (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> Instead of “a holy spirit”, all versions that I have seen have ‘the Holy Spirit’. But the Greek Text does not have the definite article, so my translation is grammatically possible. In the immediate context, as well as the larger context of the Bible, my translation seems to me to be the more probable. Do you know anyone who received the third Person of the Trinity just because he asked?

<sup>e</sup> I find this question to be intriguing. Jesus is evidently saying that their sons do indeed cast out demons. If the sons are using God’s power, they will censure their fathers for accusing Jesus falsely. If they are using Satan’s power, they will censure their fathers for the same reason.

<sup>f</sup> There is the definite article with ‘strong man’, and in the context it may be a veiled reference to Satan. In that event, Jesus is the ‘stronger’ one.

An empty house

True blessedness

<sup>27</sup>And then, as He was saying these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts that you sucked!” <sup>28</sup>But He said, “More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it!”<sup>d</sup>

Jonah is a sign

<sup>29</sup>Now as the crowds were increasing, He began to say: “This is a malignant generation. It keeps wanting a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>30</sup>Just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of the Man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup>The queen of the South will be raised up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and she will condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and indeed a greater than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and they will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.”<sup>e</sup>

Light inside the body

<sup>a</sup> Notice that the Sovereign does not allow for neutrality; either you are for Him, or against Him. Even what we do is not neutral; if we are not gathering, we are scattering. There is no third option.

<sup>b</sup> The Lord does not say why the spirit left. If it had been expelled by someone who knew how to send it to the Abyss, it could not come back.

<sup>c</sup> Although we certainly have the authority to expel demons from people, if the person we help does not then commit himself to Jesus, he remains an empty house, vulnerable to something worse. We need to deal fairly with people, explaining what is involved.

<sup>d</sup> Since the Text declares the Virgin Mary to be blessed, Jesus was not denying that blessedness. To hear and obey God’s Word is even more blessed. The basic meaning of the verb I translated ‘obey’ is to guard or protect. I wonder if there is a special blessing for those who defend God’s Word.

<sup>e</sup> Notice that Jesus declares Himself to be greater than Solomon and Jonah (a king and a prophet). Notice also that He declares the historicity of the book of Jonah.

<sup>f</sup> Of course we have two eyes, but the Text has “eye” in the singular. I take it that the reference is to the way we interpret what we see (which is our real ‘eye’)—two people, one pure and one vile, observing the same scene will give very different interpretations to it. ‘Malignant’ means aggressively evil. Someone with a malignant mind will give an evil interpretation to everything he sees, and in consequence his being will be filled with unrelenting darkness. See Titus 1:15.

<sup>37</sup>Now as He paused, a certain Pharisee invited Him to eat with him. So He went in and reclined. <sup>38</sup>But the Pharisee, noticing that He did not first wash before the meal, was critical.<sup>a</sup> <sup>39</sup>So the Lord said to him: “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but your inside is full of greed and malignancy. <sup>40</sup>Fools! Did not He who made the outside also make the inside? <sup>41</sup>Nevertheless, give what is possible as alms; then indeed all things are clean to you.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>42</sup>“But woe to you Pharisees! You tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you ignore justice and the love of God. These it was necessary to do, without leaving those undone. <sup>43</sup>Woe to you Pharisees! You love the best seat in the synagogues, and greetings in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!<sup>c</sup> You are like unperceived graves, that people walk on without knowing it.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>45</sup>Then one of the lawyers reacted and said to him, “Teacher, by saying these things you insult us also!” <sup>46</sup>So He said: “Woe to you lawyers also!<sup>e</sup> You load men down with burdens hard to carry, but you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe to you! You restore the tombs of the prophets, it being your fathers who killed them. <sup>48</sup>Thereby you witness to and approve of the deeds of your fathers;<sup>f</sup> because they indeed killed them, while you restore their tombs.<sup>g</sup> <sup>49</sup>Also, because of this ‘the wisdom of God’<sup>h</sup> said: ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,’ <sup>50</sup>so that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah,<sup>i</sup> who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation!<sup>j</sup> <sup>52</sup>Woe to you lawyers! You have taken away the key

---

<sup>a</sup> The leaders had already rejected Jesus and were planning to kill Him, so He knew this was not a friendly invitation. He accepted the invitation with the clear purpose to provoke a confrontation.

<sup>b</sup> At first glance this statement seems difficult, but because they were filled with greed, for them to give away as much as possible would represent a major change in their values. Zacchaeus offers a case in point: the Lord Himself declared that he was saved (Luke 19:8-9).

<sup>g</sup> The context suggests ‘restore’ rather than ‘build’, since those prophets had been dead for centuries; if a grave had not been adequately marked, there would be no way of knowing where to build.

<sup>h</sup> In 1 Corinthians 1:24 Paul refers to Christ as ‘the wisdom of God’. In Matthew 23:34 Jesus said, “I send you prophets,” so here Jesus may be referring to Himself as ‘the wisdom of God’.

<sup>i</sup> If the reference is to Zechariah the prophet, his death is not recorded in Scripture, but the temple was rebuilt in his day, so he could have died there.

of knowledge;<sup>a</sup> you yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering!”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>53</sup>Well when He had said these things to them,<sup>c</sup> the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge Him on vehemently and to cross-examine Him about many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in wait for Him, trying to catch Him in something He might say, so that they might accuse Him.<sup>d</sup>

Beware of hypocrisy

12 <sup>1</sup>Meanwhile, when a crowd of thousands<sup>e</sup> had converged, so that they were stepping on each other, He began to speak first to His disciples: “Guard yourselves from the ‘yeast’ of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>There is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. <sup>3</sup>Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in the ear behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.<sup>f</sup>

Don't fear assassins

<sup>4</sup>“Further, I say to you, my friends: do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have nothing more that they can do. <sup>5</sup>Rather, I will advise you whom you should fear—fear Him who after He kills has authority to cast into Gehenna;<sup>g</sup> yes indeed, fear Him! <sup>6</sup>Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins?<sup>h</sup> Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. <sup>7</sup>Even the hairs of your head are all numbered! So do not be afraid; you are more valuable than many sparrows!<sup>i</sup>

You confess Christ, He'll confess you

<sup>8</sup>“Also I say to you, whoever claims me before men, the Son of the Man will also claim him before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup>But whoever disclaims me before men will be disclaimed before the angels of God.<sup>j</sup> <sup>10</sup>Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of the Man, it can be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit it will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup>Now whenever they bring you before synagogues, rulers and authorities, do not worry about how or what you will answer,

<sup>a</sup> Hosea 4:6 reads, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge ... Because you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.” Notice the awful price paid by the children! Are today’s ‘doctors of the law’ not guilty of the same thing?

<sup>b</sup> They were really perverse. If they did not want to go in themselves, that was their choice; but to try to stop others was really perverse!

or what you should say. <sup>12</sup>Because the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you need to say.”<sup>a</sup>

Beware of materialism

<sup>13</sup>Then someone from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” <sup>14</sup>But He said to him, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter over you?” <sup>15</sup>Then He said to them, “Keep alert and guard against covetousness, because one’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.”<sup>b</sup>

Parable of a rich fool

<sup>16</sup>Then He told them a parable, saying: “The ground of a certain rich man produced well. <sup>17</sup>And he reasoned within himself saying, ‘What shall I do, because I have no place to store my crops?’ <sup>18</sup>Then he said: ‘This is what I will do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my produce and my goods. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul: Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and enjoy yourself!’ <sup>20</sup>But God said to him: ‘Stupid! This very night your life is being taken back from you;<sup>c</sup> then who will get the things you have prepared?’ <sup>21</sup>Just like that<sup>d</sup> is he who accumulates treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.”

The mentality of the Kingdom

<sup>22</sup>Then He said to His disciples: “Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup>Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. <sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storeroom nor barn, and God feeds them. You are far more valuable than the birds! <sup>25</sup>And who among you can add one cubit to his height by worrying? <sup>26</sup>So, since you cannot do even such a little thing, why worry about the rest?

<sup>27</sup>“Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; I say to you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of these. <sup>28</sup>So, since God so clothes the grass that today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into an oven, how much more you, O little-faiths! <sup>29</sup>Do not concentrate on what you may eat or what you may drink; do not be anxious. <sup>30</sup>All these things really occupy the nations of the world, and your Father knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup>Rather, concentrate on the Kingdom of God, and all these things will be provided for you.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>c</sup> ‘Taken back’—we have our life on loan, like a trust, and an accounting will be required.

<sup>35</sup>“Let your waists be belted and your lamps burning, <sup>36</sup>and you yourselves like men waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding celebration, so that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. <sup>37</sup>Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find watching when he comes. Assuredly I say to you that he will gird himself and have them recline, and will come and serve them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those slaves. <sup>39</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>40</sup>Therefore you also be ready, because the Son of the Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Then Peter said to Him, “Lord, are you directing this parable to us, or to everyone?”<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>So the Lord said: “Who then is the faithful and prudent steward whom his master will place over his household to give them the food allowance at the right time? <sup>43</sup>Blessed is that slave whom his master will find so doing when he comes. <sup>44</sup>I tell you truly that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.<sup>d</sup> <sup>45</sup>But if that servant should say in his heart, ‘My master won’t come for a while,’ and should begin to hit the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, <sup>46</sup>the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him, and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two and appoint his portion with the unbelievers.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>47</sup>“That servant who knew his master’s will, but neither got ready nor did according to that will, will be beaten with many blows. <sup>48</sup>But he who did not know, yet did things worthy of blows, will be beaten with few.<sup>f</sup> Everyone to whom much has been given, from him much will be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him much more will be asked.

Christ causes division

<sup>49</sup>“I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed! <sup>51</sup>Do you imagine that I came to provide peace on the earth? Not at all, I tell you, but rather division.<sup>g</sup> <sup>52</sup>Because from now on there will be five in one house divided: three against two and two against three. <sup>53</sup>Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother,

<sup>a</sup> He is doubtless in a very good mood, and for his servants to have stayed awake for hours when they wanted to be in bed, just so they could receive him when he came—he probably figures they need some refreshment.

<sup>b</sup> Everyone who has predicted a date so far has had to eat humble pie. But being ready all the time is a different matter. The trouble is, it’s hard to stay ‘ready’ all the time.

<sup>f</sup> Note that even sins done in ignorance are punished. However, the more one knows, the more severe the punishment.

<sup>g</sup> So why is He called the ‘Prince of Peace’? On several occasions, after healing someone, He said, “Go into peace” (not ‘in peace’). Jesus offers peace with God, but you must believe into Him in order to receive it.

mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”<sup>a</sup>

Discern the time

<sup>54</sup>Then He also said to the crowds: “Whenever you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, ‘A rainstorm is coming,’ and so it does. <sup>55</sup>And whenever a south wind blows, you say, ‘It will be hot,’ and it happens. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky and of the earth, so how can you not discern this time?<sup>b</sup> <sup>57</sup>Also why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right?<sup>c</sup>

Pay your debts on time

<sup>58</sup>“When you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort along the way to settle with him,<sup>d</sup> lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the bailiff, and the bailiff throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>I tell you, you will by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny.”

Repent or perish

13 <sup>1</sup>Now at that time there were some present who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “Do you suppose that those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup>Not at all, I tell you, but unless you repent you will all likewise perish! <sup>4</sup>Or those eighteen on whom the tower of Siloam fell and killed them; do you suppose they were worse offenders than all others living in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>Not at all, I tell you, but unless you repent you will all likewise perish!”<sup>e</sup>

Parable of a barren fig tree

<sup>6</sup>Then He told this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup>So he said to the gardener: ‘Look, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and have not found any. Cut it down; just why must it waste the soil?’ <sup>8</sup>But in answer he said to him, ‘Sir, let it be this year also, until I dig around it and apply fertilizer, <sup>9</sup>in case it produces fruit—but if not, then cut it down.”<sup>f</sup>

Jesus heals a woman bound by Satan

<sup>10</sup>Now as Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath, <sup>11</sup>He saw a woman there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years—she was bent over and could not straighten up. <sup>12</sup>So He called her over<sup>g</sup> and said to her,

<sup>e</sup> We never know when a tornado or earthquake may come our way; the best thing is to walk with God, and thus not have to fear a sudden exit.

<sup>f</sup> The Lord’s use of ‘three years’ is doubtless deliberate; He may well have been referring to His own ministry in Israel. In that event the owner would be the Father, and He Himself would be the gardener. The three years of public ministry He had already spent had not produced the desired fruit. I would say that our ‘gardener’, Jesus, often does the same thing for us—He gives us another chance.

“Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity!” <sup>13</sup>He placed His hands on her and immediately she was made straight and started glorifying God.

<sup>14</sup>But the ruler of the synagogue reacted with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and he said to the crowd, “There are six days in which one should work; therefore come and be healed on them, and not on the Sabbath.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>So the Lord answered him and said: “Hypocrites! Does not each one of you<sup>b</sup> on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to water? <sup>16</sup>So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan<sup>c</sup> kept bound during eighteen long years, be freed from this bond on the Sabbath day?” <sup>17</sup>When He said these things all His adversaries were put to shame, while all the crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things that were being done by Him.

<sup>18</sup>Then He said: “What is the Kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden; and it grew and became a sizable tree, and the birds of the air perched on its branches.”

<sup>20</sup>Again He said: “To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.”

The narrow gate

<sup>22</sup>He was traveling through various towns and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Then someone said to Him, “Lord, are the ones being saved few?” So He said to them: <sup>24</sup>“Exert yourselves to enter through the narrow gate, because many, I say to you, will try to enter and not manage it. <sup>25</sup>When once the master of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open to us!’ and in answer he will say to you, ‘I do not know you; where are you from?’ <sup>26</sup>then you will begin by saying, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.’ <sup>27</sup>But he will say: ‘I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>28</sup>“There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you yourselves being thrown out. <sup>29</sup>They will even come from the east, the west, the north and the south, and recline in the Kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>Yes indeed, there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last.”

<sup>a</sup> Of course the woman had not come to be healed; she came to worship God. It was the Lord’s initiative, so the ruler’s complaint was really directed at Him, which is why He reacted so emphatically.

<sup>b</sup> The pronoun being plural, the ruler was expressing the opinion of his colleagues as well, something that Jesus recognized in His answer.

<sup>31</sup>On that same day some Pharisees approached saying to Him, “Get out of here and go away, because Herod wants to kill you.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>He said to them: “Go tell that ‘fox’, ‘Take note, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third I will have finished.’” <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless I must keep going today and tomorrow and the day following, because it is not credible that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem!

Jesus laments over Jerusalem

<sup>34</sup>“Jerusalem, Jerusalem, she who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing! <sup>35</sup>So then, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you that you will definitely not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”<sup>b</sup>

Jesus heals a man with dropsy

14 <sup>1</sup>Then it happened, when He entered the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they were watching Him closely. <sup>2</sup>And then, there in front of Him was a man who had dropsy!<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>And Jesus reacted by saying to the lawyers and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” <sup>4</sup>But they kept silent. So He took hold of him, healed him, and let him go. <sup>5</sup>Then He addressed them saying, “Which of you, if a son<sup>d</sup> or an ox falls into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?” <sup>6</sup>And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

A lesson about humility

<sup>7</sup>Then He told a parable to those who were invited, having observed how they kept trying for the best places, saying to them: <sup>8</sup>“Whenever you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline in the place of honor, in case someone more honorable than you has been invited by him; <sup>9</sup>then he who invited you both will come and say, ‘You, give this man place!’ and then, with shame, you start to take the lowest place.” <sup>10</sup>Rather, whenever you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will have honor in the presence of your fellow guests. <sup>11</sup>Because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Then He said directly to His host: “Whenever you give a dinner or a supper, do not invite your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid. <sup>13</sup>But whenever you

<sup>a</sup> Those Pharisees may just have been trying to scare Jesus. The metaphor ‘fox’ was doubtless understood by His hearers, but we have since lost the relevant cultural information.

<sup>c</sup> It seems scarcely credible that such a person could have gotten in there by accident. The Pharisees were desperately looking for some way to accuse Him.

make a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; <sup>14</sup>and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you—you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”<sup>a</sup>

An unusual banquet

<sup>15</sup>Well when one of the fellow-recliners heard these things, he said to Him, “Blessed is he who will eat dinner<sup>b</sup> in the Kingdom of God!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>So He said to him: “A certain man prepared a great banquet and invited many. <sup>17</sup>And at meal time he sent his slave to say to those who were invited, ‘Come, because everything is now ready.’ <sup>18</sup>But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him: ‘I bought a field, and I need to go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.’ <sup>19</sup>Another said: ‘I bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.’ <sup>20</sup>Yet another said, ‘I have married a wife, and so I cannot come.’ <sup>21</sup>So that slave came and reported these things to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his slave, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.’ <sup>22</sup>And the slave said, ‘Master, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.’ <sup>23</sup>Then the master said to the slave: ‘Go out to the roads and hedges<sup>d</sup> and make people come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will get a taste of my banquet!’”<sup>e</sup>

Jesus ministers (mainly) in Perea

Jesus defines discipleship

<sup>25</sup>Now large crowds were traveling with Him, and turning He said to them: <sup>26</sup>“If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>And whoever does not carry his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup>“Further, which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and calculate the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup>This so he does not lay a foundation without being able to finish, and all who see it begin to ridicule him, <sup>30</sup>saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish!’ <sup>31</sup>“Or what king, going to engage another king in battle, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet the one coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>And if not, while the other is still far away he sends a delegation and asks for terms for peace. <sup>33</sup>“So likewise, any of you who does not renounce all his own possessions cannot be my disciple.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>34</sup>Salt is good; but should the salt become insipid, with what

<sup>d</sup> Hedges were used to delimit fields, and there would often be a path along the outside of the hedge. First the slave was sent into the city, then out to the countryside.

<sup>f</sup> Notice that three times Sovereign Jesus says, “cannot be my disciple”, and the ‘cannot’ is a strong negative. Jesus demands first place in our lives and hearts—above family, material things, our very selves. In verse 26, above, the verb ‘to hate’ is not an active hate; it is more like ‘to disregard’.

can it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup>It is fit for neither soil nor fertilizer; it is thrown out.<sup>a</sup> He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Parable of a lost sheep

15 <sup>1</sup>Then all the tax collectors and ‘sinners’ were getting close to Him to hear Him. <sup>2</sup>Well the Pharisees and the scribes started complaining, saying, “This man welcomes ‘sinners’ and eats with them.” <sup>3</sup>So He told them this parable, saying: <sup>4</sup>“What man among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not abandon the ninety-nine in the wild<sup>b</sup> and go after the lost one until he finds it? <sup>5</sup>And upon finding it he joyfully puts it on his shoulders. <sup>6</sup>And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost!’ <sup>7</sup>I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous ones who have no need of repentance.”<sup>c</sup>

Parable of a lost coin

<sup>8</sup>“Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup>And when she finds it, she calls together her friends and neighbors saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I lost!’ <sup>10</sup>Just so, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”<sup>d</sup>

Parable of a lost son

<sup>11</sup>Then He said: “A certain man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>And the younger one said to the father, ‘Father, give me the appropriate share of the estate.’ So he divided the property between them. <sup>13</sup>Not many days later the younger son, having converted it all,<sup>e</sup> journeyed to a distant country; and there he squandered his wealth living dissolutely. <sup>14</sup>But when he had spent it all, there was a severe famine throughout that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup>Then he went and attached himself to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.<sup>f</sup> <sup>16</sup>He would gladly have filled his stomach with the carob pods<sup>g</sup> that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.<sup>h</sup> <sup>17</sup>But when he came to himself he said: ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have an abundance of bread, while I am dying of hunger! <sup>18</sup>I will get up and go to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, <sup>19</sup>and I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired servants.’

<sup>a</sup> We followers of Christ are supposed to be ‘salt’ and ‘light’ in this world. To abdicate these functions is to become useless, and to be thrown out. ‘Neutrality’ is not a valid option.

<sup>b</sup> Notice that the 99 are left in the wild, not a sheepfold. So what happens if a wolf comes upon the 99 while the shepherd is off looking for the stray? I confess that I never liked this parable, for that reason.

<sup>c</sup> If God prefers sinners, what is the point of being righteous? I suppose the point to be that no one is so righteous that they need no repentance. Since we are all sinners, we all need to repent—and when we do so, God is happy.

<sup>e</sup> Evidently, he could not take buildings with him, or even herds. He probably sold everything for valuables he could carry. It may have been his father who bought it.

<sup>20</sup>“So he got up and went to his own father. But while he was still a good ways off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion—he ran and fell on his neck and kissed him! <sup>21</sup>Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his slaves: ‘Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup>And bring in and kill the fatted calf, and let us eat and celebrate; <sup>24</sup>because this son of mine was dead and came to life; he was lost and is found!’ So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup>“Now his older son was in the field; and as he came approaching the house he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. <sup>27</sup>He said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.’ <sup>28</sup>So he became angry and refused to go in. Then his father came out and began to plead with him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>But in answer he said to the father: ‘Just look at how many years I have been serving you without ever transgressing your commandment; yet you never gave me even a young goat that I might celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup>But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!’<sup>b</sup> <sup>31</sup>So he said to him: ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. <sup>32</sup>But it was right that we celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and came to life; he was lost and is found.’”

The illusory riches of the world VS the genuine riches of God<sup>c</sup>

Parable of a stupid steward

16 <sup>1</sup>Then He said further to His disciples: “There was a certain rich man who had a manager, who was accused to him of wasting his goods. <sup>2</sup>So he called him in and said to him: ‘What is this I hear about you? Render an account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be manager.’ <sup>3</sup>Then the manager said within himself: ‘What shall I do? My master is taking the management away from me. I do not have strength to dig; I am ashamed to beg <sup>4</sup>—I know what I will do, so that whenever I am removed from the management they may receive me into their houses.’<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>Summoning each one of his master’s debtors, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ <sup>6</sup>And he said, ‘A hundred baths of olive oil.’ So he said to him, ‘Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ <sup>7</sup>Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ And he said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ So he said to him, ‘Take your bill and write eighty.’ <sup>8</sup>The master

<sup>b</sup> The older brother’s attitude really wasn’t all that unreasonable. Why should the younger son be rewarded for his irresponsible conduct? The father was celebrating the recovery, not the irresponsibility. When the father said, “all that I have is yours”, it follows that the next day the younger brother had to go work like a hired servant. Actually, judging by the terms of the ‘party’, the father treated the younger son like an illustrious visitor—thus the best robe, a ring and the fatted calf. But ‘visitor’ could not be a permanent condition; the next day he went to work.

<sup>c</sup> I take it that all of chapter 16 is about contrasting the illusory riches of the world and the genuine riches of God. Thus, the chapter begins with a stupid steward, that illustrates the mentality of the world—it is good to be ‘smart’ and take advantage of others. Note that in the first verse Jesus addresses His disciples directly; they need to understand the difference between the two riches.

<sup>d</sup> Is this not stupid reasoning? Once he has lost his position, the others will have no reason to pay attention to him.

even ‘commended’ the dishonest manager, because he had acted shrewdly. The sons of this age are shrewder in their own generation than the sons of the Light.<sup>a</sup>

A bit of irony

<sup>9</sup>“I even say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous mammon, so that whenever you die, they may receive you into the eternal dwellings!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much, and he who is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>If therefore you have not been faithful with the illusory riches, who will commit to your trust the genuine?<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? <sup>13</sup>No servant can serve two masters; either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon!”<sup>e</sup>

The Law will not fail

<sup>14</sup>Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were also listening to all these things, and they were ridiculing Him. <sup>15</sup>So He said to them: “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. That which is exalted among men is an abomination before God.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>16</sup>The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the Kingdom of God is being proclaimed, and every one is trying to force his way into it.<sup>g</sup> <sup>17</sup>But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the Law to fail.

<sup>a</sup> According to the value system of the world it is ‘smart’ to take advantage of other people, but those who follow the Light must be different. Of course the master’s ‘commendation’ was sarcastic, since the dishonest manager still lost his job.

<sup>b</sup> The use of sarcasm is not rare in the Bible, and here the Lord is clearly being sarcastic: getting into the eternal dwellings does not depend on ‘buying’ friends down here; it depends on pleasing the Owner up there. And of course, the dishonest friends will not even be there!

<sup>c</sup> To be faithful and honest is a question of character, and does not depend on the size of the temptation. The ‘very little’ would be the monetary value and the ‘much’ would be the spiritual value.

<sup>d</sup> This verse was difficult to translate. How should we understand ‘the unjust riches’ (or ‘unrighteous mammon’), that would be the ‘normal’ rendering of the phrase? It is contrasted with true or genuine riches. Verse 13 ends by saying that it is impossible to serve God and mammon (that evidently refers to the values of this world, that are dominated by riches). So then, the illusory, or unjust, riches refer to the riches of this world. It happens that ‘the sons of the Light’ are obliged to live and make a living in a world dominated by Satan. Everything that Satan touches he dirties. We can and should work honestly in this world, but the money we receive is contaminated by sin (that of others, if not our own). The genuine riches are spiritual and have to do with God’s Kingdom. But to receive those riches we need to be ‘sons of the Light’, and we prove that we are such sons by living honestly in this world, even though it is dominated by Satan.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus continues to contrast the two riches. No one gets into the Kingdom on his own terms; God dictates the terms. That is what verse 17 means: the Law does not change.

<sup>h</sup> Verse 18 seems to be out of place, having nothing to do with the context, at least at first glance. But it is an item of the Law that does not change, and Jesus cited it as an example of what does not change. The statement is clear and plain, and it contradicts the relativism of our day.

<sup>19</sup>“Now there was a certain rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. <sup>20</sup>And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores, who had been placed at his gate, <sup>21</sup>just wanting to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man’s table—why even the dogs would come and lick his sores!<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup>In due time the beggar died and was carried away to Abraham’s bosom by the angels.

“The rich man also died and was buried.<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup>And in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham at a distance, and Lazarus very close to him. And being in torment, <sup>24</sup>he called out, saying, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; because I am tormented by this flame!’ <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said: ‘Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus had bad things; but now he<sup>d</sup> is being comforted, and you tormented. <sup>26</sup>And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can anyone from there cross over to us.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>27</sup>Then he said, ‘I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house, <sup>28</sup>because I have five brothers, so that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.’<sup>f</sup> <sup>29</sup>Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’ <sup>30</sup>So he said to him, ‘Oh no, father Abraham—if someone from the dead should go to them, they will repent!’ <sup>31</sup>He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone should rise from the dead.’”<sup>g</sup>

17 <sup>1</sup>Then He said to the disciples: “Things that cause people to fall are bound to come, but woe to him through whom they do come! <sup>2</sup>It would be better

<sup>c</sup> Note the contrast. Of course the beggar’s body had been buried, but the person was taken to Paradise. Here we have an explicit statement of angelic activity, which, however, is absent from the rich man.

<sup>e</sup> Several things in this account invite comment. Hades (Greek), or Sheol (Hebrew), is the ‘halfway house’ where departed spirits await the final judgment, but the results of that judgment are already known, since the saved are already separated from the lost. There is a chasm separating the two sides that cannot be crossed, but evidently one side can see and hear the other (the ‘dead’ are conscious and have feeling). People in prison who are waiting for their trial are already suffering. Strangely, the rich man still thinks he is more important than the beggar, since he wants the beggar to serve him—he still holds to the values that condemned him.

<sup>f</sup> I find it interesting that he was concerned for his brothers; we can’t say, “Better late than never”, since it made no difference.

<sup>g</sup> Abraham states a disquieting reality: people who reject God’s written revelation are self-condemned. Note also that Abraham did not say it would be impossible to send Lazarus, only that it would do no good. Recall that God sent Samuel back to deliver the death sentence to Saul (1 Samuel 28:12-19). But it is clear that the lost cannot return, or the rich man could have gone himself. The contrasting of the two riches ends here, with the eternal destiny of those who embrace them: whoever embraces the illusory riches of the world winds up in the Lake of fire; whoever embraces God’s genuine riches winds up in Heaven.

for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>Watch out for yourselves: if your brother sins against you,<sup>b</sup> rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup>Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in that day returns, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."<sup>c</sup>

Faith like a mustard seed has <sup>5</sup>The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." <sup>6</sup>So the Lord said: "If you had<sup>d</sup> faith like a mustard seed has,<sup>e</sup> you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

The thanks a slave gets

<sup>7</sup>"And which of you, having a slave plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he comes in from the field, 'Come at once and recline to eat'? <sup>8</sup>Will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat, and gird yourself and serve me until I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink'? <sup>9</sup>Does he thank that slave because he did the things commanded? I guess not!<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>So likewise you, whenever you have done everything you were told to do, say, 'We are unworthy slaves, because we have only done what we were supposed to.'"<sup>g</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Now as He was traveling toward Jerusalem, He went along between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>And as He entered a certain village, ten men met Him—being lepers they stood at a distance. <sup>13</sup>They called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" <sup>14</sup>And paying attention He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." It happened that as they went they were cleansed! <sup>15</sup>Well one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, glorifying God with a loud voice; <sup>16</sup>then he fell on his face at His feet, thanking Him—and he was a Samaritan! <sup>17</sup>So Jesus reacted by saying: "Were not all ten cleansed? So where are the nine? <sup>18</sup>None were found to return and give glory to God except this foreigner!" <sup>19</sup>Then He said to him, "Get up and go; your faith has made you well."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> What is worse than a horrible, premature physical death? Spiritual death. Whoever destroys the faith of a 'little one' is self-condemned. What about all the professors who make it their business to destroy the faith of their students? When Jesus said "these little ones", we may understand that they were physically present. We do not know if there were children there at that moment; it seems to me more likely that the reference is to people 'little' in faith, beginners (of whatever age).

<sup>e</sup> What kind of 'faith' might a mustard seed have? Albeit so small, it reacts without question to the climactic circumstances, and grows to remarkable proportions. Also, a seed must have the faith to 'die' (John 12:24). If we reacted similarly, without question, to the Holy Spirit's promptings, our spiritual 'climactic circumstances', we should indeed move mountains, literally.

<sup>h</sup> In all probability the priests would not have wanted to deal with a Samaritan, in any case, so the Lord just sends him on his way, relieving him of that duty.

The coming of the Kingdom

<sup>20</sup>Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said: "The Kingdom of God does not come by watching for it; <sup>21</sup>nor will they say, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' because indeed the Kingdom of God is to be within you."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Then He said to the disciples: "Days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of the Man, and you will not see it."<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>And they will say to you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Do not go along or follow. <sup>24</sup>Because just like the lightning that lights the whole sky when it flashes, so also will the Son of the Man be in His day. <sup>25</sup>But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup>Also, just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of the Man. <sup>27</sup>They were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup>Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building—<sup>29</sup>but on the day Lot went out from Sodom, fire and brimstone rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>Even so will it be in the day when the Son of the Man is revealed.

<sup>37</sup>They reacted by saying to Him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where there is a carcass, there will the vultures also be gathered."<sup>e</sup>

Parable of a persistent widow

18 <sup>1</sup>And then He told them a parable, the point being that one needs to always pray and not lose heart, <sup>2</sup>saying: "There was a judge in a certain town who did not fear God nor regard man. <sup>3</sup>But there was a widow in that town, and she kept coming to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' <sup>4</sup>And for a while he refused; but afterward he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God nor regard man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will defend her, so that her endless coming doesn't wear me out!'"

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said: "Hear what the unjust judge said. <sup>7</sup>And will not God get justice for His elect who are crying out to Him day and night, indeed being pa-

<sup>a</sup> They were probably thinking of the Messianic Kingdom, that will indeed have a concrete starting point, but the Lord does not give them that information. He does go on to say to the disciples that the onset will be sudden. In the meantime, the King's true subjects have the Kingdom in their hearts, which presumably did not include those Pharisees.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts have verse 36 (see Matthew 24:40): "Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left". I would say that this paragraph deals with the Rapture. In that event, Jesus is addressing those who are left behind, but who had expected to go. I believe that immediately after the Rapture the forces of evil will be unleashed to take complete control. Anyone who is going to refuse the 'mark' had better head for the hills.

tient with them? <sup>8</sup>I tell you that He will get justice for them quickly.<sup>a</sup> However, when the Son of the Man comes, will He actually find the faith on the earth?”<sup>b</sup>

Parable of a Pharisee and a publican

<sup>9</sup>Then He told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised the rest: <sup>10</sup>“Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and started praying to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like all the rest—robbers, unjust, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week; I tithe all that I get.’<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>The tax collector, staying a good ways off, did not even venture to look up to heaven, but started beating on his chest, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup>I say to you that this one went back home justified rather than that one; because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

You enter the Kingdom like a child does

<sup>15</sup>Then they even started bringing their babies to Him, that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus summoned them and said: “Allow the little children to come to me, and do not hinder them; because the Kingdom of God is of such. <sup>17</sup>I tell you assuredly, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God the way a little child does<sup>d</sup> will by no means enter it.”

An upright, rich ruler

Riches tend to keep people out of the Kingdom

<sup>e</sup> Jesus is not denying that He is good, but the man is not addressing Him as God. Had the man done so, there would have been no objection.

<sup>h</sup> The parallel passage in Mark (10:24) clarifies that it is those who trust in riches. How many rich people do you know who do not trust in their riches? (That clarification is omitted by less than half a per-to go through the eye of a needle<sup>a</sup> than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God!" <sup>26</sup>So the hearers said, "Who then can be saved?" <sup>27</sup>And He said, "The things that are impossible with men are possible with God."

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter said, "Notice that we have left all and followed you!" <sup>29</sup>So He said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>who will not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

<sup>31</sup>Then He took the Twelve aside and said to them: "Take note, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of the Man will be fulfilled: <sup>32</sup>He will be betrayed to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon, <sup>33</sup>and they will scourge and kill Him. And on the third day<sup>b</sup> He will rise again!" <sup>34</sup>But they understood none of these things; this saying was hidden from them,<sup>c</sup> and they did not know what was being said.

cent of the extant Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, as in the eclectic text currently in vogue.)

<sup>b</sup> Referring to the time between Jesus' death and resurrection, Luke (and Matthew and Mark) has '(on) the third day' (this occurs eleven times); but Mark also has 'after three days' (this occurs two times), while Matthew also has 'three days and three nights' (this occurs only once); John has 'in three days'. Due to these seeming differences, there are those who insist that Jesus died on Thursday, not Friday, or even on Wednesday. There is general agreement that the resurrection happened on Sunday. Both '(on) the third day' and 'in three days' allow for a Friday crucifixion, as the Church has generally understood. In John 20:26 we read, "after eight days" Jesus appeared to the disciples again, with Thomas present; this was the next Sunday, so only seven days had elapsed—Jews (and Brazilians) include the day at both ends. So 'after three days' also allows for a Friday crucifixion. I take it that 'three days and three nights' was an idiomatic expression synonymous with 'after three days'. So Jesus died on a Friday. See "How long was Jesus' body in the tomb?" in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Luke has Jesus approaching Jericho, while Matthew and Mark have Him leaving it. In Jesus' day there were two Jerichos, the old one that had been rebuilt, and a new one, about a kilometer away. What better place to beg than between the two towns? Jesus had left the old Jericho and was going toward the new one. For further discussion, please see the Appendix: "Entering or leaving Jericho?"

<sup>e</sup> That is correct, 'Natsorean', not Nazarene. The reference is to Isaiah 11:1—Jesus was the 'Branch-man', the Messiah, as the blind man clearly understood, since he addressed Him as 'Son of David'. For further discussion, please see the Appendix: "Prophets" in Matthew 2:23" and "The Natsorean".

<sup>f</sup> The man had not been born blind. Do you find it to be curious that Jesus asked him what he wanted? Was it not obvious? God knows what we need before we ask, but we must ask! So why does God do that? I would say that it is to oblige us to recognize our dependency.

him: “See again! Your faith has made you well.” <sup>43</sup>And immediately he did! and he followed Him, glorifying God. And all who witnessed it gave praise to God.

Zacchaeus

19 <sup>1</sup>He entered and started passing through Jericho.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>A man named Zacchaeus was there—he was a chief tax collector, and he was wealthy! <sup>3</sup>He was trying to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, because he was short. <sup>4</sup>And running on ahead he climbed up into a sycamore tree,<sup>b</sup> in order to see Him, since He was about to pass by there. <sup>5</sup>And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, because today I must stay at your house.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>So he came down quickly, and received Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup>But when they saw it, they all started complaining, saying, “He has entered to lodge with a sinful man!”

<sup>8</sup>Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Indeed, Lord, I herewith give half of my goods to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone, I restore fourfold.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>So Jesus said about him, “Today salvation has happened in this house,<sup>e</sup> in that he also is a son of Abraham; <sup>10</sup>because the Son of the Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

<sup>11</sup>Now as they heard these things, He continued with a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they were supposing that the Kingdom of God was on the verge of being revealed.<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>So He said: “A certain nobleman went to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and return. <sup>13</sup>He called ten of his slaves, gave them ten ‘minas’,<sup>g</sup> and said to them, ‘Conduct business until I come.’ <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’ <sup>15</sup>It happened that he did receive the kingdom, and upon returning he ordered that those slaves to whom he had given the money be called to him, to know who had gained what by trading. <sup>16</sup>So the first one came and said, ‘Master, your mina has become ten minas!’<sup>h</sup> <sup>17</sup>He said to him: ‘Super, you good slave! Because you were faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities!’ <sup>18</sup>And the second one came and said, ‘Master, your mina made five minas.’ <sup>19</sup>Likewise he said to him, ‘You also be over five cities.’ <sup>20</sup>Then a different one came, saying: ‘Master, here is your mina, that I kept laid away in a piece of cloth <sup>21</sup>—I feared you because you are a hard man, removing what you did not place, and reaping what you did not sow.’ <sup>22</sup>So he said to him: ‘I will judge you out of

<sup>h</sup> How long would it take to multiply an investment ten times? Probably quite a while! That the man had to go to a distant country strikes me as unusual, and after he got there he may not have received the kingdom right away. The parable clearly relates to our Lord’s absence and Return. We need to do the best we can with what He has given us.

your own mouth, you wicked slave! You knew that I am a hard man, removing what I did not place, and reaping what I did not sow. <sup>23</sup>Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, and upon coming I would have collected it with interest?" <sup>24</sup>And to those standing by he said, "Take the mina from him and give it to him who has the ten minas." <sup>25</sup>(They even said to him, 'Master, he already has ten minas!') <sup>26</sup>Indeed I tell you, to everyone who has, more will be given;<sup>a</sup> but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. <sup>27</sup>But as for those enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them in front of me!"<sup>b</sup>

The 'Triumphal Entry'

A steed for the King

<sup>32</sup>So those who were sent went and found it just like He told them. <sup>33</sup>As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup>So they said, "The Lord needs it."<sup>d</sup> <sup>35</sup>Then they brought it to Jesus; and throwing their own clothes on the colt, they placed Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup>And as He went along people were spreading their clothes on the road.

Rejoicing and praising

<sup>37</sup>Then, as He was approaching the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying:

"Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!<sup>e</sup> Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

A sour note

<sup>39</sup>Some of the Pharisees said to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!" <sup>40</sup>In answer He said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the very stones would cry out!"

Jesus weeps over Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup>Now as He approached, observing the city He wept over it, <sup>42</sup>saying: "If you, yes you, especially in this your day, had known the things pertaining to your

<sup>a</sup> There is a sense in which blessing is earned; the more you do, the more you get. In John 12:26 Sovereign Jesus said, "If anyone serves me, my Father will honor him." See 2 Chronicles 16:9.

<sup>b</sup> The man had accepted the description given by the third slave, and here he demonstrates that he really is a 'hard' man, but don't forget that he rewarded the faithful slaves. And don't forget Revelation 19:15!

<sup>c</sup> Some 44% of the Greek manuscripts have 'Bethphage' (as in most versions), but the 56% includes the best line of transmission, which I follow. In any case, it is a mere matter of spelling.

But now they are hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup>Yes, the days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment around you; indeed they will surround you and hem you in on every side. <sup>44</sup>And they will raze you, and your children within you, to the ground—they will not leave in you one stone upon another—all because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>45</sup>And upon entering the temple He began to drive out those who were selling and buying in it,<sup>b</sup> <sup>46</sup>saying to them, “It is written: ‘My house is a house of prayer,’<sup>c</sup> but you have made it a ‘den of robbers!’”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>47</sup>And He was teaching daily in the temple; but the chief priests and the scribes, as also the leaders of the people, were trying to destroy Him, <sup>48</sup>but could not figure out how to do it, because all the people were hanging on His words.

Jesus’ authority questioned

20 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened on one of those days, as He was teaching and evangelizing the people in the temple, that the priests<sup>e</sup> and scribes came to Him with the elders <sup>2</sup>and addressed Him, saying, “Tell us by what authority you are doing these things; or who is he who gave you this authority?” <sup>3</sup>But in answer He said to them: “I also will ask you one thing; yes, tell me: <sup>4</sup>the baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?” <sup>5</sup>So they reasoned among themselves, saying: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’ <sup>6</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.” <sup>7</sup>So they answered that they did not know where it was from. <sup>8</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”<sup>f</sup>

Parable of some perverse tenants

<sup>9</sup>Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to farmers, and went away on a long journey. <sup>10</sup>At the proper time he sent a slave to the farmers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers flogged him and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>11</sup>Again he sent a different slave; so they flogged him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup>And again he sent a third; but they wounded him also and threw him out. <sup>13</sup>Then the owner of the vineyard said: ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; hopefully they will respect him when they see him.’<sup>g</sup> <sup>14</sup>But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying: ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, so that the inheritance may become ours.’ <sup>15</sup>So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore will the owner of

---

<sup>f</sup> Well, of course, they knew that both John and Jesus were of God—they just did not want to repent and change their way of life.

<sup>g</sup> Presumably this would never occur in real life, but the Lord was aiming this directly at them, knowing what they would do to Him and what the Owner would do to them.

the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup>He will come and destroy those farmers and give the vineyard to others.” Having heard it they said, “May it never be!”

<sup>17</sup>Then He looked directly at them<sup>a</sup> and said: “What then is this that is written:

‘A stone that the builders rejected, the same became the cornerstone’?<sup>b</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it should fall—it will crush him!”<sup>c</sup>

To Caesar, Caesar’s; to God, God’s

<sup>20</sup>Keeping a close watch on Him, they sent spies, who pretended to be innocent, so that they might latch on to something He said, so as to hand Him over to the power and the authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup>So they questioned Him, saying: “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and you do not show favoritism but teach the way of God in truth.<sup>e</sup> <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>23</sup>But He perceived their craftiness and said to them: “Why are you testing me?<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>Show me a denarius—whose image and inscription does it have?” In answer they said, “Caesar’s.” <sup>25</sup>So He said to them, “Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” <sup>26</sup>They were unable to latch on to His word in front of the people; and marveling at His answer they kept silent.

<sup>27</sup>Then some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, approached and questioned Him, <sup>28</sup>saying: “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s married brother dies childless, then his brother should take the widow and produce offspring for his brother. <sup>29</sup>Now there were seven brothers: the first took a wife and died childless; <sup>30</sup>then the second took the widow and he died childless;<sup>g</sup> <sup>31</sup>then the third took her, in fact all seven in sequence—they all died childless. <sup>32</sup>Finally, last of all, the woman died also. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife will she be, since all seven had her?”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>34</sup>So in answer Jesus said to them: “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage; <sup>35</sup>but those who are considered worthy<sup>a</sup> to attain to that age, to the resurrection from among the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>Because they cannot die anymore,<sup>b</sup> being like angels—they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup>But that the dead are raised, Moses indeed revealed about the Bush when he recorded: ‘The LORD, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’<sup>c</sup> <sup>38</sup>So He is not the God of the dead, but of the living—to Him all are alive.” <sup>39</sup>Then some of the scribes answered and said, “Teacher, you spoke well.” <sup>40</sup>And they no longer dared to question Him further.

Is the Christ David’s Son?

‘The LORD said to my Lord: sit at my right hand

A lesson in giving

21 <sup>1</sup>Looking up He saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasure chest. <sup>2</sup>But He also saw a certain poor widow putting in two mites. <sup>3</sup>So He said: “I tell you truly that this poor widow put in more than all of them; <sup>4</sup>because all these others put in gifts for God out of their abundance, but she, out of her destitution, put in all she had to live on.”<sup>g</sup>

The temple will be destroyed

<sup>5</sup>Then, as some were admiring the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said, <sup>6</sup>“These things that you see—the days will come in which not one stone will be left upon another that will not be thrown down.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>f</sup> Presumably, when the man died the widow no longer had the means to clear any debt; so they would just take over the house and put the widow out in the street.

<sup>g</sup> It is a fact of life; people who are poor are often more generous, more willing to share, than those who are rich. But in this case the widow was probably calling out to God for help. Perhaps 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “for God” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

The Olivet Discourse

<sup>7</sup>So they asked Him, saying: “Teacher, so when will these things be?” and “What will be the sign when these things are about to happen?”<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>So He said: “Be careful, so as not to be deceived, because many will come in my name saying: ‘I am’ and ‘The time is at hand.’ Therefore do not go after them. <sup>9</sup>But whenever you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; because these things must happen first, but the end will not come right away.”

Things will get bad, really bad

<sup>10</sup>Then He said to them: “Nation will be raised up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>And there will be severe earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful events and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors on account of my name. <sup>13</sup>But it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. <sup>14</sup>So settle it in your hearts not to practice giving a defense beforehand; <sup>15</sup>because I will give you<sup>b</sup> a mouth and wisdom such that all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or withstand.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>You will be betrayed even by parents and relatives, friends and ‘brothers’; and they will put some of you to death. <sup>17</sup>And you will be hated by all because of my name.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>(Not even one hair of your head will be wasted<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>—you must secure your souls by your endurance.)<sup>f</sup>

Jerusalem will be destroyed

Christ will return to the earth

<sup>b</sup> To do this He has to be alive!

<sup>e</sup> I have to take this by faith. We have to work and war by faith, since we are often not allowed to see the results. I take it that the Lord is assuring us that nothing we do for Him will be wasted. But we must ‘hang in there’.

<sup>f</sup> The verb ‘to secure’ is in the Imperative. Although some versions put ‘life’, rather than “soul”, that rendering does not fit, since verse 16 says that they will be killed. What is at stake is the eternal destiny of the soul. Whoever gives in, abandons the Faith because of the persecution, loses eternal life for the soul (Revelation 21:8).

<sup>g</sup> Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 A.D. and was ‘trampled by Gentiles’ until 1967, when it returned to the control of Israel. So now the things mentioned in verse 25 and following can happen at any time.

from fear and expectation of the things coming on the inhabited earth—because the powers of the heavens will be shaken.<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>Then they will see the Son of the Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup>Now when these things begin to happen, straighten up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

<sup>29</sup>Then He told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>Whenever they are already budding, you see and know by yourselves that summer is now near. <sup>31</sup>So you also, whenever you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>I tell you assuredly, this generation<sup>b</sup> will certainly not pass away until all has happened. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.<sup>c</sup>

Watch and pray

<sup>34</sup>“But keep a watch on yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness, and cares of life, and that Day come upon you suddenly. <sup>35</sup>Because it will come like a trap upon all those who dwell on the surface of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup>So be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy<sup>d</sup> to escape all these things<sup>e</sup> that are about to happen and to stand before the Son of the Man.”

His daily routine

<sup>37</sup>In the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called ‘of Olives.’ <sup>38</sup>Then early in the morning all the people would come to Him in the temple to hear Him.

Judas joins the plot against Jesus

<sup>b</sup> ‘This generation’ has received various interpretations. Personally I suppose it refers to the generation that was alive in 1967 (by now everyone in that ‘generation’ is at least 54 years old).

The last night

Preparation for the last Passover

<sup>7</sup>Then came the day of unleavened bread, in which it was necessary to kill the Passover lamb. <sup>8</sup>And He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat." <sup>9</sup>So they said to Him, "Where do you want us to prepare?" <sup>10</sup>He said to them: "Note, upon entering the city a man carrying a jar of water<sup>a</sup> will meet you; follow him into the house which he enters. <sup>11</sup>Then you must say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you: Where is the guest room<sup>b</sup> where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' <sup>12</sup>He himself will show you a large upper room,<sup>c</sup> all furnished; make preparations there." <sup>13</sup>So off they went and found things just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

They eat the Passover

<sup>14</sup>When the hour had come, He reclined, and the twelve<sup>d</sup> apostles with Him. <sup>15</sup>Then He said to them: "I have fervently desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup>I tell you further that I will not eat of it again until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." <sup>17</sup>And taking a cup He gave thanks and said: "Take this and share it among yourselves."<sup>e</sup> <sup>18</sup>I tell you further that I will not drink again<sup>f</sup> of the fruit of the vine until the Kingdom of God comes."

Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper

<sup>19</sup>Then, after the meal,<sup>g</sup> He took bread, gave thanks, broke and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me." <sup>20</sup>He also took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.

The betrayer is present

Wanting to be 'the greatest' is not a valid option

<sup>24</sup>Now there had actually been a discussion among them as to which of them seemed to be greater. <sup>25</sup>So He said to them: "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors'. <sup>26</sup>But not so with you—rather let the greater among you become as the younger, and he

<sup>b</sup> The term here has the basic meaning of a room used for visitors, but a large hall in an upper story requires a different explanation. A room for visitors would be empty when there were no visitors; I take it that this hall was reserved for special occasions, and was therefore available.

<sup>c</sup> Obviously this had all been arranged ahead of time. The owner was doubtless a believer, and the large upper room was presumably chosen with a view to the use that would be made of it later, as well.

<sup>g</sup> Versions generally place this phrase in verse 20, because that is where it is in the Greek Text, but comparing John 13:2, the bread also was after the meal.

who leads as he who serves. <sup>27</sup>Who is greater, the one reclining or the one serving? Is it not the one reclining? Yet I am among you as the one who serves. <sup>28</sup>However, you are those who have continued with me in my trials.<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>And I bestow on you a kingdom, just as my Father bestowed one on me, <sup>30</sup>so that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom; also you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel!”<sup>b</sup>

Peter will deny Him

<sup>31</sup>Then the Lord said:<sup>c</sup> “Simon, Simon! Indeed Satan has asked for you (pl) so as to sift you like wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have prayed for you (sg) so that your faith not fail completely;<sup>d</sup> so you, when you have recovered,<sup>e</sup> strengthen your brothers.” <sup>33</sup>But he said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!” <sup>34</sup>So He said, “I say to you, Peter, no rooster can crow today before you deny three times that you know me!”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Then He said to them, “When I sent you without money bag, knapsack or sandals, did you lack anything?” And they said, “Nothing.” <sup>36</sup>So He said to them: “But now, he who has a money bag should take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword must sell his garment and buy one.<sup>g</sup> <sup>37</sup>Because I say to you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: ‘And he was classed with the lawless’;<sup>h</sup> and because the things concerning me have an end.” <sup>38</sup>So they said, “Look, Lord, here are two swords.” And He said to them, “It is enough.”

Gethsemane

<sup>39</sup>Then going out He went to the Mount of Olives, as His custom was, and His disciples followed Him. <sup>40</sup>When He came to the place, He said to them, “Pray, so as not to enter into temptation.” <sup>41</sup>Then He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup>saying, “Father, if you would just remove this cup from me—nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done!” <sup>43</sup>Then an angel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him. <sup>44</sup>And being in anguish He prayed with total concentration;<sup>i</sup> then His sweat became like clots of blood, falling

<sup>b</sup> Then the twelve tribes must still exist! God knows who and where they are. I wonder who will take the Iscariot’s place. Note that there will be eating and drinking in the future Kingdom.

<sup>f</sup> This was the second warning; the first is recorded in John 13:37-38. For a complete discussion of Peter’s denials, please see the Appendix: “How many times did Jesus say Peter would deny Him?”.

<sup>g</sup> If you are obviously armed, this tends to slow down those who would otherwise attack you or take advantage of you. It is better yet to have spiritual power.

<sup>i</sup> I believe that Hebrews 5:7 refers to this moment. To transpire blood is normally fatal, so Jesus came close to dying there in the garden. But He had to get to the cross, so the Father sent an angel to strengthen Him. The sleeping disciples did not observe this, so Luke received this information ‘from Above’ (Luke 1:3).

to the ground.<sup>a</sup> <sup>45</sup>When He rose up from prayer and came to the disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. <sup>46</sup>He said to them: “Why do you sleep? Get up and pray, that you may not enter into temptation!”

Betrayal and arrest

<sup>47</sup>But while He was still speaking—wow, a crowd; and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them! He approached Jesus to kiss Him (he had given them this sign, “Whomever I kiss, it is he”).<sup>b</sup> <sup>48</sup>So Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of the Man with a kiss?”

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to the chief priests, officers of the temple, and elders who had come against Him: “Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a bandit? <sup>53</sup>When I was with you daily in the temple, you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour; even the authority of the darkness!”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>54</sup>Then they seized, took and brought Him to the house of the high priest, with Peter following at a distance. <sup>55</sup>Now when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. <sup>56</sup>Then a certain servant girl, seeing him sitting by the fire, looked intently at him and said, “This man also was with him.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>57</sup>But he denied Him, saying, “Woman, I do not know him!”

<sup>58</sup>After a little while another saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” But Peter said, “Man, I am not!” <sup>59</sup>Then after about an hour had passed, another started insisting, “Surely this fellow also was with him, because he is a Galilean.” <sup>60</sup>But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster<sup>g</sup> crowed.

<sup>61</sup>And the Lord turned and looked directly at Peter;<sup>h</sup> then Peter remembered the Lord’s word, how He had said to him, “Before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” <sup>62</sup>And going outside he wept bitterly.

<sup>a</sup> The eclectic Greek text currently in vogue places verses 43-44 within double brackets (based on 1.3% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality), thereby denying that Luke wrote them. These verses contain important information that should not be questioned on such a feeble basis.

<sup>b</sup> Some 45% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission (that I follow), have, “he had given them this sign, ‘Whomever I kiss, it is he’”. Every other version I have seen follows the 55%.

<sup>d</sup> We know it was Peter (John 18:10), and if the Lord had not healed that ear, things would probably have been nastier for Peter in the ‘courtyard’. Please see “Harmonizing the accounts of the betrayal and arrest” in the Appendix.

Guards mistreat Jesus

Crucifixion dayJesus judged by the Council*

<sup>66</sup>As soon as it was day, the elders of the people, both the chief priests and scribes, came together and brought Him before their council, saying, <sup>67</sup>“If you are the Messiah, tell us.” But He said to them: “If I tell you, you simply will not believe. <sup>68</sup>But if I also question you, you will neither answer nor release me.<sup>c</sup> <sup>69</sup>Hereafter the Son of the Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.” <sup>70</sup>Then they all said, “Are you then the Son of God?” So He said to them, “You say it because I AM!” <sup>71</sup>Then they said: “What further testimony do we need? We ourselves have heard it from his mouth!”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus taken to Pontius Pilate

Jesus taken to Herod

<sup>6</sup>When Pilate heard ‘Galilee’,<sup>g</sup> he asked if the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>Upon learning that He belonged to Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days. <sup>8</sup>Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was really pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see Him, having heard so many things about Him; and he was hoping to see some miracle performed by Him. <sup>9</sup>He questioned Him with many words, but He gave him no answer.<sup>h</sup> <sup>10</sup>On their part, the high priests and scribes stood by, vehemently accusing Him. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod and his soldiers, after ridiculing and mocking Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>(That very day Pilate and Herod

<sup>d</sup> They were condemning Him for blasphemy, but to do that they had to reject the obvious truth that Jesus was indeed the Son of God.

became friends with each other—previously having been at odds with each other.)<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate, having called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup>said to them: “You have brought this man to me as one who misleads the people, and yet, having examined him in your presence, I have found no guilt in this man as to those things of which you accuse him. <sup>15</sup>Further, neither did Herod (for I sent you on to him);<sup>b</sup> indeed, nothing deserving of death has been done by him. <sup>16</sup>I will therefore flog and release him.” <sup>17</sup>(It was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast.)<sup>c</sup>

<sup>32</sup>There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup>When they arrived at the place called ‘The Skull’, they crucified Him there; also the criminals, one on His right, the other on His left.

<sup>b</sup> Instead of “for I sent you on to him”, some 12% of the manuscripts have ‘for he sent him back to us’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> Comparing the accounts it is very clear that Pilate wanted no part of killing Jesus, but when they said “you are not Caesar’s friend” he was beaten.

<sup>f</sup> Whether or not Simon was already a disciple at this moment (he may have been prepared), he evidently became one. It appears that Jesus was having trouble carrying His cross.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing”;<sup>a</sup> while they were dividing up His clothes by casting a lot. <sup>35</sup>Meanwhile the people stood looking on. And especially the rulers among them were sneering, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself, if such is the Christ, the chosen of God!” <sup>36</sup>Yes, even the soldiers mocked Him, approaching and offering Him sour wine, <sup>37</sup>and saying, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself!”<sup>b</sup>

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39</sup>Then one of the hanged criminals started berating Him, saying, “If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>40</sup>But the other reacted and rebuked him, saying: “Don’t you even fear God, since you are under the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup>And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward for our deeds; but this man did nothing wrong.” <sup>42</sup>Then he said to Jesus, “Please remember me, Lord,<sup>e</sup> when you come in your kingdom.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>43</sup>Jesus said to him, “I tell you assuredly, today you will be with me in Paradise.”<sup>g</sup>

Jesus dismisses His spirit

<sup>44</sup>Now it was about the sixth hour,<sup>h</sup> and darkness came upon the whole land until the ninth hour. <sup>45</sup>Yes, the sun was darkened; also, the veil of the temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup>Then, after giving a loud shout, Jesus said, “Father, it is into your hands that I will commit my spirit.” And having said this, He breathed out His spirit.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The eclectic text currently in vogue (following less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality) places within double brackets the first half of verse 34: “Then Jesus said, ‘Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing’”. In this way they deny that Luke wrote it, surely a perverse proceeding.

<sup>d</sup> According to Matthew 27:44 and Mark 15:32, both of them started out by reviling Him, but later one of them repented—they were on the cross for about three hours before the supernatural darkness, so there was time to observe Jesus, which caused one of them to change his mind.

<sup>e</sup> Instead of “to Jesus, ‘Please remember me, Lord’”, perhaps 3% of the manuscripts have ‘Jesus, remember me’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), which seriously weakens the man’s statement.

<sup>f</sup> I find this statement to be impressive: the man is declaring that Jesus is the Messiah and will indeed inaugurate His Kingdom. Evidently the man knew the Bible; and his request was honored!

<sup>g</sup> For Jesus to say ‘today’, He knew the man would die before sundown, so He knew the man’s legs would be broken—otherwise he would most likely have lasted well into the night, which would have been ‘tomorrow’. ‘Paradise’ here refers to that half of Hades (Sheol in the OT) reserved for the righteous dead. Hades is the ‘half-way house’ where departed spirits await the final judgment. In Luke 16:22 it is called “Abraham’s bosom”.

<sup>h</sup> Luke uses Jewish time, so it was about noon. The darkness lasted three hours.

<sup>i</sup> Both Matthew and John state overtly that Jesus dismissed His spirit. In John 10:17-18 He had declared that no one could kill Him. He would lay down His own life. The cross did not kill Jesus, as the centurion recognized (see the next note).

Various reactions

Jesus’ body is buried

<sup>50</sup>Now then, there was a man named Joseph, a good and righteous man, a Council member <sup>51</sup>(but he had not agreed with their counsel and action), from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who himself was waiting for the Kingdom of God: <sup>52</sup>this man went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. <sup>53</sup>Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock, where no one had ever been laid.<sup>c</sup> <sup>54</sup>It was a Preparation day; the Sabbath was drawing near. <sup>55</sup>The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed along, and they saw the tomb and that His body was placed there.<sup>d</sup> <sup>56</sup>Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

Resurrection Day

<sup>a</sup> Any centurion would be a hardened soldier, who had seen no end of crucifixions. He knew that a cross killed by asphyxiation. Hanging from the hands, with the arms stretched out, pushes the diaphragm against the lungs so you cannot breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure to prolong the agony—even though painful, the victim would push up so he could get a breath, until finally too worn out to do so. Breaking the legs would put an end to that expedient, and the person died within a few minutes, asphyxiated. Someone who is dying asphyxiated does not shout. Since Jesus gave a loud shout, but then immediately died, the centurion knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that the cross had not killed Jesus (later, when Joseph asks for the body, Pilate is surprised that Jesus could already be dead). But who can just tell his spirit to leave? Putting two and two together, the centurion concluded that Jesus was a supernatural being. Just so!

<sup>c</sup> Obviously the tomb had been prepared beforehand, and was a fulfillment of Isaiah 53:9, “He made His grave...with the rich at His deaths [plural]”. Nicodemus had already placed a hundred pounds of spices in the tomb, before helping Joseph remove and carry the body (John 19:39).

<sup>g</sup> These were the women who had been providing for Jesus for some time, and they doubtless heard much of His teaching, including this statement.

The women report

<sup>9</sup>Then they returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>They were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them, who told these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup>But their words seemed to them like nonsense, and they disbelieved them.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>(But Peter had gotten up and run to the tomb, and stooping down he saw the linen strips lying by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.)<sup>c</sup>

The 'Emmaus' incident

<sup>13</sup>And then that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, which was about seven miles<sup>d</sup> from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And they were conversing with each other about all that had happened. <sup>15</sup>And then, as they were conversing and discussing, Jesus Himself came up and started going with them. <sup>16</sup>But their eyes were restrained, in order that they not recognize Him. <sup>17</sup>So He said to them, "What words are these that you are exchanging with one another as you walk, and are gloomy?"<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Then the one whose name was Cleopas<sup>f</sup> answered and said to Him, "Are you the only one living in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that have happened there in these days?" <sup>19</sup>He said to them, "What things?" So they said to Him: "The things concerning Jesus the Natsorean, how the man was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him. <sup>21</sup>And we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel!<sup>g</sup> Further, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup>Moreover certain women of our group astonished us—arriving early at the tomb, <sup>23</sup>and not finding his body, they came saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. <sup>24</sup>And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb<sup>h</sup> and found it just as the women had said; but him they did not see."

<sup>25</sup>Then He said to them: "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the Prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup>Was it really not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?" <sup>27</sup>And beginning from Moses, and then all the Prophets, He explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Then they approached the village where they were going, and He made as though He would keep going.<sup>j</sup> <sup>29</sup>But they constrained Him, saying, "Stay with us,

<sup>b</sup> They had already been 'burned', their hopes dashed, and were not in a hurry to be 'taken in' again.

<sup>c</sup> According to John's account, this had already happened earlier, so Luke gives it out of sequence. Please see "Harmonizing the accounts of the Resurrection" in the Appendix.

because it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.” So He went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>And then, as He was reclining with them, He took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup>Then their eyes were opened<sup>b</sup> and they recognized Him; and He became invisible to them. <sup>32</sup>They said to one another, “Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked to us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?”<sup>c</sup>

The two report

<sup>33</sup>So they got up forthwith and returned to Jerusalem, where they found the Eleven gathered together; also those with them, <sup>34</sup>who said, “The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>35</sup>Then they described what happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus appears to the Eleven

<sup>36</sup>As they were saying these things, indeed, Jesus<sup>e</sup> Himself stood in their midst, and He said to them, “Peace to you.” <sup>37</sup>But they, startled, supposed they were seeing a ghost, and were becoming fearful. <sup>38</sup>And He said to them: “Why are you troubled?” and “Why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup>Look at my hands and feet; it is I myself! Feel me and see; a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” <sup>40</sup>And saying this He showed them His hands and His feet. <sup>41</sup>But as they were still disbelieving and marveling, because of the joy, He said to them, “Do you have any food here?” <sup>42</sup>So they gave Him a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb.<sup>f</sup> <sup>43</sup>And taking it He ate in their presence.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>44</sup>Then He said to them, “These are the words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything that is written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning me must be fulfilled.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>45</sup>Then He opened their understanding so as to comprehend the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup>And He said to them: “Thus it was written. And so<sup>i</sup> it was necessary<sup>j</sup> for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day; <sup>47</sup>also that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all the nations,<sup>k</sup> beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>You are

<sup>c</sup> Don't you know that was so! To this day, if Jesus talks to you, your heart burns.

<sup>d</sup> There were others in the room besides the Eleven, some near the door. So when the two burst in, all excited with their news, the others ‘prick their balloon’—“Oh, we already know about that”. Has human nature changed?

<sup>g</sup> It is easy to criticize them for being so slow to believe, but would we have done any better? Note that Christ's glorified body, that could just pass through a wall, was palpable—it had flesh and bones (but perhaps not blood). The food that He ate presumably did not go through a normal process of digestion.

<sup>i</sup> The Greek Text has ‘thus and thus’, which indicates separate topics. There is no reference to rising the third day in the OT, and the Lord did not say that there was.

witnesses of these things.<sup>a</sup> <sup>49</sup>Take note, I am sending the Promise of my Father upon you; but you must stay in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on High.”<sup>b</sup>

Jesus ascends to Heaven

<sup>c</sup> Jesus had declared that God had abandoned that temple, so why did they still go there? It was a logical place to evangelize Jews, if that was their object. It was also the largest meeting place in town, presumably. But subsequent events show clearly that they still regarded it as ‘God’s house’, a special place for worshipping. I would say that this became a snare to them.

<sup>e</sup> Some 50% of the Greek manuscripts have a colophon that says, “published fifteen years after the ascension of Christ”. For 50% of the MSS to have this information probably means that the tradition is ancient. If this information is correct, then Luke was ‘published’ in 45/46 AD. The same sources have Matthew published seven years earlier (38/39) and Mark five years earlier (40/41), while John was ‘published’ thirty-two years after the ascension, or 61/62 AD. Not only were the authors eyewitnesses of the events, but many others were still alive when the Gospels appeared. They could attest to the veracity of the accounts, but could also be the source of textual variants, adding tidbits here and there, or ‘correcting’ something that they remembered differently.

The Gospel According to

JOHN

Prologue

John—a witness to the Light

<sup>6</sup>There appeared a man, sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup>This man came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup>He himself was not the Light but was to testify about the Light—<sup>9</sup>the true Light which illumines everyone who comes into the world.<sup>h</sup> <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, the world that came into being by Him, yet the world did not know Him. <sup>11</sup>He came to His own things, yet His own people did not receive Him. <sup>12</sup>But, as many <sup>a</sup> In the beginning (of this world, or perhaps this universe) He already existed. But why the ‘word’? If we take the word as the basic unit of verbal communication, and even representing that communication, then we have an important figure. Jehovah the Son in human form becomes the ultimate communication of God to the human race. On the other hand, since the context is of beginning and creation, ‘word’ might be a reference to the fact that He created with a spoken word (Genesis 1).

<sup>b</sup> The idea seems to be that He was face to face with God (the Father), in His presence. Actually, the Text has “the God”—since the Greeks had any number of gods, the New Testament writers usually refer to Jehovah as the God. In verse 2 the Text also has “the God”.

<sup>c</sup> The New World Translation (of the JWs) renders “a god”. They defend their choice because the noun ‘God’ occurs without the definite article, and the absence of the article in Greek has the effect of the indefinite article in English—hence ‘a god’. However, another frequent use of the absence of the definite article (in Greek) is to emphasize the quality inherent in the noun—in this case ‘God’. Grammatically, the construction is ambiguous, so those who wish to deny the deity of Christ will naturally translate ‘a god’. Since John will himself make perfectly clear that Christ is very God, we take it that he is here emphasizing that inherent quality. A faithful translator will attempt to reflect the meaning intended by the author, so I would say that the New World Translation is not faithful here, since John will repeatedly make clear that Jesus is God. But there is a further consideration. If John had used the definite article we would have an equation (in Greek)—the Word = the God—which would do away with the Trinity. So John could not write ‘the God’; he will quote Christ Himself making very clear that the Father and the Son are distinct persons.

<sup>d</sup> This passage, along with Hebrews 1:10 and Colossians 1:16, makes clear that although the Trinity was doubtless involved in the creation of this planet it was Jehovah the Son who was the primary agent.

<sup>e</sup> In what sense can ‘the life’ be ‘the light’? In John 8:12 the Lord said, “I am the Light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness but will have the Light of the Life.” Only as we participate in the Life that Christ offers do we have access to the Light. Without His Life we walk in the darkness.

<sup>g</sup> To this day: in Matthew 5:14 Jesus said to His disciples, “You are the light of the world”—as long as there are followers of Jesus here, there is moral/spiritual light in the world.

<sup>h</sup> In what sense can we say that everyone is “illuminated” since we are all born with an inclination to sin, and most people die lost? Perhaps the answer lies in Romans 1:19-20. One of the expressions of the Life is the material creation that surrounds us—everyone has the light of the creation; there must be an incredibly intelligent and powerful Cause, and since we are persons He must be more so. We also believe that each human being is born with a conscience.

as did receive Him,<sup>a</sup> to them He gave the right to become children of God,<sup>b</sup> to those who believe into His name:<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>who were begotten, not by blood, nor by the desire of the flesh, nor by the will of a man,<sup>d</sup> but by God.<sup>e</sup>

Jesus—the Only-begotten

<sup>14</sup>So the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we observed His glory, glory of an Only-begotten,<sup>f</sup> from the Father, full of grace and truth. <sup>15</sup>John testified about Him and called out saying: “This is He of whom I said, ‘The One coming after me is now ahead of me, because He existed before I did.’” <sup>16</sup>Now we have all received from His fullness, yes, grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup>Because the Law was given through Moses;<sup>g</sup> the Grace and the Truth came through Jesus Christ.<sup>h</sup> <sup>18</sup>No one has ever seen God. The Only-begotten Son,<sup>i</sup> who exists in the bosom of the Father, He has interpreted Him.<sup>j</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> ‘Receive’, not ‘accept’—if you ‘accept’ something it is inferior, or is offered by someone who is socially inferior; superior people or things are ‘received’. If you merely ‘accept Jesus’ that Jesus can’t save you; he is less than you are.
- <sup>b</sup> No one is born a child of God (God has no grandchildren); you may become one by receiving Christ. Presumably ‘receiving’ is a conscious act. [Each of my two children did this when four years old.]
- <sup>c</sup> Never does the Text read ‘believe in’ (Greek ἐν) Jesus or His name; always it reads ‘believe into’ (Greek εἰς). People believe in Santa Claus, the Easter bunny, the goodness of man, or whatever, but it makes no difference in their lives. Many millions of people say they ‘believe in Jesus’, but it makes no difference in their lives either. You have to believe into Him—commitment and identification are involved, that go along with the change in location, from being outside to being inside. As Jesus Himself said in John 6:53-56, you have to “eat” His flesh and “drink” His blood. If you eat something your body assimilates it, it becomes part of you.
- <sup>d</sup> “The will of a man” seems obvious enough—many, perhaps most, people are born because a man decides he wants children. “The desire of the flesh”—many others are born because a man and a woman are carried away by physical attraction, whether or not they are planning to have a child. “By blood”—the best sense I can make out of this is to assume that it refers to levirate marriage; a man fertilizes his brother’s childless widow to produce an heir for that brother, precisely because of the blood relationship between them.
- <sup>e</sup> For a human being to be begotten physically a man must implant the seed of life, and to be begotten spiritually God must implant the seed of the Life.
- <sup>f</sup> Jesus was very literally God’s ‘only-begotten’ Son. Since the Holy Spirit fertilized the virgin Mary, Jesus was literally begotten by God, but He is the only one in all human history who was begotten in that way.
- <sup>g</sup> Why “because”? What does the Law have to do with verse 16? We are not accustomed to associate the Law with grace, but as a revelation from God to men would it not be a manifestation of His grace? Of course the Son of God incarnate was a much greater manifestation of that grace—“grace upon grace”.
- <sup>h</sup> “The life”, “the light”, “the grace”, “the truth”—these things the Lord Jesus Christ offers us. In contrast Satan offers death, darkness, hate and the lie. Hey, I don’t know about you, but I’m with Jesus!
- <sup>i</sup> Instead of “the only begotten son” (as in over 99.5% of the Greek manuscripts), some five manuscripts (of inferior quality, objectively so) have “an only begotten god”, while another two (also inferior) have “the only begotten god”. Since the absence of the definite article (in Greek) can have the effect of emphasizing the inherent quality of the noun, the second reading could be rendered “only begotten god”—this alternative has appealed to many evangelicals who see in it a strong affirmation of the deity of Christ. But if the God-part of the Christ was begotten in the womb of the virgin Mary, then He is not eternally pre-existent; and in that event Christ could not be God the Son, one of the three persons of the Trinity. Notice the precision in Isaiah 9:6—“unto us a child is born; unto us a son is given.” Jehovah the Son was given, not born. Notice further that the context is about the Incarnation, not the Son’s eternal pre-existence. But in any case, why follow seven manuscripts of demonstrably inferior quality against 1,700 better ones? The original and therefore true reading is certainly “the only begotten Son”.
- <sup>j</sup> Instead of “interpret” one could render ‘explain’, ‘describe’, ‘give a report about’... I connect this statement to verse 1—the Word shows us who the Father really is. As Jesus said to Philip, “He who has seen me has seen the Father” (John 14:9).

John the Baptizer performs his office

<sup>19</sup>Now this is John's testimony, when the Jews<sup>a</sup> sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" <sup>20</sup>He confessed, he did not deny but confessed, "I am not the Christ."<sup>b</sup> <sup>21</sup>So they asked him, "What then, are you Elijah?" And he says, "I am not."<sup>c</sup> "Are you 'the Prophet'?"<sup>d</sup> "No," he answered. <sup>22</sup>So they said to him: "Who are you?—so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" <sup>23</sup>He said, "I am 'the voice of one calling out: 'Make the LORD's road straight in the wilderness,'" just as the prophet Isaiah said."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Now those who had been sent were from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup>So they asked him saying, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor 'the Prophet'?" <sup>26</sup>John answered them saying: "I baptize with water, but among you stands One whom you do not know. <sup>27</sup>He is the One coming after me who is now ahead of me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose." <sup>28</sup>These things happened in Bithabara,<sup>f</sup> across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

<sup>d</sup> "The Prophet" is presumably a reference to Deuteronomy 18:15—the Jews figured that this prophecy refers to the Messiah, and so do we.

<sup>e</sup> The reference is to Isaiah 40:3. Hebrew poetry, and prose, makes heavy use of parallel or synonymous statements. From the context in Isaiah it seems clear that "in the wilderness" goes with the verb "make straight", not "call out". But why a straight road in the wilderness? Any road facilitates the movement of people and goods, but a straight road through accidented terrain is a major asset. (Actually, Isaiah 40:3-4 describes the construction of a modern super highway.) John was the voice, but it was the people who had to make the road. So how about us? Are we supposed to be making such a road, and if so, how? At the very least we should be proclaiming biblical values to the world by every available means.

<sup>f</sup> Some 65% of the Greek manuscripts read "Bethany" instead of the familiar "Bethabara" (I follow the best line of transmission in reading 'Bithabara', with 25% of the Greek manuscripts, while 'Bethabara' has 10%), but in either case we do not know the precise location. However, many Bible maps place 'Bethabara' near Jericho, on the west side of the river, but the Text states plainly that it was "across the Jordan" (= on the east side). A combination of such maps plus the true reading sets up an apparent contradiction or error in the text, which is actually in the map.

<sup>h</sup> John was six months older than Jesus, so he is affirming that Jesus had a prior existence. Since a mere man cannot have a prior existence, John is affirming Jesus' divinity.

<sup>i</sup> John does not record the baptism of Jesus, as such, but we know from the other Gospels that this incident took place at that baptism. Nor does John record Jesus' confrontation with Satan in the wilder-sent me to baptize with water, He said to me,<sup>b</sup> “The One upon whom you see the Spirit coming down and resting—this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus begins His public ministry

ness. In general, John does not repeat information available in the other Gospels. (John wrote after the other Gospels had been in circulation for well over a decade.)

<sup>a</sup> This is curious. John and Jesus were related, and their mothers were close, so it seems improbable that they would never have met as boys or youths. Perhaps John means as the Messiah—until His baptism Jesus gave no overt demonstration that He was the Messiah. (However, given the circumstances surrounding both Mary and Elizabeth, I suppose it is possible that the two boys never met.)

<sup>b</sup> Notice that the Baptizer affirms that God spoke to him directly, in audible or distinguishable words, which he quotes. God spoke like that 2000 years ago, and He continues to do so.

<sup>c</sup> In John’s baptism, John is the agent; in Christ’s baptism, Jesus is the agent; the baptism where the Holy Spirit is the agent is distinct from these. In John’s baptism the substance used for the ritual was water; in Christ’s baptism the substance used is the Holy Spirit. In John’s baptism the person got wet but then dried off, so presumably the real point of the exercise was a spiritual transaction; how much more, then, in Christ’s baptism. I am inclined to link Christ’s baptism (He is the agent) with John 4:13-14 and 7:38-39. “Jesus answered and said to her, ‘Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never ever thirst; rather, the water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up into eternal life’” (4:13-14). “Jesus stood up and called out saying, ‘If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. The one believing into me, just as the Scripture has said, out from his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.’ (Now He said this about the Spirit, whom those believing into Him were going to receive, in that the Holy Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)” (7:37-39). In other words, when Jesus baptizes you, you are regenerated, you receive a new nature, you receive the Holy Spirit. For a fuller discussion, please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> That is what he said, “the Son of God” (actually, ‘the Son of the God’), which here probably means that there is only one. John clearly identifies and presents the Messiah to the populace. He performed his office.

<sup>e</sup> Presumably Jesus waited for them to catch up, so He was observing them during that time. His purpose in passing by there was precisely to attract those two men (so I imagine), and He was doubtless aware when they started out after Him.

<sup>f</sup> This is significant. John uses Roman time, so this is 10 a.m. Which means that Jesus spent most of the day with just those two men. You had better believe they were talking the whole time. Jesus knew they would be two of His disciples and was already investing in them—to such good effect that the next day they bring in two more. The Text does not clarify whether or not they spent the night as well.

<sup>g</sup> The Text says, “the son of Jonah”. Since Peter obviously had at least one brother, he was not an only son. Perhaps we should understand that Peter was the firstborn. Perhaps 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality) read “John” for “Jonah” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him and says about him, “There, a genuine Israelite in whom there is no deceit!” <sup>48</sup>Nathanael says to Him, “From where do You know me?” Jesus answered and said to him, “Before Philip called you, while you were under the fig tree, I saw you.” <sup>49</sup>In answer Nathanael says to Him: “Rabbi, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>50</sup>Jesus answered and said to him: “You believe because I said that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater than these.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>51</sup>And He says to him, “I tell you (pl) most assuredly, later on you will see the heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of the Man.”<sup>f</sup>

Water into wine

---

<sup>a</sup> I cannot prove it, but I suspect that Philip was the second man, of John’s disciples, who spent the day with Jesus. (Otherwise, how does one explain the use of “we” in verse 45?) If so, it seems unlikely that he and Andrew spent the night with Jesus, because in that event Jesus would not have to “find” him.

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew spelling of the town’s name comes over into English as ‘Natsareth’, not ‘Nazareth’. This is crucial to a correct understanding of Matthew 2:23 (please see the note there).

<sup>c</sup> “Come and see.” “Taste and see that the Lord is good.” In the final analysis you have to decide for yourself. Check it out.

<sup>d</sup> Wow, that was a real switch—from disdainful doubt in verse 46 to faith and submission in verse 49. What caused the change? A mature fig tree’s branches reach to the ground and form a curtain—there is a clear space around the trunk that is cool and private [I have been there]. It was a great place to be alone with God. But for Jesus to see Nathanael there (there were probably hills in between as well) meant that He was supernatural. That statement convinced Nathanael that he was looking at the Messiah, and he immediately declared allegiance. Of the four Gospels, only John uses the name ‘Nathanael’, the others do not; they all use the name ‘Bartholomew’, while John never does. Since Nathanael was one of the apostles, evidently (John 21:2), we may conclude that we have two names for the same person.

<sup>e</sup> The demonstrative pronoun is plural but ambiguous as to gender. Since I would expect the singular (presumably it was the single statement that caused Nathanael’s belief) the plural leaves me in doubt. Is it greater things or people, or both?

<sup>f</sup> So far as I know, we have no record of when this took place, but no doubt it did. Jesus addressed Nathanael in particular, “He says to him”, but used the plural, “ye”, about seeing the heaven opened. “The Son of the Man” appears to be a phrase coined by the Lord Jesus to refer to Himself; the Text does say “the son of the man”, which does not make very good sense in English, at first glance, but if “the man” refers to pristine Adam and “the son” to an only pristine descendent, it makes great sense. It seems to indicate a perfect human prototype, like Adam was before the fall—the human side of the God-man.

any wine!" <sup>4</sup>Jesus says to her: "What is that to you and me, woman?"<sup>b</sup> My hour has not yet come."<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>His mother says to the servants, "Do whatever He may tell you."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>(Now there were six stone waterpots set there, according to the purification rites of the Jews, containing 20 or 30 gallons each.) <sup>7</sup>Jesus says to them, "Fill the pots with water." So they filled them to the brim.<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>So He says to them, "Now, draw some out and take it to the master of ceremonies." So they took it. <sup>9</sup>Well, when the master of ceremonies tasted the water<sup>f</sup> that had become wine—he did not know where it came from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew—he calls the bridegroom <sup>10</sup>and says to him: "Everybody serves the good wine first, then, when people are intoxicated, the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"

The first cleansing of the Temple—Passover, 27 AD

<sup>13</sup>Now the Jewish Passover was near, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And in the temple He found people selling oxen and sheep and doves, also the money-changers at work. <sup>15</sup>When He had made a scourge out of cords, He drove all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen;<sup>i</sup> and as for the moneychangers, He over-

<sup>c</sup> I conclude from 1:43 that Jesus was at that wedding on purpose, and probably had an idea of what would happen. Perhaps He was testing His mother's faith, and maybe her determination. However, as He declares, He was not yet ready to really go public—He would do that in Jerusalem, as recorded in 2:13-25. He would start with a bang, right in the Temple! But please see "The wedding in Cana" in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Mary was evidently in a position to issue orders, which leads me to suspect that she was the mother of the bride, which would also explain why Jesus made a special effort to get there. From verse 12 below, it appears that the whole family was there.

<sup>f</sup> Wine has color and smell, as well as flavor—I wonder at what point the water took on those characteristics. Perhaps it was only as the servant handed the goblet to the master, so that the servants had drawn and carried 'water'; they obeyed what seemed to them to be a strange order.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus "revealed His glory". In what sense? As Jehovah the Son He was the Creator of this world. Transforming water into wine was an act of creation. The chemical components that distinguish wine from water had to be created on the spot, and mixed with the water. This "first miraculous sign" was simply tremendous—it revealed Jesus as Creator. However, although presumably all the guests drank of this new wine, being tipsy they may not have realized what went on. Only the disciples, the servants, and of course Mary, knew what had really happened. Apparently this miracle was not broadcast at that time—like Jesus said, not yet. (Neither Matthew, Mark nor Luke were there, but John, the author of this Gospel, probably was; in which case we have an eyewitness account [John and James were partners with Peter and Andrew; so since Peter and Andrew were invited they probably were too].)

<sup>h</sup> The next verse tells us that the Passover was near. The Passover was one (probably the most important) of the three festivals during the year when every God-fearing male had to present himself at the temple in Jerusalem (Deuteronomy 16:16). Often the whole family would go, so perhaps the whole group mentioned in verse 12 went on to Jerusalem. Jesus had just come up from Judea, only to turn around and go back, which gives us some indication of the importance of the wedding in Cana. That Joseph is not mentioned at all leads one to suspect that he had died by now.

<sup>i</sup> The impression I get is that it was mainly the animals that He drove, not the people; in the next verse He commands the dove-sellers to remove them, presumably still in the cages.

turned the tables and scattered the coins. <sup>16</sup>And to the dove-sellers He said: "Get these things out of here! Stop turning my Father's House into a marketplace!" <sup>17</sup>Then His disciples remembered that it stands written, "Zeal for Your House consumes me."<sup>a</sup>

Jesus and Nicodemus

3 <sup>1</sup>Now there was a man among the Pharisees whose name was Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>The same went to Jesus at night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that you have come as a teacher from God, because no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him." <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered and said to him,<sup>i</sup>

<sup>b</sup> The commerce going on in the Temple was crooked, and was under the direction of the religious leaders. What Jesus did was an affront, a direct challenge to their authority. He got their attention! From this moment on they knew about Jesus! What He did was so unexpected, so outrageous, that the Jews did not know how to react. Maybe some were just a little afraid He might be the Messiah. (And just maybe a few of them had been there 18 years before and listened to a certain twelve-year-old Boy.)

<sup>d</sup> Since Jesus was referring to His own body, once He was dead how could He do this? His spirit did not die, and at the right moment returned to the body and raised it, uniting with it once again (and in so doing He glorified it).

<sup>e</sup> Note that my rendering, "They believed the Scripture, even the word that Jesus had spoken", has the effect of equating His word with Scripture. More precisely, the Lord's statement in verse 19 was repeated as an accusation three years later, as recorded in Matthew 26:61 and 27:40, and Matthew's Gospel had already been circulating as Scripture for decades when John wrote. If this line of reasoning is correct, then John is calling Matthew 'Scripture'! (Of course there was an interval of a number of years (eight) between the resurrection and the publishing of Matthew's Gospel, but perhaps some did not 'remember' until they saw it written down.) I am not aware of any OT prophecy that could be in view here.

<sup>f</sup> I take it that it was at this point that the Lord really began to heal on a large scale. He forced the religious leaders to take notice of Him in more ways than one. Nicodemus refers to these signs.

<sup>g</sup> I would suggest that our Lord offers us an important example here: He did not entrust Himself to just anybody, even believers. He will command His followers to keep on forgiving those who sin against them, especially 'brothers'. To forgive does not equal to trust!

<sup>9</sup>Nicodemus answered and said to Him, “How can these things be?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to Him: “You are the teacher of Israel,<sup>g</sup> yet you do not understand these things? <sup>11</sup>Most assuredly I say to you, we speak what we know and testify to what we<sup>h</sup> have seen, but you (pl) do not receive our testimony.<sup>i</sup> <sup>12</sup>If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I should tell you the heavenly?<sup>j</sup> <sup>13</sup>No one has gone up into Heaven except the One who came down out of Heaven—the Son of the Man, who is in Heaven.<sup>k</sup> <sup>14</sup>Also, just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness,<sup>l</sup> just so the Son of the Man

<sup>c</sup> Why ‘water’? Some have understood this to refer to water baptism, but it seems more likely to me that it refers to the Word (see Ephesians 5:26, John 15:3, John 17:17). As it says in Romans 10:17, “Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.”

<sup>d</sup> In 1:13 it is “begotten by God”, here “begotten by the Spirit”, in 3:3 and 7 “begotten from Above”—I take it that the expressions are synonymous. Without God’s direct participation no one is saved.

<sup>e</sup> Notice that the Lord is saying here that it is we who are to be unpredictable, like the wind, or the Spirit (“comes” and “goes” are in the present tense). If you are really under the control of the Spirit you will do unexpected things, just like He does. We all know of types of Christian that are rigid, totally predictable—the Lord Jesus Christ says that such ‘Christians’ have not been begotten by the Spirit. A word to the wise...

<sup>g</sup> The Lord used the definite article with ‘teacher’, which I understand to mean that Nicodemus was the number one teacher at that time.

<sup>h</sup> Why “we”? Jesus begins the verse with “I” and begins verse 12 with “I”; so to whom does the “we” refer? Is it the ‘plural of majesty’, as some say? Perhaps He is including one or both of the other members of the Trinity—actually, it is probably the Father; see John 12:49-50. (This is early in His public ministry and He does not yet have a recognized group of disciples traveling with Him.)

<sup>k</sup> About 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “who is in Heaven” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Presumably those copyists could not figure out how Jesus could be on earth and in Heaven at the same time, so they altered the Text. But let us stop and think about what this verse says—Jehovah the Son came down out of Heaven all right, but when did He go up? If “the Angel of Jehovah” in the O.T. was Jehovah the Son, as I believe, then He had been back and forth many times. In John 5:19 Jesus said that He could only do what He saw the Father do—so when and how could Jesus see the Father? Even though Jehovah the Son was in the human body of Jesus Christ, evidently there was some sense in which He was also in Heaven; He existed there. Well, that is what John 1:18 says, “who exists in the bosom of the Father.”

must be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>so that everyone who believes into Him should not be wasted,<sup>a</sup> but should have eternal life. <sup>16</sup>Because God loved the world so much that He gave His only begotten Son,<sup>b</sup> so that everyone who believes into Him should not be wasted, but should have eternal life.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>For God did not send His Son into the world in order to condemn the world,<sup>d</sup> but so that the world might be saved through Him. <sup>18</sup>The one believing into Him is not condemned, but the one not believing has already been condemned,<sup>e</sup> because he has not believed into the name<sup>f</sup> of the only begotten Son of God.

<sup>19</sup>“Now this is the basis for the condemning, that the Light has come into the world,<sup>g</sup> but the people loved the darkness rather than the Light, because their deeds were malignant. <sup>20</sup>For whoever practices evil hates the Light and does not come to the Light, so that his deeds may not be exposed.<sup>h</sup> <sup>21</sup>But whoever does the truth comes to the Light so that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they are done in God.”

<sup>22</sup>After these things Jesus, with His disciples, went into the Judean countryside, and there He spent time with them<sup>i</sup> and baptized. <sup>23</sup>Now John also was baptizing in Aenon, near Salem, because there was plenty of water there.<sup>j</sup> And people were coming and being baptized; <sup>24</sup>for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

<sup>25</sup>Then some of John’s disciples had an argument with a Judean about purification. <sup>26</sup>So they came to John and said to him, “Rabbi, the One who was with you across the Jordan, about whom you have testified—well, here He is baptizing, <sup>a</sup> Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “should not be wasted but” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The phrase is repeated in verse 16, but this is a conversation between two Jews and it is standard Hebrew procedure to repeat things. But why do I render “be wasted” instead of “perish”? Well, what do you think “perish” means? It cannot mean ‘to die’, because Christians die. It cannot mean ‘to suffer’, because Christians suffer, etc. Although the Greek verb here, apollumi, is used in contexts of decay, loss, ruin, destruction, death, I take it that the core idea is ‘waste’—the potential of a person or thing is wasted, does not come to fruition. The potential that your life represents, the reason why you exist, can only be realized if you believe into Jesus—otherwise you will be wasted.

<sup>b</sup> “Only begotten” means precisely only begotten, and not ‘only’. Versions that put ‘only’ are deceiving their readers. God has many ‘sons’, including adopted ones, but only One who was begotten, literally.

<sup>c</sup> The opposite of ‘eternal life’ is not ‘non-eternal life’, it is ‘eternal death’. But ‘death’ does not mean ‘cease to exist’—the human spirit, the image of the Creator, is immortal, it exists forever. There are but two destinies for the human being—unending life or unending death. The central idea in ‘death’ is separation; physical death means the spirit is separated from the body; spiritual death means the spirit is separated from the Creator, forever. The essence of ‘life’ is to be in communion with the Creator, so we can start enjoying our eternal life right here, right now.

<sup>g</sup> The light makes itself available, comes into our area, announces the address, but we must take the initiative to go to that light.

<sup>h</sup> In John 7:7 Jesus said, “The world cannot hate you, but does hate me, because I testify about it that its works are malignant”, and in 8:12 He said, “I am the Light of the world”. Those who love darkness generally hate Jesus.

<sup>j</sup> To this day there is plenty of water in the Ajalon valley, some 15-20 miles WNW of Jerusalem (Salem is an ancient name for Jerusalem; see Genesis 14:18 and Hebrews 7:1)—perhaps that is where it was. I take it that Jesus and John were in the same area, at this point.

and everyone is flocking to Him!”<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>John answered and said: “A person can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from Heaven.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>28</sup>You yourselves can testify that I said, ‘I am not the Christ, but I have been sent ahead of Him.’ <sup>29</sup>He who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands by and hears him, has great joy at the bridegroom’s voice. So this my joy has been fulfilled. <sup>30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease.”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus and the Samaritans

<sup>c</sup> Now there we have an excellent example to follow; all of us should have the same attitude—“He must increase, but I must decrease”.

<sup>f</sup> Since the testimony given by Jesus represented the words of God the Father, to receive Jesus’ testimony as being true was also to receive the Father’s words as being true.

<sup>g</sup> The Text does not have “to Him”, but in the context that is presumably to be understood. To the Son the Father gave the Spirit in full measure, but not to us—at least not in the same sense.

<sup>i</sup> The Text has “disobeying”, not ‘disbelieving’. ‘Believing into’ has to do with commitment, with identification, with relationship. If you enter into a relationship with the Sovereign of the Universe, He is the Boss. Either you obey or bad things start to happen to you.

<sup>j</sup> There are differing opinions about where the Baptizer’s speech ends—the rest would then be a commentary by the author, John. The verbs in the present tense in verse 32 tip the decision in favor of the Baptizer—John would have had to use a past tense. I take it that the Baptizer’s speech goes through verse 35, at least. Verse 36 could be an editorial comment by John, but I see no reason in the Text for taking the verse away from the Baptizer. Notice the verb ‘will remain’; the only way out is to obey the Son. (Perhaps 50% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘remains’, instead of “will remain”, which does not change the impact of the statement.)

<sup>m</sup> This was a tactical withdrawal. I take it that Matthew 4:12 refers to the same withdrawal. Between John 3:36 and 4:1 the Baptizer was imprisoned. If the Pharisees knew something it would not be long before Herod knew it. It was not part of the Plan for Jesus to have to deal with Herod at this juncture.

<sup>n</sup> He could have gone up the coast and avoided most of the mountains, but He “needed” to go through Samaria. Probably because the Father told Him to—it was harvest time in Sychar.

ob's well was there; so Jesus, being worn out from the journey, sat as He was by the well. It was about 6 p.m.<sup>a</sup>

The woman

<sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria comes to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me a drink." <sup>8</sup>(His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) <sup>9</sup>So the Samaritan woman says to Him, "How can you, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, being a Samaritan woman?" (for Jews do not associate with Samaritans). <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to her: "If you knew the gift of God, and who is the one saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman says to Him: "Sir, you don't even have a bucket, and the well is deep; so where do you get this living water? <sup>12</sup>You aren't greater than our father Jacob, are you? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." <sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her: "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never ever thirst;<sup>b</sup> rather, the water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water, welling up into eternal life."<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup>The woman says to Him, "Sir, give me this water! so that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."

<sup>16</sup>Jesus says to her, "Go, call your husband and come back here." <sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said, "I don't have a husband." Jesus says to her: "You stated correctly that you do not have a husband, <sup>18</sup>because you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is no husband of yours. You spoke the truth there!"<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>The woman says to Him: "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, while you (pl) say that the place where one must worship is in Jerusalem." <sup>21</sup>Jesus says to her: "Woman, believe me, a time is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. <sup>22</sup>You [Samaritans] worship what you do not know; we [Jews] worship what we do know, because the salvation is from the Jews.<sup>e</sup> <sup>23</sup>But the time is coming, in fact now is, when the genuine worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth.

<sup>a</sup> Since John elsewhere always uses Roman time, I assume that he does so here as well. The Text has "the sixth hour". Many versions put "noon", which reflects Jewish time. But the Text says Jesus was worn out, which agrees better with a full day's walk than with a half day's walk. The distance between Salem and Sychar was probably about 35 miles, as the crow flies, but since the whole distance was over accidented terrain, the walking distance would be a good deal more. They had walked some 50 miles in twelve hours. Like the Text says, He was tired! And He was hot and thirsty. John emphasizes that as a human being He felt the full effects of the day.

<sup>b</sup> Here again the Lord gives a double meaning to a word—in verse 13 He uses "thirst" in a physical sense, but in verse 14 the sense has to be spiritual, since Jesus Himself experienced physical thirst. In verse 15 the woman sees only the physical sense. I personally do not find the spiritual meaning to be transparent. I have been serving the Lord for many years, but still experience spiritual thirst. I have to keep drinking. However, the 'water' being the Holy Spirit, any thirst will not be for lack of 'water'.

<sup>c</sup> That is what the Text says, "into eternal life". Eternal life is a quality of life, more precisely a life in communion with the Father. The picture is not necessarily of a geyser, water spouting up, but there has to be a constant flow. As our capacity increases the flow should also increase. Of course the water must be shared with others, or we become stagnant. See John 7:38.

<sup>d</sup> Dear me! Would you say that Jesus was making a special effort not to hurt her feelings? But He knew what He was doing, as verse 29 below makes clear. So how about us? Are we prepared to hurt people's feelings?

<sup>e</sup> Quite so. The Lamb of God is a Jew, and the Old Testament canon came through the Jewish people (see Romans 3:2). For that matter, most (if not all—Luke [?]) of the New Testament was written by Jews as well.

Really, because the Father is looking for such people to worship Him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>God is Spirit,<sup>b</sup> and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman says to Him: “I know that Messiah is coming (who is called Christ). When He comes He will explain everything to us.” <sup>26</sup>Jesus says to her, “I am He, the one who is talking with you!”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Now in the meantime the disciples were urging Him saying, “Rabbi, eat.” <sup>32</sup>But He said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.” <sup>33</sup>So the disciples started saying to one another, “Could someone have brought Him something to eat?” <sup>34</sup>Jesus says to them: “My food is to do the will of Him who sent me and to complete His work.<sup>f</sup> <sup>35</sup>Do you not say, ‘There are four months before the harvest comes?’ Well I say, Look! Lift your eyes and observe the fields; they are white for harvest already! <sup>36</sup>Now he who reaps receives pay and gathers fruit into eternal life,<sup>g</sup> so that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>Now the saying, ‘One is the sower and another the reaper,’ is true in this: <sup>38</sup>I

<sup>a</sup> The Father “is looking” for those who will worship Him in spirit and truth. It may be that we have here a window on the reason why God created a race such as ours—persons in His image with the capacity to choose. God “is looking” for something, which means He does not have it, at least not automatically, nor in sufficient quantity. I take it that He wants to be appreciated for who He is, but to have meaning such appreciation cannot come from robots—it has to be voluntary. So He created a type of being with that capacity, but He had to take the risk that such a being would choose not to appreciate Him. Unfortunately, most human beings make the negative choice, and with that negative choice come all sorts of negative consequences. Ever since Adam humans are born with an inclination toward sin, so for someone to choose to appreciate God is definitely not automatic, nor even easy. No one can reasonably accuse God of having ‘stacked the deck’ in His own favor, of ‘buying votes’—He seems to have done just the opposite. If a human being, against his natural inclination, chooses to appreciate God, then He receives what He is looking for. “In spirit and truth” presumably means that it cannot be faked, cannot be forced, cannot be merely physical, cannot be merely emotional (though both body and emotions can, and often will, be utilized). Please see Matthew 23:9-10 and 13.

<sup>b</sup> Again the lack of the definite article presents us with an ambiguity; the rendering ‘a spirit’ is possible. But as I indicate by the underlining, I understand that the quality inherent in the noun is being emphasized.

<sup>c</sup> As recorded in the four Gospels, this is the first time Jesus declares bluntly that He is the Messiah, and He does it to a woman, and a Samaritan one at that! That woman had had her ups and downs, but was no dummy; that the people of the town listened to her indicates that she had influence. Jesus knew what He was doing.

<sup>d</sup> A number of versions capitalize the ‘You’, as if the question would have been directed to Jesus, but it seems more likely to me that this first question would have been to the woman.

<sup>e</sup> That was nice of her; they could get water while she was gone. (It was also a clear indication that she intended to return, obeying His command.)

<sup>g</sup> That is what the Text says, “into eternal life”. Surely, Jesus is talking about harvesting souls, gathering them into the Kingdom—when someone is born from Above everyone who participated in the process is glad.

sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored and you have entered into their labors.”<sup>a</sup>

The Samaritans

<sup>39</sup>Now many of the Samaritans from that city believed into Him because of the word of the woman, testifying that “He told me everything I ever did!” <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to Him they urged Him to stay with them; and He did stay there two days. <sup>41</sup>Many more believed through His own word, <sup>42</sup>and they kept saying to the woman, “It is not just because of what you said that we believe, because we ourselves have heard Him,<sup>b</sup> and we know that this One is truly the Messiah,<sup>c</sup> the Savior of the world!”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus in Galilee

<sup>43</sup>So after the two days He departed from there and went on into Galilee. <sup>44</sup>(For Jesus Himself had testified that a prophet does not have honor in his own country.)<sup>e</sup> <sup>45</sup>So when He came into Galilee the Galileans welcomed Him, having seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem, at the festival; for they too had gone to the festival.

<sup>46</sup>So Jesus went again to Cana of Galilee,<sup>f</sup> where He made the water wine. Now there was a certain royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When this man heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son,<sup>g</sup> for he was about to die. <sup>48</sup>So Jesus said to him, “Unless you people see signs and wonders you will not believe!”<sup>h</sup> <sup>49</sup>The official says to Him, “Sir, come down before my child dies!” <sup>50</sup>Jesus says to him, “Go; your son lives.” Well the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and off he went. <sup>51</sup>Now while he was still going down his slaves met him and reported saying, “Your son lives!” <sup>52</sup>So he inquired of them the hour in which he got better. And they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.”<sup>i</sup> <sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the exact hour in which Jesus

<sup>a</sup> “I sent you to reap” must refer to activity in the past, so I take it that the Lord is stating a general principle.

<sup>b</sup> As the italics indicate, “Him” is not in the Text; perhaps the addition confuses the picture. What do you suppose the disciples were doing during those two days? I bet the Samaritans were eager to hear all that they could about Jesus, what He had said and done—they kept the disciples busy!

<sup>e</sup> I believe that the episode recorded in Luke 4:16-30 took place between verses 43 and 45 here, and verse 44 is an echo of Luke 4:24. From Sychar Jesus went directly to Natsareth, was rejected there, and proceeded to Cana. Verse 45 is a summary statement, after the fact. [Of course He was born in Bethlehem, Judea, but I doubt that He is referring to it as ‘his own country’.]

<sup>g</sup> The man was asking Jesus to make an emergency hike of some 25 miles (unless he was mounted and had brought an extra horse for Jesus; but He probably wasn’t used to riding). Evidently he figured that the healer had to be physically present.

<sup>i</sup> It is virtually certain that the official and his slaves used Roman time, in which case the cure took place at 7 p.m. It could not be 7 a.m. because the man would have met his slaves before noon and they would have said ‘today’, not ‘yesterday’ (verse 52). It could not be Jewish time for a similar reason—if Jesus healed at 1 p.m. the man would have met his slaves before sundown and they would have said told him, “Your son lives.” Both he himself and his whole household believed.<sup>54</sup> Again, coming out of Judea into Galilee, Jesus performed this second miraculous sign.<sup>a</sup>

Jesus returns to Jerusalem—Passover, 28 AD

5 <sup>1</sup>After these things there was the<sup>b</sup> feast of the Jews, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

The pool of Bethesda

The man selected for healing

<sup>5</sup>Now there was a certain man there who had been sick for 38 years.<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>Seeing this man lying there and knowing that he had already been sick a long time, Jesus says to him, “Do you want to get well?” <sup>7</sup>The sick man answered Him, “Sir, I have no man to throw<sup>h</sup> me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I

‘today’. The man probably walked (unless he was mounted, but at night the horse would be held to a walk) during at least part of the night; the slaves would have started out at dawn; they probably met at a point much closer to Capernaum than to Cana.

<sup>a</sup> That is, He healed at a distance, just by His thought. Curiously, He was in Cana for both of them.

<sup>b</sup> The manuscript evidence is badly divided here, between ‘the feast’ and ‘a feast’—I take it that the best evidence is on the side of the definite article. In that event the feast was the Passover (with the other alternative it could still be the Passover), the second during Christ’s public ministry; one and a half years are behind Him and there are two to go. For events between the first two Passovers see Mark 1:14-2:17, Luke 4:14-5:39 and Matthew 4:12-8:4.

<sup>c</sup> Fully 99% of the Greek manuscripts read the familiar ‘Bethesda’, and this name is attested by the 1st century Copper Scroll from Qumran. The so-called ‘critical text’ (UBS and N-A) serves up the pitiful ‘Bethzatha’, following just five Greek manuscripts (as in TEV, RSV, Jer., etc.). The UBS editors have introduced an historical error into their text on the flimsiest of evidence, even going against their favorites, P<sup>75</sup> and B.

<sup>d</sup> The pool is a rectangle (it is still there), so it has four sides—so where was the fifth porch? Across the middle, dividing the pool into two smaller ones. Instead of ‘porch’ one could use ‘portico’, ‘cloister’, ‘colonnade’—a covered walkway.

<sup>f</sup> About 0.8% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit the last clause of verse 3 and all of verse 4 (as in NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc.). But obviously all those people would not stay there (in discomfort) day in and day out, year in and year out, if nothing was happening. Obviously people got healed (from serious diseases), and verse 7 makes clear that it had to do with the stirring of the water—so why didn’t those manuscripts omit verse 7 as well? The UBS editions do us a considerable disservice by following a very small minority of manuscripts (perhaps 2%) and making the angel ‘of the Lord’. Since angels can be good or fallen, it seems most likely to me that the angel involved was fallen. A capricious, occasional healing condemned all those people to added suffering (being at the pool instead of the comfort of home), including the frustration and despair of those who never made it (like the man Jesus healed). A sadistic procedure is just like Satan.

am coming another gets in before me.”<sup>8</sup> Jesus says to him, “Get up, pick up your pallet and walk!”<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man became well and picked up his pallet and started to walk!<sup>10</sup> But that day was a Sabbath, so the Jews said to the one who had been healed: “It’s the Sabbath! You aren’t allowed to carry the pallet.”<sup>11</sup> He answered them: “The one who made me well—He said to me, ‘Pick up your pallet and walk.’”<sup>12</sup> So they asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Pick up your pallet and walk?’”<sup>13</sup> But the man who was cured did not know who it was, because Jesus had disappeared, there being a crowd in the place.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>After these things Jesus found him in the temple and said to him: “See, you are well. Don’t sin any more, so that something worse doesn’t happen to you.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>15</sup>The man went off and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

The Jews want to kill Jesus

Jesus addresses the Jews

He affirms His equality with the Father

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to them: “Most assuredly I say to you, the Son is not able to do anything from Himself, except something He sees the Father doing; because whatever things He does, precisely these the Son also does.<sup>f</sup> <sup>20</sup>For the Father loves<sup>g</sup> the Son and shows Him everything that He Himself is doing; and He will show Him greater works than these, so that you may marvel. <sup>21</sup>Now

<sup>a</sup> Let’s stop and think about what Jesus did here. There were probably hundreds of sick people there—why did He only heal one of them? And why did He disappear into the crowd before the man could find out who He was? And why did He do this on a Sabbath? I think it was all deliberate—He wanted to provoke the Jews. He chose a Sabbath; He chose a man who had a pallet, but who had no slave or other helper; He commanded (yes, commanded) the man to carry the pallet; He got out of the way so the Jews would have the man to themselves. In this way He set up a confrontation, as we will see below. [In passing we may note that if ever there was a ‘divine healer’ it was the Lord Jesus, and yet He did not empty out this ‘hospital’. Maybe divine healers aren’t supposed to empty hospitals.]

<sup>b</sup> The Lord seems to be implying that the former sickness was the result of sin. But he had been sick for 38 years, so he had paid a heavy price!

<sup>d</sup> The last recorded events before John 5:1 are in Luke 5:12-39. The healing of the paralytic had impressed the Jews, but then Jesus immediately went and ate with publicans; and verses 36-39 were against what the Jews represented. Here in John Jesus challenges their authority over the Sabbath.

<sup>e</sup> Not only does Jesus not run and hide, He ‘ups the ante’—He claims to be God, as the Jews understood perfectly well (and which in their mind called for the death penalty, since they were not prepared to acknowledge that claim).

<sup>f</sup> I find this statement to be amazing, revealing and challenging. Jesus only did what He saw the Father doing; so how about us? I would say that my main ‘ministry’ problem is that I often don’t know what the Father is doing, and so I waste a lot of time and effort.

<sup>g</sup> To my surprise the verb here is φίλειω, not ἀγαπάω—the Father is emotionally attached to the Son. Well, since we have emotions God must have had them first. God affirms that He has soul (Isaiah 42:1, Matthew 12:18, Hebrews 10:38).

just as the Father raises the dead and gives life, just so the Son also gives life to those whom He wishes. <sup>22</sup>In fact the Father does not judge anyone but has committed all the judging to the Son,<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>so that all will honor the Son just as they honor the Father.<sup>b</sup> Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.<sup>c</sup>

The Son is the just Judge

<sup>24</sup>“Most assuredly I say to you that the one listening<sup>d</sup> to my word and believing on Him who sent me has eternal life; he will not go into judging but has moved out of the death into the Life.<sup>e</sup> <sup>25</sup>“Most assuredly I say to you that a time is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of the God, and those who listen will live.<sup>f</sup> <sup>26</sup>Because just as the Father has life in Himself, just so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself; <sup>27</sup>furthermore He gave Him authority to pass judgment, because He is Son of Man.<sup>g</sup> <sup>28</sup>Do not marvel at this, because a time is coming in which all those in the graves will hear His voice <sup>29</sup>and will come out—those who did good things into the resurrection of life,<sup>h</sup> but those who practiced evil things into the resurrection of condemnation. <sup>30</sup>I am not able to do anything from myself. As I hear, I judge, and my judging is just, because I do not seek my own will but the will of the Father who sent me.

Four witnesses to Jesus

<sup>31</sup>“If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.<sup>i</sup> <sup>32</sup>There is another who testifies about me, and I know that the testimony that He gives about me is true.<sup>j</sup> <sup>33</sup>You have sent to John and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup>Yet I do not accept the testimony from a man; but I say these things so that you may be saved.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I suppose this means that it will be the Son who sits on the ‘great white throne’ (Revelation 20:11).

<sup>c</sup> I take it that the Lord Jesus is saying that monotheistic people (Jews, Muslims) who claim to honor the Father, but do not honor the Son, are not really doing so. (Perhaps that would not apply to those who have never heard about Jesus.)

<sup>d</sup> Most versions render ‘hear’ instead of ‘listen’, both here and in the next verse, but from the context it seems clear that Jesus is not talking about sound striking the eardrum; He is talking about acting on the basis of what is heard.

<sup>f</sup> It seems clear that the picture here is different from that in verses 28-29. Here Jesus says “now is”, so He is not talking about future judgment; so the dead here are spiritually dead, and those who listen to Him receive spiritual life. In verse 28 the reference is to the physically dead, who are raised to face the final judgment.

<sup>g</sup> We as human beings will be judged by another human being, someone who knows what it’s like. There is no definite article with either “Son” or “Man”, so this is not the title He normally used; ‘son of man’ emphasizes the humanity of Jesus.

<sup>h</sup> Notice again the emphasis on doing, because what you do reflects what you really believe, and what you really believe is what you are—and you cannot kid God. “All those in the graves” means everyone who has died; all will be raised, and all must face the final Accounting.

<sup>i</sup> According to the Law at least two witnesses were required, so if Jesus had only His own word it would not be enough, would not be valid (even though He told the truth).

<sup>j</sup> I take it that this witness must be the Father, since in verse 34 Jesus discounts John the Baptizer.

<sup>k</sup> Since Jesus has three supernatural witnesses—the Father, His own works and the Scriptures—He does not need John. I do not believe Jesus was angry with John or otherwise dissatisfied with his testimony; it is just that the Jews had already rejected John’s testimony about Jesus (as they had rejected

<sup>35</sup>That man was a burning, shining lamp, and for a time you were willing to be glad in his light. <sup>36</sup>But I have a greater testimony than John's, because the works that the Father gave me to complete—the very works that I am doing—they testify about me that the Father has sent me.<sup>a</sup>

The Jews are accused by Moses

<sup>41</sup>I do not accept glory from people. <sup>42</sup>Rather I have come to know you,<sup>d</sup> that you do not have the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup>I have come in my Father's name and you do not receive me; should another come in his own name, him you will receive.<sup>e</sup> <sup>44</sup>How can you believe, who receive glory from men<sup>f</sup> and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?<sup>g</sup>

<sup>45</sup>Do not suppose that I will accuse you before the Father. Moses is the one who accuses you, on whom you have set your hope. <sup>46</sup>Because if you really believed Moses you would believe me, because he wrote about me. <sup>47</sup>But since you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my sayings?<sup>h</sup>

Jesus is back in Galilee<sup>i</sup>

---

Jesus Himself). As He says, He would like for them to turn around and be saved, so He organizes His argument in that attempt.

<sup>c</sup> Jesus had proved that He was the Messiah, but He threatened everything that they stood for.

<sup>d</sup> That is what the Text says, "I have come to know"—presumably He is referring to knowledge gained by observation; they have clearly demonstrated in His presence that in fact they do not have God's love.

<sup>g</sup> This is serious! Apparently one's attitude toward glory affects his ability to believe. If the approval of people is more important to you than the approval of God, you probably will not believe into Jesus.

<sup>i</sup> Almost a whole year has elapsed between chapters 5 and 6 here. For the events that transpired during that period see Luke 6:1-9:10, Mark 2:23-6:31 and the corresponding accounts in Matthew.

<sup>j</sup> From the parallel accounts it appears that He embarked at Capernaum. (Matthew informs us that He had just heard of the Baptizer's ignominious death and wanted to get away—perhaps to grieve and assimilate the news.) From John 6:23 we learn that the destination was near Tiberias. Capernaum and Tiberias are both on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, but there is a large bay between them; so they went over 6-8 miles of water.

<sup>k</sup> The crowd was not about to let Jesus get away. Mark makes clear that they ran along the shore—the faster runners stayed even with the boat and were waiting on the shore when the boat put in. The others were spread out behind for several miles (like in a marathon) and kept arriving. Any late starters

Food for 15,000<sup>c</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Then, raising His eyes and observing that a huge crowd was coming toward Him, Jesus says to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread so that these folks may eat?”<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>Now He said this to test him, for He Himself knew what He was about to do. <sup>7</sup>Philip answered Him, “Two hundred denarii worth of bread<sup>e</sup> would not be enough for them, so that each of them could receive a little.” <sup>8</sup>One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, says to Him, <sup>9</sup>“There is a little boy here who has five loaves of barley bread and two small fish, but what are they for so many?”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said, “Make the people recline.” Now there was plenty of grass in the place; so the men reclined, about five thousand in number. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples<sup>g</sup> to those who were reclining; so too with the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup>So when they were full He says to His disciples, “Collect the left-over fragments so that nothing be wasted.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>So they collected and filled twelve baskets<sup>i</sup> with fragments from the five barley loaves that were left over from those who had eaten.

would see the stragglers and could easily follow the action. Apparently He immediately started to heal the sick and went on to teach (Matthew 14:14, Mark 6:34). But just where was it? John says it was near Tiberias, but Luke 9:10 says it was “a deserted place belonging to a town called Bethsaida”. [Less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have “into a town called Bethsaida” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), which makes Luke contradict himself (verse 12 says it was a deserted place) as well as the parallel accounts.] I assume that the place was indeed near Tiberias but did indeed belong to Bethsaida—either it had been deeded to the town somehow or the family that owned it was based in Bethsaida. Any near neighbors could not use it, so it was basically untouched—a great place for a picnic.

- <sup>a</sup> Comparing the other accounts, I take it that they had already spent quite a bit of time on the beach, and the afternoon was wearing away. Since verse 6 says He knew what He was going to do, I assume it was a deliberate move to get the crowd up where there was grass so they could sit down in relative comfort.
- <sup>b</sup> I frankly do not see what connection this information has with the story, but it does give us a time frame. Since chapter 5 happened at Passover time, there was an interval of a year.
- <sup>c</sup> Why 15,000? Well, Matthew 14:21 says plainly that there were about 5,000 men besides women and children. In any crowd what is there usually most of? Since the context was not one of war (where there would be mostly men) I imagine there were at least 15,000 people there (like mothers with sick children).
- <sup>d</sup> According to the other three accounts, the disciples had already suggested to Jesus that He send the people away to the surrounding towns to buy food. But let’s stop and think. How many bread stores would a village have, and how much bread would a store still have on hand at 5 p.m.? If they could have gone to every store within a radius of 30 miles, I doubt that they would have found even 10,000 loaves available. The Lord’s question shows that their suggestion was really a cop-out.
- <sup>e</sup> How much bread can you buy with the wages for 200 days of manual labor? Probably an awful lot of it. But the crowd was so huge that Philip figured that even that much would not do it. [If a day’s wage would buy 50 small loaves, for instance, that would make 10,000 loaves—more people than bread.]
- <sup>f</sup> I think it must be understood that the boy handed them over willingly, so he participated in the miracle. We also must give to God willingly, and when we do we participate in the results.
- <sup>g</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit the reference to the disciples here and have Jesus distributing directly to the crowd (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), making John contradict the other three Gospels.
- <sup>h</sup> Notice the care that nothing be wasted. A common human reaction would be, ‘easy come, easy go’—since Jesus can make more any time He wants, why worry. But no, the Lord does not look at it that way.
- <sup>i</sup> They were large baskets, probably borrowed from the fishing boats (see verse 23 below). The disciples probably had help with the collecting; and in any case, they did not keep that food.

<sup>14</sup>Now then, having seen the miraculous sign that Jesus performed the men said, “This One really is the Prophet who is to come into the world.” <sup>15</sup>So Jesus, perceiving that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king,<sup>a</sup> withdrew up the mountain again by Himself, alone.

Jesus walks on water

The ‘king-makers’ return to Capernaum

<sup>22</sup>The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea,<sup>h</sup> having seen that there was no other boat there except the one into which His disciples had entered,<sup>i</sup> and that Jesus had not gotten into the boat with His disciples but only His disciples had gone away—<sup>23</sup>although other boats had come from Tiberias,<sup>j</sup> near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks— <sup>24</sup>so when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were

<sup>b</sup> When they started out, the boat would be pointing toward Capernaum / Genesaret / Bethsaida; only as they went on would it become clear that their first destination was Bethsaida (Mark 6:45).

<sup>c</sup> This statement puzzles me. The author of this Gospel was in that boat. Did they really expect Jesus to come to them over the water? How? Evidently they did not expect Him to come walking.

<sup>d</sup> The Text actually says ‘twenty-five or thirty stadia’. In Matthew 14:24 over 99% of the Greek manuscripts have them “in the middle of the sea”. If you draw a line from Tiberias to Bethsaida (see Mark 6:45) and put an X at four miles you will be in the middle of the widest part of the sea. Matthew further informs us that the wind was contrary and that Jesus came between 3 and 6 a.m. (the 4th watch). They had been on the water at least nine hours and most probably rowing most of that time (they were in a fishing boat, not a little rowboat). They were tired! From the parallel accounts it is clear that Jesus sent them on their way. He deliberately sent them into a difficult and trying situation. We need to understand that He may do the same with us.

<sup>g</sup> They were still some four miles from Bethsaida, so here we have another remarkable miracle—Jesus transported the boat those four miles instantaneously. There have been repeated references to crossing the sea, so the reading of the so-called ‘critical text’ in Luke 9:10 that places the feeding of the 5,000 in the town of Bethsaida is patently ridiculous. What would motivate the editors to print such a ridiculous reading in their text?

<sup>h</sup> These were men who stayed on the scene; I assume that they bedded down on the grass right there, waiting for Jesus to come down from the mountain—these were decision makers, and they still wanted to make Jesus king.

<sup>i</sup> Around 4% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “except the one into which His disciples had entered” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> The point seems to be that only one boat came with Jesus, so when it left there was no other at His disposal. The boats from Tiberias doubtless returned home for the night (the town was not far and the owners would prefer to sleep in their beds).

there, they got into the boats<sup>a</sup> and went to Capernaum, looking for Jesus.<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>When they found Him on another side<sup>c</sup> of the sea they said to Him, “Rabbi, when<sup>d</sup> did you get here?”

The Bread of Life

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered them and said: “Most assuredly I say to you, you are not seeking me because you saw miraculous signs, but because you ate the bread and were filled.<sup>e</sup> <sup>27</sup>Do not work for the food that wastes away but for the food that endures into life eternal, which the Son of the Man will give you;<sup>f</sup> because on Him God the Father has set His seal.” <sup>28</sup>So they said to Him, “What should we do so that we may work the works of God?”<sup>g</sup> <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe into the One whom He sent.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>30</sup>So they said to Him: “Well then, what sign are you going to do so we may see and believe you?”<sup>i</sup> What are you going to perform? <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the desert, just as it is written: ‘He gave them bread from Heaven to eat.’”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus said to them: “Most assuredly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from Heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from Heaven. <sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is the One coming down out of Heaven and giving Life to the world.”<sup>k</sup> <sup>34</sup>Then they said to Him, “Lord, give us this bread always.”<sup>l</sup> <sup>35</sup>So Jesus said to them: “I am the bread of the Life. Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes into me will never thirst.”<sup>m</sup> <sup>36</sup>But, as I told you, you

<sup>a</sup> How many people could those boats carry? Probably less than a hundred, all told, but these were special people who had stayed on the scene for a reason.

<sup>b</sup> From Matthew and Mark I gather that from Bethsaida Jesus went directly to Genesaret; verse 59 below makes clear that the men found Him in Capernaum, which was close by. So why did Jesus send the disciples to Bethsaida? Perhaps it was to give an accounting to the owner of the place where the multitude was fed—15,000 people can make quite a mess. (I suspect that Jesus had permission to use the place when He wanted to get away, but no one had foreseen such a crowd as that.)

<sup>d</sup> “When”, not “how”. Surely, they knew that Jesus could have taken a back trail through the hills and made it on foot without difficulty.

<sup>f</sup> Jesus will give the Life, but they have to work for the food that endures into that Life. So how do we “work for the food”? Most people have to work so as to have food to maintain their physical health and strength, and there are clear biblical strictures against laziness, so our Lord’s statement presumably has to do with priorities. ‘Making a living’ should not be our top priority; like Jesus, our top priority should be to do the Father’s will (Hebrews 10:7, John 4:34). What we build in ‘gold, silver, precious stones’ (1 Corinthians 3:12) will indeed “endure into” life eternal.

<sup>h</sup> If we want to serve or please God, the first step is to believe into Jesus. After we belong to Jesus we have the privilege of participating in God’s works.

<sup>i</sup> These guys are hard to believe—they had seen Jesus multiply the bread and fish; how much more of a sign did they want? They had been so impressed that they wanted to make Him king. But instead of offering free food Jesus is now demanding commitment; so they start to backpedal.

<sup>k</sup> Jesus said that ‘bread’ ‘gives life’. Bread was their staff of life; their physical life depended on it. Similarly, our spiritual life depends on Jesus.

<sup>l</sup> This seems to be a bit of a change in attitude. They are vacillating.

have actually seen me, yet you do not believe. <sup>37</sup>All that the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will not throw out;<sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>because it is not to do my own will that I have come down out of Heaven,<sup>b</sup> but the will of the One who sent me. <sup>39</sup>Now this is the will of the Father who sent me, that I should lose nothing out of all that He has given me, but should raise it<sup>c</sup> up at the last day. <sup>40</sup>Again this is the will of Him who sent me, that everyone who ‘sees’ the Son and believes into Him may have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Then the Jews<sup>e</sup> started complaining about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that came down out of Heaven.” <sup>42</sup>And they were saying: “Isn’t this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know?”<sup>f</sup> So how can he say, ‘I have come down out of Heaven’?”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>43</sup>So Jesus answered and said to them: “Stop complaining among yourselves. <sup>44</sup>No one is able to come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him,<sup>h</sup> and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the prophets, ‘And they will all be taught by God.’<sup>i</sup> Therefore everyone who listens and learns from the Father comes to me.<sup>j</sup> <sup>46</sup>(Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One who is from God—He has seen the Father.) <sup>47</sup>Most assuredly I say to you: the one believing into me<sup>k</sup> has eternal life.

<sup>a</sup> “All that” is in the neuter gender and presumably includes more than people; but does it exclude people? “The one who” refers only to people. Jesus will not throw you out, but you can back out, decide to turn back.

<sup>b</sup> Here we have a plain statement: “I have come down out of Heaven”. We can either accept it or reject it; those who say that Jesus was merely a good man are rejecting it.

<sup>c</sup> The manuscript evidence is badly divided here, but I take it that the best line of transmission has “it” rather than “him” (neuter rather than masculine)—in the preceding clause, “nothing out of all” is definitely neuter. The ‘problem’ is the verb “raise”—if it is taken as raising the dead then the direct object should be masculine. But “raise” is much more general in use, being used for erecting a building, lifting something up, etc. There is a contrast between verse 39 (things) and verse 40 (people). Verse 39 joins other passages that indicate that during the Millennium the earth will be restored to conditions reminiscent of Eden (compare Romans 8:19-22).

<sup>d</sup> Since only His contemporaries could see Jesus physically, everyone else has to ‘see’ Him spiritually. But in verse 36 the Lord says that even though they were seeing Him physically, they were not believing—so even for the contemporaries the ‘seeing’ had to be spiritual. Jesus Himself will raise up His followers, and to do that He has to be alive!

<sup>e</sup> I take it that up to verse 40 Jesus has been interacting with the ‘king makers’. The ‘Jews’ here probably represent the ruling hierarchy—since Jesus was in the synagogue there were others present besides the ‘king makers’.

<sup>f</sup> I wonder why they refer to Joseph’s parents. Of course they were assuming that Jesus was in fact Joseph’s son.

<sup>g</sup> Notice that they understood clearly that Jesus was claiming that He had come down out of Heaven.

<sup>j</sup> In verse 44 Jesus emphasizes God’s sovereignty; here He emphasizes human responsibility. We can ‘listen and learn’, and then ‘come’. But in what sense is everyone “taught by God”? Everyone has the light of creation and is born with a conscience, at least. Perhaps there are other ways that God ‘teaches’.

<sup>k</sup> About 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “into me” (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.). But the object of one’s belief is of the essence; it is impossible to live without believing in something, so everyone believes. The reading of the so-called ‘critical text’ opens the door to universalism—the more so since the Lord is making a formal statement about how to be saved.

Chew flesh, drink blood

<sup>52</sup>At that the Jews started quarrelling among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>53</sup>So Jesus said to them: “Most assuredly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of the Man and drink His blood, you do not have Life within yourselves. <sup>54</sup>Whoever chews<sup>g</sup> my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life,<sup>h</sup> and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup>Really, my flesh is genuine food and my blood is genuine drink. <sup>56</sup>Whoever chews my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him.<sup>i</sup> <sup>57</sup>Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so also the one who feeds<sup>j</sup> on me will live because of me. <sup>58</sup>This is the bread that came down out of Heaven. Whoever feeds on this bread of mine will live forever (in contrast to your fathers who ate the manna and died).”<sup>k</sup> <sup>59</sup>He said these things while teaching in a synagogue in Capernaum.

Jesus loses many followers

<sup>60</sup>Therefore, upon hearing this many from among His disciples said: “This word is hard! Who is able to hear it?” <sup>61</sup>So Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples were complaining about this, said to them: “Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>What if you should see the Son of the Man going up to where He was at first?”<sup>l</sup> <sup>63</sup>The Spirit is the One who makes alive; the flesh does not benefit anything. The words that I speak to you are spirit, are Life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some among you who do not believe.” (For Jesus knew from the start who they were who did not believe, and

<sup>a</sup> Since the Lord is obviously not claiming to be a loaf of literal bread, this is a figure of speech, a metaphor. Bread was their staff of life; they could not live without it. Jesus is our spiritual ‘staff of life’; we cannot live spiritually without Him.

<sup>f</sup> They were being strictly literal, which could not be right—if they had started cutting Him up right there, they would have killed Him, and only those physically present could have eaten and drunk.

<sup>g</sup> The verb here is different from the “eat” in verse 53. The verb here would typically be used of a cow munching fodder, but fodder is usually crunchy, so the munching is noisy. Because “munch” suggests noise, I have rendered “chew”. In verse 56 chewing is linked to abiding, something we need to do every day.

<sup>h</sup> The Roman Church takes this literally when they claim that during their Mass the priest actually converts the elements into flesh and blood (transubstantiation). But since John repeatedly records that it is by believing into Jesus, or His name, that one receives eternal life, then we should understand the eating and drinking here as metaphoric.

<sup>k</sup> Many of those who died in the wilderness died in rebellion against God, so the “died” here may refer to spiritual death as well.

<sup>l</sup> I find this question to be curious. How does it apply to what He has been saying?

who was betraying Him.) <sup>65</sup>And He said, “That is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it has been granted to him by my Father.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>66</sup>From that time many of His disciples turned back and stopped going around with Him.<sup>b</sup> <sup>67</sup>So Jesus said to the twelve, “You don’t want to go away too, do you?” <sup>68</sup>So Simon Peter answered Him: “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup>Further, we have come to believe and to know that you are the Christ, the Son of the Living God!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>70</sup>He said to them: “Did I myself not choose you twelve? Yet one of you is a devil.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>71</sup>He was referring to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, for it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Passover, 29 AD

7 <sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus continued to move about in Galilee,<sup>e</sup> since He did not wish to move about in Judea because the Jews were wanting to kill Him.<sup>f</sup>

Jesus and His brothers

<sup>b</sup> It is possible that Jesus used the language that He did deliberately, precisely to reduce the number of ‘hangers-on’. Too many people hanging around would get in the way, reduce efficiency.

<sup>e</sup> All of chapter six took place in Galilee, so why make a point of Jesus’ continuing there? 6:4 says that the Passover was near, but 7:2 says that the Feast of Tabernacles was near—that is six months later. As a God-fearing male, Jesus had to go to Jerusalem for the Passover, so He must have gone, although none of the Gospels records it. I take it that He went without calling attention to Himself, and returned immediately to Galilee, for the reason given in the second half of the verse.

<sup>f</sup> Between 6:71 and 7:2 six months elapsed. For events that occurred during that period see Matthew 15:1-18:35, Mark 7:1-9:50 and Luke 9:18-50.

<sup>g</sup> These would have to be dwellers in Judea who were not following Jesus around. Since His statement about eating His flesh, the number of hangers-on was drastically reduced, giving the impression that He was losing popularity in Galilee.

<sup>h</sup> Well now, those brothers were not very nice, were they? I take it that they knew very well that the hierarchy was plotting to kill Jesus (it seems to me obvious that the Jews had researched Jesus’ past and family, and had doubtless been working on His brothers), so they were trying to send Him to His death. With friends like that, who needs enemies?

<sup>i</sup> I assume that He meant that they could repent and believe into Him at any time.

<sup>j</sup> If we raise the standard of biblical values in the public arena, calling a spade a spade, the world will hate us too—try it and see!

<sup>k</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “yet” (as in NASB, TEV, RSV, etc.). The reading of the so-called ‘critical’ text has the effect of ascribing a falsehood to Jesus, since He did in fact go to the feast (and doubtless knew what He was going to do). Among the 97% are P<sup>66,75</sup> and B—since

Jesus leaves Galilee—the last six months of His public ministry

<sup>10</sup>Now when His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He too went up, not openly but in secret like. <sup>11</sup>So the Jews were looking for Him at the feast and saying, “Where is he?” <sup>12</sup>And there was a lot of murmuring about Him among the crowds. Some were saying, “He is good”; others were saying, “On the contrary, he’s deceiving the people.” <sup>13</sup>However, no one was talking openly about Him for fear of the Jews.

Jesus teaches in the Temple

<sup>14</sup>Now when the feast was already half over Jesus went up into the temple and started to teach. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews were marveling saying, “How is this man learned, not having been educated?”<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>So Jesus answered them and said: “What I teach is not mine, but His who sent me.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>If anyone wants to do His will,<sup>d</sup> he will know concerning the teaching, whether it is from God or whether I am speaking on my own. <sup>18</sup>Someone who speaks on his own is seeking his own glory; but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

Moses versus the Jews

<sup>19</sup>“Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law! Why do you want to kill me?” <sup>20</sup>The crowd answered and said, “You must have a demon! Who wants to kill you?”<sup>e</sup>

Public opinion divided

the UBS editors usually attach the highest value to P<sup>75</sup> and B, isn’t it strange that they reject them in this case?

<sup>b</sup> That is, He had never been to a recognized theological seminary, rabbinical school, or whatever. But He knew more than they did! (Which of course was hard for them to swallow.)

<sup>c</sup> Jesus is evidently aware of what they are saying or thinking, since He addresses it.

<sup>d</sup> If we want to do, we will know. The Lord did not say, if we just want to know—we have to be committed to obey before we know what the order is. Once we are committed to obey, it is in God’s own interest to talk to us.

<sup>h</sup> Hey, the last healing on a Sabbath in Jerusalem, as recorded by John, happened a year and a half ago! In fact, none of the four Gospels records any activity by Jesus in Jerusalem during the year and a half since John 5. Jesus seems to be implying that they are still mad about that!

other hand, we know where this man is from; but whenever the Christ comes nobody knows where He is from.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>28</sup>So Jesus while teaching in the temple, called out saying: “You do know me, and you know where I am from. Yet I have not come on my own, but the One who sent me is true, whom you do not know. <sup>29</sup>I do know Him because I am from Him, and He sent me.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>So they tried to arrest Him, yet no one laid a hand on Him because His hour had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>Now many of the crowd were believing into Him, and they were saying, “Whenever the Christ comes He won’t perform more signs than these which this man has done, will He?” <sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about Him, so the Pharisees and the chief priests sent operatives to arrest Him.

<sup>33</sup>Then Jesus said: “For a little while I am still with you, and then I go to the One who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will look for me and not find me; also, where I am you cannot come.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>35</sup>So the Jews said among themselves: “Where does this fellow intend to go that we won’t find him? He doesn’t intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does he? <sup>36</sup>What word is this that he spoke, ‘You will look for me and not find me’; also, ‘where I am you cannot come?’”

The last day of the Feast

<sup>37</sup>Now on the last and most important day of the Feast, Jesus stood up and called out saying: “If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. <sup>38</sup>The one believing into me, just as the Scripture has said, out from his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>39</sup>(Now He said this about the Spirit, whom those believing into Him were going to receive,<sup>e</sup> in that the Holy Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

<sup>40</sup>So upon hearing this word many from the crowd began to say, “This One really is ‘the Prophet!’” <sup>41</sup>Others were saying, “This One is the Christ!” Others were saying: “Surely the Christ isn’t coming out of Galilee, is He? <sup>42</sup>Doesn’t the Scripture say that the Christ comes out of the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?”<sup>f</sup> <sup>43</sup>So there developed a division in the crowd be-

<sup>a</sup> If no one could know where the Messiah came from, how come the rulers were able to tell Herod that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem? The people had bought into a false idea. Verses 25-27 presumably record bits from various speakers.

<sup>b</sup> The Lord is very emphatic about His heavenly origin. Of course the Jews want to be rid of Him because He most definitely is not fitting into their scheme of things. I take it that there is divine intervention at work so they are not able to arrest Him.

<sup>c</sup> “Where I am”—that is what the Text says. I imagine that the idea is the same as in John 3:13, “who is in Heaven”. He has just said in verse 33 that He is going back to Heaven. So, He is telling those Jewish leaders that they cannot go to Heaven!

<sup>d</sup> Just where does the Scripture say this, and why “rivers” (pl); wouldn’t one be enough? Reference Bibles will give a variety of suggestions, none of which really fit. I personally believe that the reference is to Ezekiel 47:1-12, and most especially to verse 9 where the Hebrew text has two rivers (or torrents)—when that river got to the Dead Sea it evidently divided, so as to go along both banks at once. Living water takes life and health wherever it goes. So how much living water is flowing out of me, or you? The secret of that water is given in verse 12: “their water flows from the sanctuary” (compare 1 Corinthians 6:19).

<sup>f</sup> I smell a rat. In verse 27 above they claimed that no one knew where the Christ was coming from; now here they say it is Bethlehem. I suspect that there were people planted in the crowd whose job it was to create confusion, and they felt no obligation to tell the truth.

cause of Him. <sup>44</sup>Further, some of them were wanting to arrest Him, but no one laid a hand on Him.

The operatives are empty-handed

<sup>45</sup>Then the operatives came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, “Why haven’t you brought him?” <sup>46</sup>The operatives answered, “No man ever spoke like this man!” <sup>47</sup>So the Pharisees answered them: “You haven’t been fooled too, have you? <sup>48</sup>None of the rulers or the Pharisees have believed into him, have they? <sup>49</sup>But this crowd that doesn’t know the law is accursed!”

<sup>50</sup>Nicodemus (the one who came to Him at night, being one of them) says to them, <sup>51</sup>“Our law doesn’t judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing, does it?” <sup>52</sup>They answered and said to him: “You aren’t from Galilee too, are you? Search and see that no prophet has ever arisen out of Galilee.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>53</sup>So each one went to his own house.<sup>b</sup>

The Light of the world at work

8 <sup>1</sup>Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>And at dawn He went again into the temple, and all the people were coming to Him; so sitting down He started to <sup>a</sup> A bit of an overstatement—Jonah was from Gath Hepher of Zebulun, north of Natsareth (2 Kings 14:25). Further, it was beside the point, an ad hominem argument. Not only that, they knew that Jesus was born in Bethlehem.

<sup>b</sup> Some 15% of the Greek manuscripts omit 7:53-8:11, including most of the early ones; but that means that 85% contain it, including the Latin tradition that dates from the 2nd century. Assuming (for the sake of the argument) that the passage is spurious, how could it ever have intruded here, and to such effect that it is attested by some 85% of the MSS? Let’s try to read the larger passage without these verses—we must go from 7:52 to 8:12 directly. Reviewing the context, the chief priests and Pharisees had sent officers to arrest Jesus, to no avail; a ‘discussion’ ensues; Nicodemus makes a point, to which the Pharisees answer:

(7:52) “Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, for no prophet has arisen out of Galilee.”
(8:12) Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world...”

What is the antecedent of “them”, and what is the meaning of “again”? By the normal rules of grammar, if 7:53-8:11 is missing then “them” must refer to the “Pharisees” and “again” means that there has already been at least one prior exchange. But, 7:45 makes clear that Jesus was not there with the Pharisees. Thus, UBS [the ‘critical’ text] introduces an aberration. And yet, Metzger claims that the passage “interrupts the sequence of 7.52 and 8.12 ff.” (p. 220)! To look for the antecedents of 8:12 in 7:37-39 not only does despite to the syntax but also runs afoul of 8:13—“the Pharisees” respond to Jesus’ claim in verse 12, but “the Pharisees” are somewhere else, 7:45-52 (if the Pericope is absent).

Metzger also claims that “the style and vocabulary of the pericope differ noticeably from the rest of the Fourth Gospel”—but, would not the native speakers of Greek at that time have been in a better position than modern critics to notice something like that? So how could they allow such an “extraneous” passage to be forced into the text? I submit that the evident answer is that they did not; it was there all the time. I also protest their use of brackets here. Since the editors clearly regard the passage to be spurious they should be consistent and delete it, as do NEB and Williams. That way the full extent of their error would be open for all to see. Unfortunately, NIV, NASB, NRSV, Berkeley and TEV also use brackets to question the legitimacy of this passage.

But why was the story omitted? Leading church father and theologian, Augustine (about A.D. 430), answers: “Certain persons of little faith, or rather enemies of the true faith, fearing, I suppose, lest their wives should be given impunity in sinning, removed from their manuscripts the Lord’s acts of forgiveness toward the adulteress, as if He who said ‘sin no more’ had granted permission to sin.” (See Augustine, “Adulterous Marriages” [2.7] trans. by Charles T. Huegelmeier, in Saint Augustine: Treatises on Marriage and Other Subjects [New York: Fathers of the Church, 1955], p. 107.) [I took this material on Augustine from Living Water: The Gospel of John—Logos 21 Version, Absolutely Free Incorporated, p. 74.]

<sup>c</sup> There is a basic three-way split in the manuscript attestation for these twelve verses (7:53-8:11)—the three major groups represent three lines of transmission that are both ancient and independent. It follows that where two agree against one, the two presumably retain the original reading. In these verses teach them.

A dirty deal

<sup>3</sup>Then the scribes and the Pharisees bring to Him a woman caught in adultery; and placing her in the center <sup>4</sup>they say to Him: “Teacher, we found this woman committing adultery, in the very act. <sup>5</sup>Now in our law Moses commanded that such women are to be stoned;<sup>a</sup> so what do you say?” <sup>6</sup>They said this to test Him, so that they might have an accusation against Him.

But stooping down<sup>b</sup> Jesus began to write on the ground with His finger, taking no notice. <sup>7</sup>But since they kept on asking Him, straightening up He said to them, “Let the one without sin among you throw the first stone at her.” <sup>8</sup>And stooping down again He continued writing on the ground.<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>Now upon hearing this, and being convicted by their conscience, they began to go out one by one, starting with the older ones down to the least. So only Jesus was left, with the woman in the center.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>So straightening up, and not seeing anyone except the woman, Jesus said to her: “Where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?” <sup>11</sup>So she said, “No one, Lord.” Jesus said to her: “Neither do I condemn you.<sup>e</sup> Go, and from now on don’t sin any more!”

Jesus dialogs with the Pharisees

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus spoke to them again,<sup>f</sup> saying: “I am the Light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk around in the darkness,<sup>g</sup> but will have the light of the Life.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>So the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about yourself; your testimony is not valid.” <sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them: “Even though I testify about myself, my testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I am going.<sup>i</sup> But you do not know where I come from or where I am going. <sup>15</sup>You are judging according to the flesh; I am not judging anyone. <sup>16</sup>Yet there are 25 places where two groups agree against one, six others where 2½ agree against ½, and just one place where each of the three major groups has its own reading. It happens that one of the three groups is always in the majority (in the 31 places), so it is the only one that is always right in those 31 places—so in the one place where there is a three-way split I follow that group, because it has the best credibility quotient.

<sup>a</sup> According to Leviticus 20:10 both the man and the woman were to be executed—so where is the man? This was obviously a put-up job; if they got her “in the act” the man was probably one of them. Those guys were dirty!

<sup>b</sup> Recall that He is sitting, so He just bends forward so as to reach the ground.

<sup>c</sup> A small minority of the manuscripts completes the verse with “the sins of each one of them”. I, for one, would like to know what Jesus wrote, and I wouldn’t be surprised if He wrote just that, but I take it that John did not record that phrase.

<sup>e</sup> Jesus was not even a witness, and it required at least two witnesses to condemn; so of course He could not condemn her. But He makes clear that He does not condone her behavior.

<sup>f</sup> “Them” refers to the crowd, and “again” means that He resumes His teaching after having been so rudely interrupted. The interruption occupies verses 3-11, so we are referred back to verse 2.

<sup>h</sup> There is a certain secret society that requires a candidate to declare that he is coming out of darkness in search of light. A Christian who does this is formally denying Jesus, and He will deny before the Father anyone who does that (Matthew 10:33).

even if I do judge, my judging is valid, in that I am not alone in judging, but I and the Father who sent me are together.<sup>17</sup> It is written precisely in your law that the testimony of two men is valid: <sup>18</sup>“I am one testifying concerning myself and the Father who sent me testifies concerning me.” <sup>19</sup>Then they said to Him, “Where is your father?”<sup>a</sup> Jesus answered: “You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me you would also know my Father.” <sup>20</sup>Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, while teaching in the temple; yet no one arrested Him, because His time had not yet come.<sup>b</sup>

“you will die in your sins”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them again: “I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die in your sin. Where I am going you cannot come.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>So the Jews said, “He won’t kill himself, will he, since he says, ‘Where I am going you cannot come’?”<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>He said to them: “You are from below; I am from Above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>24</sup>That is why I told you that you will die in your sins, because if you do not believe that I am,<sup>f</sup> you will die in your sins.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>So they said to Him, “Who are you?” And Jesus said to them: “Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. <sup>26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge about you, but He who sent me is true, and what I myself have heard from Him—these things I say to the world.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>27</sup>They did not understand that He was speaking to them about the Father.<sup>i</sup> <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to them: “When you lift up the Son of the Man, then you will know that I am<sup>j</sup> and that I do nothing from myself; but just as my Father has taught me, these things I speak. <sup>29</sup>And the One who sent

<sup>a</sup> Their question is reasonable. Since Jesus is adducing His Father as a witness they want to know where they can find Him, to confirm the witness. But Jesus does not give a direct answer, as He usually did not, when dealing with Pharisees.

<sup>c</sup> I wonder if the Lord is not referring to two future stages, short and long range—they thought it was short range; He meant long range. Since there are still six months to go until His death, He will go away from Jerusalem (He divided those six months between Judea and Perea) and they will be looking for Him, to kill Him. That is the short range. Long range—since they will not repent they will die lost and so not go to Heaven.

<sup>d</sup> But of course they could kill themselves too, and would die sooner or later in any case, so they would be together in Hades (on that hypothesis).

<sup>f</sup> Most versions supply a ‘He’, making the phrase “I am He”; but the Text just has “I am”. Any Jew would immediately think of Jehovah calling Himself ‘I am’. Having just said that He was from Above, and not of this world, it seems to me clear that Jesus is claiming to be Jehovah—but they just do not want to get the point.

<sup>g</sup> To “die in your sins” is to be spiritually lost. If they do not recognize Him as the Messiah, they are lost. They have already seen more than enough evidence, but have rejected it; since Jesus knows that they are not going to turn around, He states that they are lost. (Here it is ‘sins’ (pl) while in verse 21 it is ‘sin’ (sg); if a difference is intended I don’t know what it is.)

<sup>i</sup> But they should have—their blind spot may have been the result of supernatural interference. (In John 5:17-18 they had already understood that He was making Himself equal with God.)

<sup>j</sup> With the supernatural darkness from 12:00 to 3:00, the earthquake, the torn veil, and later the report of the guards at the tomb, they would know for sure that they had crucified the Messiah. But they would not (perhaps could not) repent. Their doom was sealed.

me is with me. The Father has not left me alone, because I always do the things that please Him.”<sup>a</sup>

“the Truth will make you free”

<sup>30</sup>While He was saying these things many believed into Him. <sup>31</sup>So Jesus said to those Jews who had believed Him: “If you abide in my word, you really are my disciples;<sup>b</sup> <sup>32</sup>and you will know the Truth, and the Truth will make you free.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>33</sup>They answered and said to Him: “We are descendants of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How can you say, ‘You will be made free?’”<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them: “I tell you most assuredly that everyone committing sin is a slave of sin.<sup>e</sup> <sup>35</sup>Now the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son does remain forever.<sup>f</sup> <sup>36</sup>Therefore, if the Son should make you free, you really will be free. <sup>37</sup>I know that you are descendants of Abraham, but you are wanting to kill me because my word finds no place in you.<sup>g</sup> <sup>38</sup>On my part, I speak what I have observed with my Father, while on your part you do what you have observed with your father.”<sup>h</sup>

“your father is the devil”

<sup>39</sup>They answered and said to Him, “Our father is Abraham!” Jesus says to them: “If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham; <sup>40</sup>but now you are wanting to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God.<sup>i</sup> This sort of thing Abraham did not do! <sup>41</sup>You do the works of your father.” Then they said to Him, “We were not born of fornication;<sup>j</sup> we have one Father—God.”<sup>k</sup> <sup>42</sup>So Jesus said to them: “If God were your Father, you would <sup>a</sup> Presumably if we always did the things that please the Father He would not leave us alone either. I suspect that when we choose to do wrong the Father lets us fend for ourselves.

<sup>b</sup> So what happens if we don't abide in His Word? And how can you abide in something that doesn't exist (for you)? There are still thousands of languages spoken in the world that do not have even one verse of the Bible translated into them. How can speakers of such languages be true disciples of Jesus? I have actually heard some who claim they have been 'baptized in the Spirit' say they don't need the Bible, because the Holy Spirit speaks to them directly. Now why would the Holy Spirit speak to someone who disagrees with the Lord Jesus? In this connection, notice especially John 16:14-15.

<sup>d</sup> The ones who were believing were sprinkled throughout the crowd, but Jesus' opponents were still in the front row. I assume from verse 37 that it is the opponents who speak here in verse 33. They conveniently forget that they are under the Roman yoke.

<sup>e</sup> Apart from Jesus Christ every human being is a slave of sin. The only way out is to become a slave of Jesus Christ. The only true freedom available in this life is through submission to Him.

<sup>f</sup> A son becomes part of the genealogical record, a slave does not. Some versions capitalize “Son” here (as in the next verse), but I take it that Jesus is making a generic statement. However, in verse 36 it must be “Son”, because “make you free” is plural, referring to His hearers.

<sup>g</sup> Their hearts were closed against His message. He was demanding a change of world view.

<sup>h</sup> Jesus has affirmed several times that He could observe the Father, but in what sense could the Jews observe Satan? Our Lord's statement makes me curious. Perhaps the Jews were doing what they saw Satan doing (rather than seeing him physically). Some 10% of the Greek manuscripts have 'heard from' rather than “observed with”.

<sup>j</sup> The Jews had doubtless done exhaustive research on Jesus. They knew that He was born within six months after the wedding of Joseph and Mary, and that He was born full size. [Recall that Jesus had been rejected by the people of Natsareth, so there were plenty of people who would be happy to ‘spill the beans’.] Assuming, as they did, that the father was human, whether Joseph himself or someone else, Jesus would be the result of fornication. So they here throw that information in Jesus' face.

love me, because I came forth from God and I am here.<sup>a</sup> Further, I have not come on my own, but He sent me. <sup>43</sup>Why don't you understand what I say?—because you are not able to really hear my word.<sup>b</sup> <sup>44</sup>You are of your father the devil,<sup>c</sup> and it is the desires of your father that you want to do. He was a murderer<sup>d</sup> from the beginning and has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him.<sup>e</sup> Whenever he speaks the lie he speaks from his own things, because he is a liar and the father of lying.<sup>f</sup> <sup>45</sup>But since I speak the truth you do not believe me. <sup>46</sup>Which of you convicts me of sin?<sup>g</sup> So if I speak the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup>The one who is of God hears God's words; that is why you do not hear, because you are not of God."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>48</sup>So the Jews answered and said to Him, "We say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon<sup>i</sup>—are we wrong?" <sup>49</sup>Jesus answered: "I do not have a demon; rather, I honor my Father, while you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>Yet I do not seek my glory; there is One who seeks and judges. <sup>51</sup>Most assuredly I say to you, if anyone should keep my word he will never ever see death."<sup>j</sup>

"before Abraham was, I AM"

<sup>52</sup>So the Jews said to Him: "Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died and so did the prophets; yet you say, 'If anyone should keep my word he will never ever taste death!' <sup>53</sup>Surely you aren't greater than our father Abraham, who died?<sup>k</sup> And the prophets are dead. Who do you make yourself out to be?" <sup>54</sup>Jesus answered: "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, 'He is our God.'<sup>l</sup> <sup>55</sup>Yet you have not known Him, but I do know Him. And if I should say that I do not know Him I would be a liar just like <sup>a</sup> As John will write later, "he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?" (1 John 4:20). So anyone who loved the Father (not having seen Him) would certainly love the Son who was physically present and visible. Jesus keeps reiterating His divine origin.

<sup>b</sup> Their 'father' had blinded their minds (2 Corinthians 4:4). Those Jewish leaders were "sons of the disobedience" if there ever were any, and Satan is actively at work in such people (Ephesians 2:2).

<sup>c</sup> 1 John 3:8-10 makes clear that in fact Satan has lots of other 'children'.

<sup>d</sup> They want to murder Jesus, showing thereby that they are worthy sons of their father. Satan instigated the death of the first couple, and may have influenced Cain to kill Abel.

<sup>e</sup> If there is no truth in Satan then I conclude that it is impossible for him to tell the whole, undistorted truth. He may tell a partial truth, etc., but always with the intent to deceive.

<sup>f</sup> So whenever we tell a lie we are doing Satan's thing. And whenever we accept a lie (like evolutionism, Marxism, Freudianism, humanism, relativism, etc.) we give Satan a foothold in our minds, which he usually turns into a stronghold.

<sup>i</sup> A lot of people heard Jesus say that the leaders were not of God but of the devil. They did not want to swallow that in silence but they could not refute Him either, so they resort to 'ad hominum' argument.

<sup>j</sup> The Lord is unusually emphatic here. He is evidently referring to spiritual death, but the Jews took it as referring to physical death. Notice that He said "keep my word"—again the emphasis is on commitment and obedience.

<sup>k</sup> Of course He was greater than Abraham, but they were wearing spiritual blinders.

<sup>l</sup> They have been refusing to understand repeated hints, so here Jesus makes a flat statement: His Father is God, Jehovah. Perhaps 30% of the Greek manuscripts have 'your God', making it an indirect quote.

you (pl);<sup>a</sup> but I do know Him and I keep His word. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham was overjoyed to see my day;<sup>b</sup> yes, he saw it and rejoiced.”

<sup>57</sup>So the Jews said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old,<sup>c</sup> and you have seen Abraham?!” <sup>58</sup>Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly I say to you, before Abraham came to be, I AM!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>59</sup>Then they picked up stones to throw at Him;<sup>e</sup> but Jesus was concealed<sup>f</sup> and went out of the temple, going through the middle of them; yes, that is how He got away!

The man born blind

9 <sup>1</sup>Now as He was passing by He saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>And His disciples asked Him saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, in that he was born blind?”<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered: “Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but so that the works of God might be displayed in him.<sup>h</sup> <sup>4</sup>I must accomplish the works of Him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. <sup>5</sup>While I am in the world, I am the Light of the world.”<sup>i</sup>

The man is healed

<sup>6</sup>Upon saying these things He spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud on the blind man’s eyes.<sup>k</sup> <sup>7</sup>And He said to him, “Go

<sup>a</sup> Their father is a liar; they are liars. Rather than being conciliatory, Jesus is definitely aggressive. If any of them are to be saved they have to start on the basis of abject surrender.

<sup>b</sup> What day was that? I suppose He is referring to the time that He, Jehovah the Son (the Angel of Jehovah), paid Abraham a personal visit. From the Record it is clear that Abraham knew very well that he was talking with Jehovah. Don’t you know that was the high point in Abraham’s life! Hey, just stop and think about what happened.

<sup>c</sup> This statement intrigues me. Jesus was thirty-three, and they had researched His past, so why did they say ‘fifty’? Could it be that Jesus looked older than He was? I wonder if the heavy pressures of His life style and ministry did not take a toll on His physical body, making Him prematurely gray, as it were.

<sup>d</sup> Here Jesus is openly, unmistakably claiming to be Jehovah. They are obliged to get the point, and not wanting to acknowledge Him they pick up stones. At this point to argue, as some have done, that Jesus was merely a good, moral man won’t wash. Either He was God, as He claimed; or He was a charlatan, a megalomaniac; or He was demonized. The Jews at that time took the third option; I take the first.

<sup>e</sup> Since certain situations demanded a stoning, there were doubtless piles of ammunition placed strategically around the temple premises.

<sup>f</sup> The familiar “hid Himself” is not the best rendering here. Jesus did not try to hide behind a pillar, or whatever. Obviously they would have seen Him and started stoning. He became invisible and simply walked out, passing right through the middle of them. About half a percent of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “going through the middle of them; yes, that’s how He got away” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The 99.5% are doubtless correct, and supply an important detail.

<sup>g</sup> Wait a minute—if being born blind was the result of the man’s own sin (as they suggest), when did he commit it? In any case, Jesus rejects their basic premise.

<sup>h</sup> Wow! Did you get that? Jesus is saying that it was part of the Plan—the man was born blind so that the Messiah could come along years later and give him sight. (Does that fit anywhere in your theology?)

<sup>i</sup> Perhaps half a percent of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read “we” for “I” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Virtually the same handful of manuscripts also has “Him who sent us” (in this verse), but none of the versions mentioned goes along—a curious proceeding.

<sup>j</sup> In Matthew 5:14 Jesus said to His disciples, “You are the light of the world”—so as long as we are here there is light, and so it isn’t night yet. We had better get on with accomplishing the Father’s works.

<sup>k</sup> How unhygienic! The dirt in the street or road would be mixed with manure and all sorts of other contaminants, and human saliva is worse than a dog’s. So why did Jesus do it? I don’t know. Apparently it was part of His game plan to use a variety of procedures. There are cultures today where the shamans use saliva to heal, and to them this incident is especially significant.

wash in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated, ‘Sent’). So he went and washed, and came away seeing!

<sup>8</sup>Then the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind<sup>a</sup> started saying, “Isn’t this the man who sat begging?” <sup>9</sup>Others said, “This is he”; still others, “He is like him.” He kept saying, “I’m the one!”

<sup>10</sup>So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?” <sup>11</sup>He answered and said: “A man called Jesus made mud and anointed my eyes and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.’ So when I went and washed, I saw!” <sup>12</sup>Then they said to him, “Where is He?” He says, “I don’t know.”

The man is excommunicated

<sup>13</sup>They bring the man who was formerly blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>(Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.)<sup>b</sup> <sup>15</sup>So once again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. So he said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>Then some of the Pharisees said, “This man cannot be from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath,”<sup>d</sup> Others were saying, “How can a sinful man do such signs?” And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup>So they address the blind man again, “What do you say about him, in that he opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>However the Jews did not believe concerning him that he was blind and received sight until they summoned the parents of the one who had received sight. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them saying: “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?” <sup>20</sup>So his parents answered them and said: “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup>but by what means he now sees we don’t know, or who opened his eyes we don’t know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself.” <sup>22</sup>His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, because the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed Him to be Christ he would be barred from the synagogue.<sup>f</sup> <sup>23</sup>That is why his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

<sup>24</sup>So they summoned the man who had been blind a second time and said to him: “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>So he answered and said: “That He is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know, that having been blind I now see!”<sup>h</sup> <sup>26</sup>So they said to him again: “What did he do to you? How

<sup>b</sup> 7:37 says “the last day of the feast”, which was Tuesday, Oct. 17, 29 (I believe). Chapter 8 took place the next day, Wednesday. Here we are told that the healing of the blind man happened on a Saturday. Since we are still in Jerusalem (verse 7—Siloam is there), it may well have been the first Saturday after the events of chapter 8.

<sup>d</sup> Of course they were defining the terms—it was the rules they had imposed on the Sabbath that were not being kept.

<sup>e</sup> He is being cautious. I conclude from the context that he believed Jesus to be the Messiah, but like his parents he was aware of the risk involved (verse 22).

<sup>f</sup> In their culture, to be barred from the synagogue was to be socially ostracized.

did he open your eyes?"<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>He answered them: "I already told you and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't want to become His disciples too, do you?" <sup>28</sup>They reviled him and said: "You are that fellow's disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. <sup>29</sup>We know that God spoke to Moses; but this fellow—we don't know where he's from."<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>The man answered and said to them: "Why, this is remarkable—you don't know where He is from; yet He opened my eyes! <sup>31</sup>Now we know that God doesn't listen to sinners;<sup>c</sup> but if anyone is God-fearing and does His will, to him He listens. <sup>32</sup>Since time began it was never heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.<sup>d</sup> <sup>33</sup>If this man were not from God he would not be able to do anything." <sup>34</sup>They answered and said to him, "You were totally begotten in sins, and you are teaching us?" And they expelled him.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had expelled him, and finding him He said to him, "Do you believe into the Son of God?"<sup>f</sup> <sup>36</sup>He answered and said, "And who is He, Lord, that I may believe into Him?" <sup>37</sup>So Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him and He is the One who is speaking with you." <sup>38</sup>So he said, "Lord, I believe!" And he worshipped Him. <sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see may see, and those who 'see' may become blind."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>40</sup>And some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words and said to Him, "We aren't blind too, are we?" <sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them: "If you were 'blind' you would not have sin. But now you say, 'We see,' so your sin remains."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The poor Jews are in a pickle. The fact of an extraordinary work of creation (giving sight where there never was any) won't go away, yet they refuse to acknowledge the obvious explanation. [Sort of like the 'scientists' of our day who refuse to acknowledge the Creator.]

<sup>d</sup> Jesus had already restored sight to many blind people, but evidently this was the first instance of giving sight to one born blind, congenitally blind. No one challenged the man's statement. The man's argument here is very strong; irrefutable, in fact.

<sup>e</sup> The Pharisees here demonstrate their moral and intellectual bankruptcy. They couldn't answer the man, he had bested them fair and square, so they resort to the cowardly tactic of expelling him. ("Totally born in sins"—like the disciples, the Pharisees figured there was a lot of sin involved, for the man to be born blind.)

<sup>f</sup> Less than 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read "Man" instead of "God" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> In verse 5 of this chapter Jesus declared Himself to be "the Light of the world". Light enables people to see—"so that those who do not see may see". But too much light blinds—"and those who 'see' may become blind". The Pharisees had 'spies' dogging Jesus wherever He went, and they speak up in the next verse (40). Romans 2:17-20 explains their attitude:

Look, you declare yourself a Jew, and rest on the Law, and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>and know the Will, and approve the superior things, being instructed out of the Law. <sup>19</sup>Further, you are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those in darkness, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and truth. ["The embodiment of knowledge and truth" is an excellent description of the Scriptures.]

The light of the Law enabled them to see, up to a point, but the Light that Jesus offered blinded them, since they did not want to acknowledge it.

<sup>h</sup> According to Romans 5:13, "sin is not imputed where there is no law", because it is the Law that defines what sin is (Romans 3:20). So those who are without the light of the Law are 'blind' in that sense, and their sin is not imputed. In contrast, the Pharisees prided themselves on having the light of the Law, to the point of being guides to the blind, but since they themselves did not obey the Law, their sin remained.

Jesus the Shepherd

A true shepherd

10 <sup>1</sup>“Most assuredly I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But he who enters by the door is a shepherd<sup>a</sup> of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>And whenever he takes out his own sheep he goes ahead of them,<sup>b</sup> and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>But they will not follow a stranger; rather they will run away from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.” <sup>6</sup>Jesus gave them this illustration, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

The Door

<sup>7</sup>Then Jesus addressed them again: “Most assuredly I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All who ever came before me are thieves and robbers,<sup>c</sup> but the sheep did not listen to them.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved,<sup>e</sup> and will go in and out and find pasture.<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>The thief comes only in order to steal, and to kill, and to destroy.<sup>g</sup> I have come so that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

The Good Shepherd

<sup>14</sup>“I am the good shepherd, and I know my own sheep, and I am known by them. <sup>15</sup>Just as the Father knows me, I also know the Father, and I lay down my life on behalf of the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I also have other sheep, that are not of this fold;<sup>i</sup> I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice; and there will be one flock, one shepherd.

<sup>a</sup> “A shepherd”—the fold was communal, so the sheep belonged to a variety of shepherds. That is why each one had to call his own sheep by name (verse 3). The doorkeeper would know all the shepherds.

<sup>b</sup> He ‘leads’, not ‘drives’. Going out they need to be led; only the shepherd knows where they are going.

<sup>c</sup> Although some 50% of the Greek manuscripts (also the three ancient versions) omit “before me”, we are virtually obliged to understand this, in any case, since presumably Jesus means pretending to be the Messiah. Gamaliel refers to two possible candidates in Acts 5:36-37.

<sup>f</sup> What does a sheep want? Protection and pasture. These Jesus offers, but since people are more complex than sheep, He offers abundant life.

<sup>g</sup> The original thief is Satan. “The thief comes” VS “I have come”—since Jesus contrasts “the thief” with Himself, that thief is presumably Satan. Jesus calls him a murderer and a liar in John 8:44. A thief is usually a liar as well, and vice versa.

<sup>17</sup>“Because of this the Father loves me, in that I lay down my life so that I may take it up again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself.<sup>a</sup> I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Therefore there was another division among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup>Many of them were saying: “He has a demon and is raving mad. Why do you listen to him?” <sup>21</sup>Others were saying: “These are not the sayings of someone who is demonized. A demon cannot open blind people’s eyes, can it?”<sup>c</sup>

“My sheep hear my voice”

<sup>22</sup>Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem;<sup>d</sup> and it was winter. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus was walking about in the temple,<sup>e</sup> in Solomon’s porch. <sup>24</sup>Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him: “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.” <sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them: “I did tell you, and you do not believe.<sup>f</sup> The works that I do in my Father’s name—these testify concerning me. <sup>26</sup>But you do not believe because you are not among my sheep, just like I told you.<sup>g</sup> <sup>27</sup>My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup>And I give them eternal life, and they will never ever be wasted; and no one will snatch them out of my hand.<sup>h</sup> <sup>29</sup>My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all;<sup>i</sup> and no one is able to snatch out of my Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup>I and the Father are one.”

<sup>a</sup> This is important! The cross did not kill Jesus; He dismissed His spirit—see John 19:30 and Matthew 27:50. In Mark 15:39 the loud shout followed immediately by death convinced the centurion. He had seen many crucifixions and was doubtless hardened to it. He knew that a person on a cross dies from asphyxiation. The weight of the body pushes the diaphragm against the lungs and you cannot breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure that prolonged the agony—rather than die they would push against the nail to get a breath. Finally, when too weak to do that they would die for lack of air. (That is why they broke the legs of the two thieves; they then died within a few minutes.) Obviously, if you are dying without air you cannot shout! The centurion knew that the cross had not killed Jesus. But what mere human can just tell his spirit to leave?  $2 + 2 = 4$ . Jesus had to be the Son of God.

<sup>b</sup> The whole procedure was part of the Plan. An ordinary human being can kill himself, all right, but cannot change his mind later and come back. To Jesus the Father gave the ability to re-unite spirit and body—presumably a unique occurrence.

<sup>c</sup> So they thought, but on the basis of what happens in Spiritist and Satanist circles, it appears that if a demon causes blindness (which they can), the same or a stronger one can remove it.

<sup>d</sup> Chapter 8 happened on Oct. 18, 29 (I think). Chapter 9 and 10:1-21 presumably happened shortly after. Here in 10:22 it is Dec. 17, 29—two months later. I suppose that Luke 10:1-14:24 occurred during those two months; which means that the seventy were sent out during the last six months of the Lord’s earthly ministry. Their target was interior Judea, in contrast to the twelve, whose target was Galilee.

<sup>h</sup> Being snatched is one thing; jumping out is another. You can’t ‘snatch’ yourself, it must be done by an outside force, and no such force is greater than God. But, if you don’t want to go to Heaven, you won’t. Jesus puts it very plainly in John 15:6, “If anyone does not abide in me, he is cast out as a branch...” ‘Abiding’ is up to us; we are not forced to do it. If we choose not to, we are out.

<sup>i</sup> About 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts (with variations), of objectively inferior quality, read “What my Father has given me is greater than all” (as in TEV, etc.). Now there you have a stupid variant!

The last three months

<sup>40</sup>He went away again across the Jordan, to the place where John was baptizing at first; and He remained there. <sup>41</sup>And many came to Him and said, “Though John did not perform any sign, everything John said about this man was true.” <sup>42</sup>And many of the people there believed into Him.<sup>f</sup>

Lazarus of Bethany<sup>g</sup>

Jesus lets Lazarus die on purpose

<sup>4</sup>Upon hearing it Jesus said, “This sickness is not unto death but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” <sup>5</sup>(Now Jesus loved<sup>i</sup> Martha and her sister and Lazarus.) <sup>6</sup>So, when He heard that he was sick

<sup>a</sup> The temple courts were paved and presumably swept with some regularity. So how come there were stones lying around? I imagine there were piles of stones, of the right size and strategically placed, precisely for moments like this one. (If stoning serious offenders is an obligation, you need to be prepared.)

<sup>b</sup> The reference is to Psalm 82:6, where the speaker is God (verse 1). Jesus calls the Psalms ‘law’.

<sup>c</sup> The Lord inserts this as an aside, but it is an important statement in itself—Scripture cannot be broken. If we build our lives on God’s Word we have a secure foundation, one that cannot be shaken. (Your faith in that Word may be shaken, but not the Word itself.)

<sup>e</sup> See John 8:59 and Luke 4:30, where Jesus used supernatural means to avoid a premature death. Presumably this is a third instance.

<sup>f</sup> We are back in Bithabara (see John 1:28). Although people came to John from all over, presumably the local residents, because of the convenience, would have made up a large percentage of the crowd. They heard John say, “Behold the Lamb of God!” This may be the first time that Jesus came back to this spot, and He may have stayed there for a bit. So they got their chance.

<sup>g</sup> I take it that the events recorded in Luke 14:25-18:17, or most of the ministry in Perea, occurred between 10:42 and 11:1, here.

He stayed where He was two more days!<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then after this He says to the disciples, “Let us go into Judea again.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>The disciples say to Him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and you are going back there?” <sup>9</sup>Jesus answered: “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks during the day he doesn’t stumble, because he sees the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But if anyone walks in the night he does stumble, because the light is not in him.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Having said these things He says to them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going in order to awaken him.” <sup>12</sup>His disciples said to Him, “Lord, if he is sleeping he will get well.” <sup>13</sup>But Jesus had spoken of his death, while they thought He was talking about natural sleep. <sup>14</sup>So then Jesus said to them plainly: “Lazarus died. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>Then Thomas (called Twin) said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s us go too, so that we may die with Him.”<sup>e</sup>

Martha

<sup>21</sup>Then Martha said to Jesus: “Lord, if You had been here my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You.” <sup>23</sup>Jesus says to her, “Your brother will rise again.” <sup>24</sup>Martha says to Him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes into me, though he may die, will live; <sup>26</sup>and everyone who both lives and believes into me will never <sup>c</sup> “The light is not in him”—I take it that here in verse 10 Jesus refers to spiritual darkness and light, because no one has sunlight inside him. With God’s light inside, Jesus was not going to stumble, regardless of the time of day.

<sup>d</sup> “Let us go to him”—would you say that about a corpse? Jesus knows what He is going to do.

<sup>f</sup> Four days—that seems like quite a bit. In verses 11 and 14 Jesus makes clear that Lazarus had died before He left Perea. Someone in a hurry could make the distance in one day. I can’t prove it, but I imagine that the events recorded in Luke 18:18-19:27 (and the parallel passages in Matthew and Mark) occurred between verses 16 & 17, here. Jesus probably spent a night at Zacchaeus’ house (see Luke 19:5), doing the climb (of over 3,000 vertical feet) from Jericho to Jerusalem the next morning. The Lord deliberately took His time, delayed His arrival.

<sup>h</sup> Since Jesus stopped outside the village (verse 30), I wonder how Martha got the word. Perhaps Jesus sent one of the disciples, but there may well have been a lookout watching the road.

<sup>i</sup> Mary was quite possibly unhappy with Jesus. It was obvious that He had not come when called, or He would have arrived several days sooner. She would conclude that He just didn’t care that much. Since Jesus acted deliberately, it is clear that the Plan involved making the sisters go through that emotional suffering. We need to fix firmly in our minds that belonging to Jesus does not mean a free ride—we too may suffer precisely because of the outworking of God’s Plan. After all the discussion is over, we have two options: rebel or submit.

ever die.<sup>a</sup> Do you believe this?” <sup>27</sup>She says to Him, “Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of God, the One coming into the world.”<sup>b</sup>

Mary

<sup>28</sup>Having said these things she went and called her sister Mary, saying privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling you!” <sup>29</sup>Upon hearing it she gets up quickly and goes to Him. <sup>30</sup>(Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was in the place where Martha met Him. <sup>31</sup>Then the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, when they saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.”) <sup>32</sup>Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, upon seeing Him she fell at His feet, saying to Him, “Lord, if You had been here my brother would not have died!”<sup>c</sup>

Jesus is troubled

Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead

It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus says, “Remove the stone!” Martha, the sister of the deceased, says to Him, “Lord, he already stinks; it’s been four days!”<sup>f</sup> <sup>40</sup>Jesus says to her, “Did I not say to you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?”<sup>g</sup> <sup>41</sup>Then they took away the stone from where the deceased was lying. Jesus raised His eyes and said: “Father, I thank You that You heard me.<sup>h</sup> <sup>42</sup>I know that You always hear me, but I spoke for the sake of the <sup>a</sup> The verb ‘die’ in verse 25 refers to physical death, in verse 26 it refers to spiritual death, while the verb ‘live’ refers to spiritual life (although one might translate the Text as ‘will not die forever’, rather than “will never ever die”, indicating that physical death is temporary). Note that ‘lives’ and ‘believes into’ are in the present tense, and then note the word ‘both’. Once you have life in Christ, you need to keep on believing.

<sup>b</sup> Martha was not a theologian; she may not have understood it all, but she knew who Jesus was! Like Martha, we don’t have to understand everything, but we do need to know who Jesus is.

<sup>c</sup> I see a significant contrast between the sisters. Both of them say the same thing, but in a different tone. Mary is given over to her grief, she has no hope. Martha goes on to declare her confidence in Jesus; she still has hope.

<sup>d</sup> Why? What troubled Him? He would not be inconsistent with Himself and His commitment to the Father’s will, the Plan. Seeing Mary’s despair, perhaps He felt distress at the suffering the Plan was causing—He did not enjoy the fact that He was responsible for that suffering.

<sup>f</sup> That is just what she said. Hey, at that moment Martha was not thinking about how it would read 2,000 years later! She reacted instinctively and blurted it out. Being a practical person she wanted to avoid further distress.

<sup>g</sup> When had He said that? The Text does not say, but I imagine it was during their earlier conversation—to me it is obvious that they said more than is recorded. In any event, we have here an important declaration. Have you seen the glory of God lately?

<sup>h</sup> He is saying in so many words that He and the Father had already talked about the plan of action.

crowd standing around, so that they may believe that You sent me.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>43</sup>Upon saying these things He shouted with a loud voice,<sup>b</sup> “Lazarus, come out!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>44</sup>And out the deceased came! Bound hand and foot with bandages,<sup>d</sup> and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus says to them, “Loose him and let him go.”<sup>e</sup>

The reaction

<sup>a</sup> He was talking out loud on purpose, so that the people around would hear what He said.

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says. Of course to shout is to use a loud voice, so the point seems to be that He really put His lungs into it—you could have heard Him a mile away! Well, Lazarus heard Him in Hades, which is in the middle of the earth somewhere (Matthew 12:40, Ephesians 4:9). Yes, but, could He not have done it with a whisper? I suppose so. So why did He yell? I do not know; I was not there. However, there may have been some symbolism involved—the longer one is dead the harder it is to bring him back.

<sup>c</sup> As someone has said, if the Lord hadn’t specified ‘Lazarus’ He might have emptied the graveyard!

<sup>d</sup> He must have come jumping out like a kangaroo—with his feet tied he could not walk. It must have been an interesting sight. And with his eyes covered he could not see, so obviously he had supernatural help.

<sup>e</sup> Would you have wanted to be the first one to start untying? I bet it was Martha. Notice that Jesus did not do what they could do; removing the stone and unwrapping Lazarus was up to them.

<sup>f</sup> There is no definite article with ‘council’, so I doubt that it was the full Sanhedrin; they would not want Nicodemus, or any others who were sympathetic to Jesus, to be there.

<sup>g</sup> This was their ‘hidden agenda’. Jesus had more than substantiated His claim to be the Messiah, but they did not want the political consequences of installing Him.

<sup>h</sup> Dear me, he wasn’t very nice! But John says he was prophesying, so it may have been God telling them what He thought of them.

<sup>i</sup> For “us” perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, read “you” (as in NIV, NASB, TEV etc. [LB omits]). Since this is a prophecy, the difference is significant.

<sup>j</sup> The ‘nation’ in question would be the Jewish nation. I find it interesting that God would choose to speak through Caiaphas. He was not the real high priest (who was Annas) but reflected a Roman imposition whereby the Jews had to name a new one every year, and that year it was Caiaphas. Maybe from God’s point of view Annas was worse.

<sup>k</sup> The actual terms of the prophecy seem to be limited to the one nation, so I take it that verse 52 is an added application offered by John.

<sup>l</sup> They have been wanting to kill Him for some time, but at this point it becomes top priority.

A tactical withdrawal

<sup>54</sup>Therefore Jesus no longer moved about openly among the Jews, but went away from there into the country near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim; and He stayed there with His disciples.<sup>a</sup>

The Passover is near

<sup>55</sup>Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many from the country went up to Jerusalem before the Passover in order to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>So they were looking for Jesus,<sup>b</sup> and as they stood in the temple they were saying to each other, “What do you think—that he won’t come to the feast at all?” <sup>57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had together issued an edict that if anyone knew where He was he should report it, so they could arrest Him.

The last weekMary anoints Jesus’ feet<sup>c</sup>*

12 <sup>1</sup>Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was (the deceased whom He raised from the dead). <sup>2</sup>So they gave a dinner for Him there—Martha was serving, while Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary, bringing a pound of pure oil of nard, very costly, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped His feet with her hair!<sup>d</sup> And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

Judas has a problem

Lazarus is a problem

<sup>9</sup>Then a large crowd of the Jews learned that He was there; and they came, not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>So the chief priests decided to kill Lazarus as well,<sup>g</sup> <sup>11</sup>in that because of him many of the Jews were defecting and believing into Jesus.

<sup>a</sup> The time available was probably not more than two weeks, if that. It was a last bit of rest before the final storm, but the Lord doubtless took advantage of the opportunity to teach the disciples, without the distraction of the crowds.

<sup>b</sup> I think this refers back to verse 53—it is the leaders who are conversing among themselves.

<sup>c</sup> This incident must not be confused with the one recorded in Matthew 26:6 and Mark 14:3. Here Mary anoints His feet on Saturday (March 30, 30), while in Matthew and Mark an unidentified woman anoints His head on Wednesday (April 3, 30). The houses are also different.

<sup>f</sup> This is an editorial comment offered after the fact. Obviously they all trusted Judas at the time or they wouldn’t have made him treasurer, and if he was caught the purse would go to someone else. In fact, John may have received this information by divine revelation.

<sup>g</sup> If they succeeded in killing Jesus first, then He would not be around to raise Lazarus a second time.

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>12</sup>The next day a large crowd that had come to the feast,<sup>a</sup> when they heard<sup>b</sup> that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took branches from palm trees and went out to meet Him. And they started shouting:

“Hosanna!”

“Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>16</sup>(Now His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him, and they had done them to Him.)<sup>f</sup>

<sup>17</sup>So the crowd that had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify. <sup>18</sup>That is also why the crowd met Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign. <sup>19</sup>So the Pharisees said among themselves: “You can see that you are not making any difference! Just look, the world has gone off after Him!”

Some Greeks

---

<sup>a</sup> If they had “come” to the feast, they were not local residents. As Matthew 21:10 makes clear, the locals did not know what was going on.

<sup>d</sup> Comparing the parallel accounts, we get a better idea of the variety of expression: “Hosanna to the Son of David!” “Hosanna in the highest!” “Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that comes in the name of the LORD!” “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!” “Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

<sup>f</sup> Presumably the Holy Spirit was involved in this—John 14:26, 1 Corinthians 2:13. The ‘remembering’ would not necessarily have been immediate or automatic.

<sup>g</sup> It is difficult to know just when this episode occurred; as I compare all four accounts, I doubt that it happened as part of the triumphal entry. It seems more likely to me that it happened the next day, after the cleansing of the temple. The atmosphere would be tense, and as non-Jews (even though converts to Judaism) they were keeping a low profile; so they act indirectly.

<sup>i</sup> The impression one gets is that Jesus did not address the Greeks directly, but I wonder if they didn’t sort of tag along and thus were within earshot. We know that the Lord could read thoughts, and so He would know what they really wanted—I assume that what they wanted did not fit in the Plan at that point. However, if the Greeks were within range, verses 24-26 would be for them just as much as for anyone else.

mains alone;<sup>a</sup> but if it dies it bears a lot of fruit.<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>The one ‘loving’ his life will waste it, and the one ‘hating’ his life, in this world, will preserve it into eternal life.<sup>c</sup> <sup>26</sup>If anyone would serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, my servant will be too.<sup>d</sup> Further, if anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Once a seed is planted, if it doesn’t germinate it rots, and is wasted, but the germinating process destroys the seed, it ‘dies’. How this applies to us is developed in the next verse.

<sup>b</sup> Jehovah the Son had ‘fallen to the ground’ some 34 years before, but now He was going to die—the ‘fruit’ is still being produced!

<sup>c</sup> To understand what the Lord is saying here, let us go to the parallel passage in Luke 9:23-25. “If anyone desires to come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross each day and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. For what will it profit a man to gain the whole world but waste or forfeit himself?” What does the Lord mean when He speaks of losing one’s “life”? One does not lose one’s soul for love of Christ. Nor is the reference to being killed. Rather, Jesus has in mind the life we live, the accumulated results of our living. All that I have done up to this moment plus all that I will yet do until overtaken by death or the rapture of the Church, whichever happens first—that is the “life” that is at risk (in my own case).

Let us look at our Lord’s words a little more closely. There seems to be a contradiction here—if you lose, you save; if you want to save, you lose. How can it work? The following context helps us out. In verse 26 Jesus explains verses 24-25 in terms of His second coming. The parallel passage, Matthew 16:27, is clearer. “For the Son of the Man is going to come in the glory of His Father, with His angels, and then He will repay each according to his deeds.” Christ was thinking of the day of reckoning. In other words, “we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Romans 14:10) and “each of us will give account of himself to God” (Romans 14:12). “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive his due according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10). I understand that 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 is referring to the same occasion, the day of reckoning. After declaring that Jesus Christ is the only foundation, Paul speaks of different materials that one might use in building on it: “gold, silver, precious stones” or “wood, hay, straw”. (Although the primary interpretation of this passage presumably has to do with the performance of teachers and leaders in the church, I believe it clearly applies to the daily life of each believer as well.) The point is, our deeds will be tested by fire. If fire has any effect upon gold or silver it is only to purify them, but its effect on hay and straw is devastating! Okay, so what?

Let us go back to the beginning. God created the human being for His glory; to reflect it and contribute to it. I suppose we may understand Psalm 19:1 and Isaiah 43:7 in this way, at least by extension. But Adam lost this capacity when he rebelled against God. For this reason the sentence that weighs against our race is that we “fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). But the Son came into the world to restore our lost potential. Ephesians 1:12 and 14 tell us that the object of the plan of salvation is “the praise of His glory” (see also 2 Corinthians 1:20). And 1 Corinthians 10:31 puts it into a command: “Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” Now then, the point of all this is not to ‘ruin’ our lives, to take all the ‘fun’ out of them (as many seem to think). God is not being arrogant, unreasonable, too demanding. Quite the contrary—He is just trying to save us from throwing away our lives. Surely, because the glory of God is eternal (Psalm 104:31), and when I do something for His glory, that something is transformed and acquires eternal value—it becomes “gold, silver, precious stones”. Works done for the glory of God will go through the fire without harm. On the other hand, what is done with a view to our own ambitions and ideas is “straw”. We all know what fire does to straw!

So there it is. To be a slave of Christ means to live with reference to the Kingdom; it means to do everything for the glory of God. In this way the slave “saves” his life because he will be building it with “gold and silver”, which will pass through the fire at the judgment seat of Christ without loss. In contrast, the believer who refuses to be a slave of Jesus builds his life with “hay and straw”, which will be consumed by the fire—and so he “loses” his life; he lived in vain; the potential that his life represented was wasted, thrown away. What a tragedy!

<sup>d</sup> If we want to be where Jesus is, we need to stick close to Him. (Well, you know, that’s really kind of obvious, but how many of us do it?)

<sup>e</sup> Each underlined pronoun corresponds to an emphatic pronoun in the Original Text. What the Lord did here was quite unusual; in other places He emphasized one pronoun, but not five in a row, and especially with all five referring to Himself! So what was He trying to tell us? I take it that He is telling us to focus on HIM, his person and our relationship to Him. He needs to be number one, without competition. He is talking about total commitment, but not without recompense—“the Father will honor him.”

<sup>27</sup>“Now my soul is distressed, and what should I say—’Father, rescue me from this hour’? But this is why I came to this hour—<sup>28</sup>‘Father, glorify your name!’” Then a Voice came out of Heaven, “I have both glorified it and will glorify it again!” <sup>29</sup>So the crowd that was standing by and listening said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to Him.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>Jesus answered and said: “It was not for my sake that this Voice came, but for your sakes.<sup>b</sup> <sup>31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be thrown out.<sup>c</sup> <sup>32</sup>While I, if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to myself.” <sup>33</sup>(Now He said this to indicate by what kind of death He was about to die.)<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>The people answered Him: “We have heard from the Law that the Messiah remains forever; and so how can you say, ‘The Son of the Man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘the Son of the Man’?”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said to them: “The Light will be with you just a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that darkness does not overtake you;<sup>f</sup> the one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. <sup>36</sup>While you have the Light,<sup>g</sup> believe into the Light, so that you may become sons of light.”<sup>h</sup> Jesus said these things, and going away He was hidden from them.<sup>i</sup>

An editorial comment

<sup>37</sup>Although He had performed so many signs in their presence, they were not believing into Him; <sup>38</sup>so that the word spoken by Isaiah the prophet should be fulfilled:

“Lord, who has believed what we heard?

And to whom has the arm of the LORD really been revealed?”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>a</sup> It seems clear that the bystanders did not hear the words, at least not to distinguish them; they heard the Voice, which must have been impressive (they compared it to thunder). A similar thing happened on the road to Damascus; only Paul understood the words.

<sup>b</sup> How so, if they did not understand what was said? The Voice got their attention for what He would go on to say.

<sup>c</sup> “Thrown out” as ruler of this world; upon Christ’s victory through the cross and the resurrection Satan was deposed. Satan continues to carry on as if he were still the ruler, but he is acting on the basis of bluff and usurpation. If Christ is now the true and legitimate ruler of this world, why is Satan allowed to carry on? The Father is ‘seeking’ those who will worship Him in spirit and truth, not because it is easy or convenient. So there has to be testing, there has to be an adverse context; so no one can claim that God is ‘buying votes’ (which was Satan’s allegation about Job).

<sup>e</sup> I find it interesting that the people were evidently equating ‘the Son of the Man’ with the Messiah, which was precisely correct; but what Jesus was saying did not match their expectations.

<sup>f</sup> Since most people did their traveling on foot, they would understand this principle very well—you need to make as much distance as you can while there is light.

<sup>h</sup> By believing into Jesus they would become ‘sons of light’—they would live according to the values of the Kingdom of Light, not those of the kingdom of darkness.

<sup>i</sup> Since in verse 44 Jesus reappears and resumes speaking, He evidently stayed close by. He became invisible so He would not be bothered while He prepared His final word.

<sup>j</sup> The reference is to Isaiah 53:1. Many years ago (over 50) I did an exegesis of this passage for my Hebrew professor at Dallas Seminary. The section really begins at 52:13—in verses 13-15 Jehovah describes the suffering of the Messiah. In verses 1-3 the people of Israel try to justify or explain why they rejected Him; you can almost hear them whine: “Who would have believed what was reported to us? And to whom has the arm of Jehovah really been revealed?” (They argue that the way in which the

<sup>39</sup>Therefore they were unable to believe, in that Isaiah said again:

<sup>40</sup>“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts,<sup>a</sup> lest they should see with their eyes and understand with their hearts and should turn around, and I would heal them.”

The last public word

<sup>44</sup>Jesus called out and said: “The one believing into me believes not into me but into Him who sent me. <sup>45</sup>And the one seeing me sees Him who sent me. <sup>46</sup>I, Light,<sup>f</sup> have come into the world so that everyone who believes into me will not remain in the darkness.<sup>g</sup> <sup>47</sup>Also, if someone hears my words and does not believe, I do not judge him; because I did not come to judge the world but to save the world.<sup>h</sup> <sup>48</sup>The one who rejects me and does not receive my sayings has that which judges him—the word that I have spoken, that is what will judge him on the last day;<sup>i</sup> <sup>49</sup>because I have not spoken on my own, but the Father who sent me, He Messiah was presented was unexpected, unreasonable, unacceptable.) The word usually rendered ‘report’ (in verse 38), ἀκοή, refers to something you hear, not something you say.

<sup>a</sup> Both Matthew (13:15) and Paul (Acts 28:27) also quote Isaiah 6:10 (as John is doing here), and they agree with the LXX (or the LXX agrees with them, since the LXX we know is based on inferior Alexandrian manuscripts); they give the impression that the people did it to themselves, rather than being a judicial act of God. What is involved is a different vowel pointing for the consonants of the main verbs. Since the original text had no vowel pointing, and both sets of pointings are possible and legitimate, we are looking at an option of the translator or interpreter. I imagine that both sides of the ambiguity are true, much as in the case of Pharaoh—during the first five plagues he hardened his own heart, after that God hardened his heart.

<sup>b</sup> Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, read “because” instead of “when” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The difference in meaning is significant.

<sup>c</sup> Wait a minute! Whom did Isaiah see? John is talking about Jesus, so when did Isaiah see Jesus? The quote in verse 40 is from Isaiah 6:10. The quoted words were spoken by Jehovah, verse 8, the One who was sitting on the throne, verse 1. In verse 5 Isaiah says of Him, “my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts”. So John is affirming that the One on the throne was Jehovah the Son, Jesus. I love it!

<sup>d</sup> To be barred from the synagogue was to be excommunicated, and in consequence to be socially ostracized.

<sup>e</sup> This is bothersome. In Matthew 10:32 the Lord Jesus said, “whoever confesses me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in the heavens”. So what happens if you don’t confess? Like the rulers here who were ‘secret believers’. But in verse 33 the Lord goes on to say, “whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in the heavens”. Is there a difference between denying and keeping quiet? Proverbs 29:25 says, “the fear of man brings a snare”. Writing to the Laodicean church the glorified Christ said, “because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth” (Revelation 3:16). If confessing is to be ‘hot’, and denying is to be ‘cold’, then keeping quiet is to be ‘lukewarm’. All in all it looks like the odds are in favor of confessing (see Luke 12:4-5). (See the note at John 5:44.)

<sup>f</sup> In verses 35 and 36 He has already referred to Himself as “the Light”—here there is no article, so I take it that He is emphasizing the quality inherent in the noun.

<sup>i</sup> ‘Ignorance of the law is no excuse.’ If the Bible exists in your language and you know how to read (or you know someone who can read), then you could have learned Jesus’ sayings. Claiming that you did not know will not hack it.

gave me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. <sup>50</sup>And I know that His command is eternal life. So whatever I say, I say it just like the Father told me.”<sup>a</sup>

The last night

13 <sup>1</sup>Now before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world He loved them to the end.<sup>b</sup>

Jesus washes the disciples' feet

<sup>a</sup> In John 5:19 Jesus affirms that he only did what He saw the Father do. Here He affirms that He only said what He heard the Father say. Although the Father and the Son are distinct persons, as Jesus repeatedly made clear, His identification with the Father was so complete that to see Him was to see the Father, to believe into Him was to believe into the Father (verses 44-45, above).

<sup>b</sup> This appears to be a cover statement, introducing the rest of the book. What Jesus would do in the upper room, in the garden, on the cross, after the resurrection, were expressions of His love for His own. His love took Him through to 'the end', the last consequence—nothing was left undone. How could He return to the Father if He didn't do all that had to be done? He had been sent to recover all that the first Adam had lost, and He did!

<sup>c</sup> Less than 0.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read 'during' supper (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), which confuses the account. There was an ordinary meal, and then the Passover ritual itself. The meal was basically over, but they couldn't proceed with the ritual because they were ceremonially unclean—their feet hadn't been washed (they were dirty from the dust of the road).

<sup>e</sup> The Plan depended on Him, was "in His hands". For Him to know that He was "going to God" (end of verse) meant that He knew He was going to win.

<sup>f</sup> The Text has 'garments', plural, so the rendering 'robe' doesn't seem to fit. I gather that Jesus stripped down to a loincloth, or basic underclothing, which is what a servant might wear. Since He was about to perform the duty of a servant (that should have been there, but wasn't), it was a graphic symbolism.

<sup>g</sup> Yes, 'the' basin. When the Lord sent some disciples to prepare the room, they would not only have to be sure that there were thirteen couches, properly arranged [they did not sit on chairs, they reclined on couches, with their heads in toward the table, and so their feet would stick out—just right for washing], but also see to a basin, water and a towel, so that the necessary ceremonial washing could be performed. So this was 'the' basin that had been placed there on purpose.

<sup>h</sup> Normally there would have been a servant there to perform the duty of washing feet, but I assume that the Lord had given instructions not to have one. There was an ongoing dispute among them as to who was the greatest (Luke 22:24), so naturally none of them was prepared to take the place of the servant. They could eat the meal with dirty feet, as they did, but not the Passover. I imagine that the situation began to get uncomfortable—it was time to proceed with the ritual, but first someone had to wash feet, and no one was offering. So finally Jesus Himself gets up.

Simon Peter

<sup>6</sup>So He comes to Simon Peter, and he<sup>a</sup> says to Him, “Lord, you wash my feet?!” <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will know [by experience] after this.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>8</sup>Peter says to Him, “You will never ever wash my feet!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no part with me.” <sup>10</sup>Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>Jesus says to him: “One who is bathed has no need except to wash his feet, but is clean all over. And you (pl) are clean, but not all of you.” <sup>12</sup>(He knew who was betraying Him; that is why He said, “Not all of you are clean.”)

Jesus explains His action

<sup>12</sup>So when Jesus had washed their feet and put His garments back on, He reclined again and said to them: “Do you know what I have done to you?” <sup>13</sup>You address me as ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord’, and you speak correctly, because I am. <sup>14</sup>So then, if I, Lord and Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. <sup>15</sup>Because I have given you an example, so that you also should do just as I did to you.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>“I do not speak concerning all of you—I know whom I chose. But let the Scripture be fulfilled: ‘The one eating bread with me lifted up his heel against me.’<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am. <sup>20</sup>Most assuredly I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives me,<sup>h</sup> and he who receives me receives Him who sent me.”

---

<sup>a</sup> The pronoun is emphatic. The picture seems to be that Jesus had already done several pairs of feet, whose owners had submitted in silence. But now it is Peter’s turn and he cannot take it (maybe he had a more tender conscience than the others).

<sup>b</sup> The Lord makes an important distinction here—He advises Peter that he doesn’t understand what is going on, as Peter proves the next time he opens his mouth, but in the future his knowledge on this subject will have been gained by experience.

<sup>d</sup> Peter continues to demonstrate that he is not understanding, but his heart is in the right place. Faced with the possibility of being cut off from the Lord, he swings to the other extreme—now he wants a bath.

<sup>e</sup> First, we have the physical example of washing feet—those communities that practice foot-washing have more basis for doing so than the rest of us have for not doing so (foot-washing can be an important spiritual exercise).

Second, we have the spiritual reality behind the example. The crucial point is in verse 10, “One who is bathed has no need except to wash his feet”. Anyone who has been ‘washed in the blood of the Lamb’ has had his bath. But walking on the paths of life we get our feet dirty, we sin, and sin breaks our fellowship with God—you can’t go into the living room with dirty feet. We need the blood of Christ for our daily cleansing, upon which depends our fellowship and communion with Him—as He said to Peter, “If I do not wash [not ‘bathe’] you, you have no part with me”. I regard Philippians 2:5-8 as a parallel passage: He took the form of a slave (verse 7), and His ‘work’ took Him to the cross, where He shed His blood, upon which both our salvation [bath] and daily walk [washing] depend.

<sup>f</sup> We have here a condition of fact—the Lord is assuming that they understand; it follows that it is not enough to understand—we must do, in order to be blessed.

<sup>h</sup> To represent Christ on this earth is both a great privilege and a great responsibility.

The traitor is identified<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Having said these things, Jesus was distressed in His spirit and testified saying, “Most assuredly I say to you, one of you will betray me!” <sup>22</sup>So the disciples started looking at each other, at a loss as to whom He meant.<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>Now one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved,<sup>c</sup> was reclining beside Jesus’ bosom.<sup>d</sup> <sup>24</sup>So Simon Peter motions to him to inquire whom it might be that He was referring to. <sup>25</sup>And leaning back against Jesus’ breast he says to Him, “Lord, who is it?” <sup>26</sup>Jesus answers, “It is the one to whom I will give the piece of dunked bread.” And dunking the bread He gives it to Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son. <sup>27</sup>And after the sop, then Satan entered into him.<sup>e</sup> Whereupon Jesus says to him, “What you are doing, do quickly!”<sup>f</sup> <sup>28</sup>(Now none of those reclining at the table knew why He said this to him. <sup>29</sup>Since Judas had the moneybox, some supposed that Jesus was telling him to buy what they needed for the feast, or to give something to the poor.)<sup>g</sup> <sup>30</sup>So having received the sop, immediately he went out. And it was night.<sup>h</sup>

A new commandment

<sup>31</sup>When he had gone out Jesus says:<sup>i</sup> “Now the Son of the Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in Him. <sup>32</sup>Since God has been glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him with Himself, and He will do so presently.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>33</sup>“Little children, I am with you just a little longer. You will look for me, and as I said to the Jews, ‘Where I am going you cannot come,’ so now I say to you.

<sup>34</sup>“I give you a new commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you<sup>k</sup>—that you also love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup> This is the second time; for the first see Matthew 26:21-25, Mark 14:18-21 and Luke 22:21-23.

<sup>b</sup> The way I used to think about Judas, I would have expected that the others would immediately suspect who it was, and start looking at him out of the corner of their eye. But no, they were clueless—no one thought of Judas! Which tells me that up to that moment he had conducted himself in an exemplary way; in fact, they trusted him so much that he was the treasurer.

<sup>d</sup> They were reclining on their sides, propped up on their left elbows (unless someone was left handed). So John was next to Jesus, with his back to Jesus’ bosom. In order to put his question, he leaned back until his shoulder touched Jesus’ chest (he would have to rest his weight there), and in that way he was looking up at Jesus.

<sup>e</sup> As we know from verse two, Satan had already planted the idea in Judas’ head/heart, but at this point he enters the man—Judas wasn’t just demonized, he was satanized! Evidently Satan required permission to do this, and giving the sop was the signal; Jesus gave him the go-ahead. Obviously Satan had to be there, in that upper room! (If he was in that upper room, why can’t he be in your church? Any Judases in your church?) I take it that Satan entered Judas to make sure that he would carry through with the plan.

<sup>f</sup> Although to the disciples it would appear that Jesus was addressing Judas, I rather suspect that He was actually addressing Satan, since it was Satan who would now control the man’s thoughts. He orders him to get on with it; that is right, Jesus gave Satan an order, and Satan obeyed.

<sup>g</sup> This is instructive—even though Jesus had just said that it was Judas, the others just could not believe it.

<sup>h</sup> Commentators like to wax eloquent on this statement. It was literally night, perhaps about 9 p.m., but it was also spiritually ‘night’—Satan’s finest hour.

<sup>i</sup> The verb is in the present tense; I get the impression that as soon as the door clicked behind Judas the Lord started speaking. The events have been set in motion that will culminate in His being glorified.

<sup>j</sup> Actually, ‘do so’ stands for ‘glorify Him’, that is repeated from the previous clause.

<sup>k</sup> The Law says to love your neighbor as yourself; Grace says to love as Christ loves—clearly a higher standard!

Jesus warns Peter<sup>b</sup>

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, where are you going?”<sup>c</sup> Jesus answered him, “Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but later you will follow me.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>37</sup>Peter says to Him: “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake!” <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered him: “You will lay down your life for my sake? Most assuredly I say to you, no rooster can crow until you have denied me three times!”<sup>e</sup>

The Way, the Truth, the Life

Thomas’ question

<sup>5</sup>Thomas says to Him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”<sup>j</sup> <sup>6</sup>Jesus says to him: “I am the Way and the Truth and the <sup>a</sup> Since agape love is an unknown commodity in the ‘world’, demonstrations of it do tend to get attention.

<sup>b</sup> This is the first warning. The second is recorded in Luke 22:31-34, which I would place after John 16:15, toward the end of the proceedings in the upper room. Both the context and the content of the warning differ from John. The third warning, in two parts, is recorded in Matthew 26:31-35 (1st part) and Mark 14:27-31 (2nd part). The first two warnings happened in the upper room, the third after they had left it.

<sup>c</sup> Peter didn’t hear the ‘new commandment’; he was stuck on the prior statement. (This sort of thing happens during sermons all the time. So if the preacher says something unexpected, he had better stop and explain or he loses his audience.)

<sup>d</sup> I imagine that the Lord is referring to Hades, in the first instance (referring to physical death), but then also to Heaven. It is not part of the Plan for Peter to die just yet (in fact, he was delivered from prison in a supernatural way to avoid a premature death—Acts 12:6-11), but of course he will die and go to Heaven later on.

<sup>e</sup> The emphasis here is on the obligatory absence of any cockcrow until Peter has denied [at least] three times. There is no definite article with ‘rooster’, so it is “a rooster”; the negative is double, therefore emphatic, “absolutely not”. If you have lived where there were a number of roosters, you know that one or another can sound off at any time, and some one of them will crow almost on the hour throughout the night, while at dawn they put on a chorus. It was probably somewhere around 9 p.m. when Jesus issued this warning, and Peter’s first denial probably happened at least five hours later. For not a single rooster to crow anywhere within earshot during that time required supernatural intervention—which is why I render “no rooster can crow” (if an angel can close lions’ mouths [Daniel 6:22], closing roosters’ beaks would be a cake walk).

<sup>f</sup> A Greek verb is ambiguous in the 2nd person plural between Indicative and Imperative, and since that form occurs in both clauses here, there are four possibilities—Ind. Ind., Ind. Imp., Imp. Ind., Imp. Imp. The choice is up to the translator, which is why you will find differences among the versions at this point. We have already been told, in John 6:64, that Jesus knew who did not believe; it follows that He also knew who did. He knew that the eleven believed, so it seems more likely to me that He spoke in the Indicative. He is appealing to them to be consistent with their belief.

<sup>g</sup> ‘House’ and ‘dwelling’ translate different words. I suppose that “my Father’s house” is a synonym for Heaven.

<sup>h</sup> You can find quite a variety of interpretations and translations of this clause. I assume that the Lord had certainly given them teaching on the subject of Heaven; He here assures them that if their expectations were false He would have warned them. I take it that over 95% of the Greek manuscripts do not have “that” introducing the next clause.

<sup>i</sup> He wants us. We are important to Him. So much so that before He created our race He had determined to pay the price for our redemption—1 Peter 1:19-20.

<sup>j</sup> Peter wasn’t the only one who hadn’t figured it out. But we may thank Thomas for eliciting the tremendous statement that occupies verse 6!

Life. No one goes to the Father except through me.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>If you had known me, you would have known my Father as well;<sup>b</sup> from now on you both know Him and have seen Him.”

Philip's question

<sup>8</sup>Philip says to Him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.” <sup>9</sup>Jesus says to him: “Such a long time I have been with you, and you have not known me, Philip?<sup>c</sup> He who has seen me has seen the Father; so how can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? <sup>10</sup>Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own; rather it is the Father who dwells in me who does the works.<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or else, believe me because of the works themselves.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>12</sup>“Most assuredly I say to you,<sup>f</sup> the one believing into me, he too will do the works that I do;<sup>g</sup> in fact he will do greater works than these,<sup>h</sup> because I am going <sup>a</sup> Jesus answers both questions: He is the way, and He is going to the Father. The only way that any human being, including Adam and Eve and all the Old Testament saints, can go to the Father is on the basis of the shed blood of the Lamb of God.

<sup>b</sup> The Lord is saying that up to that moment the disciples had not really gotten the point—they were convinced that Jesus was the Messiah, all right, but did not understand the Messiah's relationship to the Father. But as a result of the immediately coming events, culminating with the advent of the Holy Spirit, they will understand.

<sup>d</sup> Notice again the close connection between saying and doing—“I speak... the Father does”. If, like Jesus (John 12:49-50), we only speak what the Father says, He will act on the basis of our word too.

<sup>e</sup> This is basically the same appeal He had already made to the Pharisees.

<sup>f</sup> “Most assuredly” is actually “amen, amen”—rendered “verily, verily” in the AV. Only John registers the word as repeated, in the other Gospels it is just “amen”. In the contemporary literature we have no example of anyone else using the word in this way. It seems that Jesus coined His own use, and the point seems to be to call attention to an important pronouncement: “Stop and listen!” Often it precedes a formal statement of doctrine or policy, as here.

<sup>g</sup> This is a tremendous statement, and not a little disconcerting. Notice that the Lord said, “will do”; not ‘maybe’, ‘perhaps’, ‘if you feel like it’; and certainly not ‘if the doctrine of your church permits it’! If you believe you will do! The verb ‘believe’ is in the present tense, 2nd person singular; if you (sg) are believing you will do; it follows that if you are not doing it is because you are not believing. 2 + 2 = 4. Doing what? “The works that I do.” Well, Jesus preached the Gospel, He taught, He cast out demons, He healed all sorts and sizes of sickness and disease, He raised an occasional dead person, and He performed a variety of miracles (water to wine, walk on water, stop a storm instantaneously, transport a boat several miles instantaneously, multiply food, shrivel a tree—and He implied that the disciples should have stopped the storm and multiplied the food, and He stated that they could shrivel a tree [Peter actually took a few steps on water]). So how about us? The preaching and teaching we can handle, but what about the rest? I once heard the president of a certain Christian college affirm that this verse obviously could not mean what it says because it is not happening! Well, in his own experience and in that of his associates I guess it is not. But many people today cast out demons and heal, and I personally know someone who has raised a dead person. Miracles are also happening. So how about me? And you?

<sup>h</sup> Well now, if we cast out demons, heal and perform miracles, isn’t that enough? Jesus wants more, He wants “greater things” than those just mentioned. Notice again that He said “will do”, not maybe, perhaps, or if your church permits. But what could be ‘greater’ than miracles? This cannot refer to modern technology because in that event such ‘greater things’ would not have been available to the believers during the first 1900 years. Note that the key is in the Lord’s final statement (in verse 12), “because I am going to my Father”. Only if He won could He return to the Father, so He is here declaring His victory before the fact. It is on the basis of that victory that the ‘greater things’ can be performed. Just what are those ‘greater’ things? For my answer, see my outline, “Biblical Spiritual Warfare”, available from my site: www.prunch.org.

to my Father. <sup>13</sup>Further, whatever you (pl) may ask in my name,<sup>a</sup> that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask anything in my name, I will do it! <sup>15</sup>If you love me, keep my commandments. <sup>16</sup>Also,<sup>b</sup> I will ask the Father and He will give you another Enabler,<sup>c</sup> so that He may stay with you throughout the age<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>—the Spirit of the Truth,<sup>e</sup> whom the world is unable to receive,<sup>f</sup> because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you do know Him, because He is staying with you and will be in you.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>18</sup>“I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you [shortly].<sup>h</sup> <sup>19</sup>In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Because I live you also will live.<sup>i</sup> <sup>20</sup>In that day<sup>j</sup> you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup>The one who has my commandments and keeps them, he is the one who loves me. Now the one who loves me will be loved by my Father; and I will love him, and reveal myself to him.”<sup>k</sup>

Judas' question

<sup>22</sup>Judas (not the Iscariot) says to Him, “Lord, just how is it that You are going to reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?” <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to

<sup>a</sup> In verse 12 the verb ‘will do’ is singular, both times, so it has to do with the individual. Here, ‘you may ask’ is plural, reminiscent of Matthew 18:19-20. To ask “in Jesus’ name” is to ask something Jesus would ask, or is asking (remember John 12:49-50)—notice that the purpose is to glorify the Father (or more precisely, that the Father be glorified in/through the Son), not to satisfy any selfish wish we may have.

<sup>b</sup> I take it that verse 16 is parallel to verse 13, and both are tied to verse 12.

<sup>c</sup> Greek has two words for ‘another’, another of the same kind and another of a different kind. Here it is another of the same kind—being two members of the Trinity, the Son and the Holy Spirit are definitely of the ‘same’ kind!

<sup>d</sup> Strictly, ‘into the age’; ‘age’ is singular, and for the meaning ‘forever’ we would expect the plural, ‘into the ages’. I doubt that the Lord is promising that the Holy Spirit will remain in us (see next verse) throughout eternity, just during this age. During this age we need the Holy Spirit in us to counteract the ‘flesh’ or fallen nature; in Heaven we will be free of all contaminants.

<sup>g</sup> “Will be in you”, presumably a prophetic reference to Pentecost and after. During this age the Holy Spirit resides in the true believer.

<sup>h</sup> I assume that the reference is to His appearances during forty days (Acts 1:3) after His resurrection. They saw Him die on Friday and saw Him alive on Sunday, so they were not ‘without’ Him very long. Pentecost was fifty days after Passover; the Ascension was at least forty days after the Resurrection; so the interval between Ascension and Pentecost was only 7-8 days. Indeed, He did not leave them orphans.

<sup>i</sup> “I live”, present tense. As the I AM who is Life, at any moment throughout eternity (past or future) He can say, “I live”. As “the resurrection and the life” He can guarantee our future life.

<sup>j</sup> What ‘day’ is that? I assume that it refers back to verse 16, to the coming of the Enabler. With the indwelling Holy Spirit they will have a better understanding of the relationships.

<sup>k</sup> The Lord gives an important insight on spiritual growth, here: our love → our obedience → His love → His self revelation. Can you love someone you don’t know? Perhaps in theory, but not really. The more you know someone the more you love him/her (especially if they are nice). As we come to know the Lord we grow to love Him, which translates into obedience, which leads Him to reveal Himself to us, which increases our knowledge of Him, which increases our love for Him, which increases our obedience, which increases His self revelation, which increases our knowledge, love, obedience, and so on. It is an upward spiral which takes us ever closer to Him.

him: “If anyone loves me he will keep my word. And my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>The one who does not love me does not keep my words;<sup>b</sup> further, the word which you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me.

The Teacher, the peace; the Father, the enemy

<sup>25</sup>“I have spoken these things to you while being with you. <sup>26</sup>But the Enabler, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, He will teach you all things and remind you of everything I said to you.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>27</sup>“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you; it is not like the world gives that I give to you.<sup>d</sup> Do not let your heart be distressed or intimidated.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>28</sup>“You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved me you would have been glad that I said, ‘I am going to the Father,’ because my Father is greater than I.<sup>f</sup> <sup>29</sup>I have told you now, before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.

“Get up, let us leave here.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Like, wow—did you get that? We have always been taught (correctly) that the Holy Spirit indwells the true believer, but here the Lord says that the Father and the Son can be at home with us as well. That is all three persons of the Trinity! There is a condition, however—we must keep Jesus’ word, which is really the Father’s (next verse). The indispensable evidence that we love God is to obey His word; this stimulates His love in return. There is evidently some sense in which we influence the manifestation of His love, at least. The answer to Judas’ question is that the ‘revealing’ is one on one, and is triggered by one’s obedience. So the world is out.

<sup>e</sup> Satan will certainly use the world to try to intimidate and distress us, but how we react is up to us. We can decide to “let the peace of God rule in our hearts” (Colossians 3:15).

<sup>f</sup> How does that work? Well, if you really love someone you are more concerned for their well-being than you are for your own. For Jesus to return to the Father would certainly be better for Him. (And because He sent the Holy Spirit it also became better for them, and for us.)

<sup>g</sup> Like Jesus said a few hours later to the soldiers in the garden, “this is your hour, and the power of darkness” (Luke 22:53). Satan was ‘approaching’ to do his thing, to perform his part in the crucifixion of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>h</sup> This is important! Satan had absolutely no hold on Jesus. At no time had Jesus done anything that could give Satan a finger hold or toehold in His life. Whenever we sin we give Satan such a hold—and the oftener we repeat a given sin the stronger that hold becomes, until it becomes a stronghold. If we confess and reject the sin, such a hold can be broken, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>“I am the vine, and you are the branches. The one who abides in me and I in him, he is the one who produces much fruit, because apart from me you are incapable of doing anything.<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown out, like a branch, and dries up; well they gather such and throw them into the fire, and he is burned up.<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>If you abide in me and my sayings<sup>h</sup> abide in you, you will ask

<sup>a</sup> There is emphasis on “true”, which implies a contrast with the false one. I suppose that Jesus may have been referring to Jeremiah 2:21: “Yet I had planted you [Israel, see verse 4] a noble vine, a seed of highest quality. How then have you turned before Me into the degenerate plant of an alien vine?” For a similar idea see Isaiah 5:1-7.

<sup>b</sup> The Greek verb here covers a considerable semantic area. The familiar ‘takes away’ is one of its basic meanings, but ‘lifts up’ is another of its meanings and makes better sense here (the cutting off comes in verse 6). People plant (or buy) vineyards because they want grapes, and you can’t have grapes without branches, so you don’t destroy them without reason. When it’s blossom time you go down the rows looking for any branches that the wind and rain have knocked down—a branch on the ground won’t produce. You lift them up, shake off the dirt and fasten them up, to give them a chance. I take it that’s the picture here—if we have fallen, the Father picks us up, brushes us off and gives us another go. Of course if we never produce, then we are suckers, and He goes ‘snip’ (verse 6).

<sup>c</sup> I understand that a given stretch of vine or branch only produces grapes once, it is only the new growth that produces grapes, so if you want to increase production you must cut the vine back.

<sup>d</sup> Jesus had been ‘pruning’ those disciples for two years or more.

<sup>e</sup> From the way this is stated I conclude that although this ‘abiding’ is a two-way street, it actually depends on us. That is, as we abide in Him He will abide in us—He won’t stop first; only if we stop abiding in Him will He stop abiding in us.

<sup>f</sup> We seem to have a hard time getting this through our heads, but our Lord is very clear—all our activism is fruitless. If we wish to produce fruit for Christ’s Kingdom we MUST abide in Him.

Notice again the sequence of events, “if anyone does not abide in me he is thrown out”—a branch that is ‘abiding’ is not thrown; only if you choose to leave will you be thrown. I am a theologian (ThM) and am well aware that people tend to buy into a theological system, or doctrinal package, and they then impose that system on the Bible—if some passage does not fit, they do whatever damage may be necessary to that passage to make it ‘fit’. But I am also a linguist (PhD), and I know that human language is governed by rules—to disobey those rules is a form of lying, and God cannot lie (Titus 1:2), so if in interpreting the Bible you disobey those rules, you make a liar out of God, which is not very smart! In this passage the Lord Jesus Christ gives instruction that is perfectly plain. If the Word of Christ says one thing and your doctrinal package says another, then you had better stop and think. Which holds more authority for you, which are you going to follow, the Word of Christ or your doctrinal package? If you choose the latter, you are an idolater—to place your church’s doctrine above the Word of God is a form of idolatry. Idolatry always has negative consequences.

whatever you desire and it will happen for you. <sup>8</sup>My Father is glorified by this: that you produce much fruit; and you will become disciples to me.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>9</sup>“Just as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you;<sup>b</sup> abide in my love. <sup>10</sup>If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love;<sup>c</sup> just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in His love. <sup>11</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>This is my commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you.<sup>e</sup> <sup>13</sup>No one has greater love than this, that someone should lay down his life for his friends.<sup>f</sup> <sup>14</sup>You are my friends if you do whatever I command you.

<sup>15</sup>“I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his owner is doing; rather I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I heard from my Father.<sup>g</sup> <sup>16</sup>It was not you who chose me but I who chose you, and I appointed you so that you should go and produce fruit, and that your fruit should endure, so that whatever you may ask the Father in my name He may give you. <sup>17</sup>These things I command you so that you love one another.<sup>h</sup>

The world hates

<sup>18</sup>“When the world hates you, you can be sure that it has hated me first. <sup>19</sup>If you were of the world, the world would be fond of its own.<sup>i</sup> So because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, that is why the world hates you.<sup>j</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> The pronoun is dative, not genitive, so to render ‘my’ disciples is not precise; since Jesus obviously could have used the genitive if that was what He wanted to say, then the choice of the dative is significant. In my own experience, not a few have said in my hearing that they were my disciples; I smiled and said ‘Thank you’, but seldom did I want to claim them (for varying reasons). I take it that here the Lord is saying that He will claim us as His disciples as we produce much fruit.

<sup>c</sup> “Abide in my love” is a command, not an option, and the way we do it is by obeying Him. I take it that ‘my love’ refers to His loving us, so again He is saying that our obedience triggers the manifestation (at least) of His love, in an ongoing relationship. We have probably all heard of ‘unconditional love’, but I wonder if they really know what they are talking about. It may be that God offers us His love without prior condition, but to enter into that love we have to believe into Jesus, which involves commitment on our part. Love that is not reciprocated becomes frustrated love.

<sup>d</sup> I take it that ‘my joy’ is not exactly the same as ‘your joy’. I can often tell when God is happy with me, and when He is not, and it is directly tied to the level of my obedience. I take it that His joy remaining in us refers to His being happy with us; of course the only way our joy can be full is if He is indeed happy with us (because of our obedience).

<sup>e</sup> Comparing this command with verse 9 it appears that we are to love just like God loves! Help! How can we manage that? Well, maybe that is why we need the Enabler—only under the control of the Holy Spirit can I love as God does.

<sup>g</sup> We can be ‘horses’ (Psalm 32:9), slaves or friends. A ‘horse’ is a Christian who does his own thing, who does not listen to God—He has to use pain to get his attention. A slave listens, and obeys, but the owner does not necessarily explain the big picture, the dream, the plan. With a friend you share your dream, the big idea. Jesus offers us the privilege of being friends, but there is one little detail—you cannot be a friend without being a slave! I take that to be the point of verse 14.

<sup>j</sup> If the world doesn’t hate you, perhaps you should stop and take stock. Why not? Are you just like them? Nothing about you challenges their lifestyle?

<sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his owner.’<sup>a</sup> If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. <sup>21</sup>Now they will do all of these things to you because of my name, in that they do not know the One who sent me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be having sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>The one who hates me hates my Father too. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done among them the works that no one else has done, they would not be having sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.<sup>b</sup> <sup>25</sup>However, this was so that the statement written in their law might be fulfilled, ‘They hated me without cause.’<sup>c</sup>

<sup>26</sup>“Now when the Enabler comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of the Truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify concerning me. <sup>27</sup>And you also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.<sup>d</sup>

What the Enabler will do

<sup>5</sup>“Now then, I am going away to Him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ <sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless I am telling you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, because if I do not go away the Enabler will not come to you, but if I do go I will send Him to you.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>8</sup>“Now when He comes he will convict the world about sin and about righteousness and about judgment: <sup>9</sup>first about sin, because they do not believe into me;<sup>i</sup> <sup>10</sup>then about righteousness, because I am going away to my Father and you

<sup>b</sup> Presumably the Lord is not saying that they were sinless; I take it He is referring to a particular sin—they rejected the full light that He brought, and are now overtly hating Him and the Father. Before Jesus ministered among them, they claimed that they loved God, and maybe actually thought that they did, but the Light exposed what they really were.

<sup>c</sup> This statement may be found in Psalm 35:19 and 69:4. Verses 9 and 21 of Psalm 69 are also applied to Christ in the NT. Notice that Jesus calls the book of Psalms their ‘law’.

<sup>d</sup> It is after the coming of the Enabler that they will testify. In fact, they pretty much stayed in hiding until He came, but then they became bold as lions.

<sup>e</sup> Suffering and persecution causes some Christians to doubt God, and even to rebel against Him, and Jesus does not want that to happen to them.

<sup>h</sup> Jesus could only be physically present in one place at a time. The Holy Spirit can be in all believers all around the world all the time—clearly to our advantage.

<sup>i</sup> Since to believe into Jesus is the only cure for sin, to reject Him is the ultimate sin—you lock yourself into the consequences = spiritual death.

will no longer see me;<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>then about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>12</sup>“I still have many things to say to you but you cannot bear it now.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>However, when He, the Spirit of the Truth, has come, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own, but He will speak whatever He hears.<sup>d</sup> He will also communicate to you the things that are coming. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify me because He will take of what is mine and communicate it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine;<sup>e</sup> that is why I said that He takes from what is mine and will communicate it to you.

Sorrow to joy

<sup>16</sup>“In just a little you will not see me, and in another little you will see me, because I am going to the Father.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then some of His disciples said among themselves: “What is this that He is telling us, ‘In just a little you will not see me, and in another little you will see me,’ and because ‘I am going to the Father?’” <sup>18</sup>So they said: “What is this ‘little’ that He mentions? We do not know what He is talking about.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Well Jesus knew that they were wanting to question Him and said to them: “Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, ‘In just a little you will not see me, and in another little you will see me?’” <sup>20</sup>Most assuredly I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will become grieved,<sup>h</sup> but your grief will be turned into joy.<sup>i</sup> <sup>21</sup>When a woman gives birth she has pain, because her time has come; but when the child is born she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup>So in your turn you are now experiencing grief, but I will see you again and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. <sup>23</sup>In that day<sup>j</sup> you will not question me about anything.

“Most assuredly I say to you that whatever you ask the Father in my name He will give you. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have not asked anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be made full.

<sup>a</sup> The resurrection was the proof that the Father accepted the sacrifice of the Lamb (Romans 4:25, he “was raised because of our justification”)—having committed no sin of His own, Jesus could pay for ours. If He had committed sin on His own, He could not return to the Father.

<sup>b</sup> If the big boss has been judged, then no one under him will escape.

<sup>j</sup> Perhaps the ‘day’ here is different from the one in 14:20; and yet, even after seeing the risen Lord, they still got discouraged. By the sea shore Peter still asked Him a question, so maybe the ‘day’ is the same as in 14:20. It was the coming of the Holy Spirit that gave them joy that could not be stolen.

Figures of speech

<sup>25</sup>“I have told you these things using figures of speech, but a time is coming when I will no longer talk to you with figures of speech; rather I will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask in my name; I do not say to you that I will request the Father on your behalf, <sup>27</sup>because the Father Himself is fond of you,<sup>a</sup> in that you have become fond of me and have believed that I came forth from God. <sup>28</sup>I did come forth from the Father and have come into the world. I am leaving the world again<sup>b</sup> and am going to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>His disciples say to Him: “Hey, now you are speaking plainly and using no figure of speech! <sup>30</sup>Now we know that you know everything and don’t need anyone to question you.<sup>c</sup> By this we believe that you came forth from God.”<sup>d</sup>

“Take heart!”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them: “Do you believe now, really? <sup>32</sup>Listen, an hour is coming, actually it has already arrived, that you will be scattered, each to his own, and you will leave me alone.<sup>e</sup> Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression;<sup>f</sup> but take heart, I have conquered the world!”<sup>g</sup>

Jesus prays

17 <sup>1</sup>Jesus spoke these things,<sup>h</sup> raising His eyes to Heaven and saying:

For Himself

“Father, the hour has come! Glorify Your Son, so that Your Son also may glorify You, <sup>2</sup>just as You gave Him authority over all humanity, so that He will give eternal life to all those whom You have given Him.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>c</sup> They seem to be implying that before He was confused and needed help; their questions made Him think things through, or some such thing. But now He finally got it sorted out! (If it were not so pitiful it would be humorous.)

<sup>f</sup> Just so. Any system dominated by Satan will be oppressive, for everybody, but his special malice will be directed at those who serve Christ.

<sup>g</sup> Yes, amen! I take it that the ‘world’ here refers to the world system controlled by Satan. Jesus did indeed conquer it. He lived within that system for 33 years without ever succumbing to it, without ever being tainted by it. Since He conquered the world, we can too! So let’s take heart!

<sup>h</sup> I take it that ‘these things’ is cataphoric, referring forward to the content of the prayer.

<sup>j</sup> I take it that the reference here is to experiential knowledge. ‘Eternal life’ refers mainly to a quality of life (more than longevity), and that quality is defined by relationship with the Father. The person who conceives of God as a distant, detached authority figure doesn’t really know Him.

<sup>k</sup> This is the first recorded time that the Lord used this title, ‘Jesus Christ’ (in Matthew 16:20 there is ‘Jesus, the Christ’—as in over 95% of the Greek manuscripts). He did so when He could also say, “I have finished the work that You have given me to do” (next verse) (He still had a few hours to go, but is declaring His victory). In Acts and the epistles the title is very frequent—it affirms that Jesus is the Messiah. Also, what happens to those who only ‘know’ the Father, but not the Son?

the earth. I have finished the work that You have given me to do.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>So now, Father, You glorify me by Your side with the glory that I had along with You before the world existed!<sup>b</sup>

For the Apostles

<sup>6</sup>“I have revealed Your name<sup>c</sup> to the men whom You have given me out of the world. They were Yours and You gave them to me, and they have kept Your word. <sup>7</sup>They now know that everything You have given to me is from You; <sup>8</sup>because I have given them the sayings which You have given to me; and they have received and known for sure that I came forth from You,<sup>d</sup> and they have believed that You sent me. <sup>9</sup>I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom You have given me, because they are yours. <sup>10</sup>Actually, all my things are Yours and Yours are mine, and I have been glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>Now I am no longer in the world,<sup>e</sup> yet these are in the world, and I am coming to You.

“Holy Father, keep them in Your name which<sup>f</sup> You have given to me, so that they may be one just as we are.<sup>g</sup> <sup>12</sup>While I was with them in the world I kept them in Your name. I protected those whom You gave me, and not one of them was lost except the son of perdition, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled.<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>But now I am coming to You, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made full in them.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The older I get, finishing ‘the work You have given me to do’ looms larger and larger in my mind.

<sup>b</sup> As it says in 1 Peter 1:19-20, the Lamb, with His blood shed, was foreknown before the foundation of the world. Colossians 1:16, Hebrews 1:10 and John 1:3,10 make clear that the Son was the primary agent in the creation of this planet. So Jehovah the Son is both Creator and Lamb—before He created He knew that man would rebel and He Himself would have to pay the terrible ransom. From our Lord’s statement here I get the impression that as soon as the Son started dealing with this planet He gave up some of His glory. So now He is asking to have it back. Ephesians 1:20-21 makes clear that the Father granted His request, the Son is back where He was before. And He took us with Him (Ephesians 2:6)! Thank You, Lord!! Also, our Lord’s statement here goes against any ‘Gnostic’ type view that has Jesus beginning as an inferior being and working up through successive levels of perfection, or what have you.

<sup>c</sup> “Your name” = “You”; a person’s name represents that person. This is very clear in John 1:18. Jesus revealed the Father to the world.

<sup>d</sup> Over and over again the Lord returns to the theme of their knowing and believing where He came from, His divine origin. So this must be important! Someone who does not believe that Jesus is God cannot be a true Christian.

<sup>e</sup> He would still be around for another forty days, or so, but the countdown has begun.

<sup>h</sup> This is perhaps the clearest of a very few passages in the Bible that might be said to indicate what has been called ‘double predestination’ or ‘preterition’, that is, that someone is predestined to be lost. In Hebrew usage (Jesus, a Jew among Jews, was presumably speaking Hebrew here) a ‘son’ of something is characterized by that something; so a ‘son of perdition’ is characterized by lostness; the Scripture in question would be part of the Old Testament and hence written long before the person was born. (I have not been able to locate a clear text to that effect, but there are indirect ones.)

<sup>i</sup> Although He was addressing the Father, Jesus evidently did so out loud—precisely so that the disciples would hear, with a view to joy.

<sup>14</sup>“I have given them Your word;<sup>a</sup> and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup>I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the malignant one.<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them by Your Truth; Your Word is Truth.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Just as You sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>And for their sakes I sanctify myself,<sup>f</sup> so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

For all believers

<sup>20</sup>“I pray not only for these, but also for those who believe into me through their word; <sup>21</sup>that they all may be one, just as You, Father, are in me and I in You; that in Us they also may be one, so that the world may believe that You sent me. <sup>22</sup>In fact, the glory that You gave to me I have given to them,<sup>g</sup> so that they may be one just as We are one: <sup>23</sup>I in them and You in me, so that they may be perfected into one; also so that the world may know that You sent me, and have loved them just as You have loved me.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>24</sup>“Father, those whom You have given to me, I desire that they also may be with me where I am,<sup>i</sup> so that they may observe my glory, which You have given me, because You loved me before the founding of the world. <sup>25</sup>Righteous Father! Indeed the world has not known You, but I have known You; and these have known that You sent me. <sup>26</sup>Yes, I have made Your name known to them and will make it known, so that the love with which You have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”<sup>j</sup>

18 <sup>1</sup>Having said these things Jesus went out with His disciples across the Kidron ravine, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered. <sup>2</sup>Now Judas, the one betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus

<sup>a</sup> Yes! Oh praise God! That Word delivers us from Satan's kingdom in every way, including worldview. So it is only natural that Satan's 'world' will hate us.

<sup>c</sup> He repeats what He just said in verse 14, so it must be important. Jesus was not of this world because He literally came from Heaven, which could not be said of those disciples. But in the context of verse 15 the reference is probably to the ‘world’ dominated by Satan, the system. Their allegiance is no longer to Satan's system.

<sup>f</sup> To ‘sanctify’ something to God means to separate/dedicate/consecrate it for His exclusive use. While on earth Jesus concentrated His attention and energies on a single goal, to execute the Plan, the Father's will. To the extent that we pay attention to the Truth, we will do the same.

<sup>g</sup> What ‘glory’ was that? In Romans 3:23 I imagine that the ‘glory’ of God has to do with His essence, His character. The new ‘man’ or nature that a regenerated person receives is related to that essence/ character. It is that nature in common that makes us ‘one’. However, since most Christians seldom allow the new nature to control them, in practice we don't see all that much unity. But in Heaven it will come to fruition.

often met there with His disciples. <sup>3</sup>So Judas, having received the detachment of soldiers and operatives from the chief priests and Pharisees, he arrives there with lanterns, torches and weapons.

Jesus knocks the soldiers down with His word

<sup>4</sup>Then Jesus, knowing everything that was going to happen to Him, went forward and said to them, “Who are you looking for?” <sup>5</sup>They answered Him, “Jesus the Natsorean.” Jesus says to them, “I am he.” (Now Judas, His betrayer, was also standing with them.) <sup>6</sup>So when He said to them, “I am he,” they went backward and fell to the ground!<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then He asked them again, “Who are you looking for?” And they said, “Jesus the Natsorean.” <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered: “I told you that I am he. So if it is me you are looking for, allow these men to go” <sup>9</sup>(so that the word that He spoke might be fulfilled, “Of those you have given me I did not lose even one”).<sup>b</sup>

To Annas first

Peter denies Jesus

<sup>15</sup>Now Simon Peter kept following Jesus, as also the other disciple. Well that disciple was known to the high priest,<sup>h</sup> so he went into the high priest’s courtyard with Jesus. <sup>16</sup>But Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disci-

---

<sup>a</sup> Have you ever tried to imagine this scene? Try imagining that you are one those soldiers, and the person you have been sent to arrest knocks you down, just with his word! So are you going to want to try anything against him, really? Hey, I think I would get up and run away as fast and as far as I could! I see two miracles here: 1) He knocked them down with His word; 2) He obliged them to stay there and get on with their job, because it was the appointed time for Him to be taken, tried and crucified. But He made it perfectly clear that He was in control of the situation.

<sup>b</sup> I take it that the Iscariot had not been given to Him by the Father, at least in the sense of 17:6—“They were Yours and You gave them to me”. Presumably the Iscariot never belonged to the Father.

<sup>d</sup> We know from Luke 22:51 that Jesus healed the ear, or Peter could have been in trouble. The parallel accounts give more detail.

<sup>e</sup> The word here (chiliarch) refers to a commander of a thousand men (or of a cohort = about 600); this could only be a Roman officer of high rank. So how did they get him to come along? Obviously Pilate had been informed and was participating. For a detailed discussion, please see the Appendix: “Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time”.

<sup>f</sup> The bigger reason was that Annas was the real high priest, according to the Law (the office of high priest was for life). He was the power behind the throne, so to say. Caiaphas was the political high priest (that year), for purposes of dealing with Rome.

ple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper (f), and brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup>So the servant girl, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, “You aren’t one of this man’s disciples too, are you?”<sup>a</sup> He says, “I am not!” <sup>18</sup>Now the servants and operatives had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold,<sup>b</sup> and they were standing there warming themselves. So Peter stood with them and warmed himself.<sup>c</sup>

Caiaphas interrogates Jesus

<sup>19</sup>Then the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him: “I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in synagogue and the temple, where the Jews always congregate, and I have spoken nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why do you question me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them. Sure, they know what I said.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>But upon His saying these things one of the operatives standing by slapped Jesus saying, “Is that how you answer the high priest?” <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, “If I spoke wrongly, identify the wrong; but if rightly, why do you hit me?”<sup>e</sup> <sup>24</sup>(Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)<sup>f</sup>

Peter again

<sup>25</sup>Well Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, “You aren’t one of His disciples too, are you?”<sup>g</sup> So he denied it and said, “I am not!” <sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the one whose ear Peter had sliced, says, “Didn’t I see you with Him in the garden?”<sup>h</sup> <sup>27</sup>So Peter denied again, and immediately a rooster crowed.<sup>i</sup>

---

<sup>d</sup> The Lord’s observation here was perfectly reasonable and in accord with the law. The priest should have produced witnesses, rather than asking Jesus to testify against Himself.

<sup>e</sup> Since everything that was going on was unjust and illegal, I find it to be curious that Jesus reprimanded the man.

<sup>g</sup> We don’t know what John was doing all this time, except that he was right there in that compound; I think it perfectly likely that he would talk to Peter from time to time. They knew that John was a disciple, but did not know Peter. Also, the windows of the house were doubtless open (no air conditioning), so they probably heard Caiaphas ask about His disciples. Actually, Luke 22:61 says Jesus turned and looked at Peter, so the window had to be open, and Jesus was near the window but with His back to it. Since Caiaphas was presumably facing Jesus he was also facing the open window and his voice would certainly carry out to the patio. Their question was not unreasonable.

<sup>h</sup> Now here we have a little malice; you can imagine the intonation in the man’s voice! Peter goes into a cold sweat. I bet he was wishing he was someplace else. (I wonder if he was still wearing his sword.)

<sup>i</sup> In keeping with his usual procedure, John records three denials by Peter that are not mentioned by the other Evangelists, and I would say that the rooster crow here is the first of the two (Mark 14:68, 72). A close comparison of all the details surrounding the denials (who provoked it, in what terms, when, where, Peter’s response) shows that there had to be a minimum of six, more likely eight, denials—3/4

Crucifixion day

Jesus taken to Pilate

<sup>28</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. They themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so that they would not be defiled but could eat the Passover.<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>So Pilate went out to them<sup>b</sup> and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" <sup>30</sup>In reply they said to him, "If he were not an evil-doer we would not have handed him over to you."<sup>c</sup> <sup>31</sup>So Pilate said to them, "You take him and judge him according to your law." So the Jews said to him, "We are not permitted to execute anyone."<sup>d</sup> <sup>32</sup>(This was to fulfill the statement that Jesus made, indicating what sort of death He was about to die.)<sup>e</sup>

Pilate and Jesus

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate went back into the Praetorium, called Jesus and said to Him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered him, "Are you saying this on your own, or did others inform you about me?" <sup>35</sup>Pilate answered: "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation, that is, the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" <sup>36</sup>Jesus answered: "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my subjects would fight so that I not be delivered to the Jews; but now my kingdom is not from here."<sup>f</sup> <sup>37</sup>So Pilate said to Him, "You are a king then?" Jesus answered: "As you say, I am a king; for this I was born. And for this I came into the world, to testify to the Truth. Everyone who is of the Truth hears my voice." <sup>38</sup>Pilate says to Him, "What is truth?"<sup>g</sup>

Barabbas

Upon saying this he went out to the Jews again and says to them: "I find no crime in him at all.<sup>h</sup> <sup>39</sup>Now we<sup>i</sup> have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover; so do you want me to release the King of the Jews to you?" <sup>40</sup>Then they all cried out saying, "Not this fellow, but Barabbas!" Well, Barabbas was a bandit!

before the first rooster crow, 3/4 before the second. Peter was being satanized (Luke 22:31), and it took a look from the Lord to break the spell (Luke 22:61).

<sup>a</sup> Aren't these guys cute? They are perpetrating a totally illegal and immoral plot, but they think they are squeaky clean, no problem—but to set foot in the Praetorium, now that would be dirty! If your values are twisted, you are twisted.

<sup>b</sup> It seems to me obvious that the hierarchy had made a deal with Pilate; he was waiting. Hey, you do not go marching up to the Governor's headquarters at 5:30 a.m. and demand a hearing; and there is no indication that Pilate came out in his pajamas. He was up, dressed and waiting.

<sup>c</sup> Their answer seems a bit petulant. I gather that the deal they thought they had with Pilate included that he would just take Jesus and condemn Him. Pilate's attitude takes them by surprise.

<sup>d</sup> Pilate was rubbing salt in their wound, reminding them that they were a subjugated people—he knew they wanted to kill Jesus, so when he tells them to judge Him he forces them to acknowledge their subjugation. (Roman governors were probably not appointed on the basis of being nice.)

<sup>h</sup> Comparing John with Luke 23:4-12 it appears that between verses 38 and 39 here Jesus was sent to Herod. Notice that Pilate declares Jesus to be innocent.

<sup>i</sup> I here follow the best line of transmission, although representing only some 20% of the manuscripts. Upon reflection this reading looks correct—how could the Jews have a custom that placed an obligation on their conquerors?

Soldiers mock Jesus

19 <sup>1</sup>So then Pilate took Jesus and had Him flogged. <sup>2</sup>And the soldiers twisted a crown out of [poisonous] thorns and put it on His head; they also threw a purple robe around Him <sup>3</sup>and started saying, “Hail, O King of the Jews!” And they slapped Him repeatedly.

“Behold the Man!”

<sup>4</sup>Pilate then went out again and says to them, “Look, I am bringing him out to you so that you may know that I find no crime in him at all.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe; and Pilate says to them, “Look at the man!” <sup>6</sup>Well when the chief priests and the operatives saw Him they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify him!” Pilate says to them, “You take and crucify him, because I find no crime in him.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and according to our law he ought to die, because he made himself ‘Son of God!’”

Pilate and Jesus, again

<sup>8</sup>Hey, when Pilate heard this statement he was more afraid than ever!<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>So back into the Praetorium he went and says to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus did not answer him. <sup>10</sup>So Pilate says to Him: “Are you not speaking to me? Don’t you know that I have authority to crucify you and authority to release you?” <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered: “You would have no authority over me at all if it had not been given to you from Above.<sup>d</sup> Therefore the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

The Jews best Pilate

<sup>12</sup>From that moment Pilate really tried to release Him; but the Jews kept shouting, saying: “If you release this fellow you are no friend of Caesar’s! Whoever makes himself a king is opposing Caesar!”<sup>e</sup> <sup>13</sup>Well, upon hearing this statement Pilate led Jesus outside and sat down on the judgment seat, in a place called ‘Stone Pavement’, while in Hebrew ‘Gabatha’<sup>f</sup> <sup>14</sup>(now it was the day of preparation for the Passover;<sup>g</sup> the hour was about six a.m.),<sup>a</sup> and he says to the Jews, “Look at

---

<sup>a</sup> Pilate’s reasoning is not obvious to me, unless the normal procedure would be to get on with the execution. But Pilate is not happy and is looking for a way out; he had received a message from his wife in the meantime (Matthew 27:19). Perhaps he hoped they would be satisfied when they saw how much He had already suffered.

<sup>b</sup> This is the second time that Pilate declares that he finds no crime in Jesus. He is declaring His innocence, so he will knowingly condemn an innocent man.

<sup>c</sup> And not without reason. The conversation recorded in 18:33-37 would certainly have impressed Pilate and left him troubled. Then his wife added fuel to the fire. And now this. Pilate was not a religious type, presumably, but Jesus was impressive! Pilate was in over his head, and knew it.

<sup>d</sup> Pilate represented the Roman empire, the greatest temporal power at that time (whose ruler was supposedly divine), but Jesus calmly affirms that there is a higher power and that He represents that higher power—and Pilate believed Him! Pilate wanted no part of killing Jesus, and really tried to avoid it, but the Jews did an end run.

<sup>f</sup> This action signaled that he had reached a decision and was about to give the verdict.

<sup>g</sup> If the Jews were still preparing for the Passover, then Jesus and His disciples observed it a day early—which must have seemed strange to the disciples. But as the Lamb of God (not Passover lamb), Jesus had to die on that preparation day.

your king!”<sup>15</sup> But they shouted, “Out! Out! Crucify him!” Pilate says to them, “Shall I crucify your king?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup> So then he handed Him over to them to be crucified.

Jesus is crucified

So they took Jesus and lead Him away. <sup>17</sup> And carrying His cross He went out to the place called ‘Skull’, which in Hebrew is called ‘Golgotha’; <sup>18</sup> there they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, with Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup> Now Pilate had also written a notice, and put it on the cross; and the inscription was:

JESUS THE NATSOREAN<sup>c</sup>
THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>20</sup> So many of the Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; further, it was written in Hebrew, Greek and Latin!<sup>d</sup> <sup>21</sup> Now the chief priests of the Jews had said to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The king of the Jews’, but that the fellow said, ‘I am the king of the Jews.’” <sup>22</sup> Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written!”<sup>e</sup>

Psalm 22:18 is fulfilled

<sup>23</sup> Now when the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took His clothes and made four parts, a part for each soldier.<sup>f</sup> They also took His tunic, but the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. <sup>24</sup> So they said among themselves, “Let’s not rip it, but toss for it, to see whose it will be,” so that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

“They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast a lot.”

That is why the soldiers did these things.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The Text says “the sixth hour”, which in Roman time is six a.m. If it were Jewish time it would be noon, which will not work here. Actually it says ‘around’ or ‘about’ six—I assume that it was a little after the hour.

<sup>c</sup> That Pilate put “the Natsorean” (not Natsarene [Nazarene]) indicates that he had researched Jesus. The reference is to Isaiah 11:1; Jesus was David’s Branch, the Messiah. Pilate was making a statement.

<sup>d</sup> Comparing the other Gospels, the full inscription was, “This is Jesus the Natsorean, the King of the Jews”. To put all of that in three languages would require a board of fair size. But why did Pilate use three languages? One would have been enough (it was customary to put the crime over the victim’s head). I take it that Pilate was not happy, having been bested by the Jews; and as I have said above, I think he was personally convinced that Jesus was a king. By putting ‘this is the king of the Jews’ he was making a statement, one that virtually any literate person would be able to read, given the three languages.

<sup>e</sup> The chief priests have gotten all they are going to get out of Pilate; he was making a statement, but he was also getting back at them a little bit.

<sup>g</sup> See Psalm 22:18. John seems to be affirming a cause/effect relationship. The centurion could have claimed the tunic, or whatever, but casting a lot had been prophesied.

Jesus provides for His mother

<sup>25</sup>Now Jesus' mother and her sister, Mary of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene were standing by His cross. <sup>26</sup>So Jesus, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He says to His mother, "Woman, there is your son!" <sup>27</sup>Then He says to the disciple, "There is your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.<sup>a</sup>

The shout of victory

<sup>28</sup>After this, knowing that everything was now accomplished so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, Jesus says, "I'm thirsty!" <sup>29</sup>Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting there; so they filled a sponge with sour wine, placed it on a hyssop, and put it to His mouth. <sup>30</sup>Then, when He had received<sup>b</sup> the sour wine, Jesus said, "Paid in full!"<sup>c</sup> And bowing His head He dismissed His spirit.<sup>d</sup>

A soldier spears His side

<sup>31</sup>Now then, because it was Preparation Day, so that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews requested Pilate that their legs might be broken and they be removed. <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with Him. <sup>33</sup>But upon coming to Jesus, they did not break His legs, since they saw that He had already died. <sup>34</sup>But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>And the one who saw has testified,<sup>e</sup> and his testimony is true (yes, he knows he is telling the truth), so that you may believe. <sup>36</sup>Because these things happened so that the Scripture should be fulfilled: "Not a bone of His will be broken."<sup>f</sup> <sup>37</sup>And again another Scripture says: "They will look on Him whom they pierced."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Notice that Jesus is still perfectly lucid. As Mary's oldest son, He was responsible for her well-being (we understand that Joseph was gone by now), so He passes that responsibility over to the Apostle John (the author of this Gospel); and John accepts it.

<sup>b</sup> From the word 'received' it appears that He did swallow some. Since sour wine was not used at the Passover, this does not conflict with the Lord's statement in the upper room (Matthew 26:29) that He would not drink of "this product of the vine". All four Evangelists mention the sour wine. There was evidently a pot/vessel full of it (the soldiers were in for many hours of vigil and that was what they drank). The mocking offer mentioned in Luke 23:36 happened before the darkness; the other three accounts after. The offer recorded in Matthew 27:48 and Mark 15:36 was triggered by Jesus' cry, "My God, my God..." The one in John 19:29-30 by His saying, "I am thirsty". I venture to suggest that there was an interval between His despairing cry and His statement—after the cry He may have lapsed back into silence for a bit; He was trying to make contact with the Father. It may be that the sour wine sort of 'wet His whistle' so He could let out His shout of victory.

<sup>c</sup> Matthew, Mark and Luke all affirm that Jesus gave a great shout, but without giving the content. I take it that John supplies that information, although he does not mention that it was a shout. "Τετέλεσται"—that was what they wrote on bills and promissory notes when they were paid off = 'paid in full'. When something is shouted the individual sounds can be distorted, but John was right there and could read His lips, if necessary. It was a shout of victory: "We did it!" "Finished!" "Paid in full!"

<sup>d</sup> That is right—the cross did not kill Jesus, He just told His spirit to leave. In John 10:17-18 he was very clear: no one could take His life from Him, but He could lay it down (please see the note at John 10:18).

<sup>e</sup> John, the author of this Gospel, was right there (verses 25-26 above), so he could see very clearly what came out of Jesus' side—that the blood had separated was a clear sign of physical death. (I guess we don't need to know, really, just how the separation came about, whether by purely natural processes or with supernatural intervention; in any case, John is emphatic about what he saw.)

Jesus' body is buried

<sup>38</sup>After these things Joseph, the one from Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews), requested Pilate that he might remove the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave permission. So he came and removed Jesus' body. <sup>39</sup>Now Nicodemus also came<sup>a</sup> (the one who at first came to Jesus by night), bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.<sup>b</sup> <sup>40</sup>Then they took Jesus' body and wrapped it in linen strips, with the aromatic spices, according to the burial custom of the Jews. <sup>41</sup>Now at the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried.<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>So that is where they put Jesus, because of the Jews' Preparation Day, since the tomb was nearby.

Resurrection Day<sup>d</sup>The empty tomb*

20 <sup>1</sup>Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb early, while it is still dark, and sees that the stone has been removed from the tomb. <sup>2</sup>So she runs and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and says to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we<sup>e</sup> don't know where they put Him!"<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>So Peter and the other disciple took off, heading for the tomb. <sup>4</sup>Well the two started running together, and the other disciple outran Peter and got to the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>And stooping to look he sees the linen strips lying there; however he did not go in. <sup>6</sup>Then following him comes Simon Peter and went into the tomb; and he sees the linen strips lying there, <sup>7</sup>and the facecloth<sup>g</sup> that had been on His head not lying with the linen strips, but folded up in a separate place.

John sees and believes

<sup>8</sup>So then the other disciple went in too, the one who got to the tomb first; and he saw and believed.<sup>h</sup> <sup>9</sup>(For they did not yet know the Scripture, that He had to rise from among the dead.)<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went back home.

---

<sup>a</sup> He helped Joseph take down the body, and they transported it to the tomb in a linen sheet (Matthew 27:59).

<sup>b</sup> Do you suppose they just 'happened' to have a hundred pounds of expensive spices lying around? Almost certainly everything had been prepared before hand, including the tomb, on purpose. These men had doubtless received specific instructions and were waiting in the wings to perform their part.

<sup>c</sup> Isaiah 53:9 affirms that the Messiah would have a rich man's burial, and He did—a brand new tomb (rather large), and a hundred pounds of expensive spices. The body of an executed criminal would normally be treated ignominiously, and I imagine that was what the high priests intended, but the Father made sure that the Son received an honorable burial. Matthew 27:60 informs us that Joseph had himself prepared that tomb, and he did so at a spot near Golgotha. The next verse (here in John) indicates that this was done on purpose, for the reason mentioned. Joseph and Nicodemus clearly did what they did under divine guidance, and of course God knew that the tomb would need to be near Golgotha, etc.

<sup>e</sup> "We"—presumably Magdalene is referring to the other women who were with her, as in the parallel accounts.

<sup>f</sup> Pure supposition—she had not looked in the tomb; she jumped to a false conclusion. It is clear that there was no longer a shining angel sitting on the stone outside (Matthew 28:2).

<sup>g</sup> That there was a facecloth indicates that there was not a sheet that covered the body from head to toe (as in the 'shroud of Turin'). This was also true of Lazarus (John 11:44).

<sup>h</sup> What did John 'see' that made him 'believe'? He saw the linen strips 'lying', that is, in the form of the body, only there was no body inside them! If someone had stolen the body, as Magdalene supposed,

Jesus appears first to Magdalene

Disciples commissioned

<sup>19</sup>Then at evening on that first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle, and He says to them, “Peace to you!” <sup>20</sup>And upon saying this He showed they would have taken the wrapped package (much easier to carry, not to mention 100 pounds of expensive spices) and there would have been no linen strips. If someone had unwrapped the body there would have been a mound of linen strips and spices piled up (how much cloth would it take to wrap up a hundred pounds of spices?). No, Jesus simply passed through the cloth, as He would later pass through the wall, leaving the package like a mummy or empty cocoon. When John saw that he understood that the only possible explanation was resurrection.

- <sup>a</sup> But they should have; Jesus had told them repeatedly. But wait just a minute! Where in the OT is there such a Scripture? John wrote this Gospel over fifteen years after the other three had been ‘published’ and were in circulation, so his term ‘Scripture’ may be referring to them.
- <sup>b</sup> When the disciples took off running, of course Magdalene followed them back to the tomb. But she was winded, and could not keep up with them (actually, in that culture women probably seldom ran, so she would really be out of breath, but she was not about to be left out of the action, either). The Jerusalem at that time probably covered a relatively small area; it was probably no more than half a mile from the house to the tomb, if that, so she may have arrived as they were leaving; if not, they would pass her on the road.
- <sup>c</sup> How did John know they were angels? He had just been there and knew there were no human beings around (the guards were presumably gone before the two got there). The angels were in white, but probably not shining, or Magdalene would have been shaken out of her despair. She was so locked in to her sorrow that not even seeing the wrappings collapsed without the body sank in.
- <sup>d</sup> That is what the Text says. I take it that Magdalene was an emotive person, capable of sudden ‘ups’ and ‘downs’. From the way the Lord pronounced her name she knew who it was; from deep sorrow she swings to a transport of joy and impulsively throws her arms around Him. Hey, she is not thinking of how this is going to read 2000 years later; in fact, she is not thinking at all, just feeling.
- <sup>e</sup> The causal connection here seems difficult to us—what did His not having ascended have to do with it? Various suggestions have been offered. My guess is as follows: Magdalene had not heard the teaching in the Upper Room, more precisely, John 16:7. “I am telling you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, because if I do not go away the Enabler will not come to you, but if I go I will send Him to you.” She had just gotten her Master back and was not about to turn Him loose—she was feeling, not thinking. But Jesus had to ascend so He could send the Enabler, which would be better for everybody. She wants to hang on to Him, but He tells her to stop; the old relationships are gone, everything is now new. (Within a very few minutes He will allow the other women to hold His feet, so mere physical contact is not the problem; in fact, He will later invite the disciples to touch Him.)
- <sup>f</sup> He does not just reprimand her, He gives her something to do. But just who are the “brothers”? Since the angel had told the other women to tell the disciples, I am inclined to imagine that the Lord sends her to His half brothers, although she started out with the disciples (next verse).

them His hands and His side. Well, the disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord! <sup>21</sup>So Jesus spoke to them again: “Peace to you! Just as the Father sent me, I also send you.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>Upon saying this He breathed on them and said: “Receive Holy Spirit!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>To whomever you forgive the sins,<sup>c</sup> they are forgiven to them; to whomever you retain, they have been retained.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Now one of the twelve, Thomas (called Twin), was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>So the other disciples said to him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “If I do not see the nail prints in His hands and put my finger into the nail prints, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe!”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Well after eight days<sup>f</sup> His disciples were inside again, and Thomas with them. The doors were locked [again]; Jesus came and stood in the middle, and said, “Peace to you!” <sup>27</sup>Then He says to Thomas: “Bring your finger here and perceive my hands; bring your hand and put it into my side;<sup>g</sup> do not be unbelieving but believing!” <sup>28</sup>Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!” <sup>29</sup>Jesus says to him: “Because you have observed me, you have believed. Blessed are those who believe without seeing!”<sup>h</sup>

Why this book

<sup>30</sup>Now then, Jesus actually performed many other miraculous signs in the presence of His disciples, that are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup>but these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have Life through His Name.

---

<sup>a</sup> This is tremendous! In my own experience (as a missionary, son of missionaries), I have seldom heard a missionary challenge based on John 20:21. The champion is Matthew 28:19-20, ‘the great commission’, followed by Mark 16:15 and perhaps Acts 1:8; but John 20:21? “Just as... so also”—Jesus is sending us just like the Father sent Him. So how did They do it? The Father determined and the Son obeyed: “Behold, I have come to do your will, O God” (Hebrews 10:7). And what was that will? To destroy Satan (Hebrews 2:14) and undo his works (1 John 3:8). Since Jesus did indeed defeat Satan (Colossians 2:15, Ephesians 1:20-21, etc.) what is left for us is the undoing of his works. For more on this subject see my article, “Biblical Spiritual Warfare”, available from my site, www.prunch.org.

<sup>b</sup> There is no definite article with “Holy Spirit” and I hesitate to add it. Perhaps we should try thinking of ‘Holy Spirit’ as a proper name.

<sup>c</sup> This is a literal rendering, but I hesitate to change it. The primary reference is presumably to the sins of that person, but it is sometimes necessary to pronounce forgiveness for sins of past generations (see 2 Samuel 21:1-14).

<sup>d</sup> That is what the Text says, “have been”. The idea seems to be that sins are already retained (as soon as a sin is committed it is on the account); Jesus gives them the prerogative to change that situation, undoing the retaining, as it were. Presumably the forgiving and retaining have to do with the consequences of the sin in this life (not for salvation). I take it that the undoing of Satan’s works (1 John 3:8) must reverse consequences (to the extent that this may be possible). Since Satan is involved in all sin, indirectly at least (or so I imagine), I conclude that verse 23 here falls within the competence of anyone who has the Holy Spirit.

<sup>f</sup> Their method of calculation included the day from which the count was made (as they do in Brazil as well), so this is the next Sunday.

<sup>g</sup> Since Jesus had not been there to hear Thomas, how did He know what he had said? We know the answer, but it delivered a knock-out punch to Thomas. Evidently he did not try to touch Jesus, but without further ado said, “My Lord and my God!”

Epilogue

Breakfast on the beach

<sup>4</sup>Well when daybreak had now come Jesus stood on the beach; however the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "Boys, you don't have any food, do you?" They answered Him, "No."<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>So He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find." So they did,<sup>d</sup> and now they were unable to haul it in because of the multitude of fish! <sup>7</sup>Then that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It's the Lord!" Upon hearing that it was the Lord, Simon Peter tied on his outer garment (for he was stripped) and plunged into the sea. <sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the boat dragging the net with the fish (for they were not far from the land, but about 100 yards).

<sup>12</sup>Jesus says to them, "Come have breakfast!" Well not one of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are you?"—knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, as also the fish.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>14</sup>This was already a third time<sup>h</sup> that Jesus appeared to His disciples after He was raised from among the dead.

Jesus reinstates Peter

<sup>15</sup>So, when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?"<sup>i</sup> He says to Him, "Yes, Lord, you know

<sup>e</sup> That is what the Text says. Well, what do you suppose he did when he got to land, since he obviously got there well before the others. From verse 12 I gather that Peter had not ventured to speak. He is wet and therefore cold, and there is a fire. I bet he went straight to the fire and squatted down to warm himself, but he was too embarrassed to attempt a conversation. So he welcomes a chance to do something and jumps up when Jesus asks for fish.

<sup>f</sup> Like, wow! They were evidently special fish, all large. But why 153? I do not know. The whole thing is supernatural, including the net not tearing.

<sup>g</sup> Notice that Jesus serves them. Well, the situation was a bit strange, and the men probably felt awkward; so He helps them out.

<sup>h</sup> This would presumably be the first appearance in Galilee, following the two in the upper room.

<sup>i</sup> My first impression was that Jesus asked if Peter loved Him more than the others did, but Peter's answer does not seem to fit with that idea. My next impression would be that Jesus asked if Peter loved Him more than he loved the fish (and therefore, fishing), but His use of αγαπω does not seem to fit.

that I'm fond of you."<sup>a</sup> He says to him, "Feed my lambs."<sup>16</sup> He says to him again, a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?"<sup>b</sup> He says to Him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I'm fond of you." He says to him, "Shepherd my sheep."<sup>17</sup> The third time He says to him, "Simon, son of Jonah, are you fond of me?" Peter was grieved in that the third time He said to him, "Are you fond of me?"<sup>c</sup> and said to Him: "Lord, you know all things. You know that I'm fond of you!" Jesus says to him: "Feed my sheep."<sup>18</sup> Most assuredly I say to you, when you were younger you used to get dressed and walk where you wished; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands and another will dress you and carry you where you do not wish."<sup>19</sup> (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) And upon saying that He says to him, "Follow me!"<sup>d</sup>

About the author

<sup>20</sup>But turning around Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following (that is the one who reclined on His chest at the supper and said, "Lord, who is the one who is betraying you?"). <sup>21</sup>Seeing him, Peter says to Jesus, "Lord, what about him?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus says to him: "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." <sup>23</sup>So this saying spread among the brothers,<sup>e</sup> that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him [Peter] that he [John] would not die,<sup>f</sup> but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who is testifying to these things, and who wrote them; and we know that his testimony is true. <sup>25</sup>Indeed, there are also many other things that Jesus did, which if they were written one by one, I suppose that not even the whole world<sup>g</sup> could contain the books that would be written! Amen.

The only other option that I see would be that Jesus asked if Peter loved Him more than he loved his colleagues.

<sup>c</sup> Now Jesus weakens His question still further, using Peter's verb—He is probing Peter. But the repeated command to feed His sheep indicates that Peter is being reinstated.

<sup>d</sup> The first time He said this to Peter had been perhaps 3 years before, also on the shore of that lake [could it have been the same spot?]. Jesus renews His call. But Jesus actually starts walking away, and Peter follows Him (to be followed by John).

<sup>g</sup> The world that he knew would not include the Americas, nor all of Africa or Asia, and perhaps not even all of northern Europe (presumably). However, his use of 'suppose' indicates that he is not making a scientific statement.

of the Apostles

Opening considerations

A link to Luke

1 <sup>1</sup>The first account I prepared, Theophilus [God-lover],<sup>a</sup> concerned all that Jesus began to do and to teach<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>until the day in which He was taken back,<sup>c</sup> after He had given commandment, by Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> to the apostles whom He had chosen; <sup>3</sup>to whom He also showed Himself alive, after His suffering, by many convincing evidences, appearing to them during forty days and speaking of things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>And being together He directed them not to go away from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father,<sup>f</sup> “which you heard from me; <sup>5</sup>John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with Holy Spirit not many days from now.”<sup>g</sup>

Jesus returns to Heaven

<sup>6</sup>Well then, being together<sup>h</sup> they asked Him saying, “Lord, are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?”<sup>i</sup> <sup>7</sup>So He said to them: “It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has placed within His own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be witnesses to me<sup>j</sup>—both in Jerusalem, and all Judea and Samaria, and even to the last part of the earth.”<sup>k</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> Since in addressing Luke to Theophilus the author added the honorific ‘honorable’ or ‘excellent’, this was presumably a specific man, but I would like to think that the two books are also addressed to all lovers of God. Actually, Luke 1:4 makes clear that he was a specific man.
- <sup>b</sup> Why “began”? Presumably because this book will relate what He continued to do and teach, through the Apostles. He is still at work in our world, through us.
- <sup>c</sup> Jehovah the Son was given (John 3:16, Isaiah 9:6) to this earth for thirty some years, then He was taken back.
- <sup>d</sup> There is no definite article with “Holy Spirit”, and I hesitate to add it. Perhaps we should try thinking of ‘Holy Spirit’ as a proper name. To carry out the commands in Matthew 28:19-20, Mark 16:15-18, Luke 24:46-48 and John 20:21 would require the Holy Spirit’s enabling.
- <sup>e</sup> I get the impression that the Lord did a lot more appearing and teaching during those 40 days than has been recorded.
- <sup>f</sup> Luke is repeating what he wrote in Luke 24:49, which in turn refers to John 14:16 and 26 (from John 14:31 it appears that what Jesus did started with the Father).
- <sup>g</sup> The grammar requires that the material within quotation marks be handled as a direct quote, even though it is a bit awkward, in English.
- <sup>h</sup> The reference is to verse 4, which refers to Luke 24:49-50, which informs us that Jesus led them out to Bethany; so they had assembled in the city. A certain Greek particle is used in both verse 1 and verse 6, making them grammatically parallel; verses 1-5 refer to the former account, verse 6 begins the present account.
- <sup>i</sup> Messiah and kingdom are closely linked in their minds. Jesus is the Messiah, now victorious over death, so where is the Kingdom? Jesus does not question the fact implicit in their question, but tells them that the time is classified information.
- <sup>j</sup> A very small minority of Greek manuscripts (perhaps 2%), of inferior quality, read ‘my witnesses’ instead of ‘witnesses to me’. To my mind, at least, there is a significant difference in meaning—to be a witness to Jesus involves being like Him (Matthew 10:25) and doing like Him (John 14:12).
- <sup>k</sup> There is a strategy here: ‘both...and...and’ = simultaneously. If you stay in your ‘Jerusalem’ until you win everyone, you will never get to the world (there are many people who do not want God, period, so they will never be won). ‘Judea’ and ‘Samaria’ are treated as a unit, grammatically, so we have our town, our country and the world. “Last” is an adjective used as a noun, so we must supply ‘part’ or

A replacement for Judas Iscariot

<sup>b</sup> Why do the angels emphasize that the men are from Galilee? The ‘men’ refers only to males, so presumably they were the Eleven. It does appear that none of the first apostles were from Judea, which I find to be curious. On the other hand, the Pharisee types had such a stranglehold on Jerusalem society that the Text refers to secret believers, ‘for fear of the Jews’. That stranglehold was a factor throughout Judea, but much less in Galilee. So much so that the Judeans tended to look down their spiritual noses at Galileans.

<sup>c</sup> The angels are emphatic; the return is going to be just like the departure. I take it that the Lord will return with the same glorified human body, visibly, come out of a cloud, and His feet will touch down at the same spot where they left (see Matthew 24:30, “coming on the clouds”, and Zechariah 14:4, “His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives”).

<sup>d</sup> Generally understood to be about 1,000 yards or 3/5 of a mile; just under a kilometer.

<sup>e</sup> Probably the same one that was used for the last Passover, since the Text has ‘the upper room’. Both Mark 14:15 and Luke 22:12 inform us that the room was ‘large’, as it would have to be to hold 120 people (see verse 15 below).

<sup>f</sup> Since there was more than one James, Simon and Judas, the last three require an added description. The Text presents the names in pairs, and so have I.

<sup>h</sup> A very small minority of the Greek manuscripts [3%], of inferior quality, read ‘brothers’ for ‘disciples’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The original Eleven are now called ‘apostles’ (verse 2), and the 120 who were there are called ‘disciples’.

<sup>i</sup> The term used here refers exclusively to males—so also in 1:21, 2:5, 2:14, 2:22, 2:29, 2:37 and 3:12.

<sup>k</sup> Matthew 27:5 says that Judas hanged himself, and here it says he fell headlong—well, to fall headlong there has to be a cliff, and you would have to dive off. Putting the two accounts together we understand that there must have been a tree near the edge of the cliff, with a branch reaching out beyond the edge; Judas tied a cord around that branch and his neck and jumped—either the cord or the branch broke, and the impact was sufficient to split him open. Matthew also states that it was actually the chief known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so that in their own language that field came to be called ‘Akeldama’, that is, ‘Field of Blood’.) <sup>20</sup>“Because it stands written in Book of Psalms:

‘Let his residence become desolate, and may no one live in it’

and,

‘Let another take his office.’<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>So then, of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John until the day when He was taken up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of His resurrection.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>23</sup>So they nominated two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And praying they said: “You, Lord, Knower of all hearts, show which one of these two You have chosen<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>to receive the portion of this ministry and apostleship, out of which Judas turned aside to go into his own place.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>26</sup>And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

Pentecost

2 <sup>1</sup>When the day of Pentecost had come,<sup>e</sup> they were all together with one purpose.<sup>f</sup> <sup>2</sup>And suddenly a roar came out of the sky, like the rushing of a violent wind,<sup>g</sup> and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.<sup>h</sup> <sup>3</sup>Fiery tongues appeared and were distributed to them, and it [a tongue] landed<sup>i</sup> on each one of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with Holy Spirit and began to speak different languages,<sup>j</sup> as the Spirit was granting to them to speak out.<sup>a</sup> priests who bought the field, using the money that Judas had thrown on the temple floor; so Judas made the purchase posthumously.

<sup>c</sup> Wait a minute! How do we, or Peter, know that holding that election was God’s idea? If it was not God’s idea then Matthias was not really God’s choice. (Perhaps Peter did like we so often do, bring our ideas to God and ask Him to bless them, although Peter’s idea was evidently based on Psalm 109:8.) In any case, this is the first and last time Matthias is mentioned in the New Testament. The original twelve were personally chosen by Jesus; the only other one so chosen was Saul/Paul.

<sup>d</sup> Judas turned aside “out of” Jesus’ group, to go “into” his own place. Peter does not name the place, but the Lord Jesus had declared in their hearing that Judas was lost (John 17:12; see also Matthew 26:24).

<sup>e</sup> This was no more than eight days after the Ascension. In John 14:18 the Lord had said, “I will not leave you orphans”—they only had to wait one week for the Holy Spirit; albeit on resurrection night Jesus had breathed on them at least a portion of the Holy Spirit (John 20:22).

<sup>f</sup> See 1:14 above. What was that ‘purpose’? I assume that they were obeying the Lord’s command, they were waiting for ‘the promise of the Father’, the baptism with Holy Spirit.

<sup>g</sup> Why the noise? Presumably to attract attention—God wanted to impact the whole city. Since everyone moved on foot, people would be arriving for a number of minutes, depending on where they started (the city was small in those days).

<sup>h</sup> They were sitting, so presumably the ‘house’ wasn’t the temple; I imagine it was the ‘upper room’.

<sup>i</sup> I understand from the grammar that the tongue actually touched down on the person, there was contact.

<sup>j</sup> These are human languages, spoken somewhere on earth, as the following context makes clear.

People from all over

Peter’s proclamation

<sup>14</sup>So Peter, standing with the eleven,<sup>f</sup> raised his voice and proclaimed to them: “Men—Jews and all who are dwelling in Jerusalem—let this be known to you; indeed, listen to my speech! <sup>15</sup>Because these are not drunk, as you suppose (since it is only the third hour of the day),<sup>g</sup> <sup>16</sup>but this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>It will be in the last days, says God:
I will pour out from my Spirit upon all flesh;<sup>h</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> “Speak out” translates a different word than the “speak” in the middle of the verse; the idea is to proclaim or project the voice. Notice that the speaking was controlled by the Spirit. The Text is emphatic that they were all filled, but they did not all start spouting languages; the languages were directed to specific hearers, as the following context makes clear. As the crowd began to gather the Spirit presumably sent the disciples (probably the same 120, at least) out to mingle with the people, and the Spirit proclaimed ‘the great works of God’ to each one in his mother tongue, using the mouths of the disciples. But there would also need to be a miracle in the ear of each hearer, to filter his own language out from the welter of sound (many languages being proclaimed at the same time). I would imagine that this activity lasted at least 10 or 15 minutes.

<sup>b</sup> If these were people who had come for a short time, they would not be tied to business activities, and might even be bored, so any promise of something different would be welcome. So the ‘foreigners’ probably outnumbered the local citizens in that crowd.

<sup>e</sup> In ‘sweet’ wine the fermentation process was just beginning, so the alcohol content was still low; but if you drank enough of it you got ‘happy’. So the mockers are saying that the disciples had tanked up and were feeling the effects. (On the other hand, 120 bellyfuls would represent a respectable quantity of liquid, much more than would normally be available, so the mockers’ hypothesis is not very plausible—and being drunk does not give you the ability to speak a different language [in fact, you don’t even speak your own correctly].) But as Peter points out in verse 15, it was 9:00 a.m., too early for anyone to be drunk.

<sup>f</sup> Many versions render ‘standing up’, as if Peter and the others had been sitting in the house all this time (did the crowd invade the house?). The basic meaning of the verb here is more like ‘standing still’ (stopping)—I take it that the Eleven had been mingling with the crowd too, but Peter now gathers them to form a nucleus upon which the crowd can focus its attention.

<sup>g</sup> “The third hour of the day” was 9:00 a.m. Peter was speaking Hebrew, and therefore was using Jewish time.

<sup>h</sup> The Text says “all flesh”; in the context this refers to human beings, not animals. Peter understood that a variety of ethnic nations would be represented.

- your sons and your daughters will prophesy;
 your young men will see visions;
 your old men will dream a dream.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>18</sup>In those days I will indeed pour out from my Spirit upon my male slaves and upon my female slaves, and they will prophesy.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>19</sup>I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below:
 blood and fire and smoke vapor.
- <sup>20</sup>The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into 'blood' before the great and glorious day of the LORD will come.
- <sup>21</sup>And it will be: whoever calls on the name of the LORD<sup>c</sup> will be saved!<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> "Visions" is plural, but "dream" is singular, in the Text (albeit 15% of the Greek manuscripts do have 'dreams'). When I was young I had all sorts of 'visions' of what I thought I was going to achieve in my lifetime. Now that I am old I am pretty well reduced to one 'dream'. One's focus must accompany his energy level. (My personal experience is probably not the intended meaning of the Text, but I am not sure what it might be—do all old men have the same dream?)
- <sup>b</sup> As is typical in Hebrew, verse 18 repeats part of verse 17. Similarly, verse 20 complements verse 19. I take it that verses 19 and 20 will be fulfilled during the Great Tribulation, literally, so it was verses 17 and 18 that were immediately applicable to what was happening there. So why did Peter quote the material in 19 and 20? Perhaps he (and the others) thought that 'the day of the LORD' had already started—so much so that no one went home; the believers stayed on in Jerusalem until the persecution sent them running (Acts 8:1).
- <sup>c</sup> To call on the 'name' of the Lord is to call on Him. To 'call' on Him is to place yourself under His protection, which involves a recognition of His rulership.
- <sup>d</sup> See Joel 2:28-32.
- <sup>e</sup> 'Natsorean', not 'Nazarene'. The Text has 'the' Natsorean, the Branch-man (see Matthew 2:23 and Isaiah 11:1). In Acts 22:8 the glorified Jesus identifies Himself to Saul as 'the Natsorean', which Saul would understand as being the Messiah. Please see "The Natsorean" in the Appendix.
- <sup>f</sup> Peter here addresses specifically the Israelites, presumably residents of Jerusalem and Judea, since they had been eye-witnesses of what Jesus did.
- <sup>g</sup> "You took with lawless hands"—'take' and 'lawless' clearly give the idea that they were responsible for their actions. "Being delivered up by the established purpose and foreknowledge of God" is a clear statement of God's sovereignty in action. So here we have divine sovereignty and human responsibility side by side; they are both true, whether we understand it or not. (Less than 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit 'having taken'.)
- <sup>h</sup> In Revelation 1:5 Jesus is called "the firstborn from among the dead". Death is pictured as a huge womb, pregnant with all the dead, and Jesus Christ was the first one out, literally the 'firstborn'. Resurrection is the process by which one is 'born' out of physical death. The figure of death as a womb is strong, but effective. That 'womb' had been holding people for thousands of years, but now finally 'gives birth'. (People like Lazarus who were returned to this life for a while had to die all over again; they have to wait for the resurrection like the rest of us.)

I always saw the LORD before my face, because He is at my right side so that I not be shaken.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced.

Furthermore, even my flesh will repose upon hope,<sup>b</sup>

nor will You allow Your Holy One to see decay.

<sup>28</sup>You have made known to me roads of life;<sup>d</sup> with Your presence You make me full of gladness.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Men, brothers, be it permitted to speak to you plainly about the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.<sup>f</sup> <sup>30</sup>So then, he being a prophet and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath that of the fruit, according to flesh,<sup>g</sup> of his loins<sup>h</sup> He would raise up the Messiah<sup>i</sup> to sit on his throne, <sup>31</sup>he foreseeing this<sup>j</sup> spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah, that His soul<sup>k</sup> was not abandoned in Hades, nor did His flesh see decay.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>32</sup>“This Jesus God raised, to which we all are witnesses. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, having been exalted to God’s right hand, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this that you now see and hear. <sup>34</sup>Further, David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says:

‘The LORD said to my Lord:<sup>m</sup>

Sit at my right hand

<sup>a</sup> Nothing like having God at your side, literally, to give you confidence, but nothing like the awareness that He is looking at you to keep you in line! The quote is from Psalm 16:8-11.

<sup>b</sup> I take it that the emphasis here is upon the physical body; Jesus’ body was preserved from decay by divine intervention—there was no bad smell in the empty tomb. The resurrection accounts refer to the wrappings, but not to the 100 pounds of spices—I wonder what happened to them (you know, that much spice would be hard to ignore).

<sup>c</sup> This is the other side of the coin: for the body not to see decay, it would have to be resurrected; but for resurrection to happen the soul must be reunited with the body, and therefore could not remain in Hades. David had no way of knowing that, so evidently wrote under divine inspiration.

<sup>e</sup> If you are a God-lover there is nothing like His presence to make you glad (on the other hand, for a God-hater that Presence is the worst thing in the universe [which is why a God-hater would rather be in hell than in heaven]).

<sup>f</sup> David was buried in Jerusalem, and evidently his tomb could still be identified at that time.

<sup>h</sup> The term rendered ‘loins’ when singular refers to the waist, where a belt is worn. When plural it was used to refer to the place of the reproductive organs—actually, the prostate gland is not all that far below the waist.

<sup>i</sup> The Text, being Greek, has ‘Christ’, but king David spoke Hebrew and to him it was ‘Messiah’ (and Peter was presumably speaking in Hebrew). Peter makes the overt connection to Jesus in verse 32. Two percent of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “according to flesh, He would raise up the Messiah” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The omission is serious.

<sup>j</sup> “He foreseeing this” is parallel to “he being a prophet” in verse 30.

<sup>m</sup> Peter was there when Jesus used this text to silence the Pharisees (Matthew 22:41-46).

<sup>36</sup>Therefore, let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified!"<sup>a</sup>

The reaction

<sup>37</sup>Now upon hearing this they were cut to the heart and said to Peter, and the rest of the Apostles, "Men, brothers, what shall we do?" <sup>38</sup>So Peter said to them: "Repent and be baptized, each one of you, upon the name of Jesus Christ,<sup>b</sup> for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.<sup>c</sup> <sup>39</sup>For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far away<sup>d</sup>—as many, that is, as the Lord our God may call." <sup>40</sup>With many different words he both testified and kept exhorting, saying, "Escape from this perverse generation!"<sup>e</sup>

The beginning of the Church

---

<sup>a</sup> Nothing like making sure your audience gets the point! But why "both Lord and Christ"? Perhaps there were a variety of ideas about the 'Messiah' out there and Peter nails down His identity as the Lord.

<sup>b</sup> This is the first use of the title, Jesus Christ, after the Gospels; the Lord had Himself inaugurated the title fifty days before (John 17:3)—it affirms that Jesus is the Messiah. Anyone being baptized upon that name would be publicly declaring allegiance to Jesus as the Messiah. Notice that Peter promises forgiveness of sin and the gift of the Holy Spirit to any who enter into that commitment.

<sup>c</sup> I stated that water baptism does not save; how then do I explain Acts 2:38? "Repent and be baptized, each one of you, upon the name of Jesus Christ, for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit". To begin, this took place on the day of Pentecost itself, and may have been something of a transition. Then, the context is king of interpretation, and the context here is very specific, so what Peter said should not be taken as a generic standard. Verses 36 and 40 are crucial to understanding Peter. "Therefore, let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified!" (verse 36). So then they asked what they should do. Peter concluded with, "Escape from this perverse generation!" (verse 40). The 'generation' in question was the one that had crucified the Messiah. By being baptized upon the name of Jesus Christ they would be formally disassociating themselves from that generation, and the judgment that was coming upon it. This is the first use of the title, Jesus Christ, after the Gospels; the Lord had Himself inaugurated the title fifty days before (John 17:3)—it affirms that Jesus is the Messiah. Anyone being baptized upon that name would be publicly declaring allegiance to Jesus as the Messiah. Peter promised forgiveness of sin and the gift of the Holy Spirit to any who entered into that commitment. Anyone who did that would be believing into Jesus, and He would baptize them with Holy Spirit. It was not the water that saved them.

<sup>d</sup> I assume that "all who are far away" is a reference to Gentiles, and the promise applies only to the 'called'.

<sup>e</sup> The 'generation' in question was the one that had crucified the Messiah. By being baptized upon the name of Jesus Christ they would be formally disassociating themselves from that generation, and the judgment that was coming upon it. The worst curse in all human history is recorded in Matthew 27:25, "And all the people answered and said, 'His blood be on us and on our children'." Terrible, terrible, terrible—just terrible! (The persecutions later sent them scattering and probably very few were in Jerusalem when it was destroyed in AD 70.)

<sup>g</sup> I take "the breaking of the bread" to refer to the Lord's Supper, which with the "prayers" gives the content of the "fellowship", but that fellowship cannot be disassociated from the Apostles' teaching.

<sup>h</sup> Evidently it was not just Peter; the others were also producing.

All things in common

A man lame from birth

Peter heals him

<sup>4</sup>So Peter, with John, fastening his gaze on him said, "Look at us." <sup>5</sup>So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said: "I do not have silver and gold, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Natsorean, get up and walk!"<sup>i</sup> <sup>7</sup>And grasping him by his right hand he lifted him up;<sup>j</sup> immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened. <sup>8</sup>So jumping up he stood, and began to walk!<sup>k</sup> And he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping<sup>l</sup> and praising God. <sup>9</sup>Well all the people saw him walking and praising God; <sup>10</sup>and they recognized him—that he was the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, with a view to alms—and they were filled with wonder and amazement because of what had happened to him.

<sup>a</sup> No one wanted to go home to his own area; they did not want to miss anything (it appears that they were expecting the Lord's return at any moment). But what happens after all the goods and possessions have been sold? God sends persecution, and if there is nothing to leave behind it is easier to go somewhere else and start over.

<sup>b</sup> Since Jesus had formally abandoned the temple, Matthew 23:38-24:1, why were they still using it? It was probably the largest structure in town, and the only one that could hold their increasing number. It would also be strategic for evangelizing unconverted Jews. But it later became a snare, as illustrated by the episode that resulted in Paul's imprisonment.

<sup>c</sup> Here we have the regular meals.

<sup>f</sup> Three percent of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit "to the Church" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> If Luke is using Hebrew time, it was 3 p.m., if Roman, it was 9 a.m., both being Jewish times for prayer. But from 4:3 below, that says it was already evening, it appears that Luke uses Hebrew time here.

<sup>h</sup> But why did they go to the temple to pray? Since God had abandoned that temple, they might just as well have prayed at home.

<sup>i</sup> Alack! Many churches now have silver and gold, but can no longer say, "Get up and walk!"

Peter preaches

<sup>11</sup>Now as the lame man who had been healed held on<sup>a</sup> to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico, the one called ‘Solomon’s’, really wondering. <sup>12</sup>So upon observing this Peter responded to the people: “Men of Israel, why are you marveling at this, or why are you staring at us as if we have made him walk by our own power or godliness?<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up; and you repudiated Him to Pilate’s face, when he was intending to release Him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>14</sup>Yes you repudiated the holy and righteous One, and you asked that a murderer be granted to you,<sup>d</sup> <sup>15</sup>while you killed the Originator of the Life,<sup>e</sup> whom God raised from among the dead, to which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>Well His name, based on faith in His name,<sup>f</sup> made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith that is through Him<sup>g</sup> has given him this wholeness in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup>“So now, brothers, I know that you did it in ignorance, as also your rulers. <sup>18</sup>But the things that God foretold through the mouth of all His prophets, that the Messiah would suffer, He has thus fulfilled. <sup>19</sup>Repent therefore, and turn around, so that your sins may be erased, in order that times of refreshing may come from the Lord’s face<sup>h</sup> <sup>20</sup>and that He may send Jesus, who had been ordained to be your Messiah,<sup>i</sup> <sup>21</sup>whom Heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things,<sup>j</sup> of which times<sup>k</sup> God spoke long ago by the mouth of all His holy prophets.

<sup>a</sup> I assume that he was literally hanging on to them, perhaps their clothes—for whatever reason he did not want to be separated from them. Some 11% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘the lame man who had been healed’ (as in NIV [the beggar], NASB, LB, TEV [the man], etc.).

<sup>b</sup> Well, what had happened was extraordinary, to say the least, and probably deserved a little staring.

<sup>c</sup> Comparing Matthew 27:11-26, Mark 15:2-19, Luke 23:3-25 and John 18:33-19:15 it becomes clear that Pilate wanted no part of killing Jesus and tried hard to release Him. But they not only repudiated Jesus, they repudiated their claim to the Messiah, saying, “We have no king but Caesar”. For a fuller discussion, please see “Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time” in the Appendix.

<sup>e</sup> A curious expression! How could anyone kill the Originator of the Life? Well, it was certainly their intention to kill Jesus, and Peter declares their guilt, but Jesus gave up His own life, as John 10:17-18 makes clear. For a fuller discussion, please see “Did the cross kill Jesus?” in the Appendix.

<sup>h</sup> Although the Lord’s return is still future, by His grace, and by walking in the Spirit, we have the privilege of experiencing our own little ‘times of refreshing’.

<sup>i</sup> That is what the Text says. There was God’s side, ordaining, and there was their side, recognizing and receiving. If Jesus had been received as Messiah while He lived among them, presumably history would have been different. But now Jesus will only return when it is time to ‘restore all things’. But comparing the first clause of verse 19 with that of verse 20 it almost seems that Peter is saying that they could bring Jesus back right away.

all that He may say to you. <sup>23</sup>It will be that every person who will not listen to that Prophet will be extirpated from among the people.<sup>a</sup>

Peter and John arrested

4 <sup>1</sup>Now as they were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came at them, <sup>2</sup>being upset because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.<sup>i</sup> <sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, because it was already evening. <sup>4</sup>(However, many of those who heard the message believed; the number of the men<sup>j</sup> came to be about five thousand.) <sup>5</sup>So the next day an assembly of their rulers, both elders and scribes, occurred in Jerusalem,<sup>k</sup> <sup>6</sup>along with Annas the high priest,<sup>l</sup> and Caiaphas, John and Alexander, and as many as were of high-priestly descent. <sup>7</sup>And having placed them in the middle [of the assembly] they started questioning: “By what power, or by what name did you do this?”<sup>m</sup>

Peter’s defense

---

<sup>a</sup> See Deuteronomy 18:15-19. Peter is saying that those who did not listen to Jesus are under the sentence of an early death, and quite possibly with spiritual implications.

<sup>f</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “Jesus” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). As is often the case, the eclectic text weakens the statement.

<sup>g</sup> Wait a minute! When did this ‘sending’ take place? It was after the resurrection, but Jesus never showed Himself to the people at large during the forty days. I take it that God is doing the ‘sending’ through the Apostles, who started their ministry in Jerusalem (‘to you first’).

<sup>h</sup> To be turned away from one’s iniquities is a major blessing, because of the consequences of those iniquities, both now and later.

<sup>i</sup> The high priest and family were Sadducees; they did not believe in resurrection (for anybody). So they were doubly disturbed, because the Apostles were affirming that Jesus had already done it, and in consequence others would too.

<sup>j</sup> The word used refers exclusively to males, so with women and children the total number of believers would have been several times larger. In 2:41 above it was 3,000 ‘souls’, which presumably included everybody. The total number has probably grown 4-5 times since Pentecost.

less man, by what means he has been made well, <sup>10</sup>be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ the Natsorean, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead,<sup>b</sup> by Him this man stands here before you whole. <sup>11</sup>This is ‘the stone which was despised by you, the builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.’ <sup>12</sup>Also, the salvation<sup>c</sup> does not exist in anyone else, because there is no other name under heaven, given among men, by which we must be saved.”

Rulers impressed

<sup>13</sup>Now upon observing the boldness of Peter and John and perceiving that they were uneducated and unskilled men,<sup>d</sup> they marveled; and they recognized that they had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>Further, seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>15</sup>So ordering them to go out from the council they began to confer among themselves, <sup>16</sup>saying: “What can we do to these men? Because, indeed, that a notable miracle has been done through them is evident to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them to no longer speak to anyone in this name.”

They are forbidden to use the name ‘Jesus’

<sup>18</sup>So summoning them they commanded them absolutely not to speak or teach in the name of ‘Jesus’. <sup>19</sup>But in answer Peter and John said to them: “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves; <sup>20</sup>because we cannot help but speak the things we have seen and heard.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>So threatening them some more they released them, not finding any way to punish them, because of the people, since they were all glorifying God over what had happened; <sup>22</sup>because the man on whom this miracle of healing had been performed was over forty years old.<sup>g</sup>

The reaction of the believers

<sup>23</sup>So upon being released they went to their own group and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>Well upon hearing it, with one mind they called out<sup>h</sup> to God and said: “O Sovereign!<sup>i</sup> You are God,<sup>a</sup> the Maker of

---

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “of Israel” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> The Text has the definite article; there may be many ‘salvations’ in life, but this is a very specific one. Notice that Peter makes an absolute statement: Jesus is the only way.

<sup>d</sup> The disciples had not received a theological education nor been trained in verbal skills (of course Peter was a skilled fisherman, but that is not the point here).

<sup>e</sup> They knew that Jesus was the Messiah but had repudiated Him anyway. Here again the facts are clear, but they are determined to maintain their repudiation of Jesus, and to impose their view on the people. Having committed the unpardonable sin, they were under satanic control.

<sup>f</sup> There are times when we must not obey those in authority; mainly when they demand that we deny God’s truth and His values.

<sup>g</sup> He had been lame for over forty years.

<sup>h</sup> The Text actually says ‘they lifted voice to God’ (since God is not deaf, there is no need to shout).

<sup>i</sup> Our ‘despot’ is a transliteration of the Greek word here. The term is stronger than ‘master’ or ‘lord’. But ‘despot’ by itself has a negative connotation to us, so we sometimes say ‘benevolent despot’, but not as a form of direct address! Hence, ‘sovereign’.

sky and earth and ocean, and all that is in them; <sup>25</sup>You who said through the mouth of Your servant David:<sup>b</sup>

<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth took a stand, and the rulers were gathered together, against the LORD and against His Messiah.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>29</sup>As for the present, Lord, consider their threats, and grant to Your slaves to speak Your word with all boldness, <sup>30</sup>while You stretch out Your hand to heal and that signs and wonders may occur through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus.”
<sup>31</sup>Well when they had prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken, and they were all filled with Holy Spirit and spoke the Word of God with boldness.<sup>g</sup>

The young Church consolidates

<sup>32</sup>Now the multitude of those who believed was of one heart and soul; indeed not one was saying that any of his belongings was his own, but they had all things in common. <sup>33</sup>(Also the Apostles were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power.<sup>h</sup>) Yes, great grace was on them all, <sup>34</sup>because there were not any needy among them—as many as were owners of lands or houses were selling them and bringing the proceeds of the sold items <sup>35</sup>and placing them at the Apostles’ feet, and they were distributed to each according as anyone had need.

Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>b</sup> Some 8% of the Greek manuscripts replace the opening clause with, “You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> One can ‘snort’ in anger or in disdain, or perhaps both. There is no definite article with either ‘nations’ or ‘peoples’ (and so in verse 27).

<sup>g</sup> Their request was granted. Notice that the Holy Spirit’s filling is not once for all, and is not automatic. Notice further that they did not ask for a free ride. (Again, there is no definite article with Holy Spirit.) But where did they do the speaking? Presumably out among the people.

<sup>h</sup> So how did that work? It was power in action, presumably signs and wonders (see 5:12 below), performed in the name of the resurrected Jesus—if He were rotting in a grave, what could He do?

back for yourself part of the price of the land? <sup>4</sup>While it remained unsold was it not yours, and once sold was it not in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You did not lie to men but to God.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>Well upon hearing these words Ananias fell down and expired! (Great fear came on all who heard these things.) <sup>6</sup>So the young men got up and wrapped him, and carrying him out they buried him.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Now after an interval of some three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>So Peter addressed her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.” So she said, “Yes, for so much.” <sup>9</sup>Peter said to her: “How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out!” <sup>10</sup>So she immediately fell down at his feet and expired! So upon entering the young men found her dead, and carrying her out they buried her beside her husband.<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>So great fear came on the whole assembly and on all who heard these things.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Now many signs and wonders were being performed among the people by the hands of the Apostles; and they were all in Solomon’s Porch with one purpose.<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>None of the rest dared to join them,<sup>h</sup> but the people were magnifying them. <sup>14</sup>Believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women,<sup>i</sup> <sup>15</sup>to the point that they kept carrying the sick into the streets, placing them on cots and pallets, so that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them.<sup>j</sup> <sup>16</sup>Further, the multitude from the surrounding cities also kept coming into Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.<sup>k</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> The familiar ‘why’ is not adequate here; Satan needs no reason for attacking us. But by asking ‘because of what’ Peter is saying that Ananias gave Satan an entrance into his life (which evidently is not a very good idea). So what sort of thing gives Satan an entrance? One way is to harbor an attitude contrary to God’s will and character.

<sup>b</sup> As the context makes clear, the problem was that Ananias lied. He wanted the credit for doing like the others, but he was hedging his bet. If he had honestly stated that it was only a part, he would have lived on. He evidently figured it was only a little ‘white’ lie that would not do anybody any harm (no victim)—it did not occur to him that he was really challenging God.

<sup>c</sup> Apparently they did not have a coroner. The two were buried without ceremony and without mourning. Was there no family?

<sup>d</sup> She was probably looking for him, wondering why he had not come home.

<sup>e</sup> There are times when ‘togetherness’ is not all that good an idea.

<sup>g</sup> I take it that the primary reference is to the Apostles; they were holding court, as it were, in Solomon’s Porch where there was plenty of room.

<sup>h</sup> The Eleven had a stature that set them apart; no one else was pretending to be an Apostle.

<sup>i</sup> After Pentecost we find the expression ‘both men and women’—the participation of women in the Church is overtly stated.

<sup>j</sup> Well now, the Lord Jesus recuperated Peter with a vengeance. This would appear to be one of the “greater things” of John 14:12, since we have no record of Jesus using His shadow. Evidently people kept getting healed in this way, and once healed their places would be taken by new arrivals. The local residents had the first chance, and if they were all healed it would be the ones from outlying areas that maintained the flow.

<sup>k</sup> This is reminiscent of the Lord’s ministry, when all who came were healed. Should we be able to do this today, or is this a ‘special occasion’ sort of thing? How about when we introduce the Gospel to a new area or culture? Would not overt demonstrations of God’s power speed up the process?

Then the high priest and those with him arrived and convened the Sanhedrin, even all the council of elders of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup>Well, upon arriving the operatives did not find them in the jail, so they returned and reported, <sup>23</sup>saying: “We certainly found the prison securely locked, and the guards standing in front of the doors, but upon opening them we found no one inside!” <sup>24</sup>Now when the high priest,<sup>d</sup> the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were really perplexed as to what the implications might be.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>25</sup>But someone came and told them, “Hey, the men whom you put in the jail are standing in the temple and teaching the people!” <sup>26</sup>Then the captain went with the operatives and brought them without violence, because they were afraid that the people might stone them. <sup>27</sup>So bringing them they set them before the Sanhedrin; and the high priest addressed them <sup>28</sup>saying: “Did we not emphatically command you not to teach in this name? Just look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man’s blood on us!”<sup>f</sup>

Apostles infuriate Sadducees

<sup>29</sup>So in answer Peter and the Apostles said: “One must obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you murdered by hanging on a tree. <sup>31</sup>Him God has exalted to His right hand as Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.<sup>g</sup> <sup>32</sup>And we are witnesses to these statements about Him, as also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those obeying Him.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> They were being upstaged, and how, and did not like it—the true merits of the case were beside the point.

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says, “this Life”. To belong to Jesus not only means spiritual life in the place of spiritual death, but it means a way of life—a system of values, a set of presuppositions, a worldview.

<sup>c</sup> From the prison they went ‘home’, for a little refreshment. During the night there would be no one to teach.

<sup>e</sup> Come now, the only possible explanation was supernatural intervention. There is no one more blind than he who refuses to see.

<sup>f</sup> Those very men had said, “His blood be upon us, and upon our children!” But of course, a good memory is not always convenient. However, in this case the priest was just being perverse. Well, actually, having committed the unpardonable sin he was under satanic control.

<sup>g</sup> I was tempted to render, “to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel”, but the Text does not have that order (though it could have), perhaps so as not to limit the forgiveness of sins to Israel.

<sup>h</sup> The Apostles are impressive—no fear, no apology, no toning down. “You murdered Him!” “God raised Him!” “He is Prince and Savior!” “The Holy Spirit exists!” All these affirmations were things they absolutely did not want to hear, as their reaction attests. Many in our day do not want to hear that the Holy Spirit is given to those who obey God.

Gamaliel counsels Sadducees

<sup>33</sup>Well upon hearing it they became infuriated and started plotting to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But someone in the council stood up<sup>a</sup> (a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law respected by all the people) and commanded to put the Apostles out for a bit. <sup>35</sup>He then said to them: ‘Men, Israelites, take heed to yourselves concerning these men, as to what you are about to do. <sup>36</sup>For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody; with whom about four hundred men joined up; who was killed, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>Later Judas the Galilean rose up, in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed. <sup>38</sup>So now I say to you, keep away from these men and leave them alone; because if this counsel or this work should be of men, it will be abolished; <sup>39</sup>but if it is of God,<sup>b</sup> you will not be able to overthrow it—lest you even be found to be fighting against God!’<sup>c</sup>

Sadducees beat and threaten Apostles

<sup>40</sup>Well they were persuaded by him,<sup>d</sup> and summoned the Apostles; after beating them they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup>So they went out rejoicing<sup>e</sup> from the presence of the council, in that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name of the Christ.<sup>f</sup> <sup>42</sup>And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not stop teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.<sup>g</sup>

Enter deacons

6 <sup>1</sup>Now in those days, as the disciples were multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows<sup>h</sup> were being overlooked in the daily distribution. <sup>2</sup>So summoning the multitude of the disciples the twelve said: ‘It is not advantageous that we should forsake the Word of God to serve at tables. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men<sup>i</sup> of good reputation, full of Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we will appoint over this need.

---

<sup>a</sup> I gather that Gamaliel just took over, and something about his demeanor made the high priest let him do it.

<sup>b</sup> The conditional clauses are not the same—the first is a condition of doubt, the second is a condition of fact. Gamaliel makes clear that he personally thinks it is of God.

<sup>c</sup> Of course they were fighting against God, and presumably knew it, but Gamaliel gives them the benefit of the doubt.

<sup>d</sup> Up to a point—they did not kill them, but still beat and threatened them. They had known all along that they were in fact fighting against God, but for some reason they decided to humor Gamaliel.

<sup>e</sup> The impression I get is that they started rejoicing right there in the council. What do you suppose the effect was upon the members?

<sup>f</sup> I here follow what I consider to be the best line of transmission, albeit making up only some 35% of the manuscripts, at this point. But the evidence is badly split: 35% have ‘of the Christ’, 14% have ‘of Jesus’, 10% have ‘of the Lord Jesus’, 20% have ‘his’, and 21% omit.

<sup>h</sup> Wait a minute! Where did all those foreign widows come from? (There must have been a fair number, to have caused the problem.) Would a widow have traveled alone from Asia to Jerusalem to attend the Passover? Had their husbands died in Jerusalem? I would imagine more probably the latter, since time was passing and there were many thousands of believers; people would be dying, getting married, etc. as usual.

<sup>7</sup>Well the Word of God kept spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem kept multiplying at a great rate, and a large company of the priests were obeying the faith. <sup>8</sup>While Stephen, full of faith<sup>d</sup> and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people.<sup>e</sup>

Stephen in a kangaroo court

<sup>9</sup>Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

<sup>11</sup>Then they instigated men to say, “We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God.” <sup>12</sup>And they stirred up the people, and the elders and the scribes;<sup>f</sup> and coming upon him they seized him, and brought him in to the Sanhedrin; <sup>13</sup>and they put forward false witnesses who said: “This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against the holy place and the law; <sup>14</sup>for we have heard him saying that this Jesus the Natsorean will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses delivered to us.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>15</sup>All who sat in the council, looking intently at him, saw his face like the face of an angel.<sup>h</sup>

Stephen’s discourse

7 <sup>1</sup>Then the high priest said, “Can these things be so?”<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>So he said: “Men, brothers and fathers, listen:<sup>j</sup> The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he resided in Haran, <sup>3</sup>and said to him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives, and come into a land that I will show you.’ <sup>4</sup>Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and resided in Haran.<sup>k</sup> From there, after <sup>a</sup> Prayer and the ministry of the Word—how many pastors, missionaries, ‘apostles’ and such today would fit that description? Don’t you suppose we ought to start moving back in that direction?

<sup>c</sup> Nicholas is declared to be a foreigner, but some of the other names also sound foreign, so the plaintiffs were well represented. Here we see love and grace in action.

<sup>d</sup> For ‘faith’ some 20% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘grace’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> Would not signs and wonders already be miraculous, without being “great”? Stephen was something else! Please notice that Stephen was not an Apostle, so the doing of miracles was not limited to them. Stephen and Philip (chapter 8 below) were deacons.

<sup>f</sup> What follows is obviously a put up job; the Sanhedrin is waiting for him.

<sup>h</sup> I wonder how many of them had ever seen an angel, to know what one looked like. Perhaps his face had a supernatural shine. Something like that should have given them pause, but they were too far gone.

<sup>i</sup> The man knows it is all a farce, but he pretends astonishment.

<sup>j</sup> Stephen knows he is in a kangaroo court, so he wastes no time with the ridiculous charge; he delivers a prophetic, and condemnatory, sermon.

<sup>k</sup> But he took his father and a nephew along, and Haran was not that land. ‘Our father Abraham’—the Jews began their history with Abraham, who started out with incomplete obedience.

his father died,<sup>a</sup> God moved him to this land in which you now live;<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>yet He did not give him an inheritance in it, not even a footstep. He promised to give it to him for a possession, that is, to his seed after him, though he had no child.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>Further, God spoke like this: that his offspring would be aliens in a foreign land—and that they would be enslaved and oppressed—four hundred years.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,’ said God,<sup>e</sup> ‘and after that they will come out and serve Me in this place.’ <sup>8</sup>And He gave him a covenant of circumcision;<sup>f</sup> and so he begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day;<sup>g</sup> and Isaac did the same to Jacob, and Jacob to the twelve patriarchs.

Down to Egypt

<sup>9</sup>“The patriarchs, being envious, sold Joseph into Egypt; yet God was with him <sup>10</sup>and delivered him out of all his adversities, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>11</sup>And a famine came upon all the land of Egypt and Canaan, even a great affliction, and our fathers could not find food. <sup>12</sup>But upon hearing that there was wheat in Egypt, Jacob first sent our fathers. <sup>13</sup>On the second trip Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph’s family was presented to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>Joseph sent and summoned his father Jacob and all his relatives, seventy-five souls.<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>So Jacob went down to Egypt; and he died, he and our fathers; <sup>16</sup>and they were transferred to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor of Shechem.<sup>i</sup>

---

<sup>c</sup> Abraham was 100 when he begot Isaac, who was 60 when he begot Jacob and Esau. Abraham died at 175, so lived to see his two grandsons. But before Isaac there was Ishmael...

<sup>d</sup> Stephen cites Genesis 15:13, which should be understood as a chiasmus, a frequent structure in the Bible:

A. his offspring would be aliens in a foreign land

B. and they would be enslaved

B. and oppressed

A. four hundred years.

A careful comparison of the relevant texts shows that the 400 years includes from the weaning of Isaac to the Exodus (1891 to 1491 BC); since Jacob moved to Egypt in 1706, Abraham’s descendants were aliens in Canaan for 185 years, then were aliens in Egypt, where they came to be enslaved, for 215 years (the Exodus was 144 years after Joseph’s death, so the period of slave labor was presumably somewhat less, perhaps around 100 years). (I owe the understanding given above to Dr. Floyd N. Jones.)

<sup>e</sup> And He did, with a vengeance. By wiping out the Egyptian army God guaranteed that Egypt would not be a threat to the developing nation of Israel for hundreds of years.

<sup>g</sup> Modern medicine has verified that on the eighth day of a male’s life his defenses against infection are at their peak—it is the best day in his whole life for minor surgery. Now then, 3900 years ago who but the Creator could know that?

<sup>h</sup> Comparing this verse with Genesis 46:26-27 we get three numbers: 66, 70 and 75. The 66, being ‘out of his loins’, of course excludes Jacob himself and the wives (Joseph is already there). The 70 includes Jacob, Joseph and his two sons. The 75 excludes Jacob and Joseph, but includes nine wives; some had evidently already died in Canaan. For further discussion, please see the Appendix: “How many people?”

<sup>i</sup> The only record we have of someone buying from Hamor is Jacob (Genesis 33:19); Abraham bought from Ephron (Genesis 23:17)—Shechem and Hebron are presumably different places. Assuming that

Enter Moses

<sup>17</sup>“Now as the time of the promise was approaching which God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and were multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup>until a different<sup>a</sup> king arose who had not known Joseph. <sup>19</sup>This man took advantage of our race and oppressed our fathers, making them expose their babies so that they would not stay alive.<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>At that time Moses was born, and was well pleasing to God; he was nurtured in his father’s house for three months. <sup>21</sup>When he was exposed, Pharaoh’s daughter took him to herself and brought him up as her own son. <sup>22</sup>So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; he was mighty in words and deeds. <sup>23</sup>Now when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel.<sup>c</sup> <sup>24</sup>Well seeing one of them being wronged, he defended and avenged the one being oppressed, striking down the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>Now he supposed that his brothers understood that God was giving them deliverance by his hand,<sup>d</sup> but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>The next day he appeared to them as they were fighting and tried to reconcile them, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another?’ <sup>27</sup>But the one who was wronging his neighbor pushed Moses away, saying: ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?’ <sup>28</sup>Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?’ <sup>29</sup>Well Moses fled at that word, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begot two sons.<sup>e</sup>

Moses commissioned

Stephen’s statement is correct (if he was full of the Spirit as he spoke, verse 55), then presumably Abraham actually bought both places, though Moses only records one, and Jacob was obliged to re-buy one or bought a larger area around it. A variety of historical records existed, made during OT times, that were not included in the Canon and of which we have no copies—but they were still available in Stephen’s day. (For instance, Jude [verse 14] cites Enoch—we have no Hebrew copy of Enoch’s prophecy today, but Jude must have had access to one.) In any case, notice that the Text says ‘they’ were taken to Shechem—this would refer to Jacob’s sons, since he himself was buried at Hebron. Going back to Genesis 34:29, after killing all the men of Shechem, Jacob’s sons kept the women, which is presumably where they got wives for so many men. They also got rich on the spoils of the town. So why not be buried there? For further discussion, please see the Appendix: “Who bought what from whom?”

<sup>c</sup> Comparing Hebrews 11:24-26, it appears that Moses had formally refused the status of being the son of Pharaoh’s daughter, with the political and other advantages pertaining to that status. This attitude probably did not sit well with Pharaoh, which is why he was prepared to kill Moses, when the opportunity presented itself.

<sup>d</sup> This evaluation of Moses’ thinking is not in the O.T., at least not at this juncture. Did Moses really suppose that killing an Egyptian would make a difference, or that God would give deliverance in that way? When we see him in heaven we can ask him. But comparing this with verse 23 above we may conclude that it was God who put the idea of visiting his people in his heart.

<sup>e</sup> I find Stephen’s selection of details to be curious. Moses’ two sons were not prominent in the history of Israel, so why mention them? Well, Moses’ failure to circumcise them almost cost him his life! See Exodus 4:24-26. Although Moses himself was certainly circumcised as a baby, he was brought up as an Egyptian, and the importance of the procedure had not been ingrained in him; his wife was not an Israelite and was against it. But how could Moses lead the covenant people while ignoring the sign of the covenant?

<sup>f</sup> There is no definite article with “angel”. Comparing Exodus 3:2 and 4 it is clear that “the Angel of the LORD” was Jehovah Himself, presumably the Son. Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘of the Lord’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

seeing it Moses was amazed at the sight, but as he approached for a closer look the voice of the LORD came to him: <sup>32</sup>‘I am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’<sup>b</sup> Moses started trembling and did not dare to look. <sup>33</sup>So the LORD said to him: ‘Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. <sup>34</sup>I have definitely seen the mistreatment of my people in Egypt, and have heard their groaning; and I have come down<sup>c</sup> to deliver them. So now come, I will send you to Egypt.’

<sup>35</sup>‘This Moses whom they refused, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge?’—God sent him as leader and deliverer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup>This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness.

Israel’s rebellion

<sup>37</sup>‘This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, ‘The LORD our<sup>d</sup> God will raise up to you a Prophet from among your brothers, like me.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>38</sup>This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness, who was with the Angel who spoke with him on Mount Sinai and was with our fathers,<sup>f</sup> who received living oracles<sup>g</sup> to give to us; <sup>39</sup>to whom our fathers did not want to be obedient; rather they rejected him and turned back in their heart to Egypt, <sup>40</sup>saying to Aaron, ‘Make us gods that will go before us; because this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt—we do not know what has become of him.’<sup>h</sup> <sup>41</sup>Well they made a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and started rejoicing in the works of their hands. <sup>42</sup>But God turned away and gave them over to serve the army of the heaven,<sup>i</sup> just as it is written in Book of the Prophets:

‘House of Israel, did you offer me slaughtered animals and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness?’

<sup>43</sup>Actually you took along the tent of Moloch, and the star of your god, Rephan,
the images that you made to worship;

<sup>a</sup> Moses was in Midian, so the real Mount Sinai is in Midian, which is part of Arabia, not the peninsula between the ‘rabbit ears’ of the Red Sea. For a discussion of this, please see the Appendix: “Where is Mt. Sinai?”

<sup>b</sup> See Exodus 3:6. The Lord Jesus made use of this passage to demonstrate the fact of resurrection (Matthew 22:32). Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit “the God” before Isaac and Jacob (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> ‘Come down’ from where? From Heaven, presumably—I imagine that whenever God ‘comes down’ it is to intervene in human affairs.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “the Lord”, and they are joined by another 3% in omitting ‘our’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> I take it that here Stephen sets up the main thrust of his speech: God sent Moses, but his contemporaries rejected him; God sent the Prophet, but those present rejected Him. Both rejections resulted in judgment. Some 15% of the Greek manuscripts add ‘Him you shall hear’ (as in AV and NKJV).

<sup>f</sup> I take it that Stephen is emphasizing that Moses was with both the Angel and the people; he was a mediator, as would be ‘the Prophet’—“like me” (verse 37).

<sup>i</sup> Presumably the reference is to Satan’s army of fallen angels, see Ephesians 2:2. Those who choose idolatry are really turning themselves over to Satan [even if they don’t believe in him]. If God gives you over, what are your chances?

so I will relocate you beyond Babylon.<sup>a</sup>

A dwelling for God

<sup>44</sup>“The tent of the testimony, according to the pattern that Moses had seen, just as the One speaking to him had commanded to make it, was with our fathers in the wilderness; <sup>45</sup>which, having received it in turn, our fathers with Joshua brought into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, until the days of David; <sup>46</sup>who found favor before God and asked to find a dwelling for the God<sup>b</sup> of Jacob, <sup>47</sup>but Solomon built Him a house. <sup>48</sup>However, the Most High does not dwell in handmade sanctuaries, just as the prophet says:

<sup>49</sup>Heaven is my throne, while the earth is a footstool for my feet.
What kind of house will you build me,<sup>c</sup> says the LORD,
‘or what place for my rest?
<sup>50</sup>Did not my hand make all these things?’<sup>c</sup>

Stephen attacks

<sup>51</sup>“You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always oppose the Holy Spirit;<sup>d</sup> as your fathers did, so you do. <sup>52</sup>Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers;<sup>e</sup> <sup>53</sup>you who received the Law as ‘ordinances of angels’ and have not kept it!”

Stephen is martyred

---

<sup>a</sup> See Amos 5:25-27. Amos prophesied to the northern kingdom. He appears to be saying that those nine tribes took these gods with them out of Egypt, kept them all the time in the wilderness, and even took them into the Promised Land! In fact, they were indeed scattered all over, “beyond Babylon”.

<sup>b</sup> The same handful of early manuscripts of inferior quality that NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. usually follow have ‘house’ instead of ‘God’, but are abandoned by their usually faithful followers.

<sup>c</sup> See Isaiah 66:1-2. This could be an oblique defense against their allegation that he had blasphemed the temple—if God does not dwell there (and in fact Jesus had formally abandoned it) [and Josephus says that the Ark was no longer there] it has lost its importance.

<sup>i</sup> They were beside themselves with rage, and forgot all about getting permission from the Roman authorities—typical mob action, but doubtless demonically inspired.

Saul.) <sup>59</sup>Yes, they stoned Stephen as he called out and said, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” <sup>60</sup>Then kneeling down he called out at the top of his voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” And upon saying this he fell asleep.<sup>a</sup> (Saul was in full agreement with his murder.)

Under persecution the Church moves out

8 <sup>1</sup>At that time a major persecution arose against the church that was in Jerusalem, so all, except the Apostles, were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria. <sup>2</sup>(Devout men had buried Stephen and made a great lamentation over him.) <sup>3</sup>As for Saul, he was trying to destroy the Church; invading house after house and dragging away both men and women, he was putting them in prison. <sup>4</sup>So on their part those who were scattered abroad went about preaching the Word.

Philip's ministry

Simon, the sorcerer

<sup>14</sup>Now when the Apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, <sup>15</sup>who upon coming down prayed about them, so that they might receive Holy Spirit, <sup>16</sup>because He had not yet fal-

---

<sup>a</sup> Sleep is frequently used as a figure for death in the Bible, especially with reference to believers. Stephen's death reminds me of the Lord's—both let out a shout, and then died. In the Lord's case we are explicitly told that He dismissed His spirit. I wonder if Stephen was somehow able to dismiss his (if he was able to shout he still had strength, and death by stoning took a while).

<sup>b</sup> Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘the city’, instead of “a city”, to be followed by most versions, including AV and NKJV.

<sup>c</sup> He did not just talk, he demonstrated God's power. So how about us—do we just talk?

<sup>e</sup> That is what the Text says. I would expect ‘has’ the power or ‘shows’ it, or whatever, but the Text has ‘is’. Perhaps the Samaritans thought he was the Messiah. Around 9% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘is called’.

<sup>f</sup> He was proclaiming Jesus as the Messiah.

<sup>g</sup> Why? If he himself had really been producing miracles and signs, he could have said, “business as usual”. Presumably he had been faking it (or else doing it by demonic power), so when he saw the real thing, by God's power, he was genuinely impressed.

len upon any of them; they had only been baptized into the name of Jesus, the Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then they laid their hands upon them and they received Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Well, upon observing that the Holy<sup>b</sup> Spirit was given through the laying on of the Apostles' hands, Simon offered them money <sup>19</sup>saying, "Give this power to me also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive Holy Spirit." <sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him: "May your silver go with you into perdition,<sup>c</sup> for thinking that the gift of God could be acquired with money! <sup>21</sup>You have neither part nor portion in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup>Turn away therefore from this your wickedness and make petition to God,<sup>d</sup> in case the intent of your heart may be forgiven you; <sup>23</sup>for I see you being into a gall of bitterness and a fetter of unrighteousness."<sup>e</sup> <sup>24</sup>So in answer Simon said, "You<sup>f</sup> make petition to the Lord on my behalf, so that nothing of what you have spoken may come upon me!"

<sup>25</sup>So when they had both<sup>g</sup> thoroughly testified and spoken the Word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem; they also evangelized many Samaritan villages.

The Ethiopian treasurer

<sup>26</sup>Then an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip saying, "Get up and go south on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza;<sup>h</sup> it is desolate." <sup>27</sup>So he got up and went; and there, a man, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court-official of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasury, who had come worshipping to Jerusalem<sup>i</sup> <sup>28</sup>—he was returning, sitting in his chariot and reading aloud the prophet Isaiah. <sup>29</sup>And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go forward and join this chariot." <sup>30</sup>So running up Philip heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said,

<sup>a</sup> Some 30% of the Greek manuscripts read 'Lord' instead of 'Christ', as in most versions.

<sup>b</sup> 'Holy' is omitted by two (2) manuscripts (against over 600), to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc. Those two are ancient, but of objectively inferior quality.

<sup>c</sup> Peter is really upset and does not mince words; he evidently felt that the sin was so serious as to place Simon's eternal destiny in doubt (see verse 22, "in case"). Well, the Lord Jesus Himself had taught them that to blaspheme the Holy Spirit was unpardonable, and Peter evidently figured that Simon had come close.

<sup>d</sup> Some 5% of the Greek manuscripts read 'Lord' instead of 'God' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> The Text has 'into' not 'in', thereby emphasizing (I suppose) that this was a long-standing condition. Since gall is bitter, very, I take it that Peter is saying that Simon was controlled by a terrible bitterness. Isaiah 58:6 speaks of "fetters of wickedness", where the fetters have been placed on the victim(s) by wicked men (or angels), presumably [the LXX uses the word that Peter uses here, 'unrighteousness']. We don't know if Peter was thinking of this text, and since Simon was into sorcery/spiritism, the fetter could have been of his own forging. The inspired author says that Simon believed, so I take it that he really did. But the consequences to his soul of years spent in sorcery/spiritism were not immediately, miraculously obliterated. Those in our day who have discipleship people converted out of Satanism/spiritism (especially mediums—witches, warlocks) know that those consequences can hang around for quite a while, and be difficult to eliminate.

<sup>f</sup> The Text is emphatic. Simon is not being disrespectful; he doubts that his own pleading will do much good, so he begs them to do it for him (God is much more likely to listen to them).

<sup>g</sup> This word goes with the verbs 'testify' and 'speak', not Peter and John. I suppose the 'thorough testifying' would be with reference to the Lord's ministry, teaching, death and resurrection (they were eye witnesses).

<sup>h</sup> From Samaria to the Gaza road would be a walk of at least 60 miles, over accidented terrain. Notice that God removes Philip from a very successful ministry to reach one man (albeit a very strategic one).

<sup>i</sup> So how did this man know about Jehovah, and why had he learned to read Hebrew (unless he was reading a Greek translation)? Although nearly a millennium had intervened, this could be a result of the Queen of Sheba's visit to Solomon.

“Do you really understand what you are reading?” <sup>31</sup>So he said, “Well how can I, unless someone guides me?” And he urged Philip to come up and sit with him.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Now the portion of the Scripture that he was reading was this:

“He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so He does not open His mouth.

<sup>33</sup>In His humiliation His justice was removed, and who will recount His generation?

Because His life is removed from the earth.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>34</sup>So continuing the eunuch said to Philip, “I ask you, about whom does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” <sup>35</sup>So opening his mouth and beginning from this Scripture, Philip preached Jesus to him.

<sup>36</sup>Now as they were going down the road they came upon some water, and the eunuch said: “Look, water! What is keeping me from being baptized?”<sup>c</sup> <sup>38</sup>So he ordered the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. <sup>39</sup>Now when they came up out of the water, Spirit of the Lord<sup>d</sup> snatched Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any more, because he went on his way rejoicing.<sup>e</sup>

Saul of Tarsus

9 <sup>1</sup>Meanwhile Saul, still exhaling murderous threats against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest <sup>2</sup>and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he should find any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Jesus chooses Saul

<sup>3</sup>So it happened, as he was going, that he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven shone around him; <sup>4</sup>and falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?” <sup>5</sup>So he said, <sup>a</sup> The Holy Spirit was obviously in charge of this whole operation and moved upon the man to trust Philip.

<sup>c</sup> The AV and NKJV have verse 37: Then Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he answered and said, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.” It is the sort of thing that makes us think, “If Philip did not say that, he should have”. And maybe he really did, but the question immediately before us is whether Luke wrote it. 88% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, do not have the verse—I imagine that the verse originated in the Latin tradition, during the second century. Philip doubtless recounted the event many times (his house in Caesarea received many visitors), and if the exchange recorded in verse 37 actually took place it would be part of the story that he told, and could easily have been added to the Text of Acts. (The addition appears in eighteen slightly different forms, which does not inspire confidence.)

<sup>d</sup> Again there is no definite article with ‘Spirit’, nor with ‘Lord’—I would like to translate ‘Spirit of Jehovah’, but God’s personal name never occurs in the New Testament. In the NT Jehovah the Son has a new name: Jesus.

<sup>e</sup> He did not stop to look for Philip or attempt any further contact with him; Ethiopia was a long way away and he just kept on going. He doubtless understood that Philip’s ‘visit’ was a supernatural present, and let it go at that.

<sup>f</sup> The verb is in the passive voice, but I am tempted to translate, ‘found himself’. The Spirit put Philip down in a near-by town, perhaps 10-15 miles away. Caesarea was some 50 miles on up the coast; speaking of which, Philip evidently decided to settle there.

“Who are you, Lord?” So the Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting;<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>but get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.” <sup>7</sup>The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the sound<sup>b</sup> but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>Then Saul got up from the ground, and upon opening his eyes he saw no one; so leading him by the hand they brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.<sup>c</sup>

Ananias sent to Saul

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!” So he said, “Here I am, Lord.” <sup>11</sup>So the Lord said to him: “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas inquire by name for Saul of Tarsus; because, you see, he is praying, <sup>12</sup>and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and placing a hand on him, so that he might recover his sight.” <sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered: “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many evil things he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Moreover here he has authority from the chief priests<sup>d</sup> to bind all who are calling on Your name.” <sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him: “Get moving, because this man is a chosen vessel to me, to carry my name before nations and kings, also the children of Israel; <sup>16</sup>for I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name’s sake.” <sup>17</sup>So Ananias went and entered the house, and placing his hands on him he said, “Brother<sup>e</sup> Saul, the Lord,<sup>f</sup> who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me so that you may recover your sight and be filled by Holy Spirit.” <sup>18</sup>Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he recovered his sight forthwith;<sup>g</sup> and getting up he was baptized,<sup>h</sup> <sup>19</sup>and upon receiving food he was strengthened. So Saul was with the disciples in Damascus for a number of days.

Saul starts preaching

<sup>20</sup>Immediately he started proclaiming Jesus<sup>i</sup> in the synagogues, that He is the Son of the God. <sup>21</sup>Well, all who heard him were astounded and started saying: “Isn’t this the one who tried to destroy, in Jerusalem, those who called on this

---

<sup>a</sup> At this point AV and NKJV, following the TR, add: “It is hard for you to kick against the goads.” So he, trembling and astonished, said, “Lord, what do you want me to do?” Then the Lord said to him, “...” The addition comes from the Latin tradition; the Greek manuscripts do not have it. Some of the information may be found in the parallel accounts in Acts 22 and 26.

<sup>b</sup> They heard the sound, but did not distinguish the words.

<sup>d</sup> I find it to be curious that the authority of the chief priests extended all the way to Damascus, but how did Ananias know about that? I suppose that Saul’s companions gave out that information.

<sup>e</sup> That was a nice touch. At that moment it no doubt meant a lot to Saul to be called ‘brother’.

<sup>g</sup> Perhaps 70% of the Greek manuscripts do not have ‘forthwith’, and they are followed by printed editions of the Majority Text. However, the best line of transmission does have the word, as in AV and NKJV.

<sup>h</sup> Any water in the house had to be carried there, so it is improbable that there could have been enough to immerse Saul.

<sup>i</sup> ‘Jesus’ is read by Family 35 and the earliest MSS, albeit representing only some 20% of the Greek MSS here; the rest have ‘the Christ’. To teach that the Messiah was the Son of God would be ‘old hat’, no problem—but Saul was showing that Jesus was God’s Son. Notice the end of verse 22, “this One is the Christ”—what is the antecedent of “this”? To say that the Christ is the Christ would be stupid, which neither of the authors is.

name? Even here he had come with that purpose, that he might take them bound to the high priests.” <sup>22</sup>But Saul kept growing stronger and kept on confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that ‘This One is the Christ.’

Saul escapes death

<sup>23</sup>Now when a good many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him; <sup>24</sup>but their plot became known to Saul. They started watching the gates day and night, so that they might kill him; <sup>25</sup>so the disciples<sup>a</sup> took him by night and passed him through the wall, lowering him in a hamper.<sup>b</sup>

Barnabas vouches for Saul

<sup>26</sup>Now upon arriving in Jerusalem Saul kept trying to join himself to the disciples;<sup>c</sup> but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him in tow and brought him to the apostles, and described to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken fearlessly in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>So he was with them in Jerusalem, going in and out, and speaking fearlessly in the name of Jesus.<sup>e</sup> <sup>29</sup>He kept on speaking and debating with the Hellenists, so they started trying to kill him.<sup>f</sup> <sup>30</sup>Upon finding it out, the brothers brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

A brief respite

<sup>31</sup>So then the congregations<sup>g</sup> throughout all Judea and Galilee, and Samaria, had peace and were built up; and proceeding in the fear of the Lord and in the enabling of the Holy Spirit<sup>h</sup> they were being multiplied.

Peter’s ministry

<sup>32</sup>Now it happened, as Peter went through all those parts, that he also went down to the saints who were living in Lydda.

Peter heals Aeneas

<sup>33</sup>And there he found a certain man named Aeneas who was paralyzed—he had been lying on a pallet for eight years. <sup>34</sup>Peter said to him: “Aeneas, Jesus the

---

<sup>a</sup> Evidently Ananias was not the only disciple of Jesus in Damascus, but we are not told how many there may have been. Of course, Saul’s preaching may have added to the number. In fact some 3% of the Greek manuscripts add ‘his’ [i.e. Saul’s] (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> From Paul’s mention of this in 2 Corinthians 11:32-3, I gather that he felt this to be humiliating.

<sup>c</sup> I get the impression that he made repeated efforts; after all, he probably had a very good idea of where different groups could be found. Either he didn’t know where the apostles were, or lacked the courage to approach them. It was probably after several efforts that Barnabas got wind of what was happening; however, the news doubtless spread through the community quite quickly.

<sup>d</sup> How did Barnabas know all that? Perhaps he grilled Saul, before deciding he was on the up and up. I follow some 45% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in reading ‘Lord Jesus’.

<sup>f</sup> I imagine that it was at this juncture that Saul received the vision mentioned in Acts 22:17-21.

<sup>g</sup> 8% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘church’, singular (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The true Text emphasizes that there were groups of believers scattered throughout that whole area.

<sup>h</sup> Does the Holy Spirit enable those who do not fear the Lord? Probably not very often.

Messiah<sup>a</sup> is healing you. Get up and make your bed!”<sup>b</sup> And immediately he stood up! <sup>35</sup>All who were living in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned<sup>c</sup> to the Lord.

Peter raises Dorcas

<sup>36</sup>Now there was a certain disciple in Joppa named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and charitable deeds that she kept doing. <sup>37</sup>But it happened in those days that she took sick and died; so when they had washed her they placed her in the upper room.<sup>d</sup> <sup>38</sup>Now Lydda was near Joppa; the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent to him imploring him not to delay in coming to them. <sup>39</sup>So Peter got up and went with them; upon arriving they took him up to the upper room; all the widows stood around him weeping and showing the coats and garments that Dorcas was making<sup>e</sup> while she was with them. <sup>40</sup>So Peter put them all out,<sup>f</sup> kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, get up!” So she opened her eyes, and upon seeing Peter she sat up.<sup>g</sup> <sup>41</sup>Then he gave her a hand and lifted her up, and calling the saints and widows he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. <sup>43</sup>So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

The case of Cornelius

10 <sup>1</sup>Now there was a certain man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, <sup>2</sup>devout and fearing God with all his household, both giving alms generously to the people and praying to God about everything.<sup>h</sup> <sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day,<sup>i</sup> in a vision, he saw clearly an angel of God entering his presence and saying to him, “Cornelius!” <sup>4</sup>Well, staring at him and being frightened he said, “What is it, Lord?” So he said to him: “Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup>Now send men to Joppa and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter; <sup>6</sup>he is lodging with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.”<sup>j</sup> <sup>7</sup>So when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who were faithful to him, <sup>8</sup>and explaining everything to them he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>a</sup> The Text being in Greek has “the Christ”, but Peter was probably speaking Hebrew, and he was declaring Jesus to be the Messiah. Perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit the definite article (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> It had been eight years since the last time he could make a bed! You can believe that it gave him great pleasure.

<sup>c</sup> The idea is of a change of direction in belief or course of conduct.

<sup>f</sup> You could not hear yourself think in there; he had to do that so he could hear the Holy Spirit.

<sup>j</sup> The familiar “He will tell you what you must do” (as in AV and NKJV) comes from the TR, which is here based on a very few late Greek manuscripts plus part of the Latin tradition.

God prepares Peter

<sup>9</sup>Now on the next day, as they were traveling and drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>Well he became hungry and wanted to eat; but while they were preparing, a trance fell on him, <sup>11</sup>and he saw the heaven opened and a container like a great sheet descending to him—it was tied at the four corners and was being let down to the earth—<sup>12</sup>in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth (both wild animals and reptiles) and birds of the sky.<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>Then a voice came to him, “Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!” <sup>14</sup>But Peter said: “No way, Lord! Never have I eaten anything ‘common’<sup>c</sup> or unclean!” <sup>15</sup>So the voice came to him a second time, “What (pl) God has made clean you must not call ‘common!’” <sup>16</sup>Well this happened three times, and then the object was taken back up into the sky.

The messengers arrive

<sup>17</sup>Now as Peter was really perplexed within himself as to what the vision that he had seen might mean, well the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having inquired and found Simon’s house, stood before the gate, <sup>18</sup>and calling out they inquired whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was staying there as a guest. <sup>19</sup>So as Peter was pondering the vision the Spirit said to him: “Listen, some men are looking for you; <sup>20</sup>so get up and go downstairs; and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them.” <sup>21</sup>So going down to the men<sup>d</sup> Peter said: “Yes, I am the one you are looking for. For what reason have you come?” <sup>22</sup>So they said: “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man, well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by an angel<sup>e</sup> to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you.” <sup>23</sup>So he invited them in and put them up.

On to Caesarea

The next day Peter set out with them, also some of the brothers from Joppa went with him; <sup>24</sup>and the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them,<sup>f</sup> having called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup>So

<sup>b</sup> What the Text actually says, literally, is: “all the four-footed of the earth, and the wild animals, and the reptiles, and the birds of the sky”—a re-run of Noah’s ark! Well, if the sheet were large enough... However, from Peter’s response it appears that no ‘clean’ animals or birds were included. I am tempted to translate: “all the four-footed of the earth—that is, the wild animals and the reptiles—and the birds of the sky” wherein the ‘birds of the sky’ are carrion fowl (songbirds and game birds generally stay close to the ground).

<sup>d</sup> Some 35% of the Greek manuscripts add “who had been sent to him from Cornelius”, as in AV and NKJV.

<sup>e</sup> I follow the best line of transmission in not adding ‘holy’, although here representing only 20% of the manuscripts. To be giving divine instruction the angel was evidently from God.

<sup>f</sup> Let us try to get the ‘feel’ of this watershed event. Cornelius is a Gentile, but he REALLY wants to know God; yet he ‘knows’ that Jehovah has a thing with the Jews and is not too big on Gentiles. But he is convinced that Jehovah is the true God and is doing his very best to please Him. So one day God gives him a special dispensation of grace; He sends an angel! Was Cornelius excited, or was he excited!! Like, wow. So he sends his messengers hotfooting it to Joppa (some 60 km), and they do it in less than 24 hours. So what does Cornelius do while he waits? He prays and fasts. Surely, he was already a man of prayer (verse 2) so how is he going to show his appreciation to God for the special favor? He fasts—now that he has God’s attention, marvel of marvels, he wants to stay tuned in so as not to miss anything. And after allowing for the minimum time necessary for the roundtrip, he is at the door looking down the road—well, being a military commander he doubtless had lookouts and probably had someone on duty to tell him when the group came into view. Enter Peter. He lays on the bit about Jews not when Peter actually arrived, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet and worshipped. <sup>26</sup>But Peter lifted him up, saying: “Stand up! I myself am also a man.” <sup>27</sup>And conversing with him he went in and found many gathered there. <sup>28</sup>Then he said to them: “You know how it is unlawful for a Jewish man to associate with or to approach a different race; but God has shown me that I should not call any man ‘common’ or unclean. <sup>29</sup>Therefore also I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. So I ask, for what reason did you send for me?”

<sup>30</sup>So Cornelius said: “I have been fasting<sup>a</sup> during four days until this very hour; yes, it was the ninth hour,<sup>b</sup> I was praying in my house when wow, a man stood before me in shining clothing <sup>31</sup>and said: ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms are remembered before God. <sup>32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea; upon arriving he will speak to you.’<sup>c</sup> <sup>33</sup>So I sent to you at once, and you did well to come. Now then, we are all present before God to hear all the things commanded you by God.”<sup>d</sup>

contaminating themselves with Gentiles, but God told him to come, and so what does Cornelius want. Now it is his turn—he is looking at a Jew who is not exactly oozing enthusiasm at being there, but he is Jehovah’s messenger and the centurion understands about rank and authority; so he plays the only cards he has: his own sincerity and seriousness and God’s revealed will. (See the second note with verse 30 below.)

<sup>a</sup> Some 3.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit the ‘fasting’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> “I have been fasting during four days until this very hour” (the first card) and “the ninth hour...” (the second card). About the sequence, we observe the following:

verse 3—1st day: Cornelius sees angel, about 3 p.m., and sends messengers forthwith;

verse 9—2nd day: Peter has vision, after 12 noon, and messengers arrive (& are lodged for the night);

verse 23—3rd day: Peter and company leave Joppa; verse 24—4th day: they enter Caesarea (probably before noon).

So, by western reckoning we have not quite three full days, but by Hebrew and Brazilian reckoning we have a situation that involves four days.

The messengers, under urgent orders, did the 60 km in under 24 hours (whether they went all night, we do not know, but they were probably obviously tired when they showed up at Peter’s gate). Peter was not about to be stampeded into action; he had to eat, sort things out in his mind, talk it over with the others—since they decided to send a committee, preparations had to be made. So they set out the next day, but they are dignified Jews and are not going to run—they set a steady pace and probably make some 45 km before stopping for the night. The remaining 15 km they knock off before noon the next day. So, the “this very hour” refers to the time of Peter’s arrival.

<sup>d</sup> Cornelius does not beat around the bush, he wants to hear from God. Instead of ‘God’ some 5% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘the Lord’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> This statement of Peter’s does not fit in very well with the doctrine of salvation (soteriology) as taught in many schools and churches. God deals with people where they are, within the context that they are. Surely, because He cannot deal with people where they are not.

<sup>f</sup> ‘Sons’ is often translated ‘children’ when referring to the descendants of Jacob—Peter is referring to the current generation, the one that received the revelation of ‘Jesus Christ’.

spoken word you know, that was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John preached:<sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>Jesus of Natsareth, how God anointed Him with Holy Spirit and power, who went about doing good and healing all those being oppressed by the devil,<sup>b</sup> because God was with Him <sup>39</sup>—yes, we are witnesses of all that He did, both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem—whom they also killed, hanging Him on a tree. <sup>40</sup>Him God raised on the third day, and gave Him to become visible, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people but to witnesses who had been chosen beforehand by God, to us, who ate and drank with Him after He arose out from the dead.<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>And He ordered us to proclaim to the people, that is, to testify that He is the One who has been ordained by God as Judge of living and dead. <sup>43</sup>To Him all the prophets bear witness<sup>d</sup> that through His name<sup>e</sup> everyone who believes into Him will receive forgiveness of sins.”<sup>f</sup>

The Holy Spirit falls

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were hearing the message.<sup>g</sup> <sup>45</sup>Well the believers of the circumcision [Jews] who had come with Peter were astonished, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had also been poured out on the Gentiles, <sup>46</sup>in that they heard them speaking languages<sup>h</sup> and magnifying God. Then Peter responded: <sup>47</sup>“Surely no one can forbid the water, can he, that these should not be baptized<sup>i</sup> who received the Holy Spirit just <sup>a</sup> As soon as John was put in prison, which was the end of his preaching and baptizing, Jesus moved out of Judea into Galilee—He spent over a year there before returning to Judea. Peter is assuming that Cornelius would have followed the career of Jesus with interest. He gives a very brief, almost disjointed, review of some salient points.

<sup>b</sup> The devil is Satan. Did Peter mean that every time Jesus saw an oppressed person He healed them, or did he mean that everyone whom Jesus healed was oppressed, or both? The episode at the pool of Bethesda (John 5:2-13) would appear to eliminate the first option, that every time He saw an oppressed person He healed them, because there was a “great multitude” of oppressed people there, and Jesus obviously saw them, but He did nothing to help them. This leaves us with the clear conclusion that it is the second meaning that is correct, everyone whom Jesus healed was oppressed, which means that Satan is involved in all maladies. [With reference to John 5:2-13, less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit the last clause of verse 3 and all of verse 4 (as in NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc.). But obviously all those people would not stay there (in discomfort) day in and day out, year in and year out, if nothing was happening. Obviously people got healed, and verse 7 makes clear that it had to do with the stirring of the water—so why did not those manuscripts omit verse 7 as well? The UBS editions do us a considerable disservice by following a very small minority of manuscripts and making the angel “of the Lord”. Since angels can be good or fallen, it seems most likely to me that the angel involved was fallen. A capricious, occasional healing condemned all those people to added suffering (being at the pool instead of the comfort of home), including the frustration and despair of those who never made it (like the man Jesus healed). A sadistic procedure is just like Satan.]

<sup>f</sup> This was the crucial bit of information they were waiting for, what they had to do to be saved. The minute Peter said, “believe into Jesus”, they did! And the Holy Spirit came upon them! Believe “into” not “in”—a change of location is involved, from being outside to being inside, which requires commitment.

<sup>g</sup> If anyone present was not ‘hearing’ they would neither believe nor receive.

<sup>h</sup> The term often rendered ‘tongue’ is the ordinary word for ‘language’—these were presumably real languages, though unknown to the hearers (and speakers). What happened here went against the Jews’ worldview.

<sup>i</sup> Baptism followed immediately upon conversion (not after weeks of instruction and observation). I believe they were formally severing any and all connection with Satan and the world controlled by him, like we did?” <sup>48</sup>So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>a</sup> Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter has to explain

11 <sup>1</sup>Now the Apostles and the brothers throughout Judea<sup>b</sup> heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>When Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision party started contending with him, <sup>3</sup>saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>4</sup>So Peter began by explaining it to them in order, saying: <sup>5</sup>“I was in the town of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain object like a great sheet coming down out of the sky, being lowered by its four corners; and it came to me. <sup>6</sup>Upon peering into it I observed and distinguished the quadrupeds of the earth—both the wild animals and the reptiles—and the birds of the sky. <sup>7</sup>Then I heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!’ <sup>8</sup>So I said: ‘No way, Lord! Never has anything ‘common’ or unclean entered my mouth!’ <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered me, a second time, from heaven, ‘Things that God has made clean you must not call ‘common’.’ <sup>10</sup>Well this was done three times, and it was all pulled back up into the sky. <sup>11</sup>At that very moment three men stopped in front of the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>12</sup>The Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. These six brothers also went with me,<sup>d</sup> and we entered the man’s house. <sup>13</sup>He then related to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying to him, ‘Send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter, <sup>14</sup>who will speak words to you by which you and all your household will be saved.’ <sup>15</sup>Well as I began to speak,<sup>e</sup> the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup>I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, ‘John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with Holy Spirit.’<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>So if God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed upon the Lord Jesus,<sup>g</sup> who was I to be able to withstand God?” <sup>18</sup>Upon hearing these things they acquiesced and started glorifying God, saying, “So then, God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance into life!”<sup>h</sup> and placing themselves under the protection of the Lord Jesus. The sooner a new convert does that the better. Did the centurion have a swimming pool in his house? Would there have been enough water there to immerse all those people?

<sup>a</sup> The Greek manuscripts are divided among three main variants here (‘the Lord Jesus’ [35%], ‘the Lord’ [57%], ‘Jesus Christ’ [8%]); I have followed what I understand to be the best line of transmission.

<sup>c</sup> In Matthew 28 the resurrected Jesus had commanded that disciples be made among all ethnic nations—so how can you disciple someone without talking to him or associating with him? In fact, the ‘Great Commission’ imposed a significant shift in worldview upon Jesus’ Jewish followers. The transition was not easy, and many never made it.

<sup>g</sup> Notice that there is no mention of keeping the Law, being circumcised, or following Jewish customs. Peter is saying that what God did indicates that the key to salvation is believing upon the Lord Jesus, whether Jew or Gentile. I follow the best line of transmission that reads ‘the Lord Jesus’; some 75% of the Greek manuscripts add ‘Christ’.

<sup>h</sup> Their religious culture had twisted the OT Scriptures so as to exclude Gentiles. So now they are surprised.

Enter Barnabas

<sup>19</sup>Now those who had been scattered by the persecution that came about in connection with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews only.<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who upon entering Antioch started speaking to the Greek-speakers,<sup>b</sup> preaching the good news of the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Well the report concerning them reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. <sup>23</sup>Upon arriving and seeing the grace of God, he was glad, and he kept encouraging them all to remain true to the Lord with purpose of heart<sup>c</sup> <sup>24</sup>(for he was a good man, full of Holy Spirit and of faith). And a considerable crowd was added to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to look for Saul, <sup>26</sup>and upon finding him he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they met with the congregation and taught a great many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Enter Agabus

<sup>27</sup>Now in these days, prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup>One of them, named Agabus, stood up and indicated by the Spirit that a great famine was about to come upon the whole world (this indeed happened while Claudius was Caesar). <sup>29</sup>Then the disciples, to the extent that any had plenty, each of them determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; <sup>30</sup>which they also did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Enter Herod

12 <sup>1</sup>Now about that time, Herod the king laid hands on some from the church to mistreat them. <sup>2</sup>James, the brother of John, he put to death by sword.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>When he saw that it was pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter as well (it was during the days of the unleavened loaves) <sup>4</sup>—upon seizing him he put him in prison, turning him over to sixteen soldiers<sup>e</sup> to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

Enter angel

<sup>b</sup> In verse 19, those who spoke to Jews only, presumably used Hebrew, which would not be understood by outsiders. In verse 20, by preaching in Greek, the whole populace could understand, even if Greek-speaking Jews were the main target. Verse 21 implies that the number of believers exceeded the number of Jews, so Gentiles also were believing.

<sup>8</sup>Then the angel said to him, “Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.” So he did. Then he said to him, “Put on your cloak and follow me.” <sup>9</sup>So he went out and started following him, not realizing that what the angel was doing was real; he supposed he was seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup>Passing through the first and second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, that opened for them by itself;<sup>a</sup> upon exiting they advanced one block, and suddenly the angel left him.

Enter Rhoda

<sup>11</sup>When Peter had come to himself he said, “Now I know for certain that the Lord sent His angel and delivered me out of Herod’s hand and from all the expectation of the Jewish people.” <sup>12</sup>Upon reflection he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John (the one called Mark), where a considerable number had gathered and were praying. <sup>13</sup>When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup>Upon recognizing Peter’s voice, she was so glad she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing before the gate! <sup>15</sup>But they said to her, “You’re crazy!” but she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, “It is his angel.” <sup>16</sup>But Peter kept on knocking; so when they opened the door and saw him, they were astounded.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>Motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he related to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. Then he said, “Tell these things to James<sup>c</sup> and the brothers.” And going out he went off to a different place.<sup>d</sup>

Poor guards!

<sup>18</sup>Now as soon as it was day, there was no small commotion among the soldiers about what had become of Peter! <sup>19</sup>Well after searching for him and not finding him, Herod examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Going down from Judea to Caesarea, he stayed there.<sup>e</sup>

Herod gets his ‘comeuppance’

<sup>20</sup>Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; so they came with one accord to him, and having won over Blastus, the king’s chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their country was supplied with food from the king’s.<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>So on an appointed day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on the throne and started to deliver an address to them. <sup>22</sup>But the crowd started calling out, “The voice of a god and not of a man!” <sup>23</sup>Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he did not give glory to God, and being eaten by worms, he died.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The angel used supernatural power; and if we ever learn how to do it, we can too—Ephesians 3:20.

<sup>b</sup> They evidently did not expect their prayer to be answered. After all, they had probably prayed for James first, and he was killed anyway. When we pray about a difficult situation, we should start out by asking what the Father is doing—John 5:19.

<sup>e</sup> He had doubtless told the Jews that he had Peter, and when he couldn’t produce him he lost face. But the circumstances probably left him uncomfortable as well, so he decided to get away for awhile—none of which saved the poor guards. The guards were part of an evil system, and presumably would never have converted (although, if Peter had preached to them, some may have believed before the execution).

The Gentile Church

Missionary journey I—Barnabas and Saul → Paul

13 <sup>1</sup>Now in the congregation that was in Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon (the one called Niger), Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch), and Saul. <sup>2</sup>As they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart to me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them!” <sup>3</sup>Then, having fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them off.

1st stop—Cyprus

<sup>4</sup>So, having been sent out by the Holy Spirit,<sup>c</sup> they went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>And upon arriving in Salamis, they started proclaiming the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews (also they had John as assistant). <sup>6</sup>Now when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew named Bar-Jesus, <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, really wanting to hear the Word of God. <sup>8</sup>But the sorcerer Elymas (for so his name is translated) opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

<sup>b</sup> We have here an important set of variant readings, wherein the evidence is rather badly divided. The discussion is quite complicated and extensive, so I refer the interested reader to the Appendix: “Where to place a Comma—Acts 12:25”.

<sup>f</sup> To be an ‘enemy of all righteousness’ one would have to be pretty bad! If ‘son of a devil’ is literal, Elymas was a humanoid, and would indeed be completely evil.

<sup>g</sup> Demonstrated supernatural power has a way of lending credence to the spoken word.

gogue leaders sent to them, saying, “Men, brothers, if you have a word of encouragement<sup>a</sup> for the people, do speak.”

Paul expounds the Gospel

<sup>16</sup>So standing up and motioning with his hand, Paul said: “Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup>The God of this people chose our fathers, and prospered the people during their sojourn in the land of Egypt, and brought them out of it with an uplifted arm. <sup>18</sup>For a period of about forty years He put up with them in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave them possession of their land. <sup>20</sup>After these things, He gave judges for about four hundred and fifty<sup>b</sup> years, until Samuel the prophet.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>And then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, a son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>And removing him He raised up for them David as king, about whom He gave witness and said, ‘I have found David son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’ <sup>23</sup>God, from this man’s seed, according to promise, has brought<sup>e</sup> Salvation<sup>f</sup> to Israel, <sup>24</sup>John having heralded beforehand, in advance of His coming, a baptism of repentance to Israel.<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>Well, as John was fulfilling his course, he said: ‘Whom do you suppose me to be? No I am not—but indeed He comes after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’<sup>h</sup>

<sup>26</sup>“Men, brothers, sons of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God: to you<sup>i</sup> the word of this salvation has been sent. <sup>27</sup>The Jerusalem dwellers and their rulers, understanding neither Him nor the voices of the prophets that are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning Him. <sup>28</sup>Though they found no cause for death, they asked Pilate to have Him executed. <sup>29</sup>When they had fulfilled all things that were written about Him, they took Him down from the cross<sup>j</sup> and placed Him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised Him from the dead; <sup>31</sup>and for many days He was seen by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are<sup>k</sup> His witnesses to the people.

<sup>32</sup>“Yes we proclaim to you the good news: the promise that was made to the fathers, <sup>33</sup>God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, when He raised up Jesus;<sup>l</sup> as also it stands written in the second Psalm:

<sup>i</sup> Instead of ‘to you’, perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘to us’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). How was that word sent? By Paul and Barnabas.

‘I will give you the holy things guaranteed to David.’<sup>c</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Further, it is stated elsewhere,

For I am working a work in your days to which you will not give credence, even if someone were to explain it in detail to you.’<sup>g</sup>

The reaction

<sup>a</sup> The resurrection of Jesus from the dead is crucial; without it we have no Gospel.

<sup>b</sup> People like Lazarus who were returned to life, had to die again (and decompose); with Jesus it was different: His resurrection was definitive, and involved a glorified body.

<sup>g</sup> See Habakkuk 1:5. According to 2 Thessalonians 2:10-11, to those who reject the love of the truth God Himself sends active delusion, so they will believe the lie. The ‘despisers’ are rendered incapable of understanding the explanation.

<sup>h</sup> We have here an important set of variant readings, wherein the evidence is rather badly divided. I have decided to give the Greek, for those who can handle it, but will here give a literal rendering of the four variants, for those who can’t. However, the discussion includes ‘the Gentiles’, as being part of the puzzle: 1) now as the Jews were going out of the synagogue; 2) now as they were going out; 3) now as they were going out of the synagogue of the Jews; 4) now as they were going out of the synagogue.

1) ἐξιόντων δε εκ της συναγωγης των ιουδαιων	ƒ <sup>35</sup> (60.2%) HF,RP,TR
2) ἐξιόντων δε αυτων	SA,B,C,D (16.2%) NU
3) ἐξιόντων δε αυτων εκ της συναγωγης των ιουδαιων	(20.8%) OC,CP
4) ἐξιόντων δε αυτων εκ της συναγωγης	(2.3%)
(two other readings)	(0.4%)

I believe this variant set must be considered along with the presence of τα εθνη after παρεκαλουν, but TuT does not include the second set. However, from UBS<sup>3</sup> it appears that virtually the same roster of witnesses, including the three ancient versions (!), read variant 2) and omit “the Gentiles”. Where then is the Subject of the main verb παρεκαλουν? Presumably for those witnesses it would be the Jews and proselytes who had just heard Paul and wanted to hear it all over again the next Sabbath. So why are they (Jews and proselytes) mentioned overtly again in verse 43? And on what basis would the whole city show up the next week (verse 44)? But to go back to verse 42, why would the first hearers want to hear the same thing (τα ρηματα ταυτα) again anyway? The really interested ones stuck with Paul and Barnabas to learn more (verse 43), just as we would expect.

synagogue service having been dismissed, many of the Jews and the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who started addressing them, urging them to continue in the grace of God. <sup>44</sup>Well the next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered to hear the Word of God.<sup>a</sup> <sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with envy<sup>b</sup> and started speaking against the things said by Paul, contradicting and<sup>c</sup> blaspheming.

<sup>46</sup>But Paul and Barnabas speaking boldly said: “It was necessary that God’s Word should be spoken to you first.<sup>d</sup> But since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life,<sup>e</sup> now we are being turned to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>Because that is just how the Lord has commanded us:

‘I have set you to be a light for ethnic nations, that you should be for salvation up to the last place on earth.’”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>48</sup>Now upon hearing this, the Gentiles rejoiced and glorified the Word of the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to eternal live believed.<sup>g</sup>

The witnesses to variants 1) and 3) join in support of “the Gentiles”, giving us a strong majority (over 80%). So the Subject of παρεκαλουν is τα εθνη—they want a chance to hear the Gospel too, and the whole city turns out. It fits the context perfectly. So, variant 3) appears to be a conflation and the basic reading is variant 1). The witnesses to variant 3), because they have “the Gentiles”, are really on the side of variant 1), not 2), so presumably 1) may be viewed as having 80% attestation. For the witnesses to variant 1) the antecedent or referent of εξιοντων must be Paul’s group, since the Gentiles would presumably address their request to the teacher.

In variant 2) αυτων presumably serves as Subject of both the participle and the main verb, but in that event the main verb should take precedence and the pronoun should be nominative, not genitive. However one might explain the motivation for such a change—from 1) to 2) and deleting “the Gentiles”—variant 2) is evidently wrong, even though attested by the three ancient versions. Perhaps someone faced with variant 1) took “of the Jews” to be the referent of the participle instead of modifying “synagogue” (like NKJV), and thought it should be Subject of the main verb as well—then, of course, “the Gentiles” were in the way and were deleted. Then 1) might have been shortened to 2) for ‘clarity’.

I take it that the original text had: εξιοντων δε εκ της συναγωγης των ιουδαιων παρεκαλουν τα εθνη etc.

<sup>f</sup> See Isaiah 49:6. The prophecy refers to the Messiah, but Paul and Barnabas are representing Him.
<sup>g</sup> Here God’s sovereignty and human responsibility are placed side by side—God appoints, but we have to believe.
<sup>h</sup> This presumably means that a fair number of local congregations sprang up there.

them,<sup>a</sup> and went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup>But the disciples were filled with joy and with Holy Spirit.<sup>b</sup>

Iconium

14 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened in Iconium that they went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and they spoke to such effect that a large number of both Jews and Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But the disobedient Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. <sup>3</sup>Even so they stayed there a considerable time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, giving signs and wonders to take place by their hands.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>Well the population of the city became divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>But when a plot was hatched by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup>they became aware of it and escaped to the cities of Lycaonia—Lystra, Derbe and the surrounding area—<sup>7</sup>where they continued to preach the Gospel.

Lystra

<sup>8</sup>Well in Lystra a certain man with helpless feet was sitting (lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked). <sup>9</sup>This man was listening to Paul speaking; who looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup>said with a loud voice, "Stand up straight on your feet!" And the man jumped up and began to walk!<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now when the crowd saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in Lycaonian, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" <sup>12</sup>And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup>Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates, intending to make a sacrifice, along with the crowd.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>14</sup>But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard it, they tore their clothes and rushed into the crowd, crying out <sup>15</sup>and saying: "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same nature as you, giving you good news, telling you to turn from these useless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them; <sup>16</sup>who in the former generations allowed all the ethnic nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>17</sup>Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>Even saying these things, they barely stopped the crowd from sacrificing to them.

<sup>a</sup> They were following an instruction given by the Lord Himself (Matthew 10:14-15, Luke 9:5), and that He illustrated by example (Matthew 11:23-24), although He spoke the curse. I believe that history records that Pisidian Antioch entered into decline at that point.

<sup>f</sup> Now there you have an extemporaneous speech! It was a totally unexpected situation, and they had no prepared sermon. They emphasize the Creator God. Probably that is the place to start with any pagan people.

Paul stoned

The return to Antioch

The Jerusalem Council

The conflict

15 <sup>1</sup>Then some men came down from Judea and started teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” <sup>2</sup>Well this provoked serious dissension and argument between Paul and Barnabas and them, so Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with certain others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup>So being sent on their way by the congregation, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brothers. <sup>4</sup>Upon arriving in Jerusalem, they were received by the congregation and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup>But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Crowds can be fickle, and the apostles had called their religion “useless”. Several days had elapsed, presumably, which gave them time to mull things over. There was probably some demonic involvement as well.

<sup>c</sup> I suppose that the attack was sudden and unexpected (planned that way), so the disciples did not have time to try to defend him. Paul certainly looked dead, but as the disciples were standing there trying to assimilate what had happened, he got up! His recovery was such that he could set out the next day on foot.

<sup>d</sup> One might suppose that they would avoid Lystra, but no. Perhaps upon reflection the locals were ashamed of what they had done; besides, what do you do to a man you have already killed?!

<sup>h</sup> In essence they were demanding that the Gentiles become Jewish proselytes, as a prior condition. Those Pharisees did not understand salvation by faith.

The Council

<sup>6</sup>So the apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter. <sup>7</sup>When there had been plenty of discussion, Peter got up and said to them: “Men, brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you,<sup>a</sup> that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the message of the Gospel and believe. <sup>8</sup>And the heart-knowing God acknowledged them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us; <sup>9</sup>and He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, why do you test God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup>Rather, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus,<sup>b</sup> in the same manner as they.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Then the whole assembly kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the ethnic nations through them. <sup>13</sup>Now when they finished, James reacted saying: “Men, brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Simeon has described how God first intervened to extract from the Gentiles a people for His name. <sup>15</sup>And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

<sup>16</sup>‘After these things I will return, and I will rebuild David’s tent, the fallen one;
yes, I will rebuild its ruins and restore it;

<sup>17</sup>so that the remnant of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles—the ones, that is, upon whom my name has been called—says the LORD who does all these things.’<sup>d</sup>

The edict

<sup>22</sup>Then it pleased the apostles and the elders, with the whole congregation, to send chosen men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas (the one called Barsabas) and Silas, leading men among the brothers. <sup>23</sup>They wrote by their hand the following:

---

<sup>e</sup> God had not changed; it was always His purpose to include the Gentiles. Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit “all His works are known to God” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> This way of stating it leaves an opening for making a distinction between Gentile and Jewish believers. By chapter 21 this had become a serious problem. James begins the verse saying, “I judge”, emphasizing the pronoun, and his position was a bit of a compromise; this in spite of Peter’s plain statement in verse 11. In verse 23 the edict is addressed to the “Gentile brothers” (the distinction between Jew and Gentile is maintained).

“The apostles and the elders and the<sup>a</sup> brothers, to the Gentile brothers in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia:

Greetings.

<sup>24</sup>Since we have heard that some who went out from among us have disturbed you with words, unsettling your souls, saying that you must be circumcised and keep the Law<sup>b</sup>—to whom we gave no such authorization—<sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men who have risked their lives for the sake of the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>So we have sent Judas and Silas, who will also confirm these things by word of mouth.<sup>c</sup> <sup>28</sup>It seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us,<sup>d</sup> to place no greater burden upon you than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup>to abstain from things offered to idols,<sup>e</sup> from ‘blood’, from anything strangled and from fornication;<sup>f</sup> it will be in your own best interest to keep away from these things.

Farewell.”

Good results

<sup>30</sup>So when they were sent off they came to Antioch, and gathering the crowd they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. <sup>32</sup>Both Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words. <sup>33</sup>After some time, they were released with peace from the brothers to the apostles.<sup>g</sup> <sup>35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the Word of the Lord, with many others also.

Missionary journey II—Paul and Silas

Paul and Barnabas separate

<sup>36</sup>Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us return now and visit our brothers in each city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.” <sup>37</sup>Now Barnabas resolved to take John (the one called Mark) along as

---

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “and the” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). This changes the meaning; the three groups are reduced to two.

<sup>b</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘saying that you must be circumcised and keep the law’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> In the Greek Text each item in the list is a single word; such brevity could give rise to ambiguity. However, items 1 and 4 seem clear enough. Item 3 presumably harks back to Genesis 9:4, where ingesting blood is forbidden. So item 2, ‘blood’, must mean something else. In the Bible ‘blood’ is repeatedly used to refer to violent death and the responsibility for it. This harks back to Genesis 9:5-6. The prohibition against fornication is implied in Genesis 2:24. That God did not accept Cain’s offering (Genesis 4:3-5) implies that He had given instruction on the subject, which would presumably include idolatry. So the four items in the list are all far older than the Law of Moses and are independent of it.

<sup>g</sup> Verse 34, as in the AV, is to be found in about 30% of the Greek manuscripts, but contradicts verse 33, that seems to require that Silas returned to Jerusalem; “they were sent back...to the apostles”, and “they” refers to Judas and Silas. The ‘problem’ is that in verse 40 Paul chooses Silas to accompany him, so he had to be in Antioch, not Jerusalem. Accordingly the longer reading was created to solve the ‘problem’. The “some days” of verse 36 could well have been a month or two. From Antioch to Jerusalem would be a trip of less than 400 miles. Silas had time to go to Jerusalem and get back to Antioch.

well. <sup>38</sup>But Paul insisted on not taking someone who had deserted them in Pamphilia and not gone with them to the work. <sup>39</sup>Well the contention became so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus;<sup>a</sup> <sup>40</sup>while Paul chose Silas and set out, having been commended by the brothers to the grace of God.<sup>b</sup> <sup>41</sup>He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the congregations.

Paul finds Timothy

16 <sup>1</sup>So he came to Derbe and Lystra. Well now, a certain disciple was there named Timothy, son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was a Greek; <sup>2</sup>he was well spoken of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted to have him go on with him, so he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, because they all knew that his father was a Greek.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>As they were going through the cities they were delivering the dogmas to them, to keep—the ones that had been determined by the apostles and the elders in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>So the congregations kept on being strengthened in the faith, and were increasing in number daily.<sup>e</sup>

The ‘Macedonian call’

<sup>6</sup>Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia, <sup>7</sup>they approached Mysia and tried to go to Bythinia, but the Spirit<sup>f</sup> did not permit them. <sup>8</sup>So they bypassed Mysia and went down to Troas.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>9</sup>A vision appeared to Paul during the night: a man of Macedonia was standing, appealing to him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” <sup>10</sup>So when he saw the vision, we<sup>h</sup> immediately prepared to go over to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord<sup>i</sup> had called us to evangelize them.

Philippi

<sup>11</sup>So setting sail from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis; <sup>12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony.<sup>j</sup> We stayed some days in that city. <sup>13</sup>On the Sab-

<sup>a</sup> This is the last we hear of Barnabas, but not of Mark. Barnabas was an encourager. He had seen the potential in Saul of Tarsus and helped him along on at least two occasions. Now he sees the potential in Mark and invests in him, to such good effect that Paul himself later recognizes Mark’s value (2 Timothy 4:11). Peter had taken Mark under his wing and helped him write the second Gospel.

<sup>c</sup> Paul had been stoned at Lystra, at the instigation of the Jews, so why is he concerned to please them? And after he joined Paul how much time was Timothy going to spend in his home town? A curious proceeding.

<sup>g</sup> Paul and Silas were sufficiently in tune with the Holy Spirit that He could lead them. The areas mentioned were basically unevangelized, so their attempt was a ‘natural’, but those areas would be reached later as the News radiated out from Ephesus to all Asia. God wanted to get the Church started in Europe, and in particular the area where Greek was the mother tongue.

bath day we went outside the city by a river, where prayer was customarily made,<sup>a</sup> and sitting down we started speaking to the assembled women.<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>A certain woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, really listened, whose heart the Lord opened to give heed to the things spoken by Paul. <sup>15</sup>When she and her household were baptized, she appealed saying, “Since you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay.” So she persuaded us.

Prison

<sup>16</sup>Now it happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain slave girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought considerable profit to her owners by divination. <sup>17</sup>Following Paul and Silas<sup>c</sup> this girl kept calling out, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to us the way of salvation!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>She kept this up for many days!<sup>e</sup> So Paul, becoming increasingly annoyed,<sup>f</sup> turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” And it came out that very hour.

The jailer converts

<sup>25</sup>Well about midnight Paul and Silas were singing hymns to God in prayer; and the other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake, enough to shake the foundations of the prison; immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were loosed.<sup>i</sup> <sup>27</sup>But the jailer, awaking

---

<sup>a</sup> Instead of “where prayer was customarily made”, perhaps 2% if the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘where we supposed a place of prayer to be’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> Evidently there was no synagogue in Philippi. Prayer meetings usually have more women than men.

<sup>c</sup> I follow the best line of transmission in reading ‘Silas’; some 60% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘us’, as in most versions. Luke, who was there, is focusing the account on the two who were put in prison.

<sup>d</sup> I find it to be curious that what the demon said was precisely true! So why did that truth not result in many conversions? Presumably because the Holy Spirit did not apply it, coming from a demon. Instead of “to us”, perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘to you’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Did the demon have the girl include herself, or not?

<sup>e</sup> The ‘hour of prayer’ was observed every day by God-fearing Jews. So the apostles would pass at a predictable time each day.

<sup>f</sup> But Paul, she was giving you free advertising! Evidently he didn’t want advertising from the enemy, and in this he followed the Lord’s example (Mark 3:11-12).

<sup>g</sup> This was a put up job. It would take a day or two to make clear that the girl was now useless. The magistrates had probably been getting a ‘cut’. Some rabble had been mobilized to join in—the whole proceeding had been organized in advance. They figured they could beat up on two Jews with impunity.

<sup>i</sup> A proper earthquake could shake the doors open, but not unlock chains (unless it was their anchors that came loose from the walls).

from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew sword, intending to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.<sup>a</sup>

Magistrates rebuked

<sup>35</sup>Now when it was day the magistrates sent the officers saying, “Let those men go.” <sup>36</sup>So the jailer reported these words to Paul, “The magistrates have sent to release you; so now you can leave and go in peace.” <sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them:<sup>f</sup> “After severely beating us in public, although we were uncondemned Romans, they threw us into prison, and now do they toss us out on the sly? No way! Rather, let them come themselves and escort us out!” <sup>38</sup>So the officers reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans; <sup>39</sup>and they came and appealed to them, and leading them out they asked them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup>So departing from the prison they entered Lydia’s place, and upon seeing the brothers they encouraged them and departed.

Thessalonica

17 <sup>1</sup>Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>So Paul, as was his custom, went in to them and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and that “this Jesus whom I proclaim to you is the Messiah.” <sup>4</sup>Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of devout Greeks and not a few of the prominent women.

<sup>e</sup> Very appropriate—he washed their wounds and restored their dignity, so they could baptize him. Note again that baptism followed immediately. (Would there have been enough water there to dunk them? Probably not.) Note that everyone in the family was baptized, which would put them under Christ’s protection, but that procedure was imposed by the head of the household, whether or not there was personal commitment to Jesus on the part of each one.

<sup>f</sup> The officers were still there. Paul decided to give the magistrates a much-needed lesson, but then acquiesced in leaving the city without further fuss.

<sup>g</sup> They were fundamentally disobedient to God, and so fell in with Satan’s agenda. (Some 20% of the Greek manuscripts add ‘becoming envious’, but they do so in a variety of ways—the confusion is reflected in the versions.)

house of Jason, they wanted to bring them out to the crowd. <sup>6</sup>But not finding them they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city officials vociferating: “These who have upset the whole world<sup>a</sup> have come here too, <sup>7</sup>to whom Jason has given lodging. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king—Jesus.” <sup>8</sup>Well they agitated the crowd and the city officials when they heard these things. <sup>9</sup>Then they took a security bond from Jason and the rest and let them go.

Berea

<sup>10</sup>Immediately, during the night, the brothers sent both Paul and Silas away to Berea; on arriving they went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all good-will, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things might be so.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the Word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul in Berea, they came too, agitating the crowds. <sup>14</sup>So then, without delay, the brothers sent Paul away, as if to go by sea, while both Silas and Timothy remained there. <sup>15</sup>But those who were conducting Paul actually took him all the way to Athens;<sup>c</sup> and receiving a command to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they started back.

Athens

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was increasingly aroused within him as he observed that the city was full of idols. <sup>17</sup>So he reasoned both in the synagogue with the Jews and devout persons, and in the marketplace day by day with those who happened to be there. <sup>18</sup>Then certain philosophers, both Epicureans and Stoics, encountered him. Some said, “What might this idea-scavenger<sup>d</sup> want to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities”—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup>So taking him in tow they led him to the Areopagus and said: “May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? <sup>20</sup>Because you are bringing some strange things to our ears, and we would like to know what they might mean.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>21</sup>(Now all Athenians and resident foreigners spent their time in nothing else but to tell, or else to hear, some novelty.)

Paul’s Areopagus address

<sup>22</sup>So standing in the middle of the Areopagus Paul said: “Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious; <sup>23</sup>because as I went along and scrutinized the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO UNKNOWN GOD. Now then, the one you worship as ‘unknown’, this is the One I proclaim to you: <sup>24</sup>The God who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples built by hands,

---

<sup>a</sup> Of course this was not intended as a compliment, but I personally wouldn’t mind having this epithet/epitaph on my tombstone (if I ever have one).

<sup>b</sup> So I wonder why Paul wrote to the Thessalonians and not to the Bereans.

Consolidation of the Gentile Church

Corinth

18 <sup>1</sup>Now after these things Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>And encountering a certain Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome), he joined them; <sup>3</sup>and because he practiced the same trade, he stayed on with them and worked (their trade was tentmaker).<sup>l</sup> <sup>4</sup>Every Sabbath in the synagogue he would reason with both Jews and Greeks, trying to persuade them.

<sup>a</sup> I would say that Paul illustrates the best strategy to use with an audience that has no biblical background—start with the Sovereign Creator. Note that Paul affirms that everyone owes his life to Him.

<sup>b</sup> Modern medicine has discovered this to be true; blood transfusions across racial boundaries are perfectly possible. So how could Paul have known that 2,000 years ago? Some 4.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit 'blood' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> Here is a fundamental truth, whether people recognize it or not. All God has to do is deprive you of oxygen for a few minutes and you die. See Job 12:10.

<sup>g</sup> If we are God's offspring He must have all the capabilities we have, only bigger and better; and we are not metal or stone.

<sup>h</sup> The resurrection of Jesus is central to our Faith for several reasons. Here Paul says it guarantees that we will be judged, righteously.

The house of Justus becomes the base

<sup>7</sup>So he moved from there into the house of a man named Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>Then Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household; and as they were hearing, many of the Corinthians were believing and being baptized. <sup>9</sup>Now the Lord said to Paul by a vision at night: “Do not be afraid; rather speak and do not keep silent, <sup>10</sup>because I am with you and no one will attack you to harm you,<sup>d</sup> because I have many people in this city.” <sup>11</sup>So he stayed on for a year and six months, teaching the Word of God among them.<sup>e</sup>

Gallio

<sup>12</sup>Now while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat, <sup>13</sup>saying, “This fellow persuades the people to worship God contrary to the law.” <sup>14</sup>But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews: “If there really was some misdeed or wicked crime, O Jews, there would be reason for me to bear with you; <sup>15</sup>but since it is an issue over a word and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; because I refuse to be a judge of such matters.” <sup>16</sup>And he drove them from the judgment seat. <sup>17</sup>Then all the Greeks<sup>f</sup> took Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue,<sup>g</sup> and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But none of this was a delay to Gallio.<sup>h</sup>

To Ephesus and Antioch

<sup>18</sup>Paul still remained there a good while, then took leave of the brothers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila (he had shaved his head in Cenchrea, because he had a vow).<sup>i</sup> <sup>19</sup>He came to Ephesus and left them there (after having entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews). <sup>20</sup>When they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent; <sup>21</sup>rather he took

---

<sup>a</sup> Instead of ‘Spirit’, some 6% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘word’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.)

<sup>b</sup> Paul could now turn physical details over to Silas and Timothy (who evidently did not get to Athens before Paul left there) and concentrate on the spiritual. The Holy Spirit has him really bear down on the Jews, obliging them to make a choice. Paul then turned his full attention to the Gentile population.

<sup>c</sup> The idea was presumably to get rid of any dust; this was far less serious than shaking the dust off the feet, but he was clearly severing ‘diplomatic relations’ with them.

leave of them saying, “I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem;<sup>a</sup> but I will return again to you, God willing.”<sup>b</sup> Then he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>When he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up and greeted the church [in Jerusalem],<sup>c</sup> he returned to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>After spending some time there, he departed and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

Apollos

<sup>24</sup>Now a certain Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, an eloquent man, mighty in the Scriptures, arrived in Ephesus. <sup>25</sup>This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the Spirit he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus,<sup>d</sup> although he knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>27</sup>When he decided to go across into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to receive him;<sup>e</sup> upon arriving he was a great help to those who had believed through the Grace; <sup>28</sup>because he kept refuting the Jews vigorously, publicly, demonstrating Jesus to be the Christ, from the Scriptures.<sup>f</sup>

Back to Ephesus

19 <sup>1</sup>Now it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus.

Disciples of John

And finding certain disciples <sup>2</sup>he said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” So they said to him, “But we have not so much as heard that there is a Holy Spirit!” <sup>3</sup>So he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” So they said, “Into John’s baptism.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>So Paul said, “John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe into the One who would come after him, that is, into Jesus, the Christ.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>5</sup>So upon hearing this they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>And as Paul laid his hands on them the Holy Spirit came upon them,<sup>i</sup> and they started speaking languages and prophesying. <sup>7</sup>There were about twelve men in all.

---

<sup>b</sup> In fact, God did will it.

<sup>c</sup> Because Jerusalem was at a higher elevation than most of the rest of the country, travel to and from there is almost always described as ‘up to’ and ‘down from’.

The school of Tyrannus becomes the base

<sup>8</sup>During three months Paul kept going to the synagogue and speaking boldly, reasoning and persuading concerning the things of the Kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But when some became hardened and disobedient, maligning the Way before the crowd, he withdrew from them and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of a certain Tyrannus.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>Now this continued for two years, so that all who lived in Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the Word of the Lord Jesus.<sup>b</sup>

Some fake exorcists

<sup>13</sup>Well some among the itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had wicked spirits saying, “We adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches.” <sup>14</sup>In fact there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who were doing this. <sup>15</sup>But a particular wicked spirit reacted and said, “Jesus I know, and I am acquainted with Paul, but who are you?” <sup>16</sup>And the man in whom the wicked spirit was jumped on them and overpowered them; he was so much stronger that they ran out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>Now this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was being exalted.

<sup>21</sup>Now after these things were accomplished, Paul resolved in his spirit to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>22</sup>So he sent two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, on to Macedonia, while he himself stayed on in Asia for a time.

Demetrius

<sup>23</sup>Now it was during that time that a serious disturbance concerning the Way occurred. <sup>24</sup>A certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, habitually brought in plenty of business for the artisans; <sup>25</sup>he called them together, along with the workmen in related trades, and said: “Men, you know that our prosperity depends on this trade. <sup>26</sup>And you observe and hear that not only in Ephesus but throughout almost all Asia this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that hand-made things are not gods. <sup>27</sup>So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute,<sup>f</sup> but also the tem-

---

<sup>a</sup> Paul had already done this sort of thing in Corinth; it was a good strategy.

<sup>d</sup> When people start doing this, you know their faith is real, and to do it in public would really have an impact on the populace (that was a lot of money!).

ple of the great goddess Artemis may be discredited, and even her own majesty be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worship.”

<sup>28</sup>Now upon hearing this they were filled with anger and began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” <sup>29</sup>So the whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed into the theater with one accord (they had seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul’s traveling companions). <sup>30</sup>When Paul wanted to go in to the people, the disciples would not let him. <sup>31</sup>Even some of the officials of Asia, being his friends, sent word to him and urged him not to venture into the theater.<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>The assembly was in confusion: some were shouting one thing and some another; most of them did not know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup>Then the Jews pushed Alexander forward,<sup>b</sup> out from the crowd. So Alexander motioned with his hand and would have made a defense to the people. <sup>34</sup>But when they realized he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours,<sup>c</sup> “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup>When the city clerk had quieted the crowd, he said: “Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess Artemis and of what fell from Zeus?<sup>d</sup> <sup>36</sup>Therefore, since these things are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and not do anything rash. <sup>37</sup>You have arrested these men who are neither temple thieves nor blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>38</sup>Now if Demetrius and his fellow artisans have a complaint against anyone, courts are available, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you want to debate any other matter, it will be settled in the legal assembly. <sup>40</sup>Indeed, we are in danger of being charged with a riot, because of today, there being no reason at all that we can give to account for this commotion.” <sup>41</sup>And having said these things he dismissed the assembly.

Paul makes his own plans

Greece

20 <sup>1</sup>Now after the uproar had ended, Paul summoned the disciples, took leave of them, and set out for Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>When he had gone through those parts and encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. <sup>3</sup>When he had stayed three months, as he was about to set sail for Syria, the Jews made a plot against him, so he decided to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>Now Sopater of Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, Gaius of Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia were going to accompany him as far as Asia;<sup>e</sup> <sup>5</sup>so having gone on ahead, these men were waiting for us<sup>f</sup> in Troas. <sup>6</sup>But it was after the Days of Unleavened Bread that we sailed from Philippi, and in five days we joined them at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>a</sup> After two years of fruitful ministry, some of the city officials would have converted, or at least appreciate the healing and deliverance he had brought.

<sup>c</sup> How could their voices last for two hours? And what animated them to keep on going for so long? I suspect there was a little demonic participation.

<sup>f</sup> At this point Luke joins Paul again, and will stay with him until he gets to Rome, several years later.

Troas

<sup>13</sup>As for us, we went to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there—so it had been arranged, he himself intending to go on foot.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>When he met us at Assos we took him aboard and went on to Mityline. <sup>15</sup>Sailing from there, the next day we arrived opposite Chios, and the day after we crossed over to Samos and stopped in Trogylium;<sup>e</sup> the following day we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>(Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, to avoid being detained in Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost, if he possibly could.)

Miletus

<sup>17</sup>From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and summoned the elders of the congregation.<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>So when they had come to him he said to them: “You yourselves know, from the first day that I arrived in Asia, how I lived the whole time I was with you, <sup>19</sup>serving the Lord with all humility, and with many tears and trials, the ones that happened to me by the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup>solemnly proclaiming to both Jews and Greeks the repentance toward God and the faith into our Lord Jesus.<sup>g</sup> <sup>22</sup>Now then, I am going to Jerusalem bound in my spirit,<sup>h</sup> not knowing the things that will happen to me there, <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit keeps warning me in every city, saying that fetters and afflictions are just waiting for me. <sup>24</sup>However none of this moves me, nor do I regard my life as valuable to myself,<sup>i</sup> just so that I may complete my course with joy,<sup>a</sup> ev-

---

<sup>c</sup> One gets the impression that Paul simply imposed his will on the local congregation (he had already taken the bit in his teeth and was doing things his own way). They let him do it, but were probably relieved when he left. Apparently they walked Eutychus back to his home.

<sup>e</sup> Samos is an island, so Trogylium was presumably a settlement on that island (though we are no longer sure just where it was). Some 6% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘and stopped in Trogylium’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> The distance was some 30 miles, as the crow flies, and the elders had not received advance warning, so at least two days would have elapsed before they arrived (even if the messenger ran, the elders would not).

<sup>h</sup> This was his own spirit, not the Holy Spirit, as the next verse makes clear. I have a hard time trying to understand what happened to Paul. The Holy Spirit kept telling him not to go to Jerusalem, but he is bound and determined to go anyway, only to spend years of his life in chains. Why did he do it?

<sup>i</sup> Paul’s statement is a non sequitur. When the Holy Spirit gives repeated warnings, He is telling us to STOP!

en the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to solemnly proclaim the Good News of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“Furthermore, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the Kingdom of God<sup>b</sup> will ever see my face again.<sup>c</sup> <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all; <sup>27</sup>because I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>So take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has placed you as overseers, to shepherd the congregation of the Lord and God<sup>e</sup> which He purchased with His own blood. <sup>29</sup>Because I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Yes, men will rise up from among you yourselves, speaking distorted things, to draw away the disciples after them.<sup>f</sup> <sup>31</sup>Therefore be alert, remembering that during three years, night and day,<sup>g</sup> I never stopped admonishing each one, with tears.

<sup>32</sup>“And so now, brothers, I entrust you to God and to the Word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all those who have been sanctified.<sup>h</sup> <sup>33</sup>I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing. <sup>34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands have supplied my own needs, and of those who were with me.<sup>i</sup> <sup>35</sup>In every way I showed you that working hard like this it is necessary to help the weak, and to remember the word of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>36</sup>When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>Then they all wept freely, and falling on Paul’s neck kept kissing him, <sup>38</sup>sorrowing most of all because of the word that he had spoken, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Paul is warned—again

21 <sup>1</sup>So after disengaging ourselves from them we were able to set sail, and running a straight course we came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup>We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, went on board and set sail. <sup>3</sup>When we had sighted Cyprus we passed it on the left, sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, because it was there that the ship was to unload the cargo. <sup>4</sup>Upon finding disciples we stayed there seven days; these, through the

<sup>e</sup> The sheep belong to the Lord, not to the elders. Some 7% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘the Lord and’, as in most versions. “The Lord and God” refers to Jesus.

<sup>h</sup> Yes. When we receive God’s Word as having objective authority over us, and interpret it honestly under the Holy Spirit’s direction (without preconceived doctrinal ‘packages’), we will indeed grow in understanding and sanctification.

<sup>i</sup> He did receive offerings from time to time, but material gain was never an objective.

Spirit, told Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>But when our time was up, as we left to go on our way, they all, including women and children,<sup>b</sup> accompanied us out of the city, and kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. <sup>6</sup>After we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship and they returned to their homes.

<sup>7</sup>Now upon arriving in Ptolemais, the voyage from Tyre ended; so greeting the brothers we stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup>Leaving the next day, we<sup>c</sup> came to Caesarea; and entering the house of Philip the evangelist (being of ‘the Seven’), we stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>(This man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.)<sup>d</sup>

Agabus, again

<sup>10</sup>Now as we stayed there a number of days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup>Joining us he took Paul’s belt, bound his feet and hands, and said, “Thus says the Holy Spirit: ‘In this way, in Jerusalem, the Jews will bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.’” <sup>12</sup>Well, when we heard these things, both we and the local residents, we kept pleading with him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>But Paul answered: “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die<sup>e</sup> in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.” <sup>14</sup>When he would not be dissuaded, we stopped, saying, “Let the will of the Lord be done.”<sup>f</sup>

Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>So after those days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to a certain Mnason, of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge. <sup>17</sup>And when we arrived in Jerusalem the brothers received us gladly. <sup>18</sup>The next day Paul, with us, went to see James, and all the elders were present.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>After greeting them he reported one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Paul submits to a false agenda

<sup>20</sup>But after listening they ‘glorified’ the Lord<sup>h</sup> by saying to him:<sup>i</sup> “You see, brother, how many tens of thousands are the Jews who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law; <sup>21</sup>but they have been informed about you that you

<sup>b</sup> Luke makes a point of recording that even the children went along—interesting. Evidently those families actively involved their children in their practice of the Christian Faith. Now that is an excellent example!

<sup>c</sup> AV and NKJV have ‘we who were Paul’s companions’, based on some 13% of the Greek manuscripts. Some 46% have ‘those who were Paul’s companions’. I follow the best line of transmission, with some 39% here, in reading “we”.

<sup>d</sup> What does this information contribute to the account? Why are we told that they were virgins? Is it risky to marry a prophetess?

<sup>e</sup> His being willing to suffer and die was totally beside the point—God told him not to go!

<sup>f</sup> What else could they do, short of tying Paul up? However, they were asking the Lord to overrule.

<sup>h</sup> Instead of ‘the Lord’, some 30% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘God’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>i</sup> They listened politely, but had a different agenda. What follows is an obvious ‘put down’. There probably were not ‘tens of thousands’ of believing Jews, and if they were genuine followers of Jesus Christ, they should not have been so bound to Jewish customs. Besides ‘putting Paul in his place’ they were imposing a false legalism on him, to which he should not have capitulated. But he was disobeying God anyway, just by being there.

teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to our customs.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>What then? The assembly will certainly gather,<sup>b</sup> since they will hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>So do this that we say to you: There are four men with us who have taken a vow. <sup>24</sup>Take them and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that there is nothing to the things that they have been informed about you; rather that you yourself are in line, keeping the law. <sup>25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles who believe we have written, having judged that they need observe no such thing, except<sup>c</sup> that they should keep themselves from that offered to idols, from the blood, from anything strangled, and from fornication.”<sup>d</sup>

Paul arrested

<sup>26</sup>Then Paul took the men and purified himself with them; the next day he entered the temple to give notice of the completion of the days of purification, when the offering would be made for each one of them. <sup>27</sup>Now when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, having seen him in the temple, mobilized a whole crowd and seized him, <sup>28</sup>shouting: “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Not only that, he has even brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place!” <sup>29</sup>(They had seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.)

<sup>30</sup>The whole city was aroused and a mob of people formed. So having seized Paul they dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>As they were trying to kill him,<sup>e</sup> news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down among them, and when they saw the commander and the soldiers they stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then the commander came up and took hold of him,<sup>f</sup> commanded that he be bound with two chains, and started inquiring who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>Well some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another; so when he could not ascertain the truth, because of the uproar, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks. <sup>35</sup>When he reached the stairs, he had

<sup>d</sup> What happened here was exceedingly serious: to James there were two classes of Christian, Jew and non-Jew. He still sees the Jew as superior to the Gentile, which is contrary to the doctrine of the Church as expounded in Paul’s letters, that we believe to be inspired. To James it was not enough for a Jew to believe into Jesus; he still had to obey the Law of Moses and the Jewish customs. This was evidently the prevailing view in Jerusalem and environs. Such a view actually represented rebellion against God. Then came judgment: Jerusalem was destroyed, which included its church, and the Aegean area became the heartland of the Church. For centuries Judea was no more than a backwater on the fringes of the Christian river.

to be carried by the soldiers, because of the violence of the mob.<sup>a</sup> <sup>36</sup>Because the crowd kept following and shouting, “Away with him!”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>37</sup>As Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, “May I speak to you?” So he said: “Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup>Aren’t you the Egyptian who some time ago started a revolt and led the four thousand men of ‘the Assassins’ out into the wilderness?” <sup>39</sup>But Paul said, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of a not insignificant city; but I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.” <sup>40</sup>So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned to the people with his hand. When there was a great silence, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, saying:

Paul addresses the mob

22 <sup>1</sup>“Men, brothers and fathers, listen to my defense before you now.” <sup>2</sup>When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet, and he said: <sup>3</sup>“I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated strictly according to the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, just as you all are today. <sup>4</sup>I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, <sup>5</sup>as also the high priest and all the council of elders can bear me witness. I even obtained letters from them to the brothers in Damascus, to bring those also who were there bound to Jerusalem to be punished. <sup>6</sup>Now it happened, as I was going and approaching Damascus, about noon, suddenly a strong light from heaven shone around me. <sup>7</sup>I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ <sup>8</sup>So I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Natsorean,<sup>c</sup> whom you are persecuting.’ <sup>9</sup>Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid,<sup>d</sup> but they did not understand the voice of the One speaking to me. <sup>10</sup>So I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told about all that has been appointed to you to do.’ <sup>11</sup>And since I could not see, because of the brightness of that light, I entered Damascus being led by the hand of those who were with me.<sup>e</sup> <sup>12</sup>Then a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus,<sup>f</sup> <sup>13</sup>came to me, and standing by me said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I looked up at him. <sup>14</sup>Then he said: ‘The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear words from His mouth.’<sup>g</sup> <sup>15</sup>For you shall be a witness for Him to all men of the things that you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And <sup>a</sup> But since they had really been trying to kill him, he was doubtless wounded and weak.

<sup>b</sup> But really, why should they be so stirred up? Presumably there was supernatural participation.

<sup>c</sup> The glorified Jesus did not say ‘Nazarene’, He said “Natsorean”; He presented Himself to Saul as the Messiah. For a fuller discussion, please see “The Natsorean” in the Appendix.

<sup>d</sup> Some 10% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘and were afraid’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> But they too had been in that light, so the blindness was a judgment applied specifically to Paul (Saul).

<sup>f</sup> Paul is establishing the credibility of Ananias as a witness, since he will attest that it was ‘the God of our fathers’ who was dealing with Paul (Saul). Some 25% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘in Damascus’, as in most versions.

<sup>g</sup> Jesus had identified Himself as ‘Jesus’ on the road, and was obviously supernatural. Here Ananias confirms that Saul saw the Messiah (‘the Natsorean’), and adds that all is under the Father’s direction. Saul was chosen to be a world-wide witness; indeed, through his letters he continues to be one!

now, why hesitate? Get up, be baptized and wash away your sins, invoking the name of the Lord.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>“Now it happened, when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I came to be in a trance <sup>18</sup>and saw Him saying to me,<sup>b</sup> ‘Hurry up and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive your testimony concerning me.’ <sup>19</sup>So I said: ‘Lord, they know that I used to imprison and beat those believing into you,<sup>c</sup> from one synagogue to another; <sup>20</sup>and when the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I myself was standing there and agreeing to his murder,<sup>d</sup> even guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.’ <sup>21</sup>And He said to me, ‘Get going, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

A Roman citizen

<sup>22</sup>Well they kept listening to him until this statement, and then they raised their voice and shouted, “Rid the earth of this fellow, for it isn’t fitting for him to live!” <sup>23</sup>As they were shouting, tearing off clothes and throwing dust into the air, <sup>24</sup>the commander ordered him to be taken into the barracks, directing that he be interrogated with lashes, in order to learn for what crime they kept shouting against him like that.<sup>e</sup> <sup>25</sup>But as they stretched him out with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, “Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?” <sup>26</sup>Well when the centurion heard that, he went and reported to the commander saying, “Consider<sup>f</sup> what you are about to do, because this man is a Roman!” <sup>27</sup>So the commander went and said to him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” So he said, “Yes.” <sup>28</sup>The commander replied, “I acquired this citizenship at considerable cost.”<sup>g</sup> And Paul said, “But I was so born.” <sup>29</sup>So those who were about to interrogate him withdrew immediately; and even the commander was apprehensive when he realized that he had put chains on a Roman.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> By invoking the Lord he was placing himself under His direction and protection, but was also believing into Him, which was what took care of his sins, not the baptism. There probably was not enough water in the house for a complete bath, in any case, so the baptism was by aspersion (as it was in the house of Cornelius, the house of the Philippian jailor, etc. etc.). Instead of ‘of the Lord’, some 6% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘his’ (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> This is the only record we have of this encounter. Perhaps Paul is reinforcing that his going to the Gentiles was at God’s insistence. I wonder if Luke wasn’t in that crowd, and close enough to hear what went on.

<sup>e</sup> Poor commander! He presumably did not understand Hebrew, so Paul’s speech meant nothing to him. But he saw that the mob listened quietly, and then suddenly erupted! He had already tried to get an answer from the mob, without success. He doubtless did not understand the Jewish mindset either, so by Roman logic Paul must have done something pretty awful to provoke such a violent reaction. So by proper Roman procedure, he orders a flogging.

<sup>h</sup> Perhaps the reference is to the ‘when’ and ‘how’ they were first used, since chains became part of Paul’s life.

<sup>30</sup>But the next day, desiring to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds<sup>a</sup> and ordered the chief priests and all their council to come, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 <sup>1</sup>Then Paul, looking intently at the council, said, “Men, brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.” <sup>2</sup>So the high priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike his mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him: “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall!<sup>b</sup> You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you command me to be struck contrary to the law!” <sup>4</sup>So those standing by said, “Do you reproach God’s high priest?” <sup>5</sup>Then Paul said, “I did not know, brothers, that he is high priest; for it is written: ‘Do not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Now when Paul perceived that one part were Pharisees and the other Sadducees,<sup>d</sup> he called out in the council, “Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of a Pharisee; I am being judged concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead!” <sup>7</sup>When he had said this, an argument started between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>(Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel or spirit, but Pharisees confess both.)<sup>f</sup> <sup>9</sup>There was a great clamor, and the scribes of the Pharisee party stood up and started arguing vigorously, saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man; but if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God!”<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>Well the dissension became such that the commander, fearing that Paul might be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and snatch him out of their midst and bring him into the barracks.

A plot exposed

<sup>11</sup>Now the following night the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, Paul, because as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>12</sup>And when it was day, some of the Jews formed a conspiracy by binding themselves with a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they had destroyed Paul.<sup>i</sup> <sup>13</sup>Now there were more than forty who formed this plot. <sup>14</sup>They came to the chief priests and the elders and said: “We have bound ourselves with a ter-

<sup>a</sup> Some 10% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘from the bonds’ (as in NIV and NASB).

<sup>b</sup> One is reminded of the Lord’s calling the Pharisees ‘whitewashed tombs’ (Matthew 23:27); what Paul said was probably not as bad, but definitely not a compliment!

<sup>c</sup> See Exodus 22:28. Ananias was presumably the true high priest, but someone else was probably the political ‘high priest’ that year, and the political one would be wearing the priestly attire; presumably that is why Paul did not recognize the real high priest. Note that he sort of apologizes, but he does not revoke the curse!

<sup>h</sup> Paul is in Jerusalem in disobedience against a clear divine prohibition, and things definitely are not going well. God appears to Paul and assures him that he will indeed get to Rome [although he is not going to enjoy the trip!].

<sup>i</sup> When the plot failed, they presumably did eat and drink and resume normal life, but I wonder if they suffered any consequences of the curse.

rible curse not to taste anything until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now you, therefore, together with the council, explain to the commander that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you are going to determine more accurately the facts in his case; but we are ready to destroy him before he comes near.”

<sup>16</sup>But when Paul’s sister’s son heard about the ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul. <sup>17</sup>So Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander, because he has something to tell him.” <sup>18</sup>So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.” <sup>19</sup>So taking him by the hand,<sup>a</sup> the commander went aside and asked privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?” <sup>20</sup>So he said: “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. <sup>21</sup>But you should not believe them, because more than forty of their men are lying in wait for him, who have bound themselves with a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have destroyed him; even now they are ready, looking for your promise.” <sup>22</sup>Then the commander dismissed the young man commanding, “Don’t tell anyone that you have revealed these things to me!”

Paul sent to Felix

Greetings.

<sup>27</sup>This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them; but I came with the troops and rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman.<sup>e</sup> <sup>28</sup>And wanting to know the reason they were accusing him, I took him down to their council. <sup>29</sup>I found that he was being accused about questions of their law, but there was no accusation worthy of death or bonds. <sup>30</sup>When I was told that the Jews<sup>f</sup> were about to execute a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, also directing his accusers to state the charges against him before you.

Farewell.”

---

<sup>c</sup> Earlier in the book, referring to the Jewish hour of prayer, Hebrew time is used, and on that basis this would be 9 p.m. But I find it scarcely credible that a Roman commander (not a Jew) addressing his troops (none of whom were Jews) would use Hebrew time; I would expect him to use Roman time, which would make it 3 a.m. (People would still be awake at 9 p.m., but not at 3 a.m.)

<sup>d</sup> Why more than one horse for Paul? Was he allowing for the chance that they might have to run for it? Well, the nature of the curse implied some level of desperation, and 40+ desperate men could cause unforeseen complications.

returned to the barracks.<sup>a</sup> <sup>33</sup>When they entered Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>34</sup>When the governor read it, he asked what province he was from; learning that it was Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers also arrive.” And he commanded him to be guarded in Herod’s Praetorium.<sup>b</sup>

Caesarea

Felix

24 <sup>1</sup>Now after five days the high priest Ananias went down with the elders and a certain orator, Tertullus, and they informed the governor against Paul.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>So when he had been called in, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: “Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and your foresight has brought prosperity to this nation, <sup>3</sup>we recognize this, most noble Felix, with full gratitude, always and everywhere. <sup>4</sup>But so as not to detain you unduly, I would request that you be kind enough to hear us briefly. <sup>5</sup>We have found this man to be a plague, a creator of discord among all the Jews throughout the world,<sup>d</sup> a ringleader of the Natsorean sect, <sup>6</sup>and he even tried to profane the temple; so we arrested him.<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>By ex-

<sup>e</sup> We have here a bothersome set of variants, and the only way to do justice to the situation is to give the evidence in Greek. Even those who do not read Greek can get some notion as to the high level of confusion. The translation of the addition (more or less) may be had from AV or NKJV.

1) (without the long addition)	ƒ <sup>35</sup> NA,B (58.9%) HF,RP,NU
2) - 36): 7 και κατα τον ημετερον νομον ηθελησαμεν κριναι παρελθον δε λυσιας ο χιλιарχος μετα πολλης βιας εκ την χειρων ημων αρηγαγεν κελευσας τους κατηγορους αυτου ερχεσθαι επι οε . The five principle variations hinge on the three underlined words; they are:
2) κριναι ... επι οε	(9.7%)	[6 variants]
8) κριναι ... επι σου	(10.5%)	[14 variants]
22) κριναι ... προς οε	(5.3%)	[8 variants]
30) κρινειν ... επι σου	(4.4%)	[4 variants]
34) κρινειν ... επι οε	(1.7%) OC,TR	[3 variants]
	[OC is in small print]
37) replaces απηγαγεν with five words, plus two other changes:
κριναι ... επι σου	(3.2%)	[2 variants]
39) completely rewrites the material:
κριναι ... προς οε	(3.4%) CP	[6 variants]
(eight further variants)	(2.9%)	[8 variants].

Variant 2) presumably has the best claim to be the standard form of the addition: κριναι clearly bests κρινειν, επι clearly bests προς, οε barely bests σου. [Although variant 8) appears to be slightly stronger than 2) numerically, the 14 internal variants, compared to 6, effectively diminish its credibility. The main variant in 2) is far stronger than that of 8).] It is also attested by syr and lat<sup>pt</sup>. However, although some form of the addition commands 41.1% of the MSS, there are no less than 51 variants!

What about the context? The addition makes good sense, and it fits nicely. But, it is not really necessary; that information Felix already knew. The text reads quite well without the addition also. I conclude that the short form was judged to be abrupt or incomplete, giving rise to the addition; presumably the Autograph did not contain it. Since Tertullus was an orator he may well have actually said what is in the addition, plus a good deal more besides, but did Luke write it? (The incidents recorded in Acts were well known by many contemporaries, and there were many written accounts in circulation [Luke amining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”

<sup>9</sup>And the Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup>When the governor had nodded to him to speak, Paul answered: “Knowing, as I do, that you have been an equitable<sup>a</sup> judge of this nation for many years, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, <sup>11</sup>because you can ascertain that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>12</sup>They did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd—not in the temple, not in the synagogues, not around the city. <sup>13</sup>Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup>But I do profess this to you, that according to the Way that they call a sect, that is how I worship the ancestral God, believing all things that stand written throughout the Law and the Prophets, <sup>15</sup>having hope in God, which these themselves also look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead,<sup>b</sup> both the just and unjust.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>And so I really apply myself to this, always having a clear conscience before both God and men. <sup>17</sup>Now after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, <sup>18</sup>in the midst of which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, with neither crowd nor confusion. <sup>19</sup>They are the ones that had to be here before you and make accusation, if they had anything against me.<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>Or let these themselves say what wrong they found in me, when I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup>unless it be for this one statement that I called out, standing among them, ‘Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today.’”

<sup>22</sup>Upon hearing these things Felix, having an accurate knowledge of the things concerning the Way, adjourned the proceedings and said, “When Lysias the commander comes down I will decide your case.” <sup>23</sup>And he ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody but have some freedom, and not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or to visit him.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Now after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith into Christ Jesus.<sup>f</sup> <sup>25</sup>But as he expounded on righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became afraid and answered, “Go away for now; when I have occasion I will summon you.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>26</sup>At the same time he was also hoping that Paul would give him

1:1], so it was entirely predictable that a variety of historically correct material would be added, here and there, to Luke’s account.)

The external evidence, though divided, is adequate to resolve this case: 58.9% against a severely fragmented 41.1%. The ancient versions, being divided, do not help us much this time. Although 59% is not a strong majority, by any means, still, the severe fragmentation of the 41% sort of leaves variant 1) without a worthy opponent. Variant 1) wins in “Antiquity”, “Number”, “Variety” and “Continuity”, so I have no doubt that it is original. [The reading of the TR, variant 34), really has little to commend it.]

<sup>b</sup> Some 6.6% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘of the dead’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> Both Lysias and Felix knew that Paul was not really guilty; and the Jews had figured out that they were not going to get what they wanted from either of them. Felix should have released Paul, but it was not part of the Plan.

<sup>f</sup> Some 45% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘Jesus’, as in AV and NKJV.

money, that he might release him; so he frequently summoned and conversed with him.

<sup>27</sup>But after two years, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; so Felix, wanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul in prison.<sup>a</sup>

Festus

25 <sup>1</sup>Now upon assuming the province, after three days Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then the chief priests<sup>b</sup> and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul and started importuning him, <sup>3</sup>begging a favor from him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—preparing an ambush to kill him along the way.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>However Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, he himself being about to go there shortly. <sup>5</sup>He said, “So let those who are competent among you go down with me; if there is anything against this man, let them accuse him.” <sup>6</sup>When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea; the next day he sat on the judgment seat and commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup>When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem made a circle,<sup>d</sup> bringing against Paul many serious charges that they could not prove, <sup>8</sup>while he defended himself, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar did I commit any sin.” <sup>9</sup>But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor,<sup>e</sup> answered Paul by saying, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be judged by me there concerning these things?” <sup>10</sup>So Paul said: “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as even you know very well.<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now if I really am in the wrong and have perpetrated anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if there is nothing to the things of which these are accusing me, no one has the right to give me to them.<sup>g</sup> I appeal to Caesar!” <sup>12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with his counsel, answered: “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go!”<sup>h</sup>

Agrippa

---

<sup>d</sup> This was presumably a tactic to intimidate, and to form a decent circle would require a number of people. Paul was not impressed, but Festus may have been.

<sup>e</sup> I wonder if those Jews had been involved in the decision to replace Felix (who didn’t play ball with them) with Festus. If so, and if Festus was aware that he owed them a favor, that would account for his attitude here.

<sup>f</sup> Paul could tell that Festus was not on the ‘up and up’.

<sup>h</sup> I suspect that this took Festus by surprise; and it put him in a bad light—on what basis is he going to send an innocent man to the Emperor? Presumably he could have just released Paul, but that would have turned the Jews against him. And then there was the Plan.

answered that it is not a custom with Romans to deliver any man to destruction<sup>a</sup> before the accused has his accusers face to face and has opportunity for defense against the accusation.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>So when they had assembled here, without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought. <sup>18</sup>When the accusers stood up, they brought no charge against him of such things as I supposed, <sup>19</sup>but had certain issues against him about their religion, and about a certain dead Jesus whom Paul affirmed to be living. <sup>20</sup>And since I was at a loss how to investigate such matters,<sup>c</sup> I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be judged there concerning these things. <sup>21</sup>But when Paul appealed to be reserved for the decision of the Emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I can send him to Caesar.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I myself would also like to hear the man.” So he said, “Tomorrow you shall hear him.” <sup>23</sup>So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp and entered the auditorium, with the commanding officers and the more prominent men of the city, at Festus’ command Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup>And Festus said: “King Agrippa, and all you men who are here with us: consider this man,<sup>d</sup> about whom the whole Jewish community petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, vociferating that it was not fitting for him to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death,<sup>e</sup> besides he himself having appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him. <sup>26</sup>But I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup>Because it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him.”<sup>f</sup>

Paul’s defense

26 <sup>1</sup>Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You have permission to speak for yourself.” So Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: <sup>2</sup>“I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, in that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning the things of which I am accused by the Jews, <sup>3</sup>especially because you are expert in all the Jewish customs and issues; therefore I beg you to hear me patiently. <sup>4</sup>Really, the Jews all know my way of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation in Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>since they have known me for a long time, if they were willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup>And now I stand here being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, <sup>7</sup>to which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. It is because of this hope that I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa. <sup>8</sup>Why should any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Some 7.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘to destruction’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

How he persecuted Christians

<sup>9</sup>“However, I myself thought that I had to perpetrate many things in opposition to the name of Jesus the Natsorean; <sup>10</sup>I actually did this in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup>Yes, I punished them often in every synagogue, trying to force them to blaspheme; I was so excessively enraged against them that I persecuted them even to foreign cities.<sup>a</sup>

How Jesus chose him

<sup>c</sup> Of specific interest to us here is the missionary commission that Paul (he was still Saul) received. Matthew 28:19, Mark 16:15, John 20:21 and Acts 1:8 took place between the resurrection and the ascension, but to commission Paul Jesus returned from Heaven! One other detail deserves special notice—the responsibility that Paul received was primarily concerned with the ethnic nations (“Gentiles” is a translation of the same word that in Matthew 28:19 is rendered “nations”). For these reasons it seems to me that this missionary commission takes on a special importance for us, and the more so for whoever is going to do transcultural work. So let us consider this commission in more detail.

Paul is sent to the nations (defined ethnically), “to open their eyes so as to bring them back from darkness into light and from the authority of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified, by faith in Me.”

I rendered the second verb as ‘bring back’ rather than ‘turn’ or ‘convert’ because I take that to be the correct nuance of the Text. It gives the impression that someone is in the wrong place or situation and needs to be brought to the correct one. And now for the main point: the purpose clause introduced by the conjunction ‘that’ is subordinated to the verbal phrase dominated by the verb “bring back”. In other words, before someone can receive forgiveness of sins, even, he must be freed from the power of Satan! Before a person can be saved someone must do something about Satan’s influence upon him.

The Lord Jesus had already said the same thing in different words during His earthly ministry. We find it in Mark 3:27. “No one can plunder the strong man’s goods, invading his house, unless he first bind the strong man; then he may plunder his house.” I have used the definite article with the first occurrence of ‘strong man’ because the Greek text has it, the point being that this particular strong man has already been introduced in the immediate context. “The strong man” here is Satan. (The Jewish leaders tried to explain Jesus’ authority over the demons by saying that He expelled them by the power of Beelzebul, prince of the demons. In His retort Jesus does not waste time with that name but uses the enemy’s proper name, Satan.)

So then, the Lord Jesus declares that it is impossible to steal Satan’s goods unless we bind him first. (From His use of ‘no one’ it seems clear that the Lord is enunciating a general principle or truth.) And what might the nature of those ‘goods’ be? In the context (see Matthew 12:22-24) Jesus had delivered someone from a demon that caused blindness and dumbness, and in their comments the scribes and vision <sup>20</sup>—first to those in Damascus and Jerusalem, then to all the region of Judea and to the ethnic nations, I still preach: ‘repent and turn back to God, doing works worthy of repentance.’ <sup>21</sup>That is why the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup>So then, having experienced the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying to both small and great, saying nothing beyond what both the prophets and Moses said would happen <sup>23</sup>—that the Messiah would suffer; that as the first to rise from the dead<sup>a</sup> He would proclaim light to both ‘the people’ and the ethnic nations.”<sup>b</sup>

Festus interrupts

<sup>24</sup>Well as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice: “Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>So he said: “I am not crazy, most excellent Festus; rather I pronounce words of truth and reasonableness. <sup>26</sup>For the king knows about these things, before whom I speak freely; for I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, since it was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>So Agrippa said to Paul, “You will soon persuade me to become a Christian!” <sup>29</sup>So Paul said, “Whether sooner or later, I would to God that not only you but also all who are hearing me this day may become such as I am, except for these chains.”

<sup>30</sup>Upon his saying this, the king stood up, along with the governor and Bernice and those sitting with them; <sup>31</sup>and when they had withdrawn they started talking among themselves, saying, “This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.” <sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar.”<sup>e</sup>

Pharisees include other instances where Jesus had expelled demons—it seems clear that the ‘goods’ are people who are subject to Satan’s power, in one way or another. Thus we have the same essential truth as that declared in Acts 26:18—we have to do something about Satan’s power over a person so that he or she can be saved! But what does Satan do to people that makes it necessary to ‘bind’ him?

We find the answer in 2 Corinthians 4:4. Let’s begin with verse 3. “If our gospel is veiled it is veiled to them who are perishing, in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers so that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not shine in them.” The Text clearly states that Satan, ‘the god of this world’, is in the business of blinding the minds of unbelievers when they hear the Gospel, so they will not understand, so they will not be convicted, so they will not repent and convert. This is a terrible truth. The enemy has access to our minds, access in the sense that he has the power or ability to invade them, whether by introducing thoughts or by jamming our reasoning. The Lord Jesus had already declared this truth previously, when He explained the parable of the sower. “These are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown; but, as soon as they hear it Satan comes and takes away the word that was planted in their hearts” (Mark 4:15). In the parallel passage in Luke 8:12 Jesus adds the following words: “lest they believe and be saved”. Note that the Word is already in the mind or heart of the person, but then Satan comes, invades the mind and ‘takes away’ that word. I am not sure just how this intrusion by the enemy works, perhaps he causes a mental block of some sort, but the practical effect is that the Word becomes ineffective, as if the person had not even heard it.

It seems obvious to me that whoever does not take this truth into account will be condemning himself to produce little effect in the spiritual realm, to work hard and achieve little.

<sup>b</sup> How did Jesus do this after His resurrection? Presumably He did it, and continues to do so, through His followers.

<sup>c</sup> Festus is not happy. Paul is talking to Agrippa, not to him. As a ‘son of the disobedience’ (Ephesians 2:2) he was open to demonic interference, and Satan does not like the resurrection. So Paul’s mention of Jesus’ resurrection is Festus’ clue to interrupt, which he does in rather insulting terms.

27 <sup>1</sup>Now when it was decided that we<sup>a</sup> should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the imperial cohort. <sup>2</sup>So we embarked in a ship of Atramyntium, being about to sail to points along the Asian coast, and we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. <sup>3</sup>The next day we landed at Sidon; Julius treated Paul kindly and permitted him to go to his friends and receive care. <sup>4</sup>Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>And when we had sailed across the sea that is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board. <sup>7</sup>When we had sailed slowly many days and scarcely arrived opposite Cnidus, the wind did not allow us to go forward, so we sailed for the lee of Crete<sup>b</sup> by way of Salmone; <sup>8</sup>sailing along it with difficulty we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

A difference of opinion

<sup>9</sup>Much time had been lost and sailing was already dangerous, because even the Fast had already taken place; Paul repeatedly warned them <sup>10</sup>saying, “Men, I perceive that the voyage is about to be with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but even of our lives.” <sup>11</sup>But the centurion<sup>c</sup> was persuaded by the pilot and ship owner rather than by what Paul said. <sup>12</sup>And since the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised sailing on, to see if they could get to Phoenix in order to winter, it being a harbor of Crete facing southwest and northwest.<sup>d</sup>

The storm

<sup>13</sup>So when the south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. <sup>14</sup>But not long after, a cyclonic wind blasted down from the land (it is called Euroclydon). <sup>15</sup>Well the ship was caught and could not head into the wind, so we gave up and were driven along.<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>Running under the lee of a small island called Claudia, we barely managed to secure the skiff; <sup>17</sup>when they had hoisted it aboard, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing that they might fall into the Syrtis,<sup>f</sup> they lowered the sea anchor and so were driven along. <sup>18</sup>We were being so violently battered by the storm that the next day they began to jettison things, <sup>19</sup>and on the third we threw off the ship’s tackle with our own hands. <sup>20</sup>When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and a major storm was still pounding us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

<sup>d</sup> I suppose the point to be that it was completely open to the west; there is such a spot on the present coastline of Crete, though the name ‘phoenix’ has disappeared.

<sup>e</sup> The blast of wind was sudden and they were too close to the shore to have much room to maneuver. To remain broadside to the wind was to be swamped, so they turned tail and the wind drove them out to the open Mediterranean. I imagine that a little supernatural activity was involved.

<sup>f</sup> By the time they finished undergirding the ship they were probably about a fifth of the way across the Mediterranean (the wind was driving them south, in a hurry). The Syrtis evidently referred to two shallow bays on the African coast that had shifting sand bars and liked to snare boats. The sea anchor was presumably dropped off the stern to provide drag and slow their progress.

<sup>21</sup>Now after long abstinence from food, Paul stood up in the midst of them and said: “Well men, it would have been better to take my advice and not sail from Crete, only to ‘gain’ this damage and loss.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>But now I urge you to take heart, because there will be no loss of life among you, only of the ship. <sup>23</sup>This night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve stood by me <sup>24</sup>and said: ‘Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. Furthermore, God has granted you all those who sail with you.’ <sup>25</sup>So take courage, men, because I believe in God that it will be just as it was told me. <sup>26</sup>Also, we must run aground on a certain island.”

<sup>33</sup>While the day was coming on, Paul started urging them all to receive food, saying: “Today is the fourteenth day of waiting—you continue without eating, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup>Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, because this is for our survival, since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you.” <sup>35</sup>Upon saying this he picked up some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all; then he broke it and began to eat. <sup>36</sup>So they all were encouraged and took food themselves. <sup>37</sup>(In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship.) <sup>38</sup>So when they had eaten enough, they started lightening the ship by throwing out the wheat into the sea.

<sup>39</sup>When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship, if possible. <sup>40</sup>Casting off the anchors they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes; and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. <sup>41</sup>But they fell into a place where two seas met and ran the vessel aground; the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the violence of the waves.

<sup>42</sup>Now the plan of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, stopped them from doing it and ordered those who could swim to jump in first and go toward the land, <sup>44</sup>followed by the rest, some on planks and some on things from the ship. And in this way they all escaped safely to the land.

Malta

28 <sup>1</sup>Following the rescue, they learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>Now the natives showed us unusual kindness, in that they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold. <sup>3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, because of the heat a viper came out and fastened itself on his hand. <sup>4</sup>So when the natives saw the beast hanging from his hand, they started saying to each other, “This man must be a murderer, whom Justice has not allowed to live, even though rescued from the sea.” <sup>5</sup>But he just shook the beast off into the fire and suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup>Well they were expecting him to swell up, or suddenly fall down dead; but after waiting for quite a while and seeing nothing unusual happening to him, they changed their mind and started saying he was a god.

<sup>a</sup> Paul's 'I told you so' is really quite bland, and is followed by good news.

<sup>7</sup>Now in that region there were properties belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and in a friendly manner took care of us for three days.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>Well it happened that the father of Publius was sick in bed with fever and dysentery; Paul went in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. <sup>9</sup>So, when this had happened, the rest of those on the island who had diseases started coming and being healed; <sup>10</sup>who also honored us in many ways, and when we put to sea they provided the necessary things.<sup>b</sup>

Rome

<sup>11</sup>Now after three months we put to sea in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered in the island, whose figurehead was ‘the Twin Brothers’. <sup>12</sup>We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days; <sup>13</sup>from there we tacked back and forth<sup>c</sup> and arrived at Rhegium. After one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, <sup>14</sup>where we found brothers who urged us to stay there seven days<sup>d</sup>—that was how we went toward Rome. <sup>15</sup>And the brothers there, when they heard about our circumstances, came out to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them he thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup>Now when we entered Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the commander;<sup>e</sup> but Paul was allowed to live by himself, with the soldier who guarded him.<sup>f</sup>

Paul and the Jews

<sup>17</sup>It happened that after three days Paul called together the leaders of the Jews; and when they had assembled he said to them: “Men, brothers, though I had done nothing against ‘the people’ or the ancestral customs, still I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup>who, when they had examined me, were intending to release me, because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death. <sup>19</sup>But when the Jews spoke against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>For this reason therefore I asked to see you and speak with you; it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain.” <sup>21</sup>So they said to him: “We have neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the bro-

<sup>a</sup> To feed 276 people for three days would be a considerable expense—and they were hungry!

<sup>b</sup> Paul proved to be a valuable person to have along, the more so since they were there for three months.

<sup>d</sup> The seven days gave them time to send news on ahead so there would be a welcoming committee at Three Inns. The centurion evidently cooperated.

<sup>e</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘the centurion delivered the prisoners to the commander’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> This was surely an unusual proceeding; I assume it was a privilege granted in recognition of services rendered.

thers who came reported or spoken any evil about you.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>But we desire to hear from you what you think; because as for this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere.”

<sup>23</sup>So arranging a day with him, even more people came to him at his lodging, to whom he kept expounding from morning until evening: solemnly testifying about the Kingdom of God and trying to convince them concerning Jesus, from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets. <sup>24</sup>Well some were persuaded by what had been said, and some kept refusing to believe.

<sup>25</sup>So being in disagreement among themselves they started to leave, after Paul had said this one word: “The Holy Spirit spoke correctly to our<sup>b</sup> fathers through Isaiah the prophet, <sup>26</sup>saying:

‘Go to this people and say,

“You will keep on hearing, but never understand;
you will keep on seeing, but never perceive”;

<sup>27</sup>because the heart of this people has become sluggish, and their ears are hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed;

in order that they not see with their eyes,

nor hear with their ears,

nor understand with their heart, nor turn back, so I could heal them.’<sup>c</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen!” <sup>29</sup>And when he had said these things the Jews went their way, having a great dispute among themselves.<sup>d</sup>

Two tranquil years

<sup>30</sup>Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to see him, <sup>31</sup>proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all boldness, without hindrance.<sup>e</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> When Paul appealed to Caesar, his enemies evidently gave up, knowing they did not have a valid case.

<sup>c</sup> See Isaiah 6:9-10. Here we have a chiastic structure: heart, ears, eyes; eyes, ears, heart.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit verse 29 entire (as in NIV, NASB and LB, but all three have a footnote saying that “some manuscripts” add the verse—their way of referring to 95%! Will not the uninformed reader be misled?).

<sup>e</sup> It has often been observed that the book seems to lack a proper conclusion. If we consider that the book is actually about God working through people, then of course that work has been in operation throughout the intervening centuries and continues in our day—even through us.

The Epistle of Paul to the ROMANS

Salutation

To Gentiles

Paul has been hindered from visiting Rome

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world.<sup>j</sup> <sup>9</sup>Further, the God whom I serve with my spirit<sup>k</sup> in the Gospel of His Son is my witness, how without ceasing I always remember you in my prayers, <sup>10</sup>begging that perhaps now, at last, I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you.<sup>l</sup> <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established <sup>12</sup>—that is, that I may be encouraged among you by our mutual faith,<sup>m</sup> both yours and mine.

<sup>a</sup> All human beings are slaves—we are born that way, live that way, die that way. As the Lord Jesus said, “whoever commits sin is a slave of sin... if the Son makes you free you will be free indeed” (John 8:34,36). Sovereign Jesus offers us a choice of owner: the only way to escape slavery to sin is to become a slave of Jesus Christ (and He will be doing us a favor—Jeremiah 10:23).

<sup>b</sup> Apostles are not ordained by man; they are designated by God, who has a reason for doing so. In the case of Paul, it was “to promote obedience of faith among all ethnic nations” (verse 5). Paul gives the signs of an apostle in 2 Corinthians 12:12. Please see “When is an apostle?” in the Appendix.

<sup>c</sup> The promise begins in Genesis 3:15, and reappears in passages like Genesis 12:3, 28:14, 2 Samuel 7:16, Isaiah 7:14 and 9:6-7. The “Holy Scriptures” here refer to the Old Testament.

<sup>e</sup> Since there is no article with ‘spirit’, I take it as a title, so all three persons of the Trinity are in this verse.

<sup>f</sup> A ‘mere’ human cannot decide to rise from the dead; Jesus had this authority, as He affirms in John 10:17-18—“My Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again. No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again.” The cross did not kill Jesus; He dismissed His spirit.

<sup>g</sup> One’s name represents his person—the obedience of faith is to be directed toward the person of Jesus Christ.

<sup>i</sup> Where ‘Lord’ occurs without the definite article, as here, I usually render ‘Sovereign’; with either ‘the’ or ‘our’ I usually render ‘Lord’. This text clearly presents the Father and the Son as distinct persons.

<sup>13</sup>I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you (but was hindered until now), in order that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among the rest of the Gentiles.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>I am a debtor<sup>b</sup> both to Greeks and to non-Greeks, both to wise and to foolish. <sup>15</sup>So, for my part, I am eager to preach the Gospel to you who are in Rome as well.

Faith

Unrighteousness

<sup>c</sup> Where did Paul get the idea of 'shame'? A world controlled by Satan does all it can to cow any who dare to proclaim the Truth. See Revelation 21:8, Matthew 10:23 and James 4:17.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit "of Christ", to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

<sup>e</sup> The Gospel is the power for the salvation. As the Lord Jesus said in John 14:6—"I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." There are not many ways, only one.

<sup>f</sup> See Habakkuk 2:4. To 'live by faith' you must move from one exercise of faith to another.

<sup>g</sup> To 'suppress the truth' is a deliberate act, an evil choice that invites God's wrath. According to 2 Thesalonians 2:10-11, to reject the love of the truth brings God's judgment. To hear a sermon about 'the love of God' is easy enough, but how many have you heard (or preached) about 'the wrath of God'? "God hates sin but loves the sinner" is standard fare, but consider Psalm 5:4-6—"For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, nor shall evil dwell with You. The boastful shall not stand in your sight; You hate all workers of iniquity. You shall destroy those who speak falsehood; the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man." This is not an isolated text; there are a fair number of others in the same vein. Someone who deliberately chooses to be and promote evil thereby makes God his enemy. In John 6:44 Sovereign Jesus said: "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him." Do you suppose that the Father will 'draw' someone He hates? Perhaps we should do more preaching on the wrath of God (although that will probably send people scurrying to other churches).

<sup>h</sup> All scientific experiment and true human knowledge is based on the principle of cause and effect—we observe an effect and try to isolate its cause. As a logical corollary, the cause must be as great or greater than the effect, otherwise it could not produce it. Any human being who is both honest and intelligent, confronted with the observable universe, with its incredible order and complexity, must conclude that there has to be a CAUSE who is both incredibly intelligent and powerful—to refuse to do so is perverse. Since we have personality, He must as well. So Paul's argument is precisely correct.

The science of physics tells us that the entire known universe, taking only what is inorganic (not part of any living system), can be described using up to 350 bits of information. To describe the smallest protein molecule (unable to live alone, but part of a living system) requires some 1,500 bits of information (the e-coli bacterium some 7 million; one human cell some 20 billion). Now just where could chance plus nothing find 1,150 bits of new information (to produce the simplest protein), if in the whole universe there was only 350? The evolutionary hypothesis as an explanation for the origin of life is ridiculously, stupidly impossible!

because, knowing God, they neither glorified Him as God nor gave thanks;<sup>a</sup> so their reasonings became worthless and their senseless hearts were darkened.<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup>Claiming to be wise, they became fools,<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup>and exchanged for themselves the glory of the incorruptible God for an image resembling a perishable man<sup>d</sup>—even birds and quadrupeds and reptiles!

---

The science of genetics, with its genome projects, has discovered that a change of just 3 nucleotides is usually fatal to the organism. The genetic difference between a human being and a chimpanzee (closest relative) is at least 1.6%—this represents a gap of some 48 million nucleotide differences. Since a random change of only 3 nucleotides is fatal to an animal, and a dead animal cannot reproduce, there is no possible way that a chimp could evolve into a human. Each individual species had to be assembled separately, just like Genesis says. The ‘geologic column’ is a fiction, since there are multistrate tree fossils. Symbiotic plants and insects could not possibly evolve. And so on. Please see “The theory of evolution is scientifically impossible” in the Appendix.

<sup>b</sup> When you deliberately turn out the light, you condemn yourself to grope about in darkness, and you cannot see what is attacking you. ‘Were darkened’ is in the passive voice, so the necessary question is, by what or by whom? Ephesians 2:2 refers to Satan as “the spirit who now works in the sons of the disobedience”. When someone rejects the Creator he also rejects His protection; by choosing to become a ‘son of the disobedience’, a person invites Satan into his mind, and Satan brings darkness.

I am reminded of our Lord’s words in Matthew 6:22-23. “The lamp of the body is the eye. So if your eye is sound your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is evil your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!” Of course we have two eyes, but the Text has “eye” in the singular. I take it that the reference is to the way we interpret what we see (which is our real ‘eye’)—two people, one pure and one vile, observing the same scene will give very different interpretations to it. “Evil” here has the idea of malignant—aggressively evil. Someone with a malignant mind will give an evil interpretation to everything he sees, and in consequence his being will be filled with unrelenting darkness. Cf. Titus 1:15 and 2 Thessalonians 2:10-11.

<sup>e</sup> Note that they turned their backs on God first; His giving them up was a consequence of their choice. All the evil in the world is a consequence of men’s evil choices—God should not be blamed. That said, however, any time a person chooses evil he invites Satan into his mind, and Satan will push the person toward ever lower levels of depravity. I believe that Hebrews 2:7 is relevant here: “You made him [man, verse 6] lower than the angels, for a little while” (quoting Psalm 8:5). The human being is superior to the angelic being in essence; we bear the Creator’s image and they do not, and once glorified that superiority will be obvious, but only for the redeemed. Those who serve Satan subordinate themselves to him, and thus can never rise above him. If Lucifer’s rebellion was provoked, as I suppose, by the creation of a being superior to himself, he is doing very well at getting his ‘revenge’, by depriving the vast majority of humanity of that superiority [and so Hebrews 2:8 would not apply to them].

Satan is now controlled by spite; he was demoted. Since he is unable to create, he gets his satisfaction by degrading and destroying. His greatest ‘pleasure’ must be to drag the image of the Creator through the mire, and for that purpose anal sex is just the ticket. Since it is a man’s seed that transmits the ‘image’ (see Hebrews 7:10 and Romans 5:12), anal sex mixes the image of God with feces—a monstrous insult! The practice of anal sex is the equivalent of spitting in the face of the Creator; it is an extremely serious offense (worse than a buck private spitting in the face of a four star general). So then, as soon as God removes His hand, Satan pushes men toward anal sex, thereby making it increasingly difficult for them to ever be saved (as verses 26-32 below make clear).

Depravity

Judgment

2 <sup>1</sup>Now then, you there, whoever you are who judges someone else for things you practice yourself—you condemn yourself and are inexcusable. <sup>2</sup>Further, we know that God's judgment against those who practice such things<sup>j</sup> is according to truth. <sup>3</sup>So then, you there, you who judge those who practice such things while doing the same, do you really imagine that you will escape God's judgment?<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>Or do you scorn the riches of His kindness, tolerance and longsuffering, not recognizing that the goodness of God is leading you toward repentance?<sup>l</sup> <sup>5</sup>Rather, due to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are treasuring up wrath for yourself in the day of God's wrath and revelation and righteous judgment,<sup>m</sup> <sup>6</sup>who will repay

---

<sup>a</sup> If God gives you up, you are in a bad way! Most people today live in cultures controlled by Satan; if they do not resist their culture, they have very little chance of salvation.

<sup>i</sup> Is this not a perfect picture of 'modern man'? (Of course things were at least that bad before the Flood.) Note "are deserving of death"; the verb is in the present tense, and Paul wrote this years after Pentecost, and consequently within the age of Grace. Through Moses the Creator articulated the death penalty for certain practices. Paul's use of 'are' indicates that the penalty has not been revoked or annulled.

<sup>k</sup> What sort of blindness could this be, for such a person to imagine that he will escape judgment?

each one according to his works:<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>to those who seek for glory, honor and incorruption, by persevering in doing good—eternal life;<sup>b</sup> <sup>8</sup>but to those who, due to self-seeking,<sup>c</sup> are actually disobeying the truth (while obeying the unrighteousness)—fury and wrath:<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>tribulation and anguish, upon every human soul who works at the evil,<sup>e</sup> whether Jew (first) or Greek; <sup>10</sup>but glory, honor and peace to everyone who works the good, whether Jew (first) or Greek.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Now there is no favoritism with God. <sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law; while as many as have sinned with law will be judged by law.<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>(indeed, whenever the ethnic nations that do not have law do by nature the things of the law, these, although not having law, are a law to themselves; <sup>15</sup>who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness,<sup>i</sup> and their reasonings among themselves accusing or even excusing) <sup>16</sup>in the day when God will judge people's secrets by Jesus Christ; all of which is part of my Gospel.<sup>j</sup>

To Jews

Law

<sup>17</sup>Look, you declare yourself a Jew, and rest on the Law, and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>and know the Will, and approve the superior things, being instructed out of the Law. <sup>19</sup>Further, you are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those in darkness, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and truth.<sup>k</sup> <sup>21</sup>You then, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal? <sup>22</sup>You who say not to commit adultery, do you adulterate? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup>You who boast in the Law, do you dishonor God

---

<sup>a</sup> See Psalm 62:12 and Proverbs 24:12. Each one of us must give an accounting, based on what we did (not on what we said we believed). It is also true that we will be judged for sins of omission.

<sup>c</sup> The essence of sin is self. It is our egocentricity that destroys us spiritually. All babies are self-centered, as they must be in order to survive physically in this world. But as they grow they need to be taught a better way.

<sup>d</sup> Here we have a chiasmic structure, ab:ba—verse 7 = a; verse 8 = b; verse 9 = b; verse 10 = a.

<sup>e</sup> I suppose that God is wrathful because of the damage that such people inflict upon others, at least in part.

<sup>g</sup> God is just, and His judgment takes into account the amount of light that a person had, but all will be judged. Our Lord's words in Luke 12:47-48 spell this out.

<sup>h</sup> Over and over the Text makes clear that we have to do.

<sup>j</sup> In John 5:22 the Lord Jesus stated plainly that the Father has committed all judgment to the Son, developing the theme in verses 23-29; see also Acts 17:31 and Revelation 19:15. That there are no 'secrets' unknown to God is made clear in passages like Psalm 139:1-16 and Hebrews 4:12-13. That the Day of God involves judging is clear in the O.T., but it is only from the N.T. that we learn of the role that Jesus will play in that judging.

through the transgression of the Law? <sup>24</sup>For, just as it is written: “The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”<sup>a</sup>

Circumcision

<sup>25</sup>Now circumcision does have value if you keep the Law, but if you are a transgressor of the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>So if the uncircumcised keeps the righteous requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? <sup>27</sup>Yes, the physically uncircumcised who fulfills the law will judge you, complete with written code and circumcision, who are a transgressor of the Law. <sup>28</sup>Because a person is not a [true] Jew who is only one outwardly, nor is [true] circumcision something outward in the flesh; <sup>29</sup>but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart—in spirit, not letter—whose praise is not from men but from God.<sup>b</sup>

Advantage

3 <sup>1</sup>So what advantage does the Jew have, or what is the profit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Much in every way!<sup>c</sup> First of all, because they were entrusted with the oracles of God.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>So, what if some were not faithful? Their unfaithfulness will not nullify God’s faithfulness, will it? <sup>4</sup>Of course not! Rather, let God be found true, but every man a liar; just as it is written:

“That you may be justified in your words, and may overcome when you are judged.”<sup>e</sup>

False arguments

<sup>5</sup>Now if our unrighteousness highlights God’s righteousness, what shall we say? God is not unrighteous for inflicting His wrath, is He (as someone might argue)? <sup>6</sup>Of course not! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>Or: if the truth of God abounded to His glory by my falsehood, just why am I still judged as a sinner?<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>Or (as some people slanderously claim that we are saying): “Let us do evil so that good may come”.<sup>g</sup> Their condemnation is well deserved!

All are under sin

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we any better? Not at all! For we have already charged both Jews and Greeks<sup>h</sup> that they are all under sin. <sup>10</sup>Just as it is written:

---

<sup>a</sup> See Isaiah 52:5 and Ezekiel 36:22. The problem of not practicing what one preaches has been around for quite a while.

<sup>b</sup> God looks on the heart. Those who worship Him must do so ‘in spirit and in truth’ (John 4:23-24). We do not choose who will procreate us, nor does a baby boy choose to be circumcised, so such factors cannot guarantee God’s acceptance.

<sup>c</sup> For a fuller list of the advantages, see Romans 9:4-5. To be born into a culture that has been blessed with God’s Light is certainly an advantage.

<sup>d</sup> Job was written by a pre-Jew, but all the rest of the Old Testament, which is what Paul is referring to, was written by Jews. For that matter, all the books of the New Testament were also written by Jews (with the possible exception of Luke). “The oracles of God” are God’s written Revelation to the human race.

<sup>e</sup> See Psalm 51:4. “If we are faithless, He remains faithful—He is incapable of denying Himself” (2 Timothy 2:13).

<sup>f</sup> If I choose falsehood, it is an evil choice, and I deserve to be punished, quite apart from any highlighting of God’s righteousness. Any ‘highlighting’ does not alter the nature of my choice.

<sup>g</sup> Such an argument does not follow, because all evil has consequences in this life and in this world, and any eventual ‘good’ does not undo those consequences, and neither does it compensate for them.

“No one is righteous, not even one;
<sup>11</sup>there is no one who understands, no one who seeks God.
<sup>12</sup>All have turned aside, together they have been made useless;
 there is no one who shows kindness, no, not so much as one.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>“Their throat is an opened grave; they habitually deceive with their tongues.”<sup>b</sup>
<sup>14</sup>“whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”<sup>d</sup>
<sup>16</sup>ruin and wretchedness are in their paths,
<sup>17</sup>and the way of peace they have not known.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world become accountable to God. <sup>20</sup>It follows that no flesh will be justified in His sight by the works of the law, because through the law comes the real knowledge of sin.<sup>g</sup>

Righteousness by faith

<sup>21</sup>But now, apart from law, a righteousness from God has been revealed, being attested by the Law and the Prophets, <sup>22</sup>namely, a righteousness from God through faith in Jesus Christ, into all and upon all<sup>h</sup> those who believe. There is no difference: <sup>23</sup>all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,<sup>i</sup> <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup>whom God has openly made available as a propitiation through the faith in His blood, to demonstrate His righteousness because of the passing over, in God’s forbearance, of the previously committed sins;<sup>j</sup> <sup>26</sup>to demonstrate His righteousness at this pres-

<sup>f</sup> See Psalm 36:1. The picture painted in verses 10-18 is not pretty! The description includes both Jews and Gentiles. Since the Creator is the only one who is competent to dictate moral values, someone who denies His authority (or worse, His existence) will not be bound by such values. We have already commented on what Satan does with a ‘son of the disobedience’; the result is ‘ruin and wretchedness’. Why would any sane person want that?

<sup>g</sup> The final accounting is based on our works, what we did—but no one will be justified on that basis. Our justification comes through the shed blood of God’s Lamb.

<sup>h</sup> That righteousness is available to all, but is only applied to those who believe. Perhaps 7% of the Greek MSS omit “and upon all”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding (it is an easy case of ‘similar ending’—the eye of the copyist skipped from one ‘all’ to the next).

<sup>i</sup> What do you think ‘the glory of God’ refers to? In this context it can scarcely be brilliance or effulgence. I suggest that God’s true glory is what He Himself is, His essence—truth, holiness, justice, love, among others. Although pristine Adam presumably reflected that essence quite well, the Fall resulted in a barrier that man cannot cross, apart from divine assistance. I suspect that modern man is but a poor reflection of what pristine Adam once was (due to accumulated congenital weaknesses). Alas, we fall far short!

<sup>j</sup> “Without the shedding of blood there is no remission” (Hebrews 9:22). “When I see the blood, I will pass over you” (Exodus 12:13, 22-23). “Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29). 1 Peter 1:18-20 states that the Lamb, with His blood shed, was so foreknown before the foundaent time, so as to be just, Himself, and the justifier of him who is of the Faith of Jesus.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law, that of works? No, but by a law of faith. <sup>28</sup>Therefore we conclude that a person is justified by faith apart from works of law. <sup>29</sup>Or is God for Jews only? Is He not also for Gentiles? Yes, also for Gentiles, <sup>30</sup>since indeed there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through the Faith.<sup>b</sup> <sup>31</sup>Do we then nullify law through the Faith? Of course not! Rather, we uphold law.<sup>c</sup>

Abraham

4 <sup>1</sup>What then shall we say that our father Abraham discovered, as a man? <sup>2</sup>If Abraham was really justified by works, he has a boast—but not before God. <sup>3</sup>So what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Now to him who works, the pay is not counted as a gift but as an obligation. <sup>5</sup>But to him who does not work<sup>e</sup> but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>Just as David speaks of the blessing of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

and whose sins have been covered up.

Before circumcision

<sup>9</sup>Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? Since we say that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness, <sup>10</sup>how then was it credited? After he was circumcised or while still uncircumcised? Not circumcised, but uncircumcised! <sup>11</sup>And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness from his faith while still uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all those who believe while uncircumcised, in order that this righteousness may be credited to them also,<sup>g</sup> <sup>12</sup>and the father of the circumcised—not only those who are circumcised, but especially those who follow in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham while still uncircumcised.<sup>h</sup> tion of the world. All the animal blood shed in the Old Testament only covered sin; it did not pay for it. All those sacrifices looked forward to Christ's perfect sacrifice. But all of that was only validated by the death of God's Lamb. So as verse 25 here states, the true propitiation is now available “through the faith in His blood”. This propitiation also benefits the Old Testament saints.

<sup>a</sup> I take the reference to be to the Faith that revolves around the person and work of Jesus.

<sup>g</sup> We non-Jews may wonder why Paul is spending so much time on the subject of circumcision, but to the Jews of that day it was BIG.

The promise

<sup>13</sup>Now the promise that he would be the heir of the world<sup>a</sup> was not to Abraham, or his seed, through law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if those who are of law are heirs, the faith is made empty and the promise has been invalidated; <sup>15</sup>because the law produces wrath, since where there is no law neither is there transgression.<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>For this reason it is of faith so that it may be according to grace, in order that the promise be guaranteed to all the seed—not only to those of the law, but also to those of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all; <sup>17</sup>just as it is written: “I have made you a father of many ethnic nations”<sup>c</sup>—in the presence of Him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead and calls the non-existent things as though they did exist.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Contrary to hope, Abraham in hope believed, so as to become a father of many ethnic nations, according to what had been spoken: “So shall your seed be.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>And not being weak in faith, he did not<sup>f</sup> consider his own body, already dead<sup>g</sup> (being about a hundred years old), or the deadness of Sarah’s womb. <sup>20</sup>He did not waver at God’s promise in unbelief; rather, he was strengthened by the faith, giving glory to God, <sup>21</sup>being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform<sup>h</sup> <sup>22</sup>—that is why it was credited to him as righteousness.

<sup>23</sup>Now it was not only for his sake that it was written that it was credited to him, <sup>24</sup>but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, we who believe on Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup>who was delivered up because of our transgressions, and was raised because of our justification.<sup>i</sup>

To believers

Peace with God

5 <sup>1</sup>Therefore, having been justified by faith, let us be at<sup>j</sup> peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>through whom also we have had the access,

<sup>a</sup> Now what might ‘heir of the world’ mean? “In you all the families of the earth shall be blessed” (Genesis 12:3). Galatians 3:16 makes clear that the Seed, singular, refers to the Christ (Genesis 12:7 and 24:7). Psalm 2:7-8 also clearly refers to the Christ: “I will declare the decree: the LORD has said to Me, ‘You are My Son, today I have begotten You. Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for your possession.’” It might be argued that in some sense this is happening through the Church, Christ’s body—in Matthew 5:13-14 the Christ called His disciples “the salt of the earth” and “the light of the world”. Paul states, “all things are yours, and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s” (1 Corinthians 3:22-23). But during the millennial Messianic Kingdom the whole world will obey the Christ, who will rule the nations with ‘a rod of iron’ (Revelation 19:15).

<sup>g</sup> Paul declares that Abraham had become impotent before begetting Isaac. That means that he had started slowing down long before, and no one would be more aware of that than Sarah. That may explain why she offered Hagar—she was aware of the Promise and Abraham needed a descendent.

<sup>i</sup> The grammatical construction is the same in both clauses: ‘because’, ‘because’. The resurrection was the proof that the Father had accepted the price paid for our justification. Thank you, Jesus!

<sup>j</sup> The Greek manuscripts are about evenly divided between the Indicative and the Subjunctive form of the verb (the difference is between two similar sounding vowels). Most versions follow the Indicative, by the Faith, into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>Not only so, but we should also rejoice<sup>a</sup> in the sufferings, knowing that the suffering produces perseverance; <sup>4</sup>and the perseverance, proven character; and the proven character, hope; <sup>5</sup>and the hope does not humiliate, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.<sup>b</sup>

Reconciliation

<sup>11</sup>No wonder we rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation!<sup>d</sup>

Death X Life

<sup>12</sup>Now then, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, just so death spread to all men, because all sinned<sup>e</sup> <sup>13</sup>—sin was in the world before the law, to be sure, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam's transgression<sup>f</sup> (he is a type of the coming one).<sup>g</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Now the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one, how much more did God's grace and the bounty by the grace of the one but the best line of transmission has the Subjunctive, and I follow it. Remember the 'from faith to faith' in Romans 1:17.

<sup>a</sup> The form of the verb is ambiguous between Indicative and Subjunctive; I take it that the Subjunctive is intended. The same ambiguity attaches to the same verb in verse two, where I chose the Indicative, since the thought is reinforced in verse 11 below.

<sup>c</sup> As it says in 2 Peter 1:3, "His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness", so once we are reconciled we have every reason to succeed! But it is a process, and the result is not automatic.

<sup>f</sup> Well dear me, how does that work? If sin is not 'imputed', why is there death? The verb 'imputed' refers to an account made up of a list of specific items. If I run up a bill at a local store, when I meet the owner on the street we both know I'm in debt, even without an itemized bill in hand. The debt affects our relationship, and may affect my standing in the community, and that of my family, etc.—the consequences derive from the fact, not the itemized list. So "death reigned from Adam to Moses" based on the fact of sin, not on an itemized list.

"The wages of sin is death", so since we are sinners by inclination (birth) and choice, death reigns. Although there is no explicit instruction about animal sacrifice in the first chapters of Genesis, it is implied. For God to accept Abel's sacrifice and reject Cain's, there must have been instruction about such things (Genesis 4:3-5). Indeed, God had given the example by killing an animal to cover the nakedness of the fallen pair (Genesis 3:21). In Genesis 8:20-21 the implication is clear that Noah knew what he was supposed to do. And Job, who lived before Abraham (presumably), knew about sacrifice for sin (Job 1:5).

<sup>g</sup> As a transgressor, Adam is not a type of Christ, so I take the reference to be to 'the man of sin'. Just as Adam's sin affected the whole world, so the Antichrist's 'abomination' will affect the whole world, both in a bad way.

man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many! <sup>16</sup>Again, the gift is not like what came from one man's having sinned: because the judgment into condemnation followed one offense, while the gracious gift into justification followed many offenses.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>Further, if by the offense of the one man death reigned through that man, much more will those who receive the abundance of the grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>18</sup>So then, as through one offense there is condemnation for everyone, so also through one righteous act there is life-giving justification for everyone.<sup>c</sup> <sup>19</sup>For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were constituted sinners,<sup>d</sup> so also through the obedience of the One the many<sup>e</sup> will be constituted righteous. <sup>20</sup>However, law came on the scene so that the offense might abound; but where the sin abounded, the grace superabounded, <sup>21</sup>so that just as sin reigned in the death,<sup>f</sup> so also the grace might reign through righteousness into eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Newness of life

6 <sup>1</sup>So what shall we say? Shall we continue in the sin so that the grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>Of course not! How can we who died to sin keep on living in it? <sup>3</sup>Or are you unaware that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>Therefore, we were buried with Him by means of that baptism into that death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by means of the Father's glory, we also should walk in newness of life.

<sup>5</sup>Now since we have become united with Him through the projection of His death, we will certainly be so through that of His resurrection as well; <sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old self<sup>h</sup> was crucified with Him in order that the body of the sin<sup>i</sup>

<sup>c</sup> The comparison is interesting, but there is a fundamental difference—we are born condemned, but not justified! There is a way to escape the condemnation, but you have to take it, or remain condemned. The life-giving justification is available, but you have to believe into Jesus to get it.

<sup>g</sup> In Paul's day (at least) there were those who thought that the physical rite of circumcision was a passport to heaven. We have already seen in Romans 2:25-29 that Paul rejects that notion—God looks on the heart. In our day there are those who think that the physical rite of water baptism is a similar passport, but we probably all know individuals who had their 'bath' and are now living for Satan—God looks on the heart. 1 Corinthians 12:12-13 explains that it is the Holy Spirit who baptizes us into Christ: "...so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body." If we become part of Christ's body, then whatever happens to that body happens to us. If that body died, we did. If it was buried, so were we. If it was raised from the dead, we will be too. Correction—we already have new life in Christ, and are to live on that basis.

<sup>h</sup> Literally 'man'. The reference is to the old, or fallen, nature, with which we are all born. Only those who are regenerated by the Holy Spirit acquire a new one.

<sup>i</sup> That is, the body that resulted from 'the sin' (Adam's); that is, a fallen body, whose natural inclination is not toward holiness.

might be set aside, so that we no longer be enslaved to that sin—<sup>7</sup>because he who has died has been released from that sin.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Now since we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, cannot die again;<sup>b</sup> death can no longer master Him <sup>10</sup>—the death He died He died to sin once for all, while the life He lives He lives to God. <sup>11</sup>Thus you also, consider yourselves to be dead indeed to the sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.<sup>c</sup>

Down with sin!

<sup>12</sup>Therefore do not let the sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey it with the body's evil desires <sup>13</sup>—do not present any part<sup>d</sup> of your body to sin as an implement for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead, and your body parts to God as implements for righteousness. <sup>14</sup>Really, sin must not rule over you, because you are not under law but under grace.

Grace, not license

<sup>15</sup>What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Of course not! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey them as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey—whether of sin into death, or of obedience into righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But thanks be to God that although you used to be the slaves of the sin you wholeheartedly obeyed that pattern of doctrine into which you were delivered. <sup>18</sup>So having been emancipated from the sin, you became enslaved to the righteousness.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>19</sup>I continue to speak on a human level because of the weakness of your flesh. Now just as you used to present your body parts as slaves to uncleanness, and to ever increasing lawlessness,<sup>f</sup> so now present your body parts as slaves to righteousness with a view to sanctification. <sup>20</sup>For when you were slaves to the sin, you were 'free' from the righteousness. <sup>21</sup>So what 'fruit' did you have at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? The end of those things is death!<sup>g</sup> <sup>22</sup>But now, having been emancipated from the sin, and having become enslaved to God, you have your 'fruit' into sanctification—and the end is eternal life! <sup>23</sup>Because the wa-

<sup>b</sup> No one kills Jesus twice. Consider Hebrews 6:4-6: "Because, it is impossible to bring back into repentance those who were once for all enlightened, who have partaken of the heavenly gift and were made sharers in the Holy Spirit, 5 who have experienced God's good event and capabilities of the coming age, 6 and yet have fallen away—they would be crucifying the Son of God all over again, just for themselves, holding Him up to contempt." No amount of theological shifting and squirming can nullify the plain meaning of verse 6. The only way to crucify Jesus again is if you have already done so once before. No one is going to kill Jesus twice; if the first time was not good enough for you, you have had it! As He Himself said in John 10:17-18: "Therefore my Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again." He laid it down once, freely, but that is all.

<sup>f</sup> Sin, and mere gratification of physical desire, obey the law of diminishing returns. To maintain the same 'kick' from any drug, you have to keep increasing the dose—this is a slavery that keeps on dragging you down to ever lower levels.

ges of sin is death,<sup>a</sup> but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

More about law

7 <sup>1</sup>Do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those who know law), that the law has authority over someone only as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives, but if the man should die, she is released from the law about the husband. <sup>3</sup>So then, if she should ‘marry’ another man while her husband is living, she will be labeled an adulteress; but if the husband should die, she is free from that law, not being an adulteress if she marries another man.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brothers, you also were put to death to the law through the body<sup>b</sup> of the Christ so as to belong to another—to Him who was raised from the dead—so that we should produce fruit to God. <sup>5</sup>Because when we were in the flesh,<sup>c</sup> the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our body parts to produce fruit to death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, having died to what was gripping us, so as to slave in newness of spirit and not in oldness of letter.<sup>d</sup>

Law and sin

<sup>7</sup>So what shall we say then? Is the law sin? Of course not! Indeed, I would not have come to know the sin<sup>e</sup> except through the law: I would not have recognized covetousness if the law had not said, “You must not covet.” <sup>8</sup>But the sin, grasping an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting.<sup>f</sup>

Now without the law sin is dead. <sup>9</sup>Once upon a time, without law, I was actually ‘alive’; but when the commandment came, the sin came to life and I died. <sup>10</sup>Yes, the commandment that was to bring me life turned out to bring death. <sup>11</sup>Because the sin, grasping an opportunity through the commandment, completely deceived me, and used it to ‘kill’ me. <sup>12</sup>So then, the law itself is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

Indwelling sin

<sup>13</sup>So has what is good become death to me? Of course not! Rather the sin, that it might be exposed as sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that through the commandment the sin might become extremely sinful. <sup>14</sup>We

---

<sup>a</sup> Sin results in two deaths, physical and spiritual. The spiritual one is by far the more important since it lasts for eternity. Belonging to Jesus does not exempt us from physical death, but it does from the spiritual one—He gives us eternal life instead of eternal death. Eternal death means eternal separation from the Creator, presumably a conscious state.

<sup>e</sup> If not a synonym for the fallen nature, or ‘the flesh’, ‘the sin’ appears to be closely related to it. ‘The flesh’ is Satan’s ally inside us while ‘the world’ is his ally outside us. So without the Holy Spirit a person is in a bad way.

<sup>f</sup> Anyone who has children has seen this principle at work (also if he can still remember how it was when he was a child). Once upon a time there was a doctrine that said that the children of Christians are born without a sin nature—I have always thought that the only people who could believe that would be people with no children!

know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, having been ‘sold’ under sin<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>—you see, I do not understand what I am doing; I do not practice what I want to do, but I do what I hate!<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>But if I do what I do not want to do, I agree with the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>So now it is no longer I who am doing it, but the sin dwelling in me. <sup>18</sup>Further, I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; because to will is present with me, but I do not find how to perform the good. <sup>19</sup>Because I do not do the good that I want to do; rather I practice the evil that I do not want to do. <sup>20</sup>Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but the sin dwelling in me. <sup>21</sup>So I find this ‘law’: when I want to do good, evil is right there with me. <sup>22</sup>I joyfully agree with God’s law according to the inner man, <sup>23</sup>but I see a different ‘law’ in my body parts, warring against the law of my mind and taking me captive to the law of the sin that is in my body parts.

<sup>24</sup>What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself serve God’s law, but with the flesh, sin’s law.

Deliverance

8 <sup>1</sup>Now then, there is no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit,<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>because the law of the spirit of the life in Christ Jesus has set me<sup>e</sup> free from the law of the sin and the death. <sup>3</sup>Further, what the law could not do, in that it was weak due to the flesh, God has done by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on ac-

<sup>a</sup> A person who was sold became a slave ‘under’ a new owner, so I take Paul’s point to be that sin is giving the orders.

<sup>b</sup> In this interesting passage Paul contrast his two natures. As an aid to the reader, I will attempt to identify the two natures throughout the passage.

<sup>14</sup>We know that the law is spiritual, but I [old] am fleshly, having been ‘sold’ under sin <sup>15</sup>—you see, I [new] do not understand what I am [old] doing; I [old] do not practice what I [new] want to do, but I [old] do what I [new] hate! <sup>16</sup>But if I [old] do what I [new] do not want to do, I [new] agree with the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>So now it is no longer I [new] who am doing it, but the sin dwelling in me [both]. <sup>18</sup>Further, I [new] know that nothing good dwells in me [old], that is, in my flesh; because to will is present with me [new], but I [old] do not find how to perform the good. <sup>19</sup>Because I [old] do not do the good that I [new] want to do; rather I [old] practice the evil that I [new] do not want to do. <sup>20</sup>Now if I [old] do what I [new] do not want to do, it is no longer I [new] who do it, but the sin dwelling in me [both]. <sup>21</sup>So I [new] find this ‘law’, when I [new] want to do good, evil is right there with me [both]. <sup>22</sup>I [new] joyfully agree with God’s law according to the inner man [new], <sup>23</sup>but I [new] see a different ‘law’ in my body parts [old], warring against the law of my mind [new] and taking me [both] captive to the law of the sin that is in my body parts [old]. <sup>24</sup>What a wretched man I am [both]! Who will deliver me [new] from this body of death [old]? <sup>25</sup>I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself [new] serve God’s law, but with the flesh [old], sin’s law.

<sup>d</sup> “Who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit” is omitted by 2.3% of the Greek manuscripts (of inferior quality, objectively so), to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc. Those who follow the 2.3% like to claim that the clause was imported from verse four. But Paul is a Jew, and they like to repeat things. In Romans 7:14-23 Paul described the conflict of the two natures within himself—he was not ‘home free’. That he is not through with the topic is clear from verses 5-17 below, where he describes in detail the conflict between flesh and Spirit. The reader may rest assured that the 97% are correct. Anyone who insists on walking according to the flesh will discover that there is indeed condemnation.

<sup>e</sup> Less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘you’ singular, to be followed by NASB and LB. But ‘you’ in English is ambiguous as to number, and neither NASB nor LB tells the reader that ‘you’ is singular (because in the context it is obviously wrong). Both versions favor the reader with a footnote informing that “some” manuscripts read “me” [their way of referring to 700 against 4, which to my mind is a dishonest use of language].

count of sin: He condemned the sin in the flesh,<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Spirit X flesh

<sup>5</sup>Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>Further, the mind-set of the flesh yields death, but the mind-set of the Spirit yields life and peace; <sup>7</sup>because the mind-set of the flesh represents enmity against God, since it does not submit to God's law, nor indeed can it. <sup>8</sup>So, those who are 'in flesh' cannot please God.<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup>You, however, are not 'in flesh' but 'in Spirit', if indeed God's Spirit dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. <sup>10</sup>But if Christ is in you, the body is dead through sin, but the Spirit is life through righteousness. <sup>11</sup>And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then He who raised the Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies<sup>c</sup> because of His Spirit who dwells in you.<sup>d</sup>

Sonship

<sup>12</sup>So then, brothers, we have no obligation to the flesh, to live according to it; <sup>13</sup>because if you live according to the flesh, you are about to die; but if you put to death the practices of the body, by the Spirit, you will live. <sup>14</sup>Because as many as are led by God's Spirit, these are God's sons<sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup>—you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fear all over again, but you did receive the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father!"<sup>f</sup> <sup>16</sup>That Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are God's children <sup>17</sup>—if children, also heirs: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ<sup>g</sup> (if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him).<sup>h</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> The sin in our flesh having been condemned, it is now possible to walk according to the Spirit.

<sup>c</sup> Where, down here? If it is "because of His Spirit who dwells [present tense] in you", presumably so. Consider 1 Thessalonians 5:23—"Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." I take it that the grammatical structure of this phrase, "the spirit and the soul and the body" (in Greek), demands a tripartite/trichotomous view of the human being. I confess that I have trouble imagining complete sanctification for the body, in this life, but there it is. Still, verse 11 here does not demand 'complete' sanctification; obviously we use our mortal bodies as we serve God down here, and the more we use them to serve God, the more sanctified they will be.

<sup>d</sup> In these verses we have 'Spirit of God', 'Spirit of Christ', 'Spirit' and 'Spirit of Him who raised Jesus'; so how many spirits or persons are there? I would say that Paul is just using different ways of referring to the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Triune God. Comparing all the relevant passages, the Godhead is made up of just the three persons.

<sup>e</sup> Hey, wait a minute; this is not what I was taught in Seminary! The Text says that in order to be God's son you must be led by God's Spirit! Verse 12 is addressed to 'brothers', and verse 13 says that to live according to the flesh results in death. But someone living according to the flesh is obviously not being led by the Spirit. You cannot die unless you are alive; notice also the "if indeed" in verse 17.

<sup>g</sup> Wow! If we are co-heirs, then whatever the inheritance is belongs to us too. I leave it to the reader to research the contents of Christ's inheritance!

<sup>h</sup> The clear implication is: no suffering, no glory. In the next verse the sufferings are treated as a fact.

Redemption of the body

<sup>18</sup>I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is going to be revealed in us. <sup>19</sup>You see, the creation waits with eager anticipation for the revelation of God's sons; <sup>20</sup>because without choice the creation was subjected to futility, due to the One who did the subjecting, based on the hope <sup>21</sup>that the creation itself will also be set free from the bondage to decay into the freedom of the glory of God's children.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>Yes, we know that the whole creation has been groaning and in labor pains until now. <sup>23</sup>Not only that, we ourselves also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we groan within ourselves, eagerly awaiting adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>Yes, we were saved in the hope,<sup>b</sup> but a hope that is seen is not hope—why would anyone hope for what he sees? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly await it with endurance.

<sup>26</sup>Likewise also the Spirit comes to the aid of the hope in our weaknesses, since we do not know what we need to pray for. Indeed the Spirit Himself intercedes on our behalf with inexpressible groanings, <sup>27</sup>while He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, since He prays for the saints in accordance with God.<sup>c</sup>

Glory

<sup>28</sup>Further, we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, for those who are called according to purpose. <sup>29</sup>Because whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son,<sup>d</sup> so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers. <sup>30</sup>Further, whom He predestined, these He also called; and whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.<sup>e</sup>

Summary to this point

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say to these things? Since God is for us, who is against us? <sup>32</sup>He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up on behalf of us all, how shall He not with Him also graciously give us all things?<sup>f</sup> <sup>33</sup>Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? God is He who justifies. <sup>34</sup>Who is he who condemns? Christ is He who died, but even more, was indeed raised, who indeed is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes on our behalf.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Will it be affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword? <sup>36</sup>(As it is written:

<sup>a</sup> In the beginning, when the Creator turned the administration of this planet over to Adam, everything was 'good'. But then came the Fall, and the administrator was no longer good. How could a fallen ruler administer a perfect creation? Since the creation was merely a setting for the man, the Creator reduced it to the same level, based on 'the hope' of a future restoration for both man and nature (see Romans 8:19-22).

<sup>c</sup> The intercession of the Spirit represents two members of the Trinity! We do not know what we need to pray for (altogether too often), but the Spirit does, and for that He certainly deserves our thanks.

“For your sake we are being put to death all day long;
we are accounted as sheep for slaughter.”<sup>a)</sup>

<sup>37</sup>No, in all these things we prevail completely through Him who loved us. <sup>38</sup>Because I am persuaded that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities nor powers, neither things present nor things to come, <sup>39</sup>neither height nor depth nor any other created thing will have the power to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.<sup>b</sup>

Israel

9 <sup>1</sup>I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience is testifying with me in the Holy Spirit—<sup>2</sup>I have great sorrow and unceasing distress in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I keep wishing that I myself could be accursed away from the Messiah in the place of my brothers, my physical relatives, <sup>4</sup>the Israelites.<sup>c</sup> To them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple service, and the promises. <sup>5</sup>The patriarchs are theirs, and from them came the Christ (the physical part),<sup>d</sup> who is over all, God forever blessed. Amen.

Children of the promise

<sup>6</sup>However, it is not as though the Word of God has failed!<sup>e</sup> For not all who have descended from Israel are ‘Israel’. <sup>7</sup>Neither are they all ‘children’ because they are Abraham’s descendants; but, “in Isaac will your seed be called.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>That is, it is not the physical children who are God’s ‘children’, but the children of the promise are regarded as ‘seed’. <sup>9</sup>For this is the word of promise: “At this season I will come, and Sarah will have a son.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Not only that, but also when Rebecca had conceived twins by our forefather Isaac <sup>11</sup>(though they had not yet been born, not having done anything good or bad, so that God’s purpose according to election might stand, not of works but of Him who calls), <sup>12</sup>it was said to her, “The older will serve the younger.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>As it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”<sup>i</sup>

It is pointless to fight God’s Sovereignty!

<sup>14</sup>So what shall we say, there is no injustice with God, is there? Of course not! <sup>15</sup>For He says to Moses:

---

<sup>b</sup> God’s love is like a sphere, with us on the inside—nothing can reach us without first passing through the ‘filter’ of that love. (There are times when it is easier to say that than to believe it.)

<sup>d</sup> Both “the Christ” and “who is over all” are in the masculine gender, separated by to kata sarka, often rendered as ‘according to the flesh’. But the article, to, is in the neuter gender, and so must have a different referent. Paul is being precisely correct: it was only the physical part of the Messiah that came through Israel, the divine part did not.

<sup>i</sup> See Malachi 1:2,3. Of course Malachi was written over 1,000 years after the two had demonstrated their characters by their lives. Further, the ‘hated’ is not an active hate, but a disregard.

“I will have mercy on whomever I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>16</sup>So then, it is not of him who wills nor of him who strives, but of God who shows mercy. <sup>17</sup>For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: “I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>18</sup>So then, He has mercy on whom He wishes, and He hardens whom He wishes.

<sup>19</sup>You will say to me then, “Why does He still find fault? For who has ever resisted His will?” <sup>20</sup>Really now, just who are you, O man, to talk back to God? What is formed will not say to the one who formed it, “Why did you make me like this,” will it? <sup>21</sup>Or has the potter no right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?<sup>c</sup>

“I will call the ‘not my people’, ‘my people’, and the ‘not loved’ (f), ‘loved’.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>26</sup>“And it will be in the place where it was said to them,
‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called sons of the living God.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>27</sup>And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

“Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only the remnant will be saved;

<sup>29</sup>And as Isaiah had said previously:

“Unless the LORD of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and we would have been made like Gomorrah.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>b</sup> See Exodus 9:16. If you check the record, Pharaoh hardened his own heart the first five times; after that God did the hardening.

<sup>c</sup> We can argue, and complain, and squirm, but after everything is said and done, when faced with God’s Sovereignty we have just two options: rebel or submit, giving due regard to the consequences. That said, however, this text is concentrating on God’s Sovereignty. Due regard must also be given to all the texts that deal with human responsibility.

Their present condition

<sup>30</sup>So what shall we say? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained to righteousness, namely the righteousness that comes from faith; <sup>31</sup>while Israel, pursuing a standard of righteousness, did not attain to that standard. <sup>32</sup>Why not? Because it was not from faith, but as from works of the law. They stumbled over the ‘stumbling stone’; <sup>33</sup>as it is written:

“Look! I am placing in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense, and no one who believes on Him will be put to shame.”<sup>a</sup>

Israel needs salvation

10 <sup>1</sup>Brothers, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation. <sup>2</sup>For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to real knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For they, failing to understand God’s righteousness and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted to God’s righteousness.

How to be saved

The message is necessary

<sup>14</sup>How then will they call on Him into whom they have not believed? And how can they believe on Him of whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without someone proclaiming it? <sup>15</sup>And how will they proclaim unless they

---

<sup>a</sup> See Isaiah 8:14 and 28:16. They had to ‘believe on’ the ‘stumbling block’, the Christ, but He did not perform the way they expected that the Messiah would perform.

<sup>g</sup> This refers to a solemn commitment made publicly—even a demon can mouth the phrase, ‘Jesus is Lord’, as can any person, except that the demon knows it is really true.

<sup>i</sup> See Joel 2:32. This has always been true, although the level of opportunity differs from time to time and people to people.

are sent? As it is written: “How timely is the arrival<sup>a</sup> of those who bring good news of peace,<sup>b</sup> of those who announce the good things.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>(However, they did not all obey the gospel; because Isaiah says: “LORD, who has believed our message?”<sup>d</sup>) <sup>17</sup>So, the faith is from a message, and that message is by the Word of God.<sup>e</sup>

A rebellious people

“Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their spoken words to the ends of the inhabited world.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Again I say, did Israel really not know? First Moses says:

“I will provoke you to jealousy by a non-nation,
I will move you to anger by a senseless nation.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>20</sup>But Isaiah is so bold as to say:

“I was found by those who were not seeking me;
I was revealed to those who were not asking for me.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>21</sup>But concerning Israel he says:

“All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people.”<sup>i</sup>

The remnant

11 <sup>1</sup>So now I say, God did not reject His people, did He? Of course not! Why I myself am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin!<sup>j</sup> <sup>2</sup>God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he appeals to God against Israel saying: <sup>3</sup>“LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to take my life!”<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>But what does the divine response say to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men<sup>l</sup> who have not bowed

<sup>i</sup> See Isaiah 65:2. To be ‘disobedient’ and ‘contrary’, there must be a revealed will, one that they knew about.

<sup>j</sup> Observe that Paul knew what tribe he belonged to; this at the beginning of the Christian era. If God would save Paul, then He is still saving Jews (and God knows what tribe they are from, even if they no longer do).

the knee to Baal.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>Even so then at this present time, there is a remnant according to an election by grace. <sup>6</sup>Now if by grace, it is no longer from works; otherwise the grace is no longer grace. But if from works, it is no longer grace; otherwise the work is no longer work.<sup>b</sup>

“God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that were not to see and ears that were not to hear, to this very day.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>9</sup>And David says:

“Let their table be made into a snare and into a trap, into a stumbling block and into a retribution to them.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be darkened so as not to see, and their back always be bowed down.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>11</sup>So now I say, surely they have not stumbled so as to fall [and stay fallen]? Of course not! Rather, through their transgression the salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Now if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss riches for the nations, how much more their fulfillment!

<sup>13</sup>So I am speaking to you Gentiles (inasmuch as I am ‘apostle to the Gentiles’, I magnify my ministry), <sup>14</sup>if somehow I can provoke my own people<sup>f</sup> to jealousy and save some of them. <sup>15</sup>For if their being rejected means reconciliation for the world, what will their restoration be but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup>Now if the ‘first-fruit’ is holy, so is the whole batch; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

<sup>17</sup>Now if some of the branches were broken off, while you, being a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them, and with them have become a partaker of the root and the rich sap of the cultivated olive, <sup>18</sup>do not boast against those branches (since if you do boast—it is not you who support the root but the root you). <sup>19</sup>You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” <sup>20</sup>Granted. Because of unbelief they were broken off, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear! <sup>21</sup>Because if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps He will not spare you either! <sup>22</sup>So consider the kindness and severity of God: upon those who fell, severity; but toward you, kindness, if you continue in that kindness; otherwise you too will be cut off.<sup>g</sup> <sup>23</sup>And even they, if they do not persist in the unbelief, will be grafted back in, because God has the power to graft them in

---

<sup>a</sup> See 1 Kings 19:18. Evidently Elijah knew nothing about them, and perhaps each of them also thought he was the only one. I see a practical application here: I must never assume that what God is doing to and through me is the whole show, or even a major part of it. Now, much more than in Elijah’s day, God is doing all sorts of interesting things all over the world!

<sup>b</sup> “But if from works, it is no longer grace; otherwise the work is no longer work” is omitted by 3.5% of the Greek manuscripts, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

again. <sup>24</sup>For if you were cut out of a wild by nature olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?<sup>a</sup>

Hardening

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant of this ‘mystery’<sup>b</sup> (so that you not be conceited): hardening has come upon Israel in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. <sup>26</sup>And so all Israel will be saved, just as it is written:

“The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and He will turn ungodliness away from Jacob;<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>28</sup>On the one hand, regarding the Gospel, they are enemies because of you; on the other, regarding the election, they are beloved on account of the forefathers. <sup>29</sup>Because God’s gracious gifts and calling are irrevocable.<sup>e</sup> <sup>30</sup>For just as you also were once disobedient to God, but now have been shown mercy through their disobedience, <sup>31</sup>so also these have now been disobedient that through the mercy shown to you they also may be shown mercy. <sup>32</sup>Yes, God has given everyone over to disobedience so that He might show mercy to all.<sup>f</sup>

Doxology

<sup>33</sup>Oh, the depth of the riches of God’s wisdom and knowledge!
How unsearchable His judgments and untraceable His ways!<sup>g</sup> <sup>34</sup>Because “Who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been His counselor?”<sup>h</sup>
<sup>35</sup>Or “Who has ever given to Him and has to be repaid?”<sup>i</sup>
<sup>36</sup>Because from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.<sup>j</sup>
To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

The will of God

12 <sup>1</sup>Now then, brothers, I exhort you, in view of God’s compassions, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice,<sup>k</sup> holy, satisfying to God—your intel-

<sup>a</sup> One is reminded of Ezekiel 18, the whole chapter—if you have not read it for a while, I suggest you refresh your memory.

<sup>b</sup> This term is used of information that God has not yet made generally available, not about something mysterious.

<sup>d</sup> See Isaiah 59:20-21 and 27:9. When will this happen? Presumably at the beginning of the millennial Messianic Kingdom. The conversion of the last Gentile will be followed by the Rapture. All the Israelites that enter the Kingdom will be saved (all rebels will have been executed).

<sup>e</sup> That is, God does not take them back; what we do with them is another story.

<sup>g</sup> This is the ‘answer’ for all of us who would like to understand just how election works, and so on. God is too big, and we are too small!

<sup>k</sup> Any animal in the Old Testament had to die in order to become a sacrifice, so what does Paul mean by a ‘living’ one? In 1 Corinthians 15:31 he said that he died every day. Paul could not have been referring ligent duty. <sup>2</sup>Yes, stop conforming to the pattern of this world; rather, be transformed by the renewing of your mind so as to be able to experience the good and satisfying and perfect will of God.<sup>a</sup>

Be sensible

<sup>3</sup>Based on the grace given to me, I say to everyone among you not to set your sights higher than you should, but set them sensibly, as God has apportioned a measure of faith to each.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Because just as in one body we have many parts, but all the parts do not have the same function, <sup>5</sup>so we, who are many, are one body in Christ and individually members of one another. <sup>6</sup>Since we have different spiritual gifts according to the grace that was given us, let us use them: if prophecy, according to the analogy of the Faith;<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>if serving, in the serving; if teaching, in the teaching; <sup>8</sup>if exhorting, in the exhortation;<sup>d</sup> the sharer, with integrity; the leader, with diligence; the mercy-shower, with cheerfulness.<sup>e</sup>

Behave!

to actual physical death, obviously, since Hebrews 9:27 affirms that it is appointed to men to die only once (no re-incarnation). He may well have faced possible death often enough, but I suppose he is referring to dying to himself. I suppose this is also the meaning of our Lord's words in Luke 9:23-24—"If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it." In that day a cross was an instrument of death. We must die to our own will in order to embrace God's. To present the body is presumably a metonym for presenting one's whole self.

<sup>a</sup> 'The pattern of this world' belongs to Satan, so it must be rejected in order to do God's will. Many 'Christians' appear to be afraid of God's will, as well they might, unless they meet the conditions—only then is it 'good', 'satisfying' and 'perfect'.

<sup>b</sup> We need to understand what God wants us to be and do, and set our sights on that. Any attitude of competition, wanting to be bigger and better than others, will produce bad results.

<sup>d</sup> One might feel that Paul is being repetitious, but we all know people who try to operate in someone else's area of gifting, and the results are not good. If an ear tries to be an eye, both hearing and sight suffer.

<sup>f</sup> I take it that the whole paragraph is explaining just how love is to be genuine—very practical!

<sup>g</sup> If a boss is mistreating you and you curse him, will he get better or worse? That said, however, I believe we must distinguish between things done against us personally and things done against the Kingdom. Something done against the Kingdom is an act of war, and needs to be repelled.

<sup>19</sup>Dear ones, do not avenge yourselves; rather give place to the wrath;<sup>a</sup> for it is written: “Vengeance is up to me; I will repay,”<sup>b</sup> says the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Therefore, “If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing this you will heap coals of fire on his head.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome the evil with the good.<sup>d</sup>

Submit

13 <sup>1</sup>Let every soul submit to the governing authorities, because there is no authority except under God, and the existing authorities have been placed by God. <sup>2</sup>Therefore whoever resists the authority is opposed to God’s ordinance, and those who oppose will bring judgment on themselves.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>Now rulers are not a terror to good deeds but to bad ones. So if you wish not to fear the authority, do the good and you will have praise from the same; <sup>4</sup>because it is God’s minister to you with a view to the good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, because it does not bear the sword for nothing; because it is God’s minister, an avenger with a view to wrath on the wrongdoer. <sup>5</sup>Therefore it is necessary to submit, not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience.<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>This is precisely why you pay taxes, for they are God’s servants, continually attending on this very thing.<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes, customs to whom customs, respect to whom respect, honor to whom honor.

Love

---

<sup>a</sup> Wrath is normally expressed through physical violence, and perhaps in our day through legal action. These are the sort of reaction that an ‘enemy’ will expect, not acts of kindness, which may even make him feel ashamed of himself. In any case, we are not to descend to his level, but let God do any avenging.

<sup>d</sup> Sounds great, but how does it work? Well, in Luke 10:19 Sovereign Jesus said: “Take note, I am giving you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing at all may harm you.” And in Ephesians 3:20 we read: “Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to the power that is working in us...” Please see my footnotes at those passages for an extended discussion.

<sup>f</sup> Presumably regimes that are overtly evil are not in view. Where a regime overtly combats the good, while promoting the evil, divine guidance is especially necessary for representatives of the good, because even an evil regime exists by God’s permission. That said, however, in Luke 10:19 Sovereign Jesus gives us “the authority over all the power of the enemy”. It is therefore within the sphere of our competence to forbid any use of Satan’s power in the administration of the country, in the surrounding culture, in the entertainment industry, and so on. The sky is the limit.

this word, namely: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment<sup>b</sup> of the law.

Put on Christ

<sup>11</sup>Besides this, knowing the time, it is high time for us to be awakened from sleep, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup>The night is nearly over, and the day is near;<sup>c</sup> so let us get rid of the works of the darkness, and let us put on the weapons of the light.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual orgies and licentiousness, not in strife and jealousy. <sup>14</sup>But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, with a view to lusts.<sup>e</sup>

The law of liberty

<sup>c</sup> When a servant of Christ dies physically, he leaves the ‘night’ of this world behind and his ‘day’ of glory begins. Each day we live brings us closer to that moment, so we need to make the best possible use of the time we have left.

<sup>h</sup> In that event, the day of the week we decide to observe should not be made a matter of doctrine. Christians generally observe Sunday, Jews Saturday, Muslims Friday, but if someone prefers Tuesday, he should be free to do so. (Of course, if you want to hold a job, you had better go along with the requirements of the market place.)

<sup>i</sup> “And he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it” is omitted by 4.6% of the Greek manuscripts, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding (it is an easy case of ‘like ending’).

<sup>j</sup> Although seemingly out of sequence, I assume that the reference of “and lived” is to His earthly life—without the incarnation He could not have died and conquered death. However, the perceived difficulty was enough to lead perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts to omit “and rose”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc., except that they then make “and lived” refer to the resurrection.

<sup>k</sup> Most presentations of the Gospel I have heard revolve around the selfish interests of the hearers, what they are going to get out of it. But the clearest statements in Scripture giving the ‘why’ of the cross tell

The Judgment Seat of Christ

<sup>10</sup>But you, why do you judge your brother? And you too, why do you look down on your brother? Because we will all stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>For it is written:

“As I live,” says the LORD, “every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall acknowledge God.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>12</sup>So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God. <sup>13</sup>Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another, but rather resolve this: not to put a stumbling block or pitfall in a brother’s way.

<sup>14</sup>I know and have been convinced by Sovereign Jesus that nothing is unclean of itself<sup>c</sup> (still, to someone who considers a thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean), <sup>15</sup>but if your brother is offended because of food, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not, with your food, ruin someone for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>So do not let your good be slandered; <sup>17</sup>because the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For whoever serves the Christ in these things is satisfying to God and approved by men.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>So then, let us pursue the things that promote peace and the things by which one may edify another. <sup>20</sup>Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are ‘clean’; however it is wrong for the man who gives offense by eating. <sup>21</sup>It is good not to eat meat nor drink wine nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is weakened.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Do you have faith? Have it privately before God. Happy is he who does not judge himself in what he approves. <sup>23</sup>But he who eats with doubt stands condemned, because it is not from faith; for whatever is not from faith is sin.<sup>f</sup>

Doxology

<sup>24</sup>Now to Him who has power to establish you according to my Gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret through long ages, <sup>25</sup>but now revealed and made known through the prophetic Scriptures,<sup>g</sup> according to the command of the eternal God, with a view to a different story. Here in 14:9 we have a very explicit one: He died to be Lord! 2 Corinthians 5:15 is also explicit: “He died for all so that those who now live should no longer live for themselves but for the One who died for all and was raised again.” Philippians 2:8-11 refers to the final victory. Hebrews 2:14 refers to destroying Satan. How about preaching a Gospel that revolves around Christ’s interests!

<sup>e</sup> “Or is offended, or is weakened” is omitted by 1.8% of the Greek manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality), to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

<sup>f</sup> Well now, faith would appear to be a rather important commodity! But just why is everything else ‘sin’? If the basic idea in ‘sin’ is to miss the mark, or to fall short (Romans 3:23), then faith is of the essence. Habakkuk 2:4, “the just shall live by faith”, is repeated three times in the New Testament—Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11 and Hebrews 10:38. “That no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for ‘the just shall live by faith’” (Galatians 3:11). So to depend on the law (or any equation based on works) is to fall short. “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He exists, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (Hebrews 11:6). If God demands faith, then anything else will fall short, will miss the mark.

obedience of faith among all ethnic nations <sup>26</sup>—to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ—to Him be the glory forever! Amen.<sup>a</sup>

Summary

15 <sup>1</sup>Now we who are strong ought to bear with the limitations of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let each of us please the neighbor with a view to what is good for edifying. <sup>3</sup>Because even the Christ did not please Himself; rather, as it is written: “The revilings of those reviling you fell on me.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Whatever things were written before were so written for our instruction, so that through the fortitude and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. <sup>5</sup>Now may the God of that fortitude and that encouragement grant you to be of the same mind<sup>c</sup> among yourselves according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>so that you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ with one heart and voice.

Glorify

<sup>7</sup>Therefore accept one another, just as the Christ also accepted us,<sup>d</sup> to the glory of God. <sup>8</sup>Now I say that Christ Jesus<sup>e</sup> has become a minister to the circumcised on behalf of God’s truth, in order to confirm the promises to the fathers; <sup>9</sup>and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy,<sup>f</sup> as it is written:

“For this reason I will give praise to you among the Gentiles, O LORD,<sup>g</sup> and will sing psalms to your name.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>10</sup>And again He says:

<sup>11</sup>And again:

“Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and laud Him, all you peoples!”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>12</sup>And again, Isaiah says:

“The Root of Jesse will appear, even He who rises up to rule over the nations;
the Gentiles will place their hope on Him.”<sup>k</sup>

---

<sup>e</sup> “Jesus” is omitted by perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

<sup>f</sup> We generally do not even trust someone who does not keep his promises, much less ‘glorify’ him. So it was necessary to fulfill the promises made to the patriarchs.

<sup>g</sup> Less than a third of the Greek manuscripts have “O LORD”, but that third includes the best line of transmission, that follows the Hebrew Text of both 2 Samuel 22:50 and Psalm 18:49.

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of the hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing,<sup>a</sup> so that you may abound in that hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.<sup>b</sup>

Paul's mission

<sup>14</sup>Now I myself am really confident about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others.<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup>Nevertheless I have written to you quite boldly on some points, brothers, as a reminder to you, because of the grace given to me by God, <sup>16</sup>that I should be a minister of Jesus Christ to the nations, serving the Gospel of God as a priest so that the Gentiles might become an acceptable offering,<sup>d</sup> sanctified by Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>So in Christ Jesus I do have a boast in things pertaining to God; <sup>18</sup>because I do not presume to speak of anything except those things that Christ has accomplished through me to make the Gentiles obedient—by word and deed, <sup>19</sup>by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of God's Spirit, so that I have fully proclaimed<sup>e</sup> the Gospel of the Christ from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum.<sup>f</sup> <sup>20</sup>It has always been my aim to evangelize where Christ has not been named, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation; <sup>21</sup>rather, as it is written:

“Those to whom He was not announced will see, and those who have not heard will understand.”<sup>g</sup>

A visit to Rome

<sup>22</sup>That is why I have been hindered these many times from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now, no longer having a place in these parts, and having a longing these many years to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I travel to Spain I will come to you.<sup>h</sup> Because I hope to see you while passing through, and to be sent on my way there by you, if I may first enjoy your company for a while.

<sup>25</sup>Now, however, I am traveling to Jerusalem, serving the saints. <sup>26</sup>Because Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>Yes, they were pleased, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are also obligated to minister to them in physical things. <sup>28</sup>So when I have finished this and have sealed to them this ‘fruit’, I will go by way of you to Spain.<sup>i</sup> <sup>29</sup>And I know

<sup>a</sup> If one stops and thinks about it, ‘joy’ and ‘peace’ depend on believing—when we begin to doubt we lose both. Also, if you are filled with hope, you tend to have more ‘bounce’, you work with greater enthusiasm.

<sup>b</sup> To abound by the power presumably means that we are to be doing things by that power. One does not ‘abound’ by sitting still doing nothing.

<sup>c</sup> Instead of “others”, some 7% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘one another’, as in most versions.

<sup>d</sup> The concept is interesting: Paul is a priest, and the nations are his offering. I habitually present my own work to God as an offering.

<sup>h</sup> “I will come to you” is omitted by 4.1% of the Greek manuscripts, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Gospel<sup>a</sup> of the Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I implore you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in prayers to God on my behalf;<sup>b</sup> <sup>31</sup>that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe, and that my service to Jerusalem may be well received by the saints;<sup>32</sup> so that I may come to you with joy by the will of God and be refreshed together with you. <sup>33</sup>Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Closing remarks

Phoebe

16 <sup>1</sup>I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the congregation in Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup>so that you may receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever matter she may need from you; for indeed she herself has been a helper of many, including my own self.

Greetings

Greet my beloved Epaphroditus, who is the first convert to Christ from Achaia.<sup>e</sup> <sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junias, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are outstanding among the apostles, and who were in Christ before me. <sup>8</sup>Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys. <sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup>Greet Herodian, my countryman. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord.<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, also his mother, and mine.<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers who are with them. <sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, also Olympus and all

<sup>c</sup> So far as I know, we do not have a record of just how, when or where this happened.

<sup>d</sup> In the beginning, congregations met in people's homes. This avoids the expense of erecting buildings. I believe the days are upon us when all serious followers of Jesus Christ will be increasingly persecuted, including in North America and Europe. An underground Church will have little use for 'buildings'.

<sup>e</sup> 4% of the Greek manuscripts read "Asia" instead of "Achaia" (these are very different places), to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, LB, etc.—an inferior proceeding.

<sup>f</sup> Although scarcely a fourth of the Greek manuscripts read "you" (instead of "us"), that fourth includes the best line of transmission.

the saints who are with them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. The congregations of Christ greet you.

Warning

<sup>17</sup>Now I exhort you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine you have learned, and avoid them. <sup>18</sup>Because such people do not serve our Lord Jesus<sup>b</sup> Christ, but their own belly, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.<sup>c</sup> <sup>19</sup>I rejoice over you because your obedience has become known to all, but I want you to be wise as to what is good, yet innocent as to what is evil.<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>The God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet!<sup>e</sup>

Sign off

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ<sup>f</sup> be with you. <sup>21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my countrymen.

<sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, who penned this letter in the Lord, greet you. <sup>23</sup>Gaius, host to me and the whole congregation, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you, as does brother Quartus.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Since Paul had never been to Rome, so far, I wonder how he knew so many believers who were there (he knew them well enough to give details about them). I suppose most of them had migrated there from places Paul had been, and he would have to know about that migration.

<sup>b</sup> Some 13% of the Greek manuscripts omit “Jesus”, as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>c</sup> Guileless people are often not prepared to recognize guile in others. So those who are responsible for the spiritual welfare of the flock need to warn the people about who should be avoided.

<sup>g</sup> One gains the clear impression that the people mentioned in verse 23 knew that Tertius was penning this letter. Not only that, they asked to be included! I wonder who Quartus may have been.

<sup>h</sup> I have followed perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in putting ‘us’ rather than the familiar ‘you’. If verses 22-24 were not dictated by Paul, then the first person is especially appropriate, coming from Tertius.

<sup>i</sup> 3.2% of the Greek manuscripts omit verse 24, while 7.2% supply 14:24-26 at this point, as in most versions.

The First Epistle of Paul to the ## CORINTHIANS

Opening Considerations

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and brother Sosthenes,<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>to the church<sup>b</sup> of God that is in Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus,<sup>c</sup> called saints,<sup>d</sup> along with all those everywhere<sup>e</sup> who call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord —yes, theirs and yours:<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.<sup>g</sup>

A word of thanksgiving

<sup>4</sup>Concerning you, I always thank my God because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus; <sup>5</sup>for in Him you were enriched in every way, in all speech and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup>even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you,<sup>h</sup> <sup>7</sup>so that you lack no spiritual gift as you expectantly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>i</sup> <sup>8</sup>who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the Day of our Lord, Jesus Christ.<sup>j</sup> <sup>9</sup>God is faithful, by whom you were called into fellowship<sup>k</sup> with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.<sup>l</sup>

A word of exhortation

<sup>10</sup>Now I appeal to you, brothers, by the name<sup>m</sup> of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing<sup>n</sup> and that there be no divisions among you, but that

<sup>b</sup> Since there were probably several local congregations meeting in homes in Corinth, not to mention “everywhere”, I have rendered ‘church’. Note that Paul obviously intended that his letter have a wide circulation, very wide.

<sup>e</sup> Clearly Paul knows that he is not writing just for the Corinthians. But just how is this letter going to get to believers “everywhere”? If Paul himself did not make copies, presumably the congregation that received the ‘original’ would set about making certified copies.

<sup>f</sup> “Yours” is the reading of the best line of transmission, as I see it, being part of 25% of the total of manuscripts. But the idea is a bit awkward, and the change of one letter solved the ‘problem’, as in the 75%—‘theirs and ours’ is straightforward.

<sup>i</sup> It appears that the early Christians expected the Lord to return at any time, which would tend to have a sobering effect upon one’s style of living.

<sup>j</sup> The “Day of our Lord Jesus Christ” includes the accounting for all those who are in Him. So the promise here is major, and verse 9 starts with ‘God is faithful’.

<sup>l</sup> To the ‘Western’ mind it may seem like Paul was being a bit repetitious; but Paul was a Jew—he is making very sure that they know where he is coming from, and where he wants to take them.

you be restored<sup>a</sup> to the same mind and to the same purpose. <sup>11</sup>You see, my brothers, it has been reported to me concerning you, by some from Chloe's household,<sup>b</sup> that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup>What I mean is that you are individually saying: "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ!" <sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided? It was not Paul who was crucified for you, was it? You were not baptized into the name of Paul, were you?

A disclaimer about baptism

<sup>14</sup>I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>lest anyone should say that I had baptized into my own name. <sup>16</sup>O yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanus; besides them I do not remember if I baptized anyone else. <sup>17</sup>Because Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the Gospel—not with eloquent 'wisdom', lest the cross of Christ be emptied of power.<sup>d</sup>

The nature of the Gospel

Foolishness to the lost

<sup>18</sup>The message of the cross, you see, is foolishness to those who are being wasted,<sup>e</sup> but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and confound the shrewdness of the intelligent."<sup>f</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise one? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>21</sup>For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its 'wisdom' did not get to know God, it pleased God to save the believing ones through the 'foolishness' of what was preached—<sup>22</sup>since Jews request a sign while Greeks seek after wisdom, <sup>23</sup>but we proclaim a crucified Christ: an offense to Jews, foolishness to Greeks.<sup>g</sup> <sup>24</sup>Now to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God, <sup>25</sup>because the 'foolishness' of God is wiser than men, and the 'weakness' of God is stronger than men.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>c</sup> If water baptism were essential to salvation, I fail to see how Paul could have expressed himself in this way—he is clearly implying that water baptism is not an essential part of the Gospel. In the early Church people were baptized immediately, not after weeks of 'preparation', because the convert was publicly breaking with Satan and his kingdom and formally placing himself under Christ's protection. Such baptism is an important procedure, and its value should be explained to any new convert.

<sup>d</sup> Dear me, is eloquence the enemy of power? Does not eloquence give glory to the speaker rather than to Christ? Perhaps not inescapably, but the tendency is definitely there.

<sup>e</sup> We are accustomed to 'perishing'. The verb here has a considerable semantic area and can be rendered—destroy, kill, deprive, void, lose, perish—depending on the context, but I believe the root idea is 'waste'. The only way to fulfill the purpose for which you were created, to realize your potential, is to turn your life over to Jesus. The alternative is to waste your life, both now and forever. Of course the enemy works to make people think the opposite.

<sup>g</sup> To the Jews, their Messiah would be a conquering king, and since death on a cross was viewed as a curse (Deuteronomy 21:23, Galatians 3:13), a crucified Messiah was simply unthinkable. What did the Greeks want with someone else's Messiah, especially a dead one—sheer nonsense!

<sup>h</sup> We like to forget this, but it is best not to do so. Arrogant servants of Satan often use stronger terms than 'foolishness'—they will use 'repugnant', 'ridiculous', 'intolerable', etc.

God uses ‘nothings’

<sup>26</sup>Just look at your calling, brothers: not many are wise, not many are powerful, not many are of noble birth, by human standards; <sup>27</sup>but God has chosen the foolish things of the world that He might put the wise to shame, and God has chosen the weak things of the world that He might put the strong things to shame; <sup>28</sup>and God has chosen the lowly things of the world and the despised things—even the ‘nothings’—that He might nullify the ‘somethings’; <sup>29</sup>so that no flesh should boast in God’s presence.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>It is from Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God—also righteousness and sanctification and redemption<sup>b</sup>—<sup>31</sup>so that, as it is written: “He who boasts, let him boast in the LORD.”<sup>c</sup>

Not with human wisdom but with God’s power

2 <sup>1</sup>So when I came to you, brothers, I did not come proclaiming God’s testimony<sup>d</sup> to you with a ‘superior’ speech or wisdom. <sup>2</sup>For I determined to ‘know’ nothing while among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. <sup>3</sup>Also, I was with you in weakness, in fear, and with much trembling. <sup>4</sup>Yes, my message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>so that your faith not be in men’s wisdom, but in God’s power.<sup>e</sup>

Wisdom for the mature

<sup>6</sup>However, we do speak wisdom among the mature,<sup>f</sup> albeit not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are being set aside;<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>but we speak God’s wisdom in a mystery, the hidden<sup>h</sup> wisdom that God ordained before the ages for our glory, <sup>8</sup>that none of the rulers of this age have understood (because if they had understood, they would not have crucified the Lord of the glory). <sup>9</sup>However, as it is written:

“Things no eye has seen and no ear has heard, and no heart of man has imagined, such things has God prepared for those who love Him.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10</sup>But to us God has revealed them by His Spirit;<sup>a</sup> because the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

<sup>b</sup> We receive Christ’s righteousness to get started; the sanctification is to keep us clean along the road; the redemption is the final victory. Now really, isn’t that a wonderful salvation? Thank you, Jesus!

<sup>c</sup> See Jeremiah 9:24. Since God has given us all we have, to glory in self is wrong.

<sup>d</sup> Instead of “testimony”, less than 5% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘mystery’, to be followed by the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue (as in some versions).

<sup>e</sup> How many missionaries and pastors today are following Paul’s example? How many of us know how to demonstrate God’s power? Faith is to be based on power, not human wisdom. If we don’t know how to use God’s power, we had better cry out to Him until we learn how. Certain theological systems virtually condemn their adherents to never use God’s power.

<sup>f</sup> This is important. Paul is not championing ignorance or stupidity. In teaching Christians he certainly used God’s wisdom. It was in his evangelizing that he avoided ‘human wisdom’.

<sup>g</sup> ‘Being set aside’ how, and when? If God’s people would really be ‘salt’ and ‘light’ (Matthew 5:13-14) they could transform any culture.

<sup>11</sup>Now who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man that is in him? So also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>We have not received the spirit of the world<sup>b</sup> but the Spirit who is from God, so that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God;<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>which things we also expound, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> interpreting spiritual things to spiritual people.

The nature of the ministry

It is not to be sectarian

3 <sup>1</sup>Brothers, I was not able to address you as spiritual, but as fleshly, as infants in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I gave you milk and not solid food, because you were not ready yet. Alas, you are still not ready, <sup>3</sup>because you are still fleshly! For since there is envy, strife and divisions<sup>i</sup> among you, are you not carnal and acting like ordinary people? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

God's coworkers

<sup>5</sup>Who then is Paul, who is Apollos, but ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord has given to each one? <sup>6</sup>I planted, Apollos watered, but God keeps making it grow. <sup>7</sup>So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who makes it grow.<sup>j</sup> <sup>8</sup>Now he who plants and he who waters are at one, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>Yes, we are God's coworkers; you are God's 'field', God's 'building'.

<sup>a</sup> To us has been granted the privilege of having a fuller understanding of God's purposes than was granted to O.T. saints.

<sup>b</sup> 'The spirit of the world' evidently must exist. If the reference is not to Satan directly, he is certainly behind it.

<sup>c</sup> Evidently one of the things the Holy Spirit wants to do is to illumine us on the subject of God's free gifts—if we would only listen!

<sup>d</sup> Note that Paul is plainly stating that he receives instruction from the Holy Spirit. If he could do it, we can too. Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Holy", to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>e</sup> That is what the Text says. A 'soulish' person cannot understand spiritual things, which sounds rather like a congenital defect, no spirit—the reference might be to humanoids à la Genesis 6 (Matthew 24:37). (I would say that the correct translation of Jude 19 is: "they are 'soulish', not having a spirit". See the footnote at that point.) Or see "As were the days of Noah" in my website: www.prunch.org, or in my book, Essays on Discipleship, Missions and Spiritual Warfare.

<sup>f</sup> The same verb is used three times, to which I have given different renderings—'discerned', 'evaluates', 'subject to judgment' (the middle one is in the active voice, the other two in the passive). The king of interpretation is the context, and the verb (avakrivo) covers a considerable semantic area.

<sup>g</sup> See Isaiah 40:13. Compare John 3:8, where the Lord Jesus says that the Spirit controlled person is like the wind, unpredictable—other people will have trouble figuring him out; when they expect him to 'zig', he will 'zag'.

<sup>h</sup> Well now, do we or don't we? How many people do you know who think like Jesus did?

<sup>i</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "and divisions", to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God that was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid a foundation, while another builds on it. But let each one be careful how he builds; <sup>11</sup>for no one can lay any foundation other than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, <sup>13</sup>the work of each will become evident; because the Day will make it clear, because it will be revealed by fire. Yes, the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. <sup>14</sup>If the work that anyone built endures, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, albeit so as through fire.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I would say that the primary reference here is to leaders of local congregations, who need to be careful how they 'build' God's 'house'. But I believe it also clearly applies to anyone whose personal life is based on Jesus Christ. Each of us will give an account of how we built our lives on that foundation. Note that we are not offered the option of changing the foundation. Anyone who attempts to do so does not belong to God.

<sup>b</sup> Paul is talking about the Day of Christ wherein those in Christ will be called to account. The Text plainly states that what we have done will be tested by fire. Someone who spent most of his time living for himself rather than for Christ's Kingdom will be surrounded by nice, dry straw (all that any fire could ask for!). So the angel aims the blowtorch at the straw—the fire is high, hot, but short-lived. The person is left standing in a pile of fine ash, somewhat the worse for the wear.

The price you pay for not living for Christ's kingdom is to lose your life. That is all it costs, just your life! Consider the words of the Lord Jesus recorded in Luke 9:24-25. Let us begin with verse 23. "If anyone desires to come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross each day and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. For what will it profit a man to gain the whole world but waste or forfeit himself?" What does the Lord mean when He speaks of losing one's "life"? One does not lose one's soul for love of Christ. Nor is the reference to being killed. Rather, Jesus has in mind the life we live, the accumulated results of our living. All that I have done up to this moment plus all that I will yet do until overtaken by death or the rapture of the Church, whichever happens first—that is the "life" that is at risk (in my own case).

Let us look at our Lord's words a little more closely. There seems to be a contradiction here—if you lose, you save; if you want to save, you lose. How can it work? The following context helps us out. In verse 26 Jesus explains verses 24-25 in terms of His second coming. The parallel passage, Matthew 16:27, is clearer. "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he will repay each according to his deeds." Christ was thinking of the day of reckoning. In other words, "we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ" (Romans 14:10) and "each of us will give account of himself to God" (Romans 14:12). "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive his due according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). I understand that 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 is referring to the same occasion, the day of reckoning. After declaring that Jesus Christ is the only foundation, Paul speaks of different materials that one might use in building on it: "gold, silver, precious stones" or "wood, hay, straw". The point is, our deeds will be tested by fire. If fire has any effect upon gold or silver it is only to purify them, but its effect on hay and straw is devastating! Okay, so what?

Let us go back to the beginning. God created the human being for His glory; to reflect it and contribute to it. I suppose we may understand Psalm 19:1 and Isaiah 43:7 in this way, at least by extension. But Adam lost this capacity when he rebelled against God. For this reason the sentence that weighs against our race is that we "fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). But the Son came into the world to restore our lost potential. Ephesians 1:12 and 14 tell us that the object of the plan of salvation is "the praise of His glory" (see also 2 Corinthians 1:20). And 1 Corinthians 10:31 puts it into a command: "Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." Now then, the point of all this is not to 'ruin' our lives, to take all the 'fun' out of them (as many seem to think). God is not being arrogant, unreasonable, too demanding. Quite the contrary—He is just trying to save us from throwing away our lives. Surely, because the glory of God is eternal (Psalm 104:31), and when I do something for His glory that something is transformed and acquires eternal value—it becomes "gold, silver, precious stones". Works done for the glory of God will go through the fire without harm. On the other hand, what is done with a view to our own ambitions and ideas is "straw". We all know what fire does to straw!

We are a temple of God

<sup>16</sup>Do you (pl) not know that you are a temple of God and the Spirit of God dwells in you? <sup>17</sup>If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; because God's temple, which you are, is holy.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become 'foolish' so that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup>Because the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness";<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>and again, "The LORD knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile."<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>So then, let no one boast in men, for all things are yours: <sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, whether the world or life or death, whether things present or things to come—all are yours,<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

As stewards we must be faithful

4 <sup>1</sup>Let a man consider us like this: as Christ's subordinates and stewards of God's mysteries.<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup>Moreover, what is required of stewards is that each be found faithful.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>So to me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court; in fact, I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup>For I am conscious of nothing against myself, although I am not justified by this; it is the Lord who judges me. <sup>5</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and expose the motives of the hearts.<sup>g</sup> At that time the praise that comes to each will be from God.<sup>h</sup>

No room for boasting

<sup>6</sup>I have illustrated these things using myself and Apollos, brothers, for your sakes, so that you may learn from us not to think beyond what is written,<sup>i</sup> that no one of you be puffed up in favor of the one against the other. <sup>7</sup>Now who is distinguishing you? Or what do you have that you did not receive?<sup>j</sup> So if you did indeed

So there it is. To be a slave of Christ means to live with reference to the Kingdom; it means to do everything for the glory of God. In this way the slave "saves" his life because he will be building it with "gold and silver", which will pass through the fire at the judgment seat of Christ without loss. In contrast, the believer who refuses to be a slave of Jesus builds his life with "hay and straw", which will be consumed by the fire—and so he "loses" his life; he lived in vain; the potential that his life represented was wasted, thrown away. What a tragedy!

<sup>a</sup> This passage contrasts with 6:19; there each individual believer is a temple of the Holy Spirit, while here the local congregation is stated to be God's temple, with the Holy Spirit indwelling the members. Note that God does not take kindly to any effort to damage His temple.

<sup>g</sup> Part of judging correctly is knowing why the accused did it. Since 'knowing the motives of the hearts' is generally beyond us [even our own at times], we had better leave the judging up to the Judge.

<sup>h</sup> I was brought up on the AV that says: "then shall every man have praise of God", which led me to believe that everyone would get some praise. However, I believe the Text says something different, as indicated in my rendering. Paul is not affirming that all will get praise (of what use is 'praise' to someone in the Lake of fire?), but that the Judge will distribute whatever praise is merited.

<sup>i</sup> Written where? By whom? I suppose the reference is to principles in the Scriptures.

<sup>j</sup> Here is the fundamental recipe against boasting. None of us chose who our parents would be, where we would be born, what language would be our native tongue. But these circumstances dictate the opporreceive it, why do you boast as though you did not? <sup>8</sup>You are already stuffed! You are already rich! You have become ‘kings’ without us! I could wish that you really did reign, so that we might be kings with you too!<sup>a</sup>

The cost of being an apostle

<sup>9</sup>For I keep thinking that God has displayed us, the apostles, at the end of the line, like men sentenced to death;<sup>b</sup> because we have been made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup>We are fools for Christ while you are wise in Christ! We are weak but you are strong! You are esteemed, we are despised! <sup>11</sup>To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty; we are poorly dressed, brutally treated, and wander homeless; <sup>12</sup>yes, we labor, working with our own hands. Upon being reviled, we bless; upon being persecuted, we endure it; <sup>13</sup>upon being slandered, we exhort. We have been made as the refuse of the world, the off-scouring of whatever, to this moment.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>14</sup>I am not writing these things to shame you; I am admonishing you as my dear children. <sup>15</sup>Because even if you were to have thousands of tutors in Christ, you would not have many fathers, because I am the one who begot you in Christ Jesus, through the Gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore I am urging you, become my imitators.<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>That is why I sent you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful son in Sovereign, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every congregation.

Not in word but in power

<sup>18</sup>Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup>But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who have been puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup>Because the Kingdom of God is not in word but in power.<sup>e</sup> <sup>21</sup>What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a gentle spirit?

tunities that a person will have, quite apart from talents and abilities. Things that were given to us do not form a proper basis for boasting.

<sup>c</sup> Wow, what a 'job description'! Any applicants? How many of the plague of self-styled 'apostles' in our day meet these qualifications? We need to understand what Paul is saying here. To be looked down on and criticized by believers among whom one has labored is one thing. Local people with personal ambition know how to do that. For God to make us "as the refuse of the world" is something very different. How should we understand this? If we insist on proclaiming a 'gospel' that the world considers to be stupid, abject foolishness, we will certainly be ridiculed. But if we insist on biblical values that the world has declared to be 'hate crimes', we will certainly be hated and persecuted, treated as refuse. The choice of Hebrews 13:13 is upon us: "So then, let us go out to Him, outside the camp, bearing His disgrace."

<sup>d</sup> Our spiritual children will naturally look to us for example. If people imitate us, how badly will they be damaged?

<sup>e</sup> Here is a plain statement. On this basis, how many churches and ministries that you know of are part of God's Kingdom? Notice that I did not capitalize 'word'; the reference is presumably to human speech, not the Sword.

The nature of the Christian life

Immorality must be punished

5 <sup>1</sup>It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as not even pagans talk about<sup>a</sup>—that someone has his father's wife! <sup>2</sup>And you are puffed up and not even grieved, so as to exclude the one who has done this deed from your fellowship. <sup>3</sup>For I indeed, as present in spirit<sup>b</sup> though absent in body, have already judged the one who created this situation, as though I were present: <sup>4</sup>in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>c</sup> you and my spirit being together, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>we must hand such a one over to Satan for a destruction of the 'flesh', that the spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus.<sup>e</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> It was reported that a man had his father's wife, a type of fornication such that not even the pagans talked about it. However, the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue (following 3.2% of the Greek manuscripts—this includes the earliest ones, that are of objectively inferior quality) affirms that this type of incest does not even exist among the pagans, a plain falsehood. Every conceivable type of sexual perversion has existed throughout human history. Strangely, such evangelical versions as NIV, NASB, LB and Berkley propagate this error.

<sup>b</sup> Interpreters have generally spiritualized 'present in spirit', but I suspect that it may be literal. A number of people who converted out of Spiritism have told me personally that they used to project their spirits away from their bodies (with demonic assistance), something that Spiritists and Satanists openly avow (they call it 'astral projection'). When I lived among an indigenous people in the Amazon jungle, the shamans claimed the same thing. At first I resisted the idea, but the accumulated evidence became too strong.

Then I began to think of possible cases in the Bible. In 2 Kings 5:26 Elisha tells Jehazi that his 'heart' went along and witnessed what he did. According to 2 Kings 6:12 apparently Elisha projected his spirit over to the Syrian king's bedroom! How about the Lord Jesus? In Mark 6:47-48 the boat was in 'the middle of the sea', or several miles from land (John 6:19), and it was night; yet Jesus 'saw them straining at the rowing' (He perceived by the eye). In John 1:48 Jesus tells Nathanael that He saw him 'under the fig tree' (perceived by the eye), something that was physically impossible; so much so that Nathanael immediately declares Him to be God. (See also Matthew 17:25, and so on.) How about Paul? In Colossians 2:5 Paul says that he 'observes' their orderliness. The basic meaning of the verb rendered 'observe' is to observe with the physical eye, which implies being within range and with no obstacles. But Paul obviously was not there as he wrote, in fact had never been there. He affirms that it is his spirit that is doing the seeing and rejoicing.

The Protestant Reformation was a result, in part, of the Renaissance, with its emphasis on reason, so Protestants in general have had trouble understanding the spirit world. So the tendency of commentators has been to 'spiritualize' Paul's statement, rather than take it literally. Of course they have done the same with 2 Kings 5:26 and 6:12, not to mention John 1:48. Here in Brazil we have many former Spiritists and Satanists who have been converted and they affirm that they used to project their spirits outside their bodies and go all over the place—several of my former students, now genuinely converted, have told me they used to do it—but they could do so only with the assistance of a fallen angel (demon). Satan's 'thing' is to be like the Most High, so he is always trying to imitate Him; perhaps God's servants used to know how to do this, only without such assistance [I have heard of a few in our day who still do].

Returning to 1 Corinthians 5, notice that in verse 4 Paul says, "you and my spirit being together", which sounds sort of literal to me.

<sup>c</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Christ", to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Christ", to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>e</sup> I do not understand this. If while in the group the man fell into such sin, how can excommunicating him (verse 13) and turning him over to Satan bring about an improvement? I would expect Satan to lock him up tight. Unless it be that the shock treatment would somehow wake the man up. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit "Jesus", to be followed by NIV, LB, TEV, etc.

Down with moral 'yeast'

<sup>6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough? <sup>7</sup>Therefore purge out the old leaven, so that you can be a new batch, like you are, without yeast. Especially since Christ our Passover has been sacrificed in our place.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>So then let us observe the feast,<sup>b</sup> not with old leaven, nor with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened loaves of sincerity and truth.

Avoid contaminators

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter<sup>c</sup> not to associate with fornicators—<sup>10</sup>not of course the fornicators of this world, or the greedy, or the swindlers, or the idolaters; since then you would have to exit the world! <sup>11</sup>But now I write you not to associate with anyone who calls himself a brother who is a fornicator, or greedy, or an idolater, or abusive, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Now just why should it be up to me to judge those who are outside? Will you not judge those who are inside? <sup>13</sup>Those who are outside God will judge, and you must exclude the wicked one from among you.

Down with lawsuits!

6 <sup>1</sup>How can anyone of you who has a dispute with another dare to have it judged before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup>Do you not know that the saints are to be judging the world?<sup>e</sup> So if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to judge the smallest matters? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we

---

<sup>a</sup> Some 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit “in our place”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.

<sup>b</sup> Presumably the Passover (our Easter)—having mentioned Christ as our Passover lamb, he applies the idea to their daily life. The Passover lamb did not solve the problem of sin; it saved any firstborn in the house from physical death.

<sup>c</sup> Evidently this was a prior missive, so this present letter is really number two. Not everything that Paul wrote was inspired; anything not inspired would not be included in the N.T. Canon.

<sup>d</sup> Since we cannot exit the world, we are obliged to deal with the sinners in it; but we do so without identifying with them and their life style. But within the circle of believers there is identification, communion, mutual commitment, and a life style very different from that of the world [well, at least it is supposed to be]. What is at stake is not only the spiritual power of the congregation, but also its testimony before the world—someone who wants to keep on sinning like the world has not been transformed and does not belong in the circle, and this should be made very clear to one and all. Paul is saying that they should not do anything that could be construed as an acceptance of his conduct.

Note that the saints are in their beds! So the activity that is described in the following verses must take place in the spiritual realm. I assume that the ‘kings’ and ‘nobles’ includes both men and fallen angels. It seems clear to me that the intent of the Text is that we be doing this right now, in this life. There is no lack of ‘written judgments’ to be imposed: Zechariah 5:2-4, against thieves and liars; Proverbs 20:10, against those who use diverse weights and measures; Isaiah 10:1-2, against those who make unjust laws; Romans 1:26-32, against homosexuals and a variety of others (note that verse 32 says that “those who practice such things are deserving of death”, ‘are’ not ‘were’—since Romans was written after Pentecost, within the Age of Grace and of the Church, this judgment still applies). God’s moral character cannot change; Psalm 34:16 says: “The face of Jehovah is against those who do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.” Presumably before wiping out the remembrance He will have to cut off the evil people themselves.

will judge angels?<sup>a</sup> How much more the things of this life!<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, appoint those who are least esteemed in the congregation to judge!<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is not a single wise man among you who would be competent to judge between a man and his brother? <sup>6</sup>Instead, brother goes to law against brother, and this before unbelievers! <sup>7</sup>Actually, the very fact that you have lawsuits among you already represents a defeat for you.<sup>d</sup> Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why not rather accept being cheated? <sup>8</sup>No, you yourselves do the wronging and cheating, and to brothers!

Fornication is bad!

<sup>12</sup>All things are ‘permissible’ for me, but not all things are expedient. All things are ‘permissible’ for me, but I will not be mastered by anything. <sup>13</sup>Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them.<sup>i</sup> Now the body is not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.<sup>j</sup> <sup>14</sup>Further, God both raised up the Lord and will also raise up us by His power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Not ever! <sup>16</sup>Can you

---

Returning to 1 Corinthians 6:2, the only difference between present and future tense for ‘judge’ is the accent, and since the earliest Greek manuscripts generally do not have accents, in them the verb is ambiguous as to tense. Most, but not all, later manuscripts accent the verb as future and every version that I have seen follows suit. But if Paul is thinking of Psalm 149, then the present tense is correct—in fact, the immediately following passive form of the verb is present tense. I take Paul’s point to be: if we are supposed to be judging the world, how can we possibly ask the world to judge us? To do so is illogical.

- <sup>a</sup> When will this happen? I do not know, but see the note above. In any case, the implication is clear that we are superior to them.
- <sup>b</sup> Obviously, if we are to judge the things of this life, it has to be during this life!
- <sup>c</sup> This is almost cute. In effect Paul is saying that the humblest believer will be a more competent judge than whatever is in the world! Of course, a genuine believer will have the Holy Spirit, who makes the difference.
- <sup>d</sup> They are allowing themselves to be controlled by the world’s values—clearly a defeat!
- <sup>e</sup> Note that ‘fornicators’ and ‘adulterers’ receive separate mention, so they cannot refer to the same thing. ‘Adultery’ does not include ‘fornication’, nor vice versa.
- <sup>f</sup> ‘Catamites’ refers to those who fulfill the role of ‘female’ in anal sex, the ‘passive’ partner. ‘Sodomites’ refers to those who fulfill the ‘male’ role in anal sex. A catamite is someone who participates voluntarily; a victim of rape is altogether different. Please note that the Holy Spirit, through Paul, is emphatic: practicing homosexuals absolutely will not inherit the Kingdom of God—period!
- <sup>g</sup> Paul makes clear that it is possible to be saved out of any of the practices mentioned, but anyone who dies while still practicing is out, ‘absolutely’.
- <sup>h</sup> The Spirit is the agent.
- <sup>i</sup> We have to eat to live, but anyone who lives to eat will face an angry Creator.
- <sup>j</sup> At first glance this seems awkward; however, that the body is not for fornication is obvious—that is not why the Creator gives us bodies. And we are to consecrate our bodies to the Lord’s service, but how is “the Lord for the body”? I don’t know, unless it be that ‘body’ is used with two different meanings, first referring to our physical body, next referring to the Church.

not know that the one who joins himself with a prostitute is one body with her? For “the two,” He says, “will become one flesh.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>But he who is joined with the Lord is one spirit with Him.

<sup>18</sup>Flee from fornication! Every sin that a man may commit is outside the body, but he who fornicates sins against his own body.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>Do you not know that your<sup>c</sup> body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? <sup>20</sup>Because you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.<sup>d</sup>

About marriage

7 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. <sup>2</sup>But because of the fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. <sup>4</sup>The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; similarly also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. <sup>5</sup>Do not deprive one another except by mutual consent for a season, so that you may devote yourselves to fasting<sup>f</sup> and to prayer, and come together again so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Now I say this<sup>h</sup> as a concession, not as a command <sup>7</sup>(though I wish that all men were even as I myself; but each has his own gift from God, one like this and one like that). <sup>8</sup>Yes I say to the unmarried and the widows: it is good for them if they should remain even as I;<sup>i</sup> <sup>9</sup>but if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry; since it is better to marry than to burn.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>c</sup> In 3:16 the pronoun was plural, here it is also plural, but since ‘body’ is singular, the reference appears to be to each person’s body.

<sup>d</sup> The eclectic Greek text currently in vogue omits, “and in your spirit, which are God’s”, following 3.7% of the Greek manuscripts—this includes the earliest ones, that are of objectively inferior quality (it is followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> This is usually understood as ‘burn with passion’, but if practicing fornicators do not enter the Kingdom, the more literal meaning may obtain.

Mixed marriages

About other situations

<sup>17</sup>Otherwise, as God has distributed to each, as the Lord has called each one, so let him live (this is what I command in all the congregations). <sup>18</sup>Was anyone already circumcised when called? Let him not reverse it.<sup>e</sup> Was anyone uncircumcised when called? Let him not be circumcised.<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, compared to keeping God's commandments. <sup>20</sup>Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called. <sup>21</sup>Were you called while a slave? Do not let it bother you, but if you can really become free, do so. <sup>22</sup>For the one in the Lord who was called while a slave is the Lord's freedman. Similarly, the one who was called while free is Christ's slave. <sup>23</sup>You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Brothers, let each one remain with God in the social condition in which he was called.<sup>g</sup>

About virgins

<sup>25</sup>Now about the virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>26</sup>I consider therefore that this is good because of the current distress—that it is good for a man to remain as he is: <sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek release. Have

---

<sup>c</sup> In verses 10 and 11, where both are believers (evidently), the Lord forbids divorce and re-marriage. Here in verse 15 the subject is a mixed marriage where the unbeliever wants out (verses 12-14 make clear that the believer is not to take the initiative in a separation). There are those who argue that if the unbeliever leaves, the believer is free to re-marry, but how can that be true? If re-marriage is not allowed if a believing partner leaves (verses 10-11), with what logic can it be argued that the rule changes if the partner is an unbeliever? It simply does not follow. On the contrary, the believer is called upon to make a special effort to win the other. However, if the unbeliever is determined to leave, an effort by the believer to go along at any cost will only prolong a climate of strife, and God has called us to peace. The point of marriage is not to make one's life a hell on earth—it is better to live alone than in unrelenting strife.

<sup>d</sup> In any place where the Gospel arrives for the first time, it is predictable that at first only one partner in a marriage will convert. This causes a strained atmosphere in the home, but if they can stick it out, the second partner stands a good chance of converting as well.

<sup>g</sup> We are not to fret, but if the Lord opens the opportunity to improve our situation, I take it that we may (and should) do so, as with the slave.

you been released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>However, should you marry, you have not sinned;<sup>a</sup> and if a virgin should marry, she has not sinned. Still, such will have trouble in the flesh, and I want to spare you.<sup>b</sup>

A sense of urgency

<sup>29</sup>Now I say this, brothers, the time has been shortened, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none, <sup>30</sup>and those who weep as though not weeping, and those who rejoice as though not rejoicing, and those who buy as though not possessing, <sup>31</sup>and those who use this world as though not abusing it; because this world's mode is passing away.<sup>c</sup>

Marriage again

<sup>32</sup>Now I want you to be without anxiety. He who is unmarried cares about the things of the Lord: how he will please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>While he who is married cares about the things of the world: how he will please his wife.<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>The wife and the virgin are also different. She who is unmarried cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; while she who is married cares about the things of the world: how she will please her husband. <sup>35</sup>I am saying this for your own profit, not to put a leash on you, but for what is appropriate, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>36</sup>Now if anyone thinks he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past her prime and thus it should be, let him do what he desires; he does not sin; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>But he who stands steadfast in his heart, not having necessity, but has control over his own will, and has determined in his heart to preserve his own virginity, does well. <sup>38</sup>So then, he who gives himself in marriage does well, but he who does not give himself in marriage does better.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>39</sup>A woman is bound by law for as long as her husband lives, but if the man should die, she is free to be married to whom she wishes—only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>But she is more blessed if she remains as she is, according to my judgment—and I think I also have God's Spirit.

About things offered to idols

8 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. <sup>2</sup>And if anyone thinks that he

<sup>c</sup> If the time was short two thousand years ago, it is now that much shorter. The point is that our lives should revolve around Jesus Christ and His Kingdom, not around our own desires and ambitions. There is no lack of marriage seminars that teach how to make each other happy, as if that were the major purpose in life. Not so. Everything in our lives should be subordinated to the interests of Christ's Kingdom, not stroking each other's ego. We like to forget 1 John 2:15-17, but to do so is not smart.

<sup>d</sup> Paul is not being sarcastic; he is just stating a plain fact (as we who are married know).

<sup>e</sup> The level of our commitment to Christ and His Kingdom has a direct bearing upon the 'strength' of physical distractions.

<sup>f</sup> Verse 38 is difficult, because the verb here (to give in marriage) seems to occur only in the NT, and not many times there. But the verb is transitive, and no direct object is given in the Text. In the context, 'himself' should be supplied, since an unknown father giving an unknown daughter does not fit.

knows anything, he has come to know nothing yet as he ought to know.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.<sup>b</sup>

Idols are really nothing

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and no one else is God except the One. <sup>5</sup>For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on the earth (since there are many ‘gods’ and many ‘lords’), <sup>6</sup>yet for us there is one God, the Father, out of whom are all things and we into Him, and one Sovereign Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and we through Him.<sup>c</sup>

Respect the other’s conscience

<sup>7</sup>However, this knowledge is not in everyone; but some, with consciousness<sup>d</sup> of the idol, still eat it as offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup>But food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we better off, nor if we do not eat are we worse off.<sup>e</sup>

The ‘rights’ of an apostle

9 <sup>1</sup>Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord?<sup>g</sup> Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, yet at least I am to you, because you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>My defense to those who are judging me is this: <sup>4</sup>Do we have no right to eat and drink? <sup>5</sup>Do we have no right to take along a believing wife, just as the rest of the apostles and the Lord’s brothers<sup>h</sup> and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to forego working? <sup>7</sup>Who ever serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink<sup>i</sup> of its milk? <sup>8</sup>I am not saying these things as a mere man, am I? Does not <sup>a</sup> It is probably true that none of us has complete knowledge on any subject. It follows that we should refrain from acting as if we did!

<sup>c</sup> Everything starts with the Father, including the possibility that we become His children. Colossians 1:16, Hebrews 1:10 and John 1:10 make clear that the Son was the principal agent in the Creation (although the Trinity was doubtless involved), which includes our own existence.

<sup>d</sup> Instead of “with consciousness of”, less than 5% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘accustomed to’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.—clearly an inferior proceeding.

<sup>h</sup> This refers to the sons that Mary had with Joseph after Jesus was born. ‘Cephas’ was another name for Peter.

the Law also say the same? <sup>9</sup>For it stands written in the Law of Moses: “You shall not muzzle an ox that is threshing.”<sup>a</sup> Is it really about the oxen that God is concerned,<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>or does He surely say it for our sakes? Yes, it was written for us, that he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope.

To live from the Gospel

<sup>11</sup>Since we planted spiritual things in you, is it a big deal if we reap material things from you? <sup>12</sup>If others have a share in this right from you, do not we even more? Nevertheless we have not used this right, but we put up with everything so as not to cause any hindrance to the Gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do you not know that those who minister the sacred things eat from the temple, and those who serve at the altar have a share in the altar? <sup>14</sup>So also the Lord has instructed those who proclaim the Gospel to live from the Gospel.<sup>c</sup>

To forego a right

<sup>15</sup>Now I have not used any of these rights, nor have I written these things that it should be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void <sup>16</sup>—I cannot boast because I preach the Gospel, because I am compelled to do so; indeed, woe is me if I do not preach it! <sup>17</sup>(If I do this of my own volition, I have a reward; but if otherwise, I have been entrusted with a commission.) <sup>18</sup>So what is my reward? That when I evangelize I may present the Gospel of Christ<sup>d</sup> without charge, so as not to use my rights in the Gospel.<sup>e</sup>

All things to all men

<sup>19</sup>Though being free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, in order that I might win the more: <sup>20</sup>To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those under law as under law, that I might win those under law; <sup>21</sup>to those without law as without law (not being without law toward God but under law toward Christ), that I might win those without law; <sup>22</sup>to the weak I became as weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>Now I do this for the sake of the Gospel, so as to become its partner.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>b</sup> Obviously human beings are more important to God than are the animals, but God is telling us to treat the animals with some consideration.

<sup>c</sup> When was that? When Jesus sent out the twelve and later the seventy, He told them not to take money but to depend on the hospitality of those to whom they ministered. Later on, however, He reversed that instruction, but “to live” refers to basic needs, not luxury.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit “of Christ”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>e</sup> If you only do something because you are compelled, because you can’t get out of it, you get no credit for it. Paul preaches the Gospel because he has to, he is compelled, so gets no credit. But Paul wants some credit, some reward! So how can he get it? Not by preaching, since that is obligatory—by preaching without charge! Paul has the right to charge but foregoes it so as to get some credit/reward. Evidently this was rather important to him (verse 15)—I confess that I don’t understand why he said it would be better to die. (Perhaps it was a bit of hyperbole.)

Even an apostle can be rejected

<sup>24</sup>Do you not know that in a stadium race all the runners run, but one gets the prize? Run like that, so that you may win. <sup>25</sup>All athletic competitors exercise general self-control—they do it in order to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. <sup>26</sup>So that is how I ‘run’, with a definite goal; that is how I fight, with well-aimed blows. <sup>27</sup>Yes, I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, having preached to others, I myself should be rejected.<sup>a</sup>

Learn from Israel

10 <sup>1</sup>Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea <sup>2</sup>—all were baptized into Moses by the cloud and by the sea—<sup>3</sup>and all ate the same spiritual food <sup>4</sup>and drank the same spiritual drink; because they kept drinking from a spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that Rock was the Christ.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>For all that, God was not pleased with most of them—their carcasses were scattered around the desert!<sup>c</sup>

Examples

<sup>6</sup>Now these things became examples for us, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. <sup>7</sup>And do not become idolaters, just like some of them; as it is written: “The people sat down to eat and drink, and got up to amuse themselves.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>And let us not fornicate, just as some of them did—and in one day twenty-three thousand died!<sup>e</sup> <sup>9</sup>Neither let us test the Christ, just as also some of them did—and were destroyed by the snakes!<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>And do not grumble, just as also some of them did—and were executed by the destroyer!<sup>g</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Now all these things happened to them as examples and were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends<sup>h</sup> of the ages have come. <sup>12</sup>So then, let him who thinks he stands be careful that he does not fall! <sup>13</sup>No testing<sup>i</sup> has overtaken you except what is common to man, and God is competent,<sup>j</sup> who will not allow you

<sup>a</sup> This is a strong term. If Paul was concerned, we had better be too! Note that this has to do with disciplining the body.

<sup>b</sup> I would say that wherever Jehovah appears in the Old Testament it is Jehovah the Son, who became the Christ at His incarnation. But in what sense did they keep “drinking from a spiritual rock that accompanied them”? The physical rock did not move around, presumably, but the “spiritual rock” did.

<sup>g</sup> See Numbers 14:37 and 16:49. Just because God is no longer striking us down like that, people think they are getting away with doing the same things. They are in for an unpleasant surprise. If the examples were written “for our admonition”, it is because they are still relevant to us.

<sup>h</sup> One would expect the singular here, but the Text is plainly plural. Well, I suppose each of the ages (plural) would have a distinct end, and the effect could be cumulative. Further, at the Rapture of the Church, this age of grace will end, which for us will be the end of the ages.

<sup>i</sup> The Greek word here can mean either ‘test’ or ‘tempt’ (test with a moral nuance), depending on the context. James 1:13 states plainly that God does not tempt us, and since in this context God is clearly involved, the correct choice is ‘test’.

<sup>j</sup> The best line of transmission (albeit representing only a third of the manuscripts) has ‘competent’ rather than ‘faithful’; that fits very well with the idea of testing, especially if it is God who is doing it.

to be tested beyond what you can stand, but with the testing will also provide the way out, that you may be able to endure it.<sup>a</sup>

Eschew idolatry!

Idol = demon

About conscience

<sup>a</sup> This is an important declaration, although I suppose we have all had moments when we wondered if we would continue to 'stand'. The Text affirms that there will always be a way out—not always easy to 'see'.

<sup>g</sup> Obviously demons exist. The visible idols represent invisible demons. When you worship an idol you subordinate yourself to its demon. There are 'idols' that are not physical images.

<sup>j</sup> At first blush this repetition of the quote seems out of place. I suppose Paul's point to be that the stated truth cuts both ways: it allows me to eat or to refrain. Indeed, some 8% of the Greek manuscripts omit the repetition, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

Do all to the glory of God

Now just why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience? <sup>30</sup>If I partake with thanks, why be slandered over something I give thanks for?<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup>Therefore, whether you eat or you drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.<sup>b</sup> <sup>32</sup>Give no offense, either to Jews or to Greeks or to the Church of God<sup>c</sup> <sup>33</sup>—even as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own profit but that of the many, that they may be saved.

11 <sup>1</sup>Become my imitators, just as I am Christ's.<sup>d</sup>

The nature of Church life

About women

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things and hold the traditions just as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>But I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ, while a wife's head is the man and Christ's head is God. <sup>4</sup>Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her own head—it is one and the same as if it had been shaved. <sup>6</sup>So if a woman does not cover herself, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>b</sup> Here is a basic principle that furnishes us with the key for deciding about doubtful things, and things produced by modern technology that are not mentioned in the Bible. If I want to go watch a movie, I should ask myself, "Why do I want to do this? Is it for the glory of God?" If I want to buy a new, super-duper cell phone, I should ask the same questions. If we really want to please God, we will give an honest answer and act accordingly.

<sup>c</sup> This text makes clear that during the Church Age there are three categories of people: Jews, non-Jews and the Church (made up of both Jews and non-Jews who are in Christ). Before Pentecost there were two categories: Jews and non-Jews. There are those who think that after Pentecost there were still just two: Church and non-Church, wherein the Church replaced Israel. But it is not so; Israel still exists as a separate entity in God's plan. Chapters nine, ten and eleven of Romans go into some detail on this point.

<sup>d</sup> Well now, how many of us would have the nerve to say that to someone? It is a good goal to aim for.

<sup>e</sup> This does not make for very popular teaching nowadays, but there it is. But is it "shameful" before God, or before men? If only before men, it is not sin.

<sup>f</sup> Verses 7 to 9 hark back to the first two chapters of Genesis. Verse 7 says that the male (ανηρ) is the image of God. Paul cited Genesis 1:27 with precision: "God created the man in His own image; in the image of God He created him"—the pronoun "him" is masculine and singular. So then, the man, Adam, was created in the image of God. When the Text refers to the creation of the woman, the image is not mentioned, and Paul followed that example. Genesis 2:7 and 18-23 make clear that the man was created first, with an interval before the woman was created.

<sup>g</sup> The vocabulary item that I rendered as 'pride-and-joy' is usually translated as 'glory', but this context is not referring to brightness. In just what sense could the man be the 'glory' of God? The Text makes clear that God attributes a special importance to the man. We may understand that our planet was created precisely to serve as a habitat for him. Genesis 3:8 says that Jehovah would walk in the garden in the cool of the day, and in verse 9 He called the man, "Adam, where are you?" We may understand that Jehovah was in the habit of walking and talking with Adam—it was something He enjoyed doing. Calamitously, the Fall deprived the Creator of that pleasure. But 2 Chronicles 16:9, and especially John 4:23, make clear that God still misses that communion. Indeed, the whole plan of salvation emphasizes the importance that God attributes to mankind. For all of that, I chose 'pride-and-joy'. As for the woman, the simple fact that Adam chose to accompany the woman in the Fall shows how important she was to him. Throughout the history of this planet, there have been wars fought over a woman, and so on.

from woman, but woman from man; <sup>9</sup>and neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>—for this reason the woman needs to have authority upon her head, because of the angels<sup>b</sup>—<sup>11</sup>nevertheless, in the Lord neither is man independent of woman nor woman independent of man. <sup>12</sup>Because as the woman came from the man, so also the man comes through the woman;<sup>c</sup> but all things are from God.

<sup>13</sup>Judge among yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Does not nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? <sup>15</sup>But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, because that hair has been given for a covering.

<sup>16</sup>But if anyone decides to be contentious, neither we nor the congregations of God have any other practice.<sup>d</sup>

About the Lord's Supper

Some local abuses

<sup>17</sup>Now in giving the following instruction I do not praise you, since you are not coming together for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>Because, to begin, I hear that when you come together in an assembly there are divisions among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>19</sup>For there would really need to be factions among you so that the 'approved' ones may be recognized among you.<sup>e</sup>

How the Lord inaugurated it

<sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord that which I also transmitted to you: The Lord Jesus, during the night in which He was betrayed, took bread; <sup>24</sup>and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said: "Take, eat; this is my body that is being broken<sup>g</sup> on your behalf; do this in remembrance of me." <sup>25</sup>In the same way, after they had dined, He took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my <sup>a</sup> The Creator's purpose in making the woman was to give the man an appropriate helper, which means that it is the man who is supposed to have a project, to which his wife is supposed to contribute.

<sup>b</sup> I believe verse ten constitutes an aside that derives from verse nine, not from verses five and six. The general practice in the versions of adding 'symbol of' before 'authority' is unwarranted, and does damage to the Text. The woman was created for the man, but since there are no female angels, the angels are very fascinated by the female of our species (remember Genesis 6). For this reason women need the protection of male authority. (Those feminists who peremptorily reject any semblance of male authority are just asking for a demon, and what little demon is going to object?)

<sup>c</sup> That is to say, every man since Adam receives birth through a woman. It is obvious that the continued existence of our race requires both sexes.

<sup>d</sup> Back in verse 2 above Paul mentions 'traditions', and traditions are not the same as commandments. To disobey God's commands is sin, but what of disobeying a tradition? The impression I gain is that disobeying a tradition is not sin, although it does have consequences.

<sup>e</sup> I take it that Paul is using a bit of irony here, but maybe not—to have levels of society in a congregation there must be criteria to define such levels. But does God want levels of society in a congregation?

blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.” <sup>26</sup>For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death,<sup>a</sup> until He comes.

Be careful to partake worthily

<sup>27</sup>So then whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord’s cup unworthily will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and then let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. <sup>29</sup>Because he who eats and drinks unworthily<sup>b</sup> eats and drinks judgment to himself, not distinguishing the Lord’s<sup>c</sup> body. <sup>30</sup>Because of this many among you are weak and sick, and a good many have died.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>31</sup>If we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, so that we may not be condemned with the world.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>33</sup>So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup>But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together into judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

About spiritual gifts

12 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning the spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. <sup>2</sup>You know that when you were pagans you were always led toward the mute idols,<sup>f</sup> being carried away. <sup>3</sup>Therefore I inform you that no one speaking by God’s Spirit calls Jesus accursed, and no one can declare Jesus to be Lord<sup>g</sup> except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup>Now there are allotments of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are allotments of ministries, and the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are allotments of ac-

<sup>a</sup> The bread and the cup have to do with the physical body that died on the cross, not with the Church.

<sup>b</sup> About 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “unworthily”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.

<sup>c</sup> The eclectic Greek text currently in vogue omits ‘Lord’s’ (following just 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, to be followed in turn by such versions as NASB and LB). Here in Brazil there are many who claim, based on this variant, that ‘the body’ here is the church, not Jesus’ physical body. So they walk around, trading bread and wine with each other, laughing, talking, slapping each other on the back, having a general good time [their way of distinguishing the church]. Surely the appropriate way to ‘remember the Lord’s death’ is to be in an attitude of penitent thanksgiving, confessing any sin, renewing one’s commitment—this is something you do alone with God. Those who party instead of examine may well discover that they were partaking unworthily.

<sup>d</sup> Ever since the Flood the Creator has imposed and exacted the death penalty for those who shed innocent blood (Genesis 9:5-6). There are dozens of passages in the Old Testament that deal with the theme of blood guiltiness. Here are a few: Exodus 21:12, “shall surely be put to death”; Exodus 21:14, a murderer was even to be dragged away from the altar and killed; Numbers 35:31, “you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer, ...he shall surely be put to death”; 2 Kings 24:4, “he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon”. Here in verses 27 and 30 Paul says that God had killed ‘a good many’ because they were ‘guilty of the blood of the Lord’. Romans 1:32, written decades after Pentecost, affirms that murderers are still deserving of death. We all need the shed blood of God’s Lamb for cleansing from sin, but please do not take it lightly!

<sup>f</sup> By whom or what? I would say that it was by Satan’s emissaries, in one way or another.

tivities, but the same God is He who works them all, in all.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the common good.<sup>b</sup>

A list of gifts

An analogy from the body

<sup>12</sup>Now just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of that one body, though being many, are one body, so also is the Christ. <sup>13</sup>For we also were all baptized into one body by one Spirit<sup>g</sup>—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and were all given to drink into one Spirit.<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>For in fact the body is not one part but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body,” it would not therefore cease to be of the body. <sup>16</sup>And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body,” it would not therefore cease to be of the body. <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? <sup>18</sup>But God has really placed the members in the body, each one of them, just as He pleased.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> If gifts, ministries and activities are all allotted by God, then the life of any congregation is supposed to be under His direct control.

<sup>c</sup> There is no such thing as ‘the gift of healing’, at least not in the Text. ‘healings’ is always a noun, not a verb, and is always plural; ‘gifts’ is also always plural, never singular. So the Spirit distributes gifts or presents of healings. That said, it also appears to be true that certain people receive an unusual number of such presents, giving rise to a ‘ministry of healing’.

<sup>d</sup> Why ‘discernings’ (pl), which is what the Text says? I suppose one could say it was discerning at different times, but if a gift is used more than once, that meaning is automatic. Could it refer to the different kinds of spirit beings? I can think of five: the Holy Spirit, good angels, demons (fallen angels), a normal human spirit, and a projected human spirit (all of which are usually invisible to us, which is why special discernment is needed). I would now say that humanoids (demon with woman) should be added to the list.

<sup>e</sup> The Text plainly says ‘kinds’ (plural) of languages. I never understood this until I heard a student of mine using more than one language. I am a linguist (PhD) and I know when I am listening to a real language (it has structure). This student had (and presumably still has) one language for worship, another for intercession, another for warfare, and I think there was at least one more—they were very different, but were clearly real languages. Later I got to know a competent surgeon who has at least four languages. Whoever claims to have the gift of tongues should have more than one; after all, in all Bibles ‘tongues’ is plural, and plural means more than one.

<sup>f</sup> No one gets a gift just because he wants it; the Holy Spirit has His own criteria for distributing them. However, in verse 31 below we are commanded to desire the best gifts. We are to ask, and the Holy Spirit takes it from there.

<sup>g</sup> It is the Holy Spirit who places us into the Body of Christ.

<sup>h</sup> The imagery here seems awkward; but if you drink something, it is then inside you, and once regenerate we have the Holy Spirit inside us. But He is much, much bigger than we are, so we wind up inside Him (perhaps a little like swallowing water while swimming).

<sup>i</sup> This is true of our physical bodies, but it is also true of any congregation.

<sup>19</sup>(If the whole were just one member, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup>But in fact the parts are many but the body one.)<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Further, the eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you”; nor again the head to the feet, “I do not need you.” <sup>22</sup>Much to the contrary, those members of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup>And the parts of the body that we consider to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unrepresentables have special modesty, <sup>24</sup>while our presentables do not need it. Yes, God has blended the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacks it, <sup>25</sup>so that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another; <sup>26</sup>and if one member suffers, all the members should suffer along, or if one member is honored, all the members should rejoice along.<sup>b</sup>

Functions in the Church

<sup>27</sup>Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. <sup>28</sup>And those whom God has appointed in the Church are: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; after that miracles, then<sup>c</sup> presents of healings, helps, administrations, kinds of languages. <sup>29</sup>All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not miracle workers, are they? <sup>30</sup>All do not have presents of healings, do they? All do not speak languages, do they? All do not interpret, do they?<sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the best gifts.

<sup>a</sup> To the ‘Western’ mind this may seem redundant, but recall that Paul was a Jew. Can you imagine a body that is nothing more than a huge, monstrous tongue?

<sup>b</sup> Since both the Textus Receptus and the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue have ‘suffer’ and ‘rejoice’ in the Indicative (following 60% of the Greek manuscripts), most versions do too. But the 40% includes the best line of transmission and has the verbs in the Subjunctive. Since Paul is applying the figure of a body to people, it is obvious that although we should share, we are not obliged to do so, and often do not.

Presumably even the most ardent ‘cessationist’ will grant that “teachers”, “helps” and “administrations” are still around. But this letter was written around 55 AD, well into the Church Age, therefore. Why would God “appoint in the Church” things that would be extinguished in a few decades. If miracles come “after” teachers, how can miracles be gone if teachers are still here? We have the command to “earnestly desire the best gifts”, so which ones are the best? Presumably those at the top of the hierarchical list. Why would God command us to earnestly desire a gift like apostleship, if He was going to extinguish it before the end of the first century? In such an event the command would be meaningless for the last 1900 years!

<sup>d</sup> The Greek grammar of verses 29 and 30 is plain: no gift is given to everybody—not everyone is an apostle and not everyone speaks languages. Those churches that teach that speaking in tongues is the necessary sign of being ‘baptized in the Spirit’ (and until you are ‘baptized’ you are a 2nd class citizen, if a citizen at all), have done untold damage to their people. Since the Holy Spirit simply does not give ‘tongues’ to everybody, those who do not get it are out in the cold. But the social pressure is intolerable, so many end up faking it. Since many of the leaders are also faking it, the social problem is solved; the person is ‘in’. But since Satan is the source of all lies, someone who fakes it is living a lie and invites Satan into his life. I have been in many Pentecostal, neo-pentecostal, charismatic, whatever churches and have heard thousands of people ‘speaking in tongues’—a large majority were faking it, while a few were speaking a real language, but under demonic control. A church that teaches a lie invites Satan into the church, and he does not hesitate. Of course some had the genuine gift.

About agape love

13 And now I show you a most excellent way.<sup>a</sup> <sup>1</sup>If I speak the languages of men, even of angels,<sup>b</sup> but have not love, I have become a sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>And if I have prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains,<sup>c</sup> but have not love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>Even if I give away all my possessions and hand over my body to be burned,<sup>d</sup> but have not love, it profits me nothing.

Love described

Now as for prophecies, they will be set aside; as for languages, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will be superseded; <sup>9</sup>since we know in part and prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup>But whenever the complete should come, then the ‘in part’ will be done away with. <sup>11</sup>(When I was a small child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; but when I became a man, I put away the things of the child.) <sup>12</sup>Because now we see blurred images as in a metal mirror, but then <sup>a</sup> Most versions oppose love to the gifts, either by calling it ‘more excellent’ or by adding the definite article (that is not in the Text) ‘the most excellent’. I seriously doubt that the author had that in mind. The term huperbolē refers to an extraordinarily high level of quality, but is not inherently exclusive. Had Paul put the definite article it would be exclusive, but he did not. Since God is not the author of confusion, and since He gives both gifts and love, I would say that they are supposed to work together. See 14:1 below.

<sup>b</sup> I would say that this is an argument a fortiori, which being freely translated would be, “If I speak the languages of men, or even of angels (if there were such a thing).” Since angels are spirit beings (Hebrews 1:13-14) and do not normally have physical bodies (although they can materialize in our world), they do not have literal tongues and ears, and consequently do not use sound to communicate among themselves—I suppose they use some sort of thought transference (something we cannot do, at least not yet). The claim of any group that calls the gibberish they speak an angelic language I consider to be a plain falsehood, besides being a pitiful insult to the angels.

<sup>c</sup> Evidently it takes a special level or quality of faith to actually move a mountain, a level to which I myself have yet to attain.

καυθρομαι f<sup>35</sup> (50.6%) OC || καυθρομαι C (44.7%) HF,RP,TR,CP || καυθροσαι (1%) || καυθη (0.8%) || καυχρομαι P<sup>46</sup>NA,B (1.5%) NU || καυχρομαι 048 (0.5%) || four further variants (0.8%).

Until 1991, when the collations for select variant sets done by the Institute for New Testament Textual Research in Münster, Germany appeared, statements of evidence presented the Future Subjunctive form (that of the Textus Receptus) as being attested by the heavy Byzantine majority. Since Greek grammar does not have a Future Subjunctive, there were those who made sport of the Textus Receptus for reproducing a non-existent form—usually they were partisans of the Aorist Subjunctive form, that changes the verb and is attested by only 1.5% of the manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality). We now know that the real majority form is the Future Indicative, but since it immediately follows iva, that usually takes the Subjunctive, many scribes may have made the change virtually without thinking. The verb ‘to boast’, as in the eclectic Greek text, is totally out of place here—how can you boast with love?

face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also am fully known.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>For now these three obtain: faith, hope, love; and the greatest of these is love.<sup>b</sup>

Prophecy is better than Tongues

14 <sup>1</sup>Pursue love, and desire the spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. <sup>2</sup>Because he who speaks in a 'language' is not speaking to people but to God, since no one understands; in spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>3</sup>But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to people.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>The one speaking in a 'language' edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the congregation. <sup>5</sup>I could wish<sup>d</sup> that you all spoke in 'languages', but even more that you might prophesy; because the one prophesying is greater than the one speaking in 'languages'<sup>e</sup> (unless he interprets),<sup>f</sup> so that the congregation may receive edification.

Messages need to be intelligible

<sup>6</sup>Now then, brothers, what good will I do you if I come to you speaking in 'languages' instead of addressing you with revelation, or with knowledge, or with prophecy, or with teaching? <sup>7</sup>Take lifeless things like a flute or a harp; if they make no distinction in the notes when they produce sound, how will it be known what is being piped or harped? <sup>8</sup>Also a trumpet; if it gives an indistinct sound, who will prepare for battle? <sup>9</sup>So it is with you: if you do not deliver an intelligible message with the 'language', how will it be known what is being said? You will

<sup>a</sup> Verses 8<sup>b</sup>-10 have received more than their fair share of mistreatment, partly because commentators have not linked verse 12 to them (seeing verse 11 as parenthetical). Consider verse 10: "But whenever the complete should come, then the 'in part' will be done away with." If we can pinpoint the 'then', we will have also pinpointed the 'when'; and verse 12 pinpoints the 'then'. When will we see 'face to face', when will we know as we are known? 1 John 3:2 has the answer: "Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." It is at the return of Christ that we will see 'face to face', so "whenever the complete should come" refers to Christ at His second coming. The problem with 'prophecy', 'tongues' and our present 'knowledge' is that they are 'in part', but after the return of Christ we will have no further need for them. Since Christ has not returned yet, these 'in part' things are still certainly with us. The claim that 'the complete' refers to the completed New Testament canon and that the miraculous gifts ceased when the last shovel of dirt fell on the Apostle John's grave is an historical falsehood, besides doing violence to the Text. Christians who lived during the 2nd, 3rd and 4th centuries, whose writings have come down to us, affirm that the gifts were still in use in their day. No 20th or 21st century Christian, who was not there, is competent to contradict them. If it had really been the Holy Spirit's purpose to tell us that the charismata would disappear in a few decades, He presumably could have done a much better job of it.

<sup>b</sup> We will not need faith and hope in Heaven, but love will continue.

<sup>c</sup> Prophecy is not only for foretelling the future, but all true prophecy comes directly from God. Many churches today give 'prophecy/prophecy' an unbiblical meaning, wherein the people tell each other all the good things they hope will happen to them. That is just wishful thinking, not true prophecy.

<sup>d</sup> The verb here is ambiguous as to mode; it could be either Indicative or Subjunctive. Since Paul has already stated that not everyone receives 'languages', and that the Holy Spirit distributes as He chooses, the Subjunctive is the correct choice.

<sup>e</sup> For someone to argue that he is being humble in seeking and using the lesser gift will not pass muster, because in 12:31 we are commanded to seek the best gifts.

<sup>f</sup> According to verse 27 below, only one interpreter should perform his function during a given meeting. So if someone says he is going to interpret his own language, he must have the genuine gift and be able to interpret any other languages. (I have witnessed no end of people faking a language and then faking its interpretation.)

just be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup>There are probably a great many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without significance. <sup>11</sup>But if I do not know the force of the sound, I will be a foreigner to the speaker, and he will be a foreigner to me.

<sup>12</sup>And you too: since you are zealous for spiritual things, aim at the edification of the congregation, that you may all grow. <sup>13</sup>Therefore the one speaking in a ‘language’ should pray that someone interpret.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in a ‘language’, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup>So what then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will also pray with the mind; I will sing with the spirit, but I will also sing with the mind. <sup>16</sup>Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the outsider say the “Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup>You, of course, give thanks quite well, but the other is not edified.

Paul’s example

<sup>18</sup>I thank my God speaking in ‘languages’ more than you all,<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>but in the congregation I would rather speak five words with my understanding, precisely so as to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a ‘language’.

<sup>20</sup>Brothers, stop thinking like children—well, in malice be ‘infants’, but in thinking be adults. <sup>21</sup>In the law it stands written:

“I will speak to this people in foreign languages and with different ‘lips’, but not even then will they listen to me,”<sup>c</sup> says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore the ‘languages’ are for a sign, not to believers but to unbelievers;<sup>d</sup> while prophesying<sup>e</sup> is not for unbelievers but for believers. <sup>23</sup>So if the whole congregation comes together and all are speaking in ‘languages’, but outsiders or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are raving? <sup>24</sup>But if everyone is prophesying, and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is reproved by all, he is examined by all. <sup>25</sup>And thus the secrets of his heart are exposed, and so, falling on his face he will worship God, affirming, “Truly God is among you!”

There are limits

<sup>26</sup>So what goes on, brothers? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a ‘language’, has a revelation, has an interpretation.<sup>f</sup> Let all things be done for edification. <sup>27</sup>If anyone speaks in a ‘language’, let it be

<sup>a</sup> The verb, ‘to interpret’, is in the 3rd person singular. One’s first impression is that it refers to the one speaking in a ‘language’, but someone who has the gift does not need to ask. Verse 28 below says that if no interpreter is present, then those with the gift of ‘languages’ should keep quiet. On that basis, I conclude that here in verse 13 such a person should ask that an interpreter be present.

<sup>b</sup> Since Paul obviously would not use a ‘language’ in public, he made heavy use of them when alone with God. People who follow Paul’s example have told me that it recharges their spiritual ‘battery’ in short order. No wonder Paul did it!

<sup>d</sup> Like on the day of Pentecost, to be a ‘sign’ a ‘language’ would have to be one that the unbeliever knew, but that the speaker would have no way of knowing. If the unbeliever thinks you are raving (verse 23), where is the ‘sign’? To argue that ‘tongues’ is the sign that you have been ‘baptized in the Spirit’ does not follow from this verse, since that would be for believers.

two—at the most three—and in turn, and let one interpret.<sup>a</sup> <sup>28</sup>But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church; let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate.<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>But if another who is sitting by receives a revelation, the first should stop speaking. <sup>31</sup>For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>Yes, spirits of prophets are subordinate to prophets.<sup>c</sup> <sup>33</sup>Further, God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

Wives are not to speak

As in all the congregations of the saints, <sup>34</sup>your wives<sup>d</sup> should keep silent in the assemblies, for they are not permitted to speak, but to be in subordination, as the law also says. <sup>35</sup>If they want to learn about something, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for women to speak in church.<sup>e</sup> <sup>36</sup>Or was it from you that the Word of God went forth? Or was it only to you that it came?<sup>f</sup>

Paul gets 'authoritative'

<sup>c</sup> A prophet cannot control what messages he receives from God, but he can control when and how he delivers them (and may even decide not to).

<sup>e</sup> The crucial factor here is authority, and the underlying need is to protect the structure of the home, the foundational unit of society, including the church. If a woman teaches her husband in church, crossing the street to their house will not make her want to submit to him; the human being just does not work that way. That is why the Text does not allow for female pastors or teachers, since to teach is to exercise authority. But here in verses 34 and 35 Paul goes even further; to protect the husbands' authority, wives should not publicly request an explanation from pastor or teacher, since that could allow a wife to play the teacher against her husband in the home. If a wife requests an explanation from her husband, and he does not know the answer, he can consult the pastor and then transmit the explanation—this preserves the authority structure in the home (which goes back to Genesis 3:16).

<sup>g</sup> Was Paul on an ego trip, or was he aware that he was writing under inspiration? Since he says something similar in a number of his letters, it is clear that he believed he was writing Scripture.

<sup>h</sup> The verb here is transitive, so to translate as 'be ignorant' does not fit. I take it that the verse refers to widowers and single men who do not have to deal with woman problems. We have already seen 7:27 above that says: "Have you been released from a wife? Do not seek a wife." So I suppose the point to be that someone to whom none of the above is relevant should be left alone.

<sup>i</sup> Here is the inspired conclusion to the extended discussion of the charismatic gifts. Isn't it strange that most churches disobey this verse, in one way or another? 'Traditional' churches tend to forbid not only tongues but also prophecy (to 'seek' it is totally out of the question). 'Pentecostal' churches generally elevate tongues above prophecy, which is plainly contrary to the Text.

About resurrection

A review

15 <sup>1</sup>Now, brothers, I want to add information to the Gospel that I proclaimed to you, that you also received, and in which you stand; <sup>2</sup>through which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word that I proclaimed to you—unless you believed in vain.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>Because I transmitted to you at first that which I also received:<sup>b</sup> that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures;<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>After that He was seen by over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, while some have fallen asleep.<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>And last of all He was seen by me also, like one born out of season. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me has not been in vain; in fact, I have worked harder than all of them—well, not I, but the grace of God that was with me. <sup>11</sup>So whether it was I or they, thus we preached and thus you believed.

Resurrection is a fact

<sup>12</sup>Now since Christ is being proclaimed as having been raised from among the dead, how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>If there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is empty, and so is your faith! <sup>15</sup>Further, we are even discovered to be false witnesses of God, because we have testified about God that He raised the Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup>For if no dead are raised, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is useless; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. <sup>19</sup>If it is only for this life that we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.<sup>f</sup>

The sequence of events

<sup>c</sup> So far as I can tell, there is no reference to rising the third day in the OT. So why does Paul say "according to the Scriptures"? When Paul wrote this, Matthew, Mark and Luke were already circulating as 'Scripture', and they all record Jesus repeatedly affirming that He would die and rise the third day. Recall that in 1 Timothy 5:18 Paul quotes Luke as 'Scripture'.

<sup>d</sup> Evidently 'the Twelve' became like a technical term to refer to the recognized group of apostles. When Jesus first appeared to that group during the evening of Resurrection Day, there were actually only ten present—the Iscariot was no longer a member and Thomas was absent.

<sup>f</sup> We would be 'pitiable' because of contrast between reality and our expectations—our high hopes would be dashed; the higher the hopes, the greater the disappointment. The Christian lifestyle is the best available, even without a resurrection. Paul comes at the question from several angles precisely because the resurrection of Christ is the center piece of our faith. Without it there is no Gospel.

ing, so also all in the Christ will be made alive.<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>But each one in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then those who belong to Christ at His coming; <sup>24</sup>then the end,<sup>b</sup> when He hands over the Kingdom to the God and Father, whenever He puts an end to every ruler and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>Because it is necessary that He reign until He has put all the enemies under His feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy that will be destroyed is death.<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>For “He has put all things under His feet.”<sup>d</sup> But when it says that all things have been subordinated, it is obvious that He who put all things under Him is excepted. <sup>28</sup>Now whenever all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subjected to Him who subjected all things to Him, so that God may be all in all.

Consequences of denial

A philosophical objection

---

<sup>a</sup> Since all human beings are in Adam, all are dying; but it is only those who are in Christ who will be made alive.

<sup>b</sup> The ‘first’ resurrection refers to that of the saved (the ‘second’ being that of the lost), and apparently occurs in three stages: 1) Christ, the firstfruits, and those He took with Him at that time; 2) the Rapture; 3) after the Millennium.

<sup>e</sup> To be ‘dead’, they were once alive, and will be judged on the basis of what they did while alive; once dead their account is closed. So Paul is here presumably referring to those who are replacing the dead in the ranks of believers by being baptized. If there is no resurrection, what is the point of doing so, especially if all you are going to get is persecution?

<sup>f</sup> Paul could not have been referring to actual physical death, obviously, since Hebrews 9:27 affirms that it is appointed to men to die only once (no re-incarnation). He may well have faced possible death often enough, but I suppose he is referring to dying to himself, to his own ambitions, ideas and wishes, so as to embrace God’s will.

<sup>g</sup> Many versions have Paul actually fighting wild animals, but had he done so as a punishment in an arena, he would have lost his Roman citizenship, which he claimed to have until the end. (And presumably the only place in the city of Ephesus where you could fight with wild animals would be in the arena.) The Text has ‘against man’, that the above mentioned versions give as ‘for human purposes’ or ‘in the manner of men’. But 16:9 refers to many adversaries in Ephesus, and if their tactics were especially nasty, Paul may have felt it appropriate to liken them to animals.

<sup>i</sup> Dear me, what is Paul saying? As long as anyone around us does not know about God, we should be ashamed. Since he speaks of ‘evil associations’ and ‘sobering up’, I suppose that they had not made a clean break with their surrounding culture, and their former associates were not seeing all that much difference in their lifestyle. A clean break would require an explanation.

that of humans is one kind, and the flesh of animals is another,<sup>a</sup> that of fish is another, that of birds is yet another. <sup>40</sup>There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the heavenly is one, while that of the earthly is another. <sup>41</sup>There is one splendor of the sun, another splendor of the moon, and another splendor of the stars; and star differs from star in brightness.

<sup>42</sup>The resurrection of the dead is like that: the body is ‘planted’ in deterioration and it is raised in incorruptibility; <sup>43</sup>it is ‘planted’ in dishonor and it is raised in glory; it is ‘planted’ in weakness and it is raised in power; <sup>44</sup>it is ‘planted’ a natural body and it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body.<sup>b</sup>

Our turn is coming

<sup>50</sup>Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither will deterioration inherit incorruptibility. <sup>51</sup>And now, I tell you a mystery: we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed <sup>52</sup>—in a split second, in an eye twinkle, at the last trumpet—the trumpet will blast and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup>Because this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal put on immortality. <sup>54</sup>So whenever this corruptible puts on incorruption and this mortal puts on immortality, then this written word will happen: “Death has been swallowed down into victory.”<sup>f</sup>

Where, O Hades, is your victory?”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>57</sup>Now thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>58</sup>So then, my dear brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

---

<sup>d</sup> The eclectic Greek text currently in vogue omits ‘the Lord’ (following 2.4% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality); and so NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. do the same—now really, to omit ‘the Lord’ is clearly an inferior reading, and to do so on such slender evidence is irresponsible and reprehensible.

<sup>e</sup> Since both the Textus Receptus and the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue have the Indicative here (‘we will bear’), almost all versions so read. But over 80% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, have the Subjunctive, which I have followed. It is not automatic; it is up to us.

<sup>g</sup> See Hosea 13:14. Hades is not the Lake of fire. Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘death’, instead of “Hades”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

Concluding topics

About a special collection

16 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning the collection for the saints, you must do just as I instructed the congregations in Galatia. <sup>2</sup>On the first day of the week, each of you should set something aside, saving up as he is being prospered, that there be no collections when I come. <sup>3</sup>And when I arrive, I will send whomever you approve by letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>But should it be fitting that I go as well, they will go with me.<sup>a</sup>

Personal plans

<sup>5</sup>Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia (for I am coming through Macedonia). <sup>6</sup>And perhaps I will stay with you awhile, or even winter, that you may send me on my way, wherever I go. <sup>7</sup>I do not wish to see you now just in passing, since I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup>So I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup>because a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

This and that

<sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy should come, see to it that he may be with you without fear,<sup>b</sup> because he does the Lord's work just as I do. <sup>11</sup>Therefore no one should despise him;<sup>c</sup> but send him on his way in peace, that he may come to me; I am expecting him along with the brothers.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Now about brother Apollos: I repeatedly urged him to go to you with the brothers, but he just did not want to go at this time; he will go whenever he has an opportunity.

<sup>15</sup>Now brothers, you know that the household of Stephanas is the firstfruits of Achaia and that they have really devoted themselves to ministering to the saints, <sup>16</sup>so I urge you to submit to such people, to all the fellow-workers and laborers. <sup>17</sup>I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus, for what was lacking on your part they have supplied; <sup>18</sup>for they refreshed my spirit and yours; so give recognition to such men.

<sup>21</sup>I, Paul, personally sign this greeting.<sup>e</sup> <sup>22</sup>If anyone does not love<sup>f</sup> our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>a</sup> let him be accursed. The Lord is coming!<sup>b</sup>

<sup>d</sup> In passing we may note that there was evidently quite a bit of traffic between the congregations in different places.

<sup>e</sup> The letter was dictated to a scribe or secretary, but Paul wrote the last bit himself; this was his signature, authenticating the letter.

<sup>f</sup> The verb here is φιλεω, not αγαπω. We must be fond of the Lord, or be 'accursed'. How many sermons have you heard on that subject? (People who think of God as an angry old 'man' are not going to be fond of Him, but if they think in such terms, they do not really know Him.)

I CORINTHIANS 16

<sup>23</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. <sup>24</sup>My love is with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

<sup>a</sup> The eclectic Greek text currently in vogue omits 'Jesus Christ' (following some 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality); and so NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc. do the same—ho hum. I have supplied 'our' on the basis of 58% of the manuscripts, including the best line of transmission.

<sup>b</sup> All commentators appear to be in agreement that Maranatha is a transliteration of an Aramaic expression [although I would have expected Paul to use Hebrew] made up of two words, but there is disagreement over how to make the division. It could be 'maran atha', meaning 'the Lord has come', or 'marana tha', meaning either 'the Lord is coming' or 'O Lord, come'. All three make good sense, so take your pick.

The Second Epistle of Paul to the CORINTHIANS

Opening Considerations

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and brother Timothy,<sup>a</sup> to the church<sup>b</sup> of God that is in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia: <sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and Sovereign<sup>c</sup> Jesus Christ.

Praise for deliverance

<sup>3</sup>All praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion<sup>d</sup> and God of all encouragement, <sup>4</sup>who encourages us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to encourage those who are in whatever affliction, by means of the encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged by God.<sup>e</sup> <sup>5</sup>Because just as the sufferings of the Christ flow over into us,<sup>f</sup> so also our encouraging overflows, through Christ. <sup>6</sup>Now then, if we are afflicted, it is for the sake of your encouragement (even deliverance), that is effective for enduring the same sufferings that we also are suffering <sup>7</sup>(yes, our hope concerning you is steadfast);<sup>g</sup> if we are encouraged, it also is for the sake of your encouragement and deliverance, since we know that you will share in the encouragement just as you do in the sufferings.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>8</sup>And so, brothers, we do not want you to be in ignorance concerning the affliction that came upon us in Asia: we were under extreme pressure, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, so that we not place confidence in ourselves, but in the God who raises the dead;<sup>i</sup> <sup>10</sup>He did deliver us from that deadly peril, and still delivers; in whom we trust that He will keep on delivering, <sup>11</sup>you also adding

<sup>b</sup> Since there were probably several local congregations meeting in homes in Corinth, not to mention “throughout Achaia”, I have rendered “church”. Note that Paul obviously intended that his letter have a wide circulation. Rather than give up their copy, would not the congregation that received the ‘original’ set about making verified copies to distribute to other locales? (Such a procedure would give us the beginnings of a ‘majority text’ in that region from the start.)

<sup>d</sup> Literally, ‘the compassions’ or ‘the mercies’. I suppose the point to be that He is the Source of all genuine compassion (you won’t get any from Satan).

<sup>e</sup> One important reason God sends suffering our way is so that we can help others later.

<sup>f</sup> We get our share of suffering, we participate in Christ’s sufferings—Colossians 1:24 and 1 Peter 4:13. Evidently for God’s Kingdom to increase among men, as we continue to undo Satan’s works in the world, we have to suffer.

<sup>g</sup> I take it that he is affirming his confidence that they will not cave in under the suffering.

<sup>h</sup> We cannot stop people from going through their share of suffering, but we can encourage them.

<sup>i</sup> If you look to the God who heals the sick, it is because you are sick; if you look to the God who raises the dead, it is because you are facing death. Paul evidently figured he had been pretty close.

II CORINTHIANS 2

your cooperation in prayer,<sup>a</sup> on our behalf; that thanks may be given by many persons for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, on your behalf.<sup>b</sup>

A change of plans

<sup>12</sup>Now this is our boast: the testimony of our conscience that we have conducted ourselves in the world with openness and godly sincerity, not by fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and especially toward you. <sup>13</sup>For we do not write you any other things than what you can read and understand;<sup>c</sup> and I do hope that you will keep on understanding to the end <sup>14</sup>(as indeed some of you have acknowledged) that we are your boast, just as you are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>15</sup>It was in this confidence that I was planning to come by you first, <sup>16</sup>and by you to proceed into Macedonia, and to come back to you from Macedonia (that you might benefit twice),<sup>e</sup> and then to be sent by you on my way to Judea.<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>Now then, when I was deciding this, I was not acting frivolously, was I? Or the things I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, so that with me there would be both “Yes, yes” and “No, no”? <sup>18</sup>As God is faithful, our word to you was not “Yes” and “No”,<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>because the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy<sup>h</sup>—was not “Yes” and “No”. In fact, with Him it has always been “Yes”, <sup>20</sup>because all the promises of God in Him are “Yes”; indeed, in Him they are “Amen”, that there be glory to God through us.<sup>i</sup> <sup>21</sup>Now He who establishes us together with you into Christ, and who anointed<sup>j</sup> us, is God, <sup>22</sup>who also sealed us and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.<sup>k</sup>

The change explained

<sup>23</sup>For my part, I call on God as witness, upon my soul, that it was to spare you that I have not yet returned to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>(Not that we have control over your faith,<sup>l</sup> but we work with you for your joy, for it is by faith that you stand firm.)

2 <sup>1</sup>Actually, I determined this within myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow. <sup>2</sup>For if I make you sorrowful, then who will make me glad, be-

<sup>b</sup> They will get a return on their ‘investment’, the time they spent in prayer. Some 25% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘our behalf’, as in most versions.

<sup>c</sup> I take it that Paul is saying that he never writes with the intention of obfuscating an issue. That would be a good example for everyone to follow.

<sup>d</sup> Paul seems to be speaking of a reciprocal boasting, and that before Christ’s Judgment Seat! We probably all know a father and son who are proud of each other; the idea may be similar.

<sup>e</sup> The “benefit” is presumably spiritual; Paul seems to be saying that he imparts such benefit wherever he goes. I would like to be able to say the same thing.

<sup>j</sup> The anointing is in the past, but the establishing is an ongoing process—note that it is “into” Christ.

<sup>k</sup> The Holy Spirit in us is like God’s brand on us, but is also our guarantee that we have been regenerated. Verses 21-22 refer to all three persons of the Godhead.

<sup>l</sup> This is an important point: in Matthew 23:8-10 the Lord Jesus forbids any attempt to dominate someone else’s faith or conscience. As He said to the Samaritan woman, the Father wants worship in spirit and truth (John 4:23-24)—the worship must not be faked, forced or controlled.

sides the one whom I made sorrowful? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote this very thing to you so as not to have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice, when I come, having confidence in you all that my joy is also yours.

About the first letter

<sup>4</sup>Now I wrote to you out of great distress and anguish of heart, with many tears, not that you should be made sorrowful, but that you might know the greatness of my love for you. <sup>5</sup>So, if anyone has caused grief, he has not so much grieved me as he has all of you, to some extent—not to be too ‘heavy’. <sup>6</sup>This punishment that was inflicted by the majority<sup>a</sup> is sufficient to such a one, <sup>7</sup>so that now, on the other side, you should forgive and comfort him, so that he not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup>Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Now I also wrote to this end: to put you to the test, to see whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup>If you forgive anyone, I do too; further, if indeed I have forgiven anything to someone, I have done so for your sakes in the presence of Christ,<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>so that we not be exploited by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his intentions.<sup>d</sup>

An afterthought

<sup>12</sup>Also, upon arriving in Troas for the Gospel of Christ, a door having been opened to me by Sovereign,<sup>e</sup> <sup>13</sup>I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; so taking leave of them I went on into Macedonia.

We have a glorious ministry

A fragrance of life

<sup>14</sup>Now thanks be to the God who always leads us in triumph in the Christ,<sup>f</sup> and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Him<sup>g</sup> in every place. <sup>15</sup>Because we are the aroma of Christ for God, among those who are being saved and among those who are being wasted<sup>h</sup>—<sup>16</sup>to these a smell of death into death, while to those a fragrance of life into life<sup>i</sup>—and who is adequate for such things?

---

<sup>a</sup> Note that it is not necessary for ‘everyone’ to be in agreement with disciplinary action.

<sup>c</sup> An interesting concept: Paul does the forgiving ‘in the presence of Christ’. He clearly believes that his forgiving, or otherwise, makes a difference. Well, he had ordered the disciplinary action, so it was appropriate for him to address the consequences.

<sup>d</sup> Well, at least we shouldn’t be, but how many Christians today really take the enemy seriously? Paul will refer to Satan by name several times.

<sup>e</sup> If it was the Lord who opened the door, was that not indicative of His will? So did he move on against that will?

<sup>f</sup> The title ‘Christ’ is usually accompanied by the definite article, ‘the Christ’—we are not to forget what the title really means.

<sup>g</sup> The antecedent of the pronoun could be either the Father or the Son, but in this context most likely refers to the Son—getting to know Him is in view.

<sup>h</sup> We are accustomed to ‘perishing’. The verb here has a considerable semantic area and can be rendered—destroy, kill, deprive, void, lose, perish—depending on the context, but I believe the root idea is ‘waste’. The only way to fulfill the purpose for which you were created, to realize your potential, is to turn your life over to Jesus. The alternative is to waste your life, both now and forever. Of course the enemy works to make people think the opposite.

<sup>i</sup> The Gospel of Christ represents both life and death: if you receive it, you get life; if you reject it, you get death. Naturally, those in rebellion against God do not enjoy being reminded that they have chosen death.

II CORINTHIANS 3

<sup>17</sup>However, we are not like the rest<sup>a</sup> who retail<sup>b</sup> the word of God; rather, we speak in Christ, out of sincerity, as of God in His very presence.<sup>c</sup>

An aside

3 <sup>1</sup>(Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you,<sup>d</sup> or commendation from you? <sup>2</sup>You are our letter, inscribed on our hearts, known and read by all men; <sup>3</sup>you are manifestly a letter of Christ, mediated by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God,<sup>e</sup> not on stone tablets but on ‘tablets’ that are hearts of flesh.)

Competent ministers

<sup>4</sup>Now we have such confidence before God because of the Christ; <sup>5</sup>not that we are competent of ourselves to reckon anything as being from ourselves, but our competence is from God<sup>f</sup>—<sup>6</sup>indeed, He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant;<sup>g</sup> not of letter but of Spirit, because the letter kills, while the Spirit gives life.<sup>h</sup>

A greater glory

<sup>7</sup>Now if the ministry of death, engraved in letters on stones, came with glory—so that the children of Israel could not gaze at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance (that was fading)—<sup>8</sup>how can the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? <sup>9</sup>For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, how much more glorious is the ministry of righteousness! <sup>10</sup>Because what had glory could actually be said to be without glory, compared to the surpassing glory—<sup>11</sup>if what is being set aside had glory, that which is continuing is much more glorious.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, since we have such a hope, we use great boldness of speech—<sup>13</sup>not like Moses, who put a veil over his own face, so that the children of Israel would not observe the end of what was fading.<sup>j</sup> <sup>14</sup>But, it was their minds that were closed, because to this day that very veil remains in place when the Old Testament is read, since only in Christ is it taken away. <sup>15</sup>Yes, even to this day, when

<sup>a</sup> The Greek manuscripts are about evenly divided between “the rest” and “the many”, but I follow the best line of transmission.

<sup>d</sup> Note that the early church used letters of introduction to help them in evaluating new arrivals.

<sup>e</sup> In some sense all of us are ‘letters’ that those around us read. To the extent that we invest in others, build into their lives, we contribute to their ‘letters’. Of course it is our lives that people see, not what is inscribed on the heart.

<sup>g</sup> Note that Paul is clearly aware that he is promoting a new covenant. The old covenant was characterized by “letter”, while the new is characterized by “Spirit” (or “spirit”).

<sup>h</sup> I have capitalized ‘Spirit’, but ‘spirit’ is also true. The ‘spirit’ of a message has to do with its purpose, which should take into consideration the local context.

<sup>j</sup> At first he used the veil because the people found the shine to be disconcerting, but the shine faded, and he kept on using the veil so they couldn’t see that it was gone. Any reflected light depends on the source, and constant exposure to that source.

Moses is read a veil lies on their heart. <sup>16</sup>However, whenever anyone turns to the Lord the veil is removed.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>Now the Spirit is the Lord,<sup>b</sup> and where the Lord's Spirit is there is freedom.<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>So we all, contemplating as in a mirror the glory of the Lord with unveiled face,<sup>d</sup> are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, precisely from Lord Spirit.<sup>e</sup>

But it isn't easy

4 <sup>1</sup>Therefore, since we have received mercy along with this ministry, we do not lose heart. <sup>2</sup>Rather, we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in deception nor falsifying the Word of God,<sup>f</sup> but by the open proclamation of the Truth<sup>g</sup> commending ourselves to every man's conscience, in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup>So where our Gospel has actually been concealed, it has been hidden from those who are being wasted, <sup>4</sup>among whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving,<sup>h</sup> so that the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them.

<sup>c</sup> “The Truth will make you free” (John 8:32). Several times the Lord Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of the Truth.

<sup>d</sup> Comparing this text with others like Psalm 1:2-3, James 1:22-25, 2:12, Ephesians 6:17 and Hebrews 4:12, I conclude that the ‘mirror’ here refers to God’s Word. As we spend time in the Word with “unveiled face” (sincerely open to what it says), the Holy Spirit moves us up from one plane of glory to another—the goal is “the same image”.

<sup>e</sup> Had Paul been writing in Hebrew, I imagine we would have ‘Jehovah-Spirit’, or ‘Jehovah the Spirit’. He here reinforces what he already said in verse 17—the Holy Spirit is part of the Triune God.

<sup>h</sup> The Text clearly states that Satan, “the god of this age”, is in the business of blinding the minds of unbelievers when they hear the Gospel, so they will not understand, so they will not be convicted, so they will not repent and convert. This is a terrible truth, the most terrible truth in the world, at least as I see it. The enemy has access to our minds, access in the sense that he has the power or ability to invade them, whether by introducing thoughts or by jamming our reasoning. The Lord Jesus had already declared this truth previously, when He explained the parable of the sower. “These are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown; but, as soon as they hear it Satan comes and takes away the word that was planted in their hearts” (Mark 4:15). In the parallel passage in Luke 8:12 Jesus adds the following words: “lest they believe and be saved.” Note that the Word is already in the mind or heart of the person, but then Satan comes, invades the mind and “takes away” that word. I am not sure just how this intrusion by the enemy works, perhaps he causes a mental block of some sort, but the practical effect is that the Word becomes ineffective, as if the person had not even heard it.

The crucial question then becomes, what can we do about it? We find the answer in Mark 3:27. “No one can plunder the strong man’s goods, invading his house, unless he first bind the strong man; then he may plunder his house.” I have used the definite article with the first occurrence of ‘strong man’ because the Greek Text has it, the point being that this particular strong man has already been introduced in the immediate context. “The strong man” here is Satan. (The Jewish leaders tried to explain Jesus’ authority over the demons by saying that He expelled them by the power of Beelzebul, prince of the demons. In His retort Jesus does not waste time with that name but uses the enemy’s proper name, Satan.)

So then, the Lord Jesus declares that it is impossible to steal Satan’s goods unless we bind him first. (From His use of “no one” it seems clear that the Lord is enunciating a general principle or truth.) And what might the nature of those ‘goods’ be? In the context (see Matthew 12:22-24) Jesus had delivered someone from a demon that caused blindness and dumbness, and in their comments the scribes and Pharisees include other instances where Jesus had expelled demons—it seems clear that the “goods” are people who are subject to Satan’s power, in one way or another. Thus we have the same essential truth as that declared in Acts 26:18—we have to do something about Satan’s power over a person so that he or she can be saved! So what can we do? Since the point of handcuffs is to keep someone from

II CORINTHIANS 4

<sup>5</sup>Now we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Sovereign,<sup>a</sup> and ourselves as your servants<sup>b</sup> for Jesus' sake; <sup>6</sup>because the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness<sup>c</sup> is He who shined in our hearts to give the light that comes from the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>Further, we have this treasure in jars of clay,<sup>e</sup> so that this all-surpassing power may be of God and not from ourselves<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>—we are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; <sup>9</sup>persecuted, yet not abandoned; knocked down, but not out;<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>always carrying about in the body the putting to death of the Lord<sup>h</sup> Jesus, so that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our body.<sup>i</sup> <sup>11</sup>For we, the living, are always being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that also the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.<sup>j</sup> <sup>12</sup>So then, death is at work in us, but life in you.<sup>k</sup>

Momentary affliction; eternal glory

<sup>13</sup>Now since we have the same spirit of faith, just like it is written, “I believed; therefore I spoke,”<sup>l</sup> we also believe and therefore speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us through Jesus<sup>m</sup> and present us together with you. <sup>15</sup>So all this is for your benefit, so that the grace that has spread through the many may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>16</sup>Therefore we do not lose heart—even though our outer man is wasting away, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day—<sup>17</sup>because our light, momentary affliction is working out for us an eternal and limitless measure of glory,<sup>o</sup> acting, I believe that in so many words, aloud or in thought, we must forbid Satan from interfering in the minds of our hearers, before we preach. For more on this subject the reader may consult my site: www.prunch.org.

<sup>d</sup> Did you get that? When you really look at Jesus you see God’s glory; that knowledge becomes a light shining in your heart. Wonderful!

<sup>e</sup> That we are clay pots does not change the nature of the “treasure”.

<sup>f</sup> God gives us the privilege of using His power, but we had better not try to take the credit!

<sup>i</sup> One is reminded of 1 Corinthians 15:31, where Paul says, “I die daily”. Clearly he cannot be referring to physical death, so it must be a dying to self. As I die to myself, to my own ideas and desires, the life of Jesus will be manifested in and through me. Or as he put it in Galatians 2:20, “I have been crucified with Christ, so it is no longer I who live but Christ lives in me; what I now live in this body I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself in my place.”

<sup>j</sup> You can’t have resurrection without death.

<sup>k</sup> There are stages in Christian life and ministry: at their beginning stage, Paul is paying the price for them to have life; later, they should pay the price for others to have life; and so on.

<sup>l</sup> See Psalm 116:10. We speak on the basis of what we believe.

<sup>o</sup> Using the language in 1 Corinthians 3:12-14, whatever we build in gold, silver and precious stones will contribute to that glory. What we do for the Kingdom down here goes into our savings account in the Bank of Heaven.

<sup>18</sup>as we do not focus on the seen, but on the not seen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal.<sup>a</sup>

We live by faith

5 <sup>1</sup>Now then, we know that though our earthly, tent-like ‘house’ may be destroyed, we have a building from God (not a handmade house), eternal in the heavens. <sup>2</sup>Further, in this one we do groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly habitation; <sup>3</sup>since, obviously, once clothed we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>Yes, being in this ‘tent’ is a burden, so we groan—not enough to want to strip, but to be really clothed; that what is mortal may be swallowed up by the Life.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Now it is God who has prepared us for this very purpose, who also has given us the down payment of the Spirit.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>So we are always confident, even knowing that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord’s home <sup>7</sup>—we walk by faith, not by sight—<sup>8</sup>indeed, we are confident in preferring to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>Yes, that is why we make it our aim (whether at home or away from it) to be well pleasing to Him. <sup>10</sup>Because we must all be exposed before Christ’s Judgment Seat, that each one may receive his due for the things he did while in the body, whether good or bad.<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>Therefore, since we know the Lord’s intimidation,<sup>f</sup> we try to convince people.

Why Christ died

We are well known to God, and I hope in your consciences as well. <sup>12</sup>We are not commending ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity of boasting on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>13</sup>If we are ‘out of our senses’, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup>For Christ’s love impels us, having concluded this: if One died for all it follows that all died;<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>and He died for all so that those who now live should no longer live for themselves but for the One who died for all<sup>i</sup> and was raised again.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>b</sup> This paragraph relates only to the redeemed; only we have the prospect of improving our ‘clothing’. As for the lost, the mortal will be swallowed up by the Death, and they will be left naked (but not cease to exist).

<sup>c</sup> If you don’t have the Holy Spirit, you don’t have a ‘contract’. He is the down payment on ‘the Life’ (verse 4); eternal life being a quality of life, we can start living it down here.

<sup>d</sup> Paul is talking about facing death with confidence, knowing it is the doorway to something much better than this life. Of course this only applies to those who belong to Sovereign Jesus.

<sup>e</sup> If we are wise, like Paul, we will never forget the Accounting. He was ‘confident’ that upon leaving his physical body he would be at home with the Lord. To have the same confidence we also must consciously live so as to be well pleasing to Him. Notice that the emphasis is on what we do.

<sup>f</sup> God’s holiness is an aggressive quality that attacks anything evil that tries to approach. That holiness is truly intimidating, and we will all be judged by it. Jonathan Edwards preached on that basis, with extraordinary effect, but there are few in our day who follow his example. On a lower level, worldly people tend to feel uncomfortable in the presence of someone who is holy, sometimes to the point of reacting aggressively. As Satan increases his hold on the world, such aggressive reaction will become ever more common.

We are Christ's ambassadors

<sup>16</sup>So then, from now on we regard no one from a fleshly perspective—even if we have ‘known’ Christ in this way, we do so no longer<sup>b—17</sup>so then, if anyone is in Christ he is a new creation; the old things have passed on; look, all has become new!<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>And that ‘all’ is from the God who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus<sup>d</sup> Christ and given us the ministry of the reconciliation,<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>namely that in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself,<sup>f</sup> not imputing their trespasses to them, including committing to us the message of this reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup>So then, we are Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making His appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God! <sup>21</sup>Because He made the One who did not know sin to be sin on our behalf, so that in Him we might become God’s righteousness.<sup>g</sup>

6 <sup>1</sup>So working together<sup>h</sup> we really urge you not to receive God’s grace in vain, <sup>2</sup>for He says:

“At a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I aided you.”

Well, right now is a really favorable time; indeed, the day of salvation is now!<sup>i</sup>

What it costs to be Christ's ambassadors

<sup>a</sup> The clearest statements giving why Christ died begin with Romans 14:9, “that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living”; followed by this verse, that we should no longer live for ourselves, but for Him. Philippians 2:8-11 refers to the final victory. Hebrews 2:14 refers to destroying Satan; saving us from hell is a by-product. As it says in Romans 10:9, “if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord...’, you will be saved”.

<sup>b</sup> The unregenerate are forever trying to explain or understand Jesus in purely humanistic terms. We who are in Christ must not do so. Further, we should not try to understand anyone in such terms—we need to take account of what is happening in the spiritual realm. (As a student Saul of Tarsus had certainly seen and heard Jesus.)

<sup>g</sup> Here we are face to face with the mystery of our redemption. Jesus, God’s Son, never sinned, did not ‘know’ sin, experientially, but He was “made to be sin” on our behalf. It is a grim picture, as though on the cross He was changed into a bundle of sin. And in exchange He gave us His righteousness. How can we ‘measure’ or understand such love? It is beyond our comprehension. As Romans 11:33 expresses it: “Oh the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!”

<sup>i</sup> See Isaiah 49:8. The ‘window’ of opportunity for any individual does not last forever.

we live on, as chastened and not killed; <sup>10</sup>as sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing everything! <sup>a</sup>

An aside

<sup>11</sup>O Corinthians! We have spoken openly to you, our heart is open wide. <sup>12</sup>You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your affections. <sup>13</sup>Now in return for the same (I speak as to my children), you also be wide open.

Separation is a 'must'

<sup>14</sup>Do not enter a mismatch with unbelievers; <sup>b</sup> for what do righteousness and lawlessness have in common? And what fellowship does light have with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what agreement is there between Christ and Belial? Or what portion can a believer share with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>Further, what agreement can a temple of God have with idols? Because you <sup>c</sup> are a temple of the living God, just as God said:

“I will dwell in them and walk among them;
I will be their God and they will be my people.” <sup>d</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Therefore,

“Come out from among them and be separate,” says the Lord, “Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you.” <sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>And,

“I will be a Father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to me, says the LORD Almighty.” <sup>f</sup>

7 <sup>1</sup>Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>g</sup>

Titus, and the first letter

Introduction

<sup>2</sup>Make room for us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have exploited no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not say this to condemn you; I have said before that you are in our hearts, whether to die together or to live together. <sup>4</sup>I have great confidence in you; I do a lot of boasting about you. I am filled with encouragement, overflowing with joy in spite of all our affliction.

Enter Titus

<sup>5</sup>Now indeed, when we came into Macedonia we had no physical rest, but were surrounded by affliction—conflicts on the outside, fears on the inside. <sup>6</sup>But the God who encourages the lowly encouraged us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7</sup>and not <sup>a</sup> Well, well, well, there really ought to be an easier way to make a living! Well, it depends on what kind of living quarters you want in Heaven. When I get there I hope to see many individuals who can say to me, “You made me rich; thank you!”.

<sup>b</sup> This does not refer only to marriage, as the explanation that follows makes clear.

<sup>g</sup> “Perfecting holiness in the fear of God”—how long since you heard, or preached, a sermon on that?

II CORINTHIANS 8

only by his coming, but also by how much he was encouraged over you as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal in my stead, so that I rejoiced even more.

The effect of the first letter

<sup>8</sup>Even though that letter caused you sorrow, I do not regret it (though I almost did), because I perceive that the letter made you sorry, though only for a while. <sup>9</sup>Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry as God intended, so as not to be harmed by us in any way.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>Now godly sorrow produces repentance into salvation without regret, but the world's sorrow produces death.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Just consider your own being caused to sorrow in a godly manner, how much diligence it produced in you—what self-defense, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have demonstrated yourselves to be clear in the matter. <sup>12</sup>So even though I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the wrongdoer, nor for that of the victim, but, before God, so that your real commitment to us might be made clear to you.<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>We have been encouraged by all this.

Titus again

Because of your<sup>d</sup> encouragement, we rejoiced all the more over the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup>Because wherein I boasted to him about you, I was not put to shame, but just as everything we spoke to you was true, so also our boasting to Titus proved to be true. <sup>15</sup>Also, his affection for you is all the greater, as he remembers your collective obedience as you received him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup>I am so glad that I have complete confidence in you.<sup>e</sup>

The collection for the church in Jerusalem

The Macedonian example

8 <sup>1</sup>And now, brothers, we want you to know about the grace of God that has been bestowed upon the congregations of Macedonia, <sup>2</sup>that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their extreme poverty produced their extravagant, sincere generosity. <sup>3</sup>Because according to their ability, I bear witness, even beyond that ability, of their own accord, <sup>4</sup>they begged us with much entreaty to receive the gift, the sharing in the ministry to the saints <sup>5</sup>—and more than we had hoped, they first gave themselves to the Lord<sup>f</sup> (and due to God's will, to us).

---

<sup>a</sup> The implication is that it is possible for those in spiritual authority to cause harm, through the misuse of that authority. I imagine that we have all seen this sort of thing happen in fact.

<sup>b</sup> The Creator made us with emotions, which when properly used are beneficial, but that under the world's control are destructive.

<sup>f</sup> Is obeying the commands of Christ the exclusive privilege of the rich? How about the first believers, there in Jerusalem, were they rich or poor? It would appear that the vast majority were poor; so much so that the few well-to-do were selling their property to feed the rest. (That is what gave rise to the case of Ananias and Sapphira [Acts 4:32-5:11].) They evidently did not want to leave Jerusalem, in spite of the Lord's words recorded in Luke 24:49 and Acts 1:8. So God Himself sent the persecutions to disperse them. And they scattered, preaching as they went, poor though they were.

<sup>6</sup>So we urged Titus that as he had made a beginning so he should also bring to completion in you this grace as well; <sup>7</sup>that as you excel in everything—in faith, in word, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—that you excel in this grace too.

Christ's example

<sup>8</sup>I am not giving a command, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. <sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for our<sup>a</sup> sakes He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich. <sup>10</sup>So here is my advice in this (since already a year ago you began to give and to plan, this is to your advantage): <sup>11</sup>now you must really finish the doing—not only of the enthusiastic planning but also of the completing—out of what you have <sup>12</sup>(because when the intention is presented, it is acceptable according to what one may have, not what he does not have). <sup>13</sup>Now this is not to distress you so as to relieve others, <sup>14</sup>but by way of balance—at this juncture your surplus alleviates their lack, so that later their surplus may alleviate your lack—yes, that there be balance;<sup>b</sup> <sup>15</sup>as it is written: “He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little.”<sup>c</sup>

When handling money, avoid criticism

<sup>16</sup>Now thanks be to God who puts the same earnest care for you in the heart of Titus; <sup>17</sup>because he not only welcomed my appeal but being very diligent he went to you of his own accord.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>But we have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Gospel is throughout all the congregations—<sup>19</sup>and not only that: he was actually chosen by the congregations as our traveling companion with this gift, that is being administered by us—with a view to the glory of the Lord Himself, and to our own goodwill, <sup>20</sup>avoiding any criticism about how we are handling this abundance; <sup>21</sup>giving thought to blamelessness, not only before the Lord but also before men.<sup>e</sup> <sup>22</sup>Further, we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more so, because of our<sup>f</sup> great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup>As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker toward you; as for our brothers, they are envoys of the congregations, a

Here in 2 Corinthians 8:1-5 we find an account that is very much to the point. Those Macedonian believers were very poor (“extreme poverty”). Furthermore, they were experiencing a “severe test of affliction”. Even so, they insisted on giving. From verse 4 it almost seems that Paul felt a bit embarrassed about asking them to give—they needed help themselves! But they insisted; they wanted to give. And they gave more than they properly could (“beyond their ability”). But how was that possible? They had the mentality of the Kingdom—in verse 5 we read that “first they gave themselves to the Lord”. And they must have understood the secret of God’s economy, as described in 2 Corinthians 9:8.

<sup>a</sup> Although some 60% of the Greek manuscripts, and most versions, have ‘your’ (thereby agreeing with the complement), I take it that the best line of transmission has “our”, that is more inclusive.

<sup>b</sup> Note that I have replaced the usual ‘equality’ with ‘balance’. God is not egalitarian; He likes diversity—no two snowflakes are identical, no two drops of water, no two leaves or blades of grass, and much less two human beings. God hates laziness, so we should never do anything to encourage it (2 Thessalonians 3:10).

<sup>c</sup> See Exodus 16:18. Maybe there was some sharing involved in that picture.

<sup>d</sup> Evidently Titus was bearing this letter, and it was he who delivered it to them.

<sup>e</sup> As we say in Brazil, ‘all care is little’ when handling God’s money. Carelessness, not to mention dishonesty, reflects negatively on the Gospel. The Macedonian Christians took the matter seriously.

<sup>f</sup> There is no possessive pronoun in the Text to show whose confidence, so it could be ‘his’, but in the context it seems to me to be more likely to be ‘our’.

II CORINTHIANS 9

glory of Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>Therefore show the proof of your love (and of our boasting about you) to them as representatives of the congregations.

A little precaution

9 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you; <sup>2</sup>for I know your readiness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal has stirred up the majority.<sup>b</sup> <sup>3</sup>Still, I have sent the brothers so that our boasting about you in this matter not prove to be empty, so that you may be ready, like I said <sup>4</sup>—if any Macedonians were to go with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention, you!) would be put to shame by this confident boasting.<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>So I considered it necessary to urge the brothers to go to you in advance and finish preparing the ‘blessing’ you had promised, that it be ready, representing generosity and not extortion.

Kingdom economics

<sup>6</sup>Now then, whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>Each one should give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion; for God loves a glad giver. <sup>8</sup>Further, God is able to make all ‘grace’ abound toward you, that always having all sufficiency in everything you may abound to every good work<sup>e</sup>—<sup>9</sup>as it is written:

---

<sup>a</sup> An interesting concept—Paul affirms that Christ was proud of those men. Now that is a compliment that I would really like to hear: “he is a glory of Christ”.

<sup>c</sup> Maybe Paul should not have boasted quite so much. Do we ever get ‘carried away’ by our enthusiasm? Some 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit “boasting”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>d</sup> All of chapters 8 and 9 of 2 Corinthians deal with money, in one way or another. But the description of how God’s economy operates begins at 9:6. This verse enunciates a fundamental principle that has global application. “Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.”

Any farmer understands this. If he only plants a few beans that is all he will get. If he wants more he has to plant more. Any businessman will also understand it. If he wants money he has to invest it. But there is one detail that can be quite bothersome—we must plant first, and reap later. It is better to tighten your belt than to eat the seed, no matter how hungry you are. Isn’t it obvious? If you eat the seed you will not have anything to plant, and if you plant nothing you reap nothing!

In the Creator’s goodness nature is often quite generous. I suppose corn is the champion. We usually plant three or four kernels in a hill, but suppose we just plant one. If that grain germinates we get one stalk. That stalk should produce two good ears (a third ear will likely be a nubbin). Now then, have you ever counted the number of kernels on an ear of corn? I have. A poor ear may have 300 kernels. A good ear will have around 500. A super ear can have up to 800! Let us suppose our stalk gives us two good ears—we planted one kernel and get back 1,000! Isn’t that a deal? Even beans that only give us several dozen to one are a deal. That is God’s way.

As already noted the context is financial, and verse 7 makes clear that when the author speaks of planting and harvesting he wants us to apply the principle to giving. “God loves a glad giver.” I believe the following conclusion is beyond reasonable doubt: whoever gives nothing receives nothing. Maybe that is why many believers, including those in ‘full-time Christian service’, often seem to be in a financial bind. They do not give; they never contribute. Luke 6:38 shows the reaction of men and Proverbs 3:9-10 that of God when someone gives.

<sup>e</sup> I believe verse 8 gives the ‘secret’; let’s consider the meaning with care. It is God who is powerful, not we. He it is who will cause to abound, not we ourselves. And what He causes to abound to us is “all grace”. The grace in view here is the grace of giving (as in 2 Corinthians 8:1, “the grace of God given to the churches of Macedonia”, which was precisely the grace to give, even beyond their means). Now the Text piles up emphatic words: “always, all, sufficiency, everything, abound, every”. All that emphasis serves to guarantee two results: we ourselves should always have enough (at least), and we should be a significant channel of blessing to others. Let’s see how it works.

“He has distributed around, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever”<sup>a</sup>—<sup>10</sup>yes, the One who supplies<sup>b</sup> seed to the sower and bread for food, so as to supply and multiply your seed for sowing and to increase the yield of your righteousness; <sup>11</sup>you being enriched in everything so as to always be generous, which passing through us produces thanksgiving to God. <sup>12</sup>Because the administration of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God <sup>13</sup>—on the basis of the proof that this service gives, they are glorifying God for the obedience of your confession into the Gospel of Christ, and for the generosity of your sharing with them and everybody—<sup>14</sup>and in their prayer for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

I understand that it is as follows: God wants us to be channels, conduits through which He can send a flow of blessings, both material and spiritual, to others. Much of what we receive may not be intended for our own use—it has another address and we are supposed to pass the blessing along (the precise address must be discerned through the Spirit). When we get the point and cooperate with God, He sends more. The more sensitive and faithful we are, the more God sends, an ever increasing flow of blessings. But if God sends a blessing, suppose a sum of money, that has another destination and we choose not to understand, decide not to cooperate, if we retain it for ourselves we become like a water pipe that corrodes shut. (Now a plugged pipe is a sad thing; it has lost its reason for being.) With that, the flow of God’s grace through our lives is stanching, because He stops sending it. Surely. Why should God keep on sending if we will not let it pass? Can it be that our churches are full of ‘plugged pipes’?

When we cooperate with God He gains, the others gain, and we gain. But whoever holds back or abstains will be cheating himself, others and even God. Consider verses 9-14. Verse 9 is a quote from Psalm 112:9, bearing on the last clause of verse 8. Now verses 10 and 11: “The One who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, so as to supply and multiply your seed for sowing and to increase the yield of your righteousness; you being enriched in everything so as to always be generous, which passing through us produces thanksgiving to God.” This is marvelous! God even gives the seed to be planted, and lest we eat the seed He also gives us bread to eat. He wants us to plant, He wants to see fruit! When we are faithful and cooperate, then God not only meets our needs but augments our planting; in other words, He increases our generosity, or at least He will do so to the extent that we cooperate with His purpose. As a reasonable and proper consequence of this process God receives what He deserves: the beneficiaries give praise and thanks to Him.

Verses 12 and 13 elaborate on this aspect. When we line ourselves up with God’s economy He receives the glory due Him, the needs of the saints are supplied, and we are blessed. First, the people who receive the benefits from our ministry will pray for us, and certainly God will listen to those prayers. Next, even if they do not pray, our obedience will receive the effects of God’s faithfulness. This we know, not only from the promises and affirmations in this passage, but as an inference from God’s own interests—a faithful and useful ‘water pipe’ must not die of hunger.

So there it is, my friends. God is no man’s debtor. That is worth repeating: God will not be anybody’s debtor! We are too small; He will not allow Himself to be in debt to the likes of us. We may rest assured: whoever gives much, receives much; whoever gives little, receives little; whoever gives nothing... It seems to me that this principle, much like the tithe, works even when one’s motivation is selfish or self serving. However, I trust that the reader will agree that my whole appeal has been against selfishness. It is because of the “mercies of God” that we should present our lives as a “living sacrifice” (Romans 12:1). It is the privilege and pleasure of participating in God’s grace that should motivate us to give. I believe it is fair to say that our prosperity is in our own hands, at least in part (unfortunately it is also true that we may suffer because of others’ disobedience, just as they may suffer because of ours).

Weapons of spiritual warfare

10 <sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, am myself appealing to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ (I who am 'humble when present' among you, but 'bold when absent' toward you). <sup>2</sup>Yes, I beg you, that when I am present I may not have to be bold with the confidence that I will 'dare' to visit upon some who think that we are walking in a fleshly manner. <sup>3</sup>Well, we do walk about in flesh, but we do not wage war that way,<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>because the weapons of our warfare are not physical, but are powerful in God for demolishing strongholds;<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>demolishing sophistries<sup>c</sup> and every arrogance that sets itself up against the knowledge of God; taking captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ; <sup>6</sup>being ready to punish every act of disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.<sup>d</sup>

Paul is criticized

<sup>7</sup>Do you only look at the 'face' of things? If anyone has persuaded himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that just as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. <sup>8</sup>Now even if I boast a little to excess about our authority (which the Lord gave us for building up, not to tear you down), I will not act ashamed,<sup>e</sup> <sup>9</sup>so as not to appear to agree that it is only with letters that I 'terrify' you. <sup>10</sup>Because some say, "His letters are 'heavy' and forceful, but his physical presence is weak, and his speech can be disdained." <sup>11</sup>Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters while absent is just what we will be in action when present.

Proper limits for boasting

<sup>12</sup>Now we do not dare to class or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.<sup>f</sup> <sup>13</sup>We, however, will not boast beyond proper limits, but will stay within the boundaries that God assigned to us, a field that includes you. <sup>14</sup>For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we had not reached you, because we did indeed get to you with the Gospel of Christ; <sup>15</sup>nor do we boast 'off limits' in the labors of others, but we have hope that as your faith grows our boundaries will be greatly expanded through you, <sup>16</sup>so as to evan-

<sup>b</sup> The subject of biblical spiritual warfare is generally not well understood in Christian circles. Much of what has been written concerns defensive procedures, but this text speaks of demolishing strongholds (presumably the enemy's, since no one will want to destroy his own), that has to do with taking the offensive. For more on this subject the reader may consult my site: www.prunch.org.

<sup>c</sup> A sophistry is a false argument that is presented in such a way as to appear correct, and impressive, especially if not properly analyzed. Satan has purveyed a number of sophistries designed to keep people from the knowledge of God, such as humanism, relativism, materialism, Freudianism, and so on.

<sup>d</sup> I suppose that the three gerunds—'demolishing sophistries', 'taking captive every thought' and 'being ready to punish'—are some of our weapons, being grammatically subordinated to 'demolishing strongholds'. In the context, the thoughts we take captive are not our own (though that also is a good thing to do), but those of the enemy's servants. I do this in so many words, aloud or in thought, and thereby avoid unnecessary complications.

<sup>e</sup> He is not going to pretend to be ashamed of having overdone the boasting (in the event), since his greater concern here is to cut the ground from under his critics.

<sup>f</sup> If you compare yourself with a weakling, you can tell yourself that you are strong, which could get you beaten up. In any case, our standard is "the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

gelize the regions beyond you<sup>a</sup> (not to boast in work already done in someone else's field).

A godly jealousy

11 <sup>1</sup>I could wish that you would put up with a little of my foolishness, but indeed you already are. <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy, because I determined to present you to Christ (a single husband) as a pure virgin. <sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve with his cunning, so your minds may be corrupted<sup>d</sup> from the integrity that is in Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if someone comes and preaches another ‘Jesus’ whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you easily put up with it.<sup>e</sup>

Paul ministered without charge

<sup>5</sup>Now I consider that I am not at all inferior to the very best apostles. <sup>6</sup>Though I may not be a trained speaker, I do have knowledge—but we have been fully manifested to you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Or did I commit a sin in humbling self so that you might be exalted, in that I proclaimed God’s Gospel to you free of charge? <sup>8</sup>I ‘robbed’ other congregations, receiving support from them so as to serve you, <sup>9</sup>and when I was with you and in need, I did not burden anyone; because the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. Yes, I kept myself from being a burden to you in anything, and will keep on.

Exposing deceivers

<sup>10</sup>The truth of Christ is in me: this boasting will not be silenced in me in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows! <sup>12</sup>Further, I will keep on doing what I do in order to cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things of which they boast. <sup>13</sup>Such men are really false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into ‘apostles’ of Christ.<sup>f</sup> <sup>14</sup>And no wonder, because Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>So it is no great thing if his servants also masquerade as ministers of righteousness,<sup>g</sup> whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>a</sup> Who does the actual evangelizing? Presumably the Corinthians, not Paul himself, so he is saying that their work will contribute to his ‘boundaries’. As my spiritual children pass on my teaching, they are increasing the area that my teaching has reached.

<sup>d</sup> The implication is clear: Satan does the corrupting, directly or indirectly, and it is their thinking that he is corrupting (and that is serious—Proverbs 23:7).

<sup>f</sup> There have always been those who want to ‘get on the band-wagon’, to get a free ride; who traffic in spiritual things for personal, temporal advantage. Since such people only do damage, Paul’s desire to expose them stems from his concern for the Corinthians’ welfare.

A little 'necessary' boasting

<sup>16</sup>Again I say, let no one think me a fool. But should anyone do so, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little bit. <sup>17</sup>What I am going to say I do not say according to the Lord, but as though foolishly,<sup>a</sup> in this confident boasting. <sup>18</sup>Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I will too <sup>19</sup>(for you put up with fools gladly, being so wise yourselves!). <sup>20</sup>In fact, you even put up with someone who enslaves you, who 'devours' you, who takes advantage, who exalts himself, who beats on your face!<sup>b</sup> <sup>21</sup>Is it disrespectful to say that we were 'weak'?<sup>c</sup>

In whatever anyone is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they ministers of Christ? (I'm being irrational) I am more; in labors more abundantly, in beatings beyond count, in prison more frequently, in 'deaths' often<sup>d</sup>—<sup>24</sup>five times from the Jews I received the 'forty lashes minus one';<sup>e</sup> <sup>25</sup>three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked (I spent twenty-four hours in the open sea)—<sup>26</sup>in frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my countrymen, in danger from Gentiles, in danger in cities, in danger in wildernesses, in danger in the sea, in danger among false brothers; <sup>27</sup>in toil and hardship, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, in frequent fastings, in cold and nakedness<sup>f</sup>—<sup>28</sup>quite apart from the other things, my daily disturbances, my concern for all the congregations. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I do not feel it? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

When I am weak, then I am strong

<sup>30</sup>Well, if I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>g</sup> who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. <sup>32</sup>In Damascus the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes, wanting to arrest me; <sup>33</sup>but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped from his hands.<sup>h</sup>

A visit to the third heaven

12 <sup>1</sup>It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast; still, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or outside of it, I do not know, God knows. <sup>3</sup>Yes, I know such a man—whether in the body or out-

<sup>a</sup> The implication would appear to be that whatever we do that is not 'according to the Lord' is foolish.

<sup>b</sup> Paul is really worked up. Even allowing for his sarcasm, there were evidently negative things going on at Corinth that we do not know about.

<sup>c</sup> I found this sentence to be especially difficult to translate, and am not sure I got it right. Compared to the types described in verse 20, he might have come across as being 'weak'.

<sup>d</sup> Verses 24 and 25 spell out the 'deaths'; verse 26 resumes with the 'in's. We have no record of most of the experiences listed, an impressive list! Humanly speaking, he should have died several times.

<sup>e</sup> Deuteronomy 25:3 forbids exceeding forty blows, so the Jews always stopped one short, just in case they had miscounted.

<sup>f</sup> When the Lord told Ananias to go and restore Saul's sight, and he protested, the Lord continued, "For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake" (Acts 9:16). Paul paid for what he did against the early Church. By the way, we usually have to pay for our misdeeds down here (how can you pay in Heaven?).

side of it, I do not know, God knows—<sup>4</sup>how he was caught up into Paradise<sup>a</sup> and heard inexpressible things, things that a man is not permitted to tell. <sup>5</sup>I can boast about someone like that, but not about myself, unless it be my weakness. <sup>6</sup>Now even if I wanted to go on boasting, I would not be stupid but speak the truth;<sup>b</sup> but I refrain, so that no one will think more of me than what he sees in me and hears from me.

The ‘thorn in the flesh’

<sup>7</sup>Because of the incredible importance of the revelations, to keep me from feeling too important, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan<sup>c</sup> to beat on me—to keep me from feeling too important. <sup>8</sup>Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup>But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more cheerfully about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may take up residence upon me.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>So then, I take pleasure in weaknesses,<sup>e</sup> in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Apostolic signs were produced

<sup>11</sup>I have been boasting foolishly, but you drove me to it. I ought to have been commended by you, because in nothing have I been inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Truly the apostolic signs were produced among you with all perseverance, by signs and wonders and miracles. <sup>13</sup>Now in just what were you treated as inferior, compared to the other congregations, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong.<sup>f</sup>

Still not burdening

<sup>14</sup>Well now, I am ready to come to you a third time, and I will still not burden you, because I want you, not your things—children should not have to save up for parents, but parents for children. <sup>15</sup>So I will gladly spend and be spent for the sake of your souls, even if the more I love you the less I am loved. <sup>16</sup>Ok, ok, I didn’t burden you, but being crafty I took you by deception.<sup>g</sup> <sup>17</sup>Come now, did I actually take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you? <sup>18</sup>I urged Titus and sent the brother along—did Titus take any advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit, in the same footprints?

<sup>c</sup> ‘Satan’ is Satan. Down through human history God has always used Satan, demons and evil men, both to punish evil and to restrain it (usually in those who are evil). Here God does so with Paul before the fact, that is, to forestall the sin. The procedure was sufficiently unusual that God actually explained to Paul why He did it.

<sup>d</sup> That is what the Text says, ‘take up residence’. I would say that for most of us unusual manifestations of God’s power are sporadic (if there are any at all)—if the power ‘takes up residence’, the manifestations should be a regular occurrence. The trouble is, there is evidently a considerable price in suffering that must be paid.

<sup>f</sup> Yes, it probably was a ‘wrong’, because they were not taught how God’s economy works. If Paul had taught them the content of chapter nine of this letter early on, a considerable portion of this letter would not have been necessary.

<sup>g</sup> In verse 16 Paul repeats a criticism that someone might falsely level at him.

<sup>19</sup>Do you still think that we are defending ourselves to you? It is before God we speak, in Christ; but all of it, dear ones, is with a view to your edification. <sup>20</sup>Yes, I am afraid that when I come I may not find you such as I wish, and you not find me such as you wish—may there be no strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, factions, slanders, gossipings, conceits, disorders—<sup>21</sup>that when I come again my God may not humble me before you, and I will mourn for many who have previously sinned and not repented of the impurity and fornication and licentiousness which they practiced.<sup>a</sup>

I will not spare

13 <sup>1</sup>This is the third time I am coming to you. “At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>As I already said while with you the second time, I now repeat in writing<sup>c</sup> while absent, to those who sinned before and to all the rest: If I come again I will not spare, <sup>3</sup>since you want proof that Christ is speaking through me—He who is not weak toward you but powerful among you <sup>4</sup>(although He was crucified in weakness, He lives by the power of God). Now we also are weak in Him, but we will live with Him by the power of God toward you.<sup>d</sup>

Examine yourselves

<sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you yourselves really not know that Jesus Christ is in you?<sup>e</sup>—unless indeed you are disqualified. <sup>6</sup>Well I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

<sup>7</sup>Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do what is right (even though we may appear to have failed).<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>For we cannot do anything against the Truth, but only for the Truth. <sup>9</sup>Now we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. And we also pray for this, your perfecting. <sup>10</sup>This is why I write these things while absent, so that when present I may not have to deal harshly, according to the authority that the Lord gave me, for building up and not for tearing down.

Conclusion

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice; restore each other; encourage one another; be of one mind; live in peace; and the God of the love and the peace will be with you.

<sup>14</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> There is only one definite article for the three nouns, and ‘which’ is singular, so the three are regarded as a single ‘package’. Unfortunately there have always been, and continue to be, those who go back to a sinful lifestyle, and stay there. Like Paul, about all we can do for such is ‘mourn’.

<sup>d</sup> Being weak in God’s presence is one thing; being weak in our work for Him is quite another. I take Paul to be saying that being weak in God’s presence triggers the outflow of His power in our work.

Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to the GALATIANS

Introduction

Salutation

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through a man,<sup>a</sup> but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from among the dead<sup>b—2</sup>and all the brothers with me,<sup>c</sup> to the congregations in Galatia:<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>who gave Himself<sup>e</sup> for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of this present malignant age,<sup>f</sup> according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup>to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Paul is disappointed

<sup>6</sup>I am sadly surprised that you are turning away so quickly from the one who called you by the grace of Christ, to a different gospel <sup>7</sup>—it is not a mere variation, but certain people are unsettling you and wanting to distort the Gospel of the Christ. <sup>8</sup>Now even if we, or an angel out of heaven, should preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed! <sup>9</sup>As we have just said, I here emphatically repeat: If anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed!!<sup>g</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Am I just now appealing to men, or to God?<sup>h</sup> Or am I trying to please men? You see, if I were still pleasing men I would not be a slave of Christ.<sup>i</sup>

Paul's credentials

<sup>11</sup>Now I want you to know, brothers, that the Gospel preached by me is not according to man; <sup>12</sup>because I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather it came through a revelation from Christ.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Paul's apostleship did not depend upon human ordination or recognition. So what about apostleship today?

<sup>b</sup> The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is absolutely central to the Christian Faith (1 Corinthians 15:14,17).

<sup>f</sup> The word 'malignant' properly refers to Satan, the 'god of this world', so "this present malignant age" presumably refers to the whole world system controlled by Satan. All human cultures have suffered satanic influence, and all true followers of Sovereign Jesus should place biblical values above those of their surrounding culture. The second (last) Adam came to recover all that the first Adam lost—precisely the will of the Father.

<sup>g</sup> 'Other gospels' would seem to be in plentiful supply; those who promote them are under a curse. Note that Paul is claiming to be competent to define the only true Gospel of Christ, and he can only do so genuinely by divine inspiration.

<sup>h</sup> Since it is God who applies the curse, he is appealing to God to back him up. I myself do this habitually.

<sup>i</sup> Oops! Come on Paul, you cannot be serious. Do you really mean that pleasing men and being a slave of Christ are mutually exclusive? On the basis of my experience I would have to agree with Paul, with the understanding that fellow-slaves are not included in the 'pleasing men'. (When I am pleasing Christ His other slaves should be pleased as well.)

<sup>j</sup> I follow what I understand to be the best line of transmission (though in a minority here, 30%) that reads 'Christ' without 'Jesus'. I take it that 'Christ' is in the ablative case: 'from' rather than 'of'. Paul is

How he was before

<sup>13</sup>You have heard of my former conduct while in Judaism, how I was rabid in my persecution of God's Church and tried to annihilate it; <sup>14</sup>indeed I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age, being far more zealous for the traditions of my forefathers.

How he was re-cycled

<sup>15</sup>But when God—who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me through His grace—resolved <sup>16</sup>to reveal His Son in me so that I might proclaim Him among the nations/Gentiles, I did not start by consulting with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before I was; rather I went off into Arabia,<sup>a</sup> and then returned to Damascus.

A new life and ministry

How he was recognized by the apostolate

2 <sup>1</sup>Fourteen years later I went up to Jerusalem again, with Barnabas, taking Titus along as well. <sup>2</sup>I went on the basis of a revelation and set before them [the main apostles] the Gospel that I proclaim among the nations/Gentiles.<sup>f</sup> Now I did this privately to those with influence, lest somehow I might run, or had run, in vain.

<sup>3</sup>(However, not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, for being a Greek. <sup>4</sup>This came up because of the false brothers who were smuggled in<sup>g</sup>—who stole in to spy out our freedom, that we have in Christ Jesus, so as to reduce us to slavery—<sup>5</sup>to whom we did not yield, even for a moment, so that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.)

<sup>6</sup>Now from those who seemed to be important I received nothing (whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows favoritism to no man). Those with influence contributed nothing to me, <sup>7</sup>but on the contrary, upon seeing that I had been entrusted with the Gospel for the uncircumcised, just as was Peter for the circumcised <sup>8</sup>(for He who was at work with Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised was also at work with me for that to the Gentiles), <sup>9</sup>and upon per-claiming revelation—this is the plain meaning of verses 11-12. Saul of Tarsus got his training in Judaism at the feet of Gamaliel, but his understanding of Christianity came from no such human teacher.

<sup>f</sup> The details here do not agree with the account of the Council in Acts 15. I take it that Paul refers to a visit he made several years after that council.

<sup>g</sup> Who was responsible for the smuggling? And in whose service were they, really, even though they were evidently part of the Christian community?

ceiving the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, those reputed to be pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, while they to the Jews.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>They did ask us to keep remembering the poor, the very thing I also was eager to do.<sup>b</sup>

Paul has to rebuke Peter

<sup>11</sup>But, when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was blameworthy. <sup>12</sup>Before certain men came from James,<sup>c</sup> he used to eat with the Gentiles; but when they came he began to draw back and separate himself, fearing those of the circumcision party. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jews played the hypocrite with him as well, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>So when I saw that they were not walking straight according to the truth of the Gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all: "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?" <sup>15</sup>We natural Jews (and not 'Gentile sinners'),<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, we ourselves have believed into Christ Jesus, so as to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law; because no one will be justified by works of law.<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>But if<sup>g</sup> while seeking to be justified in Christ we ourselves were discovered to be sinners, then is Christ a minister of sin? Of course not!

<sup>18</sup>"Now if I rebuild the things that I destroyed, I acknowledge that I am a transgressor.<sup>h</sup> <sup>19</sup>For through the law I died to the law in order to live to God.<sup>i</sup> <sup>20</sup>I have been crucified with Christ, so it is no longer I who live but Christ lives in me; what I now live in this body I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself in my place.<sup>j</sup> <sup>21</sup>I do not nullify the grace of God; for if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"<sup>k</sup>

<sup>c</sup> Note that in verse 9 James is listed before Peter and John, and in Acts 15:13 it is James who gives the verdict. James became the boss in Jerusalem, and I gather from what is recorded in Acts 21:18-25 that he was sliding back toward Judaism.

<sup>d</sup> That even Barnabas went along shook Paul up; the situation had gotten out of hand. Someone had to take a stand.

<sup>e</sup> My impression is that Paul is being a little sarcastic here, since the Jews liked to think that they were better than the Gentiles.

<sup>g</sup> We have here what in Greek grammar is called a 'condition of fact'—the protasis is presented as being true—so that often 'if' should be 'since'. By using 'we', Paul is associating himself with Peter and the others as a sinner (a nice touch), but they are already Christians, so he goes on to reject the notion that Christ could be viewed as an accomplice to their sin.

<sup>h</sup> Whereas he had once tried to destroy the Church, he is now building it, which amounts to recognizing that he had been wrong before, a transgressor.

<sup>i</sup> He thought he was serving God before, persecuting the Church in his zeal for the law. But 'the law' crucified Christ, and in declaring allegiance to the crucified Christ he died to the law, so that he could really live for God. Galatians 4:4 says that the Son was "born under law".

<sup>j</sup> A tremendous statement, and when we allow it to function in our lives it is an equally tremendous truth! Those who try to live the Christian life in their own strength generally make a poor job of it; when I allow Christ to live His life through me He makes a good job of it (to the extent that I stay out of the way).

Law or faith

3 <sup>10</sup>O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you not be persuaded by the Truth<sup>a</sup>—Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as having been crucified, before your very eyes!<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>Just tell me one thing: Did you receive the Spirit by works of law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Can you be so foolish? Having begun in spirit, do you now finish in flesh? <sup>4</sup>Have you suffered so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? <sup>5</sup>Furthermore, He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, is He activated by works of law, or by hearing of faith?<sup>c</sup>—<sup>6</sup>just as Abraham ‘believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Now as many as are ‘by works of law’ are under a curse; because it stands written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things written in the Book of the Law, to do them.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>11</sup>Further, it is evident that no one is justified by law before God, because “the righteous one will live by faith.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>12</sup>While the law is not of faith but, “the man who does them will live by them.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse in our place—because it stands written, “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree”<sup>j</sup>—<sup>14</sup>so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the nations/Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through the faith.

The covenant with Abraham

<sup>15</sup>Brothers: as a man I speak a covenant; though only of a man, once it has been ratified no one annuls or adds to it. <sup>16</sup>But to Abraham were spoken the pro-

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit “that you not be persuaded by the Truth” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), which weakens the statement considerably.

<sup>e</sup> The form of the verb is ambiguous as to mood; it could be either Indicative or Subjunctive. The Indicative would give a direct quote, “God justifies the nations by faith”, but we don’t find this quote in the O.T., so I chose the Subjunctive. Notice that ‘the Scripture’ is personified! It/He sees/knows in advance what God is going to do.

<sup>f</sup> This is a direct quote from Genesis 12:3, which, of course, had not been written yet in Abraham’s day (in his day the only written Scripture available was the book of Job). Notice that the personification of ‘Scripture’ continues; It/He is the One who said this to Abraham, so all we need to do is go back to Genesis to find out who it is—Jehovah Himself, presumably the Son!

mises,<sup>a</sup> and to his Seed. He does not say “and to seeds,” as about many, but “and to your seed,” as about one, who is Christ. <sup>17</sup>Further, I say this: a covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ<sup>b</sup> cannot be annulled by the law that came four hundred and thirty years later,<sup>c</sup> so as to make the promise of no effect. <sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance were of law, it would no longer be of promise, but God granted it to Abraham by promise.

The law was a guardian

<sup>19</sup>Why then the law? It was added on account of the transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the inheritance had been promised; and it was ordered through angels by the hand of a mediator.<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>(Now that mediator is not for just one, but God is one.)<sup>e</sup> <sup>21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? Of course not! Rather, if a law had been given that was capable of imparting life, truly righteousness would have been by the law. <sup>22</sup>But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin,<sup>f</sup> so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

<sup>23</sup>Now before this faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, in confinement until the coming faith was revealed. <sup>24</sup>So then, the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>Now that the faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

<sup>26</sup>So all of you are sons of God through the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>As many of you as were baptized into Christ<sup>g</sup> have clothed yourselves with Christ <sup>28</sup>—there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no ‘male and female’;<sup>h</sup> all of you are one in Christ Jesus<sup>a</sup>—<sup>29</sup>so if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed<sup>b</sup> and heirs according to the promise.

<sup>a</sup> Paul draws a contrast between a hypothetical covenant he might speak as a man, and the promises actually spoken to Abraham and his Seed.

<sup>b</sup> Less than 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit “in Christ” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Without Christ, the Seed, there would have been no promise. The incarnation of Jehovah the Son was in the Plan before the creation of this world (1 Peter 1:19-20).

<sup>c</sup> Abraham left Haran in 1921 BC, when he was 75. The Exodus occurred in 1491 BC. 1921 – 1491 = 430. For an explanation of these dates see the excellent discussion by Floyd Nolen Jones in his Chronology of the Old Testament: A Return to the Basics, Kings Word Press, 1999 (14th edition).

<sup>d</sup> “By the hand of a mediator” would presumably refer to Moses, since he passed the Law on to the people, but the reference to “angels” puzzles me. The O.T. account has God dealing directly with Moses, or so it seems to me. Perhaps God used angels to communicate some of the lesser details, or to refresh Moses’ memory.

<sup>e</sup> I take this verse to be parenthetical because it does not seem to contribute to the argument. The word ‘mediator’ that ends verse 19 gives rise to the parenthetical comment, because Paul then used the definite article with the same word at the beginning of verse 20, which is why I render “that mediator”. Paul then states the obvious—for someone to be a mediator there must be at least two parties at odds—which he contrasts with something even more obvious—God is one. Perhaps the point is that which lies behind the question in verse 21: since God is the source of both Law and Promise, and He being one cannot be at odds with Himself, then Law and Promise cannot be at odds. Moses functioned as mediator between God and the people.

<sup>h</sup> The Text does not have ‘neither male nor female’; the formula changes, as I have indicated. I suppose the reference is to Genesis 1:27, and the reason for the female in Genesis 2:18. All are saved on the same basis.

Sons or slaves

4 <sup>1</sup>To proceed, as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, though he is owner of all, <sup>2</sup>but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup>Similarly, when we were children we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>But at just the right time God sent out His Son, born of a woman, born under law, <sup>5</sup>so that He might redeem those under law, that we might receive the adoption as sons. <sup>6</sup>And because you are sons,<sup>d</sup> God sent out the Spirit of His Son into your<sup>e</sup> hearts, calling, “Abba, Father”.<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son,<sup>g</sup> and if a son, also an heir of God through Christ.<sup>h</sup>

Paul’s concern

<sup>8</sup>But at one time indeed, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those that by nature are not gods.<sup>i</sup> <sup>9</sup>But now that you know God—better, are known by God—how can you turn back to those weak, yes decidedly inferior, basic principles, to which you wish to be enslaved all over again? <sup>10</sup>You are observing days and months and seasons and years. <sup>11</sup>I fear for you, lest somehow I have labored over you in vain.

<sup>12</sup>Brothers, I plead with you, become as I am, for I became like you. You did me no wrong. <sup>13</sup>Rather, you know that I preached the Gospel to you the first time in spite of a physical infirmity.<sup>j</sup> <sup>14</sup>Also, you did not despise or recoil at my physical trial, but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>So what

<sup>a</sup> The reference is to the spiritual realm, not the physical—a Jew who believes into Jesus does not stop being a physical Jew, a slave who believes into Jesus does not automatically change social status, a male who believes into Jesus does not stop being a physical male, etc. But if we are all “clothed with Christ”, verse 27, we will all look alike, at least from a distance. People looking at us should think about Jesus.

<sup>c</sup> The only true freedom available in this life is to be a slave of Jesus Christ. In John 8:34 the Lord Jesus said, “whoever commits sin is a slave of sin”, and in verse 36, “if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed”. Sin gives Satan an entrance, and he has various instruments for binding people (see verse 8 below).

<sup>d</sup> If you have the Holy Spirit in your heart, it is because you have been adopted into God’s family; you are a ‘son’.

<sup>h</sup> Evidently 1½% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, read “through God” instead of “of God through Christ” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). Romans 8:17 says we are “heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ”.

<sup>i</sup> The reference is presumably to demons. Since the ‘world’ (verse 3) is controlled by Satan, his agents impose the ‘principles’.

<sup>j</sup> It will be observed that I have rendered “in spite of” a physical infirmity, whereas most versions have “because of”, in accordance with the normal meaning of the grammatical construction here (δια with the accusative is the usual way to express cause). What troubles me is that the normal meaning does not make much sense here; how could an infirmity be the cause of his preaching the Gospel to them? A counter-cause would make better sense, but I am not aware of any way to express it in Greek; the closest thing appears to be καυτερ ‘although’, that occurs all of five times in the N.T. In spoken English ‘raise’ and ‘raze’ are pronounced the same, but have opposite meanings, and this sort of thing is not rare in language. An ironic inflection reverses the meaning of what is said. I assume that something of the sort has occurred in this verse, and I have given the assumed intent. Having said all of that, I suppose it is possible that he became so sick while there that he could not travel, but could still preach.

about your blessedness? Because I can testify that if it were possible you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup>Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>They zealously court you<sup>b</sup>—not for good but intending to isolate you, so that you may seek them. <sup>18</sup>Now it is good to be zealous in a good thing at any time, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>19</sup>My little children, for whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you <sup>20</sup>—I wish I could be present with you now and change my tone; because I am perplexed about you!

‘Hagar’ VS ‘Sarah’

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not heed that law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons: one by the slave woman and one by the free woman. <sup>23</sup>However, the one by the slave woman was born according to the flesh, while the one by the free woman was through the promise.<sup>c</sup> <sup>24</sup>I will now allegorize them—these are two covenants: one is from Mount Sinai, bearing children into slavery, which is ‘Hagar’ <sup>25</sup>(for this ‘Hagar’ is Mount Sinai in Arabia<sup>d</sup> and corresponds to the present day Jerusalem,<sup>e</sup> and is in slavery with her children); <sup>26</sup>while the ‘Jerusalem’ that is above is free, which is the mother of us all.<sup>f</sup> <sup>27</sup>For it is written:

“Rejoice, barren one, who does not give birth;
break forth and shout, you who have no labor pains;
because the abandoned woman has many more children than she who has the husband.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Now we,<sup>h</sup> brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But, it is the same now as it was then: the one born according to flesh persecutes the one born according to Spirit. <sup>30</sup>However, what does the Scripture say? “Expel the slave woman and her son, because the son of the slave woman absolutely must not inherit with the son of the free woman!”<sup>i</sup> <sup>31</sup>So then, brothers, we are not children of a slave woman, but of the free woman.

<sup>b</sup> Paul contrasts himself with the proselytizers: he tells them the truth, even if unpleasant; they start by ‘buttering up’ their intended victims, but then move to create a dependency so they can control them.

<sup>i</sup> The quote is from Genesis 21:10, where Sarah is demanding this of Abraham, but God backs her up (verse 12).

Freedom in Christ

5 <sup>1</sup>Stand firm therefore in the freedom with which Christ has made us free,<sup>a</sup> and do not be burdened again with a yoke of slavery. <sup>2</sup>Listen! I, Paul, say to you that if you get circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>Further, I testify again to every man who gets circumcised that he is obligated to keep the whole law.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>You who are ‘being justified’ by law have been alienated from the Christ; you have fallen away from the grace.<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>For we through the Spirit eagerly wait<sup>d</sup> for the hope of righteousness by faith. <sup>6</sup>Because in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but faith working through love.

<sup>7</sup>You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion is not from Him who calls you. <sup>9</sup>A little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will not think differently; but he who troubles you will bear the penalty, whoever he may be.

Spirit VS flesh

<sup>16</sup>I say then: walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill any lust of the flesh.<sup>17</sup>Because the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh; they oppose each other; it follows that you may not do the things that you wish. <sup>18</sup>However, if you are led by the Spirit you are not under law.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>a</sup> 6-7% of the Greek manuscripts replace this first half of the verse with, “for freedom Christ has made us free; stand firm therefore” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> In the context it is clear that Paul is not decrying physical circumcision, that has an important side benefit—women with circumcised husbands don’t get cervical cancer. He is combating the idea of spiritual benefit from the practice, as claimed by the judaizers, and in particular the ‘necessity’ that they claimed. The procedure is for eight-day-old babies, not adult men.

<sup>c</sup> They have regressed from the covenant of grace to the covenant of law.

<sup>d</sup> “Eagerly wait for”—I love it! Those who are trying to be justified by works don’t ‘eagerly wait’ for anything; the future accounting is a source of apprehension. On the other hand, we who understand that we are justified by faith in the Christ do indeed have a hope we can ‘eagerly wait’ for.

<sup>e</sup> It will be observed that my rendering of this verse differs significantly from that of the better known versions: they have Paul wishing that they would castrate themselves, or commit suicide! The verb is in the middle voice, hence reflexive; it means to ‘sever’ or ‘amputate’, but can also mean to ‘exclude’. I take it Paul is wishing that they would ‘amputate’ or exclude themselves from the situation—he wants them to go away and leave the Galatian believers in peace!

<sup>f</sup> In the context Paul is referring to that part of the law that deals with interacting with other human beings (not the part that deals with interacting with God). See Leviticus 19:18.

<sup>g</sup> What the flesh wants is bad for you; what the Spirit wants is good for you. To be led by the Spirit is not to be under a set of rules; it is a relationship.

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "adultery" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). This statement holds also for "murders" in verse 21. This is one of several lists containing both 'adultery' and 'fornication', side by side, which indicates that they are distinct concepts.

<sup>b</sup> This appears to be a cover term for other misuses of sex; for instance, so-called 'oral sex' does not receive specific mention in Scripture, but would be included in 'uncleanness'.

<sup>c</sup> Here is a plain statement (see also 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 and Revelation 21:8). Religious communities that condone or permit such practices are deceiving their constituents; at the Judgment they will get a very nasty surprise. The list refers to what we might call rather obvious forms of sin; there are also the more subtle forms.

<sup>d</sup> Paul was not referring to certain satanically inspired regimes, that may actually preach hate and violence.

<sup>h</sup> Again, my rendering is unusual. My difficulty with the usual 'in himself' and 'in another' is that in both cases the preposition is 'into' (eis), not 'in' (en). If someone forms an exaggerated notion about his work (verse 3) and then starts boasting out loud, he will look stupid.

<sup>i</sup> There is a contrast between "heavy burden" (verse 2) and "normal load" (verse 5). We should help each other with the really 'heavy' stuff.

<sup>j</sup> Teachers are people; they too need food, clothes, shelter...

<sup>9</sup>Let us not lose heart while doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we do not give up.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>So then, as we have opportunity, let us do what is good toward everyone, but especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

Boast in the cross

---

<sup>f</sup> According to Greek grammar, the repetition of the preposition 'upon' in two phrases joined by 'and' makes clear that the objects of the prepositions refer to distinct entities. Hence, "the Israel of God" cannot be a reference to the Church, assuming that "those who conform to this rule" refers to those who are "in Christ Jesus". I take "the Israel of God" to refer to sincere, devout Israelites.

<sup>g</sup> Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of inferior quality, omit "Lord" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). I would say that the eclectic Greek text that these modern versions generally follow is mistaken at over eighty (80) points in Galatians, of which I mentioned only twelve (mainly the more serious ones).

<sup>h</sup> This is an interesting claim. I suppose him to be saying that he deserves respectful treatment because of what he has suffered for Christ's cause.

Some concentrated theology

<sup>d</sup> Verses 3 to 14 make up a single sentence in the Greek Text, which makes the translating a bit difficult. With a view to helping the reader, I will list the topics that are included, more or less: 1) God has blessed us with every spiritual blessing; 2) He chose us to be holy and blameless; 3) He predestined us according to His sovereign purpose; 4) everything is for the praise of His glory; 5) all grace and benefits come to us through Jesus Christ; 6) redemption and forgiveness of sins come through His shed blood; 7) He made known to us the ‘secret’ of His will = subordinate all to Christ; 8) the true Word = the Gospel of salvation; 9) we were sealed with the Holy Spirit, who is the down payment of our inheritance.

<sup>e</sup> The full name of Jehovah the Son is now ‘The Lord Jesus Christ’. Where ‘Lord’ occurs without the definite article or a possessive pronoun I often render ‘Sovereign’.

<sup>g</sup> The blessings are only for those who are in Christ. Unbelievers may receive some spinoff benefits.

<sup>i</sup> This one is difficult for our poor little finite minds to handle. If I was chosen before Creation, then I am part of a PLAN that antedates that Creation, just like the slain Lamb (1 Peter 1:19-20). So He knows who I am and calls me by name (John 10:3). When faced with a ‘God-thing’ that exceeds our understanding, we can either accept or reject—I choose to accept [there are consequences]. And let’s not forget to give thanks.

<sup>j</sup> The syntax is ambiguous: does “in love” go with the preceding clause, or the following one? If the preceding, then it would be our love for Him; if the following, His love for us. When the Text is ambiguous I like to allow for both possibilities, which is why I place a comma before and after. Since both are true, why not teach both?

<sup>l</sup> I take it that many people, as they contemplate the mess the world is in, doubt that the Creator [if He exists] knew what He was doing. One day we will agree that the design is marvelous.

administering the fullness of the times,<sup>a</sup> so as to bring all things together under one head in Christ—those on the heavens<sup>b</sup> and those on the earth—in Him<sup>[S]</sup>, <sup>11</sup>in whom we were also assigned an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him<sup>[F]</sup> who works all things according to the decision of His will, <sup>12</sup>so that we should be to the praise of His glory,<sup>c</sup> we who first trusted in the Christ; <sup>13</sup>about whom, to be sure, we had heard the true Word<sup>d</sup>—the Gospel of your salvation; by whom, since you also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup>who is the down payment on our inheritance until the release of the possession,<sup>e</sup> to the praise of His glory.<sup>f</sup>

Some doctrinal praying

<sup>15</sup>Because of this, having heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, <sup>16</sup>I really do not stop giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: <sup>17</sup>that the God of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the Father of glory,<sup>g</sup> may give you the spirit of wisdom and revelation<sup>h</sup> in the real knowledge<sup>i</sup> of Himself, <sup>18</sup>the eyes of your heart having been enlightened, that you may know<sup>j</sup> 1)what is the hope of His<sup>[F]</sup> calling,<sup>k</sup> and 2)what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,<sup>l</sup> <sup>19</sup>and 3)what the exceeding greatness of His power into<sup>m</sup> us who are believing, according to the demonstration of the extent of His might <sup>20</sup>which He exercised in the Christ when He raised Him<sup>[S]</sup> from among the dead and seated Him at His<sup>[F]</sup> right, in the heavenly realms, <sup>21</sup>far above every ruler and authority and power and dominion<sup>n</sup>—even every name that can be named, not only in this age but also in the next. <sup>22</sup>In short, He<sup>[F]</sup> placed every-

---

<sup>a</sup> The reference is not so much to chronological time as to occasions or epochs. Believe it or not, human history is being “administered”.

<sup>b</sup> “On the heavens”—that is what the Text says. I take the reference to be to beings and things that are not an integral part of Heaven, temporary appendages—of course any beings and things on the earth are not an integral part of Heaven either. They all will jointly be subordinated to the Christ.

<sup>d</sup> A majority of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, have “we”, rather than the familiar ‘you’. Being unexpected, many scribes may have made the change (of one letter) almost without thinking. The Gospel of Christ is ‘the true Word’.

<sup>e</sup> We receive “the release of the possession” in Glory. From the beginning of the epistle both the Father and the Son have been referred to repeatedly—here the Holy Spirit is introduced.

<sup>f</sup> Verses 3-14 form a single sentence in the Greek Text, which is why I translate the same way.

<sup>g</sup> To be the ‘Father’ of glory is to be the Source of all true glory.

<sup>h</sup> Revelation provides us with true information, and wisdom shows us what to do with it.

<sup>i</sup> I finally settled on ‘real knowledge’ as the best way to render ἐπιγνωσις, the heightened form of γνωσις, ‘knowledge’. Real knowledge is more than mere intellectual knowledge, or even true theoretical knowledge—it involves experience. The Text goes on to say, “the eyes of your heart having been enlightened”. Real knowledge changes your ‘heart’, who you are.

<sup>n</sup> It is generally understood that the reference is to the angelic hierarchy. The two thirds that remained faithful to God were never a problem, so presumably the special point is that Christ defeated Satan, with his one third, and is now (as the God/man, the second Adam) seated ‘far above’ that enemy. Please see the note at 2:6 below.

thing under His<sup>[S]</sup> feet, and appointed Him to be Head over everything in the Church,<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>which is His body, the complement<sup>b</sup> of Him who fills everything in every way.

Our position in Christ

2 <sup>1</sup>He<sup>[F]</sup> raised you up as well, when you were dead in your transgressions and sins, <sup>2</sup>in which you once walked, according to the Aeon of this world, the ruler of the domain of the air, the spirit who is now at work in the sons of the disobedience;<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>among whom all of us also used to conduct ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the flesh and of the senses,<sup>d</sup> and were by nature children of wrath,<sup>e</sup> just like the rest. <sup>4</sup>But God—being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, <sup>5</sup>even when we were dead in our transgressions—made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved) <sup>6</sup>and raised us up together and seated us together in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus,<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>in order that in the coming ages He might display the surpassing riches of His grace, through His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>For by grace you have been saved, through the Faith<sup>g</sup>—and this not of yourselves, it is the gift of God—<sup>9</sup>not by works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup>You see, we are His ‘poem’,<sup>h</sup> created in Christ Jesus for good works,<sup>i</sup> which God prepared in advance in order that we should walk in them.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Would it not be wonderful if the Church recognized that Headship in practice! Where ekklesia refers to the whole body of Christ, as here, I render ‘Church’; where it refers to a local assembly I render ‘congregation’.

<sup>b</sup> Just as a wife complements her husband (when things are like they are supposed to be), God’s purpose is that the Bride complement the Groom (even if we don’t understand why Someone who “fills everything in every way” needs complementing).

<sup>c</sup> Strictly speaking the Text has “according to the Aeon of this world, according to the ruler of the domain of the air”—the phrases are parallel, so ‘Aeon’ and ‘ruler’ have the same referent, a specific person or being. This spirit is presently at work (present tense) in ‘the sons of the disobedience’. ‘Sons’ of something are characterized by that something, and the something in this case is ‘the’ disobedience (the Text has the definite article)—a continuation of the original rebellion against the Sovereign of the universe. Anyone in rebellion against the Creator is under satanic influence, direct or indirect (in most cases a demon acts as Satan’s agent, when something more than the influence of the surrounding culture is required). Anyone in rebellion against the Creator will also have strongholds of Satan in his mind.

<sup>d</sup> This is the way people who do not belong to Christ may be expected to act. Far from being surprised, we should count on it, and our strategies (for living and evangelizing) should count on it.

<sup>f</sup> This is tremendous! Here we have our authority. Christ is now seated at the Father’s right, “far above” (1:21) the enemy and his hosts. This verse affirms that we are there too! So in Christ we also are far above the enemy and his hosts. We should be consciously operating on that basis, but since few churches teach this, most Christians live in spiritual defeat.

<sup>g</sup> The Text has ‘the’ faith; the reference is to a specific faith, presumably the body of truth that revolves around the person and work of Jesus.

<sup>i</sup> We are not saved by good works, but for good works. We do good works because we are saved, and if you don’t...

<sup>j</sup> “Prepared in advance”—I imagine that this refers to God’s moral code, the rules of conduct that everyone should follow (if everyone did we would not need jails, rescue missions, etc.).

Once far, now near in Christ

<sup>11</sup>So then, remember that once you physical Gentiles—called ‘uncircumcision’ by the so-called ‘circumcision’ (that made in flesh with hands)—<sup>12</sup>that at that time you were apart from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and strangers to the covenants of the promise,<sup>a</sup> having no hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have come to be near through the blood of the Christ.

Two into one

<sup>14</sup>For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one and broken down the barrier of separation—the law with its commandments and ordinances—<sup>15</sup>having abolished the enmity through His ‘flesh’,<sup>b</sup> so as to mold the two [Jew and Gentile] into one new man in Himself (thus making peace), <sup>16</sup>and to reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross (by which He killed the enmity).<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>He came and proclaimed peace to us,<sup>d</sup> being both far and near, <sup>18</sup>because through Him we both have access to the Father, by one Spirit.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>19</sup>So then, you are no longer strangers and aliens, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of God’s household, <sup>20</sup>built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets,<sup>f</sup> Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone; <sup>21</sup>in whom the whole building, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; <sup>22</sup>in whom you also are being built together to become a habitation of God in spirit.<sup>g</sup>

The ‘secret’ revealed to Paul

3 <sup>1</sup>For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—<sup>2</sup>surely you have heard of the administration of the grace of God that

---

<sup>a</sup> “The promise”—that is what the Text says. The various covenants recorded in the Old Testament differ considerably from each other, but one might say that there is one promise common to all: God promises to bless obedience, those who obey Him. To obey God one needs to have some contact with Him. Without such contact one has no hope.

<sup>b</sup> “His ‘flesh’” presumably refers to Jesus’ physical body that went to the cross. Without the incarnation none of what Paul is discussing would have been possible.

<sup>c</sup> In this paragraph Paul is dealing with the enmity between Jew and Gentile; within the Jewish ‘religion’ Gentiles were definitely second class citizens—to be saved a Gentile had to become a spiritual Jew. Within the Church of Jesus Christ that distinction is done away with; all are on the same footing, regardless of ethnic origin.

<sup>d</sup> The Greek manuscripts are badly divided between “us” and “you”, so I follow the best line of transmission. Verses 17 and 18 form a single sentence, wherein Paul now handles Jew and Gentile as a unit, “we both”.

<sup>e</sup> Up to this point in the letter the Father and the Son have been repeatedly presented as distinct persons; now the Holy Spirit is added, although introduced in 1:13 above. All three persons are in this 18th verse.

<sup>f</sup> The truth that Paul is expounding is that in Christ Gentiles join Jews as “fellow citizens” and “members of God’s household”, part of “the whole building”. In what sense can that “building” be built upon “the foundation of the apostles and prophets”? Presumably “prophets” is short for the writings that make up the Old Testament Scriptures, or Canon. The Faith is based on revealed Truth, not individual people. Analogously, presumably “apostles” is short for the writings that make up the New Testament Scriptures, or Canon. Again, the Faith is based on revealed Truth, not individual people. Our “growing into a holy temple” (verse 21) depends upon the Holy Spirit and His Sword (not individuals whom God used).

<sup>g</sup> There is no article with ‘spirit’; one ‘habitation’ made up of many individuals refers to the spiritual realm, not the physical. (Recall that in John 4:23-24 Jesus explained that the Father wants worship ‘in spirit’.)

was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup>how that by revelation He made known to me the ‘secret’<sup>a</sup> (as I have written briefly already, <sup>4</sup>with reference to which, when you read,<sup>b</sup> you can understand my insight into Christ’s secret), <sup>5</sup>which in different generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by Spirit<sup>c</sup> to His holy apostles and prophets:<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are joint-heirs, of the same body, and fellow partakers of His promise in the Christ<sup>e</sup> through the Gospel, <sup>7</sup>of which I became a servant according to the gift of God’s grace, the gift given to me according to the outworking of His power.

Prayer

<sup>a</sup> I consider that ‘secret’ is a better rendering than ‘mystery’. The truth about the Church is not all that mysterious; it just had not been explained before.

<sup>b</sup> Whatever writing Paul is referring to, evidently the Ephesians had not seen it yet, but he figures they have heard about it. Paul probably wrote a variety of things that were not preserved in the New Testament canon.

<sup>c</sup> There being no article with ‘spirit’, it could be either ‘by Spirit’ (used as a proper name) or ‘in spirit’ (referring to the manner). Both are true and legitimate, but I have chosen the first option in the translation.

<sup>d</sup> An apostle, upon receiving a revelation, would also function as a prophet, but people like Mark and Luke were prophets without being apostles.

<sup>i</sup> This text joins Hebrews 1:10, John 1: 3, 10 and Colossians 1:16 in affirming that Jehovah the Son was the primary agent in the creation of our world and race. Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit “through Jesus Christ” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> Don’t you know that the cherubim and seraphim and other high ranking angels really wondered what the Sovereign was up to when He created the human being.

<sup>k</sup> “The eternal purpose”—this included the Lamb with His blood shed (1 Peter 1:19-20)! Note that “accomplished” is in the past tense.

height; <sup>19</sup>and 3) to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge—so that you may be fulfilled into all the fullness of God.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to the power that is working in us,<sup>b</sup> <sup>21</sup>to Him be the glory in the Church in Christ Jesus, to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.<sup>c</sup>

Putting the theology into practice

Unity

4 <sup>1</sup>So then, as the prisoner in the Lord I urge you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, <sup>2</sup>with all humility and courtesy, with patience, bearing with one another in love, <sup>3</sup>taking pains to keep the unity of the Spirit<sup>d</sup> in the bond of the peace.<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>There is one body and one Spirit (just as you also were called in one hope of your calling), <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all,<sup>f</sup> who is over all and through all and in us<sup>g</sup> all.

Building up the body

<sup>7</sup>Now to each one of us the grace according to the measure of Christ's gift was given. <sup>8</sup>That is why He says, "When He ascended into the heights He captured the concentration camp, and distributed gifts to men."<sup>h</sup> <sup>9</sup>(What does 'He as-

<sup>a</sup> If it were not for verse 20 below (see note), I would be inclined to think that Paul's prayer was overly ambitious! Does he really expect us to arrive at "all the fullness of God"? Well, we have the Trinity going for us—the Father is granting, the Spirit is strengthening our inner man and the Son is dwelling in our hearts—an unbeatable combination (if it were not for our lack of commitment). That said, however, I must confess that I do not understand verse 18—what is Paul describing? Whatever it is, all saints are supposed to be able to grasp it, which seems rather improbable. Verse 19 offers another paradox: if the love of Christ surpasses knowledge, how can we know it? Spiritual growth is clearly a process. 2 Peter 1:3 affirms that "His divine power has granted to us all things pertaining to life and godliness." So whether we get there or not is up to us—those who overcome will get there in Glory, if not before.

<sup>b</sup> Ephesians 1:19 spoke of "the exceeding greatness of His power into us who are believing"—note that the verb is in the present tense; having believed yesterday won't hack it, we must believe today. This tremendous power that God pours into us, as we believe, exceeds our powers of imagination. Well now, my personal horizon is limited and defined by my ability to imagine. Anything that I can't imagine lies outside my horizon, and so obviously I won't ask for it. I sadly confess that I have not yet arrived at a spiritual level where I can unleash this power—I have yet to make the truth in this verse work for me. But I understand that the truth affirmed here is literal, and I only hope that others will get there before I do (so I can learn from them), if I keep on delaying. The whole point of the exercise (verse 21) is for God to get glory [not for me to have a good time, although if I ever get there I will certainly have a great good time!], and to the extent that we do not put His power in us to work we are depriving Him of glory that He could and should have.

<sup>d</sup> "The unity of the Spirit" presumably refers only to things that come from the Holy Spirit; it cannot include anything with which He does not agree. Note that we are not to 'create' the unity, we are to "keep" it.

<sup>e</sup> In verses 1-3 Paul is talking about how we relate to other believers.

<sup>f</sup> Here is the Trinity again—the Spirit in verse 4, the Son in verse 5 and the Father in verse 6.

<sup>g</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit "us" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), while another 4% read 'you' (as in AV and NKJV).

<sup>h</sup> "He captured the concentration camp" does not sound very much like "He led captivity captive", now does it. The point is that 'captivity' refers to people held in captivity, and they are freed. When an invading army takes a concentration camp, the prisoners are set free (usually). We have here a quote from Psalm 68:18, where the second half says, "You have received gifts from men", just the opposite of "distributed". What to do? The Targum (a Hebrew commentary) interprets as, "You have given gifts to the children of men". Upon reflection this would appear to be obvious. When you put tithes and offerings in the offering plate at church, you are giving to God, but does that money literally go to Heaven? No, it is redistributed down here—some goes to the preacher's salary, some to a missionary, some to cended' imply if not that He also first descended into the interior regions of the earth?<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>He who descended is the very one who also ascended far above all the heavens,<sup>b</sup> that He might fill all things.) <sup>11</sup>Yes, He Himself gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers,<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>for the equipping of the saints into the work of the ministry, so as to build up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup>until we all attain into the unity of the faith and of the real knowledge of the Son of God, into a complete man, into the resulting full stature of Christ;<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>so that we no longer be 'infants', tossed about as by waves and carried off by every doctrinal fad, through the underhanded dealings of the people who collect the fee for the error;<sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup>rather, speaking the truth in love, let us pay the light bill, etc. God does indeed receive gifts from men, but He does not stash them in Heaven somewhere; they are redistributed down here. When done properly He gets the credit: "He distributed gifts to men."

<sup>a</sup> This is one of several texts that lead me to understand that Sheol/Hades is beneath the crust of the earth somewhere. For one of the things He did down there, see 1 Peter 3:19.

<sup>b</sup> "All the heavens"—sounds like quite a few, more than three; and He is above all of them.

<sup>c</sup> One might imagine that this list follows the chronological sequence of the several ministries. An apostle introduces the Gospel into an area or context; a prophet gets the people's attention and an evangelist urges them to believe; but once people are regenerated then pastors and teachers come to the fore—they are the ones who equip the saints. However, in practice, especially in a pioneer missionary situation, there are seldom that many people around. The missionary preaches the Gospel and it is up to him to teach the first converts; he is alone. A pioneer missionary, the first one to introduce the Gospel to an ethnic group or area, has an apostolic function (whether or not he himself is an apostle). But he must also function as an evangelist and as a teacher (whether or not he has those gifts).

However, most of us live and work where there are established, functioning congregations. So what would be the function of an apostle within an established, functioning congregation? If he lives and worships in that community, probably none at all, in that specific capacity—he might function as a teacher or a prophet. In a country, or area, where there is no more pioneer missionary work to be done, the exercise of the apostolic function would be itinerant, acting as God's special emissary, an official intervener, for disciplinary and correctional purposes.

I will take up evangelist next; what would his function be within an established congregation? Well, can you evangelize someone who is already regenerated? Evidently the function of an evangelist is directed to unbelievers, who should not be members of the congregation (although some often are). Of course an evangelist might also function as a pastor or teacher. A truly gifted evangelist will function beyond the limits of a local congregation.

As for the prophetic function, I will address the question of supernatural revelation of information not available through existing channels. (1 Corinthians 14:3 speaks of 'edification', 'exhortation' and 'comfort' as coming from a prophet, but I will not take up such activity here.) We understand that the Canon of Scripture is closed; God is no longer giving written revelation that is of general or universal application. But that does not mean that God no longer speaks into specific situations. Divine guidance is a type of prophecy; He is giving information not otherwise available. I myself have been contemplated with a prophecy delivered by someone who had no idea who I was, and not in the context of a local congregation. The function of a true prophet cannot be limited to one congregation. Indeed, God may use a prophet at city, state or country level. Our world desperately needs prophetic voices.

A teacher will normally reside in a specific community, but his ministry may range beyond it. A pastor's function is local, just as he is chosen and ordained locally. It is simply a fact of life that someone with a shepherd's heart is not necessarily a good teacher, and an honest to goodness teacher often lacks a shepherd's heart. The functions are supposed to be complementary, and the object is to get all true believers involved in the work of the ministry. Life in Christ is not a spectator sport!

<sup>d</sup> Verse 13 emphasizes the truth in verse 12—every believer is supposed to grow into full stature. Just because we do not reach a goal does not invalidate that goal.

<sup>e</sup> Before Paul wrote Ephesians, κνβεια always meant dice-throwing (but commentators usually don't like that, and so take evasive action). Why do people do that? Usually for material advantage. If the dice-throwing is 'crafty' then it is crooked—the dice are loaded. But this has to do with doctrinal fads ('winds'). Why do people start and push fads? To get or to keep attention, which usually involves material advantage. But who throws dice by himself? To cheat you have to have a victim. But why is the in all things grow up into Him who is the Head, the Christ; <sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, being fitted and knit together by what every joint supplies, as each individual part does its work, promotes its own growth,<sup>a</sup> its own edification, in love.

Put away the old, put on the new

<sup>17</sup>So then, I affirm and insist on this in the Lord: you must no longer carry on as the rest of the Gentiles do,<sup>b</sup> in the futility of their mind, <sup>18</sup>having been darkened in their understanding, being alienated [as a continuing condition] from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts,<sup>c</sup> <sup>19</sup>who, having become dead to hope, have abandoned themselves to depravity, greedily indulging in every kind of vileness.<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>Now that is not how you 'learned Christ'—<sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard Him and been taught by Him (as the truth is in Jesus): <sup>22</sup>that you put away, concerning your former way of life, the old man<sup>e</sup> (that keeps on being corrupted by the deceitful desires), <sup>23</sup>and that you be renewed<sup>f</sup> in the spirit of your mind, <sup>24</sup>and put on the new man, created in the likeness of God,<sup>g</sup> in true righteousness and holiness.

other guy playing? He hopes to make a fast buck, too. So why do people buy into doctrinal fads? Often for material advantage—the purveyor makes promises (e.g. the 'prosperity gospel'); sometimes for 'spiritual' or social prestige (which can translate into material advantage). You have to make the victim think that there is something in it for him. One of the basic meanings for μεθοδεια is 'a method of collecting taxes' or 'debts'. If you want to shear the sheep, you need a method. But who would be vulnerable to any such 'method'? Only a spiritual 'infant', who still thinks he can make a fast spiritual buck, who thinks there can be shortcuts. A "perfect man" (ανηρ, not ανθρωπος) is like Jesus—when Satan comes with his shortcuts he is not taken in.

Let us try to pull it together. The fad (αεμος) is an error (πλανε), which carries a fee—the error is not free. The purveyor needs a method for collecting the fee (μεθοδεια) for the error he is selling. But it cannot be obvious, he needs to finesse it (κυβεια εν πανουργια) (he wants happy, unsuspecting sheep). Someone who is mature (verse 13) knows there are no shortcuts, so is not taken in by any cheap promise. Telling the truth in love (verse 15) contrasts with selling an error for gain (verse 14).

- <sup>a</sup> Any local congregation can promote its own growth by encouraging each member to exercise his gift(s); by making room for all the gifts and promoting their use.
- <sup>b</sup> It sounds like some of them were not being altogether successful in breaking with their former way of life. Breaking free from the culture that surrounds you, so as to embrace biblical values, is not easy.
- <sup>c</sup> This works like a downward spiral: the ignorance feeds the hardening, that in turn increases the ignorance. The consequence is that they can never get out by themselves. Someone must take Christ's power to them to help them out, before they become 'dead to hope'. "Having been darkened" is passive voice; they are darkened by Satan, directly or indirectly.
- <sup>d</sup> What kind of person or being might be "dead to hope"? If someone is dead to hope, is he beyond hope, unrecoverable? And how should society defend itself against those who have "abandoned themselves to depravity"? The consequences of depravity always spill over into the surrounding society, and according to Psalm 5:5-6 the LORD hates such people, and so presumably will not 'draw' them (John 6:44). 1 John 5:16-17 teaches that certain sinners are beyond the reach of prayer, they have passed the point of no return. If someone cannot be saved, then he needs to be neutralized (because of the harm he causes to others) —we need to ask God to teach us how to do this.
- <sup>e</sup> The "old man" cannot be cured; it must be rejected in favor of the new.
- <sup>f</sup> The verb here evidently means 'renew' and not 'make new', the implication being that a depraved mind represents a departure from a former condition. When a person is regenerated by the Holy Spirit he receives a new nature, but the old one is not obliterated or expunged. We must constantly choose to use the new one.
- <sup>g</sup> Wait a minute! Was not the first Adam created in the likeness of God? So when he fell did he lose that likeness? Probably not entirely, but Satan has been working at increasing the damage ever since—he works to remake men in his own image; in those who have "abandoned themselves to depravity" (verse 19) he has been successful. For someone to receive the "new man" requires a new act of creation.

Walk in love

5 <sup>1</sup>Therefore be imitators of God as beloved children, <sup>2</sup>and walk in love, just as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma. <sup>3</sup>But, you should not even talk about fornication or any form of moral corruption or insatiableness<sup>g</sup> (as is fitting for saints); <sup>4</sup>nor any obscenity, nor foolish talk or coarse joking (that do not belong), but rather thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup>Because you can know this for sure: no fornicator, nor anyone who is morally corrupt or insatiable (actually an idolater),<sup>h</sup> has any inheritance in the Kingdom of the Christ and God.<sup>i</sup> <sup>6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words,<sup>j</sup> for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of the disobedience.<sup>k</sup> <sup>7</sup>Therefore do not be participants with them <sup>8</sup>—even though you were once darkness, you are now light in Sovereign.

Walk in light

<sup>c</sup> Evil and injustice should make us angry, and legitimate anger should give rise to appropriate action. But if we do nothing except to sit and brood, we do not help the situation and we do give Satan opportunity.

<sup>f</sup> The focus in verses 31 and 32 is on how we treat other people. God has been good to us; we should be good to others.

<sup>g</sup> Of course doing such things is out of the question, but why can't we talk about them? If you talk about it you will think about it, which will provide an opening for temptation.

<sup>h</sup> To have an insatiable desire for something (say, money) is to be dominated by that something; it has become a god, an idolatry.

<sup>i</sup> According to the grammatical construction here, "Christ and God" refer to the same person.

ciate with the unfruitful works of the darkness, but rather expose/reprove them.<sup>a</sup>
<sup>12</sup>(It is shameful even to speak of those things being done by them in secret.)
<sup>13</sup>Now all things, upon being exposed, are revealed by the light, for whatever reveals is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore He says:

“Wake up, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and the Christ will shine on you.”<sup>b</sup>

Walk in wisdom

Relationships within the home

About wives

<sup>22</sup>Wives, subordinate yourselves<sup>i</sup> to your own husbands, as to the Lord, <sup>23</sup>because a man is head of his wife as also Christ is Head of the Church—He also is Preserver of the body. <sup>24</sup>Yes, just as the Church is subject to Christ, so also the wives should be to their own husbands in everything.<sup>j</sup>

About husbands

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your own wives just as Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself up on her behalf, <sup>26</sup>in order that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of the water: in a word, <sup>27</sup>that He might present her—the splendid Church—to Himself, not having a blemish or a wrinkle or any such thing, but that she be holy and blameless. <sup>28</sup>Just so the husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>After all, no one ever hated his own flesh; rather he nourishes and cherishes it,

---

<sup>a</sup> I could not decide between ‘expose’ and ‘reprove’, since the verb here includes both ideas. So let us do both.

<sup>b</sup> This is not a direct quote of any Old Testament passage. Not all God-given prophecies, though written down and read by subsequent generations, were included in the Canon.

<sup>c</sup> How does one redeem the time? I suppose by taking advantage of the opportunities.

<sup>e</sup> Literally, ‘in which is dissipation’, so where did I get ‘harmful and wasteful’? Well, to dissipate is to waste, and a dictionary I have defines it as “to indulge in pleasure to the point of harming oneself”. Drunkenness always harms and wastes.

<sup>f</sup> Observe that this is a command, so it depends on us. The Holy Spirit is waiting to fill us, if we will only yield to Him. For light to fill the room all you have to do is flip the switch.

<sup>g</sup> We are to declare God’s goodness, faithfulness and wisdom, even when we do not like what is happening.

<sup>h</sup> Instead of “God”, perhaps 30% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Christ’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>i</sup> Observe that this is something she should do of her own volition, not because she is beaten into submission.

About children

About slaves and masters

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, obey your human masters with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ;<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>not only when being watched, to please men, but as slaves of the Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; <sup>7</sup>serving with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>8</sup>knowing that whatever good each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is slave or free.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>9</sup>And masters, be the same way towards them, giving up threatening, knowing that your own Master is in heaven, and there is no partiality with Him.

Spiritual warfare

<sup>a</sup> Less than 2.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “of His flesh and of His bones” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.—an easy case of ‘similar ending’). Flesh and bones are definitely physical, not spiritual; so what is Paul saying? Perhaps he is emphasizing that “His body” is just as real as a physical body.

<sup>c</sup> Observe that ‘wife’ is singular. Although in the Old Testament men were not condemned for having more than one wife, in the context of the Church monogamy is the norm. The instruction in verse 33 is basic: if a wife does not feel loved and/or a husband does not feel respected, negative things start to happen.

<sup>e</sup> Unreasonable demands, harsh treatment, lack of clear guidelines—there are various ways to frustrate children and cause them to lose heart, and even give up. In today’s world they will probably cop out by going to drugs, or the Internet (both of which leave them wide open to demonic influence).

<sup>f</sup> Observe that slavery is not condemned. The owners are not commanded to free their slaves, just to treat them right. The slaves are not told to run away, but to be even better slaves.

<sup>h</sup> Only some 3% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “my brothers” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), but since the whole letter is written to Christians, there really is no doubt. Besides, how could an unbeliever put on the full armor of God? Note that Paul writes “our” wrestling match—apostles are also under attack, not to mention pastors, etc.

<sup>i</sup> The word here is a noun, not a verb, and means precisely ‘wrestling match’. A wrestling match is based on violent physical contact, and the Holy Spirit, through Paul, is advising us that we are in such a match, and the opponents are malignant spirits of all ranks. The ‘doctrine’ to be found in some circles that Christians can’t be attacked by demons is totally and dangerously false.

<sup>j</sup> Even though people may indeed act as our enemies, we need to keep in mind that they are only being used by the real enemy.

but against the principalities, against the authorities, against the world-rulers of the darkness of this age, against the malignant spirits in the heavenly realms. <sup>13</sup>That is why you must take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist in the evil day, to stand firm, with everything in place.

Closing greetings

<sup>21</sup>Now that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything; <sup>22</sup>whom I have sent to you for this very purpose: that you may know our circumstances and that he may comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.

<sup>a</sup> Any lack of truth or righteousness in our lives will leave us vulnerable to attack.

<sup>b</sup> If it is faith that quenches these arrows, then they probably come in the form of doubts and fears.

<sup>d</sup> We all need prayer, even apostles.

<sup>e</sup> If you are in prison because you spoke out, to keep on doing so does require boldness and courage.

The Epistle of Paul to the PHILIPPIANS

Salutation

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy,<sup>a</sup> slaves<sup>b</sup> of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus<sup>c</sup> who are at Philippi, together with the overseers<sup>d</sup> and deacons: <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.

How Paul prays for them

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God every time I remember you; <sup>4</sup>in all my prayers for all of you I always pray with joy, <sup>5</sup>because of your partnership in the Gospel from the first day until now, <sup>6</sup>being certain of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will complete it until the Day of Jesus Christ;<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel you all are partakers with me of the Grace.<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>God is my witness how I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.

News and Instructions

By whatever means, Christ is preached

<sup>12</sup>Now I want you to know, brothers, that the events against me have actually turned out for the advancement of the Gospel: <sup>13</sup>as a result, it has become evident to the whole imperial guard, and to everyone else, that I am in chains for

<sup>d</sup> This term is often translated ‘bishop’; along with ‘elder’ and ‘pastor’ it refers to a single office in the church. Note that there is a plurality of both overseers and deacons.

<sup>g</sup> The compound noun, epignwsis, is often rendered as ‘full knowledge’, but I consider that ‘real knowledge’ comes closer.

<sup>h</sup> We have all heard that ‘love is blind’, but agape love is just the opposite. Lamentably, I cannot think of a single church that could be said to have “full discernment”, and many appear to have none at all.

<sup>i</sup> Yes indeed, “the things that really matter”—the point of identifying them is to concentrate our attention and energy on them.

<sup>j</sup> In verse 6 the emphasis is on God’s sovereignty, here it is on our responsibility. “The Day of Christ” is of special relevance to Christians, and the particular aspect in view here is the accounting (see Romans 14:12,14).

<sup>k</sup> “Having been filled”—that is what the Text says. Since the righteousness of Christ is imputed (we cannot earn it), God gives us the best possible start; as it says in 2 Peter 1:3, “His divine power has given us all things that pertain to life and godliness”. What we do with it is up to us (see 2:12 below).

<sup>l</sup> The glory of God is the ultimate purpose of all creation (Isaiah 43:7).

Christ;<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>also, most of the brothers in Sovereign have been influenced by my chains to be much bolder, to speak the Word fearlessly. <sup>15</sup>To be sure, some are even preaching Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of good will; <sup>16</sup>the former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking to add to my affliction while in chains,<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>but the latter out of love, knowing that I am set here for the defense of the Gospel.<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>No problem: in every way, be it in pretense or in truth,<sup>d</sup> Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice—yes, and will rejoice.

To live is Christ, to die is gain

<sup>19</sup>You see, I know that this will turn out for my deliverance (through your supplication and the support of the Spirit of Jesus Christ)<sup>e</sup> <sup>20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and hope that I will not be put to shame in anything but be truly bold, so that now as always Christ will be glorified in my person, whether by life or by death<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>—to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.<sup>g</sup> <sup>22</sup>Now if I am to live on in the flesh it will mean fruitful labor for me, so I do not know what to choose. <sup>23</sup>I am torn between the two: I have the desire to depart and be with Christ (far better),<sup>h</sup> <sup>24</sup>but to remain in the flesh is more necessary, because of you.<sup>i</sup> <sup>25</sup>So having been persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup>so that your rejoicing over me may be more abundant in Christ Jesus, through my coming to you again.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the Gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you, or am absent, I may hear about you that you stand firm in one spirit, striving together for the faith of the Gospel with one soul, <sup>28</sup>and not being intimidated in any way by your opponents: to them this is an indicator of ruin,<sup>k</sup> but to you of deliverance,<sup>l</sup> and that from God. <sup>29</sup>For it has been

<sup>b</sup> Just a minute: how does insincere preaching (by others) add to his affliction? I suppose we all know 'Christian workers' who are motivated by selfish ambition, and any such would want to 'make hay' while free from Paul's 'shadow', as it were. Judging Paul by themselves, they would think he would be bothered by seeing them gaining prominence at his expense.

<sup>c</sup> Even in prison Paul did not lose sight of the job God had given him. Some 10% of the Greek manuscripts transpose verses 16 and 17 (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> The Bible is clear to the effect that the means, not just the end, must be appropriate to God's character, so this statement seems a bit strange. Within the community of faith deviations can be treated quite severely, but perhaps for what we might term 'pre-evangelism', getting people who have never heard of Him before to start thinking about Christ, there may be some leeway. Further, Matthew 20:1-16 makes clear that God is prepared to use a variety of types of worker.

<sup>g</sup> How can death be a gain? Only if you live for Christ.

<sup>h</sup> This is one of a few passages that lead us to believe that when a true believer dies his spirit goes directly to be with Christ in Heaven, not to the good side of Hades/Sheol (the 'bosom of Abraham') as with the Old Testament saints.

<sup>k</sup> How shall we understand this? What is the effect of our boldness in the face of opposition—do the opponents consider that we are sealing our own fate, or do they suspect that they may be on the wrong side? Perhaps both.

<sup>l</sup> Our confidence in God assures us of deliverance, one way or another: by life or by death.

granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe into Him,<sup>a</sup> but also to suffer for His sake,<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>having the same struggle that you saw in me and now hear to be in me.<sup>c</sup>

About having the mind of Christ

2 <sup>1</sup>Therefore, if there is any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship from the Spirit, if any tenderness and acts of compassion, <sup>2</sup>make my joy full by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. <sup>3</sup>Do nothing out of selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard one another as being better than yourselves.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Let each of you look out not only for his own concerns, but also for what concerns others.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The Text never has “believe ‘in’ Jesus”; we must believe into Him. Being on the outside we must change location. This involves commitment and a change of worldview or value system.

<sup>b</sup> If you were taught to expect a ‘bed of roses’, you had a bad teacher.

<sup>c</sup> They had seen him suffer when he first visited Philippi, and he was presently suffering in prison.

<sup>d</sup> Personally I have a hard time with this one. But it may have more to do with social level and prestige within the congregation than with personal qualities and abilities.

<sup>f</sup> Since Jehovah the Son was (and is) equally God, the point appears to be that He did not insist on hanging on to His prerogatives.

<sup>g</sup> Note that to be a human being is to be a slave. We are born slaves, live slaves and die slaves. We are born slaves to self, sin and death (with Satan behind the scenes); Christ offers us the option of being slaves to God, good and life. You can’t stop being a slave, but you can choose your owner.

<sup>h</sup> Hebrews 5:8 says that Jehovah the Son “learned obedience by the things that He suffered”. He had never experienced anything like that before. So what happens to us if we have the same mindset?

<sup>i</sup> Note that it is at the name of Jesus, not Christ or even Jehovah, that every knee will bow. ‘Jesus’ is His human name—recall that in Revelation the slain Lamb (5:6,12; 7:14; 12:11) receives glory and praise along with the Father. You cannot kill God, so the Lamb is Jesus. Recall further that in John 5:22 Jesus affirmed that the Father had “committed all judgment” to Him, which means that it will be Jesus sitting on the “great white throne” (Revelation 20:11), not to mention a certain “winepress” (Revelation 19:15). Although at the moment I see no way of ‘closing the question’ (as we say here in Brazil), I verily suspect that the correct transliteration of ‘Jesus’ into Hebrew will prove to be יֵשׁוּעַ (yesua) and not יֵשׁוּא (yeshua).

<sup>k</sup> Those actually alive on the earth when this decree is imposed; I suppose it will be during the millennial Messianic Kingdom.

<sup>l</sup> Since Hades is inside the earth (Matthew 12:40, Ephesians 4:9, 1 Samuel 28:13), this will presumably include the wicked dead, as well as the demons in the Abyss (at least). Just suppose that God wanted to confine evil to this planet; the logical place for a ‘prison’ would be beneath its crust.

<sup>m</sup> The verbs ‘bow’ and ‘acknowledge’ are in the subjunctive mood in the Text, so many versions render ‘should bow’ rather than “will bow”. However, the mood of the verbs is governed by the conjunction hina, that normally takes the subjunctive; in the context the author evidently does not intend to leave any doubt about the extent of the recognition.

Act like children of God

<sup>12</sup>So then, my dear ones, just as you have always obeyed (not only in my presence but now much more in my absence), keep working out your own salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup>because God Himself is the One at work in you, both to will and to produce,<sup>a</sup> for His good pleasure.

About Timothy

<sup>19</sup>Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be encouraged when I know how you are doing. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one else like-minded, who will be genuinely concerned about your welfare<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>(for all seek their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus).<sup>g</sup> <sup>22</sup>But you know the proof of him, that as a son with his father he slaved<sup>h</sup> with me for the Gospel. <sup>23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how things go with me. <sup>24</sup>Still, I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon.<sup>i</sup>

About Epaphroditus

<sup>25</sup>However, I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier; also your messenger and minister to my need; <sup>26</sup>since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>Well, he really was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>So I sent him the more eagerly, that upon seeing him again you might have joy, and I be less anxious. <sup>29</sup>Receive him in Sovereign with great joy, and hold such men in honor, <sup>30</sup>because for the work of the Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life,<sup>j</sup> to complete what was lacking in your service toward me.

Paul's example

3 <sup>1</sup>Finally, my brothers, rejoice in Sovereign. For me to write the same things to you is not troublesome and for you it is the safe thing. <sup>2</sup>Watch out for the <sup>a</sup> Paul places our responsibility and God's sovereignty side by side; we must consciously cooperate with Him.

<sup>b</sup> When we grumble or argue we are rejecting the Holy Spirit's control, and the result is not purity.

<sup>c</sup> Can there be any doubt that our generation is crooked and depraved? And it is not getting any better.

<sup>d</sup> As we both live out and actively promote biblical values, the "Word of Life", we will stand out like a bright torch at night. The darker it is, the farther any light can be seen.

<sup>e</sup> At the Accounting, one measure of our success will be the extent to which others bought into our commitment.

‘dogs’, watch out for the bad workers, watch out for the mutilation!<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>For it is we who are the circumcision, the ones who worship by God’s Spirit and glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in flesh <sup>4</sup>(though I myself actually have basis for such confidence).

About Paul

If anyone else thinks he has basis for confidence in flesh, I even more: <sup>5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; with respect to the Law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>with respect to zeal, persecuting the Church; with respect to the righteousness that is in the law, blameless.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>But such things as were gain to me, these I have considered loss for the sake of the Christ. <sup>8</sup>Yes indeed, in fact I actually consider everything to be a loss for the sake of the excelling thing, the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord<sup>c</sup>—for His sake I have already lost everything<sup>d</sup> (and consider it as trash), so that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in Him, not having as my righteousness that of the Law but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness that comes from God based on that faith; <sup>10</sup>so that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the sharing in His sufferings,<sup>e</sup> becoming like Him in His death,<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>and so, somehow,<sup>g</sup> that I may arrive into the resurrection from among the dead <sup>12</sup>—not <sup>a</sup> The repetition of the “watch out for” presumably indicates three distinct objects. Paul evidently considered that the three types of people constituted a threat, but how can we identify and distinguish them? “The mutilation” is explained, by contrast, in the next verse—it refers to those who insisted on physical circumcision, but without a change of heart. This was a heresy within the broader Christian community that had originated in Jerusalem. As for the “bad workers”, the adjective used is not ‘malignant’, that refers to aggressive evil. A bad worker produces work that is inferior, careless, or even sabotage, and in consequence can be damaging and dangerous. I suppose Paul is referring to people within the Christian community who are not really committed to Christ and His Kingdom.

As for the ‘dogs’, I am obliged to confess that I do not know who Paul was referring to, though the use of the definite article indicates a specific group that the Philippians would recognize. In Deuteronomy 23:18 ‘dog’ apparently refers to a male prostitute, a catamite, and is declared to be an abomination. In O.T. times dogs were scavengers and therefore unclean, and were generally looked down upon. In Jesus’ day Jews referred to Gentiles as ‘dogs’, but since many Gentiles are in the Church (and the church in Philippi doubtless had a large Gentile contingent) that is certainly not the intended meaning here. The ‘dogs’ in Matthew 7:6 react in an aggressively hostile manner against what is holy; I take it that they are people who are overtly serving evil, and being malignant they are aggressive. I would say that Paul certainly had a copy of Matthew’s Gospel, and may well be following the Lord’s use. This text may be referring to that sort of person, and in that event they would be outside the congregation.

<sup>b</sup> Since Paul did not choose to be born to Hebrew parents, Benjaminites, nor to be circumcised the eighth day, these were advantages of birth. The rest was his choice. He is claiming that if Judaism could save, he was saved.

<sup>c</sup> The most important thing in this life is to know Jesus Christ as Lord. (One is reminded of the parables of the treasure and the pearl.)

<sup>d</sup> Since Paul was born a Roman citizen, his father was wealthy enough to buy that privilege. Had Paul (Saul) remained in Tarsus, he would probably have had an established social position.

<sup>e</sup> The power of His resurrection is something I would really like to have, but if the price is to share in His sufferings...

<sup>f</sup> We cannot resurrect if we have not died.

<sup>g</sup> “And so, somehow”—this really does not sound like ‘once saved, always saved’. The writings of the Apostle Paul contain a variety of clear declarations to the effect that God is Sovereign; they equally contain a variety of clear declarations to the effect that we are responsible. In spite of having given up everything for Christ, in spite of being an Apostle, Paul is not resting on his laurels, is not taking anything for granted. He clearly recognizes his own responsibility to “press on”.

that I have already obtained it or have already been perfected; but I press on to actually claim that for which Christ Jesus claimed me.

Our citizenship is in Heaven

<sup>15</sup>So then, those of us who are mature should have this mentality, but if on some point you think differently, God will reveal that to you as well.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>Only, in what we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be of the same mind.<sup>d</sup>

4 <sup>1</sup>So then, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, do stand fast in Sovereign in this way,<sup>j</sup> dear ones.

Concluding considerations

---

<sup>a</sup> When Paul (he was still Saul) met Jesus on the road to Damascus he underwent a complete change of direction.

<sup>b</sup> “The upward call from God”, that is the real prize; and the only reason the Father calls anyone is because of Jesus Christ.

<sup>f</sup> I take this as a personal challenge—to be a pattern that others can use to distinguish between friends and enemies of the cross. Since the cross of Christ represents death to self, most people are not interested.

<sup>h</sup> He will deliver us from this world scene, with emphasis upon the glorification of our bodies.

<sup>i</sup> Although, as the Psalmist says, we are “fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalm 139:14), it is also the case that our physical bodies limit us, and not infrequently that limitation reaches the point of being humiliating. Personally, I am ready and waiting for my glorified body, but in the meantime, I am very happy to be able to contribute to Christ’s Kingdom down here.

<sup>k</sup> We have here a common word for ‘yokefellow’, and although the context seems to ask for a proper name we don’t know of any examples elsewhere of such use. Referring back to 2:25, the description of Epaphroditus makes him a good candidate. He is carrying this letter, and being from Philippi he would be familiar with the facts in the case.

Gospel, and with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.<sup>a</sup>

Filling the mind with good things

Thanks for material support

<sup>10</sup>I rejoice in the Lord greatly that you have renewed your concern for me once again; of course you were concerned, just lacked the opportunity. <sup>11</sup>I am not saying this because of lack, since I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. <sup>12</sup>I know what it is to be restricted, and I know what it is to have an abundance; everywhere and in every way I have been initiated both into being well fed and into being hungry, both into having plenty and into having need. <sup>13</sup>I can handle anything<sup>g</sup> through Christ who strengthens me. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless you have done well in sharing with me in my trial.

<sup>e</sup> Is this list the sort of thing you will find on television or the internet? We need to remember Psalm 101:3, “I will set nothing wicked before my eyes”.

<sup>f</sup> Paul is forthright in offering himself as an example, which is a challenge to us to live in such a way that we can do the same. He even guarantees the blessing of “the God of peace”.

<sup>g</sup> In the context Paul is not claiming to be all-powerful (‘I can do all things’), but God’s grace is sufficient for meeting whatever comes his way.

<sup>i</sup> When we die we cannot take any money or material goods with us, but we can send it on ahead, investing in Christ’s Kingdom.

The Epistle of Paul to the COLOSSIANS

Salutation

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and brother Timothy,<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>to the holy and faithful brothers in Christ at Colosse: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.<sup>b</sup>

Building rapport<sup>c</sup>

<sup>3</sup>We always give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ when we pray for you <sup>4</sup>(having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus<sup>d</sup> and your love toward all the saints), <sup>5</sup>because of the hope<sup>e</sup> that is being reserved for you in the heavens, of which you have already heard through the Word of the Truth<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>(the Gospel that has come to you just as also in all the world, where it is producing fruit and growing<sup>g</sup> just as also among you, from the day in which you heard about and truly understood God's grace), <sup>7</sup>even as you learned from Epaphras, our dear fellow slave,<sup>h</sup> who is a faithful servant of Christ on your<sup>i</sup> behalf, <sup>8</sup>who also reported to us your love in spirit.<sup>j</sup>

Christ preeminent

Walk worthily of the Lord

<sup>9</sup>For this very reason, since the day we heard of it, we have not stopped praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the real knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, <sup>10</sup>in order for you to walk worthily of the Lord, pleasing Him in every way,<sup>k</sup> being fruitful in every good work and growing into the real knowledge of God;<sup>l</sup> <sup>11</sup>being enabled with all capability accor-

<sup>f</sup> Yes, 'the' Truth—the Text has the definite article. The Lord Jesus repeatedly referred to the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of 'the Truth', so Paul is affirming that the Gospel they heard was God's Word.

<sup>g</sup> Although half the Greek manuscripts, followed by the Textus Receptus, and hence AV and NKJV, do not have "and growing", the other half, including the best line of transmission, do. (The omission could be an easy case of 'similar ending'.)

<sup>i</sup> Instead of "your", perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have 'our' (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> The Text has no article with 'spirit', so the reference may not be to the Holy Spirit, which is why I render "love in spirit". If this love was directed toward Paul, it could not be emotional, since they had never met him. This whole paragraph is a single sentence—if you feel that the syntax is a little convoluted, you are right.

<sup>k</sup> This reminds me of John 5:19 and 12:49-50; the Lord Jesus was filled with this knowledge and understanding (and evidently we are supposed to be as well).

ding to the strength that resides in His glory,<sup>a</sup> for all endurance and steadfastness.<sup>b</sup>

The supremacy of Christ described

He is Beginning,<sup>m</sup> the firstborn from among the dead,<sup>n</sup> so that He may be preeminent in everything, <sup>19</sup>because in Him all the Fullness was pleased to dwell<sup>o</sup> <sup>20</sup>and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself,<sup>p</sup> having made peace through <sup>b</sup> This is a great prayer to pray for anybody. Note, however, that the emphasis is on enduring and being steadfast—sounds like tough times.

---

<sup>a</sup> His glory reflects who He is, and He is all powerful; that power can “enable” us “with all capability”.

<sup>c</sup> The Father declares us to be qualified, based on the Son’s work. Instead of “us”, perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘you’ (as in NIV, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> Yes, ‘the’ Light—the Text has the definite article. John 1:7 refers to Jesus as ‘the Light’, and in John 8:12 Jesus calls Himself ‘the Light’ of the world. What sort of person will enjoy basking in the Light?

<sup>e</sup> “The darkness” refers to Satan’s kingdom, and since there are only the two spiritual kingdoms in this world, everyone is in either one or the other (Luke 11:23).

<sup>i</sup> Although the Trinity was presumably involved in the Creation, this verse plainly states that the Son was the principal agent (see also Hebrews 1:10 and John 1:10).

<sup>j</sup> “Those in the heavens” would include angelic beings, including high ranking ones—they owe their existence to the Son.

<sup>k</sup> Most inhabitants of planet Earth do not understand that God created them for Himself, so they live out their existence here without knowing why they are here. That is why Sovereign Jesus commanded that His Gospel should be proclaimed to everyone.

<sup>m</sup> There is no article with “beginning”, so I consider that it functions like a proper name.

<sup>n</sup> This is an interesting (even if unpleasant) figure of speech; death is viewed as a huge womb, pregnant with all the deceased, and Jesus was literally the first one out, the first one to be ‘born’, the first one to resurrect with a glorified body. He was the first, but only the first! Because He conquered death we can also escape that ‘womb’.

<sup>o</sup> I take the point to be that while Jehovah the Son was confined to a human body the Father and the Holy Spirit were with Him to such an extent that it could be said that the Godhead was dwelling in Him.

the blood of His cross<sup>a</sup>—through Him, whether things on the earth or things on<sup>b</sup> the heavens.

The truth applied

What Paul does and why he does it

Present everyone perfect in Christ

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings<sup>h</sup> on your behalf and supplement in my flesh<sup>i</sup> the things lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the Church, <sup>25</sup>of which I became a servant according to the stewardship from God that was given to me towards you, to complete the Word of God,<sup>j</sup> <sup>26</sup>the secret<sup>k</sup> that has been hidden from past ages and generations, but now has been revealed to His saints; <sup>27</sup>to whom God resolved to make known who is the wealth of the glory of this secret among the nations,<sup>l</sup> namely Christ in you, the hope of glory;<sup>m</sup>

<sup>a</sup> This is reminiscent of Isaiah 53:5, “The chastisement for our peace was upon Him”. But the cost was terrible: the shed blood of God’s Lamb.

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says, “on”. Beings and things that are an inherent part of Heaven do not need ‘reconciling’, so Paul uses this means to indicate the non-inherent ones that do need it (but do not ask me for a list).

<sup>c</sup> Are wicked works the cause of the alienation, or its result? I suspect that they keep ‘feeding’ each other, so it is both.

<sup>d</sup> Note that Jesus’ physical body receives emphasis; you can’t have blood without a body.

<sup>e</sup> What a marvelous purpose, what a marvelous prospect, but we have to “continue in the Faith” (verse 23).

<sup>f</sup> God has done His part, but we must do our part, which includes ‘continuing’ and not drifting.

<sup>g</sup> How should we understand this statement? Based on the accounts, at that moment a small percentage of the total population had heard the Gospel, whether by human preachers, or angelic ones. To my mind, the best explanation is to understand the statement from God’s point of view. To an eternal Being, time is irrelevant, since He already knows everything. As it says in Acts 15:18, “All His works are known to God from eternity”. 1 Peter 1:18-20 affirms that God’s Lamb, with His blood shed, was so known before the creation of the world. And Ephesians 1:4 affirms that the Father chose us in the Son before the foundation of the world. Well then, how about the proclamation of the Gospel? Revelation 14:6 refers to an angel who will proclaim the Gospel to all who live on the earth—to every ethnic nation, tribe, language and people. From God’s point of view, that already happened.

<sup>h</sup> I confess that I have not yet arrived at this spiritual level, to rejoice in suffering.

<sup>i</sup> Evidently the ongoing well-being of the Church requires suffering on our part (we cannot add to the saving work of Christ), the enduring of affliction—Satan and his minions are very active in this world.

<sup>j</sup> I take it that Paul was aware that he was writing new Scripture, expounding Truth that had been withheld from Old Testament saints (verse 26).

<sup>k</sup> I consider that ‘secret’ is a better rendering than ‘mystery’. The truth about the Church is not all that mysterious, it just had not been explained before.

<sup>l</sup> Although God’s saving interest has always included the whole world (“all the families of the earth”—Genesis 12:3), throughout the O.T. God worked mainly through His specially chosen people, Israel. Now the Bride of Christ includes Jews and non-Jews on an equal footing.

<sup>m</sup> Christ is ‘the wealth of the glory’, but He must be in us for us to have any hope of sharing in that glory; and we must proclaim Him to the nations for them to have any hope.

<sup>28</sup>whom we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>29</sup>It is to this end that I labor, striving according to His working that works through me with power.<sup>b</sup>

A wealth of confident understanding

2 <sup>1</sup>I want you to know how great is my concern for you and those in Laodicea, even all who have not met me personally,<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>that their hearts may be encouraged, being united in love and into a great wealth of confident understanding,<sup>d</sup> into a real knowledge of the mystery of the God and Father and of the Christ,<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>in whom all the treasures of the wisdom and the knowledge are hidden.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Now I say this so that no one may deceive you with specious arguments. <sup>5</sup>For although in fact I am physically absent, yet my spirit is with you, rejoicing as I observe<sup>g</sup> your orderliness and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Christian responsibility

<sup>6</sup>So then, just as you received Christ Jesus, the Sovereign, keep on walking in Him, <sup>7</sup>having been rooted and being built up in Him<sup>h</sup> and being established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

Christ VS 'the world'

<sup>8</sup>Be careful that no one captures you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the basic principles of the world and not according to Christ.<sup>i</sup> <sup>9</sup>Because all the Fullness of the Godhead dwells in Him in bodily form, <sup>10</sup>and you are complete in Him who is the head over all rule and

---

<sup>a</sup> In the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19) Christ commanded His followers to 'make disciples' (which involves a whole lot more than just 'winning souls'), and Paul declares that to be his objective. Instead of "Christ", perhaps 60% of the Greek manuscripts have 'Christ Jesus' (as in AV and NKJV). I follow the best line of transmission.

<sup>b</sup> If we want to see God manifesting His power through us, we must subordinate ourselves to His working.

<sup>c</sup> Paul plainly states that he has yet to visit Colosse and Laodicea.

<sup>d</sup> To have a confident understanding of God's Truth is indeed a great treasure (but it is not for the lazy).

<sup>e</sup> Some 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit "and Father and of the" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> As the primary agent in the creation of our world, the Son is the Source of all true wisdom and knowledge relative to life on this planet.

<sup>g</sup> The basic meaning of the verb rendered 'observe' is to observe with the physical eye, which implies being within range and with no obstacles. But Paul obviously was not there as he wrote, in fact had never been there. He affirms that it is his spirit that is doing the seeing and rejoicing. The Protestant Reformation was a result, in part, of the Renaissance, with its emphasis on reason, so Protestants in general have had trouble understanding the spirit world. So the tendency of commentators has been to 'spiritualize' Paul's statement, rather than take it literally. Of course they have done the same with 2 Kings 5:26 (where Elisha says his spirit went with Gehazi) and 6:12 (where Elisha listens in on the king of Syria), not to mention John 1:48 (where the Lord Himself saw Nathanael when not physically present). Here in Brazil we have many former Spiritists and Satanists who have been converted and they affirm that they used to project their spirits outside their bodies and go all over the place—several of my former students, now genuinely converted, have told me they used to do it—but they could do so only with the assistance of a fallen angel (demon). Satan's 'thing' is to be like the Most High, so he is always trying to imitate Him; perhaps God's servants used to know how to do this, only without such assistance [I have heard of a few in our day who still do].

<sup>h</sup> "Having been rooted" refers to what has already happened; "being built up" refers to the ongoing process.

<sup>i</sup> The "basic principles of the world", including the academic community (and the media, and commerce, etc.), are controlled by Satan, and are contrary to the values of Christ's Kingdom. Unfortunately very few churches give adequate teaching on this subject.

authority.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>In Him you were also ‘circumcised’ by the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, not with a circumcision done by hands but with the circumcision of the Christ, <sup>12</sup>having been buried with Him by the baptism.<sup>b</sup> With Him you were also raised together through your faith in the productive power of the God who raised Him from among the dead.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Yes you, though being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh—He has made you alive together with Him; having forgiven us all our trespasses;<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>having wiped out the written record about us that was against us (based on the ordinances),<sup>e</sup> indeed He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross; <sup>15</sup>having stripped the principalities and the authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, having triumphed over them by it [the cross].<sup>f</sup>

<sup>16</sup>So do not let anyone judge you about food or drink, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or Sabbaths, <sup>17</sup>which things are but a shadow of those to come, while the body is Christ's. <sup>18</sup>Nor let anyone disqualify you,<sup>g</sup> taking pleasure in a subservience and devotion to the angels, ‘taking possession’ of things that he has not<sup>h</sup> seen, being puffed up by his carnal mind to no useful purpose, <sup>19</sup>and not holding fast to the Head, from whom all the body, supported and held together by its joints and ligaments, grows with the increase that is from God.

<sup>20</sup>Now then, since you died with Christ away from the basic principles of the world, why, as though still living in it, are you subjecting yourselves<sup>i</sup> to regula-<sup>a</sup> Wow! There is a human body (glorified) seated at the Father's right, and anyone who is in Christ is there too (Ephesians 2:6).

<sup>b</sup> I find it curious that Paul, writing to non-Jews, uses a very Jewish figure, which the non-Jews probably would not understand without instruction on the subject (although there would be converted Jews in the congregation). In Paul's day (at least) there were those who thought that the physical rite of circumcision was a passport to heaven. We have already seen in Romans 2:25-29 that Paul rejects that notion—God looks on the heart. In our day there are those who think that the physical rite of water baptism is a similar passport, but we probably all know individuals who had their ‘bath’ and are now living for Satan—God looks on the heart. 1 Corinthians 12:12-13 explains that it is the Holy Spirit who baptizes us into Christ: “...so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.” If we become part of Christ's body, then whatever happens to that body happens to us. If that body died, we did. If it was buried, so were we. If it was raised from the dead, we will be too. Correction—we already have new life in Christ, and are to live on that basis.

<sup>c</sup> Without the resurrection there is no Gospel of Christ, and hence no hope for us. It is the resurrection that guarantees our future.

<sup>e</sup> The “written record” has generally been understood to refer to the Law in some way, but I believe it makes better sense to take it as the record of what each of us has done (remember ‘the books’ in Revelation 20:12), which of course is negative. Having been forgiven, the record is nailed to the cross, and that is very good news.

<sup>f</sup> This verse gives an important aspect of Christ's victory by the cross and resurrection. Jehovah the Son took on human form in order to destroy Satan (Hebrews 2:14), and He succeeded. A victorious Roman general would bring back a certain number of the conquered soldiers and parade them, naked and in chains, before the Roman populace—total humiliation. Colossians 2:15 says that Christ did something similar to Satan and the high ranking angels that fell with him.

<sup>g</sup> If you release your hold on “the Head” to get involved in the sorts of things mentioned, you will be disqualified. An athlete who is disqualified does not win. Have you ever heard teaching on the subject of ‘taking possession’? Be careful!

<sup>h</sup> Some 1.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “not” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

tions <sup>21</sup>—Don't handle! Don't taste! Don't touch!—<sup>22</sup>(all of which result in corruption through overuse)<sup>a</sup> according to the commands and teachings of men? <sup>23</sup>Such things do indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and subservience and asceticism, but are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, put on hearts of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience; <sup>13</sup>bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone should have a complaint against another—just as the Christ<sup>j</sup> forgave you, so you also must do. <sup>14</sup>And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.<sup>k</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Actually, there are things that it is better not to taste or handle, but the overuse of such restrictions will give negative results.

<sup>b</sup> "The flesh" is used to refer to our 'old man' or sin nature, not the meat on our bones. Asceticism and legalism tend to make people feel self-righteous, which the 'old man' loves.

<sup>c</sup> What does it mean to have one's life "hidden" in God? I imagine it has to do with protection and security.

<sup>d</sup> Instead of "our", perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have 'your' (as in NIV, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> A curious turn of phrase, 'members on the earth'; perhaps the point is that the things listed belong to this earth and cannot leave it. There will be nothing of the sort in Heaven.

<sup>g</sup> That is what the Text says, "greediness, that is idolatry". Well, if you are greedy for something, it is like a god to you; you are attaching too much importance to it.

<sup>h</sup> "The sons of the disobedience" is a Pauline phrase that he also uses in Ephesians 2:2 and 5:6. The reference is to people who are characterized by disobedience to God; they have deliberately chosen the side of evil, and therefore are worthy candidates for God's wrath. Perhaps 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit "upon the sons of the disobedience" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, etc.).

<sup>i</sup> 'Nationalism' has no legitimate place in the Church. There will be no 'Americans', 'Brazilians', 'Russians', 'Chinese', etc. in Heaven—there will only be true subjects of Sovereign Jesus.

COLOSSIANS 4

<sup>15</sup>Let the peace of God<sup>a</sup> rule in your hearts, into which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.

<sup>16</sup>Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing with grace in your heart to the Lord,<sup>b</sup> with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Whatever you may do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.<sup>d</sup>

Household relationships

<sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your masters (according to the flesh) in all things, not just when they are looking, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>23</sup>And whatever you do, give it all you've got,<sup>j</sup> as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>24</sup>knowing that it is from the Lord that you will receive the inheritance as a reward; because you serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>(But he who does wrong will be repaid for this wrong, and there is no favoritism.)<sup>k</sup>

4 <sup>1</sup>Masters, provide your slaves with what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in the heavens.<sup>l</sup>

Redeem the time

<sup>2</sup>Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it with thanksgiving, <sup>3</sup>at the same time praying for us, that God may open to us a door for the Word, to speak the mystery of Christ (for which I am also in chains), <sup>4</sup>that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup>Behave wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the

<sup>a</sup> Instead of "God", some 5% of the Greek manuscripts have 'Christ' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>b</sup> Instead of "the Lord", perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts have 'God' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> Our singing is supposed to reflect "the Word of Christ". Indeed, all of our teaching and admonishing should be based on that Word.

<sup>d</sup> We thank God for the privilege.

<sup>e</sup> In these verses we have a series of verbs in the imperative mood; they are commands. A woman who subordinates herself to her husband will be doing herself a favor (it makes it easier for him to love her).

<sup>f</sup> Right on! That is just how men tend to react, being frustrated by women's wiles and quite different way of thinking. But a man who has the good sense to give value to that different way of thinking will come out ahead.

<sup>g</sup> So of course such commands must not be contrary to God's moral code.

<sup>h</sup> Unreasonable demands, harsh treatment, lack of clear guidelines—there are various ways to frustrate children and cause them to lose heart, and even give up. In today's world they will probably cop out by going to drugs, or the internet (both of which leave them wide open to demonic influence).

<sup>i</sup> Notice that slavery is not condemned; a slave who converted to Christ could not expect to go free; rather he was expected to be a better slave! Instead of "God", perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have 'the Lord' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> If a human owner is to be served in this way, how much more a divine Owner!

opportunity. <sup>6</sup>Let your word always be with grace, seasoned with salt,<sup>a</sup> to know how you ought to answer each one.

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus will tell you all the news about me; he is a dear brother, a faithful minister and fellow slave in the Lord. <sup>8</sup>I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and encourage your hearts, <sup>9</sup>with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you; they will tell you everything that is happening here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, as does Mark the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions; if he comes to you, welcome him),<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the Kingdom of God who are of the circumcision; they have been a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup>Epaphras, who is one of you, a slave of Christ,<sup>c</sup> greets you; he is always wrestling in prayer for you, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>I bear him witness that he has a great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis.

<sup>16</sup>Now when this letter has been read among you, see that it is also read in the Laodicean congregation,<sup>g</sup> and that you in turn read the letter to Laodicea.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, "See to it that you complete the work that you received in the Lord."<sup>i</sup>

Sign-off

<sup>18</sup>This greeting is in my own hand: Paul.<sup>j</sup> Remember my chains. The Grace be with you. Amen.

---

<sup>a</sup> I wonder what "seasoned with salt" means. Well, according to Romans 12:1, we should present our bodies to God as a 'living sacrifice'; body is a metonym for the person, presumably. In Matthew 5:13 the Lord Jesus said that His followers are the 'salt of the earth'. For something to become salty, it needs to be salted. That is what Jesus does to us when we present our lives to Him as a living sacrifice.

<sup>h</sup> We have no copy of this letter, so presumably it was not inspired, and therefore not preserved. It is possible, even probable, that Paul wrote other letters that were not preserved.

<sup>i</sup> This personal word is unusual in a letter to the church. Since Paul had never been to Colosse, he must have known Archippus from somewhere else, but happened to know that he was in Colosse at that time. However, that exhortation is good for all of us. The older I get, the larger that exhortation looms in my mind.

<sup>j</sup> The letter was dictated to a scribe or secretary, but Paul wrote the last line himself; this was his signature, authenticating the letter.

The First Epistle of Paul to the

THESSALONIANS

Opening Considerations

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, Silvanus and Timothy,<sup>a</sup> to the congregation<sup>b</sup> of Thessalonians in God the Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.<sup>c</sup>

The Thessalonians are praised

<sup>2</sup>We always give thanks to God for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>continually remembering before our God and Father your work for the Faith and your labor coming from the Love and your perseverance based on the Hope, our Lord Jesus Christ being their source,<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>knowing as we do, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen.<sup>e</sup>

They became examples

<sup>5</sup>You see, our Gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit<sup>f</sup> and with complete certainty<sup>g</sup> (of course you know what sort of men we proved to be among you for your sake).<sup>h</sup> <sup>6</sup>Yes you became imitators of us and of the Lord,<sup>i</sup> having received the Word with the Holy Spirit's joy,<sup>j</sup> in spite of severe affliction, <sup>7</sup>so that you became examples<sup>k</sup> to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>8</sup>That is because the Word of the Lord sounded out from you, not only

<sup>c</sup> To the 'western' mind the repetition of the full form, "God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ," may seem unnecessary, if not stylistically poor, but this letter was written by a Hebrew. By switching from 'the' to 'our' Father he claims a personal relationship. Some 7.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> We are used to the rendering: 'work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ'. However, "faith", "love", "hope" and "Lord" all have the definite article and are in the genitive/ablative case. If we translate the definite articles it changes the 'flavor'; we are looking at a particular faith, a particular love, a particular hope, and the three qualities either belong to the Lord or proceed from Him. The genitive/ablative case in Greek is quite 'versatile', and so just to render 'of' all the time is so ambiguous as to leave the precise intent undefined. (However, I can't guarantee that my attempt to 'disambiguate' is correct.)

<sup>f</sup> In verses 1 and 2 it is clear that the Father and the Son are distinct persons; here Paul adds the Holy Spirit.

<sup>g</sup> Powerful manifestations of the Holy Spirit do have a way of adding certainty to the spoken word; they also help to face affliction with joy (next verse).

<sup>h</sup> Why "for your sake"? They were giving an example to be followed.

<sup>i</sup> To imitate the messengers was to imitate the Lord; their walk with God presumably had something to do with the powerful manifestations.

<sup>k</sup> They bought into the messengers' life style of total commitment to Christ and His Kingdom.

in Macedonia and Achaia but also in every place<sup>a</sup>—your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we do not need to say anything.

Their hope

<sup>9</sup>They themselves report about you<sup>b</sup> what kind of entrance we had to you,<sup>c</sup> and how you turned to God from idols to be slaves to the living and true God,<sup>10</sup> and to wait for His Son coming out of the heavens<sup>d</sup> (whom He raised from among the dead)<sup>e</sup>—Jesus, who preserves us from the coming wrath.<sup>f</sup>

Paul's ministry in Thessalonica

2 <sup>1</sup>Now you yourselves know, brothers, that our entrance to you did not happen without purpose. <sup>2</sup>Rather, in spite of having already suffered and been insulted in Philippi, as you know, we made bold in our God to speak to you the Gospel of God, in the face of strong opposition.<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>Further, our exhortation does not spring from delusion or impurity, nor is it in deception, <sup>4</sup>but we speak precisely as those who have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Gospel,<sup>h</sup> not so as to please men, but to please the God who evaluates our hearts.<sup>i</sup> <sup>5</sup>Further, you well know that we never used words to flatter, or to disguise greed (God is witness), <sup>6</sup>or to seek glory from men (whether from you or from others)<sup>j</sup>—as apostles of Christ<sup>k</sup> we could have been ‘heavy’, <sup>7</sup>but we were gentle among you, like a nurse<sup>l</sup> cherishing her own children.

Paul's devotion to them

<sup>8</sup>Yearning over you in this way, we were well pleased to share with you not only the Gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become dear to

---

<sup>a</sup> For something to resound far and wide requires a sufficient cause. Their response to the Gospel was sufficiently vigorous that it caused widespread comment, comment about their transformed lives and the Message that could produce such transformation.

<sup>b</sup> Instead of “you”, perhaps 60% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘us’, as in most versions. I follow the best line of transmission.

<sup>d</sup> Verses 9-10 give a good picture of true conversion. It involves turning your back on all the ‘idols’ that governed your life to trust in the true God; but the only acceptable way to truly relate to the Sovereign of the universe is as a slave = total commitment; this gives a valid hope for a bright future.

<sup>e</sup> Resurrection has to do with bodies (it is the body that is resurrected, to be reunited with the spirit), so the Son will return with a visible body. As the angels said, He will return ‘in like manner’ (Acts 1:11).

<sup>g</sup> They deliberately chose to pay a personal price to reach the Thessalonians. Are we prepared to do the same for the increase of Christ’s Kingdom today?

<sup>h</sup> They knew who they were and what they were about. They deny any form of delusion or hidden agenda—they were honest and aware. To be entrusted with the Gospel is a serious privilege.

<sup>i</sup> There it is: if you want to be a serious servant of God, His approval must be more important to you than that of the people around you.

<sup>j</sup> Wow! If all Christian workers could say the same—no impurity, no deception, no flattery, no greed, no seeking glory—the church and the world would be different than they presently are.

<sup>k</sup> By his use of the plural, Paul is saying that Silvanus and Timothy were also apostles, presumably.

<sup>l</sup> The basic meaning of the noun is ‘nurse’, but the reference to ‘her own children’ has led some to translate it as ‘mother’. I take the point to be that whereas a professional nurse is supposed to take good care of anyone in her charge, she will be especially careful with her own children.

I THESSALONIANS 2

us. <sup>9</sup>Surely you remember, brothers, our toil and exertion, because working night and day, so as not to burden any of you,<sup>a</sup> we proclaimed the Gospel of God to you.

<sup>10</sup>You are witnesses, and so is God, how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe; <sup>11</sup>indeed, you know how we treated each one of you as a father does his own children, exhorting and comforting you, <sup>12</sup>insisting that you conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.<sup>b</sup>

Their conversion

<sup>13</sup>Another reason we give thanks to God continually is that when you received from us the spoken Word of God, you welcomed it not as the word of men but, as it actually is, the Word of God, which is indeed operative in you who believe.<sup>c</sup> <sup>14</sup>For you, brothers, became imitators of God's congregations in Christ Jesus, the ones in Judea,<sup>d</sup> in that you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen that they did from the Jews <sup>15</sup>(the ones who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, who have persecuted us, who do not please God and are hostile to everybody,<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>trying to prevent us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved—so as to keep filling up the measure of their sins. They have received the full impact of the Wrath).<sup>f</sup>

Paul's concern for the Thessalonians

A sense of bereavement

<sup>17</sup>Now we, brothers, having been bereaved of you for a short season (in presence, not in heart), made every effort to see your face, from intense longing.<sup>g</sup> <sup>18</sup>(We actually tried to come to you—I, Paul, time and again—but Satan thwarted

<sup>a</sup> It is clear that they supported themselves financially by working (making tents, or whatever). Between working, evangelizing and discipling (teaching), their sleeping time was probably short. So when could they be alone with God? In prison Paul had lots of time for contemplation (and writing letters), but not in Thessalonica. God places us in different situations at different times, and those situations place different demands upon us.

<sup>b</sup> They really involved themselves in the lives of their converts, a deliberate (and costly) investment, that produced remarkable results. God is calling us into His Kingdom and glory.

<sup>f</sup> I did the best I could with this last sentence, but the concept seems difficult. The verb is in the past and it is the wrath (not just any old wrath). I get the impression that 'the Jews' described here had passed the point of no return (like Pharaoh and the plagues—at first he hardened his own heart, but after a while God hardened it and his doom was sealed) and were just making their accounting worse and worse, 'filling up the measure'—from God's perspective the "full impact" had already been decreed. When someone passes the point of no return, Satan takes over, and they just get worse and worse. (If you think about it, you can probably come up with some examples.)

Ephesians 4:19 speaks of persons who 'have abandoned themselves to depravity, greedily indulging in every kind of vileness'. And how should society defend itself against those who have 'abandoned themselves to depravity'? The consequences of depravity always spill over into the surrounding society, and according to Psalm 5:5-6 the LORD hates such people, and so presumably will not 'draw' them (John 6:44). 1 John 5:16-17 teaches that certain sinners are beyond the reach of prayer, they have passed the point of no return. If someone cannot be saved, then he needs to be neutralized (because of the harm he causes to others)—we need to ask God to teach us how to do this.

Concern leads to action

3 <sup>1</sup>So when we could not stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone <sup>2</sup>and sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God, also our fellow worker<sup>d</sup> in the Gospel of Christ, to confirm you and encourage you concerning your faith, <sup>3</sup>that no one be unsettled by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this.<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>For indeed, when we were with you we kept telling you in advance that we were going to be afflicted;<sup>f</sup> just as it happened, in fact, as you know. <sup>5</sup>Yes, that is why, no longer standing it, I sent to find out about your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had successfully tempted you<sup>g</sup> and our labor come to be for nothing.

<sup>6</sup>But now that Timothy has come to us from you and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, just as we also long to see you <sup>7</sup>—because of this, brothers, in all our affliction and distress we were encouraged about you by your faith; <sup>8</sup>for now we live, if you are standing firm in the Lord.<sup>h</sup>

Paul's desire to go to them

<sup>9</sup>With what thankfulness can we repay God for you, for all the joy with which we are rejoicing in the presence of our God because of you;<sup>i</sup> <sup>10</sup>praying most earnestly night and day, that we may see your face and complete the things lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup>Now may our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus Christ<sup>j</sup> direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup>And may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love toward each other and toward all, just as we also do toward you, <sup>13</sup>so as to establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ<sup>k</sup> with all His holy ones.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>c</sup> The Thessalonian believers represented ‘the fruit of their labor’, evidence that they had been faithful servants, to be presented to the Lord at the Accounting.

<sup>d</sup> Instead of “minister of God, also our fellow worker”, just two Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality (06,33), have ‘fellow worker of God’, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

<sup>e</sup> We are appointed to affliction in this life. How many sermons have you heard on this topic? If the Son learned obedience through suffering (Hebrews 5:8), how about us? “Whom the LORD loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives” (Hebrews 12:6, Proverbs 3:12). Have you ever been scourged, literally? I have—I didn’t enjoy it.

<sup>f</sup> It was all a calculated risk. The messengers had their eyes open and wanted to make sure their hearers went into their new life with their eyes open—there were no misleading promises of peace and prosperity!

<sup>g</sup> Paul was well aware that Satan would not leave them alone.

<sup>h</sup> Again, I find the level of Paul’s involvement with them to be surprising. (It would be physically and emotionally impossible to be this involved with every church he started.) But as a responsible father, he is properly concerned for their growth and well being (verse 10).

<sup>k</sup> Perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts omit “Christ” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

Holiness pleases God

4 <sup>1</sup>Finally then, brothers, we urge and exhort you in the Lord Jesus: as you received from us how you ought to behave and please God,<sup>b</sup> do so even more <sup>2</sup>—you know what instructions we gave you through Sovereign Jesus.<sup>c</sup>

Sanctified sex

An impressive life style

<sup>9</sup>Now about brotherly love you do not need to be written to, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup>And in fact you are doing so toward all the brothers throughout Macedonia.<sup>j</sup> Still, we exhort you to do even more, brothers, <sup>11</sup>to make it a point to be peaceable and to mind your own business, to work with your hands (as we instructed you), <sup>12</sup>so that outsiders may be well impressed by your life style, and that you may have no lack.<sup>k</sup>

Christ’s second coming

<sup>13</sup>Now then, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who have ‘fallen asleep’,<sup>m</sup> so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>Because since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, just so will God bring

---

<sup>a</sup> Another reference to the Accounting: a heart “blameless in holiness” is the ticket. But just what is the picture here; is the Son presenting us to the Father? Might Hebrews 2:13<sup>b</sup> (Isaiah 8:18) be a reference to this? In that event, “all His holy ones” are being presented to the Father.

<sup>c</sup> Paul keeps insisting that he is God’s spokesman, and as such should be obeyed (see also verse 8 below).

<sup>d</sup> “Fornication” refers to any sexual activity outside the marriage bond (distinct from adultery): it includes prostitution, rape, anal sex, sex with an animal; in short, sex without commitment and responsibility (sex that disregards the Creator’s intention).

<sup>e</sup> I take it that this clause clarifies the interpretation of ‘vessel’; verse 4 refers to getting a wife. The term ‘defraud’ is quite strong, so I imagine it refers to courting (not to mention usurping) the affections of a girl already promised, if not betrothed, to another.

<sup>f</sup> To behave so as to make yourself the object of God’s vengeance does not sound like a good idea.

<sup>g</sup> Called “by holiness” and to holiness—“without which no one will see the Lord” (Hebrews 12:14).

<sup>h</sup> Instead of “you”, perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘us’ (as in AV and NKJV).

<sup>l</sup> This paragraph defines the Rapture: Jesus comes down into the atmosphere of this planet (‘clouds’) and collects all those who belong to Him; the bodies of those who have died physically will be resurrected and reunited with their spirits; those still living will not have to die (death is separation); all their bodies will be glorified; the Christ will have His Bride.

with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him. <sup>15</sup>For this we say to you by a word of the Lord,<sup>a</sup> that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will absolutely not precede those who have fallen asleep; <sup>16</sup>because the Lord Himself—with a commanding shout,<sup>b</sup> with the archangel's voice<sup>c</sup> and with God's trumpet—will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first; <sup>17</sup>then we who are still alive, who are left, will be snatched up together with them in clouds to meet the Lord in the air. In precisely this way we will always be with the Lord.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>So then, comfort one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 <sup>1</sup>Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you do not need to be written to, <sup>2</sup>for you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord comes just like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>For whenever they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction is standing near them, like labor pains to a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.<sup>e</sup>

Live as sons of light

<sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this Day should come upon you like a thief. <sup>5</sup>You are all sons of light and sons of day; we are not of night, nor of darkness. <sup>6</sup>So then, let us not sleep,<sup>f</sup> like the rest, but let us stay alert and sober;<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>because those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night; <sup>8</sup>but we being of day, let us be sober, putting on a breastplate of faith and love, and a helmet of hope of salvation.<sup>h</sup> <sup>9</sup>For God did not appoint us to undergo wrath but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>i</sup> <sup>10</sup>who died for us so that whether awake or asleep we may live together with Him.<sup>j</sup> <sup>11</sup>Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, as in fact you do.

Concluding instructions

Esteem spiritual leaders

<sup>12</sup>Now we urge you, brothers, to recognize those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, <sup>13</sup>and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

<sup>b</sup> One is reminded of Jesus' words in John 5:25-29. In verse 25 He says 'now is', so He is speaking of the spiritually dead who need to listen to Him and receive spiritual life. But in verse 28 He speaks plainly of those 'in the graves'—all the dead will be resurrected at Jesus' command, including the lost, who will then be condemned to the Lake. I take it that here in 4:16 Jesus resurrects only the "dead in Christ", and He uses a commanding shout. To raise Lazarus He gave a loud shout (John 11:43), that might have carried half a mile; this one will be heard around the globe.

<sup>e</sup> The destruction will not necessarily strike when they speak. Just as a pregnant woman knows she will have labor pains (no Caesarean section)—the only uncertainty is when, not if—so the destruction will be inescapable.

Complete sanctification

<sup>23</sup>Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body<sup>h</sup> be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>He who calls you is faithful, and He will do it.

Farewell

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, pray for us. <sup>26</sup>Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup>I adjure you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.<sup>i</sup> <sup>28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

---

<sup>a</sup> Notice that the response is appropriate to the occasion, or the need.

<sup>b</sup> The term 'bad' is less strong than the term for malignant evil, so the reference is not to malignant activity.

<sup>c</sup> The verb 'pursue' does not suggest a passive attitude; we should be actively promoting the good for the society at large wherever we live. The result will be a better place to live.

<sup>d</sup> There are those who say we should give thanks for everything, as distinct from in everything. I doubt that our Lord in the garden of Gethsemane gave thanks for the suffering He was facing and already enduring. To give thanks in a distressful situation is a declaration of confidence in God and His disposition of our affairs.

<sup>e</sup> When you quench a lighted candle, you put out its light. To quench the Spirit is presumably to 'put out' or refuse His light, to suppress or ignore His voice when He speaks to us—this would include any rejection of the revealed will of God.

<sup>h</sup> I take it that the grammatical structure of this phrase, "the spirit and the soul and the body" (in Greek), demands a tripartite/trichotomous view of the human being. I confess that I have trouble imagining complete sanctification for the body, in this life.

<sup>i</sup> To adjure by the Lord that the letter be read is tantamount to claiming inspiration for it. By extension, does not "all the holy brothers" include us?

II THESSALONIANS

Opening Considerations

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, Silvanus and Timothy,<sup>a</sup> to the congregation<sup>b</sup> of the Thessalonians in God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ.<sup>c</sup>

Commendation and encouragement

<sup>3</sup>We are obligated to always give thanks to God about you, brothers, and properly so, because your faith is really growing, and the love of each and every one of you towards each other keeps increasing; <sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves boast about you among God's congregations, referring to your steadfastness and faith in the midst of all your persecutions, and the tribulations that you are enduring<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>—the above is evidence that God's judgment is right,<sup>e</sup> to the end that you be considered worthy<sup>f</sup> of the Kingdom of God, on behalf of which you are actually suffering; <sup>6</sup>since to God it is right to pay back affliction to those who are afflicting you<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>and rest (along with us) to you who are being afflicted,<sup>h</sup> at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with His powerful angels in blazing fire,<sup>i</sup> <sup>8</sup>inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>j</sup> <sup>9</sup>who will pay a penalty: everlasting ruin,<sup>k</sup> away from the face of the

<sup>b</sup> The first image that the term 'church' evokes in the minds of many is that of a building; what is in view here is a group of people, and a very particular group of people.

<sup>c</sup> To the 'western' mind the repetition of the full form, "God our Father and Sovereign Jesus Christ," may seem unnecessary, if not stylistically poor, but this letter was written by a Hebrew.

<sup>d</sup> Paul boasts of their steadfastness and faith. Evidently the believers in Thessalonica were passing through tough times—the adversity caused their faith to grow and their love for each other to increase. This equation appears to be a norm within the Kingdom of God.

<sup>f</sup> Wait a minute! If salvation is by grace, where does 'being worthy' come in? Well, again we are faced with the paradox of the coexistence of God's sovereignty and human responsibility. "God's judgment" = sovereignty; suffering to be "considered worthy" = responsibility. The gift of life in Christ is indeed free; we do not deserve it and cannot buy it or earn it. To live for Christ costs everything, and not a few have backed out.

<sup>g</sup> Payday is coming; those who mistreated God's people are not going to like it.

<sup>h</sup> There is a rest for the people of God (Hebrews, chapters 3 and 4), but the full realization of that rest comes only when we are glorified.

<sup>i</sup> The syntax allows "in blazing fire" to go either with the angels or the vengeance; it seemed more natural to me to put the phrase with the angels—in that event the "revelation" will be an impressive sight.

<sup>j</sup> It is clearly implied that they could have known God and could have obeyed the Gospel; if they had no way of knowing and never ever heard, "vengeance" would seem to be too strong. So what about the millions of individuals born into cultures where no representative of the Creator has ever gone? Romans 1:18-25 makes clear that all have the light of creation. Since all human knowledge is based on the principle of cause and effect, any rational creature must conclude that there has to be a sufficient Cause for the marvelous creation he sees all around. Each one is also born with a conscience. No doubt anyone who responds correctly to the light of creation will receive more light. That said, however, one gains the impression that there will be degrees of punishment, according to the amount of light rejected. Perhaps 40% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Christ" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>k</sup> The lost do not cease to exist; they are eternally separated from the Source of all good; they are condemned to never achieve/realize their potential—everlasting ruin. That said, however, it is presumably

II THESSALONIANS 2

Lord and from the glory of His might, <sup>10</sup>whenever He comes to be glorified by His saints,<sup>a</sup> yes to be marveled at by all who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed);<sup>b</sup> in that Day.<sup>c</sup>

A model prayer

<sup>11</sup>To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of the calling<sup>d</sup> and fulfill<sup>e</sup> with power every desire of goodness and work of faith,<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ<sup>g</sup> may be glorified in you,<sup>h</sup> and you in Him,<sup>i</sup> according to the grace of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.<sup>j</sup>

The Day of Christ

2 <sup>1</sup>Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to Him,<sup>k</sup> we urge you <sup>2</sup>not to be quickly shaken from your conviction or disturbed, whether by a spirit<sup>l</sup> or a word or a letter as from us,<sup>m</sup> as though the Day of Christ<sup>n</sup> has come.

the case that those who hate God would react to “the face of the Lord” and “the glory of His might” as being intolerable torture, worse even than hell-fire.

<sup>a</sup> There is a stark contrast between the saved and the lost: the saved will rejoice and glory in Christ’s presence; the lost will be excluded from it, a basic ingredient in the ruin. If we have emotions, it is because God had them first—He will enjoy being glorified and marveled at.

<sup>d</sup> I suppose that “the calling” here is to have an active part in bringing about God’s Kingdom in their context; as they are counted worthy, God will work with them to introduce goodness and works of faith into that context.

<sup>f</sup> The declared objective of the prayer in verse 11 is given in verse 12: “that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you”; so it would be in God’s own interest to aid any desire on our part to be useful and to do works of power with a view to that glory.

<sup>g</sup> Perhaps 55% of the Greek manuscripts omit “Christ” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). I follow the best line of transmission.

<sup>h</sup> Note that the point of the manifestations of God’s power is to glorify the Lord Jesus Christ; and they do add force and credibility to our Message.

<sup>i</sup> When we glorify the Lord there is reciprocation.

<sup>j</sup> I take “our God and Lord, Jesus Christ” to be the best rendering of the precise turn of phrase here.

<sup>l</sup> Attention! Paul is saying (and the Holy Spirit through him) that Christians may receive misinformation from evil spirits. Those ideas that just ‘pop into your head’ need to be evaluated as to their source.

<sup>m</sup> Evidently there were people fraudulently using Paul’s name, even in writing. Fraud has been around for a very long time.

<sup>n</sup> Instead of “Christ”, some 15% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Lord’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.); the 85% that have “Christ” (including the best line of transmission) are doubtless correct. I remember one day in a Greek exegesis class, the professor stated that one reason he preferred the ‘critical’ text (that reads ‘Lord’ here) is that it fit better with his view of eschatology—the ‘Day of Christ’ is usually associated with the Rapture and blessing of the saints, while the ‘Day of the Lord’ is usually associated with heavy judgment upon the world and unrepentant Israel, including the outpouring of wrath just before and after the Second Coming of Christ, when He returns in glory to establish His Millennial Messianic Kingdom. The perceived difficulty here would appear to be that while verses 1, 6 and 7 evidently relate to the Rapture, verses 3-4 and 8-10 evidently relate to the Great Tribulation and the Second Coming. What to do? Look carefully at the Text.

In verse 2, why would the Thessalonian believers be “disturbed”? Someone was teaching that the Rapture had already happened and they had been left behind—I would be disturbed too! So “Day of Christ” is precisely correct with reference to the content of verses 1 and 2. The trouble comes in verse 3 because a clause is elided; as an aid to the reader translations usually supply a clause, preferably in

The man of sin

<sup>3</sup>Do not let anyone deceive you by any means; because that day cannot come unless the rebellion<sup>a</sup> comes first and the man of sin<sup>b</sup> is revealed, the son of ruin,<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>who opposes and exalts himself over everything that is called a god or an object of worship, to the point of taking his seat as God<sup>d</sup> in God's sanctuary,<sup>e</sup> proclaiming himself to be God. <sup>5</sup>(Don't you remember that I used to tell you these things while still with you?)<sup>f</sup>

The Restrainer

italics, to show that it is an addition, as in NKJV—"that Day will not come". But that would put the Rapture after the revelation of the man of sin and the 'abomination of desolation'—definitely not congenial to certain eschatological systems. An easy 'solution' would be to change 'Christ' to 'Lord' in verse 2, but that would put the Rapture within the 'Day of the Lord'—also not congenial. I submit that fine-tuning our view of eschatology is preferable to tampering with the Text.

If the 'Restrainer' in verses 6-8 is the Holy Spirit (which seems to me to be the only adequate identification), then the Rapture happens before the 'abomination', and may be viewed as its 'trigger'. But if the 'Day of Christ' includes the Rapture, then verse 3 would appear to place the Rapture after the 'abomination'. So where does that leave us? Although my own training was strongly 'pre-trib', I have moved to a 'meso-trib' position. If the Rapture follows immediately upon the 'abomination', then the 'surprise' factor remains untouched. If the 'abomination' and the Rapture happen within minutes of each other, then from God's point of view they form a single 'package', and the actual sequence is not important—for all practical purposes they happen at the same time.

<sup>a</sup> There has been no end of rebellion down through the centuries, but this one will be worse (the rebellion in the so-called 'western world' is getting nastier by the day).

<sup>b</sup> Instead of "sin", some 5% of the Greek manuscripts read 'lawlessness' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, etc.), but the 95% (including the best line of transmission) are doubtless correct. Yes, 'the' man of sin—there have been no end of evil men down through the centuries, but this one will be really bad.

<sup>e</sup> If this refers to God's temple in Jerusalem, it has yet to be rebuilt. (All the pieces are ready, and with modern technology it can be erected in 24 hours.)

<sup>i</sup> Perhaps more literally, 'gets Himself out of the middle' (the verb ginomai is inherently middle in voice). I would say that the Holy Spirit is the only one who satisfies the description.

<sup>j</sup> Note that "His coming" is subsequent to the revelation of the man of sin and the events he will usher in, and that revelation is subsequent to the departure of the Restrainer (even if virtually simultaneous). So if the Rapture is linked to the Restrainer's departure, the Lord's "coming" (here in verse 8) is a distinct, subsequent occurrence.

Believing 'the lie'

<sup>11</sup>Yes, because of this God will send them an active delusion<sup>c</sup> so that they will believe the lie<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>and so that all may be condemned who have not believed the truth but have taken pleasure in wickedness.<sup>e</sup>

To be Saved is Different

<sup>13</sup>Now we are obligated to always give thanks to God about you, brothers loved by the Lord, because from the beginning<sup>f</sup> God chose you into salvation, through sanctification of spirit and belief in truth, <sup>14</sup>to which<sup>g</sup> He called you through our gospel, so as to obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>h</sup> middle or passive, but the basic form of the verb is middle. Ephesians 1:5-14 makes clear that a basic objective of our redemption is that we be 'to the praise of His glory', which was part of the original Plan (Isaiah 43:7). Only as we live for the glory of God can we realize or fulfill our potential, our reason for being. If you live for any other reason, you are wasting yourself.

<sup>a</sup> The use of the verb 'receive' clearly implies an act of volition on their part; that love was offered or made available to them but they did not want it; they wanted to be able to lie and to entertain lies told by others. But the consequences of such a choice are terrible; they turned their back on salvation.

<sup>b</sup> Since there are only two spiritual kingdoms in this world, that of Sovereign Jesus and that of Satan, "those who are wasting themselves", in this text, are still in Satan's kingdom and therefore wide open to his "wicked deception". The Text states plainly that they are wasting themselves "because they did not receive the love of the truth so that they might be saved". They are not saved.

<sup>c</sup> Notice the sequence: first they reject the love of the truth; it is as a consequence of that choice that God sends the delusion. The implication is that there is a point of no return; God sends the delusion so that they may be condemned. The only intelligent choice is to embrace the truth!

Consider with me the consequences of the facts enunciated in verses 10-12 for a whole nation, like Brazil, where I now live. We have many thousands of local churches that call themselves Christian. But I know of almost none that could be characterized as 'loving the truth'. No one wants a Bible with objective authority. Humanistic, relativistic, materialistic values have taken over the churches. Biblical values are no longer acceptable. In consequence, Satan has control of the government, of education, of health services, of commerce, of the entertainment industry, in short, of the whole culture. The churches that have rejected biblical values are part of the problem—since they have rejected "the love of the truth", they have been taken over by "active delusion".

Note that God Himself sends that delusion with the declared objective of condemning all those who believed the lie. If God Himself visits "active delusion" upon a whole country, what possible escape is there? The only possible 'medicine' is "the love of the truth". Those of us who consider ourselves to be true subjects of Sovereign Jesus need to appeal to Him to show us how to promote the love of the truth to the churches and to the society at large. Here in Brazil it may be too late, but if God's grace still offers us a window of opportunity, we must devote ourselves to promoting the love of the truth by all possible means.

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps "the lie" is best illustrated in our day by the theory of evolution: "There is no Creator"—so there will not be any accounting; so you can do what you feel like. How terrible will be the awakening!

<sup>f</sup> Instead of "from the beginning", perhaps 6% of the Greek manuscripts have 'firstfruits' (as in some versions).

<sup>g</sup> Our versions typically have 'sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth', but the Text has no article with 'spirit' or 'truth'; further, the relative pronoun 'which' is neuter in gender, while the most likely antecedents are either masculine ('sanctification') or feminine ('salvation' and 'belief'). But when the antecedent is a phrase the pronoun is typically neuter, so I take the antecedent to be "through sanctification of spirit and belief in truth". The human spirit must be sanctified. In 1 Peter 1:2, Peter includes all three persons of the Godhead in the process of our salvation; the part of the Holy Spirit is to 'set us apart' (He works in our minds to encourage or predispose us to obey).

<sup>h</sup> Note that our salvation is not only about forgiveness of sins, it is also about obtaining glory, our Sovereign's glory.

<sup>15</sup>So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions<sup>a</sup> that you were taught by us, whether by word or by letter.

Another model prayer

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort<sup>b</sup> and good hope, by grace, <sup>17</sup>encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good word and work.<sup>c</sup>

A request for prayer

3 <sup>1</sup>Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, as also with you, <sup>2</sup>and that we may be delivered from evil and malignant men; for not all have the faith.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen you and guard you from the malignant one.<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>We have confidence in Sovereign concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>Now may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the perseverance of Christ.<sup>g</sup>

Instructions

Don't be irresponsible or lazy

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who behaves irresponsibly and not according to the tradition that they<sup>h</sup> received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we did not behave irresponsibly among you; <sup>8</sup>neither<sup>i</sup> did we eat anyone's bread without paying; rather we worked night and day, with difficulty and hardship, so as not to be a burden to any of you; <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have the right, but in order to offer ourselves to you as a model for you to imitate. <sup>10</sup>Yes, because when we were with you we gave you this command: "If anyone does not want to work,<sup>j</sup> neither let him eat!" <sup>11</sup>Yet we hear that some among you are behaving irresponsibly; not working, just meddling. <sup>12</sup>Now to such individuals we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ that they work in quietness and eat their own bread.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>g</sup> As Paul makes clear in the opening paragraph, they are already manifesting love and perseverance, so I take the point of the prayer to be progress into God's kind of love and Christ's kind of perseverance. They have made a good start, they are on the right road; Paul asks God to help them on toward the goal.

<sup>h</sup> There were several of them.

<sup>i</sup> The distinction implied here indicates that the irresponsible behavior covered a wider area than just idleness or freeloading.

<sup>j</sup> "Does not want to work"—the reference is not to those who want to work but cannot find a job; it is to the lazy.

<sup>k</sup> To eat 'your own bread', you have to work to earn that bread.

II THESSALONIANS 3

Isolate the disobedient

<sup>13</sup>But as for you, brothers, do not lose heart in well doing. <sup>14</sup>If anyone does not obey our word in this letter, take note of him and do not associate with him, that he may be shamed; <sup>15</sup>yet do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.<sup>a</sup>

Conclusion

Benediction

Sign-off

<sup>17</sup>The greeting of Paul, with my own hand, which is the ‘trademark’ in every letter that I write in this way.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

---

<sup>a</sup> The discipline is to be corrective, not punitive. Note that Paul clearly claims authority; he expects to be obeyed.

<sup>b</sup> “The peace”: there is no lack of counterfeit ‘peace’, but the reference here is presumably to ‘the peace of God, that surpasses all understanding’ (Philippians 4:7)—and only “the Lord of peace” can give it.

<sup>c</sup> Since they were being actively persecuted, this was a very appropriate blessing.

<sup>d</sup> I take the clear implication to be that Paul dictated his letters to an amanuensis, or secretary, but ‘signed’ the letter by writing the last line himself.

The First Epistle of Paul to TIMOTHY

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the command of God our Savior and Sovereign Jesus Christ<sup>a</sup> our hope,<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, true son by faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God our<sup>c</sup> Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Opening considerations

Paul refers to their last conversation

<sup>3</sup>You recall that I urged you to remain in Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, in order that you should command<sup>d</sup> certain persons to stop teaching a different doctrine <sup>4</sup>and occupying themselves with myths and endless genealogies,<sup>e</sup> which cause disputes rather than the godly training which is by faith.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>Now the goal of that command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith;<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>some having strayed from these have been turned aside<sup>h</sup> to empty talk, <sup>7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the law, not understanding either what they say or the things that they affirm.<sup>i</sup>

What law is for

<sup>8</sup>Now we know that the law is good if one uses it correctly, <sup>9</sup>knowing that law is not made for a righteous person but for lawless and rebellious ones, for ungodly and sinners, for unholy and profane, for father-smiters and mother-smiters, for murderers,<sup>j</sup> <sup>10</sup>for fornicators, for sodomites,<sup>k</sup> for kidnappers,<sup>l</sup> for liars, for perjurers, and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine <sup>11</sup>as defined by the Gospel<sup>m</sup> of the glory<sup>a</sup> of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup> There is no article with 'Sovereign/Lord', so I take the phrase to be acting as a proper name. Perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Sovereign" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> I follow the best line of transmission, as well as a plurality of the Greek manuscripts, in rendering "father-smiter" rather than 'father-killer'. Since patricide and matricide are types of murder, why cite 'murder' three times? A normal list does not repeat items.

<sup>k</sup> The reference is specifically to those who play the role of the male in homosexual intercourse (anal sex), as distinct from catamites (1 Corinthians 6:9), who play the role of the female. From the Creator's point of view both are unacceptable forms of human behavior, and carried the death penalty (Leviticus 20:13).

<sup>m</sup> Notice that law is supposed to be based on God's Word. Only the Creator is competent to legislate morality. In a country run by Satan's servants, the judiciary is usually perverted so as to protect the crimi-

The grace of God

<sup>12</sup>I thank Christ Jesus our Lord who enables me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into a ministry; <sup>13</sup>I, who was formerly a blasphemer and a persecutor and arrogant; but I was shown mercy, because being ignorant<sup>c</sup> I did it in unbelief; <sup>14</sup>the grace of our Lord overflowed, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.<sup>d</sup> <sup>15</sup>Here is a trustworthy word, worthy of total acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am chief; <sup>16</sup>precisely for this reason I was shown mercy, that in me, the ‘chief’, Jesus Christ might display all his forbearance, as an example for those who are going to rely on Him into eternal life.<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise,<sup>f</sup> be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

A charge to Timothy

Wage the good warfare

<sup>18</sup>Son Timothy, I am giving you this charge in accordance with the prophecies about you that lead the way,<sup>g</sup> that in them you may wage the good warfare, <sup>19</sup>holding on to faith and a good conscience<sup>h</sup> (which<sup>i</sup> some having rejected have suffered shipwreck concerning the Faith; <sup>20</sup>of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander—whom I have handed over to Satan that they may be taught<sup>j</sup> not to blaspheme).

About prayer

2 <sup>1</sup>Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions and thanksgivings be made on behalf of all men<sup>k</sup> <sup>2</sup>—on behalf of kings and all nal and punish the honest citizen. They often go further, declaring biblical values to be ‘hate crimes’. Have you ever noticed that in such countries hating Jesus and hating Christians is never considered to be a crime? On the contrary, it is protected and encouraged.

<sup>a</sup> The Gospel reflects God’s glory, and may even be said to be about that glory, since it reflects His character.

<sup>b</sup> If you are entrusted with something you are supposed to take care of it and protect it. Paul demonstrates this attitude.

<sup>c</sup> Paul was highly instructed in the Jewish religion, but was ignorant where it really mattered.

<sup>d</sup> I take it that Paul is saying that he received an outpouring of faith and love, as well as grace. Well, to transform Saul of Tarsus into Paul the apostle to the nations no doubt required a little ‘extra’.

<sup>e</sup> If God could save Paul, He can save anybody—there is hope for any sinner; which calls for a doxology (next verse).

<sup>f</sup> Most modern versions, following 2% of the Greek manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality), omit “wise”, leaving ‘the only God’. To be sure, the God of the Bible is the only true God, so the shortened form is theologically correct, but He is also the only One who is totally wise, and that information should not be omitted on such poor evidence.

<sup>g</sup> “Lead the way” is in the present tense, and so does not refer to the past. Evidently those prophecies were of such a nature that they gave direction to Timothy’s ministry, but he had to choose to follow them. The content of the “charge” is developed in chapter 2.

<sup>j</sup> The verb here is in the passive voice, which makes Satan the teacher! But I wonder how this works—if you are under Satan’s tutelage, what are your chances? Unless it be that Paul is not talking about re-covering them, but about making them see the extent of their stupidity (and as an object lesson to others). See Hebrews 6:6.

who are in authority, that we may live a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>Because this is good and pleasing to our Savior God, <sup>4</sup>who desires all men to be saved and to come into a real knowledge of Truth.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men—a man!<sup>c</sup>—Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who gave Himself as a ransom on behalf of all people (to be testified in its own seasons),<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>to which ransom I was appointed<sup>e</sup> a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying<sup>f</sup>—a teacher of nations<sup>g</sup> in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>So I desire that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument.<sup>h</sup> <sup>9</sup>Similarly the women also, dressing themselves in appropriate clothing, with modesty and good sense; not with braided hair<sup>i</sup> or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, <sup>10</sup>but with good works, which is appropriate to women who profess godliness.

About women

<sup>a</sup> This is what God would like to see. War, turmoil and distress are not God's desire for mankind but result from men's bad choices. If everyone would obey God's laws we would have paradise on earth.

<sup>b</sup> When people are in the middle of distress and turmoil it is difficult to pause and reflect on spiritual things. People who live in a tranquil society where godliness is promoted have every chance to come into "a real knowledge of Truth".

<sup>c</sup> Wonder of wonders! God has provided a man to represent us! Of course He is also God, so He can represent both sides with complete competence—the best of all possible mediators!

<sup>d</sup> Although Jesus Christ "gave Himself as a ransom on behalf of all people", obviously the exact time when a given people heard about it has varied considerably down through the last two millennia, and some have yet to hear! I take it that Paul is saying that God has a 'time' (kairos) for each people to hear, unless he is just saying that different people hear at different times.

<sup>f</sup> I wonder why he felt the need to say this to Timothy—or did he know that it would be read by many others? Perhaps 15% of the Greek manuscripts omit "in Christ" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> Through his epistles he has taught many hundreds of ethnic nations—no wonder both Father and Son were involved in the appointing.

<sup>h</sup> When a number of men are together, any competition tends to take place in the realm of ideas, often producing more heat than light; when a number of women are together, any competition tends to involve physical appearance. This sort of thing can happen even when people gather to pray (supposedly).

<sup>i</sup> Presumably the reference is not to simple braids, but adding fancy things to the hair in the braid.

<sup>j</sup> The crucial factor here is authority, and the underlying need is to protect the structure of the home, the foundational unit of society, including the church. If a woman teaches her husband in church, crossing the street to their house will not make her want to submit to him; human nature does not work that way.

<sup>k</sup> Paul appeals to God's purpose in Creation. God created the man first and gave him the responsibility to administer the earth. Later on He created the woman, using a part of the man's body, for the declared purpose of being his assistant (Genesis 2:18). An assistant does not give orders to the boss; nor does he make policy decisions on his own. The first woman did make a policy decision on her own, with catastrophic consequence.

<sup>l</sup> As a general rule (there are exceptions) a man tends to think things through before reaching a decision, so he can defend his choice on the basis of logical argument. A woman tends to be more intuitive and will decide on that basis, without being able to defend the choice logically (which tends to frustrate men no end). Whether that was why Eve could be so easily deceived, I am not prepared to say, but Paul

Qualifications

Of overseers

Of deacons

uses that susceptibility as an argument in his case against allowing women to teach. Doctrine must be based on reason, not intuition—to teach is to define. Paul affirms that Adam was not deceived, so his choice was deliberate. To disobey the Creator was a policy decision that Eve, as assistant, had no business making—she rebelled against the role that the Creator assigned her. Her fait accompli left Adam with a difficult decision—let her die alone, or die with her. It is idle to speculate on why he decided as he did, but it was Adam's choice (not Eve's) that condemned the race to 'death through sin' (Romans 5:12-21).

<sup>a</sup> Note that 'she' refers to Eve, she is the antecedent. Neither Eve nor any other woman is saved by bearing a child. 'Childbirth' is accompanied by the definite article, in the Text, so it is "the childbirth". There is only one childbirth that could result in salvation for Eve, and the rest of us, the birth of the Messiah.

<sup>b</sup> Paul breaks the rules of grammar and switches from 'she' to 'they' in the middle of the sentence—what is true of Eve is applied to all women. Well, strictly speaking, since "they" has no antecedent I suppose it could include men as well, everybody (unless someone wants to argue that women are saved on a different basis than men [which I think would run afoul of other passages]). Still, the paragraph is about women. Any sisters in Christ who have been troubled by this verse, thinking they must bear a child, may relax on that score.

<sup>d</sup> The term here is usually rendered 'bishop', but today a bishop is one who has authority over a number of other pastors/presbyters/elders, whereas in the New Testament these four terms evidently refer to a single office in the church.

<sup>e</sup> That is what the Text says, strictly speaking, emphasizing the quality—a man who has only one wife, but has a wandering eye, would not qualify. However, the term 'woman' can also mean 'wife', and because of the reference to children in verse four most versions render 'wife'. The term "man" here refers exclusively to males; there is no room here for a female overseer.

<sup>i</sup> When a pastor is well known and respected in a community, any attempt to discredit him through false accusations will probably fail; the people know it isn't true. On the other hand, a new arrival is an easy target.

<sup>j</sup> An elder should not 'drink' (verse 3), while a deacon may, just not heavily! However, if he hopes to one day be an elder...

Of 'deaconesses'

Of deacons, again

<sup>12</sup>Let deacons be one woman men, ruling their children and their own houses well. <sup>13</sup>For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a good standing and considerable confidence in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.<sup>b</sup>

God in flesh

<sup>14</sup>Although I hope to come to you shortly, I am writing these things to you <sup>15</sup>in case I am delayed, so that you may know how it is necessary to conduct oneself in God's household, which is the Church of the living God, pillar and foundation of the truth.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>Yes, the mystery of our religion is confessedly great:

God was manifested in flesh,<sup>d</sup> was vindicated in spirit, was revealed to angels,
 was proclaimed among nations,
 was believed in the world,
 was received up in glory!

About doctrineThings taught by demons*

4 <sup>1</sup>Now the Spirit says explicitly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceiving spirits and to things taught by demons <sup>2</sup>—through hypocritical liars whose own consciences have been cauterized,<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>who forbid to marry and to eat foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and really know the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creature of God

<sup>a</sup> That is what the Text says, just "women"—no article and no possessive pronoun. Because Paul returns to the deacons in verse 12, most versions take the reference here to be to their wives, but the grammatical construction of verse 11 is parallel to that of verse 8, which is parallel to verse 2. I take it that the grammar obliges us to see a third office in the congregation, one filled by women—deaconesses, or something of the sort. Counseling women can be dangerous for a man; certain matters are best handled by a mature, sanctified woman; if she has an official standing in the congregation, so much the better.

<sup>c</sup> My first impression would be that the truth should be sustaining the Church, not vice versa. But it is the Church that has the responsibility to promote and defend the truth in the society at large—in education, health, commerce, government, everywhere.

<sup>d</sup> Instead of 'God', 1% of the Greek manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality) read 'who', and most modern versions follow this 1%. But 'who' is nonsensical (in the context), so most of them take evasive action: NEB and NASB have 'he who'; Phillips has 'the one'; NRSV, Jerusalem, TEV and NIV render 'he'. Berkley actually has 'who'! In the Greek Text the relative pronoun has no antecedent, so it is a grammatical 'impossibility', besides being a stupidity—what is so mysterious about someone being manifested in flesh? All human beings have bodies. In the absence of concrete evidence, the claim that this is a note lifted from a known hymn or poem becomes no more than a desperate attempt to 'save' a choice that besides being stupid is also perverse (because of the theological consequences). The pronoun can be accounted for as an easy transcriptional error, a simple copying mistake, so why not stay with the 98.5% (there are other variants)? "God was manifested in flesh"—now there you have a mystery! For a more detailed discussion, please see my book, The Identity of the New Testament Text IV, footnote 3, on pages 115-117.

I TIMOTHY 4

is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, <sup>5</sup>because it is consecrated through the Word of God and prayer.<sup>a</sup>

A good servant of Jesus Christ

<sup>6</sup>If you instruct the brothers in these things you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, being fed with the words of the faith and of the good doctrine that you have faithfully followed.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>But reject godless myths and old-wives' tales; rather, exercise yourself toward godliness. <sup>8</sup>Now physical exercise has some value,<sup>c</sup> but godliness has value in all things, holding promises<sup>d</sup> for both this present life and the one to come.

A trustworthy word

<sup>9</sup>Here is a trustworthy word, worthy of total acceptance <sup>10</sup>(which is also why we labor and suffer reproach):<sup>e</sup> We have set our hope on the living God, who is 'Savior of all men',<sup>f</sup> especially of those who believe.<sup>g</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> I gain the impression that the dietary regulations in the Mosaic Law have been superseded. I may enjoy a pork chop if I first consecrate it. (The trouble is that many of us forget about the consecrating.)

<sup>b</sup> To get to be a "good servant of Jesus Christ" is a process.

<sup>c</sup> Since a sick body definitely slows us down, we should give some attention to keeping physically fit.

<sup>d</sup> I follow 60% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, in reading the plural, "promises"—there are promises for down here and others for up there.

<sup>e</sup> Instead of "suffer reproach", perhaps 7% of the Greek manuscripts have 'strive' (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> This involves an exclusivist claim, which continues to give rise to opposition. If our God is "Savior of all men" then there cannot be any other 'saviors', at least not legitimate ones. Jesus Himself said, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). For preaching that exclusivist claim Paul suffered reproach, and anyone who follows his example today will also suffer.

<sup>h</sup> As a professor of mine once said, "Your youth is not the problem; it's the immaturity that goes with it".

<sup>k</sup> According to 1 Corinthians 12:11 the Holy Spirit distributes gifts as He chooses, but it is to 'each one'. The impression I gain is that many (most?) Christians are not aware that they have a gift (or perhaps their church will not allow them to use it). But a prophetic declaration, backed by the authority of the body of elders, should remove all doubt. Note that "elders" is plural.

<sup>l</sup> Paul refers back to the "these things" at the beginning of verse 15, that refers to those in verse 13.

<sup>m</sup> Paul here emphasizes human responsibility. If Timothy goes astray, those who trust him in spiritual matters will also go astray; if he remains firm those who follow him will too. This reminds me of James 3:1. "My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment."

Relationships

5 <sup>1</sup>Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, <sup>2</sup>older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

Honor true widows

<sup>3</sup>Give financial support to widows who are really ‘widows’. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to demonstrate piety in their own household by repaying their parents, for this is pleasing<sup>a</sup> to God. <sup>5</sup>Now she who is really a widow and desolate has set her hope on God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But she who indulges in pleasure is dead while she lives.

<sup>7</sup>You should even command these things, so that they may be blameless. <sup>8</sup>But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.<sup>b</sup>

About younger widows

<sup>16</sup>If any man or<sup>g</sup> woman who is a believer has widows, let them relieve them and not burden the congregation, so that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.<sup>h</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Instead of “is pleasing”, perhaps 15% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘is good and pleasing’ (as in AV and NKJV).

<sup>d</sup> What “first commitment”? Looking carefully at verses 11 and 12, I take it that Paul is arguing as if some younger ones have already been enrolled—in order to be enrolled they would have had to commit themselves to a certain life style, which they would subsequently break.

<sup>e</sup> The young have more energy than the old, and if that energy is not put to good use, it will be put to bad use; and the congregation should not finance such bad use.

<sup>f</sup> It is not clear to me to whom the “some” refers, although the first ‘candidate’ would appear to be some younger widows.

<sup>h</sup> Here is the ‘bottom line’ in this discussion about widows. The congregation would have limited material resources, and these should be reserved for the more needy cases. (Any semblance to a ‘grave train’ is to be avoided.)

Honor elders

<sup>17</sup>Let the elders who lead well be counted worthy of a double honorarium, especially those who labor in word and teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says: “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out grain,” and “The worker is worthy of his wages.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Do not entertain an accusation against an elder except on the basis of two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>Those who are sinning rebuke publicly, so that the rest also may be in fear.<sup>b</sup>

Watch your step

Slaves honor owners

6 <sup>1</sup>As many as are under the yoke of slavery should consider their own owners to be worthy of full respect, so that God’s name and doctrine not be slandered. <sup>2</sup>Those who have owners who are believers must not disregard them because they are brothers; instead they must serve them even better, because those receiving the good service are believers and beloved.<sup>h</sup>

Conclusion to ‘Relationships’

Teach and exhort these things. <sup>3</sup>If anyone teaches differently and does not consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine that accords with godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is conceited and understands nothing. Rather he is obsessed with controversies and hair-splitting word battles, from which come envy, strife, slanderings, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>constant wranglings of men with cor-

<sup>a</sup> The part about the ox is a quote from Deuteronomy 25:4, definitely Scripture, but the part about the worker is a quote from Luke 10:7! Now this is very instructive. Paul, a former Pharisee, presumably ascribed the highest level of inspiration to the five books of the Law, so we expect him to call Deuteronomy Scripture. But for him to place Luke on a par with Moses is little short of incredible. Although there may have been close to twenty years between the ‘publishing’ of Luke and the writing of 1 Timothy, Luke was recognized and declared by apostolic authority to be Scripture not long after it came off the press, so to speak. But if Paul wrote this letter under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, as I believe, then God Himself is declaring Luke to be Scripture!

<sup>d</sup> I wonder what the angels have to do with it. Might the “elect” angels be a special class?

<sup>e</sup> The point seems to be that if we are responsible for ordaining somebody, we become accomplices of what he subsequently does, at least in part.

<sup>g</sup> I take the point to be that some sins are judged already in this life, but all will be judged at the final accounting.

<sup>h</sup> Observe that there is no indication that a slave who converts to Christ should expect to be freed from that condition, even if the owner is a Christian.

rupted minds and destitute of the Truth,<sup>a</sup> who suppose that godliness is a means to financial gain.<sup>b</sup> Keep away from such people.<sup>c</sup>

Concluding considerations

Godliness with contentment

<sup>6</sup>Now godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>We brought nothing into the world and it is certain that neither can we take anything out.<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>So having food and clothing we will be content with that. <sup>9</sup>But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and harmful desires, that plunge people into ruin and loss; <sup>10</sup>because the love of money is a root<sup>e</sup> of all kinds of evil; in their greediness some have been led away from the faith and have impaled themselves on many distresses.<sup>f</sup>

Lay hold on eternal life

<sup>11</sup>But you, O man of God, flee these things; rather pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life into which you were called<sup>g</sup>—indeed, you confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>In the presence of the God who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,<sup>i</sup> I charge you <sup>14</sup>to keep this commandment without spot, blameless until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>j</sup> <sup>15</sup>which He will manifest at the proper time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and the Lord of lords; <sup>16</sup>who alone has immortality, residing in unapproachable light;<sup>k</sup> whom no man has seen or can see; to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

To the rich

<sup>a</sup> The clear implication is that these people have not been regenerated, and are being used by the enemy. There is no lack of such people in the churches.

<sup>d</sup> But if you belong to Christ you can send it on ahead, by investing in God's Kingdom here.

<sup>f</sup> As the Text says, "The way of the transgressor is hard" (Proverbs 13:15). Recall that the Sovereign said, "You cannot serve God and mammon" (Luke 16:13). Someone who switches from God to 'mammon' will probably never switch back.

<sup>k</sup> But once we have been glorified I believe we will be able to approach and endure, even enjoy! Oh praise God!

I TIMOTHY 6

generous sharers<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>—storing up for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, so that they may lay hold on the eternal life.

A closing exhortation

The Grace be with you. Amen.

---

<sup>a</sup> Whenever God blesses us with material abundance, it is not for us to hoard or squander on ourselves—it is to be invested in the Kingdom (there are various ways of doing that).

<sup>b</sup> What does Paul mean by “the deposit”? I suppose it would be the sum of revealed truth surrounding the person and work of Jesus Christ—a synonym of ‘the Faith’.

<sup>c</sup> For many generations the theory of evolution has been foisted on the populace at large as ‘science’. It dominates the schools, the media, the marketplace, the government. The spiritual damage has been incalculable—multiplied millions will spend eternity in the Lake because of it.

Paul addresses Timothy's spiritual crisis

Paul encourages Timothy

<sup>3</sup>I give thanks to God, whom I serve with a clear conscience like my forefathers did,<sup>c</sup> as I constantly remember you in my prayers, night and day, <sup>4</sup>longing to see you (recalling your tears),<sup>d</sup> that I may be filled with joy; <sup>5</sup>while I call to mind the unfeigned faith that is in you—it resided first in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, in you also. <sup>6</sup>For this reason I am reminding you to rekindle<sup>e</sup> the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>Because God did not give us a spirit of cowardice,<sup>f</sup> but of power and of love and of self-control.

Don't be ashamed to suffer for Christ

<sup>8</sup>So do not be ashamed to identify with our Lord or with me His prisoner, but join in suffering for the Gospel according to the power of God<sup>g</sup> <sup>9</sup>—the One who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not because of our works but because of His own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began,<sup>h</sup> <sup>10</sup>but has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Jesus Christ, who by means of the Gospel destroyed the death<sup>i</sup> and brought life and immortality to light; <sup>11</sup>to this Gospel I was appointed as a proclaimer, an apostle and a teacher of nations.<sup>j</sup> <sup>12</sup>That is why I am suffering these things, yet I am not ash-

<sup>a</sup> The "life that is in Christ Jesus"—that is what it is all about. As He Himself said, "I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

<sup>b</sup> The going back and forth between "Jesus Christ" and "Christ Jesus" appears to be merely a matter of style.

<sup>c</sup> So why does Paul bring his ancestors into the picture? I suppose to set up a parallel with Timothy and his ancestors (verse 5). One's heritage is important.

<sup>d</sup> From what follows I take it that Timothy was going through a spiritual crisis when Paul last saw him, hence the tears. Paul did what he could to help, but is anxious to know how Timothy is doing.

<sup>e</sup> Timothy had received a 'charisma' from God through Paul, but the verb "rekindle" indicates clearly that the use of the gift is up to him, and he has been neglecting it.

<sup>f</sup> Timothy must not retreat, must not give up; rather he should make use of the resources God has placed at his disposal—and so should we. Anytime we are attacked by fear, we may calculate that it is not from God.

<sup>g</sup> Living out the Gospel in this world has everything to do with the power of God.

<sup>i</sup> That is what the Text says, "the death"; I take it that the reference is to Satan's kingdom. Indeed, is that not what Hebrews 2:14-15 declares? "Since, then, the children have flesh and blood as their share, He Himself likewise partook of the same, in order that through His death He might abolish the one who had the power of death—that is, the devil—and set free these [the children] who during their whole lifetime were subject to slavery through fear of death." See also 1 John 3:8.

II TIMOTHY 2

amed because I know in whom I have believed and am certain that He is able to guard my deposit<sup>a</sup> until that Day.<sup>b</sup>

Be loyal—the example of Onesiphorus

Be strengthened

2 <sup>1</sup>So you, my son, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>Also, the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men who will be competent to teach others also.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>3</sup>You therefore are to endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>No one serving as a soldier gets entangled in the affairs of civilian life; he wants to please the one who enlisted him. <sup>5</sup>Further, if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. <sup>6</sup>In order to work, the farmer must first receive the seeds.<sup>h</sup> <sup>7</sup>Ponder what I am saying; may the Lord indeed give you understanding in it all.<sup>i</sup>

Encouragement by example

<sup>8</sup>Keep thinking of Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, of David's seed; this is my gospel.<sup>j</sup> <sup>9</sup>for which I am suffering to the point of being in chains like a criminal, but the Word of God is not chained. <sup>10</sup>This is why I endure it all: for the sake of the chosen ones,<sup>k</sup> that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup>This is a trustworthy word:

---

<sup>g</sup> When we complain about our circumstances, are we forgetting that we are soldiers?

<sup>h</sup> The point of this paragraph appears to be that all occupations have requirements: a soldier needs to endure hardship and please whoever enlisted him; an athlete needs to obey the rules; a farmer needs to have seeds to plant.

<sup>i</sup> To succeed requires commitment, dedication, whether you are a soldier, an athlete or a farmer.

<sup>j</sup> This brief statement evokes much of the essence of the Gospel. "David's seed" recalls that the Creator really became human, with David's genes, and fulfills the prophecies about the Messiah. "Raised from the dead" recalls everything connected with His death and resurrection. Thinking about Jesus is a good antidote to discouragement.

<sup>k</sup> They are "chosen" but Paul has to suffer so that they may obtain. See 2 Corinthians 1:5-7, Philippians 3:10, Colossians 1:24 and 1 Peter 4:13.

If, indeed, we died together,<sup>a</sup>
 we will also live together;
<sup>12</sup>if we endure, we will also reign together;
 if we deny,
He will also deny us;<sup>b</sup>
<sup>13</sup>if we are faithless,
 He remains faithful<sup>c</sup>
 —He is incapable of denying Himself.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>14</sup>Keep reiterating these things, exhorting them<sup>e</sup> before the Lord<sup>f</sup> not to argue about words to no useful purpose<sup>g</sup>—it just ruins the hearers.

Approved and disapproved

<sup>20</sup>Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some, to be sure, are for honor, but some are for dishonor. <sup>21</sup>So if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor,<sup>l</sup> sanctified and useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

- <sup>a</sup> We must really identify with Christ's death, which involves commitment and a change of life, a change of worldview.
- <sup>b</sup> Although most versions supply ‘with Him’ in verses 11-12, it is only in this last clause that the pronoun actually occurs, but because it does, the ‘with Him’ is correctly understood. Notice the heavy emphasis on human responsibility—if we endure (but only if) we will reign; if we deny Him, He will certainly deny us.
- <sup>c</sup> Since He remains faithful, He picks us up when we stumble; but not if we deny Him.
- <sup>d</sup> There are at least two things that God cannot do: deny Himself (2 Timothy 2:13) and lie (Titus 1:2—which would be a form of denying His nature).
- <sup>e</sup> I suppose that the antecedent of this pronoun is to be found in 2:2 above.
- <sup>f</sup> Instead of “the Lord”, perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘God’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).
- <sup>g</sup> This would not include a serious discussion of an important doctrinal point.
- <sup>h</sup> Comparing this with what the Lord Jesus said in Matthew 12:34-37, those who speak godlessly do so because their heart is godless; and the more they do it the worse they get, because they continually reinforce their godlessness.
- <sup>i</sup> Surely; if the resurrection has already happened and you are still here, what hope have you?
- <sup>j</sup> See Numbers 16:5.
- <sup>k</sup> Instead of “the Lord”, perhaps 10% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Christ’ (as in AV and NKJV).
- <sup>l</sup> The analogy here is not clear to me, but I take the point to be that the believer should avoid contamination from those who are dishonorable.

The true source of opposition

Paul addresses Timothy's future ministry

What relativistic humanism produces

3 <sup>1</sup>Now understand this: In the last days there will be grievous times; <sup>2</sup>because people will be self-lovers,<sup>f</sup> money lovers, boasters, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>without family affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, <sup>4</sup>betrayers, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>wearing a form of godliness while having denied its power!<sup>h</sup>

You must avoid such people; <sup>6</sup>because they are the sort that press<sup>i</sup> into households and 'capture' gullible women loaded down with sins, who are led along by various lusts, <sup>7</sup>always learning yet never being able to come to a real knowledge of truth.<sup>j</sup> <sup>8</sup>Just as Jannes and Jambres<sup>a</sup> opposed Moses, so also these oppose

<sup>e</sup> Verses 23-26 provide a perspective that is not generally understood. At least some (most?) [all?] of the time that people oppose Biblical values they do so because of satanic influence in their minds. Since Satan is the 'father of lying' (John 8:44), he is behind any and every lie. So whenever anyone embraces a lie (materialism, humanism, relativism, spiritism, animism, whatever) they invite Satan into their minds. Once there he goes about setting up strongholds. As Ephesians 2:2 says, he is actively at work in the 'sons of the disobedience'—when you embrace a lie you reject the Truth; but then you are taken captive by the lie and wind up doing Satan's will. This process goes area by area, which explains why people can be good in one area and bad in another (the reference is not to physical skills). So when someone opposes God's truth and His values, we need to understand and remember how the person got that way; actually, they are being used. To lash out at them will not help them. A gentle, courteous probing of their presuppositions just might. More to the point, we have access to spiritual authority whereby we can break Satan's strongholds, but that gets us into the area of biblical spiritual warfare (extremely important, but too extensive to expound here). At one time I did a lot of study and work in this area and have some material that is available from my site: www.prunch.org.

<sup>f</sup> Recent studies indicate that the vast majority of young people in North America (and presumably also elsewhere) are now 'narcissists'—they are totally self-centered, with no concern for others. They have been 'programmed' through their portable access to TV and the Internet.

<sup>g</sup> Verses 2-4 give a terrifyingly accurate description of contemporary society; two thousand years ago Paul gave a prophetic description of what relativistic humanism produces.

<sup>h</sup> "Having denied" is in the perfect tense; they start out by not believing in true godliness and hence deny that it would have any power. But living in a culture that still has vestiges of a former godliness, they find it useful to pretend.

<sup>i</sup> The description of such persons, given in verses 2-5, does not agree with 'sneaking' or 'worming'—they enter openly, exuding confidence and competence. I follow the best line of transmission, albeit a minority reading (20% of the Greek manuscripts, here).

<sup>j</sup> Who are these 'little women'? Hardworking mothers and homemakers in families that are struggling to make ends meet have no leisure to indulge in a variety of lusts or to spend time listening to purveyors of high-sounding nonsense. Where do arrogant lovers of money, pleasure and self go? They go where the truth—men of depraved mind, disqualified as regards the faith<sup>b</sup>—<sup>9</sup>but they will not advance any further because, as in the case of the former, their folly will become evident to all.

“Continue in the things you have learned”

<sup>10</sup>You, however, have carefully followed my doctrine, my lifestyle, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance; <sup>11</sup>the persecutions and sufferings that happened to me at Antioch,<sup>c</sup> at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured; yet the Lord delivered me out of them all. <sup>12</sup>In fact, any one who desires to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted;<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>while malignant men and imposters will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

<sup>14</sup>But you, continue in the things you have learned and about which you have been assured, knowing from whom you learned, <sup>15</sup>and that from infancy you have known the Sacred Scriptures which are able to make you wise into salvation through the faith that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture is God-breathed<sup>e</sup> and is valuable for teaching, for reproving, for correcting, for training in righteousness,<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>so that the man of God may be fully competent, thoroughly equipped for every good work.<sup>g</sup>

Proclaim the Word!

4 <sup>1</sup>Now then, in the presence of God and the Lord<sup>h</sup> Jesus Christ, who is about to judge both living and dead, with a view to His appearing and His Kingdom, I give you this charge:<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>Proclaim the Word; be ready in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and exhort, with lots of patience and teaching.<sup>j</sup> <sup>3</sup>Because the time will come when they will not tolerate the sound doctrine; rather, they will accumulate for themselves a great many teachers who will tickle their ears according to their lusts <sup>4</sup>—yes, they will turn their ears away from the Truth and be turned aside to fables.<sup>k</sup> <sup>5</sup>But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.<sup>l</sup>

the money and pleasure is, the high society. So the reference is probably to high society dames who have the money and leisure to indulge themselves, but enough conscience left to be bothered by it. But they don't really want to give up their lifestyle.

<sup>a</sup> Paul got these names from an extra-biblical source that was nonetheless accurate history.

<sup>f</sup> Notice the sequence: 1) the Scripture provides objectively true information; 2) then the Holy Spirit uses His Sword to convict of sin; 3) this leads to repentance and conversion; 4) then the Word is our food and water for spiritual growth. As we grow, we can help others move through the sequence.

<sup>j</sup> If Timothy obeys this charge, he will at least slow down the process described in verses 3-4. And if we also obey this charge we should produce at least some improvement in our own context.

<sup>k</sup> Notice the progression: first they choose to turn away from the Truth, but after that someone else takes over and leads them into ever greater stupidities.

Timothy will no longer have Paul to help him

<sup>6</sup>For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>Now the crown of the righteousness is reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that Day; and not only to me, but also to all those who have longed for His appearing.<sup>b</sup>

“Please come quickly”

<sup>9</sup>Do your best to come to me quickly; <sup>10</sup>for Demas, loving this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica—Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, when you come—and the books, especially the parchments.<sup>e</sup> <sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did me a lot of harm; may the Lord repay him according to his deeds.<sup>f</sup> <sup>15</sup>You also guard against him, because he strongly opposed our words.

People will disappoint you

<sup>16</sup>At my first defense no one came to help me, but all deserted me. May it not be held against them.<sup>g</sup> <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the nations might hear.<sup>h</sup> Also, I was delivered out of a lion’s mouth;<sup>i</sup> <sup>18</sup>and the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and save me into His heavenly Kingdom;<sup>j</sup> to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

---

<sup>b</sup> If we are afraid of what might happen, we will not “long” for that “appearing”. The implication is that they also are fighting the good fight and keeping the faith.

<sup>c</sup> I take it that what is said of Demas does not apply to Crescens or Titus, just that they traveled.

<sup>e</sup> The parchments may have been a subset among the books, possibly being O.T. Scriptures; in that event the other books might have been N.T. Scriptures, but we can only speculate.

<sup>i</sup> I suppose this is literal; someone tried to have him condemned to face a lion in the arena, but the plan was foiled.

---

<sup>c</sup> “Your spirit” is singular, referring to Timothy, but the “you” here is plural—I take it that Paul knew the letter would be read by others.

The Epistle of Paul to ### TITUS

Greeting

1 <sup>1</sup>Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the faith of God's elect and a real knowledge of the Truth that accords with godliness, <sup>2</sup>in hope of eternal life<sup>a</sup>—which life God, who cannot lie,<sup>b</sup> promised before the ages of time<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>but has manifested by a proclamation of His Word at chosen times, which word was entrusted to me by the command of our Savior God;<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>to Titus, a true son in a common faith: Grace, mercy,<sup>e</sup> peace, from Father God and Sovereign Jesus Christ,<sup>f</sup> our Savior.

Qualifications for elders

They must face opposition

---

<sup>a</sup> Paul frankly states his motivation; he wants eternal life, and the only way to get there is to be a slave of God. Since Jehovah the Son endured the cross with a view to the glory on the other side (Hebrews 12:2), Paul is in good company. We have the same opportunity.

<sup>c</sup> How did Paul know this? Presumably it was revealed to him, perhaps when he was caught up to the third heaven. (See also 1 Peter 1:18-20.) Perhaps it refers to a promise made by the Father to the Son. The suggestion here is that 'time' is a concept limited to this planet, being irrelevant to an eternal Being.

<sup>d</sup> Paul is plainly claiming to be in the line of those whom God chose down through the ages to proclaim His Word, the implication being that it is a new proclamation, not just an exposition of what has already been written. The "hope of eternal life" has been proclaimed at chosen times throughout human history.

<sup>f</sup> I take it that "Father God" and "Sovereign Jesus Christ" act here as proper nouns. Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Sovereign" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> When was this? We know that Luke and Aristarchus were with Paul on the boat that took him to Rome; he isn't mentioned, but might Titus have been there too? And when the boat stopped at Fair Havens, Crete, Paul may have sent Titus ashore. (Paul already knew that he would suffer shipwreck.)

<sup>h</sup> I take it that Paul is speaking of a quality, a kind of person. Many men have only one wife, but have wandering eyes—they would not qualify.

<sup>j</sup> If we are going to represent God in an official capacity, we need to be clean.

<sup>k</sup> Unfortunately, this competence in the use of God's Word is in rather short supply these days.

whole households, teaching things that they ought not, and for dishonest gain!<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>One of them, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.” <sup>13</sup>This testimony is true.<sup>b</sup> Therefore correct them rigorously,<sup>c</sup> that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not paying attention to Jewish fables or to commands of men who are rejecting the truth.<sup>d</sup> <sup>15</sup>To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; in fact, both their minds and their consciences are defiled.<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>They profess to know God, but by their actions they deny Him, being detestable, disobedient and disqualified for any good work.

Qualities to be taught

<sup>a</sup> Apparently those people were not acting out of strong personal conviction, but just for material gain. Pitiful. Unfortunately, such people are still very much with us.

<sup>e</sup> I am reminded of Matthew 6:22-23, words of the Sovereign Creator while He walked this earth: “The lamp of the body is the eye. So if your eye is sound your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is evil your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!” Of course we have two eyes, but the Text has “eye” in the singular. I take it that the reference is to the way we interpret what we see (which is our real ‘eye’)—two people, one pure and one vile, observing the same scene will give very different interpretations to it. ‘Evil’ here has the idea of malignant—aggressively evil. Someone with a malignant mind will give an evil interpretation to every-thing he sees, and in consequence his being will be filled with unrelenting darkness. That is what it says here in Titus 1:15; to someone who is defiled nothing is pure. With a defiled mind and conscience such a person is simply incapable of giving a decent interpretation to anything at all in this whole wide world. That is why Paul goes on to say in the next verse that such a person is disqualified for any good work. Surely, if you are full of evil, how can you do good?

<sup>f</sup> Note that the young women are to be instructed by older women, who can do a much better job on that particular front than can male pastors.

<sup>h</sup> Again, if we are going to represent God in an official capacity, we need to be clean.

<sup>i</sup> Some 17% of the Greek manuscripts omit “incorruptibility” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> A significant minority of the Greek manuscripts (20%) have ‘you’ (as in AV and NKJV), but the majority (including the best line of transmission) has “us”. Since Titus’ message and authority derive from Paul, it is properly first person.

things, not talking back, <sup>10</sup>not pilfering<sup>a</sup> but showing total trustworthiness, so as to adorn the doctrine of our Savior God in everything.<sup>b</sup>

Saving grace

The difference the Gospel makes

3 <sup>1</sup>Remind them<sup>h</sup> to subordinate themselves to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to slander no one, to be peaceable, gentle, demonstrating true humility to all men. <sup>3</sup>Because we ourselves were also foolish at one time, disobedient, being deceived, being enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, detestable,<sup>i</sup> hating one another.<sup>j</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> A slave could doubtless find opportunity to pilfer, and could convince himself that he was justified in so doing. An observant owner could figure out who did and who didn't.

<sup>b</sup> Notice that Paul does not incite slaves to revolt or rebellion. Perhaps it is especially in adverse circumstances that we can "adorn" the doctrine of God.

<sup>c</sup> God's saving grace has been made available for everyone, but most people have not heard of it. If they are to hear, we must live godly lives.

<sup>d</sup> If we are to live "looking", then we regard it as something that could happen in our lifetime (otherwise there is no point in 'looking').

<sup>e</sup> Since any 'law' that God promulgates derives from His character, I take the point here to be that God wants to deliver us from anything and everything that is not in conformity to His character.

<sup>f</sup> There is repeated emphasis on doing what is good, not just professing correct doctrine.

<sup>g</sup> The problem here could be his youth, but as Paul's delegate he represents apostolic authority.

<sup>h</sup> The Text just has the pronoun, but the reference is evidently to the Christians in Crete.

<sup>i</sup> Hey, there is hope! 'Detestable' is repeated from 1:16 above, so if people who are now regenerated were once that way, then they can be changed; there is a way out, through the Gospel. (Actually in the Text the terms are different, synonyms, but the point is the same.)

<sup>j</sup> This description is very up-to-date; it fits contemporary society very well. So those who were saved out of that milieu should be gentle with those who are still in it. Those who have always been protected from the world may find it difficult to be gentle.

<sup>1</sup> The regenerating and renewing are performed by the Holy Spirit. In verse 6 the "He" who does the pouring is the Father, based on the saving work of the Son—here we have an overt reference to the Trinity.

So let's do good

<sup>8</sup>The above is a trustworthy statement and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be concerned to take the lead in good works.<sup>a</sup> These things are good and profitable for mankind.<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish arguments and genealogies and contentions and disputes about the law, because they are unprofitable and useless.<sup>c</sup>

Farewell

<sup>15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith.<sup>h</sup> Grace be with you all.<sup>i</sup> Amen.

<sup>a</sup> I take that to be the normal meaning of the Text—Christians should take the lead in their communities with projects that are for the common good.

<sup>b</sup> If everyone in the world lived according to Biblical principles it would be a much better place! There would be no need for jails, police departments, armies, rehabilitation centers, most hospitals, etc.

<sup>c</sup> Some people like to argue for the sake of arguing, but Sovereign Jesus said we will be judged for every idle word (Matthew 12:36).

<sup>d</sup> The passive voice indicates that the person was perverted by an outside force, in this context presumably by Satan; but he went along with the process, allowed it to happen (or he would not be “self-condemned”). So now he is on Satan’s side, and if he refuses to listen to two warnings, he does not want to change. The next best thing is to excommunicate him, not allow him to work within the community, because of the damage he causes.

<sup>e</sup> For Paul to write this, he could not be in prison. Either he was freed after Acts 28:31 or this letter was written before his trip to Jerusalem that resulted in his imprisonment.

<sup>g</sup> By meeting the needs of God’s servants we share in the fruit of their labors.

<sup>h</sup> The Text does not have ‘the’ faith, just ‘faith’. Perhaps the reference is to those who have never met Paul, but love him anyway.

<sup>i</sup> “You all” is obviously plural, so evidently Paul expected that the letter would have a wider circulation than just Titus.

PHILEMON

Paul commends Philemon

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God as I make mention of you (sg) in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>hearing of your love and faith that you have toward the Lord Jesus, and for all the saints, <sup>6</sup>so that the sharing of your (sg) faith may become powerful through a full understanding of every good thing that is among you (pl) who are in Christ Jesus;<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>yes, we have much thanksgiving<sup>e</sup> and encouragement because of your (sg) love, in that the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

Paul intercedes for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup>Now then, though I have all boldness in Christ to order you (sg) to do what is right,<sup>f</sup> <sup>9</sup>I—being none other than Paul the old man and now also a prisoner for Jesus Christ—would rather appeal to you, for love’s sake. <sup>10</sup>I appeal to you on behalf of the son whom I begot while in my chains, Onesimus,<sup>g</sup> whom I am sending back <sup>11</sup>—formerly he was unprofitable to you, but now he is profitable, both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup>So receive<sup>h</sup> him, who is my very heart <sup>13</sup>—I would have liked to keep him with me, so that he might minister to me in your place, while I am in chains for the Gospel, <sup>14</sup>but I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your contribution might be voluntary, not as an imposition. <sup>15</sup>Perhaps this is why he <sup>a</sup> Since Paul elsewhere calls himself a slave of Jesus, he would also be a prisoner of Jesus, but in this context I understand him to be saying that he is in prison because of Jesus.

<sup>b</sup> Instead of “beloved”, some 5% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘sister’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). In any case, Apphia is a woman.

<sup>c</sup> Since English is ambiguous as to whether the second person personal pronoun is singular or plural, and since Paul mixes both in this letter, it becomes necessary to let the reader know which is which. The congregation met in Philemon’s house.

<sup>d</sup> Verse 6 probably reads quite differently in your version of the Bible. Were you aware that the “your” refers to Philemon while the “you” refers to the congregation? [The MSS evidence is about evenly divided between “you” and “us”, but I follow the best line of transmission, as in AV and NKJV.] The verse usually ends with “you/us in Christ Jesus”, but the preposition is properly “into”, which does not make for smooth English. The reference is to those who have believed into Jesus (as He Himself invariably said)—they were outside but have moved inside. So Paul is referring to a group of regenerated people and to the aggregate of ‘good things’ to be found among them; which I assume would certainly include the gifts of the Spirit, as well as His fruit. As Philemon’s understanding of these resources increases, the sharing of his faith will become more powerful, and for this Paul prays. At the end of the verse, perhaps 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “Jesus” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>e</sup> Instead of “thanksgiving”, some 12% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘joy’, as in most versions.

<sup>f</sup> Paul starts out by asserting his authority, but softens it with an emotional appeal, appealing to Philemon’s emotions in various ways.

was removed<sup>a</sup> for a while, so that you would have him forever <sup>16</sup>—no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, very much to me but even more to you, both in flesh and in the Lord.<sup>b</sup>

Paul asks for obedience

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me a partner, receive him as if it were me.<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>If he wronged you or owes anything, charge it to me. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, am writing with my own hand, “I will repay” (rather than say to you that you actually owe me your very self!).<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>Yes brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Being confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you (sg) will do even more than I say. <sup>22</sup>But meanwhile, do prepare a guest room for me, because I hope that through your (pl) prayers I will be graciously bestowed on you (pl).<sup>f</sup>

<sup>b</sup> What does “both in flesh and in the Lord” mean? Onesimus is now a brother in the Lord, but was he also Philemon’s physical brother? But if a brother, how did he become his slave? I don’t know. If I had to guess I would imagine that Philemon’s father begot Onesimus of a slave woman. Whatever the messy consequences of people’s lives without Christ, this letter illustrates nicely how the Gospel can straighten things out.

<sup>c</sup> Verses 17-19 are often used as an illustration of substitutionary atonement, wherein Philemon would represent the Father, Paul the Son, and Onesimus the sinner—what Onesimus owes is charged to Paul, so Onesimus can go free. (Of course the second half of verse 19 doesn’t fit; the Father doesn’t owe His life to the Son.)

<sup>d</sup> Dear me, Paul builds such a strong case that there is really no way that Philemon can refuse!

<sup>e</sup> Instead of “the Lord”, some 20% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Christ’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>f</sup> Might verse 22 be a veiled threat, that Paul could show up to check up on Philemon? Note that Paul implies that his physical presence will be a blessing.

<sup>g</sup> Evidently Epaphras was also in prison, but not the others. If Mark was there as a result of the request in 2 Timothy 4:11, then this letter was written some time later.

<sup>h</sup> I follow the best line of transmission (albeit representing only some 20% of the Greek manuscripts here) in not adding ‘Christ’. Being a very personal letter, Paul is less formal.

<sup>i</sup> Since ‘spirit’ is singular, is it that of the congregation?—or does Paul mean the spirit of each one of the individuals? Even though regenerated we still need grace, and a congregation certainly needs it.

The Epistle [of Paul] to the

HEBREWS

The supremacy of the Son

1 <sup>1</sup>God, having spoken to the fathers through the prophets in many parts and in various ways, in the past, <sup>2</sup>has at last in these days spoken to us by Son,<sup>a</sup> whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the ages;<sup>b</sup> <sup>3</sup>who being the projection of His glory and the very image of His essence, and sustaining all things by the expression of His<sup>[S]</sup><sup>c</sup> own power,<sup>d</sup> when He had by Himself<sup>e</sup> provided purification for our<sup>f</sup> sins<sup>g</sup> He sat down on the highest Majesty's right,<sup>h</sup> <sup>4</sup>having become so much superior to the angels as He has inherited a more excellent name than they have.

He is superior to the angels

<sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did He<sup>[F]</sup> ever say,

“You are my Son,
today I begot you,”<sup>i</sup>

and again,

“I will be ‘Father’ to Him, and He will be ‘Son’ to me?”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Again, when He introduces the Firstborn<sup>k</sup> into the inhabited earth<sup>l</sup> He says,

<sup>a</sup> I take it that ‘Son’ is being used like a proper name (there is no definite article with it). The Son is the ultimate revelation to us of who God is and what He is like.

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says, although most versions render ‘worlds’, which seems to make better sense, at least at first glance. But let us stop and think a minute—since God is eternal, the concept of ‘time’ may be part and parcel of this Creation, limited to it and perhaps be a defining characteristic, along with space. But ‘ages’ is plural, and how does one distinguish one age from another? Presumably by the events of history—in other words, the Son controls the history of this planet.

<sup>c</sup> Here the pronoun refers to the Son; the previous occurrences refer to the Father. Below, whenever the referent changes I will indicate this by [F] or [S], which will be good until the next change.

<sup>g</sup> Just as the Son paid the price for our salvation “by Himself”, for those who reject or make light of that terrible price He will Himself tread ‘the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God’ (Revelation 19:15). It is not wise to presume upon God’s grace.

<sup>h</sup> “He sat down”—evidently He had the right to do this, and no one challenged Him.

<sup>k</sup> In Hebrew culture the firstborn son usually inherited the lion’s share of the father’s estate (so as not to splinter the estate) and was thus the boss, so the expression ‘firstborn’ took on the extended meaning of ‘preeminent’, which I take to be the intended meaning here. But as the God-man Christ was both only-begotten and firstborn.

<sup>l</sup> I assume that this must have happened at the incarnation of the Son.

<sup>m</sup> See Psalm 97:7.

“Who makes His angels winds,<sup>a</sup>
His servants flames of fire”,<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>while to the Son He says:

“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;<sup>c</sup>
‘Scepter of Uprightness’<sup>d</sup> is the scepter of Your kingdom.
<sup>9</sup>You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness, therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of exultation beyond Your companions.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Also:

“You, LORD,<sup>f</sup> in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are works of Your hands;
<sup>11</sup>they will perish but You continue on —they will all grow old like a garment;
<sup>12</sup>You will roll them up like a cloak and they will be changed, while You stay the same and Your years will never end.”

<sup>13</sup>On the other hand, to which of the angels did He ever say, “Sit on my right until I place your enemies as a stool under your feet”?<sup>g</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits being sent<sup>h</sup> to serve those who are going to inherit salvation?

Do not neglect the great salvation

2 <sup>1</sup>So then, we really must pay the utmost attention to the things we have heard, so that we not drift away.<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken through angels became binding, and every violation and disobedience received a deserved penalty,<sup>j</sup> <sup>3</sup>how shall we escape if we are careless about such a tremendous salvation?—it received its beginning through the Lord’s declaration and was confirmed to us by

---

<sup>c</sup> The author is saying that the Father declares this to the Son. If the Father declares something, that is the way it is.

<sup>d</sup> I take ‘Scepter of Uprightness’ to be a proper name (like the sword ‘Excalibur’).

<sup>f</sup> The quote is from Psalm 102:25-27, and in that context it is Jehovah who is being addressed, Jehovah the Son. This is one of several passages in the New Testament that contradict the heresy of the ‘Jehovah’s Witnesses’ and Mormons that denies that Jesus Christ is Jehovah. From this passage, and a few others, we may understand that the Son was the primary agent in the creation of our planet.

<sup>g</sup> See Psalm 110:1. In Matthew 22:44 Jesus Himself makes use of this verse.

<sup>h</sup> This participle being in the present tense, I take it that this is an ongoing activity. So who will ‘inherit salvation’? True believers, and if we are among them, then we have angels serving us. I submit that we probably have a lot to learn about how to best take advantage of that service.

<sup>j</sup> Verse 2 is reminiscent of the closing charge in Stephen’s defense: “You who received the Law as ‘ordinances of angels’ and have not kept it!” (Acts 7:53). I confess that I do not understand where the angels come in to the giving of the Law.

those who heard Him<sup>[S]</sup>,<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>God adding His<sup>[F]</sup> attestation by signs, wonders, various miracles, and distributions of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.<sup>b</sup>

Temporarily lower than the angels

<sup>5</sup>Because it is not to angels that He has subjected the coming inhabited earth,<sup>c</sup> about which we are speaking; <sup>6</sup>rather, there is a place where someone testified<sup>d</sup> saying:

“What is man that You are mindful of him, or son of man that you care for him?

<sup>7</sup>You made him lower than the angels, for a little while;<sup>e</sup>
You crowned him with glory and honor,<sup>f</sup>

It follows that in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not so subjected. However, we do not yet see everything subjected to him, at present.

<sup>9</sup>But we do see Jesus, who ‘was made lower than the angels, for a little while’<sup>g</sup> (in order to suffer death), ‘crowned with glory and honor’—this, by the grace of God, so that He<sup>[S]</sup> might taste death on behalf of everyone.<sup>h</sup>

“Bringing many sons into glory”

<sup>10</sup>Because it was appropriate to Him<sup>[F]</sup>, for whom are all things and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons into glory,<sup>i</sup> to complete the Author of their salvation through sufferings.<sup>j</sup> <sup>11</sup>For both He<sup>[S]</sup> who is sanctifying and those <sup>a</sup> There is a contrast between the Law (verse 2) and Jesus’ Gospel. It was Jesus who began His Gospel. By expressing himself in this way the author lets us know that he was not one of the Twelve.

<sup>b</sup> Verses 3 and 4 overtly refer to all three persons of the Godhead. For more on the “distributions” see 1 Corinthians 12:11.

<sup>c</sup> The new earth that follows this one will not be administered by angels, so who will do the administering? I agree with those who hold that this life is a classroom wherein the redeemed are being prepared for their functions in the new earth, and some of those functions will be administrative. That future is part of our “tremendous salvation”!

<sup>d</sup> I find this turn of phrase to be curious; the author knew his Old Testament well, and presumably knew he was citing a Psalm (8:4-6)—why such a roundabout reference?

<sup>e</sup> The human being is superior to the angelic being in essence; we bear God’s image and they do not, and once glorified that superiority will be obvious, but only for the redeemed. Those who serve Satan subordinate themselves to him, and thus can never rise above him. If Lucifer’s rebellion was provoked, as I suppose, by the creation of a being superior to him, he is doing very well at getting his ‘revenge’, by depriving the vast majority of humanity of that superiority (and so the next verse does not apply to them).

<sup>f</sup> Some 25% of the Greek manuscripts add, “and set him over the works of your hands”, as in TR, AV, NKJV.

<sup>g</sup> Instead of “lower than the angels, for a little while”, AV, NKJV and some other versions have ‘a little lower than the angels’, both here and in Psalm 8:5. The Greek adjective here is ambiguous, it can refer either to duration or to quantity (and so for the Hebrew adjective in Psalm 8). In this context the duration is clearly better, or so I deem.

<sup>h</sup> “Everyone” is not a synonym for ‘the elect’. The death of Christ is adequate, sufficient to provide salvation for all human beings, and is there for them; of course not all actually avail themselves of it (most never even heard about it)—in fact, Sovereign Jesus referred to them as ‘few’ in His day (Matthew 7:14).

<sup>i</sup> This contrasts with the many more who will never see the glory.

<sup>j</sup> As it says in 5:8 below, “He learned obedience by the things that He suffered.” As God, what could He know about suffering and obedience, except in theory? While in human form Jesus literally learned obedience. To be a compassionate High Priest He had to feel it like we feel it.

who are being sanctified are all from One, for which reason He is not ashamed to call them 'brothers', <sup>12</sup>saying,

"I will declare Your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing praise to You."

<sup>13</sup>And again,

"I will put my trust in Him<sup>[f]</sup>";

and again,

"Here am I and the children whom God has given me."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Since, then, the children have flesh and blood as their share, He<sup>[s]</sup> Himself likewise partook of the same, in order that through His death He might abolish the one who had<sup>b</sup> the power of death—that is, the devil—<sup>15</sup>and set free these [the children] who during their whole lifetime were subject to slavery through fear of death.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>(Now surely He does not identify with angels, but He does identify with Abraham's seed.) <sup>17</sup>This is why He was obliged to become like those 'brothers' in all respects, so that He could be a merciful and faithful high priest, in what concerns God, with a view to making propitiation<sup>d</sup> for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup>For in that in which He Himself endured suffering, having been tested,<sup>e</sup> He is able to assist those who are being tested.

The Apostle and High Priest of our confession

<sup>a</sup> See Psalms 22:22, 2 Samuel 22:3 and Isaiah 8:17-18—the author knew his Old Testament.

<sup>b</sup> "H<sup>a</sup>d", not 'has' (as in NIV, etc.)—in Revelation 1:18 the glorified Christ affirms that He now holds the 'keys'. Although the participle of the verb 'to have' is in the present tense, that indicates that it is simultaneous with the time of the finite verb to which it is subordinate, which in this case is 'to partake', which is in the past tense. Here we have one of a few overt statements giving the purpose of the Incarnation—to abolish Satan. See also Romans 14:9, 2 Corinthians 5:15 and Philippians 2:8-11.

<sup>d</sup> 'Propitiation' is a theological term; God's righteous character has been outraged by human sin, and something must be done to 'satisfy'/'pacify' that outraged character. Christ's sacrifice propitiated God, satisfied/pacified His outraged character. The resurrection is the proof that the Father accepted the sacrifice, that He declared Himself to be satisfied.

<sup>e</sup> The Greek word here covers both 'to test' and 'to tempt' (to tempt is to test one's moral fiber), the choice in English being guided by the context. Jesus was not tested only in the area of morals; He was tested physically as well. We too are tested in a variety of ways. (James 1:13 states that God cannot be tempted by evil, and He tempts no one.)

<sup>g</sup> Here we have the first indication as to the addressees; the missive is addressed to Christians. Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Christ" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>h</sup> A curious statement—he provided evidence before it was called for, as it were. Of course Moses is referred to many times in the Scriptures written after his day.

<sup>i</sup> I suppose that a sincere boasting is an exaggerated form of confidence.

The Holy Spirit's warning

<sup>7</sup>Therefore—just as the Holy Spirit says:<sup>c</sup>

“Today, if you would hear His voice,

<sup>8</sup>do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, during the time of the testing<sup>d</sup> in the desert,

proved me and saw my works for forty years.

<sup>10</sup>In consequence I became very angry with that generation and said, ‘Their heart is always being led astray;

they have not known my ways.’

<sup>11</sup>So I took an oath in my wrath,

‘As if they will ever enter my rest!’”<sup>e</sup>

—<sup>12</sup>take care, brothers, that there not be a malignant heart of unbelief in any of you, so as to go away from<sup>f</sup> the living God; <sup>13</sup>rather, exhort yourselves every day, while it is called ‘today’, so that none of you be hardened through sin’s deceitfulness. <sup>14</sup>For we have become associates of the Christ, if, that is, we hold fast the beginning of the Endeavor<sup>g</sup> firm to the end, <sup>15</sup>while it is still being said, “Today,<sup>h</sup> if you would hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.” <sup>16</sup>So who were they who, upon hearing, rebelled? Really now, was it not all those who came out of Egypt by Moses?<sup>i</sup> <sup>17</sup>And with whom was He<sup>[F]</sup> angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the desert? <sup>18</sup>Or to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, if not to those who disobeyed? <sup>19</sup>So we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.<sup>j</sup>

4 <sup>1</sup>Therefore we should fear, since a promise of entering His rest still stands, lest any one of you should expect to have come short of it.<sup>k</sup>

There is still a promised rest

<sup>2</sup>Really, because we are continually hearing Good News<sup>l</sup> just like they did, but the word that they heard did not profit them, since they were not intimately

<sup>a</sup> I take it that the Hope has to do with eternal life. To still be part of the “house” at the end, one must never give up “the confidence”.

<sup>g</sup> I take it that the Christian life or walk with God is called “the Endeavor” (much like ‘the Way’); people usually start with confidence and enthusiasm, but frequently slow down as the going gets rough.

<sup>h</sup> There comes a time when the window of opportunity is closed, and there are no more ‘todays’.

<sup>i</sup> Strictly speaking, since the Original Text did not use question marks, this verse could be translated as a statement: ‘For some, having heard, did rebel, but not all who came out of Egypt by Moses.’ However, since those who did not rebel were very few, a minuscule fraction of the people, most versions treat the verse as a question, as I have done.

<sup>j</sup> The implication is clear; if we disobey it is because we do not really believe—see 4:6 below.

<sup>k</sup> This verse is a continuation of the whole preceding paragraph that emphasizes the need to persevere in faith, so as to enter the rest. If someone decides he has already fallen short, he will likely give up, stop trying.

<sup>l</sup> Strictly speaking it should be “we are continually being good-newsed / evangelized”, but to try to make a verb out of ‘good news’ is awkward; on the other hand ‘evangelize’ has the connotation of preaching united with the faith of those who obeyed. <sup>3</sup>Now we who have believed do enter that rest, just as He has said, “So I took an oath in my wrath, ‘As if they will ever enter my rest!’”—His works were certainly finished from the foundation of the world, <sup>4</sup>because somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day like this, “And on the seventh day God rested from all His works,”<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>while again, in this place, “As if they will ever enter my rest!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>6</sup>Therefore since it remains for some to enter into it, and those who formerly had the Good News proclaimed to them did not enter because of disobedience, <sup>7</sup>He again designates a certain day, after such a long time,<sup>c</sup> saying through David: “Today” (as was stated above), “Today, if you would hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.” <sup>8</sup>Because if Jesus<sup>d</sup> had given them rest, He would not have spoken afterward of another day. <sup>9</sup>So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup>Further, the one having entered into His rest has himself also rested from his own works,<sup>e</sup> just as God did from His.

We must give an account

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, let us take pains to enter into that rest so that no one may fall through the same pattern of disobedience. <sup>12</sup>Because the Word of God is living and efficient, and sharper than any two-edged sword, actually penetrating to the point of separating soul and spirit,<sup>f</sup> joints and marrow; in fact, it is able to evaluate a heart’s reflections and intentions.<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>Nothing in all creation is hidden from His sight; rather all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.<sup>h</sup>

We have a Great High Priest

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, since we have a Great High Priest who has passed through the heavens,<sup>i</sup> Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast the Confession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a High Priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but He was the Gospel to an unbeliever, which is not the point here. I take the “Good News” here to be God’s Truth, on any and all topics.

<sup>b</sup> Dear me, this is the third citation of the oath! When He took it, God was “very angry” (3:10 above); is the author implying that 1,500 years later God is similarly angry with those who insist on disobeying? Then it will still be true in our day (another 2,000 years later). [The syntax of these verses is rather convoluted—reminds one of Paul.]

<sup>d</sup> Beyond question, the Greek Text has ‘Jesus’, as in the AV, but most modern versions put ‘Joshua’. I suppose that ‘Jesus’ was judged to be an anachronism, and so ‘Joshua’ was elected to relieve the situation. To be sure, the Septuagint we know (based on inferior Alexandrian manuscripts) uniformly spells ‘Joshua’ as Ihsovg (Jesus) [as a linguist I wonder why the translators transliterated ‘Iehoshua’ as ‘Iesus’], and perhaps in consequence, in Acts 7:45 Luke refers to Joshua as ‘Iesus’ [it was not his purpose to correct the LXX]. However, looking carefully at the context in Psalm 95:7-11, Joshua just does not fit. Consider: it is presumably Jehovah the Son who is speaking (“Jehovah our Maker”, verse 6), and since the reference is to those who fell in the wilderness during the forty years, Joshua cannot be in view. It was precisely Jesus, Jehovah the Son, who did not allow that generation to enter the ‘rest’. For further discussion please see the Appendix: “‘Jesus’ or ‘Joshua’?”.

<sup>e</sup> We enter God’s rest through faith in Christ’s Work, not through our own works.

<sup>f</sup> If soul and spirit can be separated, they obviously cannot be the same thing, just as joints and marrow are not the same thing.

<sup>g</sup> Meditating on God’s Word can be uncomfortable; it is a ‘mirror’ that tells us the truth about ourselves.

<sup>h</sup> We must give an account to a Judge who knows ALL the facts. This knowledge really ought to turn us into serious people, diligent seekers of God, but...

<sup>i</sup> “Heavens” is plural, so He passed through at least two of them, so God’s throne must be in the third heaven (unless there are still more in between).

tested in all points, in similar ways, without sin. <sup>16</sup>So let us approach the throne of grace<sup>a</sup> with confidence, that we may receive mercy and find grace, for timely help.

Qualifications for high priesthood

5 <sup>1</sup>Now every high priest taken from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins, <sup>2</sup>being able to deal gently<sup>b</sup> with those who sin in ignorance and go astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. <sup>3</sup>Because of this he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well, just as he does for the people's. <sup>4</sup>Also, no one receives this honor on his own, but upon being called by God, just like Aaron.<sup>c</sup>

Christ meets the qualifications

<sup>5</sup>So also Christ did not exalt Himself to become High Priest, but it was He<sup>[F]</sup> who said to Him<sup>[S]</sup>,

“You are my Son;
today I have begotten You.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Just as He<sup>[F]</sup> also says in another place,

“You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>e</sup>

“Let’s move on toward perfection”

<sup>12</sup>Really, because although by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary principles of God’s oracles all over again;

---

<sup>a</sup> Now precisely which, or whose, throne might “the throne of grace” be? I imagine it would be the throne that Jesus is presently occupying at the Father’s right. Notice that it is up to us to “approach” and ask.

<sup>f</sup> I believe the reference is to Gethsemane. Note that there was a single loud (desperate?) cry (that should have roused the drowsy disciples). His anguish was so severe that Jesus literally passed blood through the pores in His skin—normally fatal (Luke 22:44). I suspect that the fear mentioned here was the fear that He would die prematurely, there in the garden. He came to die, certainly, but it had to be on the cross. So the Father sent angels to strengthen Him, to keep Him from dying prematurely.

<sup>g</sup> His qualifications to become High Priest were completed. As God, what could He know about suffering and obedience, except in theory? While in human form Jesus literally learned obedience—He had to feel it like we feel it.

<sup>i</sup> The ‘difficulty’ is not so much in the subject matter, but in the spiritual condition of the hearers. This would seem to indicate that the author has a specific audience in view.

you have come to the point<sup>a</sup> of needing milk, not solid food! <sup>13</sup>Surely; whoever lives on milk is an infant, and therefore unskilled in the Word of righteousness. <sup>14</sup>On the other hand, solid food is for the mature, those who by habitual use have trained their senses to distinguish good from bad.<sup>b</sup>

6 <sup>1</sup>Therefore, leaving the elementary teaching about Christ, let us be moved on toward perfection,<sup>c</sup> not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and trust in God, <sup>2</sup>of teaching about baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>We will do this, that is, if indeed God should permit it.<sup>e</sup>

No one kills Jesus twice

<sup>4</sup>Because, it is impossible to bring back into repentance those who were once for all enlightened, who have partaken<sup>f</sup> of the heavenly gift and were made sharers in the Holy Spirit,<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>who have experienced God's good event<sup>h</sup> and capabilities of the coming age,<sup>i</sup> <sup>6</sup>and yet have fallen away—they would be crucifying the Son of God all over again, just for themselves, holding Him up to contempt.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Now the ground that drinks in the rain that frequently falls on it and produces a crop useful to those for whom it is really cultivated receives blessing from God; <sup>8</sup>but should it bear thorns and thistles, it is disqualified, almost a curse, whose destiny is a burning.<sup>k</sup>

A word of encouragement

<sup>9</sup>For all that, dear ones, we are confident of the better things concerning you—things that accompany salvation—even though we speak like this. <sup>10</sup>Because God is not unjust so as to ignore your work, even the labor of love you have invested in His name, in that you have ministered to the saints and continue to do so. <sup>11</sup>You see, we really do want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, so as to fulfill the hope; <sup>12</sup>so that you not become careless, but rather imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>d</sup> Note that the topics mentioned are stated to be “elementary”. Note also that “baptisms” is plural.

<sup>e</sup> The author is not at all sure that God will, indeed, permit it!

<sup>f</sup> The verb here—whether ‘to taste’, ‘to partake’, ‘to obtain’ or ‘to come to know’—has to do with experience.

<sup>g</sup> It seems clear enough that the reference is to people who have the Holy Spirit.

<sup>i</sup> Eternal life is a quality of life; it begins down here for those who have been regenerated.

<sup>j</sup> No amount of theological shifting and squirming can nullify the plain meaning of this verse. The only way to crucify Jesus again is if you have already done so once before. No one is going to kill Jesus twice; if the first time was not good enough for you, you have had it! Anyone who holds Jesus “up to contempt” can expect wrath. See Romans 6:9.

<sup>k</sup> This ground was cultivated, not an unplowed weed patch, and planted with good seed; if it still produces thorns and thistles there is something wrong with it. Thistle seeds need to be burned, not plowed under.

<sup>l</sup> We inherit the promises through faith and perseverance—the author keeps insisting: we have to persevere, hang on, stay with it, whatever, until the end of our earthly life.

Our secure anchor

<sup>13</sup>Now when God made a promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater to swear by, He swore by Himself <sup>14</sup>saying, “Indeed, blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>And so, after he had been patient,<sup>b</sup> he obtained the promise.

<sup>16</sup>Because since men swear by the greater, and for them the confirming oath puts an end to every dispute, <sup>17</sup>similarly God, being determined to show even more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchanging nature of His purpose, guaranteed it by an oath, <sup>18</sup>so that by two unalterable things, in which God cannot lie, we should have a strong encouragement, we who have taken refuge by grasping the hope set before us; <sup>19</sup>which hope we have as an anchor for the soul, both certain and secure,<sup>c</sup> actually entering the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, <sup>20</sup>where Forerunner Jesus has entered on our behalf, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Melchizedek, priest and king

7 <sup>1</sup>Now this Melchizedek—king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all (first, his name means ‘king of righteousness’, and then again ‘king of Salem’, which means ‘king of peace’), <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy; having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but having been made like the Son of God<sup>d</sup>—remains a priest continually.

Melchizedek greater than Abraham

<sup>4</sup>Now consider how great this personage was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils:<sup>e</sup> <sup>5</sup>You see, those of the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a command, according to the Law, to collect a tithe from the people—that is, from their brothers—even though they too came out of Abraham’s body; <sup>6</sup>but he whose descent is not counted among them collected a tithe from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup>Now without dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup>Also, here men who die receive tithes, but there he of whom it is testified that he lives <sup>9</sup>—in a word, even Levi, who receives tithes, paid the tithe through Abraham, <sup>10</sup>because he was still in the reproductive system of his fore-father when Melchizedek met him.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I did not want to lose the Hebrew idiom; a freer rendering would be, ‘Indeed, I will bless you greatly, and I will multiply you greatly’—the “multiply” refers to descendants. See Genesis 22:17.

<sup>b</sup> Well, his ‘patience’ was an up and down thing (Ishmael, and all that), but he never gave up altogether.

<sup>c</sup> Oh, praise God! With an “anchor” like that we have every reason to persevere.

<sup>e</sup> Why would Abraham give a tenth of the spoils to a stranger? Something about Melchizedek was very impressive. When Jehovah the Son appeared to Abraham to announce the destruction of Sodom, he knew who He was.

<sup>f</sup> This is instructive. The inspired author affirms that Levi was in Abraham and also paid the tithe to Melchizedek, but when Abraham met Melchizedek not even Isaac had been born yet, much less Jacob and Levi. So the human spirit, the ‘image’ of the Creator, is transmitted by the male sperm. This agrees with Romans 5:12-21, where we are informed that Adam’s sin contaminated all his descendants. When Eve sinned, she sinned alone. When Adam sinned, we did too.

Melchizedek greater than Aaron

<sup>11</sup>Now then, if there could be perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people had received the Law), what further need would there be for a different kind of priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, rather than being called according to the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>(Because when the priesthood is changed there is also a change of law, of necessity.) <sup>13</sup>For He of whom these things are said belongs to a different tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord arose out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>15</sup>And it all becomes clearer still if a different kind of priest, in the likeness of Melchizedek, appears, <sup>16</sup>who has come, not on the basis of a law about a physical rule but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>Because He testifies:

“You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>18</sup>You see, there is an annulling of the former rule because of its weakness and uselessness <sup>19</sup>(for the Law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

Our eternal High Priest represents us eternally

<sup>20</sup>Further, inasmuch as it was not without the taking of an oath <sup>21</sup>—they indeed had become priests without an oath-taking, but He<sup>[S]</sup> with an oath by Him<sup>[F]</sup> who said to Him<sup>[S]</sup>:

“The LORD has sworn and will not change His<sup>[F]</sup> mind;
you are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek”<sup>b</sup>

—<sup>22</sup>by so much Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup>Also, there have been many priests because death prevented them from continuing in office; <sup>24</sup>while He<sup>[S]</sup>, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. <sup>25</sup>Therefore He is able to save absolutely<sup>c</sup> those who come to God through Him, since He always lives and can intercede on their behalf.

<sup>26</sup>Now such a High Priest was fitting for us—holy, innocent, undefiled, having been set apart from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens—<sup>27</sup>who, unlike those high priests, does not need to offer up daily sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people; because He did this once for all when He offered up Himself. <sup>28</sup>The Law appoints as high priest men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, that came after the Law, appointed Son, forever perfect.<sup>d</sup>

Priest and Mediator of a better covenant

<sup>c</sup> Wonderful! He is always ‘there’ for us.

<sup>d</sup> The Text has, literally, ‘having been perfected’ (or ‘completed’, or ‘consecrated’); the result of ‘having been perfected’ is to be perfect, and it is the result that is eternal, not the process.

ens, <sup>2</sup>Minister of the Holy Places, that is, of the true Tabernacle which the Lord set up, not man. <sup>3</sup>Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices (it follows that it is necessary for this One also to have something He might offer) <sup>4</sup>—if He were on earth He would not be a priest, there already being priests who offer the gifts according to the Law;<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>who serve in a copy and shadow of the heavenly things<sup>b</sup> (that is why Moses was warned by God when he was ready to assemble the Tabernacle: “See to it,” He says, “that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain”)—<sup>6</sup>but now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, just as He is Mediator of a better covenant, which was enacted as law on the basis of better promises.<sup>c</sup>

A new covenant

<sup>7</sup>Now if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for a second one; <sup>8</sup>but finding fault with them<sup>d</sup> He says:

“Listen! Days are coming,” says the LORD,
 “when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah<sup>e</sup> —<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt,<sup>f</sup> because they did not abide by my covenant and so I disregarded them,” says the LORD.
<sup>10</sup>“Now this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says the LORD,<sup>g</sup> “I will put my laws into their mind and write them on their hearts; and I will be their God
 and they will be my people.
<sup>11</sup>Further, not one of them will teach his neighbor and not one his brother saying, ‘Get to know the LORD!’
 because they all will know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.
<sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful to their wrongdoings;
 I will not at all remember their sins and their lawless deeds.”<sup>h</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> This presumably indicates that this missive was written before the destruction of the temple in 70 AD, when the sacrifices ceased.

<sup>b</sup> The Tabernacle assembled by Moses was but a ‘shadow’ of the real thing; which probably means that the spiritual realm is more ‘real’ than the physical one—which is difficult for us to believe, so very few live on that basis.

<sup>c</sup> Wow! How is that for convoluted syntax—verses 3-6 form a single sentence. It almost feels ‘Pauline’!

<sup>d</sup> That is right, the people, since they did not live up to the covenant. The following quote is from Jeremiah 31:31-34.

<sup>e</sup> The author equates the second covenant, inaugurated by Christ, with Jeremiah’s new covenant, so the reference to ‘the house of Israel’ and ‘the house of Judah’ means that there are no ‘lost’ tribes—God knows who they are and where they are (see Revelation 7:4-8).

<sup>f</sup> “I took them by the hand”—recall that they were led by the column of cloud/fire from the very first.

<sup>g</sup> “The house of Israel” is not the Church! I would say that verses 10 and 11 here will be fulfilled during the Messianic Millennial Kingdom. Notice “they will be my people”.

<sup>h</sup> Some 3.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit “and their lawless deeds” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>13</sup>By saying ‘new’ He has made the first one ‘old’; and what is obsolete and aging is near the end.

The earthly sanctuary

9 <sup>1</sup>Now that first covenant did indeed have regulations for divine service and the earthly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup>Yes, a tabernacle was set up: the first part, which is called the Holy Place, in which were the lamp stand, the table and the showbread; <sup>3</sup>and behind the second curtain an area called the Holy of Holies, <sup>4</sup>having a golden censer<sup>a</sup> and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold—in it were a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant; <sup>5</sup>while above it were cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat (this is not the place to go into detail about them).<sup>b</sup>

The service of the sanctuary

<sup>6</sup>Now when these things had been thus prepared, the priests continually went into the first part, performing the divine services, <sup>7</sup>but into the second one only the high priest could go, once a year and only with blood, which he offered for himself and for the people’s sins of ignorance;<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>the Holy Spirit was making clear that the way into the Most Holy Place was not yet open to the public while the first tabernacle was still in existence. <sup>9</sup>It was a figure during the time then present, a time when both gifts and sacrifices were being offered that were incapable of clearing the conscience of the worshipper— <sup>10</sup>they were only about foods and drinks and various ceremonial washings and physical regulations, things imposed until the time of restructuring.<sup>d</sup>

Christ serves in the heavenly sanctuary

<sup>11</sup>But Christ entered once for all into the real Holy Places, having obtained eternal redemption—He had come as High Priest of the good things that are about to be, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, <sup>12</sup>and with His own blood, not that of goats and calves. <sup>13</sup>For if the blood of bulls and goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who had been ceremonially defiled, restored ceremonial purity to the body, <sup>14</sup>how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the Holy Spirit<sup>e</sup> offered Himself<sup>f</sup> unblemished to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve

---

<sup>a</sup> The normal meaning of the Greek word here is precisely ‘censer’, but unfortunately modern versions like NIV, TEV, LB, NASB render ‘altar of incense’, thus setting up a contradiction with the Old Testament. According to Exodus 30:6 the altar of incense was placed in front of the curtain leading into the Holy of Holies, and so it was in the Holy Place, not the Holy of Holies. The only reference to this particular censer appears to be in Leviticus 16:12, where it was to be used behind the second curtain to hide the Ark with smoke. Since that censer would only be used once a year (on the day of atonement), it may well have been stored just behind a corner of the second curtain (where the high priest could retrieve it without looking in) and thus the author of Hebrews would be correct in saying that the censer was behind the second curtain, whereas the altar was in front of it. In any event, evidently that censer was only used within the Holy of Holies, and so it would be appropriate to say that the area ‘had’ a golden censer.

<sup>e</sup> We are accustomed to ‘the Eternal Spirit’, an attractive reading; I have followed the best line of transmission, albeit supported by only some 30% of the Greek manuscripts, plus the Latin tradition.

<sup>f</sup> If Christ “offered Himself”, He was both High Priest and Lamb. The Holy Spirit was with Him all the time. Verse 14 overtly mentions all three persons of the Trinity.

the living God? <sup>15</sup>For this reason He is mediator of a new covenant, so that those who have been called<sup>a</sup> may receive the promised eternal inheritance—since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant.<sup>b</sup>

The earthly sanctuary inaugurated with blood

<sup>16</sup>Now where there is a will, the death of the one who made it must be established; <sup>17</sup>because a will is in force after men are dead, since it never takes effect while the one who made it lives. <sup>18</sup>Therefore, not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood; <sup>19</sup>because when every commandment of the Law had been proclaimed by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself<sup>c</sup> and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, “This is the blood of the covenant which God has decreed to you.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>21</sup>Then he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the divine service with the blood in the same way. <sup>22</sup>In fact, according to the Law nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.<sup>e</sup>

The heavenly sanctuary inaugurated with Christ’s blood

<sup>23</sup>So then, it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with such, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than those.<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>For Christ did not enter into Holy Places made by hands, mere copies of the true ones,<sup>g</sup> but into Heaven itself, now to appear in God’s presence on our behalf; <sup>25</sup>but not in order to offer Himself repeatedly, like the high priest who entered the Most Holy Place year by year with another’s blood <sup>26</sup>—otherwise He would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world; but now, once for all at the end of the ages, He has been revealed to nullify sin by the sacrifice of Himself. <sup>27</sup>Also, inasmuch as men are destined to die but once, after which the judgment,<sup>h</sup> <sup>28</sup>so the Christ also, having been offered once for all to bear the sins of many—He will appear a second time to those who are eagerly waiting for Him, apart from sin, into salvation.<sup>i</sup>

Animal blood is insufficient

10 <sup>1</sup>You see, the Law is but a shadow of the good things to come, not their actual matter, so it can never perfect those who approach with the same sacrifices that they offer endlessly, year after year. <sup>2</sup>Otherwise would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshippers would have had no more cons-

<sup>f</sup> Dear me, how could anything in Heaven be in need of cleansing? Well, Satan (Lucifer) had been there, and probably did some contaminating before his open rebellion. In fact, he still appears before God’s throne.

<sup>h</sup> This verse contradicts any notion of ‘reincarnation’. We only die once, physically.

<sup>i</sup> I suppose this is a reference to the Rapture, but however we receive our glorified bodies, at that point we receive our definitive transferal “into salvation”.

ciousness of sins, having been cleansed once for all? <sup>3</sup>However, those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins, <sup>4</sup>because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.<sup>a</sup>

"I have come to do Your will, O God"

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, upon coming into the world He<sup>[S]</sup> says:

"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
but You prepared a body for me;<sup>b</sup>

<sup>6</sup>with burnt offerings and sin offerings You were not pleased.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, 'Yes indeed, I have come to do Your will, O God
—thus it is written about me in the scroll of the book.'<sup>c</sup>

<sup>8</sup>First He says, "Sacrifices, offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor were You pleased with them" (which are offered according to the Law), <sup>9</sup>then He says, "Yes indeed, I have come to do Your will, O God."<sup>d</sup> He removes the first in order to establish the second. <sup>10</sup>By that will<sup>e</sup> we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.<sup>f</sup>

Christ perfects forever

<sup>11</sup>Now every priest has stood ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices that can never take away sins; <sup>12</sup>but He Himself, having offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, sat down at God's right. <sup>13</sup>Since that time He is waiting until His enemies are placed as a footstool for His feet, <sup>14</sup>because by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Now the Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this, after having foreseen it:

<sup>16</sup>"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days,' says the LORD,
'I will put my laws on their hearts and I will write them on their minds, <sup>17</sup>and I will not at all remember their sins and lawless deeds.'<sup>h</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The author's reasoning here is both interesting and important; they could never stop, because they never felt clean.

<sup>b</sup> When Jehovah the Son accepted the 'prepared body' He accepted the whole Plan—the humiliation of being limited to a human body, being born as a helpless baby, living on this sin-cursed planet for 33 years, being rejected, the death on the cross—the works. Would not the humiliation of being confined to a human body be worse than the humiliation on the cross? When I participate in the 'Lord's Supper', since the bread represents His body, I thank Him for accepting that body. As a personal application, I am challenged to accept the 'body' prepared for me—God's plan for my life in its daily outworking, complete with the unpleasant circumstances. Every day I renew my own commitment: "I am here to do Your will, O God".

<sup>c</sup> See Psalm 40:6-8. Instead of "body", the Hebrew Text has 'ears'. You cannot have ears without a body, and the purpose of the body was to work out the commands heard by the ears. The Holy Spirit was at perfect liberty to make the point clearer in this quote.

<sup>i</sup> Once all sins have been paid for, there is no further need for an offering.

Hold fast the confession of the Hope

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, brothers, having courage to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by a new and living way that He inaugurated for us, through the curtain, that is to say, His flesh, <sup>21</sup>and having a Great Priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts having been sprinkled<sup>a</sup> from an evil conscience and our body having been washed with clean water.<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>Let us hold fast the confession of the Hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us contemplate one another, for the stirring up of love and good works, <sup>25</sup>not forsaking the assembling of ourselves (like some are doing), but exhorting one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

A severe warning

<sup>26</sup>Because, if we deliberately keep on sinning after having received the real knowledge of the Truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup>just a certain fearful anticipation of judgment and fierce fire that is ready to consume the hostiles. <sup>28</sup>Anyone who rejected Moses' law died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be deemed worthy who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified,<sup>c</sup> and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup>For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is up to me," says the Lord.<sup>d</sup> "I will repay." And again, "The LORD will judge His people."<sup>e</sup> <sup>31</sup>It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the Living God!

A word of encouragement

<sup>32</sup>However, remember those earlier days in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great struggle of sufferings: <sup>33</sup>partly being publicly exposed to both insults and oppression, and partly siding with those who were so treated. <sup>34</sup>Indeed, you also shared in the suffering of my chains;<sup>f</sup> you even accepted the plundering of your possessions with joy, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and enduring possession in the heavens.

<sup>35</sup>So do not throw away your confidence, which has a great recompense. <sup>36</sup>You need perseverance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise. <sup>37</sup>For in a very little while:

"He who is coming will come and will not delay.

<sup>38</sup>Now the righteous one will live by faith, yet if he backs away, my soul has no pleasure in him."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>b</sup> I suppose most people take a bath before going to church, but how about in our daily devotions?

<sup>c</sup> "By which he was sanctified", that is what the Text says. "His people" presumably refers to people who belong to Him. Verse 31 is not talking about the ordinary consequences of ordinary sin—the clear implication is that God is especially unhappy! To "trample the Son of God under foot" refers to a public repudiation in insulting terms; the reference is to a former Christian who is in open rebellion against God.

<sup>f</sup> I wonder if Paul is referring to the two years he was a prisoner in Caesarea, since he is evidently writing from Rome (13:24 below). The chief priests doubtless had spies there to make a note of anyone who helped him.

<sup>39</sup>But we are not of those who back away into ruin,<sup>a</sup> but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

About faith

Abel, Enoch, Noah

<sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than did Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous,<sup>d</sup> God testifying concerning his gifts; and by means of it he still speaks, even though being dead. <sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was transferred so as not to see death, and could not be found because God had translated him; before his translation he had obtained witness that he was pleasing to God.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Now without faith it is impossible to please Him, because the one approaching God must believe that He exists and that He becomes a rewarder of those who earnestly seek Him.<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen,<sup>g</sup> moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that is according to faith.<sup>h</sup>

Abraham and Sarah

<sup>8</sup>By faith Abraham, upon being called to go forth to the place that he would receive as an inheritance, obeyed and went, though not being acquainted with where he was going.<sup>i</sup> <sup>9</sup>By faith he migrated into the land of promise as into a foreign country, dwelling in tents, along with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise; <sup>10</sup>for he was waiting expectantly for the city with the real foundations, whose designer and builder is God.

<sup>11</sup>By faith Sarah herself also received power to conceive seed, and she bore a child<sup>j</sup> when she was past the normal age, since she judged Him faithful who had

<sup>a</sup> The emphasis here is on human responsibility. To “back away” from one’s commitment to Christ and His Kingdom is to return into the ruin from which he had been delivered.

<sup>e</sup> His contemporaries probably looked down on Enoch as being a little ‘odd’, altogether too ‘religious’ or ‘spiritual’.

<sup>g</sup> It had never rained during the 1600 years since the creation of the world. Noah believed God’s word against all human experience up to that time. Don’t you know that Noah was the laughingstock of the surrounding society for the 100+ years it took him to build the Ark. (But he got the last laugh.)

<sup>i</sup> But his obedience was not complete; he took his father, and that cost him 15 years in Haran; and from there he took Lot, the bad consequences of which lasted for centuries (indeed, for as long as there were Moabites and Ammonites).

<sup>j</sup> Perhaps 3% of the Greek manuscripts omit “she bore a child” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

promised. <sup>12</sup>And so from one man, actually an impotent,<sup>a</sup> were begotten descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

Seeking a heavenly homeland

<sup>13</sup>These all died believing—not having received the promises, but having seen and welcomed them from a distance, thus confessing that they were aliens and sojourners on the earth. <sup>14</sup>Now those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. <sup>15</sup>If they were actually remembering that land from which they had departed, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup>Instead they are aspiring to a better home—a heavenly one.<sup>b</sup> Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; in fact He has prepared a city for them.

Patriarchs

Moses

<sup>23</sup>By faith Moses was hidden for three months by his parents, after he was born, because they saw he was a fine child, and they were not afraid of the king’s edict. <sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter,<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>choosing rather to be maltreated along with God’s people than to have the temporary pleasure of sin, <sup>26</sup>considering the reproach for the Christ<sup>h</sup> to be greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; because he was looking

---

<sup>a</sup> This statement helps us understand why Sarah urged Abraham to sleep with Hagar; she knew his virility was declining and was desperate for him to produce an heir. For Isaac to be born, God had to work a miracle in Abraham’s body, as well as in Sarah’s.

<sup>b</sup> I think we are obliged to understand that Abraham received a great deal more information from God than is recorded in Genesis—information that was duly passed on to Isaac and Jacob.

<sup>e</sup> It has been alleged that this statement disagrees with Genesis 47:31, that has Jacob leaning on the head of the bed (following the Massoretic Text), rather than the top of his staff. However, Hebrews 11:21 and Genesis 47:31 refer to different occasions, so there is no need to imagine a discrepancy. That said, it may be of interest to note the following. The Hebrew words for ‘bed’ and ‘staff’ are spelled with the same three consonants, the difference being in the vowels, that were not written. Thus the Original Hebrew Text was ambiguous here. When the Massorettes added vowel pointing to the Hebrew Text, many centuries after Christ, they chose ‘bed’. Long before, the Septuagint had chosen ‘staff’.

<sup>g</sup> This may explain Exodus 2:15. If Moses had publicly rejected an offer by Pharaoh, based on his adoption, then Pharaoh would be disgruntled and would welcome an excuse to kill Moses.

<sup>h</sup> This statement intrigues me. What did Moses know about the Christ (when he left Egypt), and from whom did he learn it? And how did he know about the reward? I suppose it is possible that he had made a point of finding out who his parents were, and had conversed with them about their history.

ahead to the reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt behind, not fearing the king's rage,<sup>a</sup> because he persevered as though seeing Him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup>By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. <sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry ground, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were swallowed up.<sup>b</sup>

Exploits achieved through faith

<sup>32</sup>And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell about Gideon, about Barak and Samson and Jephtha, about David and Samuel and the prophets, <sup>33</sup>who through faith subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, closed lions' mouths, <sup>34</sup>quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became mighty in battle, put to flight foreign armies. <sup>35</sup>Women received their dead back by resurrection; while others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, so that they might obtain a better resurrection.<sup>e</sup> <sup>36</sup>Still others were tried by mockings and scourgings, and even by chains and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were tempted, they were murdered by sword. They went about in sheepskins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, mistreated <sup>38</sup>—of whom the world was not worthy—wandering in deserts and mountains and caves and holes in the ground.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>39</sup>Now all these did not receive the promise, though having been approved through faith, <sup>40</sup>God having planned something better for us,<sup>g</sup> so that they should not be perfected without us.<sup>h</sup>

"Let us run with endurance"

12 <sup>1</sup>So then, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, we too must run with endurance the race that is set before us, laying aside every impediment and the sin<sup>i</sup> that so easily ensnares, <sup>2</sup>looking unto Jesus, the Founder and Perfector of the Faith, who for the joy<sup>j</sup> that was set before Him endured a cross, scorning its ignominy, and took His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

<sup>b</sup> For a discussion of where this happened, please see the Appendix: "Where is Mt. Sinai?"

<sup>c</sup> Those walls were so thick that they contained houses. To get several million Jews to march in silence was also quite a trick!

<sup>d</sup> And she entered the line that produced the Messiah—Matthew 1:5. Amazing!

<sup>e</sup> I assume that by "better resurrection" is meant more rewards and honor once resurrected.

<sup>g</sup> What do we have that is "better"? Well, we have the indwelling Holy Spirit, and we have the complete Bible, for starters.

<sup>h</sup> They are waiting for the Rapture, since only then will they be resurrected and receive their glorified bodies, along with us.

<sup>i</sup> I suppose that each of us has his own 'besetting sin'—what gives me trouble will not necessarily be the same thing that gives you trouble.

<sup>j</sup> I imagine that that "joy" has something to do with His Bride.

All legitimate children receive discipline

<sup>3</sup>Do consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, so as not to grow weary, losing courage in your souls. <sup>4</sup>In your struggle against sin<sup>a</sup> you have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>And you have forgotten the exhortation that instructs you as sons:

“My son, do not make light of the LORD’s discipline, nor lose heart when you are reproved by Him;
<sup>6</sup>because whom the LORD loves He chastens, yes scourges every son whom He accepts.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>7</sup>If you are enduring discipline, God is dealing with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not discipline? <sup>8</sup>But if you are without discipline (something everyone undergoes),<sup>d</sup> then you are illegitimate and not sons. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, we have had our human fathers as correctors and respected them. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits<sup>e</sup> and live? <sup>10</sup>Now they indeed disciplined us during a short period as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, so that we may partake of His holiness. <sup>11</sup>Now no discipline seems to be pleasant at the time, but painful; yet afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised by it.<sup>f</sup>

Watch your step!

<sup>12</sup>Therefore strengthen the listless hands and weakened knees, <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame not be turned aside but rather be healed.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with all, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord;<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>taking care that no one come short of the grace of God, that no root of bitterness springing up cause trouble and thereby many be defiled, <sup>16</sup>that no one be a fornicator, or worldly like Esau, who in exchange for one meal gave up his birthright. <sup>17</sup>Because you do indeed know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing he was rejected; he found no place for a change of mind,<sup>i</sup> though he sought it diligently with tears.

Sinai X Zion

<sup>18</sup>Now you have not come to a touchable mountain burning with fire, to blackness and darkness, to tempest; <sup>19</sup>to a trumpet blast and spoken words such that those who heard begged that no further word be spoken to them <sup>20</sup>(because

---

<sup>c</sup> See Proverbs 3:11-12. When I was a boy my father had a horse, a gentle creature, and a proper horse-whip to go with it. I found myself on the business end of that whip more than once (more often than did the horse), and I can assure the reader that it was not a pleasant experience. So God’s scourgings tend not to be very pleasant; but if we end up partaking of His holiness (verse 10 below), it will be worth it.

<sup>d</sup> At that time there was probably no culture dominated by relativistic humanism.

<sup>f</sup> That is the secret—we must be “exercised” by it; that is, we must learn whatever lesson the Lord is trying to teach us.

<sup>g</sup> I take the point to be that we should not turn our Christian walk into a bunch of complicated rules—keep it simple.

<sup>h</sup> If we need to “pursue” this holiness, then it is experiential, not positional. God rewards those who “earnestly seek Him” (11:6 above).

<sup>i</sup> Neither Isaac nor God changed his mind; Jacob was in and Esau was out.

they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain it must be stoned!”<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>and the sight was so terrifying that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling!”); <sup>22</sup>but you have come to Mount Zion, even to the City of the Living God, Heavenly Jerusalem; to myriads of angels in festal gathering, <sup>23</sup>to an assembly of firstborn ones<sup>b</sup> who have been enrolled in heaven; to God, Judge of all; to the spirits of the perfected righteous; <sup>24</sup>to Jesus, Mediator of a new covenant, and to a blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.<sup>c</sup>

Warning: “Our God is a consuming fire”

<sup>25</sup>See to it that you not refuse Him who speaks. Because if they did not escape who refused Him who gave divine warning on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from Him who warns from Heaven! <sup>26</sup>Then His voice shook the earth, but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I shake not only the earth but also the heaven.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup>Now the ‘yet once more’ clearly indicates the removal of the things being shaken (created things), so that the unshakables may remain.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, since we are receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us hold on to the grace by which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear; <sup>29</sup>because our God is indeed a consuming fire.<sup>e</sup>

Practical instructions

13 <sup>1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not forget hospitality to strangers, for in doing so some have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup>Remember the prisoners as if chained with them, those who are being mistreated as if you yourselves were physically there. <sup>4</sup>Marriage is honorable among all and the marriage bed undefiled,<sup>f</sup> but God will judge fornicators and adulterers.<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>Your way of life should be free from the love of money, being content with what you have, because He Himself has said:

“I absolutely will not desert you;
I most certainly will not abandon you.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>6</sup>So we can say with confidence:

<sup>a</sup> See Exodus 19:12-13. Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts add ‘or shot with an arrow’ (as in AV and NKJV).

<sup>c</sup> Let me try to list the ‘reception committee’: 1) the City; 2) angels; 3) firstborn ones (different from angels?); 4) God the Father; 5) the perfected righteous; 6) Jesus; 7) the Blood. An impressive list! What did Abel’s blood say?—murder and punishment! What does Jesus’ blood say?—redemption and forgiveness! Oh praise God!

<sup>f</sup> The rendering of the King James Version—“marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled”—has been seriously misused, here and there. While in Seminary, a ‘Christian’ psychologist used this text to tell our class that it was ok for a man to have anal sex with his wife: “marriage is honorable in all!” It should be obvious that it is not ok to murder in bed, to tell lies in bed, to steal in bed, to commit adultery in bed, to fornicate in bed. Since the Creator decrees the death penalty to those who engage in anal sex (Leviticus 20:13), doing it in the marriage bed cannot make it right!

<sup>h</sup> What a marvelous assurance! See Deuteronomy 31:8.

“The LORD is my helper; I will not fear.
What can man do to me?”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Remember your leaders, those who spoke the Word of God to you, whose faith imitate, considering the outcome of their conduct. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ is Himself,<sup>b</sup> yesterday and today and into the ages. <sup>9</sup>Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings, because it is good that the heart be established by grace, not foods, by which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

Join Jesus outside the camp

<sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which those who serve in the Tabernacle have no right to eat.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Because the bodies of the animals—whose blood, concerning sin, is brought into the Holies by the high priest—are burned up outside the camp, <sup>12</sup>therefore Jesus also, so that He might sanctify the people by His own blood, suffered outside the city gate. <sup>13</sup>So then, let us go out to Him, outside the camp, bearing His disgrace;<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>because here we do not have a permanent city, but we seek the coming one.

<sup>15</sup>Through Him therefore, at all times, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God<sup>e</sup>—the fruit of lips that identify with His name. <sup>16</sup>(But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.)

Concluding remarks

<sup>17</sup>Obey your leaders and submit, for they keep watch over your souls, as those who must give account, so that they may do it with joy and not sighing (which would be unprofitable for you).

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us; for we are confident that we have a good conscience, desiring to live commendably in all things; <sup>19</sup>I especially urge you to do this so that I may be restored to you more quickly.<sup>f</sup>

---

<sup>b</sup> The basic meaning of the emphatic pronoun here is ‘self’, but it can also mean ‘same’, especially in a comparison. If Jesus is always Himself, then He is always the same.

<sup>c</sup> I do not understand this. The Tabernacle set up by Moses had been gone for over 1000 years when Paul wrote. Perhaps ‘tabernacle’ is a metaphor for ‘temple’.

<sup>d</sup> Persecuted Christians in China and elsewhere know all about this, but many in North America have had such an easy time of it that they have ‘forgotten’ this aspect of the Gospel. But their turn is coming—in Canada, if you speak out against homosexuality you go to jail, for instance.

<sup>e</sup> To praise God when everything is fine is no “sacrifice”, so I suppose that the reference is to doing so when we are hurting, perplexed, not understanding.

<sup>g</sup> “The blood of the eternal covenant” can only refer to the blood of God’s Lamb, that was ‘foreknown before the foundation of the world’ (1 Peter 1:19-20). From our point of view, anything that existed before our planet was created, and that will continue to exist after it is destroyed, may properly be called ‘eternal’.

<sup>h</sup> In John 5:19 the Lord Jesus said that He only did what He saw the Father doing. All the power, enabling, equipping that the Text says is available to us is there for us to do the Father’s will, not our own.

well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Sign off

<sup>22</sup>Now I appeal to you, brothers, bear with this word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>Know that brother Timothy has been released, with whom I will see you, if he comes quickly.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

---

<sup>a</sup> As the Apostle to the Gentiles, Paul's letters to them are liberally sprinkled with commands—he could be quite 'heavy' at times. There he was on his own 'turf'. But the Jews were Peter's turf (Galatians 2:7-8), so in writing to them Paul (as I assume) does not come on as an apostle, and here 'appeals' rather than commands. The reference to Timothy in the next verse also suggests Paul as the author.

The Epistle of JAMES

Various exhortations

<sup>2</sup>Count it all joy,<sup>d</sup> my brothers, whenever you fall into various trials, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance; <sup>4</sup>but let that endurance have a complete work,<sup>e</sup> so that you may be perfect and complete, falling short in nothing.

About wisdom

<sup>5</sup>But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from the giving God,<sup>f</sup> who gives to all liberally and does not reproach, and it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup>However, let him ask in faith, with no doubting, because he who doubts is like a sea wave driven and tossed by the wind—<sup>7</sup>such a man should not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord, <sup>8</sup>being a double-minded man,<sup>g</sup> unstable in all his ways.

<sup>9</sup>Now the lowly brother should glory in his high position,<sup>h</sup> <sup>10</sup>but the rich brother in his humiliation,<sup>i</sup> because he will pass away like a flower of wild grass.<sup>j</sup> <sup>11</sup>For the sun rises with its burning heat and withers the grass, and its flower falls off and the beauty of its face perishes. Just so the rich man will be withered in his undertakings.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>a</sup> There is no definite article with 'Sovereign Jesus Christ', so I treat the phrase like a proper noun. Note that James, half-brother of Jesus (same mother), declares himself to be His slave. Another half-brother, Jude, does the same (Jude 1). They make no special claim, based on that relationship.

<sup>b</sup> If there are twelve, then none are 'lost'. Evidently James is writing to Jewish Christians. If this letter was written around 45 AD, it was before the explosive increase of the Gentile Church resulting from Paul's ministry. It would also be around the time of the Jerusalem Council recorded in Acts 15 (see the footnote at Acts 15:19).

<sup>e</sup> Since trials tend to be unpleasant, we tend to try to cut them short, but if they are lessons that need to be learned, we need to endure until the lesson is fully learned. I believe Paul Billheimer (Don't Waste Your Sorrows) has given us a handle on a basic truth—the only way a human being can learn αγαπη love is through suffering. And the mainspring of God's Kingdom is αγαπη love, and God wants to prepare His servants for their responsibilities in the next world. So the lessons God wants us to learn come wrapped in unpleasant circumstances; but if we refuse a given lesson our spiritual growth stops. Further, sooner or later that lesson will return, and will keep on returning until we learn, or die (which is why Billheimer says, "don't waste your sorrows", because if we don't learn the first time we will have wasted that suffering). Notice verse 12 below.

<sup>f</sup> One of God's characteristics is that He gives, and evidently wisdom is something that He especially enjoys giving. What better time to ask for wisdom than when we are in the middle of a test?

<sup>g</sup> In verse 7 we have the generic term for man, but here the term refers to males.

<sup>h</sup> I assume that the reference is to his position in Christ, in spite of his low social standing.

<sup>i</sup> I take the point to be that he has already been humbled; otherwise he probably would not have trusted in Christ.

<sup>j</sup> Presumably this is true of a lowly person as well, but they are usually less arrogant, more aware of their vulnerability.

<sup>k</sup> Sovereign Jesus said that someone who trusts in riches cannot be saved (Mark 10:24); not infrequently God uses financial reverses to bring people to Himself.

About testings

<sup>19</sup>So then,<sup>i</sup> my beloved brothers, let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; <sup>20</sup>because a man’s anger does not achieve God’s righteousness.<sup>j</sup>

About obeying the Word

<sup>a</sup> So what happens if we squirm out from under the testing and are not approved?

<sup>d</sup> The same Greek word can mean ‘test’ or ‘tempt’ (to tempt = to test in a moral context), the translator’s choice being guided by the context. Here the context requires ‘tempt’. God ‘tests’, but does not ‘tempt’.

<sup>e</sup> Gifts coming from other sources may certainly strike us as pleasant and inviting, but will presumably have a negative effect upon our spiritual life.

<sup>f</sup> That is what the Text says, presumably referring to the sun, moon, etc. (shadows caused by those lights move and change).

<sup>g</sup> For someone to be born again (born from Above) he must be exposed to a word of truth. In John 14:6 Sovereign Jesus said, “I am the Truth”.

<sup>h</sup> Why “firstfruits”? Before the advent of refrigeration, food could be preserved by drying, smoking, salting, etc., but by the time of the next harvest, nothing would compare with a firstfruit, which would be something special. We are special!

<sup>i</sup> Instead of “so then”, some 4% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, read “know!” (as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> “A man’s anger”, not God’s anger. We can and should be angry as a reflection of God’s anger in the presence of evil and perversity.

<sup>k</sup> Evidently James is not laboring under any exaggerated notions of their saintliness—he refers to rather gross manifestations of the old nature.

<sup>l</sup> This sounds like a process—the Word has been implanted, but needs to be ‘received’ with meekness, and then must be practiced.

<sup>m</sup> I render “law”, instead of ‘word’, following some 30% of the Greek manuscripts including what is clearly the best line of transmission, in my opinion. Comparing verse 23 with 25, James is now talking about ‘law’, but copyists, having already written ‘word’ twice, in verses 21-22, could make the change (of ‘law’ to ‘word’) without thinking.

ues in it,<sup>a</sup> he—not being a forgetful hearer but a work doer—he will be blessed in what he does.<sup>b</sup>

About partiality

<sup>5</sup>Listen, my beloved brothers. Has not God chosen the poor of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that He has promised to those loving Him? <sup>6</sup>But you dishonored the poor one. Do not the rich oppress you and drag you into courts? <sup>7</sup>Do they not blaspheme the noble name that was called upon you? <sup>8</sup>If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture,<sup>j</sup> “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well; <sup>9</sup>but if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup>For whoever will keep the whole law, yet stumble in one point, has become guilty of all. <sup>11</sup>Because He who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>c</sup> This topic will be developed further in 3:1-12.

<sup>e</sup> James is writing to Jews, who tended to be quite religious, tithing being an important feature. But what is the point of tithing? You cannot send your money to heaven, and God does not need it anyway. I take it that the purpose of the tithe is to help the needy; produce would have to be distributed before it spoiled.

<sup>g</sup> James is accusing them of being partial. Can you think of a single local church where a rich person and a beggar receive equal treatment?

<sup>h</sup> That is what the Text says, “synagogue”. James is addressing Christian Jews, and their culture is very strong. For many generations they have called their meeting places ‘synagogues’, so why stop now? Since the place or building is in view here, to render ‘assembly’ is less clear.

<sup>i</sup> The verb ‘separate’ is in the passive voice, so some outside force has acted on them. The term ‘malignant’ is generally used of Satan and his works—something malignant is aggressively evil, it contaminates. Obviously their partiality did not come from God.

<sup>j</sup> We have access to the “royal law” through the Scriptures.

<sup>k</sup> It is more comfortable to regard the commands like beads on a string, but James says they are more like a pane of glass—if you break off a corner, the pane is broken.

<sup>l</sup> Even though inserted as an aside, this is a very serious bit of information! Since showing mercy is not one of my strong points...

Faith and works

<sup>14</sup>What is the advantage, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? That faith cannot save him, can it? <sup>15</sup>If a brother or sister is actually naked, and is destitute of the daily food, <sup>16</sup>and someone among you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” but you (pl) do not give them the things needed for the body, what is the benefit? <sup>17</sup>Thus also that faith, if it does not have works, is dead, being by itself. <sup>18</sup>(But someone will say: “You have faith and I have works; show me your faith by<sup>b</sup> your works<sup>c</sup> and I, by my works will show you my faith [what he believes].”<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>You believe that God is one.<sup>e</sup> You do well. The demons also believe—and shudder!) <sup>20</sup>But you need to know, you foolish fellow,<sup>f</sup> that faith without works is dead!<sup>g</sup>

Examples

<sup>21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup>You can see that faith was acting together with his works, and the faith was made complete by the works. <sup>23</sup>And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “So Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”<sup>h</sup> And he was called ‘friend of God’. <sup>24</sup>You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only. <sup>25</sup>Similarly, was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by a different way? <sup>26</sup>For just as the body without spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.<sup>i</sup>

Careful with your tongue

3 <sup>1</sup>My brothers, not many of you should become teachers, knowing that we<sup>j</sup> shall receive a stricter judgment. <sup>2</sup>Because we all stumble in many things. If

---

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘mercy’ in the nominative case, making it the subject of the verb (as in most versions), but some 80%, including the best line of transmission, have ‘mercy’ in the accusative case, making it the direct object (which to me makes much better sense). This accords with God’s description of Himself in Exodus 34:6-7—He keeps mercy to the 1000th generation, He punishes to the 4th; the proportion is 250:1.

<sup>b</sup> Instead of “by”, some 11% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘without’, as in most versions. The following word “your” is omitted by perhaps 8% (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> This delightful verse is generally misunderstood to this day. The translations that close the quote after the first ‘works’ do not make sense. The hypothetical objector has disclaimed faith, so for James to say, “Show me your faith”, does not follow. James clearly teaches salvation by faith, a faith that is alive (if you are alive, you do things). But an orthodox Jew believes in salvation by works, so here James (who had once been one) anticipates an objection from that quarter. The salvation-by-works person has a different faith.

<sup>g</sup> Instead of “dead”, less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘useless’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>h</sup> See Genesis 15:6. We like to quote Ephesians 2:8-9, but James is saying that we need to give equal time to verse 10. We are not saved by good works, but for good works. We do good works because we are saved, and if we don’t, we probably aren’t.

<sup>i</sup> I suppose the opposite is also true: a human spirit without a body is ‘dead’, as also are works without faith.

<sup>j</sup> James knew that he was included. We teachers will have to answer for what we teach, and especially if we have damaged others with our teaching.

anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, being able to bridle the whole body as well. <sup>3</sup>Consider, we put bits in horses' mouths for them to obey us, and we guide their whole body. <sup>4</sup>Consider also the ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the impulse of the pilot may desire. <sup>5</sup>So also the tongue is a small member and boasts great things.

Just look at how great a forest a little fire can kindle! <sup>6</sup>And the tongue is a fire! The organization of wickedness,<sup>a</sup> that is how the tongue is placed among our members, defiling the whole body and setting on fire the course of life, itself being set on fire by hell.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>Every kind of animal and bird, reptile and sea creature, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race, <sup>8</sup>but no one among men is able to tame the tongue—an uncontrollable<sup>c</sup> evil, full of deadly poison.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>With it we bless God<sup>e</sup> and Father,<sup>f</sup> and with it we curse the people who have been made in God's likeness. <sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth proceed blessings and curses. My brothers, these things should not be that way. <sup>11</sup>A spring does not send out sweet and bitter water from the same opening, does it? <sup>12</sup>Can a fig tree, my brothers, bear olives, or a grape vine figs? Thus no spring yields salt water and sweet.<sup>g</sup>

True wisdom

True contrasted with demonic

---

<sup>a</sup> Satan uses our tongues to organize wickedness, our own and that of others.

<sup>b</sup> James here follows the Lord's example in using 'Gehenna' as a metaphor for the Lake of Fire. Since none of us can literally go to the Lake of Fire and dip our tongue in it, this must be figurative—a case of metonymy. With what, or whom, is hell most closely associated? In Matthew 25:41 Sovereign Jesus affirms that the Lake was "prepared for the devil and his angels". Apparently the antichrist and the false prophet will be the first residents (Revelation 19:20), followed a thousand years later by Satan, presumably along with his angels (Revelation 20:10). The defiling, destructive activity of the tongue is the result of demonic participation.

<sup>d</sup> Notice the violence of the description of the tongue—"organization of wickedness", "defiles the whole body", "uncontrollable evil", "deadly poison"—it would be difficult to be more emphatic. Obviously James is describing something extraordinary. One of Satan's most effective ways of lousing up our lives is by causing us to say things that we should not, and that by ourselves we would not. By this means he turns our homes, our schools, our work places into places of contention instead of peace. "No one among men is able to tame the tongue"—an unaided human being is presumably incapable of escaping from demonic attack, but the Holy Spirit can indeed tame our tongue, if we let Him.

<sup>g</sup> In nature this does not happen—if it ever did it would mean that there were two veins of different water meeting just below the opening of the spring. James is affirming that our mouths produce words from two different sources—our own mind and demonic interference (since Satan is not omnipresent he works through his angels, the demons). (Perhaps 3.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, replace the last sentence with, 'nor can salty yield sweet water' [as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.] )

where envy and selfish ambition exist, there is unruliness and every foul practice.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>In contrast, the wisdom from Above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup>Now the fruit of righteousness is planted with peace by those making peace.<sup>c</sup>

Is not worldliness

4 <sup>1</sup>Where do the wars and disputes among you come from? Is it not precisely from your pleasures, the ones at war in your members? <sup>2</sup>You crave and do not have; you murder<sup>d</sup> and covet and are not able to obtain; you fight and war. You do not have because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup>You ask and do not receive because you ask wrongly, so that you may lavish it on your pleasures. <sup>4</sup>Adulterers and<sup>e</sup> adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? So whoever may want to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>Or do you suppose that the Scripture says in vain that the Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously?<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>But He gives greater grace; therefore He says:

“God resists proud ones, but gives grace to humble ones.”<sup>h</sup>

Is submitting to God

<sup>7</sup>Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil<sup>i</sup> and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.<sup>j</sup> Sinners, cleanse your hands! Double-minded, purify your hearts!<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into dejection.<sup>l</sup> <sup>10</sup>Humble yourself before the Lord and He will exalt you.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup> James is forthright about demonic interference in our minds. The prevailing ignorance on this subject in Christian circles is a calamity with terrible consequences—it condemns most Christians to a life of defeat.

<sup>b</sup> Self-centeredness is the essence of sin; the more we give in to it the dirtier becomes our practice, the lower we are prepared to go to achieve what we want, or think we want.

<sup>c</sup> “Those making peace” are planters; they create an ambient of peace within which to plant. Is the “fruit” righteousness, or does righteousness produce it?

<sup>d</sup> Remember 1 John 3:15, “Whoever hates his brother is a murderer.” The fighting and warring is not done with guns or knives, but is real none the less. Our churches are full of people who have been wounded by other Christians.

<sup>e</sup> Some 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit ‘adulterers and’ (as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.). (This is an easy case of ‘like-beginning’)

<sup>f</sup> This is all exceedingly serious—if you make God your enemy, what are your chances? 1 John 2:15-17 is to the same effect. To love the things of the world (especially its values) is to adulterate against God.

<sup>g</sup> This appears to be the only reference to the Holy Spirit in the letter. We do not have an exact match with any OT verse, but there are various references to God being jealous of His people.

<sup>i</sup> This is a command, not an optional point. “Submit to God” is also a command, and comes first. To resist Satan in our own strength is to be defeated. To wield God’s power against the enemy we must be in submission to God. I take it that the main way to resist is with words—commanding Satan to stop doing some particular thing; we must be specific.

<sup>j</sup> Note that we have to take the first step, although apart from God’s grace few of us will.

<sup>k</sup> Notice that these are commands, which means that they are things that we can and must do. We have the Holy Spirit to help us, but we must take the initiative.

<sup>l</sup> Dear me, we are not used to exhortations like this! I would rather hear, “Rejoice in the Lord always...” So what does James want? Well, all along his letter has been an exercise in ‘tough love’; we have seen “filthiness and overflow of evil”, “malignant thoughts”, “foolish fellow”, “uncontrollable evil, full of deadly poison”, “bitter envy and selfish ambition”, “unruliness and every foul practice”, “adulterers and

Does not judge the different brother

<sup>11</sup>Brothers, do not speak evil of one another. Because the one speaking against a brother and judging his brother speaks against a law and judges a law. So if you judge a law you are not a law-doer but a judge. <sup>12</sup>The Lawgiver and Judge<sup>b</sup> is One, the one who is able to save and to destroy.<sup>c</sup> So who are you (sg) to be judging someone who is different?<sup>d</sup>

Does not boast about tomorrow

<sup>13</sup>Come now, you who say, “Today and tomorrow let us travel to that certain city, spend a year there, do business and make a profit;” <sup>14</sup>whereas you do not know anything about the morrow. For what is our life?<sup>e</sup> It is even a vapor that appears for a little time but then vanishes away. <sup>15</sup>Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup>But now you boast in your arrogant pretensions. All such boasting is malignant.<sup>f</sup> <sup>17</sup>Therefore, to the one knowing to do good and not doing it, to him it is sin.<sup>g</sup>

The coming of the Lord

Rich oppressors will be judged

5 <sup>1</sup>Come now, you rich, howl as you weep over your distresses that are coming upon you! <sup>2</sup>Your wealth has decayed and your clothes have become moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver are corroded,<sup>h</sup> and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire—you stored it up for the last days.<sup>i</sup> <sup>4</sup>Look, the wages of the workers who cut your fields, that were unjustly held back by you, cry out, and the loud cries of the reapers have entered the ears of the Lord of Hosts. <sup>5</sup>You have lived on the earth in self-indulgence and luxury, you fattened adulteresses”, “enemy of God”—all in all, not a pretty picture. I take it that James is saying that there is no room for spiritual pride or self-contentedness, or a conquering hero complex; if we really want to walk with God we need to fall on our faces before Him, put our mouth in the dust—in short, try to see our sin as He sees it.

<sup>a</sup> If we exalt ourselves, God knocks us down; if we humble ourselves, He lifts us up—I imagine that just how far up He lifts us depends on a variety of factors.

<sup>b</sup> Some 62% of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, read “Lawgiver and Judge”. The Textus Receptus (and all published ‘Majority Texts’) follows the 38% in omitting “and Judge” (as in AV, NKJV, etc.).

<sup>d</sup> I was surprised to find the Greek ετερος here, which usually refers to a different kind. I personally do not enjoy dealing with ‘brothers’ who are too different; I would rather question whether they are really ‘brothers’ at all! But James tells me not to do that. Each person is different (background, experiences, personality, training) and we must recognize that God can and will deal differently with different people. He uses one ‘law’ with me, another ‘law’ with you, and so on. A law is a set of rules or demands, so when I judge a brother I am questioning the way (‘law’) that God is working on him. As He is both Lawgiver and Judge, I will have to answer to Him for how I judged my ‘brothers’. (For ‘different one’ the eclectic text currently in vogue has ‘neighbor’, following some 12% of the Greek manuscripts [as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.] )

<sup>h</sup> For some reason they just hoarded their wealth; they did not invest it, did not put it to work. They are doubly at fault—they acquired the wealth unjustly, and then just sat on it.

<sup>i</sup> They probably thought they were hoarding it for a future ‘rainy day’, but they were actually hoarding it against themselves at the Day of Judgment.

your hearts as in a day of slaughter.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>You condemned, you murdered the righteous—without his offering you resistance.<sup>b</sup>

Patience and perseverance

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, brothers, be patient until the coming of the Lord. Consider, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it until it receives the early and late rain. <sup>8</sup>You also be patient. Keep your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord has approached. <sup>9</sup>Do not groan against one another, brothers, lest you be judged. Look, the Judge is standing at your doors! <sup>10</sup>Brothers, take as an example the patient bearing of hardship and the steadfastness of the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>Indeed we count as blessed those who endure—you have heard of the perseverance of Job and have seen the final outcome given by the Lord, that He is very compassionate and merciful.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or any other oath. Let your “Yes” be “Yes”, and your “No”, “No”, lest you fall into pretense.<sup>e</sup>

Righteous prayer is powerful

<sup>13</sup>Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. <sup>14</sup>Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the congregation, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And the prayer of faith will deliver the one who is sick,<sup>f</sup> and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.<sup>g</sup> <sup>16</sup>Confess transgressions to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed.<sup>h</sup> The prayer of a righteous one, being operative, is very powerful.<sup>i</sup> <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly for it not to rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

Help the wanderer

<sup>19</sup>Brothers, if anyone among you should wander away from the truth, and someone should turn him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that the one who turns a sinner

<sup>a</sup> Back in the old days, when an animal was slaughtered you got to eat more than usual; things like liver, heart, tongue could not be preserved, so had to be eaten up.

<sup>b</sup> The tense of the verb changes from past to present, which I found difficult to translate. Might this be giving the rationale of the murderer, ‘might makes right’; someone who offers no resistance is like a sheep asking to be shorn? Or was James adding to their perversity?

<sup>c</sup> According to the Record, the O.T. prophets generally did not have an easy time of it.

<sup>d</sup> See Job 42:10-13. God gave him double what he had lost.

<sup>e</sup> Some 5% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘judgment’ instead of ‘pretense’ (as in NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc.). The more we talk, the more likely we are to say things that are not precisely true. See Matthew 5:37.

<sup>f</sup> The implication is that the person is really sick, confined to a bed (that is why the elders have to go to him). Note that it is the faith of the elders.

<sup>g</sup> The clear implication is that some sickness is the result of sin, but not all: “and if”.

<sup>h</sup> In my own experience, praying by myself for my own healing does not always work. When I ask others to pray for me, the Lord usually answers. God likes to promote ‘mutuality’ or interdependence.

<sup>i</sup> Just because we ourselves do not see, or are not allowed to see, an immediate result to our praying, does not mean that God is not answering. ‘The just shall live by faith’, and that includes praying.

JAMES 5

back from the error of his way will deliver a soul from death<sup>a</sup> and will cover a multitude of sins.<sup>b</sup>

---

<sup>b</sup> How can sins be covered? Only with the blood of the Lamb. The wanderer needs to be restored before he abandons the Faith completely.

The First Epistle of

PETER

To elect pilgrims

1 <sup>1</sup>Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect sojourners<sup>a</sup> of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the setting apart of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling with the blood of Jesus Christ:<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>May grace and peace be multiplied<sup>c</sup> to you.

Do not take your inheritance for granted

Begotten into an incorruptible inheritance

<sup>6</sup>You should be overjoyed about this, even if just now, briefly, of necessity,<sup>l</sup> you have been distressed by a variety of trials, <sup>7</sup>so that the demonstrated genuineness of your faith (much more precious than gold that perishes, albeit tested through fire) may translate into<sup>m</sup> praise, glory and honor<sup>a</sup> at the revelation of Je-

<sup>a</sup> One could render ‘resident aliens’ or perhaps even ‘refugees’—these are presumably Christians who had left their homelands because of persecution (but since Paul was apostle to the Gentiles, Peter may be writing to Jews, as did James); Peter will emphasize the security of their position in heaven, in contrast to the uncertainty of their situation on earth. For a discussion of the implications of Peter addressing this letter to five provinces, please see the article “Multiple Autograph Copies”, available from my website: www.prunch.org, or in the fourth edition of God Has Preserved His Text! (pages 16-19).

<sup>b</sup> Peter is evidently making a point of including all three persons of the Godhead in the process of our salvation: the Father chooses, the Spirit sets apart (He works in our minds to encourage or predispose us to obey) and the Son paid the price for our cleansing. God has done His part, but each of us must obey.

<sup>g</sup> The Text neither says nor implies that God begot them the first time (that was done by their physical father); He is giving them a second begetting, a spiritual one.

<sup>h</sup> If Jesus had not arisen we would have no hope, but now we have a “living” hope, that will not let us down.

<sup>i</sup> Like, wow! Now that is an inheritance! And it is already reserved. Before talking about the difficulties they are facing Peter emphasizes the incredible blessing of a secure position.

<sup>j</sup> Time and again Peter will present both divine sovereignty and human responsibility; God guarantees His part, we must do our part.

I PETER 1

sus Christ <sup>8</sup>—whom not having understood<sup>b</sup> you love, into whom believing (not yet seeing) you exult with joy inexpressible, already glorified,<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>obtaining for yourselves the end result of your faith,<sup>d</sup> the salvation of your souls.

Salvation foretold by prophets

Be serious, be holy, be fearful

<sup>a</sup> These are things that the faithful person will receive. To hear “Well done, good and faithful servant” from the lips of the Sovereign will be the ultimate praise.

<sup>b</sup> The familiar ‘seen’ is based on about 7% of the Greek manuscripts (early, but of objectively inferior quality); to render ‘known’ rather than “understood” would require qualification.

<sup>e</sup> “This salvation” presumably includes the basis and the process, as well as the result; evidently quite different from the ‘salvation’ the prophets themselves knew.

<sup>f</sup> The Spirit of Christ was at work in the Old Testament. Is this a reference to the Holy Spirit, or did Jehovah the Son also do some inspiring?

<sup>g</sup> Evidently Peter had access to information that we do not. However, when a prophet spoke or wrote under inspiration, he would not necessarily receive an explanation of the interpretation. Anything pertaining to the Messiah would be of intense interest, and they would certainly keep mulling over the implications—assuming a single advent, it would be hard to reconcile glory and suffering.

<sup>i</sup> The familiar ‘to us’ (TR, AV, NKJV) is based on about 14% of the Greek manuscripts, and is more congenial than “to you”; I take it that having already narrowed the focus to his addressees, Peter just keeps on going.

<sup>j</sup> The more usual rendering is ‘by’, but I do not think it fits the context. The Holy Spirit went along with the Gospel.

<sup>k</sup> That is what the Text says, but I am not sure what it means. I assume that angels can read, so are they not allowed to? Or is it that they cannot really understand why the Sovereign would do something like that? Do angels have ‘soul’—emotions, ambitions, etc.? I wonder.

<sup>l</sup> This is obviously a figure of speech, but I wasn’t sure how else to render it; in order to work, fight, run, or whatever, they would tie in their loose garments with a rope or a belt—the idea appears to be to prepare the mind for action, which would involve discipline and determination.

<sup>m</sup> I take this phrase to be basically synonymous to the figure of speech; staying sober involves being disciplined and determined.

<sup>n</sup> In verse 7 I rendered the same Greek phrase as ‘at the revelation of Jesus Christ’, referring to His second coming, but here in verse 13 “being brought” is in the present tense, so I take the revelation to be contemporaneous. The more we obey, the more Jesus reveals Himself to us.

<sup>o</sup> Peter, a Jew, uses a Jewish idiom—he is not saying they are children, but are to be characterized by obedience.

as in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but just as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your way of life, <sup>16</sup>because it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Also, since you invoke as Father<sup>b</sup> the One who without partiality judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves during the time of your sojourn here in fear,<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>knowing that it was not with perishable things (silver or gold) that you were redeemed from the futile way of life handed down by your forefathers,<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a faultless and pure lamb; <sup>20</sup>who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world,<sup>e</sup> but was revealed in these last times for your sake, <sup>21</sup>who through Him are believing into God,<sup>f</sup> who raised Him out from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are into God.

Born again through an eternal Word

<sup>22</sup>Since you have purified your souls by obeying the truth through the Spirit,<sup>g</sup> resulting in sincere brotherly love, you must love one another fervently from a pure heart, <sup>23</sup>having been begotten again, not from a corruptible seed but an incorruptible,<sup>h</sup> through the living Word of God that remains valid forever.<sup>i</sup> <sup>24</sup>For:

“All flesh is as grass, and all man’s glory as flower of grass.
The grass withers and its flower falls off, but the Lord’s word endures forever.”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Now this is the good word that was proclaimed to you.<sup>k</sup>

To grow you must eat

2 <sup>1</sup>So then, laying aside all malignity<sup>a</sup>—even all deceit and play-actings and envies, yes all malicious speaking—<sup>2</sup>crave the pure spiritual ‘milk’,<sup>b</sup> like new-

<sup>a</sup> Since God is holy all the time, we are to be also. The quote is from Leviticus 11:45 or 19:2.

<sup>b</sup> To “invoke as Father” is to place yourself under His authority and protection—also His evaluation!

<sup>c</sup> “In fear” is emphasized in the Text. We tend to forget just who and what God is, and so we get complacent—not a good idea, says Peter.

<sup>d</sup> All ways of life that are not biblical are futile. We should not be apologetic about challenging people’s belief systems or presuppositions, provided we are in a position to present the biblical worldview.

<sup>e</sup> This sort of ‘blows my mind’—the Text is saying that the Lamb, with blood shed, was so known before the creation of our race and planet; which means that the Creator knew, before creating, what would happen and the terrible redemption price He Himself would have to pay, yet He went ahead anyway. Wow!

<sup>f</sup> “Into” not ‘in’, both here and at the end of the verse; what is involved is a change of position, from being outside to being inside.

<sup>g</sup> Some 8% of the Greek manuscripts omit “through the Spirit” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>h</sup> The seed that Adam received when he was created proved to be corruptible, in fact became corrupted upon his Fall, and that corrupted seed has been passed down through the succeeding generations [less than 300]; so our first begetting, by a human father, was with that corrupt seed. God gives us a second begetting with a pure seed that cannot be corrupted.

<sup>i</sup> As it says in Psalm 119:89, “Forever, O LORD, your word is settled in heaven.” Some 6% of the Greek manuscripts omit “forever” (as in NIV, NASB, etc.).

<sup>k</sup> Wait a minute—was the “good word” they proclaimed limited to the Old Testament? I would say it was mostly about Jesus, the content of the Gospels. So Peter is saying that New Testament material is also God’s Word. By the time he wrote this letter, Matthew and Mark were already in circulation, and maybe even Luke. (Luke was ‘published’ in 45 AD.)

I PETER 2

born babies do, so that by it you may grow into salvation,<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is benevolent. <sup>4</sup>Coming to Him, a living stone—rejected indeed by men but chosen by God, precious—<sup>5</sup>you also, as living stones, are being built<sup>d</sup> into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.<sup>e</sup>

The Chief Cornerstone

<sup>6</sup>That is why the Scripture contains:

“Attention, I am laying in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, precious,
and the one who rests his trust upon Him will absolutely not be humiliated.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>7</sup>So then, this recompense is for you who believe, but to those who disobey,<sup>g</sup> “the stone that the builders rejected is just the one that became the chief cornerstone,”<sup>h</sup> <sup>8</sup>also “a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense”;<sup>i</sup> being disobedient to the Word, they stumble, to which, indeed, they were appointed.<sup>j</sup>

A royal priesthood

<sup>9</sup>But you are a chosen family, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a private-property people, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who called you

---

<sup>a</sup> This refers to the deliberate effort to harm others. If they must ‘lay aside’ such attitudes and activities, the implication is that they have not yet, or at least not sufficiently—actually, if they are still involved in such activities they have quite a ways to go.

<sup>b</sup> Since Peter has just referred overtly to God’s Word, it is generally assumed that the “milk” here is a metaphor for that Word. Peter is not saying that they are babies, just that they should imitate the craving.

<sup>c</sup> Until quite recently, based upon von Soden’s apparent ascribing of some 80% attestation to the shorter reading (80% of the extant Greek manuscripts), I was rather critical of the longer form; I argued that Peter was writing to the “elect” [1:2], to the “redeemed” [1:18], to the “born again” [1:23], to a “holy priesthood” [2:5], to “believers” [2:7], to “slaves of God” [2:16]—they did indeed need to grow, but not “into salvation”. However, the evidence as presented by ECM [Editio Critica Maior] looks quite different—some 65% for the longer reading, including the best line of transmission, and joined by all three ancient versions, a not insignificant witness. Time and again Peter presents both divine sovereignty and human responsibility; God guarantees His part, we must do our part. According to 1:5 above the full manifestation [at least] of our salvation is still future. Here in 2:3 the immediately following “if indeed” would appear to allow for some uncertainty as to their spiritual condition; Peter is emphasizing their responsibility.

<sup>e</sup> Much of the preaching nowadays focuses on what we are supposed to get, rather than what we are supposed to do. We need to talk more about what God is supposed to get—‘spiritual sacrifices’. Don’t sacrifices cost?

<sup>f</sup> The quote is from Isaiah 28:16. I suppose that the not being humiliated refers to the final Accounting.

<sup>g</sup> Instead of “disobey”, perhaps 8% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘disbelieve’ (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>i</sup> The quote is from Isaiah 8:14. One is reminded of the Sovereign’s words in Matthew 21:44. “Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but upon whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.”

<sup>j</sup> Were they ‘appointed’ to stumble, a direct and necessary consequence of being disobedient to the Word, or were they ‘appointed’ to be disobedient? If the latter, this would become one of a very few passages that overtly point to ‘double predestination’ or preterition (that the lost are predestined to be lost). The answer hinges on the grammar, the antecedent of the pronoun ‘which’—is it the finite verb ‘stumble’ or the participle ‘disobey’? Being higher in rank, the finite form presumably takes precedence. Also, since there are hundreds of passages that clearly teach human responsibility, I take the former option to be the preferred interpretation.

out of darkness into His marvelous light; <sup>10</sup>who formerly were not a people but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.<sup>a</sup>

Your practice should be consistent with your standing

<sup>11</sup>Dear ones, I urge you to abstain from the lusts of the flesh, that war against the soul,<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>keeping your way of life among the nations praiseworthy (you being foreigners and sojourners), so that wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, in spite of the praiseworthy deeds they have observed,<sup>c</sup> they may glorify God in the day of visitation.<sup>d</sup>

Respect civil authority

<sup>13</sup>Therefore subordinate yourselves to every human institution because of the Lord, whether to a king, as being in authority, <sup>14</sup>or to governors, as being sent by him, both for punishment of evildoers and for praise of good-doers.<sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup>Because such is the will of God, to silence the ignorance of foolish people by doing good: <sup>16</sup>as free (not using the freedom as a cover for evil), yet as slaves of God. <sup>17</sup>Respect everyone;<sup>f</sup> love the brotherhood; fear God; honor the king.

A word for servants

<sup>18</sup>Household servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unscrupulous.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God someone endures grief, suffering unjustly. <sup>20</sup>For what credit is it if upon sinning and being beaten you endure patiently? But if upon doing good and suffering you endure patiently, this is commendable before God.

Christ gave the example

<sup>21</sup>You have really been called to this, because Christ also suffered in our behalf, leaving you<sup>h</sup> an example that you should follow in His footsteps: <sup>22</sup>who did

---

<sup>a</sup> Peter alludes to a number of OT passages, including Hosea 2:23. Presumably it is in this world, this life, that we are to proclaim God's excellencies—which raises the question: how much time do we spend doing that?

<sup>b</sup> When we indulge the flesh our soul is adversely affected; to 'indulge' is more than normal, necessary use.

<sup>d</sup> What "day of visitation" might this be? Is it a personal visitation wherein God touches a critic, wakes him up and he glorifies God; or is it the Day of judgment where 'every knee will bow and every tongue confess', only it will be too late to do them any good? In either event, we are to live in such a way that we do not furnish any pretext to those who are looking for ways to 'justify' their unbelief.

<sup>e</sup> But what happens if the 'government' does just the opposite, persecutes those who fear God and protects the corrupt? We have spiritual 'weapons' (authority) that we should learn how to use, but the time may come when we must say with Peter, "We ought to obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29), and take the consequences.

<sup>f</sup> Since every human being carries the 'image of God', that image should be respected (even when it is scarcely recognizable).

<sup>g</sup> Slavery was a normal aspect of the culture at that time. Note that belonging to Christ did not automatically change one's social situation; and it did not change a bad boss. However, we can use our spiritual authority to 'improve' a bad boss.

<sup>h</sup> 15% of the Greek manuscripts have "our" and "us" (1st person pl., as in TR, AV and NKJV) while a different 15% have "your" and "you" (2nd person pl., as in the eclectic text currently in vogue and most modern versions)—I take it that the 85% readings are correct ("our" and "you"); in addressing his readers Peter uses the expected 2nd person, but referring to the scope of the benefits of Christ's suffering he properly uses the inclusive 1st person.

I PETER 3

not commit sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth; <sup>23</sup>who being reviled did not revile in return, suffering did not threaten but committed it to Him who judges righteously; <sup>24</sup>who Himself bore our sins in His own body<sup>a</sup> on the tree, so that we, having died to those sins,<sup>b</sup> might live for the<sup>c</sup> righteousness; by whose wound<sup>d</sup> you were healed. <sup>25</sup>Yes, you were like straying sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of our<sup>e</sup> souls.

A word to wives

3 <sup>1</sup>Similarly,<sup>f</sup> wives, be submissive to your own husbands, so that even if some are disobedient to the Word, they may be won over, without a word, by the conduct of their wives <sup>2</sup>(having watched your pure behavior accompanied by respect), <sup>3</sup>whose adorning should not be the outward one of braiding hair and wearing gold, or putting on fine clothing,<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>but rather the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible adorning of the gentle and quiet spirit that is of great value before God. <sup>5</sup>For this is how the holy women who hoped in God in former times also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, <sup>6</sup>as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him ‘lord’, whose (f) daughters you became<sup>h</sup> by doing good and not being afraid of any intimidation.<sup>i</sup>

A word to husbands

<sup>7</sup>Similarly,<sup>j</sup> husbands, live together knowledgeably as with a weaker vessel,<sup>k</sup> according honor to the wife especially as being a joint heir of the grace of life,<sup>a</sup> for your prayers not to be hindered.<sup>b</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> This refers to the human body of Jesus that was nailed to the cross. Without a body there is no blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sins.

<sup>b</sup> Since the Lord died for our sins, we should die to them (separate ourselves from them).

<sup>c</sup> The Text has the definite article; the point being, I suppose, that there is only one true righteousness, God’s.

<sup>d</sup> “Wound” is singular in the Text; of course the familiar ‘stripes’ sounds better, but do you really suppose that the marks left by the individual blows produce our healing? It was THE WOUND, when the Father placed on the Son the sins of the world (including yours and mine). In verses 22-25 Peter obviously has Isaiah 53:4-12 in mind, though he creates his own mosaic.

<sup>e</sup> The evidence is split between “our” and “your”; both make good sense, but I take it that the best line of transmission reads “our”, inclusive.

<sup>f</sup> This is parallel to 2:18 above, and both are examples of “the will of God”, 2:15.

<sup>h</sup> A woman becomes a ‘daughter of Abraham’ by faith in God; she becomes a ‘daughter of Sarah’ by doing good.

<sup>i</sup> An incorruptible character does not surrender to intimidation. Since there has never been a lack of evil people in the world, to keep on being and doing good one must stand up to intimidation.

<sup>k</sup> Oh dear me, definitely not politically correct in this year of our Lord! But then, when did the Sovereign Lord ever worry about being ‘politically correct’, especially in a culture heavily influenced by Satan? And when did the Sovereign’s true servants ever worry about being ‘politically correct’ in such a culture? Remember James 4:4—“Adulterers and adulteresses! [so 98% of the Greek manuscripts]. Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? So whoever may want to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.” 1 John 2:15-17 is to the same effect. To love the things of the world (especially its values) is to adulterate against God: “the love of the Father is not in him”. As Joshua said so long ago, “Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve” (Joshua 24:15). In Genesis 3:16 the Creator said to the woman, “your desire shall be for your husband”—a woman’s emotional health and sense of security are heavily influenced by her husband’s attitudes, more so than vice versa.

The golden rule

<sup>8</sup>Finally, all of you be likeminded, compassionate, loving as brothers,<sup>c</sup> tenderhearted, courteous,<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but instead blessing, knowing that you were called to this so that you may inherit a blessing. <sup>10</sup>For:

“The one who wants to love life and to see good days must refrain his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit;
<sup>11</sup>he must turn away from evil and do good;
he must seek peace, even pursue it.
<sup>12</sup>Because the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears open to their prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those doing evil.”<sup>e</sup>

Better to suffer than to sin

<sup>13</sup>Now who is he who will harm you if you become imitators of the good?<sup>f</sup>
<sup>14</sup>But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. “Do not fear what they fear, neither be troubled.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>15</sup>Rather, sanctify the Lord God<sup>h</sup> in your hearts, and always be ready with an answer for everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with meekness<sup>i</sup> and respect; <sup>16</sup>keeping a good conscience, so that wherein they speak against you as evildoers,<sup>j</sup> those who revile your good way of life in Christ may be put to shame.<sup>k</sup> <sup>17</sup>For it is better to suffer for doing good, should the will of God so determine, than for doing evil.

- <sup>a</sup> “The grace of life”—I love it. I take this to be the bottom line in marriage, husband and wife are joint heirs of the grace of life. Without males the race dies out; without females the race dies out; so both sexes are 100% necessary, so they are equally important. But for people to live together harmoniously there has to be organization, a chain of command, an authority structure.
- <sup>b</sup> Oops, there is more involved than meets the eye. “Your” is plural—it could be referring to the husbands, but could also be referring to a husband and his wife, which seems to me more likely. Praying together is an important activity for any Christian couple, but if their relationship is strained such praying becomes awkward, in fact probably won’t even happen.
- <sup>c</sup> This list of attitudes refers primarily to relationships within the Christian community.
- <sup>d</sup> Instead of “courteous”, some 22% of the Greek manuscripts, have ‘humble’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).
- <sup>e</sup> The quote is from Psalm 34:12-16. Based on this Psalm, the blessing to be inherited is in this life. Without peace life is not ‘good’.
- <sup>f</sup> “The good” is ambiguous as to gender; it could be a good person or a good thing, or a generic good.
- <sup>g</sup> The quote is from Isaiah 8:12. In that context there is a contrast between Jehovah as the ‘fear’ of Israel and whatever god the others fear. Whatever ‘fear’ motivates those who persecute you for doing good, do not let it shake your devotion to the true God.
- <sup>h</sup> Instead of “God”, perhaps 6% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘Christ’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).
- <sup>i</sup> ‘Meek’ is not ‘weak’—it is power that is restrained, under control. Since the worldview of the Bible is far superior to all others, someone who really understands the issues can smash the opposition, but Peter says not to do that; by handling the questioners gently we have a better chance of converting them. In verse 18 below he will make the point that in this we will be following Christ’s example. But remember what Jesus Himself said about ‘dogs’ and ‘pigs’ in Matthew 7:6.
- <sup>j</sup> This clause is a repeat of 2:12.
- <sup>k</sup> Often such people are put to shame in this life, but if not, they certainly will be at the Judgment.

Christ's example

<sup>18</sup>Because Christ also suffered on account of sins, once for all,<sup>a</sup> the righteous on behalf of the unrighteous, that He might bring us to God; having been put to death, to be sure, in flesh, but having been made alive in spirit; <sup>19</sup>in which He also went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>who formerly were disobedient, when the patience of God kept waiting in the days of Noah, while the Ark was being prepared,<sup>c</sup> in which a few, that is eight, souls were brought safely through water. <sup>21</sup>Its antitype now saves us also,<sup>d</sup> a baptism through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.<sup>e</sup> (It is not the removal of physical filth, but the appeal into God from a good conscience.)

Some concluding instructionsPursue the will of God*

4 <sup>1</sup>Therefore, since Christ suffered on our behalf<sup>f</sup> in flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mentality (for the one who has 'suffered in flesh' has been made to cease from sin)<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>so as not to live your remaining time in flesh for human lusts any longer, but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup>Because the time that has passed is plenty for you<sup>h</sup> to have performed the will of the pagans—having walked in lewd-

<sup>b</sup> What spirits are these? Peter gives a little more detail in his second letter, 2:4-6. "For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction..." So the spirits in question are angels. Jude 6-7 refers to those same angels: "and the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these [angels], having given themselves over to fornication and gone after a different kind of flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." Recall that the men of Sodom wanted to rape the angels who were in Lot's house; whatever kind of flesh angels have when they materialize, it is not human flesh, it is precisely a different kind of flesh. So the angels in question are the ones who cohabited with women, producing the mongrel race of nephilim (Genesis 6:2-4). Their crime was so terrible that God incarcerated them even before Jehovah the Son became flesh and defeated Satan—they were put in cold (or hot) storage until human history played itself out. So the "proclamation" that Jesus went to make to those spirits was that he had won and that their condemnation was now irreversible.

<sup>d</sup> Just as Noah's Ark saved from destruction by water, being baptized by Jesus saves from destruction by Satan and his subordinates. I take it that "appeal into God from a good conscience" is virtually a synonym for 'believe into Jesus', which is the prerequisite for Jesus to baptize us with the Holy spirit.

<sup>e</sup> I believe that this truth is directly relevant to Ephesians 2:6 (see the footnote there). In Christ we have authority over the hierarchy of fallen angels. [I am still working on how we may interact with the good ones.]

<sup>f</sup> Some 4.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "on our behalf" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>g</sup> 3:18 above says Christ was "put to death in flesh", as the culmination of His suffering, and I take that to be the point of reference here. I take 'suffer in flesh' to be a euphemism for death, and when one dies he stops sinning [I suppose]. All during His earthly life Jesus knew He was going to die on account of sins and was totally committed to doing the Father's will. With the same mentality we too will be committed to doing God's will, and so will avoid sin. "Reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:11). Verse two here agrees that this is not automatic—we must determine not to indulge the flesh.

<sup>h</sup> The Greek manuscripts are about evenly divided between "you" and 'us', but the best line of transmission has "you", which jives with verse 4.

ness,<sup>a</sup> lusts, drunkenness, revelries, carousings and disgusting idolatries—<sup>4</sup>in regard to which they are disagreeably surprised at your not running with them into the same flood of debauchery, reviling you;<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>they will give an account to Him who is ready to judge living and dead <sup>6</sup>(which is precisely why dead ones were once evangelized, that they should be judged as men in flesh, to be sure, but that they should live according to God in spirit).<sup>c</sup>

Suffering in the will of God

<sup>12</sup>Dear ones, do not be surprised at the fiery trial that has come upon you as a test, as though something strange was happening to you, <sup>13</sup>but to the extent that you share in Christ's sufferings, rejoice, so that at the revelation of His glory you also may rejoice a great deal more.<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of the glory and of God has come to rest upon you. On their part He is blasphemed,<sup>i</sup> but on your part He is glorified.<sup>j</sup> <sup>15</sup>Now do not any of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a meddler in others' affairs; <sup>16</sup>but if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter.<sup>k</sup> <sup>17</sup>Because the time has come for

<sup>a</sup> All the nouns in this list are actually plural, emphasizing that their life was characterized by these things. The main ingredients would be alcohol and sex.

<sup>b</sup> Is that not precisely the way that people in the world react, when someone breaks out of their circle? They feel condemned, but do not want to admit that they are wrong. Or they know that they are wrong, but do not want to change.

<sup>c</sup> This delightful verse has given commentators no end of exercise. Verse 5 ends with "judge living and dead", but anyone who is dead was once alive, obviously, and the judgment will be based on what they did while alive, which is why everyone needs to be evangelized while in this life (including the people who are making fun of us). There is no definite article with "dead", either in verse 5 or 6, so Peter is referring to the ones who were evangelized in this life—he is not saying that everyone has been or will be evangelized. Everyone will be judged, but to "live according to God in spirit" one must respond adequately to the Gospel.

<sup>f</sup> Have you never heard anyone grumble? Recall that to be hospitable is commanded.

<sup>h</sup> Presumably the reference is to our rewards; the more we share in Christ's sufferings, the more we get.

<sup>i</sup> If someone insults us because of the results of the Holy Spirit's working in our lives, they are blaspheming Him; but we should glorify God for the privilege of belonging to Him, both now and for eternity.

<sup>j</sup> Perhaps 17% of the Greek manuscripts omit this whole sentence (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

judgment to begin at God's house;<sup>a</sup> now if it starts with us, what will be the end of those who keep disobeying the Gospel of God? <sup>18</sup>Also, 'If the righteous one is saved with difficulty, where will the godless and sinful person appear?'<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>And so let those who suffer according to the will of God entrust their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.<sup>c</sup>

How to be a shepherd

5 <sup>1</sup>The elders who are among you I exhort, I, the fellow elder and witness of Christ's sufferings; also the partaker of the glory that is to be revealed:<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers willingly,<sup>e</sup> not under compulsion; not for dishonest gain but freely; <sup>3</sup>neither as lording it over those entrusted to you,<sup>f</sup> but being examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup>And when the Chief Shepherd is revealed you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

Humility is a must

<sup>5</sup>Similarly, you younger ones, submit to elders. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, submitting to one another, because 'God resists proud ones, but gives grace to humble ones.'<sup>g</sup> <sup>6</sup>Therefore, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time; <sup>7</sup>casting all your care upon Him, because He does the caring for you.<sup>h</sup>

Guard against the devil

---

<sup>a</sup> Dear me, does this mean that the more I call down judgment on the forces of evil at work in the society at large, the more God judges the church? If that is the price to be paid for doing our job (1 John 3:8), so be it.

<sup>b</sup> See Proverbs 11:31 in LXX (Septuagint), which is quite different from the Hebrew Text. However, Peter does not claim to be quoting Scripture here, but used a statement that is true and served his purpose. "Saved with difficulty" does not sound automatic.

<sup>c</sup> The bottom line when we are suffering is whether or not we are going to trust God's concern for us.

<sup>d</sup> I take it that Peter is referring to his having been on the mount of transfiguration; only James and John could say as much, and presumably they were not among the addressees (James had already been martyred). Peter uses the definite article with "fellow elder" and "partaker", from which I conclude that he is claiming a position of special authority.

<sup>g</sup> See Proverbs 3:34 in LXX, that modifies the Hebrew Text, but again, Peter does not claim to be quoting Scripture.

<sup>h</sup> My rendering follows the best line of transmission; God is offering to handle our concerns for us, so we do not have to—now that is a real deal (but it only works if we hand them over).

<sup>i</sup> He is not ambling aimlessly; he is circling the prey, looking for an opening. I follow the best line of transmission, albeit with only 24% of the Greek manuscripts here.

<sup>j</sup> What does this last clause have to do with withstanding Satan? Well, when we are suffering it is easy to question God's goodness, to think that we are being picked on, to feel sorry for ourselves, and so on—our faith starts to waver and Satan has all sorts of fun. 'Devour' means to gobble up (or gobble down); for a while I lived among a people in the Amazon jungle who used to practice cannibalism—I was assured that human flesh is sweet; now really, would any self-respecting 'lion' turn up his nose at such a treat? But this particular 'lion' is especially fond of devouring Christians.

Benediction

<sup>10</sup>Now may the God of all grace, who called you into His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, Himself perfect, establish, strengthen and ground you—after you have suffered a while.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Sign-off

Peace be to you, all who are in Christ Jesus.<sup>f</sup> Amen.

---

<sup>a</sup> Oh dear, can't I have all the good stuff without needing to suffer? Guess what the answer is.

<sup>b</sup> This may be the same Silvanus who is mentioned in the opening verse of both Thessalonian epistles. If so, he was a man of some importance in the Church at that time. Evidently he was entrusted with the responsibility of delivering this letter; if he personally had to go to each province, he had quite a journey.

<sup>c</sup> Almost half the Greek manuscripts have a postscript that the letter was written in Rome, and it seems likely that such was the case. So 'Babylon' presumably refers to Rome. (So far as I know, the historical Babylon was a ruin at that time, without inhabitants.) The 'sister' could be an individual woman, but could also be the church.

<sup>d</sup> Presumably Peter is referring to John Mark (Acts 12 & 15, Colossians 4:10, 2 Timothy 4:11), whom he took under his wing, as it were. This is the Mark who wrote the second Gospel. Many Greek manuscripts have a scribal comment that Mark wrote his Gospel with Peter at his elbow.

<sup>e</sup> The love here is agape, not philia. What is involved is genuine concern for the other's well-being, not an emotional interest.

<sup>f</sup> If you are not in Christ Jesus you cannot expect peace. Perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts omit "Jesus" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

The Second Epistle of PETER

To fellow believers

1 <sup>1</sup>Simon Peter, slave<sup>a</sup> and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained<sup>b</sup> with us the same kind of faith in the righteousness<sup>c</sup> of our God and Savior,<sup>d</sup> Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>may grace and peace be multiplied to you<sup>e</sup> through a real knowledge of God<sup>f</sup> and of our Lord Jesus,<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>in that His divine power has granted to us all things *pertain*ing to life and godliness, through the real knowledge of the One<sup>h</sup> who called us by glory and excellence,<sup>i</sup> <sup>4</sup>through which<sup>j</sup> He has granted to us such precious and extraordinary promises, so that through these<sup>k</sup> you may become partakers of a divine nature,<sup>l</sup> having escaped the depravity that is in the world because of lust.<sup>m</sup>

Take the Truth seriously!

Our 'entrance' depends on us

<sup>a</sup> That is right, “slave”—Jude (vs. 1), James (1:1) and Paul (Romans 1:1) also call themselves slaves of Jesus Christ.

<sup>c</sup> That is right, faith in Christ’s righteousness: 1) that Jesus was righteous, not dying for any wrongdoing of His own; 2) that being intrinsically righteous He can impart His righteousness to us.

<sup>f</sup> As our genuine knowledge of God grows, so the amount or degree of grace and peace we receive also grows.

<sup>g</sup> Here the reference is to two persons, Father and Son—although the grammar could be taken to indicate a single person, in which case I would render ‘of God, even our Lord Jesus’ (or ‘Jesus our Lord’). But looking at the next verse, “His divine power” refers to the Father, because “the One who called” refers to the Son.

<sup>h</sup> Again, we only appropriate the complete provision for “life and godliness” to the degree that we grow in our genuine knowledge of God. As Creator He made everything upon which life depends, including life itself, but our understanding of and appreciation for His provision is measured by our relationship with Him.

<sup>i</sup> I take it that Peter is saying that it is the glory and moral excellence of Christ that attracts us, but there is the extraordinary promise that we can share in those qualities, as he spells out in verse 4. Instead of “by glory”, perhaps 19% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘by His own glory’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>k</sup> The promises—but of course we have to appropriate them.

<sup>l</sup> There is no definite article with “divine nature”; “become” indicates a process—the more like Christ we become, the more divine will our nature be.

<sup>m</sup> At times Peter’s syntax seems to be almost as convoluted as Paul’s; the first four verses form a single sentence. The precise interrelationship of the dependent clauses is not transparent. The notes above give my understanding of Peter’s intent. It is the inordinate desire (lust) for anything in this world that leads to depravity. The proper amount of food, drink, pleasure, money, power or whatever is a good thing. It is when people want more that they get into trouble.

self-control perseverance, and to the perseverance godliness,<sup>7</sup> and to the godliness brotherly affection, and to the brotherly affection love.<sup>b</sup> <sup>8</sup>Because with these things existing and increasing in you, it makes you to be neither useless nor unfruitful in the real knowledge<sup>c</sup> of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>For he who lacks these things is blind, being so myopic, having forgotten the cleansing from his past sins.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, brothers, you should be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure,<sup>e</sup> for if you do these things you will never stumble.<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>Because in this way you will be granted the abundant entrance<sup>g</sup> into the unending kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.<sup>h</sup>

Peter's death is imminent

<sup>12</sup>So then, I will not neglect to keep reminding you about these things, though you know and are established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>Yes, I think it right to stir you up by a reminder, as long as I am in this 'tent', <sup>14</sup>knowing that the shedding of my 'tent' is imminent, just as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.<sup>i</sup> <sup>15</sup>Moreover I will take pains to provide a reminder of these things for you to have,<sup>j</sup> after my exit.

<sup>b</sup> Do these qualities have to be added in this sequence, or can we tackle them in any order, or even all at once? If this sequence must be followed I do not understand how it works. I believe spiritual growth moves in an upward spiral; the Holy Spirit makes the rounds of all areas, progressively increasing the level of excellence, or Christ-likeness. I take this to be the point of the "increasing" in verse 8.

<sup>c</sup> I have used "real knowledge" repeatedly because I take that to be the intent of the Text. Real knowledge of God contrasts with human ideas about God and false 'knowledge' furnished by demonic prophecies, visions, etc. It also contrasts with true theoretical knowledge about God—real knowledge must be experiential, as well as being true. Notice that we are supposed to be useful, to be fruitful. If we do not grow, something is definitely wrong, as verse 9 makes clear.

<sup>d</sup> Peter says that someone who lacks the qualities listed in verses 5-7 has forgotten his cleansing and become myopic to the point of being practically blind. If we do not walk with God, do not study His Word, do not listen to the Holy Spirit, Satan will cheerfully take care of the rest.

<sup>e</sup> As in his first letter, Peter emphasizes both divine sovereignty and human responsibility, only this verse is especially bothersome to certain theological systems. If we can make our election sure, then we can also make it unsure, or words have no meaning. Since both truths are clearly presented from cover to cover of the Bible, theological systems that emphasize only one of the two do not do justice to the Sacred Text. To emphasize only one is to hop on one foot—to walk, run and work efficiently you really need both feet. To our limited human logic the two truths appear to be incompatible, but to God's infinite logic they obviously are not. Those who are wise will bow to God's logic.

<sup>f</sup> The verb used is 'to stumble', not 'to fall', but the tense used suggests a permanent consequence.

<sup>g</sup> The Text has the definite article; I take the point to be that there will be different levels or kinds of "entrance"; some will have many rewards, others some, others none (1 Corinthians 3:15). Those who follow the orientation in these verses will receive many rewards, they will get "the abundant entrance". (I suppose we will all agree that it is better to get in by the skin of your teeth [1 Corinthians 3:15] than not to get in at all, but would it not be better yet to have some rewards? The amount is up to us.)

<sup>h</sup> To participate in that "unending Kingdom" is surely worth whatever effort is required of us. The difficulty is that all such effort must be expended in faith.

<sup>i</sup> The Lord told Peter his time was up, and evidently did the same for Paul (2 Timothy 4:6). "All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be" (Psalm 139:16). A servant of God dies only at the appointed time.

<sup>j</sup> Verses 12 & 13 refer to repeated reminders while he is still in his 'tent', which would be his own ongoing activity; so why the 'moreover' in verse 15? In the NKJV verse 15 reads: "Moreover, I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease". Well, how can you 'ensure' that someone will 'always have a reminder' of something? It seems clear to me that the something

II PETER 2

The prophetic Word is trustworthy

<sup>16</sup>Now then, we did not follow craftily devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; rather we were attentive eyewitnesses of His majesty <sup>17</sup>—because He received from God the Father honor and glory when that Voice<sup>a</sup> was directed to Him by the Magnificent Glory, “This is my Son, the beloved, in whom I am always well pleased”—<sup>18</sup>yes, we heard this Voice being uttered from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.<sup>b</sup>

Watch out for false teachers!

Their teachings are destructive

2 <sup>1</sup>However, there were also false prophets among the people, just as, indeed, there will be false teachers among you, who will introduce<sup>h</sup> destructive heresies, even denying the Owner who bought them (bringing on themselves swift destruction).<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>And many will follow their licentious ways, because of which the way of the Truth will be defamed.<sup>j</sup> <sup>3</sup>And in covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; since way back the judgment for such people is not slack, and their destruction will not sleep.

has to be written down; a reminder has to be in writing, to be guaranteed. So what is Peter's intention? He specifies “a reminder of these things”, so what are the ‘these things’? They are evidently the things he will discuss in this letter. But he must be referring to something more than the initial draft of the letter (or the verse becomes meaningless)—hence, multiple copies. For more on the subject of multiple copies, please see the article “Multiple Autograph Copies”, available from my website: www.prunch.org.

<sup>a</sup> Peter never forgot that VOICE; he even coined the phrase, Magnificent Glory, to describe the source. Evidently what happened on that mountain was totally overwhelming. What happened there turned an ordinary mountain into a “holy” one.

<sup>b</sup> Verses 16-18 have to do with the transfiguration experience: those present had a foretaste of “the power and coming” (verse 16) of the Lord; they experienced a microcosm of the Messianic Millennial Kingdom.

<sup>c</sup> “Reliable prophetic Word” about what? About the Messianic Millennial Kingdom—the mount of transfiguration event confirmed all the O.T. prophecies that there would be such a Kingdom.

<sup>d</sup> In this dark world we need the light of God's Word, but when all prophecies are fulfilled and we are glorified, when we are basking in the light of the Lamb (Revelation 21:23), the prophetic Word we now know will belong to ancient history.

<sup>e</sup> An interesting figure of speech—I imagine that “the day dawning” and “the morning star rising” are basically synonymous, since the morning star heralds the new day. But the new day happens in our hearts; eternal life is a quality of life that we can start enjoying right now, in this world. However, Peter's use of “until” points to the future Glorious Day.

<sup>f</sup> The word rendered “release” occurs only here in the New Testament, but the basic meaning of the root is ‘to loose’ or ‘release’. With reference to a prophetic word it could refer either to its enunciation/origination or to its interpretation. Verse 21 makes clear that here it is the origination. False or fake prophecies derive from the will of the ‘prophet’ (or demonic influence), but true prophecy never does.

<sup>4</sup>Because if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but delivered them into chains of darkness, confining them in Tartarus<sup>a</sup> to be reserved for judgment, <sup>5</sup>and did not spare the ancient world but preserved Noah, with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when He brought a flood on the world of the ungodly, <sup>6</sup>and condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction, reducing them to ashes (providing a warning to those who are intent on being ungodly),<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>while He rescued upright Lot, who was distressed by the licentious lifestyle of the wicked <sup>8</sup>(for that upright man,<sup>c</sup> dwelling among them, tormented an upright soul from day to day by seeing and hearing lawless deeds) <sup>9</sup>—then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of testings and to reserve the unjust under punishment<sup>d</sup> for the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup>and especially those who go after the flesh in the lust for defilement,<sup>e</sup> and despise authority.

Their depravity is 'unreal'

Audacious and self-willed, they revile majestic beings without fear,<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>whereas angels, though being greater in might and power,<sup>g</sup> do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.<sup>h</sup> <sup>12</sup>But these, as unreasoning animals, creatures of instinct made to be caught and destroyed, spouting off in matters of which they are ignorant, will be destroyed by their own depravity,<sup>i</sup> <sup>13</sup>receiving the wages of unrighteousness. Counting it a pleasure to carouse in the daytime, they are stains and blemishes, reveling in their own deceptions<sup>j</sup> while they feast with you, <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin,<sup>k</sup> enticing unsta-

---

<sup>a</sup> Tartarus is not to be equated with Hades (the holding area for departed human spirits) nor with the Lake of Fire, since the Text here clearly says those angels are being reserved for judgment. The day when Satan and his angels will be cast into the Lake is still future (Revelation 20:10, Matthew 25:41). So Tartarus is a prison for certain fallen angels—for more about those angels see 1 Peter 3:19-20 and Jude 6-7.

<sup>b</sup> Unfortunately, “those who are intent on being ungodly” could care less about any such warnings, even if they have any awareness of them.

<sup>c</sup> Compared to the people around him Lot was definitely “upright”, but evidently it was mostly a passive uprightness; he did not make any converts, and even lost his immediate family.

<sup>d</sup> They are under punishment already before the Day of judgment. Compare Luke 16:19-31, which is not said to be a parable: in Hades (which is not the Lake of Fire), before the final judgment, the rich man was already being punished (when someone is put in prison he is already being punished, before his case is tried and sentence pronounced). In Hades there is a great gulf between the just and the unjust. Since we determine our destination by what we do in this life, and there is no second chance (the rich man knew he was condemned), the punishment, or the blessing, starts at physical death.

<sup>e</sup> People who are greedy in their moral depravity tend not to respect (or even acknowledge) authority, including that of angelic beings.

<sup>k</sup> The eyes don’t stop sinning. I am reminded of our Lord’s words in Matthew 6:22-23. “The lamp of the body is the eye. So if your eye is sound your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is evil your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!” Of course we have two eyes, but the Text has ‘eye’ in the singular. I take it that the reference is to the way we interpret what we see (which is our real ‘eye’)—two people, one pure and one vile, observing the same scene will give very different interpretations to it. ‘Evil’ here has the idea of maligble souls; having a heart trained in greediness they are children of a curse;<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>having forsaken the right way<sup>b</sup> they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; <sup>16</sup>but he got a rebuke for his wrongdoing—a mute donkey speaking with a human voice restrained the insanity of the prophet.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>These are waterless springs, clouds driven by a storm,<sup>d</sup> for whom the blackest of the darkness<sup>e</sup> has been reserved forever.<sup>f</sup>

Their victims lose out

<sup>18</sup>Because speaking pompous words of emptiness they entice through fleshly lusts, through licentiousness, those who have actually escaped from those who are living in error, <sup>19</sup>promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what a person is overcome, by that he also is brought into bondage. <sup>20</sup>For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the real knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter circumstances have become worse for them than the first ones. <sup>21</sup>For it would have been better<sup>g</sup> for them not to have really known the way of the righteousness, than having really known it to turn back from the holy comnant, aggressively evil. Someone with a malignant mind will give an evil interpretation to everything he sees, and in consequence his being will be filled with unrelenting darkness. Compare Titus 1:15.

<sup>a</sup> Peter, a Jew, uses a Jewish idiom—they are characterized by curse. They are a walking curse, damaging everyone they touch.

<sup>b</sup> Their first decision was to forsake the right—once you turn out the light you condemn yourself to stumble around in the dark.

<sup>c</sup> Peter says that what Balaam did was ‘insane’, just like the mercenary ‘prophets’ of our day.

<sup>d</sup> Such clouds often rush past without dropping any water. The false teachers make all sorts of promises, but being empty they cannot deliver; they cheat their hearers.

<sup>e</sup> This darkness is associated with Satan’s kingdom. Peter is saying that they will share Satan’s destiny. The description given to these false teachers is unusually severe, Peter really does not like them! Since God hates those who have sold themselves to do evil (Psalm 5:5-6, Deuteronomy 7:10), so does Peter, and so must we. (Psalm 97:10 has a command: “You who love Jehovah, hate evil!” David, at least, obeyed it—Psalm 26:5, 31:6, 119:113, 139:21-22. How about us?) God’s love includes hating evil, of necessity, because of the consequences of the evil. If God loves us He must be against whatever may harm us.

<sup>g</sup> Oh my, batten down the hatches! If it would have been better for them not to have known, then of necessity they are now worse off than they were before they knew (as verse 20 makes clear). But before they knew they were lost, so what can be worse than that? To be lost without a chance. Before, they were lost but had the option to be saved. But once they know the Truth, if they throw it away there is no second chance. Hebrews 6:4-6 is plain enough (if you hear someone twist the Text into a pretzel in an effort to avoid the plain meaning, you may be sure that whatever position he is trying to defend is incorrect). “For it is impossible for those who were once for all [hapax] enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become sharers in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the good Word of God and the powers of the coming age, and have fallen away—it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, thereby crucifying the Son of God again, just for themselves, holding Him up to contempt.” You cannot crucify again unless you have crucified at least once already. For someone to crucify Jesus again must mean that he has indeed taken advantage of the first crucifixion, he was indeed saved—if he was never really saved he never really appropriated the first crucifixion, so he cannot do it again.

I have used ‘to really know’ to translate the heightened form ἐπιγινώσκω (in contrast to γινώσκω, ‘to know’) and ‘real knowledge’ to translate the heightened form ἐπιγνώσις (in contrast to γνώσις, ‘knowledge’). I consider that the Holy Spirit is an intelligent and honest user of human language, so His choice of the heightened forms was deliberate. Those who seek to arrive at the intended meaning of the Text need to respect that deliberate choice. When Peter says someone has a “real knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ”, that someone must be saved.

To elevate a doctrinal system above the Word of God is a form of idolatry.

mandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: “A dog returns to its own vomit”<sup>a</sup> and a bathed sow to wallowing in mud.

So take the Truth seriously!!

3 <sup>1</sup>Dear ones, this is now a second letter I am writing to you<sup>b</sup> (in both of which I stir up your sincere mind by way of reminder), <sup>2</sup>so that you remember the words that were spoken before by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Savior, through your apostles.<sup>c</sup>

Mockers will come

<sup>3</sup>Knowing this first: in the last days mockers will come, living according to their own lusts <sup>4</sup>and saying: “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.” <sup>5</sup>This because they deliberately ignore<sup>d</sup> that heavens<sup>e</sup> and land (out of water and through water)<sup>f</sup> had been existing from of old by the word of God, <sup>6</sup>by which word the world<sup>g</sup> that then was perished, being flooded by water.<sup>h</sup>

This world will be destroyed

<sup>7</sup>But the current heavens, and the earth, are being reserved by His word for fire,<sup>i</sup> being preserved until the day of judgment and perdition of godless men.<sup>j</sup>

The Lord is longsuffering

<sup>8</sup>But dear ones, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not delaying the

<sup>c</sup> Peter places the “command of the Lord and Savior through your apostles” (which I take to be a reference to N.T. writings) on a par with the “words spoken before by the holy prophets”, which evidently refers to O.T. writings. Since “apostles” is plural, I take it that Peter was aware that there were several authors.

<sup>d</sup> It appears to me that the term “deliberately” has a direct bearing on the intended meaning. How can one ‘forget’ deliberately? To ‘ignore’ is deliberate; to ‘pretend’ is deliberate. When a professor or a scholar or a scientist ignores the scientific evidence for a worldwide flood he is deliberately deceiving his students or readers. To do so is to be perverse.

<sup>e</sup> There is no definite article with ‘heavens’, I suppose because the third heaven, God’s abode, is not included—the reference here would be to the first heaven (the atmosphere) and the second (stellar space).

<sup>f</sup> To be visible and useable (for normal purposes) land must rise above the water level, ‘out of water’, but to sustain life there must be water available on the land as well, ‘through/by water’.

<sup>g</sup> “World” is different from “land” (vs. 5) and refers to the organized world—Noah’s flood did not destroy the planet earth, just the organized surface. It was the divine decree that unleashed the destructive forces.

<sup>h</sup> All around the world there are layers of sedimentary material hundreds of meters deep, and the layers are similar. The whole globe was scoured and the surface rearranged about 4350 years ago. To ignore the evidence is a deliberate choice, and has serious consequences.

<sup>i</sup> God promised Noah that He would never destroy the world by water again, designating the rainbow as a symbol of that promise (there were no rainbows before the Flood)—the next time it will be by fire. The destruction in Noah’s day involved the earth and the first heaven, the atmosphere; the next destruction will include the second heaven, stellar space, as well.

<sup>j</sup> “Preserved”—our planet was created for the use of the human race and placed under human administration, so it cannot be destroyed until human history has run its course.

<sup>k</sup> Although I myself have been partial to the idea that this information constitutes a precise formula, it is doubtless more prudent to take this as a general statement, showing that an eternal Being does not regard time the way we do.

II PETER 3

promise, as some consider delay, but rather is patient toward us, not wishing anyone to perish but all to come into repentance.<sup>a</sup>

Hasten the Day of God

<sup>10</sup>However, the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night, in which heavens<sup>b</sup> will pass away with a whoosh, while the elements will be dissolved by burning—both the earth and the works in it will be completely consumed. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, since all these things will be destroyed, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, <sup>12</sup>expecting and hastening<sup>c</sup> the coming of the day of God, because of which heavens, being on fire, will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

A better world is coming

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, we look for new heavens and a new earth<sup>d</sup> in which dwells righteousness, according to His promise.

So be serious!

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, dear ones, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace,<sup>e</sup> faultless and blameless; <sup>15</sup>and consider the long suffering of our Lord to be salvation<sup>f</sup>—just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him, <sup>16</sup>as also in all his epistles<sup>g</sup> (speaking in them of these things, about which there are some things hard to understand), which the untaught and unstable distort, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures,<sup>h</sup> to their own destruction.<sup>i</sup> <sup>17</sup>You therefore, dear ones, being forewarned, be on guard lest, being carried away by the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness.<sup>j</sup> <sup>18</sup>Rather, may you grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

To Him be the glory both now and into the eternal day.<sup>k</sup> Amen.

<sup>c</sup> "Hastening" is a transitive verb. If we can hasten the coming, we can also delay it, or words do not mean anything. The point is, what we do or do not do makes a difference, which is why there will be an accounting. I imagine that there are outside limits or parameters that God's sovereignty will guarantee, but within those parameters it is up to us (like players on a football field—the score is up to them). So how can we hasten the coming of God's day? By living our lives to the hilt on behalf of His Kingdom, standing up for biblical values in the society at large, working to get the Gospel to the last ethnic nation.

<sup>d</sup> God is not through creating, but since the Son will have His bride, the next time around righteousness will be guaranteed.

<sup>e</sup> When we face the Creator are we going to see a smile, or a frown—it is up to us.

<sup>f</sup> Peter repeats the truth stated in verse 9 above—just because God is not striking us down like He did with Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11) does not mean that we are getting a free ride. If you have sense, you look ahead.

<sup>g</sup> Peter was obviously aware of a 'Pauline corpus'—the use of 'all' suggests that Peter was aware of a fair number of Paul's letters.

<sup>i</sup> The verb form of this noun is usually rendered 'to perish'—the implication is that such people are lost. To distort what is in a newspaper or magazine does not have the same consequence—it is distorting God's Word that is serious.

The First Epistle of

JOHN

Prologue

1 <sup>1</sup>That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have witnessed with our eyes, that which we contemplated and our hands handled<sup>a</sup> with reference to the word of the Life<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>—oh yes, the Life was manifested, and we have seen and testify and declare to you that eternal Life who was in the presence of the Father and was manifested to us—<sup>3</sup>that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us;<sup>c</sup> indeed, our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>Yes, we write these things to you so that our<sup>d</sup> joy may be fulfilled.

The conditions of fellowship

God is light

<sup>5</sup>Now this is the message that we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and there is no darkness<sup>e</sup> at all in Him. <sup>6</sup>If we claim that we have fellowship with Him while walking in the darkness, we are lying and not living the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light just as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ<sup>f</sup> His Son cleanses us from all sin.<sup>g</sup>

God forgives confessed sin

<sup>8</sup>If we claim that we have no sin,<sup>h</sup> we are deceiving ourselves and the Truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous so as to forgive us those sins and to cleanse<sup>i</sup> us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we claim that we have not sinned,<sup>j</sup> we call Him a liar and His Word is not in us.

<sup>a</sup> John could hardly be more emphatic as to the certainty of what he is going to write—he is an eye-witness, an ear-witness, a hand-witness, a mind-witness...

<sup>b</sup> The text has the definite article with “life”, and from the next verse it seems clear that the reference is to the Son (compare John 1:4).

<sup>c</sup> Note that the fellowship is to be based on historical fact, not someone’s sub-culture.

<sup>d</sup> The manuscript evidence is badly divided between “our” and “your”, roughly 60:40%. The best line of evidence, in my view, is with the majority in favor of “our”; it is easy to see how many copyists could make the change (a change in only one letter). The more people we bring into the fellowship, the greater our joy.

<sup>e</sup> I suppose that “darkness” here refers to sin and Satan; presumably it follows that there is no light in Satan. Also, “walking in the darkness” (next verse) refers to living according to the world’s values, a world controlled by Satan.

<sup>g</sup> Cleansing is not the same as forgiveness. If a mother forgives her boy for playing in the mud, he escapes punishment, but that does not wash the clothes. Forgiveness takes care of the consequences of our sin in heaven, but for the consequences down here we need cleansing (although some consequences cannot be undone). As we walk in the light we will be progressively cleansed.

<sup>h</sup> I take the reference here to be to the sin nature; of course someone without a sin nature would have no need of a Savior, nor of regeneration. Anyone who really thinks that he does not have one is most certainly self-deceived, if not satanically deceived.

<sup>i</sup> If He forgave without cleansing us, we would still be dirty. But He only forgives when we confess. (Do not forget Proverbs 29:1.)

<sup>j</sup> The reference here is to individual acts of sin. To contradict God, who affirms that we do in fact commit sins, is to make Him out to be a liar—probably not a good idea.

Jesus Christ is our Advocate

2 <sup>1</sup>My dear children, I am writing these things to you so that you not sin; if someone does sin, we have an Advocate in the Father's presence, righteous Jesus Christ—<sup>2</sup>also, He Himself is the propitiation for our sins;<sup>a</sup> not concerning ours only but also concerning those of the whole world.<sup>b</sup>

We must keep His commandments

<sup>3</sup>Now by this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments. <sup>4</sup>He who says, "I have come to know Him," yet does not keep His commandments, is a liar and the Truth is not in him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>But whoever keeps His Word, God's love has truly been perfected in him: by this we know that we are in Him. <sup>6</sup>He who claims to be abiding in Him really needs to act just like He acted.<sup>d</sup>

An old/new commandment

<sup>7</sup>Brothers,<sup>e</sup> I am not writing a new commandment to you but an old one that you have had from the beginning; this old commandment is the word that you have heard from the beginning. <sup>8</sup>Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, because the darkness<sup>f</sup> is passing away and the true Light is already shining. <sup>9</sup>He who claims to be in the Light while hating his brother is in the darkness until now. <sup>10</sup>He who keeps on loving his brother is staying in the Light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup>But he who keeps on hating his brother is in the darkness and keeps walking in the darkness; he does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Look out for the enemy!

A bit of poetry

<sup>12</sup>Dear children, I am writing to you because your sins have been forgiven for His name's sake<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>—fathers, I am writing to you because you have come to know Him<sup>h</sup> who is from the beginning; young men, I am writing to you because you have overcome the evil one;<sup>i</sup> children, I am writing to you because you have come <sup>a</sup> Now there is a good deal! Having Himself paid my debt, when the Son pleads my case before the Father, I will be cleared. Thank you, Lord! The term 'propitiation' is not so well known these days, but it has a specific theological content that needs to be preserved. It refers to an atoning sacrifice that is required to satisfy God's outraged character, outraged by our sin.

<sup>b</sup> "The whole world" cannot be limited to the elect, if language has verifiable meaning. Just because many do not avail themselves of the propitiation (most have never heard about it) does not mean it is not available.

<sup>f</sup> I take "the darkness" to be a reference to Satan's kingdom, while "the true Light is already shining" would refer to the outworking of Christ's victory, which in a certain sense turned all old commandments into new ones—the indwelling Holy Spirit enables us to do what we could not, before. Darkness is merely the absence of light; to introduce light in any situation reduces the darkness, which is why the world hates us.

<sup>g</sup> Verse 12 is an introductory cover statement; in verse 13 John divides the cover group into three sub-groups; in verse 14 he returns to the first two categories [I confess that I do not understand the purpose of verse 14, unless it be that John wanted to enlarge on what he says to the young men but did not want to pass over the fathers].

<sup>h</sup> An increasingly adequate knowledge of God has everything to do with spiritual maturity.

to know the Father—<sup>14</sup>fathers, I have written to you because you have come to know Him who is from the beginning; young men, I have written to you because you are strong, and the Word of God remains in you,<sup>a</sup> and you have overcome the evil one.

We must not love the world

<sup>15</sup>Do not love the world, neither the things in the world;<sup>b</sup> if anyone loves the world, the Father's love is not in him. <sup>16</sup>Because everything in the world—the craving of the flesh and the craving of the eyes and the pretension of life—is not from the Father but is from the world.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>The world, with its craving, is passing away, but he who does God's will remains forever.<sup>d</sup>

A bunch of little antichrists

<sup>18</sup>Children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared, by which we know that it is the last hour.<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>They went out from us but were not of us,<sup>f</sup> for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us—they left so that they might be exposed, that none of them were of us.

<sup>20</sup>You have an Anointing from the Holy One and understand all.<sup>g</sup> <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the Truth.<sup>h</sup>

We must abide in the truth

<sup>22</sup>Who is the liar<sup>i</sup> but the one denying that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one denying the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup>Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either.<sup>j</sup> <sup>24</sup>So you, let what you have heard from the beginning abide in you; if what you have heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Father and in the Son.

<sup>a</sup> For the Word to abide in you, you have to abide in it (John 8:31).

<sup>b</sup> The crucial issue is the values that the surrounding culture seeks to impose on us—materialism, relativism, humanism; these values are directly opposed to the Father's values, and therefore to His love.

<sup>c</sup> The world system is controlled by Satan (5:19 below), so that system with its values is against the Creator. As the Sovereign said in Matthew 6:24, it is impossible to serve two masters—the more so if one is God and the other is Satan!

<sup>d</sup> Note that we have to do the will. "Whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, my sister, my mother" (Mark 3:35). The Sovereign also said that it is a son who abides in the house forever (John 8:35).

<sup>e</sup> One gets the impression that the early Christians expected the Lord's return within their lifetime. The Creator is not bound by our notions of time.

<sup>f</sup> Those who have left the Christian community are often nastier than those who have never been a part of it. Notice that John calls them "antichrists"! There have always been defectors from the Faith, and they have always been bad news.

<sup>g</sup> Presumably the "Anointing" refers to the Holy Spirit; to receive understanding we need to listen to Him.

<sup>h</sup> The Spirit of the Truth cannot lie (John 14:17, 15:26, 16:13; Titus 1:2), just as Satan cannot tell the truth (John 8:44) [if he ever does it is distorted so as to deceive].

<sup>i</sup> The Text has the definite article—behind every liar is the father of lies. Those who claim that Jesus was only a good man, a great teacher, are on Satan's side.

<sup>j</sup> Some 20% of the Greek manuscripts add, "whoever confesses the Son has the Father also", as in most versions. I take it that John is making the point that to deny either the Father or the Son is to deny them both—the addition is unnecessary. The 80%, including the best line of transmission, are correct. Note that John rejects Unitarianism (Sabellianism, modalism). Also, this verse is directly relevant to how one should present the Gospel to Muslims.

<sup>25</sup>This is the promise that He Himself promised us—the eternal life. <sup>26</sup>I have written these things to you concerning those who are trying to deceive you; <sup>27</sup>but really, you do not need anyone to teach you, because the Anointing that you received from Him abides in you; further, as the same Anointing teaches you concerning all things,<sup>a</sup> and it is true and no lie—well just as He has taught you, you will abide in Him.

Remember the accounting at our Lord's return

<sup>28</sup>And now, dear children, do abide in Him, so that whenever He appears we<sup>b</sup> may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. <sup>29</sup>If you have understood that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been begotten by Him.<sup>c</sup>

"We are children of God"

3 <sup>1</sup>Consider how great a love the Father has bestowed on us that we should be called children of God!<sup>d</sup> The world does not acknowledge us<sup>e</sup> for this reason: it did not acknowledge Him.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Dear ones, right now we are children of God and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>—everyone who has this hope upon him purifies himself, even as He is pure.<sup>h</sup>

"Whoever abides in Him does not sin"

<sup>b</sup> One might expect 'you' instead of "we", but evidently John is concerned about the results of his labors, as was Paul (1 Thessalonians 2:19).

<sup>c</sup> Do you find this statement to be uncomfortable? You probably know people who live moral, upright lives, but have never gotten 'saved' according to our definition of the procedure. Might there be something lacking in our definition?

<sup>d</sup> Some 15% of the Greek manuscripts add 'and we are' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The addition is out of place here, since John takes up that point in the next verse. The Father took the initiative in bestowing His great love upon us; it is up to us to "consider" and respond. Do please "consider": for the Father to call you His child is a privilege beyond compare.

<sup>e</sup> Although perhaps 64% of the Greek manuscripts read 'you', the best line of transmission is with the 36% in reading "us". John is making a general statement, so it is properly inclusive—first person.

<sup>g</sup> This verse is directly relevant to the interpretation of 1 Corinthians 13:10-12.

<sup>h</sup> We will be completely exposed in His presence, and be fully conscious of it, so to avoid a bad scene we need to get a head start on the purifying.

<sup>i</sup> Lawlessness is rebellion against a known standard. It follows that John is not referring to the 'sins of ignorance' in the O.T.

<sup>l</sup> An uncomfortable statement; again, deliberate sin indicates an inadequate knowledge of God. Compare Isaiah 6:1-5.

<sup>7</sup>Dear children, let no one mislead you; he who keeps doing righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. <sup>8</sup>He who keeps doing sin is of the devil,<sup>a</sup> because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The Son of God was manifested for this purpose: to undo<sup>b</sup> the devil's works. <sup>9</sup>Whoever has been begotten by God does not commit sin, because His seed remains in him; actually, he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten by God.<sup>c</sup>

Children of God X children of the devil

<sup>10</sup>In this the children of God and the children of the devil are distinguished: whoever is not doing righteousness is not of God, also whoever is not loving his brother. <sup>11</sup>Because this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another <sup>12</sup>—not like Cain, who was of the evil one<sup>d</sup> and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own works were evil, while those of his brother were righteous.

Love in deed and truth

<sup>16</sup>We know the Love by this: He laid down His life in our behalf; we also are obligated to lay down our lives in behalf of our brothers. <sup>17</sup>Now whoever has this world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart toward him—how does the love of God abide in him?

<sup>18</sup>My dear children, let us not love in word or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth <sup>19</sup>—yes, by this we know that we are of the Truth and may put our <sup>a</sup> God demands holiness. Belonging to God involves living a holy life (see verse 10 below).

<sup>b</sup> Many versions render 'destroy', but I prefer 'undo'—to undo a work involves undoing its consequences as well. In John 20:21 Sovereign Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, I also send you". So we are here to undo Satan's works—there is certainly no lack of opportunity or challenge! However, Satan does not take kindly to any such attempt, so you need to know who you are in Christ, and be living in submission to the Holy Spirit.

<sup>c</sup> This statement appears to be so contrary to our experience that it has given rise to all sorts of evasive action. When explaining this verse in a church I ask all who have been born of God to raise a hand (raising my own)—most do. I then ask, "When were you born of God, from your mother's womb?" "Oh no", they will say, "it was when I was saved / born again." I then ask for a volunteer who was saved as an adult—John Doe<sup>g</sup> offers, saying he was saved when he was 30. So I say, "Tell me, John, for the first 29 years of your life you were John Doe, right? Your family, your friends, everybody knew you." "That's right." "So when you were saved at 30 did you stop being John Doe? Nobody knows you any more?" "Everybody still knows me." "So for 29 years you were John Doe and you continue to be John Doe?" "That's right." "Okay, so what do you have that was born of God? It can't be anything that was there during the first 29 years." Well, the answers will vary according to the theological sophistication of the person, but the Bible speaks of a 'new man' or 'new nature' that the Holy Spirit produces in us. It is that new nature that is God's "seed" within us, and that seed cannot sin. But the old nature still exists, and it does indeed sin—recall the Apostle Paul's struggle (Romans 7:13-25).

hearts at ease in His presence, <sup>20</sup>and that, if our heart should condemn us, God is greater than our heart and knows all.<sup>a</sup>

Confidence toward God

<sup>21</sup>Dear ones, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God, <sup>22</sup>and whatever we may ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight.<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>Now this is His commandment, that we believe in the name<sup>c</sup> of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He commanded. <sup>24</sup>He who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him.<sup>d</sup> This is how we know that He remains in us: by the Spirit whom He gave us.

Various instructions

Test the spirits

4 <sup>1</sup>Dear ones, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>By this the Spirit of God is known:<sup>e</sup> every spirit that acknowledges Jesus Christ as having come in flesh is of God, <sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus Christ<sup>f</sup> as having come in flesh<sup>g</sup> is not of God; indeed, this is the spirit of the Antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming—actually, it is already in the world right now.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Dear children, you are of God and have overcome them,<sup>i</sup> because He who is in you is greater than the one in the world.<sup>j</sup> <sup>5</sup>They are of the world; that is why they speak of the world, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>We are of God: he who

<sup>a</sup> Well, the heart is ‘deceitful above all things’ (Jeremiah 17:9), so presumably Satan can use it to accuse us falsely, but the Righteous Judge has all the facts. He knows whether or not we were loving “in deed and truth”.

<sup>b</sup> I take the point to be this: if we are doing “the things that are pleasing in His sight”, then we will not ask for something that will displease Him.

<sup>c</sup> With reference to salvation the Text always has ‘believe into Jesus / His name’—a change of position is involved, from being outside to being inside, which also involves commitment. Here John is writing to those who are already inside, so it is “believe in the name”. John was with Peter in Acts 3:6, 16 and 4:10, and may be calling on us to make similar use of the Name.

<sup>d</sup> Note that the reciprocal abiding depends on our keeping His commandments. When we stop, He stops. If you are not sure that you have the Holy Spirit, there is something wrong.

<sup>e</sup> Both the Textus Receptus and the eclectic (‘critical’) text have ‘ye know’, with 25% of the Greek manuscripts, so almost all versions so read. I wonder if this has contributed to the use of this passage as a ‘litmus’ test for demonization in some quarters. A better procedure is to use the discernment the Holy Spirit gives us. If we are to test spirits, then they most certainly exist! In today’s world we desperately need the gift of discerning spirits (plural).

<sup>g</sup> Some 2.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “as having come in flesh” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>h</sup> The “spirit” of antichrist, an expression of Satan himself, has been around for a long time, but in our day is becoming ever stronger.

<sup>i</sup> What is the antecedent of “them”? Presumably it is the false prophets in verse one, as the next verse makes clear.

knows God listens to us; he who is not of God does not listen to us—by this we know the Spirit of the Truth and the spirit of the deception.<sup>a</sup>

Love one another

<sup>7</sup>Dear ones, we must love one another, because the love is of God and every-one who loves<sup>b</sup> has been begotten by God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>He who does not love does not know God, because God is love. <sup>9</sup>God's love was made real within us by this: God sent His only begotten Son into the world in order that we might live through Him. <sup>10</sup>In this is the love, not that we loved God but that He loved us—He even sent His Son as the propitiation for our sins.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>Dear ones, since God loved us in this way we are obligated to love one another, really.

As He is so are we in this world

<sup>12</sup>No one has ever looked at God. If we love one another, God remains in us and His love is being perfected in us. <sup>13</sup>By this we know that we remain in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. <sup>14</sup>Yes, we have observed and do testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him and he in God.<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>Yes, we have come to know and believe the love that God has in us. God is love, and he who abides in the love abides in God, and God in him. <sup>17</sup>The love is perfected with us for this: that we may have confidence in the Day of judgment,<sup>e</sup> since just as He is so are we in this world.<sup>f</sup>

There is no fear in love

<sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love; rather perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment; so he who fears has not been perfected in love.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>We love Him<sup>h</sup> because He first loved us.

<sup>20</sup>If anyone says, "I love God," while hating his brother, he is a liar. Well, how can he love God whom he has not seen, while not loving his brother whom he has seen? <sup>21</sup>Indeed, this commandment we have from Him: he who loves God must love his brother also.

Our faith overcomes the world

5 <sup>1</sup>Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God;<sup>a</sup> also, whoever loves the Begetter should love the one begotten by Him as well. <sup>2</sup>In <sup>a</sup> Well now, this would make a good litmus test, but we had better be walking with God if we try to use it!

<sup>b</sup> Of course this refers to agape love, not emotional or physical love. The world knows nothing of agape love, and Satan represents the opposite.

<sup>c</sup> Oh praise God! Thank you, Jesus! The only adequate response is to live our lives for Him.

<sup>d</sup> There is a big difference between 'profess' and 'confess'; to confess Jesus is to submit to Him.

<sup>e</sup> This is an interesting concept; we may face the judgment with confidence, especially if our thoughts and actions have been oriented by agape love.

<sup>f</sup> An important statement—note that it is in this world, not the next. But who is the antecedent of "He"? Verse 13 mentions the Holy Spirit, while verse 14 mentions the Father and the Son, so perhaps it is God the Trinity. As the body of Christ we represent the triune God in this world. And we individually should reflect God's character in this world.

<sup>g</sup> So why do we fear? Usually fear is directly tied to our self-centeredness—it is because of what may happen to us that we are afraid. To the extent that we identify with the interests of God and His Kingdom, we will be less concerned about ourselves.

<sup>h</sup> Perhaps 2.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit "Him" (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

this we know that we love the children of God, whenever we love God and keep His commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments;<sup>b</sup> His commandments are not burdensome, <sup>4</sup>in that whatever has been begotten by God overcomes the world;<sup>c</sup> this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith. <sup>5</sup>Who is he who overcomes the world if not he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

Receive the witness of God

<sup>6</sup>This is He who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ—not by the water only, but by the water<sup>d</sup> and the blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the Truth; <sup>7</sup>actually there are three who bear witness<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>—the Spirit, the water and the blood—and the three are to one effect. <sup>9</sup>If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is God’s testimony which He has testified concerning His Son. <sup>10</sup>He who believes into the Son of God has the witness within himself; he who does not believe God has made Him out to be a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified concerning His Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. <sup>12</sup>He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>13</sup>I have written these things to you who believe into the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life, really believing into the name of God’s Son.<sup>g</sup>

Our confidence

<sup>14</sup>Now this is the confidence that we have toward Him: if we should ask anything according to His will, He hears us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that He hears us, whatever we may ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of Him.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>a</sup> I suppose that John would say that ‘knowing’ and ‘believing’ are different things. Satan certainly ‘knows’ that Jesus is the Christ, but it does not do him any good. How we act shows what we really believe, so to “believe” that Jesus is the Christ requires that we submit to Him.

<sup>b</sup> The appropriate ways to demonstrate love differ according to the specific relationship involved; to demonstrate love for God is to obey Him.

<sup>c</sup> To overcome the world on a personal level is to reject its values and live according to Christ’s values. It is the ‘new nature’ that has been “begotten by God”; the ‘old nature’ cannot overcome the world. To receive a new nature one must believe into Jesus.

<sup>e</sup> Those who use the AV or NKJV are used to: “There are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.” The words in italics are only found in five late Greek manuscripts (less than 1% of the total) and part of the Latin tradition, from which they came. To be more precise, the manuscripts are: (61)[16th], (629)[14th], (918)[16th], 2318 [18th], 2473 [17th], wherein the cursives in ( ) all differ from each other; the two that agree verbatim with TR were probably copied from it. The only one that is clearly early enough to have served as TR’s exemplar, 629, is far too different—it lacks the seven last words in TR, omits another five, changes five and adds two—19 out of 40 words is too much; the Textus Receptus is not based on cursive 629, so it must be a translation from the Latin (or its exemplar is lost). The shorter reading makes excellent sense. [Those who make ‘the three heavenly witnesses’ a litmus test for orthodoxy are either ignorant or perverse (or both).]

<sup>g</sup> A person’s name represents that person. Some 4.5% of the Greek manuscripts omit “really believing into the name of God’s Son” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>h</sup> Again, in order to be ‘heard’ we must ask “according to His will”.

Sins not leading to death

<sup>16</sup>If anyone should see his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, let him ask, and He will give him life for those who do not sin unto death. There is sin leading to death; I am not saying that he should make request about that. <sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>19</sup>We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the malignant one.<sup>e</sup>

Conclusion

<sup>20</sup>We know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Je-

<sup>a</sup> The way John phrases this, “there is sin not leading to death”, almost gives the impression that most sin does lead to death. Well, ‘the wages of sin is death’, both physical and spiritual. Christ’s sacrifice can save us from spiritual death, but not the physical. So is John referring to a premature physical death? But verse 16 is about a “brother” sinning. Consider what is said in Hebrews 10:26-31.

Because, if we deliberately keep on sinning after having received the real knowledge of the Truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup>just a certain fearful anticipation of judgment and fierce fire that is ready to consume the hostiles. <sup>28</sup>Anyone who rejected Moses’ law died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be deemed worthy who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup>For we know Him who said, “Vengeance is up to me”, says the Lord, ‘I will repay.’ And again, “The LORD will judge His people.” <sup>31</sup>It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the Living God!

Note the ‘after having received the real knowledge of the Truth’ and ‘by which he was sanctified’ (see also verses 32-36). I fear that what I was taught in Seminary on this subject does not square with the Text. I am not aware of any passage that spells out the sins that do and/or those that do not. I suppose that a request about a sin leading to death simply will not be granted. We ignore this area of truth at our peril.

<sup>b</sup> This statement is very similar to the one in 3:9 above—please refer back to the note there.

<sup>c</sup> Instead of “himself”, perhaps 8% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘him’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). This changes the interpretation of the statement.

<sup>d</sup> “The evil one does not touch him” has given rise to the catastrophic idea that Christians cannot be demonized; but let us analyze the situation a bit. Wherein might the “touch” in the Text consist? It cannot be temptation, because Christ Himself was tempted (Mt. 4:1-11); it cannot be an attack on the body, because the Apostle Paul was so attacked (2 Corinthians 12:7); it cannot be an attack on the mind, because the Apostle Peter was so attacked (Matthew 16:22-23). So wherein might the “touch” consist?

Consider Ephesians 6:12—“our wrestling match” is against wicked spirits (wrestling is direct, physical, violent—it is impossible to be in a wrestling match and not be ‘touched’). Consider also 1 Peter 5:8—why ‘be vigilant’ if that lion cannot touch us? You may be absolutely certain that believers can be and are demonized! The crucial thing is a conscious submission to the Holy Spirit (while controlled by the Spirit you will never be controlled by a demon).

But just who is it that the evil one does not touch? The one begotten by God, or born of God—but who is the “born of God”? Since only Jesus was literally born of God from His mother’s womb, the rest of us receive the ‘new man’ at regeneration, so the believer as a whole person is not in view. Please refer back to the note at 3:9 above.

<sup>e</sup> The verb ‘lie’ here is used for lying on a bed—your whole weight is resting on it. A bed has no volition, but Satan does; the picture is one of control. All human cultures have features that serve Satan’s purposes, but some have more than others. Any true follower of Sovereign Jesus needs to evaluate the culture that surrounds him and reject those features that are contrary to God’s values.

The Second Epistle of

JOHN

Salutation

<sup>1</sup>The elder, to the elect lady<sup>a</sup> and her children, whom I love in truth—and not I only, but also all who have known the Truth—<sup>2</sup>because of the Truth,<sup>b</sup> who abides in us and will be with us into the age: <sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Sovereign<sup>c</sup> Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, will be with you<sup>d</sup> in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's commandments

<sup>4</sup>It has given me great joy to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we received commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I put a request to you, lady (not as though writing a new commandment to you, but one that we have from the beginning): that we love one another. <sup>6</sup>And this is the love,<sup>e</sup> that we live according to His commandments—this is the commandment,<sup>f</sup> just as you heard from the beginning, that you should live according to it.

Beware of deceivers

<sup>a</sup> Commentaries are divided between understanding the “lady” to be a specific woman or a local congregation. It seems to me more probable that the clause “also all who have known the Truth” would apply to a congregation—a congregation would be more widely known and loved than an individual woman. The “elect sister” in verse 13 below would be another congregation.

<sup>b</sup> I take “the Truth” to refer to the Holy Spirit because of the following clause, “will be with us into the age / forever”—‘truth’ as a package of true propositions could be said to abide in us, but to be with us forever fits better with a Person. The truth is a basic characteristic of the Holy Spirit (John 14:17, 15:26, 16:13, Titus 1:2).

<sup>c</sup> Some 8% of the Greek manuscripts omit “Sovereign” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), but the 92% are doubtless correct.

<sup>d</sup> The Greek manuscripts are about evenly divided between “you” and ‘us’, but the best line of transmission has “you”. I imagine that the difficulty arose from the use of the future indicative with the verb ‘to be’, when the optative or subjunctive would be expected. We expect ‘may mercy... be with you’, not the affirmation that it will be. If “in truth and love” is understood as modifying the pronoun, then the use of the indicative is explained. Anyone who is in truth and love will have grace, mercy and peace. Now there you have an excellent motivation for embracing truth and love!

<sup>e</sup> The Text has the definite article with “love”—from God’s point of view, the way we express “the love” He is looking for (as opposed to any number of other loves) is by obeying Him. The Text has “that we walk...”—I render “live” because I take that to be the real point.

<sup>f</sup> “The commandment” is to live according to His commandments. It is a different way of stating what the Lord said in Matthew 22:37-38. “Jesus said to him, ‘You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment.’” (See also Mark 12:30 and Luke 10:27.)

<sup>g</sup> Some 82% of the Greek manuscripts have “come into” rather than ‘gone out into’ (as in most versions). The 18% presumably have the deceivers going out from the church into the world, but that is not John’s point. The deceivers have been introduced into the world by Satan, the original and boss deceiver.

<sup>h</sup> The Text has “coming”, not ‘having come’, so evidently John is referring to Christ’s second coming, which will certainly be “in flesh”. Recall the word of the angels in Acts 1:11, “This very Jesus who is being taken up from you into the sky, He will come again in the precise manner that you observed Him going into the sky.” The angels are emphatic; the return is going to be just like the departure. I take it that the Lord will return with the same glorified human body, visibly, come out of a cloud, and His feet yourselves, so that we not lose the things for which we worked but may receive a full reward.<sup>b</sup>

II JOHN

<sup>9</sup>Anyone who turns aside and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God;<sup>c</sup> but whoever continues in Christ's teaching does have both the Father and the Son.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house; do not even tell him, "I wish you well," <sup>11</sup>because whoever tells him, "I wish you well," participates in his malignant works.<sup>e</sup>

Farewell

<sup>12</sup>Although I had many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; instead I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

will touch down at the same spot where they left (see Matthew 24:30, "coming on the clouds", and Zechariah 14:4, "His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives").

<sup>a</sup> John is affirming the real source of the idea that Christ will not return in bodily form.

<sup>b</sup> Some 17% of the Greek manuscripts put this verse in the 2nd person plural throughout (as in NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.), but the 83%, including the best line of transmission, are correct. John is concerned about the results of his labors (see 1 John 2:28), as was Paul (1 Thessalonians 2:19).

<sup>c</sup> If you turn aside, you are out. "Does not continue" can only refer to someone who has been 'in'.

<sup>d</sup> As in verse 3 above, John emphasizes that the Father and the Son are distinct Persons.

<sup>e</sup> People who do not believe and teach what Christ taught are on the other side. To be malignant is to be aggressively evil. Obviously, we should avoid anything that might be interpreted as identification with such people.

The Third Epistle of

III JOHN

Gaius is commended

<sup>5</sup>Dear one, you are faithful in whatever you do for the brothers, and for the strangers <sup>6</sup>who testified to your love before the church—you will do well by sending them on their way in a manner worthy of God, <sup>7</sup>because it was for the sake of the Name<sup>c</sup> that they went out, accepting nothing from pagans.<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>We therefore ought to welcome such, so that we may work together for the Truth.<sup>e</sup>

Diotrephes is criticized

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the congregation, but Diotrephes, who wants to dominate<sup>f</sup> the others, does not acknowledge us.<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>So if I come, I will bring up what he is doing, slandering us with malignant words. And not satisfied with that, not only does he himself not receive the brothers, but he forbids those who want to do so, kicking them out of the congregation.<sup>h</sup>

Demetrius is commended

<sup>11</sup>Dear one, do not imitate what is bad, but what is good. He who does good is of God, but he who does evil has not seen God.<sup>i</sup> <sup>12</sup>Demetrius is well spoken of by

---

<sup>a</sup> This prayer challenges me. Do I really want my physical health to be a reflection of my spiritual health?

<sup>b</sup> There is no article with “truth” here (or in verse 4). To love someone in truth means to truly love, presumably, but to walk in truth does not mean to truly walk; a different meaning is required—the principal candidates would be God’s Word and the Holy Spirit.

<sup>c</sup> Users of the AV and NKJV are accustomed to ‘His name’, which is based on some 15% of the Greek manuscripts. I take it that the 85%, including the best line of transmission, are correct in reading “the Name”. Both readings refer to the Lord Jesus Christ, presumably, “the name which is above every name” (Philippians 2:9), and at which every knee shall bow.

<sup>d</sup> The word rendered “pagans” is often translated ‘nations’ or ‘Gentiles’, but in this context the reference is not to nations, nor to non-Jews. The reference is probably to non-Christians. But what of the principle involved here? It seems clear that John is in agreement with the decision not to accept financial support from unbelievers. Would this be because of possible ‘strings’ attached, or is something going on in the spiritual realm? But really, who wants to tell a donor that he is a sinner?

<sup>g</sup> I believe this is the main reason for this letter—since Diotrephes censored the letter that John wrote to the congregation, he now writes to an individual, to get around the censorship. Unfortunately, Diotrephes-types are still with us, and not even unusual.

<sup>h</sup> One wonders where he got the power or authority to be able to do this. Evidently people were letting him get away with it.

<sup>i</sup> John is good at making flat statements, which most of us find to be uncomfortable, because we would like to think there are exceptions. Don’t unbelievers do good things? If a pastor does something bad, does that mean he doesn’t know God? Just as all truth is from God and all lies are from Satan, all gen-everyone—even by the truth itself. Yes, we also speak well of him, and we know<sup>a</sup> that our testimony is true.

Farewell

<sup>13</sup>I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink; <sup>14</sup>rather I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

<sup>15</sup>Peace to you. The friends here greet you. Greet the friends there by name.

uine good is from God and all evil is from Satan. I imagine that John would insist that anyone who has really seen God will not do evil.

<sup>a</sup> I follow the best line of transmission here, using the first person, albeit representing only 23% of the manuscripts. We expect the second person (61.5%; there are two further variants), and it would be almost unthinking for copyists to make the change, but on reflection the first person makes good sense. Indeed, in John 21:24 the same author uses 'we know' with reference to his testimony.

The Epistle of

JUDE

Salutation

<sup>1</sup>Jude, slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,<sup>a</sup> to the called, those who have been sanctified<sup>b</sup> by God the Father and preserved<sup>c</sup> through<sup>d</sup> Jesus Christ:
<sup>2</sup>May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.<sup>e</sup>

Why he is writing

<sup>3</sup>Dear ones, while I was really intent on writing to you about the salvation we share, I had a compulsion<sup>f</sup> to write exhorting you to contend earnestly for the Faith<sup>g</sup> once for all committed to the saints. <sup>4</sup>Because certain men, who were marked out for this condemnation long ago,<sup>h</sup> have sneaked in; they are godless, perverting the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying the only Sovereign God,<sup>i</sup> even our Lord Jesus Christ.

Examples from ancient history

<sup>5</sup>So I want to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord delivered a people out of the land of Egypt yet later destroyed those who did not believe.<sup>j</sup> <sup>6</sup>And the angels who did not keep their proper domain but deserted<sup>k</sup> their own dwelling He has kept bound in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day.<sup>l</sup> <sup>7</sup>So also Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding

<sup>a</sup> Both James and Jude were half-brothers of Jesus (same mother) but were themselves full brothers. Jude avoids any special claim to that half-brotherhood and declares himself a slave.

<sup>b</sup> Rather than “sanctified”, about 9% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘beloved’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>c</sup> By using words like “called”, “sanctified” and “preserved”, Jude is emphasizing God’s part in our salvation.

<sup>d</sup> “Jesus Christ” is in the dative case, without an explicit preposition, so we are faced with an ambiguous construction—it could be ‘by’, making Jesus Christ the agent; or if the Father is the agent it could be ‘for’ or ‘in’ as well as “through”.

<sup>e</sup> The verb is in the passive voice, so these things will be supplied by an outside power.

<sup>g</sup> Wherein might “the Faith” consist? Jude evidently contrasts it with what the “certain men” of verse 4 believe, teach and do, as explained in the following verses. I take it that for Jude “the Faith” refers to the sum of Biblical values, the Biblical worldview or philosophy of life. It has been “committed” to us to put into practice, but also to defend. Who in North America or Europe is ‘contending for the Faith’, even a little bit? Both those continents are now anti-Christian.

<sup>h</sup> This is one of a very few texts that could be used to defend the doctrine of preterition, or double predestination (that the lost are predestined to be lost).

<sup>i</sup> About 13% of the Greek manuscripts omit “God” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

<sup>j</sup> It is not wise to presume upon God’s goodness—He demands commitment. Less than half of those who left Egypt entered the promised land.

<sup>k</sup> If they had to ‘desert’ their domain and dwelling in order to acquire the ability to procreate with women, the implication may be that their decision was irrevocable—they could not go back.

<sup>l</sup> The place is called Tartarus in 2 Peter 2:4. Comparing this passage with 1 Peter 3:19-20 and 2 Peter 2:4-5 and Genesis 6:2,4, it seems clear that certain angelic beings cohabited with women, producing a mongrel race, the nephilim. (The phrase ‘sons of God’ in Gen. 6:2,4 is a translation of the Hebrew phrase bene-haelohim—the only other places this phrase occurs are in Job 1:6, 2:1 and 38:7, where the reference is clearly to angelic beings.) This was such a heinous crime that God incarcerated them millennia before the victory of Christ (that would justify the procedure; that is what He went to announce, as mentioned in 1 Peter 3:19). It was also a master stroke by Satan—since the male sperm transmits the human nature (Hebrews 7:9-10, Romans 5:12) and determines the blood of any child, if Satan had towns—who gave themselves up to fornication and went after a different kind of flesh<sup>a</sup> in a manner similar to those angels—stand as an example, undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.<sup>b</sup>

JUDE

Evil men are in the church

succeeded in contaminating the whole race, the Messiah could not be born and Genesis 3:15 could not be fulfilled.

<sup>a</sup> Recall that they wanted to rape the angels. Whatever kind of ‘flesh’ an angel has when he materializes, it is not human.

<sup>b</sup> Just as ‘eternal life’ refers primarily to a quality of life, I take it that “eternal fire” here refers to a quality of fire—at the destruction of Sodom God used ‘brimstone and fire’ (Genesis 19:24), and the eternal Lake contains ‘fire and brimstone’ (Revelation 20:10).

<sup>c</sup> The Text has just those two words, “defile flesh”, which makes it difficult to be dogmatic about the meaning; perhaps the most common interpretation takes it as referring to their own bodies, presumably by unnatural sex.

<sup>d</sup> The Text has ‘glories’, but because of verse 9 it seems likely that the reference is to angelic beings.

<sup>e</sup> Michael is now “the archangel”, the boss angel, the commander of the heavenly army (Revelation 12:7).

<sup>f</sup> Where did Jude get this information? I always assumed that Moses went up Nebo alone (and since he did not return there would be no human witness), but the Text does not actually say so. Could it be possible that Joshua went along? Whether Joshua wrote it or God revealed it to someone, I take it that a written record was made and that Jude had access to a copy in his day. Being true information the Holy Spirit moved him to include it in his letter, which became the only inspired account of those details.

<sup>g</sup> For years I wondered why God included verse 9 in an inspired letter; what difference does it make what happened to Moses’ corpse? I now understand that the corpse is a mere prop, the crucial thing being the relationship between the two boss angels—one the leader of the good ones and the other the leader of the bad ones. We understand from Isaiah 14:12-15 and Ezekiel 28:12-17 that Lucifer was created the number one angel, but when he rebelled against the Creator I assumed that he was demoted. In such an event Michael (I assume he was the original number two) the archangel (there is only one) would be superior to Satan and be able to order him away. But the Text says he did not ‘dare’ to be disrespectful, but had to content himself with appealing to God for help. Against my inclination, I feel obliged to conclude that Lucifer (now Satan) was not demoted—he continues higher in rank than Michael. The same would hold for the other angelic beings that followed Lucifer (Daniel 10:13, 20-21; Ephesians 6:12)—they maintain their original rank. However, what Michael did not dare do, we can. According to Ephesians 1:20-21 and 2:6, we who are in Christ are seated with Him far above all principality, power, etc. (the angelic hierarchy, good and bad). In Christ we are above Satan and may rebuke him directly (but do not forget James 4:7).

<sup>h</sup> Those people were evidently rather crass materialists, controlled by their body’s appetites. We have to eat to live, but those who live to eat ruin themselves.

<sup>i</sup> Since people and animals were vegetarians before the Flood, Abel did not raise sheep for food—so why did he do it? It seems to me obvious that God must have given Adam instruction, after the Fall, about the necessity of animal sacrifice to cover their sins. To Cain, the rationalist, that didn’t make sense, so he chose to worship God in his own way. When rejected he rebelled against God and even killed his brother; those who choose evil usually hate the good, because the good shows them up.

<sup>j</sup> Balaam prostituted his divine gift for material gain. Not only were there such people in Jude’s day, there is no lack of such in ours.

<sup>12</sup>These men are hidden reefs at your love feasts, joining the feast without fear, caring only for themselves; they are clouds without rain, carried along by winds; they are late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead (having been uprooted); <sup>13</sup>they are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shameful acts; they are wandering stars, for whom the black of the darkness has been reserved forever.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Now even Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men saying: “Look, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of His holy ones <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on everyone and to convict all the godless among them of all their godless deeds that they have godlessly perpetrated, also of all the harsh things they have spoken against Him—the godless sinners!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>These men are grumblers and complainers, living according to their own evil desires; they talk big, flattering people to gain advantage.

Exhortation

<sup>17</sup>But you, dear ones, remember the words that were spoken before by the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>18</sup>how they told you that in the last time there will be scoffers who live according to their own godless desires. <sup>19</sup>These are the ones who cause division; they are ‘soulish’, not having a spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Korah rebelled against God’s established order—he wanted to be priest but was not a descendent of Aaron (though he was a Levite). He was not satisfied with the place God had allotted him.

<sup>b</sup> “The darkness” is characteristic of Satan’s kingdom. Those who promote humanistic, relativistic, materialistic ideas and values in the church are really ‘party-crashers’, agents of Satan’s kingdom. Jude’s description of such people could scarcely be more violent or abusive—they have a special spot reserved in a really black corner of the darkness, throughout eternity. Servants of Satan who pretend to be Christians are too despicable for words.

<sup>c</sup> Since I believe that Jude was inspired by the Holy Spirit in writing this letter, then I understand that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, actually did write a prophecy and copies still existed in Jude’s day. Note that this affirms the historicity/accuracy of the Genesis genealogy. If Enoch wrote, Adam also wrote, and their writings were preserved in Noah’s Ark, becoming available for use by Moses and others. If the language spoken before the Flood was a type of Hebrew, as I assume, then Jude could easily read it. No copies of this prophecy in Hebrew are known today, though Jews are reported to have used one as late as the 13th century A.D. A few supposed copies in other languages have been found.

<sup>d</sup> There is no definite article with “spirit”, so Jude is probably not referring to the Holy Spirit here. He says that the people being described are characterized by soul, not having a spirit. In which case, the reference is to humanoids, the offspring of demons with women; like it was in the days of Noah (note Genesis 6:4—“and also afterward”). Don’t forget our Lord’s words in Matthew 24:37. If/since there are such humanoids among us today, our total ignorance on the subject is having very serious consequences in the culture at large. For more on this subject, please see my article, “As were the days of Noah”, available from my website: www.prunch.org.

<sup>f</sup> Our final entrance into eternal life is stated to derive from our Lord’s mercy.

<sup>g</sup> Verses 22 and 23 have given all sorts of exercise to commentators (and to copyists who produced Greek manuscripts, before them). Considering the violent description that Jude gives to the godless who have sneaked into the church, he presumably intends that such be identified and excluded without ceremony. So I take it that verses 22 and 23 refer to people in the church who have been influenced by those godless ones, in varying degrees. Some who are still wavering need to be treated with mercy, not harshly (vs. 22). Others have pretty well sold out to the values of the godless and are almost to the point of no return—it will take energetic, if not desperate, action to snatch them from the jaws of hell (vs. 23). You can't 'snatch' without direct contact, and there is the danger of contamination.

<sup>a</sup> 1 John 2:15 says: "Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him." In a similar vein Jude warns against allowing oneself to be contaminated by anything attached to the people who are being rescued—everything about them will be contaminated by Satan's germs.

<sup>b</sup> Virtually all versions in English read 'you', following some 30% of the Greek manuscripts; but the 68% (there are two further variants), including the best line of transmission, read "them", and in the context "them" makes good sense. Jude is assuring his readers that it is worth the effort to snatch people from the very jaws of hell (v. 23), because God is able to secure them (one's natural tendency would be to doubt that). In commenting the parable of the lost sheep, the Lord Jesus affirmed that "there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance." It seems that God gets special pleasure out of cheating the Lake. Remembering that every human being bears the image of the Creator, we can understand why.

<sup>c</sup> This is truly marvelous: someone who was snatched from the jaws of hell is transformed to the extent that he can stand before God "without fault". God Himself will exult (Luke 15:10).

<sup>d</sup> About 8% of the Greek manuscripts omit "wise", leaving 'to the only God our Savior' (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.).

REVELATION

Introduction

To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins with His own blood <sup>6</sup>—indeed, He made us a kingdom, priests<sup>k</sup> to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Take note, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, including those who pierced Him.<sup>a</sup> And all the tribes of the earth will beat their breasts [in dismay] because of Him. Yea, verily!<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Whose, the Father's or the Son's? Probably the Son's, but in practice it makes little or no difference. Yes, the Text says "slaves", so this book is not intended for the merely curious.

<sup>c</sup> Any testimony of Jesus Christ is a word of God.

<sup>d</sup> Most, if not all, versions have 'he saw' (referring to John, not Jesus) and omit the rest of the verse. The manuscript evidence is seriously divided at this point. My translation reflects two of the three main independent lines of transmission, including the best one (as I see it). See 22:20, "He who testifies to these things says, 'Yes, I am coming swiftly!' Oh yes!! Come Lord Jesus!" The whole book is what Jesus Christ is testifying, is revealing; as an eye witness. So the whole book is inspired.

<sup>e</sup> John is evidently claiming divine inspiration for what he is writing. You will not be blessed for reading or hearing a newspaper or a magazine. Notice that one person is reading (aloud) and a number of people are hearing, which was the norm in the congregations, since very few could afford to have a private copy of Scripture. Notice further that it is necessary to "keep" what is written.

<sup>f</sup> The sequence "from..., and from..., and from..." suggests three persons. The third, "Jesus Christ", has to be the Son. "The seven-fold Spirit" would be the Holy Spirit. So "Him who is, was and is coming" must be the Father. Just over half of the Greek MSS add 'God' after the first "from" to make the connection overt (but the best line of transmission does not).

<sup>g</sup> Although the evidence is badly divided, I take it that the original reading is "the seven spirits which is". A plural subject with a singular verb is anomalous, unless we understand "seven-fold Spirit which is". If the Deity is three in one, why might not the Holy Spirit be seven in one? See Isaiah 11:2.

<sup>h</sup> When and how was He "the faithful witness"? Throughout His life on earth He was the faithful witness to the Father's character, what the Father was doing (John 5:19), what the Father was saying (John 12:50). Here He is the faithful witness to what is going to happen.

<sup>i</sup> We have two readings here: one is clearly "from among the dead" while the other is ambiguous, meaning either "from among the dead" or 'of the dead'. With the latter option, "firstborn" could have the derived meaning of 'lord' or 'boss'. I take it that the better option is to follow the best line of transmission and read "from among", in which case "firstborn" has its primary meaning. Death is pictured as a huge womb, pregnant with all the dead, and Jesus Christ was the first one out, literally the "firstborn"—but only the first! Because Jesus conquered death, we too may emerge from that 'womb'. Thank you Lord!

<sup>k</sup> What was the function of a priest? A priest was a go-between, representing the people to God. I would say that intercessory prayer is a priestly function.

REVELATION 1

<sup>8</sup>“I am the Alpha and the Omega,”<sup>c</sup> says the Lord God, “He who is and who was and who is coming, The Almighty.”<sup>d</sup>

John is commissioned

<sup>9</sup>I, John, your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and endurance<sup>e</sup> in Christ Jesus, was on the island called Patmos on account of the Word of God and on account of the testimony of Jesus Christ.<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>I was in spirit<sup>g</sup> on the Lord’s day and I heard a voice behind me, loud as a trumpet, <sup>11</sup>saying, “Write what you see in a book and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.” <sup>12</sup>And there I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me.<sup>h</sup> And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup>and in the midst of the seven lampstands one similar to a son of man,<sup>i</sup> clothed down to the feet and girded at the nipples<sup>j</sup> with a golden belt. <sup>14</sup>Now His head, that is His hair, was white, like wool, as white as snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire; <sup>15</sup>and His feet were like fine brass, as when refined in a furnace; and His voice was like the sound of many waters;<sup>k</sup> <sup>16</sup>and He had seven stars on His right hand and a sharp two-edged sword coming out of His mouth; and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>17</sup>And when I saw Him I fell at His feet as if dead. And He placed His right hand<sup>m</sup> upon me saying: “Do not fear. I am the First and the Last, <sup>18</sup>even the Living One—I became dead, to be sure, and now I am living for ever and ever! Oh

<sup>a</sup> The soldier who actually pierced His side on the cross, and the religious leaders who brought the situation about, are presumably in Hades. I take it that we are being told that the dead will also see Him when He returns to reign. The human spirit is indestructible, so those in Hades are very much ‘aware’ (Luke 16:22-31).

<sup>b</sup> That is how people used to talk—you may prefer ‘Yes, indeed!’ or ‘Even so, amen!’ The certainty that all tribes will beat their breasts is being emphasized.

<sup>c</sup> To be the first and the last you have to be the biggest, all the time.

<sup>d</sup> In verse 8 the Father speaks, putting His weight behind what is being written.

<sup>e</sup> “The tribulation and kingdom and endurance”—that there is only one definite article for the three nouns presumably indicates that the three are regarded as a single package. To participate in the Kingdom in this life involves tribulation and requires endurance.

<sup>f</sup> Presumably the witness that John gave about Jesus Christ. As in this verse, the human authors frequently alternated ‘Jesus Christ’ and ‘Christ Jesus’—so far as I can see, it was merely a stylistic device to reduce repetition.

<sup>g</sup> There is no definite article with “spirit”, so to capitalize the word is arbitrary. It could refer to the Holy Spirit, but I think it more likely that it refers to John’s spiritual condition (see 4:2 below).

<sup>h</sup> It was at that point that he turned.

<sup>i</sup> The Lord Jesus referred to Himself as “the Son of the Man”, always with the two definite articles, but here there are no articles (in the Greek). John saw a human like form, very different from the Jesus he had known.

<sup>j</sup> Since the figure was clothed, the nipples would not be visible, so the point is presumably to give the position of the belt—across the middle of the chest. Since no further mention is made of the belt, in the letters, it is hard to know what purpose it served. But see 15:6 below.

<sup>k</sup> A low (or loud) roar that pervades the atmosphere—it is awesome, and you cannot get away from it.

<sup>l</sup> Comparing this with verse 14 it is evident that only the part of the head covered by the hair was white, the face (probably no beard) was like the sun.

<sup>m</sup> But He had seven stars on that hand! Presumably the stars were on His open hand, so He rested the back of His hand on John. Since the seven stars represented the messengers of the seven churches, what might the symbolism be? Since the seven churches, taken together, represent the total Church (presumably), perhaps the glorified Christ is blessing John on behalf of the Church, so that he will be a blessing to that Church, in his turn.

yes!! And I have the keys of Death and of Hades!<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>Therefore<sup>b</sup> write the things that you have seen, and the things that are, and the things that are going to occur after these.<sup>c</sup> <sup>20</sup>The mystery of the seven stars which you saw upon my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the messengers<sup>d</sup> of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands that you saw are seven churches.

The seven letters<sup>e</sup>

These things says He who holds the seven stars on His right hand, who walks about in the midst of the seven golden lampstands:<sup>f</sup> <sup>2</sup>I know your works, yes the labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot stand those who are evil. And you have tested those who claim to be apostles and are not,<sup>g</sup> and found them to be liars; <sup>3</sup>and you have born up and endured on account of my name, and not grown weary.

<sup>7</sup>“He who has an ear<sup>l</sup> let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.<sup>a</sup> To the one who overcomes<sup>b</sup> I will grant to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of my God.<sup>c</sup>

- <sup>a</sup> Oh praise God! Satan used to have the keys, Hebrews 2:14, but now Jesus has them, because He did indeed vanquish the devil.
- <sup>b</sup> In verse 8 the Father guarantees the veracity of the prophecy; here the Son, who conquered death and lives forevermore, does the guaranteeing.
- <sup>c</sup> I take it that the precise form of the original Text here has the effect of affirming the certainty of the coming events. This verse is often taken as giving the outline of the book: “what you saw” = chapter 1; “things that are” = chapters 2-3; “things to come” = chapters 4-22.
- <sup>d</sup> The Greek word αγγελος may mean messenger or angel (they are often messengers). Since 2:20 below says “your wife”, referring to the messenger, we should presumably understand ‘messenger’ here as referring to a man. It is possible that messengers from these churches were visiting John, on Patmos, or had visited him earlier.
- <sup>e</sup> These letters have received a variety of ‘interpretations’. The basic meaning is obviously the literal one—these were actual churches at the time that John wrote, and each one was exactly as described in its letter. By way of application, these churches may also be taken as symbolic—at any given moment throughout the history of the Church local churches may be found to be similar in character to any one of these seven. It is also possible to see these seven churches as prophetic of the general course of the Church through time, and in that event we are presumably in the last or Laodicean age.
- <sup>f</sup> Christ’s walking about in the midst of the churches is not an aimless meandering; He is observing and evaluating.
- <sup>g</sup> Evidently it is possible to test the validity of someone’s claim to be an apostle—I wish we had been told how to do it.
- <sup>h</sup> Ouch!
- <sup>i</sup> They had not taken a sudden fall, they had drifted from their moorings, a process so gradual that it may go unnoticed for quite some time. It can happen to us too.
- <sup>j</sup> In fact, Ephesus did lose its lampstand.
- <sup>k</sup> We don’t know for sure who or what they were. The etymology of the word suggests ‘laity conquerors’, perhaps the beginning of the system where the clergy dominates the laity. Once someone has a ‘guaranteed’ position their lifestyle often becomes licentious.
- <sup>l</sup> That is right, just one ear. In other words, we had better pay attention!

To Smyrna

These things says the First and the Last,<sup>d</sup> who became dead and came to life: <sup>9</sup>“I know your works and affliction and poverty (but you are rich), and the slander of those who claim to be Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.<sup>e</sup> <sup>10</sup>Do not fear any of the things that you are about to suffer: Take note, the devil is really about to throw some of you into prison, so that you may be tested, and you will have an affliction of ten days.<sup>f</sup> Stay faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>11</sup>“He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. The one who overcomes will absolutely not be harmed by the second death.<sup>h</sup>

To Pergamos

These things says He who has the sharp two-edged sword: <sup>13</sup>“I know your works, and where you live, where Satan’s throne is. And you hold my name fast and did not deny my faith during the days in which Antipas was my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>14</sup>“Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you have there adepts of the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things offered to idols and to fornicate.<sup>j</sup> <sup>15</sup>Thus<sup>a</sup> you also have adepts of the doctrine of the Ni-

<sup>a</sup> At this point it becomes very clear that God is giving a general application to these letters. The first one was written to a literal church in literal Ephesus, in literal terms, but all of us are to pay attention to the spiritual principles and lessons involved.

<sup>c</sup> The Tree of Life is first mentioned in Genesis 3:22-24; it must have been transplanted out of the Garden of Eden before the Flood, unless it was a replica of the original in God’s Paradise. A considerable majority of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, have “my” God. While walking this earth the Son repeatedly referred to the Father as ‘my God’.

<sup>d</sup> Here, and in 1:17 and 22:13, the glorified Christ calls Himself “the First and the Last”—comparing with Isaiah 44:6 we have one of several demonstrations that Jesus Christ is Jehovah [Mormons and JW’s deny that He is Jehovah].

<sup>e</sup> You had better believe that there is a ‘synagogue of Satan’ near you! Why do you suppose that 1 Peter 5:8 says to “be vigilant”? In our day false Christians are more of a problem than false Jews.

<sup>f</sup> The Lord does not promise us a free ride, bed of roses, or whatever. Here they are given specific advance warning—bad times ahead. (Presumably the “days” are not solar.)

<sup>g</sup> So what happens if you don’t stay faithful? Note that the Lord does not register any complaint against Smyrna. If you are being persecuted for your faith it tends to keep you pretty close to the Lord. Also there is no incentive to pretend.

<sup>h</sup> Revelation 20:14 makes clear that “the second death” is the Lake of Fire. The first death is the physical one; the second is the spiritual one—eternal separation from the Creator, in whose image we are. Of course the redeemed go into eternal life, not death, so the “second death” holds no threat for them. But there is the little matter of ‘overcoming’.

<sup>i</sup> I find the double reference to Satan here to be curious. The opposition in the spirit realm would be especially strong.

<sup>j</sup> Why are fornication and adultery becoming more and more common in ‘Christian’ circles today? They come with idolatry—the church is riddled with humanism, relativism, materialism, spiritism, etc., colaitans as well. <sup>16</sup>Repent! Or else I will come at you swiftly and will fight against them<sup>b</sup> with the sword of my mouth.’

<sup>17</sup>“He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To the one who overcomes I will grant to eat from<sup>c</sup> the hidden manna. And I will give him a white pebble, and on the pebble a new name written, which no one knows except the receiver.<sup>d</sup>

To Thyatira

These things says the Son of God,<sup>e</sup> He who has the eyes like a flame of fire and the feet like fine brass: <sup>19</sup>I know your works<sup>f</sup>—the love, the faith, the service—and your endurance; in fact your last works are greater than the first.<sup>g</sup>

false gods all. One wonders how many Christians today have a world view that is strictly Biblical, without any admixture of the world's values.

<sup>a</sup> Birds of a feather flock together; if you start sinning in one area, before long it is two.

<sup>b</sup> Notice that the pronoun changes—it is specifically against the Nicolaitans and Balaamites that He will fight.

<sup>d</sup> Our name identifies us to other people, so what good is a name that no one knows? Except that the giver knows, obviously. So maybe the private name has to do with a private relationship, between giver and receiver! Eating “hidden manna” also sounds sort of private.

<sup>e</sup> If anyone was still in doubt as to the identity of the One who is dictating these letters, the doubt stops here.

<sup>f</sup> Each of the seven letters begins with this phrase, ‘I know your works’. How we act reflects our world-view, what we really believe.

<sup>g</sup> Wow, here is a church that has it all—love, faith, service, endurance—and it is growing, doing more and more! Yes, well, but, then there is the rest of the story.

<sup>h</sup> About three fourths of the Greek manuscripts, including the best line of transmission, read “your wife” rather than ‘that woman’. The main group that reads ‘that woman’ reflects a tradition that is full of obvious corruptions, and so does not inspire confidence. The original reading is doubtless “your wife”. To have a wife the messenger must be a man, not an angel.

<sup>k</sup> If someone refuses to repent they are beyond help; judgment has to come.

<sup>l</sup> Two thirds of the Greek manuscripts, including the most dependable group, have “her” works, not ‘their’ works. In verse 20 the Lord emphasized that they were His slaves. If the original reading is “her” works, as I believe, then what is involved here is spiritual adultery—she was not literally sleeping with a variety of men in the church. No matter how much love, faith and service there may be in a church, the Lord will not tolerate idolatry, which is spiritual adultery.

<sup>m</sup> Literally ‘kill by death’—so how else can you kill someone if not by death? Those who are familiar with the KJV will recall the phrase ‘let him die the death’, which in the context implies execution. I take it that “her children” does not refer to her literal sons and daughters, but to her ‘spiritual children’, those who have bought into her teaching and life style. The Lord wants to eradicate her ‘genes’, as it were. But why does God not kill Jezebel herself, instead of her children? I imagine that God uses evil people,

REVELATION 3

I am the One who searches minds and hearts, and I will give to each one of you according to your works.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Now to the rest of you who are in Thyatira I say—to as many as do not hold this teaching, those who have not known<sup>b</sup> the depths of Satan, as they say—I will not put any other burden on you; <sup>25</sup>just hold fast what you have until I come.<sup>c</sup> <sup>26</sup>And as for the one who overcomes and keeps my works<sup>d</sup> until the end, I will give him authority over the nations; <sup>27</sup>and he will ‘shepherd’ them with a rod of iron; they will be smashed like clay pots <sup>28</sup>—just as I have received from my Father.<sup>e</sup> And I will give him the morning star.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>29</sup>He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

To Sardis

3 <sup>1</sup>“And to the messenger of the church in Sardis write:

These things says He who has the seven spirits of God<sup>g</sup> and the seven stars: ‘I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, yet you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Wake up! And strengthen the remaining things that you were about to throw away,<sup>h</sup> for I have not found your works to be fulfilled before my God. <sup>3</sup>So remember how you have received and heard,<sup>i</sup> and hold fast and repent; because if you do not watch, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

<sup>4</sup>But you do have a few names in Sardis who have not defiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, because they are like Jezebel, to put the rest of us to the test, to see whose side we really are on. Those who go along with a ‘Jezebel’ don’t really want God.

<sup>a</sup> What we do, or do not do, not only makes a difference down here, but will also make a difference ‘up there’.

<sup>b</sup> “Known” implies experiential knowledge. Note that the Lord links Jezebel’s teaching directly to Satan, and those who are doing it are deeply involved with him (whether or not they fully understand the implications—if they are ‘deceived’ [v. 20] then they may indeed not understand).

<sup>c</sup> They were doing quite well, generally—see the second note with verse 19 above. So if they throw off Jezebel’s influence they will be all right.

<sup>d</sup> “Keeps my works until the end”—it is not enough to hold to the right doctrine; the Lord wants to see us reproducing His works (John 14:12). Notice that our participation in the administration of the Messianic Millennial Kingdom is at stake.

<sup>e</sup> The Lord is evidently referring to Psalms 2:7-9. In that event He is declaring that He is the “Son” in verse 7 and that He did indeed ask for and receive the nations as an inheritance. If we are co-heirs (Romans 8:17) then we are involved in the outworking.

<sup>f</sup> In Revelation 22:16 the Lord declares Himself to be the “morning star”. In Isaiah 14:12 Satan is called “day-star, son of the morning”, but that was what he was before he fell. The planets Venus and Mercury are the ‘morning stars’ we see in the sky at dawn. But the Lord here says the morning star. I guess we will find out what He means when we get there.

<sup>g</sup> In 1:4 above “the seven Spirits”, which I rendered as “seven-fold Spirit”, has to do with the Holy Spirit. Here I think not—the Lord ‘has’ them like He has the seven stars. Perhaps the reference is to Isaiah 11:2.

<sup>h</sup> “That you were about to throw away” is the reading of about 2/3 of the Greek manuscripts, including the most dependable group, as opposed to ‘that were about to die’. They had probably already stopped believing in a variety of Biblical truths and were on the verge of dumping the rest, like the theological modernist or liberal of our day. Not surprisingly, they were short on works as well.

worthy. <sup>5</sup>The one who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments, and I will not erase his name from the Book of Life,<sup>a</sup> and I will confess his name before my Father and before His angels.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>6</sup>“He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

To Philadelphia

These things says the Holy, the True, He who has the key of David, who opens and no one can shut it, except He who opens, and no one can open:<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>I know your works. Look, I have set before you an open door, that no one is able to shut; because you have a little strength and have kept my Word and have not denied my name. <sup>9</sup>See, I am determining that some of the synagogue of Satan, those who claim to be Jews and are not, but are lying—yes, I will cause them to come, and to do obeisance at your feet and to know that I have loved you.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>Because you have kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of the testing that is about to come upon the whole inhabited earth,<sup>e</sup> to test those who dwell on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>I am coming swiftly. Hold fast what you have so that no one may take your crown.<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never again go out. And I will write on him the name of my God, the name of my God’s city—the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God—and my new name.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>13</sup>“He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

To Laodicea

<sup>a</sup> The Text is very clear—the glorified Christ said “erase”. You cannot erase something that is not there! To argue that Christ is using an impossibility as a threat is to accuse Him of using language deceitfully, a form of lying—not smart! By the grace of God my name is in the Book of Life, but what happens if I do not overcome? In all seven letters our risen Lord places heavy emphasis upon our human responsibility. God will take care of His side; we had better take a careful look at our side.

<sup>b</sup> Comparing this statement with Jesus’ statement in Matthew 10:32-33, confessing is the opposite of denying. Since eternal destiny is at stake, the confessing/denying must involve what we are and do, not just our words. Confessing has to do with overcoming.

<sup>c</sup> The evidence is badly divided with reference to the wording of the last half of the verse. The translation given here reflects over half of the Greek manuscripts, including the most dependable group. We are accustomed to the more balanced form, but the basic point remains the same.

<sup>d</sup> I take it that this will happen here on earth—a pleasant prospect! Since they have been slandering us (at the very least, 2:9) this will be a welcome vindication. I imagine that at this point in history the “synagogue of Satan” includes people who claim to be Christians, but are not really. They may even be in positions of leadership (cf. Jeremiah 20:1-4).

<sup>e</sup> There has always been tribulation and testing here and there on the earth, but to include “the whole inhabited earth” the reference must be to the Great Tribulation. How can you be “kept from the hour” if you are in the middle of it? To be protected in the middle of a situation is not the same as being kept from it. This text would appear to point toward a pre-tribulation, or pre-wrath, rapture of the Church.

<sup>f</sup> Would the glorified Christ make an empty threat? So how does someone take our crown? How about if someone moves into a spot that you relinquished?

These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the Originator of God's creation: <sup>15</sup>I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. <sup>16</sup>So then, since you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth.<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>Because you say, "I am rich, even become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and do not realize that you are the most wretched—yes, the most pitiable and poor and blind and naked—<sup>18</sup>I counsel you to buy gold from me, refined by fire, so that you may become rich; and white garments, so that you may be clothed, and your nakedness not be shamefully exposed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, so that you may see. <sup>19</sup>As many as I love I rebuke and discipline;<sup>b</sup> so be zealous and repent!

<sup>20</sup>Now then, I stand at the door and knock.<sup>c</sup> If anyone should hear my voice<sup>d</sup> and open the door, I really will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. <sup>21</sup>To the one who overcomes I will grant to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame<sup>e</sup> and sat down with my Father on His throne.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>22</sup>"He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

"The things that must happen after these"

4 <sup>1</sup>After these things I looked and wow—a door standing open in the sky, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me,<sup>g</sup> saying, "Come up here and I will show you the things that must take place after these."<sup>h</sup>

The Throne Room

<sup>2</sup>And immediately I was in spirit,<sup>a</sup> and there, a throne set in heaven (and One sitting on the throne) <sup>3</sup>similar in appearance to a stone,<sup>b</sup> jasper and carnel-

<sup>a</sup> If the Lord vomits you out, where do you go? Something can only be vomited out if it is in.

<sup>c</sup> Although this text is widely used in evangelism, it is actually directed to Christians. The Lord is offering fellowship and communion to those who claim to belong to Him. Recall that the Father seeks those who will worship Him in spirit and truth (John 4:23). Many have the impression that God is hard to find or reach, but He disagrees: "You will seek me and find me, when you search for me with all your heart" (Jeremiah 29:13). The trouble is that few of us are willing to meet the condition. See also 2 Chronicles 15:2 and 16:9; also Acts 17:27.

<sup>d</sup> Evidently He both knocks and calls. In many cultures one calls out rather than knocks [there may not be any door, or the dogs may not let you get near it], and in the Apurinã culture (an indigenous people in the Amazon jungle, among whom I lived for several years) you call the person's name.

<sup>e</sup> "Consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself..." (Hebrews 12:3; see also verses 4-11). He overcame, we must overcome—God is not offering a free ride.

<sup>f</sup> Comparing this statement with Ephesians 1:19-21 and 2:6, what is the picture? Since the Son is now literally "seated" at the Father's right hand, this promise should be taken literally. But how about right now? I take it that we are supposed to be conducting ourselves on the basis of our position in Christ, on the basis of His victory and authority—maybe this has something to do with 'overcoming'.

<sup>g</sup> This is a reference to 1:10 above, so it is the glorified Christ who is speaking—He is continuing His communicating (see 1:1 above), only now He is speaking from Heaven.

<sup>h</sup> "After these" opens and closes the verse. 'These' is a pronoun, so what is its antecedent? Presumably the churches described in chapters 2 and 3 ("the things that are" referred to in 1:19). Does "after" the churches imply that they are off the scene?

ian, and there was a rainbow around the throne, similar in appearance to an emerald. <sup>4</sup>And around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw the twenty-four elders sitting,<sup>c</sup> clothed in white robes and golden crowns on their heads.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>And out of the throne came lightnings and noises and thunders; and seven lamps of fire were burning before His throne, which are seven spirits<sup>e</sup> of God; <sup>6</sup>and before the throne it was like a sea of glass, similar to crystal.

The four living beings

And in the midst of the throne and around the throne were four living beings full of eyes, front and back. <sup>7</sup>The first living being was similar to a lion, the second living being was similar to a calf, the third living being had a face like a man, and the fourth living being was similar to a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>And the four living beings, each one of them, having six wings apiece, were full of eyes around and within.<sup>f</sup> And they take no rest, day or night, saying:<sup>g</sup>

“Holy, holy, holy;
 Holy, holy, holy;
 Holy, holy, holy;<sup>h</sup>
 The Lord God Almighty;
 He who was and who is
 and who is coming!”

The twenty-four elders

<sup>9</sup>And whenever the living beings ascribe glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever, <sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and they cast their crowns before the throne saying:

<sup>11</sup>“You are worthy, our Lord and God, the Holy One,<sup>i</sup> to receive the glory and the honor and the power,

- <sup>a</sup> Compare 1:10. The Voice commanded him to “come up here”—it was something John had to do; I take it that his spirit was transported to heaven. (Consider Jesus—Matthew 17:25, John 1:48; Paul—1 Corinthians 5:3-4, Colossians 2:5; Elisha—2 Kings 5:26, 6:12.)
- <sup>b</sup> The throne, not the One. 15% of the Greek manuscripts do have the One looking like a stone, but I judge that the 85% are correct.
- <sup>c</sup> Why do we have “the” twenty-four elders the first time they are mentioned? I take it that John found them to be especially impressive or interesting (perhaps he identified with them).
- <sup>d</sup> Might this picture have any connection with the promise in 3:21 above?
- <sup>e</sup> There is no definite article with “seven spirits”. I doubt that they represent the Holy Spirit.
- <sup>f</sup> The picture seems to be that the throne was not solid—the living beings moved in, through and around it; and they themselves were translucent—at least John could see that they had eyes inside as well as outside.
- <sup>g</sup> Most of the Greek manuscripts have the elders in chorus with the living beings here, but the best line of transmission has just the living beings repeating ‘holy’ endlessly, which agrees with verse nine.
- <sup>h</sup> The manuscript evidence is badly divided here, but I take it that two of the tree main lines of independent transmission, including the best one, have “holy” nine times, instead of three. Surely it is more likely that ‘nine’ would be changed to ‘three’ than vice versa. In fact, try reading “holy” nine times in a row out loud—it starts to get uncomfortable! Since in the context the living ones are repeating themselves endlessly, the ‘nine’ is both appropriate and effective. Three ‘holies’ for each member of the Trinity.
- <sup>i</sup> ‘O Lord’ as in KJV is found in a very few late manuscripts. Almost all Greek manuscripts have the words “Lord”, “God” and “our”, and some 2/3 of them (including the best group) have “the Holy One”.

REVELATION 5

because You created all things, and by Your will they exist and were created!"

The Lamb takes the scroll

5 <sup>1</sup>And I saw upon the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll, written inside and outside, sealed with seven seals.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?" <sup>3</sup>And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look at it. <sup>4</sup>And I began to really weep, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look at it.

<sup>5</sup>So one of the elders says to me: "Stop weeping! Look! The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and its seven seals." <sup>6</sup>And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living beings, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing<sup>b</sup>—as if slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which<sup>c</sup> are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And He went and took it out of the right hand of the One sitting on the throne!

A new song

<sup>8</sup>And when He took the scroll the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the saints.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>And they sing a new song saying:

"You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals;
because You were slaughtered, and have redeemed us<sup>e</sup> to God by your blood out of every tribe and language and people and ethnic nation;
<sup>10</sup>and You have made them<sup>f</sup> kings and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth."

All the angels

<sup>11</sup>And I looked, and I heard as it were the voice of many angels, around the throne and the living beings and the elders. And their number was ten thousand times ten thousand and a thousand thousands,<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>saying with a great voice:

---

<sup>a</sup> Again, how did John know that the scroll was written on both sides if it was closed? And where were the seals, all on the outside? It appears that the scroll also was not solid, or else John had laser vision.

<sup>b</sup> The Lamb is a Lion; the Lion is a Lamb. I would say that the Lamb characterizes Christ in His first advent to this earth, while the Lion characterizes His second advent.

<sup>c</sup> In about ¾ of the Greek manuscripts, including the best group, the gender of this relative pronoun agrees with "horns" (neuter) and not "eyes" (masculine). Perhaps the spirits were represented by both the horns and the eyes, possibly referring to power and knowledge.

<sup>d</sup> They all fell down, but I gather that it was the elders who had harps and bowls and sang the new song (the four are saying "Holy, holy" all the time).

<sup>e</sup> Every Greek manuscript except one, of inferior quality, reads "us". Many modern versions follow that lone manuscript and omit the pronoun, but that leaves the transitive verb "redeem" without a direct object, so they usually supply "men" or some such thing. But the true reading is obviously "us", so the 24 elders are among the redeemed, and they are already in heaven wearing crowns.

<sup>f</sup> A very few late Greek manuscripts read 'us', as in KJV, but almost all the manuscripts read "them". The 24 elders exclude themselves when it comes to reigning on the earth—evidently they will not be involved in the administration of the Messianic Millennial Kingdom.

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered to receive the power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”<sup>b</sup>

Every creature

<sup>13</sup>And every creature which is in the heaven and upon the earth and under the earth, and upon the sea (the existing places and the creatures in them)—I heard them all<sup>c</sup> saying: “To Him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb: the blessing and the honor and the glory and the power for ever and ever! Amen!!”<sup>14</sup>(It was the four living beings saying the “Amen”). And the elders fell and did obeisance.<sup>d</sup>

The Lamb opens the seals

The first seal

The second seal

<sup>3</sup>And when He opened the second seal I heard the second living being saying, “Come!”<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>And another horse went out, fiery red, and it was granted to him who sat on it to take the peace from the earth, so that they would slaughter each other; also, a huge sword was given to him.

The third seal

<sup>5</sup>And when He opened the third seal I heard the third living being saying, “Come!” And I looked and, wow, a black horse! And he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings saying: “A ‘quart’ of wheat for a denarius<sup>h</sup> and three ‘quarts’ of barley for a denarius; but do not harm the olive oil and the wine.”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> 10,000 x 10,000 = 100,000,000, so the good angels are over 100 million. If we understand correctly from Revelation 12:4 that a third of the original angels followed Lucifer in his rebellion, that means that there are some 50 million demons out there. Good grief!

<sup>b</sup> A list of seven; what else could we add?

<sup>c</sup> “Every creature” presumably must include more than men and angels; I take it that all mammals, at least (they have soul), including those in the sea (dolphins, whales), and quite possibly birds (eagles) will participate.

<sup>d</sup> The living beings and the elders were prostrating themselves and getting up repeatedly.

<sup>e</sup> The evidence is badly divided here, but I take it that two of the three main independent lines of transmission, including the best one, read as I have translated. The “Come!” was directed to the horse, not to John (since he was right there, there would be no need to address him with a thunderous roar). The same comment applies in verses 5 and 7.

<sup>f</sup> You had better believe that that was some horse!

<sup>g</sup> Over 80% of the Greek manuscripts do not have “and see”, as in KJV. Each of the living beings called out a horse, saying to it, “Come!”

REVELATION 6

The fourth seal

<sup>7</sup>And when He opened the fourth seal I heard a voice from the fourth living being saying, “Come!” <sup>8</sup>And I looked and, wow, a sickly pale horse! And as for the one sitting upon it, his name is Death, and Hades follows with him.<sup>a</sup> And authority was given to him<sup>b</sup> over a fourth of the earth, to kill by sword and by famine and by death, also by the wild animals of the earth.<sup>c</sup>

The fifth seal

<sup>9</sup>And when He opened the fifth seal I saw underneath the altar the souls of the people who had been slaughtered on account of the Word of God and on account of the testimony of the Lamb which they held.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>And they cried out with a loud voice saying: “How long, O Sovereign, Holy and True, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?” <sup>11</sup>So a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told that they should rest a while longer, until both their fellow slaves and their brothers,<sup>e</sup> who were about to be killed just like they were, should complete the number.

The sixth seal

<sup>12</sup>And I saw, just when He opened the sixth seal—there was a severe earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood. <sup>13</sup>And the stars of heaven fell to the earth,<sup>f</sup> like a fig tree drops its late figs when shaken by a strong wind. <sup>14</sup>And the sky was split, like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>15</sup>And the kings of the earth and the magnates and the generals and the rich and the mighty, and every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.<sup>h</sup> <sup>16</sup>And they said to the mountains and the rocks: “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! <sup>17</sup>Because the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?”<sup>i</sup>

<sup>a</sup> The Text does not say that Hades was on a horse. John is stating a fact of human existence: Hades follows death—so it has been for 6,000 years.

<sup>b</sup> Less than 30% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘them’ for ‘him’, but they are followed by most (if not all) versions in English. However, it is Death that does the killing; Hades just collects the dead. The 70% are doubtless correct (involving two of the three main independent lines of transmission, including the best one).

<sup>c</sup> ‘The four horsemen of the Apocalypse’ have received quite a bit of press, off and on, but they are just the opening gambit. The really heavy stuff comes later.

<sup>d</sup> These “souls” have evidently not yet been reunited with their bodies, which means that they have not participated in any resurrection, including the Rapture (see 3:10, 4:1 and 5:9). See notes at 7:13-14. “Of the people” excludes animals, that also have souls.

<sup>e</sup> “Slaves” and “brothers” evidently refer to two distinct categories of people, but I don’t know the explanation (unless ‘slaves’ refers to Israel, see 7:3 below and Galatians 4:25, in which case ‘brothers’ would refer to the Church).

<sup>f</sup> I suppose this refers to fallen angels, since a single literal star would obliterate our planet.

<sup>g</sup> Now it starts to get heavy! I have never been in a serious earthquake, but a former colleague was, and the trauma was so severe that years later he still had trouble talking about it.

<sup>h</sup> The wrath of God is a great leveler; the social classes all of a sudden do not make much difference—they are all trying to hide.

<sup>i</sup> Note that it is the Lamb’s wrath—those who reject His sacrifice can look for wrath. Notice that there is no hint of repentance from the people.

Parenthesis

The sealed of Israel

7 <sup>1</sup>And after this<sup>a</sup> I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth,<sup>b</sup> holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind should blow upon the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel ascending from the sun's rising, having the seal of the Living God. And he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it had been granted to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying: "Do not harm the earth, nor the sea nor the trees, until we have sealed the slaves of our God on their foreheads." <sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>From the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand,
 from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, <sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand,
 from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, <sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand,
 from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, <sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Zebulon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph<sup>c</sup> twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.<sup>d</sup>

A multitude from the Great Tribulation

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels stood around the Throne, and the elders and the four living beings, and they fell down before the Throne, on their faces, and worshipped God, <sup>12</sup>saying:

"Amen!
 The blessing and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving

<sup>a</sup> He saw the content of chapter seven after he saw the content of chapter six, but the events described are not necessarily in chronological order. It should not be assumed that nothing else happened between the seals, or even at the same time. However, the seals are broken in sequence.

<sup>b</sup> The Text says "the four corners" and "the four winds". Presumably from John's perspective the earth would look like a sphere (or a circle)—so perhaps the angels were strategically placed so as to control the whole planet. There are four basic wind patterns that influence most of the world—the north and south 'trade winds' and the north and south 'prevailing westerlies'.

<sup>c</sup> "Joseph" stands for Ephraim. Since Levi is counted here (usually he isn't) and Joseph has two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, someone has to be dropped—Dan. From both Jacob (Genesis 49:16-17) and Moses (Deuteronomy 33:22) he got the least impressive 'blessing'.

<sup>d</sup> Linguistically speaking, in terms of the norms of language, a phrase like "the tribe of Asher" can only have one meaning, precisely the meaning that it has everywhere else in the Bible. Ezekiel chapter 37 makes very clear that 'the ten lost tribes' are not lost at all—God knows exactly who and where they are, and at the right moment they will be restored.

REVELATION 8

and the honor and the power and the strength to our God for ever and ever!
Amen.”

<sup>13</sup>And one of the elders reacted, saying to me, “Who are these that are clothed in the white robes,<sup>a</sup> and where did they come from?” <sup>14</sup>So I said to him, “My lord, you know.”<sup>b</sup> So he said to me: “These are those who come out of the Great Tribulation—they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup>Therefore they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His sanctuary.<sup>d</sup> And He who sits on the throne will shelter them. <sup>16</sup>They shall not hunger anymore, nor thirst anymore; the sun will absolutely not strike them, nor any heat; <sup>17</sup>because the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them and leads them to springs of waters<sup>e</sup> of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”<sup>f</sup>

The seventh seal

8 <sup>1</sup>And when He opened the seventh seal there was a stillness in heaven for about half an hour.<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>3</sup>And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer.<sup>i</sup> He was given lots of incense so that he could offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar that is before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense with the prayers of the saints went up before God out of the angel’s hand. <sup>5</sup>Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it at the earth. And there were noises and thunders and lightnings and an earthquake. <sup>6</sup>And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to trumpet.

<sup>a</sup> I take it that we should refer back to the fifth seal, 6:11 above—in that event those martyrs were also killed during the Great Tribulation, just earlier on. Perhaps at this point (7:13) the pre-determined number of martyrs is now complete (in 6:11 it was not).

<sup>b</sup> John understands that the elder is offering information and tells him to go ahead.

<sup>c</sup> Assuming a pre-Abomination-of-Desolation rapture of the Church (because of the surprise factor, but see the note at 2 Thessalonians 2:2), I take it that multiplied millions of church members will be left behind—they knew the Gospel but were never really regenerated. When they see that they have been left behind they will fall on their faces before God saying: “Oh Lord, have mercy; if I never believed before I do now!” There will be many millions of conversions in the first hours after the Rapture. People were saved in the OT without the indwelling Holy Spirit, and they will be too. But they will have to face the Beast and most of them will be martyred. Notice that they say, “Saved by our God... and by the Lamb.” Apparently there is a sovereign act of God (the Father) involved here, with the blood of the Lamb as the basis.

<sup>e</sup> That is what the Text says, “waters”, plural. Might there be different kinds of water, or just different sources?

<sup>f</sup> To do this, will He also remove the memories that bring the tears?

<sup>g</sup> A ‘deafening’ silence! I wonder why. Well, there has been a lot of noise up to this point, and there will be plenty more later, so the silence acts as an emphasis by contrast. The outpouring of wrath will now build to a peak.

<sup>h</sup> One gains the clear impression that the seven trumpets form the content of the seventh seal.

The first trumpet

<sup>7</sup>So the first one trumpeted, and there appeared hail and fire mixed with blood, and it [the mixture] was thrown at the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up; that is, a third of the trees was burned up and all green grass was burned up.

The second trumpet

<sup>8</sup>So the second angel trumpeted, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. <sup>9</sup>And a third of the creatures with souls<sup>a</sup> in the sea died. And a third of the ships were destroyed.

The third trumpet

<sup>10</sup>So the third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell out of the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell upon a third of the rivers, and on the springs of waters.<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>The name of the star is called Wormwood; so a third of the waters were turned into wormwood, and many people died from the waters because they were made bitter.

The fourth trumpet

<sup>12</sup>So the fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them was darkened; so a third of the day did not shine, and the night likewise.

<sup>13</sup>And I saw and heard an eagle<sup>c</sup> flying in mid-heaven saying with a loud voice, three times: "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth because of the remaining trumpet blasts of the three angels who are about to trumpet!"

The fifth trumpet

9 <sup>1</sup>So the fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a 'star'<sup>d</sup> that had fallen out of the sky to the earth. And to him was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss.<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup>So he opened the shaft of the Abyss and smoke went up out of the shaft, like the smoke of a burning furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the shaft. <sup>3</sup>And 'locusts' exited from the smoke into the earth. And to them was given a capability just like the scorpions of the earth have capability. <sup>4</sup>And they were told not to harm the grass of the earth, nor any green plant, nor any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And it was designated to them [locusts], not to kill them [men] but, to torment them five months. And their torment is like the torment of a scorpion whenever it

---

<sup>a</sup> That is what the Text says. Just as food for thought, I would suggest that God is Spirit and has soul; a human is soul and has spirit; an angel is spirit with no soul; an animal is soul with no spirit; insects and lower forms have neither. I imagine that the reference here is to mammals in the sea (like dolphins).

<sup>b</sup> If the springs are hit, does that include the aquifers that supply their water? If so, a third of the sweet water on the earth is ruined.

<sup>e</sup> The Greek word appears to be composed of two morphemes, "no-depth". Since it is a shaft or pit we presumably should understand no known or measured depth, hence 'bottomless'. Literally, "the shaft of the no-bottom"; the familiar 'bottomless pit' is not a bad rendering. Since the word "abyss" occurs elsewhere without the "shaft/pit" (see verse 11, also Luke 8:31) I prefer to take it as a proper name.

REVELATION 9

strikes a person. <sup>6</sup>And in those days the people will seek death but not find it; they will want to die but death will run away from them.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>The first woe is past, but, two woes are still coming, after these things.

The sixth trumpet

<sup>13</sup>So the sixth angel trumpeted, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar<sup>d</sup> that is before God <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." <sup>15</sup>So the four angels were released—they had been prepared for the hour and the day and month and year—so that they might kill a third of mankind. <sup>16</sup>And the number of the mounted troops was a hundred million<sup>e</sup> (I heard their number). <sup>17</sup>And in the vision I saw the horses like this: those who rode them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue and sulfur yellow; the heads of the horses were like lions' heads; out of their mouths came fire, smoke and brimstone. <sup>18</sup>By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came out of their mouths.<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>For the capability of the horses is in their mouths—and in their tails, because their tails are like snakes, having heads, and with them they do harm.

<sup>20</sup>Yet the rest of the people, those who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so as to stop worshipping the demons, even

<sup>a</sup> It will not be a good time to be on the earth!

<sup>b</sup> Evidently these are not the literal insect, but the insect came in clouds (millions of them) and was a terrible plague. Since they are lead by a high-ranking demon (as I suppose), they are probably demons. I associate Luke 8:31 with this passage—although the Lord evidently did not send those demons to the Abyss, that they kept begging Him not to shows that it was a very real possibility in their 'minds'; they knew something that we do not. I take it that the Lord did not send them to the Abyss at that point because He had not won the victory yet—Satan was still the god of this world and the demons were doing their thing under Satan's authority. But now we are to act on the basis of that victory, on the basis of our position and authority in Christ (Ephesians 2:6). So how did all those demons get into the Abyss to be available for the fifth trumpet? They got there because we sent them there! I would say that sending demons to the Abyss is one of the 'greater' things that the Lord Jesus said we would do (John 14:12).

<sup>c</sup> And in English, Destroyer. "Angel" covers both good and bad—this one sounds like a boss demon.

<sup>d</sup> I find it to be curious that this voice comes from the altar [and why did the altars have horns?], which is usually associated with obtaining God's mercy. But in this case the altar participates in the judgment.

<sup>e</sup> Some ⅔ of the Greek manuscripts, including the best group, do not have 'two'. John was given the number.

<sup>f</sup> Dear me! And I thought the 'locusts' were bad! Notice that it is the "horses" that do the killing, not the riders. I understand that China has over one hundred million armed militia, right now, but presumably not these 'horses'. Just as in the case of the 'locusts', I take it that we are looking at supernatural activity here. The population of the world is reduced by one third.

the idols<sup>a</sup> of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk; <sup>21</sup>and they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries or their fornication or their thefts.<sup>b</sup>

John eats a little book

<sup>8</sup>Now the voice that I heard out of heaven was speaking to me again and saying: “Go, take the little book that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.” <sup>9</sup>So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book,” and he says to me: “Take and eat it up; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.” <sup>10</sup>So I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it up, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But <sup>a</sup> Notice that the idols are linked to demons. Even though an image of wood presumably has no power in itself, a demon associated with it can do all sorts of damage.

<sup>b</sup> They were totally self-centered, and therefore totally evil, malignant, under demonic control; carbon copies of the devil. They are prepared to kill, steal and use witchcraft to gain their ends, with a total disregard for others. They want sexual gratification without responsibility. No matter what God does they will not repent; they are beyond fixing. I am glad I will not be there. Oops, wait a minute! Don’t an awful lot of people in the world today (especially in Europe and North America) already answer to this description? They have been brought up on evolutionistic, relativistic humanism; they have been taught that they are gods, to ‘do your own thing’. Hey, if we are not already there I reckon we are well on the way! A recent study found that most young people in America today are narcissists.

<sup>f</sup> That is what the Text says, the seven thunders, and each had a voice and could speak intelligible words. Obviously these “thunders” exist quite apart from climactic conditions on earth. Interesting! (I suspect that what we do not know exceeds what we think we do know, and by a considerable margin.)

<sup>g</sup> The evidence is divided here, but I take it that two of the three main independent lines of transmission, including the best group, have “You write after these things” rather than ‘do not write them’. This text has been generally misunderstood since the beginning. Having been told to seal what the thunders uttered, why would John be told he would write it later? So many copyists altered the text, reinforcing the prohibition. However, I take it that the voice was giving two unrelated instructions: not to record the thunders; and to put his notebook aside until later—he is going to be busy interacting with the angel and eating a book, and the voice does not want him to be distracted by trying to write at the same time.

<sup>h</sup> “The days”—the events associated with a given trumpet (and probably seal and bowl) cover a period of time; they are not instantaneous.

REVELATION 11

when I had eaten it my stomach was made bitter. <sup>11</sup>And he said to me, “You must prophesy again over many peoples, even over ethnic nations and languages and kings.”<sup>a</sup>

The two witnesses

11 <sup>1</sup>I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood<sup>b</sup> saying: “Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship there. <sup>2</sup>But leave out the outer court of the temple and do not measure it, because it has been given to the nations; and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months.<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>And I<sup>d</sup> will give authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees, even the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>And if anyone wants to harm them fire comes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies. So if anyone wants to harm them he must be killed in this way. <sup>6</sup>They have authority to shut up the sky so that no rain falls during the days of their prophecy; and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they wish.<sup>g</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> The action in verses 9-11 is presumably symbolic, but of what? Like why was the little book open, and why the stomach ache, etc.? I imagine that the book contained the prophecy mentioned by the angel, and being open would indicate that the prophecy was to be understandable. The book inside John suggests inspiration to me, and the terms of the prophecy would be mainly bitter.

<sup>b</sup> I get the impression that the angel shifted position, probably with both feet on land—his legs had been spread or straddled, now he stands normally.

<sup>c</sup> Comparing forty-two months with 1,260 days we get 30-day months. A year computed on the basis of these ‘prophetic’ months, as they are sometimes called, is five days shorter than a calendar year. Forty-two calendar months would give 1,277/8 days.

<sup>d</sup> Presumably the angel is still speaking—might He be God the Son? Could a mere angel say “my two witnesses”?

<sup>e</sup> Note that their ‘ministry’ covers 3½ years; the Text does not actually say that it will be simultaneous with the trampling of the holy city, but I imagine that it will come close. When I see the perversity in the world I am sometimes tempted to wish I could do what they are going to do, until I get to the ‘sackcloth’—walking around in sackcloth for 3½ years does not sound like much fun.

<sup>g</sup> They have the authority to do these things, but it is discretionary; it is up to them to decide when, where, and how much.

<sup>h</sup> This would seem to confirm that the “locusts” and their king, in chapter nine, are on Satan’s side. That is also where Satan will be confined during the Millennium (20:3). If this beast is not Abbaddon he is presumably another high ranking demon, or so I thought until I got to 13:1 and 17:8, which see.

<sup>i</sup> Over 99% of the Greek manuscripts have “their” Lord, not ‘our’ as in KJV and NKJV. If these two “olive trees” are the ones in Zechariah 4:3 and 14, then the “LORD of the whole earth” there is Jehovah the Son.

<sup>j</sup> We might expect “Sodom and Egypt” to apply to Rome, rather than Jerusalem, but the Lord was crucified in Jerusalem.

<sup>k</sup> People in past generations had trouble imagining how this could happen, but with modern technology people around the world will watch those corpses.

<sup>10</sup>And those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will enjoy themselves and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>11</sup>And after three-and-a-half days a breath of life from God entered them and they stood on their feet, and a great fear fell on those who were watching them. <sup>12</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. <sup>13</sup>And in that day there was a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand individuals were killed in the earthquake. And the rest became fearful and gave glory to the God of heaven.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>The second woe is past. Look out, here comes the third woe!

The seventh trumpet

<sup>15</sup>So the seventh angel trumpeted, and there were loud voices in heaven saying:

“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!”

<sup>16</sup>And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones in God’s presence, fell on their faces and worshipped God <sup>17</sup>saying:

“We thank You, O Lord God Almighty,
He who is and who was and who is coming, because You have taken up your great power and begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup>The nations were angry and your wrath came, even the time for the dead to be judged and to give the reward to Your slaves the prophets, and to the saints<sup>c</sup> and those who fear your name, small and great,
and to destroy those who have corrupted the earth.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>And the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of the covenant<sup>e</sup> of the Lord was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings and huge hail.<sup>f</sup>

Parenthesis—partly historical

The woman, the Child, the dragon

<sup>a</sup> They will celebrate, but not for long!

<sup>c</sup> “Slaves” and “saints”—again we seem to have two distinct categories.

<sup>d</sup> One gets the impression that the elders had been waiting for this day. I think I know how they feel—the destruction of “those who have corrupted the earth” cannot come too soon to suit me.

<sup>e</sup> Presumably this is the original ark of which the one made under Moses’ supervision was a copy (Hebrews 8:5, Exodus 25:9, 40, Hebrews 9:23).

<sup>f</sup> If this were all there was to the seventh trumpet it would be anti climactic, ‘small potatoes’. I take it that the seven ‘bowls’ (see chapter 16) give the full content of the third woe.

REVELATION 12

pregnant she was crying out in labor, being in great pain to give birth.

<sup>3</sup>And another sign appeared in the sky: wow, a dragon, huge, fiery red, having seven heads and ten horns, with seven diadems on his heads. <sup>4</sup>And its tail grabbed a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth.<sup>b</sup>

And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth in order to devour her Child as soon as she gave birth. <sup>5</sup>And she bore a Son, a male,<sup>c</sup> who would shepherd all the nations with a rod of iron.<sup>d</sup> And her Child was snatched up to God, even to His throne.

<sup>6</sup>And the woman fled into the wilderness to where she has a place prepared by God, so that they may nourish her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.<sup>e</sup>

Satan excluded from heaven

<sup>7</sup>War was declared in heaven; Michael and his angels were to wage war with the dragon; so the dragon and his angels made war,<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>but he was not strong enough; neither was there any place found for him in heaven any more. <sup>9</sup>So the great dragon was expelled, that ancient serpent, who is called Slanderer and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world; he was thrown into the earth,<sup>g</sup> and his angels were expelled with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a loud voice in the heaven saying: “Now the salvation and the power have come,<sup>h</sup> even the Kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser of our brothers<sup>i</sup> has been thrown down, who accused them before our God day and night. <sup>11</sup>And they conquered<sup>j</sup> him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not cherish their lives, even up to death. <sup>12</sup>Therefore rejoice, O heavens,

---

<sup>a</sup> Just as Michael is the boss-angel in charge of Israel, as a nation (Dan. 10:21, 12:1), presumably each tribe has its own boss-angel (lower in rank than Michael). Assuming that the woman represents Israel, I imagine that these ‘stars’ are the tribal angels (because of the number twelve).

<sup>b</sup> It is generally understood that this refers to those angels who joined Lucifer in his rebellion—note that verse 7 refers to the dragon and his angels. If the 2/3 are over 100 million (5:11) then this 1/3 must be over 50 million—more than enough trouble to go around.

<sup>c</sup> That is what the Text says. Since “Son” is obviously masculine, adding “a male” emphasizes the gender. What the first man lost the second Man (1 Corinthians 15:47) recovered; the first man allowed his wife to lead, the second Man will rule with a rod of iron.

<sup>d</sup> Here the Child is clearly identified as the Messiah—since He was born some 2,000 years ago we are obviously looking at an historical parenthesis. The rebellion of Lucifer and his angels goes back at least 6,000 years. We do not normally associate ‘shepherd’ with ‘a rod of iron’—the Messianic Millennial Kingdom will be a benevolent dictatorship.

<sup>e</sup> Verses 1-5 are historical, but verse 6 brings us back to the Great Tribulation. The narrative is interrupted to give us some background.

<sup>f</sup> The dragon knew that Michael had received the order, so he decided to get in the first blow.

<sup>g</sup> “Into the earth”, including its atmosphere. The idea seems to be that at this point Satan is confined to this planet. From the content of the following verses I take it that Satan’s expulsion occurs in the middle of the seven-year period. So he is still in heaven accusing us (accusing us of what? There would be no point in bringing false accusations, so we must be providing Satan with ‘ammunition’—not a nice thought!).

<sup>h</sup> Wait a minute! If it is only “Now”, where have the Kingdom and Authority been in the meantime? As long as a government is being challenged, its rule is not complete or tranquil. I find it instructive that Satan still has sufficient power to wage war, in Heaven!

<sup>i</sup> “Our brothers”—I wonder who is speaking, since the ‘brothers’ are saved by the blood of the lamb.

<sup>j</sup> That is what the Text says. Comparing 6:11 and 7:13, perhaps it is necessary for a certain number of God’s servants to be willing to die for the Cause to bring about the accuser’s expulsion.

yes, you who are dwelling in them!<sup>a</sup> Woe to the earth and the sea! Because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has little time.”

Satan persecutes the woman

<sup>13</sup>So when the dragon perceived that he had been thrown into the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the Male. <sup>14</sup>And to the woman were given two wings of the great eagle, so that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, so that she might be nourished there for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. <sup>15</sup>So the serpent expelled water from his mouth after the woman, like a river, so as to cause her to be overwhelmed by the flood. <sup>16</sup>But the ground helped the woman; indeed, the ground opened its mouth and drank up the river that the dragon expelled from his mouth. <sup>17</sup>So the dragon was furious about the woman and off he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, those who keep the commands of God and hold the testimony of Jesus.<sup>b</sup>

Various Vignettes

A beast from the sea

<sup>4</sup>And they did obeisance to the dragon who had given the authority to the Beast, and they did obeisance to the Beast saying, “Who is like the Beast, and who is able to make war with him?” <sup>5</sup>And he was given a mouth speaking great things, that is, blasphemy; and he was given authority<sup>f</sup> to make war forty-two months. <sup>6</sup>So he opened that mouth of his in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, those who dwell in Heaven.<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>And it was given to him to make war with the saints and to conquer them. And authority was given him over every tribe and language and ethnic nation. <sup>8</sup>All who dwell on the earth will do obeisance to him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slaughtered from the foundation of the world.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>b</sup> Only two very late Greek manuscripts add “Christ”, as in KJV and NKJV. Over 99% do not. The dragon will persecute Jews in general and Christians in particular.

<sup>c</sup> Less than 10% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘he’ (presumably referring to the dragon). The difference is between EXTAΘHN (I stood) and EXTAΘH (he stood)—it would be easy to drop off the final N, especially since it is similar to H (more so in handwriting).

<sup>d</sup> I am not sure that this beast is the same as the one in 11:7—they are said to come from different places (but see 17:8).

<sup>e</sup> There is a family resemblance—seven heads, ten horns; might the Beast be the son of the Dragon? (Imitating God is Satan’s ‘thing’.)

<sup>f</sup> I take it that here and in verse 7 it is God who does the giving—this is part of the Plan.

<sup>g</sup> Compare 1 Corinthians 3:16. We are the ‘temple’ of God; those who dwell in Heaven are His tabernacle.

<sup>h</sup> 1 Peter 1:20 makes clear that it was actually before the foundation of the world. God knew what was going to happen before He created the human race, the terrible price He would have to pay, but He went ahead anyway.

REVELATION 14

<sup>9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup>If anyone has captivity, he goes away.<sup>a</sup> If anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.<sup>b</sup>

A beast from the land

<sup>11</sup>Now I saw another beast of prey coming up out of the land, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And he exercises all the authority of the first Beast in his presence; and he started to cause the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first Beast, whose mortal wound was healed. <sup>13</sup>And he performs great signs, including that fire should come down from heaven upon the earth before the people. <sup>14</sup>And he deceives my own people,<sup>c</sup> those dwelling on the earth, by the signs that it was given to him to perform before the Beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the Beast who had the sword wound and lived. <sup>15</sup>And it was granted to him to give breath to the image of the Beast, so that the image of the Beast should actually speak, and should cause as many as would not worship the image of the Beast to be killed.<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>And he causes everyone—both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave—to receive marks on their right hand or on their foreheads, <sup>17</sup>so that no one would be able to buy or sell who does not have the mark, the name of the Beast or the number of his name. <sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom: let the one who has understanding evaluate the number of the Beast, for it is the number of man—his number is 666.<sup>e</sup>

The Lamb and the 144,000

<sup>a</sup> Two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one) so read. The third line reads, 'If anyone goes away into captivity...'—the second half of the conditional clause (the apodosis) is missing. The rendering of KJV and NKJV reflects a very few late manuscripts. But what does the Text mean? Anyone who has been appointed to captivity will certainly be taken away.

<sup>b</sup> I confess that this sentence puzzles me. Well, if I believe that my God is Sovereign over all, that He knows what He is doing, and that He has my ultimate wellbeing in view (Romans 8:28), then I will endure in faith.

<sup>c</sup> "My own people"—two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one) so read. Since John is speaking (writing), his physical people would be the Jews, while his spiritual people would be the Christians. The use of "own" points toward the physical, which accords with the information given elsewhere (Daniel 9:27) that Israel makes a deal with the Beast.

<sup>d</sup> Worship an image or be killed—how humiliating! It sounds like a re-run of Daniel 3.

<sup>e</sup> I find this verse difficult to translate. The main verb has two basic meanings: 'to calculate' and 'to vote'. Since the number is immediately provided, what is there to calculate? In the context, any wise person will vote against the number, that is, refuse to receive it, but the idea of 'against' is not stated. The number itself is represented by three letters (in Greek), the middle one looking rather like a snake. (Some versions write out the number, but since it has to fit on forehead or hand, just the three letters seems more likely.) Note that the number is 600 plus 60 plus 6, not 6 plus 6 plus 6.

<sup>g</sup> Only 2% of the Greek manuscripts do not have "His name and" (as in KJV and NKJV), so they had two names written, the Father's and the Son's—much better than having the name of the Beast!

<sup>h</sup> Evidently John is finding it difficult to describe exactly what he heard, doubtless different from the normal sounds of this earth.

learn the song except the 144 thousand, who had been redeemed from the earth.<sup>4</sup> These are the ones not defiled with women, for they are virgins;<sup>a</sup> these are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He may go. These were redeemed by Jesus<sup>b</sup> from among men, firstfruits for God and for the Lamb;<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>no lie was found in their mouth, for they are blameless.<sup>d</sup>

Three angels

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having an eternal gospel to be proclaimed to those who reside on the earth—to every ethnic nation and tribe and language and people—<sup>7</sup>saying with a loud voice, “Fear God and give Him glory,<sup>e</sup> because the hour of His judging has come, and do obeisance to Him who made heaven and earth, the ocean and springs of water.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Here is the endurance of the saints, here those who keep the commands of God and the faith of Jesus.<sup>j</sup> <sup>13</sup>I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on’ (“Yes” says the Spirit), ‘so that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow along with them.’”

The earth is harvested

<sup>c</sup> Why “firstfruits”? Before the advent of refrigeration, food could be preserved by drying, smoking, salting, etc., but by the time of the next harvest, nothing would compare with a firstfruit, which would be something special. Those men were special!

<sup>e</sup> Of all the people who have ever lived on this earth, what percentage of them ever heard that Jesus died for them? Romans 1:18-21 gives the essence of God’s requirement: the evidence of creation demands a Creator, and He expects people to acknowledge Him and try to please Him.

<sup>f</sup> As fresh, pure water becomes more and more scarce, the springs of water will become increasingly important.

<sup>h</sup> To actually serve as a warning, this would have to be contemporary with 13:16.

<sup>i</sup> Believe me, you do not want to submit to the Beast in any way! Don’t let anyone put anything on your right hand or on your forehead. Better to be executed. I do not doubt that the Beast is already alive on the earth, with age and preparation sufficient to take center stage at any moment.

<sup>j</sup> I would say that the two “here”s are cataphoric, referring forward to the content of verse 13.

REVELATION 15

<sup>17</sup>Then another angel came out of the temple (the one in heaven), he too having a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And another angel came out from the altar (having authority over the fire), and he called out with a loud cry to the one having the sharp sickle saying, “Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the grape clusters of the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe.” <sup>19</sup>So the angel swung his sickle at the earth and gathered the vine of the earth and threw it into the winepress of God’s terrible fury. <sup>20</sup>And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress up to the horses’ bridles, for a thousand six hundred stadia.<sup>a</sup>

Here come the bowls!

15 <sup>1</sup>And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the seven last plagues—in them the fury of God is completed.<sup>b</sup>

The song of the victors

<sup>2</sup>And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who prevailed over the Beast and over his image and over the number of his name, standing on the glassy sea, having harps of God.<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>They sing the song of Moses, the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying:

“Great and marvelous are Your works,
O Lord God, the Almighty!
Just and true are Your ways,
O King of the nations!<sup>d</sup>
<sup>4</sup>Who could not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?
Because You alone are holy;
because all the nations will come and do obeisance before You, because Your righteous judgments have been manifested.”

The angels are commissioned

<sup>5</sup>After these things I looked, and the sanctuary of the tabernacle of the testimony in the heaven was opened. <sup>6</sup>And out from that heaven<sup>e</sup> came the seven an-

---

<sup>a</sup> That is roughly 180 miles! If some four billion people will be killed during the seven-year period [mostly the second half of it] (as I calculate, a low estimate) and we allow an average of one gallon of blood per person, that is four billion gallons of blood—which would make quite a river! If the “winepress of God’s terrible fury” described here represents sort of a summary of the blood shed during the Great Tribulation period, then the picture is not far fetched. Of course a winepress has a single outlet and the liquid is conveyed to the receptacle by a conduit of appropriate size. In this case the conduit is 180 miles long and the flow is about four feet (1.33 yards) deep—four billion gallons equals about 20 million cubic yards; 180 miles equals about 320 thousand linear yards; so we have about 62.5 cubic yards of blood per linear yard of conduit—so the conduit is about 45 yards wide. My purpose in conducting this exercise is simply to show that the description of the “winepress of God’s terrible fury” is not at all ridiculous—it is a graphic but factual picture of the coming bloodbath.

<sup>b</sup> I take it that this is a generic cover statement, referring to the detailed description that follows. I further take it that these ‘bowl’ plagues relate to the seventh trumpet (11:15) and make up the third ‘woe’ (11:14).

<sup>c</sup> These people were martyred by order of the Beast, so how did they ‘prevail’ over him? By refusing to bow to him they escaped from hell (14:11); they died physically but won spiritually (but see 12:11).

<sup>d</sup> KJV and NKJV read ‘saints’ instead of “nations”, following the TR which is here based on only two very late manuscripts.

<sup>e</sup> The best line of transmission has “heaven”, all the rest having the expected ‘sanctuary’. At first glance the context seems to call for ‘sanctuary’; so much so that if ‘heaven’ were original some might have omitted while others made the obvious change—if ‘sanctuary’ were original, why would anyone omit or gels, the ones having the seven plagues; they were clothed in pure bright linen and were girded around the chests with golden belts.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then one of the four living beings gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the fury of God, the One who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup>The sanctuary was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to go into the sanctuary until the seven angels' plagues were completed.

16 <sup>1</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the sanctuary saying to the seven angels, "Go, pour out the bowls of God's fury on the earth."

The first bowl

The second bowl

<sup>3</sup>Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it turned into blood, like a dead person's; so every living soul in the sea died.<sup>c</sup>

The third bowl

<sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of water, and they turned into blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters saying: "How just You are! The One who is and who was, the holy One, because You have judged these things. <sup>6</sup>Because they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink.<sup>d</sup> They deserve it!" <sup>7</sup>And I heard one from the altar saying: "Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty! Your judgments are true and just!"

The fourth bowl

<sup>8</sup>Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was granted to him to burn the people with fire. <sup>9</sup>So the people were burned with severe burns, and they blasphemed the name of God, who has authority over these plagues. And they did not repent to give Him glory.<sup>e</sup>

The fifth bowl

<sup>10</sup>Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the Beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness; so they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>And they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains, and because of their ulcers; yet they did not repent of their deeds.

change? On the other hand, there are at least three heavens, 2 Corinthians 12:2, and they may have come out of the third, into the second. This is the only mention of the tabernacle of the testimony in Revelation, so the throne of God was not there and none of the action related by John up to this point took place there—there have been several references to the temple, with angels coming out of it, but I doubt that temple and tabernacle are to be equated.

<sup>b</sup> Even now a chip the size of a grain of rice is being planted under the skin of volunteers. The battery contains a substance that, if it leaks out of the chip, will produce "a foul and malignant ulcer". Notice that 'ulcer' is singular, one per person, precisely those who have the 'mark'. A word to the wise...

<sup>e</sup> They are no longer pretending that God does not exist, but they refuse to submit to Him, so they have no excuse.

The sixth bowl

<sup>12</sup>Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way for the kings from the sun's rising might be prepared. <sup>13</sup>And I saw three unclean spirits, like frogs, coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the Beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>14</sup>For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. <sup>15</sup>("Watch out, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who watches and guards his clothes,<sup>a</sup> so that he not walk about naked and they see his shame.")<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>So He gathered them to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

The seventh bowl

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a great voice came out of the sanctuary of heaven, from the Throne, saying, "It is done!" <sup>18</sup>and there were lightnings and thunders and noises. And there was a tremendous earthquake, a terribly severe earthquake such as had not occurred since mankind existed on the earth. <sup>19</sup>So the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell.<sup>c</sup> And Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath. <sup>20</sup>And every island fled, and mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And huge hailstones, weighing about a talent,<sup>d</sup> fell out of the sky on the people; and the people blasphemed God on account of the plague of the hail, because its plague was exceedingly severe.

About Babylon

17 <sup>1</sup>One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great whore who sits on the many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth fornicates; and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

A woman and a beast

<sup>3</sup>So he took me away in spirit to a wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. <sup>5</sup>And on her forehead a name was written:

"Mystery,
Babylon the Great,

---

<sup>a</sup> So what might the "clothes" be? Presumably these are spiritual clothes, perhaps having to do with our walk with God, maintaining our personal sanctity or holiness, 'without which no one will see the Lord'. "Watch" and "guard" are up to us—watch out for and guard against the world's values.

<sup>c</sup> Such a monstrous earthquake will doubtless produce monstrous tsunamis which could well inundate many coastal cities—between the earth and the water the destruction will be massive.

<sup>d</sup> That would be around 90 pounds each (a Roman talent = 93.75 pounds). The surviving people are 'punch-drunk' by now, but the hailstones are so incredible that they provoke another round of blasphemy. Such hailstones can destroy any normal dwelling.

the Mother of the prostitutes and the abominations of the earth.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, even with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And upon seeing her I was tremendously impressed.

The vision explained

<sup>7</sup>So the angel said to me: “Why are you impressed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast, having the seven heads and the ten horns, that carries her. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the Abyss<sup>b</sup> and to go into perdition. And those who dwell upon the earth will be amazed, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world,<sup>c</sup> when they see the beast that was, and is not and will be present. <sup>9</sup>Here is the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. <sup>10</sup>And there are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not come yet. And whenever he comes he must continue a short time. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was and is not; he is actually the eighth, yet he is of the seven, and he is going into perdition. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the Beast for one hour. <sup>13</sup>These are of one mind and give their power and authority to the Beast. <sup>14</sup>They will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called and chosen and faithful.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he says to me: “The waters that you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns that you saw, also the beast, these will hate the whore and will lay her waste and strip her and eat her flesh and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup>Because God put it into their hearts to perform His purpose, even to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the Beast, until the words of God should be fulfilled.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Now the woman whom you saw is the great city<sup>e</sup> that holds rulership over the kings of the earth.

<sup>a</sup> In Hebrew usage a ‘son’ of something was characterized by that something. So a ‘father’ of that something would be even more so. So when James calls God “the Father of lights” (1:17) that means that “God is light and in Him is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5)—He is totally light. In John 8:44 the Lord Jesus says that Satan is the father of lying, and that “there is no truth in him”—he is totally falsehood (I conclude that it is impossible for Satan to tell the undistorted truth). Here we have “the mother of prostitutes and abominations”—she is totally perverted, evil (it is impossible for her to do anything pure, clean or really good). So whom or what does the whore represent? If the kings are fornicating with her they are not trying to please God, so perhaps she is organized religion (including dead Christianity, of whatever kind). In that event organized religion is incapable of doing anything pure, clean or really good.

<sup>b</sup> Well, the origin matches 11:7 but the description matches 13:1, so maybe the three passages refer to a single personage. If “sea” refers to human origin and “Abyss” to demonic, could it be that Satan will imitate God in producing the Antichrist?

<sup>c</sup> Here is a strong statement of election or predestination—how else could God know what names to put in the Book? At the same time the seven letters (chaps. 2 & 3) are strong on human responsibility (including the possibility of a name being erased). Divine sovereignty and human responsibility walk side by side throughout the Bible.

<sup>d</sup> Compare verse 13—God is in ultimate control; His Word and purpose will be fulfilled.

<sup>e</sup> In chapter 21 the Bride of Christ is represented by a city, the New Jerusalem, but the Bride is presumably people from around the earth. Likewise the whore, represented by a city, may well involve people from around the earth. “Is the great city”—when John wrote, Rome was the ruling city.

Her fall proclaimed

18 <sup>1</sup>After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. <sup>2</sup>And he cried out with a strong voice saying:

“It fell, it fell, Babylon the great!
and has become a dwelling place of demons, even a prison of every unclean spirit,
also a prison of every unclean and detestable bird.

<sup>3</sup>Because all the nations have drunk of the rage of the wine of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have fornicated with her,
and the merchants of the earth became rich through the strength of her luxury.”

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another Voice from heaven saying:

“Come out of her, my people,<sup>a</sup> so as not to participate in her sins and so as not to receive of her plagues.

<sup>5</sup>For her sins have reached to heaven and God has remembered about her her iniquities.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Render to her just as she rendered to you;<sup>c</sup> yes, pay her back double, according to her deeds;
in the cup that she mixed,
mix double for her.

<sup>7</sup>To the extent that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, by so much give her torment;
because in her heart she says,
‘I sit a queen, and am not a widow;
and I will certainly not see sorrow.’

<sup>8</sup>Therefore her plagues will come in one day death and sorrow and famine and she will be burned up with fire;
because the Lord God who has judged her is strong.

Her fall lamented

<sup>9</sup>“The kings of the earth who fornicated and lived luxuriously with her will weep and mourn over her, when they see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>standing afar off for fear of her torment,<sup>d</sup> saying:

‘Alas, alas, O great city Babylon, O mighty city!
Because your judgment came in one hour.’

---

<sup>a</sup> Could an angel say “my” people? This may be God Himself speaking. But just how can one ‘come out’ of Babylon?—by rejecting all that she represents.

<sup>c</sup> Evidently it is “my people” who are supposed to be doing this. First we must disassociate ourselves from the whore, but then we are to participate in her punishment, “double”. Only it does not say how the paying back works, and I, for one, would like to know.

<sup>d</sup> None of her lovers charge to the rescue; they stay well clear of the action! They enjoyed the whore, but... (Actually, why do men go to prostitutes? They want sex without commitment.)

<sup>11</sup>“And the merchants of the earth weep and sorrow over her, because no one buys their goods anymore: <sup>12</sup>goods of gold and of silver, of precious stones and of pearl, of fine linen and of purple, of silk and of scarlet; every citron wood and object of ivory, every object of most precious wood and of bronze and of iron and of marble; <sup>13</sup>cinnamon and incense and perfume and frankincense, wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep and horses and carriages, and bodies and souls of men!” <sup>14</sup>(“Yes, the fruit that your soul craved has gone from you, and all the sumptuous and splendid things have perished from you, and you will never find them again!”)<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>“The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand afar off for fear of her torment,<sup>b</sup> weeping and sorrowing <sup>16</sup>and saying: that was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet,

‘Alas, alas, O great city!
and was adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls;
<sup>17</sup>because in one hour such great wealth was laid waste.’

“And every ship captain, and all who travel by ship—sailors and as many as work the sea—stood afar off <sup>18</sup>and cried out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘Who is like the great city!’” <sup>19</sup>They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and sorrowing and saying:

‘Alas, alas, O great city!
by which all who had ships in the sea became rich,
by her costly abundance;
because in one hour she was laid waste.’

Her doom final

<sup>20</sup>“Rejoice over her, O heaven, yes you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced your judgment against her!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>And a mighty angel took up a stone like a huge millstone and threw it into the ocean saying:

“The great city Babylon will be thrown down violently, and will never be found again.
<sup>22</sup>The sound of harpists and musicians and flutists and trumpeters will never be heard in you again;
no craftsman of whatever craft will ever be found in you again;
the sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again; <sup>23</sup>the light of a lamp will never shine in you again;
the voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again;
because your merchants were the magnates of the earth, because by your sorcery<sup>d</sup> all the nations were deceived.”

<sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, even of all who had been butchered on the earth.

---

<sup>a</sup> An unidentified speaker interjects a cheerful note. It may be that “the fruit that your soul craved” had to do with the “bodies and souls of men”.

<sup>b</sup> I guess we should not expect the merchants to be braver than the kings, now should we?

<sup>c</sup> Perhaps this should be connected to verses 6-7, above. In that event, the judgment was pronounced in faith.

<sup>d</sup> The whore uses sorcery, and kills God’s prophets and saints. The Lord Jesus said that the “Jerusalem” of His day killed God’s prophets, so the whore has been around for quite a while.

Her fall celebrated

19 <sup>1</sup>After these things I heard as it were the really loud voice of a great multitude in heaven saying:

“Hallelujah! The salvation and power and glory of our God!

<sup>2</sup>Because His judgments are true and just, because He has judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and has avenged the blood of His slaves by her hand.”

<sup>4</sup>And the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshipped God, who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen, Hallelujah!” <sup>5</sup>And a voice came from the Throne saying, “Praise our God, all you His slaves and those who fear Him, small and great!”

The wedding of the Lamb

<sup>6</sup>And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderings saying:

“Hallelujah!
Because the Lord our God reigns, the Almighty!
<sup>7</sup>Let us rejoice and exult and give Him the glory, because the wedding of the Lamb has come, and His wife has prepared herself.”

<sup>8</sup>And it was granted to her to be dressed in fine linen, bright and pure, for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

<sup>9</sup>And he says to me,<sup>b</sup> “Write: ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding banquet of the Lamb.’” And he says to me, “These are the true words of God.” <sup>10</sup>And I fell at his feet to worship him, but he says to me: “Don’t! I am your fellow slave and among your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus.”<sup>c</sup> Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”<sup>d</sup>

The battle of Armageddon

<sup>11</sup>I saw the heaven opened, and wow, a white horse! And the One who sits on it, called Faithful and True, both judges and makes war with righteousness. <sup>12</sup>Now His eyes were a flame of fire and on His head were many diadems, having names written,<sup>e</sup> besides a written name that no one knows except Himself; <sup>13</sup>and He was clothed with a robe that had been dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. <sup>14</sup>And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white, clean, followed Him on white horses. <sup>15</sup>And out of His mouth goes a sharp, two-edged sword, so that with it He may strike the nations. And He Himself will shepherd

<sup>c</sup> It surprises me that an angel could or would call himself “your brother”. I do not know what to make of it, unless this was really a human being that looked like an angel. Since the Bible records angels appearing in human form, I suppose a glorified human could appear in angelic form. Why not?

<sup>d</sup> I do not understand this statement either, unless it is Jesus who is testifying to the prophets, giving them their messages.

<sup>e</sup> Well over half of the Greek manuscripts, two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one) read “having names written”—presumably these names were on the diadems. I would imagine that each diadem had a name.

them with a rod of iron. And He Himself treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God, the Almighty.<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>And He has a name written on His robe and on His thigh, King of kings and Lord of lords!

A feast for vultures

<sup>17</sup>And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven,<sup>b</sup> “Come, gather together to the great dinner of God, <sup>18</sup>so that you may eat flesh of kings and flesh of commanders and flesh of the mighty and flesh of horses along with their riders, even the flesh of all, both free and slave, both small and great.”

<sup>19</sup>And I saw the Beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the One riding the horse and against His army. <sup>20</sup>So the Beast was captured, and with him the False prophet, the one who performed signs in his presence (by which he had deceived those who had received the mark of the Beast and those who worshipped his image). The two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire that burns with brimstone.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>And the rest were killed by the sword that proceeds from the mouth of the One riding the horse.<sup>d</sup> And all the birds were filled with their flesh.<sup>e</sup>

The Millennium

Satan bound

20 <sup>1</sup>And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the Abyss and a huge chain on his hand. <sup>2</sup>And he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is a slanderer, even Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth,<sup>f</sup> and bound him for a thousand years; <sup>3</sup>he threw him into the Abyss and locked and sealed it over him so that he should not deceive the nations any more until the thousand years were finished. And after these years he must be loosed for a short time.<sup>g</sup>

Saints reign

<sup>4</sup>And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them; also, I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded<sup>h</sup> on account of the tes-

---

<sup>a</sup> The Lord Jesus Christ paid the price for our sins all by Himself (Hebrews 1:3), and here He treads “the winepress of the fury of the wrath” all by Himself. Those who think of the Lord only in terms of ‘loving, meek, mild’ need to understand that there is a whole lot more to the story. Those who reject His sacrifice can look for “the fury of the wrath”—none of us can understand how terrible was the price the Son had to pay, and He will not take kindly to having that price despised!

<sup>b</sup> It is mainly birds of prey and scavengers that fly high in the sky; songbirds and game birds usually stay fairly close to the ground (except when migrating).

<sup>c</sup> Apparently these are the first two residents in the Lake, and they will have it all to themselves for a full one thousand years!

<sup>d</sup> If the Captain did all the killing, then His followers were just along for the ride. Evidently all the Captain had to do was speak.

<sup>e</sup> The birds will eat all they can, but there will presumably be plenty of flesh left over. Ezekiel 39:12 says it will take seven months to cleanse the land of all the remains!

<sup>f</sup> Well over half of the Greek manuscripts, two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one), contain this clause. Since both the TR and the so-called critical text omit it, most versions do not include it.

<sup>g</sup> If language has any verifiable meaning at all, this passage is obviously talking about a literal period of one thousand years.

timony of Jesus and on account of the Word of God, even those who had not worshipped the Beast or his image and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand. And they lived and reigned with the Christ for a thousand years. <sup>5</sup>(Now the rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were finished.)<sup>a</sup> This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy is the one having a part in the first resurrection; upon such the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

The final rebellion

<sup>7</sup>Now when the thousand years are finished Satan will be released from his prison, <sup>8</sup>and he will go forth to deceive the nations that are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war, whose number is like the sand of the sea.<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup>They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down out of heaven from God and devoured them.<sup>c</sup> <sup>10</sup>And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the Lake of Fire and brimstone, where the Beast and the False prophet also are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw a tremendous white throne and the One who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the sky fled away;<sup>d</sup> and no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne;<sup>e</sup> and books were opened. And another Book was opened, namely, of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things that were written in the books. <sup>13</sup>The ocean gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them;<sup>f</sup> and they were judged each one according to their works.<sup>g</sup> <sup>14</sup>And Death and Hades were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death, the Lake of Fire.<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.<sup>i</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Verse six makes clear that this part of verse 5 is parenthetical. It is participants in the first resurrection who will reign the thousand years; so that first resurrection must happen at the beginning of the thousand years, not the end; so “the rest of the dead” are the lost who will participate in the resurrection unto condemnation (call it the second resurrection), after the Millennium. Superficial readings of this passage have given rise to all sorts of confusion.

<sup>b</sup> During the Millennium there will be a population explosion. Since the government will be dictatorial, everyone will have to obey outwardly, but Satan will have no trouble raising an army of ‘dissidents’.

<sup>d</sup> Doubtless the Face was full of wrath—at that point there will be absolutely no place to hide.

<sup>e</sup> Less than 10% of the Greek manuscripts read ‘God’ instead of “throne”, as in AV and NKJV.

<sup>f</sup> I confess that I do not understand this; how can Death be holding dead that are not in Hades? Perhaps they are regarded as partners. But then, how can the ocean have a separate roster of dead?

<sup>g</sup> Twice it says that they will be judged on the basis of their works. So how can you really evaluate someone’s deeds? Only by taking account of their context. Those who never heard the Gospel will be judged within the context that they lived, and the Judge will prove that even within their own context they did not measure up.

<sup>h</sup> The first death is the physical one; the second is the spiritual one—eternal separation from the Creator (the essence of death is separation). Death and Hades are treated as if they were living entities.

21 <sup>1</sup>Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, because the first heaven and the first earth had passed away;<sup>a</sup> also, the ocean was no more.<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying: “Take note, the tabernacle of God is with men and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people. Yes, God Himself will be with them. <sup>4</sup>And He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there will be no more death nor sorrow nor crying nor pain<sup>c</sup>—they will exist no more because the first things have gone.”

<sup>5</sup>Then He who sat on the throne<sup>d</sup> said, “Take note, I make everything new!”<sup>e</sup> And He says to me, “Write, because these words are true and faithful!”<sup>e</sup> <sup>6</sup>Then He said to me: “I have become the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End.<sup>f</sup> To the one who thirsts I will give of the spring of the water of Life freely. <sup>7</sup>He who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be God to him and he will be a son to me. <sup>8</sup>But as for the cowardly<sup>g</sup> and unbelieving and sinners<sup>h</sup> and abominable and murderers and fornicators and sorcerers and idolaters, and all who are false,<sup>i</sup> their portion is in the Lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>Then<sup>j</sup> one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me saying, “Come, I will show you the woman, the Lamb’s bride.”<sup>k</sup> <sup>10</sup>So he transported me in spirit to a great and high mountain and

---

<sup>a</sup> “The first earth”, not the second, or whatever. This statement would seem to go against the ‘gap’ theory in Genesis 1:1.

<sup>b</sup> Apparently there will be no water in the new earth; I take it that our glorified bodies will require neither food nor drink (so there will be no body waste to dispose of).

<sup>c</sup> Without the separation of death, without pain and sorrow, there will be no occasion for tears.

<sup>d</sup> Since the last throne mentioned is the Great White Throne, and since all judgment has been committed to the Son (John 5:22), I conclude that the speaker is Jehovah the Son.

<sup>e</sup> “These words are true and faithful”—the guarantee extends to the individual words. If a word is true, then it cannot be false; if a word is faithful, then it cannot be designed to deceive us. Conclusion: the words of this book are to be taken at face value, according to the norms of language.

<sup>f</sup> “I have become”—this seems awkward, so a small minority of the Greek manuscripts changed it to the familiar ‘It is done’. But in order to be the Boss at both the beginning and the end, you have to be the greatest, and survive all challenges. All human history has been involved in Satan’s challenge of that supremacy. Because of that challenge, and because only at this point has that challenge been definitively put down, Jehovah the Son says, “I have become”.

<sup>g</sup> Does it surprise you that “cowardly” is in this list? In Matthew 10:32-33 we read: “Everyone who will confess me before men, I will also confess him before my father who is in the heavens. But whoever should deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in the heavens.” See also Luke 12:8-9 and 1 John 2:23. Presumably the Lord is referring to our attitude in the face of opposition or persecution. Anyone who caves in under pressure and disowns the Lord is out.

<sup>h</sup> Both the TR and the so-called critical text omit “and sinners”, so most versions do as well, but two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one) have the phrase.

<sup>i</sup> That is what the Text says; instead of the noun ‘liar’ we find the adjective “false” (all the preceding descriptions are nouns, with one participle = “abominable”).

<sup>j</sup> Actually the Text has “and”—John saw the visions in this order, but they will not necessarily happen in this order. I imagine that the New Jerusalem belongs to the Millennium (for reasons I will give below).

<sup>k</sup> It seems to me to be unarguable that both Israel (the gates) and the Church (the foundations) participate in the New Jerusalem. (In fact, I imagine that the redeemed of all ages, up to the beginning of the

REVELATION 21

showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the splendor of God. Her radiance was similar to a most precious stone, like a crystalline jasper stone; <sup>12</sup>she had a tremendous, high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names inscribed, namely the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel; <sup>13</sup>looking from the east, three gates, and from the north, three gates, and from the south, three gates, and from the west, three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names, of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>Now he who spoke with me had a measure, a golden reed, so that he might measure the city and her gates.<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>The city is laid out as a square; that is, her length is equal to her width. So he measured the city with the reed at twelve thousand and twelve stadia.<sup>c</sup> Her length and width and height are equal.<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>And he measured her wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits,<sup>e</sup> the measure of a man (which is of an angel).<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>The material of her wall was jasper,<sup>g</sup> and the city was pure gold, like clear glass. <sup>19</sup>And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation had jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the Millennium, will be involved.) The rendering, “the woman [or, wife], the Lamb’s bride”, is based on over half of the Greek manuscripts, two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one). In Jeremiah 3:20 and Hosea 2 Israel is presented as the wife of Jehovah—but in the O.T. wherever God interacts directly with the human race it is always Jehovah the Son. Passages like Matthew 25:10, John 3:29, 2 Corinthians 11:2 and Ephesians 5:25-27, 31-32 point to the Church as the bride of Christ (who is Jehovah the Son). So here the two come together—the wife, the bride—but maintain a distinct identity (gates are one thing and foundations are another)—indeed, nowhere does the Bible ever confuse Israel and the Church (not even in Galatians 6:16, as I can demonstrate to anyone who wishes to pursue the matter). But if the Church is still a “bride”, then the wedding has not happened yet, which is my first reason for placing this scene at the beginning of the Millennium.

<sup>a</sup> I wonder, who replaces the Iscariot? Besides the Twelve, the only one who was personally chosen by Jesus was Saul of Tarsus.

<sup>b</sup> The evidence is badly divided here, but I take it that two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one), do not add “and her wall”, which is read by most versions since both the TR and the so-called critical text so read. Two thousand years ago a city wall was a barrier to protect the city from attack, but the following context here makes clear that the wall was part of the structure. The city is a cube, like a modern high-rise, which is a recent concept in architecture. Many early copyists presumably assumed that the wall was distinct from the city and officiously altered the text. The angel measured precisely the city and her gates; see the next note.

<sup>c</sup> Over half of the Greek manuscripts, two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one), read “and twelve”—a surprising bit of precise detail. But consider—12,000 stadia, twelve gates—if the gates are evenly spaced, as seems likely, we have a thousand stadia between gates; or is it 1,001 stadia? I will argue below that each gate was one stadium wide, which nicely explains the precise number, twelve thousand and twelve!

<sup>d</sup> The city is a cube, the total measurement being about 1,350 miles! But does it mean the circumference or is it referring to the three dimensions? If it refers to the circumference we divide by four and each side is about 340 miles long, and of course the height is also 340 miles. If we divide by three each dimension is about 450 miles. In either event, we have one incredibly large city! But because of the twelve gates and 12,000 stadia I really believe that the angel measured the circumference.

<sup>e</sup> That is about 70 yards; since we already know that the wall is hundreds of miles high, the reference here must be to the thickness of the wall. I take it that the wall was part of the structure, like in a modern high-rise, not like a fence (with no enemies there is no need for a fence—in fact, verse 25 makes clear that even the gates will never be closed).

<sup>f</sup> This is curious; apparently angels use the same measurement as humans. But then, with reference to things on this earth, why wouldn’t they?

twelfth amethyst.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>And the twelve gates are twelve pearls; each individual gate was composed of one pearl.<sup>b</sup> And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.<sup>c</sup>

Her glory

<sup>22</sup>I saw no sanctuary in her, because the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb are her sanctuary. <sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of the sun or the moon, that they should shine on her, because the very glory of God illumines her, and the Lamb is her light. <sup>24</sup>And the nations will walk in her light, and the kings of the earth<sup>d</sup> bring their glory and honor into her. <sup>25</sup>Her gates will absolutely not be closed by day (and no night will exist there). <sup>26</sup>And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into her. <sup>27</sup>But anything ‘common’<sup>e</sup> or anyone perpetrating an abomination or a lie will absolutely not enter her;<sup>f</sup> only those who are written in the Lamb’s Book of Life.<sup>g</sup>

Her river

22 <sup>1</sup>And he showed me a pure river of water of life,<sup>h</sup> bright as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb, <sup>2</sup>in the middle of her street. And on either side of the river was a tree of life producing twelve fruits, yielding each month’s fruit monthly; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>There will be no accursed thing there, but the throne of God and of the Lamb are in her, and His slaves will minister to Him. <sup>4</sup>They will see His face and His name is on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>Night will not exist there and they will need neither lamp nor sunlight, because the Lord God illuminates them. And they will reign forever and ever.

- <sup>a</sup> Each foundation was adorned with a different kind of stone. But how were the twelve foundations arranged, piled up or side by side? Presumably the gates were evenly spaced, with 1,000 stadia between each pair, so perhaps each such space represented an Apostle and had a different precious stone.
- <sup>b</sup> Are not doors and gates usually wider than the wall is thick? The wall here is some 70 yards thick. I propose that each pearl was 200 yards (one stadium) wide (some pearl!), but notice in verse 25 that the gates were never closed, which means that they always remained in one position, hence no wear and tear on the ‘hinges’. But imagine that we are on that tremendously high mountain with John, and that we are perpendicular to the middle of one wall and at a distance of 50 miles. We are looking at a monstrous wall 340 miles square; it merely fills the horizon. At the base of the wall, evenly spaced (some 110 miles between them), are three gates. Would a gate 200 yards wide be out of proportion? Given the size of the wall, such gates might even seem small!
- <sup>c</sup> The ‘gold’ here is evidently different from the gold we know; John does not say that it looked like gold, he says it was gold.
- <sup>d</sup> “Kings of the earth”—we are still on the earth, with kings and nations coming and going, which is my second reason for placing the New Jerusalem during the Millennium.
- <sup>e</sup> That is, defiled or profane; perhaps anything not consecrated to God.
- <sup>f</sup> Connecting this statement with 22:15, we have all sorts of nasty people outside the city. After the Millennium and the Great White Throne they will be in the Lake of fire, so if they are still circulating on this earth, it must be during the Millennium, which is my third reason. Because of 22:15 I am inclined to suppose that the New Jerusalem will rest on the earth (not be a satellite, as some argue). But if so, where? The desert east of Jordan is hundreds of miles square with very few inhabitants, and relatively plane, yet quite close to the present Jerusalem. Perhaps there.
- <sup>g</sup> So why else did you think there was an angel stationed at each gate (21:12)?
- <sup>h</sup> This river should not be confused with the one in Ezekiel 47. The present city of Jerusalem will still exist and function during the Millennium. The two rivers share certain characteristics, but are also quite different. Zechariah 14:8 may well have to do with Ezekiel 47.

Conclusion

<sup>6</sup>Then He says to me: “These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits<sup>a</sup> of the prophets sent His angel to show to His slaves the things that must shortly take place.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>Take note, I am coming swiftly! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Now I, John, who heard and saw these things, when I had heard and seen I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things, <sup>9</sup>but he says to me: “Don’t! I am your fellow slave and of your brothers the prophets, those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!”<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>Then he says to me: “Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. <sup>11</sup>He who acts unjustly let him act unjustly still, and let the filthy one be filthy still, and let the righteous one still practice righteousness, and let the holy one still be sanctified.”

Jesus’ final word

<sup>12</sup>“Take note, I am coming swiftly, and my reward is with me to give to each one according to his work. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, the First and the Last.” <sup>14</sup>(Blessed are those who do His commands, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, even to enter through the gates into the city. <sup>15</sup>Outside are the ‘dogs’<sup>e</sup> and the sorcerers and the fornicators and the murderers and the idolaters,<sup>f</sup> and everyone who loves and practices a lie.) <sup>16</sup>“I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you, in the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright morning Star. <sup>17</sup>Both the Spirit and the Bride say, ‘Come!’ And let whoever hears say, ‘Come!’ And let whoever thirsts come; whoever wants to, let him take the water of life free of charge.

A serious warning

<sup>18</sup>“I myself testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If any one adds to them, may God add to him the seven plagues written in this book!<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>And if anyone takes away from the words<sup>h</sup> of the book of this prophecy, may God remove his share from the tree of life and out of the Holy City, that stand written in this book!”

---

<sup>a</sup> Two of the three main independent lines of transmission (including the best one) have “of the spirits”. The familiar ‘the holy’ of the KJV is based on the third main line.

<sup>d</sup> I wonder if John was not always sure who was a real angel and who was the Son, appearing as an angel, and so just to make sure...

<sup>e</sup> So who are the ‘dogs’? In Deuteronomy 23:18 ‘dog’ apparently refers to a male prostitute, a catamite, and is declared to be an abomination. In O.T. times dogs were scavengers and therefore unclean, and were generally looked down upon. In Jesus’ day Jews referred to Gentiles as ‘dogs’, but since many Gentiles are in the Church that is presumably not the intended meaning here. The ‘dogs’ in Matthew 7:6 react in an aggressively hostile manner against what is holy; I take it that they are people who are overtly serving evil (Philippians 3:2 may be referring to this sort of person). So who are the ‘dogs’ here? At the very least they are the unclean. Take it from there.

<sup>f</sup> Relativism is an idol; Humanism is an idol; Materialism is an idol. One wonders how many Christians today have a worldview that is really Biblical. The world’s values are not compatible with Christ’s values. Don’t forget 1 John 2:15-16!

<sup>g</sup> Since God the Son is speaking, I imagine that what He wants will be done!

<sup>h</sup> “Words”, plural, includes the individual words that make up the whole. Those textual critics who have wantonly removed words from the Text, on the basis of satanically inspired presuppositions, are out. Those who interpret the Text in such a way as to avoid its plain meaning, likewise. Jehovah the Son affirms that the words are “true and faithful”, and He expects us to interpret them that way.

John signs off

<sup>20</sup>He who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming swiftly!” Oh yes!! Come, Sovereign Jesus! <sup>21</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ<sup>a</sup> be with all the saints. Amen.

<sup>a</sup> “The Lord Jesus Christ” is now the full name or title of Jehovah the Son.

1) 1 Samuel 13:1 and the preservation of the Hebrew Text

When I was a new student in my ThM program, one of the prime movers in the Majority Text vineyard was in his last year, and we worked together in the Seminary kitchen. Our tongues wagged about as fast as our hands moved; we did a lot of talking, mostly about things text-critical and theological. In those pristine years, he was a firm believer in the divine preservation of both the Hebrew and Greek Testaments, to the letter. In due time I came to Brazil as a missionary, and he continued in his teaching career. Every furlough (back then field terms were usually five years) I would touch base with him and compare notes. On one of those occasions (I forget which one), when the subject of divine preservation came up, he opened a Bible to 1 Samuel 13:1 and affirmed that the original wording of that verse had been irretrievably lost—bye-bye preservation.

Well now, what he did to me, someone else had done to him, and so on into the night. I rather imagine that this verse has come to represent a difficulty in the thinking of not a few people who would like to believe in the divine preservation of the Text, but... Since I still believed in preservation at that time (and continue to do so), his gesture gave me pause—could he possibly be correct? So I sat down and studied the situation (including an inquiry to the local synagogue). Here is my conclusion.

The NKJV renders 1 Samuel 13:1-2 like this: “Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.” In the NIV the first verse is quite different: “Saul was [thirty] years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel [forty-] two years.” A footnote informs the reader that the bracketed words are not in the Hebrew Text. An uninitiated layperson who compares the two could easily conclude that they are translating completely different texts, but such is not the case. The Hebrew text is one, without variants—the problem lies in the interpretation.

An interlinear, morpheme by morpheme, rendering of the first verse looks like this: “Son-of-a-year Saul in-his-reigning and-two years he-reigned over-Israel” (except, of course, that Hebrew is read from right to left). The confusion arises in that this became a formula used in the summary statement about a king’s reign: a son of X years was Y in his reigning (= when he began to reign), and he reigned Z years... The formula usually occurs at the end of a king’s history, but sometimes at the beginning. Of course, any attempt to apply the formula in 1 Samuel 13:1 is ridiculous. Obviously Saul could not have been one year old when he began to reign, and just as obviously he reigned more than two years. Unfortunately, NIV and others have insisted on imposing the formula on this verse, inventing the ‘thirty’ and ‘forty-’ so as not to have complete nonsense. (This also has the unfortunate effect of contradicting Acts 13:21, that affirms that Saul reigned 40 years, not 42.) I suppose they have convinced themselves that the original numbers have disappeared from the Text, having been irretrievably lost during the process of transmission.

But let us look carefully at the context of 13:1. To begin, Saul being the very first king of Israel, such a formula would not yet be in use—there had been no occasion to write of the beginning and length of reigns. Then, in the context this is not the place for a summary statement; it is neither the beginning nor the end of the history of Saul’s reign. In 1 Samuel 10:24 he was publicly installed as king—since he was the first, there was no precedent, no established procedure. In Chapter 11 Saul defeats the Ammonites and is confirmed in the kingship (verse 15). In chapter 12 Samuel defends his ministry and gives a lesson in history. Chapter 13 resumes Saul's story and starts by saying when he established a standing army—in the second year of his reign.

I invite special attention to the concluding statement of verse two, "The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent." To be 'sent away' they had to be there. Be where? In Gilgal (11:15), where Samuel's discourse (chapter 12) also took place, as part of the occasion. According to 11:9, Saul had mobilized 330,000 men against the Ammonites, and I imagine that most of them had accompanied Samuel and Saul to Gilgal. So 13:1-2 is a continuation of what happened at Gilgal, and verse one CANNOT be a summary statement about Saul's total reign. Of the 330,000 that had been mobilized against Ammon, Saul chose 3,000 to be a standing army and sent the rest home. Perhaps the lack of a standing army had encouraged the Ammonites to get frisky; the news that Israel now had one would serve as a deterrent.

I take the point of 13:1 to be that Saul had a full year behind him, so these events at Gilgal took place during his second year. Hebrew is not my forte, but I would paraphrase our verse something like this, "Saul had reigned for a full year over Israel, and it was during his second year that he chose for himself three thousand men..."

I reject as unfounded the allegation that some of the original wording of 1 Samuel 13:1 has been lost. The NIV does a considerable disservice to the Kingdom of God here.

2) Abiathar is not Ahimelech

Mark 2:26 X 1 Samuel 21:1

Some of my readers may be aware that this verse has destroyed the faith of at least one scholar in our day, although he was reared in an evangelical home. He understood Jesus to be saying that Abiathar was the priest with whom David dealt, when in fact it was his father, Ahimelech. If Jesus stated an historical error as fact, then he could not be God. So he turned his back on Jesus. I consider that his decision was lamentable and unnecessary, and in the interest of helping others who may be troubled by this verse, I offer the following explanation:

"How he entered the house of God (making Abiathar high priest) and ate the consecrated bread, which only priests are permitted to eat, and shared it with those who were with him."

My rendering is rather different than the 'in the days of Abiathar the high priest' of the AV, NKJV and NIV. We are translating three Greek words that very literally would be 'upon Abiathar high-priest' (but the preposition here, ἐπι, is the most versatile of the Greek prepositions, and one of its many meanings/uses is 'toward'—the standard lexicon, BDAG, lists fully eighteen areas of meaning, quite apart from sub-divisions). When we go back to the Old Testament account, we discover that David actually conversed with Ahimelech, Abiathar's father, who was the high priest at that moment (1 Samuel 21:1-9). Within a few days Saul massacred Ahimelech and 84 other priests (1 Samuel 22:16-18), but his son Abiathar escaped and went to David, taking the ephod with him (1 Samuel 22:20-23; 23:6). That David could use it to inquire of the LORD rather than suggests that it had to be the ephod that only the high priest wore, since only that ephod had the Urim and Thummim (1 Samuel 23:9-12; cf. Numbers 27:21, Ezra 2:63).

That ephod was to a high priest like the crown was to a king; so how could Abiathar have it? The Text states that David's visit filled Ahimelech with fear, presumably because he too saw Doeg the Edomite and figured what would happen. Now why wasn't Abiathar taken with the others? I suggest that Ahimelech foresaw what would happen (Doeg probably took off immediately, and Ahimelech figured he wouldn't have much time), so he deliberately consecrated Abiathar, gave him the ephod, and told him to hide—he probably did it that very day (once the soldiers arrived to arrest Ahimelech and the other 84, it would be too late). Abiathar escaped, but carried the news of the massacre with him; only now he was the high priest.

Putting it all together, it was David's visit that resulted in Abiathar's becoming high priest prematurely, as David himself recognized, and to which Jesus alluded in passing (which is why I used parentheses). But why would Jesus allude to that? I suppose because the Bible is straightforward about the consequences of sin, and David lied to Ahimelech. Although Jesus was using David's eating that bread as an example, He did not wish to gloss over the sin, and its consequences.

Recall that Jesus was addressing Pharisees, who were steeped in the OT Scriptures. A notorious case like Saul's massacre of 85 priests would be very well known. And of course, none of the NT had yet been written, so any understanding of what Jesus said had to be based on 1 Samuel ("Have you never read...?"). If we today wish to understand this passage, we need to place ourselves in the context recorded in Mark 2:23-28. The Pharisees would understand that if Abiathar was in possession of the ephod with the Urim and Thummim, then he was the high priest. And how did he get that way? He got that way because of David's visit. It was an immediate consequence of that visit.

Some may object that 'making' is a verb, not a preposition. Well, the 'in the days of' of the AV, etc., though not a verb, is a phrase. Both a pronoun and an adverb may stand for a phrase, and a preposition may as well. TEV and Phillips actually use a verb: 'when... was'; NLT has 'during the days when... was'. Where the others used from two to five words, I used only one.

3) A 'crumb' for a 'puppy'

Matthew 15:21-28 and Mark 7:24-31<sup>a</sup>.

Matthew 15:—<sup>21</sup>Going out from there Jesus withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>And then, a Canaanite woman coming from those parts cried out to Him saying: "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demonized." <sup>23</sup>But He answered her not a word. So His disciples came and urged Him saying, "Send her away, because she is crying out after us". <sup>24</sup>But in answer He said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel".<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>So she came and worshipped Him saying, "Lord, help me!" <sup>26</sup>But in answer He said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs". <sup>27</sup>So she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table". <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus answered and said to her: “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

---

<sup>a</sup> Although His ultimate mission included the whole world (see the Great Commission in Matthew 28:19-20), His earthly ministry was directed to the "house of Israel".

Mark 7:—<sup>24</sup>Then He got ready and went from there into the region of Tyre and Sidon. He went into a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not escape notice. <sup>25</sup>In fact, as soon as she heard about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit came and fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenecian by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said to her, “Let the children be filled first; it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs”. <sup>28</sup>So she answered and said to Him, “Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children’s crumbs”. <sup>29</sup>So He said to her, “Because of this saying you may go; the demon has gone out of your daughter”. <sup>30</sup>She went away to her house and found that the demon was gone and the daughter had been placed on the bed. <sup>31</sup>Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, Jesus came to the Sea of Galilee by way of the Decapolis region.

Here we have a moving account of faith, determination and humility; perhaps it will have some practical lessons for us. My discussion will attempt to follow the actual sequence of events.

1) To begin, we observe that Jesus left the Jewish Galilee and went to the Gentile Tyre and Sidon. Now why do you suppose He did that, since He would presently say, “I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” (Matthew 15:24)? In that case, what was He doing in Tyre? Well, maybe He just wanted to get away and rest a bit; upon arriving “He went into a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not escape notice” (Mark 7:24). A group of thirteen foreigners would tend to attract some attention, even if they tried to keep a low profile. Still, the Text plainly says that Jesus tried to avoid being noticed. How then did the ‘puppy’ know that Jesus was coming before He even arrived?!

2) From Mark’s account one could assume that the woman appeared after Jesus was in the house, but Matthew’s account tells us something else. Notice verse 23: His disciples came and urged Him saying, “Send her away, because she is crying out after us” (Mark does say that she kept asking, verse 26). They were still on the road, and the woman was following them. Further, she addressed Him as the Jewish Messiah: a Canaanite woman coming from those parts cried out to Him saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demonized” (Matthew 15:22). “Son of David”—as a Canaanite she appealed to the Jewish Messiah, upon whom she had no claim. But how did she know that? I suspect there is more to this story than meets the eye. The only explanation that I can see is that the woman received divine orientation; she was told where to go and what to say. In that event, helping that woman may have been the purpose for the trip.

3) The woman began with, “Lord, Son of David”, to which Jesus returned no answer, since she had no claim upon Him in those terms. However, since she would not stop, and did not keep her voice down, she was ‘blowing their cover’. So the disciples appealed to Jesus for relief, to which He replied, “I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” (Matthew 15:24). The Lord spoke loudly enough for her to hear, since His answer was as much, if not more so, for her as it was for the disciples. So she came and worshipped Him saying, “Lord, help me!” (Matthew 15:25). She got the message, because she now dropped the appeal to the Messiah. Mark 7:25 tells us that she “fell at His feet”, so either Jesus had stopped or she had run ahead so she could stop Him.

4) Now we come to an unusual conversation. Our Lord’s choice of terms would probably strike most readers as being unexpectedly harsh. “It is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs” (Matthew 15:26, Mark 7:27). Dear me, Jesus called her a dog (and a ‘little’ one at that)! To be sure, at that time Jews commonly referred to Gentiles as ‘dogs’, but why would Jesus follow suit? I imagine that He was testing her humility, since she had already, as I believe, received a special dispensation of grace. (One is reminded of Cornelius.) And she passed the test! So she said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table” (Matthew 15:27). Big dogs would not be in the house, so these would be little house pets, or perhaps puppies. Then Jesus answered and said to her: “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire. Because of this saying you may go; the demon has gone out of your daughter” (Matthew 15:28, Mark 7:29).

5) “She went away to her house and found that the demon was gone and the daughter had been placed on the bed” (Mark 7:30). The verb ‘place’ is perfect passive; evidently the child was too small, or too weak, to have gotten there by herself.

6) “Departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, Jesus came to the Sea of Galilee” (Mark 7:31). We are not told whether Jesus did anything else while in that region. If not, He apparently went there just to help that woman. But why would He do something like that?—it involved time and inconvenience. Well, consider 2 Chronicles 16:9. “For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him” (NKJV). God’s ‘search’ covers the whole earth, so is not limited to nation or place, and not to time either. Cornelius is a biblical example, but there have doubtless been many others down through history (I have seen it myself). So if you are needing some ‘strong’ help, here is the key—the language of the Text indicates that God is just waiting to give that help. How about another doxology!

This episode always moves me. In effect, Jesus called the woman a ‘dog’ (that is what Jews called Gentiles), and she accepted the classification. She was determined to get her ‘crumb’, and she did! And she left us a great example of humility, determination and faith!

4) A desperate woman

Matthew 9:20-22, Mark 5:24-34 and Luke 8:42<sup>b</sup>-48.

Matthew 9:—<sup>20</sup>And then, a woman who had been hemorrhaging for twelve years came from behind and touched the hem of His garment. <sup>21</sup>For she kept saying to herself, “If only I may touch His garment I will be healed”. <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, “Take courage, daughter; your faith has made you well”. And the woman was healed from that very hour.

Mark 5:—<sup>24</sup>A large crowd was also following Him, and they were pressing around Him. <sup>25</sup>Now a certain woman—who had been bleeding for twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things under many doctors, and had spent all that she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse—<sup>27</sup>when she heard about Jesus, she came from behind in the crowd and touched His garment. <sup>28</sup>(She had kept saying, “If I can just touch His clothes, I will be healed”.) <sup>29</sup>Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was healed from the affliction. <sup>30</sup>And instantly Jesus perceived within Himself that some power had gone out of Him, and turning around in the crowd He said, “Who touched my clothes?” <sup>31</sup>So His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing around you, yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’” <sup>32</sup>But He kept looking around to see who had done it. <sup>33</sup>So the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup>And He said to her: “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go into peace and be healed from your affliction.”

Luke 8:—Now as He was going, the crowds were pressing against Him. <sup>43</sup>And a woman—suffering with a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent her whole livelihood on physicians, but could not be healed by any—<sup>44</sup>approaching from behind touched the border of His garment; and immediately the flow of her blood stopped! <sup>45</sup>So Jesus said, “Who touched me?” When all denied it, Peter and those with him said: “Master, the people are pressing against you and crowding in, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’”<sup>a</sup> <sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, “Someone did touch me, because I noticed power going out from me”. <sup>47</sup>Now when the woman saw that she could not hide, she came trembling, and falling down before Him she told Him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup>So He said: “Courage, daughter, your faith has healed you. Go into peace.”

Here we have a moving account of faith, determination and perseverance; perhaps it will have some practical lessons for us. My discussion will attempt to follow the actual sequence of events. Matthew’s account is abbreviated, so I will depend mainly on the other two.

1) The street was presumably not very wide, and both Mark and Luke inform us that it was filled with a crowd that was pressing around and against Jesus. Indeed, Mark 5:31 and Luke 8:45 reinforce the observation. Obviously this represented a problem for the woman; how could she get to Jesus through that crowd, the more especially if it was made up mostly, if not entirely, of men? For any woman to push through a crowd of men would be unacceptable, but she had an added problem.

2) From Matthew 9:1 and the context we may conclude that this episode transpired in Capernaum, which really was not all that big a town. The point is, that woman would be a known person. The available space was packed with people, the crowd was on both sides of Jesus, as well as behind, so she would have to force her way through. However, this represented a difficulty beyond just being rude. According to Leviticus 15:19-27, any discharge of blood made a woman ‘unclean’, and verse 25 deals with prolonged hemorrhage—anyone who touched her, or even her clothes, became ‘unclean’ as well. So everyone she touched on her way through the crowd became ‘unclean’! Now she and her problem were well known, so the people she touched were NOT happy. She no doubt got plenty of dirty looks, and maybe a few elbows, as well as some choice expressions. It would have been easy to give up, but she kept repeating her expectation to herself (Matthew 9:21) to keep up her courage, and she was desperate.

3) So why was she desperate? She “had been bleeding for twelve years, and had suffered many things under many doctors, and had spent all that she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse” (Mark 5:25-26). In other words, she was at the end of her financial resources and of any medical hope. Mark almost seems to be accusing the doctors of malpractice. Luke, himself a doctor, is more cautious: “a woman suffering with a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent her whole livelihood on physicians, but could not be healed by any” (Luke 8:43). No wonder the woman was desperate, but then “she heard about Jesus” (Mark 5:27), and all of a sudden she had hope!

4) Well, she managed it. She wormed through the crowd and “touched the hem of His garment” (Matthew 9:20). “Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was healed from the affliction” (Mark 5:29). Note that all she had to do was touch; this sort of thing, people getting healed just by touching His clothes, happened repeatedly during the Lord’s earthly ministry. Jesus could have let the incident pass, but He chose not to. He stopped and turned around.

5) “Instantly Jesus perceived within Himself that some power had gone out of Him, and turning around in the crowd He said: Who touched my clothes?” (Mark 5:30). When Luke writes that “all denied it” (8:45), we may understand that it was by their silence; no one spoke up. But Jesus insisted, “He kept looking around to see who had done it” (Mark 5:32). When the disciples protested that He was being ‘touched’ all the time by the jostling crowd, Jesus said, “Someone did touch me, because I noticed power going out from me” (Luke 8:46). He was referring to a purposeful touch. The woman had evidently withdrawn into the crowd, and may even have been hidden behind others. But Jesus did not let her get away with it.

6) “Now when the woman saw that she could not hide, she came trembling, and falling down before Him she told Him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she was healed immediately” (Luke 8:47). That was not easy, in front of the crowd, but Jesus gave her no choice. Was He just being mean? No, He was doing her a big favor. The people knew who she was, and about her physical problem; Jesus was declaring her healing, and therefore her cleansing, to the assembled multitude, and by implication those who had been ‘contaminated’ by the woman could relax on that score.

7) Then Jesus said to her: “Courage, daughter, your faith has saved you. Go into peace and be healed from your affliction” (Mark 5:34, Luke 8:48). That is what the Text says, ‘into peace’ not ‘in’. To go ‘in peace’ is to leave on good terms, no hard feelings. But what might going into peace be? I would say that you take the peace with you; you live within an atmosphere of peace. Now that is a proper ‘blessing’! Sovereign Jesus never said ‘go in peace’; He always said “go into peace”—He was giving the person a new life. How about a doxology!

5) Are we to handle snakes?

Mark 16:18

In the NKJV, Mark 16:18 reads like this: “they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”<sup>a</sup>

The NIV renders ‘they will pick up snakes with their hands’, the ‘with their hands’ being based on just over 2% of the Greek manuscripts. As we know, there are those who take this translation literally, and believe that they must handle poisonous snakes in obedience to God. I respect their sincerity, but believe they have been misled by a faulty translation.

I would say that this particular statement of the Lord’s has been generally misunderstood. The verb in question covers a wide semantic area, one of the uses being to pick up the way a garbage man picks up a bag of trash—he does so to get rid of it (hence ‘remove’). I believe Luke 10:19 sheds light on this question. In Luke 10:19 the Lord Jesus said: “Behold, I give [so 98% of the Greek manuscripts] you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.” The Lord is addressing the Seventy, not the Twelve, and others were doubtless present; further, this was said perhaps four months before His death and resurrection. It follows that this authority is not limited to the apostles, and there is no indication of a time limit. The Lord Jesus affirms that He gives us the authority over all the power of the enemy. In Matthew 28:18 He declares that He holds “all authority... in heaven and earth”, and so He has the right and the competence to delegate a portion of that authority to us. We may have any number of enemies, but the enemy is Satan. The phrase, “all the power”, presumably includes his works, followed by their consequences.

Returning to Luke 10:19, the Lord gives us the authority to “trample snakes and scorpions”. Well now, to smash the literal insect, a scorpion, you do not need power from on High, just a slipper (if you are fast you can do it barefoot). To trample a snake I prefer a boot, but we can kill literal snakes without supernatural help. It becomes obvious that Jesus was referring to something other than reptiles and insects. I understand Mark 16:18 to be referring to the same reality—Jesus declares that certain signs will accompany the believers (the turn of phrase virtually has the effect of commands): they will expel demons, they will speak strange languages, they will remove ‘snakes’, they will place hands on the sick. (“If they drink...” is not a command; it refers to an eventuality.) But what did the Lord Jesus mean by ‘snakes’?

In a list of distinct activities Jesus has already referred to demons, so the ‘snakes’ must be something else. In Matthew 12:34 Jesus called the Pharisees a ‘brood of vipers’, and in 23:33, ‘snakes, brood of vipers’. In John 8:44, after they claimed God as their father, Jesus said, “You are of your father the devil”. And 1 John 3:10 makes clear that Satan has many other ‘sons’. In Revelation 20:2 we read: “He seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is a slanderer, even Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years.” If <sup>a</sup> Since only three Greek MSS (really only two) omit Mark 16:9-20, against at least 1,700 that contain them, there can be no reasonable question as to the genuineness of those verses. For more on this subject please see the respective appendix in any recent edition of my book, The Identity of the New Testament Text.

Satan is a snake, then his children are also snakes. So then, I take it that our ‘snakes’ are human beings who chose to serve Satan, who sold themselves to evil. I conclude that the ‘snakes’ in Luke 10:19 are the same as those in Mark 16:18, but what of the ‘scorpions’? Since they also are of the enemy, they may be demons, in which case the term may well include their offspring, the humanoids see my paper, “In the Days of Noah”, available from my site: [www.prunch.org]. I am still working on the question of just how the removal is to be done.

6) Baptisms in the Bible

Our vocabulary item ‘baptism’, and its verb ‘baptize’, are transliterations of the corresponding terms in the Greek New Testament. I am not aware of equivalents in Hebrew, so I will base this study on the NT, including for the baptisms in the OT. Why did the translators into English choose to transliterate rather than translate? Probably because, as with Hebrew, we have no corresponding terms that would serve for a translation. Of course, by now the transliterated terms are part of our vocabulary. I will organize this study of the baptisms under three headings: 1) during the old covenant, 2) during the transition, 3) during the new covenant.

Baptisms during the old covenant

1) In 1 Corinthians 10:2 our versions generally say that the people who departed from Egypt “were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea”. I would prefer ‘by the cloud and by the sea’, but what is the point of the statement? The people were identified with Moses, and that identification translated into dependence and obedience. Without Moses they would not have crossed the sea, and they had to obey ‘blindly’, as it were, no matter how improbable the situation. They were guided and protected by the cloud, but under the authority of Moses. An identification that expresses itself in dependence and obedience might well serve for a definition of Christian baptism, at least in part.

2) Mark wrote for a Roman audience, and in 7:3-4 he explains certain Jewish customs:

Because the Pharisees, indeed all the Jews, do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding to the tradition of the elders. When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they baptize themselves. And there are many other things they have received and hold—baptisms of cups, pitchers, copper vessels and couches.

‘The tradition of the elders’ was based on the written instructions given by Moses that had to do with purification. That purification was done with water. The idea of purification is not foreign to Christian baptism.

3) Based on extra-biblical information (not in the Bible), we know that a Gentile who converted to Judaism was baptized—it was one of the requirements that he had to fulfill. That baptism was done with water, but there is doubt as to just how it was done. However, it appears that it represented a formal declaration to the effect that the person was changing religion, or way of life. It was a procedure that carried with it significant consequences in both the social and spiritual spheres. We may understand that such a baptism served as a background for John’s baptism—the people were used to the idea.

Baptisms during the transition

1) All four of the Gospels speak of the ministry of John the Baptizer. John began his ministry proclaiming and offering a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins<sup>a</sup> (Mark 1:4). Matthew and Mark record that the candidates would confess their sins; of course, it was their sins that they were repenting of. All four of the Gospels record that John was preparing the way of the LORD. John himself affirmed that he baptized with water, but the Text does not clarify how he did it.

2) John baptized Jesus. This was a unique case that did not fit the declared nature of the baptism offered by John. Jesus had no sin; He had nothing to repent of; He did not need pardon. Indeed, John did not like the idea: “I have need to be baptized by You, and You are coming to me?” (Matthew 3:14). In answer Jesus said to him, “Permit it now, because thus it is appropriate for us to fulfill all righteousness.” This response has given rise to a variety of interpretations, but upon reflection, we do not need to interpret it, since it was not a norm or an example to be followed; it was sui generis.

3) John 3:22, 26; 4:1 and 2 mention that the disciples of Jesus were baptizing—John 4:2 makes clear that Jesus Himself was not baptizing. The Text does not offer any details about the nature of that baptism. We may imagine that they were following John’s example, helping to prepare the way of the LORD. The absolute lack of detail makes clear that this baptism did not become a norm to be followed. However, if they were indeed using John’s baptism, it continued to be used, here and there, for some time, as Acts 18:25 and 19:3 make clear.

4) In Luke 12:50 Jesus said, “I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed!” When Jesus responded to the ambitious request from James and John, He referred to the same baptism (Matthew 20:22-23, Mark 10:38-39). It appears to refer to suffering within God the Father’s Plan. In His response to James and John He also referred to the ‘cup’, the same one He mentioned in Gethsemane. As for Jesus, this baptism was fulfilled on the cross at Golgotha, which happened before the new covenant. As for James and John, they experienced this baptism later on. If my description of this baptism is correct, then it still exists today (1 Peter 4:19).

Baptisms during the new covenant

1) John the Baptizer said that Jesus would baptize “with Holy spirit and fire” (Luke 3:16). There has been no lack of interpretations for this statement, but I would say that the next verse clarifies the intended meaning: “whose winnowing shovel is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” See also Matthew 3:11-12. Now then, the ‘unquenchable fire’ must refer to the Lake of fire and brimstone, the second death, and in that case the ‘chaff’ refers to the lost—it is the lost who will be baptized with fire.<sup>b</sup> In that case, the

---

<sup>a</sup> There are those who squirm at the plain meaning of the Text—John was offering forgiveness of sins. Well, throughout the Old Testament, if you brought an animal offering, you were confessing to being a sinner, and expecting to be forgiven. As forerunner to the Lamb of God, who would provide the ultimate payment for sin, John represented a transition, from the old to the new. Should someone ask, “How could one person pay for the sins of the whole world?”, I offer the following possibility: to pay an infinite debt, would require an infinite person, and Jesus was, and is, an infinite person.

<sup>b</sup> According to 1 Corinthians 3:11-15, the works of the saved will be tried by fire. Although John certainly said “and fire”, both Matthew (according to 80% of the Greek manuscripts) and Mark omit the ‘wheat’ refers to the saved—those who are genuinely saved will have been baptized with Holy Spirit. But just how and when does Jesus baptize us with Holy Spirit? He does it from His position at the Father’s right hand (1 Peter 3:21-22), when we believe into Him. At that point the Holy Spirit begins to indwell us, and He has a good deal to do with our ‘new nature’. I take it that Acts 1:5 refers to this baptism, as does Acts 11:16; it began on the day of Pentecost.

The case of Cornelius deserves its own paragraph. Cornelius really wanted to know God and to please Him—he was serious! So when Peter began to expound, Cornelius hung on his every word. When Peter got to “everyone who believes into Him<sup>a</sup> will receive forgiveness of sins”, Cornelius did! And Jesus baptized him with Holy Spirit. Poor Peter, Jesus got ahead of him, and as he later said in his defense, “who was I to be able to withstand God?” (Acts 11:17). So then Peter said to bring on the water (Acts 10:47)—please notice the order: first Holy Spirit, then water!

I understand Mark 16:16 to refer to this baptism. “The one who believed and was baptized will be saved; but the one who did not believe will be condemned.” In the Text, the verbs ‘believe’ and ‘baptize’ are participles in the past tense—one could render ‘the one having believed and having been baptized’.<sup>b</sup> There will be no lack of people who were baptized with water in Hell; baptism with water does not save. The Text says that the person who did not believe will be condemned, with no mention of baptism—it should be obvious that Jesus will not baptize someone who did not believe. Let me repeat that: it should be obvious that Jesus will not baptize someone who did not believe! It is the person who genuinely believes who receives the Holy Spirit. One needs to remember that the commission Jesus stated here in Mark was given in the evening of Resurrection day, while the commission that He stated in Matthew, that inaugurated Christian baptism, was given weeks later in Galilee. Here in Mark Christian baptism did not yet exist.

I stated that water baptism does not save; how then do I explain Acts 2:38? “Repent and be baptized, each one of you, upon the name of Jesus Christ, for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.” To begin, this took place on the day of Pentecost itself, and may have been something of a transition. Then, the context is king of interpretation, and the context here is very specific, so what Peter said should not be taken as a generic standard. Verses 36 and 40 are crucial to understanding Peter. “Therefore, let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified!”<sup>c</sup> (verse 36). So then they asked what they should do. Peter concluded with, “Escape from this perverse generation!” (verse 40). The ‘generation’ in question was the one that had crucified the Messiah. By being baptized upon the name of Jesus Christ they would be formally disassociating themselves from that generation, and the judgment that was coming upon it. This is the first use of the title, Jesus Christ, after the Gospels; the Lord had Himself inaugurated the title fifty days before (John 17:3)—it affirms that Jesus is the Messiah. Anyone phrase. Why? I suppose because they were focusing on the present and near future, while the ‘fire’ is part of the final Judgment.

- <sup>a</sup> The Text always says ‘believe into’, not ‘in’—a change of location is involved, from being outside to being inside, which requires commitment.
- <sup>b</sup> Unfortunately, every version that I have seen (including my own!—that I have changed for this edition) puts the verbs in the present tense, which makes it easier to think in terms of water baptism.
- <sup>c</sup> Nothing like making sure your audience gets the point! But why “both Lord and Christ”? Perhaps there were a variety of ideas about the ‘Messiah’ out there and Peter nails down His identity as the Lord.

being baptized upon that name would be publicly declaring allegiance to Jesus as the Messiah. Peter promised forgiveness of sin and the gift of the Holy Spirit to any who entered into that commitment. Anyone who did that would be believing into Jesus, and He would baptize them with Holy Spirit. It was not the water that saved them.

I understand that 1 Peter 3:21 also refers to this baptism; the poor verse has suffered considerably at the hands of commentators. Since there was no lack of water around Noah's Ark, interpreters have tended to carry the water over to the baptism in the next verse, but it does not follow. Consider: verses 19 and 20 mention certain rebellious angels in Noah's day, "while the Ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is eight, souls were brought safely through water". Then comes verse 21, that I would translate like this: "Its antitype<sup>a</sup> now saves us also, a baptism through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him." So just which baptism might this be? It is Jesus baptizing with Holy Spirit, from His position at the Father's right hand. Just as the Ark preserved the eight from the water, the baptism with the Holy Spirit preserves us from Satan and his subordinates. The careful reader will have noticed that verse 21 above is not complete; I did not include the parenthetical explanatory aside: "(not the removal of physical filth, but the appeal into God from a good conscience)". I would place it at the end of verse 21, as I translated it, between 'Christ' and 'who'. Peter makes it clear that he is not talking about baptism with water.

In John's baptism, he is the agent; in Christ's baptism, He is the agent; a baptism where the Holy Spirit is the agent is different (as also where believers are the agents). In John's baptism, the substance used was water; in Christ's baptism, the substance used is the Holy Spirit. In John's baptism, the person got wet, but then dried off, so the true meaning of the procedure was a spiritual transaction; how much more then with Christ's baptism. I believe that we may link the baptism where Christ is the agent to John 4:13-14 and 7:38-39.

Jesus answered and said to her: "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never ever thirst; rather, the water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water, welling up into eternal life."<sup>b</sup>

"The one believing into me, just as the Scripture has said, out from his innermost being will flow rivers of living water."<sup>c</sup> <sup>39</sup>(Now He said this about

<sup>b</sup> That is what the Text says, "into eternal life". Eternal life is a quality of life, more precisely a life in communion with the Father. The picture is not necessarily of a geyser, water spouting up, but there has to be a constant flow. As our capacity increases, the flow should also increase. Of course the water must be shared with others, or we become stagnant.

<sup>c</sup> Just where does the Scripture say this, and why "rivers" (pl); would not one be enough? Reference Bibles will give a variety of suggestions, none of which really fit. I personally believe that the reference is to Ezekiel 47:1-12, and most especially to verse 9 where the Hebrew Text has two rivers (or torrents)—when that river got to the Dead Sea it evidently divided, so as to go along both banks at once. Living water takes life and health wherever it goes. So how much living water is flowing out of me, or you? The secret of that water is given in verse 12: "their water flows from the sanctuary" ('their' refers to the trees). Compare 1 Corinthians 6:19.

the Spirit, whom those believing into Him were going to receive,<sup>a</sup> in that the Holy Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

In other words, when Jesus baptizes you, you are regenerated, you receive a new nature, you receive the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 4:5 refers to “one Lord, one faith, one baptism”. But as we all know, there are a number of baptisms in the Bible, and even in the Church age. The only viable candidate for this ‘one baptism’ is the one where Jesus Christ, the ‘one Lord’, is the agent. Anyone who has not been baptized by Jesus is not part of the Church.

2) The main text for Christian baptism, so to say, is the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20:

And approaching, Jesus asserted to them saying: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup>As you go,<sup>b</sup> make disciples in all ethnic nations: baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit;<sup>c</sup> <sup>20</sup>teaching them to obey everything that I commanded you;<sup>d</sup> and take note, I am with you every day, until the end of the age!”<sup>e</sup>

The order is to make disciples, not just to ‘win souls’. So how does one make a disciple? The two gerunds explain it: “baptizing them” and “teaching them”, which should be done by those who themselves are genuine disciples. What concerns us here is the baptizing. The substance used is water, as in John’s baptism, but the agents are disciples of Jesus. And this baptism is to be administered into the name of the Trinity, which represents a new revelation about the nature of God. It also represents a new ‘religion’, quite different from those previously known. In the OT there are veiled references, that as we look back we can associate with the Trinity, but here we have the first clear statement on the subject (see footnote 2 below). But what is the significance of being baptized into the name of the Trinity?

A person’s name represents that person. To do something ‘in the name of the king’ means that the something was ordered by that king; the speaker is representing the king (or is claiming to do so). So then, what does it mean to be baptized into the Trinity? Well, if you are inside the Trinity, then you are protected by Them, because before anything can get to you it must pass through the Trinity. This is tremendous! However, it also calls for a marked change in behavior—sinning inside the Trinity does not sound like a good idea! So then, the true meaning of this baptism should be the following: it is a public declaration, taking a public stand, whereby the candidate is formally renouncing Satan, and the world controlled by him, and is placing himself under the protection of the Triune God.

<sup>b</sup> The familiar ‘therefore’ is found in perhaps 5% of the Greek manuscripts, but it is a logical inference.

<sup>c</sup> Our Lord defines the Trinity here. According to Greek grammar the use of ‘and’ plus the definite article with items in a series makes clear that the items are distinct entities. So “the Father” is different from “the Son” is different from “the Holy Spirit”. So we have three persons. But He also said, “into the name”, singular, not ‘names’. So we have only one name. God is one ‘name’ or essence, subsisting in three persons.

<sup>d</sup> The ‘you’ here refers to the Eleven (see verse 16), so they were to pass down all the commands that Jesus had given them. To be a disciple of Jesus you should do everything that Jesus had commanded the Eleven to do—this includes healing and casting out demons, as well as preaching the Gospel.

<sup>e</sup> Since the age has not ended, Jesus is still with us. Praise God!

APPENDIX

It is to change sides, or teams, or kingdoms, and this carries with it an appropriate change in lifestyle.<sup>a</sup>

I confess that I do not understand why, to judge by the inspired accounts, the apostles were not rigorous in the manner in which they obeyed the Commission. At least, according to Acts 2:38, the baptism was “upon the name of Jesus Christ”, and according to Acts 10:48, Peter commanded to baptize Cornelius and company “in the name of the Lord Jesus”.<sup>b</sup> And according to Acts 19:5, Paul baptized those disciples of John “into the name of the Lord Jesus”. But upon reflection, I suppose that the practical result would be the same—to be under the protection of Sovereign Jesus would amount to being under the protection of the Trinity.

In fact, Jesus was the ultimate revelation of the nature of God to man. As He Himself said to Philip, “he who has seen me has seen the Father” (John 14:9). “In Him all the Fullness was pleased to dwell” (Colossians 1:19), and “all the Fullness of the Godhead dwells in Him in bodily form” (Colossians 2:9). In short, as He walked this earth, Jesus represented the Trinity.

As with John’s baptism, the Text does not specify how this baptism was administered. In consequence, down through the centuries, there has been argument and disagreement about it, as to how much water should be used. I see no way of settling the question, and it probably does not make any difference, at least in the spiritual realm. The important thing is the nature of the transaction in the spiritual realm, not the material substance used. But consider the baptism of Saul of Tarsus (Acts 9:18). At that time there was no plumbing in the houses; any water had to be carried into the house. In the house where Saul was staying, in Damascus, there was certainly no swimming pool, and almost as certainly, no tank of sufficient size to handle a grown man (and even if there was, the owner would not want to have his water contaminated). We may be certain that Ananias used a small amount of water.<sup>c</sup> The same can be said about the dwelling of Cornelius (Acts 10:48)—not much water for a lot of people. The same can be said about the house of the Philippian jailor (Acts 16:33)—not much water for a lot of people. In short, the important thing is the spiritual transaction, not the substance or the manner.

3) In 1 Corinthians 12:12 Paul uses the figure of the members of a body to speak of the Church, and goes on with verse 13: “For we also were all baptized into one body by one Spirit—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and were all given to drink into one Spirit.” I take Galatians 3:26-28 to be about the same baptism: “So all of you are sons of God through the faith in Christ Jesus. 27 As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ 28—there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is

<sup>a</sup> Kind reader, can you name even one local church, in the whole country, that teaches this meaning for this baptism? What a shame!

<sup>b</sup> The Greek manuscripts are divided as to the name here: 35%, including the best line of transmission, have ‘the Lord Jesus’; 57% have ‘the Lord’; 8% have ‘Jesus Christ’. None of the variants refers to the Trinity.

<sup>c</sup> In Acts 22:16 Paul himself mentions that experience; he cites Ananias as saying, “and wash away your sins, invoking the name of the Lord”. By invoking the Lord, he was placing himself under His protection, which equals believing into Him, which was what took care of his sins, not the baptism.

no ‘male and female’;<sup>a</sup> all of you are one in Christ Jesus.”<sup>b</sup> I take it that Paul is saying that the Holy Spirit baptizes us into Christ. But how so? When and how would it happen? It would be simultaneous to the moment when Jesus baptizes a person with the Holy Spirit.

Due to a basic human limitation, language is linear—it is impossible to say everything at the same time; the relevant information must be given a piece at a time. Something complex, like the spiritual transformation of a human being, can, and should, be described from different angles or perspectives. When we believe into Sovereign Jesus we receive the Holy Spirit; but at the same time we are introduced into His ‘body’ here on earth, which is the Church. And it is the presence of the Holy Spirit within us that is the proof that we belong to Jesus and are part of that ‘body’—Paul describes that proof as a baptism. A ‘baptism in the Spirit’ as being a second, or third, ‘work of grace’, is simply not in the Text. What there is, indeed, are repeated fillings—the more, the better.

4) Due to the limitation that language is linear, it seems to me that in Romans 6:2-4 Paul deals with yet another aspect of the spiritual transformation that we receive in Christ. He insists on the necessity of a holy life, using the argument that we were in Jesus when He died, and so we died too, and a corpse shouldn’t sin. But since the physical body of Jesus was buried and then raised, we were too, and now we have access to the power of God to enable us to live differently. To cover all that Paul used the phrase, “baptized into Christ Jesus”, which probably refers to what the Holy Spirit does, as discussed in the prior item. I take Colossians 2:11-12 to be parallel to Romans 6:2-4.

5) 1 Corinthians 15:29 has given no end of exercise to commentators, and also translators. Most versions just put baptized ‘for the dead’, but does that mean ‘on behalf of the dead’, or ‘in favor of the dead’, or ‘because of the dead’, or ‘in the place of the dead’? The context is the king of interpretation, and the context here is the reality of resurrection. If there is no resurrection, then our faith is in vain, we are suffering needlessly. I would say that the intended meaning is ‘in the place of the dead’; that is, new converts occupying the space left by those who had died—in those days there were many martyrs. If there is no resurrection, there would be no point to becoming a Christian, just to feed the lions. The ‘baptism’ here could include both with the Holy Spirit and with water.

6) It remains to deal with Hebrews 6:2 and 1 Corinthians 1:17. In Hebrews 6:2 ‘teaching about baptisms’ is included in the ‘elementary teaching’ (verse 1), that should be left behind so we can ‘move on toward perfection’. But since that teaching is in the company of repentance, faith, resurrection and eternal judgment, truths that form an essential part of our Faith, it is not being treated as inferior. Such doctrines are part of the foundation for spiritual growth, but that growth depends on factors beyond the basic truths.

But how could Paul say in 1 Corinthians 1:17 that “Christ did not send me to baptize”, since in the Great Commission Jesus commanded to do it? Once again, we must pay attention to the context. Beginning at verse 10, Paul is combating di-

<sup>a</sup> The Text does not have ‘neither male nor female’; the formula changes, as I have indicated. I suppose that the reference is to Genesis 1:27, and to the reason for the female in Genesis 2:18. All are saved on the same basis.

<sup>b</sup> The reference is to the spiritual realm, not the physical—a Jew who believes into Jesus does not stop being a physical Jew, a slave who believes into Jesus does not automatically change social status, a male who believes into Jesus does not stop being a physical male. Obvious.

visions based on individuals; there were ‘parties’, one of them following Paul himself. In an effort to reject that ‘party’, he argues that no one was baptized into his name (verse 13); and he goes on to thank God that he himself had baptized few people, precisely so that they could not say that he used his own name. Then comes verse 17: “Because Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the Gospel.” Is Paul denying that water baptism is part of the Gospel? It almost seems so. Or was he distinguishing between essential and nonessential? If we define ‘essential’ as being the elements that are necessary for someone to be saved, then water baptism is a nonessential—it joins other elements that are relevant to spiritual growth, to living the Christian life, and such elements are certainly important.

Conclusion

For us today, the one, all-important, baptism is the one where Jesus is the agent and the substance used is the Holy Spirit. The key is to believe into Jesus. When we believe into Him, He baptizes us with Holy Spirit. Anyone who has not been baptized by Jesus is not part of the Church.

7) Before, or after?

2 Thessalonians 2:2 X 2:7-8

In Matthew 24:44 we read, “Therefore you also be ready, because the Son of the Man is coming at an hour that you do not suppose.” I take it that for there to be the element of surprise the Rapture of the Church must occur before the “abomination of desolation”. When the Antichrist takes his place in the Holy of Holies and declares himself to be god there will be precisely 1,260 days until the return of Christ to the earth. “An hour that you do not suppose” presumably requires a pre-‘abomination’ rapture—if the rapture is pre-wrath but post-abomination, only a fool will be taken by surprise, unless the Rapture happens immediately after the ‘abomination’ (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4).

We may begin with 2 Thessalonians 2:2. Some 15% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘day of the Lord’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.); the 85% that have ‘day of Christ’ (including the best line of transmission) are doubtless correct. I remember one day in a Greek exegesis class, the professor stated that one reason he preferred the ‘critical’ text (that reads ‘Lord’ here) is that it fit better with his view of eschatology—the ‘Day of Christ’ is usually associated with the Rapture and blessing of the saints, while the ‘Day of the Lord’ is usually associated with heavy judgment upon the world and unrepentant Israel, including the outpouring of wrath just before and after the Second Coming of Christ, when He returns in glory to establish His Millennial Reign. The perceived difficulty here would appear to be that while verses 1, 6 and 7 evidently relate to the Rapture, verses 3-4 and 8-10 evidently relate to the Great Tribulation and the Second Coming. What to do? Look carefully at the Text. In verse 2, why would the Thessalonian believers be “disturbed”? Someone was teaching that the Rapture had already happened and they had been left behind—I would be disturbed too! So ‘day of Christ’ is precisely correct with reference to the content of verses 1 and 2. The trouble comes in verse 3 because a clause is elided; as an aid to the reader translations usually supply a clause, preferably in italics, to show that it is an addition, as in NKJV—“that Day will not come”. But that would put the Rapture after the revelation of the man of sin and the ‘abomination of desolation’—definitely not congenial to certain eschatological systems. An easy ‘solution’ would be to change ‘Christ’ to ‘Lord’ in verse 2, but that would put the Rapture within the ‘day of the Lord’—also not congenial. I submit that fine-tuning our view of eschatology is preferable to tampering with the Text.

If the ‘Restrainer’ in verses 6-8 is the Holy Spirit, then the Rapture happens before the ‘abomination’, and may be viewed as its ‘trigger’. I translate verse 7 as follows: “For the mystery of the lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He removes Himself.” Perhaps more literally, ‘gets Himself out of the middle’ (the verb γίνομαι is inherently middle in voice). I would say that the Holy Spirit is the only one who satisfies the description. But if the ‘Day of Christ’ includes the Rapture, then verse 3 would appear to place the Rapture after the ‘abomination’. So where does that leave us? Although my own training was strongly ‘pre-trib’, I have moved to a ‘meso-trib’ position. If the Rapture follows immediately upon the ‘abomination’, then the ‘surprise’ factor remains untouched. If the ‘abomination’ and the Rapture happen within minutes of each other, then from God’s point of view they form a single ‘package’, and the actual sequence is not important—for all practical purposes they happen at the same time.

8) Bethsaida, or Tiberias?

Luke X John

The question is: just where did the feeding of the 5,000 men take place? Matthew 14:13 and Mark 6:32 merely say that it was in a deserted spot, without identification. But Luke 9:10 says it was in “a deserted place belonging to a town named Bethsaida”,<sup>a</sup> while John 6:23 informs us that the spot was near the town of Tiberias. Well now, Tiberias was located on the west side of the Sea, a mile or two above the place where the Jordan River leaves the Sea. But Bethsaida was at the top of the Sea, a little to the east of where the Jordan enters the Sea. What to do?

We may deduce from Mark 6:31 and John 6:17 and 24 that Jesus and His disciples started out from Capernaum, where Jesus had His base of operations. It happens that Capernaum, like Bethsaida, was situated at the top of the Sea, but a little to the west of the entrance of the Jordan. To go from Capernaum to Bethsaida by boat one would not get far from the shore. But John 6:1 says that Jesus “went over the Sea of Galilee,” and that agrees better with Tiberias, since there is a large bay between Capernaum and Tiberias, although they are both on the west side of the Sea—they crossed close to ten miles of water. Further, after the feast, Matthew 14:22 says they went by boat “to the other side”, and verse 24 has them “in the middle of the Sea”; while Mark 6:45 says that they went by boat “to the other side, to Bethsaida”, and verse 47 has them “in the middle of the Sea”; and John 6:17 says that they “started to cross the Sea toward Capernaum”, and verse 19 that “they had rowed some three or four miles.”

<sup>a</sup> Lamentably, the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue, following a mere half of one percent of the Greek manuscripts (and that half made up of objectively inferior ones), says that they went “to a town named Bethsaida.” This is an obvious perversity because two verses later the same text has them in a deserted place. So the editors of that text make Luke contradict himself, as well as contradicting the other three Gospels, since all agree that the place was deserted. Unfortunately, this perversity is duly reproduced by NIV, NASB, TEV, etc.

Well now, to stay close to the shore is one thing, to go over the Sea is another. Further, if they were already in or near Bethsaida, how could they cross the Sea in order to get there (Mark 6:45)? It becomes clear that the miracle in fact took place near Tiberias, as John affirms. But that raises another difficulty: how could a property near Tiberias ‘belong’ to Bethsaida (Luke 9:10)? Either it had been deeded to the town somehow, or, more likely, it belonged to a family that lived in Bethsaida. My reason for saying this is based on the Text.

John 6:17 says that they “started toward Capernaum”, while Mark 6:45 says that they went “to Bethsaida”. Since the two towns were a short distance apart, at the beginning of the crossing the direction would be virtually the same. I understand that they did indeed go to Bethsaida, but spent very little time there, going from there directly to Genesaret. Indeed, the day after the miracle Jesus was already back in Capernaum (John 6:24-25). But just why did they make that side trip to Bethsaida (Genesaret lies just south of Capernaum)? I imagine the following: a property near Tiberias, but belonging to someone in Bethsaida, would likely be deserted, a great place for a picnic. I suppose that Jesus had permission to use the place, when He wanted to get away, but no one had foreseen a crowd of perhaps 15,000 (5,000 men plus women and children). Please pardon the unpleasant consideration, but what effect would a crowd that size have on the hygiene and appearance of the place? I conclude that Jesus felt obligated to give a report to the owner, in Bethsaida.

While we are here, allow me to call attention to another miracle Jesus performed, that you will not find in the usual lists. As already noted, Matthew 14:24 and Mark 6:46 say that they were in the middle of the Sea, but John 6:19 is more precise, saying that they had gone perhaps four miles. It happens that a crossing from Tiberias to Bethsaida would involve about eight miles. And now, attention please to John 6:21, “Then they wanted to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going”. If the total distance was eight miles, and they had only managed half of it, then Jesus transported the boat four miles instantly. Now that was a fair sized miracle, to transport a boat four miles in an instant! You will not find this miracle in most lists, because few people take the time to give a detailed examination to the Sacred Text.

9) Buy a ticket to Heaven?

Luke 16:9

In the NKJV, Luke 16:9 reads like this: “And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail, they may receive you into an everlasting home [literally, ‘the eternal dwellings’].” Within the context the Lord is clearly using irony, or sarcasm. In the immediately preceding verse the owner’s ‘commendation’ of the stupid steward is obviously sarcastic, since the steward was sacked. And verse 14 below indicates that what Jesus said was for the benefit of the Pharisees, who were greedy. The use of sarcasm is not rare in the Bible. Getting into the eternal dwellings does not depend on ‘buying’ friends down here; it depends on pleasing the Owner up there. And who says someone who can be bought with ‘unrighteous mammon’ is going to Heaven? He would have to get there first in order to ‘receive’ the buyer. The whole ‘scene’ is patently ridiculous. Just by the way, verse 13 declares a terribly important truth. To embrace the world’s value system (humanism, relativism, materialism) is to reject

God. Materialistic ‘Christians’ are really serving mammon (‘mammon’ includes more than just money).

10) Buy cleansing?

Luke 11:41

In the NKJV, Luke 11:41 reads like this: “But rather give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.” My translation reads like this: “Nevertheless, give what is possible as alms; then indeed all things are clean to you.” At first glance this statement seems difficult, but because they were filled with greed, for them to give away as much as possible would represent a major change in their values. Zacchaeus offers a case in point: the Lord Himself declared that he was saved (Luke 19:8-9).

11) ‘Cainan’ #2

Luke 3:36 X Genesis 11:12

There are several spelling variations that together are attested by almost 1% of the MSS; 99% have Καϊνάν. Apparently only two omit, P<sup>75v</sup> and D, but no printed text follows their lead. So there is no reasonable doubt that Luke in fact wrote that Shelah was fathered by Cainan, not Arphaxad. This Cainan has been widely used to justify treating the genealogies in Genesis like accordions—if one name was demonstrably left out in the Genesis account, then who knows how many others were also left out. This Cainan is also used to deny the validity of constructing a strict chronology based on the time spans given in the genealogies.

But where did Luke get this information? The LXX contains Cainan in Genesis 11:12, but is so different from the Massoretic text here that it looks like fiction. Recall that the LXX we know is based on codices Vaticanus, Sinaiticus and Alexandrinus, produced centuries after Luke. It is more likely that our LXX is based on Luke than vice versa. Where then did Luke get it? I understand that Luke obtained the information about this Cainan from records existing in his day, and being correct information was led by the Holy Spirit to include it in his Gospel. Just like Jude, who quoted Enoch—Enoch’s prophecy must have been in existence in Jude’s day, but we have no copy in Hebrew today (though Jews are reported to have used one so recently as the 13th century A.D.); similarly we have no copy of Luke’s source.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup> Let us recall Luke’s stated purpose in writing: “It seemed good to me also, most excellent Theophilus, having taken careful note of everything from Above, to write to you with precision and in sequence, so that you may know the certainty of the things in which you were instructed” (Luke 1:3-4). Given his stated purpose in writing, Luke’s account needs to be historically accurate (cf. 2:2 and 3:1). So then, I take it that the Holy Spirit guided Luke to include Cainan #2; I will argue the same for Joram below. While I am on this tack, my solution to the ‘Jeremiah’ problem in Matthew 27:9-10 is similar. Daniel (9:2) refers to “the books” (plural) in connection with Jeremiah the prophet. So I assume that Matthew had access to other writings of Jeremiah, of which no copy survives.

APPENDIX

This brief note was inspired by the discussion of the subject given by Dr. Floyd N. Jones in Chronology of the Old Testament<sup>a</sup> (which book comes close to solving all the alleged numerical discrepancies in the OT, at least as I see it). However, the explanation that follows is original with me (if anyone else has proposed it, I am unaware). Let us recall the exact wording of Genesis 11:12-13. “Arphaxad lived thirty-five years and begot Salah; after he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.”

The verb ‘begot’ requires that Salah be a blood descendent of Arphaxad, not adopted. He could be a grandson, the son of a son of Arphaxad, or even a great-grandson, etc., except that in this case the time frame only has room for one intervening generation. The plain meaning of the formula in the Text, ‘W lived X years and begot Y; after W begot Y he lived Z years,’ is that W was X years old when Y was born, is it not?<sup>b</sup> I take the clear meaning of the Hebrew Text to be that Arphaxad was 35 years old when Salah was born, whatever we may decide to do about ‘Cainan’.

Let us try to imagine the situation in the years immediately following the Flood. After the Flood the ‘name of the game’ was to replenish the earth. Indeed, the divine command was: “Be fruitful and multiply” (Gen. 9:1). So, whom could Noah’s grandsons marry? Obviously their cousins, Noah’s granddaughters. There would be an urgency to reproduce—thus, the girls would be married off at puberty, and the boys would not be wasting around either. The women would be giving birth as often as they possibly could. Really, the absolute top priority would be to increase the number of people.

Arphaxad was born two years after the Flood, but his wife could have been born a year or two earlier. (The Sacred Text is clear to the effect that only eight souls entered the ark, but some of the women could have conceived during the Flood.) Thus, Arphaxad could have fathered “Cainan” when he was 17/18. Similarly, Cainan could have fathered Salah when he was 17/18. In this way Arphaxad could be said to have “begotten” Salah when he was 35. Cainan could have died early or been passed over in Genesis because the time span did not constitute a ‘generation’, or both. Or, as things got back to normal, culturally speaking, the haste with which Arphaxad and Cainan procreated might have been viewed as unseemly. The expedient of omitting Cainan would make the account more ‘normal’ while preserving precision as to the elapsed time.

But Luke would be correct in saying that Salah was “of” Cainan who was “of” Arphaxad. Salah was Arphaxad’s grandson. In any case, the Messianic line was passed on by Salah. Without Luke’s record I, for one, would never have stopped to consider what must have happened immediately following the Flood—the absolute priority must have been to increase the number of people.

<sup>a</sup> Chronology of the Old Testament: A Return to the Basics (Floyd Nolen Jones, The Woodlands, TX: Kings Word Press, 1999, pp. 29-36). (This is the 14th edition, revised and enlarged—the 1st came out in 1993.) I imagine that many readers may feel uncomfortable with the author’s very dogmatic way of expressing himself, but I would urge them to filter out the rhetorical style and concentrate on the substantial arguments, that are of extraordinary value. For example, his solution to the conundrum of the reigns of the kings on the two sides of the divided monarchy is simply brilliant, and to my mind obviously correct, leaving no loose ends. (In this connection, he debunks the claims of Edwin R. Thiele and William F. Albright.)

<sup>b</sup> It follows that this formula destroys the ‘accordion’ gambit. There were precisely 130 years between Adam and Seth, 105 between Seth and Enosh, 90 between Enosh and Cainan<sup>1</sup>, etc., etc.

12) ‘Censer’, or ‘altar of incense’?

Hebrews 9:4

What concerns us here is the Greek word, θυμιατηριον, that occurs only here in the NT. In the LXX the meaning of the word is ‘censer’, and that is plainly the intended meaning here. But unfortunately modern versions like NIV, TEV, LB, NASB, etc. render ‘altar of incense’, thus setting up a contradiction with the Old Testament. [What could have motivated such a perverse proceeding?] According to Exodus 30:6 the altar of incense was placed in front of the curtain leading into the Holy of Holies, and so it was in the Holy Place, not the Holy of Holies. The only reference to this particular censer appears to be in Leviticus 16:12, where it was to be used behind the second curtain to hide the Ark with smoke. Since that censer would only be used once a year (on the day of atonement), it may well have been stored just behind a corner of the second curtain (where the high priest could retrieve it without looking in) and thus the author of Hebrews would be correct in saying that the censer was behind the second curtain, whereas the altar was in front of it. In any event, evidently that censer was used only within the Holy of Holies, and so it would be appropriate to say that the area ‘had’ a golden censer.

13) Demonization

Strange as it may seem, our versions of the Bible mislead us on this subject. The noun ‘demon’ is simply a transliteration of the Greek δαιμονιον or δαιμων. I wish they had done the same thing with the corresponding verb, δαιμονιζω. In that event we would have the verb ‘demonize’. But no, the translators put ‘possessed’ of a demon. As a result we have tended to think of demon activity only in terms of possession. Well, so what is the problem? I suggest the following.

By ‘possession’ the translators presumably intended to connote ‘control’, but the more common meaning denotes ‘ownership’, and most people seem to take the second meaning. This has serious consequences. First, the concept is wrong, since demons do not and cannot ‘own’ human beings (although a demon will often claim that its victim “belongs” to it).<sup>a</sup> Second, it has fostered a misunderstanding about Christians and demon ‘possession’—since a believer belongs to God it is presumably impossible that a demon should own him as well. We need to stop using the word ‘possessed’ in this connection altogether and replace it with the more precise term ‘controlled’.

Demon control certainly exists, but it represents only a small part of the enemy’s activity against mankind, precisely the most extreme cases. (Although organic insanity does exist it would not surprise me to verify that most cases of insanity involve at least some demonizing.) The vast majority of the demons’ attacks should not be characterized as control. There are less severe forms that are sometimes called oppression or obsession. They also cause physical problems. But I believe that the most frequent attacks interfere with our minds in less obvious ways; so much so that most of the time we are not even aware of it. I suggest that we use the term ‘demonization’ to refer to any and all direct interfer-

<sup>a</sup> Within Satanism there are ‘robots’, people who have turned themselves over to the complete control of a demon. For practical purposes a ‘robot’ is owned by his demon.

APPENDIX

ence, whether in the mind or the body. The following continuum will help us to visualize the concept:

minds | bodies | obsession | oppression | control

Note that I have not included temptation to evil in this continuum. What is included in the concept of demonization, however, encompasses a world of suffering.

Let us now consider some consequences of the translation “possessed”. I am not sure how far that rendering is at fault, but ‘traditional’ churches and schools scarcely touch the subject; perhaps because they think only in terms of ownership and conclude that believers are exempt. Whatever the explanation, you could attend certain churches during 20 years and never hear any teaching on Satan and the demons. On the other hand, ‘pentecostal’ or ‘charismatic’ churches and schools do at least deal with the subject, even if only partially. During deliverance sessions they tend to deal mainly with cases of control—is that not so? When does the leader of the service expel a demon? Only when it manifests itself—right? Someone begins to scream, foam at the mouth, roll on the ground or give some other evidence of foreign control, at which the leader confronts the demon and commands it to leave. But if the demon keeps still, what happens? Nothing, usually—nobody bothers it; its presence is not discerned. I know that some order the demons to show themselves, but do all obey? How do we know? Or if the manifestation is not of a type that we recognize as ‘possession’, who will identify and repel it? It seems clear to me that even in the churches where there is expulsion of demons the greater part of the enemy’s activity against us goes unrecognized. They are focusing only on control.

I see another consequence that can be rather serious. When we conceive of demonic activity only in terms of ownership, and when a church teaches that a believer cannot be ‘possessed’, the following occurs. A believer is demonized. In terms of the continuum I am suggesting it is not a case of control, yet the person knows he is being attacked. But the only terminology he knows for talking about demonic attack is ‘possession’ and the church teaches that a believer cannot be ‘possessed’. So the person is plunged into anguish—he knows he is saved but a believer cannot be ‘possessed’; yet he is being attacked and knows it. What is the explanation and how can he escape? He cannot say anything to the church because if he admits that he is being ‘possessed’ then they will no longer accept him as a believer. He does not dare talk and so he cannot receive help. Even if he did talk, he would not receive adequate help because the leaders think only in terms of ownership. As a result of all that, the poor believer may even reach the point of doubting his salvation! The worst of it all is that such suffering is simply unnecessary. We must learn to speak in terms of demonization, understand that believers certainly are demonized, and explain the use of the spiritual weapons that are at our disposal.

14) Did Jesus hide?

John 8:59

In the NKJV, John 8:59 reads like this: “Then they took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.” My translation reads like this: “Then they picked up stones to throw at Him;<sup>a</sup> but Jesus was concealed and went out of the temple, going through the middle of them; yes, that is how He got away!” The familiar “hid Himself” is not the best rendering here. Jesus did not try to hide behind a pillar, or whatever. He was surrounded by angry Jews with stones in their hands. Obviously they would have seen Him and started stoning. He became invisible and simply walked out, passing right through the middle of them. About half a percent of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality (demonstrably so), omit “going through the middle of them; yes, that is how He got away” (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The 99.5% are doubtless correct, and supply an important detail.

15) Did the centurion leave his house?

Luke 7:1-10 X Matthew 8:5-13

It has often been supposed that these are parallel accounts of the same incident. To be sure, both involve a centurion, in Capernaum, a sick servant, and the statement of the centurion along with the Lord’s reaction are very similar. But other details simply do not match. Evidently the Romans had an army base in Capernaum, with a centurion as commanding officer, who could be rotated. [Where do you suppose Peter sold most of his fish? And what language did he use?] Looking at the sequence of events in both Matthew and Luke, I would say that the incident recorded by Matthew happened first, and a number of months before the one recorded by Luke. Of course an incident like that would become part of the ‘folklore’ of the base. I assume that the centurions were different, but they certainly knew each other, so the second one knew every detail of the first incident. When his turn came, he used a different strategy to make his appeal (he was asking for a second favor), but then repeated the statement that had impressed Jesus so favorably. So, the first centurion left his house, but the second did not.

16) Did the cross kill Jesus?

John 10:18 X Mark 15:39, John 19:30, Matthew 27:50, Luke 23:46

In the NKJV, John 10:17-18 reads like this: “Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life that I may take it again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This command I have received from My Father.” Please notice: “No one takes it from me”. That includes Pilate, etc. In Matthew 27:50 and John 19:30 the Text states that Jesus “dismissed His spirit”. Now consider Mark 15:39. “So when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last, he said, ‘Truly this Man was the Son of God!’” Now what could convince a hardened Roman centurion? He had doubtless witnessed no end of crucifixions; he knew that the victim died of asphyxiation. Hanging from one’s hands, the diaphragm is pressed against the lungs, and the victim cannot breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure, to prolong the agony—in spite of the pain, the victim would push up so he could get a breath, until finally too worn out to do <sup>a</sup> Since certain situations demanded a stoning, there were doubtless piles of ammunition placed strategically around the temple premises.

so. (That is why the Pharisees requested Pilate to have the legs broken; then they died within minutes.) Now then, someone who is dying asphyxiated does not give a tremendous shout; but ordinary people cannot just tell their spirit to leave. So when that centurion observed that Jesus gave a tremendous shout and then immediately died, he drew the obvious conclusion: he was looking at a supernatural being. The cross did not kill Jesus; He gave His life voluntarily, for you and me. Thank you, Lord!

17) Did they hear the Voice, or not?

Acts 9:7 X Acts 22:9

In the NKJV, Acts 9:7 reads like this: “And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one.” And Acts 22:9 reads like this: “And those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of him who spoke to me.” Comparing the two accounts, we seem to have a discrepancy: did they hear the Voice, or didn’t they? Comparing the verses in the Greek Text, we discover that the verb, ‘hear’, and the noun, ‘voice’, are the same in both. Looking more closely, however, we notice that in 9:7 the noun is in the Genitive case, while in 22:9 it is in the Accusative. We have here a subtlety of Greek grammar: in the Genitive ‘voice’ refers to sound, while in the Accusative it refers to meaning, to the words. Saul’s companions heard the Voice, but were not allowed to understand the words—only Saul understood the words. A similar thing happened in John 12:28-29; the people heard the sound (sufficiently impressive that they called it thunder), but only Jesus understood the words.

18) Divorce and remarriage

The reason for divorce is to legalize or ‘legitimize’ another marriage. It also serves to escape from the commitment. Before proceeding, it must be made clear that a man having more than one woman did not represent adultery, as long as he maintained them all. Many men in O.T. had more than one wife, without being condemned for it. Men want divorce, but what is the teaching of the Bible? A basic rule of correct hermeneutics is to start with the clear texts and then look at any texts that are ambiguous, or that offer some complexity. So that is what I will do.

1) “Keep yourselves in your spirit, and let no one be disloyal to the wife of his youth. Because the LORD, the God of Israel, says that he hates divorce” (Malachi 2:15-16). Here we have a solemn declaration—the LORD hates divorce. So how could He approve it? He may tolerate it, just as He tolerates sin. In fact, I suppose there is no such thing as a divorce without sin. In the circumstances that culminate in divorce there is always sin.

2) Luke 16:18 presents us with the basic way in which God sees the issue, since it is a declaration made by Sovereign Jesus: “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and whoever marries her who is divorced from her husband commits adultery.” If the one who marries a divorced woman “commits adultery,” it is because the first marriage still exists in the eyes of God. But the use of the word ‘adultery’ by the Sovereign makes the matter very serious, since in the Law of Moses adultery carried the maximum penalty (Leviticus 20:10).

3) Answering the Pharisees in Mark 10:2-5, the Lord Jesus clarified that Moses allowed men to repudiate a wife “because of the hardness of your hearts.”

Neither here, nor in Matthew 19:3-9, does the idea of an ‘innocent party’ appear. Divorce is generally based on hardness of heart—to this day. However, there are cases where separation is necessary to avoid premature death, but not to remarry.

4) “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will be turned into one flesh’... Therefore, what God has joined together, let man not separate.” Mark 10:7-9). In both Mark 10:9 and Matthew 19:6, the Text says “what God has joined”, not “whom God has joined”. It is clear that the Sovereign did not refer to people, but to the fact of “one flesh”. So, for someone to argue that his partner was not chosen by God, won’t work. It is the fact of sexual union, not the identity of the partners, that is being discussed. See also 1 Corinthians 6:16.

It is clear that the ideal that God states is monogamy—“his wife” is singular, “the two” can only refer to one man and one woman. (It is “two”, not three, four, five, etc. “The two” cannot refer to two men, a man with an animal, a woman with a demon, or whatever—it cannot.) When a man and a woman unite, they become “one flesh”, and God holds that union to be sacred—“therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate”. Anyone! Even the spouses themselves. Here is a clear prohibition against divorce. Even the spouses themselves cannot separate what God has joined together. In fact, it seems clear that nothing that can happen afterwards alters the fact that the union took place—“one flesh” was made, and it remains. Other eventual unions complicate the situation (sin always complicates), but are unable to make the first union non-existent. That is exactly why God calls other unions “adultery”—if the first union had been annulled, the word ‘adultery’ would no longer be applicable, since the word refers precisely to infidelity to a union that still exists.

5) This is what Jesus says in verses 11 and 12 (still Mark 10): “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if a woman divorces her husband and gets married to another, she commits adultery.” In Luke 16:18 the woman is presented as passive—she is left, then taken by another. Here (verse 12) she is presented as taking the initiative—she is the one who divorced her husband. Conclusion: whether it is the man or the woman who takes the initiative, at the moment when she is united with another, she adulterates, because the first union still exists.

6) In Matthew 5:27-28 we read this: “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery’. But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.” Of course, adulterating in the heart does not undo the first union, and adulterating in fact does not undo it either. Matthew 5:31-32 repeats material that we have already commented on, but adds the caveat, “except for a case of fornication.” Since the caveat is repeated in Matthew 19:9 and the context there is broader, I will comment on it within the context of Matthew 19:3-10, as follows.

7) The Pharisees came to Jesus asking, “Is it permissible for a man to divorce his wife for just any cause?”. In reply, Jesus appealed to the Creator’s purpose, namely, monogamy, and repeated the prohibition against divorce, “what God joined together, let man not separate” (including the spouses themselves, presumably). But they didn’t like that and trotted out the “certificate of divorce” spoken of by Moses. Then Jesus replied: “Because of your hard-heartedness Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so.” Notice, “Moses permitted”, but that was not the Creator’s idea, and Moses permitted “because of your hardness of heart” (no ‘innocent party’). So far we haven’t found anything to say that God condones divorce, but let’s go to the ‘caveat’.

8) “And I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for fornication, and marries another commits adultery; and whoever marries a divorcee commits adultery.” The key issue is the exact meaning of “fornication”. In the New Testament, the term refers to prostitution (it would be the central meaning), premartial sex, incest and homosexuality. There is no clear case to defend the meaning of ‘adultery’. In fact, in Matthew 15:19, Mark 7:21, 1 Corinthians 6:9 and Galatians 5:19, ‘fornication’ and ‘adultery’ are presented as different, distinct things and it would be surprising if the Holy Spirit were to later confuse the two. In the present case (Matthew 19:9) it would be like insulting the Holy Spirit to say that “fornication” has only the meaning of ‘adultery’—it would be to impute dishonesty to Him, or at the very least to say that He intended to confuse the reader. If the desired meaning was ‘adultery’, then the Author would have written ‘adultery’. Indeed, by saying “fornication” Jesus made clear that the marriage had not yet taken place, otherwise He would have said ‘adultery’.

That is exactly why it seems to me more likely that this is a case similar to Joseph’s dilemma with Mary, pregnant, but not by him. In the culture of that time, once promised in marriage, a woman was considered to belong to the groom, even before the actual marriage and the consummation of the physical union. If, before the actual wedding, it was proved that the bride was no longer a virgin (as a result of fornication, inevitably), normally the groom would break off the marriage, refusing to actually marry her. The bride would be repudiated, and if the man later married another there would be no adultery, for he had never been sexually united with the first one. If another man later married the repudiated bride, it would not be adultery, because although no longer a virgin, she did not get married. In fact, Matthew 19:9 does not contradict Luke 16:18 and Mark 10: 11-12; the three passages are unanimous—God does not recognize divorce. Only death undoes the marital union. Infidelity complicates, but does not undo. That is why Jesus calls any second marriage ‘adultery’, because the first union still exists. It seems clear that the disciples understood it at the time. Consider their reaction.

9) “His disciples said to him: ‘If that is the situation of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry!’” (Matthew 19:10). Come now, why so much despair? Obviously Jesus’ word was very hard for them to assimilate. They were used to the ease that Moses allowed, although there were several positions at the time as to the type of thing that would justify divorce. But it seems that everyone agreed that infidelity justified repudiation—at least that. Multiplied thousands (if not millions) of men have accepted marriage, thinking of no way out unless (God forbid) because of the woman’s infidelity, in the event—so that interpretation seems inadequate to explain the disciples’ reaction. It follows that Jesus simply closed the door—there is no divorce that permits remarrying. Only death opens the door again. Consider what follows.

10) “Do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those who know law), that the law has authority over someone only as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives, but if the man should die, she is released from the law about the husband. <sup>3</sup>So then, if she should ‘marry’ another man while her husband is living, she will be labeled an adulteress; but if the husband should die, she is free from that law, not being an adulteress if she marries another man.” (Romans 7.1-3). “While her husband is living, she will be labeled an adulteress”—no ‘innocent party’, no divorce; as long as the first spouse is alive, the union exists, and any additional union is characterized as “adultery”. Only death breaks the union. See 1 Corinthians 7:39 as well.

11) Returning to Matthew 19, let us consider Jesus’ response to the disciples’ despair (verses 11 and 12): “So He said to them: ‘Not all can assimilate this word, but those to whom it has been given. <sup>12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born that way, from their mother’s womb; and there are eunuchs who were castrated by men; and there are eunuchs who castrated themselves for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. He who is able to assimilate it, let him assimilate.’” Wow, what a strange thing to say. What in the world do ‘eunuchs’ have to do with divorce and remarriage? Well, do eunuchs have sexual relations? It seems clear—Jesus is saying that whoever separates from his wife should then live as a ‘eunuch’; no new marriage until the first spouse dies.

12) It remains to comment on 1 Corinthians 7:10-17: “Now to the married I command (not I, but the Lord): a wife is not to be separated from her husband (but if she does separate herself, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband), and a husband is not to divorce his wife” (verses 10-11). Everything is consistent—no divorce. Even in the case of separation, let them remain unmarried! This is for a believing couple, but will the rules be different for a mixed marriage? Please note that it is the Lord who orders them to remain unmarried. Then, in verse 12, Paul offers his own opinion.

13) After affirming that the believing party should never leave the unbelieving party, the apostle continues: “But if the unbeliever separates, let him separate—in such cases the brother or the sister is not enslaved, but God has called us to peace” (verse 15). If re-marriage is not allowed if a believing partner leaves (verses 10-11), with what logic can it be argued that the rule changes if the partner is an unbeliever? It simply does not follow. (Is Paul’s opinion worth more than the Lord’s commandment?) On the contrary, the believer is called upon to make a special effort to win the other. However, if the unbeliever is determined to leave, an effort by the believer to go along at any cost will only prolong a climate of strife, and God has called us to peace. There is nothing in the text to justify the idea that the abandoned believer is entitled to another marriage, absolutely. So much so that the apostle closes the chapter reiterating that only death frees the survivor for remarriage (1 Corinthians 7:39).

CONCLUSION: For God, there is no divorce. It is never lawful to enter into a second marriage as long as the first spouse is alive. God takes sex seriously! So much so that He decrees the death penalty for certain abuses. Any kind of incest incurs death; homosexual practice incurs death; having sex with an animal incurs death; having sex with a woman in menstruation incurs death—read carefully Leviticus 20:10-21. Why does God react so severely? I suppose it is because of the following: the last three procedures destroy the seed of the man (the first one distorts it), and it is the seed that transmits ‘the image of the Creator’. He did not create sex for our pleasure, except on a secondary level, but to guarantee the continuity of the race. The main purpose of the creation is to glorify God, not to satisfy the desires of men. Any argument that relates to the pleasure or convenience of men is suspect and inadequate. Humanism increasingly invades evangelical churches, but humanism is idolatry and contrary to God. There is more; even in that severity about sex, God was foreseeing the well-being of the human race. In Malachi 2:15 we read: “Did He not make them one?... And why one? He seeks godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.” The word translated ‘one’ is ehad, which includes plurality within the unit. I understand that the reference is to ‘one flesh’. The responsible use of sex aims to avoid the debasement of the race—the fear of God serves for that as well.

All right, God never wanted divorce, but what to do in the face of the confusions and complications that already exist? Under the Law of Moses, which was given by God, adultery carried the death penalty for both participants (Leviticus 20:10). As a result, since death frees people, ‘widows’, surviving spouses, could remarry. When a society does not execute an adulterer, the way out that death would provide no longer exists.

1) The Bible never uses the expression ‘to live in adultery’; it uses ‘to commit adultery’. Even having an adulterous beginning, a second union also exists and is recognized by God. Perez entered the line of the Messiah although he was the product of the shameful union of Judah and Tamar (Genesis 38). Prostitute Rahab became King David’s great-great-grandmother despite her sordid life. The crown-ing example must be that of David and Bathsheba. Their union started in the most sinful and criminal way possible (adultery and murder, very cowardly, by the way), but even so God recognized it and even blessed it to the point of putting the fruit of that union, Solomon, on the throne and even allowing him to build the temple, which God honored with His Shekinah glory. That is, if someone is faithfully living with a second spouse, the phrase ‘living in adultery’ does not apply, even if they committed adultery at the beginning of the union. Once there is a second union, it exists as much as the first and there is no way to undo it. A second divorce does not solve anything.

2) In fact, there is a procedure that God absolutely forbids. After a woman marries a second man, she will never be able to return to the first, even if the second one dies (Deuteronomy 24:1-4). The reason given is that such a woman has already been “contaminated”, and if she goes back to the first one, God considers it an “abomination”. The expedient of requiring a newly converted person, who has already gone through two (or more) unions, to return to the first spouse is sadly unbiblical—it only makes things worse.

3) I know that there are horrifying cases, even of criminal abuse by one of the spouses, where separation becomes a necessity precisely to avoid the premature death of one of the parties. Violence may justify separation, but not remarriage. In my view, one of the most wretched aspects of sin is that almost always the worst consequences fall on others, often truly innocent with regard to the sin whose consequences they are suffering. We spend our lives victimizing and being victimized. What then? Can we undo or escape? Even when the case is totally tragic, unfair, disgusting? As a rule, no. The way to go is to avail ourselves of the grace of God and “run with endurance the race that is set before us... looking unto Jesus, the Founder and Perfecter of the Faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured a cross, scorning its ignominy, and took His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.” (Hebrews 12: 2).

4) Sin is sin and sin receives punishment, but it also may receive forgiveness (except for blasphemy against the Holy Spirit). The past is beyond our reach; we cannot change it, nor can we undo our sins, but the blood of Christ can cover the past and cleanse us from sin. Qualifications for service in the Church of Christ are stated in the present tense. (And who among us would score 100% on all the qualifications?) Despite the past, God deals with us in the present based on our current reality. However, there seems to be an exception.

5) There is grace and forgiveness, but they do not free us from the consequences of our sins in this life. It is certain that there seems to be a difference between deliberate sin after being converted and what was done before. Paul explains that although he came to the point of persecuting believers (even to death) [he was executing, not murdering—there is a fundamental difference], he achieved grace and a ministry (quite prominent, by the way) because he did it “ignorantly, in unbelief” (1 Timothy 1:12-14). After being converted, he subjugated his body “lest I myself should be rejected” (1 Corinthians 9:27). Sin can disqualify you from ministry—this is clear from 1 Timothy 3:1-12, among other passages. There we find “the husband of one wife”. In Malachi, “the LORD hates divorce” is part of a larger context where He is punishing the priests who divorced their wives. In Malachi 2:13-14 God states that for that very reason He no longer took notice of their offerings. Everything indicates that God wants neither a priest nor a pastor who is divorced, and will retain the blessing if they persist anyway (even worse if they divorced after being converted).

19) Do we command God?

Matthew 18:18

In the NKJV, Matthew 18:18 reads like this: “Assuredly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” The normal meaning of this translation is that Heaven has to follow our lead (is it not?), and there is no lack of religious communities that teach this. But really now, what possible competence might human beings have to tell God what to do? We may ask, but not command. The difficulty arises from an inaccurate translation. The tense of the Greek verb phrase here is a periphrastic future perfect, passive voice (so also in 16:18). Thus, “will have been bound/loosed” not “will be bound/loosed”. We are not telling God what to do; we are to apply down here that which He has already done in heaven. (What had been just for Peter is now given to all the disciples.)

In John 5:19 the Lord Jesus stated that He could only do what He saw the Father doing. Our inability to see what the Father is doing is probably one of our worst spiritual problems—it condemns us to waste a lot of time and energy trying to do things that we shouldn’t. In practical terms, when I ‘bind’ something and nothing happens, I conclude that it had not been ‘bound’ in Heaven. I tried to do something that the Father was not doing.

20) Entering, or leaving Jericho?

Luke 18:35, 19:1 X Mark 10:46 X Matthew 20:29-30

In the NKJV, Luke 18:35 and 19:1 read like this: “Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging... Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.” Luke plainly states that Jesus healed a blind man before entering Jericho (he mentions only one, but does not say that there was only one). And Mark 10:46 reads like this: “Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging.” Mark plainly states that Jesus healed a blind man upon leaving Jericho (he names the blind man, referring only to him, but does not say that there was only one). And Matthew 20:29-30 reads like this: “Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. And behold, two blind men sitting by the road...” Matthew plainly states that Jesus healed two blind men upon leaving Jericho.

Well now, entering is one thing, and leaving is another, so which was it? Strange to relate, it was both! The Jericho that Joshua destroyed had been rebuilt (at least partially), and was inhabited. But in Jesus’ day Herod had built a new Jericho, perhaps a kilometer away from the old one, also inhabited. So where would an intelligent beggar place himself? Presumably between the two towns. I take it that all three of the accounts before us transpired between the two Jerichos, so Jesus was leaving one and entering the other. There is no discrepancy. Luke and Mark probably give us the same incident, but what about Mathew? Besides stating that the men were two, he says that Jesus “touched their eyes”, whereas according to Luke and Mark He only spoke. It is entirely probable that there was more than one beggar along that stretch of road, and any shouting could be heard for quite a ways. I take it that Matthew records a different incident. I suppose that Bartimaeus was healed first, and he shouted so loud that the two heard it all and knew what to do when their turn came.

21) Fire loves straw

1 Corinthians 3:13

The context is king of interpretation, so I begin with verses 11-15:

<sup>11</sup>No one can lay any foundation other than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, <sup>13</sup>the work of each will become evident; because the Day will make it clear, because it will be revealed by fire. Yes, the fire will test each one’s work, of what sort it is. <sup>14</sup>If the work that anyone built endures, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, albeit so as through fire.

Paul is talking about the Day of Christ wherein those in Christ will be called to account. The Text plainly states that what we have done will be tested by fire. Someone who spent most of his time living for himself rather than for Christ’s Kingdom will be surrounded by nice, dry straw (all that any fire could ask for!). So the angel aims the blowtorch at the straw—the fire is high, hot, but short-lived. The person is left standing in a pile of fine ash, somewhat the worse for the wear.

The price you pay for not living for Christ’s kingdom is to lose your life. That is all it costs, just your life! Consider the words of Sovereign Jesus recorded in Luke 9:24-25. Let us begin with verse 23. “If anyone desires to come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross each day and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. For <sup>a</sup> I would say that the primary reference here is to leaders of local congregations, who need to be careful how they ‘build’ God’s ‘house’. But I believe it also clearly applies to anyone whose personal life is based on Jesus Christ. Each of us will give an account of how we built our lives on that foundation. Note that we are not offered the option of changing the foundation. Anyone who attempts to do so does not belong to God.

what will it profit a man to gain the whole world but waste or forfeit himself?" What does the Lord mean when He speaks of losing one's "life"? One does not lose one's soul for love of Christ. Nor is the reference to being killed. Rather, Jesus has in mind the life we live, the accumulated results of our living. All that I have done up to this moment plus all that I will yet do until overtaken by death or the rapture of the Church, whichever happens first—that is the "life" that is at risk (in my own case).

Let us look at our Lord's words a little more closely. There seems to be a contradiction here—if you lose, you save; if you want to save, you lose. How can it work? The following context helps us out. In verse 26 Jesus explains verses 24-25 in terms of His second coming. The parallel passage, Matthew 16:27, is clearer. "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he will repay each according to his deeds." Christ was thinking of the day of reckoning. In other words, "we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ" (Romans 14:10) and "each of us will give account of himself to God" (Romans 14:12). "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive his due according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). I understand that 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 is referring to the same occasion, the day of reckoning. After declaring that Jesus Christ is the only foundation, Paul speaks of different materials that one might use in building on it: "gold, silver, precious stones" or "wood, hay, straw". The point is, our deeds will be tested by fire. If fire has any effect upon gold or silver it is only to purify them, but its effect on hay and straw is devastating! Okay, so what?

Let us go back to the beginning. God created the human being for His glory; to reflect it and contribute to it. I suppose we may understand Psalm 19:1 and Isaiah 43:7 in this way, at least by extension. But Adam lost this capacity when he rebelled against God. For this reason the sentence that weighs against our race is that we "fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). But the Son came into the world to restore our lost potential. Ephesians 1:12 and 14 tell us that the object of the plan of salvation is "the praise of His glory" (see also 2 Corinthians 1:20). And 1 Corinthians 10:31 puts it into a command: "Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." Now then, the point of all this is not to 'ruin' our lives, to take all the 'fun' out of them (as many seem to think). God is not being arrogant, unreasonable, too demanding. Quite the contrary—He is just trying to save us from throwing away our lives. Surely, because the glory of God is eternal (Psalm 104:31), and when I do something for His glory that something is transformed and acquires eternal value—it becomes "gold, silver, precious stones." Works done for the glory of God will go through the fire without harm. On the other hand, what is done with a view to our own ambitions and ideas is "straw". We all know what fire does to straw!

So there it is. To be a slave of Christ means to live with reference to the Kingdom; it means to do everything for the glory of God. In this way the slave "saves" his life because he will be building it with "gold and silver", which will pass through the fire at the judgment seat of Christ without loss. In contrast, the believer who refuses to be a slave of Jesus builds his life with "hay and straw", which will be consumed by the fire—and so he "loses" his life; he lived in vain; the potential that his life represented was wasted, thrown away. What a tragedy!

22) Four hundred years

Acts 7:6

Almost all of chapter 7 is occupied with Stephen's trial and defense, although it closes with his death. The high priest knows it is all a farce, but he pretends astonishment. Stephen knows he is in a kangaroo court, so he wastes no time with the ridiculous charge; he delivers a prophetic, and condemnatory, sermon. His history lesson begins with Abraham's incomplete obedience, but what concerns us here is verse 6.

Acts 7—<sup>1</sup>Then the high priest said, "Can these things be so?" <sup>2</sup>So he said: "Men, brothers and fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he resided in Haran, <sup>3</sup>and said to him, 'Leave your country and your relatives, and come into a land that I will show you'. <sup>4</sup>Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and resided in Haran.<sup>a</sup> From there, after his father died,<sup>b</sup> God moved him to this land in which you now live; <sup>5</sup>yet He did not give him an inheritance in it, not even a footstep. He promised to give it to him for a possession, that is, to his seed after him, though he had no child.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>Further, God spoke like this: that his offspring would be aliens in a foreign land—and that they would be enslaved and oppressed—four hundred years."

To begin, it will be observed that my rendering of verse 6 differs from every version that I remember seeing. For example, the NKJV has: "But God spoke in this way: that his descendants would dwell in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into bondage and oppress them four hundred years." The NIV has: "God spoke to him in this way: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years'." And so on—the impression that all these versions give is that the descendants would spend 400 years in a single country, namely Egypt. But such an impression lands us in a quandary: 400 years in Egypt does not fit with the clear chronological statements found elsewhere in the biblical Text.

Stephen cites Genesis 15:13, which should be understood as a chiasmus, a frequent structure in the Bible:

- a. his offspring would be aliens in a foreign land
- b. and they would be enslaved
- b. and oppressed
- a. four hundred years.

A careful comparison of the relevant texts shows that the 400 years includes from the weaning of Isaac to the Exodus (1891 to 1491 BC). Since Jacob moved to Egypt in 1706, Abraham's descendants were aliens in Canaan for 185 years; then they were aliens in Egypt, where they came to be enslaved, for 215 years. (The <sup>a</sup> But he took his father and a nephew along, and Haran was not that land. 'Our father Abraham'—the Jews began their history with Abraham, who started out with incomplete obedience.

<sup>b</sup> There went fifteen years of his life. And he took his nephew Lot along, who would be a big headache (he fathered the Moabites and the Ammonites—not good news—under circumstances that would not have happened had he been left in Haran).

<sup>c</sup> Abraham was 100 when he begot Isaac, who was 60 when he begot Jacob and Esau. Abraham died at 175, so lived to see his two grandsons. But before Isaac there was Ishmael...

Exodus was 144 years after Joseph's death, so the period of slave labor was presumably somewhat less, perhaps around 100 years.)

For a detailed discussion and defense of the dates and time frames given above the interested reader is referred to a book that I consider to be one of a kind: Chronology of the Old Testament: A Return to the Basics, by Floyd Nolan Jones, ThD, PhD. The first edition appeared in 1993; I have in hand the 14th edition, published in 1999 by KingsWord Press, The Woodlands, Texas. The relevant discussion is on pages 58-61, but I venture to suggest that anyone who reads the whole book will consider that it was time well spent.

23) 'Gall', or 'myrrh'?

Matthew 27:34 X Mark 15:23

In the NKJV, Matthew 27:34<sup>a</sup> reads like this: "they gave Him sour wine mingled with gall to drink." And Mark 15:23<sup>a</sup> reads like this: "Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink." That Mark used a generic term, 'wine', for the more precise 'sour wine' (or 'wine vinegar'), need not detain us. But what was the mixture? 'Gall' is one thing, an animal substance, and 'myrrh' is another, a vegetable substance; it was either one or the other, but which? Was Matthew influenced by Psalm 69:21? "They also gave me gall for my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink." (Matthew wrote for a Jewish audience, and seems to have mentioned fulfilled prophecy whenever he could.) More to the point, perhaps, is Acts 8:23, where Peter says to Simon (the ex-sorcerer), "for I see that you are in a gall of bitterness" (so the Greek Text). Evidently 'gall' was used as a generic term for any bitter substance. I take it that Matthew, perhaps influenced by Psalm 69:21, used the generic term. I conclude that the precise substance used was myrrh, as Mark indicates.

24) Hades is not Hell

This is clear from Revelation 20:14-15—"And Death and Hades were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death, the Lake of Fire."<sup>a</sup> 15 And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life he was thrown into the Lake of Fire."<sup>b</sup> Death and Hades are treated as if they were living entities. However that may be, it is clear that Hades and the Lake are distinct. So just what is this 'Lake'?

In this same passage it is stated to be 'the second death'. But consider Revelation 20:10—"And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the Lake of Fire and brimstone, where the Beast and the False prophet also are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever." The full title, Lake of Fire and Brimstone, having been given in verse 10, in verses 14 and 15 it is shortened to Lake of Fire, but the place is the same, a place of eternal torment. (See also Revelation 21:8.) And now consider Matthew 25:41—"Then He will also say to those on His left: 'Go away from me, you accursed ones, into the eternal fire that was prepared for the devil and his angels.'" In verse 46, 'those on His left' are sent into "everlasting punishment". The Lake of fire was prepared for Lucifer (now

<sup>a</sup> The first death is the physical one; the second is the spiritual one—eternal separation from the Creator, the Father of spirits (Hebrews 12:9); the essence of death is separation. In physical death, the spirit is separated from the body.

Satan) and those angels that joined his rebellion (about a third of the angelic beings—Revelation 12:4). Human beings who side with Satan (there are various ways of doing that) will also share his destiny. The term ‘Hell’, properly understood and utilized, stands for the Lake of Fire and brimstone, the second and eternal death.

The name ‘Gehenna’ is a euphemistic metaphor for the Lake of Fire. Versions generally, and correctly, render it as ‘hell’. The word occurs in Matthew 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9 and 23:15, 33; in Mark 9:43, 45, 47; in Luke 12:5 and in James 3:6. In all but the last instance the word was spoken by Jesus Himself. In three of the references Jesus added “of fire”. Strictly speaking, ‘Gehenna’ was the local dump outside Jerusalem—something was always being burned, and there would be plenty of worms. Notice Mark 9:43-44.

<sup>43</sup>Further, if your hand is causing you to fall, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into the Life maimed than having both hands to go away into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire—<sup>44</sup>where ‘their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched’.<sup>a</sup>

I find the figure of an immortal worm to be rather daunting—always chewing on you, but never finishing you off! I freely confess that I prefer never to encounter such a worm! The Lord was presumably referring to Isaiah 66:24. Notice also what He said in Matthew 10:28—“And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear the One who is able to destroy both soul and body in Hell [Gehenna].” The destruction of both soul and body must refer to the Lake of Fire, the second death.

The Lord used other expressions to refer to the Lake. In Matthew 13:41-42 He was explaining the parable of the wheat and tares:

<sup>41</sup>The Son of the Man will send out His angels,<sup>b</sup> and they will collect out of His kingdom everything that is offensive, and those who perpetrate lawlessness;<sup>c</sup> <sup>42</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire. There, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“The furnace of fire”, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, is evidently a reference to the Lake. In verses 49-50, same chapter, He said the same thing. In Matthew 8:12, 22:13 and 25:30 Sovereign Jesus used the description: “the darkness farthest away; there, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth”. See also Jude 13. Again, the reference is to the Lake, but what did He mean by the ‘darkness farthest away’, or farthest out? Throughout the NT the term ‘darkness’ is used to refer to Satan’s kingdom, and the Lake is the final destination of that kingdom, and therefore the ‘farthest out’. In Matthew 3:12 and Luke 3:17 the Baptizer was explaining what the Christ would do: “He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire”. In sum, the term ‘Hell’, properly

<sup>a</sup> Perhaps 4% of the Greek manuscripts omit ‘into the unquenchable fire’ at the end of verses 43 and 45, and also omit verses 44 and 46 entire, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, [TEV], etc., except that most keep ‘into the unquenchable fire’ in verse 43 (but not in verse 45). (Evidently there were those who thought that saying it once was quite enough.)

<sup>b</sup> The angels are going to be busy.

understood and utilized, stands for the Lake of Fire and brimstone, the second and eternal death.

As demonstrated at the outset, Hades and the Lake must be distinct, so just what is 'Hades'? The word occurs in Matthew 11:23 and 16:18, in Luke 10:15 and 16:23, in Acts 2:27 and 31, in 1 Corinthians 15:55 and in Revelation 1:18, 6:8 and 20:13-14. Unfortunately the AV (KJV) uniformly renders the word as 'hell', thereby misleading the reader and confusing the issue. Fortunately the NKJV corrects the AV at all those points; but other versions offer a mixture of renderings. Looking at all the relevant contexts, Hades evidently refers to something that exists between a person's physical death and the Lake; it must be some sort of intermediate state or place. The closest thing to an actual description is found in Luke 16:19-31.

<sup>19</sup>"Now there was a certain rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. <sup>20</sup>And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores, who had been placed at his gate, <sup>21</sup>just wanting to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table—why even the dogs would come and lick his sores!<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup>In due time the beggar died and was carried away to Abraham's bosom by the angels. The rich man also died and was buried.<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>And in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham at a distance, and Lazarus very close to him. And being in torment, <sup>24</sup>he called out, saying, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; because I am tormented by this flame!' <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said: 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus had bad things; but now he<sup>c</sup> is being comforted, and you tormented. <sup>26</sup>And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can anyone from there cross over to us.' <sup>27</sup>Then he said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, <sup>28</sup>because I have five brothers, so that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment'.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them'. <sup>30</sup>So he said to him, 'Oh no, father Abraham—if someone from the dead should go to them, they will repent!' <sup>31</sup>He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone should rise from the dead'.<sup>e</sup>

The Text does not state that this is a parable, so most probably it is not (no parable that is stated to be such employs a person's proper name). Several things in this account invite comment. Hades (Greek), or Sheol (Hebrew), is the 'halfway house' where departed spirits await the final judgment, but the results of that judgment are already known, since the saved are already separated from the lost

<sup>a</sup> In fact the dogs were doing him a favor, since canine saliva is good for sores.

<sup>b</sup> Note the contrast. Of course the beggar's body had been buried, but the person was taken to Paradise. Here we have an explicit statement of angelic activity, which, however, is absent from the rich man.

<sup>c</sup> The best line of transmission (30% of the Greek manuscripts here) has the emphatic pronoun 'he', rather than 'here'.

<sup>d</sup> I find it interesting that he was concerned for his brothers; we cannot say, "Better late than never", since it made no difference.

<sup>e</sup> Abraham states a disquieting reality: people who reject God's written revelation are self-condemned. Note also that Abraham did not say it would be impossible to send Lazarus, only that it would do no good. But it is clear that the lost cannot return, or the rich man could have gone himself.

(see Hebrews 9:27). There is a chasm separating the two sides that cannot be crossed, but evidently one side can see and hear the other (the ‘dead’ are conscious and have feeling). People in prison who are waiting for their trial are already suffering.

In verse 22 the side of the saved is called ‘Abraham’s bosom’. This is the only passage where that phrase occurs; in Luke 23:43 the Lord Jesus called it ‘Paradise’.<sup>a</sup> When He said to the repentant robber, “Today you will be with me in Paradise”, He was not referring to Heaven. We can deduce this from Acts 2:27. Peter is proving the resurrection by citing David’s prophecy in Psalm 16:8-11; Acts 2:27 translates Psalm 16:10—“You will not abandon my soul in Hades, nor will You allow Your Holy One to see decay.” ‘Hades’ is a translation of the Hebrew Sheol, that I will discuss below. Jesus could not be abandoned there unless He did in fact go there. Referring to the sign of the prophet Jonah, Jesus said, “so will the Son of the Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth” (Matthew 12:40). “In the heart of the earth”—presumably we here have instruction from the Lord on the location of Hades—it is inside the earth, somehow. Compare 1 Samuel 28:13 where Samuel (literally), returning from Hades/Sheol, comes up from inside the earth. If volcanoes can spew out molten rock, it is evidently quite hot down there.

Matthew 11:23 and Luke 10:15 are parallel, referring to Capernaum: “And you, Capernaum, who are ‘exalted to heaven’, will be brought down to Hades”. Hades is contrasted to heaven (the Text has the heaven), one being ‘up’ and the other ‘down’. Capernaum is pictured as having a high opinion of itself, an opinion that God does not share. Comparing this with Luke 16:23, the bad side of Hades is in view. The bad side is also in view in Matthew 16:18. “And I further say to you that you are a stone, but on this bedrock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not withstand her.” There is a play on words here, petros VS petra—the bedrock was obviously not Peter. The bedrock presumably has to do with the fact that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God. ‘Gates’ do not attack, but are the last line of defense for a walled city—it is the Church that is attacking Hades. (The normal meaning of the verb here is ‘prevail’, which is why versions usually render ‘prevail against’, as if it is Hades that is attacking the Church.) I take it that the Church is viewed as saving people from the bad side of Hades—of course it is actually Jesus who does the saving.

In 1 Corinthians 15:55 and the four cases in Revelation, death is mentioned along with Hades. I begin with 1 Corinthians 15:54-56:

<sup>54</sup>So whenever this corruptible puts on incorruption and this mortal puts on immortality, then this written word will happen: “Death has been swallowed down into victory”. <sup>55</sup>“Where, O Death, is your sting? Where, O Hades, is your victory?”<sup>b</sup> <sup>56</sup>The stinger of death is sin, and the adjunct of sin is the law.

The first quote is from Isaiah 25:8. It is important to note that this whole paragraph is addressed to “brothers” (verse 50), those who enjoy the benefit of Christ’s victory over sin and death. The second quote appears to be an interpretation of Hosea 13:14.<sup>a</sup> “The wages of sin is death” (Romans 6:23). Sin leads to spiritual death and lands the sinner in the bad side of Hades.

---

<sup>a</sup> The basic meaning of the term ‘paradise’ is a garden, and in the NT it is also used of heaven. So why did Jesus call the good side of Hades ‘Paradise’? I suppose because the people there were on their way to Heaven, and were already experiencing bliss.

<sup>b</sup> Less than 2% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘death’, instead of “Hades”, to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

In Revelation 1:18, the glorified Jesus declares His victory, in consequence of which He now holds the ‘keys of Death and of Hades’. In Hebrews 2:14, the correct translation of the Greek Text is ‘abolish the one who had the power of death’. In Revelation 6:8, a sickly pale horse is ridden by Death, ‘and Hades follows with him’. The Text does not say that Hades was on a horse. John is stating a fact of human existence: Hades follows death—so it has been for 6,000 years.

I confess that the meaning of Revelation 20:13 is not clear to me. “The ocean gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them; and they were judged each one according to their works.”<sup>b</sup> How can Death be holding dead that are not in Hades? And how can the ocean have a separate roster of dead? However, the context is the Great White Throne, the final judgment. And since only the lost will appear before this throne, proceeding directly to the Lake, they have presumably already been resurrected. In physical death, the spirit is separated from the body, and resurrection is the reuniting of spirit and body. Before resurrection, the spirits of the lost are in Hades; but where are their ‘bodies’? The remains of those bodies are either in the sea or on land. If ‘death’ stands for those on land, then verse 13 could be referring to the resurrection of the lost. That is my best guess as to its intended meaning.

The observant reader may have noticed that after Luke 16 and Acts 2 all the references appear to be dealing with the bad side of Hades. Why might that be? I suggest that the good side is no longer occupied. I believe a case can be made for the understanding that when Jesus resurrected, He took all the good spirits with him, and the spirits of all the saved who have died subsequently are also with Jesus (but still without their glorified bodies).

I will now take up the meaning of the Hebrew Sheol. The term occurs some 65 times in the OT. The AV translates it as ‘the grave’ and ‘hell’ about 30 times each, the remainder being ‘the pit’. Looking at the contexts, I see no reason for the different renderings. In my opinion, it should be transliterated as a proper name throughout. Since the inspired translation in Acts 2:27 equates Sheol with Hades, I take that to be the correct understanding. I say ‘inspired translation’ because Peter was doubtless speaking Hebrew, but the inspired account is in Greek.

To recapitulate and conclude, properly understood and utilized, ‘Hell’ refers to the Lake of Fire and brimstone, the second and eternal death. ‘Sheol/Hades’ refer to the halfway house where departed human spirits await the resurrection and the final judgment. However, since the resurrection of Christ, I believe the side of the saved, ‘Abraham’s bosom’, is now empty.

<sup>a</sup> The LXX is in basic agreement with the NT here, and is probably based upon it, not the opposite. The LXX we know and use is based on manuscripts copied centuries after the NT was written. A strict Pharisee like Saul of Tarsus would certainly use Hebrew manuscripts, not a translation.

<sup>b</sup> Twice it says that they will be judged on the basis of their works. So how can you really evaluate someone’s deeds? Only by taking account of their context. Those who never heard the Gospel will be judged within the context that they lived, and the Judge will prove that even within their own context they did not measure up.

25) Harmonizing the accounts of the betrayal and arrest

1) The crowd arrives—Matthew 26:47, Mark 14:43, Luke 22:47<sup>a</sup>, John 18:3. The four accounts state the fact, while Luke emphasizes that Judas was leading them, also implied by John.

2) Jesus knocks them down—John 18:4-9. I take this to be a ‘cyst’ of supernatural intervention, to make clear that the Father has not lost control of the events. I say ‘cyst’ because then the crowd carries on as if nothing had happened. A person delivered from demonic control often does not remember what he did while under that control; this may have been similar, only on the other side.

3) The kiss—Matthew 26:48-50<sup>a</sup>, Mark 14:44-45, Luke 22:47<sup>b</sup>-48. Only three of the four accounts take up this pitiful episode. I offer the following harmonization:

Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, he it is; seize him and take him away securely”.<sup>a</sup> So upon arriving he went directly to Him. So Jesus said to him, “Friend, what brings you here?”<sup>b</sup> Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed Him. So Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of the Man with a kiss?”

4) They grab Jesus—Matthew 26:50<sup>b</sup>, Mark 14:46. Judas served as guide, but I take it that Malchus was actually in charge of the operation. He may have taken the lead in grabbing Jesus, which was why Peter swung at him. This grabbing precipitated the reaction that followed.

5) Peter’s sword—Matthew 26:51-54, Mark 14:47, Luke 22:49-51, John 18:10-11. All four of the accounts take up this episode. I offer the following harmonization:

When those who were around Him saw what was about to happen, they said to Him, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?” Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, struck the high priest’s servant and cut off his right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus).<sup>c</sup> Then Jesus reacted by saying, “Allow at least this!” and touching the man’s ear He healed him.<sup>d</sup> Then Jesus said to Peter: “Put your sword back into its place, for all who take the sword will die by the sword. Do you actually suppose that I cannot call upon my Father right now and He will place beside me more than twelve legions of angels?<sup>e</sup> But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it has to happen this way? The cup that the Father has given me, must I not drink it?”

6) Jesus addresses the crowd—Matthew 26:55-56<sup>a</sup>, Mark 14:48-49, Luke 22:52-53. Only three of the four accounts take up this episode. I offer the following harmonization:

<sup>a</sup> Why the ‘securely’? Judas had seen so many manifestations of Jesus’ power that he should have known better, but of course he was under Satan’s control at that time. However, it appears that they expected resistance.

<sup>b</sup> Jesus knew perfectly well why Judas was there, so why did He call him “friend”? Perhaps to show that He held no personal animosity against him. The Plan was being fulfilled.

<sup>c</sup> The Text has ‘the servant’, so the high priest had probably put him in charge of the operation. John probably knew him personally. Obviously Peter was not used to wielding a sword.

<sup>d</sup> Peter’s attack caused them to release Jesus, so His hands were free to do this. If the Lord had not healed that ear, things would probably have been nastier for Peter in the ‘courtyard’, if not already in the garden.

<sup>e</sup> That would be a minimum of 36,000—probably enough to handle the situation, don’t you think?

Then Jesus said to the chief priests, officers of the temple, and elders who had come against Him: “Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a bandit, to arrest me? I used to sit daily with you in the temple, teaching, and you did not seize me. But all this has happened so that the Scriptures of the prophets should be fulfilled. This is your hour; even the authority of the darkness!”<sup>a</sup>

7) The disciples run away—Matthew 26:56<sup>b</sup>, Mark 14:50. The two accounts state the fact.

8) Jesus is taken away—Matthew 26:57, Mark 14:53<sup>a</sup>, Luke 22:54<sup>a</sup>, John 18:12-13<sup>a</sup>. The four accounts state the fact. The first three are in essential agreement, but John offers some new information. First, there was a Roman detachment, with its commander, there in the garden. The word here (chiliarch) refers to a commander of a thousand men (or of a cohort = about 600); this could only be a Roman officer of high rank, and there would only be one of them in Jerusalem. So how did they get him to come along? Obviously Pilate had been informed and was participating. Second, they took Him to Annas first, because he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas,<sup>b</sup> who was high priest that year. A careful look at the parallel accounts makes clear that all of Peter’s denials took place at Caiaphas’ palace, as also all the recorded questionings, etc., so after showing Jesus to Annas they took Him on to Caiaphas. That interim was probably also used to gather the Council, who would not want to be dragged out of bed until Jesus was actually in hand—it was probably between 3 and 4 a.m.

26) Harmonizing the accounts of the burial

Matthew 27:57-61 X Mark 15:42-47 X Luke 23:50-56 X John 19:38-42

1) Joseph of Arimathea was an important man in town. He was ‘rich’ (Matthew 27:57) and a prominent member of the Sanhedrin (Mark 15:43). Any self-respecting governor would make it his business to know who were the important people within the area of his jurisdiction, so Pilate doubtless knew who Joseph was, whether or not he had ever met him—evidently Joseph experienced no difficulty in obtaining an audience. Joseph was ‘a good and righteous man’ (Luke 23:50) ‘who himself had become a disciple of Jesus’ (Matthew 27:57), but who had not declared himself openly ‘for fear of the Jews’ (John 19:38).

He had been waiting in the wings. Just as with the owner of the donkey, and the owner of the upper room, who were doubtless advised in advance that their services would be needed, Joseph had been prepared. He did not just ‘happen’ to have a tomb he didn’t know what to do with, complete with a large stone just right for sealing. Since he had the wherewithal, he had purchased the divinely indicated plot and had the tomb carved into, or out of, the sedimentary rock (Matthew 27:59, Mark 15:46, Luke 23:53). According to Isaiah 53:9, Jehovah’s Servant was to have a rich man’s grave, not whatever the common criminals got (the Father did not allow the Son’s body to suffer that humiliation).

<sup>a</sup> This was Satan’s hour, being part of the Father’s Plan; ‘the darkness’ refers to Satan’s kingdom; ‘your hour’ means that they were part of that kingdom.

<sup>b</sup> The bigger reason was that Annas was the real high priest, according to the Law (the office of high priest was for life). He was the power behind the throne, so to say. Caiaphas was the political high priest (that year), for purposes of dealing with Rome.

APPENDIX

2) Nicodemus was a Pharisee and ‘a ruler of the Jews’ (John 3:1), the one who ‘came to Jesus by night’ (John 19:39). Since he started his interview by declaring that Jesus was ‘a teacher come from God’ (John 3:2), he no doubt became a disciple. Since he defended Jesus openly (John 7:50-51), his sympathies were presumably well known. He also had been prepared to assist Joseph with the burial procedure. He had purchased ‘a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds’ (John 19:39), which represented a significant investment, and had placed them within the tomb in time to help Joseph with the body. Although the Text does not mention it, he was presumably also the one who furnished the linen strips for wrapping the body. Obviously all preparations had to be completed before the time for the burial.

3) At the right moment, Joseph ‘went boldly in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus’ (Mark 15:43). As already mentioned, he was evidently given an audience without difficulty. “Well Pilate was surprised that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion he asked him when He had died” (Mark 15:44). As soon as Jesus died, the centurion most probably had left the scene, going back to headquarters (he had probably received special instruction about Jesus). He probably felt he should inform Pilate about the unusual events, but somehow Joseph got ahead of him (but evidently not by much—had the centurion arrived first, he presumably would have been already reporting to Pilate when Joseph arrived). Well, Joseph was primed for action, watching from a distance, and as soon as Jesus dismissed His spirit Joseph headed for Pilate. “Upon the centurion’s confirmation, he granted the body to Joseph” (Mark 15:45).

4) Then Joseph and Nicodemus met at the cross and removed the body. Joseph had purchased a linen sheet for the purpose, and the two used it to transport the body to the tomb (Matthew 27:59-60, Mark 15:46, Luke 23:53, John 19:39). Obviously the tomb had been prepared beforehand, as already stated. Matthew and John say that it was ‘new’, while Luke and John add that it had yet to be used (Matthew 27:60, Luke 23:53, John 19:41). John adds that it was in a garden near Golgotha.

5) Once within the tomb, they prepared the body for burial. “Then they took Jesus’ body and wrapped it in linen strips, with the aromatic spices, according to the burial custom of the Jews” (John 19:40). How many linen strips would it take to wrap up 100 pounds of spices? The result would have looked something like a cocoon, except that it did not include the head, which was covered with a facecloth (John 20:7).

6) When they had finished their task, they ‘rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb and left’ (Matthew 27:60, Mark 15:46). If they rolled it, it was in the form of a wheel; there would be a track in which it rolled, with a bit of incline, so that Joseph and Nicodemus could roll it down into place, where it would stop; but it would take several men to roll it back up and away, ‘because it was very large’ (Mark 16:4).

7) Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses ‘followed along’, saw where the body was placed, and sat down opposite the tomb (Matthew 27:61, Mark 15:47, Luke 23:55). That is, they saw where the body was taken, but obviously had not looked in the tomb—there were 100 pounds of spices in there, with enough linen strips to tie it all in. This is clear from Luke 23:56, “Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes; but they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.” They evidently did not realize that the men had already done what there was to do.

8) Although subsequent to the burial itself, the guarding of the tomb is important; it is recorded in Matthew 27:62-66.

<sup>62</sup>The next day, which is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees went together to Pilate <sup>63</sup>saying: "Sir, we remember that that deceiver, while still alive, said, 'After three days I am going to rise'. <sup>64</sup>Therefore command that the grave be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night and steal Him and say to the people, 'He was raised from the dead', and the last deception will be worse than the first." <sup>65</sup>So Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go make it as secure as you can!" <sup>66</sup>So they went and secured the grave with the guard, having sealed the stone.

Was Pilate happy? No he was not! And maybe, just maybe, he wasn't as stupid as some might like to think. From Mark 15:44-45 we know that he debriefed the centurion, who had to explain why Jesus died sooner than expected! "Make it as sure as you can." Right. Ironically, those great champions of the Sabbath had to violate the Sabbath to secure the tomb. They thought they were being shrewd, but only played into God's hand. Their effort only made the evidence for the resurrection all the stronger. Well, for starters, who removed the stone? The soldiers would not touch a stone with a Roman seal, and they had no reason for doing it, in any case. The women were physically incapable of doing it. So who removed the stone?

27) Harmonizing the accounts of the crucifixion

Matthew 27:31-56 X Mark 15:20-41 X Luke 23:26-49 X John 19:16-37.

1) The soldiers lead Jesus away to be crucified, wearing His own clothes (Matthew 27:27-31, Mark 15:20, John 19:16).

2) On the way they conscripted Simon, a man of Cyrene, to follow Jesus, carrying His cross (Matthew 27:32, Mark 15:21,<sup>a</sup> Luke 23:26). The soldiers had already mistreated Jesus so badly that He probably was weakened and having trouble carrying the cross, which was probably heavy.

3) Only Luke mentions Jesus' message to the 'daughters of Jerusalem' (23:27-31), which I will transcribe here:

<sup>27</sup>A considerable crowd of people followed Him, including women who were also mourning and lamenting Him. <sup>28</sup>So Jesus turned to them and said: "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; rather weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>Because indeed, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, even the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!'<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>Then they will begin 'to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"'<sup>c</sup> <sup>31</sup>For if they do these things in the 'green tree', what will happen in the 'dry'?"

If Jesus were still carrying the cross, He would not be able to 'turn' (verse 28), which is why I place this after the transfer of the cross to Simon.

<sup>a</sup> After carrying the cross, Simon doubtless stayed around to see what happened. In consequence he was no doubt converted, as were his two sons.

APPENDIX

4) They arrived at Golgotha, a Hebrew word meaning ‘place of a skull’ (Matthew 27:33, Mark 15:22, Luke 23:33, John 19:17).

5) The soldiers offered Him sour wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but He tasted it and then refused to drink it (Matthew 27:34, Mark 15:23).<sup>a</sup> That was a small humanitarian gesture—myrrh is a crude anesthetic, and would deaden the pain. But Jesus refused it, so He remained fully alert on the cross and felt it all; the myrrh would have diminished the suffering.

6) The soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross and set it up. After taking care of Jesus, they also crucified two criminals, one on each side of Him (Matthew 27:35, Mark 15:24-25, 27-28, Luke 23:32-33, John 19:18). Mark specifies that “it was the third hour when they crucified Him”; he was using Jewish time, which means it was 9 a.m. With reference to the two criminals, Mark adds: So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “And He was numbered with transgressors”.<sup>b</sup>

7) John 19:19 says that the board with the statement of Jesus’ ‘crime’ was put on the cross, above His head, and the time to do that would be while it was still on the ground. When the cross was placed upright, the board was already nailed on. All four Gospels mention the ‘accusation’, but each one gives it slightly differently (Matthew 27:37, Mark 15:26, Luke 23:38, John 19:19-22). Piecing them all together, the complete statement was: THIS IS JESUS THE NATSOREAN,<sup>c</sup> THE KING OF THE JEWS, and it was in three languages: Hebrew, Greek and Latin.<sup>d</sup> John adds some important information:

<sup>20</sup>So many of the Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; further, it was written in Hebrew, Greek and Latin! <sup>21</sup>So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The king of the Jews’, but that the fellow said, ‘I am the king of the Jews’.” <sup>22</sup>Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written!”

The chief priests had gotten all they were going to get out of Pilate; he was making a statement, but he was also getting back at them a little bit. (We don’t know just when the Jews saw the notice, nor when the conversation took place. The board would have been prepared before the soldiers started out. It is likely that the Jews had ‘observers’ watching all that went on.)

<sup>a</sup> In the NKJV, Matthew 27:34<sup>a</sup> reads like this: “they gave Him sour wine mingled with gall to drink.” And Mark 15:23<sup>a</sup> reads like this: “Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink.” That Mark used a generic term, ‘wine’, for the more precise ‘sour wine’ (or ‘wine vinegar’), need not detain us. But what was the mixture? ‘Gall’ is one thing, an animal substance, and ‘myrrh’ is another, a vegetable substance; it was either one or the other, but which? Was Matthew influenced by Psalm 69:21? “They also gave me gall for my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.” (Matthew wrote for a Jewish audience, and seems to have mentioned fulfilled prophecy whenever he could.) More to the point, perhaps, is Acts 8:23, where Peter says to Simon (the ex-sorcerer), “for I see that you are in a gall of bitterness” (so the Greek Text). Evidently ‘gall’ was used as a generic term for any bitter substance. I take it that Matthew, perhaps influenced by Psalm 69:21, used the generic term. I conclude that the precise substance used was myrrh, as Mark indicates.

<sup>c</sup> That Pilate put “the Natsorean” (not Natsarene [Nazarene]) indicates that he had researched Jesus. The reference is to Isaiah 11:1; Jesus was David’s Branch, the Messiah. Pilate was making a statement. For an explanation of ‘Natsorean’, please see the appendix at the end of this article.

<sup>d</sup> To put all of that in three languages would require a board of fair size. But why did Pilate use three languages? One would have been enough (it was customary to put the crime over the victim’s head). I take it that Pilate was not happy, having been bested by the Jews; and I think he was personally convinced that Jesus was a king. By putting ‘this is the king of the Jews’ he was making a statement, one that virtually any literate person would be able to read, given the three languages.

8) The soldiers had to remain on the scene to prevent anyone from helping the victims, and of course they would sit down—they would be there for many hours. One of the things they did was to divide up Jesus' clothes (Matthew 27:35-36, Mark 15:24, Luke 23:34, John 19:23-24). John gives some interesting detail, so I will transcribe it:

<sup>23</sup>Now when the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took His clothes and made four parts, a part for each soldier.<sup>a</sup> They also took His tunic, but the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. <sup>24</sup>So they said among themselves, "Let's not rip it, but toss for it, to see whose it will be", so that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says: "They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast a lot." That is why the soldiers did these things.

The reference is to Psalm 22:18. John seems to be affirming a cause/effect relationship. The centurion could have claimed the tunic, or whatever, but casting a lot had been prophesied. Luke 23:34 deserves special notice: Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing";<sup>b</sup> while they were dividing up His clothes by casting a lot. Only Luke records this important statement by Jesus; I take it that the Greek grammar at this point indicates that Jesus said it while the soldiers were dividing up His clothes. I suppose that Jesus was referring precisely to those soldiers; they were simply obeying orders, and had no personal responsibility for what was happening.

9) Only three of the Gospels mention the taunting by the spectators (Matthew 27:38-44, Mark 15:29-32, Luke 23:35-37). The accounts separate the spectators from the religious leaders, who evidently did most of the taunting, but the soldiers and the two criminals are also mentioned. The religious leaders were especially nasty: "He saved others; himself he cannot save!"<sup>c</sup> "If he is 'King of Israel' let him come down from the cross now and we will believe him!"<sup>d</sup> "He trusted in God; let Him rescue him now, if He wants him; for he said, 'I am God's Son'." However, they were probably demonized at the time.

10) The criminals require special mention. Matthew writes: "Even the bandits who were crucified with Him were reviling Him in the same way", and Mark says much the same. But Luke adds an important item:

<sup>39</sup>Then one of the hanged criminals started berating Him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!" <sup>40</sup>But the other reacted and rebuked him, saying: "Don't you even fear God, since you are under the same condemnation?" <sup>41</sup>And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward for our deeds; but this man did nothing wrong." <sup>42</sup>Then he said to Jesus,

<sup>b</sup> The eclectic text currently in vogue (following less than 1% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality) places within double brackets the first half of verse 34: "Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing'". In this way they deny that Luke wrote it, surely a perverse proceeding.

<sup>c</sup> This was precisely true, but not in the sense they intended. To save us, He could not save Himself.

<sup>d</sup> This was a lie; they already knew that Jesus was the Messiah but had deliberately rejected Him. However, if Jesus had descended from the cross (as presumably He had the power to do) we would be without hope. The people were being satanically nasty, but Jesus was totally committed to the Father's will and thus the redemptive program was not aborted.

“Please remember me, Lord,<sup>a</sup> when you come in your kingdom”.<sup>b</sup> <sup>43</sup>Jesus said to him, “I tell you assuredly, today you will be with me in Paradise.”<sup>c</sup>

Evidently they both started out by reviling Him, but later one of them repented—they were on the cross about three hours before the supernatural darkness, so there was time to observe Jesus, which caused one of them to change his mind.

11) Only John records Jesus providing for His mother:

<sup>25</sup>Now Jesus’ mother and her sister, Mary of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene were standing by His cross. <sup>26</sup>So Jesus, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He says to His mother, “Woman, there is your son!” <sup>27</sup>Then He says to the disciple, “There is your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

Notice that Jesus is still perfectly lucid. As Mary’s oldest son, He was responsible for her well-being (we understand that Joseph was gone by now), so He passes that responsibility over to the apostle John (the author of this Gospel); and John accepts it.

12) Only three of the Gospels mention the three hours of supernatural darkness (Matthew 27:45, Mark 15:33, Luke 23:44-45). Matthew’s statement will do: “Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour a darkness came over all the land.” Matthew uses Jewish time, so it was dark between noon and 3 p.m. The darkness could not have been a solar eclipse, as some have ignorantly argued. The Passover always occurs at full moon, and a solar eclipse only occurs at new moon. Further, even a total eclipse only lasts for a few minutes, not three hours. Why the darkness? I believe the Father was protecting the Son, so no one could observe His anguish as He was “made sin for us” (2 Corinthians 5:21).<sup>d</sup>

13) At 3 p.m., when the darkness was removed, Jesus gave a very loud anguished cry: “My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?”<sup>e</sup> I take it that the Father turned His back on the Son during those three hours—to be separated from the Father is spiritual death. For Jesus to pay for my sin and yours He had to take our wages: “The wages of sin is death” (Romans 6:23)—both physical and spiritual. The Hebrew text of Isaiah 53:9 refers to His deaths, using an intensive plural.

14) That shout gave rise to a curious situation (Matthew 27:47-49, Mark 15:35-36). Comparing the two accounts, we have an apparent discrepancy: Matthew records that others told the man to stop, while Mark records that the man told them to stop! So which is it? What I imagine is this: as both accounts state, a certain man [could it possibly have been John Mark himself?] decides to offer Je-

<sup>a</sup> Instead of “to Jesus, ‘Please remember me, Lord’”, perhaps 3% of the manuscripts have ‘Jesus, remember me’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.), which seriously weakens the man’s statement.

<sup>b</sup> I find this statement to be impressive: the man is declaring that Jesus is the Messiah and will indeed inaugurate His Kingdom. Evidently the man knew the Bible; and his request was honored!

<sup>c</sup> For Jesus to say ‘today’, He knew the man would die before sundown, so He knew the man’s legs would be broken—otherwise he would most likely have lasted well into the night, which would have been ‘tomorrow’. ‘Paradise’ here refers to that half of Hades (Sheol in the OT) reserved for the righteous dead. Hades is the ‘half-way house’ where departed spirits await the final judgment. In Luke 16:22 it is called “Abraham’s bosom”.

<sup>d</sup> As a side benefit, it was a mercy for the mother and close friends who were right there—how could they stand to see such suffering?

sus a drink of wine vinegar; several others, supposing that Jesus had just called on Elijah, tell him to stop; to which he retorts, “You (pl) stop!” and repeats their statement with sarcasm [anyone who really understood the language would have known that Jesus wasn’t calling Elijah at all]. However, it does appear that the man stopped his action before Jesus could drink, since a bit later Jesus says, “I’m thirsty” (John 19:28).

15) The shout of victory is recorded by all four Gospels (Matthew 27:50-52, Mark 15:37-38, Luke 23:46, John 19:28-30), but they record a variety of details. I begin with John:

<sup>28</sup>After this, knowing that everything was now accomplished so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, Jesus says, “I’m thirsty!” <sup>29</sup>Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting there; so they filled a sponge with sour wine, placed it on a hyssop, and put it to His mouth. <sup>30</sup>Then, when He had received<sup>a</sup> the sour wine, Jesus said, “Paid in full!!” And bowing His head He dismissed His spirit.<sup>b</sup>

Matthew, Mark and Luke all affirm that Jesus gave a great shout, but without giving the content. I take it that John supplies that information, although he does not mention that it was a shout. “Τετέλεσται”—that was what they wrote on bills and promissory notes when they were paid off = ‘paid in full’. When something is shouted the individual sounds can be distorted, but John was right there and could read His lips, if necessary. It was a shout of victory: “We did it!” “Finished!” “Paid in full!”<sup>c</sup>

However, after that shout, Jesus did one more thing, as recorded by Luke: “Then, after giving a loud shout, Jesus said, ‘Father, it is into your hands that I will commit my spirit’. And having said this, He breathed out His spirit.” Jesus had the authority to dismiss His spirit, but this statement indicates that He had reestablished contact with the Father; it also constitutes a declaration of His confidence in the Father, in spite of the terrible suffering He had just been through. Matthew, Mark and Luke record that at that point “the veil of the temple was ripped in two from top to bottom!” The Father Himself ripped the veil (or ordered it done); it was His declaration that the Price had indeed been paid! Access to God’s presence is no longer limited to one man once a year. See Hebrews 10:19-22.

Only Matthew records that: “And the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split, and the graves were opened. (And many bodies, of the saints who had fallen asleep, were raised; and coming forth out of the graves after His resurrection,

<sup>a</sup> From the word ‘received’ it appears that He did swallow some. Since sour wine was not used at the Passover, this does not conflict with the Lord’s statement in the upper room (Matthew 26:29) that He would not drink of “this product of the vine”. All four Evangelists mention the sour wine. There was evidently a pot/vessel full of it (the soldiers were in for many hours of vigil and that was what they drank). The mocking offer mentioned in Luke 23:36 happened before the darkness; the other three accounts after. The offer recorded in Matthew 27:48 and Mark 15:36 was triggered by Jesus’ cry, “My God, my God,...” The one in John 19:29-30 by His saying, “I’m thirsty”. I venture to suggest that there was an interval between His despairing cry and His statement—after the cry He may have lapsed back into silence for a bit; He was trying to make contact with the Father. It may be that the sour wine sort of ‘wet His whistle’ so He could let out His shout of victory.

<sup>b</sup> That is right—the cross did not kill Jesus, He just told His spirit to leave. In John 10:17-18 he was very clear: no one could take His life from Him, but He could lay it down.

they entered the holy city and were made visible to many.<sup>a)</sup>” The earthquake was added confirmation that something supernatural was happening; even the hardened centurion was convinced.

16) Mention is made of a variety of reactions: “And the whole crowd that had gathered for the spectacle, when they saw what actually happened, went away beating their breasts”—this was a cultural expression of sorrow and distress. A number of His followers were watching from a distance. But the centurion requires special attention. Matthew writes: “Now when the centurion and those with him guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that happened they were scared stiff and said, ‘This Man really was the Son of God!’” And Mark writes: “Well when the centurion, who was standing opposite Him, saw that He breathed out His spirit after giving such a loud shout,<sup>b</sup> he said, ‘This man really was God’s Son!’”

Any centurion would be a hardened soldier, who had seen no end of crucifixions. He knew that a cross killed by asphyxiation. Hanging from the hands pushes the diaphragm against the lungs so you can’t breathe. Nailing the feet, with the knees bent, was a sadistic procedure to prolong the agony—even though painful, the victim would push up so he could get a breath, until finally too worn out to do so. Breaking the legs would put an end to that expedient, and the person died within a few minutes, asphyxiated. Someone who is dying asphyxiated does not shout. Since Jesus gave a loud shout, but then immediately died, the centurion knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that the cross had not killed Jesus (later, when Joseph asks for the body, Pilate is surprised that Jesus could already be dead). But who can just tell his spirit to leave? Putting two and two together, the centurion concluded that Jesus was a supernatural being. Just so!

17) Only John offers the following information:

<sup>31</sup>Now then, because it was Preparation Day, so that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews requested Pilate that their legs might be broken and they be removed. <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with Him. <sup>33</sup>But upon coming to Jesus, they did not break His legs, since they saw that He had already died. <sup>34</sup>But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>And the one who saw has testified, and his testimony is true (yes, he knows he is telling the truth), so that you may believe. <sup>36</sup>Because these things happened so that the Scripture should be fulfilled: “Not a bone of His will be broken.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>37</sup>And again another Scripture says: “They will look on Him whom they pierced.”<sup>d</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Wow! How would you like a departed saint to knock at your door?! It would be tremendous confirmatory evidence for Christ’s resurrection. The Text does not say what happened to these resurrected saints, but to be sent back into the ground would be a real drag. It is more likely that they went with the risen Christ to heaven.

John, the author of this Gospel, was right there, so he could see very clearly what came out of Jesus' side—that the blood had separated was a clear sign of physical death.<sup>a</sup>

28) Harmonizing the accounts of the post-resurrection appearances

I will attempt to discuss the appearances in chronological sequence, although the evidence available does not always permit a clear decision. The first five occurred on Resurrection Day.

1) The first appearance is related in Mark 16:9 and John 20:14-17. Mark simply records the fact, stating clearly that it was to Mary Magdalene. John gives further detail about the encounter.

2) The second appearance is recorded only by Matthew, 28:9-10. This appearance was to Mary the mother of James, Salome, Joanna and 'the others'; the Text does not specify that it was the second, but the only other possible candidate would be Peter (Luke 24:34), and there simply was not enough elapsed time to fit him in here. According to verse 7, the disciples were to go to Galilee to see Jesus, verse 10 giving the same instruction to His 'brothers'. In Matthew 26:32 Jesus Himself had said to them, "After I am raised I will go before you into Galilee."

3) I arbitrarily give the third appearance to Peter, but it could have been to the Emmaus disciples—between them they are the third and fourth. The fact is mentioned in Luke 24:34 and 1 Corinthians 15:5; just the fact and no more.

4) The episode on the road to Emmaus is recorded in Mark 16:12, but related in Luke 24:13-32 (Luke's account is most interesting).

5) The fifth, and last, recorded appearance on Resurrection Day was to the Eleven (although only ten were present), as recorded in Mark 16:14-18, Luke 24:36-49 and John 20:19-23 (1 Corinthians 15:5). I assume that Mark's record refers to that first Sunday, although the 'later' that begins verse 14 could also apply to the second Sunday (the eleven at the table would presumably have to be one of the two Sundays). The content of Mark's record seems to me to fit better with the first Sunday. Luke makes clear (verse 33) that there were others besides the Eleven in that upper room. Verse 36 makes clear that this was the first Sunday. Strictly speaking, verses 44-49 could have been uttered at a later date, but if not, then verse 49 requires special handling. "You must stay in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on High." Since Jesus had instructed them to meet Him in Galilee, and did in fact meet with them there, then this amounts to a directive to return to Jerusalem after the meeting(s) in Galilee. John's account clearly refers to the first Sunday, and provides new information, as is his custom (from him we learn that Thomas was absent). The reference to 'the Twelve' in 1 Corinthians 15:5, probably refers to the first Sunday, but could have been the second, or even in Galilee. (I take it that both 'the Twelve' and 'the Eleven' were used as technical terms referring to the apostolic 'college'.)

6) The next recorded meeting is found in John 20:26-29, taking place on the following Sunday, in the same upper room, to the complete 'Eleven'.

7) The breakfast on the beach (John 21:1-23) must be the seventh, because verse 14 states: "This was already a third time that Jesus appeared to His disciples after He was raised from among the dead.” This would presumably be the first appearance in Galilee, following the two in the upper room.

---

<sup>a</sup> I guess we do not need to know, really, just how the separation came about, whether by purely natural processes or with supernatural intervention; in any case, John is emphatic about what he saw.

8) 1 Corinthians 15:6 states that “He was seen by over five hundred brothers at once”, and subsequently by James, and finally by all the apostles (verse 7). The ‘finally by all the apostles’ presumably refers to the Ascension. The 500 might have happened at Matthew 28:16-20, but the Text refers only to the Eleven, as well as stating that Jesus had indicated the place (and presumably also the time). The reference to doubters presumably means that there were others present, since the Eleven could scarcely still be in doubt. Jesus’ half-brothers (verse 10) were probably there, as well as others (recall that Luke 24:33 mentions others besides the apostles). I will assume that the ‘500’ happened later.

9) “Over five hundred brothers at once”.

10) James.

11) The Ascension is recorded in Mark 16:9, Luke 24:50-51 and Acts 1:6-11. Mark merely states the fact. Luke gives bare detail, but he offers more information in Acts, which he also wrote.

12) Acts 1:3 has “appearing to them during forty days”, and Acts 13:31 has “for many days He was seen”, but no specifics are given. However, we may reasonably conclude that those forty days were not empty, there having been further appearances that were not recorded—that is to say, before the Ascension, since we do indeed have some after that event.

13) Stephen—Acts 7:55-56.

14) Saul of Tarsus—Acts 26:13-18, 1 Corinthians 15:8.

15) Ananias—Acts 9:10-15.

16) Paul, more than once—Acts 22:17-21, 23:11, etc.

17) John—Revelation 1:9-13, etc.

And Sovereign Jesus has continued appearing to people down through the ages to this very hour. As He said in Matthew 28:20, “Take note, I am with you every day, until the end of the age”. Since that ‘end’ is still down the road, His promise continues in effect.

29) Harmonizing the accounts of the Resurrection

A rough sequence within the parallel accounts

Matthew 27:62-28:1;

Mark 16:1-3 // Luke 24:1;

Matthew 28:2-4;

John 20:1-10;

Matthew 28:5-8 // Mark 16:4-8 // Luke 24:2-8;

Mark 16:9 // John 20:11-18;

Matthew 28:9-15;

Luke 24:13-35;

Luke 24:36-43 // John 20:19-31.

The presumed sequence of events

Opponents of a Bible with objective authority have long affirmed that there are insuperable discrepancies between/among the four Gospel accounts. My purpose here is to demonstrate that there are no discrepancies.

0) [Saturday—guards seal the stone and set up a watch (Matthew 27:62-66).] This gives a necessary piece of background.

1) Jesus rises from the dead. None of the Evangelists mentions the moment of the resurrection, probably because that information was never revealed. The fact is taken for granted (the “firstborn from the dead”—Col. 1:18, Rev. 1:5; the “firstfruits”—1 Cor. 15:20, 23).

2) Early Sunday morning the women set out for the tomb—Magdalene (John 20:1); Magdalene and Mary (Matthew 28:1); Magdalene, Mary and Salome (Mark 16:1-2); Magdalene, Mary, Joanna and others (Luke 23:55- 24:1, 10). The several accounts say it was very early, as the day began to dawn, while it was still dark, but by the time they got to the tomb the sun had risen. There is no discrepancy: recall that the garden is on the west side of a mountain, so even after the sun had risen the tomb would be in shadow, besides the shade of the trees. It was still darkish when they started out, but away from the mountain it was already day by the time they arrived—the tomb area would still be gloomy.

3) On the way they worry about the stone, “Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?”, because it was very large (Mark 16:3).

4) Before they arrive an angel rolls back the stone, complete with earthquake, etc. (Matthew 28:2-4). The removal of the stone was not to let Jesus out; it was to let witnesses in! If we only had Matthew’s record, we could assume that the women saw the shining angel outside the sepulcher, but a comparison of the other accounts leads to a different understanding. So how do we know those details? Matthew 28:11 says that “some” of the guard reported to the priests and accepted big money to spread a false report, but what happened to the other guards? I have no doubt that some of those guards were soundly converted and gave an eyewitness account to the Christian community.

5) They arrive and see that the stone has been rolled back, but the angel was no longer visible outside (Mark 16:4, Luke 24:2, John 20:1). If the angel had been visible, Magdalene would not have taken off, because she would not have thought that the body had been stolen. The hypothesis that she came once alone, before the others, is highly improbable (see the next point).

6) Magdalene takes off immediately to tell Peter—Peter and John run to the tomb to see (John 20:2-3). Her use of the plural “we”, verse 2, indicates that she was not alone at the tomb.

7) Before Peter and John get there the other women enter the tomb, and see and hear the angels (Luke 24:3-8, Mark 16:5-7, Matthew 28:5-7). I take Matthew and Mark to be parallel, describing the same event: the angel who rolled away the stone is now inside the sepulcher, sitting on the right side; he has turned off his neon and appears to be a young man clothed in white; each account furnishes a few distinct details in the angel’s speech. I here offer a harmonization of the two (Matthew and Mark).

Upon entering the tomb they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. Then the angel spoke up and said to the women: “Do not be afraid! I know that you are looking for Jesus the Natsarene, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here, because He is risen, just like He said! Come, see the place where they laid Him. Now go quickly and tell His disciples, also Peter: ‘He is risen from the dead; and get this, He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, as He said to you’. There, I have told you!” [It almost sounds like he was glad to get it off his chest. I wonder why.]

However, the women were not sure they were happy with the situation; they were having trouble assimilating the missing body (they were loaded with spices to put on that body—was their effort to be wasted?); they didn't know who that 'young man' was; everything was very strange [don't forget the 'dead' soldiers outside]. I take it that Luke records a second inning: so the angel calls in a colleague and they both turn on their neon—a little shock treatment; then they appeal to Jesus' own words, which the women remember, and with that they are convinced and go their way.

8) They leave the tomb in fear, saying nothing to the guards or anyone they chance to meet (Mark 16:8, Matthew 28:8a).

9) Probably right after the women leave, and before Peter and John arrive, the guards take off (Matthew 28:11-15).

10) Peter and John come and go [to their own homes] (John 20:4-10; cf. Luke 24:12 that is an historical aside). Verse 8 says that John (the author) "saw and believed". What did John 'see' that made him 'believe'? He saw the linen strips 'lying', that is, in the form of the body, only there was no body inside them! If someone had stolen the body, as Magdalene supposed, they would have taken the wrapped package (much easier to carry) and there would have been no linen strips. If someone had unwrapped the body, for whatever reason, there would have been a sizable mound of linen strips and spices piled up (how much cloth would it take to wrap up a hundred pounds of spices?). No, Jesus simply passed through the cloth, as He would later pass through the wall of the upper room, leaving the package like a mummy case or empty cocoon. When John saw that, he understood that the only possible explanation was resurrection.

11) Magdalene returns to the sepulcher but does not get there until everyone is gone (that is why she thought Jesus was the gardener); Jesus appears to her first (Mark 19:9, John 20:11-17). When the disciples took off running, of course Magdalene followed them back to the tomb. But she was winded, and could not keep up with them (actually, in that culture women probably seldom ran, so she would really be out of breath, but she was not about to be left out of the action, either). She may have arrived as they were leaving; if not, they would pass her on the road. In verse 12, John says that she saw two 'angels'. How did John know they were angels? He had just been there and knew there were no human beings around (the guards were presumably gone before the two got there). The angels were in white, but probably not shining, or Magdalene would have been shaken out of her despair. She was so locked in to her sorrow that not even seeing the wrappings collapsed without the body sank in.

12) Then Jesus appears to the other women and they go on their way to tell the disciples (Matthew 28:9-10, Luke 24:9-11). The question may reasonably be asked: How could Magdalene have time to go and come and Jesus appear to her first and still have time to appear to the women before they got to the disciples, the more so since Matthew 28:8 says the women "hurried and ran"? I offer the following considerations in relief of the perceived difficulty: 1) The Jerusalem of that day was small and distances were short ("nearby", John 19:42)—it was probably less than a mile, or even half a mile, between the tomb and Peter's house, as well as where the other disciples were staying; 2) the women were probably slow in entering the tomb—the guards making like dead men, dark, spooky (it's a cemetery), all very strange, Magdalene the impulsive one wasn't there; they would be leery—Magdalene may have been almost to Peter's house before they worked up the courage to enter the tomb; 3) Magdalene, Peter and John were excited and had extra adrenalin—it didn't take that long; 4) The women ran out of the tomb and the garden, but not necessarily all the way to the disciples—once they got away from the garden and on ‘safe’ ground they may well have slowed down, or even stopped, to get a grip on themselves and discuss what had happened (Mary, the mother of James, was no longer young, and none of the women was used to running, not to mention the type of clothing they wore). Putting it all together, I see no reason to doubt that it all happened just like the Text says.

13) Magdalene goes and tells the disciples (Mark 16:10-11, John 20:18).

14) Later in the day Jesus appears to Peter (cf. Luke 24:34). I see no way of determining the correct sequence of items 14 and 15, it could have been the other way around. Also, during resurrection Sunday (we don’t know just when) many resurrected saints “went into the holy city and appeared to many” (Matthew 27:53), which would have been dramatic confirmatory evidence to those who were visited.

15) The Emmaus road episode (Luke 24:13-35, Mark 16:12-13). Some have alleged a discrepancy between the two accounts—their mistake is to tie both accounts to the eleven, which was not the case. There were other people in the upper room, besides the eleven. The eleven (ten) were reclining at a table, the ‘others’ would be nearer the door. The two from Emmaus come bursting in, all excited and probably feeling just a little important; it is the ‘others’, probably to ‘prick their balloon’, who say, “Oh, we already know that; He has appeared to Simon.” (Human nature hasn’t changed, and they didn’t have the Holy Spirit yet.) While the two from Emmaus are talking with the ‘others’, not the eleven, Jesus Himself appears and interacts with the eleven (and they think He’s a ghost!). Mark, writing for a Roman audience, is emphasizing that the disciples were not gullible, did not ‘believe’ because they wanted to—in verse 11 they didn’t believe Magdalene, in verse 13 nor the two, in verse 14 Jesus rebukes their unbelief. There is nothing here to impugn the genuineness of these verses—they were certainly written by Mark at the same time that he wrote the rest. According to Matthew 28:17 many days later some were still doubting. In any group of people there are always differing levels of belief and unbelief. People’s heads work differently, and at different speeds.

16) Jesus appears to the eleven, Thomas being absent (Luke 24:36-48, Mark 16:14-18, John 20:19-23).

17) After Jesus leaves, Thomas comes in and they tell him (John 20:24-25).

Conclusion

Putting it all together, I see no reason to doubt that it all happened just like the Text says. There are no discrepancies, in spite of the variety of details furnished by various eyewitnesses (including converted guards) and recorded by four different Evangelists. It is just what we should expect from an inspired Text—inspired and preserved, to this day.

30) Harmonizing the accounts of the ‘temptation’

The ‘temptation of Jesus’ is mentioned by three of the Gospels. Mark is very brief (1:12-13); he has the Holy Spirit ‘driving’ Jesus into the wilderness, rather than the ‘leading’ of the other two; also, he is the only one who mentions the animals. Mathew and Luke give more detailed accounts, with some discrepancies, which give rise to this note.

Matthew has, “into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.” Luke has, “into the wilderness, being tempted for forty days by the devil.” We have no record of what Satan did during the forty days. That which is recorded happened at the end. Both Matthew and Luke agree that Jesus ate nothing during the 40 days, that at the end He was hungry, and that at that point Satan presented himself. They both record the same three tests, but in a different order, and it is this difference that requires special comment. The descriptions of the tests are not identical, but can easily be harmonized. At the end, Matthew has, “then the devil left Him, and angels came and ministered to Him”. (Mark also mentions the angels.) Luke has: “When the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from Him until an opportune time.” The two statements complement each other.

I will now consider the three tests. Both begin with ‘bread’, but Matthew has “these stones”, while Luke has ‘this stone’. I assume that both are correct. Satan started with ‘these stones’ and then singled out one that looked just like a loaf and said ‘this one’. Both have Jesus responding with Deuteronomy 8:3. (Unfortunately, in Luke 4:4, less than half a percent of the extant Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, omit “but by every word of God”, to be followed by most modern versions.)

For the second test, Matthew has the temple, while Luke has the high mountain, the third test being the reverse. So who has the correct sequence? Luke introduces both his second and third tests with the conjunction ‘and’, as if they were like separate blocks in a row. Matthew introduces his second test with a temporal adverb of sequence, ‘then’; he introduces the third with another adverb, ‘again’, one of whose uses is sequence. Since Matthew overtly states the sequence, I conclude that his order is the correct one—Luke was not concerned to give the sequence; he handles the ‘temple’ almost like an afterthought (the introductory conjunction could be rendered ‘also’). Matthew’s order is also the logical sequence; there is a progression in the severity or importance of the tests.

The actual description of the temple test given by both is almost identical. Matthew says “holy city” while Luke says “Jerusalem”. Satan cites Psalm 91:11-12, and Jesus responds with Deuteronomy 6:16. As for the high mountain test, Luke has a fuller description than does Matthew, but they are in harmony. In Matthew 4:10 some 12% of the Greek manuscripts omit “behind me”, as in most versions; in Luke 4:8 the whole “Get behind me, Satan!” is omitted by perhaps 3.5% of the Greek manuscripts (of inferior quality), to be followed by most modern versions. (Strange to relate, in Luke 4:5 just three known Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality [against over 1,700, almost all of which are better than the three], omit “up on a high mountain the devil”, to be followed by most modern versions, except that some keep ‘the devil’.)

To conclude, each of the three accounts supplies some information not found in the others, but they harmonize, being complementary. The one apparent discrepancy, the order of tests two and three, has a reasonable solution.

31) Herod and John

To begin, Matthew 14:1-2, Mark 6:14-16 and Luke 9:7-9 are really about Jesus, not John, so I will set them aside. That leaves Matthew 14:3-12 and Mark 6:17-29 for consideration. However, strictly speaking, Matthew 14:6-12 and Mark 6:21-29 are really about Herodias, how she got revenge, so I will start with the remaining verses, Matthew 14:3-5 and Mark 6:17-20.

Matthew 14:—<sup>3</sup>For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife. <sup>4</sup>For John would say to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her”.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>And although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they counted him as a prophet.

Mark 6:—<sup>17</sup>You see, Herod himself had ordered John arrested, and bound him in prison, on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife; because he had married her <sup>18</sup>—John had kept saying to Herod, “It isn’t lawful for you to have your brother’s wife”. <sup>19</sup>So Herodias nursed a grudge against him and wanted to kill him;<sup>b</sup> but she could not, <sup>20</sup>because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a just and holy man. And consulting him he would do many things; indeed, he would hear him with pleasure.

At first glance there appears to be some discrepancy between the two accounts, but let us slow down and take a careful look.

1) The whole episode revolves around Herodias. Her marriage to Philip presumably had nothing to do with passionate love, as such marriages seldom had. With the passage of time (she had a teenage daughter) she decided that Herod had more to offer than did his brother, and managed to convince Herod to take her on.

2) Enter John the Baptizer: he evidently was on speaking terms with Herod, and had access to him to the extent that he was able to reprimand him repeatedly for what he had done. Now kings generally do not enjoy being reprimanded, and a queen such as Herodias even less. Herod was mad, and Herodias was furious.

3) The evident solution was to get rid of the irritant, so Herod had John arrested, with a view to executing him. But Herod was a puppet king, under the dominion of Rome, and some attention needed to be given to public opinion—it was public opinion that put off the execution: “he feared the crowd, because they counted him as a prophet.”

4) Now Herod knew that John was “a just and holy man,” and the two had been on talking terms. With the passing of time, Herod calmed down and cooled off. He decided that he did not want to kill John, but because of Herodias he could not release him, either (she kept on insisting that John should be killed). But if you must keep a prophet of God in your prison, you may as well make use of him.

5) Now consider the last half of Mark 6:20—“And consulting him he would do many things; indeed, he would hear him with pleasure.” I here follow the best line of transmission, albeit representing only 20% of the Greek manuscripts, that has ‘consulting’ in the present tense; the rest, followed by all versions, have the verb in the past. Thus the NKJV has: “when he heard him, he did many things”. However, and unfortunately, at this point most ‘modern’ versions garble the account.

The immediately following ‘he would do many things/he did many things’ is attested by over 99% of the Greek manuscripts—a mere handful (0.4%), of objectively inferior quality, have ‘he was greatly disturbed’ or ‘very perplexed’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). But why then did Herod hear John with pleasure, and why was he ‘very sorry’ (verse 26)? Those modern versions don’t make sense; <sup>a</sup> The impression one gets is that John took Herod to task several times—a coward he was not.

<sup>b</sup> I suppose that Herodias was ambitious and figured that Herod offered more than did Philip, so it was probably she who took the initiative; but she had not counted on John being a persistent and vocal ‘conscience’.

and just why do they insist on garbling the account on such a totally inadequate basis?

But what sorts of things would Herod take to John for his opinion? I suggest that Herod used John as a sounding board for administrative problems, and since he often followed his advice, he had an unusually good administration, there for a while. That is why he was genuinely sorry to lose John.

6) Alas, Herodias knew how to nurse a grudge, and never gave up looking for a way to kill John. The opportune moment came on Herod's birthday. Herod had doubtless already 'celebrated' more than was good for him before the banquet began, and was no longer thinking clearly. We know the rest of the story. One wonders why God would allow such a servant, as was John, to suffer such an ignominious death; but at least it was instantaneous—in terms of suffering, crucifixion or burning at the stake would have been worse. We have no right to understand everything, and therefore no obligation to explain everything. When you get to heaven you can ask God directly, if you still want to know.

32) How did Judas die?

Matthew 27:5-8 X Acts 1:18-19

In the NKJV, according to Matthew, he “went and hanged himself”, while according to Acts, “falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his entrails gushed out”. From the context it is clear that this happened at the field that he purchased, posthumously. For a successful hanging, there must be enough altitude so that when the end of the rope is reached the victim is still in the air. But to fall headlong there has to be a cliff, and you would have to dive off. Putting the two accounts together we may understand that there must have been a tree near the edge of the cliff, with a branch reaching out beyond the edge; Judas tied a cord around that branch and his neck and jumped—either the cord or the branch broke, and the impact was sufficient to split him open. Matthew states that it was actually the chief priests who bought the field, using the money that Judas had thrown on the temple floor; so Judas made the purchase posthumously.

33) How long was Jesus' body in the tomb?

Many books and articles have been written about this question. The principal difficulty derives from Jesus' own use of several different expressions to describe that time. Referring to the time period between His death and resurrection He Himself said—“the third day”, “after three days” and “three days and three nights”. A careful look at all the relevant passages makes clear that the three phrases are not equal candidates. Consider:

There is only one instance of ‘three days and three nights’, to be found in Matthew 12:40. Jesus cites the experience of Jonah (Jonah 1:17) and says that He will have a similar experience. That we are in the presence of a Hebrew idiom will become apparent from what follows.

There are just two instances of ‘after three days’, to be found in Mark 8:31 and Matthew 27:63. In Mark Jesus is cited in an indirect quote, as Jesus tells the disciples what is going to happen to Him. In Matthew Jesus is quoted by the Jewish leaders as they ask Pilate to guard the tomb; but notice that in verse 64 they go on to say, “until the third day”, so the two phrases would appear to be synonymous.

As for 'the third day', there are eleven direct instances, plus three related ones. Proper hermeneutic procedure requires that we interpret the few in terms of the many, and not the reverse. In Matthew 16:21, 17:23, 20:19; Mark 9:31, 10:34;<sup>a</sup> Luke 9:22, 18:33, Jesus is telling the disciples what is going to happen to Him. In Luke 24:7 the angel quotes Jesus to the women at the empty tomb. In Luke 24:46 the resurrected Jesus is speaking with the disciples. In Acts 10:40 Peter is preaching to Cornelius. In 1 Corinthians 15:4 Paul makes a statement. Those are the eleven direct instances. In Luke 24:21 Cleopas says to Jesus, "today is the third day since these things happened"—the 'these things' refers to the crucifixion, and the 'today' includes the resurrection, since he cites the women. In John 2:19 Jesus says, "destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it". In Luke 13:32 Jesus sends a message to Herod, "the third day I will be perfected". Those are the three related instances, for a total of fourteen. Well, the last one is marginal, so make it thirteen.

I suppose that all human cultures have the tendency to think that their way of seeing things is right, and all others wrong. But what to do when conflicts arise? When attempting to understand a given event, it is the culture within which it happened that must be respected. Jews and Brazilians handle time differently than do 'Westerners' in general. Here in Brazil, after church, we often say, "I'll see you in eight days", which means the next Sunday. The day in which you are is included in the number. We have biblical basis; consider John 20:26. "Well, after eight days His disciples were inside again, and Thomas with them." 'Eight days' from when? "Then at evening on that first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle" (John 20:19). The 'first day of the week' is Sunday; the use of "that" indicates that it was Resurrection Sunday. With few exceptions, the Church Universal has always understood that Jesus arose on a Sunday, as the Text plainly indicates. In John 20:26 "after eight days" means the next Sunday. To the 'western' mind, the use of 'after' is misleading; 'after eight days' would place one in the ninth day. But we are in the presence of a Hebrew idiom, wherein 'after eight days' = 'the eighth day'. This is plainly indicated in Matthew 27:63-64, where 'after three days' = 'until the third day'. But as already noted, the beginning day is included in the number; so 'after eight days' = 'the eighth day' = seven consecutive solar days of elapsed time (although the first and last solar day may not be a full 24 hours).

Now consider Luke 23:53-24:1.

"Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock, where no one had ever been laid. <sup>54</sup>It was a Preparation day; the Sabbath was drawing near. <sup>55</sup>The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed along, and they saw the tomb and how His body was placed there. <sup>56</sup>Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment. 'Then on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb carrying the spices that they had prepared, along with some others.'"

After the women observed the burial, they rested for one day—Sabbath is singular. They took their spices to the tomb on Sunday. It follows that Jesus was buried on Friday. Jesus was in the tomb for part of Friday, all of Saturday, and part of Sunday—He rose ‘the third day’.

Mark 14:1 may also be of interest. “It was two days before the Passover and the Unleavened Bread.” According to a careful analysis of the sequence of events that made up the last week, at this point it was late Tuesday afternoon, probably after 6:00 p.m.—adding two days takes us to 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, but the proceedings in the upper room began after 6:00 p.m. on that Thursday, which to the Jews was already Friday. Therefore Jesus died on a Friday. We take it that “3 days and 3 nights” was an idiomatic expression that could refer to three solar days represented by some part of each, but in sequence—in this case: Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

34) How many people?

Acts 7:14 X Genesis 46:26 X Genesis 46:27

Again, we need only pay close attention to each context, and the precise wording of the text. The three verses give us three different numbers: 75, 66 and 70, respectively. I will begin with the smallest number, which is in Genesis 46:26: “All the persons who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his body, besides Jacob’s sons’ wives, were sixty-six persons in all.” The crucial datum is ‘from his body’, so who were they? Reuben + four sons = 5, Simeon + six sons = 7, Levi + three sons = 4, Judah + five sons + 6, Issachar + four sons = 5, Zebulun + three sons = 4, that add up to 31, but we must include Dinah to get the total of 32 from Leah. Gad + seven sons = 8, Asher + six sons + 7, but we must add a daughter (mentioned in the record) to get the total of 16 from Zilpah. Joseph + two sons = 3, Benjamin + ten sons = 11, that add up to 14 from Rachel. Dan + one son = 2, Naphtali + four sons = 5, that add up to 7 from Bilhah. The grand total ‘from his body’ is 69. But of course Joseph and his two sons were already in Egypt, so that leaves 66 who ‘went with Jacob to Egypt’. Genesis 46:27 says, “All the persons of the house of Jacob who went to Egypt were seventy.” This includes Joseph and Jacob himself, so there is no discrepancy. But what about Acts 7:14? “Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and all his relatives to him, seventy-five people.” The 75 presumably refers to ‘all his relatives’, which excludes Jacob and of course Joseph. I take it that nine wives came to Egypt (the wives are mentioned in Genesis 46:26), the other two having died before the migration. (If we include Jacob, there would be eight wives.)

35) How many animals?

Matthew 21:1-7 X Mark 11:1-10, Luke 19:29-36, John 12:12-15

Mark, Luke and John are agreed in mentioning a single animal, a donkey colt. It was loosed, brought to Jesus, garments placed upon it, and then Jesus rode on it. Matthew insists on telling us that there were really two animals, the colt and its mother. The AV (KJV) has a most unfortunate translation of both Matthew 21:5 and Zechariah 9:9 (that has been corrected in the NKJV, fortunately). In Zechariah the AV has, “riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.” In Matthew the AV has, “sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.” The obvious difficulty is that the AV makes Jesus ride two animals, when in fact He only rode one. For the correct rendering of both Zechariah and Matthew, at this point, please see the NKJV. That said, however, the fact remains that Matthew clearly has the disciples fetching two animals and placing garments on both.

Why do you suppose the Holy Spirit had Matthew supply the added information? I was not there, of course, but I offer my understanding of the event. Mark and Luke specify that no one had ever sat on the colt; they say that the colt was tied, but Matthew says it was really the mother that was tied. Evidently the colt was so young that it was still staying close to ‘mother’, so if she was tied, he was too, in effect (they were out in the street, and that may have been a new experience for the colt). Jesus was going to subject the colt to a strange and even frightening situation. From the peace and quiet of his little village, he would be surrounded by a shouting crowd. Strange things would be put on his back, and then someone who was probably bigger and heavier than he was would sit on him! I believe that Jesus had the mother brought along as moral support for her son. Clothes were put on her too (and of course she was surrounded by the shouting crowd as well), and seeing that she was calm would encourage the colt. Just by the way, Jesus probably had to lift His feet to keep them from dragging; it must have been a comical sight. It gives me a warm feeling to see that the Lord Jesus was concerned for the well-being of the colt.

36) How Often Did Jesus Say Peter Would Deny Him?

The question can be understood in two different senses, and I wish to explore them both. How often was Peter to deny the Lord, and how often did the Lord warn him? I will consider the second question first. Each Gospel records a warning—the relevant passages are Matthew 26:30-35, Mark 14:26-31, Luke 22:31-34, 39 and John 13:36-38, 18:1. For reasons that will presently become apparent I will start to discuss the passages in reverse order.

How Many Warnings?

First, John 13:36-38:

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered him, “Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but later you will follow me”. <sup>37</sup>Peter says to Him: “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake!” <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered him: “You will lay down your life for my sake? Most assuredly I say to you, no rooster can crow until you have denied me three times!”<sup>a</sup>

Notice the distinctive context that leads into our Lord’s warning. Notice also the emphatic nature of His declaration—by employing a double negative (in the Greek text) He leaves no question but that three denials will take place before the <sup>a</sup> The emphasis here is on the obligatory absence of any cockcrow until Peter has denied [at least] three times. There is no definite article with ‘rooster’, so it is “a rooster”; the negative is double, therefore emphatic, “absolutely not”. If you have lived where there were a number of roosters, you know that one or another can sound off at any time, and some one of them will crow almost on the hour throughout the night, while at dawn they put on a chorus. It was probably somewhere around 9 p.m. when Jesus issued this warning, and Peter’s first denial probably happened at least five hours later. For not a single rooster to crow anywhere within earshot during that time required supernatural intervention—which is why I render “no rooster can crow” (if an angel can close lions’ mouths [Dan. 6:22], closing roosters’ beaks would be a cakewalk).

first rooster crows from that moment on. Notice finally where and when this exchange took place. They were in the upper room where they had gathered to observe the Passover. Evidently this conversation between the Lord and Peter came comparatively early in the proceedings, because it was followed by the contents of chapters 14, 15, 16 and 17 before they left the room and went to the garden on the Mount of Olives (18:1).

Second, Luke 22:31-34:

<sup>31</sup>Then the Lord said, “Simon, Simon, indeed Satan has asked for you (pl) that he may sift you as wheat, <sup>32</sup>but I have prayed for you (sg) that your faith should not fail, and when you have returned to me strengthen your brothers.” <sup>33</sup>But he said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!” <sup>34</sup>So He said, “I tell you, Peter, no rooster can crow this day before you will deny three times that you know me!”

Notice again the distinctive context that leads into our Lord’s warning. It is clearly different from that given in John 13. Notice also that there seems to be an increase in the intensity of their exchange. There is a note of reproach in Peter’s speech, and the use of Peter’s name gives a stern note to the Lord’s response. The addition of “today” (compared to John 13) and the shifting of “thrice” to an emphatic position (in the Greek text—again as compared to John) contribute to the feeling of heightened intensity. Also, now Peter will deny that he even knows Him. Note finally where and when this exchange took place. They were still in the upper room, but this conversation evidently came near the end of the proceedings, because only the contents of verses 35-38 intervened before they left the room and went to the Mount of Olives (22:39). Of course, more may have actually happened than is recorded in 22:35-38, but it seems clear that the warning recorded in Luke is not the same as the one recorded in John, and that the one in John happened first.

I find a comparison of the two warnings in Greek to be impressive and convincing:

John 13:38: “Τὴν ψυχὴν σου ὑπὲρ ἐμοῦ θήσεις; Ἀμὴν, ἀμὴν λέγω σοι, οὐ μὴ ἀλεκτῶρ φωνήσῃ ἕως οὗ ἀπαρνήσῃ με τρίς.”

Luke 22:34: “Ἀέγω σοι, Πέτρε, οὐ μὴ φωνήσῃ σημερον ἀλεκτῶρ πρὶν ἢ τρίς ἀπαρνήσῃ μὴ εἶδεναι με.”

Really, there is no comparison; they are obviously different (even taking into account that they probably spoke Hebrew, so we are looking at a translation). As in John, here again we have a plain affirmation that three denials [at least] will take place before the first rooster crows.

Third, Matthew 26:30-35:

<sup>30</sup>And after hymn-singing they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus says to them, “All of you will be caused to stumble because of me this night, for it is written: ‘I will strike the Shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered’.” <sup>32</sup>But after I am raised I will go before you to Galilee.”

<sup>33</sup>Peter answered and said to Him, “Even if everyone else is caused to stumble because of you, I will never be caused to stumble!” <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, “Assuredly I say to you that this night, before any rooster crows, you will deny me three times!” <sup>35</sup>Peter says to Him, “Even if I have to die with you, I will not deny you!” All the other disciples said the same.

Notice that this exchange took place after they had left the upper room and were on their way to the Garden of Gethsemane. Again the context is distinct from that in Luke or John—here the Lord begins by warning all the disciples. Peter counters by contradicting Him. The Lord’s reiterated specific warning to Peter contains no new elements except that now it is “this very night”. Peter contradicts again, using a double negative for emphasis—he ‘has his back up’ and is starting to get impertinent. It seems clear that Matthew records a third warning to Peter, subsequent to those in Luke and John.

Fourth, Mark 14:26-31:

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus says to them, “All of you will be caused to stumble because of me this night, for it is written: ‘I will strike the Shepherd and the sheep will be scattered’. <sup>28</sup>But after I am raised I will go before you to Galilee.”

<sup>29</sup>But Peter said to Him, “Even if all are caused to stumble, yet I will not be!”

<sup>30</sup>And Jesus says to him, “Assuredly I say to you that you, today, even this night, before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times!” <sup>31</sup>But he spoke the more vehemently, “If I have to die with you, I will certainly not deny you!” And they all said the same.

The first four verses are virtually identical with the parallel passage in Matthew, so we evidently have the same time and place in both. But now we come to verse 30, the despair of those who defend scriptural inerrancy and the delight of their opponents. Our Lord’s statement here differs in several ways from that in Matthew 26:34 but the main problem is the word “twice”. What are we to say: Are Matthew 26:34 and Mark 14:30 contradictory accounts of the same warning?

Before settling for that explanation, the precise turn of phrase in Mark 14:30 invites our attention. I believe it will help to see a word for word rendering of what Jesus said. “Assuredly I say to you that you, today, this very night, before twice a rooster crows, thrice you will deny me.” The Lord’s declaration here seems quite sharp. There is extraordinary emphasis on the second “you”. “Twice” is also heavily emphasized. How are we to account for such severity? Peter’s effort in verse 29 scarcely seems to merit such a reaction—the reaction recorded in Matthew 26:34 seems much more appropriate. And what shall we say to Mark 14:31? Peter’s words here are virtually identical to those in Matthew 26:35 but they are introduced by “but he spoke the more vehemently.” Why the vehement reiteration?

I suggest that the solution is to read the following sequence. Matthew 26:30-35<sup>a</sup> then Mark 14:30-31:

Jesus: “All of you will be caused to stumble because of me this night...”

Peter: “Though all are caused to stumble because of you, I will never be caused to stumble.”

Jesus: “Assuredly I say to you that this night, before any rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”

Peter: “Even if I have to die with you I will certainly not deny you!”

Jesus: “Assuredly I say to you that you, today, this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.”

Peter, more vehemently: “If I have to die with you, I will certainly not deny you!”

In other words, Mark omitted the exchange recorded in Matthew 26:34-35<sup>a</sup> while Matthew omitted the exchange recorded in Mark 14:30-31<sup>a</sup>. (The editorial comment “and they all said the same” comes at the end of the whole episode.)

On three separate occasions Jesus warned Peter that he would deny Him [at least] three times before a rooster crowed during that night. Peter’s responses became increasingly belligerent until after the third warning he even contradicted the Lord with an emphatic double negative (Mat. 26:35). Finally the Lord lost His patience, as it were, and said in effect, “Listen, not only will you deny me three times before a rooster crows once, you will deny me another three times before a rooster crows twice!” For answer Peter repeats his prior statement even more vehemently.

The reader will perceive that in answering the second question I have anticipated the answer to the first one. The Lord warned Peter four times, each Gospel recording a separate instance, and there would be [at least] six denials, three before the first crowing of a rooster (John, Luke, Matthew) and another three before the second (Mark). It remains to enquire whether the several accounts of Peter’s denials will countenance this proposal. The relevant passages are Matthew 26:57-75, Mark 14:53-72, Luke 22:54-62 and John 18:15-27.

How Many Denials?

A cursory reading of these passages suggests that Peter’s denials were provoked by eight different challenges—the maid at the outside entrance (John), a maid in the courtyard (Matthew, Mark, Luke), the same maid a second time (Mark), a different maid in the gateway (Matthew), two different men (Luke, John), and the bystanders on two occasions (John and Matthew, Mark). Although it may be possible to combine one pair or another, there is no reasonable way to get the number down to three. But what if there were at least six denials?

To really get the complete picture we need to plot the relevant information on a chart. We need to know who issued the challenge, where, when, just how was it done, what was Peter’s reaction, and if a rooster crowed. Because of constraints of space and paper size, I will do a Gospel at a time, beginning with John.<sup>a</sup>

John 18:15-27:

<sup>a</sup> A comparison of the contents of the four Gospels reveals that in the main John supplies information not recorded in the other three; he wrote last, with the purpose of supplementing their accounts. Here again, the three denials he describes are all new information, not to be found in the other three.

If you compare all the parameters—who, where, when, how, what—there really is no way to come out with only three denials; even to come out with only six requires some gymnastics (something I attempted to do in an early draft). Let us try to arrange the events in chronological sequence and see what happens.

John 18:17 gives us what is clearly the first challenge—as the maid who kept the outside door let Peter in, at John’s request, she asked, “You aren’t one of this man’s disciples too, are you?”<sup>a</sup> Even though John was evidently standing right there, Peter denied, “I am not”. He then went in to stand near the fire in the courtyard. The other Gospels have Peter sitting, while John has him standing. Evidently there were quite a few people about—they could not all sit close to the fire. Presumably they would take turns standing near the fire to warm up and then move away a bit to sit down. Thus they, including Peter, would be alternately sitting and standing.

All four Gospels have Peter in the courtyard near the fire (Mat. 26:58 and 69, Mark 14:54 and 66, Luke 22:55, and John 18:18 and 25) and three of them (Matthew, Mark, John) give some account of the council’s dealings with Jesus before going on with Peter’s denials.<sup>b</sup> We know from Luke 22:61 that Jesus was at a window that looked out on the courtyard, only with His back to it. John is the only one who records that the high priest asked Jesus about His disciples (v. 19)—he is facing Jesus and therefore the open window, and would be speaking loudly enough for everyone in the room to hear clearly, so the people in the courtyard also heard everything he said—then in verse 25 we read, “Therefore they said to him, ‘You aren’t one of his disciples too, are you?’” I suggest that verse 25 gives us the second challenge and denial. The guards around the fire, presumably prompted by the high priest’s questioning Jesus about His disciples, put their question to Peter. He answers them as he did the girl at the gate, “I am not”. So far the challengers have only questioned, rather than affirm, but now the tempo quickens.

<sup>a</sup> Everyone there, including the girl, knows that John belongs to Jesus, so her question is perfectly natural, without malice—since John is vouching for Peter, she assumes that Peter must also belong to Jesus. John had heard all the warnings, so when Peter denied at the gate, in his presence, John doubtless kept a close eye on him the whole rest of the night. So we have an eyewitness account. Of course Peter himself would also be an eyewitness, but since he was undergoing satanic interference in his mind, his powers of recollection might be impaired.

<sup>b</sup> It is after midnight and chilly in the courtyard, hence the fire; but there must have been over fifty people in the room where the questioning was going on, and all windows would be open.

I take it that the first denials recorded in Matthew (26:69-70), Mark (14:66-68) and Luke (22:56-57) form a single episode. Collating them we may understand the following. A certain serving girl of the high priest came by and saw Peter sitting near the fire. She looked closely at him and said to the others, "This man also was with him" (Luke). She then addressed Peter directly, "You also were with Jesus the Nazarene, of Galilee" (Matthew, Mark). But he denied before them all, saying, "Girl, I don't know him; I neither know nor understand what you're talking about!" He then went out to the forecourt, and a rooster crowed (Mark 14:68). Thus, there were [at least] three denials before the first cockcrow.

I say 'at least' because the third denial in John probably belongs here as well. In 18:26 the verb "to say" is in the present tense, which seems to suggest a brief interval rather than nearly an hour (Luke 22:59); also the challenge is still framed as a question, "Didn't I see you with him in the garden?", rather than a direct accusation, which would fit better toward the beginning than at the end. I see no problem with suggesting that all three of the denials in John were part of the first set and thus he records the first rooster crow. In that event I would understand that there were actually four denials before the first crowing, the three in John plus the first one in the others. Because the rooster crowed "immediately" I imagine that the order would be as follows: the first two in John, in that order, then the first one in the others, and then, as Peter was moving toward the forecourt, the relative of Peter's victim comes alongside and puts his question, so that Peter is at the fore-court when the first rooster crows (Mark 14:68). Actually, I am inclined to suspect that indeed there were four denials before the first cockcrow, which is recorded by both Mark and John (recall that Jesus neither said nor implied that there would be 'only' three).<sup>a</sup>

Now for the next round. In Mark (14:69) the same girl sees Peter again and starts telling the bystanders, "This fellow is one of them". In Matthew (26:71) a different girl sees him and tells the bystanders, "This fellow was with Jesus the Natsorean". In Luke (22:58) a man saw him and said, "You also are one of them". In order to come out with only three denials in the second set, two of these would have to be combined, but as already stated, I am not aware of anything in the Text that rules out the possibility that there could be more than three. It seems to me that there is a progression in Peter's desperation which culminates in his cursing and swearing. On that basis I would consider the instances in Mark and Luke as forming a single episode (if I had to)—the girl speaks, Peter denies, a man backs the girl up and Peter answers, "Man, I am not!" Then the instance in Matthew would be the sixth denial—notice that now Peter adds an oath! Because of the oath I consider that this denial comes after the other two just mentioned; also, Peter has moved out to the gateway. Actually, I am inclined to suspect that there were also four denials before the second cockcrow, so I will start again on that basis.

The girl that provoked the third denial is not about to let Peter get away with that denial. Whether she followed him out to the forecourt, or he moved back toward the fire, I imagine that Mark 14:69 records the fifth denial. If so, Luke 22:58 records the sixth denial, perhaps near the fire. Peter is definitely uncomfortable; he is getting altogether too much unwelcome attention. He moves out to the gateway (perhaps thinking of abandoning the premises)<sup>a</sup> where he is challenged by a different girl (Matthew 26:71); Peter denies with an oath (number seven). Luke (22:59) puts ‘about an hour’ between denials six and eight, so perhaps Peter was left alone for a bit. However, the ‘trial’ is over but the bosses are waiting for dawn so they can take Jesus to Pilate. Since the bosses are not going home, the guards and employees cannot either—they are obliged to wait out in the cold, bored stiff—so Peter is now the only show in town.

For the eighth denial three Gospels offer a candidate (Mat. 26:73-74, Mark 14:70-72, Luke 22:59-60). The accounts in Matthew and Mark are very similar and evidently parallel. Since Matthew has the rooster crowing “immediately” and Mark “the second time” this has to be last denial—since by now Peter is cursing and swearing it is fitting that it should be. By that time most of the people on the premises would be aware of Peter and his denials. After listening for a while they closed in, citing his accent. The account in Luke has just one man speaking, but his words are in the same vein. This also has to be the last denial because we are told that the rooster crowed while Peter was still speaking. Evidently a number of people were speaking at once (but not in unison), or in rapid succession, and different writers preserve some of the variety of statement. It would appear that they were ganging up on Peter, because he is driven to curse and to swear. And so we have a second set of four denials, before the second cockcrow. Even then it took a direct look from the Lord (Luke 22:61) to break Satan’s spell and bring Peter to a realization of what he had done.

But the question may well be asked, why did each Gospel writer report and speak of only three denials (albeit giving different selections) if there were really six or eight?<sup>b</sup> I suggest that we are looking at a prime example of the grace and sensitivity of God. It would be quite humiliating enough to have denied the Lord three/four times, but to go on to do so another three/four times, even after hearing a rooster crow, would be almost too much to bear. Rather than put the full extent of Peter’s ignominy on display the Holy Spirit had each writer give only a partial account, enough for the purposes of the record but without flaying Peter unnecessarily. I find it interesting to note that it is Mark who furnishes the necessary clue that there was to be a second set of denials. The opinion is widely held that Peter influenced the composition of this Gospel—this is overtly stated in the in-<sup>a</sup> So why didn’t Peter just bolt out the gate at that point? I would say that there was supernatural intervention—he simply was not allowed to leave.

<sup>b</sup> Some 50% of the Greek manuscripts that contain the Gospels have colophons; these colophons state that Matthew was ‘published’ 8 years after Christ’s ascension, Mark 10 years after, Luke 15 years after and John 32 years after Christ’s ascension. (So the four Gospels are arranged in chronological order, not only in our Bibles but in the vast majority of the Greek manuscripts.) “To the Jew first,...”—since Matthew wrote for a Jewish audience, God’s priorities dictated that Matthew’s should be the first inspired account of our Savior’s life on earth to circulate. Then Mark, with Matthew’s Gospel open in front of him, and Peter at his elbow, wrote for the Roman mind (since Romans would care nothing for Hebrew Scriptures, Mark removed virtually all reference to fulfilled prophecy). Then Luke, with both Mark and Matthew to hand, wrote the third, for the Greek mind. Then John, with the first three open, wrote to fill in the gaps, preserving important information not provided by the others, for all minds. Now let’s consider Peter’s denials within that framework. Matthew wrote first, with one cockcrow. Mark says there were really two cockcrows and changes the second denial (1 and 3 are the same in Mark and Matthew). Luke speaks of just one cockcrow, changes the second denial yet again and provides added information (specific) about the third. So just with these three accounts we are up to five denials. John speaks of just one cockcrow but records three new denials, not mentioned by the other three. If these are inspired accounts, then God did it on purpose, and it is up to us to try to figure out why (see my concluding paragraph).

troduction to the Gospel found in many manuscripts—and if so he may have insisted on including the hint as to the extent of his humiliation, whereas the others delicately avoided it.

The Text-critical Problem

Although there are around a hundred textual differences reflected in the printed editions of the Greek Text (in the passages considered), I will confine my remarks here to the set that is especially bothersome in terms of the subject matter of this paper.

There are four places in Mark's account that relate to the two cockcrows: "twice" in 14:30, "and a rooster crowed" in 14:68, "the second time" and "twice" in 14:72. Instances 1, 3 and 4 go together and appear to contradict the account in Matthew, Luke and John. Instance 2 is apparently even worse because according to Mark's account Peter had only denied once when the rooster 'jumped the gun' and crowed before he was supposed to (Jesus had said there would certainly be three denials, as recorded in the other three Gospels). Accordingly, ever since the second century there have been those who tried to 'help' Mark out of his difficulties, tampering with the text.

According to the present state of our knowledge it appears that seven Greek MSS omit "twice" in 14:30 (but they do so in two different ways), nine MSS omit "and a rooster crowed" in 14:68 (but in two ways), five omit "the second time" in 14:72<sup>a</sup>, and seven omit "twice" in 14:72<sup>b</sup> (two others omit the whole clause). The roster of MSS shifts in each case, as does the versional evidence that sides with the omissions. Only three witnesses are thoroughgoing and omit all four: Codex Aleph, cursive 579 and the Old Latin "c" (it<sup>c</sup>). This is a curious state of affairs. If the purpose of the omissions was to make Mark conform to the other Gospels, only Aleph, 579 and it<sup>c</sup> have succeeded. Of the seventeen MSS involved, twelve omit only one of the four; one MS omits two of them; and two MSS omit three (there is some doubt here). Unless someone is prepared to show why Aleph and 579 are to be preferred above every other MS (some 1700 for Mark), and it<sup>c</sup> above all the rest of the versional evidence, Latin and otherwise, there is really no reason to take the omissions seriously. However, the eclectic school does take them seriously, even without the requisite demonstration.

It appears that the 'harder reading' canon has come to the aid of the vast majority of the MSS, at least as far as the editors of the 'critical' or eclectic texts presently in vogue are concerned. Instances 1, 3, and 4 are retained in all Nestle and UBS editions (although UBS ascribes "a considerable degree of doubt" to 1 and 3, and "some degree of doubt" to 4—the change in grade here is strange). However, when it comes to instance 2 ("and a rooster crowed") we get some variety: Nestle editions 1 to 25 omit the words; Nestle<sup>26</sup> and all three UBS editions retain them, but in single brackets (the UBS editors ascribe "a very high degree of doubt" to these words, along with the brackets which themselves signify "dubious textual validity"). Presumably the crucial datum here is that Codex B joins the evidence for omission with instance 2 (but not the others). From W-H through N<sup>25</sup> that was enough to banish the words from the Text. One supposes that it was the "harder reading" canon that restored them to UBS and N<sup>26</sup>, if only in brackets. It seems to me that this case affords a clear example of the superficiality that characterizes the work of the eclectic school—to challenge the authenticity of a reading supported by over 99% of the MSS is unreasonable at any time, but to do so in the face of a perfectly obvious motivation for the omission is irresponsible.

The English versions that I have consulted all retain instances 1, 3 and 4, but deal variously with instance 2. AV, LB, NKJV, Phillips and TEV all retain “and a rooster crowed”, but LB favors us with a footnote: “This statement is found in only some of the MSS.” What might the purpose of such a footnote be? From the use of the word “only” it would appear that the purpose is to raise a doubt in the reader’s mind about the reliability of the Text. Why would they want to do that? The use of the word “some” also invites comment: it is their way of referring to some 1700 MSS, against nine! Will the reader not be deceived?

Jerusalem, NASB, NEB, NIV and RSV all omit the clause, but only Jerusalem does so without comment. The footnote in NEB reads, “Some witnesses insert ‘and a cock crew.’” As in LB, by “some” they mean some 1700 MSS, not to mention massive versional support and almost unanimous lectionary support. Will the reader not be deceived? The footnote in RSV reads, “Other ancient authorities add ‘and the cock crowed.’” The footnote in NIV reads, “Some early MSS add ‘and the rooster crowd.’” The footnote in NASB reads, “Later mss. add: ‘and a cock crowed.’” In order to evaluate such footnotes we would need to know the precise definitions for “ancient”, “early” and “later”. However, I submit that the uninitiated reader of such footnotes will certainly be misled as to the massive evidence against omission.

The case of the NIV invites special comment. It is the only version that offers a footnote at all four instances. At 14:30 we read, “Some early MSS omit ‘twice.’” At 14:68 we read, “Some early MSS add ‘and the rooster crowed.’” At 14:72<sup>a</sup> we read, “Some early MSS omit ‘the second time.’” At 14:72<sup>b</sup> we read, “Some early MSS omit ‘twice.’” (The meaning of “some” in the second instance is quite different from that in the other three.) What possible reason could the editors have had for including these footnotes? The immediate effect is to call in question the reliability of the Text at those points. Since the NIV editors held to a high view of Scripture, why would they want to do that? I suppose that it was precisely their concern for the inerrancy of the Text that was at work here. It appears that they did not see any other solution to the seeming discrepancy between Mark and the other Gospels than to imply that Aleph and Old Latin “c” might be right after all. Alas!

The NIV editors are barking up the wrong tree. The worst thing to be done here would be to follow Aleph in deleting all four instances. As already pointed out, the four Gospels record eight different challenges resulting in denials, but no two Gospels have the same selection. So to follow Aleph would force us to try to accommodate eight denials before the first rooster crow, which seems to me to be hopeless. The best thing to be done here is to follow the true Text, which God has graciously caused to be preserved, in this case, in over 99% of the evidence. Peter denied three/four times before the first rooster crow and another set of three/four before the second. The Lord had warned him: “Simon, Simon, indeed Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat” (Luke 22:31). Peter should have paid attention.

Implications

One question that arises is this: What about the internal integrity of each account? For instance, in John’s account, even if we were to claim that two of the denials occurred before the first rooster crow, while the third denial came after the first and before the second, would this claim do violence to the integrity of John’s Gospel? Why would it? Let us review the record. In John 13:38 Jesus said to Peter, “Most assuredly I say to you, a rooster shall not crow till you have denied me three times!” The Lord did not say “only” three times—the emphasis is on the obligatory absence of any rooster crow until Peter has denied three times, at least three times (there is nothing in the Lord’s turn of phrase to preclude the possibility that there could be more than three). In the Greek text there is no definite article with “rooster” and there is an emphatic double negative with the verb “to crow”—“a rooster shall not crow!” (These observations also apply in Luke 22:34; in fact, in all four Gospels, in both the predictions and the fulfillments, it is always “a” rooster.)

Turning to John’s account of the denials themselves, the first one, at the outside door (18:17), poses no difficulty. The second denial (18:25) likewise poses no difficulty—these two occurred before any rooster crow. But what if the third denial (in John’s account, 18:26-27) came after the first crowing?<sup>a</sup> I see no problem, in principle. The Lord made a statement of fact, correctly recorded by John—there had to be three denials before the first rooster crow. This was precisely fulfilled, the others supplying the third denial. Nothing in John’s account precludes the possibility that there should be subsequent crowings. (Anyone who has lived near roosters knows that they start crowing off and on anytime after midnight and at daybreak put on a concert—it seems obvious to me that the first two crowings were overtly controlled by God so as to match Christ’s predictions.) In 18:27, after the third denial recorded by John, we read, “and immediately a rooster crowed”. John does not say that it was the first crowing. Someone without access to the other Gospels would naturally assume that John records the first rooster crow, and that the three denials he gives are the whole story—but nothing in John’s statement demands that interpretation; it simply arises from incomplete information. The other three present several added denials that are clearly distinct. The several Evangelists provide distinct sets of details, much like the pieces of a puzzle, that must be fitted together to get the whole picture. The several accounts are complementary, not contradictory.

But how about the internal integrity of Mark’s account? He is the only one who mentions the second rooster crow, as such, and in fact his account is tied to it. Jesus said, “before a rooster crows twice you will deny me three times,” and Mark records three denials before the second rooster crow. Again, Jesus did not say “only” three times, the emphasis is on “you” and “twice”. The other Gospels are needed to get the full picture, but Mark’s account is entirely self-consistent.

And how about Luke? In the warning the emphasis is on the obligatory absence of a rooster crow until Peter has denied three times—at least three times (Jesus did not say “only” three times). After describing three of the denials Luke writes, “and immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed”. “A” rooster—he does not say it was the first. Then Luke has Peter remembering that Jesus said, “Before a rooster crows you will deny me three times”. Presumably Peter remembered every detail of all the warnings, but Luke (and each of the other Evangelists) gives only a partial description—in fact, Luke has him recalling the warning recorded by Matthew, not the one he himself gave. A reader having only Luke’s account may assume that he told the whole story, but it is an unwarranted assumption. Luke’s account is internally consistent yet the precise turn of phrase is such that it does not preclude my proposal.

<sup>a</sup> As the reader knows, I believe the third denial in John comes before the first cockcrow, but I am covering this possibility for the sake of those who may prefer to have it in the second set.

So what about Matthew? Virtually everything said about Luke above can be repeated here. He has Peter remembering the warning he himself recorded. Again it is “a” rooster. Matthew’s account is internally consistent yet the turn of phrase will accommodate my proposal without being violated. All of which brings us back to the question: Why does each Gospel speak of three denials, rather than six, eight or whatever? I don’t know; we aren’t told. My best guess is that God chose to draw a veil over the full extent of Peter’s ignominy (and perhaps to test our disposition when faced with the unexplained). But it remains a plain fact that each Gospel offers a different assortment of challenges and denials, giving a total of at least eight denials.

Another question that I have heard concerns the validity of attempting an exercise such as this at all. I believe that God deliberately brings difficulties into our lives (Job in the ash heap, Abraham on Moriah, Moses herding sheep, Joseph in prison, Daniel with the lions, and on, and on), and puts puzzles in the world, to test our disposition and fiber, and to cause us to grow. “It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter” (Proverbs 25:2). [Even if you are not a king, you get the point.] The case of John the baptizer in prison comes closer to home. He is frustrated, maybe disillusioned; he did his job but his expectations are not being realized. So he sends two disciples to ask Jesus for an explanation. In effect Jesus answers, “Check the evidence; do your homework,” and closes with, “And blessed is he who is not offended because of me” (Matthew 11:6). When faced with the difficult or unexplained we must be careful not to rebel. It is much better to obey the command recorded in 1 Peter 3:15. “Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you...” Since opponents of a Text with objective authority have used the accounts of Peter’s denials as an argument against any idea of inerrancy, I consider that a defense of that inerrancy is in order.

37) How to save your life

When someone asks me how I view my relationship with Jesus Christ, and if there is time to explain, I say that I am His slave. I am in good company since Paul (Romans 1:1), James (James 1:1), Peter (2 Peter 1:1) and Jude (Jude 1) said the same thing. It is a slavery that you choose because of love (see Exodus 21:1-6), love of Jesus, as a free and spontaneous act of the will. Presumably some will not like the idea of being a slave, but do not forget one little detail: everyone is a slave! It is an inherent aspect of the human condition. We are born as slaves, we live as slaves, we die as slaves. In John 8:34 the Lord Jesus declared: “Most assuredly I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin.” Apart from God the human being has no option; he is born a sinner and remains a slave of sin until he dies. “Slave of sin” is another way of saying ‘slave of self’—this is what destroys us; we are self-centered (it leads us to rebel against God)—and to be a slave of ‘self’ is to be a slave of Satan, because the unaided, self-centered person cannot withstand him. But Jesus offers a choice. Hallelujah! The choice is not to stop being a slave, oh no! The choice is to change masters.

I became a slave of Christ on the 13th of April, 1956, when I was almost twenty-two years old. I have been a ‘believer’ virtually from birth—I cannot remember a time when I did not believe in the Lord Jesus. I was a believer, but I was not a disciple; I had not yet surrendered my will. Before 4/13/56 I was still ruled by my own ideas and ambitions, my own wishes and desires. I was still trying to choose my own way, to guide my own steps. I had a bad time of it! It seemed like I was always ‘falling on my face’. Of course. Wherever would a twenty-year-old gain the wisdom, the knowledge, the capacity to run his own life? When and from whom could he have learned it? (Or a forty-year-old, or a sixty-year-old—do you suppose the situation improves sufficiently?) The Bible states plainly that the human being is not competent to direct his own steps (here please read Jeremiah 10:23, Proverbs 28:26, Jeremiah 17:9 and Proverbs 20:24). Before I became a slave of Jesus I was under the control of a master that lacked understanding, lacked power and lacked competence—I was really in a bad way. Now I have a Master who has all knowledge, has all power, and loves me so much He died for me. What could be better than that?

Let us see how it works. Consider the situation of a slave in Jesus’ time. Did he have any rights? No. Why did a slave exist? To serve, his owner. A slave owned nothing, not even himself. It follows that the owner must meet the slave’s physical needs—the slave has nothing. For over fifty years I have lived on the basis of Luke 12:22-34. For over fifty years I did not know from month to month just how much God would give me; rarely was it the same two months in a row. Yet neither I nor my wife and children ever went hungry. I have seen a time when there were at least four knots in my shoelaces, but I have never been without shoes. In short, we have never lacked.

If the owner gives an order that involves expense (e.g. to build a house), then he must furnish the materials, etc. In other words, what the owner orders he himself has to pay for. When Jesus orders something He pays for it. In my case He ordered two master’s degrees and a doctorate. They cost plenty—Jesus paid everything; I have nothing. The distance I have traveled by air would girdle the globe more than once—Jesus paid it all; I have nothing. What Jesus orders He pays for.

In fact, I have just one major concern in life: to understand just what my Owner wants me to do. Once I am sure, I move forward, without looking back. It is a sure thing. Can I imagine that my Master will go back on His word? Can I doubt His ability or willingness to supply my needs (Psalm 24:1)? Are there any other relevant doubts? I must confess that I find it hard to understand why so many believers refuse to be slaves (or true disciples) of Jesus, why they won’t turn their lives over to Him. Can it be that they are asking the wrong question? I suppose many ask themselves, “What is it going to cost me to be a slave/disciple of Christ?” That is not the right question.

The correct question to ask is, “What will it cost me if I am not His slave/disciple?” Instead of thinking about what Jesus may demand, about giving up our ambitions and desires, about maybe being sent to the jungle to work with ‘Indians’, we should really think about the consequences of refusing to surrender our lives to Jesus. The price you pay for not living for Christ’s kingdom is to lose your life. That’s all it costs, just your life! Consider the words of the Lord Jesus recorded in Luke 9:24-25. Let us begin with verse 23. “If anyone desires to come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross each day and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. For what will it profit a man to gain the whole world but waste or forfeit himself?” What does the Lord mean when He speaks of losing one’s “life”? One does not lose one’s soul for love of Christ. Nor is the reference to being killed. Rather, Jesus has in mind the life we live, the accumulated results of our living. All that I have done up to this moment plus all that I will yet do until overtaken by death or the rapture of the Church, whichever happens first—that is the “life” that is at risk (in my own case).

Let us look at our Lord’s words a little more closely. There seems to be a contradiction here—if you lose, you save; if you want to save, you lose. How can it work? The following context helps us out. In verse 26 Jesus explains verses 24-25 in terms of His second coming. The parallel passage, Matthew 16:27, is clearer. “For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he will repay each according to his deeds.” Christ was thinking of the day of reckoning. In other words, “we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Romans 14:10) and “each of us will give account of himself to God” (Romans 14:12). “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive his due according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10). I understand that 1 Corinthians 3:11-15 is referring to the same occasion, the day of reckoning. After declaring that Jesus Christ is the only foundation, Paul speaks of different materials that one might use in building on it: “gold, silver, precious stones” or “wood, hay, straw”. (Although the primary interpretation of this passage presumably has to do with the performance of teachers and leaders in the church, I believe it clearly applies to the daily life of each believer as well.) The point is, our deeds will be tested by fire. If fire has any effect upon gold or silver it is only to purify them, but its effect on hay and straw is devastating! Okay, so what?

Let us go back to the beginning. God created the human being for His glory; to reflect it and contribute to it. I suppose we may understand Psalm 19:1 and Isaiah 43:7 in this way, at least by extension. But Adam lost this capacity when he rebelled against God. For this reason the sentence that weighs against our race is that we “fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). But the Son came into the world to restore our lost potential. Ephesians 1:12 and 14 tell us that the object of the plan of salvation is “the praise of His glory” (see also 2 Corinthians 1:20). And 1 Corinthians 10:31 puts it into a command: “Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” Now then, the point of all this is not to ‘ruin’ our lives, to take all the ‘fun’ out of them (as many seem to think). God is not being arrogant, unreasonable, too demanding. Quite the contrary—He is just trying to save us from throwing away our lives. Surely, because the glory of God is eternal (Psalm 104:31), and when I do something for His glory that something is transformed and acquires eternal value—it becomes “gold, silver, precious stones”. Works done for the glory of God will go through the fire without harm. On the other hand, what is done with a view to our own ambitions and ideas is “straw”. We all know what fire does to straw!

So there it is. To be a slave of Christ means to live with reference to the Kingdom; it means to do everything for the glory of God. In this way the slave “saves” his life because he will be building it with “gold and silver”, which will pass through the fire at the judgment seat of Christ without loss. In contrast, the believer who refuses to be a slave of Jesus builds his life with “hay and straw”, which will be consumed by the fire—and so he “loses” his life; he lived in vain; the potential that his life represented was wasted, thrown away. What a tragedy!

(I suppose there might be someone who will say: “Okay, okay! I get the point. I’m throwing away my life. So what? What business is it of yours? If I want to lose my life that’s my problem!” Well, sure, that is right, it is your problem. But I wish you would consider one detail: the problem is not exclusively yours; it is not just yours! It also concerns the individuals who should have been reached through your life but were not. And it concerns Christ Himself who was cheated out of His right in your life.)

38) Hunger and thirst for righteousness

Matthew 5:6

The semantic area of the word ‘righteousness’ occurs hundreds of times in the Bible, in both Testaments. To begin with, we must distinguish ‘righteousness’ from ‘holiness’. Holiness has to do with the absence of sin, and only the Triune God is perfectly holy in His essence. Righteousness (or ‘wholeness of character’) has to do with appropriate behavior within a certain standard of conduct. Now then, since a standard of conduct devised by men is often different from the standard of conduct promulgated by the Sovereign Creator, I have used ‘moral rectitude’. Certainly Jesus was thinking of God’s standard; He was referring to acting with moral rightness before God.

But why did Jesus cite both hunger and thirst? Whoever is hungry will look for something to eat; those who are thirsty will look for something to drink. And what happens if someone is both hungry and thirsty? It seems to me that the person’s situation becomes urgent; he will search with determination until he finds something. What is at stake is the relationship between the person and God. And since the Father seeks those who worship Him in spirit and in truth (John 4:23), He will go to meet such people.

Consider 2 Chronicles 16:9—“The eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him.” God is looking for whom He can bless. Consider also Jeremiah 29:13—“You will seek me and find me when you search for me with all your heart.” It is a promise; but it depends on us. It is the consequence of the ‘great’ commandment: “You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind” (Matthew 22:37, Deuteronomy 6:5).

Then, with all certainty, God will satisfy the person who dedicates himself to moral righteousness with determination.

39) Jeremiah?

Matthew 27:9-10

In the NKJV, Matthew 27:9-10 reads like this: “Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced, and gave them for the potter’s field, as the LORD directed me.” The difficulty comes when we try to find this material in our canonical Jeremiah. Cross-references send us to Jeremiah 32:6-9, or 18:1-4, or 19:1-3, but upon inspection they just do not match. In Zechariah 11:12-13 we find a general approximation, but it is not precise—and of course Zechariah is not Jeremiah. Evidently there are Hebrew manuscripts that begin the scroll containing the prophets (major and minor) with Jeremiah, and it has been argued that Matthew used ‘Jeremiah’ to refer to the contents of the entire scroll. I suppose that could be a possibility, but I prefer to appeal to Daniel 9:2. “In the first year of his reign [Darius] I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through Jeremiah the prophet...” Note that ‘books’ is plural. Why should any of us assume that men like Jeremiah, or Isaiah, wrote only what is in our canon? (I myself have written a great deal that has never been published.) Daniel clearly wrote ‘books’, presumably referring to Jeremiah. I conclude that such extra-canonical books were still known in Matthew’s day, and that he refers to one of them. I am aware that the distinction cannot be insisted upon, but Matthew did use ‘spoken’ rather than ‘written’.

40) ‘Jesus’, or ‘Joshua’?

Hebrews 4:8

Beyond question, the Greek Text has ‘Jesus’, as in the AV, but most modern versions put ‘Joshua’. I suppose that ‘Jesus’ was judged to be an anachronism, and so ‘Joshua’ was elected to relieve the situation. To be sure, the Septuagint we know uniformly spells ‘Joshua’ as Ἰησοῦς (Jesus) [as a linguist I wonder why the translators transliterated ‘Iehoshua’ as ‘Iesus’], and probably in consequence, in Acts 7:45 Luke refers to Joshua as ‘Iesus’ [it was not his purpose to correct the LXX]. However, looking carefully at the context in Psalm 95:7-11, Joshua just does not fit. Consider: it is presumably Jehovah the Son who is speaking (“Jehovah our Maker”, verse 6), and since the reference is to those who fell in the wilderness during the forty years, Joshua cannot be in view. Not only that, I invite attention to Joshua 21:43-45 and 23:1, where the Text says that Joshua did in fact give them rest. So whom are you going to believe? Of course the Text is referring to physical rest, not spiritual, since neither Joshua nor anyone else could be responsible for a people’s spiritual rest. Ezekiel chapter 18 is very clear to the effect that each individual is responsible for his own eternal destiny. God has no grandchildren, only sons and daughters. In Mathew 23:8-10 Sovereign Jesus forbids any attempt to dominate someone else’s faith or conscience. This is consistent with His statement in John 4:23-24. The worship that the Father wants cannot be forced, imposed, controlled or faked.

In relief of the notion of ‘anachronism’ I offer the following: 1) in John 12:41 John affirms that Isaiah saw Jesus (it was Jehovah the Son on the throne); 2) in 1 Corinthians 10:4 Paul affirms that the Rock that provided water was Christ; 3) in Hebrews 11:26 the same author [as I believe] has Moses choosing “the reproach of Christ”; 4) in 1 Peter 1:19-20 Peter affirms that the shed blood of God’s Lamb, Jesus, was foreknown before Creation—but blood requires a body, and the Lamb’s body was that of Jesus; so Jesus, as Jesus, was known before Creation. Returning to Hebrews 4:8, it was precisely Jesus, Jehovah the Son, who did not allow that generation to enter the ‘rest’.

41) John is not Elijah

‘Substitutionism’ predominates in Christian churches around the world, the idea that the Church has completely replaced Israel in all of God’s future plans. It is theological anti-Semitism. But to maintain that idea, its advocates are obliged to disregard Romans chapters 9, 10, and 11, several other NT texts, and much of the OT prophecies. Disregarding such a large portion of the Sacred Text can have somewhat unpleasant consequences, since the Author of the Text will not take kindly to such an attitude. Afterwards, it should come as no surprise to anyone to find that those who approach the Text with this preconceived idea tend to do nasty things to any passage that is inconvenient for them—for example, Matthew 17:10-13.

So His disciples questioned Him saying, “Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” <sup>11</sup>In answer Jesus said to them: “Elijah is indeed coming first, and he will restore all things. <sup>12</sup>But I say to you that ‘Elijah’ has come already, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. Thus also the Son of the Man is about to suffer at their hands.” <sup>13</sup>Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptizer.<sup>a</sup>

It is common to hear such people discourse on verses 12 and 13, severely disregarding verse 11. But since any doctrine should take into account all relevant texts, we can start with the source of the discussion, Malachi 4:5-6.

Behold, I will send you the prophet Elijah, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of Jehovah. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers; lest I come and strike the earth with total destruction.<sup>b</sup>

In Matthew 16:28 Jesus spoke of seeing “the Son of the Man coming in His kingdom,” and in the understanding of the three disciples, the Kingdom of the Messiah was linked to ‘the day of Jehovah’. They understood that they had just seen a microcosm of the Kingdom, and they had seen Elijah, but they were descending the mountain back into a reality that hardly resembled the Kingdom. Hence the question, I suppose. But let us get back to the relevant texts.

The second is found in Luke 1:17—the angel Gabriel is announcing to Zechariah truths about the son he is going to have, John the Baptizer. This son would go before the Lord his God “in the spirit and power of Elijah”; and refers to Malachi 4:5-6. Faced with the old man's doubt, Gabriel declares that he was sent by God to deliver the message. Now then, would anyone have the courage to say that both the angel and God himself had the intention of deceiving the old man? If John would be Elijah himself, how could the angel say that John would act in Elijah's spirit and power, instead of being Elijah?

Now let us go to John 1:21—when priests and Levites from Jerusalem asked John if he was Elijah, he replied, “I am not.” Come now, would anyone have the courage to say that John lied? If he did not lie, then he was not Elijah. Could John be mistaken about his own person and his own office? Hardly: his father had been very clear, and after a long time in the wilderness with God, he began his public ministry. Luke 3:2 clarifies that “the word of God came upon John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness” (the Text says “upon John”, not ‘to John’; he was compelled by the Word). In John 1:23 the Baptizer quotes Isaiah 40:3 as referring to himself. John neither lied nor made a mistake—he was not Elijah.

But what about Matthew 11:14—“if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come”? Jesus was praising John the Baptizer with some sayings rather difficult to understand; for example in verse 11: “among those born of women

<sup>a</sup> At this point John is already dead, but in verse 11 the Lord declares that Elijah is still going to come—John performed the function for Christ's first advent that Elijah (literally) will perform for the second advent.

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew word here means ‘total destruction’, not ‘curse’, as in many versions. And when will there be total destruction of the planet? It will be at the end of the Millennial Messianic Kingdom. On the other hand, destruction during the ‘great tribulation’ will come close; it will be terribly terrible!

there has not arisen a greater than John the Baptizer; but he who is least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he”.<sup>a</sup> Verse 12 has also given commentators trouble. In verse 14, when Jesus says, “if you are willing to receive it”, it is because the matter is not transparent. Although John was still alive, he was in prison, from whence he would only emerge dead. How then could Jesus say that Elijah still had to come, if it was in fact Elijah who was in prison and would only come out dead? Now we go to Matthew 17:10-13 and Mark 9:11-13, which are parallel; only now John was in fact dead.

In verse 11 (Matthew 17) Jesus declares, “Elijah is indeed coming first, and he will restore all things.” Since John was already dead, and Jesus puts the coming of Elijah in the future, then John was not Elijah. Further, John did not “restore all things”; in fact, he restored relatively little. In short: John filled the office, herald, for the first advent of Christ that Elijah himself (literally) will fill for the second advent. They are different people, with different moments.

42) John’s Gospel: Jewish time or Roman time?

Recently a friend and correspondent wrote me that 90% of commentaries and 95% of Bible versions affirm that John’s Gospel uses Jewish time, not Roman. Well now, as far back as I can remember, I have always supposed that John used Roman time. Although in spiritual matters the majority is generally wrong, 9 to 1 borders on the lopsided, so I decided to go back and look again. As best I can tell, there are four places where John mentions a specific hour: 1:39, 4:6, 4:52 and 19:14. I will consider them in that order.

John 1:—<sup>35</sup>Again the next day John was standing with two of his disciples. <sup>36</sup>And seeing Jesus walking by, he says, “Look, the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup>The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>So turning and observing them following<sup>b</sup> Jesus says to them, “What do you want?” So they said to Him, “Rabbi” (which translated means “Teacher”), “where are You staying?” <sup>39</sup>He says to them, “Come and see”. So they went and saw where He was staying, and stayed with Him that day—it was about the tenth hour.

Note the “and stayed with Him that day”. If John were using Jewish time, this would be 4:00 p.m. But in Jewish time there would only be two more hours in the day, since the new day would begin at 6:00 p.m. It would border on the dishonest for John to use “and stayed with Him that day” with reference to only two hours. John uses Roman time, so this is 10 a.m., which means that Jesus spent most of the day with just those two men. You had better believe they were talking the whole time. Jesus knew they would be two of His disciples and was already <sup>a</sup> Evidently, as forerunner of the Kingdom John was not part of it—the Kingdom was rejected at that time; both forerunner and King were killed—those who participate in the actual future Kingdom will be more privileged. “Born of women” excludes Adam. Men like Noah, Abraham, Moses, Daniel would be of equal standing, just not “greater”. But those who live during the Messianic Kingdom (Millennium) will be more privileged than all except Adam, because the earth will return to conditions similar to Eden.

<sup>b</sup> Presumably Jesus waited for them to catch up, so He was observing them during that time. His purpose in passing by there was precisely to attract those two men (so I imagine), and He was doubtless aware when they started out after Him.

investing in them—to such good effect that the next day they brought in two more.

John 4:—<sup>1</sup>Now when Jesus<sup>a</sup> knew that the Pharisees had heard, “Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John” <sup>2</sup>(although Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples), <sup>3</sup>He left Judea and went away into Galilee.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Now He needed to go through Samaria;<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>so He comes to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>Now Jacob’s well was there; so Jesus, being worn out from the journey, sat as He was by the well. It was about 6 p.m.

The Text has “the sixth hour”. Many versions put “noon”, which reflects Jewish time. But the Text says Jesus was worn out, which agrees better with a full day’s walk than with a half day’s walk (remember that they did all their traveling on foot, and so were used to it). The distance between Salem and Sychar was probably about 35 miles, as the crow flies, but since the whole distance was over accidented terrain, the walking distance would be a good deal more. They had walked some 50 miles in twelve hours. Like the Text says, He was tired! And He was hot and thirsty. John emphasizes that as a human being He felt the full effects of the day. But where did I get Salem?

John 3:—<sup>22</sup>After these things Jesus, with His disciples, went into the Judean countryside, and there He spent time with them and baptized. <sup>23</sup>Now John also was baptizing in Aenon, near Salem, because there was plenty of water there. And people were coming and being baptized; <sup>24</sup>for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

To this day there is “plenty of water” in the Aijalon valley, some 15-20 miles WNW of Jerusalem (Salem is an ancient name for Jerusalem; see Genesis 14:18 and Hebrews 7:1)—perhaps that is where it was. I take it that Jesus and John were in the same area, at this point (“John also was baptizing in Aenon”). Even from the nearest point in Judea to Sychar, it is unlikely that they could have walked the distance in six hours.

John 4:—<sup>46</sup>So Jesus went again to Cana of Galilee,<sup>e</sup> where He made the water wine. Now there was a certain royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When this man heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son,<sup>f</sup> for he was about to die. <sup>48</sup>So Jesus said to him, “Unless you people see signs and wonders you will not believe!” <sup>49</sup>The official says to Him, “Sir, come down before my child dies!” <sup>50</sup>Jesus says to him, “Go; your son lives”. Well

<sup>a</sup> I follow the best line of transmission in reading “Jesus”, rather than ‘the Lord’, albeit with only 21.7% of the Greek manuscripts.

<sup>b</sup> This was a tactical withdrawal. I take it that Matthew 4:12 refers to the same withdrawal. Between John 3:36 and 4:1 the Baptizer was imprisoned. If the Pharisees knew something it would not be long before Herod knew it. It was not part of the Plan for Jesus to have to deal with Herod at this juncture.

<sup>c</sup> He could have gone up the coast and avoided most of the mountains, but He “needed” to go through Samaria. Probably because the Father told Him to—it was harvest time in Sychar.

<sup>f</sup> The man was asking Jesus to make an emergency hike of some 25 miles (unless he was mounted and had brought an extra horse for Jesus; but He probably was not used to riding). Evidently he figured that the healer had to be physically present.

the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and off he went. <sup>51</sup>Now while he was still going down his slaves met him and reported saying, “Your son lives!” <sup>52</sup>So he inquired of them the hour in which he got better. And they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him”. <sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at the exact hour in which Jesus told him, “Your son lives”. Both he himself and his whole household believed.

It is virtually certain that the official and his slaves used Roman time, in which case the cure took place at 7 p.m. It could not be 7 a.m. because the man would have met his slaves before noon and they would have said ‘today’, not ‘yesterday’ (verse 52). It could not be Jewish time for a similar reason—if Jesus healed at 1 p.m., the man would have met his slaves before sundown and they would have said ‘today’ (an official may well have been mounted, and it would not take him long—he was in a hurry). The man probably walked (unless he was mounted, but at night the horse would be held to a walk) during at least part of the night; the slaves would have started out at dawn; they probably met at a point much closer to Capernaum than to Cana.

John 19:—<sup>12</sup>From that moment Pilate really tried to release Him; but the Jews kept shouting, saying: “If you release this fellow you are no friend of Caesar’s! Whoever makes himself a king is opposing Caesar!”<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>Well, upon hearing this statement Pilate led Jesus outside and sat down on the judgment seat, in a place called ‘Stone Pavement’, while in Hebrew ‘Gabatha’<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>(now it was the day of preparation for the Passover;<sup>c</sup> the hour was about six a.m.), and he says to the Jews, “Look at your king!”

The Text says “the sixth hour”, which in Roman time is six a.m. If it were Jewish time, it would be noon, which won’t work here. Actually it says ‘around’ or ‘about’ six—I assume that it was a little after the hour. But why do I say that ‘noon’ won’t work? Any honest interpreter of Scripture has the obligation to consider all relevant passages, which in this case include Matthew 27:45, Mark 15:25 and 33, and Luke 23:44. Mark specifies that Jesus was crucified at the 3rd hour and all three mention the supernatural darkness from the 6th to the 9th. It is clear that all three use Jewish time: the darkness could not have been from 6:00 to 9:00 a.m., nor from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. (using Roman time). Therefore the supernatural darkness occurred between 12:00 noon and 3:00 p.m. Since Mark uses Jewish time, his 3rd hour has to be 9:00 a.m. (it obviously could not be 9:00 p.m.). To argue that John used Jewish time here makes him out to be ridiculous; how could Pilate pass sentence three hours after the crucifixion?! Please remember that John was physically present, an eyewitness of the proceedings, which cannot be said of any of the commentators or translators (or of any of the non-biblical sources that they may cite).

<sup>a</sup> Ooops! Pilate owed his position to Caesar’s good graces, and simply could not afford to do something that could be construed (even with a little twisting) as treason. He is beaten and knows it.

<sup>b</sup> This action signaled that he had reached a decision and was about to give the verdict.

<sup>c</sup> If the Jews were still preparing for the Passover, then Jesus and His disciples observed it a day early—which must have seemed strange to the disciples. But as the ultimate Passover Lamb, it would be appropriate for Jesus to die on that preparation day.

To conclude, the evidence is surely adequate: John used Roman time.<sup>a</sup> To ascribe errors of fact and stupidities to the Apostle John, by alleging that he used Jewish time, is to be perverse.

43) 'Lament', not 'weep'

Matthew 5:4

The question before us is to understand what Jesus meant. We must interpret it from Jesus' point of view, not ours, or anyone else's. The 'lament' here is not crying because you are hurting; nor is it crying in mourning because you lost a loved one. It is lamentation for evil and sin, and the consequences of both. The 'Bible' that Jesus had was the Old Testament, and that is where we must look for the definition of the word.

We can start with Ezra. In 9:1-4 Ezra learns of the sin of the people.<sup>b</sup> In 9:5-15 we have a prayer with identification. Ezra prays, confessing the sin of the people, and as the leader he includes his person in the confession, even though he did not participate in the sin he was confessing. In 10:1 we have Ezra praying, making confession and weeping, prostrate before the house of God. Now note especially 10:6—Ezra isolates himself, does not eat bread or drink water, "for he mourned because of the guilt (infidelity) of those from the captivity." Here we have a concrete case of lamentation for sin and its consequences.

Now consider Daniel. In 9:3 he addressed the Lord God with prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes. In 9:4-19 we have another prayer with identification. Daniel prays, confessing the sin of his people, including himself in the confession, even though the sin was not his personally. In 9:20-27 Daniel receives a visit and a communication from the angel Gabriel. Perhaps three years later, at 10:2, Daniel affirms that he himself spent three weeks mourning, fasting all the time. Certainly he was not bemoaning any of his own problems; it was because of evil and its consequences.

Now Jeremiah 7:28-29—"This is a nation that does not obey the voice of Jehovah their God nor receive correction. Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth. Cut off your hair and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the desolate heights; for Jehovah has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath." The sin of the people went so far as to provoke the wrath of God, so much so that He turned his back on that generation. Here we have another case of lamentation for sin and its consequences.

Now consider two texts that link comfort to lamentation. Isaiah 57:18 says, "I will restore comforts to him and to his mourners." In Luke 4:18-19 Jesus applied the prophecy in Isaiah 61:1-2 to Himself, but He did not quote the entire prophecy. I here use 61:2-3; the Messiah was anointed: "to comfort all who mourn, to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness."

But exactly how does comfort and solace work? Before paying attention to comfort in this life, let us consider the coming one. When someone laments evil

---

<sup>a</sup> I fail to see any reasonable basis for an honest student of Scripture to arrive at the conclusion that John used Jewish time. So where did the 90% of commentaries and 95% of Bible versions get that idea? In spiritual matters there is no neutrality (Matthew 12:30, Luke 11:23).

<sup>b</sup> Both 9:4 and 10:3 mention the portion of the people who trembled at the words of the God of Israel—it is the 'humble spirit'.

APPENDIX

and sin, it is evident that he is on God's side, seeing how He sees. For such people, ultimate and total comfort will come in Heaven. In Revelation 21:4 the great voice from Heaven declares: "God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there will be no more death nor sorrow nor weeping nor pain—they will exist no more, because the first things have passed away."

We may start with Luke 16:25—"But Abraham said: 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus had bad things; but now it is he who is being comforted, and you tormented.'" The account of the rich man and the beggar Lazarus begins in verse 19 and ends in verse 31. In verse 25 both had already died and were in Hades, the 'waiting room' where the spirits of the departed await the final judgment. But since one's final destination is determined by what was done in life, the lost are already separated from the saved. A presumed criminal suffers in prison, even before the case is judged. On the other hand, the saints already receive benefits in advance—which is why Lazarus was already receiving comfort.

Now we go to 2 Thessalonians 1:4-8:

"We ourselves boast about you among God's congregations, referring to your steadfastness and faith in the midst of all your persecutions, and the tribulations that you are enduring <sup>5</sup>—the above is evidence that God's judgment is right, to the end that you be considered worthy of the Kingdom of God, on behalf of which you are actually suffering; <sup>6</sup>since to God it is right to pay back affliction to those who are afflicting you <sup>7</sup>and rest (along with us) to you who are being afflicted, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with His powerful angels in blazing fire, <sup>8</sup>inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ."

It is at the time of the second coming of the Lord Jesus that those who have suffered for the sake of the Gospel will enter into their rest. Then they will have permanent comfort, but they will also have the 'comfort' of seeing their persecutors punished. In fact, the certainty that evil will be punished helps us to withstand mistreatment while still alive. Asaph's Psalm 73 clearly addresses this.

In the first verse, Asaph gives the final conclusion so that the reader will not be shaken by what follows. In verses 2-14 he recounts the struggle he had, seeing the prosperity of the wicked while he, seeking to be righteous, suffered. In verses 15-16 he thinks of the negative effect on others if he speaks his mind. Now verse 17: "Until I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood their end (the fate of the wicked)". Verses 18-20 deal with the destruction of the wicked. In verses 21-22 Asaph confesses his sin, and verses 23-26 speak of his spiritual restoration. Verses 27-28 conclude the Psalm with appropriate conclusions. We can take comfort in the certainty that evil will be punished, but far more important is the spiritual comfort we receive when we walk with God. 2 Chronicles 7:14 and 2 Corinthians 1:3-5 also speak of the comfort we receive in this life, when we lament evil.

Jonah 3:7-9 provides us with a very interesting practical example. Remembering the context: God tells Jonah to go to Nineveh and preach against it. Jonah goes, but very grudgingly. He delivers the message brutally. Then a miracle happened: the Ninevites repented, starting with the king. Just look at Jonah 3:7-9:

“By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?”

Verse 10 says that in fact God relented from destroying them at that time. There was lamentation over sin, and there was comfort. They trembled at the Word of God!

To conclude, consider what the Lord Jesus said in Matthew 11:29—“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.” That rest works throughout this lifetime, as well as for eternity. Oh praise God!

44) Luke 24:46-47

A friend recently phoned me to ask if I had a solution for what appeared to be a problem in Luke 24:46-47. In the NKJV it reads like this: Then He said to them, “Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.” I believe that most versions (including my own<sup>a</sup>) have essentially the same thing. The ‘problem’ is that such a translation places the content of what Jesus said in the OT, where it is not to be found. Jesus is made to affirm a falsehood, definitely out of character, to say the least! On the spur of the moment, I had no answer for my friend, but I promised to look into it. Here is the result.

I believe it is generally agreed that a series of nouns linked by ‘and’, each having the definite article, refers to distinct entities. The baptismal formula in Matthew 28:19 gives a nice example: “of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit”.<sup>b</sup> The normal meaning of the compound phrase is that the three entities are distinct; each one is distinct from the other two.<sup>c</sup>

I submit for due consideration that the same holds true for a series of nouns, or phrases, linked by ‘and’, when the same preposition is repeated for each one. I suggest that Galatians 6:16 offers a fair example: “peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God”. “Them” and “the Israel of God” refer to distinct groups of people.<sup>d</sup>

I submit for further consideration that the same adverb, overtly repeated, and linked by ‘and’, will function in a similar way; which brings me back to our ‘problem’. The Text has: οὕτως γεγραπται και οὕτως εδει παθειν τον Χριστον.

Lamentably, the eclectic text currently in vogue omits και οὕτως εδει, following 0.5% of the extant Greek manuscripts, all of which are of objectively inferior <sup>a</sup> So it was in the first two editions; now corrected.

<sup>c</sup> In passing, please note that the compound phrase is subordinate to “the name of”, ‘the name’ being singular. So here we have a presentation of the Trinity: three persons representing one ‘name’ or essence. We have it on the word of the resurrected Christ!

quality.<sup>a</sup> The 99.5% are certainly correct. In verse 44 Jesus tells the Eleven that the OT had to be fulfilled. Verse 45 has: “Then He opened their understanding so as to comprehend the Scriptures,” and verse 46 continues, “and He said to them: ‘Thus it was written. And so it was necessary for the Christ to suffer...’” The ‘thus it was written’ refers back to the content of verses 44-45 and closes the topic. The second ‘thus’ opens a new topic, so the material that follows is not attributed to the OT. The ‘problem’ that our incorrect translations create is spurious.

That said, however, the eclectic text maintains and imposes the problem. Versions that follow that text will have something like this: And He said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and rise again from the dead the third day.” Beyond question, any such rendering makes Jesus affirm a falsehood. Is that not perverse?

45) Mary’s genealogy

Luke 3:23

Και αὐτος ἦν ὁ Ἰησοῦς, ὥσει ἐτῶν τριακοντα ἀρχόμενος, ὡν ὥς ἐνομιζέτο υἱὸς Ἰωσήφ, τοῦ Ἡλεὶ, τοῦ Ματθαῖ, τοῦ Λευὶ, τοῦ Μελχὶ,...

There are four words here that invite special attention: καὶ, αὐτος, ἦν and ὥς. Since verse 22 ends with a statement from the Father at Jesus’ baptism, it is clear that verse 23 begins another section. But the conjunction that signals the transition is καὶ and not δε, as one would expect—this means that ‘Jesus’ continues as the topic. But in that event, how does one explain the personal pronoun αὐτος, the more so in such an emphatic position? If the author’s purpose was simply to register Jesus as a son of Joseph, as many suppose, why didn’t he just write καὶ ὁ Ἰησοῦς, ἦν υἱὸς Ἰωσήφ, etc.?

But then, why write ὥς ἐνομιζέτο? It seems to me that the normal meaning of “as was supposed” is to affirm that Jesus was in fact Joseph’s son; but that is precisely what Jesus was not. Luke has already made clear that Jesus’ real Father was the Holy Spirit—1:34-35, 43, 45; 2:49. So what Luke is really saying is that although the people supposed Jesus to be Joseph’s son, He actually had a different lineage—we should translate “so it was supposed”. (Recall that a faithful and loyal translation seeks to transmit correctly the meaning intended by the author.)

The verb ἦν is the only independent one in the whole paragraph, verses 23-38. Is it working with the participle ἀρχόμενος in a periphrastic construction? That appears to be the tendency of the eclectic text that places the participle right after Jesus (following less than 2% of the Greek MSS), which makes Jesus out to be in fact Joseph’s son. It seems to me to be far more natural to take the participial clauses as being circumstantial: “beginning at about thirty years of age” and “being (so it was supposed) a son of Joseph.” Setting those two clauses aside, the independent clause that remains is ἦν ὁ Ἰησοῦς τοῦ Ἡλεὶ, “Jesus was of Eli”.

<sup>a</sup> What objective basis did the editors have for following 7 manuscripts (of objectively inferior quality) against 1,600 better ones? None. How could they perpetrate such an atrocity? The answer may be found in Ephesians 2:2.

The participle ‘beginning’ requires an object, that the Text leaves implicit; from the context it seems clear that we may supply ‘His ministry’, or some such thing, which is why most versions do so. I suggest the following rendering: “Beginning His ministry at about thirty years of age, being (so it was supposed) a son of Joseph, Jesus was actually of Eli, of Mathan, of Levi...” I take it that the emphatic pronoun αυτος, heightens the contrast between what the people imagined and the reality. Jesus was a grandson of Eli, Mary’s father—Luke gives the genealogy of Jesus through His mother, while Matthew gives it through His stepfather. Jesus received some of David’s genes through Mary and Nathan; the glorified body now at the Father’s right hand, and that will one day occupy David’s throne, has some of his genes.

The eclectic text gives our verse a different wording: και αυτος ην Ιησους αποχομενος ωσει ετων τριακοντια, ων υιος, ως ενομιζετο, Ιωσηφ του Ηλι του Μαθθα του Λευι του Μελχι... The RSV translates it like this: “Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, the son of Matthat...” Is not the normal meaning of this rendering that Jesus was in fact the son of Joseph? However, every version that I recall seeing has “Joseph, the son of Heli”, which directly contradicts Matthew, “Jacob begot Joseph”. The word ‘son’ (without the article) occurs only with Joseph, although most versions supply it on down the genealogy. But Luke is precisely correct in not using it, because it would not hold for the first and last names in the list—Eli did not beget Jesus (nor Joseph) and God did not beget Adam.

So then, properly understood Luke does not contradict Matthew (with reference to Joseph’s father), nor does he affirm an error of fact (with reference to Jesus’ father).

46) ‘Meek’ is not ‘weak’

Matthew 5:5

What we need to understand is what Jesus intended to say. We need to interpret from His point of view, not ours, or anyone else’s. First: ‘meek’ is not ‘weak’, it is power under control. A little kitten is merely weak; a lion can act in a meek way, with its claws withdrawn (with animals we use ‘tame’). Further, to be meek is not to remain passive in the presence of evil, nor is it to remain inert when God is working on you. It could be the lack of personal ambition, but that does not jive with the second half of the verse. Second: “inherit the earth” is not a synonym for ‘go to heaven’ (nor for receiving spiritual blessings); the earth is one thing and Heaven is another (and spiritual life yet another). Also, ‘the’ earth (the Text has the definite article) must refer to this present earth, not to a new or different one. Surely, because there is only this earth in the context, and the Apocalypse would not be written for another 60 years.

We may begin with Moses. Numbers 12:3 says: “Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men that were upon the face of the earth”.<sup>a</sup> Hey, wait a minute! How could he be the meekest man on the planet? He could, precisely because he was also the most powerful man on the planet, in his day. Moses was not weak, he was meek. Further, he did not remain passive in the presence of evil, nor did he remain inert while God was working on him.

Then there is Sovereign Jesus, while He walked this earth. Matthew 11:29 says: “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls”. Jesus declared Himself to be ‘meek’. Can anyone imagine that Jesus was weak? I think not! Much like Moses, Jesus was meek precisely because He was the most powerful, in His day. It is more than clear that He did not remain passive in the presence of evil, nor did He remain inert about the suffering determined by the Father.

Very well, meek is power under control, but just how can the meek ‘inherit the earth’? To begin, they will need power, lots of power. Then, they will need to know how to make use of that power. Surely, because in order to inherit the earth they will have to take it out of Satan’s hand. Has anyone forgotten Luke 4:6? While Satan was testing Jesus he offered Him the world, saying, “because it was handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I want to!” Recall that Jesus did not deny Satan’s right to do so. It is true that Jesus won the victory over Satan by the cross and the resurrection, but for His own reasons God permits Satan to continue operating in this world as if he were still the owner. It is up to us to oblige the enemy to acknowledge his defeat. It is up to us to “undo the works of the devil” (1 John 3:8); yes, because Jesus said, “Just as the Father sent me, I also send you” (John 20:21). Well then, where is the necessary power for doing it?

We may begin with Ephesians 3:20—“Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to the power that is working in us, to Him be the glory in the Church in Christ Jesus,…” The range of my imagination represents my personal limit; obviously I will not ask for something that I cannot even imagine. But the power that is working in me (us) “is able to do immeasurably more.” In other words, on God’s side the power is unlimited. It is on our side that the business fails. We do not know how to ask, or what to ask for, and even less how to use such power. But that the power is available to us, yes it is.

Consider Ephesians 1:19-21. Paul is praying for the Ephesians, and he asks that they may be able to know three things, including:

What the exceeding greatness of His power into us who are believing, according to the demonstration of the extent of His might which He exercised in the Christ when He raised Him<sup>[S]</sup> from among the dead and seated Him at His<sup>[F]</sup> right, in the heavenly realms, far above every ruler and authority and power and dominion<sup>a</sup>—even every name that can be named, not only in this age but also in the next.

The Text does actually say “power into us who are believing”—please note that the power is to be within us, but the verb ‘believe’ is in the present tense; that you believed yesterday is not enough, you must be believing today. Note also Christ’s present position: at the Father’s right, far above any and all ranks and names, which includes the angelic beings and Satan himself. Now consider Ephesians 2:5-6—“But God,... made us alive together with Christ... and raised us up together and seated us together in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus”. This is tremendous! Here we have our position and authority. If we are in Christ we are at the Father’s right, and therefore we too are above the enemy and all his host.

<sup>a</sup> It is generally understood that the reference is to the angelic hierarchy. The two thirds that remained faithful to God were never a problem, so presumably the special point is that Christ defeated Satan, with his one third, and is now (as the God/man, the second Adam) seated ‘far above’ that enemy.

Now consider Luke 10:19—“Take note, I am giving<sup>a</sup> you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions,<sup>b</sup> and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing at all may harm you.” Since Jesus has been given “all authority in heaven and on earth” (Matthew 28:18), He is certainly competent to delegate some of that authority to us. Now then, authority gives orders to power. Since Satan’s power is a malignant power, we should not think of using it to do good; to do good we have the power of Christ, that is far greater. I believe that we should use our delegated authority to prohibit the use of Satan’s power, against us and in other circumstances—based on my own experience, I would say that it is necessary to be specific. When Jesus said “and nothing at all may harm you,” I take it that He was presupposing that we would be using our delegated authority to forbid any initiative against us. I do this every day. However, the protection is not absolute; every now and again my Owner allows the enemy to get to me. And why would God do that? I understand that it is to keep me humble and dependent.

But just how do we manage to ‘inherit the earth’? How much space can a solitary person occupy? For example, in order to transform a neighborhood, I suppose it will require a collective effort from the ‘meek’ who live there. By definition, the ‘meek’ are people who know how to use God’s power and are disposed to do so. They should also know how to be guided by the Holy Spirit. And it will be even better if at least one of them is maintaining an intimate relationship with God to the point that he can know what the Father is doing (John 5:19).<sup>c</sup> Still, in general terms, since “the Son of God was manifested for this purpose: to undo the devil’s works” (1 John 3:8), I believe that we may and should take action against anything that is of the enemy. Since God Himself hates “all workers of iniquity” (Psalm 5:5), I take it that we also can and should do so.<sup>d</sup> And in Psalm 97:10 we <sup>a</sup> Instead of ‘am giving’, perhaps 2.5% of the Greek manuscripts, of objectively inferior quality, have ‘have given’ (as in NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.)—a serious error. Jesus said this perhaps five months before His death and resurrection, addressing the seventy (not just the twelve). The Lord was talking about the future, not the past; a future that includes us!

<sup>b</sup> The Lord gives us the authority to “trample snakes and scorpions”. Well now, to smash the literal insect, a scorpion, you do not need power from on High, just a slipper (if you are fast you can do it barefoot). To trample a snake I prefer a boot, but we can kill literal snakes without supernatural help. It becomes obvious that Jesus was referring to something other than reptiles and insects. I understand Mark 16:18 to be referring to the same reality—Jesus declares that certain signs will accompany the believers (the turn of phrase virtually has the effect of commands): they will expel demons, they will speak strange languages, they will remove ‘snakes’, they will place hands on the sick. (“If they drink...” is not a command; it refers to an eventuality.) But what did the Lord Jesus mean by ‘snakes’?

In a list of distinct activities Jesus had already referred to demons, so the ‘snakes’ must be something else. In Matthew 12:34 Jesus called the Pharisees a ‘brood of vipers’, and in 23:33, ‘snakes, brood of vipers’. In John 8:44, after they claimed God as their father, Jesus said, “You are of your father the devil”. And 1 John 3:10 makes clear that Satan has many other ‘sons’. In Revelation 20:2 we read: “He seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is a slanderer, even Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years.” If Satan is a snake, then his children are also snakes. So then, I take it that our ‘snakes’ are human beings who chose to serve Satan, who sold themselves to evil. I conclude that the ‘snakes’ in Luke 10:19 are the same as those in Mark 16:18, but what of the ‘scorpions’? Since they also are of the enemy, they may be demons, in which case the term may well include their offspring, the humanoids see my paper, “In the Days of Noah”, available from [www.prunch.org]. I am still working on the question of just how the removal is done.

<sup>c</sup> Psalm 32:8-9 also deals with intimacy: “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with my eye. Do not be like the horse... whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle.” To guide with the eye requires intimacy, and to develop intimacy requires time.

<sup>d</sup> In John 6:44 Sovereign Jesus declared: “No one is able to come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him”. (With objects the verb ‘draw’ means ‘drag’.) So, would the Father ‘draw’ someone that He hates?

have a command to hate evil. So how may we remain passive in the presence of evil if we are commanded to hate it? And then there is the very nature of agape love: it necessarily includes the hating of evil, because of the consequences of evil against the loved ones.

Let us give a little more thought to the idea of remaining passive in the presence of evil. In Ephesians 6:10-11 we are commanded to “be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power” and to “put on the full armor of God”. What for? Consider 2 Corinthians 10:3-5.

Well, we do walk about in flesh, but we do not wage war that way,<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>because the weapons of our warfare are not physical, but are powerful in God for demolishing strongholds:<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>demolishing sophistries<sup>c</sup> and every arrogance that sets itself up against the knowledge of God; taking captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.”<sup>d</sup>

If we have weapons for waging war, it is because we are supposed to be doing it! Psalm 78:9-10 is to the point: “The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. They did not keep the covenant of God; they refused to walk in His law.” God considered those men to be traitors; by refusing to fight, albeit well armed, they broke the covenant. So there it is: if we have weapons for waging war, it is because we are supposed to be doing it! Of course, because the enemy of our souls never stops attacking us; never.

But just how does one go about forbidding and undoing the enemy’s works? As part of the armor described in Ephesians 6 we find “the sword of the Spirit” (verse 17). A sword is a weapon for offense, although it is also used for defense. Now the Text declares that this sword is “the ρημα of God”—ρημα, not λογος. It is God’s Word spoken, or applied in a specific way. Really, what good is a sword left in its sheath? However marvelous our Sword may be (Hebrews 4:12), to produce effect it must come out of the scabbard. The Word needs to be spoken, or written—applied in a specific way.

In the Bible we have many examples where people brought the power of God into action by speaking. Our world began with a creative word from God—spoken (Genesis, 1:3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 20, 24, 26; and see Hebrews 11:3). Moses did a lot of speaking. Elijah spoke (1 Kings 17:1, 18:36, 2 Kings 1:10). Elisha spoke (2 Kings 2:14, 21, 24; 4:16, 43; 6:19). Jesus did a great deal of speaking. Ananias spoke (Acts 9:17). Peter spoke (Acts 9:34, 40). Paul spoke (Acts 13:11; 14:3, 10; 16:18; 20:10; 28:8). In short, we need to speak!

<sup>b</sup> The subject of biblical spiritual warfare is generally not well understood in Christian circles. Much of what has been written concerns defensive procedures, but this text speaks of demolishing strongholds (presumably the enemy’s, since no one will want to destroy his own), that has to do with taking the offensive. For more on this subject the reader may consult my site: www.prunch.org.

<sup>c</sup> A sophistry is a false argument that is presented in such a way as to appear correct, and impressive, especially if not properly analyzed. Satan has purveyed a number of sophistries designed to keep people from the knowledge of God, such as humanism, relativism, materialism, Freudianism, and so on.

<sup>d</sup> I suppose that the two gerunds—‘demolishing sophistries’ and ‘taking captive every thought’—are some of our weapons, being grammatically subordinated to ‘demolishing strongholds’. In the context, the thoughts we take captive are not our own (though that also is a good thing to do), but those of the enemy’s servants. I do this in so many words, aloud or in thought, and thereby avoid unnecessary complications.

Here in Brazil, there are said to be many millions of ‘believers’ (up to 35), but they evidently are making very little difference in the national life. Satan controls all the governments—federal, state, county. Satan controls the education, the instruction, at all levels (beginning with the nurseries). Satan controls the health services, the commerce, the media, the culture, the entertainment, and a fair share of the churches—any church with a pastor who is a Freemason is in Satan’s hand (in Brazil a very great many pastors are Freemasons). Well dear me, how may it be possible to ‘inherit the earth’ in a country like Brazil? What can we do in concrete terms so as to change that reality?

I would like to offer a proposal, as follows. Consider the public schools in a given town, both grade and high. It has been a while since they were taken over by demons, drugs, sex, crime violence—the teachers have a hard time to even maintain a semblance of order; to teach something constructive has become almost impossible. The time has come for a collective effort by the ‘meek’ who live in that town. With the authority and the power available to them, they can clean up their schools: they should send the demons to the Abyss, forbidding any others to take their place; they should declare the premises to be off limits to any drug, illicit sex, indecent conduct, crime, violence, and whatever else the local situation dictates; thereupon the teachers can get back to teaching, in an ambient of peace and respect. Now then, in neighboring towns there will be no lack of distressed parents, seeing their children being damaged at school. When they hear of the transformation going on in the schools of the neighboring town, what will they do? They will run over to find out how it was achieved; and in that way the transformation will spread. What was done in the schools can be done in other areas as well; health, commerce, government, and so on, until the whole country is changed, thereby inheriting the land where they live.<sup>a</sup>

“The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion” (Proverbs 28:1). Really now, how many believers do you know who conduct themselves like lions? A lion can act in a tame way, but can also be a fearsome beast. The prophet Elijah was a lion type, and the third captain fell on his knees before him (2 Kings 1:13). A lion type believer knows that he can be bold because “the eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him” (2 Chronicles 16:9). “Since God is for us, who is against us?” (Romans 8:31). So take courage! Have at it!

47) Merciful receives mercy

Matthew 5:7

It seems clear that the purpose of this ‘beatitude’ is to encourage mercy. We need to understand the difference between grace and mercy. To receive grace is to be awarded an undeserved benefit (deserved benefit is salary). On the other hand, to be contemplated with mercy is to not receive a deserved punishment, a negative consequence of what was done. Part of the importance of this ‘beatitude’ derives from the fact that the opposite is also true: whoever is not merciful will also not receive mercy. Consider.

<sup>a</sup> I happen to believe that we will participate in the administration of the Messianic Kingdom, as well as of the new earth, but that is a different topic.

In Psalm 18:25, which is a copy of 2 Samuel 22:26, the correct translation would be this: “With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.” In Hosea 6:6, which is quoted by Jesus in Matthew 9:13 and 12:7, we read: “I desire mercy and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings”. Consider also Micah 6:8: “He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does Jehovah require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?” But in Luke 6:36 the Lord Jesus sets the standard at the highest possible level: “So be compassionate, even as your Father is compassionate!” Attention, thinking that a goal or standard is beyond our reach does not invalidate that standard—any standard set by God is independent of human capability.

In James 2:12-13 we read: “Speak and act as being those who are about to be judged by a law of liberty 13 (the judgment will be without mercy to the one not showing mercy).<sup>a</sup> That law exalts mercy<sup>b</sup> over judgment.” This agrees with the description of Himself that Jehovah gave Moses on that rarest of occasions: “Jehovah, God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, keeping mercy unto the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children and the children’s children to the third and the fourth generation” (Exodus 34:6-7). He keeps mercy to the 1000th generation, He punishes to the 4th; the proportion is 250:1. Hence the importance of mercy in our behavior.

The statement made in James 2:13 is terrible: “judgment will be without mercy to the one not showing mercy.” I believe this applies mainly to those who have received mercy. The parable inserted in Matthew 18:21-35 is relevant. The king forgave a terribly large sum to the first slave, who in turn did not want to forgive a paltry sum to a fellow slave. In verse 33 the king addresses the first one like this: “Were you not obligated to have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?” The fact that God has forgiven me obliges me to forgive others.<sup>c</sup>

Matthew 8:14-15 X Mark 1:29-31, Luke 4:38-39

For most of my adult life, I assumed that Jesus healed Peter’s mother-in-law only once, until one day it occurred to me that some of the details do not match. Consider: although the details of the actual healing are slightly different in the three accounts, they could be harmonized to come out with a single episode; it is the context that differs. Mark and Luke have the same context; the healing they record took place not long after the ministry in Samaria (John chapter four), but certainly before the ‘Sermon on the Mount’ recorded by Matthew. The context for the healing in Matthew is quite different, and happened after that ‘Sermon’. As recorded by Matthew, Mark and Luke, I would say that the events occurring between the two healings occupy the following stretches of Text: Matthew 4:23-8:13, <sup>a</sup> Even though inserted as an aside, this is a very serious bit of information!

<sup>b</sup> Perhaps 20% of the Greek manuscripts have ‘mercy’ in the nominative case, making it the subject of the verb (as in most versions), but some 80%, including the best line of transmission, have ‘mercy’ in the accusative case, making it the direct object (which to me makes much better sense).

<sup>c</sup> In Luke 9:52-56 we find a negative example. The “sons of thunder”, James and John, wanted to destroy the village, but Jesus immediately rebuked them.

Mark 1:32-45 and Luke 4:40-5:15. I see a practical application to this: just because God heals you one time does not mean that you will never get sick again (even with the same problem).

49) Poor in spirit

Matthew 5:3

The question before us is to understand what Jesus meant. We must interpret it from Jesus' point of view, not ours, or anyone else's. To be 'poor in spirit' means to have a humble spirit. It is not about money, it is about attitude. The Bible that Jesus had was the Old Testament, and that is where we should look for the definition of the phrase.

Isaiah 66:1-2—Thus says Jehovah: "Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool. Where is the house that you will build for me? And where is the place of my rest? For all these things my hand has made, and all those things exist," says Jehovah. "But on this one will I look: on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word."

Jehovah identifies himself as the Creator of everything, and then says what kind of person He wants. The word 'poor' is allied to 'contrite', but the fundamental requirement is to tremble at the Word of God. A person who 'trembles' like this is acknowledging that this Word exercises objective authority over him.

Psalms 34:18 goes in the same direction: "Jehovah is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves such as have a contrite spirit." Psalm 51:17 also: "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart—these, O God, you will not despise." And Isaiah 57:15 also: "Thus says the High and Lofty One, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him who has a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones." And this matches 2 Chronicles 16:9: "The eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him." God is looking for whom He can bless. This is what is also found in James 4:6, 1 Peter 5:5 and Proverbs 3:34: "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

Now then, Jesus said the Kingdom of God belongs to such people. If the Kingdom is theirs, they are part of that kingdom. No one enters the Kingdom without having a humble spirit, but not everyone who has a humble spirit enters the Kingdom, not necessarily. We must remember that no benefit from the shed blood of the Lamb of God is automatic—everything is potential. God's promises need to be appropriated, but on the way the preconditions have to be met. God's part is guaranteed, but not ours; there are levels of appropriation. Remember the parable of the sower, or of the soils; the seeds that fell into the good soil produced at different levels—100%, 60%, 30%.

Consider Matthew 18:3—"Assuredly I say to you, unless you change and become like little children, you will not enter the Kingdom of the heavens." But why would Jesus have used a little child as a model? Well, they are literalists, they truly believe, they are dependent and teachable—we also have to understand that we are dependent on God, being open to His teachings; we must genuinely believe in His Word, taking that word literally (respecting the norms of language), knowing that this word is to be obeyed. And as we do so we will find that we are being blessed.

But how would all this work for an Indian lost in the jungle, who has never heard of Jesus, a God who loves us, but who sets standards of conduct—never, nothing. Consider Acts 10:34-35; this is the case of the centurion Cornelius. After hearing his explanation, Peter declared: “Really, I comprehend that God is not One to show partiality, but in every ethnic nation whoever fears Him and works righteousness is acceptable to Him.” Cornelius lived up to the light that he had, and God performed a miracle to give him more light. The same thing happened to the Ethiopian treasurer (Acts 8:26-39)—he lived up to the light that he had, and God performed a miracle to give him more light.

It is true that both Cornelius and the Ethiopian had some access to the Bible, which the Indian would not have. But everyone is born with a conscience, and everyone has the light of creation, Romans 1:20. There are cases in the annals of modern missions where God worked a miracle to bring more light to someone who was living up to the little light that he had. Our God is just. Jehovah's eyes roam the entire earth, seeing each ethnic group and the people who make it up, and He reaches out to anyone who is deserving it.

50) Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time

According to John 18:12, there was a chiliarch among those who went to the Garden of Gethsemane to arrest Jesus. Well now, a chiliarch commanded a thousand men (or perhaps a cohort, about 600). There would scarcely be more than one of them stationed in Jerusalem, so he was presumably the top commanding military officer in town. So what was the top military commander doing in Gethsemane at 2:00 a.m.? If he was there, it was because the governor, Pilate, had sent him. And why would Pilate do something like that? He had his reasons.

As governor, Pilate represented the Roman Empire. He was responsible for keeping the peace, according to Caesar's interests. In those days the city of Jerusalem was not very big, and keeping well informed would not have been difficult. Pilate was doubtless well aware of Jesus, and would have followed His career with attention. Someone with a large public following could be a threat. Moreover, since it was the chief priests' man who led the expedition, and they kept the prisoner, it is clear that they had gone to Pilate and convinced him that Jesus represented enough of a threat that something needed to be done about it. (Jesus had used violence in cleansing the temple, as well as totally disregarding their authority. Why would He not do the same against Rome?) Even so, just why Pilate decided to send his chiliarch is hard to say; perhaps to be sure that things were done professionally, as well as to form a professional opinion as to the nature of the threat. Certain it is that Pilate and the chief priests had agreed on a plan of action, as John makes clear, a plan that included death by crucifixion.

Both Mark 15:1 and John 18:28 inform us that it was early morning when Jesus was taken to Pilate, but John 19:14 states that it was around 6:00 a.m. when Pilate pronounced sentence. Even allowing that 'around' 6:00 was perhaps five or ten minutes after the hour, it could not have been later than 5:30 when the chief priests pounded on Pilate's door. Now then, we all know that one just does not go pounding on a governor's door at such an hour, especially a conquered people. Not only that, Pilate was dressed and waiting. Actually, he had doubtless been up, waiting for the chiliarch's report. But at that point he changed the game-plan. He went out and asked, “What accusation do you bring against this man?” (John 18:29). Their reply was petulant, “If he were not an evil-doer we would not have handed him over to you.” They thought that they had an agreement, but something had made Pilate change his mind.

To understand what happened, we need to go back to Gethsemane, and the chiliarch. The traitor had told them that there would be eleven men besides Jesus, and that they had two swords (Luke 22:38). But they were country bumpkins with no fighting ability. Even so, the chiliarch probably had over twice as many men, and all were armed—he doubtless expected some attempt at resistance. When they arrived and stated their business, Jesus calmly identified Himself, but at His word they all fell to the ground (John 18:6). Later, after the traitor’s kiss, Peter managed to slice off an ear, but not only did Jesus tell him to quit it, He healed the ear (Luke 22:51)! Then the disciples abandoned Jesus, and He allowed Himself to be bound, without resistance. So what sort of report would the chiliarch give to Pilate? It was more than obvious that Jesus was no wild-eyed insurrectionist. He had supernatural power, and yet submitted peacefully. And Jesus was impressive! Pilate had to conclude that the picture that the chief priests had painted was wrong, and so the agreement could not stand.

Now a chiliarch was a hardened and seasoned warrior, not easily impressed. He probably told Pilate that if it were up to him, he would leave Jesus alone! But Pilate had to deal with the chief priests, and he knew it would not be easy. In Acts 3:13 Peter affirms that Pilate was determined to let Jesus go, but the chief priests got what they wanted in the end. Close attention to the Record makes clear that Peter’s affirmation is correct. Pilate wanted no part of killing Jesus! He made repeated attempts to ‘get off the hook’. Consider:

- 1) Pilate answered their petulant response with, “You take him and judge him according to your law.” To this they responded, “We are not permitted to execute anyone.” This exchange indicates that execution had been in the agreement, but Pilate also rubbed salt in their wound, making them recognize that they were a subjugated people. Even so, he told them to do the judging, which would make them responsible.
- 2) Luke 23:2 probably gives the first concrete accusation: “We found this fellow perverting the nation and forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, declaring himself to be Christ, a king.” The part about taxes was a plain lie, but the part about the Christ was true. In any case, Pilate could not safely ignore such accusations, so he interrogated Jesus.
- 3) Matthew 27:11, Mark 15:2, Luke 23:3 and John 18:33-38 all refer to this first interrogation. It revolved around the kingship of Jesus, which could be a crime against Caesar. Jesus affirms that He is a king, but His kingdom “is not of this world” (John 18:36). A kingdom that was not of this world would not represent a threat to Rome. So Pilate went out and said to the crowd, “I find no crime in him at all.” If there was no crime, there should be no punishment.
- 4) This led to a barrage of further accusations, to which Jesus did not answer, which surprised Pilate (Matthew 27:12-14, Mark 15:3-5 and Luke 23:5). But among the accusations they mentioned Galilee, which allowed Pilate to learn that Jesus was a Galilean, thereby belonging to Herod’s jurisdiction. As ‘luck’ would have it, Herod was in town and nearby. (He had doubtless been informed about what was afoot, since he also was up and dressed at that early hour.)
- 5) So Pilate sent Jesus to Herod, probably hoping that Herod would take responsibility. Luke is the only one who records this side-trip (23:7-12). But

- Jesus refused to speak; and what can you do with someone who won't talk? From the Lord's point of view, Herod was irrelevant; it was Pilate who had the authority to crucify. So, frustrated, Herod sent Him back, only now arrayed in a gorgeous robe. The whole side-trip probably took no more than fifteen minutes.
- 6) Poor Pilate, what was he to do? Next he tried the 'releasing a prisoner at Passover' gambit, hoping to release Jesus, but the crowd demanded Barabbas. (Both Matthew and Mark record that Pilate knew that the chief priests had acted out of envy.) In the middle of this proceeding, Pilate received a message from his wife, about her dream (Matthew 27:19) [she had probably been told why he didn't go to bed that night]. When Pilate asked what he should do with Jesus, they demanded that he be crucified. When Pilate asked what evil Jesus had done, they just yelled all the louder. Luke gives us a little further information. Pilate affirmed that neither he nor Herod had found guilt in Jesus, but because of their fury he offered to flog Jesus, hoping that would appease them.
  - 7) Matthew, Mark and John give some account of the treatment Jesus received from the soldiers. They made a crown of thorns, probably poisonous, and then drove the thorns into His scalp by beating on the crown with a rod. The poison would cause the scalp to swell, and blood would ooze from the wounds. They covered His face with spittle. Although none of the Evangelists mentions it, Isaiah 50:6 was presumably fulfilled as well—a soldier grabbing a fistful of beard and giving a violent yank would tear away the skin holding the hair, which would leave a painful and ugly wound. The total effect must have been horrible, leaving Jesus unrecognizable—Isaiah 52:14 was literally fulfilled. Then Pilate had Him brought out and said, "Look at the man!" (He had repeated that he found no crime in Him.) Pilate was hoping that when the crowd saw how much Jesus had already suffered, they would be satisfied, but it only made them worse!
  - 8) To their "Crucify! Crucify him!" Pilate answered, "You take and crucify him, because I find no crime in him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our law he ought to die, because he made himself 'Son of God!'" That statement made Pilate more afraid than ever (John 19:6-8). So he took Jesus inside for a second interview. Although Pilate represented the greatest temporal power at that time, Jesus calmly affirmed that there was a higher power, and that He, Jesus, represented that higher power. It appears to me that Pilate at least half believed Him, because John 19:12 says, "From that moment Pilate really tried to release Him." But the Jews did an 'end run'.
  - 9) They kept shouting: "If you release this fellow you are no friend of Caesar's! Whoever makes himself a king is opposing Caesar!" Oops! Pilate owed his position to Caesar's good graces, and simply could not afford to do something that could be construed (even with a little twisting) as treason. He was beaten and knew it. But he still managed to get them to declare that their only king was Caesar.
  - 10) Sitting on the judgment seat, Pilate called for water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said: "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous man. It's your problem!" So in answer all the people said, "His blood be upon us and upon our children!" (Matthew 27:24-25). Terrible, terrible, terrible! This may well be the worst curse that any parents ever placed upon their descendants. Since Pilate declared Jesus to be righteous, and since the Jews took full responsibility, I suspect that God will not hold Pilate responsible. After all, he was fulfilling the Plan: Jesus had to die by crucifixion.

Before bringing this article to a close, I would like to call attention to several further items that bear on Pilate's attitude.

- 1) Pilate had Jesus' 'crime' posted in three languages; he evidently wanted as wide an audience as possible. All four Gospels mention this, and from them we may understand that the full Accusation was: This is Jesus the Natsorean, the King of the Jews. That Pilate put "the Natsorean" (not Natsarene [Nazarene]) indicates that he had researched Jesus. The reference is to Isaiah 11:1; Jesus was David's Branch, the Messiah. Pilate was making a statement. When the chief priests complained, he answered, "What I have written, I have written!" (John 19:21-22).
- 2) All four Gospels mention the burial, but only Mark registers that when Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for permission to remove Jesus' body, Pilate was surprised that Jesus was already dead. So he summoned the centurion to confirm the fact (15:44-45). As soon as Jesus died, the centurion most probably had left the scene, going back to headquarters, leaving the four soldiers to guard the two malefactors. Of course Pilate had experienced the three hours of darkness, and had felt the earthquake, but he was not on the scene. He knew that a person on a cross dies from asphyxiation. The weight of the body pushes the diaphragm against the lungs and he can't breathe. Nailing the feet was a sadistic procedure that prolonged the agony—rather than die they would push against the nail to get a breath. Finally, when too weak to do that they would die for lack of air. (That is why they broke the legs of the two thieves; they then died within a few minutes.) Jesus had been on the cross for six hours, but victims could last several times that long. Whether just then or later, Pilate doubtless got a full report from the centurion. Jesus had given a great shout and then died. Obviously, if you are dying without air, you can't shout! The centurion knew that the cross had not killed Jesus. But what mere human can just tell his spirit to leave?  $2 + 2 = 4$ . Jesus had to be the Son of God.
- 3) Only Matthew mentions the sealing and guarding of the tomb (27:62-66). The chief priests went to Pilate requesting that the tomb be made secure until the third day. To this Pilate replied, "You have a guard; go make it as secure as you can!" His turn of phrase is interesting, "make it as secure as you can". In other words, he was hinting that it would not make any difference. I rather suspect that Pilate believed that Jesus would do what He said.

We learn from Tertullian that Pilate wrote a letter to the emperor suggesting that Jesus be added to the roster of Roman deities. Now to make a suggestion like that involved an element of risk. But evidently Pilate was sufficiently convinced that he took the risk. If I someday meet Pilate in Heaven, I will not be surprised. If his experience with Jesus resulted in his salvation, Pilate would likely suggest a different title for this study: Blessed Pilate—right place, right time!

51) "Projection"

Romans 6:5

I invite attention to Romans 6:5, that I would now translate like this: "Now since we have become united with Him through the projection of His death, we will certainly be so through that of His resurrection as well.” Instead of “through the projection”, most versions have ‘in the likeness’. Although the word ‘likeness’ is certainly in the Greek Text, I regret to have to say that my translation (on the market since 2013) omits the word altogether, reading simply ‘in His death’. I do not remember why I did that; perhaps it was because I could not make sense of ‘likeness’. Just what might ‘the likeness of His death’ mean, and how does that ‘unite’ me with Him?

While translating Romans into Portuguese I bumped my nose on this verse again. In order to translate something, you need to decide what it means. ‘Likeness’ doesn’t make any better sense in Portuguese than it does in English. What to do? I decided to analyze the semantic area covered by the term—the semantic area of a word is determined by the sum of the contexts in which it may appropriately be used. When I am working with the Text, I always ask the Holy Spirit to illumine me as to the intended meaning. In this case, I believe He gave me the word ‘projection’—it remains for others to evaluate whether I was illumined, or not.

Let us analyze the term. The sun projects heat and light, this projecting being a result of something that happens within the sun, its internal combustion. When we are impacted by that heat and light, we share in the result of what happened within the sun. A firearm projects a bullet, so much so that it may be called a projectile. The projection of the bullet is the result of something that happens within the firearm—if you are hit by the bullet, you share in the result. Images that are projected are caused by something that happens within the projector; and so on.

It is only when someone is appropriately impacted by the projection of the results of Christ’s victory on the cross that he becomes united with Him. Now then, being impacted by a projection is one thing; taking advantage of the results that are projected is something else. Although all who live on this planet are impacted by the heat and light that the sun projects, obviously not all make equal use of that heat and light. It is equally obvious that Christians take advantage of the results of Christ’s victory at very different levels.

Consider 2 Peter 1:2-4.

“May grace and peace be multiplied to you through a real knowledge of God and of our Lord Jesus, <sup>3</sup>in that His divine power has granted to us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the real knowledge of the One<sup>a</sup> who called us by glory and excellence, <sup>4</sup>through which<sup>b</sup> He has granted to us such precious and extraordinary promises, so that through these<sup>c</sup> you may become partakers of a divine nature,<sup>d</sup> having escaped the depravity that is in the world because of lust.”

Please note verse 3: “His divine power has granted to us all things pertaining to life and godliness”. These are things that Christ’s victory projects toward <sup>a</sup> Again, we only appropriate the complete provision for “life and godliness” to the degree that we grow in our genuine knowledge of God. As Creator He made everything upon which life depends, including life itself, but our understanding of and appreciation for His provision is measured by our relationship with Him.

<sup>b</sup> “Which” is plural and presumably refers back to “glory and excellence”.

<sup>c</sup> The promises—but of course we have to appropriate them.

<sup>d</sup> There is no definite article with “divine nature”; “become” indicates a process—the more like Christ we become, the more divine will our nature be.

us; it is up to us to take advantage of that bounty. I suppose that few of us would deny that we need help in that direction. That is where the Holy Spirit comes in.

Allow me to give my understanding of the sequence of events involved in receiving new life in Christ:

1) I believe into Jesus. The Text always has ‘believe into’ (εἰς) Jesus or His name, never ‘believe in’ (ἐν). A change of location is involved, from being outside of Christ to being in Him. That change involves commitment.

2) He baptizes me with Holy Spirit. Matthew 3:11, Mark 1:8 and Luke 3:16 all have the Baptizer saying that Jesus will baptize people with Holy Spirit. So when and how does Jesus do it? I take it that after Pentecost He does so from His position at the Father’s right hand (1 Peter 3:21-22), and He does it as soon as a person believes into Him. Cornelius offers a concrete example.<sup>a</sup> (Please see “Baptisms in the Bible” in the Appendix.)

3) Holy Spirit regenerates me, giving me a new nature.

4) Probably at the same time, He baptizes me into Christ’s body. 1 Corinthians 12:12-13 explains that it is the Holy Spirit who baptizes us into Christ: “...so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.” The primary reference here is probably to the Church as being Christ’s body.<sup>b</sup>

5) Then Holy Spirit takes up residence within me, and my body becomes His temple (1 Corinthians 6:19). It is the Holy Spirit within me who helps and enables me to appropriate the benefits that Christ’s victory on the cross projects towards me.

“Now since we have become united with Him through the projection of His death, we will certainly be so through that of His resurrection as well.” I suspect that “united with Him” is supposed to mean more than people tend to think. Just for starters, consider John 14:12: “Most assuredly I say to you, the one believing into me, he too will do the works that I do;<sup>c</sup> in fact he will do greater works than

<sup>a</sup> “To Him all the prophets bear witness that through His name everyone who believes into Him will receive forgiveness of sins.” While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were hearing the message (Acts 10:43-44). This was the crucial bit of information they were waiting for, what they had to do to be saved. The minute Peter said, “believe into Jesus”, they did! And the Holy Spirit came upon them!

<sup>b</sup> A secondary reference could be to Jesus’ physical body. If we become part of Jesus’ body, then whatever happened to that body happened to us. If that body died, we did. If it was buried, so were we. If it was raised from the dead, we will be too. Correction—we already have new life in Christ, and are to live on that basis.

<sup>c</sup> This is a tremendous statement, and not a little disconcerting. Notice that the Lord said, “will do”; not ‘maybe’, ‘perhaps’, ‘if you feel like it’; and certainly not ‘if the doctrine of your church permits it’! If you believe you will do! The verb ‘believe’ is in the present tense, 2nd person singular; if you (sg) are believing you will do; it follows that if you are not doing it is because you are not believing.  $2 + 2 = 4$ . Doing what? “The works that I do.” Well, Jesus preached the Gospel, He taught, He cast out demons, He healed all sorts and sizes of sickness and disease, He raised an occasional dead person, and He performed a variety of miracles (water to wine, walk on water, stop a storm instantaneously, transport a boat several miles instantaneously, multiply food, shrivel a tree—and He implied that the disciples should have stopped the storm and multiplied the food, and He stated that they could shrivel a tree [Peter actually took a few steps on water]). So how about us? The preaching and teaching we can handle, but what about the rest? I once heard the president of a certain Christian college affirm that this verse obviously could not mean what it says because it isn’t happening! Well, in his own experience and in that of his associates I guess it isn’t. But many people today cast out demons and heal, and I personally know someone who has raised a dead person. Miracles are also happening. So how about me? And you?

these,<sup>a</sup> because I am going to my Father.” And then there is Luke 10:19, Ephesians 1:19, Ephesians 3:20, and on, and on.

52) ‘Prophets’

Matthew 2:23

“And upon arriving he settled in a town called Natsareth [Branch-town], so that what was spoken through the prophets should be fulfilled, that He would be called a Natsorean [Branch-man].”

We know from Luke that Natsareth was Joseph’s home—his house and business were waiting for him (although he had been gone for quite a while). The name of the town in Hebrew is based on the consonants נצר (resh, tsadde, nun), but since Hebrew is read from right to left, for us the order is reversed = n, ts, r. This word root means ‘branch’. Greek has the equivalent for ‘ps’ and ‘ks’, but not for ‘ts’, so the transliteration used a ‘dz’ (zeta), which is the voiced counterpart of ‘ts’. But when the Greek was transliterated into English it came out as ‘z’! But Hebrew has a ‘z’, ז (zayin), so in transliterating back into Hebrew people assumed the consonants נזר, replacing the correct tsadde with zayin. This technical information is necessary as background for what follows.

Neither ‘Nazareth’ nor ‘Nazarene’, spelled with a zayin, is to be found in the Old Testament, but there is a prophetic reference to Messiah as the Branch, netser—Isaiah 11:1—and several to the related word, tsemach—Isaiah 4:2, Jeremiah 23:5, 33:15; Zechariah 3:8, 6:12. So Matthew is quite right—the prophets (plural, being at least three) referred to Christ as the Branch. Since Jesus was a man, He would be the ‘Branch-man’, from ‘Branch-town’. Which brings us to the word ‘natsorean’. The familiar ‘Nazarene’ (Ναζαρηνο) [Natsarene] occurs in Mark 1:24, 14:67, 16:6 and Luke 4:34, but here in Matthew 2:23 and in fourteen other places, including Acts 22:8 where the glorified Jesus calls Himself that, the word is ‘Natsorean’ (Ναζωραιος), which is quite different. (Actually, in Acts 22:8 Jesus introduced Himself to Saul as ‘the Natsorean’, which strict Pharisee Saul would understand as a reference to the Messiah.) I have been given to understand that the Natsareth of Jesus’ day had been founded some 100 years before by a Branch family who called it Branch town; they were very much aware of the prophecies about the Branch and fully expected the Messiah to be born from among them—they called themselves Branch-people (Natsoreans). Of course everyone else thought it was a big joke and tended to look down on them. “Can anything good...?”

The difficulty in this case is caused by differing phonologies; the sounds of Hebrew do not match those of Greek, or of English. Since proper names are often just transliterated, as in this case, and a translator will normally follow the phonology of the target language, what happened here was straightforward, without <sup>a</sup> Well now, if we cast out demons, heal and perform miracles, isn’t that enough? Jesus wants more, He wants “greater things” than those just mentioned. Notice again that He said “will do”, not maybe, perhaps, or if your church permits. But what could be ‘greater’ than miracles? This cannot refer to modern technology because in that event such ‘greater things’ would not have been available to the believers during the first 1900 years. Note that the key is in the Lord’s final statement (in verse 12), “because I am going to my Father”. Only if He won could He return to the Father, so He is here declaring His victory before the fact. It is on the basis of that victory that the ‘greater things’ can be performed. Just what are those ‘greater’ things? For my answer, see my outline, “Biblical Spiritual Warfare”, available from my site: www.prunch.org.

malice. We would have felt no inconvenience had Matthew not appealed to “the prophets”. It is the false transliteration going back to Hebrew, from either Greek or English, that creates the seeming difficulty.

53) Pure in Heart

Matthew 5:8

A pure substance, like honey, is unmixed, it is 100% honey. A pure person is without contamination. A pure heart unites both of these qualities. In 2 Chronicles 16:9 Jehovah looks for people “whose heart is loyal to Him”; it is the pure heart, uncontaminated with other gods.

Consider Psalm 24:3-4—“Who may ascend into the hill of Jehovah, or who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart.” The cleanliness of hands spoken of here does not refer to physical dirt, but to moral dirt. Whoever has clean hands is not practicing sin. “Stand in His holy place” refers to being in the presence of God. Hebrews 12:14 declares that without holiness “no one shall see the Lord”. James 4:8 states the matter as an order: “Sinners, cleanse your hands! Double-minded, purify your hearts!” These are the prerequisites for God to draw near to us.

Now then, to actually see God is a devastating experience, but it leads to a higher spiritual level. Consider the case of Job: “I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye see you. Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes” (Job 42:5-6). Hearing about it is one thing, seeing it is another! And also that of Isaiah: “Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of Hosts!” (Isaiah 6:5). Both men, Job and Isaiah, improved spiritually as a result.

Now consider the exhortation in 1 John 3:2-3—“We know that when He is revealed we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is—everyone who has this hope upon him purifies himself, even as He is pure.” I take it that ‘purifying oneself’ means being careful about one’s own holiness, to lessen the shock when we meet the Owner face to face.

Is the zeal for purity something we should develop on our own? 2 Timothy 2:22 implies that it is not: “pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.” We should look for others who have the same spiritual purpose, to give and receive help and encouragement. Hebrews 3:13 is to the point—“Exhort yourselves every day, while it is called ‘today’, so that none of you be hardened through sin’s deceitfulness.”

54) Saved in childbearing

1 Timothy 2:15

In the NKJV, 1 Timothy 2:14-15 reads like this: “And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression. Nevertheless she will be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.” We begin with “she will be saved”; ‘she’ is a pronoun, that stands for a noun, and in the context the reference is clearly to Eve. So how is Eve to be saved? (To render ‘preserved’ is basically meaningless.) Neither Eve nor any other woman is saved by bearing a child. In the Greek Text we find ‘childbirth’, a noun, not a verb. Further, there is a definite article with the noun, so it is ‘the childbirth’. There is only one childbirth that could result in salvation for Eve, and the rest of us, the birth of the Messiah. Of course Eve bore Seth, thus beginning the line that culminated in the Messiah (Genesis 3:15). In the middle of verse 15, and of the sentence, Paul breaks the rules of grammar and switches from ‘she’ to ‘they’—what is true of Eve is applied to all women. Well, strictly speaking, since ‘they’ has no antecedent I suppose it could include men as well, everybody (unless someone wants to argue that women are saved on a different basis than men [which I think would run afoul of other passages]). Still, the paragraph is about women. Any sisters in Christ who have been troubled by this verse, thinking that they must bear a child, may relax on that score.

55) ‘Size’ of faith?

Luke 17:6, Matthew 17:20

In the NKJV, Luke 17:6 reads like this: “If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” Perhaps because of the parables just discussed, I don’t remember ever hearing any other interpretation for this than the size of the faith. (The same holds for Matthew 17:20.) But that usually left me disgruntled: surely my faith was bigger than a seed, but I was never able to make a tree or hill obey me! But looking at the Text again, might the intended meaning of ‘as a mustard seed’ be different? Is not the phrase ambiguous? Could the verb ‘has’ be implied? Well then, what kind of ‘faith’ might a mustard seed have? Albeit so small, it reacts without question to the climactic circumstances, and grows to remarkable proportions. If we reacted similarly, without question, to the Holy Spirit’s promptings, our spiritual ‘climactic circumstances’, we should indeed move mountains, literally. Or to put it another way, a seed has the faith to die, like the Lord Jesus said in John 12:24: “unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone.” In 1 Corinthians 15:31 Paul said that he died daily. How so? Obviously he didn’t die physically; he died to himself, his own ideas and ambitions, so as to embrace God’s will. Dying to self is a prerequisite for moving mountains, because then we will only attempt to do what we see the Father doing (John 5:19).

56) Some related anomalies in Matthew’s genealogy of the Christ

Matthew’s purpose is to demonstrate that Jesus, the Messiah, has a legal right to sit on David’s throne (perhaps answering the Lord’s own question in Matthew 22:42). Although there are many kings in the genealogy, David is the only one who is described as ‘the king’, twice. Since David’s throne has to do with the covenant people, and that covenant began with Abraham, the genealogy does as well. It ends with Joseph, Jesus’ ‘father’ by adoption, since Jesus had none of Joseph’s genes.<sup>a</sup> It was sufficient to Matthew’s purpose to show that Joseph was a linear, and legal, descendant of David, the number of intervening generations was <sup>a</sup> Indeed He could not, because of the prophecies in Jeremiah 22:30 and 36:30, wherein Jeconiah and Jehoiaquim are cursed. However, Jesus received some of David’s genes through Mary (please see the note that accompanies Luke 3:23 in my translation).

---

beside the point. Matthew's Gospel was directed primarily to a Jewish audience, to whom legal rights were important.

Matthew divides his genealogy of the Christ into three groups of fourteen 'generations'. A comparison of his genealogy with the OT record indicates that it is not a 'normal', straightforward genealogy—there are some anomalies.<sup>a</sup> In an effort to understand the purpose behind the anomalies, I will begin with the second group, which may be said to be made up of sovereign kings of Judah. Going back to the OT we discover that there were seventeen such kings, not fourteen. But, Matthew says 'generations', not reigns, and since Ahaziah reigned only one year, Amon only two, and Abijah only three, they can be assimilated into the fourteen generations. That said, however, we next observe that Abijah and Amon are duly included in the list, while Ahaziah is not, followed by Joash and Amaziah. The three excluded names form a group between Jehoram and Uzziah.

Verse eight says that "Joram begot Uzziah," the verb 'begot' being the same one used throughout, but in fact Uzziah was Joram's (Jehoram's) great-great-grandson. So we see that 'begot' refers to a linear descendant, not necessarily a son. We also see that the number 'fourteen' is not being used in a strictly literal sense (whatever the author's purpose may have been). It also appears that 'generation' is not being used in a strictly literal sense. It follows that we are looking at an edited genealogy, edited in accord with the author's purpose.

In an effort to understand why the group of three was excluded, I ask: What might they have in common? They had in common genes from Ahab and Jezebel, as also a direct spiritual and moral influence from them. Ahaziah's mother was Athaliah, daughter of Ahab and Jezebel, so 50% of his genes were from Ahab. 2 Kings 8:27 says that Ahaziah was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab, referring to the mother of Joash, so 75% of his genes were from Ahab. Since Joash married Jehoaddan of Jerusalem, the contamination in Amaziah was down to 37%, and then in Uzziah it was below 20%.<sup>b</sup> This is my best guess as to why that group was excluded; a rebuke after the fact. (Matthew is giving an edited genealogy of the Christ, and Ahab's genes were definitely undesirable.)

We come now to another anomaly:  $14 \times 3 = 42$ , but only 41 names are given; what to do? We begin by noticing that both David and Jeconiah are mentioned on both sides of a 'boundary'. I will consider the second boundary first. Verse eleven says that "Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers," passing over Jehoiakim, Jeconiah's father. But according to the Record, it was Jehoiakim who had "brothers", not Jeconiah. Since we need the real Jeconiah in the third group to make fourteen names, I place Jeconiah in the third group—counting both Jeconiah and Christ we get fourteen names.<sup>c</sup> But why was Jehoiakim omitted? So far as I know, he was the only king who had the perversity to actually cut up a scroll with God's Word and then throw it in the fire, Jeremiah 36:23, and the curse that follows in verse 30 is stated to be a consequence of that act. If we count David in the second group, <sup>a</sup> I believe that Matthew composed his Gospel under divine guidance, which leads me to the conclusion that the anomalies were deliberate, on God's part. Therefore, my attempt to unravel the anomalies tries to understand the Holy Spirit's purpose in introducing them into the record.

<sup>b</sup> It was Dr. Floyd N. Jones who started me thinking along this line (Chronology of the Old Testament: A Return to the Basics, King's Word Press, 1999, pp. 38-42).

<sup>c</sup> Of course, if four people were omitted from the second group, some may also have been omitted from the third, but we have no way of knowing, and it would make no difference to the purpose of this genealogy.

Jehoiakim would make fifteen. But without Jehoiakim we need David in the second group to make fourteen. But that raises another difficulty: we also need David in the first group, to make fourteen. Because of the “brothers”, I consider that the ‘Jeconiah’ before the captivity actually stands for Jehoiakim, whose name is omitted because of his heinous crime in destroying the scroll. In that event, we have fourteen without David, so he can be assigned to the first group.

If the second group is made up of kings, the first group is made up of patriarchs. Acts 2:29 calls David a ‘patriarch’, so we may not disqualify him on that basis, but of course he is better known as a king—indeed he is expressly called that in the genealogy (the only one who is). Although David may be both patriarch and king, he may not be two people, nor two generations. In consequence, I am decidedly uncomfortable with the proposal that David must be placed in both groups—we should neither split him in two, nor double him. To my mind, he fits better in the second group, but that would leave only thirteen for the first one. Enter Rahab and Ruth (and if four people were omitted from the second group, why could not some also be omitted from the first?). However, I tentatively assign David to the first group, making fourteen. Since David is used as the first boundary, and the purpose of the genealogy is to establish Jesus’ right to David’s throne, his name is repeated, but I do not count him in the second group.

There were 340 years between the death of Joshua and the birth of David, and Salmon married Rahab while Joshua was still alive, presumably. That sort of obliges Boaz, Obed and Jesse to do their begetting at age 100, or thereabouts (perhaps not impossible, but certainly improbable). But what if ‘begot’ is being used for a grandson, as we have already seen? (Josiah begot Jeconiah, with no mention of Jehoiakim.) If Athaliah’s genes were enough to disqualify Ahaziah, what about Rahab’s genes? She was not even an Israelite, and worse, she was a prostitute. Now the Law says some rather severe things about prostitutes.<sup>a</sup> “You shall not bring the wages of a harlot or the price of a dog [catamite] to the house of the LORD your God... for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God” (Deuteronomy 23:18). For a priest to marry a harlot would profane his posterity (Leviticus 21:13-15), so how about an ancestor of the Messiah? Of course it is possible for a prostitute to be saved, but why was she even mentioned? And why were Tamar, Ruth, and Uriah’s wife mentioned? Women were not normally included in genealogies.<sup>b</sup>

Now consider Ruth. She was a Moabitess, and according to Deuteronomy 23:3 a Moabite could not enter the assembly of the LORD to the tenth generation. [To me it is an astonishing example of the grace of God that she was included in the Messiah’s line.] She embraced Naomi’s God, but what about her genes? ‘Ten generations’ has to do with genes, not spiritual conversion. Moab was a son of Lot, and the first ‘Moabite’ would be his son, probably a contemporary of Jacob. From Jacob to Salmon we have seven generations, certainly fewer than ten, so Ruth could not enter. Could it be possible that Rahab and Ruth each represent a mis-

<sup>a</sup> However, “the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ” (John 1:17). This being an edited genealogy of the Messiah, perhaps Rahab, and the other women, were included to emphasize the grace of the Messiah.

sing generation? Could that be why they are mentioned?<sup>a</sup> If we divide 300 years by five, then the average begetting age would be 60, certainly within the bounds of reason (and if more than two generations were skipped, the number would be further reduced). I repeat that this is not a 'normal' genealogy. Why did Matthew want three 'equal' groups, and why did he choose 'fourteen'? Perhaps for stylistic (symmetry, balance) and mnemonic reasons. However, my concern has been to address any perceived errors of fact, which an inspired Text should not have.

To conclude: Matthew gives us an edited genealogy of the Messiah. If on the one hand it emphasizes the Messiah's grace, on the other it reflects the Messiah's holiness—He cannot overlook sin and its consequences (the four excluded names in the second group are due to that holiness). If the four women were included as a reflection of the Messiah's grace, it is also true that the consequences of sin are not hidden—the fourth is called simply 'Uriah's wife' (not 'widow', even though Solomon was conceived after the murder of Uriah—David did not marry a widow, he stole someone else's wife).

57) 'Staff, or 'bed'?

Hebrews 11:21 X Genesis 47:31

In the NKJV, Hebrews 11:21 reads like this: "By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning on the top of his staff." It has been alleged that this statement disagrees with Genesis 47:31, that has Jacob leaning on the head of the bed (following the Massoretic Text), rather than the top of his staff. However, close attention to the contexts indicates that Hebrews 11:21 and Genesis 47:31 refer to different occasions, so there is no need to imagine a discrepancy. That said, it may be of interest to note the following. The Hebrew words for 'bed' and 'staff' are spelled with the same three consonants, the difference being in the vowels, that were not written. Thus the Original Hebrew Text was ambiguous here. When the Massorettes added vowel pointing to the Hebrew Text, many centuries after Christ, they chose 'bed'. Long before, the Septuagint had chosen 'staff'.

58) The cursed fig tree

Matthew 21.18-20, Mark 11.12-14, 20-21

First, I will transcribe the texts:

Matthew 21:—<sup>18</sup>Now in the early morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. <sup>19</sup>And seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He went up to it and found nothing on it, just leaves. And He says to it, "May you never again produce fruit!" And forthwith the fig tree started to wither. <sup>20</sup>And seeing it the disciples marveled saying, "How quickly the fig tree became withered!"

Mark 11:—<sup>12</sup>Now the next day, as they were leaving Bethany, He was hungry. <sup>13</sup>And seeing from a distance a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it He found nothing but leaves, because it was not fig season. <sup>14</sup>So Jesus reacted by saying to it, “Let no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples were listening... <sup>20</sup>Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And Peter, remembering, said to Him: “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has dried up!”

<sup>a</sup> Tamar had suffered a severe injustice, and David's sin with Bathsheba was unusually perverse (cowardly murder), but Rahab was probably a victim of circumstances, and Ruth was certainly not to blame for having been born a Moabitess.

As Mark points out (Mark 11:13), it was not fig season, but a tree with leaves might have some dried figs. Since dried figs are very good eating, any visible figs would have been eaten long since (the tree was near the road). In fact, Jesus was certainly not the first person to come up with this idea, so there was little chance of Him finding any figs. Before commenting on Jesus’ reaction, let us clarify what happened to the fig tree.

If we only had Matthew’s account, we could understand that everything happened immediately, right there. That is, that the tree dried up immediately before their eyes, causing the disciples to react. But Mark 11:20 makes it clear that the disciples’ reaction did not take place until the next morning, 24 hours later. Matthew 21:19 says that after Jesus spoke the fig tree began to wither. Strictly speaking, the Text says that the sap was cut off; the result would not be visible right away. But as the sap comes from the roots, the tree dried up from the roots, just as Mark 11.20 says! If Peter was the first to speak, the others certainly did too.

Matthew and Mark record what Jesus said differently, but I understand that Jesus actually said both things, one after the other. But how may we understand Jesus’ attitude? It was out of season—it was not the tree’s fault that it had no figs! Was Jesus unfair for cursing her? Well, to begin, being the Creator, Jesus had the right to do as He pleased with His creation. But it seems to me more likely that it was a prophetic act, the fig tree representing Israel—indeed, the parable of the fig tree in Luke 13:6-9 seems to me to tend in that direction; the owner looked for fruit for three years, without finding any, and since the tree continued without bearing, it was cut down. Third, Jesus took the opportunity to give the disciples a lesson in faith.

59) The ‘Legion’ and the pigs; where was it?

We need to start with the evidence supplied by the Greek manuscripts. We encounter the episode in three of the Gospels.

Matthew 8:28: γεργεσηνων 98% (Gergesenes) AV, NKJV γαδαρηνων 2% (Gadarenes) NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

NIV footnote: “Some manuscripts Gergesenes; others Gerasenes.”

Mark 5:1: γαδαρηνων 95.5% (Gadarenes) AV, NKJV
γεργεσηνων 4.1% (Gergesenes) γερασωνων 0.3% (Gerasenes) NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.

NIV footnote: “Some manuscripts Gadarenes; other manuscripts Gergesenes.”

Luke 8:26: γαδαρηνων 97% (Gadarenes) AV, NKJV
 γεργεσηνων 2% (Gergesenes) TEV
 γερασηνων 0.3% (Gerasenes) NIV, NASB, LB, etc.

NIV footnote: "Some manuscripts Gadarenes; other manuscripts Gergesenes; also in verse 37."

Luke 8:37: γαδαρηνων 96% (Gadarenes) AV, NKJV
 γεργεσηνων 3.5% (Gergesenes) TEV
 γερασηνων 0.3% (Gerasenes) NIV, NASB, LB, etc.

I will begin with Mark. Jesus arrived at "the region [not 'province'] of the Gadarenes." Gadara was the capital city of the Roman province of Perara, located some six miles from the Sea of Galilee. Since Mark was writing for a Roman audience,<sup>a</sup> "the region of the Gadarenes" was a perfectly reasonable description of the site. Lamentably, the eclectic Greek text currently in vogue follows about five Greek manuscripts of objectively inferior quality (against at least 1,700 better ones) in reading 'Gerasenes' (to be followed by NIV, NASB, LB, TEV, etc.). The NIV footnote is dishonest: to use 'some' to describe over 1,600 manuscripts against five is a dishonest use of the Queen's English (to use 'others' to refer to some 60 is acceptable).

Luke also has Jesus arriving at "the region of the Gadarenes." Since he was writing for a Greek audience, he follows Mark's example. Again NIV has a dishonest footnote. It is most likely that 'Gerasa' is a fiction, a 'place' that never existed. On the other hand, 'Gergesa' certainly did exist, although we no longer know the exact location. As I will explain while discussing Matthew, below, I have no doubt that it was a village near the spot where Jesus landed.

Matthew clearly wrote 'Gergesenes' rather than 'Gadarenes'. Since he was writing for a Jewish audience, and many Galileans would be quite familiar with the Sea of Galilee, he provided a more localized description. Further, try to picture the events in your mind. Do you suppose that the swineherds ran six miles to Gadara? The populace would certainly not run the six miles back. All of that would have taken entirely too long. To me it is obvious that there was a village close by, probably within half a mile, called 'Gergesa'. It was to that village that the swineherds ran, told their story, and brought the residents back. Galileans familiar with the Sea of Galilee would certainly recognize 'Gergesa'.

Not only does Matthew name a different place, he affirms that there were really two demonized men, whereas Mark and Luke mention only one. As a former tax collector, numerical precision was important to Matthew. Neither Mark nor Luke use the number 'one'; they merely commented on the more prominent of the two, the one who wanted to go with Jesus. I understand that indeed there were two of them.

<sup>a</sup> Although, as explained elsewhere, I understand that Matthew was published first, and Mark probably had a copy open before him as he wrote, yet he deliberately changed Matthew's 'Gergesenes' to 'Gadarenes'—to his intended Roman audience 'Gergesa' would be unknown, while some would indeed know about 'Gadara'.

60) The Mercy Seat

The Ark of the Testimony was a box made of acacia wood, overlaid with pure gold, in and out. It was about 45 inches long, 27 inches wide and 27 inches high. That box had a lid, of the same length and width, made of pure gold. That lid is generally called the mercy seat;<sup>a</sup> at each end there was a cherub looking in, also of pure gold, of one piece with the lid.<sup>b</sup> That lid was the place where propitiation was effected, the place where God's holiness, justice, love and mercy met together to deal with man's sin. But at first God said to Moses, "there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the testimony" (Exodus 25:22). Apparently this was a privilege that only Moses had, because after that only the high priest could go into the Most Holy Place, and even so, only once a year. The entire chapter 16 of Leviticus spells out the required procedure, whose purpose was to make atonement for all the sins of the people. The detailed procedure emphasized the difficulty surrounding a propitiating of God's outraged character, outraged by man's sin. Access to the mercy seat was protected by several barriers, the final one being the heavy curtain that separated the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. Anyone who attempted to enter in an unauthorized manner died on the spot.

Those rules were not changed until the Lamb of God achieved the ultimate propitiation—it took an infinite Being to pay an infinite price. God Himself tore that curtain in two, top to bottom, symbolizing in a dramatic way that access to God was now potentially available to all. But there is more to the story than that, as Hebrews makes clear. "Without shedding of blood there is no remission" (Hebrews 9:22). This statement points back to Leviticus 17:11, "For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul". Note that for blood to be on the altar it has to be shed—someone, or something, has to die. Recall that "the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). In the beginning, the blood of animals was used, but that was only a temporary, stopgap, measure, "because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins" (Hebrews 10:4). So where does that leave us?

For an Eternal Being, time is irrelevant, because He knows the end from the beginning.<sup>c</sup> For God Himself to set up and decree a stopgap procedure, He must have had a permanent solution waiting for the appointed time. Indeed, this is expressly stated in 1 Peter 1:18-21: "you were redeemed... with the precious blood of Christ, as of a faultless and pure lamb; 20 who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world,<sup>d</sup> but was revealed in these last times for your sake." The Lamb of God was the permanent solution. But that permanent solution was <sup>a</sup> The KJV called the lid the 'mercy seat', and that designation continues in general use. The term 'propitiatory', used as a noun, would perhaps be more precise.

<sup>c</sup> As the glorified Jesus said in Revelation 22:13, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, the First and the Last." How could He know that He was the 'end' and the 'last', if He had not been there? I suspect that time and space may be limited to our solar system, being especially relevant to our planet, as the home of the human race. Without time and space it is impossible to measure the universe.

<sup>d</sup> This sort of 'blows my mind'—the Text is saying that the Lamb, with blood shed, was so known before the creation of our race and planet; which means that the Creator knew, before creating, what would happen and the terrible redemption price He Himself would have to pay, yet He went ahead anyway. Wow!

not tied to the Ark of the Testimony, with its mercy seat, that was prepared by Moses.<sup>a</sup> God told Moses repeatedly to be sure to make everything “according to the pattern” that he had received on the mountain (Exodus 25:40). And why was God so insistent? Because that tabernacle with its furnishings was a “copy and shadow of the heavenly things” (Hebrews 8:5).<sup>b</sup> This would appear to mean that there is a ‘mercy seat’ in Heaven! Is this not clearly implied by Hebrews 9:11-12? “Christ entered once for all into the real Holy Places, having obtained eternal redemption—He had come as High Priest of the good things that are about to be, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 and with His own blood, not that of goats and calves.” ‘Holy Places’ being plural, the phrase must include the Most Holy Place, which contains but one piece of furniture, whose principal component is the mercy seat. Christ entered the heavenly Most Holy Place, as eternal high priest, carrying His own blood. And what did He do with that blood? He applied it to the heavenly mercy seat, “having obtained eternal redemption,” “so that those who have been called may receive the promised eternal inheritance” (Hebrews 9:15).

But even that is not the whole story. The shed blood of God’s Lamb also served for something else; it served to purify the heavenly things (Hebrews 9:23)! But how could anything in Heaven need purifying? Well, is Satan not a contamination, everywhere he goes? Job 1:6 and 2:1 state plainly that Satan presented himself before the LORD in Heaven, along with other high-ranking angels. If I understand Revelation 12:7-12 correctly, Satan still has access to God’s throne:

War was declared in heaven; Michael and his angels were to wage war with the dragon; so the dragon and his angels made war,<sup>c</sup> but he was not strong enough; neither was there any place found for him in heaven any more. <sup>9</sup>So the great dragon was expelled, that ancient serpent, who is called Slanderer and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world; he was thrown into the earth,<sup>d</sup> and his angels were expelled with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a loud voice in the heaven saying: “Now the salvation and the power have come,<sup>e</sup> even the Kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser of our brothers<sup>f</sup> has been thrown down, who accused them before <sup>a</sup> In passing, remember that the ‘box’ contained three items: 1) the stone tablets, 2) the gold pot full of manna and 3) Aaron’s rod that budded—all were covered by the ‘lid’, the mercy seat. Have you ever considered the significance of those three items? Allow me to suggest the following possibility: 1) the stone tablets represent God’s written Revelation to mankind, and its purpose is to orient our conduct; 2) the manna represents God’s provision for our physical needs; 3) Aaron’s rod represents God’s authentication of His plan of salvation, or redemption—His provision for our spiritual need. All three ultimately depend upon the definitive propitiation provided by God’s Lamb.

<sup>b</sup> Revelation 15:5 refers to “the sanctuary of the Tabernacle of the testimony in the heaven”.

<sup>c</sup> The dragon knew that Michael had received the order, so he decided to get in the first blow.

<sup>d</sup> “Into the earth”, including its atmosphere. The idea seems to be that at this point Satan is confined to this planet. From the content of the following verses, I take it that Satan’s expulsion occurs in the middle of the seven-year period. So he is still in heaven accusing us (accusing us of what? There would be no point in bringing false accusations, so we must be providing Satan with ‘ammunition’—not a nice thought!).

<sup>e</sup> Wait a minute! If it is only “Now”, where have the Kingdom and Authority been in the meantime? As long as a government is being challenged, its rule is not complete or tranquil. I find it instructive that Satan still has sufficient power to wage war, in Heaven!

<sup>f</sup> “Our brothers”—I wonder who is speaking, since the ‘brothers’ are saved by the blood of the lamb.

our God day and night. <sup>11</sup>And they conquered<sup>a</sup> him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not cherish their lives, even up to death. <sup>12</sup>Therefore rejoice, O heavens, yes, you who are dwelling in them!<sup>b</sup> Woe to the earth and the sea! Because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has little time.”

Once Satan is expelled from Heaven, the final cleansing will take place. According to our timeframe, the Lamb’s propitiation has already occurred, while the expelling of Satan is still in the future. But to an Eternal Being our timeframe is irrelevant. The heavenly things have been cleansed.

The eternal mercy seat, with the infinite propitiation, resides in the heavenly Tabernacle. It is there that God’s holiness, justice, love and mercy met together<sup>c</sup> and formulated the definitive solution to man’s sin, and all other consequences of Lucifer’s rebellion. It is that mercy seat that guarantees the Plan of Redemption, with all its ramifications. Oh praise our God! Surely a doxology is in order.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost!

How many sermons have you heard, or preached, on the subject of the heavenly mercy seat, or even the earthly one? I would suggest for your consideration that this has been a serious omission. The mercy seat should be at the center of any and every exposition of God’s Plan of Redemption. Perhaps then people would not be so careless about their relationship with the Sovereign Creator!

61) The Natsorean

Every version that I remember seeing misleads the reader by obliterating one of the Lord’s titles, a title that the glorified Jesus Himself used when dealing with Saul of Tarsus on the Damascus road. When Saul asked, “Who are you, Lord?”, He answered, “I am Jesus the Natsorean, whom you are persecuting” (Acts 22:8). Most versions at this place render ‘Jesus of Nazareth’, while some have ‘Jesus the Nazarene’. For an explanation of why I use ‘ts’ instead of ‘z’, please see my article, “Prophets’ in Matthew 3:23” (www.prunch.org).

The familiar ‘Nazarene’ [Ναζαρηνός] occurs four times: Mark 1:24, 14:67, 16:6 and Luke 4:34. ‘Jesus the Nazarene’ would appear to be another way of saying ‘Jesus of/from Nazareth’, and some versions so translate the phrase. Unfortunately, the versions do the same with ‘Natsorean’ [Ναζωπαίος], which I consider to be a serious error. Just looking at the two Greek words, they are obviously different. The Hebrew root is netser, ‘branch’, a reference to Isaiah 11.1 (‘Nazareth’ is a transliteration of the Hebrew name). Going back to Acts 22:8, why would Jesus waste time with the name of a town? He was dealing with a highly instructed <sup>a</sup> That is what the Text says. Comparing 6:11 and 7:13 (Revelation), perhaps it is necessary for a certain number of God’s servants to be willing to die for the Cause to bring about the accuser’s expulsion.

<sup>c</sup> God’s holiness alone could not resolve the problem, nor His justice alone, nor His love alone, nor His mercy alone—it took all four, working together.

Pharisee; He introduced Himself as David's Branch, the Messiah—a reference that Saul would immediately understand.

'Natsorean' occurs fifteen times: Matthew 2:23, 26:71; Mark 10:47; Luke 18:37, 24:19; John 18:5,7, 19:19; Acts 2:22, 3:6, 4:10, 6:14, 22:8, 24:5 and 26:9. All have the definite article, except the first one—the Natsorean; except that in Acts 24:5 Felix speaks of 'the sect of the Natsoreans'. Speaking of Felix, his use of the term 'sect' is instructive. Aside from Acts 22:8, that I have already discussed, I consider that John 19:19 deserves special comment. The title above the cross read: This is Jesus the Natsorean, the King of the Jews. Pilate had evidently researched Jesus quite well (anyone with a large following is a potential problem); I believe that he knew precisely what he was doing when he used 'Natsorean', just as he knew precisely what he was doing when he put 'the King of the Jews'. For more on the subject of Pilate, please see my article: "Poor Pilate—wrong place, wrong time" (www.prunch.org).

Whatever version of the Bible you are using, I would urge you to correct it at the references mentioned above, so you know when a title is being used. 'The Natsorean' needs to be added to any list of the Lord's titles.

62) The 'smallest' seed?

Mark 4:31-32, Matthew 13:32

In the NKJV, Mark 4:31-32 reads like this: "It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

The rendering 'the smallest seed in the world/earth' is unfortunate and misleading. The Text has 'of those on the ground', repeating the phrase above it, only eliding the verb. The Lord was not making a global botanical statement, as the next verse makes clear—He was referring to vegetables planted in a garden in His day and in that area, and of such herbs mustard had the smallest seed. To object that tobacco and orchid seeds are smaller is beside the point. My translation reads like this: "It is like a mustard seed, that when it is sown on the ground is the smallest of all such seeds, yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden herbs and produces big branches, so that the birds of the air are able to rest in its shade." The verb I have rendered 'to rest' is a compound form. The noun root refers to a temporary shelter, like a tent or a hut. The verbal form means to make use of such a shelter. Here the preposition kata is prefixed to the verb, emphasizing, as I suppose, the temporariness. The Text says that the birds can use the shade, not the branches. But shade moves with the sun, and with the wind—how can you build a nest in something that keeps moving around (the Text actually says 'under its shade')? My comments also serve for Matthew 13:32, except that there the birds are resting in the 'branches', rather than the shade. The verb is the same, and I handle it the same way, 'rest' rather than 'nest', although 'nest' is possible.

63) The theory of evolution

All genuine science is based on the principle of cause and effect—we observe an effect and try to isolate the cause; and it is logically impossible for a cause to produce an effect larger or more complex than itself. Any human being who is both honest and intelligent, when confronted with the observable universe with its incredible organization and complexity, is obliged to conclude that there must be a CAUSE, a Cause with intelligence and power beyond our understanding—to refuse to do so is to be perverse. Since we have personality, He must also.

The only alternative to a Cause would be chance working with nothing. But it is stupidly, ridiculously impossible that chance, working with nothing, could produce anything.  $10 \times 0 = 0$ ,  $1,000 \times 0 = 0$ ,  $1,000,000 \times 0 = 0$ , and so on; no matter how many times you multiply zero, the result is always zero. If you multiply zero by something every day during five billion (or trillion) years, the result will always be zero. That chance plus nothing produced the universe is stupidly, ridiculously impossible. Even if one starts with the superstition of a 'big bang' of inorganic (without life) material, where did life come from. [I bypass the question of where all that inorganic material came from.]

The science of physics tells us that the inorganic [no life] known universe can be described with up to 350 information 'bits'; but it takes 1,500 information 'bits' to describe the smallest protein—it is so small that it cannot live by itself, but it is part of a living system. So how could evolution produce life? Where could chance find 1,150 'bits' of new information, if in the whole universe there were only 350? Not only that, the 'e-coli' bacteria takes about seven million 'bits', and one human cell takes around twenty billion 'bits'! The theory of evolution, to explain the origin of life, is stupidly, ridiculously impossible!!

The science of genetics, with its genome projects, has discovered that a random change of only three nucleotides is fatal to the organism. Consider the chimpanzee, presumably man's 'nearest relative': the genetic difference is said to be about 1.6%. That may not sound like much, but it is around 48 million nucleotide differences, and a random change of only three nucleotides is fatal to the animal—it follows that it is simply impossible for a chimp to evolve until it becomes a man (some 15 million chimps would perish in the attempt, never getting beyond the first three nucleotides!). Each different type of animal had to be created separately, just as Genesis affirms. Any evolutionary hypothesis, to explain the different types of animals (not to mention birds, insects, fish, plants, etc.) is scientifically impossible, stupidly, ridiculously impossible.

The so-called 'geologic column' is a fiction. In Australia there are fossilized tree trunks, upright, passing through various layers of sedimentary rock, that according to the 'geologic column' represent many millions of years—stupidly, ridiculously impossible! In the U.S. there is a high plateau (mesa) with a layer of older rock on top of a layer of newer rock (according to the 'column'), but the area involved is so extensive that no known force would be able to overcome the friction caused by an attempt to have one layer slide over the other layer (the argument that is used)—this also is impossible for the 'geologic column'.

Some 60 miles southwest of Dallas, Texas, there is a town called Glen Rose, that is close to the Paluxy River. The Dinosaur Valley State Park is located there, because the river bed has tracks of two types of dinosaur: three-toed and four-toed. Upriver from the park a paleontologist named Dr. Carl Baugh bought a significant amount of land on both sides of the river, so he could do his own excavations. On his property he has a museum that I myself have visited. In the same layer of sedimentary rock he encountered the following: two trilobite fossils, that evolutionists say existed 550 million years ago; a fossilized moss called 'lapi-dodendron', that evolutionists say existed 250 million years ago; a complete fossil of a dinosaur called 'acrocantinasaurus' (40 feet long), that evolutionists say existed 100 million years ago; seven tracks of a huge ‘cat’, that evolutionists say existed 6 million years ago; 57 human footprints (some being inside a dinosaur track); the fourth finger of a woman’s left hand, fossilized; and even a pre-deluvian iron hammer (its iron does not rust, being 96.6% iron and 2.7% chlorine)—all of that in the very same layer of sedimentary rock!

It follows that a geologic column does not exist; it is a perverse invention perpetrated by dishonest and perverse persons. All those fossils were produced by Noah’s Flood, about 4,365 years ago; otherwise, how can you explain that all those things are in the very same layer of rock? (We may note in passing that it is common for defenders of the ‘geologic column’ to argue in a circle: the age of a rock layer is determined by the fossils it contains, while the age of a fossil is determined by the rock layer where it is found!)

Furthermore, the earth is young. In the royal observatory in England they have been measuring the force of the magnetic field that surrounds the earth each year since 1839. They have found that the magnetic force is diminishing at a constant rate, or geometric progression: plotting the yearly values on a graph, they form a cline. This means that it is possible to project the line in both directions. If we project the line to a point 10,000 years ago, the magnetic force would be so strong that it would crush all life on the planet. It follows that any theory that requires millions, or billions of years is stupidly, ridiculously impossible.

The Mississippi river dumps 80,000 tons of sediment into the gulf of Mexico every hour! All you have to do is measure the delta to see that the earth is young. The diameter of the sun is diminishing at the rate of about 40 inches every hour. Projecting backwards for 100,000 years the sun would be twice its present size—it would fry everything on the earth’s surface; there would be no life. Evolutionists say that granite took 300 million years to crystalize, but within granite there are polonium ‘haloes’ with half-lives of minutes, or even seconds. Granite had to be created instantaneously. Symbiotic plants and insects had to be created at the same time, and require 24-hour days. And so on.

In short, the evolutionary hypothesis of origins is scientifically impossible; stupidly, ridiculously impossible. A number of decades ago the scholar Sir Frederick Hoyle was contracted to evaluate the scientific probability that life could have appeared on the planet by chance (he had unlimited funding and free access to libraries). He arrived at the following conclusion: it would be easier for a whirlwind to pass through a junk yard and a perfect Boeing 747 come flying out of the other side than for life to have appeared on our planet by chance. Well, well, well, that life could have originated by an evolutionary process is obviously, stupidly, ridiculously impossible. [By the way, any questions about the morality of the Creator have nothing to do with science.]

64) The wedding in Cana

John 2:1-11

In John 1:43 Jesus decided to leave for Galilee, since He was in Judea, on the east side of the Jordan River, more or less opposite Jericho, probably. In 2:13 Jesus returned to Judea, but to Jerusalem, because of the Passover. The interval would have been two or three weeks. Well, each ‘leg’ of the trip must have been at least 130 km, on foot, which allows us to deduce that the reason for the trip was of some importance.

“On the third day a wedding took place in Cana of Galilee” (2:1). The third day counting from when? 1:19-28 happened on one day; 1:29-34 happened the next day (2nd); 1:35-42 happened the following day (3rd); 1:43-51 happened the day after that (4th). So the third day here should be counted from the last day mentioned (1:43-51), although it may be included (which is likely, in Jewish thought). The wedding feast began that day, but such feasts often lasted for several days. Jesus and His disciples (four?) had a walk of about 130 km (probably): 90 up the Jordan Valley (relatively flat and straight) and 40 through more rugged terrain. Since everyone made their journeys on foot, and therefore were used to it, they could easily complete the journey in two days. Therefore, they would have arrived there by the end of the first day of the party (if not earlier).

Jesus’ family lived in Natsareth, which was perhaps 30 km from Cana, in a straight line, but the terrain was rugged. The entire family was at the wedding (2:12), but the lack of any mention of Joseph permits us to understand that he was already dead. Therefore, as the eldest son, Jesus was the head of the family. Mary was in a position to give orders to the employees (2:5). Adding it all up, I come to the conclusion that the bride was one of Jesus’ half-sisters,<sup>a</sup> which would give the mother, Mary, the authority to give instructions; it would also explain her concern about the lack of wine. It would also explain what prompted Jesus to undertake such a journey, only to return with little delay.

A wedding feast would usually last several days. The supply of food and drink would not run out until near the end, in the event. If Mary was the bride’s mother, we can understand her concern about the lack of wine, since it would be a disgrace to the family. But why appeal to Jesus, even though He was the head of the family? What could He do? It seems to me that she was asking for a miracle, at least judging by the order she gave to the employees; in fact, it would be the only possible solution. Jesus’ answer, that it was not yet time, goes in the same direction. But why, then, did He choose to act anyway? I do not know, the Text does not say; but I offer the following suggestion: Jesus well knew that the function of being His mother brought humiliation to Mary, because the gossips would not forgive the fact that she had married already pregnant (and even though Joseph had assumed him as a son, the physical aspect of Jesus didn’t match)<sup>b</sup>—Jesus understood that he owed her a special consideration. Besides, Jesus owed the family a great deal, and it would be up to Him to avoid embarrassing her, if possible.

The fact is that Jesus acted and produced around 600 liters of wine—600 liters of wine! Well, if there were 100 people at the feast, that would make six liters per person! Who would drink six liters (near the end of the feast)? And the wine was of outstanding quality. My conclusion is that Jesus gave the new couple a nice gift—most of the wine would be left over, and could be sold later. Because it was very good, the wine would bring a good price. I find it curious that the first miraculous sign was not a healing one, but a domestic one. He ‘saved the feast’, saving the family from a disgrace, and He made a significant contribution to the

<sup>a</sup> In Matthew 13:54-56 the inhabitants of Natsareth name Mary as the mother of Jesus; James, Joseph, Simon and Judas as His brothers (half-brothers); and they spoke of “all their sisters” (half-sisters). The use of ‘all’ suggests more than two, and the married woman in Cana would no longer be there. After Jesus was born, Joseph and Mary had a normal family.

<sup>b</sup> John 8:41 is inserted in the midst of a heated argument between Jesus and the Pharisees. They had researched everything about Jesus thoroughly. They knew that Jesus was born six months after Joseph and Mary’s marriage, and was born normal size. Two plus two equals four.

new couple's happiness—to them, at least, Jesus would always be remembered as a benefactor.

65) 'This is', or 'you are'?

Matthew 3:17 X Mark 1:11, Luke 3:22

In the NKJV, Matthew 3:17 reads like this: "And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased'." And Mark 1:11 reads like this: "Then a voice came from heaven, 'You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased'." Luke also has "You are". So what did the Voice actually say? In a manner similar to what happened on the Day of Pentecost, I conclude that each hearer received his own interpretation, or message. Matthew records the event from John's perspective: he heard, "This is..." Mark and Luke record the event from Jesus' perspective: He heard, "You are..." At Pentecost, with over a dozen languages being spoken at once, even if one of them was yours, it would require a personal miracle in your ear to enable you to extract your message from the welter of sound.

66) 'Valley', or ravine'?

Luke 3:5

In the NKJV, Luke 3:4-5 reads like this: "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord; make His paths straight. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight and the rough ways smooth..." Does this mean that the surface of the earth will be flattened out? My translation reads like this: "A voice calling out: 'Prepare the way of the Lord in the wilderness, make His paths straight. <sup>5</sup>Every ravine will be filled up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled; the crooked parts of the roads will be straightened out, and the rough parts will be smoothed out;..." The reference is to Isaiah 40:3. Hebrew poetry, and prose, makes heavy use of parallel or synonymous statements. From the context in Isaiah it seems clear that "in the wilderness" goes with the verb "make straight", not "call out". But why a straight road in the wilderness? Any road facilitates the movement of people and goods, but a straight road through accidented terrain is a major asset, and Jerusalem is surrounded by accidented terrain. I render 'ravine' according to the normal meaning of the Greek word here; 'ravine' is also one of the normal meanings of the corresponding Hebrew word in Isaiah. Actually, Isaiah 40:3-4 describes the construction of a modern super highway. Verse 5 describes what happens where the highway passes, not all over the place.

67) When did Jesus leave Annas?

John 18:24

After Jesus was taken prisoner in the Garden, only John mentions that He was taken first to Annas; all the others only mention His being taken to Caiaphas, where the recorded proceedings took place, although of the three only Matthew actually names him (Matthew 26:57, Mark 14:53, Luke 22:54).

So far, so good, but the difficulty begins with John 18:15, that takes up Peter's denials without further ado; but Peter's denials took place at Caiaphas' house, not Annas'. Then verses 19-23 have the high priest questioning Jesus, still at Caiaphas'. Then comes verse 24: NKJV reads, "Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest"; NIV reads, "Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest" (but a footnote offers, "Now Annas had sent him"); TEV reads, "So Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the High Priest"; while NASB reads, "Annas therefore sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest". All four of these versions have John 18:15-23 occurring in Annas' house, rather than that of Caiaphas—the NIV footnote points to the correct rendering.

It would appear that all four of the versions follow the so-called 'critical' (read 'eclectic') text, that follows some 9% of the Greek manuscripts in adding a conjunction, 'then' or 'therefore' (ouv), after the initial verb, thereby creating the 'problem'. Following the 90%, including the best line of transmission, I render, "(Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)". The use of parenthetical comments, or historical/cultural asides, is standard procedure for John; for a partial list see: 1:44, 2:6, 4:2,9,44, 6:4,64, 7:50, 9:14, 11:2,18-19,30-31, 12:1,6,16, 13:2,11,28-29 (there are at least a dozen more). I take it that verse 24 here is just one more instance; it is as if at this point John realizes that the reader could think that the proceedings were still going on at Annas' house. 8:25 resumes with Peter's denials. Following the correct Text, and the correct understanding thereof, John's record is not at variance with that of the other three Gospels.

68) When is an apostle?

The beginning

The basic meaning of the term is 'sent one'; in John 13:16 it is used in that way. But within the incipient Christian Church it came to have a specialized meaning: an office or function characterized by special spiritual authority. It began with the twelve disciples who were personally chosen by Jesus; after His resurrection they received the designation, 'apostles' (but the Iscariot had lost his place, leaving eleven). With the exception of four verses (Luke 11:49, John 13:16, Acts 14:4 and 14) I would say that all the occurrences of the term in the four Gospels and Acts, about thirty-five, refer to that group, as do Galatians 1:17, 19; 2 Peter 3:2; Jude 17 and Revelation 21:14. The purpose of this note is to enquire whether the NT signals any further uses of the term.

Acts 1:13-26 records Peter's initiative to replace the Iscariot. The Text does not say that it was God's idea; and when they asked God to choose between the two candidates, they did not give Him the option of saying "neither". The Text affirms that Matthias was numbered with the Eleven apostles, but he receives no further mention.

Paul (erstwhile Saul of Tarsus) repeatedly refers to himself as an apostle: Romans 1:1, 11:13, 1 Corinthians 1:1, 9:1, 2, 15:9, 2 Corinthians 1:1, Galatians 1:1, Ephesians 1:1, Colossians 1:1, 1 Thessalonians 2:6, 1 Timothy 1:1, 2:7, 2 Timothy 1:1, 11 and Titus 1:1. Luke refers to Paul as an apostle in Acts 14:4 and 14. Jesus personally chose Paul, returning from Heaven to do so. Aside from the Eleven, Paul was the only one personally designated by Jesus.

Jesus Himself is called "the Apostle" of our confession in Hebrews 3:1. Peter calls himself an apostle in 1 Peter 1:1 and 2 Peter 1:1, but of course he is one of the Twelve. James, the half-brother of Jesus, became the 'big boss' in Jerusalem, and evidently was regarded as an apostle—1 Corinthians 15:7 and Galatians

1:19. Luke refers to Barnabas as an apostle: Acts 14:4 and 14. Paul seems to refer to Silvanus and Timothy as apostles: 1 Thessalonians 2:6. It is possible to interpret Romans 16:7 in the same way with reference to Andronicus and Junias. I believe those are the only ones who are actually named.

The discussion up to this point was necessary to provide the background for the questions that are the occasion for this study: did ‘apostle’ become an established office or function for the ongoing life of the Church, until the return of Christ, and if so, how is an apostle to be designated or recognized? It is my intention to analyze every verse where the term is used, and I will begin with those that may be purely historical, going on from those already dealt with.

In 2 Corinthians 11:5 and 12:11 Paul compares himself to ‘the most eminent apostles’, which must be limited to his contemporaries. 1 Corinthians 9:5 also must be limited to his contemporaries. 1 Corinthians 15:5 and 7 refer to physical appearances of the resurrected Jesus before His ascension (of necessity historical). 1 Corinthians 4:9 is a little different: “I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men ” (read also verses 10-13). In the context, Paul is complaining about the way he has been treated by some in Corinth, but in this verse he seems actually to be blaming God for the way he has been treated! I suppose that the use of the word ‘last’ would be a comparison with God’s servants in prior ages. Paul is not talking about the future of the Church in this passage, and if we only had this text on the subject, we would have to conclude that to be an apostle was not a good thing.

And now we come to Luke 11:49-51, a most interesting text. “Therefore the wisdom of God also said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,’ that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.” Jesus is speaking, deriding the lawyers. His citation of “the wisdom of God” appears to have no match in the OT, so what was His meaning? In 1 Corinthians 1:24 Paul refers to Christ as ‘the wisdom of God’. In Matthew 23:34 Jesus said, “I send you prophets”, so here Jesus may be referring to Himself as ‘the wisdom of God’. However that may be, if the “required of this generation” was fulfilled in 70 AD, as I suppose, then the ‘apostles’ here are also historical.

I will now consider the other places where the phrase ‘prophets and apostles’ occurs, albeit with the terms in reverse order: Ephesians 2:20 and 3:5, and Revelation 18:20.

Ephesians 2:19-22—“So then, you are no longer strangers and aliens, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of God’s household, <sup>20</sup>built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone; <sup>21</sup>in whom the whole building, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; <sup>22</sup>in whom you also are being built together to become a habitation of God in spirit.” The truth that Paul is expounding is that in Christ Gentiles join Jews as “fellow citizens” and “members of God’s household”, part of “the whole building”. In what sense can that “building” be built upon “the foundation of the apostles and prophets”? Presumably “prophets” is short for the writings that make up the Old Testament Scriptures, or Canon. The Faith is based on revealed Truth, not individual people. Analogously, presumably “apostles” is short for the writings that make up the New Testament Scriptures, or Canon.

Again, the Faith is based on revealed Truth, not individual people. Our “growing into a holy temple” (verse 21) depends upon the Holy Spirit and His Sword (not individuals whom God used). Note that Paul mentions the ‘apostles’ first. In any case, the ‘apostles’ here are historical.

Ephesians 3:1-7—“For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—<sup>2</sup>surely you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup>how that by revelation He made known to me the ‘secret’<sup>a</sup> (as I have written briefly already, <sup>4</sup>with reference to which, when you read, you can understand my insight into Christ’s secret), <sup>5</sup>which in different generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by Spirit<sup>b</sup> to His holy apostles and prophets: <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are joint-heirs, of the same body, and fellow partakers of His promise in the Christ through the Gospel, <sup>7</sup>of which I became a servant according to the gift of God’s grace, the gift given to me according to the outworking of His power.” The use of “now” in verse 5 indicates that Paul is referring to the NT Canon. An apostle, upon receiving a revelation, would also function as a prophet, but people like Mark and Luke were prophets without being apostles. I take the ‘apostles’ here to be historical.

Revelation 18:20—“Rejoice over her, O heaven, yes you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced your judgment against her!”<sup>c</sup> Perhaps this verse should be connected to 18:6-7, and in that event the judgment was pronounced in faith. But just who are these apostles? I take it that “saints and apostles and prophets” is in apposition to “heaven”, and in that event, whoever they are, they are already in heaven. It follows that this text is irrelevant to the occasion for this study.

The hinge

As a hinge to link the past to the present, I will now consider the two texts that refer to ‘false apostles’; they are 2 Corinthians 11:13 and Revelation 2:2.

2 Corinthians 11:12-15—“Further, I will keep on doing what I do in order to cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things of which they boast. <sup>13</sup>Such men are really false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into ‘apostles’ of Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>And no wonder, because Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>So it is no great thing if his servants also masquerade as ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.” It is well to remember that neither Satan nor his servants are in the habit of appearing with horns and tails. Just because someone ‘looks good’ does not mean that he is. We need spiritual discernment at all times. Note that Paul affirms that such people are Satan’s servants, and they evidently declared themselves to be ‘apostles’. In our day we have a veritable

<sup>a</sup> I consider that ‘secret’ is a better rendering than ‘mystery’. The truth about the Church is not all that mysterious; it just had not been explained before.

<sup>b</sup> There being no article with ‘spirit’, it could be either ‘by Spirit’ (used as a proper name) or ‘in spirit’ (referring to the manner). Both are true and legitimate, but I have chosen the first option in the translation.

<sup>c</sup> Instead of “saints and apostles”, a small minority of the Greek manuscripts has ‘holy apostles’, as in AV and NKJV.

<sup>d</sup> There have always been those who want to ‘get on the band-wagon’, to get a free ride; who traffic in spiritual things for personal, temporal advantage. Since such people only do damage, Paul’s desire to expose them stems from his concern for the Corinthians’ welfare.

plague of self-proclaimed ‘apostles’ (that I call ‘apustles’); now whom do you suppose they are serving?

Going back to the title of this study, when is an apostle? In Galatians 1:1 Paul affirms that his apostleship was “not from men nor through a man”, but through both the Father and the Son. Paul’s apostleship did not depend upon human ordination or recognition. So what about apostleship today? In Romans 1:1 Paul says he is a “called apostle”. I take the point to be that true apostles are not ordained by man; they are designated by God, who has a specific reason for doing so.<sup>a</sup> In the case of Paul, it was “to promote obedience of faith among all ethnic nations” (verse 5). Any genuine apostle will have a specific task to fulfil. Although God does not take back His gifts (Romans 11:29), a gift may be ignored (because the church’s doctrine does not allow it), or neglected (1 Timothy 4:14), and hence aborted. Far worse, even an apostle that Jesus chose personally can be ‘rejected’ (1 Corinthians 9:27). If Paul recognized the possibility for himself, how about all the ‘apostles’ in our day?

In Revelation 2:2 the glorified Christ is writing to the church in Ephesus: “I know your works, yes the labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot stand those who are evil. And you have tested those who claim to be apostles and are not, and found them to be liars.” The glorified Christ Himself declares that there are false apostles (and this at the close of the first century), and that the church in Ephesus knew how to test them.<sup>b</sup> Unfortunately, at least from my point of view, we are not told how they did it, the criteria that they used. There is one text that speaks of the ‘signs of an apostle’, 2 Corinthians 12:12. “Truly the apostolic signs were produced among you with all perseverance, by signs and wonders and miracles.”

Both Stephen and Philip, ‘mere’ deacons, performed miracles, but evidently that did not transform them into apostles. And then there are the words of Sovereign Jesus Himself in John 14:12. “Most assuredly I say to you,<sup>c</sup> the one believing into me, he too will do the works that I do; in fact he will do greater works than these,<sup>d</sup> because I am going to my Father.”

This is a tremendous statement, and not a little disconcerting. Notice that the Lord said, “will do”; not ‘maybe’, ‘perhaps’, ‘if you feel like it’; and certainly not ‘if the doctrine of your church permits it’! If you believe you will do! The verb ‘be-<sup>a</sup> It follows that there is no ‘apostolic succession’, since an apostle is not ‘ordained’ by men. There is only ‘discipolic’ succession.

<sup>b</sup> Is there not an implication here that there were also genuine apostles? If there were no such thing as an apostle, there could be no candidates, and hence no need for criteria. When John wrote this he was the last survivor of the Twelve (also Paul), and he himself would soon die.

<sup>c</sup> “Most assuredly” is actually “amen, amen”—rendered “verily, verily” in the AV. Only John registers the word as repeated, in the other Gospels it is just “amen”. In the contemporary literature we have no example of anyone else using the word in this way. It seems that Jesus coined His own use, and the point seems to be to call attention to an important pronouncement: “Stop and listen!” Often it precedes a formal statement of doctrine or policy, as here.

<sup>d</sup> Well now, if we cast out demons, heal and perform miracles, isn’t that enough? Jesus wants more, He wants “greater things” than those just mentioned. Notice again that He said “will do”, not maybe, perhaps, or if your church permits. But what could be ‘greater’ than miracles? This can’t refer to modern technology because in that event such ‘greater things’ would not have been available to the believers during the first 1900 years. Note that the key is in the Lord’s final statement (in verse 12), “because I am going to my Father.” Only if He won could He return to the Father, so He is here declaring His victory before the fact. It is on the basis of that victory that the ‘greater things’ can be performed. Just what are those ‘greater’ things? For my answer, see my outline, “Biblical Spiritual Warfare”, available from www.prunch.org.

lieve' is in the present tense, 2nd person singular; if you (sg) are believing you will do; it follows that if you are not doing, it is because you are not believing.  $2 + 2 = 4$ . Doing what? "The works that I do." Well, Jesus preached the Gospel, He taught, He cast out demons, He healed all sorts and sizes of sickness and disease, He raised an occasional dead person, and He performed a variety of miracles (water to wine, walk on water, stop a storm instantaneously, transport a boat several miles instantaneously, multiply food, shrivel a tree—and He implied that the disciples should have stopped the storm and multiplied the food, and He stated that they could shrivel a tree [Peter actually took a few steps on water]). So how about us? The preaching and teaching we can handle, but what about the rest? I once heard the president of a certain Christian college affirm that this verse obviously could not mean what it says because it isn't happening! Well, in his own experience, and in that of his associates (cessationists all), I guess it isn't. But many people today cast out demons and heal, and I personally know someone who has raised a dead person. Miracles are also happening. So how about me? And you? But to get back to the 'signs of an apostle', if all of us are supposed to be producing miracles, that does not make us all apostles, so there must be further criteria. (Please notice the 'further', I am not denying the 'signs'.)

I suggest that we must consider the matter of spiritual authority, and I begin with 2 Corinthians 10:8 and 13:10. 10:8 reads like this: "Now even if I boast a little to excess about our authority (which the Lord gave us for building up, not to tear you down),..." 13:10 reads like this: "This is why I write these things while absent, so that when present I may not have to deal harshly, according to the authority that the Lord gave me, for building up and not tearing down." In both verses Paul states that the authority is for building up, not tearing down, although his mention of harsh dealing indicates that such may be included in the process, as circumstance may require. (In fact, on at least two occasions, Paul actually turned someone over to Satan!—1 Corinthians 5:5 and 1 Timothy 1:20.)

Is this not what we are to understand from 1 Timothy 1:3? "You recall that I urged you to remain in Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, in order that you should command certain persons to stop teaching a different doctrine..." Now the church was well established in Ephesus, yet Timothy had authority to command; I suppose that Paul designated him as his deputy. And what about 1 Timothy 5:19-20? "Do not entertain an accusation against an elder except on the basis of two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>Those who are sinning rebuke publicly, so that the rest also may be in fear." Evidently Timothy had authority over the elders, being competent to rebuke them publicly.

Now consider Jeremiah 1:10—"See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant." Of course this was before the Church, but there is a principle here that remains valid. If you plan to build on a site that is covered with ruins and rubble, where must you start? You must remove the wreckage. If God sent you to the church in Laodicea (Revelation 3:14-19), to try to straighten it out, where would you have to start? You might have to depose the leaders, as well as denounce the error. Presumably, also, you would have to be able to establish your authority over them. In Timothy's case, Paul presumably took care of that.

Something similar happened with Titus; consider: "I left you in Crete for this reason, that you should set in order the things that were lacking and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you" (1:5). "Because there really are lots of rebels, loudmouths and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group, who must be silenced" (1:10-11). "Speak these things, whether you exhort or reprove, with all authority" (2:15). If Titus was to appoint elders, he evidently had authority over them. And to silence 'rebels' evidently requires authority. Now then, does anyone imagine that such situations, requiring apostolic authority, ceased to exist in 100 AD? History records no lack of such situations, and far worse, down through the centuries and millennia. In our day the degree of perversity in the churches is such that I don't know how God can stand the stench! We desperately need people with apostolic authority who are prepared to function.

But to get back to the Text, consider Ephesians 4:11-13—"Yes, He Himself gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers,<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>for the equipping of the saints into the work of the ministry, so as to build up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup>until we all attain into the unity of the faith and of the real knowledge of the Son of God, into a complete man, into the resulting full stature of Christ." If verses 12 and 13 are still being worked on, then the apostles, etc. are still necessary. Verse 13 emphasizes the truth in verse 12—every believer is supposed to grow into full stature. Just because we do not reach a goal does not invalidate that goal. I would say that one of the principal causes for the lamentable spiritual condition of most churches is the total lack of the apostolic function among us—itinerant, acting as God's special emissary, an official intervener, for disciplinary and correctional purposes. The idea of Christian or ministerial 'ethics', where one must not criticize a neighbor, is clearly designed to silence any prophetic or apostolic voice. It is designed to protect error.

<sup>a</sup> One might imagine that this list follows the chronological sequence of the several ministries. An apostle introduces the Gospel into an area or context; a prophet gets the people's attention and an evangelist urges them to believe; but once people are regenerated then pastors and teachers come to the fore—they are the ones who equip the saints. However, in practice, especially in a pioneer missionary situation, there are seldom that many people around. The missionary preaches the Gospel and it is up to him to teach the first converts; he is alone. A pioneer missionary, the first one to introduce the Gospel to an ethnic group or area, has an apostolic function (whether or not he himself is an apostle). But he must also function as an evangelist and as a teacher (whether or not he has those gifts).

However, most of us live and work where there are established, functioning congregations. So what would be the function of an apostle within an established, functioning congregation? If he lives and worships in that community, probably none at all, in that specific capacity—he might function as a teacher or a prophet. In a country, or area, where there is no more pioneer missionary work to be done, the exercise of the apostolic function would be itinerant, acting as God's special emissary, an official intervener, for disciplinary and correctional purposes.

I will take up evangelist next; what would his function be within an established congregation? Well, can you evangelize someone who is already regenerated? Evidently the function of an evangelist is directed to unbelievers, who should not be members of the congregation (although some often are). Of course an evangelist might also function as a pastor or teacher. A truly gifted evangelist will function beyond the limits of a local congregation.

As for the prophetic function, I will address the question of supernatural revelation of information not available through existing channels. (1 Corinthians 14:3 speaks of 'edification', 'exhortation' and 'comfort' as coming from a prophet, but I will not take up such activity here.) We understand that the Canon of Scripture is closed; God is no longer giving written revelation that is of general or universal application. But that does not mean that God no longer speaks into specific situations. Divine guidance is a type of prophecy; He is giving information not otherwise available. I myself have been contemplated with a prophecy delivered by someone who had no idea who I was, and not in the context of a local congregation. The function of a true prophet cannot be limited to one congregation. Indeed, God may use a prophet at city, state or country level. Our world desperately needs prophetic voices.

A teacher will normally reside in a specific community, but his ministry may range beyond it. A pastor's function is local, just as he is chosen and ordained locally. It is simply a fact of life that someone with a shepherd's heart is not necessarily a good teacher, and an honest to goodness teacher often lacks a shepherd's heart. The functions are supposed to be complementary, and the object is to get all true believers involved in the work of the ministry. Life in Christ is not a spectator sport!

Now consider 1 Corinthians 12:27-31—"Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. <sup>28</sup>And those whom God has appointed in the Church are: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; after that miracles, then presents of healings, helps, administrations, kinds of languages. <sup>29</sup>All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not miracle workers, are they? <sup>30</sup>All do not have presents of healings, do they? All do not speak languages, do they? All do not interpret, do they?<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the best gifts."

It should be observed that the terminology here is clearly hierarchical: '1st, 2nd, 3rd, then, then,...' (similar lists in other places lack this terminology) [the Kingdom of God is not a democracy]. Next, if God has appointed these functions, there must be a good reason for them, and to deliberately exclude any of them is to go against God. Here in Brazil, with a few exceptions, the churches have no place for a true teacher; they simply are not allowed. The consequences are not pretty.

Presumably even the most ardent 'cessationist' will grant that "teachers", "helps" and "administrations" are still around. But this letter was written around 55 AD, well into the Church Age, therefore. Why would God "appoint in the Church" things that would be extinguished in a few decades. If miracles come "after" teachers, how can miracles be gone if teachers are still here? We have the command to "earnestly desire the best gifts", so which ones are the best? Presumably those at the top of the hierarchical list. Why would God command us to earnestly desire a gift like apostleship, if He was going to extinguish it before the end of the first century? In such an event the command would be meaningless for the last 1900 years!

The present

Somewhere along the line, I heard this: 'the status quo' is Latin for 'the mess we're in'. Whether Latin or English, I imagine that most of us would agree that the world is in a bad way, and that is at least partly because the Church is in a bad way. By and large, 'Christians' have ceased to be salt and light in the surrounding culture (Matthew 5:13-16); they are part of the problem, rather than part of the solution. As I have already opined, the lamentable spiritual condition of most churches is a direct result of the total lack of the apostolic function among us. It would appear that that 'lack' began early on.

In the writings of the 'church fathers' that have come down to us, there appears to be no mention of 'apostles' after the first century. Already in the second century, the concept of a 'bishop' came into being, an elder having authority over <sup>a</sup> The Greek grammar of verses 29 and 30 is plain: no gift is given to everybody—not everyone is an apostle and not everyone speaks languages. Those churches that teach that speaking in tongues is the necessary sign of being 'baptized in the Spirit' (and until you are 'baptized' you are a 2nd class citizen, if a citizen at all), have done untold damage to their people. Since the Holy Spirit simply does not give 'tongues' to everybody, those who do not get it are out in the cold. But the social pressure is intolerable, so many end up faking it. Since many of the leaders are also faking it, the social problem is solved; the person is 'in'. But since Satan is the source of all lies, someone who fakes it is living a lie and invites Satan into his life. I have been in many Pentecostal, neo-pentecostal, charismatic, whatever churches and have heard thousands of people 'speaking in tongues'—a large majority were faking it, while a few were speaking a real language, but under demonic control. (I am a linguist, PhD, and can tell when I am listening to a real language, even though I don't understand it, because real language has structure. To know whether or not a language is demonic requires spiritual discernment.) A church that teaches a lie invites Satan into the church, and he does not hesitate. Of course some had the genuine gift.

other elders in a given area—so a ‘bishop’ could exercise the apostolic function within his area (but all too often the bishop became part of the problem, since bishops were not chosen by God). It did not take long before the ‘bishop of Rome’ started to claim authority over other ‘bishops’, and then there were archbishops, and so on. If I am correct in defining the apostolic function as someone ‘acting as God’s special emissary, an official intervener, for disciplinary and correctional purposes’, and if there has been a general lack of this function for 1900 years, then we should not be surprised at the ‘status quo’.

In our day we have denominations, defined by different doctrinal and procedural ‘packages’, and there is no end of splitting within such denominations. Here in Brazil we have at least five ‘Baptist’ denominations, four ‘Presbyterian’ ones, and no end of ‘Assemblies of God’, plus any number of ‘independent’ ones. We have literally thousands of self-proclaimed ‘apustles’; everywhere you turn there is an ‘apostolic ministry’. It is a generalized ego trip; no one wants to be left behind, or to appear inferior to his neighbor. They are building private empires, and fleecing the sheep in the process. I am not aware of any theological seminary in this country that teaches the students how to study the Bible, and much less how to expound it; expository preaching is almost nonexistent. In consequence, the variety of abject stupidities promulgated from the pulpits appears to be without end, doing ever increasing damage to the hearers. I am not aware of any denomination here where the biblical Text has objective authority.

But it gets worse. We actually have self-proclaimed ‘apostles’ who pontificate like this: “I am an apostle on a level with Peter or Paul, so I can disagree with them; I can change what the Bible says.” And they do; they reject plain biblical teaching and impose their own ideas on their flocks. It should be evident to any true subject of Sovereign Jesus that all such ‘apustles’ are in the service of Satan. We have already noted Ephesians 2:20, God’s household is “built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone.” 1 Corinthians 3:11 says that “no one can lay any foundation other than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.” And Revelation 21:14 informs us that the foundations of the New Jerusalem are “the twelve apostles of the Lamb”. No pipsqueak ‘apustle’ of our day is competent to alter the Sacred Text—they obviously do not believe what the glorified Christ said in Revelation 22:18-19.

To someone who intends to be totally committed to Christ and His Kingdom, the following question is obvious and necessary: What can be done to remedy, to correct the calamitous reality I have described? We must cry out to God to raise up true apostles; but this raises another question: How is an apostle to be recognized, and how can he establish his authority so as to be able to bring about necessary changes in actual situations? I see only one way, the use of supernatural power; and that power must be used to clear out wreckage before it can be used to build. I see a difference between a prophet and an apostle in this connection: a prophet warns; an apostle inflicts. In Acts 5 Peter simply executed Ananias and Sapphira, without warning and without chance for repentance. In Acts 13 Paul inflicted blindness on the sorcerer Elymas, again without ado.

It should be obvious that anyone who starts functioning in this way will promptly be declared to be ‘public enemy number one’. Any and all leaders who are serving Satan will do all in their power to eliminate a true apostle, because of the threat to them personally and to the perverse structures they have created and maintained. It will be all out war. I am reminded of 1 Corinthians 4:11-13—“To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty; we are poorly dressed, brutally treated, and wander homeless; <sup>12</sup>yes, we labor, working with our own hands. Upon being reviled, we bless; upon being persecuted, we endure it; <sup>13</sup>upon being slandered, we exhort. We have been made as the refuse of the world, the off-scouring of whatever, to this moment.” Well now, how many of the plague of self-styled ‘apostles’ in our day would maintain their pretensions if they had to experience the conditions described above? They would run and hide.

We need to understand what Paul is saying here. To be looked down on and criticized by believers among whom one has labored is one thing. Local people with personal ambition know how to do that. For God to make us “as the refuse of the world” is something very different. How should we understand this? If we insist on proclaiming a ‘gospel’ that the world considers to be stupid, abject foolishness, we will certainly be ridiculed. But if we insist on biblical values that the world has declared to be ‘hate crimes’, we will certainly be hated and persecuted, treated as refuse. The choice of Hebrews 13:13 is upon us: “So then, let us go out to Him, outside the camp, bearing His disgrace.” The above applies to any true subject of Sovereign Jesus, but any true apostle will be the target of the total fury of the religious leaders as well. In short, to be an apostle is not for the faint-hearted.

And now please consider 2 Thessalonians 2:8-12, noting especially verses 10 and 11. “And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and abolish by the splendor of His coming; <sup>9</sup>that one’s coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all wicked deception among those who are wasting themselves, because they did not receive the love of the truth<sup>a</sup> so that they might be saved.<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>Yes, because of this God will send them an active delusion so that they will believe the lie<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>and so that all may be condemned who have not believed the truth but have taken pleasure in wickedness.”<sup>d</sup> Notice the sequence: first they reject the love of the truth; it is as a consequence of that choice that God sends the delusion. The implication is that there is a point of no return; God sends the delusion so that they may be condemned. The only intelligent choice is to embrace the truth!

Consider with me the consequences of the facts enunciated in verses 10-12 for a whole nation, like Brazil, where I now live. We have many thousands of local churches that call themselves Christian. But I know of almost none that could be characterized as ‘loving the truth’. No one wants a Bible with objective authority. Humanistic, relativistic, materialistic values have taken over the churches. Biblical values are no longer acceptable. In consequence, Satan has control of the government, of education, of health services, of commerce, of the entertainment industry, in short, of the whole culture. The churches that have rejected biblical val-

<sup>a</sup> The use of the verb ‘receive’ clearly implies an act of volition on their part; that love was offered or made available to them but they did not want it; they wanted to be able to lie and to entertain lies told by others. But the consequences of such a choice are terrible; they turned their back on salvation.

<sup>b</sup> Since there are only two spiritual kingdoms in this world, that of Sovereign Jesus and that of Satan, “those who are wasting themselves”, in this text, are still in Satan’s kingdom and therefore wide open to his “wicked deception”. The Text states plainly that they are wasting themselves “because they did not receive the love of the truth so that they might be saved”. They are not saved.

<sup>c</sup> Perhaps “the lie” is best illustrated in our day by the theory of evolution: ‘There is no Creator’—so there will not be any accounting; so you can do what you feel like. How terrible will be the awakening!

<sup>d</sup> “Taking pleasure in wickedness” involves rejecting the Truth of a moral Creator who will demand an accounting, or even overt rebellion against that Creator (like Lucifer/Satan).

ues are part of the problem—since they have rejected “the love of the truth”, they have been taken over by “active delusion”.

Note that God Himself sends that delusion with the declared objective of condemning all those who believed the lie. If God Himself visits “active delusion” upon a whole country, what possible escape is there? The only possible ‘medicine’ is “the love of the truth”. Those of us who consider ourselves to be true subjects of Sovereign Jesus need to appeal to Him to show us how to promote the love of the truth to the churches and to the society at large. Here in Brazil it may be too late, but if God’s grace still offers us a window of opportunity, we must devote ourselves to promoting the love of the truth by all possible means. I imagine that the most effective means would be the exercise of the apostolic function, and that at more than one level. I am thinking of the following: local congregations, whole denominations, and the various levels of civil government. Dear God, please send us apostles!

69) Where is Mt. Sinai?

I invite attention to Galatians 4:25, that declares that Mt. Sinai is in Arabia: I don’t know Paul’s definition of ‘Arabia’, but what the maps call ‘Mt. Sinai’ probably is not the real one;<sup>a</sup> consider: When Moses fled from Pharaoh he stopped in Midian (Exodus 2:15). Midian lies on the east side of the eastern ‘rabbit-ear’ of the Red Sea (the Gulf of Aqaba), in present day Saudi Arabia. It has never been part of the so-called ‘Sinai Peninsula’. It was at “Horeb, the mountain of God” that Moses saw the ‘burning bush’ (Exodus 3:1), and in verse 12 God tells Moses: “when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain”. Mt. Horeb has always been in Midian. (Present day Saudi Arabia calls it ‘el Lowz’, and has it fenced off.) As God continues with Moses’ commission, He specifies “three days’ journey into the wilderness” (verse 18). According to Exodus 4:27 Aaron met Moses at “the mountain of God” (Horeb, in Midian), and they went together to Egypt.

When the people left Egypt, God led them on a forced march; notice the “so as to go by day and night” (Exodus 13:21). Three days of forced march (Exodus 3:18) would have gotten them close to Ezion Geber (present day Elath), and just another two days would have put them well into Midian. But then God told them to “turn back” and “encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon” (Exodus 14:2). To do this they had to leave the established route from Egypt to Arabia, and head south into the wilderness, and this led Pharaoh to conclude that they had lost their way (obviously he would have spies following them, mounted on good horses, to keep him informed). It would have been simply impossible for them to lose their way between Goshen and the western arm of the Red Sea (the Gulf of Suez), but this is what those who place Mt. Sinai in today’s ‘Sinai Peninsula’ are obliged to say—an evident stupidity. The Israelites would have hunted and explored all over that area, down through the years. (And why the chariots? Pharaoh could have surrounded them with foot soldiers.)

<sup>a</sup> The difficulty here is not in the Text itself, but in the circumstance that almost all modern maps, whether in Bibles or elsewhere, place Mt. Sinai in the peninsula between the two gulfs, Suez and Aqaba; so much so that the peninsula itself is even so named. But such a location for the mount makes the Biblical account out to be ridiculous, as I explain below, and an inspired Text should not be ridiculous.

God led them down a ravine called ‘Wadi Watir’ which comes out on a surprisingly large beach called ‘Nuweiba’ (it is the only beach on that gulf large enough to accommodate that crowd of people and animals). Most of the Gulf of Aqaba is many hundreds of feet deep, with sheer sides, but precisely at Nuweiba there is a land bridge not far below the surface that goes from shore to shore, the width of the gulf at that point being close to 10 miles—the width of the land bridge is several hundred yards, so there was an ample ‘causeway’ for the crossing. The ravine that opens out on Nuweiba is narrow, with steep sides, so when God moved the pillar of cloud to the mouth of the ravine, Pharaoh and his chariots were blocked. They could not pass the pillar, they could not climb the sides of the ravine with chariots, and with over six hundred chariots in a narrow ravine they would have a proper ‘gridlock’ (lots of unhappy horses!). I suppose that God removed the pillar of cloud while part of the crowd was still on the land bridge, which encouraged Pharaoh to chase after them; and we know the rest of the story. If God let them get out to the middle, they would be five miles from either shore, too far for most people to swim.<sup>a</sup> I take it that God’s purpose was to destroy the Egyptian army so it could not be a threat to Israel in the early years.

70) Where to place a ‘comma’

Acts 12:25

Since Acts was written at least two years after Paul arrived in Rome in chains, it would not have been ‘published’ until into the 60s. When Jerusalem was destroyed in 70, it disappeared from the Christian map for centuries—the center of gravity of the Church was now Asia Minor. Although Luke himself was no doubt very fluent in Greek, for most Christians in Asia Minor it would be a second language. If this was also true of most people who made copies of NT books (especially in the early decades), and since those books were written without punctuation (or even spaces between words), it was predictable that now and again someone would put a ‘comma’ in the wrong spot. I imagine that it would have been just such an event that gave rise to the peculiar set of variants that we encounter in Acts 12:25.

Throughout the NT there are numerous places where there is a more or less serious split within Family 35, with two competing readings (usually involving just one letter). But this is the only place (yes, only) in the whole NT where the family splinters—there are no fewer than seven variants, five of them being of some consequence.

Instead of “Barnabas and Saul returned to Antioch, having fulfilled their mission,” someone (or several someones) put the comma after ‘returned’, resulting in “Barnabas and Saul returned, having fulfilled their mission to Antioch”—but with that punctuation ‘Antioch’ must be changed to ‘Jerusalem’. (Having done that, we have two ways of saying essentially the same thing—if you get the ‘comma’ right!) Following that hypothesis, that change must have occurred rather early on, and in circumstances that resulted in that change dominating the transmission of Acts down through the years. To see what I mean we need to have the evidence before us:

| 7) υπεστρεψαν εις ιερουσαλημ εις αντιοχειαν | (f <sup>35</sup> =1.3%) (0.6%) [not a conflation, being nonsense; the copyist was aware of both, and didn't know how to choose] |

It is evident that variants 2) - 5) were created deliberately; the copyists were reacting to the meaning of the whole phrase within the context (in this situation it will not do to consider the name of each city in isolation; the accompanying preposition must also be taken into account). But they were reacting to variant 6), not variant 1). However, once they were created, and as they became exemplars, those who made copies would see no problem and simply reproduce what was in front of them [so we may not add the percentages for 2) - 6) and say that Jerusalem has over 90% of the vote]. Having myself collated at least one book in over 70 MSS (and over ten entire MSS), I have observed repeatedly that the copyist faithfully reproduced a nonsensical reading—either they weren't paying attention, or their respect for the Text was such that they did not venture to change it (or in later years the monks may have been instructed to not make changes, precisely to preserve the variety of readings that had come down to them [their superiors may not have felt that they had the competence to choose one form to the exclusion of others])—so the 60% does not mean that all those copyists agreed with what they copied, or even that they understood it.

Since the normal meaning of the syntax here is the first one (they returned to Antioch), and since both the Holy Spirit and Luke knew how to write good Greek (Koine), my presuppositions lead me to choose it. But it is not only my presuppositions; consider:

- a) Acts 11:30, ο και εποησαν αποστειλαντες, “which they also did, having sent... by B. & S.” An aorist participle is prior in time to its main verb, in this case also aorist—their purpose is stated to have been realized. The author clearly implies that the offering did arrive, or had arrived, in Judea/Jerusalem. [In Acts the author seems almost to use “Jerusalem” and “Judea” interchangeably, perhaps to avoid repetition. E.g.: 11:1 Judea, 11:2 Jerusalem (were the apostles not in Jerusalem, or immediate environs?); 11:27 Jerusalem, 11:29 Judea, 11:30 the elders (would not the ruling elders be in Jerusalem?); 12:1-19 took place in Jerusalem, but v. 19 says Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea; 15:1 Judea, 15:2 Jerusalem; 28:21 letters from “Judea” probably means Jerusalem.] Note that the next verse (12:1) places us in Jerusalem.
- b) Acts 12:25 (12:1-24 is unrelated, except that verses 1-19 take place in Jerusalem), βαρναβας και σαυλος—the action includes both.
- c) Acts 12:25, υπεστρεψαν... πληρωσαντες την διακονιαν, “they returned... having fulfilled the mission.” Again, both the participle and the main verb are aorist, and both plural. “Having fulfilled the mission” defines the main verb. Since the mission was to Judea, which of necessity includes Jerusalem as its capital city, the ‘returning’ must be to the place where the mission originated.

- d) Acts 12:25, “also taking with them John, the one called Mark”—we have no record that John Mark had ever been in Antioch before this, so how could he return to Jerusalem if he was already there? Acts 13:13 raises the same question.

Barnabas could be viewed as returning to Jerusalem, having completed his mission to Antioch, but this could not be said of Saul. I conclude that ‘to Jerusalem’ cannot be correct here even though attested by 60% of the MSS. We observe that the other 40% of the MSS, plus the three ancient versions, are agreed that the motion was away from Jerusalem, not toward it. It seems to me that there is only one way to ‘save’ the majority variant here: place a comma between υπεστρεψαν and εις, thereby making ‘to Jerusalem’ modify ‘the ministry’. (This was my opening hypothesis.) But such a construction is unnatural to the point of being unacceptable—had that been the author’s purpose we should expect την εις ιερουσαλημ διακονιαν or την διακονιαν εις ιερουσαλημ (assuming that both the Holy Spirit and Luke were good at Greek). The other sixteen times that Luke uses υποστρεφω εις we find the normal, expected meaning, ‘return to’. As a linguist (PhD) I would say that the norms of language require us to use the same meaning in Acts 12:25. Which to my mind leaves εις αντιοχειαν as the only viable candidate for the Original reading in this place. (Which, however, would not prevent copyists who were not native speakers of Greek from putting the ‘comma’ in the wrong spot.)

The whole contour of the evidence is troubling, strange, and as I have already observed, it is absolutely the only place in the whole NT where Family 35 splinters. Variants 1) through 5) are all votes against 6), but we must choose one of them to stand against 6)—the clear choice is 1). “To Jerusalem” has ‘Number’, ‘Antiquity’ and ‘Continuity’. “To Antioch” has ‘Antiquity’, ‘Variety’, ‘Continuity’ and ‘Reasonableness’. As Burgon would say, this is one of those places where ‘Reasonableness’ just cannot be ignored. I believe he would agree that his ‘notes of truth’ give the nod to Antioch.

71) Who bought what from whom, and where?

Stephen X Genesis

Acts 7:15-16—“So Jacob went down to Egypt; and he died, he and our fathers; and they were transferred to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor of Shechem.”

When we compare this text with the relevant passages in Genesis, we appear to be confronted with some discrepancies. Who bought what from whom, and where? Genesis 33:19 informs us that Jacob bought a plot from Hamor, in Shechem. On the other hand, Genesis 23:16-20 explains that Abraham bought an area that included the cave of Machpelah from Ephron, in Hebron. That cave became the sepulcher of Abraham and Sarah, of Isaac and Rebecca, and of Jacob and Lea, because Jacob insisted upon being buried there, as indeed he was (Genesis 49:29-30, 50:13). Looking again at Acts 7, it was ‘our fathers’ that were buried in Shechem, not Jacob. Indeed, Joshua 24:32 states explicitly that Joseph’s bones were buried in Shechem.

Yes but, whenever did Abraham buy anything in Shechem? I believe Genesis 12:6-7 gives us the clue. Abraham stopped in Shechem and built an altar. Now then, to build on someone else's property, with that someone looking on, probably won't work very well. I believe we may reasonably deduce that Abraham bought a plot "from the sons of Hamor of Shechem." The 'Hamor' of Jacob's day would be a descendant of the 'Hamor' in Abraham's (sons were often named after their fathers). In Genesis 14:14 we read that Abraham "armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house." If we add women and children, the total number of people under Abraham's command was probably over a thousand. Well now, with such a crowd it is not at all unlikely that someone died while they were stopped at Shechem. (People older than Abraham would not have been 'born in his own house', but there were doubtless older persons in that crowd.) In that event Abraham would need space for a cemetery, if the plot he had already bought for the altar wasn't big enough, or appropriate. That sort of information may have been available to Stephen from an extra-biblical document, or he may have figured it out as I have done (in his case guided by the Holy Spirit—Acts 7:55).

Going back to Genesis 33:19, it is possible that Jacob increased the area that Abraham had bought, by purchase. But why were all of Jacob's sons buried in Shechem? I believe the answer lies in Genesis 34:27-29. We read that Jacob's sons killed all the men of Shechem, looted everything, but kept the women and children. And what do you suppose they did with the women? So where did you think they found wives for so many men? They got them from Shechem. Since Shechem was the source of their wives and material possessions, it would be a natural place for them to be buried.

To conclude: there is no discrepancy. Both Abraham and Jacob bought land in Shechem. It was Jacob's sons who were buried there, not Jacob himself.

72) Who said what?

Matthew 27:48-49 X Mark 15:36 X John 19:29-30 (Luke 23:36)

I take it that the action in John 19:29, as well as Luke 23:36, was carried out by soldiers, and should not be confused with that recorded in Matthew and Mark, although all four refer to offering Jesus sour wine to drink (since Jesus was on the cross for some six hours, there was time for several drinks). The seeming discrepancy I wish to address is in Matthew and Mark. In the NKJV, Matthew 27:48-49 reads like this: "Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink. The rest said, 'Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him'." A single man offers the drink, but the rest say, "Let Him alone,..." And Mark 15:36 reads like this: "Then someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, 'Let Him alone;...'" A single man offers the drink, and he says, "Let Him alone,..." I would not be surprised if the man involved here was John Mark himself. But whoever he was, if he knew Hebrew he knew perfectly well that Jesus was not calling Elijah, so he sarcastically repeats their statement, in disgust. I deny any discrepancy.

73) Why would God kill Moses?

In Exodus 4:24-26 we have a drastically abbreviated account of an episode that occurred when Moses started back to Egypt to rescue the Israelites. It is so abbreviated that readers down through the centuries have been puzzled by it. It is necessary to analyze the larger context, all relevant considerations.

We must go back to Genesis 17:9-14, where God imposed circumcision as the 'sign of the covenant' between Himself and Abraham, and his descendants. Especially to the point is verse 14; the uncircumcised male "shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant." In ordinary English, he was to be executed; the penalty was death.

Moses had certainly been circumcised by his parents on the eighth day, but at three months he was adopted by Pharaoh's daughter and was brought up as an Egyptian. Well, not quite; the baby was returned to his mother to be nursed, and we are not told his exact age when he was taken back to Pharaoh's daughter. So we don't know how much his parents may have taught him. In any case, all his schooling was Egyptian. However, he obviously knew where he came from and had made it his business to learn about the Israelites. "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel" (Acts 7:23).

Moses was forty years old when he fled to Midian and married one of Jethro's<sup>a</sup> daughters, Zipporah, and had two sons by her. After another forty years (Moses is now eighty), God appears to him at the burning bush and commissions him to return to Egypt and deliver the Israelites. So Moses sets out, taking 'his wife and his sons' (Exodus 4:20). However, Moses' sons had not been circumcised!

Well now, Moses certainly knew about circumcision, and may even have tried to circumcise his sons, but Zipporah, not an Israelite, evidently stamped her foot and said "No way!" From her reaction (Exodus 4:25), it seems clear that at least part of the fault was hers, and she knew it. And Moses did not insist. But now Moses has been commissioned to lead the people of the covenant, but he himself had not kept the covenant! According to Genesis 17:14, it was the sons who should have been killed, but Moses, the father, was the one at fault for not having circumcised them when they were eight days old. By now they were doubtless grown men (when the procedure is far more painful).

God evidently determined that the situation had to be corrected, and the means He chose was dramatic! The Text does not tell us what form God used to make His presence known, or just what He did to Moses, but the man evidently was immobilized, because the woman had to perform the operation. Obviously there was a conversation, which is why Zipporah knew what she had to do. She was not happy, but she obeyed. The grown sons had to cooperate as well. Verse 25 has 'son' (singular), but presumably both had to be circumcised. Verse 26 begins by saying that then God let Moses go, which He presumably would not have done until the condition was met. Note that she used a stone (flint), and Joshua 5:2 speaks of 'flint knives'. Iron rusts and can carry tetanus, so a stone knife was definitely safer.

As a side benefit of this episode, Moses evidently sent his wife and sons back to Jethro. Then he met Aaron at Mt. Horeb and the two went on to Egypt. I say 'benefit' because the following days and weeks would be very intense, and Moses was free from domestic concerns. Exodus 18:2 states plainly that Moses had sent his wife back, and verse 5 says that Jethro took Zipporah and the two sons to Moses at Horeb. So at that point the family was finally together again. (This is the last mention of the sons, except in Chronicles—their main claim to fame was a negative one.)

74) “You feed them!”

Mark 6:37

“You feed them!” Really now, did you ever really stop to think about that? Just tell me please, what with? How could the disciples obey that command?

Let us pause and recall the scene. The Sacred Text affirms that there were about five thousand men, without counting the women and children. Now then, whenever you see a crowd of people, what is there usually the most of—is it not women and children? In other words, I suppose that crowd was made up of at least 15,000 people. Okay, now try to imagine that you are one of those twelve disciples and you have just heard the Master say: “You feed them!” Now what? Did the disciples have anything? As a matter of fact, no. They had neither money (which would not have helped much since they were a long way from town) nor food. Even the five loaves and two fish belonged to somebody else.

Can it be that Jesus was playing a joke on them, or was He serious? I do not know, but I prefer to think that He would not make a joke out of such a situation. But if He was serious, how could the disciples obey? Only with a miracle. In fact, they could not see a solution and gave the problem back to Jesus to solve; which He did. But did Jesus Himself hand the bread and fish to the crowd? No. Let us think about that scene a little more and we will see that the disciples still had to exercise faith.

The Record affirms that they all ate until they were “full” or “satisfied”. It was not just a little something to tide them over. Have you ever considered how much bread and fish it would take to “fill” 15,000 people (who had gone without lunch)? It seems to me certain that when Jesus blessed and broke those loaves and fish there was not an instant multiplication, such that there was enough for everybody; the tremendous pile would have buried Jesus, the disciples and the closest of the people! Really. Just stop and think about it. It must not have been instantaneous. When Jesus placed some bread and fish in the hands of each disciple that was all there was, up to that moment.

Now then, try to imagine that you are one of those disciples with a handful of bread and fish, and you have to feed at least a thousand people (12 disciples and 15,000 people). Can you picture it? Wouldn’t you feel just a little ridiculous taking that first step toward the crowd? Somehow the disciples find the courage and approach the people. The first one helps himself and, wonder of wonders, the supply is undiminished! The second one helps himself and the supply is unchanged. It was never used up—as they went around distributing, the food kept multiplying (to have twelve bushels of leftovers, the people were also involved in passing it on). If they had tired and stopped in the middle, half the people would have stayed hungry. If the disciples had decided to eat first, I rather imagine that the miracle would have been frustrated and the crowd would have gone hungry. The disciples ate last, but they ate very well, thank you very much! (Have you ever tried eating a bushel of bread?)

I tend to smile, thinking about that picture, until I remember that the Lord Jesus is still telling us: “You give them something to eat”—only this time it is no less than 2,000 ethnic groups and 2.5 billion people perishing from an absolute lack of the Bread of Life. And we, like the disciples, say, “With what, Lord?” As long as we are looking at our empty hands, we will not find the courage to face the challenge of the lost world. It does not depend on our empty hands, it depends on Jesus’ full hands! It does not depend on our weakness and smallness, it depends on Jesus, on what He has and can do. We have to learn how to collaborate with God, and actually do it. In short, we need to understand how God’s economy works.
